

लाल बहादुर शास्त्री राष्ट्रीय प्रशासन अकादमी

L.B.S. National Academy of Administration

मसूरी
MUSSOORIE

पुस्तकालय
LIBRARY

अवाप्ति संख्या

Accession No.

— 101013

~~JD 785~~

वर्ग संख्या

Class No.

220

पुस्तक संख्या

Book No.

Hol

GL 220

HOL

101013
LBSNAA

The
HOLY BIBLE

The Berkeley Version
IN MODERN ENGLISH

The HOLY BIBLE

The Berkeley Version IN MODERN ENGLISH

CONTAINING THE OLD AND NEW TESTAMENTS

TRANSLATED AFRESH FROM THE ORIGINAL LANGUAGES AND DILIGENTLY COMPARED WITH PREVIOUS TRANSLATIONS WITH NUMEROUS HELPFUL NON-DOCTRINAL NOTES TO AID THE UNDERSTANDING OF THE READER

GERRIT VERKUYL, PH.D., EDITOR-IN-CHIEF AND TRANSLATOR OF NEW TESTAMENT SECTION

ZONDERVAN PUBLISHING HOUSE
GRAND RAPIDS, MICHIGAN

THE HOLY BIBLE
THE BERKELEY VERSION

A New Translation into Modern English
— WITH NOTES —

Entire contents Copyright by Zondervan Publishing House

New Testament section Copyright 1945 by Gerrit Verkuyl; assigned to Zondervan Publishing House 1958

Old Testament section Copyright 1959 by Zondervan Publishing House

ALL RIGHTS RESERVED, INCLUDING THAT OF TRANSLATION

Sixth Printing, 1963

PRINTED IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

PREFACE

This is not just another revision; it is a completely new translation. We have turned to the original languages of both Testaments, assured that "holy men from God spoke as they were carried along by the Holy Spirit." Neither is this a paraphrase, for that leads so readily to the infusion of human thought with divine revelation, to the confusion of the reader. Instead of paraphrasing, we offer brief notes, related to, but apart from, the inspired writings, to clarify and to give a sharper view of the message.

Throughout both Testaments we employ our language according to its choicest current usage. Even mention of weights, measures and monetary values is made in modern terms, so that the reader does not need to be a linguist to understand the information.

As far as feasible, this is a complete translation. The skilled and faithful plowman turns over every inch of soil his plow can reach. So the Bible translator must leave no word untouched, if its equivalent is attainable — a requirement rarely met in the many versions and revisions we have studied.

We have striven for clearness to render God's revelation in the revealing way it was intended. This brings embarrassments. "I shall not want" in our beloved Shepherd Psalm does not today reflect the psalmist's meaning. "I shall not lack," is equally poetic and is more true to the original. The word translated "evil" may also be translated "calamity," carrying, like our word "bad," either an ethical or a physical meaning. But in our daily use the word "evil" has come to stand for wickedness, so that "Shall there be evil in the city and the LORD has not done it" should have "calamity"; so "reverence" rather than fear as related to God, and "grief" rather than repentance on God's part. In all these uses the translators of this version have exercised commendable caution.

To be both brief and clear we make liberal use of Arabic numerals, a shorthand method we all have daily employed, as in the use of punctuation marks for which the Hebrews made repeated use of waw, formed like our comma and corresponding to our "and."

We have returned to dating, for which we claim no inspiration, and we are aware of disagreements on the part of scholars regarding even important dates. But the Bible mentions considerable dating, and events did occur at certain times which are scripturally related one to another.

We are in tune with the "Authorized Version" of 1611 in fidelity to the Messianic Promise, first made as soon as man had sinned, renewed to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, narrowed to Judah's offspring and later to David's descendants. This promise remained the hope of the worshipping Hebrews, whose prophets stimulated their faith, and Jesus reminded the Emmaus pilgrims of it, "starting from Moses and through all the prophets . . . in all the Scriptures that referred to Himself."

To be faithful to this everlasting Evangel we simply needed to be faithful to the original Scriptures. Where, in the Old Testament, Hebrew words were lacking or hard to decipher, we have made use of available Greek or Aramaic. Where the Old Testament is quoted in the New (taken from the Greek), the language may differ, but the thought is the same. The Dead Sea Scrolls that contained passages from the Old Testament speak volumes for the accuracy with which the ancient Hebrew manuscripts were preserved and transcribed. And where those scrolls contain items that bear vitally on our translations, we have profited from consulting them.

Hebraic scholars of various denominations, mostly professors of their respective seminaries, have labored in season and out of season to prepare this Berkeley Version. Each translated portion has been reviewed by at least two other members of our staff and many books by several of them, but no translator is responsible for the work of any other translator. The responsibility remains with the translator, the editors and the publishers. The notes below the translation are not necessarily in every case those of the translator; some of these were supplied by the editor-in-chief and his assistants.

We are grateful for the cooperation of the men whose time and talents were so unstintedly devoted to this exacting task, and we marvel at their endurance. We thank God that not one of them who started the work was laid aside by illness while the actual work of translation was in progress. It pleased the Lord, however, shortly before we went to press, to take unto Himself our esteemed friend and colleague, Dr. George L. Robinson.

With expectant joy and acknowledgment of our Father's sustaining grace we surrender the results of our endeavors to the readers of the Bible, supremely grateful to Him who first inspired its contents. We pray that this version may be instrumental in the fulfillment of God's purpose, a translation of His teachings into Christlike living. This will most amply reward our labors.

GERRIT VERKUYL

Berkeley, California, February 10, 1959

THE STAFF OF TRANSLATORS

- Prof. Gleason L. Archer, B.D., Ph. D., Fuller Theological Seminary, Pasadena.
Prof. John W. Bailey, Ph.D., D.D., (Emeritus), Berkeley Baptist Divinity School.
Prof. David E. Culley, Ph.D., D.D., (Emeritus), Western Theological Seminary (Presbyterian), Pittsburgh.
Prof. Derward W. Deere, Th.D., Golden Gate Baptist Theological Seminary, San Francisco.
Prof. Clyde T. Francisco, Ph.D., Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Louisville.
The Rev. Leonard Greenway, Th.D., Pastor, Bethel Christian Reformed Church, Grand Rapids, Michigan.
Prof. Howard A. Hanke, Th.D., Asbury College, Wilmore, Kentucky.
Prof. S. Lewis Johnson, Jr., Th.D., Dallas Theological Seminary.
James B. Keefer, Ph.D., Missionary, United Presbyterian Church, Gambela, Ethiopia.
Prof. William Sanford LaSor, Ph.D., Th.D., Fuller Theological Seminary, Pasadena.
Prof. Jacob M. Myers, Ph.D., S.T.D., Lutheran Theological Seminary, Gettysburg, Penna.
Prof. J. Barton Payne, Th.D., Trinity Theological Seminary (Evangelical Free Church), Chicago, and Wheaton College, Graduate Division.
Prof. George L. Robinson, Ph.D., S.T.D., (Emeritus) McCormick Theological Seminary, Chicago.
Prof. Samuel J. Schultz, Th.D., Wheaton College, Wheaton, Illinois.
Prof. B. Hathaway Struthers, Ph.D., Chaplain, United States Navy.
Prof. Merrill F. Unger, Ph.D., Th.D., Dallas Theological Seminary.
The Rev. Gerard Van Groningen, Th.M., Reformed Theological College, Geelong, Vict., Australia.
The Rev. Gerrit Verkuyl, Ph.D., D.D., (Emeritus) Presbyterian Board of Education, Berkeley, Calif.
Prof. Leon J. Wood, Th.M., Grand Rapids Baptist Theological Seminary and Bible Institute.
Prof. Martin J. Wyngaarden, B.D., Ph. D., Calvin Theological Seminary, Grand Rapids.

We desire also to express appreciation to others who gave their critical reading to portions of the manuscript and rendered valuable suggestions. Among these we include Prof. Dewey M. Beegle, Ph. D., Biblical Seminary of New York; Prof. Gerhard E. Lenski, Ph.D., Lutheran Theological Seminary, Berkeley, California; the Rev. Charles D. Krug, Th.M., San Francisco Theological Seminary (Presbyterian); the Rev. Sidney A. Hatch of Los Angeles; Prof. L. M. Farr, Baptist Bible College, San Francisco, who rendered valuable assistance twice a week over a period of many months; and to Mr. Robert E. Hink of Berkeley, whose special help contributed much to the project. Also to the Rev. Garrett Pars of Cleveland, Ohio, and the Rev. Peter De Jong of Seattle, Washington, who made valuable suggestions and criticisms on the basis of their reading portions of the manuscript, and to Mrs. Frances E. Siewert of Pasadena, California, who gave much valuable editorial assistance.

THE BOOKS OF THE OLD TESTAMENT

their Names and Order, and the Pages at Which They May Be Found

	Page		Page
Genesis .....	1	Ecclesiastes .....	670
Exodus .....	54	The Song of Solomon . . . .	679
Leviticus .....	97	Isaiah . . . . .	686
Numbers . . . . .	130	Jeremiah . . . . .	743
Deuteronomy .....	179	Lamentations . . . . .	807
Joshua . . . . .	220	Ezekiel . . . . .	815
Judges . . . . .	248	Daniel . . . . .	872
Ruth . . . . .	275	Hosea . . . . .	890
I Samuel . . . . .	279	Joel . . . . .	899
II Samuel . . . . .	314	Amos . . . . .	903
I Kings . . . . .	347	Obadiah . . . . .	910
II Kings . . . . .	380	Jonah . . . . .	912
I Chronicles . . . . .	412	Micah . . . . .	915
II Chronicles . . . . .	445	Nahum . . . . .	920
Ezra . . . . .	483	Habakkuk . . . . .	923
Nehemiah . . . . .	494	Zephaniah . . . . .	926
Esther . . . . .	510	Haggai . . . . .	929
Job . . . . .	519	Zechariah . . . . .	931
Psalms . . . . .	547	Malachi . . . . .	941
Proverbs . . . . .	642

The Names, Order and Pages of the Books of the New Testament follow immediately after the above.

The Old Testament

THE BOOK OF GENESIS

IN THE BEGINNING<sup>a</sup> GOD CREATED the heavens and the earth. <sup>2</sup>The earth was formless and empty, and darkness lay upon the face of the deep, and the Spirit of God was moving over the surface of the waters.<sup>b</sup>

<sup>3</sup>God said: Let there be light, and there was light. <sup>4</sup>God saw that the light was good and God divided the light from the darkness. <sup>5</sup>The light God called Day and the darkness He called Night. There was evening and there was morning, one day.

<sup>6</sup>God said: Let there be a firmament between the waters to divide waters from waters; <sup>7</sup>so God made the firmament and separated the waters under the firmament from the waters above the firmament; and it was so. <sup>8</sup>God called the firmament Heaven. There was evening and there was morning, a second day.

<sup>9</sup>God said: Let the waters under heaven be gathered into one place and let the dry land appear; and it was so. <sup>10</sup>God called the dry land Earth and the gathering of the waters He called Seas, and God saw that it was good.

<sup>11</sup>God said: Let the earth produce vegetation, various kinds of seed-bearing herbs and fruit-bearing trees with their respective seeds in the fruit upon the earth; and it was so. <sup>12</sup>The earth produced vegetation, various kinds of seed-bearing herbs and fruit-bearing trees with their respective seeds in the fruit, and God saw that it was good. <sup>13</sup>There was evening and there was morning, a third day.

<sup>14</sup>God said: Let there be lights in the firmament of heaven to divide the day from the night; let them be for markers of seasons, days and years, <sup>15</sup>and for luminaries in the firmament of heaven to shed light upon the earth; and it was so. <sup>16</sup>God made the two great luminaries, the greater light for ruling the day and the lesser light with the stars for ruling the night. <sup>17</sup>God set them in heaven's firmament to shed light upon the earth, <sup>18</sup>to rule during the day and at night and to divide the light from the darkness; and God saw that it was good. <sup>19</sup>There was evening and there was morning, a fourth day.

<sup>20</sup>God said: Let the waters teem with shoals of living creatures and let birds fly above the earth along heaven's firmament. <sup>21</sup>God also created the large sea-monsters, and all living, moving creatures with which the waters swarm according to their kind and every kind of winged bird. God saw that it was good <sup>22</sup>and God blessed them; He said: Be fruitful; multiply and fill the waters in the seas and let birds multiply on earth. <sup>23</sup>There was evening and there was morning, a fifth day.

<sup>24</sup>God said: Let the earth bring forth living creatures after their kind, livestock, reptiles and wild beasts after their

a) Attempts at dating that beginning are not promising. Estimates of a very old age for the earth and the universe are acceptable to many devout Bible students. Cf. Hebr. 11:3 [Gr. aionas — con-old worlds].

b) The Spirit's moving over the deep suggests His life-giving forces at work in the processes of creation. We do well to read also John 1: 1-5 concerning earth's forming and Ps. 139: 14-16 regarding the human body.

kind; and it was so. <sup>25</sup>God made every kind of wild beasts and every kind of livestock and every kind of creeping things; and God saw that it was good.

<sup>26</sup>Then God said: Let Us make man in Our image, after Our likeness<sup>e</sup>, and let them bear rule over the fish in the sea, over the birds of the air, over the animals; over the whole earth and over all creeping things that crawl on the earth. <sup>27</sup>So God created man in His image; in the image of God He created him; male and female He created them. <sup>28</sup>God blessed them; God said to them: Be fruitful; multiply; fill the earth and subdue it; bear rule over the fish of the sea; over the birds of the air and over every living, moving creature on earth.<sup>f</sup>

<sup>29</sup>God further said: Behold, I have given you every seed-bearing plant over all the earth, and every fruit-tree, the fruit of which grows seed; it will be your food. <sup>30</sup>And to all the animals on earth, to all the birds of the air and to every living creature that creeps on the earth I have given the green vegetation for food; and it was so. <sup>31</sup>God saw that everything He had made was excellent, indeed. There was evening and there was morning, the sixth day.

2 <sup>1</sup>THUS THE HEAVENS AND THE EARTH and all their host were completed. <sup>2</sup>On the seventh day God ended His work which He had been doing; He rested on the seventh day from all the works He had accomplished. <sup>3</sup>God also blessed the seventh day and consecrated it;<sup>g</sup> because in it He rested from all His works, which, in creating, He had formed.

<sup>4</sup>These are the generations of the heavens and the earth in their creation.<sup>h</sup> <sup>5</sup>When the LORD God made earth and heaven, there was as yet not a shrub on the earth, nor any plant sprouting in the field; for the LORD God had not made it to rain on the earth, and there was no man to cultivate the soil; <sup>6</sup>but a vapor used to rise from the earth to moisten all the surface of the ground. <sup>7</sup>And the LORD God formed the man from the dust of the ground and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life, and the man became a living soul.

<sup>8</sup>The LORD God also planted a garden to the east in Eden, and there He placed the man whom He had formed. <sup>9</sup>From the ground the LORD God caused to sprout every tree that is pleasing to the eye and good for food; the tree of life, too, in the center of the garden, and the tree of knowing good and evil.

<sup>10</sup>There also was a river flowing out of Eden to water the garden, and from there it was divided and became four rivers. <sup>11</sup>The first is named Pishon; it flows around all the land of Havilah,<sup>i</sup> where there is gold, <sup>12</sup>high quality gold; aromatic gum, too, and onyx stone. <sup>13</sup>The name of the second river is Gihon; it flows around all the land of Cush.<sup>j</sup> <sup>14</sup>The name of the third river is Tigris,<sup>k</sup> which flows east of Assyria. The fourth river is the Euphrates.

<sup>15</sup>The LORD God took the man and placed him in the garden of Eden to cultivate it and to care for it. <sup>16</sup>The LORD God charged the man: You may eat freely from every tree in the garden; <sup>17</sup>but do not eat from the tree of knowing good and evil; for the day you eat from it you will certainly die.

<sup>18</sup>The LORD God said: It is not good for the man to be alone; I will make him a suitable helper, completing him. <sup>19</sup>Out of the ground the LORD God had formed all the beasts of the field and all the birds of the air and He brought them to Adam<sup>1</sup> to see what he would call them and whatever Adam called a living creature that was its name. <sup>20</sup>So Adam gave names to all the domestic animals, to all the birds of the

e) Endowed with power of reasoning, emotion and will.

f) By discoveries and inventions man has gained mastery also over elements and forces of nature.

g) Sanctifying, consecrating, dedicating, all involve a setting apart for God.

h) An account of heaven and earth and what proceeded from them.

i) The Havilah country which the Pishon branch encircles is mentioned [Ch. 25: 18] as Ishmael's region; also I Sam. 15:7, as inhabited by Amalekites, descendants of Esau, both in the Arabian desert.

j) Here Mesopotamia, later always Ethiopia. k) Hebrew—Hiddekel.

l) Man and Adam are the same word in Hebrew.

air and to all the wild beasts; but for the man himself there was found no suitable helper.

<sup>21</sup>So the LORD God caused a deep sleep to overcome Adam, and as he slept He took one of his ribs and filled up the place with flesh. <sup>22</sup>From the rib He had taken from the man, God formed a woman and brought her to the man. <sup>23</sup>Adam said, "This at last is bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh; she shall be called Woman because she was taken out of a man." <sup>24</sup>For this reason a man shall leave his father and his mother and cling to his wife and they shall become one flesh.<sup>m</sup> <sup>25</sup>Both the man and his wife were naked and they felt no shame in each other's presence.

3 THE SERPENT, WILDEST OF ALL THE field animals the LORD God had made, said to the woman, "So, God has told you not to eat from any tree in the garden?" <sup>2</sup>The woman answered the serpent, "We may eat the fruit of the garden's trees; <sup>3</sup>but about the fruit of the tree in the center of the garden God has said, 'You shall not eat of it or touch it, lest you die.'"<sup>n</sup>

<sup>4</sup>The serpent said to the woman, "No, you would not die at all! <sup>5</sup>But God knows that whenever you eat of it your eyes will be opened and you will, like gods, be knowing good and evil." <sup>6</sup>The woman saw the tree as being good for food, delightful to the eye and a tree desirable to render one wise, so she took of its fruit and ate; she also gave to her husband, who ate with her. <sup>7</sup>Then the eyes of both were opened and they realized that they were naked. So they sewed fig leaves together and made themselves skirts.<sup>o</sup>

<sup>8</sup>In the cool of the day<sup>p</sup> they heard the sound of the LORD God taking a walk in the garden and the man and his wife hid themselves among the trees of the garden from the presence of the LORD God. <sup>9</sup>Then the LORD God called out to the man;<sup>q</sup> He said to him: Where are you? <sup>10</sup>He said, "I heard Thy sound in the garden and I was afraid because I am naked; so I hid myself."

<sup>11</sup>He asked: Who made you know that you are naked? I have you eaten from the tree of which I forbade you to eat?

<sup>12</sup>The man said, "The woman Thou gavest me for a companion, she gave me from the tree and I ate."<sup>r</sup>

<sup>13</sup>The LORD God said to the woman: Just what have you done? The woman said, "The serpent tricked me and I ate."

<sup>14</sup>The LORD God said to the serpent: Because you have done this, you will be most cursed of all domestic animals and of all wild beasts. You will crawl on your belly and eat dust all your life. <sup>15</sup>Also I will put enmity between you and the woman; also between your offspring and her offspring; He will crush your head and you will crush his heel.<sup>s</sup>

<sup>16</sup>To the woman He said: I will greatly increase your pregnancy-troubles; you will suffer birth-pangs; yet, you will be drawn to your husband and he will dominate you. <sup>17</sup>And to Adam He said: Because you have yielded to your wife's suggestion and have eaten from the tree concerning which I gave you orders, Do not eat of it, cursed is the soil on your account; by toil you shall eat from it all your life. <sup>18</sup>Thorns and thistles it shall grow for you and you must eat herbs of the field. <sup>19</sup>In the sweat of your brow you must make a living until you return to the ground, because out of it you were taken; for dust you are and to dust you shall return.

<sup>20</sup>The man named his wife Eve,<sup>t</sup> because she became the mother of every living person. <sup>21</sup>And the LORD God

m) A principle so enduring that our Lord bases a vital argument on it.

n) In reply to Satan's mock inquiry Eve adds to God's charge as given in 2:17.

o) Their happy days of innocence were over; they were guilty, knew it and would cover it themselves.

p) The hour of twilight remains a choice season for spiritual recreation—quiet communion.

q) This, too, is an eternal principle: God wants His children back.

r) Blaming someone else is as old as humanity; it shows lack of repentance.

s) First promise of the Redeemer, Victor over sin and Satan.

t) Eve means life. The early language was not Hebrew, but as thoughts were conveyed from one tongue to another, so were names adjusted to carry their original meaning, either by altering the proper nouns or by adopting them with their original meaning into the Hebrew vocabulary.

made robes of skins for Adam and for his wife and clothed them.

<sup>22</sup>The LORD God said: Obviously in knowing good and evil man has become like one of Us. Now then, he might reach out his hand to pluck and eat from the tree of life so as to live forever.

<sup>23</sup>So the LORD God expelled him from the garden of Eden, to cultivate the soil from which he had been taken; <sup>24</sup>He drove out the man and placed cherubim east of the Eden garden with a flaming sword turning in every direction to guard the path to the tree of life.<sup>u</sup>

4 ADAM KNEW<sup>v</sup> HIS WIFE EVE. SHE conceived and bore Cain; she said, "I have gotten a man with the LORD's help." <sup>2</sup>Next she gave birth to his brother Abel. Abel became a herder of flocks and Cain a tiller of the soil.

<sup>3</sup>In course of time Cain brought an offering to the LORD from the products of the soil, <sup>4</sup>while Abel brought an offering from the firstlings of his flocks, especially from their fat portions. The LORD approved of Abel and his offering, <sup>5</sup>but He did not approve of Cain and his offering. Then Cain's anger grew hot, and his face fell. <sup>6</sup>The LORD asked Cain: Why are you angry, and why is your face downcast? <sup>7</sup>If you do right, will there not be a lifting up? But if you misbehave, sin is crouching at the door; its intention is toward you, and you must master it.

<sup>8</sup>But Cain had words with his brother Abel, and when they were out in the field, Cain assaulted his brother Abel and killed him. <sup>9</sup>Then the LORD asked Cain: Where is your brother Abel? He said, "I do not know. Am I my brother's keeper?"

<sup>10</sup>He said: What have you done? Listen! Your brother's blood is crying to Me from the ground, <sup>11</sup>and now you are cursed from the ground that has opened its mouth to receive your brother's blood from your hand. <sup>12</sup>When you till the soil, it shall no longer yield its full produce for you. You will be a vagrant and a wanderer on the earth.

<sup>13</sup>Cain said to the LORD, "My punishment is worse than I can stand. <sup>14</sup>See, Thou hast now driven me from the land, and I shall be hidden from Thy face. I shall be a fugitive and a wanderer on the earth, and whoever finds me will kill me." <sup>15</sup>The LORD said to him: On the contrary, if anyone kills Cain, sevenfold vengeance shall be taken on him. The LORD then put a mark on Cain so that none who found him might kill him.

<sup>16</sup>Cain went out from the presence of the LORD and lived in the land of Nod, east of Eden. <sup>17</sup>Cain knew his wife, who conceived and gave birth to Enoch.<sup>w</sup> He also built a town, which he named Enoch after his son. <sup>18</sup>To Enoch Irad was born; to Irad Mehujael, to Mehujael Methushael and to Methushael Lamech. <sup>19</sup>Lamech took for himself two wives, named respectively Adah and Zillah. <sup>20</sup>Adah gave birth to Jabal, who became the father of all tent-dwellers and cattle men.<sup>a</sup> <sup>21</sup>His brother's name was Jubal, who became the father of all players on harp and flute. <sup>22</sup>As for Zillah, she bore Tubal-Cain, a smith who made all kinds of sharp tools of bronze and of iron. And Naamah was Tubal-Cain's sister. <sup>23</sup>Lamech declaimed to his wives Adah and Zillah:

"You, Adah and Zillah, do listen to my voice;

You consorts of Lamech, give ear to my speech;

For any who wounded me, him I have slain,

Also the young man, who gave me a scratch.

<sup>24</sup>If Cain be awarded revenge sevenfold, then Lamech's is seventy-sevenfold required."

<sup>25</sup>Adam again knew his wife and she gave birth to a son, whom she named

u) Cherubs or cherubim is the plural of cherub.

v) "Knew" is correct translation, it suggests the most intimate relationship between man and woman.

w) Only those of Adam's household whose genealogy is recorded, are named. There were daughters; one of them became Cain's wife and another Seth's.

a) The name "father" is used of these pioneers, as Washington, Franklin, Edison, Marconi and other leaders and founders are so thought of today.

Seth,<sup>b</sup> for "God has appointed for me another offspring in place of Abel, because Cain killed him." <sup>26</sup>To Seth in turn a son was born whom he named Enosh, in whose time people began to call on the name of the LORD.<sup>c</sup>

5 THIS IS THE ROLL OF ADAM'S GENEALOGY: When God created man, He made him in God's likeness; <sup>2</sup>He created them male and female. He blessed them and called them human at the time of their creation.<sup>d</sup> <sup>3</sup>Adam at 130 got a son in his image, after his likeness and named him Seth. <sup>4</sup>After Seth's birth he lived 800 years and got sons and daughters. <sup>5</sup>So, altogether Adam lived 930 years and he died.

<sup>6</sup>Seth at 105 got Enosh, <sup>7</sup>and Seth lived 807 years after Enosh's birth and had sons and daughters; <sup>8</sup>so altogether Seth lived 912 years and he died.

<sup>9</sup>At 90 Enosh got Kenan; <sup>10</sup>then lived another 815 years and after Kenan's birth got sons and daughters, <sup>11</sup>so that in all Enosh lived 905 years. And he died. <sup>12</sup>At 70 Kenan got Mahalalel, <sup>13</sup>then lived 840 more years and after Mahalalel's birth got sons and daughters, <sup>14</sup> so altogether Kenan lived 910 years and he died.

<sup>15</sup>Mahalalel at 65 got Jared; <sup>16</sup>then lived another 830 years and after Jared's birth got sons and daughters; <sup>17</sup>so in all Mahalalel lived 895 years, and he died.

<sup>18</sup>Jared at 162 got Enoch, <sup>19</sup>then lived another 800 years; and after Enoch's birth got sons and daughters, <sup>20</sup>living in all 962 years and died.

<sup>21</sup>Enoch at 65 got Methuselah. <sup>22</sup>Enoch walked with God 300 years after Methuselah's birth and got sons and daughters; <sup>23</sup>so Enoch lived 365 years in all. <sup>24</sup>Enoch walked with God and he was not,<sup>e</sup> for God took him.

<sup>25</sup>When Methuselah was 187 La-

mech was born <sup>26</sup>and after Lamech's birth Methuselah lived 782 years and got sons and daughters; <sup>27</sup>so in all Methuselah lived 969 years and he died.

<sup>28</sup>When Lamech was 182 a son was born to him <sup>29</sup>whom he named Noah. He said, "This one will comfort us about our work, our manual toil, due to the ground being cursed by the LORD." <sup>30</sup>After Noah's birth Lamech lived 595 years and got sons and daughters; <sup>31</sup>so in all Lamech was 777 years old when he died.

<sup>32</sup>After Noah was 500, Shem, Ham and Japheth were born.

6 WHEN THE EARTH BEGAN TO BE populated and daughters were born to the people, <sup>2</sup>it developed that the sons of God took notice of the daughters of men, admired their looks and married all those of them whom they chose.<sup>f</sup>

<sup>3</sup>Then the LORD said, My Spirit shall not forever remain in man since he has gone astray; he is flesh,<sup>h</sup> I will allow him another 120 years. <sup>4</sup>There were giants on the earth in those days, and later, too, when the sons of God used to cohabit with the daughters of men, who bore them children, those mighty men of old who made a name. <sup>5</sup>God saw that human wickedness was growing out of bounds on earth; that the intention of all human thinking produced nothing but evil all day. <sup>6</sup>Then it was grief to the LORD ever having made man on the earth; He felt grieved at heart. <sup>7</sup>The LORD said, I will wipe the human race I have created from the face of the earth, man and beast, reptile and birds of the air; for it is grief to Me that I have made them. <sup>8</sup>But Noah found favor in the presence of the LORD.

<sup>9</sup>This is the Noah genealogy: Noah was an upright man, blameless among his fellow-men; Noah walked with

b) "Appointed" or "substituted."

c) Persons had worshiped, but with Enosh the gathering for public worship seems to have started.

d) As distinguished from the animals. f) No longer visible to human eyes [Heb. 11:5].

g) Some have it that this refers to fallen angels, but there is no Scripture evidence that they could become men with body and soul; nor, if they could, would wicked men be called "sons of God." We believe that the sons of Seth's family married daughters of Cain's family; that the home thus became ungodly and children grew up without relating life to God.

h) Flesh, as Adam spoke of it, was untainted. Now the word suggests weakness; in time it will mean human nature without God's Spirit.

God. <sup>10</sup>Three sons were born to Noah — Shem, Ham, and Japheth. <sup>11</sup>But the earth had grown corrupted in God's sight; the earth was filled with lust for power. <sup>12</sup>God looked at the earth and saw how degenerated it was; for all those living on the earth had perverted their way.

<sup>13</sup>God said to Noah: I see the end of all humanity,<sup>1</sup> for through them the earth is filled with lust for power. Take notice! I am about to destroy them and the earth with them. <sup>14</sup>Make you an ark of resinous wood; build rooms in it and overspread it inside and out with pitch. <sup>15</sup>Construct it after this fashion: The length of the ark 450 feet; its width 75 feet and its depth 45 feet. <sup>16</sup>Put an 18-inch opening in the ark all around just below the upper deck and a gangway in the side of the ark. Make it with lower, middle and upper decks. <sup>17</sup>Understand that I Myself am about to bring a water-deluge on the earth to exterminate from under heaven all flesh that has the breath of life in it; everything on earth shall perish. <sup>18</sup>But with you I do establish My covenant; you will board the ark, and your sons, your wife, and your sons' wives along with you. <sup>19</sup>You must also have a pair of every kind of all living creatures enter the ark, to keep them alive with you — a male and a female <sup>20</sup>of the various kinds of the birds, of the beasts and of the creatures creeping on the ground, two of each kind shall come to you to keep them alive. <sup>21</sup>Collect and store enough suitable food too, for you and for them to eat. <sup>22</sup>And Noah did so; he carried out God's orders.

7 THE LORD SAID TO NOAH: COME into the ark, you and your whole family, because you alone in this entire generation have I found upright in My presence. <sup>2</sup>Of each clean animal<sup>1</sup> take seven pairs, male and female, and of the unclean, two, a male and a female; <sup>3</sup>so of the birds of the air seven pairs each to keep their kind alive over the whole earth. <sup>4</sup>For after seven more days I will make it to rain upon the earth for forty days and nights and I will blot off the face of the earth every existing thing that I have made.

<sup>5</sup>Noah carried out all the LORD's orders; <sup>6</sup>he was 600 years old when the deluge of waters overwhelmed the earth. <sup>7</sup>Noah boarded the ark with his sons, his wife and his sons' wives, ahead of the flood-waters. <sup>8</sup>Pairs of clean and of unclean animals, of birds and of all that creep on the ground, <sup>9</sup>both male and female, came into the ark to Noah, as God had commanded, <sup>10</sup>until at the end of the seven days the deluge came upon the earth.

<sup>11</sup>In Noah's 600th year, the seventeenth of the second month, that very day all the fountains of the great deep broke through and all the sluices of heaven were opened up; <sup>12</sup>the rains gushed down upon the earth for 40 days and 40 nights. <sup>13</sup>This is the date on which Noah, Shem, Ham and Japheth, his sons, also Noah's wife and the three wives of his sons along with them boarded the ark — <sup>14</sup>they and every kind of wild beast, of domestic animals, of every creature that creeps on the earth, and of winged bird. <sup>15</sup>Of all living, breathing creatures they came to Noah in the ark two by two, male and female, as God had ordered him. <sup>16</sup>Then the LORD closed the entrance behind him.

<sup>17</sup>For 40 days the flooding continued on the earth. The waters mounted and lifted the ark so that it rose from the ground<sup>k</sup> <sup>18</sup>and still the waters kept mounting on the earth with overwhelming volume, while the ark floated on top of the waters. <sup>19</sup>Higher and higher the waters rose over the earth, gaining the upper hand until all the high mountains under heaven were covered. <sup>20</sup>More than 20 feet above them the waters rose so that the mountains were covered, <sup>21</sup>and every living creature that moved on earth — birds,

i) Literally, flesh, which at times in these early chapters includes the whole animal world.

j) Clean and unclean are carefully distinguished later in Mosaic law and ritual.

k) The floating structure is rightly called "ark" because it was no sailing ship; it had no destination at some harbor. It was probably built with square corners, simply to float.

cattle, wild beasts, swarming things and men, <sup>22</sup>everything that had breath and lived on dry land perished. <sup>23</sup>He destroyed from the face of the earth every existing thing from man to beast and creeping thing and birds of the air. Only Noah and those with him in the ark remained alive. <sup>24</sup>For 150 days the waters covered the earth.

8 BUT GOD KEPT NOAH IN MIND WITH all the animals and all the livestock with him in the ark; God caused a wind to blow over the earth until the waters subsided. <sup>2</sup>Besides, the fountains of the deep and the sluices of heaven were closed and the gushing rains from heaven were checked. <sup>3</sup>Steadily the waters moved back from the earth, going down at the end of the 150 days.

<sup>4</sup>So, on the seventeenth of the seventh month the ark grounded on the Ararat mountain range, <sup>5</sup>and gradually the waters kept lowering until on the first of the tenth month the mountain-tops were seen.

<sup>6</sup>After another forty days Noah opened the window he had made in the ark <sup>7</sup>and released a raven that flew back and forth until the waters had dried off the earth. <sup>8</sup>Ic also released a dove to find out how well the waters had drained from the ground-surface; <sup>9</sup>but as the dove found no roost to put her foot-sole<sup>1</sup> on, she came back to him into the ark; for there was water all over the earth; so he put out his hand, caught her and drew her back to him into the ark. <sup>10</sup>After waiting seven days more, he again sent the dove from the ark <sup>11</sup>and about twilight the dove returned, and look, there was a freshly plucked olive-leaf in her beak. Then Noah knew that the waters were draining off the earth. <sup>12</sup>Yet another seven days he waited, then let the dove go out; but she did not return to him any more.

<sup>13</sup>In the 601st year,<sup>m</sup> the first of the first month, the waters had dried off the earth. Noah removed the ark's covering, looked out, and behold, the surface of the ground was dry. <sup>14</sup>On the twenty-seventh of the next month the earth was thoroughly dried <sup>15</sup>and God told Noah: <sup>16</sup>Leave the ark, you, your wife, your sons and your sons' wives along with you. <sup>17</sup>Bring out with you every living creature you have there, birds, livestock, creeping creatures of the earth, bring them out with you, so they may breed freely on the earth. Let them be fruitful and multiply on the earth. <sup>18</sup>So Noah went out with his sons, his wife and his sons' wives; <sup>19</sup>every animal, every creeping thing, every bird, everything that moves on the earth, they all came out of the ark by their families.

<sup>20</sup>Then Noah built an altar to the LORD. He took from all clean animals and from all clean birds<sup>n</sup> and offered burnt offerings on the altar, <sup>21</sup>and as the LORD discerned the pleasing fragrance, He said within Himself: I will never again curse the ground on man's account, because he is evil-minded from his youth, neither will I again destroy every living thing as I have done. <sup>22</sup>So long as the earth remains, seed time and harvest, cold and heat, summer and winter, day and night shall not fail.<sup>o</sup>

9 GOD BLESSED NOAH AND HIS SONS and told them: Be fruitful, multiply and populate the earth. <sup>2</sup>The fear of you and the dread of you shall come upon every animal of the earth, every bird of the air, all that crawls on the ground and all the fish of the sea; they are handed over into your power. <sup>3</sup>Every living, moving thing shall be yours for food; I have given it all to you like the vegetables. <sup>4</sup>However, you must not eat flesh with its life — that is, its blood — in it.<sup>p</sup> <sup>5</sup>I will require full satisfaction for your life-blood from every animal and from every person;

l) The raven, of the crow family, preferred to be alone; the dove, of a more social nature, preferred shelter and company.

m) The age of Noah, or of the Noah House, or both.

n) The Lord is not indifferent about the quality of the gifts we bring Him.

o) A fresh start for the human race, with divine grace abounding.

p) This prohibition was carried over into the Christian Church at the Jerusalem Council, Acts 15:20, 29.

from every man's brother will I require satisfaction for a person's life. <sup>6</sup>Whoever sheds a person's blood, by man shall his blood be shed; because God made man in His likeness.<sup>a</sup> <sup>7</sup>As for you, be fruitful and multiply; swarm over the earth and multiply in it.

<sup>8</sup>God said to Noah and his sons with him: <sup>9</sup>Take note! I Myself am establishing My covenant with you, with your descendants <sup>10</sup> and with every living creature, whether bird, livestock or wild beast—along with you, of all that left the ark, even every creature on earth. <sup>11</sup>I covenant<sup>r</sup> with you that neither shall all flesh again be eliminated by the waters of a flood, nor shall there be another deluge to destroy the earth.

<sup>12</sup>God further said: This is the sign of the covenant I am making between Me and you and every living thing along with you through all successive generations. <sup>13</sup>I will set My bow in the clouds; it shall be for a token of a covenant between Me and the earth. <sup>14</sup>When I collect My clouds above the earth, then the bow shall appear in the clouds <sup>15</sup>and I will remember My covenant that exists between Me and you and every living creature of every kind of flesh.<sup>s</sup> Never again shall the waters become a flood to destroy all flesh; <sup>16</sup>the bow shall be in the clouds; I shall look upon it to remember the eternal covenant between God and every living creature of all flesh on the earth. <sup>17</sup>This, said God to Noah, is the sign of the covenant I have set up between Me and every living creature on earth.

<sup>18</sup>The sons of Noah who came out of the ark were Shem, Ham and Japheth, Ham being the father of Canaan; <sup>19</sup>of these three sons of Noah the whole earth was populated. <sup>20</sup>Noah began his farming with planting a vineyard, but <sup>21</sup>when he drank of its wine, he became intoxicated and lay uncovered inside his tent. <sup>22</sup>Then Ham, Canaan's father, saw his father uncovered and told his two brothers outside; <sup>23</sup>but Shem and Japheth got a robe, laid it on their shoulders and, walking backward, they covered their father's nakedness, keeping their faces turned the other way, so they did not witness their father's shame. <sup>24</sup>When Noah awoke from his wine, knowing how his youngest son had treated him, <sup>25</sup>he exclaimed, "Cursed be Canaan!<sup>t</sup> May he be a servant of servants to his brothers." <sup>26</sup>He then added, "Blessed be the LORD, the God of Shem<sup>u</sup> and may Canaan be his servant. <sup>27</sup>May God make Japheth so great that he shall dwell in Shem's tents; and may Canaan be their servant."

<sup>28</sup>After the deluge Noah lived 350 years; <sup>29</sup>so Noah lived in all 950 years. And he died.

10 THESE ARE THE DESCENDANTS OF Noah's sons, Shem, Ham and Japheth and the sons born to them after the flood. <sup>2</sup>The sons of Japheth — Gomer, Magog, Madai, Javan,<sup>v</sup> Tubal, Meshech and Tiras.

<sup>3</sup>The sons of Gomer — Ashkenaz, Riphath and Togarmah.

<sup>4</sup>The sons of Javan — Elishah, Tarshish, Kittim and Rodanim; <sup>5</sup>by these the coastlands of the gentiles were populated in their separate territories, each with its respective language, its tribes and nations.

<sup>6</sup>The sons of Ham — Cush, Mizraim,<sup>w</sup> Put and Canaan. <sup>7</sup>The sons of Cush — Seba, Havilah, Sabtah, Raamah and Sabteca. The sons of Raamah — Sheba and Dedan.

<sup>8</sup>To Cush Nimrod was born, the first on earth to become a despot. <sup>9</sup>He was a mighty hunter before the LORD; therefore the proverb, "Like Nimrod, a mighty hunter before the LORD."

<sup>10</sup>He began his kingdom with Babel;

q) This command has remained the basis for capital punishment, with our likeness to God as the reason back of it. Reverence for blood was strengthened by its use for atoning sacrifices [Lev. 17: 11].

r) This is the first mention of God making a covenant.

s) To the worshiper of God the rainbow still says: "God is faithful; trust Him."

t) Canaan seems to have first noticed his grandfather and to have told his father Ham with glee; then in the same disrespectful spirit, Ham told his brothers; who reacted with proper decorum.

u) Beginning with Abraham and moving on to Jesus Christ, salvation was brought to earth through Shemites.

v) Javan moved westward into Europe [Isa. 66:19], including Ionians or Greeks. Kittim is Cyprus and Rodanim is Rhodes.

w) Mizraim denotes Egypt, and Cush, Ethiopia.

then Erech, Accad and Calneh in the Shinar country.<sup>x</sup> <sup>11</sup>From there he extended his reign to Assyria, building Nineveh, Rehoboth-Ir, Calah <sup>12</sup>and Resen between Nineveh and Calah, the great city.<sup>y</sup>

<sup>13</sup>To Mizraim were born the Ludim,<sup>z</sup> the Anamin, the Lehabim, the Naphtuhim, <sup>14</sup>the Pathrusim, the Casluhim — from whom the Philistines came — and the Caphtorim.

<sup>15</sup>To Canaan were born, first Sidon, then Heth; <sup>16</sup>also the Jebusite, the Amorite, the Girgashite, <sup>17</sup>the Hivite, the Arkite, the Sinite, <sup>18</sup>the Arvadite, the Zemarite and the Hamathite. Later the Canaanite clans spread abroad, <sup>19</sup>so that the Canaanite territory reached from Zidon toward Gerar as far as Gaza, then toward Sodom, Gomorrah, Admah and Zeboim as far as Lasha. <sup>20</sup>These are Ham's descendants by clans, languages, lands and nations.

<sup>21</sup>Shem, too, ancestor of all the Hebrews and brother of Japheth, the oldest had offspring. <sup>22</sup>Shem's sons are Elam, Asshur, Arpachshad, Lud and Aram; <sup>23</sup>Aram's sons — Uz, Hul, Gether, and Mash. <sup>24</sup>Arpachshad was father to Shelah and Shelah to Eber.<sup>a</sup>

<sup>25</sup>Eber had two sons, one was named Peleg, because in his day the earth was divided; and his brother was named Joktan. <sup>26</sup>To Joktan were born Almodad, Sheleph, Hazarmaveth, and Jerah, <sup>27</sup>Hadoram, Uzal, Diklah, <sup>28</sup>Obal, Abimael, Sheba, <sup>29</sup>Ophir, Havilah, and Jobab.<sup>b</sup> All these were the sons of Joktan; <sup>30</sup>they lived from Mesha toward Sephar and on eastward to the mountains.

<sup>31</sup>These are Shem's descendants by clans, dialects, lands and nations.

<sup>32</sup>These are the family divisions of Noah's sons by peoples from whom the nations dispersed over the earth after the flood.

11 IT CAME ABOUT WHEN THE whole earth used one language and the same words <sup>2</sup>that in moving in the East they came upon a plain in the Shinar territory and there they settled. <sup>3</sup>They said to one another, "Come on! Let us mold bricks and thoroughly bake them"; so they had brick for stone and asphalt for mortar. <sup>4</sup>Then they said, "Come on! Let us build a city for ourselves with a tower whose top reaches into the heavens. Let us make ourselves famous; else we shall be scattered all over the earth."

<sup>5</sup>Then the LORD came down to take a look at the city and the tower which the sons of men were building.<sup>c</sup> <sup>6</sup>The LORD said: Look! One people and all with one language! The way they are starting to behave, nothing they plan to do will be impossible for them. <sup>7</sup>Come, let us go down and so confuse their speech that they cannot make out each other's words. <sup>8</sup>Thus the LORD dispersed them from there over the whole face of the earth. They quit building the city, <sup>9</sup>which accordingly was called Babel.<sup>d</sup> because there the LORD confused the whole world's language and from there the LORD scattered them over the whole face of the earth.

<sup>10</sup>These are Shem's descendants: when Shem was 100, Arpachshad was born to him, two years after the flood and, after Arpachshad's birth <sup>11</sup>Shem lived 500 years, getting sons and daughters. <sup>12</sup>Arpachshad at 35 got Shelah <sup>13</sup>and lived 403 years after Shelah's birth,<sup>e</sup> getting sons and daughters. <sup>14</sup>At 30 Shelah got Eber <sup>15</sup>and he lived 403 years after Eber's birth, getting

x) In the Babylonian Plain.

y) Four towns together seem to be thought of as a great city, with the first superior until together they became Greater Nineveh.

z) The names ending with -im, signify peoples named after personal ancestors. The same is true of the next series of names, ending with -ite.

a) Arpachshad and Eber are specially mentioned because through them Abraham will be traced. It is also thought that Eber gave the name to the Hebrews.

b) Joktan, obviously, was a polygamist. His sons Ophir and Havilah moved southward, where "the gold of Ophir" was dug; while Havilah was mentioned in relation to the streams that came out from Eden.

c) While God is everywhere, as the sacred writer well knew, He paid at that time particular attention to this earthly attempt. d) Balale—confused.

e) Luke 3:36 mentions Cainan as Shelah's father and Arphaxad's son, from Gen. 11:13 in the Greek translation (the Septuagint) which adds "and Cainan lived 130 years and begat Shelah"—a number of years omitted in Ussher's chronology. Cainan (or his House) lived 460 years altogether.

GENESIS 11, 12

sons and daughters. <sup>16</sup>Eber, at 34 got Peleg, <sup>17</sup>and lived 430 years after Peleg's birth, getting sons and daughters. <sup>18</sup>Peleg at 30 got Reu. <sup>19</sup>After Reu's birth Peleg lived 209 years, getting sons and daughters. <sup>20</sup>At 32 Reu got Serug <sup>21</sup>and after Serug's birth Reu lived 207 years, getting sons and daughters. <sup>22</sup>Serug at 30 got Nahor <sup>23</sup>and lived 200 years after Nahor's birth, getting sons and daughters. <sup>24</sup>When Nahor was 29, Terah was born to him. <sup>25</sup>Nahor lived 119 years after Terah's birth, getting sons and daughters.

<sup>26</sup>Terah lived 70 years and got Abram, Nahor and Haran. <sup>27</sup>This is the Terah genealogy: Abram, Nahor and Haran were born to Terah and Lot was born to Haran; <sup>28</sup> but Haran died in his father Terah's presence in his native land at Chaldean Ur.

<sup>29</sup>Both Abram and Nahor married. The name of Abram's wife was Sarai and the name of Nahor's wife, Milcah, the daughter of Haran to whom Milcah and Iscah were born. <sup>30</sup>But Sarai was sterile; she remained childless. <sup>31</sup>Terah took his son Abram and his grandson Lot, the son of Haran, and his daughter-in-law Sarai, his son Abram's wife, and they migrated together from Chaldean Ur, to move into the land of Canaan; but when they got as far as Haran<sup>f</sup> they settled there. <sup>32</sup>At Haran, Terah died at the age of 205.

2091 B.C.<sup>g</sup>

12 THE LORD SAID TO ABRAM: AS for you, leave your land, your relatives and your father's household for a land which I will show you, <sup>2</sup>and I will make you into a great nation. I will bless you and make your name famous and you shall be a blessing. <sup>3</sup>I will bless those who bless you and upon him who insults you I will put

God Calls Abram—With The Promise

My curse. Also in you all the families of the earth shall be blessed.<sup>h</sup> <sup>4</sup>So Abram took his departure as the LORD had told him and Lot<sup>i</sup> went with him. Abram was 75 when he left Haran <sup>5</sup>and he took his wife Sarai and his brother's son Lot as well as the possessions they had secured and the personnel they had obtained in Haran and moved out to migrate to the land of Canaan, and to the land of Canaan they came.

<sup>6</sup>Abram kept moving through the land as far as the Shechem locality, to the terebinth<sup>j</sup> tree of Moreh — the Canaanite then living in the land. <sup>7</sup>But the LORD appeared to Abram and said: To your offspring I will give this land. There he built an altar to the LORD who had appeared to him. <sup>8</sup>He then moved on to the hills east of Bethel and pitched his tent with Bethel west and Ai east of him. There he also built an altar to the LORD and called on the LORD's name.<sup>k</sup> <sup>9</sup>Then Abram traveled on, continuing toward the southland.<sup>l</sup>

<sup>10</sup>When a famine visited the country, Abram went down to Egypt to stay there a while, because the famine was severe in the land. <sup>11</sup>As he was approaching Egypt, he said to Sarai, his wife, "See here! I know you are a good-looking woman. <sup>12</sup>When the Egyptians catch sight of you, they will say, 'This is his wife'; then they will kill me, but retain you alive. <sup>13</sup>I want you to say you are my sister,<sup>m</sup> so that I may be favored on your account and, because of you, my life will be spared."

<sup>14</sup>As soon as Abram entered Egypt, the Egyptians noticed how rarely beautiful a woman she was. <sup>15</sup>Pharaoh's nobles noticed her too and highly commended her to Pharaoh;<sup>n</sup> so the woman was taken to Pharaoh's palace. <sup>16</sup>On her account he treated Abram with

f) Probably named for the son and brother who had died.

g) Vs. 5 informs us of Abraham's age in 2091 B.C., which puts Abraham's birth in 2166, born when Terah was 130. Ch. 11:26 refers to the start of Terah's fatherhood, only one of the three sons being born in 2226, when Terah was 70.

h) In God's friend Abraham, in the godly nation and supremely in Christ.

i) Abram became Lot's guardian at Haran and Terah's death.

j) Not an oak, but yielding a fine quality of turpentine.

k) Name stood for personality; he communed with God.

l) The southern region of Canaan became known as the Negeb, which means the southland, still called the Negeb, or Negev.

m) It was a half-truth, for Sarai was the daughter of Terah by another wife. [Ch. 20:12].

n) "Pharaoh" was a title rather than a name, so that "the pharaoh" would be correct. Hence its recurrence throughout our sacred Writings.

generosity, giving to him flocks, herds, donkeys, male and female slaves, she-donkeys and camels. <sup>17</sup>But the LORD struck Pharaoh and his household with serious diseases because of Sarai, Abram's wife. <sup>18</sup>So Pharaoh summoned Abram and said, "What is this you have done to me? Why did you not let me know she is your wife?" <sup>19</sup>Why did you say, 'She is my sister' so that I took her for a wife? Look, here is your wife; take her and get out!" <sup>20</sup>Pharaoh ordered an escort for him, to conduct him away with his wife and everything he had.

13 ABRAM WITH HIS WIFE AND all he possessed and Lot along with him, went up from Egypt to the southland, <sup>2</sup>extremely rich in livestock, in silver and in gold. <sup>3</sup>From the Negeb he traveled by stages as far as Bethel,<sup>o</sup> <sup>4</sup>to the place where previously his tent had been, between Bethel and Ai, to the spot where at first he had built the altar, and there Abram called on the name of the LORD.

<sup>5</sup>But Lot, who traveled with Abram, had flocks, too, and herds and tents of his own, <sup>6</sup>and their possessions so increased that the country could not support the two of them while they stayed together, <sup>7</sup>so that conflict developed between the herdsmen of Abram's livestock and those of Lot's. The Canaanite and the Perizzite were then living in the land.

<sup>8</sup>Abram said to Lot, "Please, let there be no disputing between me and you or between my herdsmen and yours, for we are kinsmen. <sup>9</sup>Is not the whole country open to you? I wish you might separate yourself from me, if to the left then I will turn to the right, or if to the right then I will turn to the left."

<sup>10</sup>Lot took a good look and saw how well watered the whole Jordan district was—before the LORD destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah—as far as Zoar, like the LORD's garden<sup>p</sup>, like the land of Egypt. <sup>11</sup>So Lot chose the whole Jordan basin for himself. As Lot moved eastward they separated from each other, <sup>12</sup>Abram living in the Canaan country<sup>q</sup> and Lot in the basin cities. He moved his tent as far as Sodom; <sup>13</sup>but the men of Sodom were exceedingly wicked; flagrant sinners against the LORD.

<sup>14</sup>After Lot had detached himself from Abram, the LORD said to Abram: Now raise your eyes and look from where you stand northward, southward, eastward and westward, <sup>15</sup>for all the land you are viewing I will give you and your offspring forever. <sup>16</sup>I will make your descendants as countless as the dust of the earth, so that, if anyone is able to count the dust particles by number, so may your offspring be numbered. <sup>17</sup>Rise! Traverse the land in its length and in its breadth, for to you will I give it. <sup>18</sup>Abram then moved his tent and came to live at the Mamre terebinths near Hebron and there he built an altar to the LORD.

2091 B.C.?

14 IN THE DAYS OF AMRAPHEL, king of Shinar; Arioch, king of Ellasar, Chedorlaomer, king of Elam, and Tidal, king of nations,<sup>r</sup> <sup>2</sup>these kings made war against Bera, king of Sodom; Birsha, king of Gomorrah; Shinab, king of Admah, Shemeber, king of Zeboim and the king of Belah, that is of Zoar. <sup>3</sup>All these forces met in the Siddim valley which is now the Salt Sea.

<sup>4</sup>For twelve years they had been subject to Chedorlaomer; in the thirteenth year they revolted <sup>5</sup>and in the fourteenth year Chedorlaomer approached with the allied kings. They conquered the Rephaim<sup>s</sup> at Ashteroth Karnaim, the Zuzim at Ham, the Emim in the

<sup>o</sup>) So it is well for us at times to return to places where once God met with us.

<sup>p</sup>) Almost certainly referring to the Garden of Eden. <sup>q</sup>) Abram, older and mightier, stepped back for his nephew Lot.

<sup>r</sup>) Here sacred and secular history meet and dating becomes more feasible. Shinar corresponds to Babylonia [Dan. 1:2; Isa. 11:11; Zech. 5:11] though Amraphel is not to be identified with Hammurabi, king of Babel, who reigned about 1728-1686. Eriaku, king of Larsa, may have been Arioch. Chedorlaomer-Kudurlagamar—means "Servant of Lagamar," an Elamite god. Tidal, king of nations, has been identified as Tudhul, king of Gutium, located north-east of Babylonia.

<sup>s</sup>) The Rephaim were of gigantic stature [Deut. 2:11,20; Josh. 17:17; II Sam. 21:16]. The Zuzim or Zamzuzim were their kin [Deut. 2:20]; so the Emim were tall as the Anakim [Deut. 2:9,11]. The Horites [Gen. 36:20] were destroyed by the Edomites [Deut. 2:12,22]. They carved rooms out of sheer rocks, stories above one another.

Kiriathaim plain, <sup>6</sup> and the Horites in their Seir mountain range as far as El-Paran, near the desert. <sup>7</sup>Turning there, they came to En-Mishpat — that is Kadesh — and sacked the whole Amalekite region<sup>t</sup> and the Amorites who lived at Hazazon-Tamar.

<sup>8</sup>Then the king of Sodom, the king of Gomorrah, the king of Admah, the king of Zeboim and the king of Bela — that is Zoar — marched out in battle-formation against them in the Siddim valley — <sup>9</sup>against Chedorlaomer, king of Elam; Tidal, king of nations; Amraphel, king of Shinar; and Arioch, king of Ellasar — four kings against five. <sup>10</sup>Now the Siddim valley was full of tar pits, so, when the kings of Sodom and Gomorrah took to flight, they fell there, while the rest fled to the mountains. <sup>11</sup>The victors took all the wealth and all the provisions of Sodom and Gomorrah and moved on; <sup>12</sup>they also captured Lot, Abram's nephew, who lived in Sodom, his goods too, and decamped.

<sup>13</sup>But one who had escaped, came to Abram the Hebrew and told him; for he was living by the terebinths of Mamre, the Amorite, the brother of Eshcol and of Aner, who were allies of Abram." <sup>14</sup>When Abram learned that his kinsman had been captured, he mustered his trained men, born in his household, 318 of them, and marched in pursuit as far as Dan. <sup>15</sup>Dividing his force against them by night, he and his men defeated the enemy and chased them as far as Hobah, north of Damascus. <sup>16</sup>He recaptured all the loot and brought back his kinsman Lot and his possessions with the women and the people. <sup>17</sup>Upon his return from the defeat of Chedorlaomer and his royal allies, the king of Sodom came out to meet him in the Shaveh valley — the King's vale. <sup>18</sup>Melchizedek, too, king of Salem and priest to God Most High, brought out food and wine. <sup>19</sup>He also blessed him, saying, "Blessed be Abram by God Most High,

Possessor of heaven and earth, <sup>20</sup>and blessed be God Most High who has delivered your oppressors into your hand."

Then he<sup>v</sup> gave him a tithe of everything.

<sup>21</sup>The king of Sodom said to Abram, "Allow me the persons and you keep the goods for yourself," <sup>22</sup>but Abram answered the king of Sodom, "I lift up my hand to the LORD God Most High, Possessor of heaven and earth, <sup>23</sup>that I will not receive one thread or sandal-strap from anything of yours so that you may never say, 'I made Abram rich'; <sup>24</sup>nothing except what the young men who marched with me have consumed, and the portion to which my allies, Aner, Eshcol and Mamre are entitled; let them take their share."<sup>w</sup>

15 FOLLOWING THESE EVENTS THE word of the LORD came to Abram in a vision: I have no fear, Abram; I am your Shield; your reward is marvelously rich. <sup>2</sup>Abram said, "O, LORD God, what canst Thou give me, since I am ending life childless and my heir is this Eliezer of Damascus." <sup>3</sup>Abram further said, "See, Thou hast given me no offspring and, consider, one belonging to my household will be heir to me." <sup>4</sup>Then the LORD's message to him was: This one shall not be your heir; your heir will be born from your own body. <sup>5</sup>Then He conducted him outdoors and said: Now look toward the heavens and count the stars, if you can number them. So, He told him, shall your offspring be. <sup>6</sup>He believed in the LORD, who accounted it for him as righteousness. <sup>7</sup>Then He said to him: I am the LORD who brought you from Chaldean Ur to give you this land to possess.

<sup>8</sup>"LORD God," he said, "in what way can I be assured it will be mine?"<sup>x</sup> <sup>9</sup>He said; Get Me a three-year-old heifer, a three-year-old she goat, a three-year-old ram, a turtle dove and a young pigeon. <sup>10</sup>All these he got himself and cut them into halves, then laid the halves opposite each other; but the

t) Later possessed by Amalekites, who were descendants of Esau.

u) Abram had achieved enough prominence to form alliance with native chiefs and was glad to secure such friendship to protect his increasing livestock.

v) Abram gave Melchizedek the tithe, because as priest he represented God.

w) Abram did not demand from his allies the loyalty to God that motivated him.

x) Complete faith did not come easily to Abram.

birds he did not divide. <sup>11</sup>And when birds of prey swooped down upon the carcasses, Abram drove them away.

<sup>12</sup>About sunset a deep sleep overcame Abram and a horror of dense darkness got hold of him. <sup>13</sup>Then He said to Abram: You will know with certainty that your descendants shall be aliens in a land not theirs for 400 years, working for those who shall oppress them. <sup>14</sup>In turn I will punish the nation they shall be serving and afterward they will come away with ample wealth. <sup>15</sup>As for yourself, you will join your fathers in peace; you will be buried in ripe old age. <sup>16</sup>But they will come back here in the fourth generation; for the wickedness of the Amorites is not yet brim full.

<sup>17</sup>When the sun had set and dense darkness had come, there appeared a smoking oven and a burning torch passing between those pieces. <sup>18</sup>At that time the LORD made a covenant with Abram, saying: To your descendants I will give this country from the river of Egypt<sup>z</sup> to the Great River, the river Euphrates — <sup>19</sup>the Kenite, the Kenizite, the Kadmonite, <sup>20</sup>the Hittite, the Perizzite, the Raphaim, <sup>21</sup>the Amorite, the Canaanite, the Girgashite and the Jebusite.

2081 B.C.

16 SARAI, ABRAM'S WIFE, BORE him no children, but she had an Egyptian maid named Hagar. <sup>2</sup>So Sarai said to Abram, "See here! The LORD has prevented me from bearing. Do go in to my maid; perhaps I may build up (a family) through her." Abram listened to Sarai's voice <sup>3</sup>and Sarai, Abram's wife, took her maid Hagar, the Egyptian, and gave her to her husband Abram for a wife. That was after Abram had lived in the land of Canaan for ten years.

<sup>4</sup>He went in to Hagar and she conceived; but as soon as she realized that she had conceived, she looked down on her mistress. <sup>5</sup>Then Sarai said to Abram, "May the injury I suffer come home to you. I entrusted my maid to your bosom and as soon as she found herself with child she looked down on me. Let the LORD do justice between me and you." <sup>6</sup>Abram said to Sarai, "Look, your maid is in your power; handle her as you please." Then Sarai treated her harshly until she ran away from her. <sup>7</sup>The Angel of the LORD found her near the spring of water in the desert, by the fountain on the way to Shur<sup>a</sup> <sup>8</sup>and He said: Hagar, Sarai's maid, where have you come from and where are you going?

She said, "I am running away from my mistress Sarai." <sup>9</sup>Then the Angel of the LORD told her: Go back to your mistress and humble yourself under her authority. <sup>10</sup>The Angel of the LORD added: I will greatly increase your descendants beyond all counting, they will be so numerous. <sup>11</sup>The Angel of the LORD, further said: Take note, you are with child and you will give birth to a son, whom you will name Ishmael,<sup>b</sup> because the LORD has noticed your harsh treatment. <sup>12</sup>He will become a wild-ass of a man, his hand against every one and every one's hand against him and he shall live over against all his kindred.<sup>c</sup>

<sup>13</sup>She called the name of the LORD who spoke to her, "Thou seeing God," for she said, "Have I not looked after the One who looked on me?" <sup>14</sup>She named the well, therefore, "Well of the living One who sees me."<sup>d</sup> It is located between Kadesh and Bered. <sup>15</sup>Hagar bore Abram a son and Abram named his son whom Hagar bore, Ishmael. <sup>16</sup>Abram was 86 when Hagar bore him Ishmael.<sup>e</sup>

Early 2067 B.C.

17 WHEN ABRAM WAS 99 THE LORD appeared to Abram and

y) Cycle of age or generation reckoned by the 100 years which was the productive life span of healthy persons.

z) Probably "The River of Egypt," halfway between Philistia and Egypt, a stream that served as southern boundary of Palestine; but the Hebrew word "nahar," used for the Euphrates, too, renders possible the Nile, a few miles east of which the desert began. Then the north-eastern boundaries of Egypt would be the western boundaries of Israel southward.

a) Wall, fortification, along the east border of Egypt. b) God hears.

c) He speaks as the Lord Himself. We believe Him to be the Son of God — the Word.

d) Heb. Beer-Lahai-Roi. e) All Arabians accepting Moslem instructions, claim descent from Ishmael.

told him: I am God Almighty; live in my presence and be upright. <sup>2</sup>I will make My covenant between Me and you and I will in a most unusual way multiply you. <sup>3</sup>Abram fell on his face while God continued speaking to him: <sup>4</sup>As for Me, My covenant is with you and you will be ancestor to many nations. <sup>5</sup>Your name shall no longer be Abram but your name shall become Abraham, because I have designated you a father of many nations; <sup>6</sup>I will render you extremely fruitful.<sup>f</sup> Out of you I will make nations and from you kings shall spring. <sup>7</sup>I will establish My covenant between Me and you and your descendants in their successive generations for an everlasting covenant, to be your God and your offspring's after you. <sup>8</sup>To you and to your descendants after you I will give the country to which you have migrated — the whole Canaanite country — for an everlasting possession; I will be their God.

<sup>9</sup>Therefore, God said to Abraham: You must keep My covenant, you and your descendants after you in their respective generations <sup>10</sup>and this is My covenant between Me and you and your children after you, which you must observe: Every male of you shall be circumcised; <sup>11</sup>you must circumcise the flesh of your foreskin; it shall be for a covenant sign between Me and you. <sup>12</sup>Eight days after his birth every boy born to you throughout your generations shall be circumcised, whether he be of your family circle or bought with money from any outsiders and not of your own offspring; <sup>13</sup> without exception, home-born or bought with money, he must be circumcised.<sup>g</sup> So shall My covenant be marked in your flesh, a never-ending covenant. <sup>14</sup>The uncircumcised male, the flesh of whose foreskin is not circumcised, that person shall be eliminated from his people; he has broken My covenant.

<sup>15</sup>God said to Abraham: As for Sarai, your wife, do not call her Sarai, for her name shall be Sarah; <sup>16</sup>I will bless her, yes, and give you a son by her. I will bless her so that she shall become a mother of nations and from her kings of peoples shall spring.

<sup>17</sup>Abraham fell on his face and laughed, saying to himself, "Shall a child be born to a centenarian, or can Sarah bear at ninety?" <sup>18</sup>So Abraham said to God, "O, that Ishmael might live before Thee!" <sup>19</sup>But God said: No, but Sarah, your wife, is about to bear you a son and you will name him Isaac.<sup>h</sup> With him, too, I will establish My covenant as an everlasting covenant for his children after him. <sup>20</sup>I have also heard you regarding Ishmael and will indeed bless him, and render him fruitful. I will multiply him immensely; he will be ancestor to twelve princes and I will set him up for a great nation. <sup>21</sup>But My Covenant I will establish with Isaac, whom Sarah will bear you this season next year.

<sup>22</sup>When God had ended speaking with him, He ascended from Abraham <sup>23</sup>and Abraham took his son Ishmael and all the males born in his household; also those bought with his money, every male from his communal group, and on that very day circumcised the flesh of their foreskin, as God had told him. <sup>24</sup>Abraham was circumcised at 99 in the flesh of his foreskin <sup>25</sup>and his son Ishmael at thirteen. <sup>26</sup>Abraham and his son Ishmael were circumcised that same day, <sup>27</sup>and so were all the males of his household with him, those home-born and those purchased for money from the stranger.

Late 2067 B.C.

18 THE LORD APPEARED TO HIM BY the Mamre terebinths as he was sitting in the tent-door when the day was hot.<sup>i</sup> <sup>2</sup>He looked up and saw three men standing opposite him. On seeing them, he ran from the tent-door to meet them, and bowing to the ground, <sup>3</sup>he said, "My master, if you would do me a favor, then, please do not pass your servant by. <sup>4</sup>I beg of you, let us have a little water brought, to

f) Abram-exalted father; Abraham — father of a multitude.

g) Not without hygienic value, too, especially during adolescent years.

h) Laughter, for both Abraham and Sarah laughed in view of the apparently impossible prospect; and at his birth they laughed [21:6]. i) Any time from 12 to 3:00 p.m.

wash your feet. Recline under the tree <sup>5</sup>while I get a bite of bread so you may refresh yourselves; then you may go on; for this you surely came by your servant."

They said, "Do as you have said." <sup>6</sup>So Abraham hurried to the tent to Sarah and said, "Quickly, bring three pecks of fine meal; knead it and bake cakes." <sup>7</sup>Then Abraham ran to the herd, took a calf tender and good and gave it to the servant who dressed it in short order. <sup>8</sup>He then took curds, milk and the prepared veal, placed it before them and stood by them under the tree, while they ate.

<sup>9</sup>They asked him, "Where is your wife Sarah?" He said, "There in the tent." <sup>10</sup>Then He said,<sup>j</sup> Without fail I shall come back to you at the reviving season and, see, Sarah, your wife will have a son.

Now Sarah was listening in at the tent door behind Him, <sup>11</sup>and since Abraham and Sarah were aged, well advanced in years, and the custom of women had ceased with Sarah, <sup>12</sup>she laughed to herself, saying, "Connubial enjoyment for me, worn out as I am; and my master aged, too?" <sup>13</sup>The LORD asked Abraham: Why did Sarah laugh just then, saying, "How could I possibly bear a child, old as I am?" <sup>14</sup>Is anything beyond the LORD's reach? At the appointed time<sup>k</sup> I will return to you, at the reviving season and Sarah will have a son. <sup>15</sup>Feeling afraid, Sarah made denial, "I did not laugh." He said: No, but you did laugh.

<sup>16</sup>The men got up from there, looking toward Sodom, and Abraham went with them to direct their way. <sup>17</sup>Then the LORD said, Am I hiding from Abraham what I am about to do, <sup>18</sup>whereas Abraham will certainly become a great and powerful nation, and all the nations on earth shall be blessed through him? <sup>19</sup>For I have known him, so that he may charge his children and his household after him to keep the way of the LORD, doing what is right and fair, so that the LORD may bestow upon Abraham what He has told him.

<sup>20</sup>Then the LORD said: The Sodom and Gomorrah outcry is loud and their sin is very grievous. <sup>21</sup>I will now go down and see whether their behavior is like the outcry that has reached Me; and if not, I will know.<sup>l</sup>

<sup>22</sup>Then the men turned and went on to Sodom, while Abraham remained standing before the LORD. <sup>23</sup>Abraham came closer and said, "Wilt Thou wipe out the good too, with the bad? <sup>24</sup>There are perhaps fifty good persons in the city; wilt Thou indeed wipe out and not pardon the community because of the fifty good people among them? <sup>25</sup>Far be it from Thee to do such a thing, to slay the good with the bad, to treat righteous and wicked alike. Far be it from Thee. Shall not the Judge of all the earth deal justly?"

<sup>26</sup>The LORD said: If I find within the city of Sodom fifty righteous, then I will grant pardon to the whole place for their sake.

<sup>27</sup>Abraham replied, "I am aware that I have undertaken to speak to the LORD although I am but dust and ashes; <sup>28</sup>perchance there will be five lacking of the fifty righteous, wilt Thou for five destroy the entire city?" If I find there forty-five, He said, I will not destroy it.<sup>m</sup>

<sup>29</sup>Once more he spoke to Him, "Perchance forty will be found there." And He said, For the sake of the forty I will take no action.

<sup>30</sup>He said, "Let not the LORD be angry, so that I may speak; perhaps there will be thirty found there." He said, I will not act, if I find thirty there.

<sup>31</sup>He said, "Thou seest that I am undertaking to speak to the LORD; perchance twenty shall be found there." And He said, I will not destroy it for the twenty's sake.

<sup>32</sup>He said, "Let not the LORD be

j) Again this is the Lord Himself, ultimately to come as the Messiah.

k) Appointment made, Ch. 17:21. God may have thought so within Himself, as some surmise, but more likely He expressed Himself to Abraham. Abraham's walk with Him was evidence of hospitality, observed in Eastern lands more than here.

l) God sent his messengers to Sodom; He knew the measure of their wickedness.

m) Our Lord's teaching on prayer [Lk. 11:5-13; 18:1-8], is in line with Abraham's persistence and God's patient response.

my sister; she is my father's daughter, but not my mother's and she became my wife. <sup>13</sup>So when God made me wander away from my father's home, I said to her, 'Show me this kindness,— wherever we go, say of me, he is my brother.'"<sup>14</sup>Abimelech then made Abraham a present of flocks and herds, with male and female servants and he returned Sarah, his wife, to him. <sup>15</sup>"Look! my land is at your disposal," Abimelech said, "settle wherever you please." <sup>16</sup>And to Sarah he said, "Take note! I have given your brother 1,000 silver dollars by way of compensation to you for all that you and yours experienced, and, before all, your name is totally cleared."

<sup>17</sup>Abraham prayed to God<sup>c</sup> and God healed Abimelech; also his wife and his maids, so they gave birth to children, <sup>18</sup>for the Lord had completely closed the wombs in Abimelech's household on account of Sarah, Abraham's wife. 2066 B.C.

21 THE LORD CAME TO SARAH AS He had said; He dealt with her as He had promised.<sup>d</sup> <sup>2</sup>Sarah conceived and bore Abraham a son in his old age, at the season which God had mentioned to him. <sup>3</sup>Abraham named the newly born son whom Sarah bore him, Isaac <sup>4</sup>and, in agreement with God's command, Abraham circumcised his son Isaac when he was 8 days old, <sup>5</sup>Abraham himself being 100 at his son Isaac's birth. <sup>6</sup>Sarah remarked, "God has prepared laughter for me; every one who hears of it will laugh with me." <sup>7</sup>Then she added, "Who would have told Abraham, 'Sarah will nurse children'? For I have borne him a son in his old age."

<sup>8</sup>The child grew big enough to be weaned<sup>e</sup> and on Isaac's weaning day Abraham prepared a great feast. <sup>9</sup>But Sarah noticed the son of Hagar, the Egyptian, whom she had borne Abraham, teasing.<sup>f</sup> <sup>10</sup>So she told Abraham, "Expel this servant girl with her son;

for the son of this servant girl shall not inherit with my son, with Isaac." <sup>11</sup>To Abraham the proposal seemed very wrong on account of his son, <sup>12</sup>but God said to Abraham; Do not consider it objectionable because of the lad and because of your maid. Listen to everything Sarah tells you, for your name shall be perpetuated through Isaac; <sup>13</sup>and of the son of the maid, too, I will make a nation, because he is your offspring.

<sup>14</sup>Early next morning Abraham got up, took bread and a skin of water,<sup>g</sup> which he gave to Hagar and put on her shoulder, also the lad<sup>h</sup> and dismissed her. She left and roamed in the Beersheba desert <sup>15</sup>until the water in the skin-bottle was gone. Then she put the youth beneath one of the shrubs <sup>16</sup>and went to seat herself at a bow-shot's distance opposite him, for she said, "I must not see the boy die." As she sat there, she wept audibly; <sup>17</sup>but God heard the lad's call, and the angel of God called to Hagar from heaven: "Hagar, what is troubling you? I have no fear, for God has heard the lad's voice there where he is." <sup>18</sup>Rise up, raise the boy and hold him by the hand, for I will make him into a great nation."

<sup>19</sup>Then God opened her eyes and she noticed a spring; so she went and filled the skin with water and gave the lad to drink. <sup>20</sup>God was with the youth; he grew up and lived in the desert, becoming an expert bowman. <sup>21</sup>He made the Paran desert his home and his mother got him a wife from the land of Egypt.

<sup>22</sup>About that time Abimelech and Phicol, his general, said to Abraham, "God is with you in everything you do. <sup>23</sup>Now swear to me here before God that you will not play me false, nor my children, nor my posterity, but that, as I have shown you friendship, so you will treat me and the land in which you are an immigrant." <sup>24</sup>Abraham answered, "I so swear." <sup>25</sup>But

c) As Job was commissioned to pray for his three friends. The prayer of a devout worshiper "avails much" [James 5:16], and believers need to exercise that grace in behalf also of non-believers.

d) Enabling her to be a mother. e) Usually on the fifth birthday.

f) The Septuagint has, "laughing at her son Isaac."

g) A goat's complete body-skin, well sewed together so that no leak occurred.

h. Ishmael was around 18; his mother did not carry him, as some would have it.

i) Ishmael may have learned from his father to whom he might turn for help when all else has failed.

Abraham complained to Abimelech because of a water-well, which Abimelech's servants had seized; <sup>26</sup>to which Abimelech replied, "I do not know who did this; you never told me and I never heard of it till today."<sup>j</sup>

<sup>27</sup>Then Abraham presented sheep and cattle to Abimelech, and the two made a covenant. <sup>28</sup>When Abraham set apart seven ewe lambs from the flock, <sup>29</sup>Abimelech asked him, "What about those seven ewe lambs you have set apart?" <sup>30</sup>He answered, "Accept these seven ewe lambs from me to be my witness that I have dug this well." <sup>31</sup>The place was therefore named Beer-sheba; for there both made an oath. <sup>32</sup>They thus made a covenant at Beer-sheba.<sup>k</sup>

Then Abimelech and his general Phicol got ready and returned to the Philistine country. <sup>33</sup>Abraham planted a tamarisk at Beer-sheba<sup>l</sup> and there he called on the name of the LORD, the everlasting God. <sup>34</sup>For many a day Abraham lived as a stranger in the land of the Philistines.

22 FOLLOWING THIS, GOD TESTED<sup>m</sup>

Abraham. He said to him, Abraham! He answered, "Here I am." <sup>2</sup>Take now your son, He said, your only one, Isaac, whom you love; be-take yourself to the region of Moriah and there offer him up as a burnt-sacrifice on one of the summits which I will designate to you. <sup>3</sup>Early next morning Abraham got up, saddled his donkey, selected two young men to go with him, as well as his son Isaac, split the wood for a burnt-offering, then started out for the location of which God had told him. <sup>4</sup>On the third day Abraham looked up and in the distance saw the place. <sup>5</sup>Abraham said to his young men, "Stay here by yourselves with the donkey; while I and the lad go yonder; so we may worship and return to you."<sup>n</sup>

<sup>6</sup>Abraham took the wood for the burnt-offering and laid it on Isaac,<sup>o</sup> his son, while he carried in his hand the torch and a knife; so the two walked together. <sup>7</sup>"My father," Isaac said to his father Abraham, who said, "Here I am, my son."<sup>p</sup> Then he inquired, "Here are the fire and the wood; but where is the lamb for the burnt-offering?" <sup>8</sup>Abraham answered, "My son, God will provide Himself the lamb for the burnt-offering"; so the two walked on together.

<sup>9</sup>When they reached the spot of which God had told him, Abraham built the altar there; then he arranged the wood and bound his son Isaac,<sup>q</sup> whom he laid on the altar upon the wood. <sup>10</sup>Abraham then reached out his hand and took hold of the knife to slay his son; <sup>11</sup>but the Angel of the LORD called out to him from heaven, Abraham! Abraham! He said, "Here I am." <sup>12</sup>Do not lay hands on the lad, He said, do nothing to him; for now I know that you revere God. You have not held back from Me your son, your only one.

<sup>13</sup>Abraham raised his eyes and there behind him he saw a ram, entangled by its horns in a thicket; so Abraham went, took the ram and offered it for a sacrifice instead of his son. <sup>14</sup>Abraham called that place Jehovah-Jireh,<sup>r</sup> so that to this day it is said, "In the mountain of the LORD it shall be provided."

<sup>15</sup>The angel of the LORD called to Abraham from heaven a second time; <sup>16</sup>He said, "By Myself I have sworn, the LORD says, because you have done this and have not held back your son, your only one," <sup>17</sup>I will bless you beyond words; I will greatly multiply your descendants so as to compare with the

j) Abimelech denied responsibility, which he should exercise; hence Abraham's demand for an oath.

k) Beer - well; sheba - oath; Well of the oath.

l) Evidence that Abraham expected to stay there for a good while; he must have considered it part of "the land of promise."

m) God does not tempt [James 1:13]; temptation is always from "the evil one." But God tests often.

n) He knew they would both return. o) The son was physically stronger than the father.

p) Whenever the words, "Here I am" occur, the literal words are, "Look at me"; so that usually "Here I am," will do.

q) To which Isaac was perfectly agreed, even as the Son of God so loved the world - and the Father - that He gave Himself. r) Meaning, The Lord will provide.

s) God did not allow Abraham to forget that his affair with Hagar was altogether out of order; that only Isaac was the son of His promise.

stars of heaven and the sand on the seashore for numbers. Your offspring shall possess the gate of his enemies <sup>18</sup>and through your offspring all peoples of the earth shall be blessed; because you have obeyed My voice." <sup>19</sup>Then Abraham went back to his young men and together they started for Beer-sheba where Abraham made his home.

<sup>20</sup>Later this news came to Abraham: Take note, Milcah, she too has borne children to your brother Nahor—<sup>21</sup>Uz, his first-born; <sup>22</sup>his brother Buz; Kemuel, the father of Aram; <sup>23</sup>Chesed, Hazo, Pildash, Jidlaph, and Bethuel. <sup>24</sup>To Bethuel Rebekah was born. These eight Milcah bore to Nahor, Abraham's brother. <sup>25</sup>Also Reumah, his concubine, bore Tebah, Gaham, Tahash and Maacah.

2029 B.C.

23 SARAH'S LENGTH OF LIFE WAS 127 years; <sup>2</sup>she died at Kiriath-Arba, which is Hebron, in the land of Canaan. Abraham<sup>v</sup> came to lament and weep for her. <sup>3</sup>Then arising from the presence of his dead, Abraham said to the sons of Heth,<sup>w</sup> <sup>4</sup>"As I am a stranger and immigrant among you, may I have my own burial ground among you, so that I may bury my dead from my presence?" <sup>5</sup>The Hittites answered Abraham, <sup>6</sup>"Listen to us, Sir! You are a godlike prince among us. Bury your dead in the choicest of our sepulchres; none of us will refuse you his sepulchre for burying your dead." <sup>7</sup>Then Abraham stood up, bowed earthward to the Hittites, the people of the land, <sup>8</sup>and told them, "If you are willing to have me bury my dead from my presence, then listen to me: Request for me of Ephron, Zohar's son, <sup>9</sup>to let me have the Machpelah cave he has at the end of his field. At its full price he should let me have it in your presence for my own cemetery lot."

<sup>10</sup>Ephron was sitting among the sons of Heth; so Ephron the Hittite answered Abraham in the hearing of all the Hittites,<sup>x</sup> who were entering the city-gate, <sup>11</sup>"No, Sir. Listen to me! I give you the field and the cave it contains; I give it to you with the sons of my people witnessing; you bury your dead."

<sup>12</sup>Abraham bowed down before the people of the land <sup>13</sup>and said to Ephron, so that all the natives heard it, "If you consent, then please listen to me. I will pay you for the field; accept the money from me, and I will bury my dead."

<sup>14</sup>Ephron answered Abraham, <sup>15</sup>"Listen to me, Sir! The land is worth 260 dollars, what does that amount to between me and you? Go ahead, and bury your dead."

<sup>16</sup>Abraham understood Ephron; so he weighed out to Ephron the silver he had stipulated in the hearing of the Hittites, 260 dollars, currency with the merchants. <sup>17</sup>This secured Ephron's field at Machpelah that faced Mamre; the field with the cave that was in it, and all the trees that were in the field to its surrounding boundaries <sup>18</sup>were legally conveyed to Abraham to be his property, witnessed by all the Hittites who were entering the gate of his city. <sup>19</sup>This done, Abraham buried his wife Sarah in the cave of the Machpelah field, fronting Mamre, that is Hebron, in the land of Canaan. <sup>20</sup>The field and the cave it contained were legally conveyed by the sons of Heth into Abraham's possession for a cemetery.<sup>y</sup>

2026 B.C.

24 WHEN ABRAHAM WAS OLD AND up in years, blessed of God in every way, <sup>2</sup>he said to the oldest servant in his household, who was in charge of all his property, "Kindly place your hand under my thigh, <sup>3</sup>and I will have you swear by the LORD, the God of heaven and earth, that you will not get my son a wife from the daugh-

t) Job is later mentioned as living in the land of Uz.

u) Aram has given his name to all Arameans, to many more than his own descendants.

v) Abraham had moved back to Mamre. Sarah had her own tent; which Abraham entered for the mourning.

w) The Hittites were a great nation north and east of Palestine. A colony of them had migrated to southern Canaan. x) We would say, "The citizens," in this case of Hebron.

y) Here we have a true picture of an important business transaction in the Near East, without use of writing; the price was high, but Abraham would not barter.

ters of the Canaanites, among whom I am living. <sup>4</sup>Instead, you must go to my country and to my relatives to obtain a wife for my son Isaac.”<sup>z</sup>

<sup>5</sup>The servant said to him, “In case the woman is not willing to follow me to this country, then should I take your son back to the land from which you came?” <sup>6</sup>Abraham told him, “Beware of taking my son back there. <sup>7</sup>The LORD, the God of heaven, who took me from my father’s house and from the land of my family, who spoke to me and made oath to me, ‘To your offspring I will give this land,’ He will send His angel ahead of you, so that you may obtain a wife from there for my son. <sup>8</sup>However, should the woman be unwilling to come with you, then you are released from this oath to me; only, do not take my son back there.”

<sup>9</sup>The servant then placed his hand under his master Abraham’s thigh and swore to him to that effect. <sup>10</sup>He took ten of his master’s camels, and took the road with all sorts of his master’s treasures in hand; he went to Mesopotamia, to Nahor’s town. <sup>11</sup>There, outside the town, he made the camels kneel near the well of water. It was toward evening when the women came out to draw water.

<sup>12</sup>He said, “LORD God of my master Abraham, prosper me, I pray, this day and show grace to my master Abraham. <sup>13</sup>See, I am standing here by the well of water, while the daughters of the townsmen are coming out to draw water. <sup>14</sup>May it be so, that the girl to whom I say, ‘Please, lower your pitcher so that I may drink,’ and who shall answer, ‘Drink, and I will water your camels, too,’ that she may be the girl Thou hast designated for Thy servant Isaac. By this I shall know that Thou hast treated my master graciously.”<sup>a</sup>

<sup>15</sup>Things began to happen before he had done speaking: Rebekah, born to Bethuel, son of Milcah, the wife of Nahor, Abraham’s brother, was coming out with a pitcher on her shoulder.

<sup>16</sup>The girl was exceptionally good-looking, a virgin — no man had known her. Going down to the well, she filled her pitcher and came up. <sup>17</sup>The servant ran to meet her and said, “Would you kindly let me have a drink of water from your pitcher?”

<sup>18</sup>She said, “Drink, sir!” and quickly lowered the pitcher on her hand to give him a drink. <sup>19</sup>When she was through quenching his thirst, she said, “I will draw for your camels, too, until they have enough.” <sup>20</sup>Promptly she emptied the pitcher into the trough, ran back to the well to draw and drew for all the camels.<sup>b</sup>

<sup>21</sup>Silently the man stood gazing at her, to observe whether or not the LORD had made his trip successful, <sup>22</sup>and when the camels had finished drinking the man produced a quarter-ounce ring of gold and two five-ounce golden bracelets for her wrists <sup>23</sup>and asked her, “Whose daughter are you? Please, tell me, is there room at your father’s house for us to lodge?” <sup>24</sup>She told him, “I am the daughter of Bethuel, the son of Milcah, whom she bore to Nahor.” <sup>25</sup>Then she added, “We have plenty of straw and fodder and space to spend the night.” <sup>26</sup>The man then bowed and worshiped the LORD. <sup>27</sup>He said, “Praised be the LORD God of my master Abraham, who has not failed my master with His mercy and His truth. I, being on the way, the LORD guided me to the house of my master’s kinsfolk.”<sup>c</sup>

<sup>28</sup>The girl ran to tell everything at her mother’s home. <sup>29</sup>Rebekah had a brother named Laban and Laban ran out to the well to the man. <sup>30</sup>So it was, when he saw the ring, also the bracelets on his sister’s wrists, and heard his sister Rebekah repeat what the man had said to her, he ran outdoors to the well and exclaimed, as he saw the man standing there, <sup>31</sup>“Come in, you blessed of the LORD. Why stand outdoors when I have gotten the house ready and a place for the camels?” <sup>32</sup>So the man

z) Abraham would gladly have married Isaac to the daughter of a home as godly as his own; but there was none; so he kept near to it. a) He was looking for physical ability and a benevolent disposition. b) One likes to think the cameleers assisted, too; but Rebekah showed her mettle. c) Cooperation between God and man; the man on the move and God guiding.

came in and unloaded the camels. Then he<sup>d</sup> provided straw and fodder; also water to wash his feet and the feet of the men with him. <sup>33</sup>Food was placed before him to eat. But he said, "I shall not eat until I have told my errand."

"Tell it!" he said. <sup>34</sup>So he spoke, "I am Abraham's servant, <sup>35</sup>and the LORD has richly blessed my master; he has become great. He has given him flocks, and herds, silver and gold, male and female servants, camels and donkeys. <sup>36</sup>After Sarah, my master's wife, had grown old, she bore my master a son, to whom he is leaving all he has.<sup>e</sup> <sup>37</sup>My master also made me swear; he said, 'Secure no wife for my son from the daughters of the Canaanites, in whose land I am living; <sup>38</sup>but go to my father's house, to my relatives, and get a wife for my son.'

<sup>39</sup>"I said to my master, 'Perhaps the woman will not follow me,' <sup>40</sup>but he told me, 'The LORD, in whose presence I walk, will send His angel with you to render your trip successful, so that you will obtain a wife for my son from my relatives and from my father's house. <sup>41</sup>You will then be freed from your oath to me. If, when you come to my kinsmen, they fail to give you (one), then you are freed from your oath!'

<sup>42</sup>"Today as I came to the well, I said, 'LORD God of my master Abraham, if Thou art about to prosper the way I am going, <sup>43</sup>see, I am standing by the water-well; let it be that the girl who comes to draw water, to whom I say, 'Please, let me drink a little water from your pitcher,' <sup>44</sup>and who says to me, 'You drink, and I will draw for your camels, too,' let her be the woman whom the LORD has designated for my master's son. <sup>45</sup>And before I was through saying this in myself, there came Rebekah with her pitcher on her shoulder. She went down to the well and drew. I said to her, 'Please, let me have a drink.' <sup>46</sup>Quickly she lowered her pitcher and said, 'I have a drink, and I will water your camels, too!' So I drank, and she watered the camels, too.

<sup>47</sup>"Then I asked her, 'Whose daughter are you?' And she said, 'The daughter of Bethuel, Nahor's son, whom Milcah bore him.' I then put the ring on her face and the bracelets on her wrists, <sup>48</sup>and I bowed myself in worship to the LORD and praised the LORD God of my master Abraham, who had guided me in the right road to take the daughter of my master's brother for his son. <sup>49</sup>Now then, if you are going to treat my master kindly and fairly, let me know; or if not, let me know, so I may turn to the right or to the left."

<sup>50</sup>Both Laban and Bethuel<sup>f</sup> replied, "This thing is from the LORD; we cannot speak for or against it. <sup>51</sup>Look, Rebekah is present; take her and go; let her marry your master's son, in agreement with the LORD's message." <sup>52</sup>When Abraham's servant heard their response, he bowed to the earth before the LORD; <sup>53</sup>then the servant brought out and gave Rebekah articles of silver and of gold, and clothes. Her brother and her mother he gave jewelry, too. <sup>54</sup>Then he and the men with him ate and drank, and they stayed overnight.

As they got up in the morning, he said, "Let me go back to my master"; <sup>55</sup>but her brother and her mother said, "Let the girl stay with us a few days, maybe ten, after which she may go." <sup>56</sup>But he told them, "Do not detain me, since the LORD has made my journey successful; let me be off to get back to my master." <sup>57</sup>They said, "Let us call the girl and ask her personally." <sup>58</sup>So they called Rebekah and asked her, "Are you willing to go with this man?" Her answer was, "I will go!" <sup>59</sup>Then they saw their sister Rebekah off with her nurse and with Abraham's servant and his men. <sup>60</sup>They pronounced a blessing on Rebekah, "You, our sister, may you become the mother of mild) Not the servant, but Laban, furnished the necessities.

e) Abraham's representative was a good salesman.

f) Laban assumed the rights of the first-born rather early, as aggressive sons are likely to do. And, oriental fashion, Rebekah had not been consulted. This seems Rebekah's father's first and only chance to get in a word edgewise; Laban, her brother, did all the conversing.

lions, and may your offspring possess the gates of those who hate them."

<sup>61</sup>Then Rebekah started with her maids and, riding on camels, they followed the man; thus the servant obtained Rebekah and took his course.

<sup>62</sup>Now, Isaac had come from a trip to the well of Lahairoi, for he was living in the South. <sup>63</sup>He had gone out in the field for his twilight meditations and looking up, he saw camels coming.

<sup>64</sup>Rebekah looked up, too. When she saw Isaac, she slid down from the camel <sup>65</sup>and asked the servant, "Who is that man over there, walking in the field to meet us?" The servant replied, "That is my master." She therefore took her veil and covered herself.

<sup>66</sup>The servant told Isaac everything he had done, <sup>67</sup>and Isaac conducted her inside his mother Sarah's tent. He married Rebekah;<sup>f</sup> she became his wife, and he came to love her. So Isaac found consolation after his mother's death.

25 ABRAHAM MARRIED ANOTHER wife named Keturah,<sup>2</sup> who bore him Zimran, Jokshan, Medan, Midian,<sup>h</sup> Ishbak, and Shuah. <sup>3</sup>Jokshan got Sheba and Dedan. The children of Dedan were the Asshurites, the Letushites, and the Leummites. <sup>4</sup>And the sons of Midian were Ephah, Epher, Hanoch, Abida and Eldaah. All these were Keturah's children.

1991 B.C.

<sup>5</sup>Abraham left all he had to Isaac; <sup>6</sup>but, while still living, Abraham gave presents to the children of his concubines and sent them away eastward to the Kedem<sup>1</sup> country, out of Isaac's way. <sup>7</sup>Abraham's life span was 175 years; <sup>8</sup>then at a ripe old age, after a long and full life, Abraham expired. He was gathered to his people, <sup>9</sup>and his sons Isaac and Ishmael buried him in the Machpelah cave, fronting Mamre, in the field of Ephron, the son of Zohar the Hittite, <sup>10</sup>which Abraham had bought from the Hittites. There Abraham was buried beside Sarah, his wife. <sup>11</sup>After Abraham's death, God's blessing was on his son Isaac, who lived at the well of Lahairoi.<sup>1</sup>

<sup>12</sup>These are the descendants of Ishmael, the son of Abraham, whom Hagar, the Egyptian, Sarah's maid, bore to Abraham; <sup>13</sup>these are the names of Ishmael's sons by their names, in the order of their birth: Ishmael's first-born, Nebayoth; then Kedar, Adbeel, Mibsam, <sup>14</sup>Mishma, Dumah, Massa, <sup>15</sup>Hadad, Tema, Jetur, Naphish, and Kedemah. <sup>16</sup>These are Ishmael's sons by their names, their villages, and their encampments, twelve chiefs with their clans.

1943 B.C.

<sup>17</sup>This is the length of Ishmael's life, 137 years; then he breathed his last; he died and was gathered to his people; <sup>18</sup>who lived from Havilah as far as Shur, east of Egypt on the way toward Assyria. He settled before all his kin.<sup>k</sup>

<sup>19</sup>These are the descendants of Isaac the son of Abraham: Isaac was born to Abraham. <sup>20</sup>At 40 Isaac married Rebekah, the daughter of Bethuel, the Aramean of Padan Aram and sister to Laban the Aramean. <sup>21</sup>Isaac prayed the LORD on behalf of his wife, for she remained childless, and the LORD responded to his entreaty; his wife Rebekah conceived. <sup>22</sup>Then within her body the children jostled each other, and she said, "If this is so, why am I this way?" So she went to the LORD to find out <sup>23</sup>and the LORD told her: Two nations exist in your womb, and two peoples shall separate from your body, one stronger than the other, and the older shall serve the younger.<sup>1</sup>

<sup>24</sup>When her days for delivery were completed, there were indeed twins in her womb. <sup>25</sup>The first came out reddish all over, like a hairy coat; so they called him Esau.<sup>m</sup> <sup>26</sup>Then his brother was born, his hand holding on to Esau's

g) Both were hopeful and neither was disappointed. Both seem to have been disciplined in the give-and-take ways of living and thus made a better match than results from purely physical attraction. Habitually relating his interests to God, Isaac's feet turned him for his meditation in the direction from which his bride was coming. h) The Midianites are to make life hard for the Israelites.

i) Where the Lord had shown Hagar and Ishmael a spring when they were thirsty.

j) Mostly the region of the Israelites' journeyings in the desert, therefore south of Jacob's, Esau's, and Lot's descendants. k) The location is foretold, Ch. 16:12. l) That is, Jacob was to enjoy the rights of the first-born. m) Esau - hairy; Edom - Red; Jacob - heel-grabber, therefore, Supplanter.

heel; so they named him Jacob. Isaac was 60 when she bore them. <sup>27</sup>As the boys matured, Esau became an expert hunter, a man of the open spaces, while Jacob was of a quiet disposition, living in tents. <sup>28</sup>Isaac favored Esau, for he enjoyed the taste of his game; and Rebekah favored Jacob.<sup>a</sup>

<sup>29</sup>Jacob was boiling a stew when Esau came in from the field, exhausted, <sup>30</sup>and he said to Jacob, "Let me drink some of that red, that red there, for I am famished"—hence his name Edom. <sup>31</sup>Jacob replied, "First sell me your birthright!" <sup>32</sup>Esau said, "Look here! I am starving; then what good will my birthright do me!" <sup>33</sup>"Swear to me this moment," Jacob said, and he swore to him; he sold his birthright to Jacob. <sup>34</sup>Then Jacob dished Esau bread and lentil stew. He ate and drank, then got up and went his way. Thus lightly did Esau esteem his birthright.

26 A FAMINE VISITED THE LAND IN addition to the earlier famine in Abraham's day, so Isaac moved to Gerar, to Abimelech<sup>o</sup> the Philistine king. <sup>2</sup>Then the LORD appeared to him and said, Do not go down to Egypt; remain in the land which I indicate to you. <sup>3</sup>Live as an immigrant in this land and I will be with you and bless you; for to you and to your descendants I will give all this territory. I will make good the oath I swore to your father Abraham; <sup>4</sup>I will make your offspring as countless as the stars of heaven, and I will give your descendants all these lands. Through your offspring all the nations of the earth shall be blessed, <sup>5</sup>because Abraham minded My voice and kept My charge, My orders, My rules and My laws. <sup>6</sup>So Isaac stayed at Gerar. <sup>7</sup>When the men of the community inquired about his wife, he said, "She is my sister," for he was afraid to say, "She is my wife," (thinking) the men of this place may kill me to get Rebekah, who is beautiful.

<sup>8</sup>So it was after he had been there a long time that Abimelech, the king, looked out of the window, and there he saw Isaac caressing his wife Rebekah. <sup>9</sup>Abimelech then summoned Isaac and said, "See here, she is really your wife. How could you say, 'She is my sister'?" Isaac told him, "Because I reasoned that else she might cost me my life." <sup>10</sup>Abimelech retorted, "What is this that you have done to us! One of my men might readily have lain with your wife, and you would have brought guilt upon us." <sup>11</sup>Then Abimelech charged all the people, "Whoever touches this man or his wife shall certainly be executed."

<sup>12</sup>Isaac sowed his crop in that land and that year he harvested a hundredfold; the LORD blessed him. <sup>13</sup>He became a rich man and continued prospering until he grew so very wealthy, <sup>14</sup>owning flocks and herds and a great body of servants, that the Philistines envied him. <sup>15</sup>They stopped all the wells which his father's servants had dug in his father Abraham's time, filling them up with dirt. <sup>16</sup>Abimelech told Isaac, "Move away from us, for you are much more powerful than we."<sup>p</sup>

<sup>17</sup>So Isaac moved away from there; made camp in the Gerar valley and lived there. <sup>18</sup>The water-wells that had been dug in his father Abraham's time, but which the Philistines had choked after Abraham's death, he reopened; he also gave them the same names his father had given them. <sup>19</sup>But when Isaac's servants dug in the valley and struck a spring of running water, <sup>20</sup>the Gerar shepherds disputed with Isaac's shepherds, saying, "The water is ours." So he named the well Esek<sup>q</sup> because they disputed with him. <sup>21</sup>They dug another well, over which there also was a dispute; so he named it Sitnah.<sup>q</sup> <sup>22</sup>He moved away from there and dug another well, over which there was no dispute. He named it Rehoboth, saying, "Surely, now the LORD has made

n) Until modern times favoritism in the home has been a serious trouble, aggravated by the naming of children after kin on either side of the family.

o) The name Abimelech, like the name Pharaoh in Egypt, seems to have been a title that applied to successive rulers.

p) Isaac with all his servants and their families was still fewer in numbers, but in movable property he outstripped all the Philistine sheiks. And his flocks and herds fed on what grew in the Philistine country so long as the Hebrew clan remained among them.

q) Esek — Contention; Sitna — Enmity, or accusation, satanic.

room for us, in order that we may be fruitful in the land."

<sup>23</sup>From there he went up to Beer-sheba, <sup>24</sup>where that night the LORD appeared to him and said: I am the God of your father Abraham. Have no fear, for I am with you, and I will bless you and multiply your descendants for the sake of My servant Abraham. <sup>25</sup>There he built an altar and called upon the name of the LORD; there he made camp, and there Isaac's servants dug a well.

<sup>26</sup>Abimelech called on him from Gerar, with his friend Ahuzzath and his general Phicol. <sup>27</sup>Isaac asked him, "Why do you call on me when you hate me and sent me away from you?" <sup>28</sup>They said, "We have clearly seen how the LORD is with you; so we said, 'Let there now be an oath between us, between us and you, and let us make a covenant with you, <sup>29</sup>that you will not harm us, since we have not touched you.' We have done you nothing but good, and we sent you away in peace; you are now blessed of the LORD!" <sup>30</sup>He then prepared a banquet for them; they ate and drank <sup>31</sup>and, rising early in the morning, they swore each to the other. Then Isaac bade them farewell, and they took their leave from him in peace.

<sup>32</sup>That same day Isaac's servants came to tell him about a well they had dug; they reported to him, "We have found water." <sup>33</sup>He named it Shebah; therefore to this day the town is called Beer-sheba.<sup>r</sup>

<sup>34</sup>At forty Esau married Judith, the daughter of Be-eri, the Hittite; also Basemath, the daughter of Elon, the Hittite, <sup>35</sup>which brought great distress to Isaac and Rebekah.

1929 B.C.

27 WHEN ISAAC WAS AGING AND HIS eyes had grown so dim that he could not see, he called Esau, his elder son, saying to him, "My son," to which he replied, "Here I am!" <sup>2</sup>He said, "Look here, I am growing old; I do not know when I may die; <sup>3</sup> so now, please take your hunting outfit, your arrow-case and your bow; go out in the open country and hunt game for me. Prepare me a tasty dish, the kind I am fond of, and bring it to me to eat, so I may <sup>4</sup>give you my blessing before I die."<sup>s</sup>

<sup>5</sup>Rebekah was eavesdropping while Isaac spoke to his son Esau; so, while Esau had gone to the field, hunting game to bring in, <sup>6</sup>she told her son Jacob, "Take note! I heard your father telling your brother Esau, <sup>7</sup>'Bring me game and prepare me a tasty dish, so I may eat and bless you in the LORD's presence, before I die.' <sup>8</sup>Now, son, listen to what I order you. <sup>9</sup>Go to the flock now and fetch me two well-fed kids of the goats. I will prepare them as a tasty dish for your father such as he likes <sup>10</sup>and you will take it in to your father, so he can eat and give you the blessing before he dies."

<sup>11</sup>Jacob answered Rebekah, his mother, "Remember, my brother Esau is a hairy man and I am smooth. <sup>12</sup>My father may stroke me and I will seem to him a mocker; then I shall bring a curse on myself instead of a blessing." <sup>13</sup>His mother said, "I will take your curse on me, my son; you simply do as I say. You go and fetch them for me."

<sup>14</sup>So he went and got them; he brought them to his mother and his mother made the tasty dish as his father liked.

<sup>15</sup>Rebekah then got the choicest clothes of Esau, her elder son, which she had with her at home, and dressed Jacob, her younger son; <sup>16</sup>she also fitted the skins of the goat-kids on his wrists and on the smooth of his neck, <sup>17</sup>and handed the delicious meat and the bread she had baked to her son Jacob.

<sup>18</sup>He went to his father and said, "My

r) Be-er - well; Sheba - seven, as with our Nez Perce Indians a thrice repeated statement equals an oath, probably so here a seven times repeated statement equals an oath. Shibah, feminine form of Shebah, which means seven, or an oath.

s) The birthright which Esau had sold to Jacob, was the right of the first-born - a double share in the father's legacy and the assumption of the father's rank, as head of the family or clan and as member of the community. The blessing was more spiritual; it was the father's invocation of divine favor upon the son, in this case Isaac's prayer that Jacob might receive God's promise to Abraham and to himself, to be blessed and to bring blessings to the world, a spiritual function for which Esau never was fitted and for which Jacob was not yet ready. And God had designated Jacob for that blessing. [Ch. 25:23].

father!" He said, "Here! Who are you, my son?" <sup>19</sup>Jacob told his father, "I am Esau, your first-born; I have done as you told me. Please, sit up and eat of my game, so that you yourself may heartily bless me." <sup>20</sup>Isaac remarked to his son; "How is this, that you found it so quickly, my son?" He said, "Because the LORD, your God brought it direct to me."

<sup>21</sup>Isaac said to Jacob, "Please come close to me, so I may stroke you, my son, whether you really are my son Esau or not." <sup>22</sup>When Jacob moved closer to his father Isaac, he stroked him and said, "The voice is Jacob's voice, but the hands are Esau's hands." <sup>23</sup>He did not identify him because his wrists were hairy like those of his brother Esau; so he blessed him. <sup>24</sup>He said, "Are you truly my son Esau?" He answered, "I am." <sup>25</sup>He said, "Then bring it near me that I may eat of my son's game, so I may personally bless you." So he placed it near him and he ate; he brought him wine, too, and he drank.

<sup>26</sup>His father Isaac then said to him, "Now come close and kiss me, my son." <sup>27</sup>He moved near and kissed him and when he smelled his clothes, he blessed him. He said, "Truly, the smell of my son is like the smell of a field which the LORD has blessed. <sup>28</sup>God grant you from heaven's dew and from earth's fatness abundance of grain and wine. <sup>29</sup>May nations serve you and peoples bow down to you. Be master over your kinsmen and may your mother's sons prostrate themselves to you. A curse on those who curse you and a blessing on those who bless you."

<sup>30</sup>Isaac had hardly finished blessing Jacob and Jacob had just left his father Isaac, when his brother Esau came in from his hunting. <sup>31</sup>He, too, had prepared a tasty dish, which he brought in to his father, to whom he said, "Let my father sit up and eat from his son's game, so that you may personally bless me." <sup>32</sup>Isaac asked him, "Who are you?" He said, "I am Esau, your son, your first-born." <sup>33</sup>Then Isaac was so shocked he trembled; he said, "Who was it then who hunted game and brought it in to me? And I ate of all of it before you came in; I also blessed him. Yes, and he shall be blessed."

<sup>34</sup>Upon hearing his father's words, Esau wailed with a most loud and bitter cry, pleading with his father, "Bless me, too, my father." <sup>35</sup>But he replied, "Your brother came in with pretence and stole your blessing."

<sup>36</sup>He remarked, "Was he not well named Jacob, for twice now he has over-reached me; he robbed me of my birthright and now he has stolen my blessing; but"—he pleaded—"have you not reserved a blessing for me?"

<sup>37</sup>Isaac responded, "You see, I have made him your master and I have given him all his kinsfolk for servants; I have provided him with grain and wine. Now what can I do for you, my son?"

<sup>38</sup>Esau pleaded with his father, "Is that your only blessing, my father? Bless me, O my father; me, too!" At this, Esau raised his voice and wept loudly. <sup>39</sup>Then his father responded to him: "See, you will live on the fatness of the earth and from the dew of heaven above. <sup>40</sup>You will sustain yourself by your sword and you will serve your brother; but when you strenuously exert your power, you will break his yoke from your neck."

<sup>41</sup>Because of the blessing which his father had bestowed on him, Esau nurtured a grudge against Jacob and said under his breath, "Mourning time for father is not far off; then I will kill my brother Jacob." <sup>42</sup>When these sentiments of Esau, her elder son, reached Rebekah, she sent and called for Jacob, her younger son and told him, "See, your brother Esau is consoling himself by planning to kill you; <sup>43</sup>so now, my son, listen to my voice. Get ready and flee to my brother Laban at Haran <sup>44</sup>and stay with him for a few days until your brother's fury has blown over and his anger at you subsides;

t) Neither Jacob nor Rebekah gained anything by their cruel and ungodly deceit; instead both suffered much on account of it. On earth they apparently never met again, after Jacob had to flee.
u) This was not a blessing, but a statement of an unfavorable situation and a suggestion for making the best of it.

<sup>45</sup>till he forgets what you have done to him. Then I will send for you and get you back from there. Why should I be deprived of you both at the same time?"

<sup>46</sup>To Isaac, Rebekah complained, "The presence of those Hittite women wears me down so, if Jacob marries one of the Hittite girls like these daughters of the land, my life will not be worth living."

28 ISAAC THEN CALLED JACOB AND blessed him; he also charged him, "You are to marry no Canaanite girl. <sup>2</sup>Get ready; go to Padan Aram<sup>v</sup> to the family of Bethuel, your mother's father, and get you a wife there from your uncle Laban's daughters. <sup>3</sup>God Almighty bless you, make you prolific and multiply you so that you may become an association of peoples. <sup>4</sup>May He grant you and your descendants after you the blessing He bestowed on Abraham, so as to possess the land in which you are now a stranger, which God gave to Abraham." <sup>5</sup>With this Isaac sent Jacob away and he went to Padan Aram, to Laban, the son of Bethuel the Aramean, the brother of Rebekah, mother of Esau and Jacob.

<sup>6</sup>When Esau learned that Isaac had blessed Jacob and had sent him to Padan Aram to get a wife from there, that in his blessing he had charged him, "Take no wife from the daughters of Canaan," <sup>7</sup>and that Jacob had obeyed his father and mother and had gone to Padan Aram, <sup>8</sup>when Esau realized that the Canaanite women did not please his father Isaac, <sup>9</sup>Esau went to Ishmael and married, in addition to the wives he had, Mahalath, the daughter of Ishmael, Abraham's son, and sister to Nebaioth.

<sup>10</sup>Jacob started out from Beer-sheba and as he traveled toward Haran <sup>11</sup>he reached a certain place where he spent the night because the sun had set.<sup>w</sup>

He took one of the stones there, adjusted it for his pillow and lay down in that place. <sup>12</sup>He dreamed and, behold, a ladder standing on the ground and its top reaching to heaven, and the angels of God ascending and descending on it.<sup>x</sup> <sup>13</sup>And behold, the LORD stood above it, who said: I am the LORD, the God of your father Abraham, and the God of Isaac. The land on which you are lying I will give you and your descendants; <sup>14</sup>your offspring shall be as the dust of the earth; you will enlarge westward and eastward, northward and southward and in you and in your offspring all the families of the earth shall be blessed. <sup>15</sup>See now, I am with you and I will watch over you wherever you go, and I will bring you back to this country; for I shall not forsake you until I have done everything I have mentioned to you.<sup>y</sup>

<sup>16</sup>When Jacob awoke from his sleep, he said, "Amen, the LORD is in this place and I did not know it." <sup>17</sup>He felt awe and said, "How awesome a place! This is no other than God's house; this is the gate of heaven." <sup>18</sup>Jacob rose early in the morning and took the stone he had placed under his head and set it up for a memorial pillar; he poured oil on its top <sup>19</sup>and named that place Beth-El,<sup>z</sup> though previously the town was called Luz.

<sup>20</sup>Jacob then made this vow, "If God accompanies me and watches over me on this journey, giving me food to eat and clothes to wear, <sup>21</sup>and I return in peace to my father's home, then the LORD shall be my God <sup>22</sup>and this stone which I have erected for a memorial pillar shall become a house of God. Moreover I will without fail give Thee a tithe of all Thou shalt give me."

29 JACOB THEN TRAVELED ON AND reached the land of the Easterners. <sup>2</sup>He looked and saw a well in the open country and also noticed three

v) Road (or Plain?) of Aram, that is, of Syria, located in Mesopotamia, which means, between rivers, the Euphrates and the Tigris. Haran is the town in that Plain, which still exists as Harran, a small village 280 miles N.E. of Damascus.

w) His third or fourth night [see Ch. 22:4, when Abraham had started from the same place].

x) A ladder between earth and heaven means that these two spheres are vitally connected; there is travel in between, and the angels were making use of the ladder; so may we.

y) That is, He would never, never forsake him.

z) Beth means house, El means God, worshiped as the Almighty.

flocks of sheep lying near it; for from that well they regularly watered their flocks. There was a large stone over the well's mouth. <sup>3</sup>All the flocks would be gathered there, then the men would roll the stone from the well's mouth, water the sheep, and put the stone back in its place over the well's mouth.

<sup>4</sup>Jacob said to them, "My brothers, where are you from?" They said, "We are from Haran." <sup>5</sup>He asked, "Do you know Laban of Nahor's family?" They said, "We know him." <sup>6</sup>He asked them, "Is he well?" They replied, "He is well, and, look, Rachel, his daughter is coming with the sheep." <sup>7</sup>He remarked, "But the day is still in its prime; it is not yet time to bring in the livestock<sup>a</sup>—water the sheep and take them grazing." <sup>8</sup>They replied, "We can't until all the flocks are collected and they roll the stone off the well's mouth; then we water the sheep."<sup>b</sup>

<sup>9</sup>While he was still conversing with them, Rachel arrived with her father's sheep; for she was a shepherdess. <sup>10</sup>When Jacob saw Rachel, the daughter of Laban, his mother's brother, with the sheep of his uncle Laban, Jacob stepped up, rolled the stone off the well's mouth and watered his uncle Laban's sheep. <sup>11</sup>Then Jacob kissed Rachel and wept audibly. <sup>12</sup>When Jacob told Rachel that he was her father's nephew, son of Rebekah, she ran and told her father, <sup>13</sup>and Laban, on hearing the tidings of Jacob, his sister's son, ran to meet him, embraced and fervently kissed him and brought him home. Then he told Laban all the particulars, <sup>14</sup>to which Laban responded, "You certainly are my own bone and flesh."<sup>c</sup>

He had stayed with him for a full month <sup>15</sup>when Laban said to Jacob, "Just because you are near kin to me, ought you to work for me for nothing? Tell me what your wages should be."

<sup>16</sup>Now Laban had two daughters,

the elder named Leah and the younger named Rachel. <sup>17</sup>Leah's eyes had no sparkle, while Rachel was lovely of form and face. <sup>18</sup>Jacob was in love with Rachel, so he said, "I will serve you seven years for Rachel, your younger daughter"; <sup>19</sup>to which Laban replied, "I would rather give her to you than to another man. You stay with me."

<sup>20</sup>So Jacob did serve seven years to have Rachel; which seemed to him like a few days because of the love he felt for her. <sup>21</sup>Then Jacob said to Laban, "Give me my wife; for my time is up; let me go in to her." <sup>22</sup>Laban then invited all the people there and served a banquet. <sup>23</sup>But in the evening he took his daughter Leah to him and he went in to her. <sup>24</sup>Laban also gave his daughter Leah his maid Zilpah for a maidservant.

<sup>25</sup>And so it was in the morning, see, it was Leah. He said to Laban, "Is this the way to treat me? Have I not worked with you for Rachel? Why then have you cheated me?" <sup>26</sup>Laban replied, "It just is not done in these parts, to marry the younger before the older. <sup>27</sup>Complete this one's week and for another seven years of service we will give you the other one, too."<sup>d</sup> <sup>28</sup>Jacob did so: he completed her week and Laban gave him his daughter Rachel, too, for wife. <sup>29</sup>He also gave his maid Bilhah to his daughter Rachel for her maid. <sup>30</sup>Jacob went in to Rachel, too,<sup>e</sup> and he loved Rachel more than Leah; so he worked for him seven more years.

<sup>31</sup>Seeing that Leah was slighted, the LORD gave her fertility, while Rachel was sterile. <sup>32</sup>Leah conceived and bore a son whom she named Reuben,<sup>f</sup> for she said, "Because the LORD has noticed my trouble, for now my husband will love me." <sup>33</sup>Again she conceived and bore a son; she said, "Because the LORD has heard that I was slighted, He has given me this one also," so she

a) More grazing time was needed. While Esau had been hunting, Jacob had mastered the technique of animal husbandry.

b) The shepherds had joined their strength, it seems, to do what Jacob did alone.

c) "My own flesh and blood," we would say.

d) Perfect retribution. As Jacob had impersonated Esau at a most critical moment, so Laban made Leah impersonate Rachel at an even more critical time.

e) It seems that Rachel was given him at the start rather than at the close of that second contract.

f) Reuben — "See, a son!"; Simeon — "Hearing"; Levi — "Attachment"; Judah — "Object of Praise."

named him Simeon. <sup>34</sup>She conceived again and bore a son; she said, "This time my husband will grow attached to me, for I have borne him three sons"; therefore he was named Levi. <sup>35</sup>Once more she conceived and bore a son; she said, "This time I will praise the LORD," so she named him Judah. Then she ceased bearing.

30 WHEN RACHEL REALIZED THAT she had borne Jacob no children, she grew envious of her sister and said to Jacob, "Give me children, or else I am going to die!" <sup>2</sup>Then Jacob's anger rose hotly against Rachel; he rejoined, "Am I taking God's place, who has deprived you of fertility?" <sup>3</sup>She then suggested, "Consider my maid Bilhah; go in to her and let her bear for me! Through her I will rear a family."<sup>4</sup> <sup>5</sup>So she gave him her maid Bilhah for a wife and Jacob went in to her. <sup>6</sup>Bilhah conceived and bore Jacob a son. <sup>7</sup>Rachel said, "God has done me justice; He has heard my voice and has given me a son"; so she named him Dan.<sup>8</sup> <sup>9</sup>Again Bilhah, Rachel's maid conceived and bore Jacob a second son. <sup>10</sup>Rachel said, "With mighty wrestlings I have wrestled with my sister and I have won out"; so she named him Naphtali.<sup>11</sup>

<sup>12</sup>When Leah saw that she had ceased bearing, she took her maid Zilpah and gave her to Jacob for a wife <sup>13</sup>and when Zilpah, Leah's maid, bore Jacob a son, <sup>14</sup>Leah said, "I am fortunate," and named him Gad.<sup>15</sup> <sup>16</sup>Zilpah, Leah's maid, bore Jacob a second son, <sup>17</sup>so Leah said, "To my happiness; for the women will certainly call me happy," and named him Asher.<sup>18</sup>

<sup>19</sup>During the wheat harvest Reuben went out into the field and found May-apples which he brought home to his mother Leah. When Rachel asked Leah, "Please, give me some of your son's May-apples," <sup>20</sup>She replied to her,

"Is your taking my husband a trifle, and would you take away my son's May-apples as well?" Rachel said, "Then for your son's May-apples you can have him tonight."

<sup>21</sup>That evening as Jacob came in from the field, Leah went out to meet him and said, "You are to come home with me, for I have definitely hired you with my son's May-apples"; so he lay with her that night. <sup>22</sup>The LORD heard Leah; she conceived and bore Jacob a fifth son; <sup>23</sup>she said, "God has allowed me my reward because I gave my husband my maid" and she named him Issachar.<sup>24</sup> <sup>25</sup>Then Leah conceived once more and bore Jacob a sixth son. <sup>26</sup>Leah said, "God has presented me with a rich dowry; this time my husband will live with me, because I have borne him six sons." So she named him Zebulon.<sup>27</sup> <sup>28</sup>Later she gave birth to a daughter whom she named Dinah. 1915 B.C.

<sup>29</sup>God also remembered Rachel; God heard her and rendered her fertile. <sup>30</sup>She conceived and gave birth to a son; she said, "God has removed my reproach," <sup>31</sup>and named him Joseph,<sup>32</sup> saying, "May the LORD add to me another son." <sup>33</sup>When Rachel had borne Joseph, Jacob said to Laban, "Grant me leave to move on to my own community and my country. <sup>34</sup>Let me have my wives and my children for whom I have served you, so I can go; for you know what service I have rendered you."

<sup>35</sup>Laban answered him, "I beg of you to stay if you care enough for me; for I have divined<sup>k</sup> that the LORD has blessed me on your account"; <sup>36</sup>then added, "Name to me your wages and I will pay them."

<sup>37</sup>He replied, "You know how I have worked for you and how your livestock has fared with me; <sup>38</sup>for the little you had before I came has broadened to a great many. The LORD has blessed you at my footsteps. Now when am I to

g) Jacob must have learned of the Abraham-Hagar trouble; but a following generation usually prefers to learn lessons the harder way. h) Dan, "He judged"; Naphtali - "Obtained by wrestling."
i) Gad - Good fortune; Asher - happy; Issachar - there is hire; Zebulon - dwelling.

j) A childless wife felt she was failing her husband, especially in not perpetuating his family, and so other women who had children felt about her. The name she gave Joseph meant, "May he add." But the next son cost Rachel her life.

k) This may mean divination, that is, consulting omens; else, that he had so reasoned out for himself.

provide for my own family?"

<sup>31</sup>When Laban asked, "What shall I pay you?" Jacob replied, "Pay me nothing. I will go back and pasture and tend your stock, if you will agree with me on this; <sup>32</sup>Today I will inspect all your livestock and separate from them all the speckled and spotted sheep and every black lamb, and all the spotted and speckled of the goats; these will compose my wages. <sup>33</sup>My fairness will testify for me in the days ahead. When you examine my wages before you and find among the goats any that are not speckled or spotted and among the sheep any that are not black, you may consider them stolen." <sup>34</sup>Laban said, "Very well, I am agreeable to your proposition." <sup>35</sup>So he set apart then and there the striped and spotted he-goats and all the speckled and spotted she-goats, every one that had a touch of white; also every black lamb, and put them in his sons' charge.<sup>1</sup> <sup>36</sup>He then put a three-days' distance between himself and Jacob; while Jacob continued tending the rest of Laban's flocks.

<sup>37</sup>But Jacob secured rods of the green poplar, almond and plane trees, into which he peeled white stripes, that laid bare the white on the rods. <sup>38</sup>These peeled rods he placed by the troughs, the water-troughs in front of the flocks, to which the flocks came to drink. <sup>39</sup>They bred, facing the rods as they came to drink, and the flocks lambled striped, speckled and spotted young.<sup>m</sup> <sup>40</sup>The lambs Jacob then set apart and had the herds face the striped and all the black in Laban's flocks, keeping his own droves by themselves and not adding them to Laban's herd. <sup>41</sup>Jacob used to place the rods at the troughs in sight of the sturdier flocks whenever they bred so that they might breed by the rods; <sup>42</sup>but for the weaker herds he did not place them, so that the weaker fell to Laban and the stronger to Jacob; <sup>43</sup>who grew richer and richer with great herds, male and female servants, camels and donkeys.

1909 B.C.

31 HE HEARD TALK FROM LABAN'S sons, who were saying, "Jacob has appropriated everything father had; he owes all this wealth to what belonged to our father."<sup>n</sup> <sup>2</sup>Jacob also noticed that Laban's attitude toward him was not as it used to be. <sup>3</sup>Also the LORD told Jacob: Go back to the land of your fathers and to your kinsfolk and I will be with you.

<sup>4</sup>So Jacob sent and called Rachel and Leah to the field, where his flocks were, <sup>5</sup>and said to them, "I have been noticing that your father's feelings toward me are not what they used to be; but my father's God has been with me. <sup>6</sup>You yourselves know how I have served your father to the best of my ability, <sup>7</sup>while your father has cheated me; ten times he has changed my wages; but God has not permitted him to harm me. <sup>8</sup>When he said this: 'The speckled will be your wages,' then all the animals bore speckled young, and when he said, 'The striped will be your wages,' then all the livestock bore striped young. <sup>9</sup>In this way God has taken away your father's stock and has given it to me. <sup>10</sup>When the flocks were breeding, I looked in my dream and saw that the he-goats that leaped upon the flock were the striped, the speckled, and the mottled.

<sup>11</sup>"In a dream the Angel of the LORD said to me: Jacob! and I said, 'Here am I.' <sup>12</sup>He said: Look and observe how all the he-goats that leap upon the flock are striped, speckled and mottled; for I have seen everything Laban is doing to you. <sup>13</sup>I am the God of Bethel, where you anointed a memorial pillar and where you made a vow to Me. Now, get ready, move out of this country and go back to your native land."

<sup>14</sup>Rachel and Leah answered him: "What share or legacy is there left us in our father's house? <sup>15</sup>Does he not

1) This seems to refer to Laban's sons.

m) The Bethel experience had not converted Jacob; he had remained selfish and tricky. His scheme to increase the number of animals due him was not stealing but it was taking unfair advantage.

n) Which was true, for Jacob had nothing but his staff, when he arrived in Padan Aram; but it was a half truth, for Laban had greatly prospered because of Jacob's superior skill as a herdsman, and divine favor, so that Laban owed fully as much to Jacob as Jacob owed to him.

consider us outsiders? For he sold us and has enjoyed the profits of our dowry as well.<sup>o</sup> <sup>16</sup>For all the wealth God has taken away from father belongs to us and to our children. Now then, you do whatever God has told you."

<sup>17</sup>Jacob then got ready. He mounted his children and his wives on camels <sup>18</sup>and brought away all his cattle, all the movable property he had acquired and the herds of his possession, which he had accumulated in Padan Aram, to travel to his father Isaac in the land of Canaan. <sup>19</sup>Laban had gone to shear his sheep; Rachel stole her father's household gods, <sup>20</sup>and Jacob got the best of Laban, the Aramean, by not telling him of his flight. <sup>21</sup>So he fled with all his belongings.

Starting out, he crossed the river<sup>p</sup> and turned toward the Gilead mountain range. <sup>22</sup>On the third day of Jacob's flight Laban was told of it, <sup>23</sup>so, taking along his kinsmen, he went in pursuit of him for seven days until he overtook him in the Gilead range. <sup>24</sup>But in a dream by night God came to Laban, the Aramean, and said to him: Be careful about speaking to Jacob either good or bad.

<sup>25</sup>When Laban overtook Jacob, Jacob had pitched camp at the mountain<sup>q</sup> and Laban, too, camped at the Gilead mountain with his kinsmen. <sup>26</sup>Laban said to Jacob, "What do you mean to take advantage of me and to carry off my daughters as if they were captured by the sword? <sup>27</sup>Why did you flee secretly and steal away from me without telling me? I would have seen you off with mirth and song, with tambourine and harp.<sup>r</sup> <sup>28</sup>Why did you not give me a chance to kiss my sons and my daughters goodbye? <sup>29</sup>It was a silly thing to do and I could hurt you; but your father's God told me last night, 'Be careful not to speak to Jacob, good or bad.' <sup>30</sup>Now, if you hurried off because you so greatly longed for your father's home, then why did you steal my gods?"

<sup>31</sup>Jacob answered Laban, "I fled because I feared you might forcibly take your daughters from me. <sup>32</sup>With whom you find your gods, let him not live. Under supervision of our kinsmen make a search for what I have that is yours and take it"; for Jacob did not know that Rachel had purloined them.

<sup>33</sup>Laban then entered Jacob's tent and Leah's, the tents of the two maids, too, but did not find them. Coming out of Leah's tent he entered Rachel's tent.

<sup>34</sup>Now Rachel had gotten hold of the household gods and had put them inside her camel's saddle, on which she was sitting. Laban searched through the whole tent without finding them, <sup>35</sup>and she said to her father, "I hope my master does not object to my being unable to get up in front of you, for I am meeting with the indisposition of women." So, for all his searching he did not find the images.

<sup>36</sup>Angrily Jacob reprimanded Laban; Jacob said to Laban, "What is my misdemeanor? What is my crime that you have pursued me so hotly? <sup>37</sup>Though you have been feeling all my household goods, which of all your utensils have you discovered? Place it here in front of my kinsmen and yours, so they may judge between us two. <sup>38</sup>During my twenty years with you, your ewes and your she-goats have not miscarried and the rams of your flock I have not eaten. <sup>39</sup>What the wild beasts mangled I did not bring to you, but I personally replaced it, and you exacted from me whatever was carried off by day or by night. <sup>40</sup>As for me personally, heat wore me down by day and cold by night, besides loss of sleep. <sup>41</sup>So I spent twenty years in your home, fourteen years for your two daughters and six years for your stock. Ten times<sup>s</sup> you changed my wages. <sup>42</sup>Unless the God of my father, the God of Abraham and the Reverence of Isaac<sup>t</sup> had been on my side, you would now doubtless have dismissed me empty-handed; but

o) In as much as Jacob's service was the dowry he paid, by which Laban had done so well.

p) Euphrates, sometimes called the great River.

q) Shortly named Mizpah because of the agreement between Laban and Jacob.

r) Jacob knew well enough that Laban would not have allowed him to leave, if he had any way to prevent it; so did Laban know it. s) "Again and again," or "Time and again," we would say.

t) Literal translation meaning "He whom Isaac reveres."

God saw my misery and my manual labor, and He gave judgment last night."

<sup>43</sup>Laban replied to Jacob, "Mine are the daughters and the children; mine are the flocks, mine is everything you see. And what can I now do to these my daughters or to the children they have borne? <sup>44</sup>Come now, let us make a covenant, I and you, and let it be for a witness between me and you."

<sup>45</sup>So Jacob took a stone and set it up for a memorial pillar; <sup>46</sup>he also told his kinsmen, "Gather stones"; so they brought stones together and formed a cairn. There atop the cairn they ate together. <sup>47</sup>Laban named it Jegar-sahadutha and Jacob named it Galeed.<sup>v</sup> <sup>48</sup>Laban said, "This cairn today is witness between me and you"; hence the name Galeed; <sup>49</sup>also Mizpah, for he said, "May the LORD watch between me and you when we are out of each other's sight. <sup>50</sup>If you ill treat my daughters; if you take wives in addition to my daughters, although no other is present, see, God is witness between me and you!" <sup>51</sup>Laban further told Jacob, "Look at this pillar and at this cairn, which I have set up between me and you. <sup>52</sup>Let this cairn be a witness and this pillar, too, that I will not pass it to harm you and that you will not pass it to harm me. <sup>53</sup>The God of Abraham, the God of Nahor, the God of their father judge between us."

<sup>54</sup>Jacob swore by the reverence of his father Isaac and offered sacrifice on the mountain-side. He invited his kinsmen to break bread; then spent the night on the mountain. <sup>55</sup>Early in the morning Laban got up, kissed his sons<sup>v</sup> and his daughters goodbye, gave them his blessing; then left and went back home.

32 AS JACOB RESUMED HIS TRAVEL, God's angels met him<sup>2</sup> and when Jacob saw them, he said, "This is God's camp," and named that place, Mahanaim.<sup>w</sup> <sup>3</sup>Jacob sent messengers ahead of him to his brother Esau in the Seir range of the Edom country, <sup>4</sup>charging them, "You must say to my master Esau, 'Your servant Jacob says, I have been living as a stranger with Laban and stayed there until now. <sup>5</sup>I have come to possess oxen, donkeys, herds and male and female servants, and I have sent to tell my master about it, hoping to gain your favor.'"<sup>x</sup> <sup>6</sup>The messenger returned to Jacob with the report, "We arrived at your brother Esau's and he is now on the way to meet you, accompanied by 400 men."

<sup>7</sup>Then Jacob, greatly alarmed and distressed, divided the people that were with him, and his flocks, his herds and his camels into two camps, <sup>8</sup>reasoning that if Esau should come upon one camp and destroy it, the remaining camp would escape. <sup>9</sup>Jacob also prayed, "O God of my father Abraham, God of my father Isaac, Jehovah, who told me, 'Return to your land and to your kindred and I will treat you kindly,' <sup>10</sup>I do not deserve the least of all the kindness and faithfulness Thou hast rendered Thy servant; for with my staff I crossed this Jordan and now I have become two camps. <sup>11</sup>Save me, I pray, from my brother's hand, from the power of Esau, for I fear him, that he may come and slay me, with mother and children. <sup>12</sup>Thou hast said, I will unfailingly deal kindly with you and I will make your descendants like the sea sand that cannot be counted for its numbers."

<sup>13</sup>That night he lodged there and arranged from what he had on hand a present for his brother Esau,—<sup>14</sup>200 she-goats and 20 he-goats; 200 ewes and 20 rams; <sup>15</sup>30 milch camels with their calves; 40 cows and 10 bulls; 20 she-donkeys with 10 foals. <sup>16</sup>These he entrusted to his servants, drove after drove separately, and told his men, "Drive ahead of me and leave space between the several droves."

<sup>17</sup>To the first driver he gave orders, "When my brother Esau meets you and he asks you, 'To whom do you be-

u) Laban gave the Aramean and Jacob the Hebrew name for Witness-cairn. Mizpah means Watch-post. v) The Hebrew term — sons — often includes all children; in this case Laban's grandchildren. w) Mahanaim means "Two Camps"; Jacob had protecting angels right and left. Read something similar — II Kings 6:8-23.

x) Jacob wanted Esau to see that he now no longer stood in need of the blessing he had so cruelly exacted from his elder brother.

long? Where are you going? Whose is this drove?<sup>y</sup> <sup>18</sup>then you reply, "These are your servant Jacob's; it is a present sent to my master Esau and he also is behind us." <sup>19</sup>He so ordered the second, the third and all the successive drove herders; he said, "You give the same message to Esau, <sup>20</sup>and be sure to add, 'Your servant also is behind us.'"<sup>y</sup> For he reasoned, "I will appease him with the gift that precedes me; then when I meet him personally, he may accept my presence." <sup>21</sup>So, his presents went over ahead of him, while he lodged in the camp.

<sup>22</sup>During the night he got up, took his two wives and his two maids,<sup>z</sup> also his eleven sons and forded the Jabbok;<sup>a</sup> <sup>23</sup>he took them and helped them across the brook with everything he possessed.

<sup>24</sup>So Jacob was left alone, and there wrestled a man with him until day-break, <sup>25</sup>who, when he saw he was not throwing him, struck his hip socket so that Jacob's thigh was dislocated in his wrestling with him. <sup>26</sup>The man said, "Let me go, for the day is breaking." But he replied, "I will not let you go unless you bless me."

<sup>27</sup>He asked him, "What is your name?" He said, "Jacob." <sup>28</sup>He said, "Your name will be Jacob no longer, but Israel,<sup>b</sup> because you have striven with God and with men and you have won." <sup>29</sup>Jacob then asked him, "Please tell me, what is your name?" He said, "Why do you inquire after my name?" And He blessed him there. <sup>30</sup>Jacob named that place Peniel, for "I saw God face to face and yet my life was preserved."

<sup>31</sup>The rising sun shone on him as he passed through Peniel and he was limping at the hip. <sup>32</sup>For this reason the Israelites to this day never eat the hip-muscle that covers the hip-socket, because He struck Jacob's thigh at the hip-muscle.

33 AS JACOB LOOKED UP, HE SAW Esau coming, accompanied by 400 men. So he apportioned the children to Leah, to Rachel and to the two maids respectively. <sup>2</sup>The maids and their children he put in front; Leah and her children behind them, and Rachel with Joseph in the rear. <sup>3</sup>He then advanced to the front and bowed to the ground seven times until he came close to his brother. <sup>4</sup>But Esau ran to meet him, threw his arms around him, fell on his neck and kissed him; then they both wept.

<sup>5</sup>As he looked up and saw the women and the children, he asked, "Who are these with you?" He replied, "The children whom God has graciously granted your servant." <sup>6</sup>The maids then approached with their children and bowed deeply. <sup>7</sup>Leah, too, came forward with her children and they bowed to the ground. After them Joseph and Rachel came up and bowed deeply."

<sup>8</sup>He asked, "What do you mean by all this drove I met?" He said, "To gain my master's favor." <sup>9</sup>Esau rejoined, "I have plenty, my brother; let what you have remain yours." <sup>10</sup>"No, please," urged Jacob, "if you will do me a favor, accept my present, because being in your presence is like being in God's presence; you have been pleased with me. <sup>11</sup>I beg of you, do accept my blessing<sup>d</sup> that has been brought to you; for God has treated me lavishly and I have everything."

Thus he urged him until he accepted it <sup>12</sup>and said, "Let us break camp and travel on together; I will accompany you." <sup>13</sup>But he replied, "My master is aware that the children are frail, while the flocks and the herds with me are giving suck; should they overdrive them for a single day the whole flock would die. <sup>14</sup>Please let my master go in advance of his servant and I will move on slowly, at my leisure, adjust-

y) He not only showed what he had gained, but that he was voluntarily handing Esau the riches to which Esau had by birth been entitled.

z) As the mothers of Jacob's four sons, Bilhah and Zilpah had special standing, but personally they remained maids [Gen. 37:2].

a) The Jabbok brook still divides the Gilead mountain range. It empties into the Jordan 43 miles south of Lake Galilee and 23 miles north of the Dead Sea. b) Israel means, "Striver with God."

c) Each bowing involved kneeling on both knees and touching the ground with the forehead.

d) Jacob definitely refers to "the blessing" he had unfairly taken from his brother and which he now returns.

ing ourselves to the pace that suits the endurance of the livestock in front of me and of the children, until I reach my master at Seir."<sup>e</sup>

<sup>15</sup>Esau suggested, "I should like to assign some of my men to help you"; but he replied, "What is the need of it; it is enough that I enjoy your favor."

<sup>16</sup>So Esau started back that day on his way to Seir, <sup>17</sup>while Jacob moved to Succoth, where he built a dwelling for himself and put up booths for his herds; hence the name Succoth for the place. 1908 B.C.

<sup>18</sup>Traveling from Padan Aram, Jacob arrived safely at Shechem-town in the land of Canaan and camped facing the town. <sup>19</sup>He bought the lot,<sup>f</sup> on which he had pitched his tent, for about 200 dollars from the sons of Hamor, Shechem's father. <sup>20</sup>There he built an altar and called it El, the God of Israel.

34 DINAH, LEAH'S DAUGHTER, whom she had borne Jacob, went out to get acquainted with the girls of the community, <sup>2</sup>and when Shechem, son of Hamor, the Hivite,<sup>g</sup> the local chief, laid eyes on her, he seized her, lay with her and dishonored her. <sup>3</sup>He was passionately in love with Dinah, Jacob's daughter, and talked to the girl in endearing terms. <sup>4</sup>Then Shechem said to Hamor, his father, "Get me this girl for a wife."

<sup>5</sup>While his sons were in the field with his herd, Jacob learned that he had ravished his daughter, Dinah, so he kept quiet until their return; <sup>6</sup>but Hamor, Shechem's father, called on Jacob to talk with him. <sup>7</sup>On hearing of it, Jacob's sons came in from the field, disgusted and angry beyond words, that such a shameful deed had been committed in Israel, as to lie with Jacob's daughter, a thing that should never be done. <sup>8</sup>But Hamor conversed with them; he said, "My son Shechem's affections are centered on your daughter. I beg of you, give her to him in marriage. <sup>9</sup>Intermarry with us; give us your daughters and take our daughters for yourselves. <sup>10</sup>Settle among us and the land is at your disposal; make your home in it and acquire property in it."<sup>h</sup>

<sup>11</sup>Shechem then said to her father and her brothers, "Let me have your consent and I will pay any sum you name me; <sup>12</sup>put your price and dowry as high as you want to, I will meet your demands, only give me the girl for a wife."

<sup>13</sup>Jacob's sons answered Shechem and his father Hamor deceitfully, because he had dishonored their sister Dinah.

<sup>14</sup>They said to them, "We are in no position to do this, to give our sister to an uncircumcised person; for that would be a disgrace to us. <sup>15</sup>I however, on one condition we will consent to give you our sister: If you become like us, every male of you being circumcised, <sup>16</sup>then we will give our daughters to you and we will marry your daughters; we will settle among you and become one people with you. <sup>17</sup>But if you will not agree with us to be circumcised, then we will take our daughter and move away."

<sup>18</sup>Their suggestion appealed to Hamor and to Hamor's son Shechem <sup>19</sup>and without delay the young man went into action, for he was in love with Jacob's daughter; he also held highest rank in his father's household. <sup>20</sup>So Hamor and his son Shechem resorted to their town gate and talked it over with their fellow citizens. They said, <sup>21</sup>"These men are in harmony with us, so let them stay and do business in the land; for the country, you observe, has room enough for them. Let us marry their daughters and let us give them our daughters. <sup>22</sup>There is, however, one condition on which their mixing with us as one people depends, that every male among us be circumcised as they are. <sup>23</sup>Will not their stock, their property, yes, all their animals be ours? Only let us accept their condition and they

e) Jacob might some day see him again, as when he and Esau buried their father; but Jacob had no intention to enjoy Esau's hospitality at Seir.

f) Which he gave Joseph, who was ultimately buried there [Josh. 24:32].

g) There were colonies of Hivites scattered through Canaan; the men of Gibeon, who with deceit made treaty with Joshua, Ch. 9 – were Hivites. In David's time there were Hivites around Mt. Hermon, and Solomon required service from them for his building operations.

h) Had such arrangements been made, there would have been no chosen people and no prophetic and priestly preparation for Christ's coming.

will live with us.”<sup>24</sup> All the responsible men agreed with Hamor and his son Shechem and every male in town was circumcised.

<sup>25</sup> So it was that on the third day, when they were sore, two sons of Jacob, Simeon and Levi, Dinah’s brothers, each took his sword,<sup>1</sup> boldly invaded the town, put to the sword every male,<sup>26</sup> including Hamor and his son Shechem, took Dinah out of Shechem’s house, and left. <sup>27</sup> Jacob’s sons went over the slain and plundered the town, because they had ravished their sister. <sup>28</sup> They took their flocks, their herds, their donkeys and all their movable property in town and field; <sup>29</sup> they carried away captive their little ones and their wives and looted what was indoors.

<sup>30</sup> Jacob told Simeon and Levi, “You have shocked me, to make me odious to the natives of this country, to the Canaanites and the Perizzites, and since we are few, if they unite against me, they will slay me—I and my family will be destroyed.”<sup>31</sup> They said, “Should they treat our sister like a prostitute?”

35 GOD SAID TO JACOB: GET READY!
Move up to Bethel; settle there and build there an altar to God, who appeared to you when you were fleeing from your brother Esau. <sup>2</sup> Jacob then told his household and all under his authority, “Get rid of all the strange gods you have with you; purify yourselves and change your clothes; <sup>3</sup> then let us get ready and move up to Bethel. There I will build an altar to God, who answered me in the day of my distress and kept me company on my journey.” <sup>4</sup> Then they handed Jacob all the strange gods they had, and their carings,<sup>1</sup> which Jacob buried beneath the Shechem terebinth. <sup>5</sup> They broke camp and a God-sent dread rested on the surrounding towns so that they did not pursue Jacob’s sons.

<sup>6</sup> When Jacob and all the people with him arrived at Luz — that is Bethel —

in the land of Canaan, <sup>7</sup> he built there an altar and named the place<sup>k</sup> El-Bethel, because there God had revealed Himself to him during his flight from his brother. <sup>8</sup> Then Deborah, Rebekah’s nurse, died, and was buried below Bethel under the oak, which he named Allon-bachuth.<sup>1</sup>

<sup>9</sup> Once more, since his return from Padan Aram, God appeared to Jacob to bless him. <sup>10</sup> God said to him: Your name was Jacob; your name will be Jacob no longer, but Israel shall be your name; so He called him Israel. <sup>11</sup> God said to him: I am God Almighty; be fruitful and multiply. A nation, yes, a group of nations shall spring from you. <sup>12</sup> The land which I gave Abraham and Isaac, I will give to you and to your offspring that follows you. <sup>13</sup> Then from the very spot where He had spoken to him, God ascended; <sup>14</sup> and Jacob erected a pillar where He had talked with him, a memorial pillar of stone, poured upon it a libation and anointed it with oil. <sup>15</sup> Jacob called the place where God had talked with him, Bethel.

<sup>16</sup> They moved on from Bethel and still some distance from Ephrath,<sup>m</sup> Rachel felt the birth pangs. <sup>17</sup> She was in hard labor when the midwife said to her, “Have no fear, for this too is a son for you.” <sup>18</sup> With her last breath — for she expired — she named him Ben-oni,<sup>n</sup> but his father called him Benjamin. <sup>19</sup> Rachel died and was buried on the Ephrath or Bethlehem road. <sup>20</sup> On her grave Jacob erected a pillar which to this day remains the memorial pillar of Rachel’s grave.

<sup>21</sup> Israel moved on and pitched his tent beyond the Edar tower,<sup>o</sup> <sup>22</sup> and while they lived in that land Reuben went in to Bilhah, his father’s concubine, and lay with her — and Jacob was informed.

The sons of Jacob numbered twelve:
<sup>23</sup> The sons of Leah — Reuben, Jacob’s first-born; Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issa-

i) As Abraham could muster 318 men to go fighting, so Simeon and Levi could use their sheep- and cattle-men, probably not less than forty, to invade Shechem, which was physically helpless.

j) Earrings were worn by both sexes and by children [Ex. 32:2], but some used them idolatrously as amulets [Isa. 3:20]; hence their removal on this occasion. k) God of Bethel. l) Oak of Weeping.

m) Ephrathah or Ephratah, the earlier name for Bethlehem [Gen. 48:7, Ruth 4:11]. In Micah 5:2, Bethlehem-ephratah. n) Ben-oni—Son of my sorrow; Benjamin—Right-hand son, or Son of happiness.

o) Flock-tower, so near Bethlehem, suggests flocks and shepherds there this early in Bible history; possibly Jacob named it.

char and Zebulun; <sup>24</sup>the sons of Rachel, Joseph and Benjamin; <sup>25</sup>the sons of Rachel's maid Bilhah, Dan and Naphtali; <sup>26</sup>the sons of Zilpah, Leah's maid, Gad and Asher. These are the sons of Jacob, born to him in Padan Aram.<sup>p</sup>

<sup>27</sup>Jacob arrived at his father Isaac's at Mamre, suburban to Kiriath-Arba, which is Hebron; where Abraham and Isaac had pilgrimaged. <sup>28</sup>Isaac's life span was 180 years; <sup>29</sup>then Isaac expired, and upon his death he was gathered to his people, aged and satisfied with life; so his sons Esau and Jacob buried him.

36 THESE ARE THE DESCENDANTS of Esau, that is, Edom: <sup>2</sup>Esau married Canaanite women, Adah, the daughter of Elon the Hittite; Oholibamah, the daughter of Anah, the son of Zibeon the Iivite; <sup>3</sup>also Basemath, Ishmael's daughter, and sister to Nebaioth. <sup>4</sup>Adah bore Eliphaz to Esau and Basemath bore Reuel. <sup>5</sup>Oholibamah bore Jeush, Jalam and Korah — these were Esau's sons born to him in the land of Canaan.

<sup>6</sup>Then Esau took his wives, his sons and his daughters, all the members of his household, also his herds, his beasts of burden and all his movable property, which he had acquired in the land of Canaan, and moved into a country away from his brother Jacob, <sup>7</sup>because their possessions were too great for them to live together; the land in which they were immigrants could not support them, due to their livestock.<sup>q</sup> <sup>8</sup>So Esau settled in the Seir mountain range, Esau being Edom.

<sup>9</sup>These are the descendants of Esau, the ancestor of the Edomites in the Seir mountain range; <sup>10</sup>these are the names of Esau's sons: Eliphaz, son of Adah, Esau's wife, and Reuel, son of Basemath, Esau's wife. <sup>11</sup>The sons of Eliphaz were Teman, Omar, Zepho, Ga-

tam and Kenaz. <sup>12</sup>Timna, a concubine of Eliphaz, the son of Esau, bore Amalek<sup>r</sup> to Eliphaz. These were the sons of Esau's wife Adah.

<sup>13</sup>These are Reuel's sons: Nahath, Zerah, Shammah and Mizzah, descendants of Basemath, Esau's wife.

<sup>14</sup>These are the sons of Oholibamah, daughter of Anah, son of Zibeon, Esau's wife; she bore to Esau, Jeush, Jalam and Korah.

<sup>15</sup>These are the chiefs among Esau's sons: The sons of Eliphaz, Esau's first-born, chiefs Teman, Omar, Zepho, Kenaz, <sup>16</sup>Korah, Gatam and Amalek. They were the chiefs of Eliphaz in the land of Edom, descendants of Adah.

<sup>17</sup>These are the sons of Esau's son Reuel — chiefs Nahath, Zerah, Shammah and Mizzah; they are the chiefs sprung from Reuel in the land of Edom, descendants of Esau's wife, Basemath.

<sup>18</sup>These are the sons of Oholibamah, Esau's wife — chiefs Jeush, Jalam and Korah, the chiefs that sprang from Oholibamah, Esau's wife and Anah's daughter. <sup>19</sup>They are the sons of Esau, that is Edom, and these are their chiefs.

<sup>20</sup>These are the sons of Seir, the aboriginal Horites of that country: Lotan, Shobal, Zibeon, Anah, <sup>21</sup>Dishon, Ezer and Dishan, the chiefs of the rock-dwellers, descendants of Seir in the land of Edom.<sup>s</sup>

<sup>22</sup>Lotan's sons were Hori and Heman, and Timna was Lotan's sister. <sup>23</sup>Shobal's sons were Alvan, Manahath, Ebal, Shepho and Onam. <sup>24</sup>Zibeon's sons, Aiah and Anah, the Anah who discovered the hot springs in the desert as he was tending his father Zibeon's donkeys. <sup>25</sup>Anah's children were Dishon and Oholibamah, Anah's daughter. <sup>26</sup>Dishon's sons were Hemdan, Eshban, Ithran and Cheran. <sup>27</sup>Ezer's sons — Bilhan, Zaavan, and Akan. <sup>28</sup>Dishan's sons — Uz<sup>t</sup> and Aran.

p) Although Benjamin was not born at Padan Aram, he was born on the journey from there to Isaac's home and is so counted in.

q) Acknowledging Jacob's first right to sufficient room in Canaan, Esau moved out before Jacob's return, obviously expecting that return.

r) Amalek's descendants will oppose the Israelites at every turn for centuries, down to Haman, a descendant of King Agag [Esther 3:10].

s) These rock-dwellers or Horites were not on the best of terms with the Edomites, who eventually destroyed them [Deut. 12,22].

t) The name Uz appears in the great Drama of Job — "in the land of Uz."

<sup>29</sup>These were the chiefs of the rock-dwellers — chiefs Lotan, Shobal, Zibeon, Anah, <sup>30</sup>Dishon, Ezer and Dishan, chiefs among the rock-dwellers by their clans in the land of Seir.

<sup>31</sup>These are the kings who reigned in the land of Edom before any king ruled the Israelites<sup>u</sup>: <sup>32</sup>Bela, son of Beor, reigned in Edom with Dinhabah as his capital. <sup>33</sup>When Bela died, Jobab son of Zerah from Bozrah, took his place. <sup>34</sup>Jobab died and Husham from the land of the Temanites reigned in his stead. <sup>35</sup>Husham died and Hadad, son of Bedad, who defeated the Midianites in the land of Moab, succeeded him, with Avith for his capital city. <sup>36</sup>Hadad died and Samlah of Masreka reigned in his place. <sup>37</sup>Samalah died and Shaul, of Rehoboth by the river, reigned after him. <sup>38</sup>Shaul died and Baal Hanan, son of Achbor, succeeded him. <sup>39</sup>Baal Hanan, son of Achbor, died and Hadar reigned in his stead, with the city of Pau for his capital and Mehetabel, daughter of Matred, Me-Zahab's daughter, for his wife.<sup>v</sup>

<sup>40</sup>These are the names of the chiefs of Esau by family, place and name: Chiefs Timna, Alvah, Jetheth, <sup>41</sup>Oholibamah, Elah, Pinon, <sup>42</sup>Kenaz, Teman, Mibzar, <sup>43</sup>Magdiel and Iram. These are Edom's chiefs as they were located in the land they ruled, Esau being the father of the Edomites.

1898 B.C.

37 JACOB LIVED IN THE LAND IN which his father had lived as an immigrant, the land of Canaan. <sup>2</sup>This is Jacob's family record: Joseph at seventeen was tending the flock with his brothers, a youth with the sons of Bilhah and with the sons of Zilpah, his father's wives, and Joseph told their father of their misbehavior.<sup>w</sup> <sup>3</sup>Now Israel loved Joseph more than all the rest of his sons because he was to him a son of his old age<sup>x</sup>; so he made him a long coat reaching to his feet. <sup>4</sup>And when his brothers saw that their father prized him more dearly than all his brothers, they hated him and could not speak cordially to him.

<sup>5</sup>Joseph also had a dream, which he told his brothers and for which they hated him worse than ever. <sup>6</sup>He told them, "I want you to listen to what I have dreamed. <sup>7</sup>You see, we were binding sheaves in the field and, think of it, my sheaf rose up and stood erect while your sheaves surrounded it and bowed deeply to my sheaf!" <sup>8</sup>His brothers said, "You are going to rule over us! You, indeed, are you going to dominate us?" So they hated him still worse because of his dreams and because of his words.

<sup>9</sup>He had still another dream which he recounted to his brothers. "See here," he said, "I have had another dream. Take notice: The sun, the moon and eleven stars were bowing down to me."<sup>y</sup> <sup>10</sup>When he related this to his father and to his brothers, his father rebuked him; he said to him, "What sort of dream is this you had? Are we, your mother and I and your brothers actually going to come, prostrating ourselves to the earth for you?" <sup>11</sup>His brothers then felt resentful toward him; but his father pondered the words.

<sup>12</sup>When his brothers had gone to Shechem to tend their father's flock, <sup>13</sup>Israel said to Joseph, "Are not your brothers pasturing the flock at Shechem? Come on, I will send you to them." He said to him, "At your service." <sup>14</sup>He further told him, "I wish you would go and see if all is well with your brothers and with the flock; then report back to me."<sup>z</sup> So he dispatched him from the vale of Hebron and he arrived at Shechem.

<sup>15</sup>A certain man came across him as he was meandering in the open country

u) A distinction is made between kings and chiefs, the former having more authority and more territory.

v) As Saul made his native town, Gibeah, the capital of Israel, so the Edomite kings made their native towns Edom's capital while they reigned.

w) Bilhah, the mother of Dan and Naphtali, and Zilpah, the mother of Gad and Asher, were more pagan than Leah and Rachel and so their sons less disciplined.

x) That Joseph was Rachel's son had also much to do with Jacob's discrimination; Jacob planned Joseph to be his successor and that coat was evidence of it, a princely coat.

y) There was vision in Joseph, such as his brothers lacked; these dreams came true.

z) Jacob worried about pasturing near Shechem after the fearful massacre by Simeon and Levi.

and asked him, "What are you looking for?" <sup>16</sup>He answered, "I am looking for my brothers. Please, tell me where they are pasturing." <sup>17</sup>The man said, "They have moved away from here,<sup>a</sup> for I heard them say, 'Let us go to Dothan'." So Joseph traced his brothers and found them at Dothan.

<sup>18</sup>When they saw him in the distance, before he reached them, they conspired against him to kill him.

<sup>19</sup>They said to each other, "Look! This master of dreams is coming. <sup>20</sup>Now, then, come on, let us kill him and throw him into one of the pits and we will say, 'A wild beast has devoured him.'<sup>b</sup> Then we shall see what becomes of his dreams."

<sup>21</sup>Reuben heard of it and delivered him from their hands; he said, "Let us not take his life." <sup>22</sup>Reuben continued, "Do not shed blood. Throw him into this desert-pit and do him no violence," so he might rescue him and return him to his father."

<sup>23</sup>So it was as soon as Joseph reached his brothers, they stripped him of his coat, the princely robe he had on, <sup>24</sup>then took hold of him and threw him into a pit, an empty pit with no water in it. <sup>25</sup>Then they sat down to break bread. Looking up they saw a caravan of Ishmaelites coming from Gilead, their camels carrying gum, balsam and resin to transport it to Egypt. <sup>26</sup>Judah suggested to his brothers, "What is the good of killing our brother and concealing his blood! <sup>27</sup>Come on, let us sell him to the Ishmaelites and not do him violence; for he is our brother, our own flesh," to which his brothers agreed. <sup>28</sup>Then Midianite<sup>c</sup> traders came along, and they pulled Joseph up, brought him out of the pit and they sold Joseph for 20 dollars to the Ishmaelites. And they conducted Joseph to Egypt.

<sup>29</sup>Reuben came back to the pit and,

horrors, saw no Joseph in the pit! He tore his clothes, <sup>30</sup>went back to his brothers and exclaimed, "The lad is not there, and I, where can I turn!" <sup>31</sup>But they took Joseph's coat, butchered a he-goat and dipped the coat in the blood; <sup>32</sup>then sent the princely full length robe to their father with the remark: "We have found this! Examine the coat whether it is your son's or not."

<sup>33</sup>He recognized it and said, "My son's coat! A wild beast has devoured him; Joseph has doubtless been torn to pieces." <sup>34</sup>Jacob tore his clothes, wore a sackcloth girdle, and mourned many a day for his son. <sup>35</sup>His sons and daughters all did their best to console him; but he refused to be comforted. He said, "I want to go down to the grave mourning for my son." So did his father weep for him.<sup>e</sup>

<sup>36</sup>The Midianites sold him in Egypt to Potiphar, a courtier of Pharaoh, the captain of the royal guard.

38 ABOUT THAT TIME JUDAH WITH- drew from his brothers and affiliated with an Adullamite called Hirah. <sup>2</sup>There Judah made acquaintance with a daughter of Shua, a Canaanite.<sup>f</sup> He married her and went in to her. <sup>3</sup>She conceived and gave birth to a son whom he named Er. <sup>4</sup>Again she conceived and bore a son whom she named Onan. <sup>5</sup>She gave birth to still another son and named him Shelah; they were living at Chezib<sup>h</sup> when she bore Shelah.

<sup>6</sup>For Er, his firstborn, Judah chose a woman called Tamar;<sup>g</sup> <sup>7</sup>but Er, Judah's firstborn, was so wicked in the LORD's presence that the LORD ended his life. <sup>8</sup>Judah then told Onan, "Go in to your brother's widow; fulfil to her the duty of a brother-in-law and raise a family for your brother." <sup>9</sup>But, knowing the offspring would not be his, Onan,

a) Jacob's sons seem to have shared their father's uneasiness; they broke camp sooner than Jacob had anticipated.

b) They planned murder, which could hardly be perpetrated without also lying, "O, what a tangled web we weave, when first we practice to deceive!"

c) Reuben, as the oldest son, was most responsible for what might happen to younger brothers.

d) Midianites seem to have been slave-dealers among the Ishmaelite caravan.

e) Had Jacob surmised what God had in mind, he would have changed from grief to trust.

f) Joint ancestors of Jesus [Matt. 1:3].

g) All Jacob's sons, except Joseph, seem to have married daughters of pagan peoples in Canaan.

h) Or Achzib – deceitful – in southern Judah [Josh. 15:44].

whenever he went in to his brother's widow, spilled the sperm on the ground, to prevent his brother from having children.<sup>1</sup> <sup>10</sup>His behavior was wicked in the LORD's sight, so he ended his life, too. <sup>11</sup>Then Judah told Tamar, his daughter-in-law, "Remain a widow in your parental home until my son Shelah is mature," for he thought, else he might die, too, like his brothers. So Tamar went to live in her parental home.

<sup>12</sup>In course of time Judah's wife, the daughter of Shua, died and, after the mourning season, Judah went to his sheepshearers at Timnath with his friend Hirah, the Adullamite. <sup>13</sup>When Tamar was told, "Your father-in-law, you should know, is going up to Timnath for his sheep-shearing," <sup>14</sup>she took off her widow's weeds, veiled and disguised herself and seated herself at the Enaim gateway on the road to Timnath; for she saw that Shelah had grown up and she had not been married to him. <sup>15</sup>When Judah saw her, he thought, since her face was veiled, that she was a harlot. <sup>16</sup>He stepped aside to her by the road and said, "Let me please come in to you!" for he did not know she was his daughter-in-law.<sup>1</sup> She asked, "What will you give me to come in to me?" <sup>17</sup>He replied, "Let me send you a kid from the flock." She asked, "Will you leave me a pledge until you send it?" <sup>18</sup>He said, "What pledge should I give you?" "Your signet ring with your cord, and the staff you are using," she said. These he gave her and he went in to her. She conceived by him. <sup>19</sup>She got up and left, took off her veil, and put on her widow's weeds.

<sup>20</sup>By his friend, the Adullamite, Judah sent the kid of the goats, to get back the pledge from the woman; but he did not find her. <sup>21</sup>When he inquired of the local men, "Where is the harlot who sat by the Enaim roadside?", they said, "No harlot has been here." <sup>22</sup>So he went back to Judah and told him, "I cannot find her; besides, the local men say there was no harlot here." <sup>23</sup>Judah replied, "Let her keep them for herself; we do not want to be ridiculed. I sent the kid and you failed to find her."

<sup>24</sup>About three months later the word reached Judah, "Tamar, your daughter-in-law, has played the harlot and is with child through harlotry." Judah said, "Bring her out and have her cremated." <sup>25</sup>When she was brought out, she sent word to her father-in-law, "By the man to whom these belong, I am with child. Be kind enough to look well, whose are the signet ring, the cord and the staff." <sup>26</sup>Judah recognized them and exclaimed, "She is in the right against me; because I failed to marry her to my son Shelah." And he did not again cohabit with her.<sup>k</sup>

<sup>27</sup>At the time of delivery there were twins in her womb, <sup>28</sup>and during her labor one put out his hand. The midwife took hold of it and tied a string around it, saying, "This one came first." <sup>29</sup>But when he drew back his hand, his brother was born, so she said, "What a breach you made for yourself," so he was named Perez.<sup>1</sup> <sup>30</sup>Later his brother was born on whose hand was the crimson string, so he was called Zerah.

39 WHEN JOSEPH HAD BEEN brought down to Egypt, an Egyptian, Potiphar, a courtier of Pharaoh, captain of the life guard bought him from the Ishmaelites, who had brought him there. <sup>2</sup>The LORD was with Joseph<sup>m</sup> and he became a successful person. As he lived in the house of his Egyptian master, <sup>3</sup>his master noticed that the LORD was with him and that the LORD gave him success in everything he undertook; <sup>4</sup>so Joseph pleased him and became his orderly. Then he appointed him his household steward and gave him charge over all his affairs. <sup>5</sup>And so it was that from the time when he appointed him super-

i) His sin, still called Onanism, was aggravated by his ill-will toward his deceased brother.

j) Judah, as a widower, committed fornication, not adultery.

k) This chapter gives a faithful picture of morals and standards of those days and it was inserted because Perez became an ancestor of David, which for us betokens his relationship to the Messiah.

l) Perez means, a breach; Zerah, dawn.

m) As our Lord Jesus promised us — and He keeps His promise. It is ours to acknowledge and to respond to His companionship.

intendant of house and property, the LORD blessed the Egyptian's household for Joseph's sake; the LORD's blessing rested on all his belongings in house and field. <sup>6</sup>So he committed everything to Joseph's care; he did not bother about anything; he simply ate his meals.

Now Joseph was well formed and of handsome appearance. <sup>7</sup>The time came when his master's wife ogled Joseph and said, "Embrace me!" <sup>8</sup>But he refused; he said to his master's wife, "Look here! My master does not bother about anything in the house; he has put me in charge of everything. <sup>9</sup>No one in this house is superior to me; he has kept nothing from me except yourself, because you are his wife. How could I commit so great a crime and sin against God!"<sup>n</sup>

<sup>10</sup>Day after day she kept talking to Joseph; but he did not give in to her to lie with her or to keep her company. <sup>11</sup>Then one day, when he entered the house to attend to his work and there was not a house servant indoors, <sup>12</sup>she caught hold of his coat, saying, "Lie with me!" But he left the coat in her hand as he fled and ran outdoors. <sup>13</sup>When she found herself with his coat in her hand, while he had fled outdoors, <sup>14</sup>she shouted to the men of her house, "Look! he has brought in to us a Hebrew man to mock us. He came into my room to violate me, and I screamed; <sup>15</sup>so when he heard me raise my voice and scream, he left his coat with me, fled and ran outdoors."

<sup>16</sup>She kept his coat with her until his master came home, <sup>17</sup>whom she then told the same story, "That Hebrew slave you brought in to us, came to my room to molest me; <sup>18</sup>but when I raised my voice and screamed, he left his coat with me and ran outdoors." <sup>19</sup>When his master heard the story his wife told him, saying, "This is the way your slave treated me," he grew hot with anger. <sup>20</sup>Joseph's master arrested him and put him in the prison, where the state prisoners were confined; there

he was interned.<sup>o</sup>

<sup>21</sup>But the LORD was with Joseph and showed him kindness; He also inclined the prison warden favorably toward him. <sup>22</sup>The prison warden entrusted to Joseph all the convicts in the prison, holding him responsible for all that was going on. <sup>23</sup>The warden did not check on anything under Joseph's management,<sup>p</sup> because the LORD was with him and the LORD gave him success in everything he undertook.

1887 B.C.

40 SOME TIME LATER THE BUTLER and the baker of Egypt's king offended their master, the king of Egypt; <sup>2</sup>so Pharaoh was angry at his two officials, the chief butler and the chief baker. <sup>3</sup>He put them in custody at the house of the Captain of the Guard, the place where Joseph was confined. <sup>4</sup>The Captain of the Guard put them in Joseph's care, who was at their service; and they remained in custody for quite a period. <sup>5</sup>One night both the butler and the baker of Egypt's king, who were confined to prison, had each his own dream with its personal significance. <sup>6</sup>When Joseph came to them next morning and took a look at them, he saw that they were despondent; <sup>7</sup>so he asked Pharaoh's courtiers who were with him in custody in his master's house, "Why do you look so woebegone today?" <sup>8</sup>They told him, "We had a dream and there is no one to interpret it." Joseph said to them, "Do not interpretations belong to God? Please tell them to me." <sup>9</sup>So the chief of the butlers told Joseph his dream:

"In my dream I saw a vine in front of me <sup>10</sup>and on the vine three branches. And no sooner did it bud than it blossomed, too, and its clusters ripened into grapes. <sup>11</sup>Pharaoh's cup was in my hand and I took the grapes and pressed them into Pharaoh's cup, then gave the cup into Pharaoh's hand."

<sup>12</sup>Joseph told him, "This is its interpretation: The three branches are three days. <sup>13</sup>Within three days Pha-

n) Awareness of God's presence never left Joseph and it strengthened him in a great temptation.

o) Had Potiphar believed his wife's story, he would have had Joseph executed; but to protect his family name he felt constrained to administer imprisonment.

p) Both at Potiphar's and in the prison Joseph did more than he was told to do; invariably he walked the second mile. God blessed his labors.

raoh will raise your head and restore you to your position; you will hand Pharaoh his cup as was your previous custom when you were his butler. <sup>14</sup>But when all is well with you, please keep me personally in mind, and show your gratitude by mentioning me to Pharaoh; get me out of this house; <sup>15</sup>for I was actually kidnaped from the Hebrew country, and here, too, I have done nothing to deserve being put in the dungeon."

<sup>16</sup>When the chief of the bakers noticed that the interpretation was encouraging, he told Joseph, "I had a dream, too; in mine I saw three baskets of white bread on my head <sup>17</sup>and in the upper basket all sorts of bakers' delicacies for Pharaoh; but the birds were eating them out of the basket on my head."

<sup>18</sup>Joseph gave answer, "This is its interpretation: The three baskets are three days. <sup>19</sup>Within three days Pharaoh will raise your head from you and hang you on a tree; then the birds will eat the flesh from upon you."

<sup>20</sup>And it came to pass on the third day, which was Pharaoh's birthday, that he served a banquet to all his courtiers, and among his servants he raised the head of the chief of the butlers and of the chief of the bakers; <sup>21</sup>the chief butler he restored to his butlership, so he handed Pharaoh the cup; <sup>22</sup>but the chief baker he hanged,<sup>q</sup> just as Joseph had interpreted. <sup>23</sup>However, the chief of the butlers did not keep Joseph in mind; he forgot him.<sup>r</sup>

1885 B.C.

41 TWO WHOLE YEARS HAD PASSED when Pharaoh dreamed. He saw himself standing by the river<sup>s</sup> <sup>2</sup>and observing seven splendid-looking, well-fed cows that came up out of the river and were grazing in the marsh grass. <sup>3</sup>Then he saw seven other cows coming up from the river after them — ugly and lean. They were standing with the other cows on the river bank <sup>4</sup>and the ugly, lean cows ate the seven splendid-looking, well-fed cows. Then Pharaoh woke up.

<sup>5</sup>When he fell asleep again he dreamed a second time. He saw seven heads of large and full grain growing on a single stalk. <sup>6</sup>He then saw seven lean heads of grain, blasted by the east wind, sprouting out after them, <sup>7</sup>and the seven lean ears swallowed the seven large, full heads of grain.

Pharaoh woke up; it was all a dream. <sup>8</sup>But in the morning he felt disturbed in spirit; he sent for all the scribes and the wise men of Egypt and Pharaoh told them his dream; but none was able to interpret it for Pharaoh. <sup>9</sup>Then Pharaoh's chief butler spoke up, "Today I am reminded of my offences; <sup>10</sup>how Pharaoh was angry at his servants and committed me into custody in the house of the Captain of the Guard, me and the chief baker. <sup>11</sup>I and he had a dream on the same night, each with a different significance. <sup>12</sup>A Hebrew youth, who was a slave of the Captain of the Guard, was there with us, to whom we told our dreams and he interpreted them to us, to each his different dream, <sup>13</sup>and as he interpreted them so it happened, me Pharaoh restored to my position and him he hanged."

<sup>14</sup>Pharaoh then summoned Joseph and quickly they brought him out of the dungeon.<sup>t</sup> He shaved, changed his clothes and came to Pharaoh, <sup>15</sup>"I have had a dream," Pharaoh said to Joseph, "and no one is interpreting it; but I have heard it said of you that you interpret a dream when you hear it told." <sup>16</sup>Joseph answered, "Not by myself. God will give Pharaoh a favorable response." <sup>17</sup>Pharaoh then told Joseph, "In my dream I was standing on the river bank <sup>18</sup>and saw seven well-fed, splendid-looking cows come up out of the river and they grazed among the reed grass. <sup>19</sup>Then I saw in my dream seven other cows come up, very ugly and lean; I have never seen such bad looking ones in all the land of Egypt. <sup>20</sup>But the lean, ugly cows ate

q) Evidence must have accumulated against the baker, to show that in an attempt to poison the Pharaoh, not the butler but the baker had been guilty.

r) Gratitude is extremely uncommon. s) In Egypt always the Nile.

t) Joseph's great chance after 13 years. Dreams were his specialty. He must have had many through the years, becoming a master in them.

the first seven fat cows, <sup>21</sup>and they did not look any better for having them in their stomachs; they looked as ugly as before. <sup>22</sup>Then I woke up. <sup>23</sup>Again I saw in my dream seven heads of grain on a single stalk, full and good. <sup>24</sup>I also saw sprouting out after them seven heads of grain, withered and shriveled up by the east wind, <sup>25</sup>and the thin ears swallowing the seven good ears. This I related to the interpreters, but nobody explained it to me.<sup>u</sup>

<sup>26</sup>Joseph answered Pharaoh, "Pharaoh's dream is a unit; God has made known to Pharaoh what He is about to do. <sup>27</sup>The seven fat cows represent seven years and the seven full ears represent seven years; it is one complete dream. <sup>28</sup>The seven lean and ugly cows, that came up after them, mean seven years, and the seven thin ears, shriveled by the east wind mean seven years of famine. <sup>29</sup>This is my message to Pharaoh: God has shown Pharaoh what He is about to do." <sup>30</sup>Take note! There are seven years of great abundance ahead throughout the land of Egypt, <sup>31</sup>but following them there will come seven years of famine, and all the plenty in the land of Egypt will be forgotten; the famine shall exhaust the land. <sup>32</sup>The country's abundance will not be in mind, because of the subsequent famine; for it will be woefully severe. <sup>33</sup>That the dream was repeated for Pharaoh means: The matter is divinely settled and God will presently bring it about.

<sup>34</sup>Now then, let Pharaoh look for an intelligent and prudent man and put him in charge of the land of Egypt. <sup>35</sup>Let Pharaoh take further action; have him appoint supervisors over the land to take in one fifth of Egypt's produce during the seven abundant years. <sup>36</sup>Have them collect all that food during these coming good years and store away the grain under Pharaoh's direction, to retain food in the cities. <sup>37</sup>This food shall be stored for the people in view of the seven years of famine that will come upon the land of Egypt, so that the country may not be ruined by the famine."<sup>v</sup>

<sup>38</sup>The plan appealed to Pharaoh and to all his servants. <sup>39</sup>Pharaoh said to his servants: "Can we find this man's equal, who has in him the spirit of God?" <sup>40</sup>And to Joseph Pharaoh said, "Since God has taught you all this, there is none as discerning and wise as you are; <sup>41</sup>you shall be in charge of my palace, and as you give orders my people shall conduct themselves. Only in matters of the throne will I be your superior."<sup>w</sup> <sup>42</sup>He further said to Joseph: "Observe! I have put you in charge of the whole land of Egypt."

<sup>43</sup>Then Pharaoh pulled his signet ring from his finger and put it on Joseph's finger;<sup>x</sup> he dressed him in fine, linen garments, put the gold chain around his neck <sup>44</sup>and had him ride in his second chariot. Ahead of him they proclaimed, "Bow the knee!" Pharaoh appointed him over all Egypt <sup>45</sup>and said to Joseph, "I remain the Pharaoh, but without acknowledging you not one person in all Egypt shall stir hand or foot." <sup>46</sup>Pharaoh also gave Joseph the name Zaphenath Paneah<sup>y</sup> and wedded him to Asenath, daughter of Poti-Phera, priest of On.

Joseph traveled all over Egypt. <sup>47</sup>At 30 he stood in Pharaoh's presence, then went out from Pharaoh, visiting every part of Egypt. <sup>48</sup>During the seven years of abundance, when the land produced by handfuls, <sup>49</sup>he stored food in the cities. <sup>50</sup>Joseph collected grain in immense quantities as the sand on the seashore; he quit recording it, because it was beyond reckoning.

<sup>51</sup>Previous to the famine years two sons were born to Joseph, which Asenath, daughter of Poti-Phera, priest of On, bore him. <sup>52</sup>The first-born Joseph named Manasseh—for, "God has made me forget my hardships and all my father's house." <sup>53</sup>The second he

u) Like Daniel (2:28) before Nebuchadnezzar, Joseph is careful to ascribe interpretive power to God.
v) Once more Joseph walks the second mile—he gives advice unasked for, but is aware that as God's messenger he is obligated to speak.

w) Thus publishing to all his position next to the king.

x) Joseph was thereby empowered to take measures in Pharaoh's name. y) Sustainer of Life.

named Ephraim, for "God has made me fruitful in the land of my affliction."<sup>2</sup>

<sup>53</sup>When the seven years of plenty were ended in the land of Egypt, <sup>54</sup>the seven years of scarcity began, as Joseph had foretold. In all adjoining countries there was famine; but everywhere in Egypt there was food. <sup>55</sup>But when the whole land of Egypt suffered hunger, the people appealed to Pharaoh for food and Pharaoh announced to all the Egyptians, "Apply to Joseph and do what he tells you." <sup>56</sup>While the famine was spreading all over the earth, Joseph opened all the granaries and sold to the Egyptians; for the famine grew severe in Egypt. <sup>57</sup>And all nations came to Egypt to Joseph to buy grain because everywhere the famine was severe.<sup>a</sup>

1876 B.C.

42 WHEN JACOB UNDERSTOOD THAT there was grain in Egypt, he said to his sons, "Why stare at one another? <sup>2</sup>I have heard" — he went on — "that there is grain in Egypt. Go down there and buy some for us, so we may survive and not starve." <sup>3</sup>So Joseph's ten brothers went down to Egypt to buy grain; <sup>4</sup>but Jacob did not send Benjamin, Joseph's brother<sup>b</sup>, along with his brothers, for he felt afraid some harm might come to him.

<sup>5</sup>Among those who came to buy grain the sons of Israel arrived, for there was famine in the land of Canaan. <sup>6</sup>Joseph was in control of the land, in charge of sales to all the people of the earth. So Joseph's brothers came and bowed to him with their foreheads touching the ground. <sup>7</sup>Joseph saw his brothers and recognized them, but he acted as a stranger to them and spoke gruffly to them. He said, "Where do you come from?" They answered, "From the land of Canaan to buy food."

<sup>8</sup>While Joseph knew his brothers, they did not recognize him<sup>c</sup>, <sup>9</sup>and

Joseph remembered the dream he had dreamed about them. He said to them, "You are spies; you have come to detect where the land lies exposed." <sup>10</sup>They replied, "No, my master, your servants have come to buy grain for food. <sup>11</sup>We are all sons of one man; we are honest men; your servants are not spies."

<sup>12</sup>He said to them, "No, you came to find undefended places in the land." <sup>13</sup>Then they said, "Your servants are 12 brothers, the sons of one man in Canaan; the youngest is now with our father and one is no more."<sup>d</sup> <sup>14</sup>Joseph told them, "Just as I have said to you, you are spies. <sup>15</sup>Here is your test: As sure as Pharaoh lives, you shall not get away from here unless your youngest brother comes here. <sup>16</sup>Send one of you to fetch your brother, and you will be interned, so as to test your statement whether you are honest; else by the life of Pharaoh, you certainly are spies."

<sup>17</sup>Joseph put them together in custody for three days <sup>18</sup>and told them on the third day, "Do this and survive! I revere God. <sup>19</sup>If you are true, then let one brother remain bound in your prison-house and the rest convey grain for your starving families. <sup>20</sup>Bring me your youngest brother so as to verify your words, and you will survive." And so they did. <sup>21</sup>They said to one another, "Unquestionably we were guilty about our brother when we witnessed the agony of his soul, as he pleaded to us and we would not listen; therefore this agony is now upon us<sup>e</sup>."

<sup>22</sup>Reuben answered them, "Did I not tell you, 'Do not sin against the lad'? But you paid no attention. Take note, payment for his blood has come due." <sup>23</sup>They had no idea Joseph understood them, for he spoke to them through an interpreter. <sup>24</sup>He withdrew a moment and wept; then came back to resume the conversation with them. He indi-

z) Manasseh — Forgetting; Ephraim — Fruitful.

a) At least nine years after Joseph had come to power, 22 years since his brothers had sold him.

b) Benjamin was the only other son of Jacob and Rachel.

c) Although he was smooth-shaven, the years had wrought much change in his appearance, due in part to his environment and his clothes. He spoke through an interpreter and in their minds no relation seemed thinkable between this potentate and their disposed-of brother.

d) Joseph must have maneuvered with many questions to get that statement out of them. It did not come glibly.

e) This was a result of Joseph's "third degree" tactics. He aimed to know their present feelings.

cated Simeon<sup>f</sup> out of the group and had him bound as they looked on.

<sup>25</sup>Joseph gave orders to fill their sacks with grain; also to return each man's money in his sack and to add provision for the trip; and so they did for them. <sup>26</sup>Then they packed the grain on their donkeys and were off. <sup>27</sup>But as one of them opened his sack to feed his donkey at the lodging place, there was his money in the mouth of his sack! <sup>28</sup>So he told his brothers, "My money has been returned. Look, it is inside my sack!" Their hearts sank. Horrified, they exclaimed to one another, "What is this that God<sup>g</sup> has done to us?"

<sup>29</sup>On reaching their father Jacob in Canaan, they related to him all their experiences. They said, <sup>30</sup>"The man in charge of the country spoke to us gruffly; he took us for spies of the land. <sup>31</sup>We told him, 'We are honest people; we have never been spies. <sup>32</sup>There are twelve brothers of us on our father's side; one is no more and the youngest is now with our father in Canaan.' <sup>33</sup>Then the man, the master of the country, said to us, 'In this way I shall ascertain that you are honest people. Leave one brother with me; take grain needed for your starving families and be off; <sup>34</sup>bring your youngest brother to me. Then I will know that you are not spies but are trustworthy men. I will then give you back your brother and you can trade in this country.'"

<sup>35</sup>When they emptied their sacks, behold, every one's money bundled inside his sack! The sight of the money bundles sent fear into them and their father. <sup>36</sup>Their father Jacob said to them, "You bereave me (of children); Joseph is gone; Simeon is gone, and now you would take Benjamin! All this comes down on me."

<sup>37</sup>Reuben told his father, "You may take the lives of my two sons if I fail to bring him home. Place him in my charge and I will return him to you."<sup>h</sup>

<sup>38</sup>But he replied, "My son shall not go down with you; for his brother is dead and he alone is left. In case harm befalls him on the trip which you are to make you will bring down my hoary head with sorrow to death's realm."<sup>i</sup>

43 THE FAMINE, HOWEVER, WAS A sore trial in the land; <sup>2</sup>and when they had finished eating the grain they had brought from Egypt, their father told them, "Go again and buy us a little food." <sup>3</sup>Judah answered him, "But the man warned us sternly, 'You shall not see my face unless your brother is with you.' <sup>4</sup>If you will send our brother with us, we will go down and buy food; <sup>5</sup>but if you are not sending him, then we shall not go down, either, for the man told us, 'You shall not see my face unless your brother is with you.'"

<sup>6</sup>Israel demurred, "Why did you treat me so shabbily to tell the man you had another brother?" <sup>7</sup>They said, "The man put the straight question to us about us and our family, 'Is your father still living? Do you have another brother?' So we answered him accordingly. How could we know he would say, 'Bring your brother down?'"

<sup>8</sup>Judah said to his father Israel, "Send the lad with me and we will get up and go, so we may survive and not starve, we as well as you, and our little ones. <sup>9</sup>I will stand guaranty for him; demand him back from me. If I do not bring him back and place him before you, then I shall bear the blame forever. <sup>10</sup>But if we had not dallied, we could have been back the second time!"

<sup>11</sup>Their father Israel conceded, "If it must be, do this: Take along in your sacks choice products of the land for a present to the man, a bit of balsam, a little honey, some aromatic powder,

f) With Reuben absent when Joseph was sold down to Egypt, Simeon was the responsible leader, being next to the oldest; hence his being retained.

g) One great lesson life had taught them, specially since Jacob's conversion, life is always related to God.

h) Two more deaths in the family would hardly serve to appease Jacob.

i) Hebrew name for "realm of the dead" is Sheol.

j) With Simeon and Levi disqualified because of their slaughter of the Shechemites, Judah became leader next to Reuben.

gum, nuts and almonds.<sup>k</sup> <sup>12</sup>Have double payments with you, including the silver that was returned in the mouth of your sacks; take it back. Perhaps it was a mistake. <sup>13</sup>Take your brother along, too, and get up; go back to the man. <sup>14</sup>And may God Almighty grant you such favor with the man that he may let both your other brother and Benjamin come back. As for me — if I am bereaved of children, I am bereaved."

<sup>15</sup>The men took along Benjamin, the present and also double payment, got started, went down to Egypt, and stood in Joseph's presence. <sup>16</sup>When Joseph saw Benjamin with them, he told his house steward, "Bring the men home; see to the butchering and make preparations, for at noon the men are to dine with me." <sup>17</sup>The man did as Joseph had said and brought the men into Joseph's house; <sup>18</sup>but being taken into Joseph's house made them afraid, suspecting, "We are being brought in because of the money that was returned to our sacks on the first trip; he will accuse us, overpower us, make us his slaves and appropriate our donkeys." <sup>19</sup>So they contacted Joseph's house steward and addressed him at the house entrance, <sup>20</sup>"Please, Sir, we came here before to buy food <sup>21</sup>and when we reached the lodging place and opened our sacks, there was each one's money full-weight back in our sacks; so we have brought it back with us. <sup>22</sup>Besides, we have brought payment with us for more food. Who put that money in our sacks, we have no idea."

<sup>23</sup>"Welcome to you!" he said. "Have no fear! Your God, your father's God, has put for you the secret deposit in your sacks. I received your money." He then brought Simeon out to them, <sup>24</sup>conducted them into Joseph's house, supplied them with water to wash their feet, and also foddered their donkeys. <sup>25</sup>On their part they got their gift ready for Joseph's arrival at noon, for they had learned they were to dine there.

<sup>26</sup>As soon as Joseph came home, they offered him the gift they had with them in the house, bowing to the ground before him. <sup>27</sup>He inquired after their welfare and asked, "Is your father in health, the old man you mentioned? Is he still alive?" <sup>28</sup>They said, "Your servant, our father, is alive and in good health" all the while bowing their heads and bending their bodies.

<sup>29</sup>As he looked up, he saw his brother Benjamin, the son of his own mother, and inquired, "Is this your youngest brother of whom you told me?" and said, "God be gracious to you, my son!" <sup>30</sup>Then Joseph hurried away, for he was deeply moved over his brother; so he stepped into a room and wept. <sup>31</sup>Then he washed his face, came out and mastered his emotions. He said, "Serve dinner!"

<sup>32</sup>Dinner was served separately for him, for them, and for the Egyptians who ate there, because the Egyptians must not eat with the Hebrews; it would be an offense for the Egyptians. <sup>33</sup>They were seated in view of him in the order of their ages from the first-born to the youngest; which made them look at one another, wondering. <sup>34</sup>From his own table he sent them their courses, but those of Benjamin were five times as large<sup>l</sup> as any of theirs. They drank and got hilarious with him.

44 BUT HE GAVE ORDERS TO HIS house steward: "Fill the men's sacks with as much food as they can carry and put each one's payment in the mouth of his sack. <sup>2</sup>Also place my cup, the silver cup, in the mouth of the youngest one's sack with his grain payment." And he did as Joseph had told him. <sup>3</sup>With break of day the men were let go with their donkeys <sup>4</sup>and they had left the city, but no great distance, when Joseph said, "Up and after the men! Overtake them and ask them, 'Why have you repaid evil for good? (Why have you stolen my silver cup?)'<sup>m</sup> <sup>5</sup>Does not my master do his drinking out of it and use it for divina-

k) Impoverished as Canaan had become, there still were choice things which Egypt did not produce, the giving of which involved great sacrifice by the donor.

l) Would they show jealousy? Had their attitude changed for the better? Joseph found out.

m) The Septuagint translation contains this brief sentence which seems quite in place.

tion? That was a wicked thing to do!"

<sup>6</sup>He overtook them and repeated these words to them. <sup>7</sup>They replied to him, "Why does my master speak this way? It is utterly foreign to your servants to commit such a crime. <sup>8</sup>Remember the money we found in our sacks and brought back from Canaan; how then should we steal silver or gold out of your master's house? <sup>9</sup>The one of your servants with whom it is found should die and besides we will be my master's slaves."

<sup>10</sup>He answered, "Very well, be it as you say; he with whom it is found shall be my slave; but the rest go free."

<sup>11</sup>Then hurriedly each of them lowered his sack to the ground and opened it.

<sup>12</sup>Beginning with the oldest and finishing with the youngest he did the searching, and the cup was found in Benjamin's sack. <sup>13</sup>They tore their clothes, packed each his donkey and went back to the city.

<sup>14</sup>Judah with his brothers came to Joseph's house — for he was still there — and they fell before him to the ground. <sup>15</sup>Joseph said to them, "How could you do such a thing? Did you not know that a man like me would unquestionably discover?" <sup>16</sup>To which Judah replied, "We do not know what to say to my master, or how to word our cause so as to clear ourselves. God has exposed your servants' guilt. See, we are my master's slaves, we as well as he with whom the cup is found." <sup>17</sup>But he rejoined, "Not at all! I will do no such thing. The person with whom the cup was found shall be my slave, but you, you go up peacefully to your father."

<sup>18</sup>Judah then stepped up to him and said, "With your permission, my master, your servant would tell you something intimate, and let not your anger blaze against your servants, for you are Pharaoh's counterpart. <sup>19</sup>My master asked his servants, 'Do you have a father or a brother?' <sup>20</sup>So we told my master, 'We have an aged father and a young brother, a child of his old age; his brother is dead, so he alone remains of his mother, and his father loves him!' <sup>21</sup>Then you told your servants, 'Bring him down to me, so I may set my eyes on him!' <sup>22</sup>But we said to my master, 'The lad cannot leave his father; should he leave him, his father would die.' <sup>23</sup>Upon which you told your servants, 'If your youngest brother does not come down with you, you shall not see my face again.'

<sup>24</sup>"On our return to your servant my father, we gave him my master's message, <sup>25</sup>and when our father said, 'Go back to buy us a little food,' <sup>26</sup>we answered, 'We cannot go down. If our youngest brother is with us we will go down; for we cannot meet the man unless our youngest brother goes with us.'

<sup>27</sup>"Your servant our father said to us, 'You know that my wife<sup>a</sup> bore me two sons. <sup>28</sup>One left me and I said, Yes, he is surely torn to pieces and I have not seen him since. <sup>29</sup>If you take this one, too, and something happens to him, you will bring down my gray hairs to Sheol with sorrow!' <sup>30</sup>Now then, since his life is bound up in the lad's life—<sup>31</sup>when I come to my father and the lad is not with us, he will die, and your servants will be bringing the hoary head of your servant my father with sorrow to the grave. <sup>32</sup>But your servant went guaranty for the lad to my father, saying, 'If I fail to bring him back to you, then I will bear the blame before my father forever.' <sup>33</sup>I beg of you, therefore, to retain your servant in the lad's place, a slave to my master, and let the lad go up with his brothers; <sup>34</sup>for how could I go up to my father and not have the lad with me, there to witness the grief my father must suffer!"

45 JOSEPH WAS NOT ABLE ANY longer to control his emotions before all the bystanders; he shouted, "Have everyone withdraw!" So there

n) There was "crystal gazing" in Egypt and Joseph's gift of foretelling was probably ascribed to similar practices. We know that his trust was in God and not in the silver cup.
o) Jacob thought of Rachel alone as his real wife — a hard pill to swallow for Leah's sons, and it was not God's thought. Leah and not Rachel was buried with Jacob in the Machpelah cave; she also became ancestress of Jesus.

were no others present when Joseph made himself known to his brothers. <sup>2</sup>So loudly did he weep that the Egyptians and Pharaoh's household heard it. <sup>3</sup>Joseph said to his brothers, "I am Joseph! Is my father still alive?" His brothers were so confounded, they could not answer him.

<sup>4</sup>Joseph said to his brothers, "Please, come close to me"; so they came nearer. He said, "I am Joseph, your brother, whom you sold into Egypt; <sup>5</sup>be not disheartened or vexed with yourselves for selling me here, because God sent me ahead of you to save your life. <sup>6</sup>For two years now the famine is in the land and there are five more years without plowing or harvest, <sup>7</sup>and God sent me before you to assure for you continuance on the earth; to grant you survival through a great salvation. <sup>8</sup>So then, you did not send me here, but God<sup>p</sup>, and He has appointed me a father to Pharaoh, a master of his whole palace and ruler over all Egypt.

<sup>9</sup>"Hurry and go up to my father and tell him, 'This is your son Joseph's message: God has put me in charge of all Egypt. Come down to me without delay. <sup>10</sup>You will live in the land of Goshen where you will be near me, you, your children and your grandchildren, your flocks, your herds and everything you have. <sup>11</sup>There I will support you, so that you, your family and all you possess may not suffer privation — for there are five more years of famine.'<sup>q</sup>

<sup>12</sup>"Take note! You see for yourselves and so does my brother Benjamin, that I am personally conversing with you; <sup>13</sup>and tell my father about all my splendor in Egypt, and everything you have observed. Hurry and bring my father down here." <sup>14</sup>He then fell on his brother Benjamin's neck and wept; so did Benjamin weep on his neck. <sup>15</sup>He also kissed all his brothers and embraced them as he wept. Afterwards his brothers conversed with him.

<sup>16</sup>When the news that Joseph's

brothers had come reached Pharaoh's palace, Pharaoh and his servants were pleased <sup>17</sup>and Pharaoh said to Joseph, "Tell your brothers to do this: 'Pack your animals; go back to the land of Canaan, <sup>18</sup>get your father and your families and come to me. I will give you the best that Egypt contains; you will live on the fat of the land,'<sup>r</sup> <sup>19</sup>And these are my orders for you to carry out: Take wagons from the land of Egypt for you, for your little ones, and for your wives; bring your father and come. <sup>20</sup>Do not trouble about furniture, for the best of all Egypt is yours.

<sup>21</sup>The sons of Israel did so. Joseph furnished them wagons as Pharaoh had ordered, and provisions for the trip. <sup>22</sup>He gave each of them new suits, but Benjamin he gave 200 dollars worth of silver and five new suits. <sup>23</sup>To his father he sent this: Ten donkeys loaded with Egypt's choice products; also ten she-donkeys carrying grain, food and provision on the way. <sup>24</sup>Thus he saw his brothers off and as they left, he told them: "Have no disagreement by the way."

<sup>25</sup>They went up from Egypt and came to the land of Canaan, to their father Jacob, <sup>26</sup>whom they told, "Joseph is still alive and he is ruler over the whole land of Egypt." Jacob's heart remained unmoved, for he could not believe them; <sup>27</sup>so they repeated to him everything Joseph had told them, and when he saw the wagons Joseph had sent to transport him, their father Jacob's spirit revived <sup>28</sup>and Israel said, "Enough! My son Joseph is still alive. I will go and see him before I die."

46 WITH EVERYTHING HE HAD, Israel journeyed as far as Beersheba, where he offered sacrifices to his father Isaac's God. <sup>2</sup>In night visions God spoke to Israel, Jacob, Jacob; who said, "Here am I." <sup>3</sup>I am God, He said, the God of your father. Be not afraid to go down to Egypt, for there I will make you a great nation. <sup>4</sup>I will

p) An outstanding illustration of divine sovereignty and government: God is in charge of the universe, including each single person, and His program carries through.

q) The direct message to father Jacob is finished. Joseph wants their personal testimony to their father — which cannot help being a confession.

r) When famine was felt by all Egyptians, it required a deep sense of appreciation to invite outsiders in, and to offer them its best.

go down with you to Egypt, and I will without fail bring you up again. And Joseph will close your eyes.

<sup>5</sup>Jacob then moved on from Beer-sheba and the sons of Israel conveyed their father Jacob, their little ones and their wives in the wagons Pharaoh had sent to convey him. <sup>6</sup>They took their cattle and their movable belongings, which they had accumulated in Canaan and arrived in Egypt, Jacob and all his descendants with him — <sup>7</sup>his sons, his grandsons, his daughters, his granddaughters — all his descendants he brought with him to Egypt<sup>a</sup>.

<sup>8</sup>These are the names of Israel's children who came into Egypt — Jacob and his sons: Reuben, Jacob's first-born, <sup>9</sup>and Reuben's sons Hanoch, Pallu, Hezron and Carmi.

<sup>10</sup>Sim'con's sons: Jemuel, Jamin, Ohad, Jachin and Zohar; also Shaul, the son of a Canaanitess.

<sup>11</sup>Levi's sons: Gershon, Kohath and Merari.

<sup>12</sup>Judah's sons: Er, Onan, Shelah, Perez and Zerah; but Er and Onan died in Canaan. Perez' sons were Hezron and Hamul.

<sup>13</sup>Issachar's sons: Tola, Puvah, Job and Shimron.

<sup>14</sup>Zebulun's sons: Sered, Elon and Jahleel. <sup>15</sup>These are the sons of Leah, whom she bore Jacob in Padan Aram; also his daughter Dinah; the total number of persons, sons and daughters, 33.

<sup>16</sup>Gad's sons: Ziphion, Haggi, Shuni, Ezbon, Eri, Arodi and Areli.

<sup>17</sup>Asher's sons: Imnah, Ishuah, Isui, Beriah, and their sister Serah. Beriah's sons: Heber and Malchiel; <sup>18</sup>the sons of Zilpah whom Laban gave to his daughter Leah. These she bore Jacob, 16 persons.

<sup>19</sup>The sons of Rachel, Jacob's wife: Joseph and Benjamin. <sup>20</sup>To Joseph in Egypt were born Manasseh and Ephraim, whom Asenath<sup>t</sup>, daughter of Poti-Phera, priest of On, bore him.

<sup>21</sup>And Benjamin's sons: Bela, Becher, Ashbel, Gera, Naaman, Ehi, Rosh, Muppim, Huppim and Ard; <sup>22</sup>sons of Rachel whom she bore Jacob — fourteen altogether.

<sup>23</sup>Dan's son: Hushim.

<sup>24</sup>Naphtali's sons: Jahzeel, Guni, Jezer and Shillem, <sup>25</sup>sons of Bilhah, whom Laban gave his daughter Rachel; she bore these to Jacob, seven persons.

<sup>26</sup>The total number of persons that entered Egypt with Jacob, his blood descendants, his sons' wives not included, was 66<sup>u</sup>. <sup>27</sup>Joseph's sons, born in Egypt were two; so all the members of Jacob's family as he came into Egypt were 70.

<sup>28</sup>He sent Judah ahead of him to Joseph, so as to meet him in Goshen; and they arrived in the Goshen district. <sup>29</sup>Joseph then hitched up his chariot and rode to Goshen to meet his father Israel, and when they met, Joseph embraced his father and wept a long while, hugging him again and again. <sup>30</sup>Israel said to Joseph, "Now I am ready to die, for I have personally seen you and you are still alive."

<sup>31</sup>Joseph told his brothers and his father's family, "I will call on Pharaoh and let him know; I will say to him, 'My brothers and my father's household have come to me from Canaan; <sup>32</sup>they are shepherds, their trade is to tend cattle. They have brought along their flocks and their herds and all they have.' <sup>33</sup>Now, when Pharaoh summons you and asks what your occupation is, <sup>34</sup>you answer, 'Your servants have been cattlemen ever since we were youngsters, both we and our fathers,' so that you may settle in the Goshen district; for every tender of sheep is detested by the Egyptians."<sup>v</sup>

47 JOSEPH THEN WENT TO PHARAOH and told him, "My father, my brothers, their flocks and their herds, with all they have, are come

s) Grandchildren included, both in Leah's and in Rachel's case.

t) Her training of Manasseh and Ephraim would hardly be in the Hebrew faith.

u) Leah had died in Canaan and had been buried in the family sepulchre of Machpela [Ch. 49:31]. Jacob and Joseph complete the 70.

v) Joseph ran a risk, which only high characters dare or care to take; for, not being a native himself and having been elevated to a position many nobles would covet, he took the responsibility for a type of foreigners that was heartily disliked and looked down upon, and that when many natives went hungry.

from the land of Canaan and are now in the Goshen district." <sup>2</sup>He also introduced five of his brothers to Pharaoh <sup>3</sup>and Pharaoh asked his brothers, "What is your occupation?" They answered Pharaoh, "Your servants are shepherds, both we and our fathers," <sup>4</sup>then added, "We have come to live here temporarily because there is no pasture for your servant's flocks in the land of Canaan, which is hard hit by the famine. So we beg of you to let your servants live in the land of Goshen."

<sup>5</sup>Pharaoh said to Joseph, "Your father and your brothers have come to you; <sup>6</sup>the land of Egypt is at your disposal. Have your father and your brothers settle in the best of the land; let them live in the Goshen district. If you know of capable men among them, put them in charge of my own livestock."

<sup>7</sup>Joseph then brought in his father and introduced him to Pharaoh. Jacob blessed Pharaoh <sup>8</sup>and Pharaoh asked Jacob, "How many years have you lived?" <sup>9</sup>Jacob answered Pharaoh, "The years of my pilgrimage number 130; few and strenuous my life's days and years have been and not equal to the pilgrim years of my fathers in the days of their pilgrimage." <sup>10</sup>Then Jacob blessed Pharaoh and withdrew from Pharaoh's presence.

<sup>11</sup>Joseph arranged for his father and his brothers to get settled, and donated to them property in the land of Egypt, its choicest section, the Ramses section, as Pharaoh had ordered. <sup>12</sup>Joseph supported his father, his brothers and his father's entire household with food, rationed according to the number of the children.

<sup>13</sup>There was lack of food all over the country, for the famine was severe; both Egypt and Canaan became exhausted from the famine. <sup>14</sup>So Joseph collected all the available money in Egypt and in Canaan" for the grain they bought, and he deposited the money in Pharaoh's palace. <sup>15</sup>When the cash gave out in Egypt and in Canaan, the Egyptians all came to Joseph, saying, "Give us food! Why let us starve in front of you because we are out of money!"

<sup>16</sup>Joseph replied, "If your money is gone, hand over your livestock and I will give you food in exchange." <sup>17</sup>So they brought Joseph their animals and he traded them food for their horses, the flocks, the herds and the donkeys; that year he nourished them in exchange for all their livestock.

<sup>18</sup>With that year ended, they came to him the next year and told him, "No use hiding from my master that our money is gone and all our livestock is owned by our master; there is nothing left to bring our master except our persons and our acreage. <sup>19</sup>Why should we die before your eyes and our land lie waste! Buy us and our acres in exchange for food, then we and our land shall be in serfdom to Pharaoh." Hand us seed, too, so we may survive, not starve, and the land not lie waste."

<sup>20</sup>Joseph then bought all of Egypt's acreage for Pharaoh; for all the Egyptians sold their fields, due to the overwhelming severity of the famine; in this way the land became Pharaoh's. <sup>21</sup>Also from one end of Egypt to the other he had the people move to town. <sup>22</sup>Only the land of the priests he did not purchase, for the priests enjoyed royal subsidies, and lived on the rations Pharaoh regularly allowed them; so they did not sell their land.

<sup>23</sup>Joseph announced to the people, "Take note that now I have bought you and your land for Pharaoh. Look! Here is seed for you. <sup>24</sup>Put in your crop and at harvest time contribute one fifth to Pharaoh and keep four fifths for yourselves — for seeding the field, for personal sustenance, for your domestics and for your little ones."

<sup>25</sup>They replied, "You have saved our lives; may we gain our master's favor,

w) Canaan is mentioned with Egypt partly because about this time Egypt held sovereignty over the peoples of Canaan.

x) An absolute sovereign, the Pharaoh claimed full ownership of the national treasury and with it eventually over the lives and persons of his subjects.

y) There was no sowing or planting till the last year of famine; for the seed would be wasted; but the ruling for a 20% taxation could be made then and there.

and we are willing to be Pharaoh's serfs." <sup>26</sup>Joseph then established it as a regulation that has been in force in the land of Egypt to this day that Pharaoh shall have the fifth — exempting only the priests' lands, which did not become Pharaoh's.

<sup>27</sup>Israel<sup>a</sup> lived in the land of Egypt, in the Goshen district; there they acquired property, were prolific and multiplied rapidly. <sup>28</sup>For 17 years Jacob lived in Egypt, so Jacob reached the age of 147. <sup>29</sup>When Israel's end drew near, he summoned his son Joseph and said to him, "If you will do me a favor, please place your hand under my thigh and pledge me kindness and truth. Please, do not bury me in Egypt, <sup>30</sup>for I want to rest with my fathers. Carry me out of Egypt and bury me in their burying place."

<sup>31</sup>He said, "I will carry out your suggestion." "Swear to me!" he said, and he swore to him. Israel then bowed in worship on the head end of his couch.

48 FOLLOWING THIS, SOMEONE told Joseph, "Your father is ill," so he took along his two sons, Manasseh and Ephraim. <sup>2</sup>When Jacob was informed of Joseph's visit to him, Israel, collecting all his strength, sat up in bed. <sup>3</sup>Jacob said to Joseph, "God Almighty appeared to me at Luz<sup>a</sup> in the land of Canaan and blessed me." <sup>4</sup>He said to me, I will make you fruitful and numerous; I will make you a multitude of peoples; I will give your descendants after you this land for an everlasting possession. <sup>5</sup>And as for your two sons, Ephraim and Manasseh, who were born to you in Egypt before my coming here, they are mine. Ephraim and Manasseh shall be to me like Reuben and Simeon. <sup>6</sup>But your children who are born after them shall be yours; they shall be mentioned like their brothers in their inheritance. <sup>7</sup>As for me, when I came from Padan, Rachel died by my side in the land of Canaan a little distance from Ephrath and I buried her by the Ephrath — that is Bethlehem — road."

<sup>8</sup>Israel then looked at Joseph's sons and asked, "Who are these?" <sup>9</sup>Joseph answered his father, "They are my sons, whom God has granted me here." "Please lead them to me," he said, "and I will bless them."

<sup>10</sup>As Israel's eyesight was dim with age, he could not see well; so Joseph brought them close to him; then he kissed and embraced them. <sup>11</sup>And Israel remarked to Joseph, "I did not expect ever to see you again, and, think of it, God has granted me to see your offspring!" <sup>12</sup>Joseph then removed them from his knees and bowed with his head to the ground. <sup>13</sup>With his right hand, Joseph placed Ephraim by Israel's left hand and with his left hand he placed Manasseh by Israel's right hand and brought them close to him. <sup>14</sup>But Israel extended his right hand and laid it on the head of Ephraim, the younger, and his left hand on Manasseh's head, consciously directing his hands, although Manasseh was the first-born. <sup>15</sup>He blessed Joseph, saying, "The God in whose presence my fathers Abraham and Isaac walked, the God who shepherded me through life to this moment, <sup>16</sup>the Angel who continually redeemed<sup>d</sup> me from every evil, bless these lads. May they perpetuate my name and the names of my fathers Abraham and Isaac, and may they increase to multitudes in the midst of the earth."

<sup>17</sup>When Joseph noticed that his father was placing his right hand on Ephraim's head, he disliked it; so he seized his father's hand to shift it from Ephraim's head to Manasseh's. <sup>18</sup>Joseph said to his father, "Not this way, my father; for this is the first-born. Place your right hand on his head." <sup>19</sup>But his father declined and said, "I know, my son, I know; he too shall become a people and he too shall grow great; nevertheless, his younger brother shall be-

z) The Israelites rather than Jacob alone. a) Named Bethel after Jacob's experience there.

b) The least we Christian parents can do toward our children is to tell them how wonderful God has been to us, a testimony to which no child can take exception.

c) Somewhat of a repetition of the Esau-Jacob relationship so far as parental blessings are concerned.

d) Literally, The One redeeming me — the Goel — here first so mentioned.

come greater than he and his descendants shall become a completeness of nations." <sup>20</sup>That day he blessed them, saying, "In you the Israelites shall bless; they will say, 'May God make you like Ephraim and like Manasseh';" so he placed Ephraim before Manasseh.

<sup>21</sup>Israel said to Joseph, "You see, I die; but God will be with you and bring you back to the land of your fathers. <sup>22</sup>As an extra legacy among your kinsfolk I am leaving you the ridge I took from the Amorite with my sword and my bow."<sup>e</sup>

49 JACOB CALLED FOR HIS SONS; HE said, "Come together so that I may tell you what you will experience in coming days. <sup>2</sup>Form a circle and hear, you sons of Jacob; listen to your father Israel.

<sup>3</sup>"Reuben, you are my first-born, my strength and the first issue of my vitality; excellent in dignity, prominent in prowess. <sup>4</sup>Boiling over like water, you will not retain pre-eminence; for you climbed up to your father's bed; you defiled my couch with your climbing.<sup>f</sup>

<sup>5</sup>"Simeon and Levi are brothers; their weapons are implements of violence. <sup>6</sup>My soul, do not share in their plot; my spirit, do not join their meeting; for in their anger they murdered men and in their insolence they hamstringed oxen.<sup>g</sup> <sup>7</sup>A curse on their anger, for it is fierce and on their rage, for it is cruel. I will disperse them among Jacob and scatter them in Israel.<sup>h</sup>

<sup>8</sup>"Judah, you are the one your brothers will praise;<sup>i</sup> your grip will be on the necks of your foes. May your father's sons bow down to you. <sup>9</sup>Judah, a lion's cub! From prey you have gone high,<sup>j</sup> my son! Like a lion he stoops, he crouches; like an old lion; who would rouse him? <sup>10</sup>The scepter shall not depart from Judah, nor the leader's staff from between his feet until Shiloh

comes and Him the peoples shall obey.<sup>k</sup> <sup>11</sup>Plucking his foal to the vine, the donkey's foal to the choice vine, he washes his clothes in wine, his garments in the juice of the grapes. <sup>12</sup>His eyes are red with wine and his teeth white with milk.

<sup>13</sup>"Zebulun shall dwell by the sea-shore; he shall be a harbor for ships, with his flank toward Zidon.

<sup>14</sup>"Issachar is a big-boned donkey, lying down between the sheep folds. <sup>15</sup>When he finds rest enjoyable and the land pleasant, he bends his shoulder to carry loads and submits to servitude.

<sup>16</sup>"Dan will judge his people as one of Israel's tribes. <sup>17</sup>Let Dan be a serpent on the road, a horned snake in the path, that snips the horses' heels so that the rider falls backward. <sup>18</sup>I am waiting, O LORD, for Thy salvation!

<sup>19</sup>"Gad, raiders will assail him, but he assails their rear.

<sup>20</sup>"From Asher, his food will be rich and he shall deliver royal dainties.

<sup>21</sup>"Naphtali, a deer let loose; he produces beautiful sayings.

<sup>22</sup>"Joseph is a fruitful bough, a fruitful bough by a spring, whose branches run over the wall. <sup>23</sup>The archers sorely harassed him and shot at him; they have hated him; <sup>24</sup>but his bow remains steady; his arms and his hands are reinforced by the aid of the Mighty One of Jacob, from the Shepherd, the Rock of Israel; <sup>25</sup>through the God of your father, who will help you; through the Almighty who will bless you with blessings from heaven above; blessings from the deep that lies below;<sup>l</sup> blessings of breasts and wombs. <sup>26</sup>Your father's blessings surpass the blessings of my forebears, reaching what is choicest on the everlasting hills. They shall be on the head of Joseph, on the crown of him who was distinguished<sup>m</sup> from his brothers.

<sup>27</sup>"Benjamin, a tearing wolf; in the

e) A lot apparently bought from the Shechemites [Ch. 33:19]. Joseph was finally buried there [Josh. 24:32].

f) Reuben's sin with Bilhah [Ch. 35:22]. g) Their massacre of the Shechemites [Ch. 34:25-29].

h) Jacob at his deathbed speaks for God; he is become a prophet.

i) In agreement with his name, Judah - Object of Praise.

j) Picturing the lion either with his prey or after devouring it, scaling the mountain trail to a safe resting-place.

k) Pointing, we believe, to Messiah.

l) Judah and Joseph stand out clearly, and for Joseph the patriarch can hardly find enough words.

m) Or separated from his brothers.

morning he devours prey, in the evening he divides loot."<sup>n</sup>

<sup>28</sup>These together composed the twelve tribes of Israel and this their father said about them when he blessed them, blessing each with a particular blessing. <sup>29</sup>He then charged them: "I am about to be gathered to my people. Bury me with my fathers in the cave in the field of Ephron the Hittite, <sup>30</sup>in the Machpelah cave, facing Mamre, in the land of Canaan, which Abraham bought with the field from Ephron the Hittite for a family cemetery. <sup>31</sup>There they buried Abraham with his wife Sarah; there they buried Isaac and his wife Rebekah, and there I buried Leah. <sup>32</sup>The field including the cave was bought from the Hittites."

<sup>33</sup>When Jacob had finished his charge to his sons, he drew his feet together upon the bed, breathed his last and was gathered to his people.

50 WEEPING OVER HIM AND KISSING him, Joseph fell on his father's face. <sup>2</sup>Then Joseph ordered his medical attendants to embalm his father; so the physicians embalmed Israel. <sup>3</sup>They devoted 40 days to him, for such is the length of the embalming period. And the Egyptians bemoaned him 70 days.

<sup>4</sup>When the mourning days were over, Joseph said to the Pharaoh family, "If you feel friendly toward me,<sup>o</sup> please tell Pharaoh <sup>5</sup>that my father exacted an oath from me, saying, 'You see that I am dying. Bury me in the sepulcher which I hewed out for me<sup>p</sup> in the land of Canaan.' So, please let me go up and bury my father, and I will come back." <sup>6</sup>Pharaoh responded, "Go up and bury your father, as he made you swear."

<sup>7</sup>Then Joseph went up to bury his father, and along with him went all Pharaoh's servants, the chief men of his household and the senators of Egypt; <sup>8</sup>also Joseph's entire household, his brothers and his father's household. Only their little ones, their flocks and their herds they left in the Goshen district. <sup>9</sup>Chariots and horsemen escorted them, too, making a formidable army.

<sup>10</sup>When they reached Atad's<sup>q</sup> threshing-floor, east of Jordan, they observed an impressive and stately mourning; for seven days Joseph made lamentation for his father. <sup>11</sup>When the natives there, the Canaanites, noticed the mourning at the Atad threshing-floor, they said, "This is a deep-felt mourning for the Egyptians"; so they named it Abel Mizraim.<sup>r</sup> It lies east of the Jordan.

<sup>12</sup>His sons did with him as he had ordered them; <sup>13</sup>they conveyed him to the land of Canaan and buried him in the cave of the Machpelah field that faces Mamre,<sup>s</sup> the field that Abraham had bought from Ephron the Hittite for a family cemetery.

<sup>14</sup>After they had buried his father, Joseph with his brothers and all who had gone up to bury his father, returned to Egypt. <sup>15</sup>But when Joseph's brothers realized<sup>t</sup> that their father was dead, they said, "Suppose Joseph feels resentful toward us and requires full retribution for all the harm we did him!" <sup>16</sup>So they sent word to Joseph, "Your father before he died charged us, <sup>17</sup>'You say to Joseph, in kindness forgive now your brothers' crime and their sin; for they have maltreated you.' Now we beg of you, forgive the misdemeanor of the servants of your father's God."

When they spoke to him, Joseph wept. <sup>18</sup>His brothers then fell down before him and said, "Look! We are your servants."

<sup>19</sup>Joseph said to them, "Have no fear; for am I in God's place? <sup>20</sup>True enough you planned evil against me, but God planned it for good, to bring about what today is fact, the keeping alive of much people." <sup>21</sup>So, have no

n) This sounds as if Benjamin had not behaved admirably.

o) A suggestion here that, with the ordeal of famine past, the authority of Joseph and his intimacy with the Pharaoh had lessened.

p) Possibly, when Leah was buried, Jacob had the vault enlarged.

q) Bramble, or thorn [see Judges 9:14,15]. It may be a man's name; or of a place, or both.

r) Either Meadow or Mourning of Egypt; probably the latter. It is the same place as Atad.

s) Or, East of Mamre. t) Saw a changed situation.

u) An ever-recurring divine principle: God allows sin; a man may do or disobey His will; but ultimately His purpose becomes realized, supremely manifest in Christ's death and resurrection.

fear; I will take care of you and of your little ones." Thus he put them at ease as he spoke to their hearts.

<sup>22</sup>Joseph and his father's family remained in Egypt, where Joseph reached the age of 110; <sup>23</sup>long enough to see Ephraim's children, the third generation. The children of Machir, too, Manasseh's son, were born at Joseph's knees.<sup>v</sup> <sup>24</sup>And Joseph said to his brothers, "I shall die and God will certainly visit you, to bring you up from this country to the land which I<sup>1</sup> promised on oath to Abraham, to Isaac and to Jacob." <sup>25</sup>Then Joseph made the sons of Israel swear saying, "God will certainly visit you and you will carry up my bones from here."<sup>w</sup>

1805 B.C.

<sup>26</sup>Joseph died at the age of 110. They embalmed him and he was placed in a coffin in Egypt.<sup>x</sup>

v) They were shown him at birth and, as they grew, sat on his knees and played around him.

w) Joseph remained a Hebrew at heart and a worshiper of the true God. He seems the best qualified Israelite before Moses to have gathered up the Genesis incidents and teachings, of which Moses could make use for the composition of Genesis. Joseph had time and ability for it, and as a boy had heard Isaac and Jacob review vital events told in Genesis.

x) The embalmed body was ultimately buried near Shechem, on Joseph's property [Josh. 24:32].

THE BOOK OF EXODUS

1 AND<sup>a</sup> THESE ARE THE NAMES OF the sons of Israel who came into Egypt with Jacob, each with his household: <sup>2</sup>Reuben, Simeon, Levi and Judah; <sup>3</sup>Issachar, Zebulun and Benjamin; <sup>4</sup>Dan and Naphtali; Gad and Asher.<sup>b</sup> <sup>5</sup>The descendants of Jacob numbered 70 altogether, as Joseph was already living in Egypt.

<sup>6</sup>Joseph died, and so did all his brothers and that whole generation; <sup>7</sup>but the children of Israel were prolific and increased abundantly; they multiplied and grew incredibly strong, so that the land became filled with them.

<sup>8</sup>Then a new king rose to power over Egypt, who had no knowledge of Joseph. <sup>9</sup>He told his people, "See how the Israelitish people are more numerous and mightier than we are. <sup>10</sup>Come on, let us deal shrewdly with them, so they may increase no further; otherwise in case of war they may side with our enemies, fight against us and get up out of our country."

<sup>11</sup>So they put gang foremen over them to make life hard for them with heavy toil; for they were building the store cities Pithom and Ramses for Pharaoh. <sup>12</sup>But the more they held them down the faster they grew, and they spread themselves until the Egyptians became frightened about the Israelites. <sup>13</sup>They harshly enslaved the sons of Israel; <sup>14</sup>they embittered their lives by hard service, making them work as slaves in mortar and in brick and in all sorts of field work. Everything they forced them to do by harsh treatment.

<sup>15</sup>The king of Egypt also gave this order to Shiphrah and Puah, the Hebrew midwives, <sup>16</sup>"As you aid the Hebrew women in childbirth, watch them closely on the birthstool;<sup>c</sup> if it is a son, kill him; if it is a daughter, let her live." <sup>17</sup>But the midwives revered God and did not carry out the orders of the king of Egypt; they kept the male babies alive. <sup>18</sup>So the king of Egypt summoned the midwives and said to them, "Why have you done this, letting the male babies live?" <sup>19</sup>The midwives answered Pharaoh, "Because the Hebrew women are not like the Egyptian women; they are quick of delivery, they give birth before the midwife gets to them."

<sup>20</sup>God treated the midwives well, while the people kept on increasing and grew ever mightier. <sup>21</sup>And because the midwives revered God, He prospered them with families. <sup>22</sup>Then Pharaoh charged all his people,<sup>e</sup> "Throw

a) Exodus is a continuation of Genesis, therefore the conjunction "and." It usually takes the place of our punctuation marks and often it may be omitted.

b) The names are recorded according to age and mothers — Leah, Rachel, Bilhah and Zilpah. Of the descendants mentioned only two are women [see I Chr. ch. 1-8].

d) They could see or feel the babe before the mother could, and might effect death without her positively knowing it. The mother was placed on a special chair.

e) All the people should know, but those immediately concerned were the Hebrews.

every newborn Hebrew son into the river<sup>f</sup> and keep alive every newborn daughter.”

2 A MAN OF THE LEVITE TRIBE WENT and married a Levite maiden.<sup>g</sup> <sup>2</sup>The wife became pregnant and gave birth to a son; then, seeing that he was exceptionally well-formed, she concealed him for three months. <sup>3</sup>But when she could hide him no longer she got him a reed basket, which she daubed with asphalt and pitch. She tucked the child in it and set it among the reeds near the river-bank, <sup>4</sup>while his sister stationed herself at a distance to know what might happen to him.

<sup>5</sup>Then Pharaoh's daughter came down to bathe in the river, while her ladies were strolling on the river-side. As she noticed the basket among the reeds, she sent her maid to fetch it <sup>6</sup>and, on opening it, she saw the child, a boy, crying. She pitied him and said, “This is one of the Hebrews' children!”

<sup>7</sup>His sister then said to Pharaoh's daughter, “Shall I go and invite a nurse for you of the Hebrew women to nurse the child for you?” <sup>8</sup>Pharaoh's daughter told her, “Go!” So the girl went and called the child's mother <sup>9</sup>to whom Pharaoh's daughter said, “Take along this child and nurse him for me and I will pay your wages.” The woman took the child and nursed him. <sup>10</sup>The lad grew up and she brought him to Pharaoh's daughter and he became a son to her. She called him Moses,<sup>h</sup> “Because,” she said, “I have drawn him from the water.”

<sup>11</sup>In time when Moses was fully matured he went out to his kinsmen and observed their hardships.<sup>i</sup> He saw an Egyptian beating a Hebrew, one of his kin. <sup>12</sup>He looked right and left, and when he saw nobody, he killed the Egyptian and hid him in the sand. <sup>13</sup>Next day he went out and came upon two quarreling Hebrews and said to the one who was unfair, “Why do you strike your neighbor?” <sup>14</sup>But he retorted, “Who appointed you a prince and a judge over us? Are you thinking of killing me as you did the Egyptian?” Then Moses felt frightened; he said (to himself), “This incident is known.”

<sup>15</sup>When Pharaoh learned of the affair, he took steps to kill Moses; but Moses fled from Pharaoh and paused in the land of Midian,<sup>j</sup> where he sat down by a well.

<sup>16</sup>Now the priest of Midian had seven daughters, who just then came to draw water, and they filled the troughs to water their father's flock; <sup>17</sup>but the shepherds came and drove them away. Then Moses got up, helped them and watered their flock. <sup>18</sup>When they came to their father Reuel,<sup>k</sup> he said, “How is it you are back so early today?” <sup>19</sup>They answered, “A man from Egypt rid us of the shepherds; he drew for us, too, and watered the flock.” <sup>20</sup>He said, “And where is he? Why did you leave him there? Invite him in for supper.” <sup>21</sup>Moses was willing to stay with the man, who gave Moses his daughter Zipporah. <sup>22</sup>She bore him a son whom he named Gershom,<sup>l</sup> for he said, “I have become an exile in a foreign land.”

<sup>23</sup>In the course of this long period the king of Egypt died and the children of Israel were groaning on account of their slavery. They kept crying out and their cry on account of their slavery ascended to God. <sup>24</sup>God heard their groaning and God remembered His covenant with Abraham, with Isaac, and with Jacob. <sup>25</sup>God looked upon the children of Israel and God concerned Himself about them.

3 AS MOSES WAS HERDING THE SHEEP of Jethro, his father-in-law, the Midian priest, he led the flock deeper

f) River means the Nile throughout the Book of Exodus.

g) Amram was the man and Jochebed the woman, Exodus 6:20, both descendants of Levi.

h) Hebrew, “Drawn out”; Egyptian, “Saved from the water.” i) At 40, Acts 7:23.

j) Midianites were descendants of Abraham by Keturah, whom he married after Sarah's death.

k) Better known as Jethro.

l) The name suggests not merely “stranger”, but exile, banishment. A second son, Eliezer, “God is a Helper,” is mentioned in Ch. 18:3,4.

into the desert<sup>m</sup> and came near Horeb, the mountain of God. <sup>2</sup>There the Angel of the LORD appeared to him in a fiery flame from the center of a thornbush. He gazed and saw the bush afire, but it did not burn up. <sup>3</sup>So Moses said, "I will step aside right now and examine this wonderful sight, why the thornbush is not burned up."

<sup>4</sup>The LORD<sup>n</sup> saw him turn aside to observe and God called to him from the bush: Moses, Moses! He answered, "Here I am." <sup>5</sup>Then He said; Do not move nearer! Take your sandals off your feet, for the place on which you are standing is holy ground. <sup>6</sup>He also said, I am your fathers' God, the God of Abraham, of Isaac and of Jacob. And Moses covered his face, for he was afraid to look at God.

<sup>7</sup>The LORD said: I have well observed the misery of My people in Egypt and I have heard their cry under their slave drivers; for I know their sorrows. <sup>8</sup>Now I have come down to deliver them from the Egyptians and to bring them up from there to a broad and good land, to a land flowing with milk and honey, to the country of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Hivites and the Jebusites. <sup>9</sup>Since the cry of the children of Israel has reached Me and I have observed the Egyptians oppressing them, <sup>10</sup>you come now and I will send you to Pharaoh, so that you may bring My people, the Israelites, out of Egypt.

<sup>11</sup>But Moses said to God, "Who am I to go to Pharaoh and to bring the Israelites out of Egypt?" <sup>12</sup>He said: But I will accompany you, and this will be your evidence that I have sent you: When you have brought the people out of Egypt, you will serve God on this mountain.

<sup>13</sup>Moses then asked God, "When I come to the Israelites and say to them,

'The God of your fathers has sent me to you,' and they say to me, 'What is His name?' then what shall I tell them?" <sup>14</sup>God said to Moses, I am who I am. Thus you will speak to the Israelites, I AM<sup>o</sup> has sent me to you.

<sup>15</sup>God said further to Moses, You tell the Israelites: Jehovah, the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, of Isaac and of Jacob<sup>p</sup> has sent me to you. This is My name forever and by this I am to be remembered through all generations. <sup>16</sup>Go and convence the elders of Israel and tell them, the LORD, the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob has appeared to me with this message: I have faithfully been present with you and observed the treatment you received in Egypt, <sup>17</sup>and I promise to bring you up from the affliction of Egypt into the land of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Hivites and the Jebusites, into a land flowing with milk and honey. <sup>18</sup>They will listen to your message and you with the elders of Israel shall call on the king of Egypt and tell him, "The LORD, the God of the Hebrews, has met with us. Now, please let us go a three-days' journey into the desert to sacrifice to the LORD our God."<sup>q</sup>

<sup>19</sup>I am aware that the king of Egypt will not allow you to go except by a mighty hand, <sup>20</sup>so I will stretch out My hand and strike Egypt with all the wonders I shall work there; after which he will send you away. <sup>21</sup>And I will give this people such favor with the Egyptians that when you leave, you will not go empty-handed; <sup>22</sup>but each woman shall request from her neighbor and from the lodger in her home silver and gold articles, and garments with which you will dress your sons and daughters. You shall strip the Egyptians.<sup>r</sup>

m) The essential meaning of "desert" is not sandiness, but loneliness, reflected in "deserted." Moses led his sheep where there was grass.

n) Angel of the Lord, proves to mean the Lord Himself, not merely here but all through the Bible. We think this meant the Son of God.

o) Suggesting, the same yesterday, today and forever. Yahweh, from which the name Jehovah, is closely related to it.

p) Among some of our American Indians a threefold repetition equals our oath; so in the Near East, God's covenant was threefold.

q) More was expected and planned, but a minimum was first requested.

r) It was but fair that the Hebrews should get some return for their many years of hard labor.

4 MOSES THEN REPLIED, "THEY WILL neither believe me nor listen to my appeal; for they will say, 'The LORD has not appeared to you'." <sup>2</sup>The LORD said to him: What is that in your hand? He answered, "A staff." <sup>3</sup>He said: Throw it on the ground. He threw it on the ground and it became a snake from which Moses fled. <sup>4</sup>But the LORD said to Moses: Put out your hand and catch it by the tail — he put out his hand and caught it and in his hand it became a staff — <sup>5</sup>so they may believe that the LORD God of their fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob did show Himself to you.<sup>a</sup>

<sup>6</sup>The LORD also told him: Now place your hand to your bosom; which he did. But when he took it out, look, his hand was leprous, as white as snow! <sup>7</sup>He said: Return your hand to your bosom. He did so and when he took it out of his bosom it was restored to be like all his flesh. <sup>8</sup>The LORD said, In case they will not believe you nor mind the testimony of the first sign, they will believe the witness of the second sign. <sup>9</sup>However, should they fail to accept these two evidences and will not listen to your voice, then take some of the river water and pour it onto the dry land; the water you take out of the river shall on the land become blood.

<sup>10</sup>Moses said to the LORD, "Please, Lord, I am no orator now and I never was; not even while Thou art speaking to Thy servant. I am slow of speech and of an awkward tongue." <sup>11</sup>The LORD said: Who has made man's mouth, or who makes a person dumb or deaf or blind? Is it not I, the LORD? <sup>12</sup>You, therefore, go and I will be with your mouth; I will teach you what to say.<sup>t</sup>

<sup>13</sup>But he said, "O Lord, please send anyone (else) Thou wilt."

<sup>14</sup>Then the LORD's indignation burned against Moses. He said: Is not Aaron, the Levite, your brother? I know him to be a fluent speaker and he is, besides, coming out to meet you. He will be heartily glad to see you. <sup>15</sup>You speak to him and convey to him the message, and I will sustain you both in your speaking. <sup>16</sup>He shall be your spokesman to the people; for him you shall take the part of God. <sup>17</sup>Take hold of this staff, with which you shall work the signs.

<sup>18</sup>Moses then left, returned to Jethro, his father-in-law, and said to him, "Please, let me go back to my brothers in Egypt to see if they are still living." Jethro answered Moses, "Go in peace!" <sup>19</sup>It was in Midian that God said to Moses: Go back to Egypt, for all the men who were after your life are dead.<sup>u</sup> <sup>20</sup>So Moses took his wife and his sons, helped them onto a donkey and returned to the land of Egypt. Moses also took God's staff in his hand.

<sup>21</sup>The LORD said to Moses: As you go back to Egypt, see to it that you work before Pharaoh all the signs I have placed in your power. But I will encourage<sup>v</sup> him in his stubbornness and he will not let the people go. <sup>22</sup>You then say to Pharaoh, "This is the LORD's message — 'Israel is My first-born son; <sup>23</sup>so I tell you to let My son go, to let him serve Me; but if you refuse to let him go, beware — I am about to kill your first-born son!'" s) The simple staff of a godly man may yield more power than the golden scepter of a godless king. In the second miracle God's power to punish and to heal is evidenced.

<sup>24</sup>At an inn on the way the LORD met him<sup>w</sup> and was at the point of taking his life; <sup>25</sup>but Zipporah took a flint knife, circumcised her son and threw the foreskin at his feet with the words, "You are indeed a blood bridegroom to me." <sup>26</sup>Then He let him alone when she said, because of the circumcision, "You are my bridegroom in blood."

<sup>27</sup>The LORD said to Aaron: Go and

t) As our Lord assured His disciples of the Holy Spirit's aid in their witnessing.

u) So came the message to Mary and Joseph in Egypt when Herod had died.

v) There is no Hebrew word for "mind", instead the heart is mentioned. The word translated "harden" in the KJV, is translated "strong" elsewhere, as in Deut. 31:6,7,23, "Be strong and of good courage." Pharaoh, like the Assyrian leaders of Isaiah's day, challenged God to a duel. He started with increased oppression and proved himself stubborn. God let him fall into his own pit. God let him exert that strong will to the limit, which meant, to Pharaoh's own limit. Of course, he lost in that duel.

w) Moses had failed to live up to the Covenant of circumcision; perhaps severe illness brought that sin home to him and his wife rectified the situation.

meet Moses in the desert. He went and met him at the mountain of God and kissed him.<sup>x</sup> <sup>28</sup>Moses then told Aaron the whole message with which God had sent him and all the signs with which he had been charged. <sup>29</sup>So Moses went with Aaron and they convened all the elders of Israel, <sup>30</sup>to whom Aaron conveyed all the words the LORD had spoken to Moses, and he<sup>y</sup> enacted all the signs before the people, <sup>31</sup>so that the people believed. When they learned that the LORD had come to the Israelites' home and had looked upon their affliction, they bowed deeply and worshiped.

5 THIS DONE, MOSES AND AARON called on Pharaoh and said, "This is the message of the LORD God of Israel: Let My people go so they may hold for Me a feast in the desert." <sup>2</sup>But Pharaoh said, "Who is the LORD, that I should pay attention to His orders to let Israel go? I do not know the LORD and, what is more, I will not let Israel go." <sup>3</sup>They rejoined, "The God of the Hebrews has met with us. Let us, please, go a three-days' journey into the desert and let us sacrifice to the LORD our God, so He may not strike us with pestilence or sword."

<sup>4</sup>The king of Egypt retorted, "Why do you, Moses and Aaron, draw the people away from their work? Attend to your duties. <sup>5</sup>Look here," Pharaoh continued, "The people of the land are now numerous, yet you are having them quit their work."

<sup>6</sup>That same day Pharaoh ordered the slave drivers in charge of the workers and their foremen,<sup>z</sup> <sup>7</sup>"Provide the people no longer with straw for making bricks; they must go and glean straw for themselves. <sup>8</sup>And exact from them the fixed number of bricks which they have been daily making — not one less. They are shouting, 'Let us go and sacrifice to our God!' because they are lazy. <sup>9</sup>Weigh down heavily on them, so they are occupied with work instead of trusting in lies." <sup>10</sup>Then the slave drivers and the foremen went and announced to the people, "Here is Pharaoh's answer, 'I will not furnish you straw. <sup>11</sup>Glean it for yourselves wherever you can find it; but your output will not be reduced.'" <sup>12</sup>So the people scattered all over the land of Egypt to glean stubble for straw, <sup>13</sup>with the slave drivers hurrying them on, saying, "Finish your day's quota as when the straw was provided."

<sup>14</sup>The foremen of the Israelites, whom the slave drivers of Pharaoh had placed over them, were lashed and were told, "Why have you failed to finish your fixed job of brickmaking, the same as on previous days!" <sup>15</sup>The Israelite foremen then went and appealed to Pharaoh, "Why do you treat your workers this way? <sup>16</sup>No straw is being provided for your workmen, yet they say to us, 'Make bricks!' Look! Your workers are lashed and your people are unfair." <sup>17</sup>His reply was, "You are lazy, just plain lazy; that's the reason you are saying, 'Let us go to sacrifice to the LORD!' <sup>18</sup>You go to work at once! No straw will be provided for you, but you must produce the fixed amount of bricks."

<sup>19</sup>When the Israelite foremen were told, "You shall not reduce the daily number of bricks," they knew they were in grave trouble. <sup>20</sup>On coming away from Pharaoh, they met Moses and Aaron, waiting for them <sup>21</sup>and to them they said, "May the LORD look at you and judge you for spoiling our prospects with Pharaoh and with his servants, handing them a sword to kill us."<sup>a</sup>

<sup>22</sup>Moses in turn made his appeal to the LORD, "Why, LORD, hast Thou treated these people so badly? Why then hast Thou sent me? <sup>23</sup>For ever since I called on Pharaoh to speak in Thy Name he has treated this people harshly and Thou hast not at all delivered Thy people."

x) Aaron, three years Moses' senior, took the initiative.

y) Moses had been commissioned; not Aaron. And it developed that Moses also did most of the talking.

z) With straw provided they had slaved; without straw the endless task was killing.

a) The slave drivers were Egyptians; the foremen were Hebrews.

6 THE LORD SAID TO MOSES: YOU will now see how I handle Pharaoh; for he must not merely be compelled to let them go; but he must drive them out of his land by force.<sup>b</sup>

<sup>2</sup>God further said to Moses: I am the LORD. <sup>3</sup>I appeared to Abraham, to Isaac and to Jacob as God Almighty, but by My name Jehovah<sup>c</sup> I did not reveal Myself to them. <sup>4</sup>I also established My covenant with them to give them the land of Canaan, where they lived temporarily; <sup>5</sup>besides I have personally heard the groanings of the Israelites whom the Egyptians are enslaving, and I have remembered My covenant. <sup>6</sup>You therefore quote Me to the Israelites: I am the LORD and I will liberate you from Egypt's burdens; I will rid you of their enslaving and redeem<sup>d</sup> you with an outstretched arm and with severe judgments. <sup>7</sup>I will take you on as My own people and will be your God. You will know that I, the LORD your God, am the One who brings you out from under Egypt's burdens <sup>8</sup>and I shall bring you into the land which I raised My hand<sup>e</sup> to give Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. I will give it you as a legacy; I am the LORD.

<sup>9</sup>Thus Moses quoted to the Israelites, but, being disheartened and downed by cruel slavery, they failed to listen to Moses. <sup>10</sup>Then the LORD told Moses: <sup>11</sup>Go and reason with Pharaoh, king of Egypt, about letting the Israelites leave his country. <sup>12</sup>But Moses argued before the LORD, "Thou seest how the Israelites have not minded me; how then should Pharaoh pay attention to me, uncultured of speech as I am."

<sup>13</sup>The LORD addressed both Moses and Aaron, giving them orders for the Israelites and for Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, to bring the Israelites out of the land of Egypt.

<sup>14</sup>These are the paternal clanheads: The sons of Reuben, Israel's first-born — Hanoch, Pallu, Hezron and Carmi, Reuben's families. <sup>15</sup>The sons of Sim-

con: Jemuel, Jamin, Ohad, Jachin, Zohar and Shaul, the son of a Canaanite; Simeon's families.

<sup>16</sup>These are the names of Levi's sons in the order of their birth: Gershon, Kohath and Merari; Levi reached the age of 137. <sup>17</sup>The sons of Gershon by their families: Libni and Shimei; <sup>18</sup>the sons of Kohath: Amram, Izhar, Hebron and Uzziel; Kohath reached the age of 133. <sup>19</sup>The sons of Merari: Mahli and Mushi. This is the Levite genealogy. <sup>20</sup>Amram married his aunt Jochebed,<sup>f</sup> who bore him Aaron and Moses. And Amram lived 137 years.

<sup>21</sup>The sons of Izhar: Korah, Nepheg and Zichri. <sup>22</sup>The sons of Uzziel: Mishael, Elzaphan and Sithri.

<sup>23</sup>Aaron married Elisheba, the daughter of Amminadab<sup>g</sup> and sister to Nahshon, who bore him Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar. <sup>24</sup>The sons of Korah: Assir, Elkanah and Abiasaph. These are the Korah families. <sup>25</sup>Eleazar, Aaron's son, married a daughter of Putiel, who bore him Phinehas. These were the Levite clan heads arranged by families.

<sup>26</sup>This brings us to Aaron and Moses to whom the LORD said: Lead the Israelites out of the land of Egypt in military formation. <sup>27</sup>These are the ones who told Pharaoh, king of Egypt, about bringing the Israelites out of Egypt, this same Moses and Aaron. <sup>28</sup>On the day when the LORD spoke to Moses in the land of Egypt, <sup>29</sup>the LORD said to Moses: I am the LORD. Quote to Pharaoh, king of Egypt, everything I am telling you. <sup>30</sup>But Moses argued before the LORD, "As I am an uncultured speaker, how is Pharaoh going to mind me?"

7 THE LORD ANSWERED MOSES: Observe! I appoint you a god to Pharaoh and your brother Aaron shall be your prophet. <sup>2</sup>You shall quote all that I command you and your brother Aaron shall speak to Pharaoh, so

b) God forcing him.

c) His name had been Elohim, or El, the Almighty; now it is Yahweh, the Faithful God. Since Yahweh sounds unfamiliar we shall occasionally use the word Jehovah, but usually "the LORD."

d) Goel, God as Redeemer. e) That is, God gave His oath.

f) The Septuagint, the Syriac, and the Vulgate agree that Jochebed was Amram's paternal cousin.

g) Amminadab was of the Judah tribe, an ancestor of David and of Jesus. Nahshon, Aaron's brother-in-law, was appointed chief of the tribe of Judah [Num. 1:7].

he may let the Israelites leave his country. <sup>3</sup>I will stiffen Pharaoh's heart and multiply My signs and wonders in the land of Egypt; <sup>4</sup>but Pharaoh will not listen to you. So I will lay My hand on Egypt and with severe judgments bring out My armies, My people, the Israelites, out of the land of Egypt. <sup>5</sup>Then the Egyptians shall grow aware that I am the LORD, when I stretch out My hand to come on Egypt and to bring out the Israelites from among them. <sup>6</sup>Moses and Aaron did as the LORD ordered them, to the last syllable. <sup>7</sup>When they interviewed Pharaoh, Moses was eighty and Aaron eighty-three.

<sup>8</sup>The LORD told Moses and Aaron: <sup>9</sup>If Pharaoh says to you, "Identify yourselves by a miracle," then tell Aaron to take his staff and throw it down in front of Pharaoh and it will become a snake. <sup>10</sup>So Moses and Aaron called on Pharaoh and did as the LORD had told them. Aaron threw down his staff in front of Pharaoh and his attendants and it became a snake. <sup>11</sup>Pharaoh in turn called in sages and magicians and they, the scribes of Egypt, did the same by their secret formulas; <sup>12</sup>each threw down his staff and they became snakes. But Aaron's staff swallowed theirs. <sup>13</sup>And Pharaoh's mind was stubborn; he would not listen to them, as the LORD had said.

<sup>14</sup>The LORD said to Moses: Pharaoh's mind is stubborn; he refuses to let the people go. <sup>15</sup>In the morning, when as usual he is going out to the water, stand by the river bank to meet him. Take in your hand the staff that became a snake <sup>16</sup>and say to him, "The LORD God of the Hebrews has sent me to you with the message: 'Let My people go, so they may serve Me in the desert.' But to date you have not listened; <sup>17</sup>therefore the LORD says, 'By this you will know that I am the LORD. Look! With this staff that is in my hand I am about to strike the river water and it will be turned into blood. <sup>18</sup>The fish in the river will die and the river will have such an odor the Egyptians will be disgusted to drink water from it.'"

<sup>19</sup>The LORD then said to Moses, tell Aaron: Take your staff and stretch out your hand over the waters of Egypt, over their rivers, their canals, their ponds and all their reservoirs so they shall become blood in the whole country of Egypt, the contents of wooden and stone containers included.

<sup>20</sup>Moses and Aaron did exactly as the LORD had given orders. He raised the staff and in the presence of Pharaoh and his attendants he struck the river water and all the river's water was turned into blood. <sup>21</sup>The fish in the river died and the Nile stunk so that the Egyptians could not drink from it, and there was blood in the whole Egypt country. <sup>22</sup>But the scribes<sup>b</sup> did the same thing through their secret formulas and Pharaoh's mind was obstinate; he did not heed them as the LORD had said. <sup>23</sup>Pharaoh turned and went home without taking this to heart. <sup>24</sup>But all the Egyptians had to dig near the river bank for water, because they could not drink the river water. <sup>25</sup>Full seven days the LORD's stroke upon the river continued.<sup>c</sup>

8 THE LORD THEN SAID TO MOSES: Call on Pharaoh and tell him, "The LORD says, 'Let My people go to serve Me. <sup>2</sup>If you keep on refusing to let them go, beware! I will afflict your whole country with frogs. <sup>3</sup>The river, too, will be alive with frogs. They will crawl up into your home, into your bedroom and onto your couch; into the homes of your attendants and onto your people, into your bake ovens and into your kneading pans. <sup>4</sup>The frogs will be crawling all over you, over your people and over your attendants.'"

<sup>5</sup>The LORD then said to Moses, Tell Aaron, "Stretch forth your hand with

b) The most learned among the priestly caste of which Jannes and Jambres are named [II Tim. 3:8]. They created the hieroglyphics, the picture writings from which the Phoenicians reduced their alphabet and which, with Hebrew, Greek and Latin modifications, we use today. They also applied their ingenuity to occult arts or black magic. In India sleight of hand, hypnotism, invention, perhaps demonic aid produce such seemingly impossible feats today.

i) The Lord was active through Moses and Aaron as they implicitly obeyed Him, which can be our experience. j) Time for repentance was allowed Pharaoh and his court.

your staff over the rivers, the canals and the reservoirs and bring up the frogs on the land of Egypt.”<sup>6</sup> So Aaron reached out his hand over the waters of Egypt and the frogs crawled up to cover all of Egypt.<sup>7</sup> But the scribes did the same with their secret formulas; they brought up frogs on the Egyptian country.

<sup>8</sup>Pharaoh called out to Moses and Aaron, “You pray the LORD to remove the frogs from me and from my people and I will let the people go to sacrifice to the LORD.”<sup>k</sup> <sup>9</sup>Moses responded, “The honor is yours to tell me when I shall plead for you and for your attendants and your people to have the frogs removed from you and from your homes and be left only in the river.”<sup>10</sup> He said, “Tomorrow.”

He said, “As you say! So that you may know that there is none like the LORD our God,<sup>11</sup> the frogs shall leave you, your homes, your attendants and your people; they will be left in the river only.”<sup>12</sup> Moses and Aaron then left the Pharaoh and Moses invoked the LORD regarding the frogs, as he had promised Pharaoh,<sup>13</sup> and the LORD wrought in agreement with Moses’ word. Out of the houses, out of the yards and out of the fields the frogs perished;<sup>14</sup> the people piled them in heaps till the land reeked.<sup>15</sup> But when Pharaoh noticed that relief had come, he stiffened his heart; he did not heed them, as the LORD had said.

<sup>16</sup>The LORD said to Moses: Tell Aaron, “Reach out your staff, strike the dust of the ground and let it become gnats in the whole Egypt country.”<sup>17</sup> They did so. Aaron reached out his hand with his staff, struck the ground, and the gnats settled on man and beast. All the dust in the entire Egyptian country became gnats.<sup>18</sup> The scribes practiced with their secret formula but they failed; yet the gnats swarmed on man and beast.<sup>19</sup> So the scribes said to Pharaoh, “This is the finger of God.”<sup>21</sup> But Pharaoh’s mind was set. He did not yield to them, as the LORD had said.

<sup>20</sup>The LORD said to Moses: Get up early in the morning and face Pharaoh — he will be going to the water — and tell him, “This is the LORD’s message, Let my people go, so they may serve Me; <sup>21</sup>for in case you fail to let My people go, beware! I am about to send the gadfly on you, on your attendants, on your people and on your home. The homes of the Egyptians shall swarm with gadflies; the ground, too and those on it.<sup>22</sup> But that time I will set apart the land of Goshen where My people live; it will be free from gadflies, so that you may know that I, the LORD, am in the land.<sup>23</sup> I will make a distinction between My people and your people. Tomorrow this sign shall materialize.”

<sup>24</sup>The LORD did so. In swarms the gadflies invaded Pharaoh’s palace, the homes of his retinue and the whole Egypt country, so that the land was being ruined by the gadflies.<sup>25</sup> Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron and said, “You go and sacrifice to your God within our boundaries.”<sup>26</sup> But Moses rejoined, “It would not be right to do that; for we would offer the LORD our God something offensive to the Egyptians. You see, if we offer something the Egyptians abominate right before their eyes, might they not stone us? <sup>27</sup>We want to go three days’ travel into the desert to sacrifice to the LORD our God the way He directs us.”

<sup>28</sup>Pharaoh said, “I will let you go. You may sacrifice to your god in the desert; only, do not travel far.”<sup>m</sup> And pray fervently for me.”<sup>n</sup> <sup>29</sup>Moses answered, “I am about to leave your presence and to pray the LORD. Tomorrow the gadflies will leave Pharaoh, his attendants and his people. However, let not Pharaoh persist in his deception by not letting the people go to sacrifice to the LORD!”<sup>30</sup> Moses then left Pharaoh and fervently prayed the LORD <sup>31</sup>and the LORD wrought ack) It looks as if either the king or some of his courtiers had detected something shady about the scribes’ pseudo-miracles.

l) An involuntary confession of their own failure to gain cooperation from their gods.

m) As the world tells the Christian, “Don’t move too far away from us; don’t differ too much from us!” It could not satisfy Moses.

n) As Simon, the magician, asked Peter to pray for him [Acts 8:24].

cording to Moses' request. The gadflies moved away from Pharaoh, from his courtiers and from his people; there was not one left. <sup>32</sup>But this time again Pharaoh set his mind stubbornly; he did not let the people go.

9 THE LORD SAID TO MOSES: CALL on Pharaoh and tell him, "Thus speaks the LORD God of the Hebrews, Let My people go, so they may serve Me; <sup>2</sup>for if you refuse to let them go and persist in detaining them, <sup>3</sup>beware! The LORD's hand will be on your livestock out in the field, on the horses, the donkeys, the camels, the herds and the flocks with a dreadful plague. <sup>4</sup>The LORD will draw distinction between Israel's livestock and that of Egypt. Nothing that belongs to the Israelites shall die." <sup>5</sup>The LORD even set a definite time; He said: Tomorrow the LORD will do this in the land.<sup>a</sup>

<sup>6</sup>Next day, the LORD did so. All the livestock of Egypt died; but of the Israelites' livestock not a single one. <sup>7</sup>Pharaoh sent to investigate and found that not one of the Israelites' animals was dead; yet Pharaoh's mind was set; he did not let the people go.

<sup>8</sup>Then the LORD told Moses and Aaron: Both of you fill your hands with ashes from the furnace and, with Pharaoh looking on, let Moses toss it up to the sky. <sup>9</sup>It will turn to fine dust all over the land of Egypt, that settles upon man and beast and causes boils that break out in open sores. <sup>10</sup>So they took ashes from a furnace and, facing Pharaoh, Moses tossed it up toward the sky and it caused boils that broke out in open sores on man and beast. <sup>11</sup>The scribes could not stand before Moses because of the sores: for the scribes as well as the rest of the Egyptians were covered with sores. <sup>12</sup>But the LORD encouraged Pharaoh in his own way; he did not listen to them, as the LORD had said to Moses.

<sup>13</sup>Again the LORD said to Moses: Get up early in the morning, face

Pharaoh and say to him, "This the LORD God of the Hebrews has to say, Let My people go, so they may serve Me; <sup>14</sup>for this time I am sending all My plagues to reach your heart, that of your attendants and that of your people; so you may sense the fact that there is none like Me in all the earth. <sup>15</sup>For if by now I had stretched out My hand, I could have stricken you and your people with pestilence, and destroyed you from the earth; <sup>16</sup>but I have preserved you for this reason—to make you see My power and to publish My name in all the earth."<sup>b</sup>

<sup>17</sup>Are you still setting yourself up against My people not to let them go?

<sup>18</sup>Take notice! Tomorrow about this time I will rain a downpour of hail so heavy, the like of it has not occurred in Egypt from its founding until now. <sup>19</sup>So you better bring in your stock and everything you have out in the field for safety; for the hail shall come down on every man and beast found in the field and not brought home and they shall die."

<sup>20</sup>Then whoever of Pharaoh's servants revered the LORD's word, hurried his slaves and his livestock under shelter; <sup>21</sup>but he, who did not mind the LORD's word, left his slaves and his livestock in the field.

<sup>22</sup>The LORD told Moses: Reach your hand up toward heaven, so that hail may fall on all the land of Egypt, on man and beast and on all vegetation in the land of Egypt. <sup>23</sup>So Moses raised his staff toward heaven and the LORD sent thunder and hail, with lightning bolting along the ground, and with hail falling on the land of Egypt. <sup>24</sup>There was lightning darting in between the hailstones, all so dreadful, nothing like it had occurred since Egypt had become a nation. <sup>25</sup>The hail struck down everything in the field, both man and beast, all vegetation, too, and it broke down every tree. <sup>26</sup>Only in the land of Goshen, where the children of Israel lived, there was no hail.

a) At least two divine principles stand forth among these plagues: God gives fair warning before He administers punishment and He patiently repeats His warnings. Man may obey or disobey.
p) Those doubtful of God's ways should observe that Pharaoh had stiffened his mind before God gave him definite orders; also that not merely the king of Egypt and his people were concerned but even more the Israelites and ultimately the whole earth.

<sup>27</sup>Then Pharaoh summoned Moses and Aaron and said to them, "This time I have sinned; God is righteous; I and my people are guilty. <sup>28</sup>Pray the LORD fervently, as there is enough of God's thunder and hail, and I will let you go; you shall stay here no longer." <sup>29</sup>Moses assured him, "The moment I am out of the city I will spread my hands to the LORD; the thunder will cease and there shall be no more hail, so that you may know that the earth is the LORD's. <sup>30</sup>As for you and your courtiers, however, I know that you do not yet revere the LORD God."

<sup>31</sup>The flax and the barley had been beaten to the ground, for the barley had headed and the flax was in bloom; <sup>32</sup>but the wheat and the spelt<sup>a</sup> were not ruined for they were a later crop. <sup>33</sup>Leaving Pharaoh, Moses went out of the city<sup>r</sup> and spread his hands to the LORD; the thunder and hail ceased; there were no more torrents of rain gushing on the earth. <sup>34</sup>But when Pharaoh felt certain that the rain, the hail and the thunder had stopped, he persisted in sinning; he stiffened his heart, he and his attendants. <sup>35</sup>Stubborn as Pharaoh was, he did not let the Israelites go, just as through Moses the LORD had declared.

10 THE LORD SAID TO MOSES: CALL on Pharaoh, for I have toughened his mind and the minds of his courtiers, so that I may work these My wonders among them, <sup>2</sup>and so that you may tell your children and your children's children how I have handled Egypt, and the signs I worked among them, so that you may know that I am the LORD.

<sup>3</sup>So Moses and Aaron went to Pharaoh and told him, "This is the message of the LORD God of the Hebrews — 'How long will you decline submission to Me? Let My people go, so they may serve Me; <sup>4</sup>for if you refuse to let My people go, beware! Tomorrow I will bring locusts into your territory. <sup>5</sup>They will cover the entire surface of the land so that the ground cannot be seen and they will devour the leftovers that survived the hail. They will strip every tree in the field of its foliage; <sup>6</sup>they will fill your homes, the homes of your nobles and of all the Egyptians in a way neither you fathers nor their ancestors have experienced from the time they were born until now.'" Then he turned and left Pharaoh.

<sup>7</sup>Pharaoh's courtiers said to him, "How long is this person to threaten our ruin? Let the men go, so they may serve the LORD their God. Do you not realize that Egypt is in ruins?" <sup>8</sup>So Moses and Aaron were brought back to Pharaoh, who said to them, "Go, serve the LORD your God; but who are to go?" <sup>9</sup>Moses replied, "We go together; our youths and our aged, our sons and our daughters, our flocks and our herds are to go; for we are celebrating the LORD's feast." <sup>10</sup>He said, "May the LORD be with you<sup>s</sup> if I intend to let you and your little ones go! Look out! You are plotting mischief! <sup>11</sup>No, indeed! You men go and serve the LORD, for that is what you wanted!" And Pharaoh expelled them from his presence.

<sup>12</sup>The LORD then said to Moses: Stretch your hand over the land of Egypt for the locusts to come up on it and devour all the vegetation the hail has left. <sup>13</sup>So Moses reached out his staff over Egypt and the LORD drove an east wind upon the land all that day and night till in the morning the east wind carried in the locusts. <sup>14</sup>They swarmed all over Egypt and settled on all its domain in incredible numbers. Never before were there such locusts<sup>t</sup> and never again will there be. <sup>15</sup>They covered the land's surface everywhere so that it grew

q) A grain better to eat than barley but not as good as wheat, though more like it. It came later than barley and was hard to be cleaned of its chaff. Egypt used it for bread. Rye did not grow in Egypt or in Palestine.

r) Memphis was the earlier royal city and nearer Goshen than No or Thebes, the royal city higher up the Nile. At this time the Pharaoh must have resided in Memphis.

s) Mockery, derision, arrogance and anger mark this insulting harangue. The king begins to feel that he is beaten and he resents it.

t) Unusually large, too, it would seem. There were severe locust plagues in that region in 1463 and in 1763 A.D.

dark; they devoured all vegetation in the land and stripped all the fruit on the trees which the hail had left. Nothing green remained either on trees or of field vegetation in the entire Egyptian country.

<sup>16</sup>Pharaoh sent an urgent call for Moses and Aaron. "I have sinned," he said, "against the LORD your God and against you. <sup>17</sup>Please, forgive my sin only this once and plead with the LORD your God to remove from me this fatal destruction." <sup>18</sup>He left Pharaoh and implored the LORD. <sup>19</sup>Then the LORD changed the wind to a mighty west wind that caught up the locusts and blew them into the Red Sea until not one locust remained in the whole land of Egypt. <sup>20</sup>However, the LORD encouraged Pharaoh in his stubborn way; he did not let the Israelites go.

<sup>21</sup>The LORD said to Moses: Stretch your hand toward heaven, so there may fall such a darkness upon Egypt, that they must feel their way. <sup>22</sup>As Moses stretched his hand toward heaven, there came a thick darkness over all the land of Egypt for three days; <sup>23</sup>they could not see each other; for three days they could not get up and move around, while all the Israelites enjoyed light in their homes.

<sup>24</sup>Pharaoh summoned Moses and said, "You go and serve the LORD; only leave your flocks and herds behind, while you take your little ones along." <sup>25</sup>Moses replied, "You must allow us our sacrifices and burnt-offerings to offer the LORD our God. <sup>26</sup>Our livestock must therefore come with us; not a hoof shall be left behind, because from them we shall take to serve the LORD our God, and we do not know what to use for the LORD's service until we reach there." <sup>27</sup>But the LORD encouraged Pharaoh in his way; he was not willing to let them go. <sup>28</sup>And Pharaoh said to him, "Get away from me and see to it that you never come near me again; for if I ever see you again, you die!"

<sup>29</sup>"Correctly spoken," Moses retorted, "you will not see me again."

11 THE LORD SAID TO MOSES: There is one more blow I shall bring down on Pharaoh and on Egypt; after that he will let you move out; in fact, he will not merely give you leave without any conditions; he will push you out. <sup>2</sup>Tell the people to request, each man from his neighbor and each woman from her neighbor, articles of silver and of gold. <sup>3</sup>The LORD inclined the Egyptians favorably toward the people. Besides, Moses as a man became highly esteemed in Egypt, both by Pharaoh's aristocracy and by the common people. <sup>4</sup>Then Moses said, "This is the LORD's message: 'Around midnight I shall move in the midst of Egypt <sup>5</sup>and every first-born in the land of Egypt shall die, from the first-born of Pharaoh on his throne to the first-born of the slave girl behind the hand mill and all the first-born of cattle. <sup>6</sup>Throughout the land of Egypt there shall be loud wailing, the like of which never occurred and never will be again. <sup>7</sup>But against any of the Israelites either man or beast, not a dog shall bark — to show you how the LORD distinguishes between Egypt and Israel. <sup>8</sup>All these nobles of yours' shall come down to me and bow deeply to me, begging of me, 'Do go out; you and all your followers!' And after that I will go out.'" He then left Pharaoh in hot indignation.

<sup>9</sup>The LORD had said to Moses: Pharaoh will not listen to you, so that My mighty works may multiply in the land of Egypt. <sup>10</sup>Moses and Aaron did all these wonders in the presence of Pharaoh; but the LORD encouraged Pharaoh in his own way and he did not allow the Israelites to leave his country.

March-April 1446 w

12 THE LORD SAID TO MOSES AND Aaron in the land of Egypt: <sup>2</sup>To you let this month be the first, the

u) Moses had not left Pharaoh as yet, but continued with God's message, which concerned both Egypt and Israel and which in all fairness both should know. His final departure is noted at the close of vs. 8.

v) This is definitely to Pharaoh, with his attendants taking it all in.

w) The matter of dates is far from settled; but dating aids in relating events to one another.

month with which your year begins.<sup>x</sup>

<sup>3</sup>Announce to the whole Israelite congregation,<sup>y</sup> that on the tenth of this month each man shall secure a lamb for his paternal family, one lamb for each home. <sup>4</sup>If the household is too small for a lamb, then let him and his next door neighbor go partners, sharing the expense of the lamb according to the amount respectively eaten. <sup>5</sup>Your lamb should be a perfect, male yearling, taken from the sheep or from the goats. <sup>6</sup>Confine it until the fourteenth day of the same month when at twilight the whole Israelite congregation shall do the killing. <sup>7</sup>Some of the blood<sup>z</sup> they must apply to the two doorposts and to the lintel of the house in which they eat it. <sup>8</sup>That night they shall eat the meat, fire roasted, with unleavened bread and with bitter herbs. <sup>9</sup>Do not eat it raw or cooked in water, but roasted, head, legs, heart and liver. <sup>10</sup>Save nothing of it until morning and, if all is not eaten, burn it up in the morning.

<sup>11</sup>Eat it this way, with your waist belted,<sup>a</sup> your feet sandaled and your staff in hand; eat it in expectant haste; it is a Passover for the LORD. <sup>12</sup>For this night I will pass through in the land of Egypt and strike down every first-born in Egypt of man and of beast and I, the LORD, will execute judgments on all the gods of Egypt. <sup>13</sup>Then the blood shall mark for you the homes where you are living; when I see the blood I will pass over you. No fatal plague shall attack you while I am smiting the Egyptians.

<sup>14</sup>This day, then, shall be a memorial day for you; observe it as a feast to the LORD through the centuries, an appointed feast forever. <sup>15</sup>For seven days you will eat unleavened bread, clearing your houses of all leav-en the very first day; for if anyone eats anything leavened from the first until the seventh day that person shall be eliminated from Israel.

<sup>16</sup>On the first day and on the seventh have a sacred gathering; do no work at all on these days except preparing what each person needs to eat. <sup>17</sup>Guard this unleavened bread observance; because on this historic day I brought your hosts out of the land of Egypt.<sup>b</sup> Observe this day as an institution through all your generations forever. <sup>18</sup>In the first month from the fourteenth at eventide until the twenty-first at eventide you shall eat unleavened bread; <sup>19</sup>for seven days there must be no leavened bread whatever in your houses, for if anyone eats anything leavened, that person, whether native or immigrant, shall be excommunicated from Israel's congregation. <sup>20</sup>Eat nothing leavened; wherever you dwell, eat unleavened bread.

<sup>21</sup>So Moses summoned all the elders of Israel and told them, "Select and set apart lambs for your several households and kill the Passover."<sup>c</sup> <sup>22</sup>Take a bunch of hyssop,<sup>d</sup> too, dip it in the basin of blood and apply it to the posts and the lintel of the door; then none of you shall go outdoors until morning; <sup>23</sup>the LORD will be passing through to strike down Egypt. He will see the blood on the lintel and on the two door posts, and the LORD will pass over the door; He will not allow the destroyer to enter your homes for destruction.<sup>e</sup>

<sup>24</sup>Observe this order as an institution for yourself and for your descendants evermore. <sup>25</sup>Faithfully guard this worship service when you enter the land which, in agreement with His promise, the LORD will give you. <sup>26</sup>And when your children ask you, 'What

x) Named Abib — ear of grain. Months dated differently with the new moon, but from the middle of March to the middle of April is near Abib.

y) Here for the first time Israel is called a congregation.

z) Which does not mean that the blood remained in the body, the lamb's blood was used for marking doorposts and lintel. And no faithful Hebrew ate meat from which the blood had not been drained.

a) To tuck under whatever of the upper garment might impede walking.

b) So certain to occur, it can be mentioned as having happened.

c) Name for the lamb or kid killed and eaten at the Passover Festival. In this spirit Christ is called "our Passover" [I Cor. 5:7].

d) A fragrant plant of the mint family, small, bushy, serving as a brush.

e) The Lord Himself, then, is not the destroyer. He seems to have crossed the threshold of each house marked with the blood of the lamb, to protect the first-born there.

does this service mean to you?<sup>f</sup> Then you will say, 'It is a Passover sacrifice to the LORD, who passed over the houses of the Israelites in Egypt when He was smiting Egypt, and saved our homes!'" The people bowed their heads and worshiped; <sup>28</sup>the Israelites went out and did exactly as the LORD had commanded Moses and Aaron.

<sup>29</sup>At midnight the LORD struck down every first-born in Egypt, from the first-born of Pharaoh on his throne<sup>g</sup> to the first-born of the prisoner in the dungeon; all the first-born of the cattle, too. <sup>30</sup>That night Pharaoh got up and his courtiers as well, and all the Egyptians; there was loud wailing in Egypt, because there was not a home without someone dead. <sup>31</sup>During the night he sent word to Moses and Aaron, "Get up and get out from among my people; both you and the Israelites. Go and serve the LORD as you argued; <sup>32</sup>take along your flocks and your herds as you said and be gone. Ask a blessing for me, too."

<sup>33</sup>The Egyptians urged the people to hurry them out of the country, for they said, "We all face death." <sup>34</sup>So the people shouldered their dough before it was leavened, tying their kneading-bowls in their robes and on their shoulders. <sup>35</sup>And in agreement with the instructions of Moses they asked the Egyptians for silver and golden articles, also for clothing, <sup>36</sup>and the LORD had inclined the Egyptians so favorably toward the people that they granted them (all they asked); so they took heavy payment from Egypt.<sup>h</sup>

<sup>37</sup>The Israelites moved from Rameses to Succoth, about 600,000 men and their households. <sup>38</sup>A great, motley throng went up with them,<sup>i</sup> too; also flocks and herds, very much livestock. <sup>39</sup>From the dough which they had brought along out of Egypt they baked unleavened cakes. The dough was not leavened because they had been expelled from Egypt; they could not delay to prepare food for themselves.

<sup>40</sup>The period of the Israelites' stay in Egypt was 430 years. <sup>41</sup>At the end of 430 years to the day<sup>j</sup> all the hosts of the LORD left the land of Egypt. <sup>42</sup>That was a night when the LORD kept watch to bring them out of Egypt; it is the night in which through all their generations the Israelites shall keep watch in the presence of the LORD.

<sup>43</sup>The LORD said to Moses and Aaron: This is the way to observe the Passover — No alien may eat of it; <sup>44</sup>but every slave bought for money, after you have circumcised him, may partake of it. <sup>45</sup>Neither a foreigner nor a hired servant shall participate. <sup>46</sup>It shall be eaten in a single house; you must not carry any of the meat outside the house; neither shall you break a bone of it.<sup>k</sup> <sup>47</sup>Also, the whole Israel congregation shall observe it. <sup>48</sup>In case an alien lives among you and desires to observe the Passover to the LORD, let all the male members of his family be circumcised; then he may approach to observe it; he shall be like a native of the land; but no uncircumcised person shall eat of it. <sup>49</sup>One law shall hold for the native and for the stranger who lives among you.

<sup>50</sup>In every point the Israelites carried out what the LORD commanded Moses and Aaron. <sup>51</sup>And on this very day the LORD brought the children of Israel out of Egypt in martial order.<sup>l</sup>

13 THE LORD SAID TO MOSES: <sup>2</sup>Dedicate to Me every first-born in Israel that opens the womb, human or animal; it is Mine.<sup>m</sup> <sup>3</sup>And Moses charged the people, "Commemorate this day in which you came out from Egypt, out of the house of slavery; for by a

f) God made our children questioners because they have much to learn. And many of their questions, if understood and wisely answered, will lead their thoughts toward God.

g) Egyptian history records a crown-prince at this time, Meneptan Seti, who had won back lost territory for his father, but never took the throne.

h) The Hebrews had earned much more from the Egyptians than they received.

i) Whom the mighty works of God had deeply impressed; if they, too, applied blood to their doorposts, they suffered no fatalities. But some of them became sources of constant trouble.

j) On the anniversary of Jacob's arrival, some Rabbis tell us.

k) Fulfilled John 19:36.

l) They had kept their family records, so they could move by families, clans and tribes.

m) Because God had saved every firstborn in the blood-applied home.

mighty hand the LORD brought you out of there. So, no leavened bread must be eaten <sup>4</sup>this day of the month Abib<sup>n</sup> on which you are going out.

<sup>5</sup>"When the LORD brings you into the land of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Hivites and the Jebusites, which He swore to your fathers to give you — a land flowing with milk and honey — then you shall hold this service in this month. <sup>6</sup>For seven days you shall eat unleavened bread, with a feast to the LORD on the seventh day. <sup>7</sup>During the seven days unleavened bread shall be eaten; you shall have no leavened bread around; neither shall any fermented dough be present within your boundaries.

<sup>8</sup>"You must tell your son on that day, "This is on account of what the LORD did for me when I came out of Egypt." <sup>9</sup>It will serve as a sign on your hand and a reminder on your forehead, so that the LORD's law may be on your lips; for with a mighty hand the LORD brought you out of Egypt. <sup>10</sup>Observe this institution annually at its appointed time.

<sup>11</sup>"When the LORD brings you into the Canaanite country and gives it to you, as He swore to you and to your fathers, <sup>12</sup>then you shall pass on to the LORD every first opener of the womb, including the firstling of the cattle you own; the males are the LORD's.<sup>o</sup> <sup>13</sup>Each firstling of a donkey you may redeem with a lamb, but if you do not redeem it, then break its neck. Redeem also every first-born son.

<sup>14</sup>"When hereafter your son asks you, 'What does this mean?' then you will answer him, 'With a mighty hand the LORD brought us out of Egypt out of the house of slavery, <sup>15</sup>and when Pharaoh steeled himself against letting us go, the LORD killed every first-born in the land of Egypt,<sup>p</sup> both of man and of cattle. I am therefore sacrificing to the LORD every first-born male, but the first-born of my sons I redeem."<sup>q</sup> <sup>16</sup>It will be as a sign on your hand and on your forehead, for with great might the LORD brought us out of Egypt."

<sup>17</sup>When Pharaoh had allowed the people to go, God did not lead them by way of the Philistines' land, although that was a shorter route; for God considered that, on tasting war, the people might feel regret and go back to Egypt. <sup>18</sup>So God detoured the people toward the desert by the Red Sea. In martial order the Israelites went up from the land of Egypt.<sup>r</sup> <sup>19</sup>Moses took with him the bones of Joseph, because he had demanded an oath from the sons of Israel, saying, "God is certain to visit you and you shall carry my bones up with you."<sup>s</sup>

<sup>20</sup>They trekked from Succoth and camped at Etham on the edge of the desert. <sup>21</sup>The LORD moved before them in a column of cloud by day to lead them on the way, and at night in a column of fire to give them light, so they could travel day and night. <sup>22</sup>The column of cloud did not fail by day nor the column of fire by night, leading the people.

14 THE LORD THEN SAID TO MOSES: <sup>2</sup>Tell the Israelites to turn about and make camp facing Pi-Hahiroth, between Migdol and the sea, opposite Baal-Zephon; make camp, fronting it by the sea. <sup>3</sup>Then Pharaoh will say about the Israelites, "They have lost their way; the desert has cooped them in." <sup>4</sup>I will encourage Pharaoh in his own way, and he will pursue them. So through Pharaoh and his whole army I will be honored; the Egyptians will learn that I am the LORD.<sup>t</sup>

They did so, <sup>5</sup>and when it was told Pharaoh that the people had fled, Pharaoh and his attendants changed their minds about the people. They said,

n) First month of the Hebrew year. Its exact date followed lunar changes, like our Easter date, the Passover, starting the 14th day, often running into April.

o) As first planned, each oldest son a spiritual leader, a function later assigned to the Levites.

p) Previous messages are repeated now that all have gotten together.

q) From this time the words redeem, ransom, deliver become frequent.

r) The Hebrew blood relationship, Israel, tribes, clans, families, households, persons, established order and identity rarely known elsewhere.

s) Proof that Joseph remained a Hebrew and a follower of Jehovah throughout all his years.

t) They still needed this final and fatal lesson.

"What have we done? We gave Israel leave from working for us!"<sup>6</sup> So he ordered his chariot and took his army with him, <sup>7</sup>600 choice chariots and what other chariots Egypt had, all manned and captained. <sup>8</sup>The LORD encouraged Pharaoh king of Egypt in his own way so that he pursued the Israelites, who were marching out under a higher guidance.

<sup>9</sup>The Egyptians went after them and caught up with them at their camp by the sea near Pi-Ilahi-roth,<sup>u</sup> fronting Baal-Zephon — all of Pharaoh's chariots and his horsemen, also his cavalry and infantry. <sup>10</sup>As Pharaoh approached, the Israelites looked up and saw the Egyptians there marching behind them and they were frantic. The Israelites cried out to the LORD <sup>11</sup>and they said to Moses,<sup>v</sup> "Did you take us away to die in the desert because there are no graves in Egypt? Why did you treat us this way, to bring us out of Egypt? <sup>12</sup>Did we not tell you in Egypt, 'Leave us alone; let us serve the Egyptians!' Better for us to work for the Egyptians than to die in the desert." <sup>13</sup>Moses answered the people, "Have no fear; be steadfast and watch how the LORD will be your salvation today. As for the Egyptians whom you see today, you will never, never see them again; <sup>14</sup>the LORD will fight for you while you keep still."

<sup>15</sup>The LORD then said to Moses: Why do you call to Me? Tell the Israelites to move forward.<sup>w</sup> <sup>16</sup>Raise your staff and stretch out your hand over the sea; divide it, so that the Israelites may go right through the sea on dry ground. <sup>17</sup>As for Me, take note! I will encourage the minds of the Egyptians to follow them. Through Pharaoh, through his armed forces, his chariots and his horsemen My honor will be sustained; <sup>18</sup>the Egyptians shall know that I am the LORD when My honor is advanced over Pharaoh with his chariots and his horsemen.

<sup>19</sup>Then the Angel of God,<sup>x</sup> who had been moving ahead of Israel's camp, withdrew and went behind them — the column of cloud withdrew from the front and stood behind them — <sup>20</sup>and came between the camp of Egypt and the camp of Israel; it was cloud and darkness; it also lit up the night;<sup>y</sup> so they did not get close to each other at night.

<sup>21</sup>Moses then stretched out his hand over the sea and the LORD moved the sea all night by a mighty east wind turning the sea into dry land. The waters were divided <sup>22</sup>and the Israelites went into the midst of the sea on dry ground. To their right and to their left the waters formed a wall for them.<sup>z</sup> <sup>23</sup>In hot pursuit the Egyptians followed them, all the horses, the chariots and the horsemen of Pharaoh into the midst of the sea. <sup>24</sup>Around 6:00 in the morning the LORD looked upon the Egyptian army from the column of fire and cloud and brought on panic among the Egyptian host; <sup>25</sup>He clogged their chariot wheels and made them move so heavily that the Egyptians said, "Let us get away from the Israelites, for the LORD is fighting for them against the Egyptians."<sup>a</sup>

<sup>26</sup>The LORD said to Moses: Stretch out your hand over the sea and let the waters flow back upon the Egyptians, over their chariots and their horsemen. <sup>27</sup>So Moses stretched out his hand over the sea and at break of day the sea returned to its usual flow, with the Egyptians fleeing against it. The LORD tumbled<sup>b</sup> the Egyptians into the middle of the sea. <sup>28</sup>The waves rolled back and submerged the chariots and their driv-

u) Sedge-place, on the Egyptian side of the Red Sea.

v) Some, it would seem, called out to God; others complained to Moses.

w) No disagreement or rebuke; silence and confidence were needed before God's help could be appreciated. x) Previously mentioned as the Lord Himself, Ch. 13:21.

y) Darkness to the Egyptians and light to the Hebrews.

z) A wall of water due to a mighty wind is not perpendicular; it bulges. All pictures that so portray it are false to this Bible passage. Mighty winds moved waters to right and to left, making a wide path for the Hebrews and all they had.

a) After the Hebrews had well passed the earlier portion of their miraculous path, the sandy bottom started moistening and softening so that chariot wheels went deeper and deeper; for the winds that had turned the waters back ceased blowing. b) As fruit is shaken from a tree.

ers together with the whole army of Pharaoh that had followed them into the sea; not even one of them was left. <sup>29</sup>But the Israelites had walked on dry ground in the middle of the sea with the waters for their wall to the right and to the left. <sup>30</sup>So did the LORD save Israel that day from Egypt's dominance, and Israel saw the Egyptians dead on the seashore. <sup>31</sup>When Israel looked upon the mighty work which the LORD had wrought upon Egypt, the people revered the LORD and came to believe in the LORD and in His servant Moses.

15 THEN MOSES AND THE ISRAELITES sang this hymn to the LORD, "I will sing to the LORD, for He has triumphed gloriously; horse and rider He has hurled into the sea. <sup>2</sup>The LORD is my strength and song; He has become my salvation." This is my God and I will glorify Him; my father's God and I will exalt Him.

<sup>3</sup>"The LORD is a warrior;<sup>d</sup> Jehovah is His name; <sup>4</sup>the chariots of Pharaoh and his army He has thrown into the sea; the pick of his fighters are drowned in the Red Sea. <sup>5</sup>The floods cover them; they sank into the depths like a stone.

<sup>6</sup>"Thy right hand, O LORD, is glorified in power; Thy right hand, O LORD, shattered the foe. <sup>7</sup>In the greatness of Thy majesty Thou didst pull down those who rose up against Thee; Thou didst loosen Thine indignation which consumed them like stubble. <sup>8</sup>At the blast of Thy nostrils the waters were heaped up; the streams stood up like a wall; the waves were congealed in the heart of the sea.

<sup>9</sup>"The foe said, 'I will pursue, I will overtake, I will share the plunder; I shall have my satisfaction on them; I will unsheath my sword; my hand shall destroy them.'

<sup>10</sup>"Thou didst blow with Thy wind; the sea covered them; they sank as lead in mighty waters.<sup>e</sup> <sup>11</sup>Who is like Thee among the gods, O LORD? Who is like Thee, glorified in holiness,<sup>f</sup> revered in hymnody, doing wonders! <sup>12</sup>Thou didst stretch out Thy right hand, the earth swallowed them.

<sup>13</sup>"In Thy mercy Thou hast led the people Thou hast redeemed; in Thy might Thou hast guided them to Thy holy dwelling. <sup>14</sup>Nations heard of it and trembled; anguish gripped the Philistines. <sup>15</sup>Edom's princes were confounded; the Moab chiefs — trembling attacks them. All the dwellers of Canaan melted away; <sup>16</sup>terror and dread come down on them. By the greatness of Thy arm they are static as a stone, until Thy people, O LORD, come through, until the people come through whom Thou hast made Thine own. <sup>17</sup>Thou bringest them in and plantest them in the mountain of Thy heritage, the place, O LORD, which Thou hast made Thy dwelling, the sanctuary which Thy hands, O LORD, have established. <sup>18</sup>The LORD shall reign forever and ever."

<sup>19</sup>For Pharaoh's horses went into the sea with his chariots and his horsemen, and the LORD returned upon them the waters of the sea, but the children of Israel walked on dry ground through the middle of the sea.

<sup>20</sup>Then Miriam, the prophetess, sister of Aaron, took in her hand a tambourine and all the women followed her with tambourines to which they danced <sup>21</sup>while Miriam taught them to sing, "Sing to the LORD, for He has triumphed gloriously; horse and rider has He plunged into the sea."

<sup>22</sup>Then Moses ordered Israel to move away from the Red Sea and they went on into the Shur desert; for three days they traveled in the desert without finding water. <sup>23</sup>Arriving at Marah they could not drink the Marah water, for it was bitter; for that reason they named it Marah.<sup>g</sup> <sup>24</sup>So the people complained against Moses, "What shall we drink?" <sup>25</sup>He called out to the LORD and the LORD showed him a log, which he threw into the water and the water became enjoyable.

Then he laid down a statute and

c) To this hymn the Hebrew prophets and singers referred repeatedly [see Isa. 12]. They quoted from it verbally, and the majesty, the might and the sublimity of God remained a main source of courage, so continuing through the Christian era.

d) With this phase of God's nature Pharaoh had not reckoned.

e) With their heavy armor unable to swim or float. f) First mention of God's holiness.

g) Which means, bitter. Miriam, Mary, myrrh, are built on the same stem.

ordinance for them;<sup>h</sup> there He tested them; <sup>26</sup>He said: If you will carefully listen to the voice of the LORD, your God, do what is right before Him, give ear to His commands and observe all His injunctions, then I will put on you none of the diseases I put on Egypt; for I am the LORD, your healer. <sup>27</sup>They came to Elin with its twelve springs of waters and seventy palm trees; there they camped beside the waters.<sup>i</sup>

16 THE WHOLE CONGREGATION OF Israelites set out from Elin and came into the Sin desert,<sup>j</sup> which lies between Elin and Sinai, on the fifteenth of the second month<sup>k</sup> since their leaving Egypt. <sup>2</sup>In the desert the entire Israelite congregation grumbled against Moses and Aaron, <sup>3</sup>saying, "We had rather have died by the LORD's hand in the land of Egypt, where we sat<sup>l</sup> by our flesh pots and ate all the food we wanted; for you have led us into this desert to kill all of us by starving." <sup>4</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses: Observe! I am going to shower bread for you from heaven. The people shall go out and collect one day's ration each day, so that I may test them, whether they will follow My instructions or not. <sup>5</sup>And on the sixth day they shall be ready to bring in double the daily ration.

<sup>6</sup>So Moses and Aaron told all the Israelites, "This evening you shall recognize that the LORD has brought you from the land of Egypt, <sup>7</sup>and in the morning you shall see the glory of the LORD, who hears you grumble against the LORD. For who are we, that you should grumble against us!" <sup>8</sup>Moses continued, "The LORD is giving you flesh to eat in the evening and bread in the morning as much as you want, because the LORD is hearing your complaints against Him. Who are we?

Your complaints are not against us, but against the LORD."

<sup>9</sup>Moses said to Aaron, "Tell the whole assembly of Israel, 'Present yourselves before the LORD, for He has heard your grumbings.'" <sup>10</sup>And while Aaron was addressing the whole congregation of Israel and they looked toward the desert, they beheld the glory of the LORD manifested in the cloud.<sup>m</sup> <sup>11</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses: <sup>12</sup>I have heard the grumbings of the Israelites. Tell them, "At twilight you will have flesh to eat and in the morning plenty of bread and you will recognize that I am the LORD your God."

<sup>13</sup>So it was. At twilight quails came up and covered the camp, and in the morning a heavy dew lay all round the camp. <sup>14</sup>When the dew evaporated, there lay on the surface of the desert something small and flaky, as fine as hoarfrost, on the ground. <sup>15</sup>As the Israelites looked at it, they said to one another, "What is it?"<sup>n</sup> For they did not know what it was.

Moses told them, "This is the bread which the LORD has given you for food. <sup>16</sup>The LORD's command is this: Each one of you gather of it what you need, three quarts for each as you number the persons; let each man gather for those in his tent." <sup>17</sup>The Israelites did so, some gathering much and some less. <sup>18</sup>Measuring it with a six-pint vessel,<sup>o</sup> he who gathered much had none to spare, while he who gathered little did not come short; they collected according to personal needs.

<sup>19</sup>Moses said to them, "Let no one save any of it until morning." <sup>20</sup>But they did not listen to Moses and left some of it till morning, and it grew wormy and rancid. So Moses felt angered by them.

<sup>21</sup>Morning after morning they gathered, each according to his eating and,

h) God established the eternal principle that He hears and helps them who sincerely "trust and obey" Him. i) Still called, Springs of Moses. j) A local name without reference to good or evil. k) Named Ziv in I Kings 6:37. The seventh month was called Ethanim and the eighth Bul. After the Captivity different names were used.

l) So soon they had forgotten how seldom their slavery had allowed them to sit at ease.

m) The column of cloud and of fire.

n) The word manna carries the meaning, "What is it?" It was so used in Egypt and in the Sinai peninsula. Young Nez Perce Indians, whom we watched playing ball, often turned to the leader with, "Manna?" They told us it meant, "What do you mean?"

o) An omer, between six and seven pints.

as the sun grew hot, it melted; <sup>22</sup>but on the sixth day they collected a double ration, two omers for each one. When all the leaders of the congregation came and told Moses, <sup>23</sup>he assured them, "This is what the LORD said, There is rest tomorrow, a Sabbath holy to the LORD. Bake and cook what you need and lay aside the rest for yourselves till next morning." <sup>24</sup>They saved it till morning as Moses had ordered and it was neither rancid nor wormy.

<sup>25</sup>Moses said, "Eat it today, because today is a Sabbath to the LORD; today you will not find it outdoors. <sup>26</sup>Collect it six days but on the seventh day, a Sabbath, there will be none." <sup>27</sup>Yet, on the seventh day some of the people went out to gather it; but they did not find any.

<sup>28</sup>The LORD then spoke to Moses: How long will you<sup>p</sup> refuse to obey My commands and My instructions? <sup>29</sup>Mind this: Because the LORD has given you the Sabbath, He is giving you two days' bread on the sixth day, while everyone should stay home and not leave his place on the seventh day. <sup>30</sup>So the people rested on the seventh day.

<sup>31</sup>The house of Israel named it manna; it was white like coriander seed<sup>q</sup> and it tasted like honeyed cakes. <sup>32</sup>Moses said, "This is the LORD's command: 'Fill an omer of it to keep for future generations, so they may see the bread I fed you in the desert when I brought you from the land of Egypt.'" <sup>33</sup>So Moses told Aaron, "Take a jar, put an omer of manna in it and deposit it before the LORD to keep for your descendants." <sup>34</sup>So, in agreement with the LORD's command to Moses, Aaron deposited it in front of the Testimony<sup>r</sup> to be preserved. <sup>35</sup>The Israelites ate the manna for forty years, until they entered a settled land; they ate the manna until they reached the outskirts of the land of Canaan. <sup>36</sup>An omer is a tenth of a bushel.<sup>s</sup>

17 IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE LORD's orders the whole community of Israel traveled from the Sin desert by stages and made camp at Rephidim; but there was no water for the people to drink. <sup>2</sup>The people quarreled with Moses; they said, "Give us water to drink!" Moses replied, "Why do you quarrel with me? Why do you put God to the test?" <sup>3</sup>There the people thirsted for water and grumbled against Moses; they said, "Why did you bring us out of Egypt? To kill us and our children and our livestock with thirst?" <sup>4</sup>Moses cried out to the LORD, "What shall I do with this people? They are not far from stoning me!"

<sup>5</sup>The LORD said to Moses: Advance before the people and take along some of the elders of Israel; take in your hand the staff with which you struck the Nile and go forward. <sup>6</sup>Take note! I will stand there ahead of you on the Horeb rock.<sup>t</sup> When you strike the rock, water will gush out of it and the people will drink. And Moses did so, with the elders of Israel looking on. <sup>7</sup>He named that place Massah and Meribah,<sup>u</sup> because of the Israelites' quarreling and their testing the LORD saying, "Is the LORD among us or not?"

<sup>8</sup>At Rephidim, Amalek<sup>v</sup> came and fought Israel; <sup>9</sup>so Moses said to Joshua, "Pick us out men; march and fight Amalek. Tomorrow I will stand on top of the hill with the staff of God in my hand."

<sup>10</sup>As Moses had told him to fight Amalek, so Joshua did, and Moses, Aaron and Hur<sup>w</sup> climbed to the hilltop.

p) The verb in which "you" is conveyed, is plural, it concerns the people. Without "ye" our language has become less clear, and those who say "you-all," have good reason for it.

q) Of the parsley family, cultivated in Palestine but growing wild in Arabia and northern Africa.

r) One species of it was used to season dishes.

s) When the Ark of the Covenant was finished; later on, the Testimony or Decalogue was also deposited there.

t) The ephah measure that equalled about seven gallons and five pints, a good sized bushel.

u) "Sinai" and "Horeb" are used interchangeably, possibly peak and range.

v) Near Rephidim where they camped when the grumbling occurred.

w) The Amalekites were descended from Esau [Gen. 36:12].

x) Hur was of Judah's tribe; the Jewish historian Josephus calls him Miriam's husband.

<sup>11</sup>Then, while Moses held his hand raised, Israel gained the upper hand, but when he lowered his hand, Amalek won. <sup>12</sup>But Moses' hands grew weary, so they took a stone and placed it under him. He sat on it and Aaron and Hur held up his hands, one on each side, so that his hands kept steady until sunset. <sup>13</sup>Thus Joshua defeated Amalek and his people with the sharpness of the sword.

<sup>14</sup>The LORD said to Moses: Write this for a record in a book and rehearse it to Joshua; for I shall completely blot out the memory of Amalek from under heaven. <sup>15</sup>Also Moses built an altar and named it, "The LORD my Banner,"<sup>x</sup> <sup>16</sup>for he said, "Because the LORD has sworn His war against Amalek from generation to generation."

18 WHEN JETHRO, THE PRIEST OF Midian, Moses' father-in-law, heard of all that God had wrought for Moses and for His people Israel, and how the LORD had brought Israel out of Egypt, <sup>2</sup>Jethro had taken Zipporah, the wife of Moses, who had sent her back;<sup>y</sup> <sup>3</sup>also her two sons, — the one named Gershom, for he said, "I am an alien in a foreign land,"<sup>z</sup> <sup>4</sup>and the other named Eliezer, for he said, "My father's God is my help, and saved me from Pharaoh's sword." <sup>5</sup>Now Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, came to Moses with his sons and his wife, to the desert by the mountain of God, where he was camping. <sup>6</sup>He sent word to Moses, "I, Jethro, your father-in-law, have come to you with your wife and her two sons with her." <sup>7</sup>So Moses went out to meet his father-in-law, bowed deeply to him and kissed him. They then inquired about each other's welfare and entered the tent. <sup>8</sup>Moses recounted to his father-in-law everything the LORD had done to Pharaoh and to the Egyptians because of Israel; all the hardship they had experienced on the way, and how the LORD had delivered them.

<sup>9</sup>Jethro felt glad over all the goodness the LORD had wrought for Israel, delivering them from Egypt's oppression. <sup>10</sup>Jethro exclaimed, "Blessed be the LORD who saved you from Egypt's oppression and from Pharaoh's heavy hand, who delivered Israel from Egypt's grip. <sup>11</sup>Now I recognize that Jehovah is greater than all the gods; so much so that their impudence went against them."<sup>a</sup> <sup>12</sup>Then Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, brought a burnt offering and sacrifices for God, and Aaron came with all the elders of Israel to join Moses' father-in-law in eating a meal before the LORD.<sup>b</sup>

<sup>13</sup>Next morning Moses sat down to administer justice for the people, and the people stood around Moses from morning until evening. <sup>14</sup>When Moses' father-in-law noticed all his dealings with the people, he remarked, "What are you doing to the people? Why do you hold court alone, with all the people standing around from morning till evening?"<sup>c</sup>

<sup>15</sup>Moses answered his father-in-law, "The people come to inquire of God." <sup>16</sup>When they meet with difficulty they come to me for justice between each other; so I instruct them in God's rules and laws." <sup>17</sup>Then Moses' father-in-law rejoined, "You are not doing it most helpfully; <sup>18</sup>you are wearing out yourself and the people as well. The work is too exacting for you; you cannot handle it alone. <sup>19</sup>Now listen to me; I have counsel for you, and God be with you. You represent the people before God and bring the cases to God. <sup>20</sup>You make clear to them the rules and the laws; you show them the way to behave and what they ought to do. <sup>21</sup>Now search for able men among all the people, men who revere God and are honest, men who despise unfair profits, and appoint them leaders of

x) Jehovah Nissi.

y) Finding it unsafe for his family, with Pharaoh so adverse, Moses had sent wife and children back to Midian. z) Moses so named his elder son [Ex. 2:22]; his second son, [Ex. 18:4].

a) A people and their idols stand or fall together.

b) Jethro was a descendant of Abraham by Keturah and was a priest of God.

c) Because he could conduct a court session better than others, Moses let all the work be loaded on him, without training others to share the labors with him, a serious mistake of Christian leaders to this day.

thousands, of hundreds, of fifties and of tens. <sup>22</sup>Let them regularly administer justice for the people and only when there is an extremely difficult case, let them bring it to you; but for ordinary affairs let them judge. It will make it easier for you and they will share with you the responsibility. <sup>23</sup>If you work this out, and if God commands you, you will be able to stand the strain and all these people will go home satisfied.<sup>24</sup>

<sup>24</sup>Moses listened to his father-in-law and carried out all he had suggested; <sup>25</sup>he chose able men from all Israel and made them chiefs of the people — leaders of thousands, of hundreds, of fifties and of tens, <sup>26</sup>and they judged on ordinary matters. Difficult cases they referred to Moses; but those of lesser import they judged. <sup>27</sup>And Moses let his father-in-law return to his own country.

19 ON THE FIRST DAY OF THE third month after their leaving Egypt the Israelites entered the Sinai desert; <sup>2</sup>for they had traveled from Rephidim and reached the Sinai desert, where they encamped facing the mountain, <sup>3</sup>while Moses went up to God.<sup>c</sup>

The LORD called to him from the mountain: Say this to the house of Jacob and announce to the Israelites, <sup>4</sup>"You have seen what I did to Egypt, while I carried you on eagles' wings and brought you to Myself. <sup>5</sup>Now then, if you will obediently observe My message and keep My covenant, then you will be above all nations My personal possession; for the whole earth is Mine. <sup>6</sup>You will become to Me a kingdom of priests, a holy nation." Announce this message to the Israelites. <sup>7</sup>So Moses came and summoned the elders of the people, to whom he conveyed all these words which the LORD had commanded him,<sup>f</sup> <sup>8</sup>and unitedly all the people answered, "Everything the LORD has said we will do"; which response of the people Moses reported back to the LORD. <sup>9</sup>The LORD then said to Moses: Observe! I am coming to you in a thick cloud, so that the people may hear My conversation with you and may always trust you.

Moses reported the people's words to the LORD;<sup>g</sup> <sup>10</sup>and the LORD said to Moses: Go to the people and consecrate them today and tomorrow; have them wash their clothes <sup>11</sup>and let them be ready for the third day; for day after tomorrow the LORD will, in the sight of all the people, descend upon Mount Sinai. <sup>12</sup>Mark boundaries for the people all around and caution them, "Each of you be careful not to climb the mountain or even to touch the edge of it; for whoever touches the mountain shall without exception be executed."<sup>h</sup> <sup>13</sup>Not a hand shall touch him, but he will be stoned or pierced with arrows; whether man or beast, he shall not survive. At the lengthy blast of the ram's horn they may come up to the mountain."

<sup>14</sup>Moses went down from the mountain to the people and consecrated them and they washed their clothes. <sup>15</sup>He told the people, "Be ready for the third day; do not come near a woman."

<sup>16</sup>On the morning of the third day there were thunders and lightnings and a heavy cloud on the mountain and a trumpet blast so unusually loud that all the people in the camp trembled. <sup>17</sup>Then Moses led the people out of the camp to meet God and they stood at the base of the mountain. <sup>18</sup>All of Mount Sinai was smoking, because the LORD came down upon it in fire; its smoke went up like the smoke of a furnace and the whole mountain quaked severely. <sup>19</sup>When the loud trumpet peal grew louder and louder, Moses spoke and the LORD answered him with a voice. <sup>20</sup>The LORD then descended to the summit of Mount Sinai and called Moses to the mountain top; so Moses went up <sup>21</sup>and the

d) Such counselors as Jethro are sorely needed in most churches and all Christian workers may well make these suggestions part of their own program.

e) A preliminary visit with God, with features of a definite appointment from the Lord.

f) The elders relaying it to the people.

g) Which, of course, the Lord knew without being told; but so He knows what we tell Him in prayer.

h) It is well for all His offspring to grow keenly aware of His holiness.

LORD told him: Go down! Warn the people not to intrude in order to look at the LORD, for then many of them would perish. <sup>22</sup>Have the priests, too, who draw near to the LORD, consecrate themselves, lest the LORD break forth upon them.

<sup>23</sup>Moses answered the LORD, "The people cannot climb Mount Sinai, for Thou hast warned us, Set boundaries to the mountain and consecrate it."

<sup>24</sup>The LORD said to him: Go down and then come up with Aaron; but let not the priests and the people intrude to climb up to the LORD, lest He punish them. <sup>25</sup>So Moses went down to the people and told them.

20 GOD SPOKE ALL THESE WORDS, saying: <sup>2</sup>I am the LORD your God, who has brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery. <sup>3</sup>You shall have no other gods before My face. <sup>4</sup>You shall make for yourself no idol in the likeness of anything in the heavens above or on the earth below or in the waters under the earth. <sup>5</sup>You shall not bow down to them or serve them; for I, the LORD your God, am God who brooks no rival;<sup>1</sup> bringing home to children of the third and fourth generation of those who hate me the sins of their fathers, <sup>6</sup>and applying kindness to thousands of those who love Me and obey My commandments.

<sup>7</sup>Do not use the name of the LORD your God profanely; for the LORD will not regard him innocent who uses His name profanely.

<sup>8</sup>Remember the Sabbath Day to keep it holy. <sup>9</sup>Six days you will labor and do all your work, <sup>10</sup>but the seventh day is a Sabbath to the LORD your God; then you shall not do any work, neither you, nor your son, nor your daughter, your servant, your maid, your cattle or the alien in your household. <sup>11</sup>For in six days the LORD made the heavens, the earth, the sea and everything these contain, and He rested on the seventh day. The LORD therefore blessed the Sabbath Day and consecrated it.

<sup>12</sup>Honor your father and your mother, so that your life may be lengthened in the land which the LORD your God is giving you.

<sup>13</sup>You shall not murder! <sup>14</sup>You shall commit no adultery! <sup>15</sup>You shall not steal! <sup>16</sup>You shall not witness falsely against your neighbor! <sup>17</sup>You shall not covet your neighbor's household: you shall not covet your neighbor's wife, nor his servant, nor his maid, his ox, his donkey or anything that belongs to your neighbor.

<sup>18</sup>As all the people observed the thunderings and the lightnings, the trumpet peal and the smoking mountain, and as the people looked at them, they moved away and stood at a distance. <sup>19</sup>They said to Moses, "You converse with us and we will listen. Let not God address us, lest we die." <sup>20</sup>Moses assured the people, "Be not afraid! God has come to test you, so you may revere Him enough not to sin." <sup>21</sup>But the people stood at a distance while Moses approached the thick darkness where God was.

<sup>22</sup>The LORD said to Moses: Convey<sup>1</sup> this message to the Israelites: You have experienced My speaking to you from heaven. <sup>23</sup>Make yourselves no gods of silver or gold to rival Me. <sup>24</sup>Make Me an earthen altar and upon it sacrifice your burnt offerings and your peace offerings, your sheep and your cattle. Wherever I would have My name memorialized, there I will come to you and bless you. <sup>25</sup>If you build Me an altar of stone, do not construct it of dressed stone, for you profane it by applying tools to it. <sup>26</sup>Neither go up to My altar by steps, lest on it your nudity be exposed.

21 THESE ARE THE LEGAL ORDERS you shall announce to them: <sup>2</sup>When you buy a Hebrew slave, he shall serve six years and in the seventh

i) No other God exists; there is no place for rivals. Worship of others is destructive to the soul, deceptive and disappointing.

j) God complied with their entreaty, although it was not wholesome for them; they should have shared in divine fellowship, to know and serve Him well.

he shall go out free, without charge.<sup>1</sup>

<sup>3</sup>In case he started single, he shall leave single; if he had a wife, his wife shall go free with him. <sup>4</sup>If his master gave him a wife and she bore him sons or daughters then the wife and her children shall belong to her master; he shall go out by himself. <sup>5</sup>Should the slave persistently say, "I love my master, my wife and my children; I do not care to go free," <sup>6</sup>then his master shall bring him to the gods.<sup>m</sup> He shall also bring him to the door or to the door post, and his master shall pierce his ear with an awl, and he shall serve him permanently.

<sup>7</sup>When a man sells his daughter to be a slave, she shall not go free the way the male slaves do. <sup>8</sup>In case she does not please her master, who engaged her for himself, he shall allow her to be bought back; he shall have no right to sell her to outsiders, because he has treated her unfairly. <sup>9</sup>If he engaged her for his son, then the custom of daughters shall be observed. <sup>10</sup>Should he marry another wife, then her food, her clothing and her marriage rights shall not lessen, <sup>11</sup>and if he fails to maintain these three obligations, then she may go out free without any reimbursement.

<sup>12</sup>Whoever hits another fatally must certainly be executed. <sup>13</sup>However, if he did not plan it, but God allowed an accident, then I will appoint a place for you to which he may flee.<sup>n</sup> <sup>14</sup>But when a man is resentful against his neighbor and kills him with design, you shall take him to his execution even from My altar.<sup>o</sup>

<sup>15</sup>Whoever strikes his father or his mother shall be put to death. <sup>16</sup>Whoever kidnaps a person and sells him, or holds him in his possession, shall be executed. <sup>17</sup>Whoever curses his father or his mother shall be put to death.

<sup>18</sup>When two men quarrel and one hits the other with a stone or with his fist and the victim does not die, but is confined to bed, <sup>19</sup>then gets up and with a staff walks about on the street, the one who hit him shall go unpunished, except that he must pay for lost time and must see to it that he is completely healed.

<sup>20</sup>When a man beats his male or his female slave with a club, so that the slave dies then and there, the victim shall be avenged; <sup>21</sup>but if he survives a day or two then he must not be avenged, because he is his property.

<sup>22</sup>If in a quarrel between men a pregnant woman is hit, so that she miscarries, but is not otherwise injured, the offender shall be fined by the woman's husband with consent of the judges. <sup>23</sup>But if there is further harm, then it is life for life, <sup>24</sup>eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot, <sup>25</sup>burn for burn, wound for wound and lash for lash.<sup>p</sup>

<sup>26</sup>When a man hits the eye of his slave, male or female, and destroys it, he must let the slave go free for his eye; <sup>27</sup>if he knocks out the tooth of his male or female slave, he must let him go free for his tooth.

<sup>28</sup>When an ox fatally gores a man or a woman, the ox must unquestionably be stoned and its flesh shall not be eaten, but the owner of the ox is guiltless. <sup>29</sup>I however, if an ox has repeatedly been goring people and its owner has been cautioned, but he failed to corral it, and it kills a man or a woman, then the ox shall be stoned and its owner also shall be put to death. <sup>30</sup>But if atonement is applied to him, then he shall pay the redemption of his life as it is imposed on him. <sup>31</sup>The same law holds for him where an ox has gored a boy or a girl. <sup>32</sup>And if an ox gores a male or a female slave, the owner shall pay to their master thirty silver shekels<sup>q</sup> and the ox must be stoned.

<sup>33</sup>When a man uncovers or digs a

l) The Hebrew was a citizen in a commonwealth of which God was King; for him perpetual slavery would be dishonorable, also for God, his Owner.

m) From Ch. 22:8 and from our Lord's retort to opponents, John 10:34-36, it appears that judges are here called gods, probably because in dealing out justice, they represented God.

n) A city of refuge, six of which were appointed in the promised land.

o) Ordinarily a place of refuge, but not always. Joab was slain there [I Kings 2:28].

p) While this is not the law of love, to be practiced in neighborly relationships, it has remained through the ages the essence of civil law, still practiced in our courts.

q) A silver shekel was for centuries equivalent to 65 cents. Today the dollar more truly equals it.

pit and fails to cover it, so that an ox or a donkey falls in, <sup>34</sup>the owner of the pit shall pay its owner full damage and shall keep the dead body.

<sup>35</sup>When a man's ox hurts another's ox fatally, they shall sell the live ox and equally divide the price and shall equally divide the dead ox. <sup>36</sup>But if the ox was known to gore previously and its owner did not keep it corralled, then he must fully pay ox for ox, and the carcass shall be his.

22 IF SOMEONE STEALS AN OX OR A sheep, and butchers or sells it, he shall pay five oxen for the ox and four sheep for the sheep. <sup>2</sup>When a burglar is caught breaking in and is fatally beaten, there shall be no charge of manslaughter, <sup>3</sup>unless it happened after dawn, in which case there is manslaughter. The thief<sup>r</sup> must make full restitution. If he has nothing, then he shall be sold for what he stole. <sup>4</sup>In case the theft is found alive in his possession, whether an ox, a donkey or a sheep, he shall refund double.

<sup>5</sup>If a man pastures livestock in his field or vineyard and then allows the animal to graze in another's field, he shall repay with the choicest of his own field or vineyard.

<sup>6</sup>When a field fire spreads and gets in the thorns with the result that shocked or standing grain burns up, the one who started the fire shall make refund.

<sup>7</sup>When a man hands his neighbor money or articles for safe keeping, and it is stolen from that man's house, if the thief is discovered, have him pay double; <sup>8</sup>if the thief is not found, the householder shall be brought before the judges<sup>s</sup> to inquire whether or not he has laid his hand on his neighbor's goods.

<sup>9</sup>For every kind of misconduct, whether it concerns an ox, a donkey, a sheep or clothing or anything lost, about which someone says, "This is mine," the case of both parties shall come before the judges. Whom the judges pronounce guilty, he shall repay his neighbor double.

<sup>10</sup>When someone commits to his neighbor's care a donkey, an ox, a sheep or any livestock, and it dies or is injured or is driven off,<sup>t</sup> without anyone observing it, <sup>11</sup>an oath before the LORD shall be required between the two, that he has not laid his hand on his neighbor's property. The owner shall accept that and there is no refund. <sup>12</sup>But if it is actually stolen from him,<sup>u</sup> then he must repay the owner. <sup>13</sup>If it was torn to pieces, he shall bring it for evidence; he shall make no refund for what was torn.

<sup>14</sup>When a person borrows a neighbor's animal and it is injured or dies away from its owner, the borrower shall certainly make refund. <sup>15</sup>If its owner is present there shall be no refund; in case it was hired, the hire suffices for payment.

<sup>16</sup>If a man seduces a virgin to whom he is not engaged and cohabits with her, he must without fail pay her dowry and marry her. <sup>17</sup>If her father steadfastly refuses to let him have her, then the man must weigh out the cash equivalent to the dowry of virgins.<sup>v</sup>

<sup>18</sup>Allow no sorceress to live. <sup>19</sup>Whoever lies with an animal must be executed.

<sup>20</sup>He who sacrifices to gods, except to the LORD alone, shall be destroyed.

<sup>21</sup>Do not affront or maltreat an alien; for you were aliens in the land of Egypt; <sup>22</sup>neither cause distress to any widow or orphan. <sup>23</sup>If you distress them in any way and they cry out to Me, <sup>24</sup>I will hear their cry and My indignation shall burn; I will slay you with the sword,<sup>w</sup> so that your wives shall become widows and your children fatherless.

<sup>25</sup>If you lend money to the poor of My people, do not act the creditor to him; do not charge him interest. <sup>26</sup>If

r) In the text the word thief does not occur here. "He" must refer to the burglar just mentioned.
s) The name Elohim, regularly translated God, is used here. It is almost always used in the plural and our Lord so quotes it, but with "judges" in mind, as God's representatives. We therefore use the word "judges." t) In a raid. u) Appropriated by the neighbor who was to care for it.
v) As there was no minted coin, cash payment had to be weighed.
w) God will bring war upon you; for retribution is a divine law.

you actually take your neighbor's coat in pawn, return it to him by sunset; <sup>27</sup>for it is the only cover he has for his naked body. In what else shall he sleep? When he cries out to Me, I will hear, for I am sympathetic.

<sup>28</sup>Heap no abuse upon judges and do not curse a ruler of your people.<sup>x</sup>

<sup>29</sup>Do not delay the offerings of your grains and vines. Give Me the first-born of your sons. <sup>30</sup>Do the same with your oxen and sheep; for a week the firstling may stay with its dam; on the eighth day present it to Me.

<sup>31</sup>Since you are yourselves to be dedicated to Me, eat no meat that was dismembered in the field; throw it to the dogs.<sup>y</sup>

23 PRESENT NO HEARSAY, UNSUPPORTED evidence; do not cooperate with an evil-minded person to become a malicious witness. <sup>2</sup>Do not follow the crowd in wrongdoing, nor, when witnessing in a lawsuit, lean toward the majority to thwart justice; <sup>3</sup>neither be partial to the poor man in his lawsuit.

<sup>4</sup>When you happen upon your enemy's stray ox or donkey, be sure to bring it back to him. <sup>5</sup>In case you see the donkey of one who hates you lying helpless under its pack and you hesitate lending a hand, by all means give him aid.

<sup>6</sup>Do not twist the rights of your poor in his lawsuit; <sup>7</sup>keep clean from a false charge; do not execute the innocent and guiltless; for I do not justify the wicked. <sup>8</sup>Accept no bribe; for a present blinds one who can see and thwarts a just man's testimony.

<sup>9</sup>Do not make life hard for the foreigner; you know the alien's attitude, for you were aliens in the land of Egypt.

<sup>10</sup>Put in your crops in your land for six years and gather its harvest; <sup>11</sup>in the seventh year let it rest and fallow

it,<sup>z</sup> so that the needy among your people are fed, and what they leave, the field animals may eat. Similarly with your vineyard and with your oliveyard.

<sup>12</sup>You shall work six days and rest on the seventh day so that your ox and your donkey may rest and the son of your slave maid, and your alien may enjoy a breathing spell.

<sup>13</sup>Pay strict attention to everything I have told you; do not mention the name of another god; let it not be heard from your lips.

<sup>14</sup>Thrice a year observe a feast for Me. <sup>15</sup>Keep the feast of unleavened bread; for seven days you shall eat unleavened bread at the appointed time, the month Abib, because in it you came out of Egypt. And none shall appear in My presence empty-handed. <sup>16</sup>Also keep the harvest feast, the first fruits of your toil, of what you sowed in the field. Then keep the feast of ingathering<sup>a</sup> at the end of the year,<sup>b</sup> when you are through gathering in the fruits of your field work. <sup>17</sup>Thrice a year your every male shall appear before the LORD God.

<sup>18</sup>Do not offer the blood of My sacrifice with leavened bread; neither shall the fat of My feast remain overnight until morning. <sup>19</sup>Bring the choicest of the first fruits of your land into the house of the LORD your God.

Do not boil a kid in its mother's milk.<sup>c</sup>

<sup>20</sup>Take note! I am sending an Angel before you to guard you on the way and to bring you to the place I have prepared; <sup>21</sup>mind His presence; heed His suggestions; do not offend Ilim, for He will not pardon your transgressions, since in Him is My name. <sup>22</sup>But if you will heartily obey His word and do everything I say, then I will be an enemy to your enemies and an opponent to your opponents. <sup>23</sup>For My Angel<sup>d</sup> will go before you and bring you to the Amorites, the Hittites, the

x) Again the name Elohim is used, which usually stands for God, but balanced, Hebrew fashion, with "rulers" in the next clause, it must denote judges as it did previously.

y) Not butchered by men, and the blood, which represents life, not properly drained.

z) Plowing was done on some acres and weeding on others, as Jer. 4:3 and Hosea 10:12 indicate. a) The three great annual Feasts are scripturally known as Passover, Pentecost and Feast of Booths or Tabernacles. b) The end of the harvest season including fruits and grapes early October.

c) Be gentlemen even toward your animals.

d) Notice how "My Angel" and "I" are mentioned interchangeably; so in the burning bush; commissioning Gideon [Judg. 6:12,14,16]; there seems to be the presence of the Son of God.

Perizzites, the Canaanites, the Hivites and the Jebusites, whom I will eliminate.

<sup>24</sup>Do not bow down to their gods; do not serve them and do not behave their way; demolish them and break to fragments their worship pillars.<sup>e</sup> <sup>25</sup>Serve the LORD your God and He will bless your food and your drink and I will remove sickness from among you. <sup>26</sup>There will be none miscarrying or barren in your land; I will fill out the number of your days. <sup>27</sup>I will send My terror ahead of you and bring panic on all the people you approach. I will turn your enemies from you in flight. <sup>28</sup>I will send wasps in advance of you, for driving out the Hivites, the Canaanites and the Hittites before you reach there. <sup>29</sup>I shall not move them out of your way in a single year, lest the land turn desert and the wild beasts grow too numerous for you. <sup>30</sup>Little by little I will move them out of your way until you are numerous enough to take possession of the land.

<sup>31</sup>I will fix your boundaries from the Red Sea to the Philistine coast and from the desert as far as the river,<sup>f</sup> for I will hand over to you the natives whom you will expel to make room for you. <sup>32</sup>Seal no covenant with them or with their gods; <sup>33</sup>they must not live in your land, lest they cause you to sin against Me. To serve their gods would ensnare you.

24 HE SAID TO MOSES, COME UP to the LORD — you, Aaron, Nadab, Abihu and seventy of Israel's elders, and worship at a distance; <sup>2</sup>let Moses alone draw near to the LORD. The others must not come close; neither shall the people come up with him.

<sup>3</sup>When Moses came back, he recited to the people all the LORD's announcements and all the legal instructions, to which the people unanimously replied, "Everything the LORD said we will do,"

<sup>4</sup>so Moses wrote down all the LORD's pronouncements. He got up early next morning and built an altar at the foot of the mountain along with twelve pillars representing the twelve tribes of Israel. <sup>5</sup>He then dispatched young men of Israel who offered burnt offerings, and oxen as peace offerings to the LORD. <sup>6</sup>But Moses himself put half the blood in basins and sprinkled half the blood upon the altar. <sup>7</sup>He then took the Book of the Covenant, which he read for the people to hear. They said, "All the LORD's directions we shall obediently carry out."<sup>g</sup> <sup>8</sup>Moses then took the blood<sup>h</sup> and sprinkled it on the people, saying, "Behold, the blood of the Covenant which the LORD has sealed with you is centered on all these words."

<sup>9</sup>Then Moses with Aaron, Nadab, Abihu and the seventy elders of Israel, <sup>10</sup>went up, and they saw the God of Israel; under His feet there was the likeness of a sapphire pavement, clear as the heavens. <sup>11</sup>He did not let His hand come down on the chiefs of Israel; they looked upon God, yet they ate and drank.<sup>i</sup>

<sup>12</sup>The LORD said to Moses: Ascend the mountain to Me and remain there. I will give you the ~~s~~one tablets with the Law and the commandment which I have written for you to teach them. <sup>13</sup>So Moses and Joshua, his assistant, rose and Moses ascended the mountain of God. <sup>14</sup>To the elders he said, "Wait here until we return to you. Keep in mind that Aaron and Hur are with you; whoever has a case to settle can go to them."

<sup>15</sup>So Moses went up the mountain, which was covered with a cloud. <sup>16</sup>The glory of the LORD was resting upon Mount Sinai; for six days the cloud covered it. On the seventh day He called to Moses from the depth of the cloud. <sup>17</sup>To the onlooking Israelites the glory of the LORD was like a consuming fire on the mountain top. <sup>18</sup>Still

e) Those pillars, sometimes called "groves" in the KJV, were shameful images, encouraging licentious practices under cover of religion.

f) The Euphrates eastward, the Mediterranean westward.

g) This sacred event was ever after held before the Hebrews as their marriage ceremony, with God the Husband and Israel the wife. h) The remaining half.

i) As God is Spirit, they saw no body [Deut. 4:15], but a glory and even this remained a marvel through sacred history, for "no man shall see Me and live" [Ex. 33:20].

climbing, Moses entered the depths of the cloud and he remained on the mountain forty days and forty nights.

25 THE LORD SAID TO MOSES:

<sup>2</sup>Tell the Israelites to take up an offering for Me. Every person of a willing mind shall contribute<sup>j</sup> for the offering <sup>3</sup>which shall consist of gold, silver and bronze; <sup>4</sup>blue, purple and scarlet material, fine linen, goats' hair, <sup>5</sup>rams' skins dyed red, goatskins and acacia wood; <sup>6</sup>lamp oil, spices for anointing oil and for perfumed incense, <sup>7</sup>onyx stone and stones to be set in the ephod and in the breastplate.<sup>k</sup> <sup>8</sup>Also have them construct for Me a sanctuary, so that I may dwell among them; <sup>9</sup>make it in exact agreement with all that I am about to show you, the plan for the tabernacle as well as for its furniture.

<sup>10</sup>They shall make an Ark of acacia wood, <sup>3</sup> $\frac{3}{4}$  feet long, by <sup>2</sup> $\frac{1}{4}$  feet wide and high. <sup>11</sup>Overlay it inside and out with pure gold and run a gold molding around it. <sup>12</sup>Cast four rings of gold for it to be attached to the four lower corners, two rings on one side and two on the other. <sup>13</sup>Make poles, too, of acacia wood and overlay them with gold. <sup>14</sup>Put the poles through the rings on the side of the Ark for carrying the Ark; <sup>15</sup>the poles shall stay in the rings of the Ark; they must not be taken out.

<sup>16</sup>Deposit the Testimony<sup>l</sup> which I will give you inside the Ark <sup>17</sup>and make a mercy seat of pure gold, <sup>3</sup> $\frac{3}{4}$  feet long, <sup>2</sup> $\frac{1}{4}$  feet wide. <sup>18</sup>Make two golden cherubim of beaten work,<sup>m</sup> <sup>19</sup>one cherub at the near end, the other at the further end and both of one piece with the mercy seat. <sup>20</sup>The cherubim shall spread their wings over the mercy seat, facing each other and both faces turned toward the mercy seat.<sup>n</sup>

<sup>21</sup>Top the Ark with the mercy seat

and deposit the Testimony which I will give you, inside the Ark. <sup>22</sup>There I will meet with you and convey to you, above the mercy seat between the two cherubim upon the Ark of the Testimony all that I command you for the Israelites.

<sup>23</sup>Make a table of acacia wood three feet long, <sup>1</sup> $\frac{1}{2}$  feet wide and <sup>2</sup> $\frac{3}{4}$  feet high; <sup>24</sup>plate it with pure gold and run a golden molding around it; <sup>25</sup>make a three-inch frame all around and a golden molding all the way around the frame. <sup>26</sup>Then make four gold rings for it and put them on the four corners at the table's four legs. <sup>27</sup>The rings must be close to the frame to hold the poles for carrying the table. <sup>28</sup>Make the poles of acacia wood and overlay them with gold; with them the table will be carried. <sup>29</sup>Make its plates, its bowls, its pitchers and its flasks to pour with all of pure gold <sup>30</sup>and have the showbread perpetually on the table before Me.<sup>o</sup>

<sup>31</sup>Make a lampstand, too, of pure gold; its base and shaft of beaten gold; its bowls, its knobs and its blossoms all of one piece with it. <sup>32</sup>Six branches shall rise out of its sides, three branches on this side of the lampstand and three on the other; <sup>33</sup>three cups of almond-blossom shape, each cup with calyx and petals on one branch and three almond shaped cups with calyx and petals on the other branch; and so on for all six branches coming out of the lampstand; <sup>34</sup>but on the shaft itself four cups of almond-blossom form, each with calyx and petals. <sup>35</sup>Also make a calyx under each pair of branches for the six that rise from the lampstand, <sup>36</sup>their calyxes and branches being of one piece with it, so that the whole shall be a single piece of pure, beaten gold. <sup>37</sup>Make its seven lamps for it, and so place them that they shall illumine what is in front of them. <sup>38</sup>The snuffers

j) Not a tax; not compulsory, but voluntary, the rich and the poor participating.

k) Ephod is the Hebrew name for the sacred upper garment of the priest, of plain linen for the regular priest; embroidered, many-colored for the high priest. The breastplate, worn by the high priest alone, went above the ephod or upper garment; it was square and twelve precious stones were set in it, one for each tribe. l) The two tables of the Ten Commandments.

m) Solid gold, not hollow; not molten. The Hebrew plural of cherub is cherubim.

n) Suggesting the holy ones forever curious about the marvels of God's grace to men.

o) God's people daily acknowledging their dependence on God and His constant care for them. Literally the bread was termed Face-bread, or Bread of the Presence.

and the ashtrays shall be of pure gold; <sup>39</sup>use a circle of gold<sup>p</sup> for it, including all the utensils. <sup>40</sup>And see to it that you make it in agreement with their pattern that was shown you in the mountain.

26 FOR MAKING THE TABERNACLE<sup>q</sup> use ten curtains of fine twined linen, blue, purple and scarlet, with cherubs skilfully wrought in. <sup>2</sup>The curtains shall each be forty-two feet long and six feet wide, all of the same size. <sup>3</sup>Five curtains shall be joined together and similarly the other five. <sup>4</sup>Make blue loops on the edge of the first curtain at the joint; so on the edge of the second joint — <sup>5</sup>fifty loops for the one curtain and fifty loops for the edges of the other curtain so that the loops correspond between them. <sup>6</sup>Then make fifty golden clasps and fasten the curtains to each other with the clasps so the Dwelling becomes a unit.

<sup>7</sup>Make goats'-hair curtains, too, for a covering of the tabernacle, eleven curtains altogether, <sup>8</sup>the length of one curtain forty-five feet and its width six feet and the eleven curtains all the same size. <sup>9</sup>Join five curtains by themselves and six curtains by themselves and double the sixth curtain to hang in front of the tent.<sup>r</sup> <sup>10</sup>Make fifty loops on the edge of the first curtain set and fifty loops on the edge of the other set; <sup>11</sup>then make fifty bronze clasps and put the clasps into the loops, thus fastening the covering together to make it a unit.

<sup>12</sup>The leftover portion of the curtains, shall hang over the rear end of the tabernacle <sup>13</sup>and the 1½ foot left over in the length of the curtains on each side of the Dwelling shall hang over it for coverage. <sup>14</sup>Construct a roof, too, for the tent, of rams' skins dyed red and on top of them goatskins.

<sup>15</sup>Prepare uprights of acacia wood for the tabernacle, <sup>16</sup>fifteen feet long, 2¼ feet wide,<sup>s</sup> <sup>17</sup>with two tenons in each frame to fit tightly to the next frame, and so construct all the frames in the Dwelling. <sup>18</sup>Make the frames for the Dwelling, twenty for the south side <sup>19</sup>with forty silver sockets under them, two for each frame for its two tenons; <sup>20</sup>twenty frames for the second side of the Dwelling, the north side, <sup>21</sup>with their forty silver sockets, two under each frame. <sup>22</sup>For the rear of the Dwelling, the west side, make six frames; <sup>23</sup>also two frames for the rear corners. <sup>24</sup>These must be coupled down below, and coupled with a ring on top, both frames, for the two corners. <sup>25</sup>So there will be eight frames with their sixteen silver sockets, two sockets under each frame.

<sup>26</sup>Make bars, too, of acacia wood, five for the frames on one side of the Dwelling <sup>27</sup>and five for the frames on the other side; also five for the rear that looks westward, <sup>28</sup>the middle bar running all the way from end to end. <sup>29</sup>Overlay the frames with gold and make gold rings on them to hold the bars, which also you shall overlay with gold. <sup>30</sup>Erect the Dwelling<sup>t</sup> according to the pattern shown you on the mountain.

<sup>31</sup>Make a blue, purple and scarlet veil of fine, twined linen with cherub design skilfully embroidered; <sup>32</sup>hang this by golden hooks on four acacia pillars overlaid with gold and resting on four silver sockets. <sup>33</sup>Hang the veil from the clasps, and bring the Ark of the Testimony within the veil. The veil shall divide for you the Holy Place from the Holy of Holies.

<sup>34</sup>Place the mercy seat upon the Ark of the Testimony in the Holy of Holies; <sup>35</sup>but set the table<sup>u</sup> outside the veil; also the lampstand opposite the table

p) A talent; its weight of gold equal to at least $30,000. The word "circle" suggests that shaping preceded coining of the precious metal.

q) The five curtains joined by clasps are thought of as one curtain both in this paragraph and in the next.

r) The goats' hair curtains were hung over the linen curtains for protection and for moderating the temperature both winter and summer.

s) Acacia trees would not likely grow that large and the Hebrew name for them, left untranslated in the KJV, intimates more than one piece of wood for each frame.

t) The tabernacle's Biblical name is most truly Dwelling because [Ex. 25:8,9] God came to dwell there. Another name is Tent of Meeting, as there God met with his people [Ex. 25:22; Num. 17:4]. Also, Tent of Testimony, as the two tables of Law were deposited there [Num. 9:15; Ps. 122:4].

u) The table of show-bread in the holy place, the bread of the Presence.

on the south side of the Dwelling, as the table is on the north side.

<sup>36</sup>For the entrance to the Dwelling make a blue, purple and scarlet veil of fine twined linen, skilfully embroidered. <sup>37</sup>To hang the veil, make five acacia pillars, overlay them with gold and supply them with gold clasps; also cast five bronze sockets for them.

27 CONSTRUCT THE ALTAR OF ACACIA wood; make it square,  $7\frac{1}{2}$  feet long and wide,  $4\frac{1}{2}$  feet high. <sup>2</sup>Make horns of one piece with it on the four corners and overlay it all with bronze. <sup>3</sup>Make ashpens for it and shovels, basins, fleshhooks and firepans; make all the utensils of bronze; <sup>4</sup>make a network grating, too, of bronze with four bronze rings on its four corners. <sup>5</sup>Fit the grating under the altar's ledge, so it comes halfway of the altar. <sup>6</sup>Make poles of acacia wood for the altar and overlay them with bronze. <sup>7</sup>Thrust the poles through the rings along both sides of the altar for carrying it. <sup>8</sup>By the use of boards make the altar concave; make it as it was shown you on the mountain.

<sup>9</sup>You shall construct the court of the tabernacle. On the south side have hangings of fine twined linen, the length of 150 feet, <sup>10</sup>with 20 pillars and their 20 sockets; the clasps of the pillars and their bands are to be of silver. <sup>11</sup>So also for the north side, make the hangings 150 feet long with 20 pillars and their 20 bronze sockets, the clasps of the pillars and their bands to be of silver.

<sup>12</sup>For the court's width, on the west side the hangings shall be 75 feet, with 10 pillars and their 10 sockets. <sup>13</sup>The east side of the court shall be 75 feet, <sup>14</sup>with hangings on one side of the entrance,  $22\frac{1}{2}$  feet with 3 pillars and their 3 sockets <sup>15</sup>and similarly on the other side of the entrance.

<sup>16</sup>The entrance to the court shall have a thirty-foot veil of fine twined linen, blue, purple and scarlet, skilfully embroidered, with four pillars and their four sockets. <sup>17</sup>The pillars all around the court shall be connected by silver bands; their hooks also of silver and their sockets bronze. <sup>18</sup>The court shall be 150 feet long, 75 feet wide all the way and  $7\frac{1}{2}$ -foot hangings of fine twined linen. The sockets shall be of bronze; <sup>19</sup>so all the utensils of the tabernacle, all its pins and all the pegs for the court shall be of bronze.

<sup>20</sup>Order the Israelites to bring you pure, beaten olive oil for illumination, so that a lamp may stand to burn perpetually. <sup>21</sup>In the Tent of Meeting<sup>v</sup> outside the veil that faces the Testimony, Aaron and his sons shall keep it supplied from evening until morning before the LORD, an everlasting institution for the Israelites.

28 HAVE YOUR BROTHER AARON with his sons as your associates from among the Israelites to officiate as My priests — Aaron and Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar, the sons of Aaron. <sup>2</sup>Make for your brother Aaron dedicated garments for honor and for beauty <sup>3</sup>and tell all artisans whom I have endowed with skill, to make Aaron garments for his dedication to serve Me in the priestly office. <sup>4</sup>And these are the garments they shall make: A breastplate, an upper garment,<sup>w</sup> a robe, an undergarment of woven material, a turban and a sash. They shall make dedicated garments for your brother Aaron and for his sons to serve Me as priests. <sup>5</sup>They must use gold; blue, purple and scarlet material and fine twined linen.

<sup>6</sup>The upper garment they shall make of gold; blue, purple, scarlet and pure twined white linen with artistic workmanship. <sup>7</sup>It shall have two shoulder straps to bring it together at the two ends. <sup>8</sup>The artistic sash shall be of the same material and workmanship — gold; blue, purple, scarlet and fine twined linen. <sup>9</sup>Get two onyx stones and engrave on them the names of Israel's

v) The Dwelling, known to most of us as the Tabernacle, composed of the holy place, with table of showbread and sevenfold lamp, and the Holy of Holies, separated by the veil and containing the Ark of the Covenant, called Testimony here because the two tables of the Law were in it.

w) Hebrew name "ephod," reaching from loins to shoulders, connected on shoulders by a precious stone, inscribed with six tribal names in each stone. Front and back were covered to that length.

sons, <sup>10</sup>the names of six on the one stone and the names of six on the other stone, according to their birth. <sup>11</sup>Engrave the names of Israel's sons on the two stones as a seal is engraved by a jeweler and have them set in gold sockets, <sup>12</sup>to have the two stones fastened upon the upper garment's shoulder straps as memorial stones for the Israelites. As a memorial Aaron shall bear their names upon his shoulders before the LORD.

<sup>13</sup>Make sockets, too, of pure gold <sup>14</sup>and two chains of pure gold, twining like cords, and fasten the twined chains to the sockets. <sup>15</sup>Then make the judicial breastplate,<sup>x</sup> the work of a skilful craftsman, made, like the upper garment, of gold; blue, purple, scarlet and pure twined linen, <sup>16</sup>nine inches square and doubled. <sup>17</sup>Set in it four rows of jewels, the first row sardius, topaz and emerald; <sup>18</sup>the second row carbuncle, sapphire and jasper; <sup>19</sup>the third row amber, agate and amethyst <sup>20</sup>and the fourth row chrysolite, onyx and beryl;<sup>y</sup> all shall be set in gold enclosures. <sup>21</sup>There shall be twelve stones named after the twelve sons of Israel, engraved like a seal, for the twelve tribes.

<sup>22</sup>Make upon the breastplate twined chains, cordage fashion, of pure gold, <sup>23</sup>also two gold rings for the two ends of the breastplate; <sup>24</sup>then fasten the two gold chains to the two rings at the end of the breastplate. <sup>25</sup>Fasten the other two ends of the twined chain to the two sockets and place them on the front part of the shoulder straps of the upper garment. <sup>26</sup>Make two more gold rings to put on the two ends of the breastplate inside the edge next to the upper garment <sup>27</sup>and two gold rings to put on the two shoulder straps of the upper garment where they join underneath in front, above the skilfully woven sash. <sup>28</sup>Fasten the rings of the breastplate to the rings of the upper garment<sup>z</sup>

with a blue cord so that the breastplate may not swing loose from the upper garment.

<sup>29</sup>Aaron shall wear the names of Israel's sons over his heart on the breastplate of judgment as he enters the holy place, for a perpetual memorial in the presence of the LORD. <sup>30</sup>Insert the Urim and the Thummim<sup>a</sup> into the breastplate over Aaron's heart as he enters the LORD's presence, so that Aaron may perpetually bear the rights of Israel over his heart before the LORD.

<sup>31</sup>Make the entire robe of the ephod blue <sup>32</sup>with a central opening at the top, the edges of which shall be bound all around with woven work, like the neck of a coat of mail, so that it may not fray. <sup>33</sup>Embroider the skirts with pomegranates, blue, purple and scarlet, interspersed with golden bells, <sup>34</sup>a gold bell and a pomegranate alternating all around near the edges. <sup>35</sup>Aaron is to wear it as he ministers, so that its sound shall be heard as he enters the Holy Place before the LORD and as he retires, that he may not die.

<sup>36</sup>Make also a plate of pure gold and engrave on it with seal engravings: "Holiness to the LORD." <sup>37</sup>Attach it with a blue cord to be part of the turban at the turban's front <sup>38</sup>on Aaron's forehead, so that Aaron may take on him the guilt connected with the sacred gifts which the Israelites dedicate.<sup>b</sup> It shall always be on his forehead, so there may be acceptance for them in the presence of the LORD.

<sup>39</sup>Weave the tunic of checkered fine linen and make a turban of fine linen; also a sash of embroidered workmanship. <sup>40</sup>Make tunics for Aaron's sons, too, and sashes and turbans for honor and for beauty; <sup>41</sup>dress your brother Aaron and his sons in them; anoint them, install<sup>c</sup> and consecrate them to serve Me as priests. <sup>42</sup>Make them linen trunks to reach from waist to thigh to

x) By which God's will is known, if rightly sought.

y) Translators do not agree on the respective names of the twelve stones. Diamond seems impossible, because of its hardness, and sapphire not much better [see Rev. 21:19-21 for large precious stones].

z) Or ephod, its Hebrew name, which we shall often use hereafter.

a) Hebrew words for "lights and perfections," used for seeking direction from God, never for personal but always for national matters. They were objects that could be put in the breastplate; some think they were used like dice. We believe they were symbols of the high-priest's holy office, that God would reveal His will and plan if humbly approached.

b) Prophetic of our Lord's taking "on Him the iniquities of us all."

c) Literally, "fill their hand," that is, impart power to them.

cover their bare flesh. <sup>43</sup>Aaron and his sons shall wear them as they enter the meeting tent or approach the altar to serve in the holy place, so they may incur no guilt and die. It shall be a perpetual ordinance for him and for his descendants.

29 TO CONSECRATE THEM TO ME for the priestly office, do this for them: Select one young bull and two flawless rams; <sup>2</sup>have unleavened bread and unleavened cakes mixed with oil; also unleavened wafers sprinkled with oil, using fine wheat flour to make them. <sup>3</sup>Place them in one basket and present them in the basket, along with the young bull and the two rams. <sup>4</sup>Then have Aaron and his sons come to the door of the meeting tent and wash them with water. <sup>5</sup>Take the garments and dress Aaron in the tunic, the ephod, its robe<sup>d</sup> and the breastplate, girding him with the artistic sash. <sup>6</sup>Place the turban on his head and attach the sacred diadem to the turban. <sup>7</sup>Then take the anointing oil and, pouring it on his head, anoint him.

<sup>8</sup>Bring his sons, too, and dress them with tunics; <sup>9</sup>gird them with sashes, Aaron and his sons; bind the turbans on them and theirs shall be the priestly office by perpetual ordinance. Ordain Aaron and his sons this way. <sup>10</sup>Then have the bullock led in front of the meeting tent and Aaron and his sons shall place their hands on the head of the bullock before the LORD at the door of the meeting tent. <sup>11</sup>Slaughter the bullock before the LORD at the door of the meeting tent; <sup>12</sup>take some of the bullock's blood and smear it with your finger on the horns of the altar; then pour the remaining blood at the base of the altar. <sup>13</sup>Take all the fat that covers the entrails and the lobe of the liver, the two kidneys and the fat on them and burn them on the altar; <sup>14</sup>but the bullock's meat, its hide and its offal you shall burn outside the camp; it is a sin offering.

<sup>15</sup>Then take the one ram and have Aaron and his sons lay their hands on the ram's head. <sup>16</sup>Slaughter the ram, catch its blood, and sprinkle it all around on the altar; <sup>17</sup>cut the ram into pieces, wash its entrails and its legs, place them upon its pieces and its head <sup>18</sup>and burn the whole ram upon the altar for a burnt offering to the LORD; it is an acceptable odor, an offering by fire to the LORD.

<sup>19</sup>Take the other ram and have Aaron and his sons lay their hands on its head. <sup>20</sup>Kill the ram and, catching some of its blood, put it on the tip of Aaron's right ear, on the tip of his sons' right ears, on the thumbs of their right hands and on the great toe of their right feet; also sprinkle the blood all around on the altar. <sup>21</sup>Take some of the blood from the altar and the anointing oil and sprinkle it on Aaron and on his garments; also on his sons and on their garments, so that he and his garments, also his sons and their garments will be consecrated.<sup>e</sup>

<sup>22</sup>Then take the ram's fat, the fat tail, the fat that covers the entrails, the lobe of the liver, the two kidneys and the fat on them, also the right thigh — for it is a consecration ram—<sup>23</sup>with one loaf of bread, a cake made with oil, and one wafer from the basket of unleavened bread that is set before the LORD, <sup>24</sup>and lay them all in the hands of Aaron and of his sons to wave them as a wave-offering before the LORD.<sup>f</sup>

<sup>25</sup>Next receive them from their hands and burn them on the altar for a burnt-offering, an acceptable fragrance before the LORD, an offering to the LORD made by fire.

<sup>26</sup>Take the breast of Aaron's ordination ram and wave it before the LORD; that will be your share. <sup>27</sup>Then consecrate the waved breast and the thigh of the ordination ram that was donated; <sup>28</sup>it belongs to Aaron and to his sons as a perpetual obligation from the Israelites, a contribution from the children of Israel from their thanksgiving.

d) A sleeveless robe, all blue, worn underneath the of alternate pomegranates and gold bells belonged to it.
e) From head to foot the person is dedicated — all he is, all he does and all he has.
f) A person's hand represents his powers and the agreement between the worshiper and his Lord.

ing sacrifices, their contribution to the LORD.

<sup>29</sup>Aaron's sacred garments shall pass to his sons who succeed him, to be anointed and ordained in them. <sup>30</sup>The son who succeeds him in the priesthood shall wear them seven days as he enters the meeting tent to serve in the sanctuary. <sup>31</sup>Take the ordination ram and boil its flesh in a sacred place.<sup>g</sup> <sup>32</sup>Aaron and his sons shall eat the ram's meat and the bread that is in the basket, at the entrance of the meeting tent. <sup>33</sup>They shall eat the things with which atonement was made to install and to consecrate them; but no layman shall partake, for they are holy. <sup>34</sup>If any of the ordination meat or bread is left till morning, it must be burned; it must not be eaten, because it is dedicated.<sup>h</sup>

<sup>35</sup>Deal with Aaron and with his sons just as I gave you orders. Devote seven days to their installation <sup>36</sup>and each day offer a bullock for a sin offering to make atonement. Purify the altar, too, as you make atonement for it and anoint it for its sanctification. <sup>37</sup>For seven days make atonement for the altar, to sanctify it and it shall become a completely holy altar; everything that touches it shall be dedicated.<sup>i</sup>

<sup>38</sup>Here is what you shall offer upon the altar: two yearling lambs daily without fail, <sup>39</sup>the one lamb to be offered in the morning and the other at twilight. <sup>40</sup>With the first lamb you shall offer an ample six pints of fine flour mixed with 3 pints of pressed olive oil; and a libation of 3 pints of wine. <sup>41</sup>Offer the second lamb at twilight, adding a similar cereal offering and libation for an acceptable fragrance, an offering by fire to the LORD, <sup>42</sup>a daily burnt offering through your generations at the entrance of the meeting tent before the LORD, where I meet with you and speak with you. <sup>43</sup>And

there I will meet with the children of Israel and by My glory it will be sanctified. <sup>44</sup>I will sanctify the meeting tent and the altar and I will sanctify Aaron and his sons to serve Me as priests. <sup>45</sup>I will dwell among the children of Israel and I will be their God; <sup>46</sup>so they shall know that I am the LORD, who brought them out of the land of Egypt to dwell among them, I, the LORD their God.

30 MAKE AN ALTAR ALSO FOR BURNING incense; make it of acacia wood and square, <sup>21</sup> $\frac{1}{2}$  feet long and wide, by three feet high; its horns of one piece with it. <sup>3</sup>Overlay it with pure gold, its top, its sides all around and its horns, and run a gold molding around it. <sup>4</sup>Just below the molding at the corners on both sides, fashion two gold rings for holding the poles to carry it. <sup>5</sup>Make the poles of acacia wood and overlay them with gold. <sup>6</sup>Place it in front of the veil that screens the Ark of the Testimony, in front of the mercy seat that is above the Testimony at which I will meet with you.<sup>j</sup>

<sup>7</sup>Aaron shall burn perfumed incense on it every morning when he trims the lamps <sup>8</sup>and again when he lights the lamps at twilight; it shall be a continual burning of incense before the LORD for your successive generations. <sup>9</sup>Offer on it no unprescribed incense, nor any burnt offering or meal offering; neither pour libations on it. <sup>10</sup>But once a year Aaron shall make atonement on its horns with the blood of the sin-offering of atonement and thus make an annual atonement through your successive generations. It is supremely sacred to the LORD.

<sup>11</sup>The LORD said to Moses: <sup>12</sup>When you take the Israelites' census, to muster them, each person shall give a ransom for his life to the LORD at the census-taking, so that no plague may fall on them as they are being counted.

g) Not within the tabernacle itself, which was not yet built, and within which there was no altar except that of incense connected with the Holy of Holies. The altar for animal offerings belonged to the tabernacle but was located in the court.

h) There are two meanings to "holiness"; one is the acme of purity and righteousness; the other separation, a setting apart for God, consecration or dedication.

i) Holy to the LORD, because of the purpose of the altar.

j) This little golden altar belonged to the Holy of Holies, although not placed within it; not for burnt sacrifices but only incense would ascend from it.

<sup>13</sup>Every one enumerated shall pay half a dollar by sanctuary money standards,<sup>k</sup> a contribution to the LORD. <sup>14</sup>Every one who joins those who are numbered, 20 years of age and over, shall make this contribution to the LORD; <sup>15</sup>the rich no more, the poor no less,<sup>l</sup> than 50 cents in contributing to the LORD to make atonement for your souls. <sup>16</sup>Receive the atonement money from the Israelites and apply it to the tabernacle service so that for the children of Israel it may be a reminder that they make personal atonement in the presence of the LORD.

<sup>17</sup>The LORD said to Moses; <sup>18</sup>Make a bronze washbasin, too, with a bronze base for washing; locate it between the tabernacle and the altar and supply it with water, <sup>19</sup>in which Aaron and his sons shall wash their hands and their feet; <sup>20</sup>as they enter the tabernacle they shall wash with water, so they may not die; or when they approach the altar to minister by burning a sacrifice to the LORD, <sup>21</sup>they shall wash their hands and their feet, lest they die. It shall be a statute to them forever for him and for his offspring through their successive generations.

<sup>22</sup>The LORD further said to Moses: <sup>23</sup>Secure for yourself the choicest spices, 250 dollars worth of pure myrrh,<sup>m</sup> half as much of fragrant cinnamon, that is 125 dollars worth; 125 dollars worth of aromatic calamus <sup>24</sup>and 250 dollars of cassia, by sanctuary money values; also six quarts of olive oil. <sup>25</sup>Compound these into a sacred anointing oil, scientifically prepared as by a druggist; it shall be a holy anointing oil. <sup>26</sup>Anoint with it the tabernacle,<sup>n</sup> the Ark of the Testimony, <sup>27</sup>the table and all its furnishings, the lampstand and its utensils, the altar of incense; <sup>28</sup>the altar of burnt offerings with all its utensils, the washbowl and its base. <sup>29</sup>Sanctify them so as to become completely dedicated; whoever touches them shall be dedicated.

<sup>30</sup>Anoint also Aaron and his sons and consecrate them to serve as My priests <sup>31</sup>and give this message to the Israelites, that this is to be holy anointing oil for Me through your generations; <sup>32</sup>it is not to be poured on a layman's body; nor must you compound anything like it for yourself, for it is holy; you must hold it holy. <sup>33</sup>Any person who compounds the like or who applies it to a layman shall be eliminated from his people.<sup>o</sup>

<sup>34</sup>The LORD said to Moses: Acquire perfumes, myrrh-oil drops, powdered mollusk<sup>p</sup> shell and Persian gum with pure frankincense, these of equal portions, <sup>35</sup>and prepare these into a perfume, an ointment, a druggist's preparation, salted, pure and holy. <sup>36</sup>Grind some of it fine and place some of it in front of the Testimony in the tabernacle, where I shall meet with you. It shall be most holy to you. <sup>37</sup>Make none by this formula to be perfume for yourself; it shall be dedicated to the LORD. <sup>38</sup>Whoever prepares the like of it to enjoy its fragrance shall be eliminated from his people.

31 THE LORD SAID TO MOSES: <sup>2</sup>Take notice! I have called by name Bezaleel, the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah <sup>3</sup>and have filled him with God's Spirit in skill, intelligence and understanding for all craftsmanship <sup>4</sup>to plan designs in gold, silver and bronze work, <sup>5</sup>for cutting precious stones for setting, for woodcarving and for all sorts of craftwork. <sup>6</sup>And know further that for his collaborator I have appointed Aholiab, the son of Ahisamach of the tribe of Dan. And I have endowed all the skilful-

k) One evidence of true democracy — all alike are invited to pay that small religious tax, a principle that should obtain in our churches; not because God is in need, but because we need that experience of participation. l) In terms of a day's wages, the value was much higher.

m) Product of a small tree in Arabia with fragrant wood and bark; also found in Eastern Africa; a yellowish brown and gummy substance, it exudes from its tree — like resin.

n) Dwelling, meeting tent and tabernacle refer to the home structure — Dwelling because God dwelt there; meeting tent because He met His people there and they each other; tabernacle because moveable — the name usually given in the KJV.

o) Possibly by execution, but more likely by banishment; even excommunication might be applied, depriving the culprit of his Hebrew privileges.

p) Mollusc shells were found in Indian lakes; they are fragrant when ground and burned. Persian gum oozes from two plants found in Persia, Syria and Arabia.

minged with skill<sup>q</sup> to make everything I have ordered you — <sup>7</sup>the meeting tent, the Ark for the Testimony, the mercy seat upon it, all the furnishings of the tent, <sup>8</sup>the table and its utensils, the pure lampstand and all its fittings, the altar of incense, <sup>9</sup>the altar of burnt-offering and all its utensils, the wash-basin and its base, <sup>10</sup>the woven garments, the sacred garments for Aaron the priest and the garments for his sons to wear when they serve as priests, <sup>11</sup>the anointing oil and the perfumed incense for the sanctuary — have them work it out just as I have ordered you.

<sup>12</sup>The LORD said to Moses: <sup>13</sup>Tell the Israelites to keep My Sabbaths by all means; for this is through your generations a sign between Me and you, that you may know that I am the LORD, who consecrates you. <sup>14</sup>You therefore must keep the Sabbath, as it stands for your holiness. Those who profane it shall surely be executed; whoever works on it, that person shall be eliminated from among his people. <sup>15</sup>For six days work may be done but on the seventh day there is a Sabbath of rest enjoyment, holy to the LORD. Whoever works on the Sabbath day shall certainly be executed. <sup>16</sup>So then the Israelites shall keep the Sabbath, with Sabbath observance through their successive generations as an everlasting covenant. <sup>17</sup>It is a sign forever between Me and the children of Israel; for in six days the LORD made the heavens and the earth and on the seventh day He rested and refreshed Himself.<sup>r</sup>

<sup>18</sup>When He had finished conversing with Moses on Mount Sinai He gave him the two tablets of the testimony, stone tablets written with the finger of God.

32 WHEN THE PEOPLE NOTICED that Moses delayed his coming down from the mountain, they gathered around Aaron and told him, "Get up! Make gods for us to lead us on;

for this man Moses, who brought us up from the land of Egypt, we have no idea what has happened to him."

<sup>2</sup>Aaron told them, "Pluck off the gold rings in the ears of your wives, your sons and your daughters and bring them to me." <sup>3</sup>So all the people tore off the gold rings from their ears and brought them to Aaron, <sup>4</sup>who took them from their hands, fashioned it with a graving tool<sup>s</sup> and molded it into a calf. Then they said, "This is your god, O Israel, who brought you up from the land of Egypt."

<sup>5</sup>Seeing that, Aaron built an altar in front of it and proclaimed, "A feast to the LORD tomorrow!" <sup>6</sup>So next morning they rose early; they offered burnt-offerings and brought peace-offerings: the people sat down to eat and drink; then they got up to make merry.

<sup>7</sup>The LORD said to Moses: Go, get down, for your people whom you brought up from the land of Egypt have behaved wickedly. <sup>8</sup>They have quickly swerved from the path in which I directed them; they have made for themselves a molten calf, have bowed to it, have sacrificed to it and have said, "This is your god, O Israel, who brought you up from the land of Egypt."

<sup>9</sup>The LORD further told Moses: I have observed this people and, see, it is a stubborn people; <sup>10</sup>so, leave Me alone so that My indignation may flame against them and I may consume them; then I will make you into a great nation. <sup>11</sup>But Moses pleaded before the LORD his God; he said, "LORD, why does Thy indignation flame against Thy people whom Thou hast brought out from the land of Egypt with great power and a mighty hand? <sup>12</sup>Why should the Egyptians say, 'To their misfortune He brought them out, to sweep them from off the face of the earth.' Do turn from Thy fierce anger and change Thy purpose about Thy

q) We might wisely recognize divine influence on human minds today when benevolent discoveries and inventions are made.

r) Literally in the Hebrew, He took a breath; or enjoyed a breathing spell.

s) The mold could be made of sand or of bronze, in the form of a yearling calf, and the gold smelted and poured into the cast. No doubt skilled craftsmen, rather than Aaron himself accomplished the task.

people's punishment. <sup>13</sup>Turn Thy thought to Abraham, Isaac and Israel, Thy servants, to whom Thou didst swear by Thyself and to whom Thou didst say, I will make your offspring as countless as the stars of heaven and all this land that I have mentioned I will give your descendants; they shall possess it forever." <sup>14</sup>And the LORD felt grieved regarding the punishment He had thought to apply to His people.<sup>t</sup>

<sup>15</sup>Moses then turned and went down from the mountain, with the two tablets of the Testimony in his hand, both tablets written on both sides; <sup>16</sup>the work of God they were; the writing was God's writing engraved upon the tablets. <sup>17</sup>As Joshua heard the noise of the shouting people, he said to Moses, "A sound of war in the camp." <sup>18</sup>But he said, "It sounds neither as a shout of victory nor as a cry of defeat; I am hearing the sound of singing." <sup>19</sup>Then as he came close to the camp and saw the calf and the dancing, Moses' anger grew hot; he flung the tablets from his hands and broke them at the base of the mountain. <sup>20</sup>He took the calf they had made, committed it to the flames and ground it to powder, which he scattered on the water and made the Israelites drink<sup>u</sup> of it.

<sup>21</sup>Moses said to Aaron, "What has this people done to you that you have saddled them with so great a sin?"

<sup>22</sup>Aaron replied, "Let not my master's anger blaze! You know this people and their wickedness. <sup>23</sup>They said to me, 'Make us gods to go ahead of us, for this man Moses, who brought us up from the land of Egypt, we have no idea what happened to him.' <sup>24</sup>So I said to them, 'Whoever has gold, let him pluck it off.' They gave it to me; I cast it into the fire, and out came this calf."

<sup>25</sup>When Moses saw that the people were unrestrained — for Aaron had allowed them to cast off restraint until their foes would deride them<sup>v</sup>—<sup>26</sup>Moses stationed himself at the camp entrance and said, "To me, whoever sides with the LORD!" All the Levites then joined him, <sup>27</sup>and he told them, "Thus speaks the LORD God of Israel, Gird on your sword, each of you, move back and forth from gate to gate in the camp and each one slay his brother, his neighbor and his kin."<sup>w</sup>

<sup>28</sup>The Levites carried out Moses' order and there fell of the people that day about three thousand men. <sup>29</sup>Moses said,<sup>x</sup> "You are installed today for the LORD, because each was against his son and against his brother so that today He may bestow on you a blessing." <sup>30</sup>Next day Moses told the people, "You have committed an enormous sin. Now I will go up to the LORD; perhaps I can obtain forgiveness for your sin."

<sup>31</sup>So Moses went back to the LORD and said, "Oh, please! this people has sinned an enormous sin; they have made for themselves a god of gold. <sup>32</sup>And yet, if Thou wilt forgive their sin . . . and if not, please blot me out of Thy book which Thou hast written."

<sup>33</sup>The LORD said to Moses: Whoever has sinned against Me, him will I blot out of My book. <sup>34</sup>Go now and lead the people where I have told you. Mind you, My Angel will go ahead of you. However, in My time of retribution I will punish them for their sin. <sup>35</sup>And the LORD plagued the people because they were the makers of the calf which Aaron fashioned.

33 THE LORD SAID TO MOSES: Move on up there, you and the people you have brought up from the land of Egypt; go up to the land which I swore to Abraham, to Isaac and to Jacob, saying, "To your offspring I will give it." <sup>2</sup>I will send an angel before you — and I will drive out the Canaanites, the Amorites, the Hittites, the

t) Jonah 3:10 is of similar import, but the Ninevites had shown humble repentance.

u) It would seem that pedestal and other appurtenances of the shrine were burned and the golden calf itself ground to powder.

v) Idolatry involves not only the worship of material things, but it is almost invariably accompanied with sexual immoralities. w) Almost certainly those who were immorally indulging.

x) Being of the same tribe with Moses may have influenced the Levites, but even so their siding with God against idolatry marked them best fitted for the religious ministries, not as priests, but as assistants to the priests and as teachers of the people.

y) Somewhat prophetic of the vicarious sacrifice of Christ.

Perizzites and the Jebusites—to a land flowing with milk and honey. For I shall not go up in your midst, because you are a stubborn people; I might destroy you on the way.

<sup>4</sup>When the people heard this adverse message, they felt sorry; no one wore his ornaments; <sup>5</sup>for the LORD had told Moses to say to the Israelites, “You stubborn people, if I went up in your midst for but a moment I would destroy you; so lay off your ornaments to have Me know what to do with you.”<sup>2</sup>

<sup>6</sup>The Israelites therefore stripped themselves of their ornaments at Mount Horeb.

<sup>7</sup>Moses regularly pitched the tabernacle outside the camp at some distance from it and called it the meeting tent. Anyone who sought the LORD<sup>a</sup> would go out to the meeting tent outside the camp. <sup>8</sup>Whenever Moses went to the tent, all the people would rise and everyone would remain standing at his tent door with eyes fixed on Moses until he entered the tent. <sup>9</sup>And as Moses entered the tent the cloudy column would come down and stand at the entrance of the tent, where He would converse with Moses. <sup>10</sup>Then all the people would see the column of cloud standing at the tabernacle<sup>b</sup> entrance and would rise to worship, each at his tent door, <sup>11</sup>and the LORD would speak to Moses face to face as a man speaks to his friend. Then he went back to the camp, but his assistant Joshua, the son of Nun, a young man, did not leave the tabernacle.

<sup>12</sup>Moses said to the LORD, “Consider! Thou art saying to me, ‘Lead this people up’; but Thou hast not made known to me whom Thou wilt send with me. Yet, Thou hast said, ‘I know you personally’ and, ‘You have found favor with Me, too.’ <sup>13</sup>Now, then, I pray, if I have found favor with Thee, please do make Thy ways clear to me so that I may understand Thee<sup>c</sup> and always find favor with Thee. Consider also that this nation is Thy people.” <sup>14</sup>Shall I Myself, said He, go along and put you at ease? <sup>15</sup>“If Thou Thyself,” said he, “art not going, then do not bring us up there. <sup>16</sup>For how shall it be known that I have found favor with Thee, unless Thou goest with us? Then we shall be distinguished, I and Thy people, from all the nations on the face of the earth.” <sup>17</sup>The LORD said to Moses: I will do what you have mentioned, for you have found favor with Me; I know you by name.<sup>d</sup>

<sup>18</sup>Then he said, “Show me Thy glory, I pray.” <sup>19</sup>He answered: I will cause all My goodness to pass before you and I will proclaim the LORD’s name before you; for I will be gracious to whom I will be gracious and I will show mercy to whom I will show mercy.<sup>e</sup> <sup>20</sup>He further said: You are not able to see My face, for no human being can see Me and live. <sup>21</sup>But note! the LORD said, there is a place near Me. Take your stand on the rock <sup>22</sup>and as My glory passes by, I will place you in a cleft of the rock and I will cover you with My hand while I am passing by. <sup>23</sup>Then I will remove My hand, so you will see My back; My face shall not be seen.

34 THE LORD SAID TO MOSES: Hew out for your use two stone tablets like the first and I will write on the tablets the words that were on the former tablets, which you broke.<sup>f</sup> <sup>2</sup>Be ready by morning and in the morning ascend Mount Sinai; there on the mountain top present yourself to Me. <sup>3</sup>No one must come up with you, nor shall any person be seen on the whole mountain; neither let any flocks or herds graze close to the mountain.

<sup>4</sup>So Moses hewed two stone tablets similar to the first, rose early in the

2) God tested their willingness to obey even when that meant deprivation.

a) Either to seek divine counsel, or for communion with God.

b) Since the name “tabernacle” is most familiar to every devout Bible reader, we plan to use it often for the sanctuary that was erected in the desert, remembering that meeting tent, tent and Dwelling relate to the same structure.

c) A prayer which we may well use and practice in our work and in our worship.

d) Intimately.

e) Grace and mercy are undeserved; we have no claim to them, except as it has pleased God to promise and to grant them.

f) In this life God is so willing to give His offspring a second chance.

morning and ascended Mount Sinai as the LORD had ordered him, taking the two stone tablets in his hand. <sup>5</sup>Then the LORD descended in a cloud and took His stand with him there, as he called on the name of the LORD. <sup>6</sup>The LORD passed in front of him, and declared: The LORD, Jehovah, God, is compassionate and kind, slow to anger and abounding in mercy and faithfulness, <sup>7</sup>keeping mercy for thousands, forgiving iniquity, transgression and sin, but not at all acquitting the guilty; visiting the sins of fathers on their children and on their grandchildren to the third and fourth generation.<sup>5</sup>

<sup>8</sup>Moses quickly bowed to the ground and worshiped. <sup>9</sup>He said, "If I have found favor with Thee, O LORD, then let the LORD, I pray, go among us; for we are a stiffnecked people. Forgive our iniquity and our sin and take us for Thine own."

<sup>10</sup>Then He said: Look! I am making a Covenant. Before all your people I will work such wonders as have never been wrought anywhere on earth among any nation. All the people among whom you are, shall see the work of the LORD, for what I am about to do with you inspires awe. <sup>11</sup>Mark well what I am commanding you today. Understand that I am about to drive out of your way the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Hivites and the Jebusites; <sup>12</sup>so practice great care to make no covenant with the natives of the land you are going to enter, lest they become a snare in your midst. <sup>13</sup>Instead you must break down their altars, smash their images and cut down their sacred trees.<sup>h</sup> <sup>14</sup>For you shall not worship another god, because the LORD, whose name is Ardent, is a God who brooks no rival.<sup>1</sup> <sup>15</sup>If you make a covenant with the natives of the land, while they run wantonly after their gods and sacrifice to their gods, they will invite you to eat of their sacrifice. <sup>16</sup>When you also marry your sons to their daughters, who go wantonly after their gods, they will lead your sons into adultery after their gods.<sup>1</sup> <sup>17</sup>Cast no molten gods for yourself.

<sup>18</sup>Observe the feast of unleavened bread; for seven days eat unleavened bread as I commanded you, at the appointed time in the month Abib; for in Abib you came out of Egypt. <sup>19</sup>Every first-born<sup>k</sup> belongs to Me; including every male firstling of your livestock, of cow or sheep; <sup>20</sup>but redeem the firstling of a donkey with a lamb; or, if you do not redeem it, break its neck. Redeem every first-born of your sons. None shall appear before Me empty-handed.

<sup>21</sup>Labor six days and rest on the seventh day; even in plowing and in harvest time have your rest.

<sup>22</sup>Observe also the feast of weeks at the first harvesting of wheat, and the feast of ingathering at the end of the year.<sup>1</sup> <sup>23</sup>Thrice a year all your males shall appear before the LORD, the God of Israel; <sup>24</sup>for I will dispossess nations before you and will enlarge your frontiers. None shall covet your land while you appear before the LORD your God thrice a year.

<sup>25</sup>Do not offer the blood of a sacrifice to Me together with leavened bread; neither shall the Passover sacrifice be left overnight.

<sup>26</sup>Bring your earliest first fruits to the house of the LORD your God.

Boil no kid in its mother's milk.

<sup>27</sup>The LORD said to Moses: Write these words for your use, because the Covenant which I made with you and with Israel is based on these words.

<sup>28</sup>He remained there with the LORD forty days and forty nights without eating or drinking. And he wrote the words of the Covenant, the Ten Commandments on the tablets.

<sup>29</sup>As Moses was coming down from Mount Sinai with the two tablets of the Testimony in his hand, he was not aware that his facial skin glowed, because he had been speaking with

g) God's statement about Himself. These words are weighty enough to be memorized.

h) Tree stumps carved after male and female organs. i) No creature can equal its Creator.

j) The Hebrew nation was married to Jehovah, so idolatry was adultery.

k) Every (first) opener of the womb. l) Passover, Pentecost and Tabernacles or Booths.

EXODUS 35

Training to Give; To Work Jointly

Him;<sup>m</sup> <sup>30</sup>but Aaron and all the Israelites looked at Moses and saw that his facial skin had become shining, and they were afraid to approach him. <sup>31</sup>So Moses called out to them and Aaron and all the leaders of the gathering came back to him and Moses spoke to them. <sup>32</sup>Afterward all the Israelites came near and he charged them with all that the LORD had said to him on Mount Sinai.

<sup>33</sup>When Moses was through speaking to them, he covered his face with a veil; <sup>34</sup>but whenever Moses entered the LORD's presence to speak with Him, he would take off the veil until he came out, and he would come out to tell the Israelites the given orders. <sup>35</sup>The Israelites would see that the skin of Moses' face shone, so Moses would replace the veil over his face until he went in to speak with Him.

35 MOSES CONVENED THE ENTIRE Israelite congregation and told them, "These are the orders the LORD has commanded you to obey. <sup>2</sup>There are six days for work, but the seventh day shall be a sacred day to you, a Sabbath of impressive rest, related to the LORD. Whoever works in it shall be executed. <sup>3</sup>Kindle no fire in any of your dwellings on the Sabbath day."<sup>n</sup>

<sup>4</sup>Moses said to the assembled Israelites, "This is what the LORD orders: <sup>5</sup>Lay aside from what is yours a contribution to the LORD. Every one of a mind to volunteer it, may bring it, an offering to the LORD: gold, silver and bronze; <sup>6</sup>blue, purple, scarlet and fine linen; goats' hair <sup>7</sup>and red-dyed ram skins, badger skins, acacia wood, <sup>8</sup>oil for the lights, spices for the anointing oil and for the incense perfumes, <sup>9</sup>onyx stones and stones to set in the upper garment<sup>o</sup> and on the breastplate.

<sup>10</sup>"Let every skilful worker come and make everything the LORD has ordered — <sup>11</sup>the tabernacle, its tent, its coverings, its clasps, its boards, its bars, its pillars and their sockets, <sup>12</sup>the Ark and its poles, the mercy seat, the veil for a screen, <sup>13</sup>the table with its poles and its utensils, the showbread, <sup>14</sup>the lampstand for illuminating, its lamps and the oil for light, <sup>15</sup>the incense altar and its poles, the anointing oil, the perfumed incense, the curtain for the entrance to the tabernacle, <sup>16</sup>the altar for burnt offering with its bronze grating, its poles and all its utensils, the wash basin and its base, <sup>17</sup>the hangings of the court, its pillars and their sockets, the screen for the court gate, <sup>18</sup>the pegs and the pins for the court with their cords; <sup>19</sup>the woven garments for service in the sanctuary, the sacred garments for Aaron, the priest, and the garments of his sons to officiate as priests."<sup>p</sup>

<sup>20</sup>The whole assembly of the Israelites then came away from Moses <sup>21</sup>and those who felt enthused and of good will brought a contribution to the LORD for the construction of the tabernacle, for all its equipment and for the sacred garments. <sup>22</sup>Both men and women, all of willing mind, came and brought in clasps, noserings, earrings, necklaces, and all sorts of gold jewelry — every donor waving a gold wave offering to the LORD. <sup>23</sup>And everyone who had blue, purple, scarlet, fine linen, goats' hair, red-dyed ram skins, or badger skins, brought them. <sup>24</sup>Every one in position to bring silver or bronze presented it as a contribution to the LORD; so each one, who had acacia wood suitable for any service, brought it. <sup>25</sup>Every skilled woman, too, spun with her hands and delivered the yarn she had spun, blue, purple, scarlet material and fine linen, <sup>26</sup>and all the women of superior skill spun goats' hair.

<sup>27</sup>The rulers brought onyx stones and stones for setting in the ephod and in the breastplate; <sup>28</sup>also the spices and the oil for the light and for the anointing oil and the perfumed incense. <sup>29</sup>The Israelites brought voluntary offerings to the LORD; every willing-minded man and woman, as their hearts prompted them toward service, brought what the LORD through Moses had ordered.<sup>q</sup>

<sup>30</sup>Moses told the Israelites, "Take

m) Reflection of divine presence which in a measure may be ours.

n) So frequently reiterated, because so vital for spiritual life and growth. o) The ephod.

p) As we owe our skill to divine gifts we are using, He expects us to serve Him with our skill.

q) Tithing was by divine order; these gifts were brought voluntarily upon divine request.

notice! The LORD has called by name Bezaleel, the son of Uri, the son of Hur of the tribe of Judah <sup>31</sup>and has filled him with the Spirit of God in skill, intelligence and knowledge to execute all craftwork, <sup>32</sup>to design artistic work in gold, silver and bronze, <sup>33</sup>to cut stones for settings, to do wood-carving, to design workmanship of every kind; <sup>34</sup>also to instruct others. Both him and Oholiab, the son of Ahisamach of the tribe of Dan, <sup>35</sup>has He filled with a keen mind to do all sorts of smithing, engraving and designing decorative work in blue, in purple, in scarlet and in fine linen, in weaving, doing artistically whatever is required.”<sup>r</sup>

36 “BEZALEEL AND OHOLIAB ARE to do the work, together with every skilled person to whom the LORD has given dexterity and understanding to know how to accomplish every task for the sanctuary service in agreement with the LORD’s orders.”

<sup>2</sup>So Moses summoned Bezaleel, Oholiab and every skilled artisan whom the LORD had granted skill, every one with enough ambition to report for work. <sup>3</sup>They received from Moses all the contributions which the Israelites had brought for the work of putting the sanctuary into operation. Yet the people kept on bringing him voluntary contributions every morning <sup>4</sup>until the skilled artisans, who were working on the sanctuary, all left what they were making <sup>5</sup>and said to Moses, “The people are bringing far more than is needed for the construction work which the LORD ordered to have done.” <sup>6</sup>So Moses issued an order to be broadcast over the entire camp, “Let neither man nor woman produce any more material to contribute to the sanctuary.” Thus were the people restrained from contributing; <sup>7</sup>for the material on hand sufficed for all the constructive work to be done; in fact, there was too much.

<sup>8</sup>The skilled among the workers on the construction of the tabernacle made the curtains of fine twined linen, blue, purple and scarlet with designs of cherubs woven in. <sup>9</sup>The length of each curtain was forty-two feet and the width six feet, all curtains being the same size. <sup>10</sup>The five curtains were joined together and so were the other five. <sup>11</sup>They made blue loops on the edge of the end curtain in the one set for coupling and the same on the edge of the end curtain in the other set; <sup>12</sup>fifty loops to the one curtain and fifty loops to the other curtain at the coupling edge, the loops opposite each other. <sup>13</sup>So they made fifty gold clasps and joined the curtains into one with the clasps to make the tabernacle a unit.

<sup>14</sup>They also made goats’-hair curtains for a covering<sup>a</sup> over the tabernacle, eleven of them, <sup>15</sup>each curtain forty-five by six feet, all eleven the same size.<sup>t</sup> <sup>16</sup>They coupled five curtains by themselves and six curtains by themselves; <sup>17</sup>they also made fifty loops on the edge of the end curtain for coupling and fifty loops at the edge of the other curtain, <sup>18</sup>and fifty bronze clasps to join the covering so as to form a unit. <sup>19</sup>Then they made for the tent a roof of red-dyed rams’ skins and a cover of badger skins over that.

<sup>20</sup>They made for the tabernacle upright frames of acacia boards, <sup>21</sup>fifteen feet long by 2¼ feet wide. <sup>22</sup>Each frame had two clutches, connected with each other and all the frames for the tabernacle were fashioned alike. <sup>23</sup>They made twenty frames for the south side of the tabernacle <sup>24</sup>with forty silver sockets underneath the twenty boards, two sockets under each board for its two clutches. <sup>25</sup>For the other side of the tabernacle, the north side, they also made twenty boards <sup>26</sup>and their forty silver sockets, two sockets under each frame.

<sup>27</sup>For the west side of the tabernacle they made six frames, <sup>28</sup>and two frames for the rear corners of the tabernacle.

r) For working in wood and in metals God filled men with His Spirit. Through the ages inventors of helpful or beautiful devices might trace their inspiration back to the Fountain of all wisdom.

s) Literally, a tent, since a tent is a covering, and the material was what would be used for a tent; so was the form as it protected the first construction; and it thus formed part of the tabernacle; but it was not in itself a tent as we think of it, or a tabernacle.

t) The 45 feet stretched along a whole side, the 11 curtains formed part of north, south and west sides.

EXODUS 36, 37

The Furniture of the Tabernacle

<sup>29</sup>They were linked at the bottom and similarly linked on top with one ring; so they arranged them both at both corners. <sup>30</sup>There were, then, eight frames and sixteen sockets, two sockets under each frame.

<sup>31</sup>The bars were made of acacia wood, <sup>32</sup>five for the frames on one side and five for the frames on the other side of the tabernacle; also five bars for the west side. <sup>33</sup>The middle bar was made to run along the center of the frames from end to end. <sup>34</sup>The frames were overlaid with gold and the rings to hold the bars were made of gold, while the bars, too, were overlaid with gold.

<sup>35</sup>They made a veil of blue, purple, scarlet and fine twined linen, with cherubs artistically designed. <sup>36</sup>For it they made four pillars of acacia wood and overlaid them with gold; also golden hooks, and they cast four silver sockets for them.

<sup>37</sup>For the entrance into the tabernacle they made a veil of blue, purple, scarlet and fine twined linen, decorative work, <sup>38</sup>and its five pillars with their hooks. Their tops and their bands they overlaid with gold and their sockets they made of bronze.

37 BEZALEEL MADE THE ARK<sup>u</sup> OF acacia wood,  $3\frac{3}{4}$  feet long,  $2\frac{1}{4}$  feet wide and  $2\frac{1}{4}$  feet high. <sup>2</sup>He overlaid it with pure gold inside and out and ran a gold molding around it. <sup>3</sup>He cast four gold rings for it on its four lower corners, two rings on one side and two on the other <sup>4</sup>and made poles of acacia wood which he overlaid with gold. <sup>5</sup>He thrust the poles into the rings on the sides of the Ark for carrying the Ark. <sup>6</sup>The mercy seat,  $3\frac{3}{4}$  feet long and  $2\frac{1}{4}$  feet wide, he made of pure gold. <sup>7</sup>On the two ends of the mercy seat he placed two cherubim made of beaten work, <sup>8</sup>one cherub at this end and one at that end. He made the cherubs of one piece with the mercy covering from out its two ends. <sup>9</sup>The cherubim spread their wings aloft, overshadowing the mercy covering, their faces toward each other and both cherubim's eyes on the mercy seat.

<sup>10</sup>The table<sup>v</sup> he made of acacia wood, a yard long, half a yard wide and  $2\frac{1}{4}$  feet high; <sup>11</sup>he overlaid it with pure gold, ran a gold molding around it, <sup>12</sup>made a four-inch border all around, and ran a gold molding around the border. <sup>13</sup>He also cast four gold rings for it and fastened the rings to the four lower corners at the four legs <sup>14</sup>close to the border to hold the poles for carrying the table. <sup>15</sup>He made the poles of acacia wood to carry the table and overlaid them with gold. <sup>16</sup>The table ware, the plates, the bowls, the cups, the pitchers for pouring libations they made of pure gold.

<sup>17</sup>The lampstand he made of pure, beaten gold, base and shaft and cups, each with calyx and petals, all of one piece<sup>w</sup>. <sup>18</sup>Six branches came out of its sides, three branches from one side of the lampstand and three from the other side. <sup>19</sup>Each branch bore three cups, shaped like almond blossoms with calyx and petals; so also the six branches that came out from the lampstand. <sup>20</sup>On the lampstand itself there were four almond-like cups, each with calyx and petals; <sup>21</sup>also a calyx where each pair of branches met; so also the six branches extending from the shaft. <sup>22</sup>Calyx and branch were all of one piece with the lampstand, the whole forming a single piece of beaten gold. <sup>23</sup>Its seven lamps, its snuffers and its ashtrays he made of pure gold, <sup>24</sup>using 131 pounds of pure gold for it, including all its fittings.

<sup>25</sup>The incense altar<sup>x</sup> he made of acacia wood, a square 18 inches by 18 and a yard high; its horns were of one piece with it. <sup>26</sup>He overlaid it with pure gold—its top, its sides all around and its horns, and he ran a golden molding around it. <sup>27</sup>He further made

u) As Oholiab had worked with many helpers to build the structure, so Bezaleel did not work alone but had assistants. The Ark they built is remembered as the Ark of the Covenant and as the Ark of the Testimony, or simply, thinking of the Law, as the Testimony.

v) The table for showbread in the holy place.

w) No candlesticks, which were not yet invented; neither would they serve, for wicks must draw oil from the central bowl.

x) Placed in the holy place, near the veil but belonging to the Holy of Holies.

two gold rings for it under the molding on the two opposite corners, to hold the poles for carrying it. <sup>28</sup>The poles he made of acacia wood, overlaying them with gold. <sup>29</sup>He also prepared by the compounder's art the sacred anointing oil and the pure, fragrant incense.

38 <sup>1</sup>THE ALTAR OF BURNT OFFERING he made of acacia wood, an altar  $7\frac{1}{2}$  feet square,  $4\frac{1}{2}$  feet high; <sup>2</sup>its horns, of one piece with it, were constructed on its four corners, and he overlaid it with bronze. <sup>3</sup>He made all the utensils of the altar, the ash pans, the shovels, the bowls for sacrifice, the forks and the fire pans, all its utensils, of bronze. <sup>4</sup>He made a bronze grate of network for the altar underneath the all-around ledge, reaching halfway up. <sup>5</sup>He cast four rings at the four corners of the bronze grating to hold the poles, <sup>6</sup>which he made of acacia wood and overlaid with bronze. <sup>7</sup>The poles he thrust through the rings on the sides of the altar, to carry it. The altar he made concave with boards.

<sup>8</sup>The wash basin and its base he made of bronze, composed of mirrors that were contributed by the women who assembled for service at the entrance of the meeting tent.<sup>y</sup>

<sup>9</sup>Then he made the courtyard. For the south side there were hangings for the court of fine twined linen stretching 50 yards, <sup>10</sup>held up by 20 columns on their 20 bronze sockets, the hooks and the bands being of silver. <sup>11</sup>On the north side, too, 50 yards of hangings on their 20 columns and their 20 bronze sockets, their hooks and bands of silver. <sup>12</sup>On the west side 25 yards of hangings held by 10 columns and their sockets, the hooks and the bands of the columns of silver. <sup>13</sup>For the 25 yards of the east side<sup>z</sup> <sup>14</sup>there were  $7\frac{1}{2}$  yards of hangings on each side of the entrance on their three columns with sockets; <sup>15</sup>the same on both sides of the court gate. <sup>16</sup>All the hangings of the court were of fine, twined linen, <sup>17</sup>with the sockets for the columns of bronze, and the hooks and bands for the columns were of silver; their tops were overlaid with silver and all the columns of the court were filleted with silver.

<sup>18</sup>For the court gate the hanging was embroidery of blue, purple, scarlet and fine twined linen, 30 yards long and  $2\frac{1}{2}$  yards high, corresponding to the hangings of the court. <sup>19</sup>Their four columns had four bronze sockets; while their hooks, their platings on top, and their fillets were of silver. <sup>20</sup>The pegs for the Dwelling and for the surrounding courtyard were of bronze.

<sup>21</sup>These are the numbered articles for the Dwelling, the tabernacle of Testimony, as they were counted by order of Moses, a service rendered by the Levites under direction of Ithamar, the son of Aaron, the priest. <sup>22</sup>Bezaleel, son of Uri, son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah, made everything that the LORD had commanded Moses, <sup>23</sup>and with him worked Oholiab, son of Ahisamach of the tribe of Dan, an engraver, a skilful artisan, an embroiderer in blue, in purple, and scarlet material and in fine linen.

<sup>24</sup>The total amount of gold used for the building and furnishings of the sanctuary was around 3,800 pounds<sup>a</sup> in weight by the sanctuary scales, all of it contributed; <sup>25</sup>while the weight of silver by sanctuary standards paid by the registered citizens <sup>26</sup>was about 12,000 pounds,<sup>b</sup> around 65 cents per man for everyone registered from 20 years up, 603,550<sup>c</sup> men. <sup>27</sup>The casting of the sockets for the sanctuary and the veil required 11,600 pounds of silver, 116 pounds for each socket, <sup>28</sup>and from the remaining 400 pounds of silver he made the hooks for the columns, overlaid their tops and joined them.

<sup>29</sup>The bronze that was donated came

y) "Hoping women" some have it, remembering Hannah, who prayed for a son.

z) As the tabernacle was always placed to face east, there always were the same south, north and west sides. The width of the entrance lessened the lengths of the hangings.

a) $877,300. b) $201,000.

c) No money had been coined; it had to be weighed. Actual values of gold and silver can be estimated only approximately. Classically, a talent of gold equaled $30,000 and a talent of silver $2,000; a shekel of gold $10 and a shekel of silver 65 cents. One standard of values remains — a day's wages and what can be bought for it; but monetary wages are not mentioned in our early Scriptures.

to nearly three tons, <sup>30</sup>from which he made the sockets for the entrance to the meeting tent, the bronze altar and its bronze grate, all the utensils for the altar, <sup>31</sup>the sockets for the courtyard all around, the sockets for the court gate, all the pegs for the Dwelling and all the pegs for the surrounding court.

39 OF THE BLUE, PURPLE AND scarlet material they wove garments for ministering in the sanctuary, especially the sacred garments for Aaron, as the LORD had ordered Moses. <sup>2</sup>The ephod they made of gold, blue, purple, scarlet and fine twined linen. <sup>3</sup>They beat the gold into thin plates, then cut those into threads to work it artistically in between the blue, the purple, the scarlet and the fine twined linen. <sup>4</sup>They made shoulder straps for it to join it;<sup>4</sup> it was coupled at its two ends. <sup>5</sup>The artistic sash, to hold it around the waist, was similar of gold, blue, purple and scarlet material, and fine twined linen, as the LORD had ordered Moses. <sup>6</sup>The prepared onyx stones, engraved with the names of Israel's sons, were set in plaited gold-work <sup>7</sup>and he put them on the shoulder straps of the ephod—stones to remind the Israelites, as the LORD had ordered Moses.

<sup>8</sup>The breastplate, like the ephod, he wrought skilfully of gold; blue, purple, scarlet material and fine twined linen, <sup>9</sup>nine inches square and doubled over. <sup>10</sup>In it they set four rows of precious stones—the first row sardius, topaz and emerald; <sup>11</sup>the next row carbuncle, sapphire and jasper, <sup>12</sup>the third row amber, agate and amethyst, <sup>13</sup>and the fourth row chrysolite, onyx and beryl, all set in gold enclosures. <sup>14</sup>In accordance with the names of Israel's sons there were twelve stones with corresponding names of the twelve tribes, engraved as on a seal.

<sup>15</sup>To the breastplate they attached

twined chains, cordage work of pure gold; <sup>16</sup>also two gold clasps and two gold rings. The two rings they fastened to the two ends of the breastplate <sup>17</sup>and they passed the two chains of twined gold through the two rings at the ends of the breastplate. <sup>18</sup>The other two ends of the two chains they fastened to the clasps and attached them to the shoulder straps of the ephod, on the front. <sup>19</sup>They made two more rings of gold to fasten to the lower ends of the breastplate on the inner side next to the ephod, <sup>20</sup>and two gold rings they fastened to the two shoulder straps of the ephod in front on the inner side and well above the artistic sash. <sup>21</sup>Then they fastened the breastplate and its rings with a blue ribbon, to stay above the skilfully wrought girdle and to keep the breastplate from swinging loose from the ephod, as the LORD had ordered Moses.

<sup>22</sup>The robe to go with the ephod<sup>a</sup> was weaver's work, all blue, <sup>23</sup>with an opening in the top center like the neck of a coat of mail, reinforced all around to keep it from fraying. <sup>24</sup>On the hems of the robe they worked pomegranate designs of blue, purple, scarlet and fine twined linen. <sup>25</sup>Between the pomegranates they hung bells of pure gold, <sup>26</sup>alternating bell and pomegranate all the way around, for use in the service as the LORD had ordered Moses.

<sup>27</sup>The tunics for Aaron and his sons <sup>28</sup>they made of fine woven linen,<sup>f</sup> the turban and the lovely caps of fine linen, the trunks of fine twined linen, <sup>29</sup>the sash of fine twined linen, blue, purple and scarlet embroidery, as the LORD had ordered Moses.

<sup>30</sup>The plate of the sacred diadem they wrought of pure gold, engraved like a seal with the words: HOLY TO THE LORD. <sup>31</sup>They tied a blue ribbon to it, to fasten it to the turban above, as the LORD had ordered Moses.

<sup>32</sup>So the work on the tabernacle, the

d) One stone on each shoulder, according to divine suggestion [Ex. 28:9,12], large enough to have six names on each. The front and back parts of the ephod were brought together with the aid of these jewels, the shoulder straps being fastened there.

e) The ephod was a garment but hardly a robe; its length and form were more vestlike, but buttoned on the shoulders and not in front. The robe, sleeveless, was under the ephod and came down to the ankles.

f) The tunic is the under-garment usually worn next to the skin and the only remaining garment for the worker, who takes off the robe or mantle for manual labor.

meeting tent, was completed; the Israelites had done everything according to the LORD's directions to Moses. <sup>33</sup>They brought Moses the Dwelling—the tent and all its furnishings—its clasps, its frames, its columns and their sockets, <sup>34</sup>the coverings of red-dyed ram skins, badger skins and the covering veil; <sup>35</sup>the Ark of the Testimony, its poles and the mercy seat, <sup>36</sup>the table with its utensils and the showbread, <sup>37</sup>the pure lampstand with its arrangement of lamps and all its utensils, the oil for light, <sup>38</sup>the golden altar, the anointing oil and the perfumed incense, the veil for the tabernacle entrance, <sup>39</sup>the bronze altar with its bronze grate, its poles and its tools, the wash basin and its base, <sup>40</sup>the hangings of the courtyard, its columns and sockets, the hangings for the court gate, its cords and pegs and all needed articles for the service of the tabernacle—the meeting tent—<sup>41</sup>the woven garments for ministering in the sanctuary, the sacred garments for Aaron, the priest, and the garments for his sons to serve as priests. <sup>42</sup>The children of Israel did everything in full agreement with the LORD's orders to Moses. <sup>43</sup>As Moses inspected the work, he saw they had done it just as the LORD had commanded. Then Moses blessed them.

40 THE LORD SAID TO MOSES: <sup>2</sup>ON the first day of the first month erect the Dwelling, the meeting tent; <sup>3</sup>there deposit the Ark of Testimony and screen the Ark with the veil.<sup>k</sup> <sup>4</sup>Then bring in the table and arrange what belongs on it; bring in the lampstand, too, and set its lamps aright. <sup>5</sup>Place the golden altar of incense in front of the Ark of Testimony<sup>l</sup> and hang the curtain of the tabernacle door. <sup>6</sup>Set up the altar of burnt-offering in front of the tabernacle,<sup>1</sup> the meeting tent <sup>7</sup>and place the wash basin between the meeting tent and the altar, putting water in it. <sup>8</sup>Fence in the courtyard all around and hang the curtain at the court entrance.

<sup>9</sup>Take the anointing oil and anoint the tabernacle with everything in it; dedicate<sup>j</sup> it with all its furnishings and it shall become holy. <sup>10</sup>Anoint the altar of burnt offering and all its utensils; dedicate the altar and it shall become the supremely holy altar.<sup>k</sup> <sup>11</sup>Anoint the wash basin, too, with its base and dedicate it. <sup>12</sup>Then lead Aaron and his sons to the entrance of the meeting tent; wash them with water <sup>13</sup>and dress Aaron in the sacred garments. Anoint him and consecrate him to serve Me in the priestly office. <sup>14</sup>Then lead his sons near, dress them in tunics <sup>15</sup>and anoint them as you anointed their father to serve Me in the priestly office; their anointing will be for their unending priesthood through their successive generations.

<sup>16</sup>So Moses did; he did everything as the LORD had ordered him. <sup>17</sup>On the first day of the first month of the second year<sup>1</sup> the tabernacle was erected; <sup>18</sup>Moses raised the Dwelling, put down the sockets, set up the frames, placed the bars in position and erected the columns. <sup>19</sup>He spread the tent cover over the Dwelling and put the roof on top of it, as the LORD had ordered Moses.

<sup>20</sup>He deposited the Testimony<sup>m</sup> inside the Ark, put the poles on the Ark, set the mercy seat over the Ark <sup>21</sup>and brought the Ark inside the tabernacle. He then hung the veil as a curtain to screen off the Ark of Testimony, as the LORD had ordered Moses.

<sup>22</sup>The table he placed inside the meeting tent on the north side of the Dwelling, outside the veil, <sup>23</sup>arranging upon it the bread of the LORD's presence, as the LORD had ordered Moses.

<sup>24</sup>Moses also set the lampstand inside the meeting tent on the south side of the Dwelling opposite the table <sup>25</sup>and arranged the lamps before the LORD as the LORD had ordered Moses.

g) Thus setting apart the Holy of Holies.

h) But not inside the Holy of Holies because it required daily incense, while the high priest must enter the Holy of Holies only once a year.

i) As the sanctuary faced east, the altar stood east of the entrance to the tabernacle and west of the courtyard gate. j) In its secondary meaning—set apart to God; dedicated.

k) Rendering many forms of sacrificial service. The golden altar near the inner veil with its fragrant incense remained most holy.

l) Late March, 1445, B.C. is a probable date. m) The two tablets of the Law.

EXODUS 40

<sup>26</sup>The golden altar he established in the meeting tent in front of the veil <sup>27</sup>and burned on it fragrant incense, as the LORD had ordered Moses.

<sup>28</sup>He hung the curtain at the tabernacle entrance <sup>29</sup>and placed the altar of burnt-offering by the entrance of the Dwelling, the meeting tent, offering on it the burnt offering and the cereal offering, as the LORD had ordered Moses.

<sup>30</sup>The wash basin he put between the meeting tent and the altar, putting water in it for washing; <sup>31</sup>there Moses and Aaron as well as his sons regularly washed their hands and their feet. <sup>32</sup>They washed before entering the meeting tent and before they approached the altar, as the LORD had ordered Moses.

Ministry and Construction Dedicated

<sup>33</sup>He fenced the courtyard around the Dwelling and the altar and hung the curtain at the court entrance. Thus Moses completed the work.

<sup>34</sup>The cloud then covered the meeting tent and the glory of the LORD filled the tabernacle; <sup>35</sup>Moses was unable to enter the meeting tent because the cloud rested upon it and the glory of the LORD filled the Dwelling. <sup>36</sup>Whenever the cloud arose from the Dwelling the children of Israel would move ahead on their trek; <sup>37</sup>but when the cloud did not lift, they would not move on until the day when it lifted. <sup>38</sup>For the cloud of the LORD rested on the tabernacle by day and in it there was fire by night for the whole house of Israel during all their travels.

THE BOOK OF LEVITICUS<sup>1</sup>

1 AND FROM THE TENT OF MEETING the LORD called Moses<sup>b</sup> and said to him: Speak to the children of Israel; tell them, When any one of you would bring the LORD an offering, then you will present your offering of livestock from the herd or from the flock. <sup>3</sup>In case his offering is a burnt sacrifice from the cattle, then he shall bring a flawless male, which he shall present at the entrance of the meeting tent so as to be pleasing before the LORD. <sup>4</sup>He shall lay his hand on the head of the burnt sacrifice and on his behalf it shall be acceptable to make atonement for him<sup>c</sup>. <sup>5</sup>He shall then kill the bullock in the LORD's presence, and the priests, Aaron's sons, shall take the blood and shall sprinkle it all around against the sides of the altar, which is by the entrance of the tabernacle<sup>d</sup>. <sup>6</sup>He shall skin the burnt sacrifice and cut it into portions; <sup>7</sup>then the sons of Aaron the priest shall place fire upon the altar and arrange wood on the fire. <sup>8</sup>The priests, Aaron's sons, shall also arrange the portions, the head and the fat on top of the wood that lies on the altar fire. <sup>9</sup>But its intestines and its legs he shall wash with water and the priest shall burn all of it, a burnt sacrifice, a fire offering, a pleasing fragrance to the LORD.

<sup>10</sup>If his offering is from the flock, from sheep or from goats for a burnt sacrifice, then he shall present a flawless male,<sup>e</sup> <sup>11</sup>which he shall kill on the north side of the altar in the presence of the LORD. Aaron's sons, the priests, shall sprinkle its blood all around upon the altar. <sup>12</sup>He shall then cut it into portions with its head and its fat, and the priest shall arrange them upon the wood that is on the altar fire; <sup>13</sup>but he shall wash the intestines and the legs with water and the priest shall bring it all and burn it as incense upon the altar. It is a burnt sacrifice, a fire offering, a pleasing fragrance to the LORD.

<sup>14</sup>In case his burnt offering to the LORD is of birds, then he shall present his offering of turtle doves or of young pigeons. <sup>15</sup>The priest shall take it to the altar, wring off its head and burn it upon the altar; its blood shall be squeezed out upon the side of the altar. <sup>16</sup>He shall remove its crop and feathers and throw them on the ash-heap just east of the altar. <sup>17</sup>He shall tear it by its wings without severing those and the priest shall burn it upon the altar on top of the wood that is on the altar fire; it is a burnt sacrifice, a fire offering, a pleasing fragrance to the LORD.<sup>f</sup>

a) Instructions for Levites, specially priests, at Mt. Sinai, between May, 1446, and May, 1445, B.C.

b) There is mention 56 times in these 27 chapters of God speaking to Moses. In Exodus God spoke from Mount Sinai; now He speaks from the Holy of Holies in the Dwelling from above the mercy seat of the Ark of the Covenant; for between Jehovah and Israel the Covenant had been made.

c) The worshiper kills the victim that represents him, as Christ represented us on the cross.

d) Without the shedding of blood no remission of sins.

e) The animals must be as perfect as earthly creatures can be, for they are prophetic of our perfect Sacrifice and are offered to our perfect God.

f) The poor man's offering, such as Mary and Joseph brought to the temple with the Child Jesus [Lk. 2:22-24], was as pleasing as the other.

2 WHEN A PERSON PRESENTS A FOOD offering to the LORD, then his offering shall consist of fine flour. He shall pour oil on it, add incense to it <sup>2</sup>and present it to the priests, the sons of Aaron, who shall take out a handful of the fine flour and oil, together with all its incense, and the priest shall burn it on the altar as a memorial incense, a fire offering, a fragrance agreeable to the LORD. <sup>3</sup>The remainder of the food offering is for Aaron and for his sons, the holiest portion of the fire offerings to the LORD.<sup>g</sup>

<sup>4</sup>When you present a food offering baked in the oven,<sup>h</sup> it shall consist of unleavened cakes of fine flour mixed with oil, or of thin unleavened cakes overspread with oil. <sup>5</sup>If your gift is a food offering from the griddle, then it shall be composed of unleavened<sup>i</sup> bread mixed with oil. <sup>6</sup>You shall divide it into portions and pour oil on them; it is a food offering. <sup>7</sup>But if your gift is a food offering from the roaster, then it shall be of fine flour prepared with oil. <sup>8</sup>Bring the food offering composed of these things for the LORD to the priest, <sup>9</sup>who shall take up from the food offering a memorial portion and burn it on the altar, a pleasing fragrance to the LORD. <sup>10</sup>The remainder of the food offering is for Aaron and for his sons, the most holy of the fire offerings to the LORD.

<sup>11</sup>No food offering which you present to the LORD shall be prepared with leaven, for you must never burn leaven or honey in any fire offering to the LORD. <sup>12</sup>You may bring them as an offering from the first fruits for the LORD, but not for a pleasing fragrance upon the altar.<sup>j</sup> <sup>13</sup>Season your every food offering with salt; do not omit the Covenant salt of your God from your food offering. Offer salt with every offering.<sup>k</sup>

<sup>14</sup>If you bring the LORD a food offering of first fruits, present roasted heads of grain, broken to grits from fresh grain, <sup>15</sup>add oil to it and spread incense over it; it is a food offering. <sup>16</sup>The priest shall burn a portion of the broken grain and of the oil with the incense;<sup>l</sup> it is a fire offering to the LORD.

3 IF THE GIFT IS A PEACE OFFERING and he offers it from the herd, whether male or female, he must offer a flawless animal before the LORD.<sup>m</sup> <sup>2</sup>He shall lay his hand on the head of his sacrifice and kill it at the entrance of the meeting tent; Aaron's sons, the priests, shall sprinkle the blood all around upon the altar.<sup>n</sup> <sup>3</sup>Of the peace offering to the LORD with fire he shall offer the fat that covers the intestines and all the fat that lies on the intestines; <sup>4</sup>also both kidneys and the fat on them at the loins and the lobe of the liver which he shall take away with the kidneys. <sup>5</sup>The sons of Aaron shall kindle it upon the altar over the burnt offering, a pleasing fragrance to the LORD.<sup>o</sup>

<sup>6</sup>If his present is from the flock for a peace offering to the LORD, then he shall bring a flawless animal, either male or female. <sup>7</sup>If he presents a lamb<sup>p</sup> for his offering, <sup>8</sup>then to offer it before the LORD he shall lay his hand on the head of his sacrifice and kill it in front of the meeting tent and the sons of Aaron shall sprinkle its blood all around upon the altar. <sup>9</sup>From the peace offering made with fire to the LORD he shall present its fat,<sup>q</sup> the whole fat tail which he should cut off close to

g) Fine flour means white flour, which might be offered as unleavened bread or as cakes or as wafers. A food offering might also consist of roasted heads of grain, always with salt, to which sometimes olive oil was added. Often white flour went with animal sacrifices. Only from the poorest was it accepted as a sin offering or as a trespass offering, because of the basic blood requirement.

h) The burnt offering symbolized dedication of life, such as was perfected in our Lord's sacrifice on the Cross. As food is the product of God's earth and man's labor, it is a thank offering, acknowledging God's chief part in the process. i) Leaven, for fermentation, can be symbolic of sin.

j) The burning of leaven or of honey produces no agreeable fragrance.

k) Salt preserves from corruption; it helps edibles to last; it is a token of a lasting Covenant.

l) Incense is symbolic of hearty, voluntary dedication.

m) God is worthy of our best in our service, our gifts and ourselves.

n) Blood for life; altar for dedication; all to the glory of God. Better than Abel's blood [Heb. 12:24], which accused of murder; this speaks forgiveness in view of the coming Redeemer.

o) As through Christ our lives may please God.

p) Usually a yearling; always prophetic of "The Lamb of God."

q) The animal's fat betokens abundant life; lean animals' bodies were not rich enough.

the backbone; also the fat that covers the intestines and all the fat that lies on the intestines; <sup>10</sup>the two kidneys and the fat on them at the loins and the lobe of the liver, which he shall remove with the kidneys. <sup>11</sup>The priest shall burn this on the altar, a food offering by fire for the LORD.

<sup>12</sup>If his present is a goat, he shall, to offer it before the LORD, <sup>13</sup>lay his hand on its head and slaughter it in front of the meeting tent and the sons of Aaron shall sprinkle its blood all around on the altar. <sup>14</sup>From it he shall bring his gift, an offering by fire to the LORD, the fat that covers the intestines, all the fat that lies on the intestines, <sup>15</sup>also the two kidneys, the fat on them at the loins and the lobes of the liver which he shall remove with the kidneys. <sup>16</sup>The priest shall burn it as incense on the altar, a burnt offering of food, an agreeable fragrance; all the fat is the LORD's. <sup>17</sup>Let this be an everlasting ordinance for your successive generations wherever you live, to eat no fat or blood whatever.

4 THE LORD SAID TO MOSES: <sup>2</sup>TELL the Israelites: When a person sins ignorantly against any of the LORD's commandments and acts contrary to any of them, <sup>3</sup>if the anointed priest has sinned and thus involved the people in guilt, then he shall offer for his sin which he has committed a flawless young bull as a sin offering to the LORD. <sup>4</sup>He shall bring the bullock to the entrance of the meeting tent before the LORD, shall lay his hand on the bullock's head and slaughter the young bull before the LORD.<sup>r</sup> <sup>5</sup>The anointed priest shall take some of the young bull's blood and bring it to the meeting tent. <sup>6</sup>The priest shall dip his finger in the blood and shall sprinkle some of the blood seven times before the LORD in front of the veil of the holy place.<sup>s</sup> <sup>7</sup>The priest shall also apply some of the blood to the horns of the incense altar that stands before the LORD within the meeting tent. All the remaining blood he shall pour at the foot of the altar of burnt offering that stands by the entrance of the meeting tent. <sup>8</sup>All the fat of the sin offering bullock he shall remove from it, the fat that covers the intestines, <sup>9</sup>the two kidneys and the fat on them at the loins and the lobe of the liver, to be removed with the kidneys, <sup>10</sup>just as it is removed from the bullock of the peace offering. The priest shall burn them as incense on the altar of burnt offering,<sup>t</sup> <sup>11</sup>but the bullock's hide, all its meat with its head and its legs, its intestines and its dung, <sup>12</sup>the whole bullock he shall convey outside the camp to a clean place where the ashes are poured out, and shall burn it on the wood fire. It shall be burned where the ashes are poured out.

<sup>13</sup>If the whole congregation of Israel sins ignorantly and the affair escapes the notice of the people, if they have trespassed any of the LORD's commandments, doing what should not be done and are guilty, <sup>14</sup>then the congregation, when the sin they have committed has become evident, shall offer for a sin offering a bullock, which they shall bring before the tabernacle of the congregation<sup>u</sup> <sup>15</sup>and the elders of the congregation shall lay their hands on the bullock's head before the LORD and the young bull shall be slaughtered in the LORD's presence. <sup>16</sup>The anointed priest shall take some of the bull's blood to the meeting tent <sup>17</sup>and the priest shall dip his finger in the blood and sprinkle it seven times before the LORD in front of the veil. <sup>18</sup>Some of the blood he shall apply to the horns of the altar that is before the LORD in the meeting tent and all the remaining blood he shall pour out at the base of the altar of burnt offering by the entrance to the meeting tent. <sup>19</sup>He shall take away from it all its

r) Usually a bullock and young bull are identical.

s) There was a curtain over the entrance to the tabernacle, of which the first room was the holy place; but this refers to the veil between the holy place and the Holy of Holies, for the golden altar of incense is being used, which stood near the Holy of Holies and formed part of it.

t) The incense altar, of pure gold, served for the burning of pure incense to the LORD; but the fat, burned on the great altar, was incense, too, "a pleasing fragrance for the LORD."

u) The simpler name is meeting tent; another name is Tent of Testimony, for the two tablets of the Decalogue within the Ark of the Covenant; but choicest to us is the Dwelling, for God's unique presence between the cherubim above the mercy seat.

fat and shall burn it as incense on the altar. <sup>20</sup>He shall do with the bullock as he did with the bullock of the sin offering, which is the proper way. The priest shall make atonement for the people and they shall be forgiven. <sup>21</sup>He shall carry the bullock outside the camp and burn it as he burned the first bullock. It is the sin offering for the congregation.

<sup>22</sup>When a ruler has sinned, has ignorantly done something contrary to one of the commandments of the LORD his God, he is guilty. <sup>23</sup>When he grows aware of the sin he has committed he shall present for his sin offering a flawless he-goat; <sup>24</sup>he shall lay his hand upon the goat's head<sup>v</sup> and butcher it at the place where usually they kill the burnt offering before the LORD: it is a sin offering. <sup>25</sup>With his finger the priest shall take some of the blood of the sin offering and apply it to the horns of the altar of burnt offering and the remaining blood he shall pour out at the base of the altar of burnt offering. <sup>26</sup>But all the fat he shall burn as incense on the altar, similar to the fat of the peace offering. Thus the priest shall make atonement on his behalf for his sin and it shall be forgiven him.

<sup>27</sup>When one among the people of the land sins ignorantly,<sup>w</sup> doing one of the things which God has forbidden and is thus guilty, <sup>28</sup>when his sin is brought to his attention, then he shall present as his offering for the sin which he has committed a flawless she-goat. <sup>29</sup>He shall lay his hand upon the head of the sin offering and butcher the sin offering at the burnt offering place. <sup>30</sup>The priest shall with his finger take some of the blood and apply it to the horns of the altar of burnt offering and shall pour out all the remaining blood at the base of the altar. <sup>31</sup>He shall remove all its fat, just as the fat is taken away from the peace offerings, and the priest shall burn it as incense on the altar, an agreeable fragrance to the LORD. Thus the priest shall make atonement for him and it shall be forgiven him.

<sup>32</sup>If he presents a lamb<sup>x</sup> as his sacrifice for a sin offering, then he shall bring a flawless female. <sup>33</sup>He shall lay his hand on the head of the sin offering and shall slaughter it for a sin offering at the place where they slay the burnt offering. <sup>34</sup>With his finger the priest shall take some of the blood from the sin offering and apply it to the horns of the altar of burnt offering. All the remaining blood he shall pour out at the base of the altar. <sup>35</sup>All its fat he shall remove, just as the fat is removed from the lamb of the peace offering. The priest shall burn it as incense on the altar like the offering to the LORD by fire. In this way the priest shall make atonement for him, for the sin which he committed and it shall be forgiven him.

5 WHEN A PERSON SINS BY BEING adjured to testify and has seen or has learned of the matter, but fails to inform, he assumes his iniquity.<sup>y</sup> <sup>2</sup>Or when a person contacts an unclean thing, either the carcass of an unclean wild beast or of unclean livestock, or of unclean creeping things, although he is unaware of it, he is unclean and guilty. <sup>3</sup>Or if he contacts human uncleanness of whatever sort, that renders him unclean without being aware of it, when he knows, he shall be guilty.<sup>z</sup> <sup>4</sup>Or if a person unthinkingly utters an oath to do something, either evil or good, any rash oath that people swear, and he grows conscious of it, then he shall be guilty in any of these, <sup>5</sup>and when a person is guilty in any of these instances he shall confess the sin he has committed <sup>6</sup>and shall present his

v) As each worshiper, from Aaron down, comes with a living sacrifice and puts his hand upon its head, it meant, "This animal represents me; I have forfeited my life by sinning. I do not hold it back, it is Thine, LORD. Grateful that Thou lettest me live, I surrender myself to Thee."

w) All these offerings were brought by those sinning ignorantly; no forgiveness is offered those going knowingly and willfully against God's will.

x) The great majority offered a lamb, which was within their means, thus rendering the name "Lamb of God" so appropriate for our Redeemer.

y) In two ways the silent witness becomes guilty — he fails to warn the transgressor, who needs correction, and he fails to warn society which needs protection from the evildoer — an issue which is still much alive among us in dealing with subversives.

z) Symbolic of personal influence. "Handle pitch and you get black."

trespass offering to the LORD for the sin which he has committed, a female from the flock, a lamb or a goat, for a sin offering, and the priest shall make atonement for his sin.

<sup>7</sup>However, if he cannot afford a lamb, then he shall present to the LORD as his trespass offering for the sin he has committed two turtle doves or two young pigeons, one for a sin offering, the other for a burnt offering.<sup>a</sup>

<sup>8</sup>He shall bring them to the priest, who shall offer first the one for the sin offering and shall nip the head from the neck without severing it. <sup>9</sup>Some of the blood of the sin offering he shall sprinkle on the side of the altar and what remains he shall drain out on the altar base; it is a sin offering.

<sup>10</sup>He shall then prepare the second for a burnt offering according to directions.<sup>b</sup> In this way the priest shall make atonement for him and the sin shall be forgiven him. <sup>11</sup>If he cannot afford<sup>c</sup> two turtle doves or two young pigeons, then he shall present as his offering a tenth of a bushel of white flour for a sin offering. He shall put no oil upon it and no frankincense on it, for it is a sin offering. <sup>12</sup>He shall bring it to the priest and the priest shall take a handful of it, a memorial portion, and shall burn it as incense on the altar like the offerings made by fire to the LORD; it is a sin offering.<sup>d</sup> <sup>13</sup>In this way the priest shall make atonement for him for the sin which he committed and the sin shall be forgiven him. The remainder shall be the priest's as in the food offering.

<sup>14</sup>The LORD said to Moses: <sup>15</sup>When a person behaves unfaithfully and sins unintentionally in matters that are holy to the LORD, then to make good he shall bring the LORD a flawless ram of the flock, evaluated by you in silver coin according to sanctuary standards; it is a trespass offering. <sup>16</sup>He must also make amends for whatever harm was done in the sacred thing, adding a fifth of its value, which he shall hand the priest. The priest shall make atonement for him with the ram of the trespass offering and his sin shall be forgiven him.<sup>e</sup> <sup>17</sup>If a person sins, doing anything that the LORD has forbidden to be done, although he is ignorant of it, yet he is guilty and answerable for his iniquity.<sup>f</sup> <sup>18</sup>He shall bring a flawless ram of the flock as a trespass offering to the priest and the priest shall make atonement on his behalf for the mistake he made unknowingly, and it shall be forgiven him. <sup>19</sup>It is a trespass offering; he has unquestionably trespassed against the LORD.

6 THE LORD SAID TO MOSES: <sup>2</sup>IF A person sins by unfaithfulness to the LORD, and he lies to his neighbor about storage, or a deposit, or a robbery, or in extortion, <sup>3</sup>or he has found what was lost and denies it upon oath;<sup>4</sup> in all these actions of a person in which he sins and becomes guilty, <sup>4</sup>he must restore what he robbed or what he extorted, or what was entrusted to him, or the lost which he found, <sup>5</sup>or anything about which he swore falsely; he must reimburse it in full and add one fifth of its value to it, giving it to whom it belongs on the day of his trespass offering. <sup>6</sup>He shall present to the priest as a trespass offering to the LORD a flawless ram from the flock with its value estimated by you. <sup>7</sup>The priest shall make atonement for whatever he did to render him guilty.

<sup>8</sup>The LORD further said to Moses: <sup>9</sup>Order Aaron and his sons, saying, This is the law of the burnt offering: The burnt offering shall remain on the altar's hearth all night until morning and the altar fire shall keep burning upon it. <sup>10</sup>Then the priest shall put on his linen garment with his linen trunks on

a) Rich and poor alike in God's presence.

b) The second bird took the place of the fat in animal offerings, burned as incense to the LORD.

c) Literally, if his hand does not reach.

d) No forgiveness without blood-shedding? But God is gracious and allows exceptions — for His salvation is for the most wretched, too.

e) Trespassing, well illustrated by our signs, "NO TRESPASSING," is invading the rights of others, dealing unfairly with them, which may be done also toward God. When worship is disturbed or God is dishonored, confession and reconciliation are needed; but also among men there must be restoration, repair of damages.

f) Ignorantly we may cause great harm; it is but fair that we make good so far as in us lies.

g) A false oath calls upon God to witness to what is not true.

his loins; he shall take up the ashes to which the fire has consumed the burnt offering on the altar and deposit them beside the altar. <sup>11</sup>Then stripping off these garments and putting on others, he shall carry out the ashes to a cleared spot outside the camp. <sup>12</sup>The fire must be kept burning on the altar; it must not die down. The priest shall refuel it with wood every morning, arrange the burnt sacrifice upon it and on top of it the fat of the peace offering. <sup>13</sup>A fire shall continually burn upon the altar; it must never go out.<sup>b</sup>

<sup>14</sup>This is the law of the food offering: The sons of Aaron shall present it in the LORD's presence in front of the altar <sup>15</sup>and a priest shall take a handful of it, from the flour of the food offering and of its oil; also all the incense that lies upon the food offering, and he shall burn it on the altar, an agreeable fragrance, a memorial to the LORD. <sup>16</sup>What is left of it Aaron and his sons shall eat.<sup>1</sup> With unleavened bread it shall be eaten in a sacred place; in the court of the meeting tent they shall eat it. <sup>17</sup>It shall not be baked with leaven;<sup>1</sup> I have given it as their portion of My burnt offerings; it is most holy like the sin offering and the trespass offering. <sup>18</sup>All the males among Aaron's offspring may eat it, an everlasting decree among your generations about the LORD's burnt sacrifices; whoever touches them shall be set apart.

<sup>19</sup>The LORD said to Moses: <sup>20</sup>This is the offering of Aaron and his sons which they shall offer to the LORD on the day of his anointing,<sup>k</sup> the tenth of a bushel of white flour for a daily food offering, half of it each morning and half each evening. <sup>21</sup>It shall be prepared with oil on a griddle; bring it in well baked and offer the baked pieces of the food offering as an agreeable fragrance to the LORD. <sup>22</sup>The priest who, of his sons,<sup>1</sup> shall be the anointed in his place, shall do this. It is an everlasting statute to the LORD: all of it shall be burned; <sup>23</sup>every food offering of the priest shall be completely burned; it shall not be eaten.

<sup>24</sup>The LORD said to Moses: <sup>25</sup>Tell Aaron and his sons, This is the law of the sin offering: At the place where the burnt offering is killed there too the sin offering shall be slaughtered before the LORD; it is most holy. <sup>26</sup>The priest who offers it for sin shall eat it; it shall be eaten in a sacred place, in the court of the meeting tent. <sup>27</sup>Whoever touches its flesh shall be holy,<sup>m</sup> and if any of its blood has spattered on any garment, the piece on which it spattered shall be washed in a sacred place. <sup>28</sup>The earthen pottery in which it was cooked shall be shattered; but if it was boiled in a bronze vessel, that shall be well scoured and rinsed with water. <sup>29</sup>All males among the priests may eat of it; it is most holy.<sup>n</sup> <sup>30</sup>However, no sin offering of which the blood is taken into the meeting tent for atonement in the sanctuary shall be eaten; it shall be burned with fire.<sup>o</sup>

7 THIS IS THE LAW OF THE TRESPASS offering; it is most holy. <sup>2</sup>At the place where they kill the burnt sacrifice they shall kill the trespass offering and its blood they shall sprinkle all around upon the altar. <sup>3</sup>They shall offer all its fat, the fat tail and the fat that covers the entrails; <sup>4</sup>the two kidneys and the fat on them by the loins,<sup>p</sup> also the liver-lobe, which he shall take away with the kidneys. <sup>5</sup>The priest shall burn them as incense on the altar, an offering by fire to the LORD; it is a trespass offering. <sup>6</sup>All the males among the priests may eat it at a sacred place; it is most holy. <sup>7</sup>As with the sin offering so with the trespass offering,<sup>q</sup> the

h) Typical of God's constant care and of Christ's undying love.

i) As reflected in I Cor. 9:13 — those who conduct the temple service make their living from the temple, which remains true today.

j) No fermentation in the holy place, for that suggests impurity.

k) Of Aaron's anointing to begin with; later the same for his successors in the high priesthood.

l) Aaron's successor, normally his oldest son, the next high priest and so for successive generations.

m) In this case "set apart," for holiness is contagious.

n) Because it is God's therefore His ministers may have it.

o) Its blood will be sprinkled on the mercy seat within the Holy of Holies; therefore the flesh, also, is too sacred for human food.

p) Fat was highly treasured, for only few could secure it; fat-tailed sheep brought high prices.

q) "Trespass" is a better name for this offering than "guilt," for the selfish, inconsiderate aspect of sin is kept in view.

same law holds for both; the priest who makes atonement through it shall have it. <sup>8</sup>Besides, the priest who offers anyone's burnt offering, that priest shall have the hide of the burnt offering he has offered.<sup>r</sup> <sup>9</sup>So every food offering that is baked in the oven and everything prepared in a pan or on a griddle is for the priest who offers it; it shall be his. <sup>10</sup>But every other food offering, whether mixed with oil or dry, shall be for all the sons of Aaron for all alike.<sup>s</sup>

<sup>11</sup>This is the law of the peace offering which one may bring to the LORD. <sup>12</sup>If he presents it as a thank offering, then with the thank offering he shall bring unleavened cakes mixed with oil, and thin unleavened cakes daubed with oil; also cakes of fine flour well mixed with oil. <sup>13</sup>With the cakes he shall offer leavened bread for his thank offering besides his peace sacrifice.<sup>t</sup> <sup>14</sup>Out of each offering he shall present a portion for a heave offering to the LORD; it shall be for the priest who sprinkles the blood of the peace offering before the LORD. <sup>15</sup>The flesh of the thank offering, presented as a peace offering, shall be eaten on the day it is presented; nothing of it shall be left until morning. <sup>16</sup>If the sacrifice he offers is for a vow or is a free-will offering,<sup>u</sup> then the day on which he presents his offering it shall be eaten and whatever is left of it shall be eaten next day. <sup>17</sup>But what still remains of the sacrificial meal on the third day must be consumed by fire.<sup>v</sup> <sup>18</sup>Should any meat of the peace offering nevertheless be eaten on the third day, then the one who brought it shall not be acceptable; it will be no credit to him; it will be disgusting and the person who eats it must answer for his sin.

<sup>19</sup>The flesh that comes in contact with anything unclean shall not be eaten; it must be consumed by fire. Every clean person may eat flesh,<sup>w</sup> but the person who, while tainted with uncleanness, eats flesh of the peace offering, which belongs to the LORD, that person shall be eliminated from his people. <sup>21</sup>The person who contacts anything unclean, human uncleanness or an unclean animal or unclean creeping creatures and then eats of the flesh of the peace offering, which belongs to the LORD, that person shall be eliminated from his people.<sup>x</sup>

<sup>22</sup>The LORD said to Moses, <sup>23</sup>Tell the children of Israel: Eat no fat of bullock, sheep or goat. <sup>24</sup>You may make use of the fat of an animal that died naturally or that was torn by beasts for any other purpose, but you certainly must not eat it,<sup>y</sup> for whoever eats the fat of the animal of which one offers a portion as a burnt offering to the LORD shall be eliminated from his people. <sup>26</sup>Neither shall any kind of blood be eaten whether of fowl or of animal in any of your homes. <sup>27</sup>The person who eats any blood,<sup>z</sup> that person shall be eliminated from his people.

<sup>28</sup>The LORD said to Moses: <sup>29</sup>Tell the Israelites: Whoever wants to present his peace offering as a sacrifice to the LORD must bring a portion of his peace offering as a donation; <sup>30</sup>with his own hands he shall bring to the LORD that sacrifice that is to be burned. He shall bring the fat with the breast for a wave offering to be waved before the LORD.<sup>y</sup> <sup>31</sup>The priest shall burn the fat as incense on the altar, but the breast<sup>z</sup> shall be for Aaron and for his sons. <sup>32</sup>The right thigh you will give the priest as a contribution out of the peace offering. <sup>33</sup>Whoever among the sons of Aaron offers the blood and the fat of the peace offering shall have the right thigh for his share; <sup>34</sup>because the breast that is waved and the thigh of-

r) Hides, of which sandal soles, straps and belts were made, were valuable.

s) Descendants of Aaron, unfitted for the priesthood, were included.

t) When this harmonious relationship with God has been reached, the use of leaven becomes acceptable.

u) Like a free will offering so a vow is made voluntarily, hence the similarity of method.

v) In both offerings there is an element of spontaneity that should not be lost.

w) Not executed but removed, excommunicated. The marvel is that a Holy God will commune with any of us; which is made possible by our Redeemer.

x) Because blood is the animal's life and God, not man, is the Life-giver.

y) The offering was lifted toward heaven to acknowledge God as the Giver and to dedicate the offering to Him. It was also waved toward the altar, according to Rabbinical tradition, because the altar stood for God's redeeming grace.

z) Breast and thigh were considered the choicest meats, awarded the priests as the LORD's ministers.

ferred I have taken from the Israelites and given to Aaron, the priest, and to his sons by an everlasting statute from the children of Israel. <sup>35</sup>Out of the LORD's burnt offerings this is the remuneration set apart for Aaron and for his sons at their anointing when He anointed them to minister to the LORD in the priest's office. <sup>36</sup>The LORD ordered this to be given them at the time when He anointed them from among the Israelites, an everlasting statute throughout their generations. <sup>37</sup>This is the law of the burnt offering, of the food offering, of the sin offering, of the trespass offering, of the consecration offering and of the peace offering, <sup>38</sup>which the LORD ordered Moses on Mount Sinai on the day when He commanded the children of Israel to bring their offerings to the LORD in the Sinai desert.<sup>a</sup>

8 THE LORD SAID TO MOSES: <sup>2</sup>TAKE with you Aaron and his sons; also the garments, the anointing oil, the bullock for the sin offering, the two rams and a basket of unleavened bread, <sup>3</sup>and convene the whole congregation at the entrance of the meeting tent. <sup>4</sup>So Moses did as the LORD had ordered him and when the congregation was assembled at the entrance of the meeting tent,<sup>b</sup> <sup>5</sup>Moses told the assembly, "This is what the LORD has commanded to be done." <sup>6</sup>Moses then had Aaron and his sons come near and he washed them with water.<sup>c</sup> <sup>7</sup>He put on him<sup>d</sup> the undergarment, girded him with the sash, dressed him with the upper garment, put on the ephod over it, which he tightened with the artistic girdle of the ephod, <sup>8</sup>then put on him the breastplate and fastened to it the Urim and Thummin. <sup>9</sup>He placed the turban on his head and attached the golden plate, the sacred diadem at its front, as the LORD had ordered Moses.

<sup>10</sup>Moses then took the anointing oil, anointed the tabernacle and everything it contained and consecrated it. <sup>11</sup>He also sprinkled some of the oil on the altar seven times,<sup>e</sup> anointing the altar and all its utensils; also the basin and its base, to sanctify them. <sup>12</sup>He then poured some of the anointing oil on Aaron's head and anointed him to consecrate him. <sup>13</sup>Then Moses had Aaron's sons come near. He put tunics on them, girded them with sashes and bound the turbans on them as the LORD had commanded Moses. <sup>14</sup>He then had the bullock for the sin offering led forward and Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the head of the bullock for the sin offering. <sup>15</sup>Moses killed it, took some of the blood and applied it with his finger to the horns of the altar all around; he purified the altar. The remaining blood he poured on the base of the altar; he sanctified it to make atonement for it.<sup>f</sup> <sup>16</sup>Moses also took all the fat that lay upon the intestines, the lobe of the liver, the two kidneys and the fat on them and burned them as incense on the altar. <sup>17</sup>But the bullock with its hide, its meat and its dung he cremated outside the camp as the LORD had commanded Moses.

<sup>18</sup>He further brought forward the ram of the burnt offering and Aaron and his sons laid their hands upon the ram's head. <sup>19</sup>Moses killed it and sprinkled the blood all around against the altar. <sup>20</sup>Moses divided the ram into sections and the head, the sections and the fat he burned as incense. <sup>21</sup>The entrails and the legs Moses washed with water and he cremated the entire ram, an offering by fire for the LORD, as the LORD had ordered Moses.

<sup>22</sup>Next he brought forward the other ram, the ram for the consecration, and Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the head of the ram. <sup>23</sup>Moses killed it, took some of the blood and applied

a) God wants order and tells His people how to achieve it.

b) During the seven days not only leaders of the people but the rest as well got a chance to be near the tabernacle's entrance. c) Water was typical of purifying from sin.

d) Aaron wore the white linen garments all priests wore and for his special duties the high-priestly garments over them, described fully in Ex. 28 and 39.

e) In the consecration of the altar the number seven is significant for it combines three, the divine number, with four, the human number.

f) Washing with water did not suffice for the removal of sin; the sin offering was required and after it the burnt offering, the complete consecration of the redeemed sinner. Aaron the high priest needed it for himself before he could administer it to the people.

it to the tip of Aaron's right ear, to the thumb of his right hand, and to the big toe of his right foot. <sup>24</sup>Moses also had Aaron's sons come forward and he applied some of the blood to the tips of their right ears, to the thumbs of their right hands and to the big toes of their right feet.<sup>25</sup> And Moses sprinkled the blood all around against the altar. <sup>25</sup>He then took the fat, the fat tail, all the fat on the intestines, the lobe of the liver, the two kidneys, the fat on them and the right thigh, <sup>26</sup>and he took, out of the basket of unleavened bread before the LORD, one unleavened cake, one bread cake with oil and one thin cake, which he placed upon the fat portions and on the right thigh. <sup>27</sup>All these together he laid in the hands of Aaron and in the hands of his sons who waved them as a wave offering before the LORD. <sup>28</sup>Moses then took these out of their hands<sup>g</sup> and burned them on the altar on top of the burnt offering; an ordination offering, an agreeable fragrance to the LORD. <sup>29</sup>Moses also took the breast and waved it as a wave offering before the LORD, the portion of the ordination ram that was his as the LORD had commanded Moses. <sup>30</sup>Moses further took some of the anointing oil and of the blood that was on the altar and sprinkled it upon Aaron and on his clothes,<sup>i</sup> on his sons and on his sons' clothes to consecrate Aaron and his clothes, also his sons and his sons' clothes together. <sup>31</sup>Moses told Aaron and his sons, "Boil the meat at the entrance of the meeting tent and eat it there with the bread in the basket of consecration offerings, as I ordered, saying, 'Aaron and his sons shall eat it. <sup>32</sup>What is left over of the meat and the bread you shall cremate. <sup>33</sup>You shall not leave the entrance of the meeting tent for seven days until your consecration period is completed, for seven days are required for your consecration. <sup>34</sup>What happened today the LORD has ordered to make atonement for you; <sup>35</sup>day and night<sup>j</sup> for seven days you will remain at the entrance of the meeting tent, observing the LORD's instructions, lest you die; for so I am ordered.'" <sup>36</sup>So Aaron and his sons did everything the LORD commanded through Moses.

9 ON THE EIGHTH DAY MOSES summoned Aaron and his sons; also the elders of Israel, <sup>2</sup>and told Aaron, "Select for you a bull calf for a sin offering and a ram for a burnt offering, both flawless, and present them before the LORD. <sup>3</sup>You will also tell the Israelites, 'Take a he-goat for a sin offering and a calf and a lamb both a year old and in perfect condition for a burnt offering; <sup>4</sup>also a bullock and a ram for a peace offering, to offer them before the LORD with a food offering mixed with oil, because today the LORD will appear to you.'" <sup>k</sup>

<sup>5</sup>They brought to the front of the tabernacle what Moses had ordered and the whole congregation approached and stood in the presence of the LORD. <sup>6</sup>Moses said, "This is what the LORD ordered for you to do so that the glory of the LORD may be manifested to you." <sup>7</sup>Moses then told Aaron, "Come to the altar; prepare your sin offering and your burnt offering and make atonement for yourself and for the people; then prepare the people's sacrifice and make atonement for them in agreement with the LORD's injunction."<sup>l</sup>

<sup>8</sup>So Aaron approached the altar and killed the calf that was intended for his sin offering. <sup>9</sup>The sons of Aaron handed him the blood; he dipped his finger in the blood and applied it to the horns of the altar; then poured the blood at the altar base. <sup>10</sup>The fat, the kidneys and the lobe of the liver from the sin offering he burned on the altar

g) Thought, activity and purpose are offered to God in their sacred ministry.

h) Moses had filled the hands of Aaron and of his sons with the offerings which they waved before the LORD. i) Their being set apart included their clothes.

j) Their holy office required disciplinary preparation. The Eli-Samuel incidents of I Samuel 3 show there were conveniences for lodging in or near the tabernacle.

k) Aaron, typical of Christ as high priest, could not perfectly typify Him, because he was not sinless; he had to find atonement for his own sins first.

l) To sense the presence of God both priest and people must themselves be fully consecrated, as Rom. 12:1 has it, "living sacrifices, holy, acceptable."

as incense, as the LORD had ordered Moses, <sup>11</sup>but the meat and the hide he cremated outside the camp.

<sup>12</sup>He then slaughtered the burnt offering and Aaron's sons conveyed to him the blood, which he sprinkled all around on the altar. <sup>13</sup>They also handed him in sections the burnt offering including the head and he burned them on the altar. <sup>14</sup>But he washed the intestines and the legs and burned them upon the burnt offering on the altar.

<sup>15</sup>He then presented the people's sacrifice; he took the he-goat of the sin offering on the people's behalf, killed it and prepared it for a sin offering like the first one. <sup>16</sup>He presented the burnt offering according to directions, <sup>17</sup>then had the food offering brought, took a handful of it and burned it on the altar alongside the morning's burnt sacrifice. <sup>18</sup>He also slaughtered the bullock and the ram as a peace offering for the people.<sup>m</sup> The sons of Aaron handed him the blood which he sprinkled all around on the altar; <sup>19</sup>but the fat of the bullock and of the ram, the fat tail, the fat on the intestines, the kidneys and the lobe of the liver, <sup>20</sup>these fat pieces they laid upon the breast pieces and they burned the fat pieces as incense on the altar, <sup>21</sup>while Aaron waved the breast and the right thigh as a wave offering before the LORD, as Moses had ordered.

<sup>22</sup>Aaron then raised his hands toward the people and blessed them.<sup>n</sup> After sacrificing the sin offering, the burnt offering and the peace offering he came down.<sup>o</sup> <sup>23</sup>Moses and Aaron entered the meeting tent and as they came out and blessed the people, the glory of the LORD appeared to all the people. <sup>24</sup>Fire went out from the presence of the LORD and consumed on the altar the burnt offering and the fat portions. All the people saw it; they rejoiced and fell on their faces.

10 BUT NADAB AND ABIHU, SONS of Aaron, took each his censer, put fire in it, laid incense on it and offered strange fire before the LORD, such as He had not ordered them. <sup>2</sup>Then fire issued forth from the presence of the LORD and consumed them; they died before the LORD. <sup>3</sup>Moses said to Aaron, "This is what the LORD meant when He said, 'Among those in My presence I will be hallowed and in the sight of all the people I will be honored.'"

<sup>4</sup>Moses summoned Mishael and Elzaphan, sons of Uzziel, Aaron's uncle and told them, "Come, carry your brothers away from the sanctuary outside the camp." <sup>5</sup>They came and carried them out dressed in their tunics as Moses had mentioned. <sup>6</sup>Moses told Aaron and his sons Eleazar and Ithamar, "Neither let your hair hang loose nor tear your clothes<sup>p</sup> lest you die and indignation come upon the whole congregation; but your brothers, the whole house of Israel, shall bemoan the flame which the LORD has kindled. <sup>7</sup>Do not leave the entrance of the meeting tent, lest you die; for the LORD's anointing oil is upon you." And they did as Moses told them.

<sup>8</sup>The LORD said to Aaron: <sup>9</sup>Neither you nor your descendants shall drink wine or liquor as you are about to enter the tabernacle, lest you die;<sup>q</sup> it shall be an ordinance throughout your generations, <sup>10</sup>so you may distinguish between holy and secular, between clean and unclean, <sup>11</sup>and that you may teach the Israelites all the ordinances which the LORD has conveyed<sup>r</sup> to them through Moses.

<sup>12</sup>Moses said to Aaron and to Eleazar and Ithamar, his surviving sons, "Take the food offering that is left over from the offerings to the LORD by fire and eat it unleavened beside the altar, for it is most holy. <sup>13</sup>Eat it at the holy

m) The sin offering always first, typical of our atonement wrought for us by Christ; then the burnt offering as Christ offered Himself for our purifying; then the food offering, acknowledging His gift of salvation; finally the peace offering, which is also a thank offering, for by His life and death we enjoy fellowship with God and with one another.

n) The blessing written Num. 6:24-26. o) The altar was built on an elevation.

p) A sign of deep distress and mourning, such as the people may observe, but not the priests, because their relationship was supremely with God.

q) This injunction suggests that Nadab and Abihu had disobeyed under alcoholic influence.

r) Divine instructions were clear and for the welfare of the worshipers. We cannot break His laws; disobedience breaks us.

place because it is legally yours and legally your sons' from the LORD's burnt offerings, for so I ordered. <sup>14</sup>But the wave breast and the thigh you may eat at any clean place, you with your sons and your daughters, for they are designated for you and for your sons, granted out of the peace offerings of the Israelites. <sup>15</sup>They shall bring the thigh for the heave offering and the breast for a wave offering along with the offerings by fire of the fat, to wave them in the presence of the LORD for a wave offering. It shall be yours and your sons' by an everlasting statute, as the LORD has commanded."

<sup>16</sup>Moses searched and searched for the goat of the sin offering, to find that it had been burned up. He felt angry toward Eleazar and Ithamar, the surviving sons of Aaron, and said, <sup>17</sup>"For what reason did you not eat the sin offering<sup>a</sup> at the sanctuary? For it is most holy and He gave it to you to take away the iniquity of the people, to make atonement for them in the LORD's presence. <sup>18</sup>See here! Its blood has not been brought inside the sanctuary. You should without fail have eaten the meat in the sanctuary as I ordered."

<sup>19</sup>Aaron answered Moses, "Observe that today they have offered their sin offering and their burnt offering before the LORD and yet these are my experiences. If I had eaten the sin offering, would it have been pleasing in the sight of the LORD?" <sup>20</sup>Moses listened and fully agreed.

11 THE LORD SAID TO MOSES AND to Aaron: <sup>2</sup>Tell the Israelites, these are the creatures you may eat among all the earth's animal life<sup>t</sup>: <sup>3</sup>All that have cloven hoofs cleft through, and chew the cud, these among the animals you may eat. <sup>4</sup>But of those that chew the cud or part the hoof you must not eat the camel because while it chews the cud it has no cleft hoofs; for you it is unclean. <sup>5</sup>So the rock badger, for though it chews the cud it has no cloven hoof; it is for you unclean. <sup>6</sup>The hare, too, that chews the cud but has no cleft hoof, is unclean for you. <sup>7</sup>The hog, while it splits hoofs cloven through, does not chew the cud; it is unclean for you; <sup>8</sup>you must neither eat their meat, nor touch their carcass; they are unclean to you.<sup>u</sup>

<sup>9</sup>Of all that are in the waters you may eat whatever has fins and scales in any waters—seas or streams; you may eat them. <sup>10</sup>But all that have no fins or scales in seas or streams among all that move in the waters, of all creatures in the waters they shall be offensive to you. <sup>11</sup>They shall in fact be abhorrent to you; you must not eat their meat, and their dead bodies you shall loathe. <sup>12</sup>Everything in the waters without fins or scales shall be repulsive to you.<sup>v</sup>

<sup>13</sup>Among the birds these you shall loathe, they shall not be eaten, they are detestable—the eagle, the fish hawk, the black eagle, <sup>14</sup>the vulture, every species of buzzard, every kind <sup>15</sup>of crow, the ostrich, <sup>16</sup>the owl, the sea-gull, every kind of hawk, <sup>17</sup>the white owl, the cormorant, the horned owl, <sup>18</sup>the marsh hen, the pelican, the carrion eagle, <sup>19</sup>the stork, every kind of heron, the lapwing and the bat.<sup>w</sup>

<sup>20</sup>All winged insects going on all fours shall be repulsive to you. <sup>21</sup>You may, however, among the winged insects that go on all fours, eat those that have thighs above their feet with which to leap upon the ground. <sup>22</sup>Of these you may eat every kind of locust, every kind of traveling locust, every kind of cricket and every kind of grasshopper; <sup>23</sup>but all other winged, four-footed insects shall be repulsive to you;<sup>x</sup> <sup>24</sup>in contact with them you become un-

s) Neither Aaron nor his sons could bring themselves under those grievous circumstances to eat anything, not even what had been divinely assigned to them and He "knows our frame; He remembers that we are dust."

t) The regulations that follow have religious and sanitary aims; they are prescriptions for physical and spiritual health.

u) As man is soul and body, the one influencing the other, what we eat and drink affects our whole being. An abundance of wholesome food was allowed the Hebrews.

v) The forbidden fish was mostly of the snake-like type — conger, moray, lamprey and other eels.

w) The forbidden birds are birds of prey and of carrion, which we, too, would not care to eat.

x) The insects mentioned were never intended for human food.

clean. Whoever touches their dead bodies shall be unclean until evening<sup>26</sup> and he who picks up any part of their body must wash his clothes and is unclean till evening.

<sup>26</sup>Every animal with parted hoof, not split through, and those not chewing the cud are unclean to you; whoever touches them shall be unclean.<sup>27</sup>All of the quadrupeds, that walk on their paws,<sup>y</sup> are unclean to you; whoever touches their carcass shall remain unclean until evening.<sup>28</sup>Whoever carries their carcass shall wash his clothes and be unclean till evening; they are unclean to you.

<sup>29</sup>These are unclean to you among the roving creatures that ramble on the ground—the weasel, the mouse, every species of turtle,<sup>30</sup>the ferret, the chameleon, the lizard, the snail and the mole.<sup>31</sup>These are unclean among all that rove; whoever touches their dead bodies shall be unclean until evening<sup>32</sup> and anything upon which one of these falls when dead shall be unclean. Each wooden vessel, each piece of clothing or skin or sack, each utensil in use shall be placed in water; it remains unclean till evening; then it will be clean.<sup>33</sup>But an earthen vessel into which one of them falls—all its contents are unclean; it must be broken into fragments.<sup>34</sup>All edible food which its water contacts shall be unclean and all drinkable liquid in every such vessel shall be unclean.<sup>35</sup>Everything on which part of their carcass falls shall be unclean, whether an oven or a baking pan, it must be broken to pieces; they are unclean; to you they are unclean.<sup>36</sup>But a fountain, a cistern or a water reservoir shall be clean, while whatever (in it) touches their dead body shall be unclean.<sup>37</sup>If such a dead body falls on seed grain that is to be sown, that remains clean; <sup>38</sup>but if any part of their dead body falls on it after water has been put on it, then to you it is unclean.<sup>a</sup>

<sup>39</sup>When one of the animals of which you may eat dies, then the one who contacts the carcass shall be unclean till evening.<sup>40</sup>He who eats of the dead body shall wash his clothes and remain unclean until evening; he also who carries the carcass shall wash his clothes and remain unclean till evening.<sup>b</sup>

<sup>41</sup>Every creeping thing that creeps on the ground is repulsive; it shall not be eaten.<sup>42</sup>All that move on their belly; all that move on all fours; also all many-legged among creepers, all that creep on the ground you must not eat; for you they are loathsome.<sup>43</sup>Do not defile yourselves through any creeping creature so as to become unclean;<sup>44</sup>for I am the LORD your God. Set yourselves apart; be holy, for I am holy. Never defile yourselves through any creeping creature that crawls on the ground,<sup>45</sup>for I am the LORD who had you leave the land of Egypt to be your God. Be holy because I am holy.

<sup>46</sup>This is the law regarding the animal, the bird, everything that moves in the waters and every living creature that moves upon the ground,<sup>47</sup>to discriminate between the unclean and the clean, between the creatures that may be eaten and the creatures that must not be eaten.<sup>c</sup>

12 THE LORD SAID TO MOSES:
<sup>2</sup>Tell the Israelites: When a woman has conceived and has given birth to a boy, she shall be unclean seven days, unclean as at the time of her menstruation.<sup>3</sup>On the eighth day the flesh of his foreskin shall be circumcised.<sup>4</sup>She shall then continue for 33 days in the blood of purification. She shall contact nothing holy and shall not attend the sanctuary till the days of her purification are completed.<sup>5</sup>If

y) Lacking hoofs altogether — cats, dogs and the like.

a) No-fruits or vegetables of any kind are forbidden. The virility of the Hebrew race witnesses to the hygienic value of these regulations. Through opposition, poverty and epidemics they have come, such as made "Gentiles" die like flies.

b) Death and sin are closely related. Jesus was deeply indignant, John 11:33, 38, as He approached the tomb of Lazarus; He came to conquer and destroy death. Dead bodies we put out of sight; dead animals are repulsive.

c) With Christ's coming these Mosaic regulations became obsolete. What enters the mouth does not pollute the person, says Jesus, Matt. 15:11, and Paul, Col. 2:16, reaffirms it.

she gives birth to a girl, then she shall be unclean for two weeks as in her monthly separation and for yet 66 days, while bleeding, she shall stay at home, the purification period.<sup>d</sup> <sup>6</sup>At the completion of the purifying she shall bring to the priest at the door of the meeting tent for a son or for a daughter a yearling lamb for a burnt offering and a young pigeon or a turtle dove for a sin offering. <sup>7</sup>The priest shall offer it before the LORD and make atonement for her; she shall be cleansed from her blood issue. This is the law for her who has given birth, whether to a boy or to a girl. <sup>8</sup>But if she cannot afford a lamb, then she shall bring two turtle doves or two young pigeons, the one for a burnt offering, the other for a sin offering. The priest shall make atonement for her and she shall be clean.<sup>e</sup>

13 THE LORD SAID TO MOSES AND Aaron: <sup>2</sup>When a person has a swelling or an eruption or a white spot on the skin of his body and it suggests the plague of leprosy in his skin, then he shall be taken to Aaron or to one of his sons, the priests. <sup>3</sup>The priest shall examine the affected spot in the skin of his body and if the hair on the affected spot has turned white and it shows that the disorder goes deeper than his skin, then it is the leprosy plague; the priest who inspects it shall pronounce him unclean. <sup>4</sup>But if the white spot in the skin of his flesh is evidently no deeper than the skin and the hair has not turned white, then the priest shall quarantine the patient for seven days. <sup>5</sup>On the seventh day the priest shall take a second look and if he finds that the disorder seems arrested and has not spread in the skin, then the priest shall quarantine him for another seven days. <sup>6</sup>On the seventh day the priest shall examine him again and if the spot has paled and has not spread in the skin, the priest shall pronounce him clean; it is only an eruption; he shall wash his clothes and be clean. <sup>7</sup>But in case the eruption keeps on spreading in the skin after he has shown himself to the priest to be pronounced clean, then he must show himself to the priest again; <sup>8</sup>the priest shall examine him and if he sees that the eruption has been spreading, then the priest must pronounce him unclean; it is leprosy.<sup>f</sup>

<sup>9</sup>When the plague of leprosy attacks any person he must be taken to the priest. <sup>10</sup>The priest shall examine him and if it develops that there is a white swelling in the skin which turns the hair white, or that white flesh is growing in the swelling, <sup>11</sup>then it is chronic leprosy in the skin of the body; the priest shall pronounce him unclean; he shall not quarantine him, for he is unclean.<sup>g</sup> <sup>12</sup>But if the leprosy breaks out all over the skin so that the leprosy covers the afflicted person's skin from head to foot as the priest looks at it, <sup>13</sup>then the priest shall investigate and if the leprosy has covered the entire body,<sup>h</sup> he shall declare the afflicted person clean; it has all turned white; he is clean. <sup>14</sup>But the moment raw flesh shows on him he is unclean; <sup>15</sup>when the priest observes the raw flesh he shall pronounce him unclean; it is leprosy. <sup>16</sup>But if the raw flesh changes again and turns white, then he shall go to the priest; <sup>17</sup>the priest shall look him over, and see if the patient has turned white, the priest shall declare him cleansed of the plague; he is clean.

<sup>18</sup>When in the skin of the body there has been inflammation which has healed, <sup>19</sup>and instead of the sore there comes a white swelling, or a pale reddish spot, then it must be shown the priest. <sup>20</sup>The priest shall examine it and if it is evidently beneath the skin and its hair has turned white, the priest must pronounce him

d) As loss of blood was involved in giving birth to a child, the laws of purity
e) The purification of the mother became the occasion for the dedication of t. who had already been entered into God's gracious Covenant with the rite of c istered by the father on the eighth day.

f) Leprosy may be in the body without appearing until maturity; but it is p

g) There were then and there are now diseases that bear similarity to but an scrofula, eczema and ringworm, so that the priest needed to identify each part

h) Whiteness over the whole body without that body being fatally corrupt different from leprosy.

ANL
uke 2:43
unclean
diminsive, leprosy, such as it case.
indicated trouble

101013

JP 785

is a leprosy attack, broken out in the boil. <sup>21</sup>But if the priest, observing it, detects no white hairs on it, neither is it beneath the skin and it is fading, then the priest shall quarantine him for seven days <sup>22</sup>and if it has spread in the skin, the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is the disease. <sup>23</sup>If, however, the affected spot remains where it is without spreading, then it is a scar from the eruption; the priest shall declare him clean.<sup>1</sup>

<sup>24</sup>Or when the skin of the body has been scorched and the raw flesh has become a light spot, reddish and white, <sup>25</sup>the priest shall examine it and, see, if the hair on the bright spot has turned white and it shows to be deeper than the skin, it is leprosy broken out in the burn. The priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is a leprous affliction. <sup>26</sup>But in case the priest examines him and the hair on the spot is not white, neither does the spot go deeper than the skin, but is fading, then the priest shall quarantine him for seven days. <sup>27</sup>On the seventh day the priest shall look him over and if it has spread further in the skin, the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is leprosy. <sup>28</sup>But if the bright spot has stayed in its place, has not spread in the skin and has faded, then it is a scar from the burn. The priest shall pronounce him clean; for it is a scar from the burn.<sup>1</sup>

<sup>29</sup>When a man or a woman has a sore on the head or in the beard, <sup>30</sup>the priest shall examine the sore and if it looks deeper than the skin and there is on it yellowish, thin hair, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is an eruption, a leprosy of the head or beard. <sup>31</sup>But if the priest notices that the spot, attacked by the eruption, does not show deeper than the skin and there is no dark hair on it, then he shall quarantine the patient for seven days. <sup>32</sup>On the seventh day the priest shall examine the affected spot and when there is evidence that the erup-

tion has not spread, neither is there yellow hair on it, nor does the sore go deeper than the skin, <sup>33</sup>then he shall shave himself — not shaving the eruption — and the priest shall quarantine the affected patient another seven days. <sup>34</sup>On the seventh day the priest shall examine the eruption and if evidently the eruption has not spread in the skin and it shows that it does not go beneath the skin, the priest shall pronounce him clean; then he shall wash his clothes; he is clean. <sup>35</sup>But if the disease keeps spreading in the skin after he has been pronounced clean, <sup>36</sup>then the priest must look him over and if the disease has spread in the skin, the priest does not look for yellow hair; he is unclean. <sup>37</sup>But if the eruption, so far as he can see, is inactive and no dark hair is growing on it, then the eruption has healed; the priest shall pronounce him clean.<sup>k</sup>

<sup>38</sup>In case a man or a woman has spots on the skin of the body, white spots, <sup>39</sup>the priest shall make an examination. If the spots on the skin are a faint white, it is ordinary eruption broken out in the skin; he is clean. <sup>40</sup>When a man's head is hairless, he is just bald, but he is clean. <sup>41</sup>When a man's hair falls out in front, he has baldness of the forehead and he is clean. <sup>42</sup>But if on the bald head or on the bald forehead there is a white-reddish spot, then there is leprosy broken out on his bald head or on his bald forehead. <sup>43</sup>The priest shall examine him and if the affected swelling on the bald head or on the forehead is reddish-white in appearance, like leprosy in the skin of the body, <sup>44</sup>then he is a leprous man; he is unclean. The priest must pronounce him unclean; the disease is on his head. <sup>45</sup>The clothes of the leper who has been attacked by the plague shall be torn; he shall let the hair of his head hang loose; he shall cover his upper lip and cry, "Unclean, unclean." <sup>46</sup>So long as he has the plague he re-

i) When the activity of the disease is visible, the priest can determine its virulence by its depth, color and spread.

j) Every precaution is taken to guard against mistakes; repeated examinations will prevent the ostracizing of any but the real leper.

k) The fatal nature of leprosy mentioned here and elsewhere in the Bible has been doubted and denied, but when, Num. 12, Miriam was struck with leprosy, Aaron pleaded, "Let her not be as one dead, of whom the flesh is half consumed." He certainly thought of leprosy in a horrible form.

mains defiled; he is unclean. He shall be isolated; His abode shall be outside the camp.<sup>1</sup>

<sup>47</sup>The garment, too, that has in it the plague of leprosy, whether a woolen or a linen garment, <sup>48</sup>whether in the warp or in the woof of linen or wool, whether in leather or in anything made of skin, <sup>49</sup>if the plague shows up greenish or reddish in the garment in either warp or woof, or in any leather or in anything made of leather, this is the plague of leprosy, and it must be shown to the priest. <sup>50</sup>The priest shall examine the affected spot and shall isolate the affected part for seven days. <sup>51</sup>On the seventh day he shall examine the affected part. If the affected part in the garment has spread in warp or woof or in leather or in any product made of leather, then the plague is malignant leprosy; it is unclean. <sup>52</sup>He shall burn the spotted garment, warp or woof, wool or linen, or anything of leather in which the plague is; for it is malignant leprosy; it must be burned in the fire. <sup>53</sup>But if the priest looks and sees that the plague is not spreading in the garment, or in the warp or in the woof, or in anything of hide, <sup>54</sup>then the priest shall order that they wash the affected object, and he shall isolate it for another seven days. <sup>55</sup>The priest shall examine the affected object after it is washed and if to him the affected spot looks unchanged, even if it has not spread, it is unclean. You shall burn it up; it is eating inward on the inner or the outer side. <sup>56</sup>But if, on examination, the priest finds that the affected spot is pale after its washing, then he shall tear the portion out of the garment or the leather, the warp or the woof.<sup>m</sup> <sup>57</sup>If it reappears in the garment, in warp or woof, or in any of the leather, then it is a spreading leprosy;

burn up what has the plague in it. <sup>58</sup>But the garment, the warp or woof, or anything of leather, which you wash, you shall wash the second time when the plague has gone out of it, and it shall be clean. <sup>59</sup>This is the law of the leprosy plague in a woolen or a linen garment, or in anything of leather; pronounce it clean or unclean.

14 THE LORD SAID TO MOSES <sup>2</sup>THIS shall be the law for the leper on the day of his cleansing.<sup>n</sup> He shall be taken to the priest, <sup>3</sup>and the priest shall go out beyond the camp.<sup>o</sup> As the priest examines him and it shows that the leprosy attack is cured, has left the leper, <sup>4</sup>then the priest shall order to get for him who is to be cleansed two living, clean birds, cedar wood, a scarlet string, and hyssop. <sup>5</sup>The priest shall give orders to kill one bird over an earthen pot with running water. <sup>6</sup>The living bird he shall take with the cedar wood and the scarlet string with hyssop and dip these with the living bird in the blood of the bird that was killed above the living water. <sup>7</sup>Seven times he shall sprinkle the one to be cleansed of leprosy and he shall pronounce him clean. The living bird he shall let fly in the open country. <sup>8</sup>The one to be cleansed shall wash his clothes, have a close hair cut, and take a water bath; then he shall be clean. After that he shall come into the camp but stay outside his tent for seven days. <sup>9</sup>On the seventh day he shall cut off all the hair on his head, his beard, his eyebrows, all his hair he must cut off. He shall then wash his clothes and bathe his body in water and he shall be clean.

<sup>10</sup>On the eighth day he shall take two flawless he-lambs and one flawless yearling ewe-lamb, also a food offering of six quarts white fine flour mixed

l) Every person on reaching maturity begins physically to die; but this fatal course is fearfully accelerated in the leper; he is definitely dying. But death involves uncleanness. Leprosy puts the patient outside the camp as sinners are excluded from heaven. Rev. 21:27.

m) As the garment is not an organism but a fabric, the removal of the affected spot was likely to end the trouble. There was a resemblance to leprosy in the change of color to greenish or reddish, due probably to attacking fungi. Cleanliness and hygiene demanded arrest and removal.

n) To be cleansed meant to start life anew, symbolic of the new birth in the Spirit.

o) The leper could neither heal himself nor pronounce himself clean. He could not even go to God's minister; the priest had to meet him outside the camp. The killed bird typifies the need of a life to heal him and the freed bird pictures his own new life after cleansing, but not until it has been dipped in the killed bird's blood. The cut and shaven hair suggest thorough riddance of the old, so as to enter the new unhindered. And the anointing is the dedication of this new life to the Great Physician.

with oil and a pint of oil. <sup>11</sup>The priest who attends to the cleansing shall present the man to be cleansed together with all this before the LORD at the entrance of the tabernacle. <sup>12</sup>The priest shall take one he-lamb and offer it with the pint of oil as a trespass offering and wave it as a wave offering before the LORD. <sup>13</sup>He shall kill the he-lamb at the place where they kill the sin offering and the burnt offering in the holy place, because as the sin offering is the priest's so is the trespass offering; it is most holy. <sup>14</sup>The priest shall take some of the blood of the trespass offering and the priest shall apply it to the tip of the right ear of the one to be cleansed, to the thumb of his right hand and to the big toe of his right foot. <sup>15</sup>The priest shall also take some of the pint of oil and drip it into the palm of his own left hand. <sup>16</sup>The priest shall then dip his right finger in the oil that is in his left palm and sprinkle of the oil with his finger seven times in the presence of the LORD. <sup>17</sup>From the remaining oil in his palm the priest shall apply some to the tip of the right ear of the one to be cleansed, to the thumb of his right hand, to the big toe of his right foot and upon the blood of the trespass offering. <sup>18</sup>The priest shall apply the rest of the oil that is in the palm of his hand to the head of the one to be cleansed; so shall the priest make atonement for him before the LORD. <sup>19</sup>The priest shall then offer the sin offering and atone for the one to be cleansed from his uncleanness. Afterward he shall slaughter the burnt offering. <sup>20</sup>The priest shall offer the burnt offering and the food offering on the altar; so shall the priest make atonement for him and he shall be clean.

<sup>21</sup>But if he is poor and cannot afford so much, then he shall take one he-lamb for a trespass offering, to be waved, to make atonement for him before the LORD; also three quarts of fine flour mixed with oil<sup>p</sup> for a food offering, and a pint of oil; <sup>22</sup>besides two turtle doves or two young pigeons, according to his ability, the one for a sin offering, the other for a burnt offering. <sup>23</sup>On the eighth day he shall bring them to the priest for his purification, to the entrance of the meeting tent in the LORD's presence. <sup>24</sup>The priest shall take the lamb of the trespass offering and the pint of oil and the priest shall wave them as a wave offering before the LORD. <sup>25</sup>He shall kill the lamb of the trespass offering and the priest shall take some of the blood of the trespass offering and apply it to the tip of the right ear of the one to be cleansed, to the thumb of his right hand and the big toe of his right foot. <sup>26</sup>The priest shall pour some of the oil into his own left palm and <sup>27</sup>the priest shall sprinkle with his right forefinger some of the oil seven times before the LORD. <sup>28</sup>The priest shall also put some of the oil that is in his left palm on the tip of the ear of the one to be cleansed, on the thumb of his right hand and on the big toe of his right foot,<sup>q</sup> where the blood of the trespass offering had been put. <sup>29</sup>What is left of the oil in the priest's palm he shall apply to the head of the one to be cleansed to make atonement for him before the LORD. <sup>30</sup>One of the turtle doves or young pigeons, <sup>31</sup>such as he is able to secure and can afford, he shall offer, the one for a sin offering, the other for a burnt offering with a food offering.<sup>r</sup> So the priest shall make atonement for the one to be cleansed in the presence of the LORD. <sup>32</sup>This is the law for one who suffered from leprosy, who cannot afford the regular cleansing process.

<sup>33</sup>The LORD said to Moses and to Aaron: <sup>34</sup>When you enter the land of Canaan, which I give you for a possession, and I put leprosy infection in a house in the land you possess, <sup>35</sup>then the owner of the house must come <sup>p</sup>) Not the sacred priestly oil but olive oil dedicated for this service was being used, to dedicate this renewed life.

<sup>q</sup>) Both oil and blood were applied at this juncture. The healed man must not readily forget this blessed experience. Impressive ministrations have their place in our Christian fellowship, if performed reverently with God in view.

<sup>r</sup>) The food offering resembles to some degree our Communion Service. The LORD is the real Host, and ties of friendship are felt if he who offers is sincere and understands the meaning. Often a peace offering, which always implies gratitude, follows it; but the food offerings also indicate peace.

and report to the priest. "In my house something like a plague is showing up." <sup>36</sup>The priest shall then give orders to empty the house before the priest goes to examine the house, so that not everything in the house is declared unclean; thereafter the priest shall go to inspect the house; <sup>37</sup>He shall examine the infection. If it shows that the infection in the walls of the house is in greenish, or reddish cavities that penetrate the walls, <sup>38</sup>then the priest shall go out to the door of the house and lock the door for seven days. <sup>39</sup>On the seventh day the priest shall come back and observe if the infection has spread, <sup>40</sup>the priest shall order to remove the infected stones and they shall throw them outside the city in an unclean place. <sup>41</sup>He shall also have the inside of the house scraped all around and the plaster they have scraped off they shall put down<sup>s</sup> in an unclean place outside the city. <sup>42</sup>They shall take other stones to set in the places of the former stones and he shall get other mortar to plaster the house.

<sup>43</sup>In case the infection breaks out anew in the house after he has removed the stones and has scraped and plastered it, <sup>44</sup> the priest shall go and make examination. If the infection has spread in the house, then it is a malignant plague in the house; it is unclean. <sup>45</sup>They must pull down the house, its stones, its timber and all the mortar of the house and convey it to an unclean place outside the city. <sup>46</sup>Anyone who enters the house while it is closed up shall be unclean until evening. <sup>47</sup>Whoever lies down in the house shall wash his clothes and whoever eats in the house shall wash his clothes.<sup>t</sup> priest shall pronounce the house clean, because the plague is healed. <sup>49</sup>For the purifying of the house he shall take two birds, cedar wood, a scarlet string with hyssop, <sup>50</sup>and kill one bird in an earthen vessel over running water. <sup>51</sup>He shall then take the cedar wood, the hyssop with the scarlet string and the living bird and dip them in the blood of the killed bird—also in the living water and sprinkle the house seven times. <sup>52</sup>He shall purify the house with the bird's blood, with the living water and with the living bird, the cedar wood, the scarlet string and the hyssop. <sup>53</sup>He shall release the living bird in the open field and shall make atonement for the house; it shall be clean.

<sup>48</sup>However, if the priest comes, makes examination and finds that the plague has not spread inside the house after the house was plastered, then the

<sup>54</sup>This is the law for all sorts of leprous infection, for eruptions <sup>55</sup>and for leprosy of garment and house, for a swelling, <sup>56</sup>for an eruption and for a pale spot, <sup>57</sup>to indicate when it is unclean and when it is clean. This is the law of leprosy.

15 THE LORD SAID TO MOSES AND to Aaron: <sup>2</sup>Speak to the children of Israel; tell them: When any person has a discharge from his body, his discharge is unclean.<sup>u</sup> <sup>3</sup>This is the situation regarding his uncleanness from the discharge; whether his body lets the issue flow or whether his body stops the flowing, it is his uncleanness. <sup>4</sup>Every couch on which the person with the discharge reclines shall be unclean and every object on which he sits shall be unclean. <sup>5</sup>Everyone who contacts his couch shall wash his clothes, take a water bath and be unclean till evening. <sup>6</sup>So he, who sits on an object on which he sat who has the issue, shall wash his clothes, take a water bath and be unclean till evening. <sup>7</sup>Whoever contacts the body of the one with the flowing shall wash his clothes, take a water

s) Today we know that many diseases are due to bacteria. This was, of course, known to God, who ordered measures taken to eliminate infection through clothes and dwellings. Slums are not in harmony with His city planning.

t) To us the idea of an infected house seems even more odd than that of infected clothes; but what about our slums and our poor tenements? Are they wholesome breeding places? No patching suffices; there is need of tearing down and building afresh. So are used clothes, uncleaned, dangerous for the next wearer. There is a basis for the adage, "Cleanliness is next to godliness."

u) The discharge that renders one unclean seems to concern the reproductive organs. Pus may come from a boil, or matter from a festering wound, but that does not come under the unclean category. The springs of life are concerned. Adam and Eve covered those organs with fig leaves after they had sinned; innocence had turned to shame.

bath and be unclean until evening. <sup>8</sup>In case the one with the flowing spits upon a clean person, that one must wash his clothes, take a water bath and be unclean till evening. <sup>9</sup>Any saddle too on which he sits who has the issue is unclean. <sup>10</sup>So every one who touches what was under him shall be unclean until evening and he who picks it up shall wash his clothes, take a water bath and be unclean till evening. <sup>11</sup>Anyone whom the one with the discharge touches without having his hands rinsed in water must wash his clothes, take a bath and be unclean till evening. <sup>12</sup>The pottery that he with the issue touches must be broken and every wooden vessel rinsed with water.

<sup>13</sup>When he who has the flowing is cleansed from his discharge, then he shall count seven days for his purification. He shall wash his clothes, bathe his body in running water and shall be clean. <sup>14</sup>On the eighth day he shall get two turtle doves or two young pigeons, bring them to the entrance of the tabernacle before the LORD and present them to the priest. <sup>15</sup>The priest shall offer them, the one for a sin offering, the other as a burnt offering, and the priest shall make atonement for him in the presence of the LORD on account of his discharge.

<sup>16</sup>When a man has an emission of sperm, he shall take a complete bodily water bath and be unclean until evening. <sup>17</sup>Every garment and all leather on which sperm settled shall be washed in water and be unclean until evening. <sup>18</sup>The woman and the man who has lain with her, if sperm is spilled, shall both take a water bath and be unclean until evening.<sup>v</sup>

<sup>19</sup>When a woman has a discharge, a flowing of blood of the body, then she shall be in separation for seven days. Whoever touches her shall be unclean till evening. <sup>20</sup>Everything on which she lies during her uncleanness shall be unclean and everything on which she sits is unclean. <sup>21</sup>Whoever contacts her couch shall wash his clothes, take a water bath and be unclean till evening. <sup>22</sup>Whoever touches any article on which she sat shall be unclean till evening. <sup>23</sup>If he touches anything on her bed or on the seat she occupied, he shall be unclean till evening. <sup>24</sup>If a man lies beside her so that her menstruation comes on him, then for seven days he shall be unclean and so shall every couch on which he lies be unclean.

<sup>25</sup>If a woman has a flowing of her blood not connected with her menstrual period, or if she has bloody discharge beyond her menstruation, then during all the time of her discharge she shall remain as in her period of uncleanness; she is unclean. <sup>26</sup>Every couch on which she lies during all the days of her flux shall be to her as the couch of her menstruation and every object on which she sits shall be unclean like the uncleanness of her separation. <sup>27</sup>All who touch those things that are unclean shall take a water bath and be unclean until evening.<sup>w</sup>

<sup>28</sup>When she is cleansed of her issue then she shall count seven more days and after that she is clean. <sup>29</sup>She shall get two turtle doves or two young pigeons and shall bring them to the priest at the entrance of the meeting tent. <sup>30</sup>The priest shall offer the one for a sin offering and the other for a burnt offering; thus the priest shall make atonement for her before the LORD on account of the unclean issue.

<sup>31</sup>In this way you will purify the Israelites from their impurities so they may not die in their uncleanness by defiling My Dwelling which is among them. <sup>32</sup>This is the law for him who has a discharge and for him who has an emission of sperm that renders him unclean; <sup>33</sup>also for her who suffers from her menstruation and for anyone, <sup>v</sup>) These rules entered vitally into the ways and plans of men and even more into those of women. The incident of Mark 5:25-34, where Jesus healed a woman who for twelve years had been isolated, remains impressive. The normal woman, however, enjoyed through these regulations periodic rest. <sup>w</sup>) The Hebrews were blessed with distinct revelations from God, the Holy One, whom alone they were to worship. Moral impurity separates the worshiper from the LORD. Physical impurity is not sin, but neither does it come in the category of holiness; it is typical of sin. The worshiper must never forget with whom he has to do; therefore the required sacrifices for purification.

male or female, who experiences discharges and for the man who lies with an unclean woman.

16 AFTER THE DEATH OF THE TWO sons of Aaron when they had approached the presence of the LORD and died, <sup>2</sup>the LORD said to Moses: Tell your brother Aaron that he must not just any time enter the holy place inside the veil that fronts the mercy seat upon the Ark, lest he die; for in the cloud I manifest Myself above the mercy seat. <sup>3</sup>Only this way shall Aaron enter the holy place: with a young bullock for a sin offering and a ram for a burnt offering. <sup>4</sup>He shall put on the sacred linen tunic and on his loins the linen trunks; he shall gird himself with the linen sash and wear the linen turban. These are the sacred garments he shall put on after bathing his body in water. <sup>5</sup>From the congregation of the Israelites he shall get two he-goats for a sin offering and one ram for a burnt offering.

<sup>6</sup>Aaron shall bring the young bull as a sin offering for himself and shall make atonement for himself and for his household.<sup>x</sup> <sup>7</sup>He shall take the two he-goats and set them before the LORD at the entrance of the Dwelling <sup>8</sup>and Aaron shall cast lots over the two goats, one lot for the LORD and the other for Azazel.<sup>y</sup> <sup>9</sup>Aaron shall bring the goat on which the lot for the LORD fell and shall prepare it for a sin offering; <sup>10</sup>but the goat on which the lot for Azazel fell, shall be presented alive before the LORD to make atonement with it by sending it for a scapegoat into the desert.

<sup>11</sup>Aaron shall bring the bullock as a sin offering for himself to make atonement for himself and for his household; he shall slay the young bull for himself as a sin offering. <sup>12</sup>He shall then take a censer full of burning coals from the altar before the LORD, shall fill his hands with finely ground, fragrant incense, take it inside the veil <sup>13</sup>and place the incense on the fire before the LORD<sup>z</sup> so that the incense cloud covers the mercy seat on the Ark, lest he die. <sup>14</sup>He shall take of the blood of the bullock and sprinkle it with his finger on the east part of the mercy seat and seven times he shall sprinkle the blood with his finger in front of the mercy seat. <sup>15</sup>He shall then slaughter the he-goat of the sin offering on behalf of the people, bring the blood inside the veil and do with the blood as he did with the blood of the bullock; he shall sprinkle it upon the mercy seat and in front of the mercy seat. <sup>16</sup>Thus he shall make the atonement for the holy place because of the uncleanness of the Israelites, all their sinful transgressions. He shall do the same for the Dwelling, which stays with them in the midst of their impurities. <sup>17</sup>Not a person shall be in the Dwelling, when he enters to make atonement in the holy place, until he comes out and has made atonement for himself, for his own household and for the whole congregation of Israel. <sup>18</sup>He shall then go out to the altar that stands before the LORD, shall make atonement for it and take of the bullock's blood, also of the goat's blood and apply it to the horns of the altar all around. <sup>19</sup>He shall also sprinkle upon it of the blood with his finger seven times to cleanse and sanctify it for the uncleanness of the Israelites.<sup>a</sup>

<sup>20</sup>When he has completed the atoning of the holy place and of the tabernacle then he shall bring the living goat <sup>21</sup>and Aaron shall lay both his hands on the head of the live goat and confess over it all the iniquities of the Israelites, all their transgressions and all their sins; he shall lay them upon the head of the goat and send it away into the desert by a man at hand. <sup>22</sup>The goat shall carry away upon itself all

<sup>x</sup>) At all other occasions the sons of the high priest assist him, but on Atonement Day he alone conducts the service after taking care of atonement for himself. As high priest he typifies Christ, who "has trodden the winepress alone."

<sup>y</sup>) The name Azazel is derived from Azazel (dismissed one) thus properly thought of as the scapegoat. <sup>z</sup>) The incense altar, standing outside the veil, belonged to the Holy of Holies, but could not stand inside it because incense was offered on it daily. On the Atonement Day the high priest took the burning incense in his censer behind the veil into the Holy of Holies.

<sup>a</sup>) Atonement Day is annually celebrated by Orthodox and Reformed Jews as Yom Kippur, and outsiders may attend, separated from the congregation. It is a three-hour service, every moment of it impressive.

their iniquities to a desolate region and in the desert he shall let the he-goat go free.<sup>b</sup>

<sup>23</sup>Aaron shall then enter the meeting tent, take off his linen garments which he had put on when he went to the Holy Place<sup>c</sup> and shall leave them there. <sup>24</sup>He shall wash his body with water in the sanctuary, put on his clothes, come out and offer his burnt offering and the burnt offering of the people; he shall make atonement for himself and for the people. <sup>25</sup>The fat of the sin offering he shall burn as incense on the altar. <sup>26</sup>The one who let the goat go as scapegoat shall wash his clothes and bathe his body in water, after which he may enter the camp. <sup>27</sup>The bullock of the sin offering and the he-goat of the sin offering, whose blood was brought into the holy place to make atonement, they shall carry outside the camp; they shall consume with fire their hides, their flesh and their dung. <sup>28</sup>Whoever cremates them shall wash his clothes and bathe his body in water, after which he may enter the camp.

<sup>29</sup>This shall be an everlasting ordinance to you, that in the seventh month on the tenth of the month you shall humble yourselves, do no work whatever, neither the native nor the foreigner who lives among you, <sup>30</sup>because on that day atonement shall be made for you to cleanse you. You will be cleansed from all your sins in the presence of the LORD. <sup>31</sup>It shall be a Sabbath of complete rest for you; you shall humble your souls. This is an everlasting ordinance. <sup>32</sup>The anointed priest, who has been consecrated priest to succeed his father, shall make atonement. He shall put on the linen garments, the sacred garments. <sup>33</sup>He shall make atonement for the Holy of Holies, for the tabernacle and for the altar; he shall make atonement for the priests and for all the people of the congregation. <sup>34</sup>This shall be an everlasting ordinance for you so that atonement will be made for the children of Israel for all their sins once a year. And what the LORD commanded Moses did.<sup>d</sup>

17 THE LORD SAID TO MOSES: <sup>2</sup>Tell Aaron, his sons and all the Israelites; say to them: This is what the LORD commanded: <sup>3</sup>Every man of the house of Israel who butchers a bullock, a sheep, or a goat in the camp, or who butchers it outside the camp, <sup>4</sup>who does not bring it to the entrance of the meeting tent to offer it as a gift to the LORD, that man shall be counted guilty of bloodshed; he has spilled blood. The man shall be eliminated from among his people, <sup>5</sup>in order that Israelites may bring their sacrifices which they butcher in the open field to the LORD at the entrance of the meeting tent, to the priest to offer them to the LORD as peace offerings. <sup>6</sup>The priest shall sprinkle the blood on the LORD's altar at the entrance of the meeting tent and burn the fat for a pleasing fragrance to the LORD. <sup>7</sup>They shall no longer present their offerings to field spirits whom they are adulterously courting.<sup>e</sup>

<sup>8</sup>Tell them: Every man of the house of Israel or any stranger who lives among you, who offers a burnt offering or a sacrifice <sup>9</sup>and does not come to the entrance of the meeting tent to present it to the LORD, that man shall be eliminated from his people. <sup>10</sup>And every man of the house of Israel and every immigrant who stays among you, who eats any blood, I will set My face against the person who eats the blood and will eliminate him from among My people, <sup>11</sup>because the life of a living creature is in the blood and I have given it to you upon the altar to make atonement for your souls; for the blood

b) The slain goat typified our Savior as suffering for us; the dismissed goat typified Him as bearing away our sins, which was made possible by His dying for us.

c) Usually, "the holy place" means the first and larger room or the whole tabernacle; but here it means the Holy of Holies which, behind the veil contained the Ark of the Covenant.

d) Many Hebrews fancied that the animal they brought so took their place that they needed not to surrender themselves to God; but God did want them, and their sacrificed animals should be the tokens of their self-surrender.

e) The whole Hebrew nation had been married to Jehovah [Deut. 4:13,23] at Sinai, and again [Deut. 29:1], a new generation on the plains of Moab.

through the life in it serves for expiation. <sup>12</sup>I have therefore said to the Israelites, None of you shall eat blood, neither shall any alien who stays among you eat blood. <sup>13</sup>Every man of the Israelites or of strangers who settle among you, who catches any game or fowl that may be eaten, shall pour out its blood and cover it with earth, <sup>14</sup>for blood is the life of every creature. I therefore told the Israelites, eat no blood of any living thing; the life of every creature is its blood.<sup>f</sup> Whoever eats it shall be eliminated. <sup>15</sup>And every person who eats what died of itself or what was torn to death, be he a native or a foreigner, shall wash his clothes, take a water bath and be unclean until evening. Then he shall be clean. <sup>16</sup>If he neither washes (his clothes) nor bathes his body, he shall be burdened with his iniquity.

18 <sup>1</sup>THE LORD SAID TO MOSES: <sup>2</sup>Tell the Israelites, say to them: I am the LORD your God.<sup>g</sup> <sup>3</sup>You shall not behave as they behaved in the land of Egypt where you lived, nor as they do in the land of Canaan where I am taking you; you will not follow their rules. <sup>4</sup>You will practice My regulations and observe My statutes and live them; I am the LORD your God. <sup>5</sup>Therefore keep My law and My ordinances; whoever practices them enjoys life through them. I am the LORD.

<sup>6</sup>None of you shall get close to any of his near of kin to expose her nakedness. I am the LORD. <sup>7</sup>The nakedness of your father, that is, the nakedness of your mother, you shall not expose. <sup>8</sup>The nakedness of your father's wife you shall not expose; it is your father's nakedness. <sup>9</sup>The nakedness of your sister, your father's daughter, or your mother's daughter, whether she is born at home or born elsewhere, her nakedness you shall not expose. <sup>10</sup>You must not expose the nakedness of your son's daughter or of your daughter's daughter; for it is your nakedness. <sup>11</sup>Do not expose the nakedness of your father's wife's daughter, born to your father; she is your sister; do not expose her. <sup>12</sup>Do not expose the nakedness of your father's sister; she is your father's near kin. <sup>13</sup>Do not expose the nakedness of your mother's sister; she is your mother's near kin. <sup>14</sup>Do not expose the nakedness of your father's brother; do not lie with his wife; she is your aunt. <sup>15</sup>Do not expose the nakedness of your daughter-in-law; she is your son's wife; do not expose her. <sup>16</sup>Do not expose the nakedness of your brother's wife; it is your brother's nakedness. <sup>17</sup>Do not expose the nakedness of both a woman and her daughter; neither take her son's daughter or her daughter's daughter to expose her; they are blood relatives. It is incest.<sup>h</sup>

<sup>18</sup>While your wife is still living do not take her sister for a rival to expose her nakedness. <sup>19</sup>Do not approach a woman to uncover her nakedness during her separation for uncleanness. <sup>20</sup>You shall not lie carnally with your neighbor's wife to defile yourself with her.

<sup>21</sup>Do not have your offspring pass through the fire to Molech; neither profane the name of your God. I am the LORD.

<sup>22</sup>Do not lie with a male as with a woman; it is detestable. <sup>23</sup>You shall lie with no animal whatever and defile yourself with it; neither shall a woman stand before an animal to commit lewdness with it; it is perversion. <sup>24</sup>Do not defile yourselves in any of these ways, for by all these practices the nations whom I am driving out before you are defiled. <sup>25</sup>The land became unclean and I brought down its iniquities upon it so that the land threw up its inhabitants. <sup>26</sup>But you shall observe My laws and My regulations; you must not practice those abominations, neither the

f) The command to Noah for his family and for all future generations, Gen. 9:4, includes abstaining from eating of blood, which the Christian Council in Jerusalem enjoined, Acts 15:20,29, upon all Christians. The use of blood in the sacrifices strengthened its meaning.

g) Thrice in these five verses and often later God reminds them of His sovereign lordship and of His holiness, of which Israel had grown aware at Mt. Sinai.

h) Sexual purity is essential for health of body and soul. The Canaanites had by their sexual sins forfeited their rights to their country, and their excuse for living. The sins just enumerated were common to them.

native nor the foreigner who resides among you, <sup>27</sup>because all these abominations the men of the land practiced before you and they rendered the country unclean, <sup>28</sup>lest the land throw you out, too, when you defile it, as it disgorged the nation that preceded you. <sup>29</sup>For whoever commits any of these offenses, the persons who commit them shall be eliminated from among their people.<sup>1</sup> <sup>30</sup>You therefore observe My instructions so as to avoid what was practiced before you. Do not defile yourselves by them; I am the LORD, your God.

19 THE LORD SAID TO MOSES:

<sup>2</sup>Address the whole congregation of Israel and tell them: You must be holy because I the LORD your God am holy.<sup>1</sup> <sup>3</sup>Every one of you must have respect for his mother and his father and keep My Sabbaths; I am the LORD your God. <sup>4</sup>You must not turn to idols, nor make for yourselves molten gods. I am the LORD, your God.

<sup>5</sup>When you offer the LORD a peace offering, so offer it that you will be pleasing Him. <sup>6</sup>It shall be eaten on the day you offer it and on the next day. If anything remains till the third day, it must be burned with fire. <sup>7</sup>If nevertheless it is eaten on the third day, it is offensive, not acceptable. <sup>8</sup>The one who eats it shall be burdened with his sin, for he has rendered unclean what had been dedicated to the LORD. That person shall be eliminated from among his people.

<sup>9</sup>When you harvest the produce of your field, do not completely mow the edge of your field or gather the gleanings of your harvest. <sup>10</sup>Do not glean your vineyard bare or gather scattered grapes; leave them for the poor and for the stranger. I am the LORD your God.<sup>k</sup>

<sup>11</sup>Neither steal, nor cheat, nor lie to one another. <sup>12</sup>Do not deceitfully swear by My name and thus dishonor the name of God; I am the LORD.<sup>1</sup> <sup>13</sup>Neither use extortion toward your neighbor, nor rob him. Do not retain the hired man's wages with you till morning. <sup>14</sup>Do not curse the deaf or put obstruction before the blind; but revere your God; I am the LORD.

<sup>15</sup>Practice no unfairness in a court decision; you shall neither favor the poor nor show deference to the influential; judge your neighbor with fairness.<sup>m</sup> <sup>16</sup>You must not go around among your people as a gossip or take your stand against your neighbor's life; I am the LORD. <sup>17</sup>Do not in your heart hate your brother; yet correct your fellow man lest you incur sin on his account. <sup>18</sup>Do not avenge yourself or bear a grudge against the children of your people, but love your neighbor as yourself.<sup>n</sup> I am the LORD.

<sup>19</sup>Observe My laws. Do not have your cattle breed with a different kind. Do not sow seed of two kinds in the same field, nor wear a garment made of two kinds of material.

<sup>20</sup>If a man cohabits with a slave girl, who is betrothed to a husband, but neither ransomed nor redeemed, a court inquiry shall be conducted. They shall not be executed, because she was not free; <sup>21</sup>and he shall bring his trespass offering before the LORD at the entrance of the meeting tent, a trespass offering ram.<sup>o</sup> <sup>22</sup>The priest shall make atonement for him with the trespass offering ram before the LORD for the sin which he has committed, and the sin he has committed will be forgiven him.

<sup>23</sup>When you come into the land and have planted all kinds of fruit trees, then you must consider their fruit inedible for you. For three years it shall be inedible for you; you shall not eat

i) As a malignant tumor must be removed to save the body, so must the habitually unchaste be eliminated from the community. Joshua and his warriors were to free the land from iniquity for servants of the holy God.

j) The holiness of God is the basis and the goal of all lofty endeavor. Jesus put it [Matt. 5:48], "You are to be perfect as your Father in heaven is perfect."

k) God never forgets the poor and the foreigner; widow and orphan, too, are remembered.

l) Practice of deceit thwarts personality; it is a kind of suicide.

m) Addressed to the court and judges of the people. n) As Jesus puts it [Matt. 22:39].

o) The slave girl, too, had rights, but her position made exercise of them difficult. The man had to seek atonement.

it.<sup>p</sup> <sup>24</sup>In the fourth year all the fruit shall be dedicated, a praise offering to the LORD. <sup>25</sup>But in the fifth year you may eat of its fruit, so that its produce may enrich you. I am the LORD your God.

<sup>26</sup>Eat nothing that contains the blood. Make use of neither fortune telling nor witchcraft practice. <sup>27</sup>Do not clip the corners of the hair on your head, nor rut the edge of your beard.<sup>q</sup> <sup>28</sup>There must be no cutting into your flesh for the dead, or tattoo marks on you. I am the LORD.<sup>r</sup>

<sup>29</sup>Do not defile your daughter by making her a prostitute, lest the land be licentious and the country thoroughly wicked.<sup>s</sup> <sup>30</sup>Observe My Sabbaths and revere My sanctuary.<sup>t</sup> I am the LORD. <sup>31</sup>Do not turn to mediums and seek no wizards to defile yourselves by them. I am the LORD your God.<sup>u</sup> <sup>32</sup>Stand up before the gray-haired person; honor the face of the aged and revere your God. I am the LORD.

<sup>33</sup>When a stranger lives among you in your land, do not maltreat him; <sup>34</sup>the foreigner who lives among you shall be like a native among you. You shall love him as your own, because you were strangers in the land of Egypt. I am the LORD your God.<sup>v</sup>

<sup>35</sup>You shall practice no injustice in court, in measurements, in weights or in quantity; <sup>36</sup>you shall use honest scales, honest weights, an honest bushel and an honest gallon.<sup>w</sup> I am the LORD your God who brought you out of the land of Egypt. <sup>37</sup>Observe all My laws and all My ordinances and do them. I am the LORD.

20 THE LORD SAID TO MOSES: <sup>2</sup>Tell the children of Israel: Every Israelite and every foreigner who resides in Israel, who presents any of his offspring to Molech,<sup>x</sup> shall certainly be executed; the people of the land shall stone him. <sup>3</sup>I Myself will set My face against that man; I will eliminate him from among his people because he presented of his offspring to Molech, to the defilement of My sanctuary and the dishonor of My holy name. <sup>4</sup>If the people of the land close their eyes for the man who presents his offspring to Molech, without putting him to death, <sup>5</sup>then I will set My face against that man and against his family and I will eliminate both them and all who followed them in their harlotry after Molech; I will eliminate them from among their people.

<sup>6</sup>The person who turns to spirits and to wizards, harloting after them, against that person I will set My face and I will eliminate him from his people. <sup>7</sup>Set yourselves apart, therefore, and be holy, for I am the LORD your God. <sup>8</sup>Observe all My laws and practice them. I am the LORD who sets you apart.

<sup>9</sup>If there is anyone who curses his father or his mother,<sup>y</sup> he shall surely be executed; he has cursed his father or his mother; his bloodguilt rests upon him.

<sup>10</sup>If a man commits adultery with another's wife, adulterating with the wife of his neighbor, both the adulterer and the adulteress shall be put to death. <sup>11</sup>When a man cohabits with his father's wife, he exposes his father's nakedness; they shall both be executed; their bloodguilt is upon them. <sup>12</sup>When a man cohabits with his daughter-in-law, both shall be executed; they committed incest; their bloodguilt rests upon them.<sup>z</sup> <sup>13</sup>When a man lies with a male as with a woman, both have committed something perverse; they will certainly be put to death; their

p) For three years newly planted trees bear no well developed fruit. In the original Hebrew it is termed uncircumcised. The fourth crop is used to acknowledge God as the Owner.

q) Pagans cut hair of head and beard certain ways to honor their idols.

r) Pagans cut into their bodies to show grief.

s) Pagans placed daughteis in temples to serve the lusts of men.

t) LORD's Day observance is essential for true worship. u) God's revelation suffices.

v) Respect for age goes with reverence for God. w) Worship of God and dishonesty do not mix.

x) Molech, also named Moloch or Milcom or Malcom, meaning king or lord, was worshiped by the Ammonites, descendants of Lot. The acme of their worship was to throw children into the fire for Molech.

y) God pays more attention to words than we do, for words are expressive of the speaker, "The Word was God." The curser of father or mother was essentially their murderer.

z) Incest, here mentioned in various forms, is destructive to family life.

bloodguilt rests upon them.<sup>a</sup> <sup>14</sup>When a man takes a wife and her mother, too, it is incest; they shall be burned with fire, he and they so that no incest remains among you. <sup>15</sup>If a man lies with an animal, he shall unquestionably be executed and you shall kill the animal. <sup>16</sup>If a woman moves up to a beast to lie with it, you shall kill the woman and the beast; they must without fail be put to death; their bloodguilt rests upon them.<sup>b</sup> <sup>17</sup>If a man takes his sister, his father's daughter or the daughter of his mother and they cohabit, it is shameful; they shall be eliminated in the presence of their people. He has exposed his sister's nakedness; he shall bear his guilt. <sup>18</sup>If a man lies with a woman during her menstruation and cohabits with her, he has exposed her fountain and she has exposed the fountain of her blood; both shall be eliminated from among the people. <sup>19</sup>You shall not expose the nakedness of your mother's sister or of your father's sister, for that exposes a near relative; they shall bear their iniquity. <sup>20</sup>If a man cohabits with his uncle's wife, he has uncovered his uncle's nakedness; they shall suffer for their sins; they shall die childless. <sup>21</sup>If a man takes his brother's wife, it is incest; he has uncovered his brother's nakedness; they shall die childless.

<sup>22</sup>Observe well all My laws and all My ordinances and practice them, so that the land to which I bring you to live may not throw you up. <sup>23</sup>You must not behave in agreement with the customs of the nation which I expel ahead of you, for they have done all these things and I abhor them. <sup>24</sup>But to you in particular I have said: You shall inherit their soil and I will give it you to possess it, a land flowing with milk and honey. I am the Lord your God who has separated you from the other peoples.<sup>c</sup> <sup>25</sup>You therefore must distinguish between clean and unclean animals and between unclean and clean birds. Do not render yourselves offensive through beast or bird or whatever crawls on the ground, which I have separated as unclean to you. <sup>26</sup>You shall be holy to Me because I the Lord am holy and I separate you from the peoples to belong to Me. <sup>27</sup>A man or a woman who is a medium or a fortune teller shall certainly be put to death; they shall stone them; their bloodguilt rests upon them.

21 THE LORD SAID TO MOSES: Speak to the priests, the sons of Aaron and tell them: None of them must incur uncleanness on behalf of the dead among his people, <sup>2</sup>except for his nearest kin, for his mother, for his father, for his son, for his daughter, for his brother <sup>3</sup>and for his virgin sister, who without a husband is close to him; for her he may render himself unclean.<sup>d</sup> <sup>4</sup>As a family man he shall not render himself unclean among the people so as to profane himself. <sup>5</sup>They must by no means shave their heads or shave the edges of their beards or make cuttings in their bodies. <sup>6</sup>They shall be holy to the Lord their God and not desecrate the name of their God; for they bring the fire offerings of the Lord, their God's bread; they therefore shall be holy.

<sup>7</sup>They shall marry neither a prostitute nor a woman who has been violated, nor a woman put away by her husband, for the priest is set apart for his God.<sup>e</sup> <sup>8</sup>Set him apart, for he offers God's food. He is holy to you, for I the Lord am holy, who sanctifies you. <sup>9</sup>In case the daughter of a priest defiles herself by playing the harlot, she defiles her father; she shall be burned with fire.

<sup>10</sup>The high priest among his brothers, upon whose head the anointing oil has been poured and who has been consecrated so as to wear the garments,

a) Homosexuality was Sodom's fatal sin [Gen. 19:5] and was practiced also in Israel [Judg. 19:22] by Benjamites; but punished by all other tribes of Israel.

b) No incident is related of such sin in Israel, but verse 23 of this chapter gives it as a chief reason for the expulsion and extermination of the Canaanites.

c) God has in store for His people a more wholesome and joyous life.

d) An ordained minister of God has many privileges and duties peculiar to his sacred office; he does well to refrain from doing certain things a Christian layman may do. Our Lord did not rub ripe ears of wheat on the Sabbath as His disciples did [Matt. 12:1-8].

e) The minister's wife is the making or breaking of him. Fortunately the majority possess qualities at least equal to those of their husband.

shall not let his hair hang loose, nor tear his clothes. <sup>11</sup>He shall not get near a corpse or defile himself even for his father or for his mother. <sup>12</sup>He shall not leave the sanctuary or desecrate the holy place of his God; for upon him is the consecration of the anointing oil of his God. I am the LORD. <sup>13</sup>He shall take a virgin for wife; <sup>14</sup>he shall not marry a widow or a divorced woman, or one violated, or a prostitute, but he shall take to wife a virgin of his own people <sup>15</sup>so that he may not dishonor his offspring among the people,<sup>f</sup> for I am the LORD who sanctifies him.

<sup>16</sup>The LORD said to Moses: <sup>17</sup>Tell Aaron: Whoever among your offspring in successive generations has a physical blemish shall not come near to offer the food of his God; <sup>18</sup>for no one with a blemish shall draw near — no blind person, or lame, or of facial deformity, or with limbs too long <sup>19</sup>or with broken foot or hand, <sup>20</sup>or a hunchback, or a dwarf, or with defective eyesight, or with itch or skin trouble or with imperfect testicles. <sup>21</sup>No descendant of Aaron the priest with physical infirmity shall come near to offer the LORD's offerings with fire. He has a blemish, he shall not approach to offer the food of his God; <sup>22</sup>but he may eat both the holy and the most holy food.<sup>g</sup> <sup>23</sup>Only, he shall neither get near the veil nor approach the altar, for he has a blemish, so he may not profane My sanctuaries; for I am the LORD who sanctifies them.<sup>h</sup> <sup>24</sup>Thus Moses spoke to Aaron, to his sons and to all the children of Israel.

22 THE LORD SAID TO MOSES:

<sup>2</sup>Tell Aaron and his sons: In order not to desecrate My holy name, behave guardedly about the sacred gifts of the Israelites, which they dedicate to Me; I am the LORD. <sup>3</sup>Tell them,

Whoever of all your offspring in your generations takes care of the sacred gifts which the Israelites dedicate to the LORD, while uncleanness is upon him, that person shall be removed from My presence. I am the LORD. <sup>4</sup>Not a single one of Aaron's offspring, who is a leper, or has a discharge shall eat of the sacred things till he is clean. Similarly one who contacts what is rendered unclean by a corpse; or one who has an emission; <sup>5</sup>or one who touches a creeping creature that renders him unclean, or contacts a person who defiles him because he has some kind of uncleanness; <sup>6</sup>or who contacts something of this kind shall remain unclean until evening; he shall not eat of the sacred gifts unless he washes his body with water. <sup>7</sup>At sunset he shall be clean and afterward he may eat of the sacred gifts because it is his nourishment. <sup>8</sup>What naturally dies or is torn, he must not eat to his defilement; I am the LORD. <sup>9</sup>They shall observe My ordinance, lest they load themselves with sin by profaning it and die from desecrating it. I am the LORD who sets them apart.

<sup>10</sup>No one unqualified shall eat of anything sacred.<sup>i</sup> One living with the priest, or his hired man, shall not eat what is holy; <sup>11</sup>but a person whom the priest buys for his money may eat of it. Also those born in his house may eat of his food. <sup>12</sup>But a priest's daughter who is married to a layman shall not eat of what is set apart as a sacred offering. <sup>13</sup>However, when a priest's daughter has become a widow or has been divorced and is childless and has returned to her father's house as in her youth, she may eat of her father's food; but no outsider shall eat of it. <sup>14</sup>If ignorantly anyone eats something sacred, then he must repay it to the priest, adding one fifth of the amount of the holy food. <sup>15</sup>They<sup>j</sup> must not

f) Certainly an Israelite; preferably of Aaronic ancestry. Elizabeth was "of Aaron's daughters"; she also was a cousin of Mary, Luke 1:5,36.

g) Anything like complete performance of the priestly functions, required as does the ministry today, a healthy body, a clear mind, a sympathetic heart and a consecrated will — an extraordinary person spiritually endued.

h) Forever the marvel remains that God, the HOLY ONE was and is willing to make use of humans for His service. Only the Holy Spirit can bring about the requisite ability and the humble inclination.

i) This guarding of holy edibles is carried over in the celebration of The Lord's Supper, of which only those who humbly seek cleansing from sin and whose desire is to serve the LORD may partake.

j) The priests. Only our best, coming from a grateful, willing heart, is acceptable to God; it made the widow's mite [Mk. 12:42-44] so worthy of attention.

desecrate the holy gifts of the Israelites, which they shall set apart to the LORD, <sup>16</sup>lest they burden those who eat their holy things with the sin of their transgression, for I the LORD sanctify them.

<sup>17</sup>The LORD said to Moses: <sup>18</sup>Speak to Aaron, to his sons and to all the children of Israel and tell them: Whoever of the house of Israel and of the foreigners in Israel brings any offering in agreement with all their vows and free will offerings, which they offer to the LORD as a burnt offering, <sup>19</sup>shall offer it of his own free will, a sound male of the cattle, of the sheep or of the goats. <sup>20</sup>Whatever has a blemish you shall not offer; it would not render you acceptable. <sup>21</sup>Whoever offers a peace offering sacrifice to the LORD to fulfil a vow or for a freewill offering from herd or flock, it must be flawless to be pleasing; there must be no blemish in it. <sup>22</sup>Never offer the LORD what is blind, or fractured or maimed or with infected sores or itch or skin disease; of them make no offering by fire on the altar to the LORD. <sup>23</sup>For a freewill offering you may present a bullock or a lamb with members overgrown or shrunk, but for a vow it will not be satisfactory. <sup>24</sup>Nor shall you offer the LORD what has been damaged by bruising, by crushing, by fracturing or by cutting; make of them no sacrifice within your borders. <sup>25</sup>Neither shall you offer as food to your God any such as came from a foreigner's hand, for they are defective; they are mutilated; they will not render you pleasing.

<sup>26</sup>The LORD said to Moses: <sup>27</sup>When a bullock or a sheep or a goat is born, it shall remain with its dam for seven days, but from the eighth day on it shall be acceptable as a burnt offering to the LORD, <sup>28</sup>But do not slaughter a cow or a ewe and her young on the same day.<sup>k</sup> <sup>29</sup>When you offer the LORD

a sacrifice of thanksgiving, let it be pleasing. <sup>30</sup>It shall be eaten on that same day; leave nothing of it until morning. I am the LORD.

<sup>31</sup>Heartily accept My commandments and practice them; I am the LORD. <sup>32</sup>Do not desecrate My holy name; I will be revered in the midst of the children of Israel. I am the LORD who makes you holy; <sup>33</sup>who had you leave the land of Egypt to be God to you. I am the LORD.

23 THE LORD SAID TO MOSES: <sup>2</sup>Tell the Israelites: The appointed feasts of the LORD which you shall proclaim as holy convocations — my appointed feasts — are these: <sup>3</sup>For six days labor may be performed, but the seventh day is a Sabbath of complete rest, a holy convocation when you do no work at all. It is a Sabbath to the LORD in all your dwellings.<sup>1</sup> <sup>4</sup>These are the LORD's appointed feasts, the sacred convocations which you shall broadcast at their appointed times. <sup>5</sup>On the fourteenth of the first month in the evening begins the LORD's Passover. <sup>6</sup>On the fifteenth of the same month is the feast of unleavened bread to the LORD; for seven days you shall eat unleavened bread. <sup>7</sup>On the first day you shall have a sacred gathering. Perform no strenuous labor,<sup>8</sup> but for seven days present fire offerings to the LORD. On the seventh day hold a holy convocation; do no hard work.

<sup>9</sup>The LORD said to Moses: <sup>10</sup>Tell the Israelites: When you have come into the land which I give you and you harvest its crop, bring the first sheaf of your harvest to the priest,<sup>m</sup> <sup>11</sup>who shall wave the sheaf before the LORD to render you acceptable. On the morning after the Sabbath the priest shall wave it <sup>12</sup>and on the day of waving the sheaf you shall offer a flawless yearling he-lamb for a burnt offering to the LORD. <sup>13</sup>The accompanying food offer-

k) To do so would tend toward cruelty, not so much to the animals concerned as within the heart of the owner. God would train His sons and daughters in gentleness.

l) The seventh day stands first among God's appointments. Rich and poor alike shall enjoy rest, with none to rule them but God, not merely thrice a year but every week.

m) Each of the three feasts was related to their crops, even the Passover that had been established to commemorate their exodus from Egypt, for it also was their feast of unleavened bread. At the first feast the first sheaf of grain was waved before the LORD. At Pentecost, fifty days later, loaves baked from the harvests were waved before the LORD. The feast of tabernacles was a week of thanksgiving, with all harvests gathered in, and it commemorated the desert years of their fathers.

ing shall be a fifth of a bushel of fine flour mixed with oil — a fire offering, a pleasing fragrance to the LORD; also with it a drink offering, three pints of wine. <sup>14</sup>Until the very day when you have brought an offering to your God, you shall eat neither bread, nor parched nor fresh grain. This shall be an ordinance for your successive generations in all your dwellings.

<sup>15</sup>Count for yourselves from the morning after the Sabbath, from the day when you brought the sheaf of the wave offering, seven full weeks; <sup>16</sup>until the morning after the seventh Sabbath you will count fifty days and bring a new cereal offering to the LORD. <sup>17</sup>Bring along from your homes two loaves to be waved, made from a fifth bushel of fine flour; they shall be baked with leaven, the firstfruits to the LORD. <sup>18</sup>With the bread offer seven flawless yearling lambs, one young bull and two rams to be a burnt offering to the LORD with their food offering and their drink offering — a fire offering, a pleasing fragrance to the LORD. <sup>19</sup>You shall then sacrifice one he-goat for a sin offering and two yearling lambs for a peace offering. <sup>20</sup>The priest shall wave them with the bread of the firstfruits as a wave offering before the LORD, with the two lambs; they shall be holy to the LORD for the priest. <sup>21</sup>On that same day you shall broadcast a call; you will conduct a holy gathering; you shall do no strenuous work whatever.<sup>n</sup> It is an everlasting ordinance in all your dwellings through your successive generations.

<sup>22</sup>When you harvest the crop of your land neither mow to the very edges of your field nor glean what has been dropped in harvesting; leave it for the poor and for the foreigner. I am the LORD your God.<sup>o</sup>

<sup>23</sup>The LORD said to Moses, <sup>24</sup>Tell the Israelites: In the seventh month,<sup>p</sup> on the first day of the month enjoy a day of complete rest, a memorial day, announced by the blowing of trumpets, a sacred convocation. <sup>25</sup>You will do no hard work and will offer a fire offering to the LORD.

<sup>26</sup>The LORD said to Moses: <sup>27</sup>The tenth day of the seventh month shall be the Day of Atonement; you will hold a holy meeting. You will humble yourselves and present a fire offering to the LORD.<sup>q</sup> <sup>28</sup>On the same day you shall do no work of any kind, because it is Atonement Day, to make atonement for you in the presence of the LORD your God; <sup>29</sup>for whoever does not humble himself on this particular day, that person shall be eliminated from among his people. <sup>30</sup>Anyone who does work of any kind on this same day, that person I shall destroy from the midst of his people. <sup>31</sup>You shall do no work whatever; it is an everlasting ordinance throughout your generations in all your dwellings.<sup>r</sup> <sup>32</sup>It shall be for you a perfect Sabbath. You will humble your souls on the ninth of the month at eventide; from one evening to the next you will celebrate your Sabbath.

<sup>33</sup>The LORD said to Moses: <sup>34</sup>Tell the Israelites: On the fifteenth of this seventh month, the feast of booths to the LORD begins, lasting seven days, <sup>35</sup>with a holy convocation on the first day; you will do no strenuous work. <sup>36</sup>For seven days you will present your offerings by fire to the LORD and on the eighth day you shall have a sacred gathering and bring the LORD a fire offering. It is a festive gathering; you shall do no hard work. <sup>37</sup>These are the LORD's appointed festivals, which you shall publish as holy gatherings to present sacrifices by fire to the LORD — burnt offerings, food offerings, sacrifices and drink offerings, each according to the day's program <sup>38</sup>in addition to the LORD's Sabbaths and your gifts, all your votive offerings and your free-

n) Throughout sacred history the LORD has practiced and has ordered making known; the prophets published His messages; Christ commissioned His disciples to be witnesses. We call it advertising, a vital element in evangelization.

o) In the midst of worship suggestions God remembers the poor and the immigrant.

p) Named Ethanim (Incessant Rains). It corresponds to our late September and much of October.

q) Humility is indispensable in devotions, as our LORD points out [Luke 18:9-14] in the Pharisee and tax collector parable.

r) One reason for resting, bodily relaxation; another, time for worship; a third, centering of thought on God as Redeemer, Friend and Sovereign, as they could not so concentrate while working.

will offerings which you will give the LORD.

<sup>39</sup>On the fifteenth of the seventh month, when you are bringing in the produce of your field, you shall celebrate a feast to the LORD lasting seven days, a Sabbath on the first day and a Sabbath on the eighth day. <sup>40</sup>On the first day bring the produce of splendid trees, palm branches, twigs of leafy trees and water willows.<sup>a</sup> You will be glad in the presence of the LORD your God for seven days. <sup>41</sup>You will observe it as a festival to the LORD your God annually for seven days; it is an ordinance forever through all your generations; observe it in the seventh month. <sup>42</sup>For seven days you shall live in booths; all native Israelites shall live in booths <sup>43</sup>in order that your generation may know that I made the children of Israel live in booths when I brought them out of the land of Egypt. I am the LORD your God. <sup>44</sup>In this way Moses acquainted the Israelites with the appointed festivals of the LORD.

24 <sup>1</sup>THE LORD SAID TO MOSES: <sup>2</sup>Order the Israelites to bring you pure oil from crushed olives for the lamp to keep the light continually burning. <sup>3</sup>Outside the veil of the Testimony in the meeting tent Aaron shall keep it continually supplied from evening till morning before the LORD; it shall be an everlasting regulation throughout your generations. <sup>4</sup>He shall continually supply the lamps upon the lampstand of pure gold before the LORD.<sup>b</sup>

<sup>5</sup>You will take fine flour and bake it into twelve loaves, each loaf prepared from the fifth of a bushel. <sup>6</sup>You will place them in two rows, six in each row on the table of pure gold before the LORD. <sup>7</sup>You will lay pure frankincense on each row to go with the bread<sup>c</sup> as a memorial, as an offering to the LORD by fire. <sup>8</sup>Regularly each Sabbath day he<sup>v</sup> shall arrange it anew before the LORD, an everlasting covenant on the part of the Israelites. <sup>9</sup>It shall be for Aaron and his sons; they shall eat it in a holy place, because to him it is most holy of the LORD's offerings made by fire, due to Him forever.

<sup>10</sup>Now the son of an Israelite woman, whose father was an Egyptian among the Israelites, went out and this son of an Israelite woman and an Israelite quarreled in the camp. <sup>11</sup>The son of the Israelitish woman blasphemed the Name and cursed; so they brought him to Moses. His mother's name was Shelomith, daughter of Dibri of the tribe of Dan. <sup>12</sup>They put him in custody awaiting revelation of the LORD's will. <sup>13</sup>The LORD then said to Moses: <sup>14</sup>Take the blasphemer out of the camp; have all who heard him lay their hands upon his head and the whole congregation shall stone him. <sup>15</sup>To the Israelites you shall say, Whoever curses his God shall be burdened by his load of sin <sup>16</sup>and whoever blasphemes the Name shall certainly be put to death. The whole congregation shall stone him, the stranger as well as the native, in case he blasphemes the Name.<sup>w</sup>

<sup>17</sup>Whoever wounds a person fatally shall be executed; <sup>18</sup>but he who wounds livestock shall compensate, a life for a life. <sup>19</sup>When a man hurts his neighbor physically, then as he has done so shall it be done to him, <sup>20</sup>fracture for fracture, eye for eye, tooth for tooth; with the hurt that he has done to a man he shall be hurt. <sup>21</sup>Whoever kills an animal shall refund it and whoever kills a man shall be executed. <sup>22</sup>I have an identical law for foreigner and native, for I am the LORD your God.<sup>x</sup> <sup>23</sup>Moses so spoke to the Israelites; they took the blasphemer outside the camp and stoned him. The chil-

s) Of such branches booths were constructed and to a measure the desert journeys were relived, as our national and religious holidays may, with God in view, become holy days.

t) The lamps were typical of God's revelation through the ages and prophetic of Christ, the Light of the world.

u) The showbread stood for man's acknowledgment of God's care and of communion with Him, made perfect in Christ, the Bread of Life. v) The officiating priest.

w) The man, half Egyptian and half Hebrew, obviously not well trained in Hebrew lore and worship, had spoken the Name insultingly. The Rabbis, when copying the Sacred Writings, put Adonai instead of Jehovah to guard against further abuse of the Name, and so read it in the Services.

x) This law is still in force in our courts and justly; but should not be applied to private relationships.

dren of Israel did as the LORD had commanded Moses.

25 THE LORD SAID TO MOSES on Mount Sinai: <sup>2</sup>Speak to the Israelites, and tell them: When you come into the land which I give you, then the land shall have a Sabbath rest to the LORD. <sup>3</sup>Six years you will sow your acreage; six years you will prune your vineyard and gather in the produce, <sup>4</sup>but in the seventh year there shall be a restful Sabbath for the land, a rest toward the LORD: you shall neither sow your field nor prune your vineyard.<sup>5</sup> <sup>5</sup>The volunteer growth of your crop you shall not harvest; the grapes of your unpruned vines you must not gather; it will be a year of rest for the land. <sup>6</sup>The Sabbath produce of the land shall be your nourishment, for you, for your male and female servants, for your hired hands and for the stranger with you. <sup>7</sup>For your livestock and for the wild beasts in your land all the produce shall be food.<sup>4</sup>

<sup>8</sup>You shall count seven weeks of years for you, seven times seven years; the seven weeks of years period shall be 49 years. <sup>9</sup>On the tenth of the seventh month, on the Day of Atonement you will have the trumpet sounded to broadcast throughout the whole country. <sup>10</sup>You shall consecrate the fiftieth year and PROCLAIM LIBERTY THROUGHOUT ALL THE LAND UNTO ALL THE INHABITANTS THEREOF.<sup>a</sup> It shall be a jubilee to you. Every one of you shall go back to his own property and each to his family. <sup>11</sup>That fiftieth year shall be a jubilee for you. During it you shall neither sow, nor harvest the volunteer crop, nor gather the grapes from the unpruned vines, <sup>12</sup>for this is a jubilee. It shall be holy to you; you shall eat from what the field yields.

<sup>13</sup>In this jubilee year every one of you shall return to his property. <sup>14</sup>In case you sell to your neighbor or buy from your neighbor; do not exploit one another. <sup>15</sup>You shall buy from your neighbor according to the number of years after the jubilee and he shall sell to you according to the number of years and crops. <sup>16</sup>The greater the number of years the higher the price and the fewer the number of years the lower the price,<sup>b</sup> for the number of crops is being sold. <sup>17</sup>Do not exploit one another but revere God, for I am the LORD your God.<sup>c</sup>

<sup>18</sup>You shall practice My laws, carefully observe My ordinances and apply them, then you will live securely in the land. <sup>19</sup>The land shall yield its produce; you will eat your fill and dwell in safety. <sup>20</sup>If you say, "What shall we eat during the seventh year? See, we may neither sow nor harvest our crop," <sup>21</sup>I will order My blessing upon you in the sixth year so that it will yield produce for three years. <sup>22</sup>You will sow in the eighth year, but still eat of the old crop. Until the ninth year, till its harvest comes in you will eat of the old.<sup>d</sup>

<sup>23</sup>No land shall be sold in perpetuity, because the land belongs to Me and you are lodgers and tenants with Me.<sup>e</sup> <sup>24</sup>For all the land you have, for that land you must allow redemption. <sup>25</sup>When your brother is impoverished and sells some of his property, then his nearest relative shall come and buy back what he has sold. <sup>26</sup>But if a man is without a redeemer and he himself gains ability to buy it back, <sup>27</sup>then let him count the years since its sale and pay back the remaining value to the man to whom he had sold it. <sup>28</sup>But if he has not gained enough to buy it back, then what he sold remains in the hands of the one who bought it until the year of jubilee and in the jubilee

y) Land not so rested loses its fertility. Crop rotation helps, pasturing helps more; but Sabbatical rest has proven best, especially when cultivated [Jer. 4:3; Hosea 10:12].

z) Every seventh day recuperation; every seventh year a vacation with food provided for all; every fiftieth year a return of the ancestral estate. Not much chance for fabulous riches or extreme poverty.

a) The capitalized clause is cast around the rim of our Liberty Bell.

b) The number of crops till the next jubilee decided the cash value.

c) God remained the Owner; the Hebrew leased the land from Him. Had the Israelites observed these divine orders, the captivity would never have occurred.

d) It required faith to act on these assurances and few seem to have practised the ordinances completely. e) A theocratic government of the people, with God as Sovereign and as Landowner.

it will be released; he will get his property back.<sup>f</sup>

<sup>29</sup>If a man sells a residence in a walled city, then its redemption right continues for a full year after the sale; the right of redemption shall last a year. <sup>30</sup>If it is not redeemed within a full year, then title to a house in a walled city shall go in perpetuity to the buyer and to his descendants; it shall not be released in the jubilee.<sup>g</sup>

<sup>31</sup>But houses in unwalled villages shall be considered in the category of country farms; they may be redeemed and shall be redeemed at the jubilee. <sup>32</sup>As for the cities of the Levites, the houses of the cities which they possess the Levites may redeem at any time, <sup>33</sup>and if anyone buys a house from a Levite, the sold house in the city they possess shall be released in the year of jubilee, for the city houses of the Levites are their property among the Israelites. <sup>34</sup>The pasture lands that belong to their cities shall not be sold forever.<sup>h</sup>

<sup>35</sup>If your brother becomes poor and unable to meet his obligations to you, then you shall sustain him, foreigner or neighbor, so he may keep alive with you. <sup>36</sup>Charge no interest or gain from him, but revere your God so that your brother may keep alive with you. <sup>37</sup>Neither lend him money at interest nor give him food for profit. <sup>38</sup>I am the LORD your God who brought you out of the land of Egypt to give you the land of Canaan and to be your God.<sup>i</sup>

<sup>39</sup>If your brother near you<sup>j</sup> gets so poor, he sells himself to you, then do not make him serve you as a slave; <sup>40</sup>but he shall be with you as a hired hand, as a temporary resident until the year of jubilee. <sup>41</sup>Then he shall leave you, he with his children and go back to his relatives and to his ancestral property. <sup>42</sup>Because they are My servants whom I brought out of the land of Egypt, they shall not be sold as

slaves, <sup>43</sup>neither shall you lord it over him with severity. You shall revere God.<sup>k</sup> <sup>44</sup>Your slaves, male and female, whom you shall own, shall be from the nations around you; of them you shall buy male and female slaves. <sup>45</sup>You may also buy from among the children of the strangers who live among you and from their relatives in your environs, who were born in your country; those you may own, <sup>46</sup>and you may leave them as a legacy to your children after you, so that they become their property, for you will retain them in perpetual servitude. But over your brothers, the children of Israel, you must not lord it with severity.

<sup>47</sup>When a foreigner or a temporary dweller among you grows rich and your brother near him becomes poor and sells himself to the foreigner or to the sojourner or to offspring of a foreign race, <sup>48</sup>then the one who has sold himself shall retain the right of redemption.<sup>l</sup> One of his brothers may buy him free, <sup>49</sup>or his uncle or his cousin may redeem him, or anyone close kin to him in the family may redeem him, or if his income suffices he may redeem himself. <sup>50</sup>With his buyer he shall count from the year when he was sold to him until the coming year of jubilee and the price of his release shall be according to the number of years, rating his time as that of a hired hand. <sup>51</sup>If many years are still required, the price shall be adjusted accordingly in refunding his original cost. <sup>52</sup>If but a few years are left till the year of jubilee, then they must come to terms and he shall pay back a corresponding redemption price. <sup>53</sup>He shall treat him as a wage earner; make sure he shall not severely lord it over him. <sup>54</sup>If in these ways he is not redeemed, then he shall go free in the year of jubilee, he and his children with him; <sup>55</sup>because the children of Israel are servants to

f) Ruth 4:1:12 shows the law of redemption in operation, with Boaz, ancestor of Jesus, as redeemer.
g) As sales transactions were adjusted in view of the number of crops before the next jubilee, the values of city property were not affected by jubilee arrangements.

h) Levites inherited no tribal territory; they were distributed among the eleven tribes to be their teachers; his house was the Levite's only property. To remain in the family it must be returned at jubilee.

i) Christians might well observe these injunctions, specially those related to interest on borrowed money and on sales without profit, known scripturally as usury.

j) Brother, not because of the same father or mother, but of the same Hebrew nation.

k) To be an Israelite and to be a slave were incompatible terms; for Israel was God's people.

l) No jubilee availed for their non-Hebrew slaves and such slavery was allowed.

Me; My servants they are whom I led out of the land of Egypt.<sup>m</sup> I am the LORD your God.

26 YOU SHALL NEITHER MAKE idols for yourselves nor set up a carved image or a devoted pillar, nor erect for yourselves a sculptured stone for worship in your land, for I am the LORD your God. <sup>2</sup>You shall observe My Sabbaths and revere My sanctuary; I am the LORD. <sup>3</sup>If you walk by My laws and obey My orders so as to practice them, <sup>4</sup>then I will grant you your rains in their season; the land shall yield its produce and the trees shall bear their fruit. <sup>5</sup>Your threshing shall last until vintage time and your vintage until sowing time; you shall eat your food to the full and live in your land safely. <sup>6</sup>I will grant peace in the land so that you will lie down without anyone to frighten you. I will clear the land of ferocious beasts and no sword shall move through your country. <sup>7</sup>I will chase your enemies who shall fall before you by the sword; <sup>8</sup>five of you shall chase a hundred and a hundred of you shall put ten thousand to flight; your enemies shall fall by the sword. <sup>9</sup>I shall be leaning toward you, rendering you fruitful and numerous and My covenant with you I will confirm.<sup>n</sup> <sup>10</sup>You shall eat what had long been stored, then clear it out for the new. <sup>11</sup>I will set My dwelling among you and My soul will not reject you; <sup>12</sup>I will be walking in your midst;<sup>o</sup> I will be your God and you will be My people. <sup>13</sup>I am the LORD your God who brought you out of the land of Egypt, so that you should be slaves no longer; I have burst the thongs of your yoke and made you walk erect.<sup>p</sup>

<sup>14</sup>But if you will not listen to Me and will not practice all these commandments; <sup>15</sup>if you despise My laws; if your soul abhors My injunctions, so that you fail to put all My orders into practice and break My covenant, <sup>16</sup>then I will do this to you — I will visit you with terror, with tuberculosis and burning fever that destroys the eye and saps the life. You will sow vainly, for your enemies will eat it. <sup>17</sup>I will set My face against you and you will be beaten when facing your enemies. Your haters will lord it over you.<sup>q</sup> You will flee when no one pursues you. <sup>18</sup>If nevertheless you will not listen to Me, I will go on disciplining you sevenfold on account of your sins. <sup>19</sup>I will break down the pride of your might; I will make your heaven as iron and your earth as brass. <sup>20</sup>You will then apply your strength uselessly, for neither will your land produce a crop nor will the trees of the land bear fruit.<sup>r</sup>

<sup>21</sup>If you behave contrary to Me, unwilling to listen to Me, then I will plague you according to your sins seven times worse. <sup>22</sup>I will unleash among you the wild beasts, which shall bereave you of your children, destroy your livestock and decimate your number so that your roads shall be deserted. <sup>23</sup>And if by this discipline you do not turn to Me, but still walk adversely to Me, <sup>24</sup>then I will personally walk adversely to you and I Myself shall punish you sevenfold for your sins. <sup>25</sup>I will bring a sword upon you that shall administer retribution for the Covenant.<sup>s</sup> When you have concentrated within your cities I will send pestilence among you and you will be delivered into the power of the enemy. <sup>26</sup>When I have broken your staff of bread<sup>t</sup> then ten women shall bake your loaves in a single oven and they will return your

m) Hebrews who within their country became slaves to non-Hebrews, were released at the jubilee. Redeeming and buying back were the same; always redemption prefigured our LORD's redemptive work.

n) Confirmation of His promise to Abraham [Gen. 12:2; 13:16; 15:5; 17:5,6; 18:18; 22:17,18.]

o) Particularly by His Presence, the Shekinah, between the cherubim above the mercy seat in the Holy of Holies.

p) As slaves in Egypt their backs had been bent; like oxen in the yoke they had pulled and carried burdens. God made them walk erect, as He had man walk from the start.

q) Which has been true wherever God has been forsaken.

r) The purpose of discipline is improved behavior, usually upon some measure of repentance. Forgiveness on God's part follows repentance on our part.

s) A covenant always involves more than one. God and Israel had pledged mutual loyalty.

t) Usually bread means any food, but here it means oven-baked flour as with us, of which there would not be enough.

loaves weighed out; you will eat and not be satisfied.

<sup>27</sup>If in spite of all this you do not listen to Me, but behave in opposition to Me, <sup>28</sup>then I will with indignation take measures against you; I will personally punish you sevenfold for your sins. <sup>29</sup>You shall eat the flesh of your sons; you shall also eat the flesh of your daughters.<sup>u</sup> <sup>30</sup>I will ruin your high places and tear up your incense altars. I will pile your corpses on the breakage of your idols and My soul shall loathe you. <sup>31</sup>Your cities I will turn into ruins; your chapels I will lay waste and I will no longer smell your pleasant odors. <sup>32</sup>I will personally so thoroughly lay waste the land, that your enemies who settle in it shall be astonished at it. <sup>33</sup>But you I will disperse among the nations, unsheathing the sword after you. Your land shall be desert and your cities ruins.

<sup>34</sup>Then shall the land enjoy its Sabbaths, during the period while the land lies waste and you live in the enemies' land. Then the land shall rest and enjoy its Sabbaths.<sup>v</sup> <sup>35</sup>During the whole period of its desolation it shall rest, a rest which it did not get on your Sabbaths when you lived in it. <sup>36</sup>Into the hearts of your survivors I will send faintness, so that the sound of a shaken leaf will startle them and they will flee as when they take flight from the sword; they shall fall when none is after them. <sup>37</sup>They shall stumble over each other as if facing a sword when none is pursuing and you will not be able to stand up to your enemies. <sup>38</sup>You shall perish among the nations and the land of your enemies shall absorb you. <sup>39</sup>Those of you who survive shall pine away in the land of your enemies because of their guilt, and because of the guilt of their fathers,<sup>w</sup> too, they shall like them, pine away.

<sup>40</sup>But if they acknowledge their iniquity and the iniquity of their fathers, the treason they perpetrated against Me; <sup>41</sup>also that they set themselves against Me so that I opposed them and brought them into their enemies' country — if now their uncircumcised heart is humbled; if they accept the punishment for their sins, <sup>42</sup>then I will remember My covenant with Jacob; My covenant also with Isaac and My covenant with Abraham will I remember and I will remember the land. <sup>43</sup>However, the land shall be left behind by them and shall enjoy its Sabbaths while in their absence it lies desolate, and they must accept the penalty for their sins, because they despised My ordinances and their souls abhorred My laws. <sup>44</sup>Yet even when they are in the land of their enemies I will not cast them off, neither will I abhor them so as to annihilate them completely and to break My covenant with them, for I am the LORD your God. <sup>45</sup>On their behalf I will remember<sup>x</sup> My covenant with their forefathers; whom in sight of the nations I brought out of the land of Egypt to be their God. I am the LORD.

<sup>46</sup>These are the statutes, the ordinances and the laws which the LORD established between Him and the children of Israel on Mount Sinai by the ministry of Moses.

27 THE LORD SAID TO MOSES:
<sup>2</sup>Speak to the Israelites; say to them: When one sets apart a vowed offering to the LORD that involves the evaluating of a person, <sup>3</sup>then your estimate of a male from 20 to 60 years of age shall be 50 dollars by sanctuary standards <sup>4</sup>and the evaluation of a female, 30 dollars. <sup>5</sup>From 5 to 20 the evaluation of a male shall be 20 dollars and of a female, 10. <sup>6</sup>From a month to 5 years the estimate shall be 5 dollars for the male and 3 dollars for the female. <sup>7</sup>From 60 years up the estimate shall be 15 dollars for the male and 10 for the female. <sup>8</sup>But if he is too poor to pay the evaluation, then he shall present himself to the priest and the priest shall evaluate him in propor-

u) This plumbs the depths of misery; it could not be worse.

v) In spite of their disobedience God provided sabbatical rest for the land.

w) As early as the days of the Judges divine punishments came; they repented, were forgiven and delivered; but the next generation backslid again.

x) God never goes back on covenant or promise and He requires the same from us.

tion to the ability of him who vowed.<sup>7</sup>

<sup>9</sup>If it is cattle of which they bring the LORD a sacrifice, then all of it that they give to the LORD shall be holy. <sup>10</sup>They shall not replace it or exchange it, good for bad or bad for good, and if one animal is exchanged for another then this one as well as the other shall be dedicated. <sup>11</sup>If it is an unclean animal, such as is not brought to the LORD for an offering, then they shall present that animal to the priest. <sup>12</sup>The priest shall estimate its value, whether good or bad, and according as you, the priest,<sup>2</sup> value it, so shall it be. <sup>13</sup>If the man wants to buy it back, he shall add one fifth to its value.<sup>a</sup>

<sup>14</sup>When a man dedicates his house to be set apart for the LORD, the priest shall evaluate it, whether good or bad, and as the priest values it, so shall it stand. <sup>15</sup>If he who set it apart, wants to buy back his house, then he shall add one fifth to your estimate and it shall be his.

<sup>16</sup>When a man sets apart to the LORD a field he owns, then your estimate of it shall be according to the amount of seed required,<sup>b</sup> ten bushels of barley means fifty silver dollars. <sup>17</sup>If he dedicated his field from the year of jubilee on, then it shall start at your full estimate, <sup>18</sup>but if he dedicates his field after the jubilee, then the priest shall compute the value in proportion to the years remaining till the next jubilee and so deduct from the evaluation. <sup>19</sup>If the owner of the field wants to buy it back, then he shall add one fifth of the value in money to redeem it and it remains his. <sup>20</sup>If he does not wish to buy back the field, or has sold the field to another man, then it cannot be redeemed anymore <sup>21</sup>and the field shall in the jubilee year, when it comes free, be holy to the LORD as a field set apart to Him. It shall be the priest's property.

<sup>22</sup>If he dedicates to the LORD a field he bought, a field that is not his property by inheritance, <sup>23</sup>then the priest shall compute to him its value in view of the year of jubilee and on that day he shall give the estimated value as holy to the LORD. <sup>24</sup>In the year of jubilee the field returns from him who bought it to the original owner. <sup>25</sup>All estimates shall be by sanctuary silver standards; the dollar shall equal ten dimes.<sup>c</sup>

<sup>26</sup>The first-born of livestock, whether cattle or sheep, belongs to the LORD; it shall not be dedicated.<sup>d</sup> <sup>27</sup>But if it is an unclean animal, then he shall redeem it at the estimated price and add a fifth to it, or if it is not bought back then it shall be sold at your estimate.

<sup>28</sup>However, nothing devoted, nothing that a man has set apart to the LORD of everything he has, be it man or animal or inherited land, shall be sold or redeemed. Everything devoted is most holy to the LORD.

<sup>29</sup>Among people no one who is under human doom can be bought off; he must certainly be executed.

<sup>30</sup>All the tithe of the land, of the grain of the field and of the fruit of the trees is the LORD's; it is holy to the LORD. <sup>31</sup>If a man wants to buy any of his tithes, he must add its fifth to it. <sup>32</sup>The whole tithe of cattle and flocks, every tenth animal that passes under the rod shall be holy to the LORD.<sup>e</sup> <sup>33</sup>He shall not investigate whether it is good or bad; he shall make no exchanges. If he exchanges one for another then both animals shall be dedicated; it shall not be redeemed.

<sup>34</sup>These are the commandments which the LORD commanded Moses at Mt. Sinai for the children of Israel.

y) Previous regulations do not cover or touch these voluntary vows, yet, once made, they should be fully and heartily carried out. But children, vowed by their parents or any other persons not of the tribe of Levi, were not acceptable for sacred service, hence the need of evaluation.

z) Instructions are directed to the priests, for they must handle all offerings.

a) The fifth added served to keep worshippers from vowing hastily.

b) The acreage that required 10 bushels of barley to be sown on it would be worth 50 silver dollars.

c) It is risky to compare our money values with those of the Hebrews, but as modern Bible readers we need these items also translated into our own terms.

d) What has already been divinely appointed as being the LORD's cannot be vowed to Him.

e) Sheep were counted one by one as they passed under the shepherd's staff on entering the fold.

THE BOOK OF NUMBERS<sup>c</sup>

April/May, 1445 B.C.

1 ON THE FIRST DAY OF THE SECOND month, in the second year after Israel's migration from Egypt, the LORD spoke with Moses in the wilderness of Sinai as he was in the meeting tent<sup>b</sup> saying: <sup>2</sup>Take a census<sup>c</sup> of the entire assembly of the people of Israel, according to their families and clans, name by name; and get a record of every male <sup>3</sup>from 20 years of age and upward, all who are subject to military service in the nation. You and Aaron conscript them according to their respective armies. <sup>4</sup>Moreover there shall be a man, the leader of his clan, from each tribe to assist you. <sup>5</sup>The names of these assistants are: from Reuben, Elizur the son of Shedeur; <sup>6</sup>from Simeon, Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai; <sup>7</sup>from Judah, Nahshon the son of Amminadab; <sup>8</sup>from Issachar, Nethaneel the son of Zuar; <sup>9</sup>from Zebulun, Eliab the son of Helon; <sup>10</sup>from the people of Joseph, first from Ephraim, Elishama the son of Ammihud; then from Manasseh, Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur; <sup>11</sup>from Benjamin, Abidan the son of Gideon; <sup>12</sup>from Dan, Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai; <sup>13</sup>from Asher, Pagiel the son of Ochran; <sup>14</sup>from Gad, Eliasaph the son of Deuel; <sup>15</sup>and from Naphtali, Ahira the son of Enan. <sup>16</sup>These are the national representatives, princes of their fathers' tribes and chiefs of the family divisions of Israel.

<sup>17</sup>So Moses and Aaron took these men who were designated by name, <sup>18</sup>and when they had summoned the entire congregation on the first day of the second month, they registered them by ancestry according to their clans, name by name, from 20 years of age and upward <sup>19</sup>in the way the LORD had directed Moses. In this manner Moses conscripted them in the wilderness of Sinai.

<sup>20</sup>As for the descendants of Reuben, Israel's eldest son, their genealogical registration went according to their families and clans, name by name, all the males from 20 years old upward, who were subject to military service; <sup>21</sup>those who were conscripted of the tribe of Reuben totaled 46,500.

<sup>22</sup>Of the descendants of Simeon, their genealogical registration went according to their families and clans, name by name, all the males from 20 years old upward who were subject to military service, <sup>23</sup>those who were conscripted of the tribe of Simeon totaled 59,300. <sup>24</sup>Of the descendants of Gad, their genealogical registration went according to their families and clans, name by name, all the males from 20 years old and upward, who were subject to military service; <sup>25</sup>those who were conscripted of Gad totaled 45,650.

<sup>a</sup>) This Book is called "Numbers" because of the two censuses it records. The Hebrew name is 'in the wilderness,' a key phrase in the opening verse. Numbers records the history of Israel from their stay at Mount Sinai to their arrival at the east bank of the Jordan. Chapters 1-10:10 continue the Sinaitic legislation and the rest takes up the journeyings. Instructions appear in this latter portion of the book, the last few chapters containing directions for the conquest and settlement of Canaan. <sup>b</sup>) The meeting place of God and man. <sup>c</sup>) A military census.

<sup>26</sup>Of the descendants of Judah, their genealogical registration went according to their families and clans, name by name, all the males from 20 years old upward, who were subject to military service; <sup>27</sup>those who were conscripted of Judah totaled 74,600.

<sup>28</sup>Of the descendants of Issachar, their genealogical registration went according to their families and clans, name by name, all the males from 20 years old and upward, who were subject to military service; <sup>29</sup>those who were conscripted of the tribe of Issachar totaled 54,400.

<sup>30</sup>Of the descendants of Zebulun their genealogical registration went according to their families and clans, name by name, all the males from 20 years old upward, who were subject to military service; <sup>31</sup>those who were conscripted of the tribe of Zebulun totaled 57,400.

<sup>32</sup>Of the descendants of Joseph, of the sons of Ephraim, their genealogical registration went according to their families and clans, name by name, all the males from 20 years old upward, who were subject to military service; <sup>33</sup>those who were conscripted of the tribe of Ephraim totaled 40,500.

<sup>34</sup>Of the sons of Manasseh, their genealogical registration went according to their families and clans, name by name, all the males from 20 years old upward, who were subject to military service; <sup>35</sup>those who were conscripted of the tribe of Manasseh totaled 32,200.

<sup>36</sup>Of the descendants of Benjamin their genealogical registration went according to their families and clans, name by name, all the males from 20 years upward, who were subject to military service; <sup>37</sup>those who were conscripted of the tribe of Benjamin totaled 35,400.

<sup>38</sup>Of the descendants of Dan their genealogical registration went according to their families and clans, name by name, all the males from 20 years upward who were subject to military training; <sup>39</sup>those who were conscripted of the tribe of Dan totaled 62,700.

<sup>40</sup>Of the descendants of Asher, their genealogical registration went according to their families and clans, name by name, all the males from 20 years upward who were subject to military training; <sup>41</sup>those who were conscripted of the tribe of Asher totaled 41,500.

<sup>42</sup>Of the descendants of Naphtali, their genealogical registration went according to their families and clans, name by name, all the males from 20 years of age and upward who were subject to military service. <sup>43</sup>Those who were conscripted of the tribe of Naphtali totaled 53,400.

<sup>44</sup>These are the people who were conscripted by Moses and Aaron and the princes of Israel, those twelve men who came each from his respective family. <sup>45</sup>The grand total of those who were conscripted of the people of Israel by their families, from twenty years of age and upward who were subject to military service in the nation, <sup>46</sup>was 603,550.

<sup>47</sup>The Levites, however, in their tribal lineage, were not included in this census, <sup>48</sup>because the LORD had instructed Moses: <sup>49</sup>As for the tribe of Levi, do not conscript them<sup>d</sup> or take their census with the other people in Israel. <sup>50</sup>Rather, see that you put them in charge of the Dwelling that contains the Testimony, its furniture and all its belongings; they shall carry it with all its equipment, take care of it, and camp around it. <sup>51</sup>When it is time for the Dwelling to be moved, the Levites shall dismantle it, and when it encamps they shall set it up; but any layman<sup>e</sup> who approaches it shall be executed.<sup>f</sup> <sup>52</sup>The people of Israel shall camp in their assigned positions under their standards, according to their armies; <sup>53</sup>but the Levites shall camp around the Dwelling that contains the Testimony to avert any indignation against the assembly of the people.

d) They were to be the spiritual warriors of the LORD, a more important position.

e) Any unauthorized persons, for even the Levites were restricted in their association with the tabernacle. See ch. 16, esp. vs. 40.

f) This is the first mention of the majestic sacredness of the LORD's Dwelling.

Moreover, the Levites shall take complete charge of this structure. <sup>54</sup>So the people of Israel acted in accordance with all that the LORD had commanded Moses.

1445 B.C.

2 THE LORD ALSO DIRECTED MOSES and Aaron: <sup>2</sup>The people of Israel are to camp around the tent of meeting<sup>g</sup> though at a distance,<sup>h</sup> each under his respective standard and by their clans' ensigns. <sup>3</sup>Those under the standard of the division of Judah are to camp according to their armies on the east side toward the sunrise. The prince of Judah's descendants is Nahshon<sup>i</sup> the son of Amminadab, <sup>4</sup>and his army made up of their conscriptees totals 74,600. <sup>5</sup>Camping beside him shall be the tribe of Issachar, whose prince is Nethaneel the son of Zuar, <sup>6</sup>whose conscript army totals 54,400. <sup>7</sup>Next is the tribe of Zebulun, their prince being Eliab the son of Helon; <sup>8</sup>his army, 57,400. <sup>9</sup>The total number that were conscripted of Judah's divisions is 186,400 by their respective armies; they are to be the first to break camp and march.<sup>j</sup> <sup>10</sup>In like manner, on the south side shall be the standard of the division of Reuben according to their armies. The prince of Reuben's descendants is Elizur the son of She-deur; <sup>11</sup>his army, 46,500. <sup>12</sup>Camping beside him shall be the tribe of Simeon, their prince, Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai; <sup>13</sup>his army, 59,300; <sup>14</sup>then the tribe of Gad; their prince, Eliasaph the son of Reuel; <sup>15</sup>his army, 45,650. <sup>16</sup>The total number that were conscripted of Reuben's divisions is 151,450 by their respective armies; they are to break camp and march second. <sup>17</sup>Then the tent of meeting with the ranks of the Levites is to move forward in the central position. As they camp, so shall they march, each in his own position, under the standards.

<sup>18</sup>To the west shall be the standard of the division of Ephraim according to their armies. The prince of Ephraim's descendants is Elishama the son of Ammihud, <sup>19</sup>and his army made up of their conscriptees totals 40,500. <sup>20</sup>Camping beside him shall be the tribe of Manasseh, their prince being Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur; <sup>21</sup>his army, 32,200; <sup>22</sup>then the tribe of Benjamin; their prince, Abidan the son of Gideon; <sup>23</sup>his army, 35,400. <sup>24</sup>The total number that were conscripted of Ephraim's divisions is 108,100 according to their respective armies. They are to break camp and march third.

<sup>25</sup>In like manner on the north side shall be the standard of the division of Dan according to their armies. The prince of Dan's descendants is Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai; <sup>26</sup>his army, 62,700. <sup>27</sup>Camping beside him shall be the tribe of Asher; their prince, Pagiel the son of Ochran; <sup>28</sup>his army, 41,500; <sup>29</sup>Then the tribe of Naphtali; their prince, Ahira the son of Enan; <sup>30</sup>his army, 53,400. <sup>31</sup>The total number of those conscripted of Dan's divisions is 157,600. Under their standards they are to break camp and bring up the rear.<sup>k</sup>

<sup>32</sup>The foregoing is a list of those who were conscripted of the divisions of Israel according to their respective armies, the grand total being 603,550. <sup>33</sup>The Levites, however, were not conscripted with the rest of the people of Israel since the LORD had commanded Moses otherwise.<sup>l</sup> <sup>34</sup>So the people of Israel complied with all the LORD's directions to Moses; as they encamped under their standards, so they broke camp and marched, each with his respective family and clan.

1445 B.C.

3 THIS IS THE GENEALOGICAL REGISTER of Aaron and Moses at the time when the LORD spoke with Moses on Mount Sinai. <sup>2</sup>The names of Aaron's sons are Nadab the oldest, then Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar, <sup>3</sup>all of them the sons of Aaron and anointed priests

g) The Dwelling was always to occupy the central position, whether they were camping or trekking [See Ps. 46:5]. h) See Josh. 3:4.

i) He is listed with Christ's genealogy in Matt. 1:4, and appears to have been the most responsible division commander. j) This began the national fulfilment of the prophecy in Gen. 49:8-12.

k) The ancestors of these tribes were Dan and Naphtali, the sons of Jacob by his concubine, Bilhah. Asher was Jacob's son by Zilpah. This seems the main reason they were kept in the rear.

l) See ch. 1:47ff.

whom he installed in priestly office. <sup>4</sup>Nadab and Abihu, however, died in the LORD's presence when they offered improper fire<sup>m</sup> before Him in the wilderness of Sinai. They had no children; consequently, Eleazar and Ithamar served as priests during the lifetime of Aaron their father.

<sup>5</sup>Summon the tribe of Levi, the LORD instructed Moses, <sup>6</sup>and assign them to Aaron the priest that they may assist him; <sup>7</sup>they shall discharge the obligations imposed by him and the duties connected with the entire assembly before the meeting tent as attendants upon the Dwelling. <sup>8</sup>They shall be in charge of all the furnishings of the meeting tent and attend to Israel's service of maintaining the work of the Dwelling. <sup>9</sup>Therefore, assign the men of Levi, yes, everyone of them as dedicated from among the people of Israel, <sup>10</sup>to Aaron and his sons. As for the latter, ordain them that they may attend to their priestly duties, because anyone else who makes such attempts shall be executed. <sup>11</sup>For I, continued the LORD to Moses, <sup>12</sup>even I, have adopted the men of Levi from among the people of Israel as a substitute for all those who are the first to be born of their mothers throughout the nation.<sup>n</sup> The men of Levi shall be Mine <sup>13</sup>on the basis that all the first-born belong to Me; you remember it was when I killed all the first-born in the land of Egypt that I set apart for Myself this similar group in Israel, both man and beast;<sup>o</sup> therefore, they belong to Me. I am Jehovah.

<sup>14</sup>The LORD further directed Moses in the wilderness of Sinai: <sup>15</sup>Take a census of the descendants of Levi according to their clans and families, including every male a month or more old. <sup>16</sup>Moses therefore numbered them at the LORD's command as he was directed. <sup>17</sup>These are Levi's sons by name: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari; <sup>18</sup>and these are the names of Gershon's sons by families: Libni and Shimei. <sup>19</sup>Those of Kohath by families were Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel, <sup>20</sup>and those of Merari by families: Mahli and Mushi. These are the families of the Levites according to their clans.

<sup>21</sup>The clan of Gershon is comprised of the families of Libni and Shimei, these two making up the clan; <sup>22</sup>their number, all the males a month or more old, totaled 7,500. <sup>23</sup>These families of Gershon were to camp behind the tabernacle on the west side, <sup>24</sup>with Elisaph the son of Lael as their clan leader. <sup>25</sup>The men were responsible for the following articles in connection with the meeting tent: the Dwelling and the tent, particularly its covering and the curtain at its entrance, <sup>26</sup>the hangings and the door curtain of the court which is around the Dwelling, the altar and the ropes for all the work connected with the tent.

<sup>27</sup>The clan of Kohath consists of the families of Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel, these four making up the clan; their enrollment, <sup>28</sup>likewise reckoned from all the males a month or more old, amounted to 8,600. They were the custodians for the sanctuary. <sup>29</sup>These families of Kohath were to camp by the south side of the tabernacle <sup>30</sup>with Elizaphan the son of Uzziel as the clan leader of their families.

<sup>31</sup>Specifically, they were in charge of the Ark, the table, the lampstand, the altars, the utensils of the sanctuary used in the service, <sup>32</sup>the veil,<sup>p</sup> and all the work entailed with them. Eleazar the son of Aaron, who was the chief leader of the Levites, had the oversight of these sanctuary attendants.

<sup>33</sup>The clan of Merari consists of the families of Mahli and Mushi, these two making up the Merari clan; <sup>34</sup>their number, all the males a month or more old, totaled 6,200. <sup>35</sup>The leader of this clan with its families was Zuriel the

m) An offering of incense which had not been made in the prescribed manner [Lev. 10:1,2]. The LORD's warning [Lev. 10:8-11] against wine or strong drink suggests that their lack of reverence had been due to drinking.

n) By this arrangement, through which the care of the service at the sanctuary became the full-time occupation of one tribe, a more orderly and efficient performance of this service was obtained than could have been rendered by the first-born from all the tribes.

o) See Ex. 13:1,2. p) Between the Holy of Holies and the holy place.

son of Abihail; they were to camp by the north side of the tabernacle. <sup>36</sup>The men of Merari had charge of the frames of the Dwelling, its bars, pillars, sockets, all the accessories, and the work connected with them; <sup>37</sup>also the pillars of the surrounding court with their sockets, pegs and ropes.

<sup>38</sup>Finally, those who were to camp in front of the tabernacle — that is, to the east of the meeting tent<sup>q</sup> — were Moses and Aaron and his sons, who had complete charge of the sanctuary for the service of the people of Israel, and any layman who approached too near was to be executed. <sup>39</sup>The grand total of those who were enrolled by families from Levi by Moses and Aaron in accord with the LORD's command — namely, all the males a month or more old — was 22,000.

<sup>40</sup>The LORD further directed Moses: Take a census of all the first-born males a month or more old in the nation of Israel to determine how many there are. <sup>41</sup>Then as a substitute for these first-born, take the men of Levi for Me — I am the LORD — and Levi's cattle in place of all the first-born cattle belonging to the people. <sup>42</sup>Moses therefore took the number of all the first-born in the nation of Israel as the LORD had directed, <sup>43</sup>and this prescribed group totaled 22,273.<sup>r</sup> <sup>44</sup>The LORD then said to Moses: <sup>45</sup>Take now the men of Levi in place of all the first-born in the nation of Israel, likewise Levi's cattle for their cattle so that the men of Levi may be Mine. I am Jehovah. <sup>46</sup>The ransoms which you are to require from the 273 — that is, from the first-born in Israel over and above the men of Levi — <sup>47</sup>shall be five dollars<sup>s</sup> a head, the standard being the dollar of the sanctuary where twenty nickels<sup>t</sup> make a dollar. <sup>48</sup>Then give the ransom silver from this excess group to Aaron and his sons. <sup>49</sup>Accordingly, Moses collected the silver for the redemption from those whose number exceeded the total redeemed by the Levites, <sup>50</sup>and the precious metal which he received from these firstborn in Israel amounted to 1,365 sanctuary dollars. <sup>51</sup>Then at the LORD's command, he gave this ransom payment from the ransomed to Aaron and his sons as the LORD had ordered him.

1445 B.C.

4 THE LORD SAID TO MOSES AND AARON: <sup>2</sup>Take a census of the men of Kohath from among the descendants of Levi according to their families and clans, <sup>3</sup>including those from the age of 30 up to those who are 50, all who qualify to enter the service<sup>u</sup> to do the work in the meeting tent. <sup>4</sup>Their responsibilities in this tent shall be in connection with the most holy things. <sup>5</sup>When it is time to break camp, Aaron and his sons shall enter, take down the covering veil,<sup>v</sup> and with it cover the Ark that contains the testimonial evidence. <sup>6</sup>Over this they shall place a covering of treated leather,<sup>w</sup> spread an all-violet cloth on top of that,<sup>x</sup> and then adjust<sup>y</sup> the carrying poles. <sup>7</sup>They shall also cover the table of the Presence with a violet cloth upon which shall be placed the dishes, the spoons, the bowls, and the jars for the libation, and the perpetual bread shall also be on it. <sup>8</sup>Next, they shall spread over them a crimson cloth, wrap it all with a covering of treated leather and insert the carrying poles. <sup>9</sup>They shall then take a violet cloth and cover the lampstand of light, its lamps, snuffers, and trays, and all the oil containers from which they service it. <sup>10</sup>Afterwards

q) This was the most important side, as it guarded the entrance to the Dwelling.

r) All the first-born prior to the exodus had already been redeemed by the paschal lamb [Ex. 12:22,23]; therefore, the command for consecration of the first-born in Ex. 13:2 must refer to the first-born from that time forward. Vss. 11-13 substantiate this conclusion.

s) Heb. — "shekel" — a weight, not a coin. It was made of silver, weighed about two-fifths of an ounce, and would be worth about one dollar today.

t) Heb. — "gerah" — equal to our nickel.

u) This word in the Hebrew means military service. The spiritual battle in which the men of Levi were engaged was of great consequence.

v) Which separated the holy place from the most holy place, see Ex. 26:31-35.

w) Which served as a waterproof covering for the articles in the tabernacle.

x) This special outer covering was to distinguish the Ark from the remainder of the equipment, as it was the LORD's glory throne.

y) The carrying poles of the Ark were not to be removed [Ex. 25:15].

they shall put it and all its accessories in a wrapping of treated leather and place it on a carrying frame. <sup>11</sup>They shall spread a violet cloth over the golden altar, wrap this with a covering of treated leather, and insert its carrying poles. <sup>12</sup>They shall then take all the ministering utensils used in the service of the sanctuary, wrap them first in a violet cloth and next with a covering of treated leather, and place them on the carrying frame.

<sup>13</sup>After cleaning the ashes out of the altar, they shall spread a reddish-purple cloth over it <sup>14</sup>and place on this all the utensils that are used in connection with it; namely, the fire pans, the forks, the shovels, and the basins, all the utensils of the altar. Over this they shall place a wrapping of treated leather and then insert the carrying poles. <sup>15</sup>Finally, after Aaron and his sons have finished packing the sanctuary and all its contents, and the camp is starting to move on, the men of Kohath shall come to carry them; they must not, however, touch the holy things, else they die.<sup>a</sup> The foregoing constitute the load of the meeting tent for the men of Kohath. <sup>16</sup>Now Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, shall attend to the oil for the light, the fragrant incense, the continual meal offering, and the anointing oil; moreover, he shall be in charge of the entire Dwelling and everything that is in it, both the sanctuary and its equipment.

<sup>17</sup>The LORD further cautioned Moses and Aaron: <sup>18</sup>Do not destroy the branch of the Kohath families from among Levi; <sup>19</sup>but do this for them in order that they may live and not die when they approach the most holy things: Let Aaron and his sons enter and assign each individual his task and his particular load. <sup>20</sup>They are not, however, to come in to look at the sanctuary, even for a moment, else they will be killed.

<sup>21</sup>The LORD further said to Moses: <sup>22</sup>Take a census, too, of the men of Gershon, according to their clans and families, <sup>23</sup>and enroll those between the ages of 30 and 50, that is, all who qualify to enter the service for work in the meeting tent. <sup>24</sup>The following shall be the duties of the families of Gershon in serving and carrying: <sup>25</sup>They shall carry the curtains of the Dwelling; the meeting tent with its covering; the covering of treated leather which goes over that, and the curtain for its entrance; <sup>26</sup>the hangings of the court, and the door curtain for the gate of the court which surrounds the tabernacle and the altar; their ropes, and all the accessories for their use. In addition, they are to do everything that has to be done in connection with these articles. <sup>27</sup>All these duties of the men of Gershon, both in total transport and labor, shall be under the supervision of Aaron and his sons; you shall assign to them everything that they are to carry. <sup>28</sup>This is the work of the families of Gershon in connection with the tent of meeting; their tasks shall be under the immediate supervision of Ithamar, the son of Aaron the priest.

<sup>29</sup>As for the men of Merari, you are to enroll them according to their families and clans, <sup>30</sup>those who are between the ages of 30 and 50, all who qualify to enter the service for work in the tent of meeting. <sup>31</sup>Specifically, these are the things which they must carry as all their work in this tent: The boards of the tabernacle and its bars, pillars and pedestals; <sup>32</sup>the pillars of the surrounding court and their pedestals, pegs and ropes, with all their accessories and servicing. Moreover, you leaders point out to each the articles which he is to carry. <sup>33</sup>This is the work of the families of Merari with regard to all their tasks in the meeting tent; all this is under the supervision of Ithamar, the son of Aaron the priest.

<sup>34</sup>So Moses, Aaron and the leaders of the congregation enrolled the men of Kohath according to their families and clans, <sup>35</sup>all those between the ages of 30 and 50 who were qualified to enter the service for work in the meeting tent. <sup>36</sup>The total number of their appointees according to their families was 2,750. <sup>37</sup>These were enrolled from the families of Kohath, everyone who

<sup>a</sup> This was later exemplified in the case of Uzzah, killed for touching the Ark [II Sam. 6:6,7].

NUMBERS 5

Purity of Body, Heart and Environs

worked in the meeting tent, whom Moses and Aaron appointed at the LORD's command through Moses.

<sup>38</sup>Those enrolled from the men of Gershon in the same manner — by family and clan and from those <sup>39</sup>between the ages of 30 and 50 — for similar service in the meeting tent <sup>40</sup>numbered, according to their families, 2,630. <sup>41</sup>These are the appointees from the families of Gershon: every one who was to work in the meeting tent, those whom Moses and Aaron commissioned under the LORD's direction.

<sup>42</sup>Those who were likewise enrolled from the men of Merari — by family and clan and <sup>43</sup>from those between the ages of 30 and 50 for similar service in the meeting tent numbered, <sup>44</sup>according to their families, 3,200. <sup>45</sup>These appointees from the families of Merari were likewise commissioned by Moses and Aaron at the LORD's command through Moses. <sup>46</sup>The whole enrollment of the men of Levi obtained by Moses, Aaron and the leaders of Israel, when they numbered them by their families and clans, <sup>48</sup>totaled 8,580. <sup>47</sup>This group was made up of all those between the ages of 30 and 50 who were appointed to enter the service for work and burden bearing in the tent of meeting. <sup>49</sup>At the LORD's command they were each assigned their respective duties and burdens; and their enrollment was accomplished after the manner in which the LORD had instructed Moses.

5 FURTHERMORE THE LORD TOLD Moses: <sup>2</sup>Order the people of Israel to remove from the camp every leper and everyone who has an emission or is defiled by touching a corpse;<sup>a</sup> <sup>3</sup>whether male or female, they shall be expelled from and sent outside the camp, because they are not to defile their camp where I dwell among them. <sup>4</sup>The people of Israel did so and evicted them from the camp, doing it as the LORD had directed Moses.

<sup>5</sup>The LORD also said to Moses: <sup>6</sup>Tell the people of Israel, If a man or a woman commits any of the crimes of mankind,<sup>b</sup> thus dealing unfaithfully with the LORD, then that person is guilty. <sup>7</sup>He must then confess the crime which he has committed, make full restitution for his wrongdoing with one fifth added, and restore it to the person wronged.<sup>c</sup> <sup>8</sup>But if the man has no next of kin to whom restitution can be made,<sup>d</sup> this reparation, now due to the LORD, shall go for the priest; though it is not to be confused with the ram for atonement with which complete satisfaction is to be made in his behalf. <sup>9</sup>Moreover, every offering of all the sacred gifts presented by the people of Israel<sup>e</sup> shall belong to the priest. <sup>10</sup>The sacred gifts of every man shall belong to him; whatever any man gives to the priest shall be his.

<sup>11</sup>The LORD also said to Moses: <sup>12</sup>Speak to the Israelites and tell them, Any man whose wife shall turn aside and be unfaithful to him <sup>13</sup>so that another man has intercourse with her, even though the affair be concealed from the eyes of her husband and she be undetected though defiled, there being no witness against her since she was not caught in the act; <sup>14</sup>still, if he becomes suspicious and is jealous of his wife because she really is defiled, or if the same doubts come to his mind even though she has not defiled herself, either way, <sup>15</sup>the man shall bring his wife to the priest along with an offering for her — three and one-half quarts of barley flour. He is not, however, to pour oil on it or place incense on it, since it is an offering of suspicion, one for remembering, intended to bring sin to mind.

<sup>16</sup>The priest shall then bring her and present her before the LORD. <sup>17</sup>In addition, he shall take holy water in a clay jar, pick up some dust from off

.a) The period and conditions of their eviction varied; for leprosy see Lev. 13; for emission, Lev. 15:2ff., and for defilement, Num. 19:11ff.

.b) Crimes involving another man's property [Lev. 6:2,3]. c) For details, see Lev. 6:4,5.

.d) In case the person wronged is dead.

.e) Not sacrifices but offerings of dedication, first fruits, etc.

the floor of the tabernacle, and put it in the water. <sup>18</sup>Then after placing the woman before the LORD<sup>f</sup> he shall let her hair down, place in her hands the offering for remembering — the one of suspicion — and hold in his hand the bitter water that brings a curse. <sup>19</sup>Next, the priest shall make her take an oath saying to her, "If a man has not had intercourse with you and you have not had sexual relations with other than your husband, then be free from the effects of this bitter water which brings a curse. <sup>20</sup>But if you have turned to another in place of your husband, if you have defiled yourself, and some man besides your husband has lain with you" — <sup>21</sup>the priest shall make the woman swear with an oath of adjuration and continue — "then may the LORD make you a curse and an oath<sup>g</sup> among your people by making your thighs shrivel and your abdomen swell: <sup>22</sup>this curse-bringing water shall enter your stomach, making your abdomen swell and your thighs shrivel." "Let it be so," she shall acknowledge; "Let it be so."

<sup>23</sup>The priest shall then write these curses in the book and wash them off in the bitter water,<sup>h</sup> <sup>24</sup>and when he gives the woman this water, bitter with curses, to drink, it shall cause bitter pain upon entering her system. <sup>25</sup>Meanwhile, the priest shall take the meal offering of suspicion from her hand and move it back and forth before the LORD bringing it to the altar. <sup>26</sup>Moreover, he shall take a handful of it as a memorial portion and burn it on the altar,<sup>i</sup> after which he shall make the woman drink the water. <sup>27</sup>Once he has given her the water to drink, it shall be that if she has defiled herself and has been unfaithful to her husband, the bitter water which brings the curse, having entered her system, will cause her abdomen to swell and her thighs to shrivel; she shall become a curse among her people. <sup>28</sup>If, however, she has not defiled herself, but is pure, she will remain unharmed and bear children. <sup>29</sup>This is the law of jealous suspicion in case a wife is unfaithful to her husband and is defiled. <sup>30</sup>When a man gets doubts in his mind and becomes jealous of his wife, then he shall similarly present her before the LORD and the priest shall deal with her according to this entire law. <sup>31</sup>Thus the husband shall be innocent of any sin and the wife shall pay for her crime.

6 THE LORD FURTHER SAID TO MOSES: <sup>2</sup>Tell the people of Israel, If a man or woman shall do the signal act of making the vow of a Nazarite—namely, to live in consecration to the LORD — <sup>3</sup>he must abstain from wine and intoxicating drink.<sup>j</sup> He must not drink the vinegar of wine nor strong drink, nor any kind of grape juice; neither may he eat fresh or dried grapes. <sup>4</sup>During the entire period of his consecration, he must not eat anything which is prepared from the grapevine, not even the seeds and skins.<sup>k</sup> <sup>5</sup>Furthermore, during the entire period of his consecration vow, no razor must be used on his head; he is to be holy, allowing the locks of hair on his head to grow until the period during which he lives as a Nazarite to the LORD is completed.<sup>l</sup> <sup>6</sup>During this same period he must not come near a dead body; <sup>7</sup>he may not even render himself unclean by his father, mother, brother, or sister when they die, because his consecration to God is upon his head. <sup>8</sup>During his entire period as a Nazarite he must be holy to the LORD.

<sup>9</sup>If someone should die suddenly in his presence and he defile his consecrated head, then he must shave it on his purification day; the seventh day he shall shave it completely. <sup>10</sup>On the eighth day he must bring either two

f) In front of the altar. g) For an example of a person becoming an oath or curse, see Jer. 29:22.

g, God gave it the effects, the aware-

i) Upon the LORD's acceptance of this offering He brought to remembrance the sin of a guilty party, thus imparting the curse to the water. j) Consecration and self-denial cannot be separated.

k) The fruit of the vine stood for all sensual enjoyments.

l) The long hair symbolized dedication of all the forces of his nature, undiminished, to the LORD.

turtle doves or two young pigeons to the priest at the door of the meeting tent, <sup>11</sup>whereupon the priest shall offer the one for a sin offering and the other for a burnt-offering, that he might make atonement for him, since he sinned in the matter of the corpse. <sup>12</sup>He shall anew dedicate his head on that day, that he might live as a Nazarite to the LORD during the period of his consecration. He must also bring a year-old lamb for a guilt-offering, for the previous days cannot be counted because his consecration was rendered unclean.

<sup>13</sup>Now this is the procedure of the Nazarite for the day on which his consecration period is completed: After he has been brought to the door of the meeting tent, <sup>14</sup>he is to present his offering to the LORD; namely, a flawless year-old male lamb for a burnt-offering, a flawless year-old lamb for a sin-offering, a spotless ram for a peace offering, <sup>15</sup>and a basket of unleavened bread — cakes of fine flour mixed with oil, and unleavened wafers daubed with oil — together with their meal offering and libations.<sup>m</sup> <sup>16</sup>The priest shall present these before the LORD and offer his sin-offering and burnt-offering. <sup>17</sup>The ram he shall offer as a sacrifice of peace offering to the LORD, with the basket of unleavened bread; he shall also offer its meal-offering and libation.

<sup>18</sup>The Nazarite shall then shave his dedicated head at the door of the meeting tent, take this hair and put it in the fire which is under the peace-offering sacrifice. <sup>19</sup>The priest shall take the boiled shoulder of the ram along with an unleavened cake and wafer from the basket and put them in the hands of the Nazarite after he has shaved himself of the hair of his consecration. <sup>20</sup>The priest shall wave them as a wave offering before the LORD; they are to be a holy portion for the priest, together with the breast of the wave-offering and the shoulder of the heave-offering.<sup>n</sup> After that, the Nazarite may drink wine. <sup>21</sup>This is the law of the Nazarite, who shall vow to give his offering to the LORD in accordance with his consecration, not including what extra he may be able to do; according to the vow which he has taken, so must he conform to the law of his consecration.

<sup>22</sup>The LORD further said to Moses: <sup>23</sup>tell Aaron and his sons: This is the way you are to bless the people of Israel. Say to them, <sup>24</sup>"The LORD bless you and keep you; <sup>25</sup>the LORD make His face shine upon you and be gracious to you; <sup>26</sup>the LORD lift up His countenance upon you and give you peace." <sup>27</sup>In this manner they shall invoke My name upon the people of Israel and I Myself will bless them.

7 NOW IT WAS ON THE DAY WHEN Moses had finished setting up the tabernacle and had anointed and sanctified it with all its equipment, including the altar and its utensils which he likewise anointed and sanctified, <sup>2</sup>that the princes of Israel, the leaders of their tribal houses — these are the tribal princes in charge of those who were enrolled — made a presentation. <sup>3</sup>They brought their gifts before the LORD — six covered wagons and twelve bullocks, a wagon for two princes and a bullock for each, and presented them in front of the Dwelling. <sup>4</sup>The LORD then told Moses: <sup>5</sup>Accept these things from them, that they may be used in effecting the work<sup>o</sup> of the meeting tent and give them to the men of Levi, to each as his work requires. <sup>6</sup>Accordingly, Moses took the wagons and the bullocks and gave them to the Levites. <sup>7</sup>Two wagons and four bullocks he gave to the men of Gershon as their work required; <sup>8</sup>likewise, four wagons and eight bullocks to the men of Merari as their work required, under the supervision of Ithamar, the son of Aaron the priest. <sup>9</sup>To the men of Kohath, however, he gave nothing, because it was their responsibility to attend to the work of the holy things which they had to carry on their shoulders.<sup>p</sup> <sup>10</sup>Now the princes presented the dedicatory gift for the altar on the day it was anointed, offering it before the altar. <sup>11</sup>Consequently, the LORD instructed Moses: Have them, each prince on his day,<sup>q</sup> present the dedicatory gift for the altar.

<sup>m</sup>) See Num. 15:3ff. <sup>n</sup>) See Lev. 7:32-34.

<sup>o</sup>) Transporting the Dwelling and all its equipment. <sup>p</sup>) See ch. 4:15.

<sup>12</sup>The one who presented his gift on the first day in behalf of the tribe of Judah was Nahshon the son of Amminadab. <sup>13</sup>His gift was one silver dish weighing about  $3\frac{1}{4}$  pounds<sup>r</sup> and one silver basin of about  $1\frac{3}{4}$  pounds,<sup>s</sup> in accordance with the standard weight of the sanctuary — both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a grain-offering; <sup>14</sup>one gold pan of about four ounces full of incense; <sup>15</sup>one young bull from the cattle, one ram and one year-old lamb for a burnt-offering; <sup>16</sup>One male goat for a sin-offering; <sup>17</sup>and for the peace offering sacrifice, two bullocks, five rams, five he-goats, and five male year-old lambs. This was the gift of Nahshon the son of Amminadab.

<sup>18</sup>On the second day Nethaneel, the son of Zuar, the prince of Issachar made his offering. <sup>19</sup>The gift which he presented was likewise one silver dish which weighed about  $3\frac{1}{4}$  pounds and one silver basin of about  $1\frac{3}{4}$  pounds, in accordance with the standard weight of the sanctuary — both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a grain-offering; <sup>20</sup>one gold pan of about four ounces full of incense; <sup>21</sup>one young bull from the cattle, one ram, and one year-old male lamb for a burnt-offering; <sup>22</sup>one male goat for a sin-offering; <sup>23</sup>and for the peace offering sacrifice, two bullocks, five rams, five he-goats, and five male year-old lambs. This was the gift of Nethaneel the son of Zuar.

<sup>24</sup>On the third day, the prince of Zebulun's descendants, Eliab the son of Helon, made his offering: <sup>25</sup>His gift was one silver dish weighing about  $3\frac{1}{4}$  pounds and one silver basin of about  $1\frac{3}{4}$  pounds, in accordance with the standard weight of the sanctuary—both full of fine flour mixed with oil for a grain-offering; <sup>26</sup>one gold pan of about four ounces full of incense; <sup>27</sup>one young bull from the cattle, one ram, and one male year-old lamb, for a burnt-offering; <sup>28</sup>one male goat for a sin-offering; <sup>29</sup>and for the peace-offering sacrifice, two bullocks, five rams, five he-goats, and five male year-old lambs. This was the gift of Eliab, the son of Helon.

<sup>30</sup>On the fourth day, the prince of Reuben's descendants, Elizur the son of Shedeur, made his offering: <sup>31</sup>His gift was one silver dish weighing about  $3\frac{1}{4}$  pounds and one silver basin of about  $1\frac{3}{4}$  pounds, in accordance with the standard weight of the sanctuary—both full of fine flour mixed with oil for a grain-offering; <sup>32</sup>one gold pan of about four ounces full of incense; <sup>33</sup>one young bull from the cattle, one ram, and one male year-old lamb, for a burnt-offering; <sup>34</sup>one male goat for a sin-offering; <sup>35</sup>and for the peace-offering sacrifice, two bullocks, five rams, five he-goats, and five male year-old lambs. This was the gift of Elizur the son of Shedeur.

<sup>36</sup>On the fifth day, the prince of Simeon's descendants, Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai, made his offering: <sup>37</sup>His gift was one silver dish weighing about  $3\frac{1}{4}$  pounds and one silver basin of about  $1\frac{3}{4}$  pounds, in accordance with the standard weight of the sanctuary — both full of fine flour mixed with oil for a grain-offering; <sup>38</sup>one gold pan of about four ounces full of incense; <sup>39</sup>one young bull from the cattle, one ram, and one male year-old lamb, for a burnt-offering; <sup>40</sup>one male goat for a sin-offering; <sup>41</sup>and for the peace-offering sacrifice, two bullocks, five rams, five he-goats, and five male year-old lambs. This was the gift of Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai.

<sup>42</sup>On the sixth day, the prince of Gad's descendants, Eliasaph the son of Reuel,<sup>t</sup> made his offering: <sup>43</sup>His gift was one silver dish weighing about  $3\frac{1}{4}$  pounds and one silver basin of about  $1\frac{3}{4}$  pounds, in accordance with the

q) Presumably, because of the nature of the gifts. The limited space in the court would not have allowed the receiving, slaughtering, and preparing for sacrifice of 252 animals all in one day, let alone the burning of 36 whole animals and the fat portions of 216 animals on the altar.

r) 130 shekels. One shekel about one dollar today. s) Seventy shekels.

t) The Samaritan text has Deuel each time the name occurs, while the Septuagint and the Syrian have Reuel. In Hebrew the R and the D may be written much alike.

standard weight of the sanctuary — both full of fine flour mixed with oil for a grain-offering; <sup>44</sup>one gold pan of about four ounces full of incense; <sup>45</sup>one young bull from the cattle, one ram, and one male year-old lamb, for a burnt-offering; <sup>46</sup>one male goat for a sin-offering; <sup>47</sup>and for the peace-offering, two bullocks, five rams, five he-goats, and five male year-old lambs. This was the gift of Eliasaph the son of Reuel.

<sup>48</sup>On the seventh day, the prince of Ephraim's descendants, Elishama the son of Ammihud, made his offering; <sup>49</sup>His gift was one silver dish weighing about  $3\frac{3}{4}$  pounds and one silver basin of about  $1\frac{3}{4}$  pounds, in accordance with the standard weight of the sanctuary — both full of fine flour mixed with oil for a grain-offering; <sup>50</sup>one gold pan of about four ounces full of incense; <sup>51</sup>one young bull from the cattle, one ram, and one year-old lamb, for a burnt-offering; <sup>52</sup>one male goat for a sin-offering; <sup>53</sup>and for the peace-offering sacrifice, two bullocks, five rams, five he-goats, and five male year-old lambs. This was the gift of Elishama the son of Ammihud.

<sup>54</sup>On the eighth day, the prince of Manasseh's descendants, Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur, made his offering; <sup>55</sup>His gift was one silver dish weighing about  $3\frac{3}{4}$  pounds and one silver basin of about  $1\frac{3}{4}$  pounds, in accordance with the standard weight of the sanctuary — both full of fine flour mixed with oil for a grain-offering; <sup>56</sup>one gold pan of about four ounces full of incense; <sup>57</sup>one young bull from the cattle, one ram, and one male year-old lamb, for a burnt-offering; <sup>58</sup>one male goat for a sin-offering; <sup>59</sup>and for the peace-offering sacrifice, two bullocks, five rams, five he-goats, and five male year-old lambs. This was the gift of Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur.

<sup>60</sup>On the ninth day, the prince of Benjamin's descendants, Abidan the son of Gideoni, made his offering; <sup>61</sup>His gift was one silver dish weighing about  $3\frac{3}{4}$  pounds and one silver basin of about  $1\frac{3}{4}$  pounds, in accordance with the standard weight of the sanctuary — both full of fine flour mixed with oil for a grain-offering; <sup>62</sup>one gold pan of about four ounces full of incense; <sup>63</sup>one young bull from the cattle, one ram, and one male year-old lamb for a burnt-offering; <sup>64</sup>one male goat for a sin-offering; <sup>65</sup>and for a peace-offering sacrifice, two bullocks, five rams, five he-goats, and five male year-old lambs. This was the gift of Abidan the son of Gideoni.

<sup>66</sup>On the tenth day, the prince of Dan's descendants, Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai, made his offering; <sup>67</sup>His gift was one silver dish weighing about  $3\frac{3}{4}$  pounds and one silver basin of about  $1\frac{3}{4}$  pounds, in accordance with the standard weight of the sanctuary — both full of fine flour mixed with oil for a grain-offering; <sup>68</sup>one gold pan of about four ounces full of incense; <sup>69</sup>one young bull from the cattle, one ram, and one male year-old lamb for a burnt-offering; <sup>70</sup>one male goat for a sin-offering; <sup>71</sup>and for the peace-offering sacrifice, two bullocks, five rams, five he-goats, and five male year-old lambs. This was the gift of Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai.

<sup>72</sup>On the eleventh day, the prince of Asher's descendants, Pagiel the son of Ochran, made his offering; <sup>73</sup>His gift was one silver dish weighing about  $3\frac{3}{4}$  pounds, and one silver basin of about  $1\frac{3}{4}$  pounds, in accordance with the standard weight of the sanctuary — both full of fine flour mixed with oil for a grain-offering; <sup>74</sup>one gold pan of about four ounces full of incense; <sup>75</sup>one young bull from the cattle, one ram, and one male year-old lamb, for a burnt-offering; <sup>76</sup>one male goat for a sin-offering; <sup>77</sup>and for the peace-offering sacrifice, two bullocks, five rams, five he-goats, and five male year-old lambs. This was the gift of Pagiel the son of Ochran.

<sup>78</sup>Finally on the twelfth day, the prince of Naphtali's descendants, Ahira the son of Enan, made his offering; <sup>79</sup>His gift was one silver dish weighing about  $3\frac{3}{4}$  pounds, and one silver basin of about  $1\frac{3}{4}$  pounds, in accordance with the standard weight of the sanctuary — both full of fine flour mixed with oil for a grain-offering; <sup>80</sup>one gold pan of about four ounces full of incense; <sup>81</sup>one young bull from the cattle, one ram, and one male year-old lamb, for a burnt-offering; <sup>82</sup>one male goat for a sin-offering; <sup>83</sup>and for the peace-offering sacrifice, two bullocks, five rams, five he-goats, and five male year-old lambs. This was the gift of Ahira the son of Enan.

<sup>84</sup>The foregoing was the dedicatory gift from the princes of Israel for the altar on the day it was anointed; it included twelve silver dishes, twelve silver basins, twelve gold pans, <sup>85</sup>each silver dish weighed about  $3\frac{3}{4}$  pounds and each silver basin, about  $1\frac{3}{4}$  pounds. The total weight of the silver utensils was about sixty pounds,<sup>u</sup> in accordance with the standard weight of the sanctuary. <sup>86</sup>The twelve gold pans full of incense weighed about four ounces apiece, in accordance with the standard weight of the sanctuary; all the gold of the pans amounted to four pounds.<sup>v</sup> <sup>87</sup>The total number of animals for the burnt-offering was twelve young bulls from the cattle, twelve rams, and twelve male year-old lambs with their grain-offerings; for the sin-offering, twelve male goats; <sup>88</sup>and the total number of animals for the peace offering sacrifice was twenty-four young bulls from the cattle, sixty rams, sixty he-goats, and sixty year-old lambs. This was the dedicatory gift for the altar after it had been anointed. <sup>89</sup>When Moses entered the meeting tent to talk with Him, he heard the Voice speaking to him from between the two cherubim and above the mercy seat<sup>w</sup> which was on the Ark of the Testimony; in this manner He spoke to him.

1445 B.C.

8 THE LORD SAID TO MOSES: <sup>2</sup>SPEAK with Aaron and tell him, When you place the lamps, let the seven lamps shine frontward from the lampstand. <sup>3</sup>Aaron acted accordingly; he placed the lamps so that they faced outward from the lampstand, just as the LORD had directed Moses. <sup>4</sup>As for the fashioning of the lampstand,* it was hammered work of gold; it was of hammered work from the base to the flowers. Thus he fashioned the lampstand according to the pattern which the LORD had shown Moses.

<sup>5</sup>The LORD further told Moses: <sup>6</sup>Take the men of Levi from among the people of Israel and cleanse<sup>y</sup> them. <sup>7</sup>To accomplish this cleansing, do this to them: sprinkle the purifying water<sup>z</sup> over them and have them shave their entire bodies with a razor, and have them wash their clothes and cleanse themselves. <sup>8</sup>Then have them procure a young bull from the cattle with its grain-offering — fine flour mixed with oil.<sup>a</sup> Moreover, take another young bull from the cattle for a sin-offering. <sup>9</sup>Next bring the men of Levi to the front of the meeting tent and assemble the entire congregation of the people of Israel. <sup>10</sup>Present the men of Levi before the LORD and let the people of Israel place their hands on them.<sup>b</sup> <sup>11</sup>Aaron shall then offer<sup>c</sup> the Levites as a wave offering before the LORD from the people of Israel so that the Levites may be in position to execute the LORD's service.<sup>d</sup> <sup>12</sup>As for the Levites, have them lay their hands on the heads of the bulls; then offer one as a sin-offering and the other as a burnt-offering to the LORD to atone for the men of Levi. <sup>13</sup>Moreover, place the men of Levi before Aaron and his sons and offer them as a wave offering to the LORD.

<sup>14</sup>In this way you are to separate the Levites from the people of Israel, so they will belong to Me. <sup>15</sup>Hereafter the men of Levi shall enter to perform duties connected with the meeting tent. Cleanse them and offer them as a wave offering, <sup>16</sup>for they must definitely be given to Me from among the people of Israel as a substitute for all who open the womb; the first born of

u) 2400 dollars. v) 120 dollars. w) See Ex. 25:22. x) See Ex. 25:31-37.

y) The word sanctify is used for the priest's cleansing in Ex. 29:1. The Levitical service, in comparison with the priestly service, was of a less solemn and sacred nature.

z) Used symbolically of purification, possibly with water from the laver.

a) For a burnt offering.

b) Presumably representatives of both groups took part in this ceremony. c) Symbolically.

d) The laborious service connected with the Dwelling, see 3:25-26.

all the people of Israel, for I have chosen them for Myself. <sup>17</sup>This is because all the first-born in the nation of Israel are rightfully Mine, both among man and beast, for at the time that I slew all the first-born in the land of Egypt, I set them apart for Myself.<sup>e</sup> <sup>18</sup>I have, however, chosen the Levites as a substitute for all Israel's first-born. In addition, <sup>19</sup>I have given the men of Levi as a gift to Aaron and his sons from among the nation of Israel to perform the service<sup>f</sup> of her people in the meeting tent and to atone for them, so that there may not be a plague in the nation of Israel when her people approach the Holy Place.<sup>g</sup>

<sup>20</sup>Therefore Moses, Aaron, and the entire assembly<sup>h</sup> of the men of Israel dealt with the Levites in accordance with everything that the LORD had commanded Moses concerning them; thus the people of Israel dealt with them. <sup>21</sup>The men of Levi cleansed themselves from sin and washed their clothes; then Aaron offered them as a wave offering in the presence of the LORD and made atonement for them for their purification. <sup>22</sup>From that time on the men of Levi came in to do their work in the meeting tent in the presence of Aaron and his sons. In short, they took the proper steps with the Levites, even as the LORD had directed Moses concerning them.

<sup>23</sup>In addition, the LORD said to Moses: <sup>24</sup>This applies to the men of Levi: Starting at the age of 25, they shall commence to engage in active duty in the service of the meeting tent. <sup>25</sup>At the age of 50, however, they shall retire from active duty in the service and shall not be employed anymore. <sup>26</sup>Hereafter they shall assist<sup>i</sup> their fellow workers in the meeting tent in keeping with the office, but shall not discharge the regular duties. So shall you deal with the men of Levi in connection with their office.

March/April, 1445 B.C.

9 IN THE FIRST MONTH OF THE SECOND year after their departure from the land of Egypt, the LORD had instructed<sup>j</sup> Moses in the wilderness of Sinai: <sup>2</sup>The people of Israel are to observe the Passover<sup>k</sup> at its designated time. <sup>3</sup>The fourteenth of this month at dusk<sup>l</sup> is the assigned date for you to keep it, and be sure to observe it according to all its rules and regulations.<sup>m</sup> <sup>4</sup>So Moses directed the nation of Israel to keep the Passover. <sup>5</sup>They observed the Passover in the wilderness of Sinai on the fourteenth day of the first month at dusk; the people of Israel did exactly as the LORD had instructed Moses.

<sup>6</sup>Certain men, however, were not able to observe the Passover that day, because they had been defiled, contacting a person's corpse. Those men, therefore, came to Moses and Aaron the same day <sup>7</sup>and told him<sup>n</sup> their predicament. "We have been defiled by a man's corpse, but why should we be prohibited from presenting among the people of Israel the sacrificial gift<sup>o</sup> of the LORD at its designated time?" <sup>8</sup>Moses replied to them, "Wait while I see what the LORD prescribes in your case."<sup>p</sup>

<sup>9</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses: <sup>10</sup>Speak to the nation of Israel in this manner: If anyone of you or of your descendants is defiled by a corpse or is on a long trip, he too must keep the Passover. <sup>11</sup>Let them, however, observe it on the fourteenth day of the second month<sup>q</sup> at dusk, eating both unleavened bread and bitter herbs with it.

e) See Ex. 13:1,2.

f) Both the work connected with the Dwelling and the service due to the LORD from the first born. g) God's holiness must be revered. h) The main representatives of the people.

i) Doing less exacting, less important work. j) It seems that these instructions were given the same day that the tabernacle was erected, one month prior to the events of chapter one, see 9:15 and Ex. 40:2,17.

k) This was a command. The observance was to remind the people how God had delivered them from the bondage of Egypt, typifying their deliverance through the Redeemer Christ from the bondage of sin [I Cor. 5:7]. l) Heb. — "between the two evenings," probably between sunset and dark. See Ex. 12.

m) An unclean person could not participate in a sacrificial meal [Lev. 7:20,21. Compare I Cor. 11:28,29]. n) Moses. o) The Passover lamb.

p) God always has the right answer to every problem [see James 1:5].

q) The entire nation observed it after the revival under Hezekiah [II Chron. 30:15].

<sup>12</sup>They are not to keep any of it over until morning or break one of its bones;<sup>r</sup> they are to observe carefully every regulation of the Passover. <sup>13</sup>On the other hand, if any individual who is clean and not traveling fails to observe the Passover, that person is to be cut off from his fellowmen because the sacrificial gift for the LORD was not presented at its proper time; that individual must pay for his sin.<sup>s</sup> <sup>14</sup>If a foreigner resides among you and wishes to keep the LORD's Passover, he also must observe it according to its rules and regulations;<sup>t</sup> all must abide by the same rule, both the foreigner and the native.<sup>u</sup>

<sup>15</sup>On the day when the tabernacle was erected, the cloud covered the Dwelling, the tent containing the testimonial evidence,<sup>v</sup> and from evening until morning over the tabernacle it had the appearance of fire. <sup>16</sup>Thus it was continually; the cloud would cover it by day and the form of fire at night. <sup>17</sup>The people of Israel, moreover, would break camp and depart whenever the cloud was taken up from above the tent; and at the place where it stationed itself, there the people would camp. <sup>18</sup>At the LORD's command the people of Israel pulled up stakes, and at His command they halted, remaining encamped as long as the cloud was stationed above the tabernacle.<sup>w</sup> <sup>19</sup>Whenever the cloud remained in this position for some time, the men of Israel would not break camp but would perform the service of the LORD.<sup>x</sup> <sup>20</sup>If the cloud was over the tabernacle for only a few days, still at the LORD's command they would encamp and at His command they would decamp. <sup>21</sup>Sometimes the cloud would remain only from evening until morning; in this case in the morning after the cloud was taken up, they would break camp. Whether it was during the day or at night, whenever the cloud was removed they would pull up stakes. <sup>22</sup>If the cloud continued to remain over the tabernacle for a day or two, or a month, or even for a longer period, the Israelites would remain in camp and not leave; but when it was taken up, they moved on. <sup>23</sup>At the LORD's command they camped, and again at His command they would leave.<sup>y</sup> They performed the LORD's service as He had directed through Moses.

March/April, 1445 B.C.

10 THE LORD FURTHER SAID TO Moses: <sup>2</sup>Make you two silver trumpets; fashion them of hammered work; they are for you to use for summoning the assembly and for breaking camp. <sup>3</sup>When they sound both of them, the entire assembly<sup>z</sup> is to gather at the door of the tent of meeting. <sup>4</sup>If, however, they blow only one, then just the princes, the leaders of Israel's thousands, are to assemble before you. <sup>5</sup>When you sound a blast, the camp situated on the east side shall start to break camp and to leave, <sup>6</sup>and at the sound of a second blast, those situated on the south side shall break camp; a blast is given for their departure. <sup>7</sup>If you merely want to summon the assembly, however, then blow,<sup>a</sup> but without giving a blast. <sup>8</sup>Aaron's sons, the priests, are to blow the trumpets, and the use of them shall be continually binding upon you throughout your future generations. <sup>9</sup>When you go to war in your own country against the enemy who oppresses you, then sound an alarm with the trumpets. The LORD your God will take note of your situation and you will be delivered from your enemies.<sup>b</sup> <sup>10</sup>On any celebration day, also on your appointed feasts<sup>c</sup> and on the first day of your months, you are to blow the trumpets over your burnt-offerings and over the sacrifices of your peace-offerings, for they<sup>d</sup> serve

r) See Ex. 12:8,10,46, so with Christ, our Passover Lamb, John 19:33,36.

s) Indifference to God's specific command meant excommunication. Does such indifference today go unnoticed and unpunished? [See Prov. 24:11,12].

t) The foreigner must be circumcised to enjoy those privileges [Ex. 12:48,49]. u) The Hebrew.

v) See Ex. 40:34ff, for similar statement, but including mention of divine glory.

w) Today the church is led by the Spirit through faith more than by sight.

x) The service connected with the tabernacle.

y) The instructions for our daily walk are as definite and binding [see Deut. 30:11-14].

z) The nation's representatives. a) Blowing in short, sharp tones rather than in a steady blast.

b) Any true victory must be gained through God's strength [Ps. 44:5-7].

c) The three annual feasts [see Chap. 28,29]. d) The trumpets.

NUMBERS 10

for your remembrance before your God; I am the LORD.

<sup>11</sup>On the twentieth day of the second month in the second year, the cloud ascended from above the Dwelling containing the testimonial evidence, <sup>12</sup>and the Israelites broke camp and departed in prescribed groups<sup>e</sup> from the wilderness of Sinai, and the cloud came to a halt in the wilderness of Paran.<sup>f</sup> <sup>13</sup>This was the first time they broke camp at the LORD's command under Moses' ministry. <sup>14</sup>The first to start out, in accord with the LORD's command through Moses, was the camp standard of Judah's descendants. They traveled in the lead position with their divisions,<sup>g</sup> Nahshon the son of Amminadab being in command of this army.<sup>h</sup> <sup>15</sup>Nethanel the son of Zuar commanded the division comprised of the tribe of Issachar's descendants, <sup>16</sup>and Eliab the son of Helon, commanded the division comprised of the tribe of Zebulun's descendants. <sup>17</sup>The tabernacle was then dismantled and the men of Gershon and Merari, the bearers of the Dwelling set out.

<sup>18</sup>Next came the camp standard of Reuben according to its divisions; Elizur the son of Shedeur being in command of this army. <sup>19</sup>Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai commanded the division comprised of the tribe of Simeon's descendants, <sup>20</sup>and Eliasaph the son of Reuel commanded the division comprised of the tribe of Gad's descendants. <sup>21</sup>Then the Kohathites, who were the bearers of the sanctuary,<sup>i</sup> departed — but before they arrived at their destination the tabernacle was to be already erected.<sup>j</sup>

<sup>22</sup>Next followed the camp standard of Ephraim's descendants according to its divisions, Elishama the son of Am-

The Silver Trumpets; Leaving Sinai

mihud was in command of this army. <sup>23</sup>Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur commanded the division made up of the tribe of Manasseh's descendants, <sup>24</sup>and Abidan the son of Gideon commanded the division consisting of the tribe of Benjamin's descendants. <sup>25</sup>Bringing up the rear for all the camps was the camp standard of Dan's descendants according to its divisions; Ahiezer, the son of Ammishaddai being in command of this army. <sup>26</sup>Pagiel the son of Ochran commanded the division comprised of the tribe of Asher's descendants, <sup>27</sup>and Ahira the son of Enan commanded the division composed of the tribe of Naphtali's descendants. <sup>28</sup>These were the arrangements in which the nation of Israel traveled with its armies.

<sup>29</sup>Before they left, however, Moses had told Hobab,<sup>k</sup> the son of Reuel the Midianite, Moses' father-in-law, "We are on our way to the place about which the LORD has promised. 'I will give it to you.' Come along with us and we shall make it worth your while, because the LORD has mentioned good things about Israel." <sup>30</sup>But he replied to him, "I cannot go; I must return to my native land and to my family." <sup>31</sup>Then he begged him, "Please do not leave us, for you know about our camping here in the wilderness, and you shall be for us as eyes. <sup>32</sup>Moreover, if you will go with us, we shall promote your welfare with whatever good the LORD shall prosper us."<sup>m</sup>

<sup>33</sup>After breaking camp, they left the mountain of the LORD<sup>n</sup> and traveled for three days, with the Ark of the LORD's Testimony preceding them the three days in order to choose a place for them to rest.<sup>o</sup> <sup>34</sup>The LORD's cloud was over them daily as they traveled

e) In the order prescribed in the following verses; see also ch. 2.

f) This is a general heading for the next few chapters, since many events and a few minor stops occurred before their arrival at Paran, recorded in ch. 12:16.

g) According to the order of march established in ch. 2.

h) In addition to the tribe of Judah, he had the general supervision of the following two tribes.

i) And all the sacred things; see ch. 4:4ff.

j) This provided immediate shelter and a worship center.

k) Moses' brother-in-law may have come to Sinai with his father, Reuel (Jethro), Ex. 18:1-5, to remain after his father went home, Ex. 18:27.

m) Although his decision is not recorded, he must have complied with Moses' request, since his descendants are mentioned later as living in Canaan [Judges 1:16; 1 Sam. 15:6].

n) Mt. Sinai, or Horeb, as called in Deuteronomy.

o) The LORD always looks out for the best for His children [Deut. 31:8].

from camp, <sup>35</sup>and whenever the Ark started out, Moses prayed, "O LORD, arise and let Thy<sup>p</sup> enemies be dispersed; make those who hate Thee flee from Thy presence." <sup>36</sup>When it came to a halt he would pray, "Return,<sup>q</sup> O LORD, to the countless thousands of Israel."

11 NOW THE PEOPLE COMPLAINED of misfortune in the LORD's hearing and when the LORD heard it, His anger flamed up, whereupon the fire of the LORD burned among them; it devoured those at the far end of the camp. <sup>2</sup>The people then came wailing to Moses, who supplicated the LORD and the fire died down. <sup>3</sup>That place came to be called Taberah,<sup>r</sup> because the fire of the LORD had burned among them.

<sup>4</sup>Moreover, the alien rabble<sup>a</sup> among them began to have cravings; likewise, the people of Israel turned again to weeping and cried, "Who is giving us meat to eat? <sup>5</sup>We still remember the fish we used to eat gratis in Egypt, not to mention the cucumbers, water-melons, leeks, onions and garlic. <sup>6</sup>But now our souls are famished; there is nothing at all upon which to look except this manna."<sup>u</sup> <sup>7</sup>The manna was like coriander seed<sup>v</sup> and had the appearance of resinous gum.<sup>w</sup> <sup>8</sup>After the people had gone out and gathered it, they would grind it with millstones or beat it in a mortar. It was then boiled in a pot and made into cakes. It tasted something like a cake baked with oil.<sup>x</sup> <sup>9</sup>When the dew fell on the camp at night, the manna fell with it.

<sup>10</sup>When Moses heard the people whining throughout their families, each man at the door of his tent, it not only greatly inflamed the LORD's indignation, but Moses too felt chagrined. <sup>11</sup>Moses, therefore, asked the LORD,

"Why hast Thou afflicted Thy servant so, and why have I not found favor in Thy eyes, that Thou hast placed the responsibility of all these people upon me? <sup>12</sup>Was it I who conceived all these people, or am I the one who gave birth to them that Thou shouldst say to me, 'Carry them in your bosom, as a nurse lifts up the nursing child,' to the land Thou hast promised to their forefathers? <sup>13</sup>Where can I get enough meat to give to all these people when they whine to me, saying, 'Give us some meat to eat?' <sup>14</sup>I am unable to bear the responsibility of all these people alone; they are too much for me! <sup>15</sup>If this is the way Thou art going to deal with me, please kill me now, if I have found favor in Thy eyes; do not make me face my misfortune!"

<sup>16</sup>The LORD then directed Moses: Assemble Me 70 men from the elders of Israel whom you know to be elders and officials<sup>x</sup> of the people. Bring them to the tent of meeting, and let them stand there with you. <sup>17</sup>I shall come down and talk with you there and shall take of the Spirit who rests upon you and place Him upon them in order that they may share the responsibility of the people with you, and you will not have to continue bearing it alone. <sup>18</sup>Moreover, give the following instructions to the people: "Cleanse yourselves<sup>y</sup> for tomorrow, because you are going to eat meat. You have cried in the LORD's ears, 'If only we were given meat to eat! Surely we were well off in Egypt!' Therefore, the LORD will give you meat to eat. <sup>19</sup>You will not eat it for one day only, nor two, nor five, nor ten, nor twenty, <sup>20</sup>but for an entire month until it comes out of your nose and becomes nauseating to you. This is the result of your having spurned the LORD, who is among you, and of your having grumbled to His face,"<sup>z</sup>

p) His enemies are our enemies.

q) Essentially, "Return and dwell among us after defeating Thy enemies." r) Heb. — "Burning."

s) The foreign element that came out of Egypt with Israel [see Ex. 12:38].

t) Contrast Phil. 4:11.

u) A small round seed about the size of a black pepper-corn used for seasoning.

v) A fragrant and transparent resin resembling wax. w) See Ex. 16:14,31.

x) Men who were respected and held in esteem by the people.

y) They were to be physically and spiritually fit to witness the LORD's glory in the coming miraculous provision of meat [Comp. Isa. 59:1,2].

z) God notices the actions, words and thoughts of every person in every place [Prov. 5:21; Matt. 12:36,37; Heb. 4:13].

saying, 'Why did we ever leave Egypt?'"

<sup>21</sup>But Moses queried, "The people I am with are six hundred thousand infantrymen; but Thou hast said, 'I will give them so much meat that they shall gorge for an entire month.' <sup>22</sup>Can one find enough flocks and herds to slay for them; or if all the fish in the sea were caught, would enough be found for them?" <sup>23</sup>The LORD replied to Moses: May the LORD's hand be too short? You will see presently whether I keep My word with you or not.

<sup>24</sup>Moses went outdoors and repeated to the people what the LORD had said; furthermore, he assembled seventy men from the elders of the people and stationed them around the tent.<sup>a</sup> <sup>25</sup>The LORD then came down in the cloud and spoke to him, took of the Spirit who was upon him, and had Him rest upon seventy of the elders.<sup>b</sup> After the Spirit had come upon them, they prophesied once, but not again.

<sup>26</sup>Two men, however, stayed in the camp;<sup>c</sup> the one's name was Eldad, the other's Medad. They were among those who had been listed, but they had failed to go out to the tent; nevertheless, the Spirit came upon them, too, and they prophesied in the camp. <sup>27</sup>Then a young man ran and reported to Moses: "Eldad and Medad are prophesying in the camp!" <sup>28</sup>Joshua, the son of Nun, who had been Moses' attendant since he was a youth, spoke up and said, "My master Moses, make them stop!" <sup>29</sup>Moses answered him, "Are you jealous for my sake? I wish that all the LORD's people were prophets; that the LORD would put His Spirit upon them too." <sup>30</sup>And Moses, accompanied by the elders of Israel, returned to the camp.

<sup>31</sup>The LORD caused a wind to arise which brought quail from the sea, scattering them in the neighborhood of the camp about as far as one could walk in a day in either direction from the camp and lowering them to about three feet above the ground.<sup>d</sup> <sup>32</sup>The people went out and spent all that day, all that night, and all the next day gathering the quail; even the one gathering the least obtained more than a hundred bushels which they spread out all around the camp.<sup>e</sup> <sup>33</sup>But while the meat was still unchewed between their teeth, the LORD's anger flared up against the people, and the LORD struck them with a terrible plague. <sup>34</sup>Henceforth that place was called Kibroth-hattaavah,<sup>f</sup> because it was there they buried the people who had been so greedy. <sup>35</sup>From Kibroth-hattaavah the people traveled to Hazeroth, and there they remained.

June, 1445 B.C.

12 MIRIAM CONVERSED WITH AARON about Moses regarding the Cushite woman he had married;<sup>g</sup> for he had married a woman of Cush.<sup>h</sup> <sup>2</sup>They said, "Has the LORD spoken exclusively through Moses? Has He not also communed through us?" And the LORD heard it. <sup>3</sup>Now this man Moses was very gentle, more than any other person on earth.<sup>i</sup> <sup>4</sup>At once the LORD said to Moses, Aaron, and Miriam: You three come out to the tent of meeting; so the three came out. <sup>5</sup>Then the LORD came down in the cloudy pillar, stood at the door of the tent, and summoned Aaron and Miriam. As the two stepped forward, He said: <sup>6</sup>Pay attention to My words. If there is a prophet among you, I the LORD will make Myself known to him in a vision; I will speak with him in a dream. <sup>7</sup>Not so with My servant Moses, who is trusted in all My house.<sup>j</sup> <sup>8</sup>With him I speak in person, plainly, not obscurely. He shall view the very form of the

a) In half circle in front of the tent.

b) Anything done in the LORD's behalf demands supernatural power [Acts 1:8]. The Spirit was in no way diminished by this extension. c) The tent was pitched outside the camp [Ex. 33:7].

d) Making it easy for the Hebrews to catch or kill them. e) To cure them by drying.

f) Heb. — "Graves of the greedy."

g. Descendant of Ham, [Gen. 10:6,7] which group settled in Ethiopia.

h) Miriam must have seen her influence on Moses dwindling under this new relationship.

i) This was not self glory on the part of Moses but the stating of a fact, necessary for the full understanding of this incident.

j) Found worthy of God's confidence in everything pertaining to the guidance of the house of Israel.

LORD.<sup>k</sup> Why then are you not afraid to speak against My servant Moses?<sup>9</sup> Then the anger of the LORD was kindled against them, and He departed.<sup>10</sup> But when the cloud withdrew from above the tent, there was Miriam leprous, white as snow.<sup>1</sup>

Aaron turned to Miriam, and when he saw that she was leprous, <sup>11</sup>he begged Moses, "Oh, please, my master, do not count this offense against us in which we have acted so foolishly, in which we have sinned." <sup>12</sup>Please do not let her be as a dead person, as one who is stillborn with half his flesh decomposed." <sup>13</sup>So Moses cried out to the LORD, "O God, I beseech Thee, heal her!" <sup>14</sup>The LORD answered Moses: If her father had publicly spit in her face, would she not be humiliated for seven days? She must be excluded from the camp for seven days; then she may come back. <sup>15</sup>Therefore, Miriam was excluded from the camp for seven days, but the people did not leave until Miriam had been reinstated. <sup>16</sup>Afterwards the people left Hazeroth and made camp in the wilderness of Paran.

August, 1445 B.C.

13 <sup>2</sup>THE LORD NOW TOLD MOSES: <sup>2</sup>Send out men, so they may spy out the land of Canaan which I am giving to the Israelites.<sup>n</sup> Send one man as representative from each of their father's tribes, each a ruler among them. <sup>3</sup>Moses, therefore, sent them from the wilderness of Paran<sup>o</sup> as the LORD had directed, and all the men were leaders among the people of Israel. <sup>4</sup>These are their names: From the tribe of Reuben, Shammua the son of Zaccur; <sup>5</sup>from the tribe of Simeon, Shaphat the son of Hori; <sup>6</sup>from the tribe of Judah, Caleb the son of Jephunneh; <sup>7</sup>from the tribe of Issachar, Igal the son of Joseph; <sup>8</sup>from the tribe of Ephraim, Hoshea the son of Nun; <sup>9</sup>from the tribe of Benjamin, Palti the son of Raphu; <sup>10</sup>from the tribe of Zebulun, Gaddiel the son of Sodi; <sup>11</sup>from Joseph—that is, from the tribe of Manasseh—Gaddi the son of Susi; <sup>12</sup>from the tribe of Dan, Ammiel the son of Gemalli; <sup>13</sup>from the tribe of Asher, Sethur the son of Michael; <sup>14</sup>from the tribe of Naphtali, Nahbi the son of Vophsi; <sup>15</sup>and from the tribe of Gad, Geuel the son of Machi. <sup>16</sup>These are the names of the men whom Moses dispatched to spy out the land; and Moses called Hoshea, the son of Nun, Joshua.

<sup>17</sup>When Moses sent them to spy out the land of Canaan, he gave them these instructions, "Go up this way into the Negeb<sup>p</sup>— and on up through the highlands. <sup>18</sup>Find out what the land is like, and whether the people who are living in it are strong or weak, few or many. <sup>19</sup>Notice whether the nature of the land is good or bad, and whether the cities in which they live are mere camps or fortified cities. <sup>20</sup>See what the land is like, whether it is fertile or barren, and whether it is covered with trees or not. Moreover, do your best to bring back some fruit from the land," for this was at the season when the grapes first ripened.<sup>q</sup>

<sup>21</sup>So they went up and spied out the land from the wilderness of Zin as far as Rehob, which is on the way to Hamath. <sup>22</sup>They went up through the Negeb and came to Hebron, where Ahiman, Sheshai, and Talmi, the sons of Anak,<sup>r</sup> were. Hebron was built seven years prior to Zoan in Egypt.<sup>s</sup> <sup>23</sup>When they came to the valley of Eshcol, they cut a branch having a single cluster of grapes, which two of them carried on a pole between them;

k) Some real manifestations, Ex. 33:18 ff. l) She had taken the lead in this insurrection, vs. 1. Aaron again showed his lack of will power, as in making the golden calf.

n) Notice the parallel account in Deut. 1:19-46.

o) The particular place in this region was Kadesh-barnea, vs. 26; Deut. 1:19.

p) The south country. It was a dry, parched district, the least fertile of Canaan, extending northward from Kadesh to within a few miles of Hebron, and from the Dead Sea westward to the Mediterranean. q) Late July or August.

r) The Anakim were a race of giants [Deut. 1:28; 9:2], of whom the Nephilim were a division [Num. 13:33].

s) The exact date is not known, but Hebron was known in Abraham's time, 2000 B.C., Gen. 13:18. It may, however, refer to a rebuilding of Hebron, 7 years before the founding of Avaris-Tanis-Zoan.

they also brought some pomegranates and figs. <sup>24</sup>That place was called the valley of Eshcol<sup>t</sup> because of the cluster of grapes which the men of Israel cut there.

<sup>25</sup>After forty days they returned from spying out the land, <sup>26</sup>traveling until they arrived at Kadesh in the wilderness of Paran where Moses, Aaron and the entire assembly of the people were. Showing them the fruit of the land, <sup>27</sup>they gave their report to them and to the entire assembly. They reported to him, "We came to the country to which you sent us, and it certainly is flowing with milk and honey; this is its fruit. <sup>28</sup>But the people who live in the land are strong and the cities are fortified and very large. Besides, we saw the descendants of Anak there. <sup>29</sup>Amalek lives in the Negeb territory; the Hittites, Jebusites and Amorites live in the highlands and the Canaanites live along the seacoast and along the edge of the Jordan."

<sup>30</sup>Then Caleb calmed<sup>u</sup> the people in Moses' presence and urged, "Let us confidently go up and conquer it, for we are well able to do it." <sup>31</sup>But the men who went up with him said, "We are not able to go up against these people; they are too strong for us." <sup>32</sup>And they brought to the people of Israel this discouraging report of the land which they had spied out, "The land through which we passed as spies is a land that devours its inhabitants,<sup>v</sup> and all the people we saw in it are men of great stature. <sup>33</sup>We saw there the Nephilim, the descendants of Anak, who are of the giants." Even to ourselves we looked like grasshoppers, and so we looked to them!"

Sept., 1445 B.C.

14 THEN THE ENTIRE CONGREGATION raised their voices, and the people wept throughout that night.

<sup>2</sup>The entire nation of Israel began to complain against Moses and Aaron to such a degree that the whole concourse said to them, "Oh, that we had perished in the land of Egypt or even had died in this wilderness. <sup>3</sup>Why is the LORD bringing us into this land to slay us with the sword and to have our wives and children taken? Would it not be preferable for us to return to Egypt?" <sup>4</sup>They said to one another, "Let us appoint a leader and go back to Egypt."

<sup>5</sup>Moses and Aaron fell on their faces before the entire congregation of the people of Israel which had assembled.<sup>x</sup> <sup>6</sup>But Joshua the son of Nun and Caleb the son of Jephunneh, two of those who had gone to find out what the land was like, tore their clothes <sup>7</sup>and told the whole gathering of Israel, "The land through which we passed as spies is an extremely fertile land. <sup>8</sup>If the LORD is pleased with us, He will bring us in and give us this land which is flowing with milk and honey. <sup>9</sup>Above all, neither rebel against the LORD nor have fear of the native population; they shall be as bread to us.<sup>y</sup> Their defense is as a vanishing shadow, for the LORD is with us; do not fear them." <sup>10</sup>At these words the whole crowd was on the verge of hurling stones at them when suddenly the glory of the LORD<sup>z</sup> appeared in the entire nation of Israel in the tent of meeting.

<sup>11</sup>How long are these people going to spurn Me? the LORD said to Moses. How long will they mistrust Me, not heeding all the miracles which I have performed among them?<sup>a</sup> <sup>12</sup>I will destroy them with a plague, and thus having disinherited them I will propagate through you a greater and more powerful nation than they. <sup>13</sup>But Moses replied<sup>b</sup> to the LORD, "When Egypt, from whose presence Thou didst bring this nation in Thy strength, hears of <sup>t</sup>) Heb. — "Cluster." <sup>u</sup>) The majority report had greatly excited the people.

<sup>v</sup>) Perhaps referring to the Negeb, see footnote to vs. 17.

<sup>w</sup>) The Nephilim, who cannot be the offspring of the "sons of God," Gen. 6:2,4, are known to have been mighty men, renowned.

<sup>x</sup>) They realized from experience that the LORD would not tolerate such rebellion, ch. 11; Ex. 32.

<sup>y</sup>) That is, we shall consume them. <sup>z</sup>) A manifestation of the LORD in a cloud.

<sup>a</sup>) The world is still despising His riches [Rom. 2:4].

<sup>b</sup>) This man of meekness, who conversed with the LORD face to face, could thus debate with the LORD. He did this once before and won [Ex. 32:10-14]. See also Ps. 106:23. His prime argument is that the LORD's reputation is at stake.

this, <sup>14</sup>they will inform those who live in this land. They have heard that Thou, LORD, art among these people, even to the extent that Thou, LORD, art seen with the naked eye; that Thy cloud watches over them constantly, and that Thou takest the lead before them in a cloudy pillar by day and in a fiery pillar by night. <sup>15</sup>If Thou destroyest this people down to the last man, Thou knowest what the nations, who have heard of Thy reputation, will say: <sup>16</sup>'The LORD was not able to bring this nation to the land which He promised them, so He destroyed them in the wilderness.' <sup>17</sup>But now verify my LORD's great power, that it be as outstanding as Thou hast affirmed, saying: <sup>18</sup>The LORD is patient and exceedingly merciful, forgiving iniquity and transgression; but He is One who will on no occasion leave the guilty unpunished; One who requires of the children down to the third and fourth generations to pay for the iniquity of their parents.<sup>4</sup> <sup>19</sup>Forgive, I beseech Thee, the sin of these people in keeping with the greatness of Thy mercy, as Thou hast forgiven them ever since they left Egypt."

<sup>20</sup>The LORD said: I have forgiven them at your request; <sup>21</sup>nevertheless, as surely as I live and as the earth is full of the LORD's glory — <sup>22</sup>seeing that all these men, who have constantly witnessed My glory and My miracles which I have performed in both Egypt and in the wilderness, have nonetheless tried Me these ten times<sup>c</sup> and disregarded My word — <sup>23</sup>they shall never see the land which I promised by oath to their fathers; not one of those who have despised Me shall see it. <sup>24</sup>But because My servant Caleb has a different attitude and has wholeheartedly followed Me, I shall allow him to re-enter the land on which he once set foot, and it shall always belong to his descendants.<sup>f</sup> <sup>25</sup>The Amalekites and the Canaanites are living in the valley;

therefore, tomorrow you must turn back<sup>5</sup> and travel through the wilderness by way of the Red Sea.

<sup>26</sup>How long must I put up with this sinful assembly which is constantly grumbling against Me? protested the LORD to Moses and Aaron, <sup>27</sup>for I have heard the complaints of the people of Israel which they are continually muttering against Me. <sup>28</sup>Say to them, "As I live, declares the LORD, I am going to deal with you exactly as I have heard you prescribe it. <sup>29</sup>Your corpses shall fall in this wilderness, namely, all the enlisted men of your entire number above the age of twenty who have grumbled against Me. <sup>30</sup>None of you except Caleb, the son of Jephunneh, and Joshua, the son of Nun, shall enter the land in which I swore by the uplifted hand to establish you. <sup>31</sup>I will be, however, an escort to your little ones who, you said, would be taken, so that they may appreciate the land which you have rejected. <sup>32</sup>But as for you, your corpses shall fall in this wilderness. <sup>33</sup>And because of your unfaithfulness your sons will have to wander as shepherds in this wilderness for forty years until all your corpses lie in the desert. <sup>34</sup>The forty years during which you must pay the penalty for your sins shall be determined by the number of days which you spent in spying out the land; that is, forty days — a year for each day; then you will realize what it means to have Me against you. <sup>35</sup>I the LORD have spoken; I will most certainly deal with this entire wicked assembly which has conspired against Me, even as I stated; they shall succumb and die in this wilderness.

<sup>36</sup>Meanwhile, the men who had been dispatched by Moses to spy out the land and who on their return had prompted the entire assembly to grumble against him by starting a whispering campaign against the land, <sup>37</sup>these very men, who had spread this detri-

c) Moses' second argument. The LORD's character or Word is at stake. d) See Ex. 34:6,7.

e) The number of completeness. The LORD had enough; the promised judgment of Ex. 32:34 was now to be executed, for the punishment of sin is a divine principle which is not changed (Job 4:8, Gal. 6:7). f) See Josh. 14:6ff.

g) Apparently the hardest message of the incident. Unbelief had cost them the promises of God. Read the lesson as taught in Heb. 3:7-19.

mental report of the land, died from a sudden plague before the LORD.<sup>h</sup> <sup>38</sup>Joshua the son of Nun, and Caleb the son of Jephunneh alone survived of those men who had gone to spy out the land.

<sup>39</sup>When Moses relayed this message to the entire nation of Israel, the people mourned deeply. <sup>40</sup>Early next morning they got up and started to ascend the mountain. "Here we are," they said; "we realize that we have sinned, but we are now ready to proceed to the place which the LORD has promised." <sup>41</sup>Moses insisted, "Why are you trampling under foot the LORD's direct order? It will get you nowhere! <sup>42</sup>The LORD is not with you; do not go up or you will be decimated before your enemies. <sup>43</sup>You will fall in battle, for the Amalekite and the Canaanite are there to oppose you. Since you have deserted the LORD, how do you expect Him to be with you?" <sup>44</sup>Nevertheless they stubbornly persisted in climbing the mountainous plateau, despite the fact that neither the Ark of the LORD's covenant nor Moses left the camp.<sup>i</sup> <sup>45</sup>Then the Amalekites and the Canaanites who lived in that mountainous region came down and attacked them, driving them back in defeat as far as Hormah.

1444 B.C.

15 THE LORD GAVE THESE INSTRUCTIONS to Moses: <sup>2</sup>Address the people of Israel and tell them, "When you arrive at your destination in the land which I am giving you<sup>k</sup> <sup>3</sup>and would present a burnt offering or a sacrifice by fire to the LORD—whether in fulfilling a special vow, or as a free will offering, or at your set festivals,<sup>l</sup> offering it as a pleasing fragrance to the LORD from herd or flock; <sup>4</sup>then he who presents his offering to the LORD shall bring a meal offering composed of six pints<sup>m</sup> of fine flour mixed with three pints of oil<sup>n</sup> <sup>5</sup>and a drink offering of three pints of wine. Prepare this to accompany the burnt offering or the sacrifice of each lamb. <sup>6</sup>If it is a ram, then prepare a meal-offering composed of six quarts of fine flour mixed with two quarts of oil <sup>7</sup>and also a drink-offering of two quarts of wine; offer this as a pleasing fragrance to the LORD. <sup>8</sup>When you prepare a young bull for a burnt-offering or as a sacrifice to fulfill a special vow or for a peace-offering to the LORD, <sup>9</sup>one must present with the young bull a meal-offering composed of nine quarts of fine flour mixed with three quarts of oil <sup>10</sup>and also present three quarts of wine for a drink-offering. This shall be offered by fire as a pleasing fragrance, to the LORD. <sup>11</sup>Every bull, ram, lamb, and goat must be presented in this prescribed manner. <sup>12</sup>No matter how many you present, each one of the entire number must be prepared in the same way.

<sup>13</sup>Every native shall prepare these things in this same manner when presenting an offering by fire as a pleasing fragrance to the LORD. <sup>14</sup>And if a foreigner lives among you now or one among you in succeeding generations, who shall present an offering by fire for a pleasing fragrance to the LORD, he shall present it exactly as you do. <sup>15</sup>All residents, both you and the foreigner who lives with you, shall abide by the same regulation, and it shall continue in effect throughout all your future generations. The foreigner shall be regarded in the same light as you are before the LORD. <sup>16</sup>The same law and ordinance shall apply to both you and the foreigner who lives with you."

<sup>17</sup>The LORD said to Moses: <sup>18</sup>Address the people of Israel and tell them: When you arrive in the land to which I am conducting you <sup>19</sup>and have started to eat of its food, you are to offer a heave offering to the LORD. <sup>20</sup>For this heave offering, present a cake made from the first of your coarse

h) Being struck down by the hand of God in divine judgment. Compare Prov. 29:1.

i) To the sin of unbelief (vss. 1-4) is now added the sin of presumptuous self-confidence.

k) These instructions gave hope to the new generation, while judgment was being executed upon their fathers, who were made to wander in the wilderness of Paran, from the autumn of 1445 to the autumn of 1407. l) See Lev. 23.

m) One-tenth of an ephah, an ephah being a little less than a bushel.

n) One-fourth of a hin, a hin being about six quarts.

meal; offer it as a heave offering from the threshing floor.<sup>o</sup> <sup>21</sup>Down through your successive generations you are to give a heave offering to the LORD from the first of your coarse meal.

<sup>22</sup>If you make a mistake<sup>p</sup> and fail to observe all these commands which the LORD has spoken to Moses—<sup>23</sup>all these which the LORD has dictated to you by the ministry of Moses from the day He gave the commands down through your successive generations — <sup>24</sup>if it be committed ignorantly without the congregation realizing it, then the entire congregation must present a young bull for a burnt-offering, a pleasing fragrance to the LORD, along with its meal offering and drink offering as the ordinance prescribes.<sup>q</sup> There shall also be a young goat for a sin offering. <sup>25</sup>The priest shall atone for the entire congregation of the people of Israel, and since the sin was committed ignorantly, they shall be forgiven because they have presented their offering by fire to the LORD and their sin offering in the LORD's presence for their mistake. <sup>26</sup>Both the entire congregation of the people of Israel and the foreigner who lives among you shall be forgiven, seeing that all the people were in ignorance in the matter.

<sup>27</sup>If only one person should sin ignorantly, then he must present a year-old she-goat for a sin offering. <sup>28</sup>The priest shall atone before the LORD for the person who ignorantly sins by mistake, so that by making atonement for him, it may be forgiven him. <sup>29</sup>The native in the nation of Israel and the foreigner, who lives among you, shall benefit by the same law when he errs ignorantly. <sup>30</sup>But the person, whether the native or the foreigner, who defiantly rebels,<sup>r</sup> is a blasphemer against the LORD; that person must be destroyed from among his people, <sup>31</sup>because he has regarded the LORD's word with contempt and has violated His command; that person must unquestionably be cut off; his iniquity lies upon him.

<sup>32</sup>While the people of Israel were in the wilderness, they surprised a man gathering wood on the Sabbath day.<sup>s</sup> <sup>33</sup>Those who had surprised him gathering the wood, brought him to Moses, Aaron, and the whole congregation;<sup>t</sup> <sup>34</sup>but they were obliged to put him in confinement because there was no distinct ruling on how he should be punished.<sup>u</sup> <sup>35</sup>The man must most certainly be executed, the LORD told Moses. Have the entire congregation hurl stones at him outside the camp. <sup>36</sup>So the whole congregation took him outside the camp and threw stones at him until he died, as the LORD had directed Moses.

<sup>37</sup>The LORD said to Moses: <sup>38</sup>Address the people of Israel and tell them to attach tassels to the hems of their clothes<sup>v</sup> throughout their successive generations. Fasten the tassels to the hem with a blue thread. <sup>39</sup>You are to have the tassel, so that when it catches your eye you may remember all the LORD's commands and observe them and may not wander after your heart's inclinations and after your eyes which have previously led you into harlotry.<sup>w</sup> <sup>40</sup>Being thus reminded of all My commands, you will be able to observe them, for you must be holy before your God. <sup>41</sup>I am the LORD your God, who has purposely brought you out of the land of Egypt to be your God; I am Jehovah.

16 KORAH, WHOSE ANCESTRY WENT back through Izhar and Kohath to Levi, with three descendants of Reu-

o) Coarsely bruised meal procured at the beginning of the harvest.

p) Sins of omission as contrasted with the sins of commission in Lev. 4:13ff. q) Vss. 8-10.

r) Heb. — "sins with a high hand"; that is, raises his hand in defiance of the LORD.

s) A practical illustration of the "sinning with a high hand."

t) To the assembly of elders who were the congregation by representation, Ex. 18:25,26; Deut. 27:1.

u) The punishment was death, Ex. 31:14,15; but the mode of execution had not yet been revealed. Comp. Lev. 24:12.

v) The upper garments, Deut. 22:12. This ordinance may have been prompted by the foregoing incident.

w) Both physical and spiritual. Even as He is holy, so He has commanded us to be, Lev. 11:45; I Pet. 1:16. There is no valid excuse for sin, I Cor. 10:13.

ben* — Dathan and Abiram sons of Eliab, and On<sup>y</sup> the son of Peleth—<sup>2</sup>enlisted 250 men of Israel, who were leaders in the assembly, national representatives and men of distinction <sup>3</sup>and jointly they revolted against Moses. Assembling themselves against Moses and Aaron, they said to them, "You assume too much authority. This entire community — yes, everyone of them — is dedicated,<sup>z</sup> for the LORD is present with them. Why should you elevate yourselves above the LORD's people?"

<sup>4</sup>When Moses heard this, he fell on his face. <sup>5</sup>Then he said to Korah and all his company, "Tomorrow morning the LORD will make clear who belongs to Him, who is dedicated, and He will allow that one to approach Him. The man whom He singles out, He will allow to approach Him."<sup>a</sup> <sup>6</sup>Korah and all his company, you do this: <sup>7</sup>get yourselves censers. Tomorrow in the LORD's presence place hot coals on them along with incense. He whom the LORD selects shall be the dedicated one. You descendants of Levi are the ones who are assuming too much."

<sup>8</sup>"Listen closely, you men of Levi," continued Moses to Korah. <sup>9</sup>"Is it an insignificant thing to you that the God of Israel, by selecting you from the community of Israel, has given you the privilege of approaching Him, so that you may look after the service connected with the LORD's tabernacle and may stand before the congregation to wait upon them? <sup>10</sup>Thus He has honored both you and your fellow clansmen, the men of Levi with you. And now do you desire to have the priesthood also?<sup>b</sup> <sup>11</sup>It is against the LORD that you and your entire company have assembled. As for Aaron, what has he done that you complain against him?"<sup>c</sup>

<sup>12</sup>Then Moses sent a summons to Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab. "We will not come up," they answered.

<sup>13</sup>"Is it such a trivial matter that you have brought us up from a land flowing with milk and honey to kill us in the wilderness, that you should also set up yourself as a dictator over us?"

<sup>14</sup>Furthermore, you have not brought us into a land flowing with milk and honey, or even given us a field or a vineyard as an inheritance.<sup>d</sup> Do you think you can keep on blinding the eyes of these men? We will not come up!" <sup>15</sup>Then Moses grew very angry. "Pay no attention to their offering," said Moses to the LORD. "I have not taken a single donkey from them;<sup>e</sup> neither have I mistreated one of them."

<sup>16</sup>Moses further directed Korah, "Tomorrow you and your entire company present yourselves before the LORD: you, they, and Aaron. <sup>17</sup>Each man is to take his censer, and, having put the incense upon it, each one shall present his censer before the LORD, 250 censers, both you and Aaron, each one with his censer." <sup>18</sup>So each man took his censer and, having placed hot coals on them along with incense, they stationed themselves at the door of the tent of meeting along with Moses and Aaron. <sup>19</sup>No sooner had Korah assembled the entire community<sup>f</sup> against them at the door of the meeting tent, than the glory of the LORD appeared to the entire gathering. <sup>20</sup>The LORD addressed Moses and Aaron: <sup>21</sup>Separate yourselves from this gathering; I will destroy them in a moment. <sup>22</sup>Falling on their faces, they prayed, "God, Thou God of the spirits of all flesh, if just one man sins,<sup>g</sup> wilt Thou be indignant against the whole community?" <sup>23</sup>The LORD then instructed Moses: <sup>24</sup>Tell the congregation, Draw away from the vicinity of the home of Korah, Dathan and Abiram.

<sup>25</sup>Then Moses got up and, followed

x) As descendants of Reuben, the first-born, they claimed that they were entitled to giving orders.

y) On is not mentioned again in this conspiracy; he may have realized his mistake and withdrawn.

z) In a stricter sense, those who belonged to the LORD by His own choice [Ex. 28:1].

a) The LORD will make clear which tribe He has chosen and who in that tribe He has selected to be High Priest.

b) He wishes them to think it all over, that they may repent before it is too late.

c) Aaron has not usurped the priesthood, but has been chosen by the LORD to fulfill this office. God is responsible [Ex. 16:7].

d) The LORD had promised them this through Moses [Ex. 3:7ff; 4:30].

e) Rulers could demand tribute from their subjects [I Sam. 8:11ff; 12:3].

f) This was no small scale rebellion g) Korah, as instigator of the rebellion.

by the elders of Israel, he went to Dathan and Abiram. <sup>26</sup>He warned the community, "Draw away from the tents of these wicked men and do not touch anything that belongs to them; else you will be swept away with all their sins." <sup>27</sup>So they hurried away from the house of Korah, Dathan and Abiram; but Dathan and Abiram came out and stood at the door of their tents along with their wives, sons, and little ones. <sup>28</sup>"By this," declared Moses, "you shall understand that the LORD has commissioned me to carry out all these activities, that I do not act on my own impulse. <sup>29</sup>If these men die the natural death of all men, and if the usual experiences of all men are theirs, then the LORD has not commissioned me. <sup>30</sup>But if the LORD creates something new<sup>h</sup> in which He causes the ground to split open and swallow them and all their possessions, so that they are buried alive in Sheol,<sup>i</sup> then you will understand that these men have spurned the LORD."

<sup>31</sup>As soon as he had finished speaking all these things, the ground split open beneath them, <sup>32</sup>and having opened its mouth, it swallowed them and their families,<sup>j</sup> all the men who had sided with Korah, and all their goods.<sup>k</sup> <sup>33</sup>They and all their households were buried alive in Sheol as the earth fell in upon them, and they vanished from the community. <sup>34</sup>But all the Israelites who surrounded them fled at their screams, exclaiming, "The earth may swallow us too." <sup>35</sup>Moreover, a fire proceeded from the LORD, which consumed the 250 men who had offered the incense.<sup>l</sup>

<sup>36</sup>Afterwards the LORD gave Moses these directions: <sup>37</sup>Tell Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest, to pick up the censers from between those who were burned, for they are now sacred,<sup>m</sup> and scatter the hot coals at a far distance. <sup>38</sup>Have them beat the censers of these sinners, who have forfeited their lives, into broad plates as a covering for the altar. Since they presented them before the LORD, they are to be sacred; let them serve as a sign to the nation of Israel.

<sup>39</sup>After Eleazar the priest had taken up the censers of brass, which those who had been burned had presented, they beat them into plating for the altar. <sup>40</sup>This was to serve as a memorial to the nation of Israel to remind any outsider, who was not from the offspring of Aaron, that he should not draw near to burn incense before the LORD, so they might not experience the same fate as did Korah and his company. This was carried out as the LORD through Moses had directed him.<sup>n</sup>

<sup>41</sup>The next day the entire congregation of the nation of Israel began to complain against Moses and Aaron, charging, "You have slain the LORD's people."<sup>o</sup> <sup>42</sup>No sooner had the congregation assembled against Moses and Aaron, than they looked toward the tent of meeting, and there was the cloud covering it!<sup>p</sup> When the glory of the LORD appeared also, <sup>43</sup>Moses and Aaron hurried out to the entrance of the meeting tent. <sup>44</sup>Whereupon the LORD commanded Moses: <sup>45</sup>Move away from this congregation so that I may destroy them in a moment. But they<sup>q</sup> fell on their faces. <sup>46</sup>"Take your censer," Moses charged Aaron, "put hot coals on it from off the altar, place the incense upon it and hurriedly carry it to the congregation. Make expiation for them, for vengeance has already proceeded from the LORD; the plague has started!"<sup>r</sup> <sup>47</sup>Aaron took it as Moses had directed, ran out among the

h) Heb. — "create a creation." i) In Hebrew, the place of the dead.

j) Not all of Korah's sons perished; his descendants are again mentioned. Num. 26:58; 1 Chron. 6:18-22, and in the Psalms.

k) By their rebellion their possessions, too, were contaminated. l) Compare Lev. 10:1-2.

m) Because presented to the LORD, Lev. 27:28. n) Eleazar.

o) "In destroying our indispensable leaders, you have destroyed us." The calamity had effected no change in their attitude.

p) When the people camped, the cloud was always over the tabernacle, Ch. 9:15ff. The cloud had something extraordinary about it at this time. Comp. Ex. 40:34.

q) Moses and Aaron.

r) Moses had no time for intercession or argument to avert God's judgment. The high-priestly offering was now the only remedy; Lev. 16:12,13.

people, and saw that the plague had already started among the people. Then having fixed the incense, he made expiation for the people. <sup>48</sup>When he had stationed himself between the dead and the living, the plague was checked. <sup>49</sup>Those who died in the plague numbered 14,700, besides those who died in the Korah event. <sup>50</sup>When the plague had ended, Aaron returned to Moses at the door of the tent of meeting.<sup>a</sup>

17 LATER ON THE LORD SAID TO Moses: <sup>2</sup>Speak to the Israelites and take one rod from each clan—that is, from all their princes according to their clans, twelve rods in all.<sup>t</sup> Write each man's name on his rod, <sup>3</sup>and put Aaron's name on the rod of Levi since each rod stands for the head of each respective clan. <sup>4</sup>Place them in the tent of meeting in front of the Testimony<sup>u</sup> where I always meet with you. <sup>5</sup>The rod of the man whom I have chosen<sup>v</sup> will then produce shoots. In this way I shall relieve Myself of the complaints which the people of Israel are continually lodging against you.

<sup>6</sup>After Moses had thus informed the Israelites, all the princes gave him rods, a rod each from their respective clans, twelve in all,<sup>w</sup> Aaron's rod being among theirs. <sup>7</sup>Moses placed the rods before the LORD in the tent containing the testimonial evidence. <sup>8</sup>Next morning when Moses entered the tent containing the Testimony, Aaron's rod, representing the clan of Levi, had indeed sprouted, put forth shoots, produced blossoms, and had even borne some ripe almonds.<sup>x</sup> <sup>9</sup>When Moses brought each of the rods from the LORD's presence to all the people of Israel, they gazed at them and finally each man claimed his rod. <sup>10</sup>The LORD then commanded Moses: Put Aaron's rod back in front of the Testimony, that it may be preserved as an object lesson to these rebellious people. Thus you can put a stop to their complaints against Me, that they may not die. <sup>11</sup>Moses acted accordingly; he did what the LORD had told him.

<sup>12</sup>"Certainly we are in distress," cried the people of Israel to Moses. "We perish, we all perish!" <sup>13</sup>Everyone who approaches, who even comes near the LORD's Dwelling dies; are we all to die?"

18 THE LORD MADE CLEAR TO Aaron: You, your sons, and your family are responsible for the sins against the sanctuary;<sup>y</sup> likewise, you and your sons are responsible for the sins against your priesthood.<sup>z</sup> <sup>2</sup>Bring your relatives with you from the tribe of Levi, your father's tribe, so that by joining you, they may assist you when both you and your sons are in front of the tent containing the testimonial evidence. <sup>3</sup>They shall discharge the obligations imposed by you and all the duties connected with the tent. Only they must be careful to stay away from the articles of the sanctuary and the altar in order that they may escape death, both they and you. <sup>4</sup>Have them join you, that they may discharge the duties connected with the tent of meeting—that is, whatever work the tent entails. No layman, however, is to come near you. <sup>5</sup>You are to discharge the duties connected with both the sanctuary and the altar so that wrath may never again fall upon the nation of Israel.<sup>a</sup> <sup>6</sup>Take notice that as a gift for you I have selected your relatives, the Levites, out of the nation of Israel, to serve as custodians of the tent of meeting, seeing that they were given to the LORD; <sup>7</sup>but you and your sons are to discharge your priestly duties in everything, from that which pertains

s) The high-priestly ministration proved necessary to pacify the LORD's indignation.

t) The princes carried these as a symbol of their tribal authority, comp. Gen. 49:10.

u) The two stone tablets containing the Law which were in the Ark. v) For the priesthood, ch. 16:5.

w) Ephraim and Manasseh reckoned together under Joseph [Deut. 27:12].

x) Aaron's priestly powers were likewise supernatural. As a man he was on a level with the other princes. y) They must prevent its desecration by the people.

z) Neglect of their priestly duties, offenses against the priesthood and defilement in carrying out their official responsibilities. The holy articles, for instance, had to be cleansed once a year [Lev. 16:16ff].

a) Twice previously this had happened [Lev. 10:2 and Num. 16:35].

to the altar to that which is inside the veil. Be sure to perform it, for the office of the priesthood is a gift which I am giving you. Any layman who approaches<sup>b</sup> must be executed.

<sup>8</sup>The LORD informed Aaron: I, indeed, have assigned to you My heave offerings to keep, even all the holy gifts from the people of Israel; I have allotted them to you as a consecrated portion and to your descendants as a perpetual allowance. <sup>9</sup>You are to have the portion of the most holy gifts which is not burned; namely, all their offerings — all their meal offerings, sin offerings, and trespass offerings—with which they make restitution to Me. The most holy gifts belong to you and to your sons. <sup>10</sup>Regard it as most holy as you eat it; every male may eat of it, because, being holy, it belongs to you.

<sup>11</sup>The heave offering involved in their contribution which is included in all the wave offerings from the people of Israel is also yours. I have apportioned it as a perpetual allowance to you and to your sons and daughters, so that everyone in your family may eat it provided they are clean. <sup>12</sup>I have likewise assigned to you their first fruits which they have given to the LORD — that is, all the best of the oil and of the fresh wine and grain. <sup>13</sup>The first ripe fruits of everything which is in their land, which they bring to the LORD, is yours. Everyone in your family who is clean may eat it.

<sup>14</sup>Also every devoted thing<sup>c</sup> in Israel is for you. <sup>15</sup>Every first-born of all living beings — both man and animal which they present to the LORD — belongs to you. <sup>16</sup>Only be sure to redeem the first-born of both men and unclean animals. The redemption money for the month-old child whom you are redeeming shall be fixed by you at five silver dollars,<sup>d</sup> the standard being the dollar of the sanctuary, which is twenty nickels. <sup>17</sup>Because they are holy, you must not redeem a first-born bullock, sheep, or goat; you are to sprinkle their blood upon the altar and make their fat go up in smoky fire as a pleasing fragrance to the LORD. <sup>18</sup>Their meat, however, is for you; you are to have especially the wave breast and the right thigh. <sup>19</sup>Summarily, all the heave offerings included with the holy gifts, which the people of Israel offered to the LORD, I have apportioned as a perpetual allowance to you and to your sons and daughters. It is a covenant of salt<sup>e</sup> which will last forever before the LORD for both you and your offspring after you. <sup>20</sup>The LORD further informed Aaron: You are not to have an inheritance in their land nor own any property among them; I am your portion and your inheritance among the people of Israel.<sup>f</sup>

<sup>21</sup>As for the descendants of Levi, I have assigned to them all the tithes in Israel as their share in payment for their services as custodians of the tent of meeting. <sup>22</sup>From now on the people of Israel are never to come near the tent of meeting, else they will incur the penalty of sin and die. <sup>23</sup>The Levites shall discharge the duties connected with the tent of meeting, and they shall be held responsible if they fail. This is a perpetual statute which shall continue in effect throughout your generations, that they are not to possess an inheritance among the people of Israel. <sup>24</sup>For I have designated the tithes which the people of Israel contribute to the LORD as the share which belongs to the Levites. Therefore I have told them that they are not to own any property among the people of Israel.

<sup>25</sup>The LORD further said to Moses: <sup>26</sup>Speak to the Levites and direct them, "When you receive from the people of Israel the tithe which I have assigned to you as your share from them, set part of it aside as a heave offering to the LORD, a tithe of the tithe. <sup>27</sup>Your heave offering shall be credited to you as though it were the grain from the threshing floor and as the full produce

b) Not only to perform these priestly duties, but for any reason.

c) Anything which was entirely dedicated to the LORD and therefore could not be sold or redeemed, Lev. 27:28.

d) Heb. — Five shekels of silver. Weights which could be worth about five dollars today. See the footnote to ch. 3:47. e) An indissoluble covenant [Lev. 2:13].

f) If we trust the Possessor of heaven and earth, our needs will be supplied [Phil. 4:19].

of the wine press. <sup>28</sup>Thus from all your tithes which you receive from the people of Israel, you are to contribute a heave offering to the LORD and give the LORD's contribution to Aaron the priest. <sup>29</sup>Out of all that is given to you, you are to select from every heave offering for the LORD the best part, the sacred portion of it. <sup>30</sup>Tell them also, "When you offer the best part of it, it shall be credited to the Levites as the yield of the threshing floor and the wine press. <sup>31</sup>As it is your remuneration for your services in the tent of meeting, you and your family may eat it anywhere you wish. <sup>32</sup>You will not bring any sin upon yourselves, provided that you contribute the best part of it. In short, you are not to desecrate the holy gifts of the Israelites or you will die."

19 THE LORD SAID TO MOSES AND Aaron: <sup>2</sup>This is the statute of instruction which the LORD has instituted: Tell the people of Israel to bring you a perfect red heifer<sup>g</sup> entirely without blemish, which has never borne a yoke. <sup>3</sup>Give it to Eleazar the priest and after he has led it outside the camp, have someone<sup>h</sup> slaughter it in his presence. <sup>4</sup>Eleazar the priest shall next take some of its blood with his finger and sprinkle it seven times<sup>i</sup> toward the front of the meeting tent. <sup>5</sup>Someone must then burn the heifer before his eyes, and after he is through burning its skin, flesh and blood, along with its waste, <sup>6</sup>the priest shall take cedar wood, hyssop and scarlet wool and throw it into the midst of the burning heifer. <sup>7</sup>Finally, before entering the camp, the priest must wash his clothes and bathe his body with water; nevertheless, the priest is still unclean till evening. <sup>8</sup>He who burns it shall also wash his clothes with water and bathe his body; he too remains unclean till evening. <sup>9</sup>Someone who is clean shall gather up the ashes of the heifer and deposit them in a clean place outside the camp. They shall be kept for the congregation of the Israelites as water of uncleanness;<sup>j</sup> it is a sin offering. <sup>10</sup>He who gathers the ashes of the heifer shall wash his clothes and remain unclean until evening.

This shall be a perpetual regulation for the nation of Israel and for the foreigner who resides among you. <sup>11</sup>He who touches the dead body of any person shall remain unclean for seven days. <sup>12</sup>He shall cleanse himself with it<sup>k</sup> on the third day, and on the seventh day, and then he shall be clean; but if he fails to purify himself on the third day, then on the seventh day he shall not be clean. <sup>13</sup>Every one who touches the corpse of a man who has died and fails to cleanse himself has defiled the Dwelling of the LORD; that person must be excommunicated from Israel because the water of uncleanness was not sprinkled upon him. He is unclean; his uncleanness is still upon him.<sup>l</sup>

<sup>14</sup>This rule applies when a man dies in a tent: Anyone who enters the tent, together with those who are already in the tent, shall be unclean for seven days. <sup>15</sup>Every open utensil, which does not have its cover fastened down, is also contaminated. <sup>16</sup>In addition, anyone in the open field who touches him, who is fatally wounded in battle, or a corpse,<sup>m</sup> or a human bone, or a grave, shall stay unclean for seven days. <sup>17</sup>For the unclean person they are to take some of the ashes left from the burning of the sin offering and pour fresh water over them in a basin. <sup>18</sup>A clean person shall then take some hyssop, dip it in water, and sprinkle it on the tent, all the furniture, and the individuals

g) Of the female sex, as the bearer of life, Gen. 3:20.

h) Probably a representative of the congregation for whom the offering was being made.

i) It became a sacrifice, having been brought into relation with the LORD.

j) Water (mixed with ashes, vs. 17) by which uncleanness was to be removed. The ashes contained the blood of the heifer, (thus making it a sin offering), as well as the other purifying elements.

k) The water of purification.

l) Death is the wages of sin, Gen. 2:17; therefore a person was contaminated with sin when he touched a corpse. Because of the many deaths which were to occur in the wilderness as the penalty for unbelief, ch. 14:32ff, the usual laws of purification would not afford enough time to cleanse so many offenders. The red heifer purification took care of this.

m) A person who has died a natural death.

who were there, as well as on the person who touched the bone, or the slain, or the corpse, or the grave. <sup>19</sup>The clean person shall sprinkle the unclean person on the third and on the seventh day so as to purify him on the seventh day. Then, after washing his clothes and bathing in water, he shall be clean that evening. <sup>20</sup>On the other hand, the individual who is unclean and will not purify himself, that person must be excommunicated from the community, for he has defiled the sanctuary of the LORD by not having the water of uncleanness sprinkled upon him; he is unclean. <sup>21</sup>This shall be a regulation for them forever. Moreover, he who sprinkles the water of uncleanness is to wash his clothes, and the one who touches the water of uncleanness shall remain unclean till evening. <sup>22</sup>Anything the unclean person touches becomes contaminated, and the individual who touches it shall likewise be unclean until evening.<sup>n</sup>

20 WHEN THE ENTIRE ASSEMBLY of the nation of Israel arrived at the wilderness of Zin in the first month,<sup>o</sup> the people stayed in Kadesh. This is where Miriam died and was buried.<sup>p</sup>

<sup>2</sup>Because the community was without water, they assembled against Moses and Aaron. <sup>3</sup>The people started arguing with Moses, complaining, "Had we but died when our relatives died before the LORD!<sup>q</sup> <sup>4</sup>Why have you brought the congregation of the LORD into this desert to die, both we and our livestock? <sup>5</sup>Why have you forced us to leave Egypt to bring us to this miserable location? It is no place for seed or fig trees, or vines, or pomegranates; there is not even any drinking water!"<sup>r</sup>

<sup>6</sup>Moses and Aaron then went out from the assembly's presence to the door of the tent of meeting, and as they fell on their faces, the glory of the LORD appeared to them. <sup>7</sup>The LORD told Moses: <sup>8</sup>Take the rod<sup>a</sup> and together with Aaron your brother assemble the congregation. Speak to the rock before their eyes, that it may give forth its waters. Thus you shall draw forth water for them out of the rock so that you may give the assembly and their livestock to drink. <sup>9</sup>Accordingly Moses took the rod from before the LORD even as He had directed him.

<sup>10</sup>After Moses and Aaron had assembled the congregation in front of the rock, he said to them, "Listen well, you rebels; must we draw water out of this rock for you?" <sup>11</sup>Then lifting up his hand, Moses struck the rock twice with his rod,<sup>t</sup> and out flowed the water freely, allowing both the congregation and their livestock to quench their thirst.<sup>u</sup> <sup>12</sup>Nevertheless, the LORD reprimanded both Moses and Aaron: Because you have not firmly trusted in Me so as to vindicate My holiness in the eyes of the people of Israel, you shall not lead this assembly into the land that I have given them. <sup>13</sup>These are the waters of Meribah,<sup>v</sup> where the nation of Israel contended with the LORD; nevertheless, He vindicated His holiness before them.<sup>w</sup>

<sup>14</sup>Later Moses dispatched messengers from Kadesh to the king of Edom, "This comes from your brother Israel.<sup>x</sup> You are well aware of all the misery which we have experienced; <sup>15</sup>how our fathers went down to Egypt and stayed there for a long time and how the Egyptians mistreated both us and our fathers. <sup>16</sup>But when we cried out to the LORD, He heard our plea and sent an angel to bring us out of Egypt. Now here we are at Kadesh, a town near the border of your territory. <sup>17</sup>Would you be so kind as to permit us to pass

n) Our sins have harmful effects on others too.

o) In the fortieth year after they left Egypt. Comp. 14:33-35; 33:3, 37-39.

p) A thoughtful girl at Moses' birth, now about 130.

q) Generally throughout the 40 years of wandering and specifically as a result of Korah's rebellion, ch. 16. r) Discontent as the fruit of unbelief. s) Aaron's rod from the Ark.

t) Temper, disobedience, self-will, and lack of faith, see Ps. 106:32,33. The Book that records his virtues, 12:3, now records his backsliding.

u) Despite the sin of Moses and Aaron, the people received the life-giving water, typical of the true life received from Christ (1 Cor. 10:4). God's blessings are not dependent on man.

v) Heb. — "Strife." w) Supplying the water and punishing Moses and Aaron. God is not mocked.

x) Esau, the brother of Jacob, was the father of the Edomites [Gen. 36].

through your country? We shall not cut across any field or vineyard, neither shall we drink any water from a well, but we shall take the king's highway<sup>y</sup> without turning off to the right or to the left until we cross your border."

<sup>18</sup>"You cannot pass through here," Edom answered him, "for if you do, I shall come out in battle against you."

<sup>19</sup>"We shall go up the public highway," appealed the nation of Israel; "if we do drink of your water, however, either I or my livestock, I shall pay whatever it costs. I only want to pass through on foot; will that do any harm?" <sup>20</sup>Again he answered, "You cannot pass through." Edom then came out to engage him with a large, well-armed force. <sup>21</sup>Therefore, seeing Edom refused permission for Israel to pass through his territory, Israel turned away from him.

<sup>22</sup>After leaving Kadesh, the entire congregation of Israel came to Mount Hor. <sup>23</sup>While at Mount Hor, near the border of the land of Edom, the LORD informed Moses and Aaron: <sup>24</sup>Aaron shall be reunited with his kindred,<sup>z</sup> for he cannot enter the land which I have given to the nation of Israel, because both of you rebelled against My instructions at the waters of Meribah. <sup>25</sup>Therefore take Aaron and his son Eleazar and bring them up to Mount Hor. <sup>26</sup>Strip Aaron of his robes and put them on Eleazar his son, inasmuch as Aaron is going to pass on and die there. <sup>27</sup>Moses did as the LORD had directed and they ascended Mount Hor, as the entire assembly looked on. <sup>28</sup>After Moses had stripped Aaron of his robes and had put them on Eleazar his son, Aaron died there<sup>a</sup> on the mountain top; after which Moses and Eleazar came down, from the mountain. <sup>29</sup>When the entire congregation saw that Aaron had passed away, the whole family of Israel mourned for Aaron thirty days.

August, 1407 B.C.

21 WHEN THE KING OF ARAD, A Canaanite who lived in the South-land, heard that Israel was approaching by way of Atharim,<sup>b</sup> he attacked Israel, taking some of them prisoner. <sup>2</sup>Israel then made a vow to the LORD, saying, "If Thou wilt indeed deliver this people into our hand, we will completely wipe out their cities." <sup>3</sup>The LORD heard Israel's request and delivered to them the Canaanites, so that they completely destroyed them and their cities; as a result, the place was named Hormah.<sup>c</sup>

<sup>4</sup>In order to make the trip around the land of Edom, they were forced to travel by way of the Red Sea. The people, however, became depressed in spirit as a result of the route, <sup>5</sup>and they again assailed God and Moses, "Why have you brought us up from Egypt to die in the desert? There is neither bread nor water and we loathe to our souls this flat diet."<sup>d</sup> <sup>6</sup>As a consequence, the LORD sent among them stinging<sup>e</sup> serpents, which bit the people so that many Israelites died. <sup>7</sup>Then hurrying to Moses, the people confessed, "We have sinned in criticizing the LORD and you; pray to the LORD that He may remove the serpents from us." So Moses interceded in behalf of the people, <sup>8</sup>and in turn the LORD instructed Moses: You make a stinging serpent and raise it on a pole. Anyone of those who are bitten, who looks at it, shall live. <sup>9</sup>Moses therefore made a serpent of brass<sup>f</sup> and lifted it up on the pole,<sup>g</sup> and so it was that, if a person who had been bitten by the serpent, looked<sup>h</sup> at the serpent of brass, he lived.<sup>i</sup>

<sup>10</sup>The nation of Israel then pushed forward and set up camp in Obboth.

y) The main highway over which the king and his armies traveled.

z) An intimation of life after death. a) Aged 123 [ch. 33:39].

b) Or "Of the spies," apparently the route used by the spies in ch. 13:17,21.

c) Heb. — "a devoted thing," or, doomed to destruction

d) The manna, which had been their wholesome nourishment, received without working for it and without which they must have starved. e) An inflammatory bite filled with poison and fever.

f) The form without the poison, so Christ in sinful flesh, yet without sin [II Cor. 5:21]. Our LORD accepts that brazen serpent as a symbol of Himself [John 3:14].

g) Comp. John 3:14; 12:32. h) Faith is ever the prerequisite for saving grace [Eph. 2:8; Isa. 45:22].

i) This serpent became an object of idolatrous worship and had to be destroyed [II Kings 18:4].

<sup>11</sup>Leaving Oboth, they next camped at Iye-abarim in the desert on the eastern border of Moab.<sup>1</sup> <sup>12</sup>After leaving there and camping in the valley of Zered, <sup>13</sup>they continued and made camp where the desert extends back from the border of the Amorites on the other side of the Arnon, which is likewise Moab's boundary between them and the Amorites. <sup>14</sup>For this reason it is described in the book, The Wars of Jehovah, "Waheb,<sup>k</sup> like a stormy wind, and the water courses of Arnon, <sup>15</sup>the ravine of the brooks which stretches toward the dwelling of Ar and rests on the border of Moab."

<sup>16</sup>From there they continued on to Beer,<sup>1</sup> the place of the well where the Lord had said to Moses: Assemble the people and I will give them water.<sup>m</sup>

<sup>17</sup>Israel then sang this song, "Spring up, O well! Sing ye to it! <sup>18</sup>A well which princes dug, which nobles of the people hollowed with the scepter and with their staves."

<sup>19</sup>From the desert they proceeded on through Mattanah, Nahaliel, <sup>20</sup>and Bamoth, to the valley overlooking the desert in the plateau of Moab by the top of Pisgah.

<sup>21</sup>Israel dispatched messengers to Sihon, king of the Amorites, with the message, <sup>22</sup>"Would you permit me to pass through your country? We shall not turn off into a field or vineyard, nor shall we drink any water from a well; for we promise to keep to the king's highway until we have crossed your border." <sup>23</sup>But Sihon would not grant Israel permission to pass through his territory; in fact, he mobilized his entire force and went out to meet Israel in the desert. Upon reaching Jahaz, he fought against Israel; <sup>24</sup>but Israel cut him down in battle and occupied his land from the Arnon to the Jabbok, even to the nation of Ammon, since the Ammonite border was very strong.<sup>n</sup> <sup>25</sup>Israel seized all these cities belonging to the Amorites and later settled in them, both in Heshbon and all her towns; <sup>26</sup>for Heshbon was the capital of Sihon, the Amorite king who had fought against the former king of Moab and had seized control of all his territory as far as the Arnon. <sup>27</sup>Therefore the composers of ballads say, "Come to Heshbon. Let the city of Sihon be rebuilt; let it be restored." <sup>28</sup>For a fire went out from Heshbon, a flame from the city of Sihon. It consumed Ar of Moab, the masters of the heights of the Arnon. <sup>29</sup>Woe to thee, O Moab; you are ruined, O people of Chemosh! He<sup>o</sup> has surrendered his sons as fugitives, his daughters too as captives, to Sihon, king of the Amorites. <sup>30</sup>But we have shot them down; Heshbon is lost even to Dibon. We have ravaged as far as Nophah, which reaches even to Medeba."

<sup>31</sup>While Israel was residing in the land of the Amorites, <sup>32</sup>Moses sent out a reconnaissance party to Jazer. They then captured her towns, driving out the Amorites who were there.

<sup>33</sup>After this they turned and traveled up the road toward Bashan; but Og, the king of Bashan, came out with all his forces to battle with them at Edrei. <sup>34</sup>Nevertheless, the Lord assured Moses: Be not afraid of him, for I have delivered him into your hand<sup>p</sup>—along with all his subjects and land. You shall deal with him even as you dealt with Sihon, the Amorite king who lived in Heshbon. <sup>35</sup>So they slew him, his sons, and all his subjects until he did not have a single survivor remaining, and then they occupied his land.

January/February, 1406 B.C.

22 THE PEOPLE OF ISRAEL THEN traveled on and set up camp in the plains of Moab beyond the Jordan<sup>q</sup> opposite Jericho. <sup>2</sup>And when Balak the son of Zippor perceived all that Israel had done to the Amorites, <sup>3</sup>Moab was utterly dismayed at the people's presence because there were so many of them; in fact, Moab was terrified at the

j) Heb. — "Toward the sunrise." k) A town near the Arnon river northward. l) Heb. — "Well."

m) There is a promise for every need [Phil. 4:19].

n) The main reason for not entering Ammon is given in Deut. 2:19: Lot was their ancestor.

o) Chemosh the chief god of Moab [Jer. 48:7].

p) Need we ever fail with such sustaining power? Isa. 41:10.

q) The common term for the land taken east of the Jordan.

presence of the nation of Israel. <sup>4</sup>In view of this, Moab consulted with the elders of Midian, "This multitude will now shear off everything around us, as an ox shears off the grass in the field."

Wherefore Balak the son of Zippor, who was king of Moab at that time, <sup>5</sup>dispatched messengers to solicit the aid of Balaam<sup>r</sup> the son of Beor, who was in Pethor, his native land, which is near the River,<sup>s</sup> saying, "Look, a people has emigrated from Egypt; mind you, they cover the face of the earth! They are even staying directly across from me. <sup>6</sup>Come at once and curse this people for me, for they are too powerful for me. Perhaps then I shall be in a position where we can defeat them and drive them out of the country, because I know he whom you bless remains blessed and he whom you curse stays cursed."

<sup>7</sup>Accordingly, the elders of Moab and Midian, having left with the fees for sorcery in their hand, came to Balaam and conveyed to him Balak's message. <sup>8</sup>"Spend the night here," he said, "and I shall give you a reply as the LORD directs me;"<sup>t</sup> so the princes of Moab lodged with Balaam. <sup>9</sup>God then came to Balaam and asked: Who are these men with you? <sup>10</sup>Balaam answered God, "Balak, the son of Zippor, the king of Moab, has sent for me saying, <sup>11</sup>'Look! The people that emigrated from Egypt have covered the face of the earth. Please come at once and curse them for me. Perhaps I can fight against them and drive them away.'"

<sup>12</sup>But God restrained Balaam: You shall not go with them; you are not to curse the people, for they are blessed.<sup>u</sup>

<sup>13</sup>In the morning Balaam got up and told the princes of Balak, "Return to your own land, for the LORD has refused<sup>v</sup> me permission to go with you."

<sup>14</sup>The princes of Moab arose and returning to Balak reported to him, "Balaam refused to come with us."

<sup>15</sup>In spite of this, Balak again tried, sending a larger number of princes who were more distinguished than the former. <sup>16</sup>When they came to Balaam they said to him, "Balak the son of Zippor has this to say, 'Please let nothing hinder you from joining me, <sup>17</sup>for I will surely honor you exceedingly. Besides, I promise to do whatever you request of me; only please come and curse this people for me.'"<sup>w</sup> <sup>18</sup>In answer Balaam replied to Balak's officers, "If Balak were to give me his house full of silver and gold, I could not overstep the command of the LORD my God to do anything, whether small or great. <sup>19</sup>Nevertheless, you stay here tonight, too, and I shall find out what else the LORD may have to say to me."<sup>x</sup> <sup>20</sup>During that night God came to Balaam and told him; If the men have come to summon you, get up and go with them, but you are to do only what I tell you.

<sup>21</sup>So next morning he got up, saddled his donkey, and went with the princes of Moab. <sup>22</sup>But God's anger was inflamed over his going,<sup>y</sup> and the Angel of the LORD stationed Himself on the road as his adversary. He was riding on his donkey accompanied by two servants, <sup>23</sup>when suddenly the donkey saw the Angel of the LORD standing in the road with His drawn sword in His hand, and she turned off the road and went into the field. Balaam, however, hit the donkey to get her back on the road.<sup>y</sup> <sup>24</sup>Next the Angel of the LORD stood in a lane between the vineyards, a wall being on either side. <sup>25</sup>On seeing the Angel of the LORD, the donkey pressed against the wall, squeezing Balaam's foot in the process, thus causing him to strike her again. <sup>26</sup>The Angel of the LORD

<sup>r</sup>) Whose God was Jehovah, to whom here an idolater turns in distress.

<sup>s</sup>) The Euphrates.

<sup>t</sup>) He knew their mission was evil. To entertain temptation is sin, as in Gen. 3.

<sup>u</sup>) God's word is always clear, if we will hear.

<sup>v</sup>) He suppresses the fact that the LORD has forbidden him to curse Israel.

<sup>w</sup>) The LORD may grant a persistent selfish request even though He knows the answer will hurt [Ps. 106:15]. Balaam's heart was not right; "he loved the wages of wickedness" [II Pet. 2:15].

<sup>x</sup>) The Hebrew construction here suggests that God was displeased with his frame of heart as he traveled. See further vs. 32.

<sup>y</sup>) Balaam was unable to see the LORD, for the reward Balak had promised. Sin blinds us spiritually.

then moved still farther and stood in a narrow place where there was no room to turn either to the right or to the left. <sup>27</sup>When the donkey saw the Angel of the LORD, she lay down under Balaam. Balaam lost his temper and struck the donkey with his stick. <sup>28</sup>At that point, the LORD opened the donkey's mouth, and she said to Balaam, "What have I done to you, that you should hit me these three times?" <sup>29</sup>"Because you have made me look ridiculous," Balaam retorted to the donkey; "if I had only had a sword in my hand, I would have killed you by now." <sup>30</sup>The donkey reminded Balaam, "Have I not been your donkey upon which you have ridden all your life to this very day? Have I always been in the habit of doing this to you?" "No," he admitted.

<sup>31</sup>The LORD then opened Balaam's eyes, and when he saw the Angel of the LORD standing there in the road with His drawn sword in His hand, he bowed his head and fell on his face. <sup>32</sup>"Why have you struck your donkey these three times?" the Angel of the LORD admonished him. "Take note, I have come as an adversary because in My sight your road leads headlong into destruction." <sup>33</sup>The donkey saw Me and has shied away from Me these three times and if it had not been for her shying away from Me, I certainly would have killed you by now and spared her." <sup>34</sup>Balaam confessed to the Angel of the LORD, "I have sinned, for I did not realize that Thou wert standing in the road to confront me; but now if it is displeasing in Thy sight, I shall go back." <sup>35</sup>However, the Angel of the LORD directed Balaam: Go with the men, but you are only to relay the message that I tell you. Thus Balaam continued on with the princes of Balak.

<sup>36</sup>When Balak heard that Balaam had arrived, he went out to meet him in a city of Moab near the border of the Arnon river, which is at the far end of the boundary. <sup>37</sup>Balak questioned Balaam, "Did I not urgently send you a party to summon you? Why did you not come to me? Am I not capable of honoring you?" <sup>38</sup>Balaam replied to Balak, "But look! I have now come to you; nevertheless, am I entirely at liberty to speak anything? The message which God brings to my mind, that I must speak." <sup>39</sup>Balaam then went with Balak until they reached Kiriath-huzoth,<sup>a</sup> <sup>40</sup>where Balak proceeded to sacrifice bullocks and sheep,<sup>b</sup> sending some<sup>c</sup> to Balaam and to the princes who were with him. <sup>41</sup>And early the next day Balak took Balaam and brought him up to Bamoth-baal, from which vantage point he could see to the outer-most edge of the people.

23 "BUILD ME SEVEN ALTARS here," <sup>2</sup>Balaam directed Balak; "and likewise prepare seven bulls and seven rams."<sup>d</sup> After Balak did as Balaam had ordered, Balak and Balaam offered a bull and a ram on each altar. <sup>3</sup>"Stand beside your burnt offering while I am gone," Balaam told Balak; "perhaps the LORD will come to meet me, and then whatever message He imparts to me I shall reveal in turn to you." When he had gone to a barren height,<sup>e</sup> <sup>4</sup>God did meet Balaam who told Him, "I have arranged the seven altars in a row and have offered a bull and a ram on each altar." <sup>5</sup>Presently the LORD placed a message in Balaam's mouth, explaining: Return to Balak, for this is what you must say. <sup>6</sup>When Balaam returned to him, there he was standing beside his burnt offering along with all of Moab's princes. <sup>7</sup>Balaam then began his discourse, "From Aram<sup>f</sup> I am brought by Balak from eastern mountains by Moab's king; Oh, come and curse Jacob for me, yes, come and threaten Israel. <sup>8</sup>How shall I curse whom God has not cursed, and how condemn when the LORD condemns not? <sup>9</sup>For

z) Balaam's spiritual resistance weakened steadily during the trip; God knew that unless his spiritual senses were awakened, tragedy would result.

a) City of streets. b) To Jehovah, since He was the God of Balaam and of the Israelites.

c) As a sacrificial meal.

d) He was a perfectionist, but his heart was not right with God; "To obey is better than sacrifice" [1 Sam. 15:22; Mark 12:33]. e) The common practice of pagan sorcerers. f) Mesopotamia.

from the rocky peak I view them, and from the heights I observe them; surely a people who live by themselves, who cast not their lot among other nations.<sup>g</sup> <sup>10</sup>Who can number Jacob's millions,<sup>h</sup> or count one fourth of Israel's?<sup>i</sup> <sup>11</sup>Let me die as dies the righteous,<sup>j</sup> and may my end resemble his."

<sup>11</sup>"What have you done to me?" demanded Balak of Balaam. "I secured you to curse my enemies, but you certainly have done nothing but bless them." <sup>12</sup>In answer he said, "Must I not be extremely careful to relay only that which the LORD puts in my mouth?"

<sup>13</sup>Nevertheless, Balak urged him, "Please come with me to another place from which you can see them, although you shall only see the further edge of them, not all of them. Curse them for me from there." <sup>14</sup>After taking him to the field of Zophim,<sup>k</sup> at the top of Pisgah, he built seven altars and offered a bull and a ram on each altar. <sup>15</sup>He then instructed Balak, "Stand here beside your burnt offering while I have a meeting yonder."<sup>l</sup> <sup>16</sup>The LORD then met Balaam and placed a message in his mouth, explaining: Return to Balak, for this is what you must say. <sup>17</sup>When he rejoined him, there Balak was standing beside his burnt offering along with the princes of Moab. Balak asked him, "What did the LORD say?" <sup>18</sup>Balaam then announced this discourse:

"Get to your feet, O Balak, and listen, pay attention to me, O son of Zippor! <sup>19</sup>For God is not man that He should lie, neither human that He should change his mind. When He gives His word, does He not perform it? Or does He promise and not fulfill it? <sup>20</sup>Look! I was given an order to bless, and since He has blessed, I cannot alter it. <sup>21</sup>He has detected no sin in Jacob,<sup>m</sup> neither has He witnessed mischief in Israel. The LORD, their God, is ever among them, and they shout with praise to a King.<sup>n</sup> <sup>22</sup>God is leading them out of Egypt, their strength is like that of a buffalo,<sup>o</sup> <sup>23</sup>Indeed, there is no sorcery in Jacob, neither is witchcraft found in Israel.<sup>p</sup> At a proper time it shall be stated to Jacob, yes, to Israel what God has brought about! <sup>24</sup>Surely the people arise as a lioness, even as a lion they exert themselves;<sup>q</sup> it does not rest till it eats the prey, nor till it drinks the blood of the slain."

<sup>25</sup>In view of this, Balak charged Balaam, "Neither curse them at all nor bless them at all." <sup>26</sup>In answer to Balak, Balaam said, "Did I not explain this to you? Whatever the LORD says I must do."

<sup>27</sup>Nevertheless, Balak urged Balaam, "Please come. Let me take you to another place; perhaps it will be agreeable with God to curse them for me from there." <sup>28</sup>So Balak conducted Balaam to the top of Peor where it looks out over the desert. <sup>29</sup>Again Balaam directed Balak, "Construct seven altars for me here, and likewise prepare seven bulls and seven rams." <sup>30</sup>After Balak did as Balaam had ordered, he offered a bull and a ram on each altar.

24 WHEN BALAAM PERCEIVED THAT it pleased the LORD to bless Israel, he did not go back and resort to omens as on previous occasions, but turned his face toward the desert.<sup>r</sup> <sup>2</sup>As he raised his eyes and viewed Israel, camping according to their tribes, the Spirit of God came upon him. <sup>3</sup>He then took up his oracles; he said, "The

g) Israel, as God's chosen people, was religiously and morally separate from the Gentile nations.

h) Heb. — "dust," an allusion to God's statement in Gen. 13:16.

i) One of the four divisions in the camp, ch. 2.

j) To die as the righteous one must live as the righteous. He was later killed in a battle between Israel and the Midianites.

k) Or "watchers"; because of its location it was probably an observation post in times of disturbance.

l) A vague statement, possibly to encourage Balak. Balaam, too, may have been hoping for a change for his own benefit.

m) Their sins were covered by the blood on the mercy seat; so those of every repentant sinner.

n) The theocratic kingdom which they later rejected [I Sam. 8].

o) A species of buffalo now extinct which had towering horns, a symbol of its strength.

p) They had no need of these. So the church today has no use for godless cunning; she has the Holy Spirit and His Word [John 14:26; I Cor. 2:6ff].

q) Probably an allusion to Gen. 49:9. Here the strength is applied to all Israel.

r) The plain of Moab where Israel was camped.

revelation of Balaam, Beor's son, the revelation of a man whose eye is opened; <sup>4</sup>the revelation of him who hears God's words, a vision of the Almighty he also sees; for when he falls, his eyes are open. <sup>5</sup>How pleasant, O Jacob, are your tents, your dwellings, O Israel. <sup>6</sup>Spread out as valleys, as gardens along a stream, like aloes<sup>s</sup> which the LORD has planted, like cedars beside the waters.<sup>t</sup> <sup>7</sup>Water will flow from their buckets,<sup>u</sup> their offspring shall be by much water. Their king shall be higher than Agag,<sup>v</sup> their kingdom too shall be exalted. <sup>8</sup>God is leading them out of Egypt, their strength like that of a buffalo. The nations, their opponents, they shall swallow, crushing their bones into pieces, piercing them through with their arrows. <sup>9</sup>They lie, they crouch as a lion; as a lioness, who would disturb them? Blessed are they who bless you and cursed are they who curse you."

<sup>10</sup>Balak's anger flared up against Balaam, and striking his fists, he rebuked Balaam, "I engaged you to curse my enemy, but without fail you have done nothing but bless them these three times. <sup>11</sup>Flee immediately to your home; I certainly promised I would highly honor you, but the LORD has held you back from this prestige."

<sup>12</sup>Balaam reminded Balak, "But did I not inform your messengers whom you sent me, <sup>13</sup>If Balak should give me his house full of silver and gold, I still cannot overstep the LORD's command to do good or evil of my own accord; whatever the LORD tells me I must say?" <sup>14</sup>But now, notice! I am returning to my people. Come, let me inform you what this people shall do to your people in the future days."<sup>x</sup> <sup>15</sup>He then took up his discourse, saying:

"The revelation of Balaam son of Beor, the revelation of a man with opened eyes, <sup>16</sup>the revelation of him who hears God's words, who perceives the knowledge of the Most High. A vision of the Almighty he also sees, for when he falls, his eyes are open. <sup>17</sup>I see Him but not now; I observe Him but not nearby. A Star shall come up out of Jacob,<sup>y</sup> a Scepter shall rise out of Israel,<sup>z</sup> which shall crush Moab from one end to the other and destroy all the children of Sheth.<sup>a</sup> <sup>18</sup>Edom too shall become a possession and Seir a conquered territory,<sup>b</sup> while Israel is displaying his strength. <sup>19</sup>One with dominion shall come out of Jacob and kill the survivors left from the city."

<sup>20</sup>When he perceived Amalek,<sup>c</sup> he took up his discourse: "Amalek was the first of the nations,<sup>d</sup> but his end shall close with destruction."

<sup>21</sup>Then observing the Kenite<sup>e</sup> he proceeded with his discourse: "Your home is of lasting duration, and your nest is set in the rock. <sup>22</sup>Nevertheless Kain<sup>ee</sup> shall head toward destruction till Assyria<sup>f</sup> departs you as captives."

<sup>23</sup>He then concluded his discourse by saying, "Woe! who shall live when God performs this?"<sup>g</sup> <sup>24</sup>Ships shall come from the coasts of Cyprus,<sup>h</sup> they shall oppress both Assyria and Eber.<sup>i</sup> He also shall end in destruction."<sup>j</sup>

<sup>25</sup>Balaam then got up to leave<sup>k</sup> and returned to his home, while Balak also went his way.

s) A plant highly valued for its fragrance and used in making incense. t) Compare Ps. 1:3.

u) An abundance of water in a hot, arid climate.

v) A general title given to the Amalekite kings, as the name Pharaoh was in Egypt. The Amalekites here represent the gentile kingdoms in opposition to God's kingdom, since they were the first to oppose Israel after leaving Egypt [Ex. 17:8]. w) Does not imply divine approval.

x) This national prophecy became history and will be climaxed with victory over all world powers.

y) The coming Messiah. The star has long been the symbol of royalty and imperial greatness [Matt. 2:2 and Rev. 22:16]. z) Gen. 49:10.

a) The history of Moab was characterized by warlike confusion.

b) Edom the people, Seir the country. c) In his vision.

d) The first to oppose Israel as they left Egypt.

e) The Kenites were friendly. Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, was of this tribe. See Num. 10:29; I Sam. 15:6. ee) Or, the Kenite.

f) Destruction must come for the Kenites in so far as they did not with Israel enter into God's gracious covenant [I Sam. 15:6].

g) To destruction. h) Heb. — Kittim, Gen. 10:4.

i) Descendants of Eber, Gen. 10:21-30, who settled in the Near East. Together with Assyria they represented the coming world powers of the East.

j) II Sam. 7:12ff; Ps. 2; Dan. 2:44,45.

k) Sometime before Balaam left, he suggested to Balak immoral ways of leading the men of Israel astray [31:16 and Rev. 2:14].

Early 1406 B.C.

25 WHILE ISRAEL WAS STAYING IN Acacia,<sup>1</sup> the people began to have illicit relations with the women of Moab,<sup>2</sup> who had invited the people to the sacrifices of their gods. The people then started eating and bowing down to these gods,<sup>m</sup> and before long Israel was uniting freely with Baal-peor. The LORD's anger burned against Israel,<sup>4</sup> and He commanded Moses: Summon all the leaders of the people and hang them<sup>n</sup> up in broad daylight before the LORD, so that the LORD's burning anger may be diverted from Israel. <sup>5</sup>Therefore Moses ordered the judges of Israel, "Each of you execute those of his men who have fraternized with Baal-peor."

<sup>6</sup>Later, indeed, one of the men of Israel, in plain view of Moses and of the entire Israelite community,<sup>o</sup> who were weeping at the door of the meeting tent,<sup>p</sup> came in and introduced a woman of Midian to his relatives. <sup>7</sup>When Phinehas the son of Eleazar, the grandson of Aaron the priest, witnessed this, he withdrew hurriedly from the congregation, and seizing a spear in his hand, <sup>8</sup>he rushed after this man into the tent and pierced them both through, the man of Israel and the woman right through her stomach. The plague upon Israel then came to a stop, <sup>9</sup>but not until 24,000 had died of the plague.

<sup>10</sup>The LORD then said to Moses: <sup>11</sup>Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the grandson of Aaron the priest, has turned away My indignation from the nation of Israel by being so concerned about My zeal among you and as a result I did not finish dealing with the people of Israel according to My zeal. <sup>12</sup>Therefore announce: I indeed am reaffirming with him My covenant of peace.<sup>q</sup> <sup>13</sup>He and his descendants after him shall retain this covenant of the everlasting priesthood,<sup>r</sup> because he has been zealous for his God and has made atonement<sup>s</sup> for the people of Israel.

<sup>14</sup>The slain man's name, the Israelite who was killed with the Midianite woman, was Zimri the son of Salu, the leader of one of Simeon's clans. <sup>15</sup>The name of the Midianite woman who was killed was Cozbi, the daughter of Zur who was the head of a group of clans in Midian.

<sup>16</sup>Moses was then ordered by the LORD: <sup>17</sup>Provoke aggression with the Midianites and afterwards smite them; <sup>18</sup>for, you see, they too are tormenting you with their underhandedness, having deceived you in the Peor affair and in the matter of Cozbi, the daughter of the prince of Midian, their sister, who was killed on the day of the plague in the Peor trouble.

Early 1406 B.C.

26 A SHORT TIME AFTER THE plague, the LORD told Moses and Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest: <sup>2</sup>Take a census of the entire assembly of the people of Israel from 20 years of age and upward according to their clans; all who are subject to military service in Israel.<sup>t</sup> <sup>3</sup>In turn Moses and Eleazar the priest relayed this order to them<sup>u</sup> in the plains of Moab near the Jordan opposite Jericho, saying, <sup>4</sup>"Take a census of the people from twenty years of age and upward, in the same manner as the LORD commanded Moses and the people of Israel who emigrated from the land of Egypt."<sup>v</sup>

<sup>5</sup>The descendants of Reuben, the first-born of Israel, were: Hanoch of whom is the Hanochite clan; Pallu, the

l) At the northern end of their camp in the plains of Moab they came in closest contact with the Moabites. m) Eating of the pagan offerings and practicing the accompanying immoralities.

n) As leaders they had failed the people; see Lk. 12:48.

o) The shameless attitude before the people was wicked, but worse yet was the brazen blasphemy against God. p) Over the death of their leaders and the plague victims.

q) Nothing could intervene to break this covenant: the promise of eternal priesthood [vs. 13]. Comp. Ps. 106:28-31.

r) The final and perpetual High Priest would be Christ Himself. Ps. 110:4.

s) An unprecedented means of atonement; not a required sacrifice but a voluntary deed prompted by his righteous indignation against sin as opposition to God.

t) While the primary purpose of the census was to determine the inheritance of each tribe in Canaan, vs. 52-56, it was also a military census.

u) Presumably, the various tribal leaders as in ch. 1:4ff. v) Num. 1:2,3.

Palluite clan; <sup>6</sup>Hezron, the Hezronite clan; and Carmi, the Carmite clan.

<sup>7</sup>These are the Reubenite clans whose conscriptees totaled 43,730. <sup>8</sup>The son of Pallu was Eliab, <sup>9</sup> whose sons were Nemuel, Dathan, and Abiram. These are the same Dathan and Abiram, national representatives, who contended against Moses and Aaron along with Korah's company when they quarreled against the Lord. <sup>10</sup>The earth opened its mouth and swallowed them along with Korah at the same time when that company was killed by the fire which, as a warning,<sup>w</sup> consumed the 250 men. <sup>11</sup>Korah's sons, however, did not die.

<sup>12</sup>The sons of Simcon according to their respective clans were: Nemuel, of whom is the Nemuelite clan; Jamin, the Jaminite clan; Jachin, the Jachinite clan; <sup>13</sup>Zerah, the Zerahite clan; and Shaul, the Shaulite clan. <sup>14</sup>These Simconite clans totaled 22,200.<sup>x</sup>

<sup>15</sup>The sons of Gad<sup>y</sup> according to their respective clans were: Zephon, of whom is the Zephonite clan; Haggi, the Haggite clan; Shuni, the Shunite clan; <sup>16</sup>Ozni, the Oznite clan; Eri, the Erite clan; <sup>17</sup>Arod, the Arodite clan; and Arel, the Arelite clan. <sup>18</sup>These are the clans of Gad's descendants, whose conscriptees totaled 40,500.

<sup>19</sup>Two of Judah's sons were Er and Onan who died in the land of Canaan.<sup>z</sup> <sup>20</sup>The sons of Judah according to their respective clans were: Shelah, of whom is the Shelanite clan; Perez, the Perezite clan;<sup>a</sup> and Zerah, the Zerahite clan. <sup>21</sup>The sons of Perez were: Hezron, of whom is the Hezronite clan; and Hamul, the Hamulite clan. <sup>22</sup>These are the clans of Judah, whose conscriptees totaled 76,500.

<sup>23</sup>The sons of Issachar according to their respective clans were: Tola, of whom is the Tolaite clan; Puvah, the Punite clan; <sup>24</sup>Jashub, the Jashubite clan; and Shimron, the Shimronite clan. <sup>25</sup>These are the clans of Issachar, whose conscriptees totaled 64,300.

<sup>26</sup>The sons of Zebulun according to their respective clans were: Sered, of whom is the Scredite clan; Elon, the Elonite clan; and Jahlcel, the Jahleelite clan. <sup>27</sup>These are the Zebulunite clans whose conscriptees totaled 60,500.

<sup>28</sup>The sons of Joseph according to their respective tribes were Manasseh and Ephraim. <sup>29</sup>The descendants of Manasseh were: Machir, of whom is the Machirite clan. Machir was the father of Gilead, of whom is the Gileadite clan. <sup>30</sup>The sons of Gilead were: Iezer, of whom is the Iezerite clan; Helek, the Helekite clan; <sup>31</sup>Asriel, the Asrielite clan; Shechem, the Shechemite clan; <sup>32</sup>Shemida, the Shemidaite clan; and Hephher, the Hephherite clan. <sup>33</sup>Now Zelophehad, the son of Hephher, had no sons but only daughters, and the names of Zelophehad's daughters were Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah.<sup>b</sup> <sup>34</sup>These are the clans of Manasseh whose conscriptees totaled 52,700.

<sup>35</sup>The sons of Ephraim according to their respective clans were: Shuthelah, of whom is the Shuthelahite clan; Becher, the Becherite clan; and Tahan, the Tahanite clan. <sup>36</sup>The following are the sons of Shuthelah: Eran of whom is the Eranite clan. <sup>37</sup>These are the clans of Ephraim's descendants whose conscriptees totaled 32,500. The preceding are the sons of Joseph according to their clans.

<sup>38</sup>The sons of Benjamin according to their respective clans were: Bela, of whom is the Belaitite clan; Ashbel, the Ashbelite clan; Ahiram, the Ahiramite clan; <sup>39</sup>Shephupham, the Shuphamite clan; and Hupham, the Huphamite clan. <sup>40</sup>The sons of Bela were Ard and Naaman: Ard, of whom is the Ardite clan; and Naaman, the Naamite

w) Num. 16:30,38, a further evidence of God's mercy.

x) Comparing the national census of ch. 1, Simeon suffered the greatest decrease; they were probably most involved in the Baal-peor affair.

y) After Reuben and Simeon the Levites are next in line, but they as ministers, are numbered by themselves. Gad, elder son of Zilpah, Leah's handmaid, fills the gap between Simeon and Judah.

z) Gen. 38:6-9.

a) From which David and thus ultimately Jesus were born. Occasionally it is spelled Pharez, and the Pharisees — separatists — revived the name.

b) Here mentioned because their father's inheritance passed down through them [see ch. 27:5-7].

NUMBERS 27

clan. <sup>41</sup>These are the sons of Benjamin according to their clans who totaled 45,600.

<sup>42</sup>These are the sons of Dan according to their clans: Shuham, of whom is the Shuhamite clan. These represent the families of Dan according to their clans. <sup>43</sup>The number from all the Shuhamite clans totaled 64,400.

<sup>44</sup>The sons of Asher according to their respective clans were: Imnah, of whom is the Imnite clan; Ishvi, the Ishvite clan; and Beriah, the Beriite clan. <sup>45</sup>Beriah's sons were: Heber of whom is the Heberite clan; and Malchiel, the Malchielite clan. <sup>46</sup>Asher also had a daughter named Serah. <sup>47</sup>These are the clans of Asher's sons whose number totaled 53,400.

<sup>48</sup>The sons of Naphtali according to their respective clans were: Jahzeel, of whom is the Jahzeelite clan; Guni, the Gunite clan; <sup>49</sup>Jezer, the Jezerite clan; and Shillem, the Shillemite clan. <sup>50</sup>These represent the families of Naphtali according to their clans who totaled 45,400.

<sup>51</sup>The foregoing are the conscriptees from the nation of Israel, whose sum total was 601,730.

<sup>52</sup>Afterwards the LORD instructed Moses, <sup>53</sup>The land is to be allotted as an inheritance in proportion to the number of names. <sup>54</sup>The one with the larger amount shall receive the greater inheritance; the one with the fewer shall receive the smaller inheritance. Each tribe shall be allotted its inheritance in proportion to its total number. <sup>55</sup>Nevertheless, the land shall be distributed by lot;<sup>c</sup> and they shall take possession of it according to the names of their paternal tribes. <sup>56</sup>Their inheritance shall be divided according to lot between the larger and the smaller.

<sup>57</sup>Those who were numbered of the Levites according to their respective clans are: Gershon, of whom is the Gershonite clan; Kohath, the Kohathite clan; and Merari, the Merarite clan. <sup>58</sup>These are also the clans of Levi:<sup>d</sup> The Libnite clan, the Hebron-

The Daughters of Zelophehad

ite clan, the Mahlite clan, the Mushite clan, and the Korahite clan. Now Kohath was the father of Amram, <sup>59</sup>whose wife's name was Jochebed, the daughter of Levi who was born to him in Egypt. She gave birth by Amram to Aaron, Moses, and their sister, Miriam. <sup>60</sup>Aaron was the father of Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar. <sup>61</sup>Nadab and Abihu, however, died when they offered improper fire<sup>e</sup> before the LORD. <sup>62</sup>Their enrollment, all the males a month or more old, totaled 23,000, for they were not counted with the Israelites since there was no inheritance assigned to them among the people of Israel.<sup>f</sup>

<sup>63</sup>The foregoing are those who were enrolled by Moses and Eleazar the priest when they took a census of the nation of Israel in the plains of Moab near the Jordan opposite Jericho. <sup>64</sup>Among these, however, there was not a single man who had been enrolled by Moses and Aaron the priest when they took the census of the Israelites in the wilderness of Sinai, <sup>65</sup>for the LORD had declared to them: Without fail you will die in the wilderness.<sup>g</sup> Consequently, not a single one of them survived except Caleb the son of Jephunneh, and Joshua the son of Nun.<sup>h</sup> Early 1406 B.C.

27 THEN CAME FORWARD THE daughters of Zelophehad, whose ancestry goes back through Hephher, Gilcad, Machir, and Manasseh, the clans of Manasseh, to Joseph. These are the names of his daughters: Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah. <sup>2</sup>As they stood before Moses, Eleazar the priest, the princes, and the entire assembly at the entrance of the meeting tent, they stated, <sup>3</sup>"Our father died in the wilderness — though he did not go along with the company, Korah's company, which assembled against the LORD; he died because of his own sin<sup>i</sup> — leaving no sons. <sup>4</sup>But why should our father's name be withdrawn from his family tree just because he had no son? Grant us a pos-

c) To prevent any jealousy or strife which might arise.

d) Descendants of the preceding three major clans.

e) See ch. 3:4. f) Ch. 18:20, 24. g) Ch. 14:28ff. h) The Lord breaks no promise or threat [Gal. 6:7,8].

i) Included in the general punishment prescribed at Kadesh, but not in any rebellious group.

session among our father's relatives."<sup>m</sup>

<sup>5</sup>Moses therefore brought their case to the LORD, <sup>6</sup>and in reply the LORD instructed Moses: <sup>7</sup>The daughters of Zelophehad have a just complaint. You must certainly grant them a possession by right of inheritance among their father's relatives by transferring their father's inheritance to them. <sup>8</sup>In addition, issue this statement to the people of Israel: If a man dies who has no son, you are to transfer his property to his daughter. <sup>9</sup>If he has no daughter, then assign it to his brother. <sup>10</sup>If he has no brothers, give his inheritance to his uncles, <sup>11</sup>and if he has no uncles, then assign his property to the closest relative in his family;<sup>n</sup> this one shall possess it. The people of Israel shall have this as a statute for determining legal right in accord with the LORD's command to Moses.

<sup>12</sup>The LORD said to Moses: Climb this mountain of Abarim<sup>o</sup> and view the country which I have given to the nation of Israel. <sup>13</sup>After you have seen it, you also will be reunited with your people as Aaron, your brother, was reunited with his kinsfolk, <sup>14</sup>because by failing to vindicate Me before their eyes at the waters, you rebelled against My orders when the congregation was finding fault in the wilderness of Zin. These are the waters of Meribah at Kadesh in the wilderness of Zin.

<sup>15</sup>Moses then made this request of the LORD:<sup>p</sup> <sup>16</sup>"Let the LORD, the God who knows the dispositions of all mankind, put a man in charge of the congregation <sup>17</sup>who can lead them in war and direct their national affairs so that the LORD's congregation be not like a flock without a shepherd."<sup>q</sup> <sup>18</sup>The LORD therefore directed Moses: Secure for yourself Joshua the son of Nun, a man who has the Spirit within him, and lay your hands upon him. <sup>19</sup>I have him stand before Eleazar the priest and before the entire community that you may commission him before their eyes. <sup>20</sup>Confer upon him some of your authority,<sup>r</sup> in order that the entire congregation of the Israelites may be obedient to him. <sup>21</sup>He shall present himself before Eleazar the priest, who shall inquire for him before the LORD the decision of the Urim. Both in war and in peace they, Joshua along with all the Israelites and the entire assembly, shall act under his orders.<sup>s</sup> <sup>22</sup>Moses acted accordingly, even as the LORD had commanded him; he took Joshua and had him stand before Eleazar the priest and before the entire assembly. <sup>23</sup>As he placed his hands upon him, he commissioned him as the LORD had instructed through Moses.

28 THE LORD FURTHER TOLD Moses:<sup>t</sup> <sup>2</sup>Command the people of Israel and say to them: You shall be careful to present My sacrificial gift, My food which is offered with fire as a pleasing fragrance to Me, at its designated time. <sup>3</sup>The offering made by fire which you are to present to the LORD is this: Flawless yearling lambs, two each day, as a continual burnt offering.<sup>u</sup> <sup>4</sup>Offer one of the lambs in the morning and the other at dusk, <sup>5</sup>along with a meal offering composed of three quarts of fine flour mixed with three pints of oil. <sup>6</sup>This is the continual burnt offering instituted at Mount Sinai<sup>v</sup> to be offered with fire as a pleasing fragrance to the LORD. <sup>7</sup>The accompanying drink offering shall be three pints for each lamb. Pour out this drink offering of strong wine<sup>w</sup> before the LORD in the holy place. <sup>8</sup>Offer the other lamb at dusk in the same manner as the morning meal offering and drink offering, burning it with fire as a pleasing fragrance to the LORD.

m) By faith they took advantage of God's promise to Abraham [Gen. 15:18].

n) Peruse the story of Ruth and Boaz in the Book of Ruth, ch. 4:1-11.

o) Its peak Nebo, comp. the parallel account in Deut. 32:48-52.

p) Not a word of complaint, although he fully realized that another was to reap the reward of his labors. q) In spite of all their failures, Moses still had their interests at heart.

r) "Some of your spiritual gifts and the respect you have of the people."

s) The high priest would be God's representative in this theocracy as soon as Moses passed away, because no one could personally replace him.

t) The congregation is now on the eve of entering Canaan and is reminded of the prerequisites for enjoying a constant fellowship with their LORD.

u) Symbolic of daily consecration to the LORD. v) Ex. 29:38-42. w) Wine not to be imbibed.

<sup>9</sup>On the Sabbath day you are to offer two flawless male yearling lambs, a meal offering composed of six quarts of fine flour mixed with oil, and the accompanying drink offering. <sup>10</sup>The burnt offering for every Sabbath is in addition to the continual burnt offering<sup>x</sup> and its accompanying drink offering.

<sup>11</sup>At the beginning of each month,<sup>y</sup> you are also to offer to the LORD a burnt offering of two young bulls, one ram, and seven flawless male yearling lambs. <sup>12</sup>Nine quarts of fine flour mixed with oil is to serve as a meal offering to accompany each bull; six quarts of fine flour mixed with oil as a meal offering for the ram; <sup>13</sup>and three quarts of fine flour mixed with oil as a meal offering for each lamb. This is a burnt offering presented with fire as a pleasing fragrance to the LORD. <sup>14</sup>The drink offerings which shall accompany them shall be three quarts of wine for a bull, two quarts for a ram, and three pints for a lamb. This is the burnt offering for each month throughout the entire year.<sup>z</sup>

<sup>15</sup>In addition to the regular burnt offering and its accompanying drink offering, one he-goat is also to be offered as a sin offering<sup>a</sup> to the LORD.

<sup>16</sup>The LORD's Passover is on the fourteenth day of the first month.

<sup>17</sup>Therefore on the fifteenth of this month there shall be a feast, lasting for seven days, at which unleavened bread shall be eaten. <sup>18</sup>You are to refrain from any strenuous labor on the first day, for it has been set aside for a sacred meeting. <sup>19</sup>You are to sacrifice with fire a burnt offering to the LORD of two young bulls, one ram, and seven male yearling lambs; make sure they are flawless,<sup>b</sup> <sup>20</sup>along with their respective meal offerings, fine flour mixed with oil. Present nine quarts with a bull, six quarts with the ram, <sup>21</sup>and three quarts with each of the seven lambs. <sup>22</sup>Moreover, offer one he-goat as a sin offering to make atonement for you. <sup>23</sup>You are to offer these in addition to the morning burnt offering, which is the regular burnt offering. <sup>24</sup>Follow this pattern daily for seven days as you offer the food<sup>c</sup> with fire as a pleasing fragrance to the LORD. It shall be offered in addition to the regular burnt offering and its accompanying drink offering. <sup>25</sup>You are to refrain from any strenuous labor on the seventh day since it has been set aside for a sacred meeting.

<sup>26</sup>On the day of the first fruits, when in your feast of weeks you bring the LORD a food offering of new grain, you shall have a sacred meeting; you shall do no exhausting work. <sup>27</sup>But offer a burnt offering for a pleasing fragrance to the LORD — two young bullocks, one ram, seven yearling he-lambs; <sup>28</sup>and their food offering — fine flour mixed with oil, ten and a half quarts for each bullock, seven quarts for the ram, <sup>29</sup>seven pints for each of the seven he-lambs; <sup>30</sup>one he-goat to make atonement for you. <sup>31</sup>You shall offer these and their libations in addition to the regular burnt offering and food offering; and be sure they are sound.

29 YOU ARE ALSO TO HAVE A SACRED meeting on the first day of the seventh month<sup>d</sup> and because of that you must refrain from all strenuous labor; the day has been set aside for you for the blowing of trumpets.<sup>e</sup> <sup>2</sup>As a pleasing fragrance to the LORD you are to present to the LORD a burnt offering of one young bull, one ram, and seven yearling male lambs which are flawless, <sup>3</sup>together with their rex) Since this day was especially the LORD's.

y) Monthly as well as daily consecration. This was binding upon them; thus we may offer ourselves personally and also as represented by our gifts in works and money [Rom. 12:1].

z) According to Num. 10:10, a trumpet was to be blown at this time to bring to God's remembrance their prayers and offerings, so that He would deal mercifully with them.

a) Consecration is not effective until sin is removed.

b) For details see Lev. 22:18-25, typical of the moral perfections of Christ, I Pet. 1:19.

c) The burnt offering and its accompanying offerings. These, being symbolic of consecration, were to respond to God's yearning for human love and worship.

d) Consecrated as a Sabbatical month, the two main events being the Day of Atonement, vss. 7-11, and the Feast of Tabernacles, vss. 12-28. God's order is atonement, then fellowship and blessing.

e) To invoke God's blessed attention upon them, see ch. 10:10.

spective meal offering of fine flour mixed with oil, nine quarts with the bull, six quarts with the ram, <sup>4</sup>and three quarts with each of the seven lambs. <sup>5</sup>In addition offer a he-goat as a sin offering to make atonement for you, <sup>6</sup>together with the burnt offering of the new moon with its meal offering, the regular burnt offering with its meal offering, and their respective drink offerings as their regulation specifics. They are an offering made with fire as a pleasing fragrance to the LORD.

<sup>7</sup>On the tenth day of this seventh month you are to have a sacred meeting; you shall humble yourselves<sup>c</sup> and refrain from any type of work. <sup>8</sup>Furthermore, present as a pleasing fragrance to the LORD a burnt offering of one young bull, one ram, and seven yearling male lambs, making certain they are flawless, <sup>9</sup>along with their respective meal offerings of fine flour mixed with oil, nine quarts with the bull, six quarts with the ram, <sup>10</sup>and three quarts with each of the seven lambs. <sup>11</sup>Moreover, offer one he-goat for a sin offering in addition to the sin offering of atonement,<sup>d</sup> the continual burnt offering, its accompanying meal offering, and their respective drink offerings.

<sup>12</sup>Likewise on the fifteenth day of the seventh month you are to have a sacred meeting; you are to refrain from any strenuous labor and are to observe a feast to the LORD for seven days.<sup>b</sup>

<sup>13</sup>Offer a burnt offering with fire as a pleasing fragrance to the LORD: thirteen young bulls, two rams, and fourteen yearling male lambs, which are flawless, <sup>14</sup>along with their respective meal offerings of fine flour mixed with oil, nine quarts with each of the thirteen bulls, six quarts with each of the two rams, <sup>15</sup>and three quarts with each of the fourteen lambs. <sup>16</sup>Offer one he-goat as a sin offering in addition to the regular burnt offering and its accompanying meal offering and drink offering.

<sup>17</sup>On the second day offer twelve young bulls,<sup>1</sup> two rams, and fourteen yearling male lambs which are flawless. <sup>18</sup>Their respective meal offerings and drink offerings are to accompany the bulls, the rams and the lambs, depending on their number as the regulation specifies. <sup>19</sup>In addition offer one he-goat as a sin offering together with the continual burnt offering, its accompanying meal offering and their respective drink offerings.

<sup>20</sup>On the third day offer eleven young bulls, two rams, and fourteen yearling male lambs which are flawless. <sup>21</sup>Their respective meal offerings and drink offerings are to accompany the bulls, the rams, and the lambs, depending on their number as the regulation specifies. <sup>22</sup>In addition offer one male goat as a sin offering together with the continual burnt offering and its accompanying meal offering and drink offering.

<sup>23</sup>On the fourth day offer ten young bulls, two rams and fourteen male yearling lambs which are flawless. <sup>24</sup>Their respective meal offerings and drink offerings are to accompany the bulls, the rams and the lambs, depending on their number as the regulation specifies. <sup>25</sup>In addition offer one he-goat as a sin offering together with the continual burnt offering and its accompanying meal offering and drink offering.

<sup>26</sup>On the fifth day offer nine young bulls, two rams and fourteen male yearling lambs, which are flawless. <sup>27</sup>Their respective meal offerings and drink offerings are to accompany the bulls, the rams and the lambs, depending on their number as the regulation specifies. <sup>28</sup>In addition offer one he-goat as a sin offering together with the continual burnt offering and its accompanying meal offering and drink offering.

f) Heb. — Afflict your soul, probably including fasting. Comp. Isa. 58:5-10.

g) The annual atonement for the people's sin, Lev. 16, and for a comparison with Christ's atonement, see Heb. 9, especially vss. 25, 26.

h) The feast was a memorial of God's care for Israel in the desert and a thanksgiving for His provision during the year just completed [Lev. 23:39-43].

i) The number of bulls is arranged to reach seven on the seventh day, the number of perfection, to represent God's complete provision, such as we now enjoy in Christ and in His dealings with men.

<sup>29</sup>On the sixth day offer eight young bulls, two rams, and fourteen male yearling lambs which are flawless. <sup>30</sup>Their respective meal offerings and drink offerings are to accompany the bulls, the rams and the lambs, depending on their number as the regulation specifies. <sup>31</sup>In addition offer one he-goat as a sin offering together with the continual burnt offering and its accompanying meal offering and drink offering.

<sup>32</sup>On the seventh day offer seven young bulls, two rams, and fourteen male yearling lambs, which are flawless. <sup>33</sup>Their respective meal offerings and drink offerings are to accompany the bulls, the rams and the lambs, depending on their number as the regulation specifies. <sup>34</sup>In addition offer one he-goat as a sin offering together with the continual burnt offering and its accompanying meal offering and drink offering.

<sup>35</sup>On the eighth day you are to have a sacred meeting and therefore must refrain from any strenuous labor. <sup>36</sup>Offer a burnt offering with fire as a pleasing fragrance to the LORD: namely, one young bull, one ram, and seven male yearling lambs, which are flawless. <sup>37</sup>Their respective meal offerings and drink offerings are to accompany the bull, the ram, and the lambs, depending on their number as the regulation specifies. <sup>38</sup>In addition offer one male goat as a sin offering together with the continual burnt offering and its accompanying meal offering and drink offering.

<sup>39</sup>You are to offer these to the LORD at your set festivals in addition to your vows and your freewill offerings,<sup>j</sup> consisting of your burnt offerings, your meal offerings, your drink offerings, and your peace offerings. <sup>40</sup>Moses told the people of Israel exactly what the LORD had commanded him.

Early 1406 B.C.

30 MOSES ADDRESSED THE TRIBAL leaders of the Israelites, "The LORD has issued the following order:

<sup>2</sup>When a man makes a vow<sup>k</sup> to the LORD or takes an oath to abstain from something,<sup>l</sup> thereby pledging himself to it, he must not go back on his word but must carry out all that his mouth has uttered. <sup>3</sup>Similarly, when a woman makes a vow to the LORD or takes a pledge of self-denial, while still an adolescent in her father's house, <sup>4</sup>and her father hears of her vow or this pledge of self-denial and grants her his silent consent, then all her vows and every pledge of self-denial with which she has bound herself shall remain in effect. <sup>5</sup>But if, on the day he hears of it, her father should forbid her, then all her vows and pledges of self-denial shall be invalid; in this case the LORD will forgive her, since she was forbidden by her father.

<sup>6</sup>Likewise, if she is about to be married to her fiancé while still committed to her vows or to a thoughtless statement which she has made,<sup>m</sup> <sup>7</sup>and her fiancé hears of this, then if he says nothing on the day he hears of it, her vows and pledges of abstinence shall remain in effect. <sup>8</sup>On the other hand, if on the day her fiancé hears of this he restrains her by annulling the vow which obligates her and the thoughtless pledge to which she has committed herself, then the LORD will forgive her.

<sup>9</sup>But in the case of the vow of a widow or of a divorcee, anything with which she has bound herself shall remain as her personal responsibility. <sup>10</sup>Similarly, when she makes a vow while in her husband's house or pledges herself to abstinence by oath, <sup>11</sup>and her husband, hearing of this, by silent consent does not forbid her, then every vow and pledge of self-denial shall remain in effect. <sup>12</sup>If her husband, however, definitely nullifies them on the day he hears of it, then whatever has passed her lips, whether her vow or pledge of self-denial, shall not stand; and since her husband made them invalid, the LORD will forgive her.

<sup>13</sup>In short, her husband may either

j) Comp. ch. 15:3-13. The foregoing were obligatory; these are optional.

k) A positive vow in appreciation, in worship, or in distress.

l) A negative vow, usually fasting or some other form of self-denial. Comp. the Nazarite vow in ch. 6.

m) A promise to God demands supreme consideration and attention, Prov. 20:25; Eccl. 5:4,5.

confirm or nullify every vow and every pledge of abstinence she made in self-denial. <sup>14</sup>If her husband offers her no objection from day to day, he then confirms all her vows and pledges which obligate her; he thus establishes them because he gave her his silent consent on the day he heard of them. <sup>15</sup>If however, he utterly renounces them after he has heard of them,<sup>n</sup> he must suffer the consequences of her sin."<sup>o</sup> <sup>16</sup>These are the regulations which the LORD prescribed to Moses governing a man and his wife, or a father and his daughter who is still an adolescent in her father's house.

February, March, 1406 B.C.

31 THEN THE LORD SAID TO Moses: <sup>2</sup>Seek retribution for the Israelites against the Midianites, after which you shall be reunited with your people.<sup>p</sup> <sup>3</sup>Moses therefore spoke to the people, "Arm some of your men for battle, for they are to attack Midian to execute retribution against them for the LORD.<sup>q</sup> <sup>4</sup>Send 1,000 men per tribe from all of Israel's tribes." <sup>5</sup>So after 1,000 men from each tribe were conscripted from Israel's families, 12,000 in all who were equipped for warfare, <sup>6</sup>Moses sent them — 1,000 men from each tribe — to battle, along with Phinchas the son of Eleazar the priest, the sacred articles,<sup>r</sup> and the alarm trumpets which he carried in his hand. <sup>7</sup>They engaged Midian as the LORD had ordered Moses, killing every male.<sup>s</sup> <sup>8</sup>In addition they executed, along with their fallen men, the Midianite kings: namely, Evi, Rekem, Zur, Hur, and Reba, the five kings of Midian.<sup>t</sup> In the battle<sup>u</sup> they also killed Balaam the son of Beor. <sup>9</sup>Furthermore, the Israelites captured the Midianite women and their children, seized all their cattle, flocks, and wealth as booty <sup>10</sup>and set fire to all the cities in which they lived and to all their camps. <sup>11</sup>They then took all the booty and prey, both people and livestock, <sup>12</sup>and brought them — that is, the captives, prey, and booty — to the camp in the plains of Moab near the Jordan opposite Jericho, to Moses, to Eleazar the priest, and to the congregation of Israel.

<sup>13</sup>When Moses, Eleazar the priest, and all the leaders in the congregation went to meet them outside the camp, <sup>14</sup>Moses grew very angry with the army heads, the battalion commanders, and the company commanders, who were just returning from the battle front. <sup>15</sup>"Have you left all the women alive?" demanded Moses. <sup>16</sup>"Take note, in the Peor affair these are the ones who, at Balaam's advice, caused the men of Israel to renounce fidelity to the LORD,<sup>v</sup> resulting in a plague among the congregation of the LORD. <sup>17</sup>Now kill every young boy and every woman who has had intercourse with a man. <sup>18</sup>Every young girl, however, who has not had intercourse with a man you may keep alive for yourselves. <sup>19</sup>Besides, all of you who have killed a person or have touched a slain body, must remain outside the camp for seven days. Then purify both yourselves and your prisoners on the third and seventh days, <sup>20</sup>as well as every garment, all leather goods, all materials, of goat's hair, and all wooden articles."

<sup>21</sup>Eleazar the priest informed the soldiers who had engaged in the battle: "This is the statute of instruction which the LORD has commanded Moses. <sup>22</sup>In the case of gold, silver, copper, iron, tin, and lead — <sup>23</sup>everything which will stand fire — you are to pass it through fire, that it may be cleansed; nevertheless, it must also be purified with the water of uncleanness.<sup>w</sup> In addition you are to rinse with water everything that cannot stand fire. <sup>24</sup>Then after you have washed your clothes, on the seventh day you shall be clean and may re-enter the camp."

<sup>25</sup>The LORD also told Moses: <sup>26</sup>You,

n) Other than the day he heard of them. o) For the two have become one in marriage.

p) A detailed reminder of the command given in ch. 25:17.

q) The seduction by the Midianites had brought dishonor to the LORD.

r) The sacred articles may refer to the Ark, comp. Josh. 6:8; they represented God's presence.

s) All adult males, see vs. 17. t) Comp. Josh. 13:21.

u) The LORD repays, Gal. 6:6,7. II Pet. 2:15.

v) Balaam became a false prophet; he tried to serve two masters.

w) See ch. 19:9.

Eleazar the priest, and the tribal leaders of the assembly, find out how much booty was seized both of people and of livestock. <sup>27</sup>Then divide the booty in two parts between the soldiers who have engaged in the battle and the rest of the congregation.<sup>x</sup> <sup>28</sup>Moreover, levy a tax for the LORD on the soldiers who have engaged in the battle: namely, one out of every 500 of the people, the oxen, the donkeys, and the flocks. <sup>29</sup>Exact this from their half and give it to Eleazar the priest as a contribution to the LORD. <sup>30</sup>In addition, from the congregation's half, appropriate one out of every fifty from the captives, the oxen, the donkeys, and the flocks, even of all the livestock, and distribute them to the Levites who have charge of the LORD's tabernacle.<sup>y</sup> <sup>31</sup>Moses and Eleazar the priest thus did as the LORD had directed Moses.

<sup>32</sup>The booty that remained<sup>z</sup> of what the soldiers had originally taken amounted in all to 675,000 sheep, <sup>33</sup>72,000 oxen, <sup>34</sup>61,000 donkeys, <sup>35</sup>and 32,000 persons, that is, women who had never lain with a man.<sup>a</sup> <sup>36</sup>The half which fell to the war veterans totaled 337,500 sheep, <sup>37</sup>minus 675 which were due the LORD, <sup>38</sup>36,000 oxen of which 72 were due the LORD, <sup>39</sup>and 30,500 donkeys of which 61 were due the LORD. <sup>40</sup>There were also 16,000 persons of whom 32 were due the LORD. <sup>41</sup>Moses then gave the tribute, which was the offering for the LORD, to Eleazar the priest as the LORD had directed him.

<sup>42</sup>From the half belonging to the people of Israel which Moses had separated from that of the war veterans— <sup>43</sup>this half belonging to the congregation was 337,500 sheep, <sup>44</sup>36,000 oxen, <sup>45</sup>30,500 donkeys, <sup>46</sup>and 16,000 persons. <sup>47</sup>From the half belonging to the Israelites, Moses in compliance with the LORD's directions to him, appropriated one out of every fifty from both people and livestock and gave them to the Levites, who discharged the duties of the LORD's tabernacle.

<sup>48</sup>Later the generals of the army, the battalion commanders, and the company officers approached Moses <sup>49</sup>and reported to him, "Your staff has taken a census of the soldiers who are under our command and not one of our men is missing."<sup>b</sup> <sup>50</sup>Moreover, we have brought an offering to the LORD of what each one has obtained — golden jewelry, ankle bracelets, wrist bracelets,<sup>c</sup> signet rings, earrings, and necklaces — to make atonement for our souls before the LORD."<sup>d</sup> <sup>51</sup>Moses and Eleazar the priest then accepted the gold from them, which was worked jewelry entirely, <sup>52</sup>and all the gold in this contribution which they — the battalion and company commanders — had presented to the LORD was about 305,000 dollars.<sup>e</sup> <sup>53</sup>In this connection the soldiers had taken the booty for themselves personally. <sup>54</sup>After Moses and Eleazar the priest had received the gold from the battalion and company commanders, they brought it into the tent of meeting as a memorial for the people of Israel before the LORD.<sup>f</sup>

Early 1406 B.C.

32 NOW THE PEOPLE OF REUBEN and Gad had a vast number of cattle and when they saw<sup>g</sup> that the country of Jazer and Gilead would indeed be a place of fine pasture land,<sup>h</sup> <sup>2</sup>they approached Moses, Eleazar the priest, and the assembly leaders saying, <sup>3</sup>"Ataroth, Dibon, Jazer, Nimrah, Heshbon, Elealeh, Sebam, Nebo, and Beon — <sup>4</sup>the area which the LORD conquered before the congregation of Israel — is cattle country, and, as you know, your servants have cattle. <sup>5</sup>If we have found favor in your eyes,"

x) Comp. I Sam. 30:24. y) This percentage gave all the tribes an equal share in the booty.

z) Persons who had not been executed and livestock which had not been consumed by the soldiers. a) These women would hardly become ideal mothers to train their offspring in the worship and service of God. b) A striking proof of God's protection, note Ps. 91:7.

c) Given to the Levites and priests.

d) Not so much for sin as to offer humble gratitude to the LORD.

e) Heb. — 16,750 shekels of gold, a shekel being worth about $18.20.

f) A thankful remembrance to the LORD and for a favorable remembrance by the LORD.

g) One of the widest avenues of temptation, comp. Gen. 3:6; 13:10.

h) Many are satisfied with only the good and as a result miss God's best. They were among the first to go into captivity [I Chron. 5:25,26].

they petitioned, "then let this area be granted to your servants as a possession. Do not force us to cross the Jordan."

<sup>6</sup>"Shall your fellow men engage in combat while you relax here?" Moses reprimanded the men of Gad and Reuben. <sup>7</sup>"Now why do you turn the heart of the Israelites against crossing into the country which the LORD has given them?" <sup>8</sup>That is exactly what your fathers did, when I sent them from Kadesh-barnea to survey the land; <sup>9</sup>for after they went up to the valley of Escol and viewed the land, they spread fear into the hearts of the Israelites, so as to hinder them from entering the land which the LORD had promised them. <sup>10</sup>Consequently the LORD's anger was inflamed at that time and He swore saying: <sup>11</sup>The men from twenty years of age and upward who came from Egypt shall never see<sup>j</sup> the land which I have promised by oath to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, because they have been disloyal to Me, <sup>12</sup>with the exception of Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite, and Joshua the son of Nun, both of whom have wholeheartedly followed the LORD. <sup>13</sup>So the LORD's anger was inflamed against Israel, and as a result He made them wander back and forth in the desert for forty years until the entire generation that had practiced evil in the LORD's sight had perished.<sup>k</sup> <sup>14</sup>Now here you are rising up in your fathers' place as a brood of sinners to amplify even further the fiery anger of the LORD against Israel. <sup>15</sup>If you give up following I<sup>l</sup>im, He will leave them even longer in the desert, and you, in turn, will bring disaster to this entire nation!"

<sup>16</sup>But they approached him, saying, "Here we will build some pens for our livestock, and towns for our little ones,<sup>l</sup> <sup>17</sup>but we ourselves shall be armed and on the alert in front of Israel's men until we have escorted them to their settlement. Meanwhile our families will remain in the fortified towns out of reach of the native residents. <sup>18</sup>We shall not return to our homes until each of the Israelites has taken over his possession. <sup>19</sup>Since we have fallen heir to our own possession across Jordan to the east,<sup>m</sup> we shall not be occupying with them on the further side of the Jordan and onward."

<sup>20</sup>Moses replied, "If you will carry out this plan, if you will equip yourselves for combat in the LORD's presence<sup>n</sup> <sup>21</sup>and every equipped soldier among you in turn will cross the Jordan in the LORD's presence until He has driven His enemies before Him <sup>22</sup>and the land is subdued before the LORD, then you may return free of guilt before the LORD, and Israel and this land will belong to you as an inheritance before the LORD. <sup>23</sup>But if you fail to act accordingly, behold, you have sinned against the LORD, and be sure your sin will find you out.<sup>o</sup> <sup>24</sup>Now build yourselves some towns for your families and pens for your livestock, and then do what you said you would." <sup>25</sup>The men of Gad and the men of Reuben assured Moses, "Your servants will carry out my<sup>p</sup> commander's orders. <sup>26</sup>Our children, wives, flocks and cattle shall remain there in the cities of Gilead <sup>27</sup>while your servants — all who are on active military duty — cross over in the LORD's presence to the battle, as my commander directs."

<sup>28</sup>Moses then gave orders concerning them to Eleazar the priest, to Joshua the son of Nun and to the tribal leaders of the Israelites; <sup>29</sup>he directed them, "If all the equipped soldiers from Gad and Reuben cross the Jordan with you in the LORD's presence and the country is subdued before you, then grant them the territory of Gilead as a possession. <sup>30</sup>But if those under arms fail to cross with you, then they shall have to possess<sup>q</sup> property along with you in the

i) Personal stumbling is bad; causing a brother to stumble is devilish [Matt. 18:6-9].

j) Woe to the man who goes beyond this point of God's mercy!

k) Chapters 13, 14. l) Implying all the defenseless personnel.

m) On the east side of the Jordan, comp. vs. 32.

n) Either generally, that is, "under the LORD's observation," Ps. 139:7-16; or specifically, the LORD's presence with the Ark which was taken into battle.

o) You will experience the consequence of your sin which is certain to overtake you.

p) There seems to be one spokesman for the entire group.

q) To prevent a rebellion or division in the nation. r) Heb.: "Let it be with us."

land of Canaan." <sup>31</sup>The men of Gad and Reuben spoke up and explained, "Whatever the LORD orders your servants we shall carry out. <sup>32</sup>We definitely will cross over under arms before the LORD to the land of Canaan, so allow us<sup>r</sup> to possess our inheritance beyond the Jordan."

<sup>33</sup>Under these conditions Moses granted them — the people of Gad, Reuben, and the half tribe of Manasse<sup>s</sup> the son of Joseph — the kingdom of Sihon, king of the Amorites, and the kingdom of Og, king of Bashan, even the entire land with its towns and their surrounding districts. <sup>34</sup>The men of Gad then built Dibon, Ataroth, Aroer, <sup>35</sup>Atroth-shophan, Jazer, Jogbehah, <sup>36</sup>Beth-nimrah, and Beth-haran as fortified towns and also constructed sheep pens. <sup>37</sup>The men of Reuben built Heshbon, Elealeh, Kiriathaim, <sup>38</sup>Nebo, Baal-meon — the names being changed — and Sibmah; and they gave new names to the cities which they built. <sup>39</sup>The men of Machir the son of Manasseh, went out and captured Gilead, driving out the Amorites located there. <sup>40</sup>Moses therefore assigned Gilead to Machir the son of Manasseh and there he settled. <sup>41</sup>Likewise, Jair, a descendant of Manasseh, went out and captured some of their<sup>t</sup> towns, naming them Havvoth-jair," <sup>42</sup>while Nobah went out and seized Kenath and its surrounding villages, renaming it Nobah after himself.<sup>v</sup>

33 THIS IS THE ITINERARY OF THE nation of Israel which, according to their armies under the leadership of Moses and Aaron, emigrated from the land of Egypt. <sup>2</sup>At the LORD's command Moses recorded their places of departure according to the route they trekked, and this is their itinerary according to their places of departure. <sup>3</sup>The people of Israel broke camp at Rameses the morning after the Passover, on the fifteenth day of the first month. They departed by an uplifted hand* in plain view of all the Egyptians <sup>4</sup>who were burying all their first-born whom the LORD had struck dead among them. In conjunction with this, the LORD had also inflicted judgments upon their gods.

Israel's Itinerary From Egypt to Canaan

<sup>5</sup>The people of Israel left Rameses<sup>w</sup> and camped in Succoth. <sup>6</sup>Leaving Succoth, they next stayed at Etham which is at the edge of the desert. <sup>7</sup>After leaving Etham they turned back towards Pi-hahiroth, which is opposite Baal-Zephon, and camped before Migdol. <sup>8</sup>They left the vicinity of Iahiroth, cut across the middle of the sea into the desert, traveling for three days as far as they could in the desert of Etham, and set up camp at Marah. <sup>9</sup>Leaving Marah,<sup>x</sup> they pushed forward to Elim, which had twelve springs of water and 70 palm trees, and they camped there. <sup>10</sup>Leaving Elim, they camped by the Red Sea, <sup>11</sup>then, in the <sup>12</sup>wilderness of Sin, <sup>13</sup>at Dophkah, <sup>14</sup>Alush, and Rephidim, where there was no drinking water for the people. <sup>15</sup>They left Rephidim; and after having camped in the wilderness of Sinai, <sup>16</sup>they traveled on, camping at Kibroth-hattaavah, <sup>17</sup>Hazereth, <sup>18</sup>Rithmah, <sup>19</sup>Rimmon-peretz, <sup>20</sup>Libnah, <sup>21</sup>Rissah, <sup>22</sup>Khelathah, <sup>23</sup>Mount Shepherd, <sup>24</sup>Haradah, <sup>25</sup>Makheloth, <sup>26</sup>Tahath, <sup>27</sup>Terah, <sup>28</sup>Mithkah, <sup>29</sup>Hashmonah, <sup>30</sup>Moseroth, <sup>31</sup>Benejaakan, <sup>32</sup>Hor-hagidgad, <sup>33</sup>Jotbathah, <sup>34</sup>Abronah, <sup>35</sup>Ezion-geber, <sup>36</sup>the wilderness of Zin — namely, Kadesh — <sup>37</sup>and then at Mount Iior on the border of the land of Edom. July, 1407 B. C.

<sup>38</sup>Now under the LORD's command Aaron the priest ascended Mount Iior and died there on the first day of the fifth month of the fortieth year after the nation of Israel had emigrated from the land of Egypt. <sup>39</sup>Aaron was 123 years old when he died there on Mount Hor.<sup>y</sup>

<sup>40</sup>At this time it was reported to the

s) The participation of the half tribe in the possession seems due to their acquisitions as recorded in vs. 39. See further 21:33-35.

t) Of the kings mentioned in vs. 33. u) "Towns of Jair"

v) Comp. I Chron. 2:22,23. *God delivered them and made their departure possible.

w) The name of each place which they left behind is a memorial of God's faithfulness.

x) In recounting the journey the bitterness of Marah is forgotten while the blessedness of Elim is remembered. Thus it is best in life's journey; "beauty for ashes" [Isa. 61:3; 35:13].

y) Ch. 20:22-29.

Canaanite king of Arad, who was living in the Negeb in the land of Canaan that the nation of Israel was coming.<sup>2</sup>

<sup>41</sup>Leaving Mount Hor they next made camp at Zalmonah, <sup>42</sup>then at Punon, at <sup>43</sup>Oboth, at <sup>44</sup>Iye-abarim near the border of Moab, at <sup>45</sup>Dibongad, at <sup>46</sup>Almon-diblathaim, at <sup>47</sup>the mountains of Abarim before Nebo, <sup>48</sup>and finally along the Jordan in the plains of Moab opposite Jericho. <sup>49</sup>Their camp lay along the Jordan in the plains of Moab from Beth-jeshimoth to Abel-shittim.

<sup>50</sup>While there along the Jordan in the plains of Moab opposite Jericho, <sup>51</sup>Moses was told by the LORD: Say to the people of Israel: After you have crossed the Jordan into the land of Canaan, <sup>52</sup>you are to drive all the native residents out of your area,<sup>a</sup> smash all their stone idols and molten images, and demolish all their high places.<sup>b</sup> <sup>53</sup>Then take possession of the land and live there, for I have given you the land to occupy. <sup>54</sup>In this connection, you are to divide the property among yourselves by lot according to the size of your families; the one with the largest number shall receive the largest inheritance; the one with the fewest shall receive the smallest inheritance.<sup>c</sup> Each shall have whatever falls to him by lot; furthermore, you are to apportion the land according to your paternal tribes.<sup>d</sup> <sup>55</sup>But if you fail to drive out the native residents from your area, then that portion that you allow to remain shall be as barbs in your eyes and thorns in your sides,<sup>e</sup> for they shall be a constant source of irritation to you in the country in which you settle, <sup>56</sup>and sooner or later I will do to you as I had originally intended doing to them.<sup>f</sup>

34 THE LORD SAID TO MOSES: <sup>2</sup>GIVE this order to the people of Israel: When you enter the land of Canaan, this shall be the territory which you will receive as an inheritance — that is, the land of Canaan within these limits:<sup>3</sup> Your southern frontier shall extend to the wilderness of Zin along the border of Edom; more specifically, your southern border shall extend eastward <sup>4</sup>from the further end of the Dead Sea, angling to the south of the Ascent of Akrabbim<sup>h</sup> and then on over to Zin. Its lowest point shall be south of Kadesh-barnea, and it shall then extend to Hazar-addar and pass on over to Azmon. <sup>5</sup>From here the border shall veer over to the river of Egypt,<sup>i</sup> terminating at the sea.<sup>j</sup>

<sup>6</sup>As for your western boundary, it shall be the coastline of the Mediterranean Sea; this is your western border.

<sup>7</sup>This shall be your northern boundary: from the Mediterranean Sea you shall draw your boundary line to Mount Hor;<sup>k</sup> <sup>8</sup>from Mount Hor strike a line to the entrance of Hamath, continuing it on as far as Zedad. <sup>9</sup>The border shall then extend to Ziphron and terminate at Hazar-enan; this is to be your northern border.

<sup>10</sup>Next you shall mark off your eastern boundary from Hazar-enan to Shepham <sup>11</sup>and from there on down to Riblah on the east side of Ain. The border shall then extend down until it touches the northeast corner of the Sea of Galilee.<sup>l</sup> <sup>12</sup>The border shall then reach down to the Jordan and finally end at the Dead Sea;<sup>m</sup> the preceding are the boundaries of the land which you shall own.

<sup>13</sup>Moses then commanded the people of Israel, "This is the territory you are to apportion by lot among your-

z) Ch. 21:1-3. a) It implies extermination.

b) The continued presence of temptation is likely to be fatal. "Lead us not into temptation."

c) God is no respecter of persons.

d) Each tribe to receive its respective province. Comp. ch. 26:53-56.

e) They who fail to expel or to convert the enemy will eventually be overcome by the enemy.

f) This warning, prompted by love and mercy, was repeated by Joshua. [Josh. 23:13].

g) The boundaries of all nations are set by God [Acts 17:26]; thus nations should set bounds to their ambition; so should individuals. h) Scorpion Pass.

i) Not the Nile; but halfway between Canaan and Egypt, the River of Egypt.

j) The Mediterranean Sea.

k) Not the Mount Hor on which Aaron died; but at the northern boundary.

l) Heb.: Sea of Chinnereth.

m) Heb. — Salt Sea.

selves. The LORD has given orders to assign it to the nine and a half tribes, <sup>14</sup>since the tribe of Reuben's descendants, and that of Gad — according to their respective clans — and the half-tribe of Manasseh have already received their inheritance, <sup>15</sup>these two and one-half tribes having received their inheritance on the eastern side of the Jordan opposite Jericho."

<sup>16</sup>The LORD further directed Moses: <sup>17</sup>These are the names of the men who shall divide your inheritance: Eleazar the priest and Joshua the son of Nun. <sup>18</sup>You are to select a prince from each tribe to assist in distributing the land for inheritance.<sup>n</sup> <sup>19</sup>The names of the additional men are, from the tribe of Judah, Caleb the son of Jephunneh; <sup>20</sup>from the tribe of Simeon's descendants, Shemuel the son of Ammihud; <sup>21</sup>from the tribe of Benjamin, Elidad of Chislon; <sup>22</sup>from the tribe of Dan, a prince<sup>o</sup> named Bukki the son of Jogli; <sup>23</sup>from Joseph's descendants: from the tribe of Manasseh a prince named Ilanniel the son of Ephod, <sup>24</sup>and from the tribe of Ephraim, prince Kemuel of Shiptan; <sup>25</sup>from the tribe of Zebulun, prince Elizaphan of Parnach; <sup>26</sup>from the tribe of Issachar, prince Paltiel of Azzan; <sup>27</sup>from the tribe of Asher, prince Ahihud of Shelomi; <sup>28</sup>and from the tribe of Naphtali's descendants, a prince named Pedahel the son of Ammihud. <sup>29</sup>These are the men whom the LORD authorized to distribute the inheritance among the people of Israel in the land of Canaan.

35 WHILE IN THE PLAINS OF MOAB along the Jordan opposite Jericho, the LORD said to Moses: <sup>2</sup>Order the Israelites to grant the Levites towns in which to live from the inheritance which they have possessed; furthermore, give the Levites the pasture lands around the towns. <sup>3</sup>The towns are for them to occupy, while the pastures are for their cattle and flocks, all their livestock. <sup>4</sup>Now the pasture lands which you are to give the Levites shall extend from the wall of the town outward on all sides for a distance of 1,500 feet. <sup>5</sup>Then outside the town mark off 3000 feet on the east side, 3000 feet on the south side, 3000 feet on the west side, and 3000 feet on the north side, the city being in the center. This area shall be theirs to serve as pasture land for the towns.

<sup>6</sup>Of the towns which you assign to the Levites, six shall serve as cities of refuge to which the person guilty of manslaughter<sup>p</sup> may flee. You are also to furnish 42 towns in addition to these. <sup>7</sup>In all, you are to assign to the Levites a total of 48 towns together with their pastures. <sup>8</sup>With regard to the towns which you are to provide from the possession of the Israelites, you shall appropriate more from the larger (tribes) and less from the smaller;<sup>q</sup> each one shall contribute some of its towns to the Levites in proportion to the size of the property<sup>r</sup> which it inherits.

<sup>9</sup>The LORD further said to Moses: <sup>10</sup>Tell the nation of Israel and instruct them: When you have crossed the Jordan into the land of Canaan, <sup>11</sup>you are to select suitable towns<sup>s</sup> as cities of refuge to which the manslayer, who has accidentally killed a person, may flee. <sup>12</sup>These cities shall be for your benefit to serve as an asylum from the avenger,<sup>t</sup> so that the manslayer may not die until he has stood trial before the assembly. <sup>13</sup>As for the towns which you are to furnish, you are to have six cities of refuge. <sup>14</sup>You are to assign three towns on this side of the Jordan, and three in the land of Canaan, and they shall serve as cities of refuge. <sup>15</sup>Accordingly, these six cities shall serve the people of Israel, the foreigner, and the native among them as a sanctuary to which anyone<sup>u</sup> who has accidentally killed a person may flee.

n) By faith, for they had not yet conquered the land; comp. II Cor. 1:20.

o) The first three are not called princes as the rest are; the main idea is that these men are leaders.

p) A man who has killed someone unintentionally. These cities were a fulfilment of the promise given in Ex. 21:13.

q) See Josh. 21. r) The LORD is mindful of our capacities. s) See Deut. 19:2-10.

t) Heb.: "goel," that is, redeemer, a close relative who was to restore the injured's family integrity by paying the amount due, see Lev. 25:23-28. The blood-revenge was the payment and Christ, our kinsman Redeemer, ransomed us with His own blood [I Pet. 1:18,19].

u) So is Christ our Refuge; "whoever will may come," [John 6:37; Rom. 10:13; Rev. 22:17].

<sup>16</sup>However, if one hits another with an iron instrument<sup>v</sup> and the victim dies, then he is a murderer; he must certainly be executed. <sup>17</sup>Or if he strikes him with a stone large enough to cause death and he dies, the man is a murderer and must be executed without fail. <sup>18</sup>Or, again, if he strikes him with a large piece of wood from which a person could die, and he dies, the guilty one must certainly be executed because he is a murderer. <sup>19</sup>The avenger of blood shall himself execute the murderer; in fact, he may kill him whenever he catches up with him. <sup>20</sup>In case one shoves another in anger or, while hiding, throws something at him, thus causing him to die, <sup>21</sup>or if from animosity he strikes him with his fist so that he dies, then the one who did the striking must certainly be executed, for he is a murderer.<sup>w</sup> The avenger of blood shall kill him whenever he gets hold of him.

<sup>22</sup>But if one should push another accidentally<sup>x</sup> without ill will, or, without being concealed, throw something at him, <sup>23</sup>or without noticing him drop a stone on him which is heavy enough to kill someone, and as a result he dies—although he was not his enemy and he meant him no harm—<sup>24</sup>then the assembly shall decide between the slayer and the avenger of blood according to these regulations. <sup>25</sup>The assembly shall rescue the manslayer from the clutches of the avenger of blood and return him to his city of refuge to which he had fled. He shall then live there until the death of the high priest who has been anointed with the holy oil.<sup>y</sup> <sup>26</sup>But if at any time the manslayer shall set foot outside the precincts of the asylum to which he has fled, <sup>27</sup>and the avenger of blood finds him outside the area of his sanctuary, then the avenger of blood may kill the manslayer without incurring guilt; <sup>28</sup>he should have remained in his city of refuge until the death of the high priest. After the death of the high priest, however, the individual, guilty of manslaughter, may return to his home.<sup>z</sup>

<sup>29</sup>You are to follow this statute in order to determine justice down through your generations wherever you may be living: <sup>30</sup>In case someone kills a person, the murderer must be executed when his guilt is attested by witnesses,<sup>a</sup> but the testimony against a person by one witness shall not be sufficient to incur the death penalty. <sup>31</sup>Neither are you to accept a ransom of money<sup>b</sup> for the life of a murderer who deserves to die; he must be executed. <sup>32</sup>Neither are you to accept a ransom in behalf of him who has fled to his city of refuge in order to allow him to return and live at home until the death of the priest. <sup>33</sup>You are not to desecrate the land in which you live, since blood defiles the land. Once more, no atonement can be made to the land<sup>c</sup> for the blood shed on it, except by the blood of him who shed it. <sup>34</sup>You are not to defile the land where you reside, because I too am living in it, for I, Jehovah, am residing among the people of Israel.

Early 1406 B.C.

36 THE CLAN LEADERS OF THE family composed of the descendants of Gilead, the son of Machir<sup>d</sup> and the grandson of Manasseh — families belonging to Joseph's descendants — appeared before Moses and the princes, the tribal leaders in the nation of Israel, <sup>2</sup>and said, "The LORD ordered my master to have the land for inheritance assigned by lot to the Israelites. In this connection, my master was instructed to grant the inheritance of Zelophchad, our brother, to his daugh-

v) Intentionally.

w) Even if he had fled to a city of refuge, he was to be turned over to the avenger outside the city [Deut. 19:11,12]. But through the blood of Christ even intentional sins will on repentance be forgiven. x) Heb. — "suddenly."

y) Perhaps the death of the high priest — as man's representative before God and with the holy anointing making him God's representative here on earth — symbolized the expiation for the manslaughter, as Christ our High Priest is the expiation for all our sin [Rom. 3:25; 1 John 2:2]. z) Heb. — "land of his possession." For details, see Deut. 4:41-43; 19:1-13.

a) Two or more [Deut. 17:6; 19:15]. b) Coming to terms with the victim's relatives through a bribe.

c) The earth cries for vengeance [Gen. 4:10]. The land is abused by shedding human blood upon it and demands expiation. d) See ch. 26:28-34.

ters.<sup>e</sup> <sup>3</sup>When they marry one of the men from the other tribes of Israel, however, their property shall be withdrawn from our father's inheritance and added to the inheritance of the tribe to which they then belong, and that being the case, it shall diminish our share of the inheritance. <sup>4</sup>Besides, when the people of Israel have the jubilee,<sup>f</sup> their property shall certainly be added to that tribe with which they have united; consequently, their property shall be withdrawn from the inheritance of our father's tribe."

<sup>5</sup>Concerning this, Moses instructed the Israelites as the LORD dictated,<sup>g</sup> "What the men of Joseph's tribe have affirmed is right. <sup>6</sup>Now this is the policy which the LORD has prescribed for Zelophehad's daughters: Let them marry any one they please, except that they must marry in the family of their father's tribe.<sup>h</sup> <sup>7</sup>In this way the inheritance of the Israelites shall not pass from tribe to tribe, but each of the Israelites shall retain the inheritance of his father's tribe. <sup>8</sup>Thus any heiress who inherits property in any tribe of the Israelites must marry someone in the family of her father's tribe in order that each Israelite may retain possession of his father's property. <sup>9</sup>An inheritance may not pass from one tribe to another, because each of Israel's tribes must retain his particular inheritance."

<sup>10</sup>Moses therefore dealt with Zelophehad's daughters exactly as the LORD had instructed him. Later the daughters of Zelophehad — <sup>11</sup>Mahlah, Tirzah, Hoglah, Milcah and Noah — married their first cousins, <sup>12</sup>and since they married into the families of the descendants of Manasseh, the son of Joseph, their property remained in their father's tribe.

<sup>13</sup>These are the commands and regulations which the LORD issued through Moses to the nation of Israel in the plains of Moab near the Jordan opposite Jericho.

e) See ch. 27:1-11.

f) At this time transferred property returned to its original owner or his heir [Lev. 25:23-28]. In this case, the only heirs would be in the husband's family.

g) Note ch. 27:5. This command is an example of the "spirit of the law" being followed and not the "letter." The Lord is fully aware of human circumstances and needs.

h) The tribe of Manasseh, and possibly limited to a particular family or clan within the tribe, so that this particular family would not be without heirs.

THE BOOK OF DEUTERONOMY<sup>1</sup>

February-March, 1406 B. C.

1 THESE ARE THE WORDS WHICH Moses spoke to all Israel on the other side of the Jordan, in the wilderness, in the Arabah<sup>b</sup> opposite Suph, between Paran on the one hand and Tophel, Laban, Hazereth and Di-Zahab on the other. <sup>2</sup>By the Mount Seir road it is eleven days' journey from Horeb to Kadesh-barnea.<sup>c</sup>

<sup>3</sup>In the fortieth year, on the first day of the eleventh month, Moses addressed<sup>d</sup> Israel in accord with all that the LORD had commanded him to say to them. <sup>4</sup>After he had defeated Sihon, king of the Amorites, whose capital was Heshbon, and Og king of Bashan, who dwelt in Ashtaro.<sup>a</sup> and Edrei <sup>5</sup>beyond Jordan in the land of Moab, Moses began to explain this law. He said, <sup>6</sup>"At Horeb<sup>e</sup> the LORD our God told us, 'You have now tarried at this mountain long enough; <sup>7</sup>break camp, trck your way into the hill country of the Amorites<sup>f</sup> and to all the land neighboring upon it; the Arabah, the highlands, the foothills, the southern plains, the seacoast—the land of the Canaanites—and Lebanon as far as the great river, the river Euphrates. <sup>8</sup>See, I have put the land at your disposal; enter it and take possession of the land which the LORD swore to your fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, to give them and their descendants after them.'

<sup>9</sup>"At that time<sup>g</sup> I announced to you, 'I am no longer able to take care of you alone. <sup>10</sup>The LORD your God,' I said, 'has made you a multitude as the stars of heaven in number, <sup>11</sup>and may the LORD, the God of your fathers, increase you yet a thousandfold and may He bless you, as He promised you. <sup>12</sup>But how can I alone handle your troubles, your burdens and your court cases? <sup>13</sup>Select from your tribes men of wisdom and understanding, men of experience, and I will appoint them to be your rulers.'<sup>h</sup> <sup>14</sup>You responded to me, and said, 'What you propose to be done is good.' <sup>15</sup>So I took the heads of your tribes among you, men of wisdom and experience, and I made them heads over you, captains of thousands, of hundreds, of fifties and of tens, and your tribal officers. <sup>16</sup>At that time I also gave the charge to your judges,

a) Repeated Law.

b) The term Arabah or Plain is in common use in the O.T. to designate any region of the Jordan valley from the Sea of Galilee to and including the Dead Sea and the territory south of it. Our words Arab and Arabian are related to it.

c) Deuteronomy is one of the great books of the Old Testament. It expresses truths which always reflect the mind of God. Its leading thought for Israel was that she must ever remember that God is one; and that He chose her for a great mission. To be true to Him she must always be true to the Covenant which He had made with her at the beginning. Deuteronomy shows the way. Jesus knew this wonderful book. Compare Mark 12:28-30 with Deut. 6:4,5.

d) Shortly before his death, Moses delivered four addresses to the Israelites.

e) Most of the discourse, Deut. 1:6-3:29, is a review of Israel's experiences from the time they left Horeb until the death of Moses. Deut. 4:1-40 constitutes the appeal to observe the Law, to beware of idols, and to cling to evidences of God's love for His people.

f) As used here, the expression 'the hill country of the Amorites' is the whole land of promise.

g) While still at Horeb.

h) We learn from Ex. 18:14-26, that these steps were taken at Jethro's suggestion.

'You will be hearing cases in dispute between your brothers, and you must judge fairly between the one and the other, whether brother or resident alien.<sup>1</sup> <sup>17</sup>You must show no partiality in your decisions. You must listen to low and high alike without being afraid in the presence of any man; for judgment belongs to God. The case that proves too difficult for you, you must bring to me and I will hear it.' <sup>18</sup>At that time I gave you orders concerning all the things you were to do.

<sup>19</sup>'As we set out from Horeb, we passed through the whole great and terrible desert, which you saw on the way to the hill country of the Amorites, as the LORD our God had commanded us, and we arrived at Kadesh-barnea. <sup>20</sup>There I told you, 'You have now come to the hill country of the Amorites, which the LORD our God is giving us. <sup>21</sup>See! The LORD your God has set the land before you; go up and possess it, as the LORD, the God of your fathers, has said to you. Have no fear; be not discouraged.' <sup>22</sup>You then came to me, all of you, and you said, 'Let us send men ahead of us to explore the land for us and to bring back a report with regard to the road by which we shall go up, and the cities we would be entering.' <sup>23</sup>The suggestion seemed good to me, so I selected twelve men of you, one for each tribe. <sup>24</sup>They turned and made their way up to the hill country as far as the valley of Eshcol,<sup>j</sup> and explored it. <sup>25</sup>Taking along in their hands some of the fruit of the land, they brought it down to us and gave their report: 'It is a good land which the LORD our God is giving us.'<sup>k</sup> <sup>26</sup>But you refused to go up. You rebelled against the command of the LORD your God <sup>27</sup>and kept murmuring in your tents. 'It is because the LORD hates us,' you said, 'that He has brought us out of the land of Egypt to deliver us over to the Amorites to destroy us. <sup>28</sup>Where would we be going? Our brothers have made our hearts melt, saying, "The people are bigger and taller than we, and their cities are large and fortified up to the heavens; besides, we saw the sons of the Anakim there."<sup>l</sup> <sup>29</sup>So I said to you: 'Do not dread these people or stand in awe of them. <sup>30</sup>The LORD your God, who goes before you, will Himself fight for you in agreement with all He did in your behalf in Egypt before your eyes, <sup>31</sup>and in the desert, where you have seen how the LORD your God Himself bore you up as a man carries his son throughout your whole journey until you reached this place.' <sup>32</sup>But, in spite of this statement you continued distrusting the LORD your God, <sup>33</sup>who went before you in your journeying to search out for you a place to encamp, in a fire by night to show you the road to take, and in a cloud by day. <sup>34</sup>So when the LORD heard your words He was indignant and swore: <sup>35</sup>'Not one of these men of this evil generation will see the good land which I promised to give your fathers, <sup>36</sup>no one except Caleb the son of Jephunneh; he shall see it, and to him and to his sons I will give the land upon which he has set foot, because in this he has followed the LORD completely.

<sup>37</sup>'The LORD was angry with me, too, on account of you, saying: Not even you shall enter there; <sup>38</sup>your attendant, Joshua the son of Nun, shall enter; encourage him, for he shall cause Israel to inherit it. <sup>39</sup>Your little ones, too, who, you said, would become plunder, and your children, who do not yet know the difference between good and evil, shall go there; I will give it to them and they shall occupy it. <sup>40</sup>But as for the rest of you, turn around; follow the Red Sea road back into the desert.

<sup>41</sup>'Then you answered me, 'We have sinned against the LORD, we will go

i) The Hebrew word involved here is ger (pronounced garé), translated variously: sojourner, stranger, immigrant, alien. The ger was a non-Israelite resident who for the most part enjoyed equal rights under the law with his Hebrew neighbor. If poor, he was provided for, along with the Levites, the orphan and the widow, provided he was circumcised and conformed to the laws of the Hebrews.

j) Near Hebron.

k) Compare this narrative of the spies with that in Num. 13, 14. One grows conscious of the high moral and spiritual atmosphere in the Deuteronomy narrative, as is so often the case in this great book. l) Literally "the long-necked"; they were a family of giants.

up, and we will fight, just as the LORD our God commanded us.' So you girded on your armor,<sup>m</sup> each one of you, and you regarded lightly the matter of climbing into the hill country. <sup>42</sup>But the LORD said to me: 'Tell them not to go up and not to fight, lest you are beaten by your enemies; for I shall not be among you. <sup>43</sup>So I warned you, but you would not listen. You rebelled against the LORD's command; foolishly you marched into the hills. <sup>44</sup>The Amorites, who occupied that hill country, came out against you; they chased you like bees and smote you all the way from Scir to Hormah. <sup>45</sup>You returned, and you wept before the LORD. The LORD, however, did neither hear nor listen to you, <sup>46</sup>so you remained at Kadesh many a day, the many days you spent there.

Late 1407 B.C.

2 "WE THEN TURNED AND MOVED into the desert along the road to the Red Sea, as the LORD had told me; and for many days we circled around the hill country of Scir. <sup>2</sup>Then the LORD said to me: <sup>3</sup>You have now spent enough time moving about these hills; turn and head north. <sup>4</sup>This you shall order the people, 'Now you will be crossing the frontiers of your brothers, the children of Esau, living in Scir, and they will be afraid of you. So be very careful; <sup>5</sup>do not challenge them; for I will not be giving you any of their land, not a foot of it; for I have already assigned this hill area of Scir to Esau. <sup>6</sup>You shall buy from them for money the food you eat, and you shall buy from them for money the water you drink. <sup>7</sup>For the LORD your God has blessed you in all the work of your hands. He knows about your crossing this great desert. These forty years the LORD your God has accompanied you and you have lacked nothing.'

<sup>8</sup>"So we passed on beyond the territory of our kinsmen, the children of Esau, who have their home in Scir, and our course led away from the Arabah road, away from Elath and Ezion-geber; and we turned in the direction of the Moab desert.

<sup>9</sup>"At this point the LORD told me: Do not distress the Moabites, and do not challenge them to fight, for I will not give you any of their land to possess, because I have assigned Ar to the children of Lot for their possession. <sup>10</sup>In an earlier period the Emim lived there,<sup>n</sup> a strong, tall, numerous race, much like the Anakim; and, like the Anakim, <sup>11</sup>they too used to be regarded as Rephaim; the Moabites, however, call them Emim. <sup>12</sup>In earlier days the land of Scir was occupied by the Horites, but the children of Esau dispossessed and exterminated them, taking over their territory for themselves, just as the Israelites did with the land which the LORD gave them. <sup>13</sup>Get up now and cross over the brook Zered. So we crossed the brook Zered, <sup>14</sup>and the time from the day we left Kadesh-barnea until we crossed the brook Zered was 38 years, until that whole generation of fighting men had wasted away from among your camp, as the LORD had sworn they should. <sup>15</sup>The hand of the LORD had prevailed against them to snatch them away from the camp until they all had perished.<sup>o</sup>

<sup>16</sup>"So it was when all the fighting men had died from among the people, <sup>17</sup>the LORD said to me, <sup>18</sup>Today you will be moving along the frontiers of Moab at the city of Ar; <sup>19</sup>you will then be in the neighborhood of the children of Ammon. You are not to distress the Ammonites nor to contend with them, for I will allow you no part of Ammon's land, because I have given it to the children of Lot for a possession. <sup>20</sup>This area, too, used to be reckoned as a land of the Rephaim; the Rephaim dwelt in it formerly; but the Ammonites called them Zamzummim.

Early 1406 B.C.

<sup>21</sup>They were a strong and numerous

m) Taken from the drowned Egyptians, Ex. 14:30.

n) Mentioned in Gen. 14:5 as defeated by the four Near Eastern kings on their march to Sodom and Gomorrah. They were a mighty, prehistoric race driven out by the Moabites.

o) See ch. 1:34, 35. Where did Israel spend the 38 wilderness years? They are told, Num. 14:25, to go into the wilderness by the way of the Red Sea, and Num. 33:35 locates them at Ezion-Geber, a town near the Red Sea. Kadesh-Barnea is frequently mentioned, much more north and near the promised land. Many must have roamed the desert and oases to graze their livestock.

people and tall as the Anakim; but the LORD expelled and destroyed them; so they dispossessed them and the Ammonites dwelt there in their place; <sup>22</sup>thus had the LORD done for the children of Esau, who live in Seir, when He expelled and destroyed the Horites before them, so they took their domain in possession and still live there in their stead. <sup>23</sup>As for the Avvim, who were living in villages as far away as Gaza, it was the Caphtorim, who came from Caphtor, who exterminated them, took over their territory, and dwelt there.<sup>p</sup>

<sup>24</sup>"Now rise up,<sup>q</sup> get on your way, and cross the Arnon River. See, I hand over to you, Sihon the Amorite, king of Heshbon, and his land. Begin the seizure and challenge him to battle. <sup>25</sup>This day I begin making your name a dread and terror to all nations under heaven so that wherever mention of you is heard, the peoples will tremble and shake.

<sup>26</sup>"Then I sent messengers from the desert region of Kedemoth to Sihon, the king of Heshbon, with a message of peace, saying, <sup>27</sup>'Permit me to pass through your land; I will keep strictly to the highway, turning neither to the right nor to the left. <sup>28</sup>You will sell us for money the food we eat and the water we drink; only let us pass through on foot <sup>29</sup>as did the children of Esau for us in Seir and the Moabites in Ar. Do this until we cross the Jordan into the land which the LORD our God is giving us.' <sup>30</sup>But Sihon king of Heshbon was not willing to grant us passage, because the LORD your God stiffened his will and hardened his heart, to hand him over to you, as it is today.

<sup>31</sup>"Then the LORD said to me: See I have begun with placing Sihon and his land at your disposal; so start to possess it. <sup>32</sup>Then Sihon and all his people came out to attack us at Jahaz;

<sup>33</sup>but the LORD our God handed him over to us, so that we conquered him, his sons and all his people. <sup>34</sup>We also captured all his cities at that time, and we destroyed all those in them, men, women and children; we left no survivor. <sup>35</sup>Only the cattle we kept for ourselves, along with any other booty in the captured cities. <sup>36</sup>So from Aroer, on the bank of the Arnon River, and from the city in the valley as far as Gilcad, there was not a city too strong for us. Every one of them the LORD our God delivered to us. <sup>37</sup>However, at orders from the LORD, you did refrain from approaching the land of the children of Ammon,<sup>r</sup> whether bordering on the river Jabbok or near the cities in the highlands, or wherever the LORD our God forbade us.

Jan.-Feb., 1406 B.C.

3 "WE NEXT TURNED AND MOVED ON up the road to Bashan, where Og, Bashan's king came out against us, he and all his people, to fight us at Edrei. <sup>2</sup>Be not afraid of him, the LORD told me, for I have put him and all his people together with his land into your hands, and you must do to him as you did to Sihon king of the Amorites, who lived at Heshbon. <sup>3</sup>Thus the LORD our God also delivered to us Og king of Bashan with all his people. We defeated him utterly; not one survivor did we leave him. <sup>4</sup>Besides, we captured all his cities at that time, 60 in all, not a city that we did not take from him — the whole region of Argob, the kingdom of Og in Bashan. <sup>5</sup>All these cities were well fortified with their high walls, gates and bars, and besides there were many unwallled villages. <sup>6</sup>We wiped them out completely, just as we had done to Sihon king of Heshbon, destroying every city with its men, women and children. <sup>7</sup>We did spare the livestock, however, which, with the loot of the city, we retained for ourselves as booty.

p) This part of Deuteronomy contains several archeological notices, giving information about peoples who occupied parts of the land at a time earlier than the period of the peoples whom the Hebrews found there. Moses' interest is not confined to Edom, Moab and East Jordan. He mentions Gaza and Philistine territory to the west. The Caphtorim are the Philistines, who came from Caphtor, believed to be Crete, which was settled by Greeks, but Gen. 10:13, 14 traces the Philistines to Mizraim, that is, Egypt. q) Moses keeps quoting God's words.

r) Ammon and Moab were sons of Lot, Abraham's nephew. Edom's ancestor was Esau, Jacob's older brother. These relatives the Hebrews must not fight, except to defend themselves.

<sup>8</sup>"So it was that at that time we seized the territory of the two kings of the Amorites on the east side of the Jordan from the river Arnon to Mount Hermon—<sup>9</sup>the Sidonians call Hermon Sirion, but the Amorites call it Senir—<sup>10</sup>all the cities of the plateau, all Gilead and all Bashan, as far as Salecah and Edrei, cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan. <sup>11</sup>Og king of Bashan was the last survivor remaining of the Rephaim; his bedstead was a couch made of iron, <sup>13</sup> $\frac{1}{2}$  feet long and six feet wide. Is it not in Rabbah of the Ammonites?

<sup>12</sup>"Now of this land which we then captured, I gave the Reubenites and the Gadites the portion from Aroer on the river Arnon and half of Mount Gilead, including its cities. <sup>13</sup>The remainder of Gilead and all Bashan — the kingdom of Og, all the region of Argob—I gave to the half tribe of Manasseh. All Bashan was once called 'the land of the Rephaim.' <sup>14</sup>Jair of Manasseh took over the whole region of Argob — that is, Bashan — as far as the border of the Geshurites and the Maacathites and renamed it Havvoth-Jair<sup>a</sup> after his own name, as it is to this day. <sup>15</sup>To Machir I gave Gilead, <sup>16</sup>while to the Reubenites and the Gadites I assigned the area from Gilead to the Arnon valley, establishing the middle of the valley as the boundary and including territory as far north as the river Jabbok, the frontier of the Ammonites, <sup>17</sup>as well as the Arabah, with the Jordan as boundary, from Chinnereth to the sea of the Arabah, the Salt Sea, under the slopes of Pisgah eastward.

February-March, 1406 B.C.

<sup>18</sup>"At that time I gave you these orders, 'The LORD your God has given you this land to possess it. All you men of valor must arm yourselves and cross over as vanguard to your brothers, the Israelites. <sup>19</sup>But your wives, your children, and your cattle — I know you have much cattle — shall remain here in the cities which I have allotted to you, <sup>20</sup>until the LORD has given your brothers peaceful possession of the land, which the LORD your God has granted them across the Jordan. After that you shall each return to the possession which I have given you.'

<sup>21</sup>"Then, too, I ordered Joshua, 'Your eyes have fully seen how the LORD your God has dealt with these two kings. So shall the LORD deal with all the kingdoms to which you are marching. <sup>22</sup>You shall not fear them, for the LORD your God will Himself do battle for you.'

<sup>23</sup>"After that I pleaded with the LORD. <sup>24</sup>'O LORD God,' I said, 'Thou hast begun to show Thy servant Thy greatness and Thy mighty hand. For what god is there in heaven or on earth who can perform the deeds Thou doest, or match Thy power? <sup>25</sup>O let me cross over, I pray, and see this fair land beyond the Jordan,' its pleasing hills, and Lebanon.' <sup>26</sup>But the LORD was indignant at me because of you and did not listen to me. That is enough, the LORD said to me, do not again speak to Me about this. <sup>27</sup>Climb to the top of Pisgah, and lift your eyes westward and northward, southward, eastward and gaze well on what you see; for you shall not cross the Jordan. <sup>28</sup>But charge Joshua, encourage him and strengthen him; for he shall cross over as leader of this people and make them inherit the land on which you will direct your gaze.<sup>u</sup> <sup>29</sup>So we remained encamped in the valley over against Beth-Peor.

4 "AND NOW, ISRAEL, PAY STRICT attention to the laws and ordinances which I am teaching you to observe, that you may live and enter and possess the land which the LORD, the God of your fathers, is granting you. <sup>2</sup>You are neither to add to the word that I command you, nor to take from it; these commands which I enjoin upon you are of the LORD your

s) Jair's villages.

t) Granted at Christ's transfiguration [Matt. 17:3; Mark 9:4]; and Moses did not cross the Jordan for it.

u) So true to life! Moses, the unique leader, had served his generation well; but now a younger man was better qualified for the conquest of Canaan. Even our Lord Jesus could say to His disciples, "It is expedient for you that I go away."

God; you must obey them.<sup>v</sup> <sup>3</sup>You saw with your own eyes what the LORD did regarding Baal-Peor,<sup>w</sup> how the LORD your God purged from your midst every man who followed after the Baal of Peor, <sup>4</sup>and how those of you who remained true to the LORD your God are still alive today. <sup>5</sup>See! The laws and ordinances I am teaching you are those which the LORD my God commanded me, so that you should practice them in the land which you are entering to possess. <sup>6</sup>So, observe and practice them; for this will show how wise and intelligent a nation you are and the people who hear about all these laws will say, 'What a great people this is, a people of wisdom and understanding!' <sup>7</sup>For what great nation is there, which has gods so near as the LORD our God is to us, every time we implore Him? <sup>8</sup>And what great nation is there which possesses such righteous statutes and ordinances as this whole Law, which I am now setting before you?

<sup>9</sup>"Still you must be on your guard and watch your step, lest you forget the things you have seen.<sup>x</sup> Never let them fade from your memory all the days of your life but make them known to your children and to your grandchildren, <sup>10</sup>(especially) that day at Horeb, when you stood in the presence of the LORD your God, and the LORD said to me: Assemble the people here in My presence, and I will make them hear My word, that they may learn to revere Me as long as they shall live on the earth, and that they may teach the same to their children.

<sup>11</sup>"You came close and stood at the foot of the mountain, while the mountain was flaming with fire into the very heart of the heavens, which were

shrouded in darkness with thick black clouds; <sup>12</sup>the LORD spoke to you out of the midst of the fire. You heard a voice, but you caught no vision of any form; only a voice. <sup>13</sup>So He made known to you in the Ten Words the covenant which He ordered you to keep, and He wrote them on two tablets of stone. <sup>14</sup>At that same time the LORD gave me His orders to teach you these laws and ordinances,<sup>y</sup> that you might observe them in the land you are invading to make it your own. <sup>15</sup>Be thoroughly on guard, therefore, with profoundest gravity, for you saw no manner of form on that day when the LORD spoke to you at Horeb from the midst of the fire, <sup>16</sup>that you may not behave corruptly and fashion you an image, the shape of any statue resembling either male or female, <sup>17</sup>the likeness of any animal on earth, or of any bird that flies in the heavens, <sup>18</sup>or of some creeping creature that crawls on the ground, or of any fish in the waters lower than the earth. <sup>19</sup>Neither shall you lift up your eyes toward the heavens to see the sun or the moon or the stars, the host of the heavens, to be led astray, to bow down to them in worship, and to serve them, things which the LORD your God has rendered available to all peoples under the whole heavens.<sup>z</sup> <sup>20</sup>But the LORD took you and brought you out from the iron furnace of Egypt to be a people all His own, as you are this day.

<sup>21</sup>"But the LORD was indignant with me on account of you and swore that I should not cross the Jordan into that good land which the LORD your God is giving you for a heritage; <sup>22</sup>for I must die in this land; I must not cross the Jordan; but you will cross over to take possession of that good land. <sup>23</sup>Be

v) The importance of the Law is stressed everywhere in this Book. If Israel fails to keep it, all is lost. Keeping the Law is counted on to clear the land of all false worship.

w) See Num. 25:1-5, cited here to reinforce the statement that obedience means life; for the disobedient the end is death.

x) Continuously this is stressed in Deuteronomy, because so much in Israel's world continued to lure away from the one true God. See I John 2:15,16; 5:21.

y) The covenant made at Horeb, based on the Decalogue [in Hebrew, "the Ten Words"] which God spoke directly to the people. Becoming fearful, they could bear no more, so at the LORD's command. Moses sent them to their tents; but he remained while the LORD gave him the laws [Ex. 20:22, 31:18] which the people were to observe when settled in their new home. These laws Moses delivered in the Moab plain as his third discourse (Deut. 12:26).

z) In His providential ordering of the world, He assigns the heavenly bodies to minister to all His offspring, a grace which the nations abused [cf. Rom. 1:20-25].

mindful, then, lest you forget the covenant into which the LORD your God has entered with you, and make you any image or the likeness of any thing which the LORD your God has forbidden you. <sup>24</sup>For the LORD your God is a consuming fire, a jealous God.<sup>a</sup>

<sup>25</sup>"When you shall have begotten children and grandchildren and have grown old in the land, and in your corruptness you make you a graven image or any likeness, and you do what is evil in the sight of the LORD your God so as to provoke Him, <sup>26</sup>I call heaven and earth to bear witness against you this day, that you shall soon completely perish from the land you are crossing the Jordan to possess. You shall not live in it long; but you shall be cut off entirely, <sup>27</sup>the LORD scattering you among the peoples, so that few of you shall be left among the nations, whither the LORD will be leading you.<sup>b</sup> <sup>28</sup>There you will be worshiping gods that are the works of human hands, wood and stone, things that can neither see, nor hear, nor taste, nor smell. <sup>29</sup>Then you will there seek the LORD your God, and you shall find Him, when you seek for Him with all your heart and with all your soul. <sup>30</sup>In later times, when anguish is yours and all these experiences overtake you, then you will return to the LORD your God, and you will listen to Him; <sup>31</sup>for the LORD your God is a merciful God; He will not abandon you or destroy you; neither will He forget the covenant made on oath with your fathers.

<sup>32</sup>"Ask about the days of old, before your time, from the day when God created man upon the earth; inquire from one end of the heavens to the other and see whether such great happenings as these, or anything like them, have been heard of anywhere. <sup>33</sup>Have any people ever heard the voice of God speaking from the midst of fire, as you have heard it, and remained alive? <sup>34</sup>Or did ever a god venture to go and take to himself a nation from the midst of another nation by testings, by signs, by wonders, by wars, by a mighty hand and an outstretched arm, and with awful terrors, as the LORD your God has done for you before your very eyes in Egypt?<sup>c</sup> <sup>35</sup>All this you were given to see in order that you might know that the LORD, He is God; there is none other besides Him. <sup>36</sup>Out of the heavens He made you hear His voice in order to discipline you, and on earth He caused you to see His mighty fire; you heard His voice from the midst of the flames. <sup>37</sup>Because He loved your fathers and chose their descendants after them, He personally brought you out of Egypt by His own mighty power, <sup>38</sup>enabling you to drive out nations greater and stronger than you, to bring you into their land and to give it to you for a heritage, as is the case today. <sup>39</sup>Know therefore and take to heart, that the LORD, He is God in the heavens above and on the earth below; there is no other.<sup>d</sup> <sup>40</sup>So obey His laws and keep His commandments, which I am now enjoining upon you, so that all may go well with you and with your children after you and that you may enjoy long life in the land which the LORD your God will be allotting you forever."

<sup>41</sup>After this Moses set apart three cities east of the Jordan as places of refuge, <sup>42</sup>in order that a man who had unintentionally killed a neighbor with whom he had had no previous quarrel might flee to one of these cities and remain alive: <sup>43</sup>Bezer in the desert on the plateau for the Reubenites, Ramoth in Gilead for the Gadites, and Golan in Bashan for the Manassites.*

<sup>44</sup>This is the Law that Moses set before the Israelites; <sup>45</sup>these are the decrees, the statutes and the ordinances, which he proclaimed to them

a) Intolerant of the worship of nothingness [cf. Ps. 115:4-8].

b) All the prophets thereafter told Israel that exile would be their doom, if they disobeyed without repentance; and so it eventuated.

c) As a people Israel witnessed it, not all individually, because almost an entire generation had died in the desert, and a new generation had been born there.

d) A remarkable declaration of pure monotheism; see, in addition, Isa. 45:5,6,14,18,21,22 and 46:9.

e) In Israel if a man was murdered, his nearest of kin, the avenger of blood, was obliged to slay the murderer. But the killing might have been accidental; in such a case, the killer could flee to the city of refuge and escape the avenger of blood. See further Deut. 19:1-13.

when they came out of Egypt <sup>46</sup>and were encamped beyond the Jordan<sup>f</sup> in the valley opposite Beth-peor, in the land of Sihon king of the Amorites, whose capital was Heshbon, and whom Moses and the Israelites conquered after they had left Egypt.<sup>g</sup> <sup>47</sup>They made conquest of his land and of the land of Og, king of Bashan, the two Amorite kings on the other side of the Jordan to the east, <sup>48</sup>from Aroer, on the banks of the Arnon, as far as Mount Sion—that is, Hermon—<sup>49</sup>along with all the plain on the east of the Jordan, as far as the Sea of the Plain<sup>h</sup> below the slopes of Pisgah.

5 MOSES SUMMONED ALL ISRAEL AND said<sup>i</sup> to them: "Hear, O Israel, the statutes and ordinances which I am announcing in your hearing today, that you may learn them and be careful to practice them, keeping ever in mind <sup>2</sup>the covenant which the LORD our God made with us at Horeb. <sup>3</sup>It was not with our fathers that the LORD made this covenant; it was with us, all of us alive here today. <sup>4</sup>The LORD spoke to you face to face there in the mountain, from the center of the fire. <sup>5</sup>You were afraid of the fire and did not go up the mountain to hear the LORD's words; so I stood between the LORD and you at that time, to announce to you the LORD's words. He said: <sup>6</sup>I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery. <sup>7</sup>You shall have no other gods besides Me. <sup>8</sup>You shall not make for yourself an image or the likeness of anything in the heavens above, or on the earth below, or in the waters lower than the earth; <sup>9</sup>you shall not bow down to them or serve them; for I, the LORD your God, am God who brooks no rival, bringing home to the children the iniquities of their fathers to the third and fourth generation of those who hate Me, <sup>10</sup>and bestowing loving kindness on thousands of those who love Me and keep My commandments.

<sup>11</sup>"You shall not use the name of the LORD your God profanely; for the LORD will not hold him guiltless who uses His name profanely.

<sup>12</sup>"Observe the Sabbath day to keep it holy, as the LORD your God commanded you. <sup>13</sup>Six days you shall labor and do all your work; <sup>14</sup>but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the LORD your God; on it you shall not do any work, neither you, nor your son, nor your daughter, nor your servant, nor your maid, nor your ox, nor your donkey, nor any of your animals, nor the stranger among you, in order that your servants, male and female, may rest as well as you. <sup>15</sup>Remember that you were a servant in the land of Egypt, and that the LORD your God redeemed you, bringing you out by a strong hand and an outstretched arm. This is why the LORD your God has commanded you to keep the Sabbath day.<sup>j</sup>

<sup>16</sup>"Honor your father and your mother, as the LORD your God has commanded you; that you may enjoy long life and that you may prosper in the land which the LORD your God gives you.

<sup>17</sup>You shall commit no murder.

<sup>18</sup>You shall commit no adultery.

<sup>19</sup>You shall not steal.

<sup>20</sup>You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor.

<sup>21</sup>"You shall not desire your neighbor's wife.<sup>k</sup> You shall not covet your neighbor's house, or his field, or his servant, or his maid, or his ox, or his donkey or anything belonging to your neighbor.

<sup>22</sup>"These words the LORD spoke to you, while you were all assembled at the mountain, in a loud voice out of the flaming fire with thick clouds and

f) East of Jordan.

g) Reiteration is a rule of pedagogy which the ancients wisely practiced, for without much writing the memory must be put to continual use.

h) Plain, usually desert Arabah. This sea we now know as the Dead Sea.

i) Ch. 5-11 are Moses' second discourse, introducing ch. 12-26, the Law. For Israel, the acceptance and observance of the Law was the all-important matter, and this discourse prepares the nation to receive and obey it. It stresses as the basis for obedience—love, reverence and loyalty toward God. These chapters reveal a warmth of affection for God, rarely seen elsewhere in the Pentateuch.

j) Reasons, then, for observing the Sabbath—physical and spiritual refreshing, and remembrance of divine redemption. k) Here, the wife comes first; in Ex. 20, she comes second.

darkness. He added nothing more.<sup>1</sup> He then wrote the words upon two tablets of stone, and these He gave to me.<sup>23</sup> When you heard the voice from within the darkness, with the whole mountain aflame with fire, all your elders and tribal chiefs came to me<sup>24</sup> and said: 'This day the LORD our God has revealed to us His glory and greatness, and we have heard His voice from the fire; thus we have learned that God may speak to a person and the person still live.'<sup>25</sup> But why should we die now? For surely this great fire will consume us; if we hear the voice of the LORD our God again, we shall die. <sup>26</sup>For who of all flesh has ever heard the voice of the living God speaking from within the fire, as we have done, and remained alive? <sup>27</sup>You go near and hear everything the LORD our God has to say; then come and tell us all that the LORD our God tells you, and we will listen and observe His commands.'

<sup>28</sup>"The LORD heard your words, as you were speaking to me. He said to me, I listened to the words which the people spoke to you, and all they said was good; <sup>29</sup>if only they had hearts so true that they would always show Me reverence and always keep all My commandments, so that it would go well with them and with their children after them forever!

<sup>30</sup>"Go, tell them to return to their tents; <sup>31</sup>but you stay here with Me while I give you all the commandments, the laws, the ordinances they are to observe when they reach the land which I am giving them to possess. <sup>32</sup>Thus you must be most careful to do as the LORD your God has commanded you, not turning to right or left, <sup>33</sup>but going strictly the whole course the LORD your God has ordered you, that you may live and prosper and enjoy length of days in the land you shall possess.

6 "HERE, THEN, YOU HAVE THESE commandments, statutes and ordinances* which the LORD your God directed me to teach you. They are the laws you are to observe in the land to which you are crossing over to possess it; <sup>2</sup>so you may revere the LORD your God by practicing all His statutes and His commandments which He lays upon you, on you and on your son and on your grandson, all the days of your life; and your days will be prolonged. <sup>3</sup>So be attentive, Israel; be careful to practice them, that it may be well with you, and that you may be greatly increased in a land flowing with milk and honey, as the LORD, the God of your fathers, promised you.

<sup>4</sup>"Hear, O Israel, the LORD our God is one LORD, <sup>5</sup>and you shall love the LORD your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your strength."<sup>6</sup> These words with which I am now charging you shall be written on your heart;<sup>7</sup> and you shall impress them deeply upon your children;<sup>8</sup> you shall talk of them when you are sitting at home, while you walk on the road, when you lie down, and when you get up;<sup>9</sup> <sup>8</sup>you shall bind them as a token on your hands, wear them on your forehead as a badge,<sup>9</sup> <sup>9</sup>and write them on the doorposts of your houses and on your gates.

<sup>10</sup>"When the LORD your God brings you into the land which He swore to your fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, to give you great and splendid cities which you did not build; <sup>11</sup>houses filled with all kinds of goods

1) In Deuteronomy, the Decalogue alone is the basis of the covenant — "He added nothing more."

m) It was a common belief in Israel that if a man heard God speak to him, he would surely die. Deut. 4:33; Judg. 6:22; 13:22.

*Ordinances are civil and criminal; statutes are religious and ceremonial.

n) This is the great passage of the Pentateuch. It is not surprising that Jesus quoted Deuteronomy so often: God's love for Israel is mentioned in four places in it, and Israel's love for God twelve times. In the Jewish church vs. 4, 5 are known as the great Shema, daily repeated in their prayers, the fundamental article of their faith, still the central tenet of monotheism.

o) See Jer. 31:33.

p) Through the ages and to date, neglect of this divine suggestion was, and is, a major cause of juvenile delinquency. Cf. Prov. 22:6.

q) This is the O.T. conception of religious education; Israelites must personally know the Scriptures and teach them to their children in the home.

r) A phylactery, discovered recently in one of the Dead Sea caves, contains these verses 4-9.

which you did not put there; cisterns dug which you did not dig; vineyards and olive trees which you did not plant, but of which you will eat and be satisfied,<sup>12</sup> then be on your guard lest you forget the LORD, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery.<sup>13</sup> Revere the LORD your God; truly serve Him, and swear by His name alone.<sup>14</sup> Run after no other gods, of the gods of the peoples around you,<sup>15</sup> lest the anger of the LORD your God blaze out fiercely against you and He wipe you off the face of the earth; for the LORD your God who is among you is a jealous God.

<sup>16</sup> "You shall not put the LORD your God to the test, as you tested Him at Massah;<sup>a</sup> <sup>17</sup> but you shall obey strictly the commandments of the LORD your God, as also His decrees and statutes which He has enjoined upon you.<sup>18</sup> Seek to do all that is right and good in the LORD's sight, so that you may prosper and enter into possession of the good land which the LORD promised on oath to your fathers,<sup>19</sup> to clear it of all who oppose you, as the LORD has spoken.

<sup>20</sup> "When, in time to come, your son asks you, 'What is the meaning of these decrees, these laws and ordinances which the LORD our God has enjoined upon you?' <sup>21</sup> thus shall you answer your son: 'We were slaves to Pharaoh in Egypt, but the LORD rescued us from there by a strong hand.<sup>22</sup> Before our eyes the LORD worked by portents and marvels, great and terrible, against Pharaoh and against his whole household, against all Egypt;<sup>23</sup> and the LORD brought us out from there and ensured to us an entrance here, giving us this land which He had promised on oath to our fathers.<sup>24</sup> So it was that the LORD commanded us to keep all these laws and to show reverence for the LORD our God, for our welfare so He might keep us alive, as we are kept alive today.<sup>25</sup> This will make for our righteousness, provided we take care before the LORD our God, to obey all His requirements as He has ordered us to do.'

7 "WHEN THE LORD YOUR GOD HAS brought you into the land which you are entering to take possession, and after He has cleared it of many nations before you — the Hittites, the Girgashites, the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Perizzites, the Hivites and the Jebusites, seven nations greater and stronger than you — <sup>2</sup> after the LORD your God puts them into your hands so that you overcome them, then you must devote them to utter destruction, making no treaty with them and showing them no mercy.<sup>t</sup> <sup>3</sup> You must not intermarry with them; neither give your daughters to their sons, nor receive their daughters for your sons;<sup>4</sup> for they will lure your sons away from Me, and they will be worshiping other gods. Then the LORD's anger will flare out against you, and He will annihilate you quickly.<sup>5</sup> This then is the way you shall deal with them: You will pull down their altars, break in pieces their dedicated pillars, cut down their shame images,<sup>u</sup> and burn their idols in the fire.<sup>6</sup> For you are a holy people,<sup>v</sup> set apart to the LORD your God; the LORD your God has chosen you out of all the nations on the earth, to be His valued possession.<sup>7</sup> It was not because you were greater in numbers than any other nation that the LORD fastened His affection upon you and chose you; for you were the least of all peoples.<sup>8</sup> No, it was because the LORD loved you, and on account of His oath which He had sworn to your fathers, that He brought you out by a mighty hand and delivered you from the house of slav-

s) Ex. 17:7, also mentioned as Meribah.

t) See Deut. 2:34; 7:20; 20:17,18. Israel's gravest danger after the conquest was defection to pagan deities; one reason why, when she captured a city in Canaan, she must destroy all its inhabitants.

u) Heb. — Asherah — poles, on either side of the pagan altar, carved to resemble or portray sex organs — one with male, the other with female organs.

v) The word here translated "holy" means separate, set apart; Israel is unique among nations; she belongs to God, is His cherished possession. In later Scriptures, the moral aspect of holiness comes to the fore.

ery and from the power of Pharaoh, king of Egypt. <sup>9</sup>You should know that the LORD your God, He is the only God; the faithful God, keeping His covenant and showing loving kindness to a thousand generations of those who love Him and are obedient to His orders; <sup>10</sup>but repaying in person those who hate Him, by destroying them; He does not delay with those who hate Him but repays them personally. <sup>11</sup>So, you shall keep His commandments and be obedient to His laws and ordinances, which I am now charging you to do.

<sup>12</sup>"As you show obedience to these ordinances and observe them well, the LORD your God will remember His covenant with you and will confirm His loving-kindness toward you as He swore to your fathers. <sup>13</sup>He will love you, bless you, and increase your numbers. Moreover, He will bless the fruit of your body and the produce of your soil, your grain, your new wine and your oil, the increase of your herds and the young of your flocks, in the land which He promised on oath to give to your fathers." <sup>14</sup>So you will be blessed above all nations; not a male or female among you, or among your livestock shall be barren. <sup>15</sup>The LORD will preserve you from every sickness, and He will not inflict upon you any of those hurtful diseases<sup>x</sup> of Egypt, with which you are familiar; but He will lay them upon all who hate you. <sup>16</sup>On your part, you shall completely annihilate the nations which the LORD your God will be putting into your hands, and you must not spare them, neither serve their gods, for that would be a snare to you.

<sup>17</sup>"If you should say to yourselves: 'These nations are greater than I; how can I drive them out?' <sup>18</sup>do not surrender to fear. Keep in mind what the LORD your God did to Pharaoh and all Egypt. <sup>19</sup>You saw those terrible tests with your own eyes, likewise the signs and wonders, the strong hand and the outstretched arm, by which the LORD your God brought you out. The LORD your God will do as much now to all the nations of whom you are afraid. <sup>20</sup>Besides, the LORD your God will send hornets against those nations, until every survivor or any that may be in hiding from you, shall perish. <sup>21</sup>Do not dread them; for the LORD your God is in your midst, a great and terrible God. <sup>22</sup>The LORD your God will be thrusting out these nations little by little; you shall not be able to exterminate them all at once; for wild beasts might increase too rapidly for you.

<sup>23</sup>"But the LORD your God will hand them over to you, and He will crush them utterly, until they no longer exist. <sup>24</sup>He will set their kings before you, and you shall wipe out their names from under the heavens; not one shall be able to maintain himself before you until you have destroyed them. <sup>25</sup>As for those carved images of their gods, you must commit them all to the flames without coveting or appropriating the silver and gold upon them, lest you be snared by it, for it is an abhorrence to the LORD your God. <sup>26</sup>You shall not bring such an abomination into your house, lest you yourselves, like it, become a thing doomed. Utterly detest it and loathe it, for it is doomed.

8 "TO LIVE, O ISRAEL, TO BECOME A numerous nation, to gain entrance to the land which the LORD promised your fathers under oath, you must obey every command with which I am now charging you. <sup>2</sup>Keep in mind the whole way over which the LORD your God has been leading you these 40 years in the wilderness, to humble you, to test you, so that He might discover your true disposition and learn whether you will observe His orders or not. <sup>3</sup>He humbled you; He let you suffer hunger; He gave you manna to eat, something neither you nor your fathers had known, to teach you that man does not live by bread alone; but that man lives on everything that proceeds from the mouth of the LORD." <sup>4</sup>During those 40 years, your clothing did not

w) Increase of livestock; produce of soil and family fertility are gifts from God, not from the Baals, as the natives believed and told them (Hos. 2:7,8).

x) Especially any of the Ten Plagues.

y) Bodily and spiritually. If Christ, Matt. 4:4, was dependent on the Word of God for strength, how much more are we!

wear out, nor did your feet blister; <sup>5</sup>thus you will heartily acknowledge that, just as a man disciplines his son, so the LORD your God was disciplining you, <sup>6</sup>that you might learn to keep the commandments of the LORD your God, walk in His ways, and show Him all due reverence. <sup>7</sup>For the LORD your God is bringing you into a rich country, a land with streams of water, where springs and lakes well up in the valleys and hills, <sup>8</sup>a land of wheat and barley, of vines, fig trees and pomegranates, a land of oil-producing olive trees and of honey, <sup>9</sup>a land where you may eat your bread without scarcity or any kind of want, a land whose stones produce iron and in whose hills you can mine copper.<sup>z</sup> <sup>10</sup>You shall eat and be filled and bless the LORD your God for the good land He has granted you. <sup>11</sup>Be ever on your guard not to forget the LORD your God by neglecting His ordinances, His laws and His statutes, which I am now laying before you, <sup>12</sup>lest, when you have eaten and are satisfied, building your houses and dwelling in them, <sup>13</sup>your flocks and herds increasing, your silver and gold multiplying, and all you possess becoming abundant, <sup>14</sup>your heart will swell with pride, and you will forget the LORD your God<sup>a</sup> who brought you out from Egypt, redeeming you from the house of slavery <sup>15</sup>and guiding you across that terrible desert, with its fiery serpents, its scorpions, its parched, waterless ground, and providing water for you from the flinty rock, <sup>16</sup>and feeding you with manna about which your fathers knew nothing. All this He did to discipline you and to test you for your eventual good. <sup>17</sup>Beware, then, not to say in your heart, 'My own power and the strength of my own hand have brought me this wealth.' <sup>18</sup>Instead, remember the LORD your God, for it is He who gives you the power to gain wealth, that He might fulfil at this time the covenant which He made with your fathers.

<sup>19</sup>"However, if you do forget the LORD your God and follow after other gods, serving and worshiping them, I warn you this day that you shall certainly go down to ruin. <sup>20</sup>Like the nations which the LORD will be destroying before you, you too, shall be destroyed, because you would not obey the voice of the LORD your God.

9 "HEAR, O ISRAEL: TODAY YOU ARE to cross the Jordan and invade and dispossess nations greater and stronger than you, living in large cities that are fortified to the heavens, <sup>2a</sup>a people great and tall, the Anakim. You know their kind and have heard it said; 'Who can stand before the sons of Anak?' <sup>3</sup>Be assured, however, that the LORD is crossing before you like a consuming fire; He will destroy and subdue them in your sight, and you will be able to dispossess them and kill them off quickly, as the LORD promised you. <sup>4</sup>But see to it, after the LORD your God has thrust them out, that you do not say, 'It is because of my righteousness that the LORD has brought me into possession of this land.' For the LORD your God is driving out these nations before you, because of their wickedness. <sup>5</sup>It cannot at all be laid to any goodness or uprightness on your part. He will be driving them out on account of their wickedness and to establish the word which the LORD swore to your fathers Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. <sup>6</sup>You must understand clearly that it is not because of any merit you may possess that the LORD your God will be granting you this good land, for you are a stiff-necked people.

<sup>7</sup>"Bear it always in mind, and never forget how you stirred the anger of the LORD your God in the desert; indeed, from the day you came out from the land of Egypt until your arrival here, you have been rebellious against the LORD. <sup>8</sup>At Horeb you so provoked the LORD that He was ready to destroy you. <sup>9</sup>I had gone up the mountain to receive the stone tables, the tablets of the covenant which He had made with you; and I remained on the mountain

z) For recent discovery of ancient copper mines and smelters south of the Dead Sea, read Nelson Glueck's, "The Other Side of Jordan."

a) So occupied with the temporal as to neglect the eternal?

40 days and 40 nights without eating bread or drinking water. <sup>10</sup>Then the LORD gave me the two stone tablets inscribed by His own hand, and on them were all the words He had spoken to you on the mountain from the midst of the fire, on the occasion of your assembly there in His presence. <sup>11</sup>He gave me the two stone tablets, the tablets of the covenant. Then <sup>12</sup>the LORD said to me, Arise, get down from here at once, for your people whom you brought out from Egypt, have corrupted themselves; they have turned aside in haste from the way I had set for them and have made themselves a molten image.<sup>b</sup> <sup>13</sup>I have observed this people, the LORD continued to me, and, see, they are a stiff-necked race! Do not plead for them; <sup>14</sup>let Me alone that I may wipe them out; I will leave no trace of them under the heavens. I will make you into a nation that will be greater and stronger than they.

<sup>15</sup>"So with the two tablets of the covenant in my two hands, I went down immediately from the mountain aflame with fire. <sup>16</sup>Then I saw it. Truly you had committed a grievous sin against the LORD your God! You had made yourselves a molten calf; as the LORD said, you had soon turned aside from the way which the LORD commanded you. <sup>17</sup>I gripped the two tablets and flung them from me with both hands and broke them to bits before you. <sup>18</sup>After that, as I had done before, I prostrated myself before the LORD and again fasted 40 days and 40 nights because of all the sins you committed when you did this wickedness in the sight of the LORD, provoking Him to anger. <sup>19</sup>For I dreaded the awful indignation and fierce anger of the LORD against you, so that He would surely destroy you. Once more, however, the LORD listened to me. <sup>20</sup>But the LORD's displeasure with Aaron was so great that He would destroy him; so, I interceded for Aaron, too, in prayer. <sup>21</sup>Then that sinful object you had made — that golden calf! I seized it, and I burned it in the fire; I crushed it, ground it into dust, and scattered the dust on the stream that was flowing down the mountain.

<sup>22</sup>"At Taberah, at Massah, as well as at Kibroth-hattaavah, you were continually provoking the LORD's indignation. <sup>23</sup>And when the LORD sent you out from Kadesh-barnea, saying, Go up and take over the land I have given you; there, too, you rebelled and did not listen to the LORD's command. You did not believe Him and did not obey His voice. <sup>24</sup>In truth, you have been rebellious toward the LORD from the day I first knew you.

<sup>25</sup>"Then I did again prostrate myself before the LORD 40 days and 40 nights, because the LORD had said He would destroy you. <sup>26</sup>I prayed to the LORD. I said, 'O Lord God, do not wipe out Thy people and Thy heritage whom Thou didst rescue by Thy might, whom Thou didst bring out of Egypt by a strong hand. <sup>27</sup>Remember Thy servants Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; regard not the stubbornness of this people; look not upon their wickedness and sin, <sup>28</sup>lest it be said by the nation from which Thou didst redeem us, "The LORD was not able to bring them into the land He promised them; for this reason, and because He hates them, He brought them out to slay them in the desert." <sup>29</sup>Yet they are Thy people, Thy special heritage, whom Thou didst bring out by Thy great strength and by Thy outstretched arm.'

10 "AT THAT TIME THE LORD SAID to me: Cut two stone tablets like the first, and come up to Me here in the mountain. Also make an ark of wood. <sup>2</sup>I will write on the tablets the commandments that were on the first tablets which you broke, and you shall put them in the ark.<sup>c</sup> <sup>3</sup>So I made an

b) In Ex. 32 the story of the golden calf is told more dramatically and in greater detail. Israel's paganism had an early start. Whom did the sons of Jacob marry, if not the daughters of Canaanites, except Joseph whose wife was the pagan high priest's daughter?

c) The Ark contained the stone tablets on which the Ten Commandments were inscribed. The Covenant being based on the Commandments, inspired the expression "The Ark of the Covenant," the symbol of the presence of God in the midst of His people.

ark of acacia wood, and I cut out the two stone tablets, making them like the first, and I climbed the mountain, taking them with me. <sup>4</sup>Upon these, as He had done before, He wrote the Ten Commandments which the LORD had announced to you out of the fire that day on the mountain, and the LORD gave them to me. <sup>5</sup>I turned then, came down, and placed the tablets in the Ark which I had prepared, and there they have remained, in keeping with the command the LORD gave me.

<sup>6</sup>"The Israelites set out from the wells of the children of Jaakan for Moserah, where Aaron died and was buried,* Eleazar his son succeeding him in the office of priest. <sup>7</sup>From there they journeyed on to Gudgodah, and from Gudgodah to Jotbathah, a land with streams of water. <sup>8</sup>Then it was that the LORD set apart the tribe of Levi to carry the Ark of the covenant of the LORD, to stand before Him as His ministers, and to pronounce blessings in His name, as they still do. <sup>9</sup>Thus the Levites hold no property or inheritance, as the other tribesmen do; the LORD is their inheritance, as the LORD your God promised them.

<sup>10</sup>"Once more I remained on the mountain as at the first time 40 days and 40 nights, and again the LORD listened to me, and the LORD did not destroy you. <sup>11</sup>Then the LORD said to me, Arise, for you are to journey at the head of the people until they enter the land I promised their fathers to give them.

<sup>12</sup>"So now, Israel, what does the LORD your God require of you, but to show the LORD your God due reverence, to walk in all His ways, to love Him, to serve the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul <sup>13</sup>and to keep the LORD's commandments and statutes which, for your own good, I enjoin on you this day?<sup>d</sup> <sup>14</sup>Behold, to the LORD your God belong the heavens and the heaven of heavens, the earth and all that is in it; <sup>15</sup>yet the LORD showed affection for your fathers and so loved them that He chose you, their sons, above all nations, as it is today. <sup>16</sup>So be circumcised in heart and be stiff-necked no more. <sup>17</sup>For the LORD your God is the God of gods and the LORD of lords. He is God, great, mighty, and terrible! He shows no partiality nor can He be bribed; <sup>18</sup>He secures justice for the orphan and the widow; He cares for the foreigner among you, giving him food and clothing. <sup>19</sup>You, too, then, should love the foreigner. Were you not immigrants in the land of Egypt? <sup>20</sup>You must show reverence for the LORD your God; you must serve Him, cling to Him, and swear by His name. <sup>21</sup>He is your praise<sup>e</sup> and your God; He has done for you these great and marvelous things which your own eyes have witnessed. <sup>22</sup>Your fathers went down into Egypt, 70 souls in number, and now the LORD your God has made you as the stars of the heavens in multitude.

11 "LOVE THE LORD YOUR GOD, therefore, and always heed His charge, His laws, His ordinances, and His commandments.<sup>f</sup> Of the LORD your God's discipline you must be ever mindful. <sup>2</sup>I am not now speaking to your children; they do not know; they have not seen His greatness, His mighty hand and outstretched arm, <sup>3</sup>His signs and the deeds He performed in Egypt against Pharaoh the king of Egypt and against all that land—<sup>4</sup>what He did to the Egyptian army, how He made the waters of the Red Sea engulf their horses and their chariots when they followed you; how the LORD destroyed them to this day;

*Near Mt. Hor, which means mountain, by the Edom boundary, Num. 20:22-29.

d) A remarkable parallel is the great passage in Micah 6:1-8. How simple God's commands! Yet they lift the soul of him who follows them, because they come from God. From here to the end of the chapter we have one of the great messages of Deut., yes, of the O.T. How did Israel achieve such an exalted conception of God-and-man relationship, except by revelation?

e) For full significance of the expression, study Jer. 17:14.

f) Through the last half of ch. 10 and the first part of ch. 11, we catch a remarkable glimpse of Israel's conception of God and life. If modern readers find Deuteronomy wearisome because of repetition, Hebrews gloried in it; it was strength to them. We read a page, then turn to the next with little rethinking. They heard and heard the same again; then ruminated, chewed the cud, thought things through and could thus master more truth than we master with our much reading.

<sup>5</sup>what He did, likewise, for you in the desert until you reached this place; <sup>6</sup>how He dealt with Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab, Reuben's son; how in the midst of all Israel the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them, households, tents, and belongings in their camp — <sup>7</sup>With your own eyes you have seen all these mighty works the LORD has done. <sup>8</sup>Therefore, you must keep every commandment I enjoin on you today, that you may be strong, able to enter and take over the land <sup>9</sup>and long enjoy life upon the land which the LORD swore to your fathers, that He would grant them and their offspring a land flowing with milk and honey. <sup>10</sup>For the land which you are entering to possess is not like the land of Egypt, from which you have come, where you could sow seed and water it with your foot<sup>g</sup> like a vegetable garden. <sup>11</sup>No, the land you are reaching to possess is a land of hills and valleys; it depends for water upon the rains from heaven, <sup>12a</sup>land over which the LORD your God watches; His eyes are upon it continually from the year's beginning to its end. <sup>13</sup>And if you give heed truly to the orders with which I am charging you, to love the LORD your God and to serve Him with all your heart and your whole soul, <sup>14</sup>then He will send rain upon your land in its season, the early and the latter rains and you will gather in your grain, your wine, and your oil; <sup>15</sup>He will also provide grass in your fields for your cattle, and you shall eat and be filled. <sup>16</sup>But you must be determined not to let your hearts be lured away and turned aside to serve other gods, to worship them, <sup>17</sup>and so to bring upon you the indignation of the LORD, so that He would restrain the heavens that there be neither rain nor produce from the soil, and you perish quickly from the good land which the LORD is granting you.

<sup>18</sup>"Store up these words of mine in your heart and in your soul. Bind them as a token on your hands, and let them be as a forehead band between your eyes. <sup>19</sup>Teach them to your children, talking about them when sitting at home and when walking on the road, when you lie down and when you get up. <sup>20</sup>Inscribe them on the door posts of your houses and on your gates <sup>21</sup>so that your days and the days of your children may multiply and become as the days of heaven above the earth, the land which the LORD swore to your fathers to give them.

<sup>22</sup>"For if you diligently obey all these commands which I command you, to love the LORD your God, to walk in all His ways and to remain loyal to Him, <sup>23</sup>then the LORD will drive out all these peoples from before you and you shall take possession of nations greater and stronger than you. <sup>24</sup>Every foot of ground you tread upon shall be yours. Your frontiers shall stretch from the desert to Lebanon, from the river Euphrates to the Western Sea; <sup>25</sup>not a man shall be able to stand against you, for the LORD your God will put the dread and the terror of you on all the land you walk upon, as He has promised you.

<sup>26</sup>"Today I am setting before you a blessing and a curse; <sup>27a</sup>a blessing if you obey the commands of the LORD your God, with which I am now charging you; <sup>28</sup>but a curse if you do not obey the commands of the LORD your God, but turn from the way I am commanding you this day and follow other gods whom you have not known.<sup>h</sup> <sup>29</sup>And it shall be when the LORD your God has brought you into the land of which you are taking possession, you shall set the blessing upon Mount Gerizim and the curse on Mount Ebal. <sup>30</sup>Are not the two mountains on the other side of the Jordan, west of the sunset road in the country of the Canaanites, who dwell in the plain op-

g) Israel's new land was superior to Egypt, where rain seldom falls and farmers depended on irrigation for any crops they might produce. The "foot" here was to open up small canals at points where water was wanted, to close them again by the foot. In Palestine, the spring rains came in March and April; then no rain until October and November, when the plowing began.

h) The Baals of Canaan mostly; Israel did not know them in the desert, but many learned to worship them after the conquest, with fatal consequences.

posite Gilgal, beside the oaks of Moreh? <sup>31</sup>Now you are about to cross the Jordan to take over the land which the LORD your God intends you to have; you shall seize it and live there, <sup>32</sup>and then you must keep all these laws and ordinances which today I am putting before you."<sup>1</sup>

12 "THESE ARE THE LAWS<sup>1</sup> AND ordinances you are to observe punctually in the land which the LORD, the God of your fathers, has appointed you to possess, all the days you live on earth. <sup>2</sup>You shall demolish utterly all the places where the nations whom you are to dispossess worshiped their gods,<sup>k</sup> on high mountains, on hills, and under every green tree. <sup>3</sup>You shall tear down their altars, break in pieces their dedicated pillars, and burn in the fire their sacred trees. The carved images of their gods you shall hew down, and thus you shall abolish their very name<sup>1</sup> from that place. <sup>4</sup>Not so shall you behave toward the LORD your God, <sup>5</sup>but you shall seek out that place which the LORD your God will choose<sup>m</sup> from all your tribes to put His name there and make it His dwelling place. <sup>6</sup>There you shall go,<sup>n</sup> and there you shall bring your burnt offerings, your sacrifices, your tithes, the contributions you dedicate, your vows, your freewill offerings, and the firstlings of your herds and flocks. <sup>7</sup>There you shall eat before the LORD your God and rejoice over the fruits of your labors, you and your households, as the LORD your God has blessed you. <sup>8</sup>You are not to do as we are now doing, the things that seem right to each in his own eyes, <sup>9</sup>for you have not yet reached the place of rest and heritage which the LORD is giving you. <sup>10</sup>However, you will be crossing the Jordan and settling down in the land which the LORD your God is giving you, at rest from all your enemies and dwelling in security. <sup>11</sup>Then you will be seeking out the place around you where the LORD your God will choose to put His name, and there you shall bring everything that I now bid you: your burnt offerings, your sacrifices, your tithes, the dedicated contributions you will be making, and any special offering you may have vowed to the LORD. <sup>12</sup>And you shall rejoice before the LORD your God, you, your sons and your daughters, your servants and your maids, and the Levite<sup>o</sup> living in your community, since he has no portion or inheritance with you. <sup>13</sup>Be sure not to present your burnt offerings at just any spot you chance upon; <sup>14</sup>but only at the one place which the LORD shall choose in one of your tribes; there you shall bring your burnt offerings, and there you shall do all that I am commanding you to do.

<sup>15</sup>"But if in your homes you want meat, you may kill and eat as much as you want, in accord with the blessing which the LORD your God grants you; the unclean as well as the clean may eat of it, as you would of the antelope and of the deer.<sup>p</sup> <sup>16</sup>Only do not eat the blood; you must pour it on the ground like water. <sup>17</sup>Then again, you must not eat at home the tithe of your grain, or of your wine, or of your oil, or of the firstlings of your herd or flock, or anything you have promised in a vow to the LORD, or any freewill offering or dedicated contribution. <sup>18</sup>Eat these before the LORD your God in the place of His choosing, you, your son

i) Vs. 32 brings Moses' second discourse to a close.

j) Moses' third discourse is in Ch. 12-26, 28. It is the major section of the book, the Deut. Law. It introduces a revolutionary form of Israel's joint worship, henceforth to be conducted in one place only; all other shrines must be destroyed.

k) This law was not fully carried out until King Josiah's time, in 621 B.C., II Kings 22 and 23.

l) The name of the god at each place.

m) "The place which the LORD your God will choose" is the phrase regularly used in Deuteronomy for the legitimate sanctuary to which Israel shall go to worship God.

n) Before crossing the Jordan into Canaan; the permanent place for the sanctuary had not yet been selected.

o) The Levite is frequently named in Deut. as one who must be cared for on all occasions. Helping the priests and teaching were his main functions.

p) During patriarchal days with local altars, the earlier Hebrews did at times, when eating meat or drinking, offer a portion at their local altar, Gen. 31:54; After the central altar was established, those too far away from that altar were allowed to eat meat without ceremonial sacrifice.

and your daughter, your servant and your maid, and the Levite in your community. Rejoice before the LORD your God in all that your hands have undertaken.<sup>q</sup> <sup>19</sup>And keep constantly in mind that you must not neglect the Levite as long as you live in your land.<sup>r</sup>

<sup>20</sup>"When the LORD your God shall enlarge your territory, as He promised you, and you say, 'I want to eat meat,' you may eat as much meat as you like.

<sup>21</sup>And if the place where the LORD your God has chosen to put His name is too far from you, then you may slaughter any of your herd or your flock, which the LORD has provided, in the way I have instructed you and eat of it at home as much as you wish, <sup>22</sup>as you would an antelope or a deer in your own home; the unclean and the clean alike may eat it; <sup>23</sup>but make sure you do not eat the blood; for the blood is the life, and you must not eat the life with the flesh. <sup>24</sup>Do not eat it; pour it on the ground like water. <sup>25</sup>You must not eat it, that you may prosper, both you and your children after you, doing what is right in the sight of the LORD. <sup>26</sup>But the consecrated gifts you have and the offerings you have promised in your vows, these you shall take with you to the place of the LORD's choice <sup>27</sup>and there offer your burnt offerings, the flesh and the blood, on the altar of the LORD your God. The blood of your sacrifice shall be poured out on the altar of the LORD your God; but the flesh you may eat. <sup>28</sup>Carefully heed all these requirements which I am setting before you, that it may ever go well with you and with your children after you, when you do what is good and right in the sight of the LORD your God.

<sup>29</sup>"When the LORD your God cuts off from before you the nations against whom you will be advancing to dispossess them, and you take charge and settle down in their land, <sup>30</sup>then be on your guard lest, after their destruction, you be lured into imitating them, inquiring after their gods, saying, 'How did these nations worship their gods?' so that you may do the same. <sup>31</sup>You must not thus behave toward the LORD your God; for every abomination which I hate, these peoples have done for their gods, even to the burning of their sons and daughters in the fire to their gods. <sup>32</sup>Everything I am commanding you, you shall do; you must not add to it or take from it.

13 "IF A PROPHET ARISES AMONG you, or a dreamer of dreams, and gives you a sign or wonder, <sup>2</sup>and the sign or wonder he speaks about comes to pass, and he then says to you, 'Let us go after other gods and serve them,' gods you have never known,<sup>s</sup> <sup>3</sup>then do not listen to the words of that prophet or dreamer, for the LORD your God is testing you to know whether you love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul. <sup>4</sup>You must follow the LORD your God and revere Him, keep His commandments, listen to His voice, serve Him and cling to Him. <sup>5</sup>But that prophet or that dreamer of dreams must be executed; for he has taught you to depart from the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt and rescued you from the house of slavery. I have taught you to draw you away from the path which the LORD your God commanded you to follow; so you must purge the evil from among you.

<sup>6</sup>"If your brother, the son of your mother, or your son, or your daughter, or the wife of your bosom, or your friend who is as your own soul, should secretly tempt you, saying, 'Let us go and serve other gods,' whom neither you nor your fathers have known, <sup>7</sup>the gods of the peoples of other nations, near or far, from one end of the earth to the other, <sup>8</sup>you must refuse him and not listen to him. Neither pity him, nor spare him, nor conceal him. <sup>9</sup>You

q) The Psalms of Ascent, 120-134, show with what genuine joy Israel followed this injunction.

r) Clean and unclean, as used here, are legal terms. If a member of the family was ritually unclean, he did not eat, I Sam. 20:26. This matter of eating meat played a role down through the centuries of Judaism and to N.T. days, Rom. 14:20,21.

s) Deuteronomy seeks above all to purge Israel of every phase of pagan worship. Ch. 13 presents typical cases: if a trusted but false prophet seeks to lure the people after false gods, or a close relative is guilty, or a whole city goes astray. The penalty is death for the individual, annihilation for the city.

DEUTERONOMY 13, 14

must certainly put him to death, and your hand must be the first against him, then the hand of all the people. <sup>10</sup>You must stone him to death, mindful that he has sought to lead you away from the LORD your God who brought you out of Egypt from the house of slavery, <sup>11</sup>and all Israel shall hear and fear and never again commit such evil among you.

<sup>12</sup>"If you hear a report that in one of the cities to which the LORD your God will be assigning you to live, <sup>13</sup>wicked men have arisen and have led their fellow citizens astray with the cry, 'Let us go and worship other gods,' which you have never known, <sup>14</sup>then you shall investigate and make thorough inquiry; and if the report proves true and it is certain that this abominable thing has taken place among you, <sup>15</sup>then you shall put the dwellers of that city to the sword, smiting it without quarter, exterminating it and all in it, cattle and people alike with the edge of the sword. <sup>16</sup>You shall gather all the spoil into the open square and there burn everything, offering it as a whole burnt offering to the LORD your God; it shall remain in ruins and never be rebuilt. <sup>17</sup>Let nothing of the things in it, doomed to destruction, stick to your hands; that the LORD may turn from His fierce anger and show you mercy, and in His mercy multiply you as He has sworn to your fathers, <sup>18</sup>provided that you listen to the voice of the LORD your God, keeping all His commandments which I am setting before you today and doing what is right in the presence of the LORD your God.

14 "YOU ARE THE CHILDREN OF the LORD your God; <sup>1</sup>you shall not cut yourselves or shave your forehead for the dead; <sup>2</sup>for you are a people dedicated to the LORD your God, and He has chosen you from all peoples on the earth to be His and His alone. <sup>3</sup>"You shall eat nothing abominable. <sup>4</sup>These are animals you may eat: the ox, the sheep, the goat, <sup>5</sup>the deer, the gazelle, the roebuck, the wild goat, the chamois, the antelope, and the mountain sheep. <sup>6</sup>Any animal that has divided hoofs and chews the cud you may eat. <sup>7</sup>But of those that chew the cud or part the hoof there are some that you may not eat: the camel, the hare, the rock badger, because they chew the cud but do not divide the hoof. They are unclean to you. <sup>8</sup>The hog is unclean because it divides the hoof but does not chew the cud; of their flesh you must not eat nor may you touch their carcass.

Animals Clean and Unclean; Tithing

<sup>9</sup>"Of the creatures that live in water, those that have fins and scales you may eat, <sup>10</sup>but whatever does not have fins and scales is unclean to you, you shall not eat of it.

<sup>11</sup>"Of all clean birds you may eat, <sup>12</sup>but these you may not eat: the eagle, the vulture, the fishhawk, <sup>13</sup>the buzzard, all kinds of falcon, <sup>14</sup>all ravens, <sup>15</sup>the ostrich, the nighthawk, and the sea gull, all kinds of hawk, <sup>16</sup>the screech owl, the eagle owl, the water hen, <sup>17</sup>the pelican, the carrion vulture, the cormorant, <sup>18</sup>the stork, all kinds of heron, the hoopoe, and the bat. <sup>19</sup>Likewise, all winged creeping things are unclean to you and may not be eaten. <sup>20</sup>All clean winged creatures, however, you may eat.

<sup>21</sup>"You shall not eat anything that has died a natural death. You may give it to the alien in your community, and he may eat it, or you may sell it to a foreigner; but you are a people dedicated to the LORD your God.

"You shall not boil a kid in its mother's milk."

<sup>22</sup>"<sup>1</sup>Every year you must tithe all your seeds' produce that comes from your field. <sup>23</sup>And before the LORD your God, in the place He will be choosing to put His name there, you shall eat it; the tithe of your grain, your wine and your oil, as well as the firstlings of your herds and of your flocks, that you may learn to revere the LORD your God all your days. <sup>24</sup>If the way to the LORD's sanctuary proves too long

t) Mutilation of the body and shaving the forehead were common rites of mourning for the dead in Israel's world. Some rites mentioned in this passage were practiced by Israelites at the time of Jeremiah. u) In such a procedure there would be an element of heartlessness. The ewe's milk is primarily to keep the kid alive, not to render it good eating.

for you, and you are unable to carry the tithe, because the place of the LORD your God's choice to put His name there is so far away, when the LORD your God blesses you, <sup>25</sup>then you shall exchange your tithe for money in your home town and with the money securely in hand go to the place which the LORD your God chooses, <sup>26</sup>and there purchase whatever your heart may desire, bullocks, sheep, wine, strong drink, anything your appetite suggests and, rejoicing before the LORD your God, eat it, both you and your household. <sup>27</sup>Also the Levite who belongs in your community you must not neglect, for he has no property or inheritance with you.

<sup>28</sup>"At the end of every three years you shall bring out the full tithe of your produce for that year and deposit it within your city; <sup>29</sup>and the Levite, since he has no property or inheritance with you, the resident immigrant, the fatherless, and the widow shall come and eat and be satisfied; so that the LORD your God may bless you in all the work you undertake.

15 "AT THE END OF EVERY SEVEN years there must be a canceling of debts, <sup>2</sup>and this shall be the way of the canceling: Every creditor shall cancel the loan he made to his neighbor or to his brother; he shall make no demand for repayment, because the LORD's release has been proclaimed.<sup>v</sup> <sup>3</sup>A foreigner you may press for payment, but whatever of yours was due from a brother<sup>w</sup> you shall cancel. <sup>4</sup>However, there should be no poor among you, for the LORD your God will abundantly bless you in the land He will give you to possess as a heritage, <sup>5</sup>if you listen to the LORD your God and rightly observe all these commandments which today I am enjoining upon you. <sup>6</sup>When the LORD your God blesses you as He promised you, then you shall lend to many nations, but not borrow; you shall rule many nations, but they shall not rule over you.

<sup>7</sup>"When there is among you a poor man, a brother of yours, in one of the towns which the LORD will be granting you, you shall not harden your heart or close your hand for your poor brother, refusing him a loan; no, <sup>8</sup>you shall open wide your hand for him and lend him liberally to meet his need amply.

<sup>9</sup>"Be on your guard not to let the base thought get the upper hand in your heart: The seventh year is approaching, the year of release, so that you turn a loveless eye on your poor brother, and you give him nothing. He will cry out to the LORD against you, and it will become sin in you. <sup>10</sup>You shall make the loan to him freely, not heavy of heart when you give to him; for the LORD your God will bless you in all your work and in all you undertake. <sup>11</sup>The land will never be without its poor,<sup>x</sup> so I command you to be openhanded towards your brother, to the needy, and to the poor in the land.

<sup>12</sup>"If your brother, a Hebrew man or a Hebrew woman, is sold to you, he shall serve you six years, and in the seventh year you shall give him his freedom. <sup>13</sup>When he leaves you, he must not go empty-handed, <sup>14</sup>but you shall furnish him liberally with provisions from your flock, from your threshing floor, and from your wine press, from that with which the LORD your God has blessed you, you shall give him. <sup>15</sup>Remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt and that the LORD your God redeemed you; therefore I am now laying this command upon you. <sup>16</sup>But if he says to you; 'I do not want to leave you; I am devoted to you and your family and am faring well with you,' <sup>17</sup>then you shall take an awl and drill it through his ear against the doorpost of your house, and he shall be your servant for <sup>v</sup>) In Israel loans were granted to fellow Hebrews without interest; it was charity to the needy. Every seventh year all such loans were canceled. The law of release is in Deuteronomy only. Even after the exile, in the days of Nehemiah — ch. 5 — those who required interest on money loaned to Jews, were severely rebuked as usurers. It is a custom we Christians do well to practice.

<sup>w</sup>) An Israelite.

<sup>x</sup>) As our LORD remarked, John 12:8; when Mary of Bethany was criticized for anointing His feet.

all time; and for your maid you shall do the same.<sup>7</sup> <sup>18</sup>It must not be difficult for you to let your servant go free, for at half the cost of a hired workman he has served you six years; so the LORD your God will bless you in your every enterprise.

<sup>19</sup>"All the first-born males among your cattle and sheep you shall dedicate to the LORD your God; you shall not work the firstlings of your cattle nor shear the firstlings of your sheep. <sup>20</sup>Before the LORD you shall eat them, year by year, in the place of the LORD's choosing, you and your family. <sup>21</sup>But if there is any blemish in one of them, if it is lame or blind, or shows any serious blemish at all, you must not offer it to the LORD. <sup>22</sup>You may eat it at home; the clean and the unclean alike may eat it, as you would the roebuck or the deer. <sup>23</sup>Only you must not eat the blood; it must be poured out on the ground like water.

16 "OBSERVE THE MONTH OF ABIB, celebrating the Passover to the LORD your God, for in the month Abib the LORD your God brought you out from Egypt by night. <sup>2</sup>You shall offer the Passover sacrifice from your flock or from your herd to the LORD your God in the place which the LORD will be choosing for His name to dwell there.<sup>3</sup> <sup>3</sup>You shall not eat leavened bread with it. For seven days you shall eat unleavened bread, the bread of affliction, — for you left Egypt in great haste — that you may remember the day you came out from the land of Egypt all the days of your life. <sup>4</sup>For seven days leaven must not be seen anywhere within your borders, and nothing of the flesh you sacrificed on the evening of the first day may be left over till morning. <sup>5</sup>You must not offer the Passover sacrifice in one of the local towns which the LORD your God will be giving you; <sup>6</sup>but at the place which the LORD your God will choose as the dwelling place for His name, there you shall offer the Passover sacrifice at sundown, the time of your exodus from Egypt. <sup>7</sup>You shall boil it and eat it at the place which the LORD your God will choose, and on the next morning you may start for home. <sup>8</sup>For six days you shall eat unleavened bread, and on the seventh day there shall be a solemn assembly to the LORD your God; on it you shall not do any work.

<sup>9</sup>"You shall count off seven weeks, beginning when you first thrust the sickle in the standing grain;<sup>a</sup> <sup>10</sup>then you must keep the feast of weeks to the LORD your God, presenting a free-will offering in proportion to the measure in which the LORD your God shall bless you; <sup>11</sup>and you shall rejoice in the presence of the LORD your God, you, your son, your daughter, your male and female servants, the Levite in your town, the immigrant too, and the fatherless and the widow among you, at the place which the LORD your God chooses to make His name dwell there. <sup>12</sup>Remember that you were a slave in Egypt, and observe these statutes well.

<sup>13</sup>"After gathering in the produce from your threshing floor and wine press, you shall celebrate the festival of booths<sup>b</sup> for seven days, <sup>14</sup>and in your feast you shall rejoice, you, your son, your daughter, your male and female servants, the Levite, the immigrant, the fatherless, and the widow in your community. <sup>15</sup>Seven days you shall keep the feast to the LORD your God in the place which the LORD shall choose; for the LORD your God will bless you in your harvest and in your

y) In Deuteronomy when the slave is released, he is loaded with provisions to begin the new life. This is not mentioned in Exodus. In later times, Hebrews were not enslaved by Hebrews, but down to the Exile, the law of release was often neglected, Jer. 34:8-20 and Neh. 5:1-13.

z) Ch. 16 presents the laws regulating the three annual festivals: The Passover and Unleavened Bread, The Feast of Weeks (Pentecost), The Feast of Ingathering (Tabernacles). Many passages in Exodus, Numbers and Leviticus treat these celebrations; Deuteronomy requires that they all be nationally celebrated at the central sanctuary.

a) The Feast of Weeks was a harvest festival, celebrated when the grain harvest, that lasted seven weeks, was completed. Later it was given the Greek name, Pentecost, because it came 50 days after the Passover.

b) The Feast of Booths (or Tabernacles) came after every produce had been harvested, including figs, olives and grapes.

work, and you shall have enjoyment to the full. <sup>16</sup>Thrice a year every male among you shall appear before the LORD your God in the place of His choosing: at the feast of unleavened bread, at the feast of weeks, and at the feast of booths. No one shall appear before the LORD empty-handed; <sup>17</sup>every one (shall give) as he is able, according to the blessing which the LORD your God bestows on you.

<sup>18</sup>"You shall appoint judges and other officials<sup>c</sup> throughout your tribes and in all the towns which the LORD your God will be granting you, to administer proper justice for the people. <sup>19</sup>You shall not distort justice; you must be impartial, and accept no present; for a present makes even wise men blind and subverts the cause of the innocent. <sup>20</sup>Strive for justice only, so you may live and possess the land which the LORD your God is giving you.

<sup>21</sup>"Do not plant an Asherah, any tree, beside the altar of the LORD your God that you make; <sup>22</sup>nor erect there a dedicated pillar, an abomination to the LORD your God.

17 "SACRIFICES TO THE LORD YOUR God must never include a member of your herd or flock in which there is a blemish or defect; for such a sacrifice would be abhorrent to the LORD your God.

<sup>2</sup>"If there is found among you in one of the towns which the LORD your God is granting you, a man or a woman who is doing evil in the sight of the LORD your God, transgressing His covenant — <sup>3</sup>one who has sought out and served other gods<sup>d</sup> and bowed down to them, the sun, the moon or any of the host of heaven, which I have forbidden you, <sup>4</sup>and it is reported to you, then you must make searching inquiry. If the report is true and it is established that this abominable thing has been done in Israel, <sup>5</sup>then you shall bring that man or that woman out to your gates and there stone that man or that woman to death. <sup>6</sup>It must be on the testimony of two or more witnesses that the one condemned is executed; no one shall die on the testimony of but a single witness. <sup>7</sup>The hands of the witnesses shall cast the first stone, and after them the hands of all the people. So you shall root out the evil from among you.

<sup>8</sup>"When a case at law arises too difficult for you to decide between one degree of bloodshed and another; one plea for right and another — one type of bodily injury and another, matters of disagreement in your town — then you must go to the place which the LORD your God shall choose <sup>9</sup>and there seek out the Levitical priests and the judge<sup>e</sup> who shall be in office in those days, and you shall inquire of them, and they will tell you of their decision; <sup>10</sup>you must act according to the decision they announce at that place which the LORD shall choose, and you must be careful to follow their instructions to the letter. <sup>11</sup>Carry out their decision, and be sure not to depart from their verdict in any way.

<sup>12</sup>The man who shall act presumptuously in such cases and declines to listen to the priest ministering there before the LORD your God, or to the judge, that man shall die, and you shall clear Israel of such evil. <sup>13</sup>All the people shall hear of it and fear, and never again act so recklessly.

<sup>14</sup>"When you reach the land which the LORD your God gives you, and take possession and live in it, and you say, 'We want to put a king over us like other nations all around,' <sup>15</sup>then you may, indeed, put a king over you, whom the LORD your God shall choose. From among your own brothers you will put a king over you, not a foreigner who is not your brother. <sup>16</sup>He shall not multiply horses for himself nor make people return to Egypt to import horses from there; for the LORD

c) Ch. 16:18 through ch. 18 presents and characterizes the officers of the theocracy: judges, king, priests, and prophets.

d) Israel's worship of false gods was the major trouble through much of her history.

e) The passing on of difficult cases began with Moses at Jethro's suggestion, Ex. 18:13-26. From early times administration of justice by both priestly and civil heads of the community seems to have prevailed. II Chron. 19:8-11 tells of the setting up of a double court by king Jehoshaphat.

said, You shall never again return over that road. <sup>17</sup>Neither may the king multiply wives to himself, lest his heart be turned away; nor shall he greatly multiply silver and gold.<sup>f</sup> <sup>18</sup>When he is established upon his throne in his kingdom, he shall write for himself in a book a copy of this law, from (the scroll kept by) the priestly Levites; <sup>19</sup>he shall keep it near him and read in it all the days of his life, that he may learn to revere the LORD his God by observing all the words of this law and these statutes and practicing them. <sup>20</sup>Thus his heart will not be exalted above his brothers, nor will he turn aside from any commandments of the Book to right or left; so that he and his sons will long remain upon the throne in Israel.

18 "THE LEVITICAL PRIESTS, THE whole tribe of Levi, shall have no portion or inheritance with Israel. They shall eat the LORD's offerings by fire and His fit portion; <sup>2</sup>but among his brothers (Levi) shall have no inheritance. The LORD is his heritage, as He has promised him.<sup>g</sup> <sup>3</sup>When the people bring their offerings, taken from flock or herd, the due of the priests shall be the shoulder, both cheeks and the stomach. <sup>4</sup>You shall give them the first of your grain, of your wine, and of your oil, and the first fleece of your sheep, <sup>5</sup>for out of all your tribes the LORD your God has chosen him to be in attendance and to minister in His name, him and his sons forever.

<sup>6</sup>"When a Levite goes out from one of your cities anywhere in Israel, where he has temporarily been residing and out of devotion moves to the place which the LORD will be choosing, <sup>7</sup>then he shall minister there in the name of the LORD his God, like all his brother Levites serving there, <sup>8</sup>and all shall share like portions of available food, taking no account of what he may have received from family property.<sup>h</sup>

<sup>9</sup>"When you reach the land which the LORD your God is giving you, do not learn to imitate the obnoxious ways of those nations. <sup>10</sup>There must not be found among you anyone who makes his son or his daughter pass through the fire, anyone practicing divination or soothsaying, observing omens, applying sorcery, <sup>11</sup>a charmer, a medium, a wizard, or a necromancer.<sup>i</sup> <sup>12</sup>For all who do these things are offensive to the LORD; and because of these abominable practices the LORD your God will be driving out these nations from before you. <sup>13</sup>You, however, must be blameless before the LORD your God. <sup>14</sup>These nations whom you will be dispossessing listen to soothsayers and diviners; but the LORD your God has not permitted you to do so. <sup>15</sup>He will raise up for you a prophet like me, one of your own brothers, and you shall listen to him,<sup>j</sup> <sup>16</sup>just as you requested of the LORD at Horeb on the day of the assembly, when you said: 'I must not again hear the voice of the LORD my God, or see this great fire any longer, lest I die.' <sup>17</sup>And the LORD said to me: 'They have spoken well. <sup>18</sup>I will raise up for them a prophet, one of their own number like you; I will put My words in his mouth, and he shall make known to them all that I command him; <sup>19</sup>and the man who refuses to listen to the word he shall speak in My name, of that man I Myself will require it. <sup>20</sup>But if the prophet presumes to speak in My name a message which I have not commanded him to say, or shall speak in the name of other gods, that prophet shall die. <sup>21</sup>And if you say in your heart, 'How are we to know which word the LORD has not spoken?' <sup>22</sup>What a prophet proclaims in the name of the LORD which is not fulfilled and does not happen, that is a message to which the LORD did not

f) Solomon should have been the pattern for the king described here, but in time he multiplied wives, introduced cavalry, and even accompanied his wives to their pagan temples.

g) In Deuteronomy there is always great concern for the Levites, whom the Israelites as worshipers of God were to support.

h) If not earned, then such supplies must have been voluntarily contributed by grateful Israelites.

i) The roster of the pagan practices listed here is factual; Israel became only too familiar with them all, human sacrifices included.

j) Spoken concerning every true mouthpiece of God and supremely of the Son of God, the Messiah.

give utterance; the prophet has spoken it presumptuously; have no fear of him.

19 "WHEN THE LORD YOUR GOD HAS eliminated the nations whose land the LORD your God is giving you, and you take possession, living in their cities and in their houses, <sup>2</sup>you shall set apart three cities in the midst of the land which the LORD your God is granting to you to possess. <sup>3</sup>You shall measure distances and divide into three districts the area which the LORD your God has you inherit, so that every man killing another may flee to them.<sup>k</sup> <sup>4</sup>In this case, the killer who flees there shall remain alive. When a man kills his neighbor against whom he bore no grudge, and the killing is unintentional; for instance, <sup>5</sup>if a man and his neighbor go into the forest to cut wood, and while he swings the axe to fell a tree, the axe head of one of them flies off the handle, strikes his companion, and kills him, the man may then flee to one of those cities and live; <sup>6</sup>otherwise, the avenger of blood will hunt him down in hot anger, overtake him because the way is long, and he will smite him mortally, although he was not deserving of death; for he had carried no grudge. <sup>7</sup>Wherefore I command you to set apart three cities.

<sup>8</sup>"And if the LORD your God enlarges your boundaries, as He swore to your fathers to do, and gives you all the land He promised them, <sup>9</sup>then, if you are careful to observe this whole command I am now enjoining upon you — to love the LORD your God and to walk always in His ways — then you must add three other cities to these three, <sup>10</sup>so that innocent blood may not be shed in the land which the LORD your God gives you as your heritage, and that no blood guilt may rest upon you.<sup>1</sup>

<sup>11</sup>"If, however, a man hates his neighbor and lies in wait for him, attacks

him, and smites him mortally so that he dies, and that man flees to one of these cities, <sup>12</sup>then the elders of his city must send and fetch him and deliver him to the avenger of blood, so that he dies. <sup>13</sup>You shall not pity him, but purge innocent blood from Israel that it may be well with you.

<sup>14</sup>"You must not move your neighbor's landmark, which they of old time have set in the inheritance to be yours in the land which the LORD your God gives you for your possession.

<sup>15</sup>"A single witness against a man shall not convict him of any crime or offense, in case of wrong which he may have committed; only on the testimony of two witnesses, or three, shall a charge be sustained. <sup>16</sup>When a resentful witness arises against a man to accuse him of evil doing, <sup>17</sup>then the two men involved in the dispute shall appear before the LORD, that is, before the priests and the judges who are then officiating, <sup>18</sup>and the judges shall make careful inquiry. If they discover that the witness is, indeed, resentful and has accused falsely against his brother, <sup>19</sup>then you shall do to him what he had planned to have done to his brother; and thus you shall eradicate the evil from among you. <sup>20</sup>For the rest shall hear and fear, and they shall never again be guilty of such evil among you. <sup>21</sup>You must not pity him: life for life, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot!

20 "WHEN YOU GO OUT TO WAR against your enemies, and you see horses, chariots and warriors, more numerous than you, do not fear them; for the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, is with you. <sup>2</sup>As you draw near for battle, the priest shall step forward and speak to the people. <sup>3</sup>He shall say, 'Hear, O Israel! today you are entering battle against your enemies; let not your

k) In Israel innocent blood must be avenged, for until it was avenged, the guilt rested on the community. The nearest of kin of a murdered man was obligated to avenge the victim; he became "the avenger of blood." But killing could be accidental. In such a case, the killer could flee to one of six selected cities and find asylum. If his guilt was proven, he was taken back and surrendered to the avenger of blood. For asylum at the altar, see I Kings 2:28-31.

l) Executions, not involving the avenger of blood, often had to take place, if innocent blood were not to rest upon the community, but no officer of the state ever performed it. Since it was community responsibility, the people stoned the guilty to death.

hearts lack courage; do not fear; be not alarmed or terrified by them; <sup>4</sup>for the LORD your God goes with you to fight for you against your enemies to give you the victory.' <sup>5</sup>Then the officers shall say to the men, 'Is there any one among you who has built a new house and has not yet dedicated it? Let him go back home, lest he die in battle and another dedicate it.'<sup>m</sup> <sup>6</sup>Is there any one who has planted a vineyard but has not yet enjoyed its fruits? Let him go back home, lest he die in battle and another enjoy its fruit. <sup>7</sup>And is there a man who has betrothed a wife but has not yet taken her? Let him return home, lest he die in battle and another take her.' <sup>8</sup>Finally the officers shall say to their soldiers, 'Is there a man here who is afraid and weakhearted? Let him go home, lest he impart fear in other men and they likewise become fainthearted.' <sup>9</sup>When the officers have thus completed their speaking, they shall appoint army captains to lead the people.

<sup>10</sup>"When you approach a city to attack it, first offer it terms of peace. <sup>11</sup>If there is peaceful response and they open its gates to you, all the people found there shall render you tribute service and shall be your subjects. <sup>12</sup>However, if the city declines to make peace and proffers war, then you must lay siege to it, <sup>13</sup>and the LORD your God will give it into your hands, and you shall put every male in it to the sword; <sup>14</sup>but the women, the little ones, the livestock, and everything in the city, all its booty, you may take to yourselves as plunder and enjoy the spoil of your enemies, which the LORD your God has granted you.

<sup>15</sup>"Such is the way you shall deal with cities that are at a considerable distance from you and do not belong to nations nearby. <sup>16</sup>But in cities in the area which the LORD your God is giving you, you shall not keep alive one that has breath; <sup>17</sup>you must wipe them out completely: the Hittites, the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Periz-

zites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites, all of them, as the LORD your God has commanded you; <sup>18</sup>so that they may not teach you to practice all the abominable things they do for their gods, and give you cause to sin against the LORD your God.

<sup>19</sup>"When you lay siege to a city for many days, making war against it to capture it, you shall not destroy its surrounding fruit trees by cutting them with an axe; you may eat their fruit, but you must not cut them down. Are the trees of the field people, defenders of the city, that you should lay siege to them? <sup>20</sup>Those trees, however, that you know are not fruit trees you may cut down and use to build siege works against the city that is warring against you, until it falls.

21 "IF IN THE LAND WHICH THE LORD your God gives you to possess, one is found lying murdered in the open field and it is not known who killed him, <sup>2</sup>then your elders and judges must come out and measure the distance from the body to the neighboring cities. <sup>3</sup>The elders of the city nearest the victim must select from the herd a heifer that has never been worked, never borne a yoke, <sup>4</sup>and the elders of that city shall bring the heifer to a valley with running water, to a spot never plowed or sown, and there in the valley they shall break the heifer's neck; <sup>5</sup>The priestly sons of Levi must come forward, for they have been chosen by the LORD your God to be His ministers to bless in His name and, by their decisions, to settle every dispute and every case of assault, <sup>6</sup>so all the elders of the city closest to the murdered man shall wash their hands over the heifer, whose neck was broken in the valley, <sup>7</sup>and they shall affirm: 'Our hands did not shed this blood, nor have our eyes seen it shed. <sup>8</sup>O LORD, forgive Thy people Israel, whom Thou didst redeem, and leave not the charge of innocent blood in the midst of Thy people Israel, but let the guilt of blood

m) The Hebrew word used here is the same as is used in dedicating the temple — I Kings 8:63 — but this is the only mention in the O.T. of dedicating a private home. It suggests a devotional setting apart for God.

be forgiven them.<sup>n</sup> <sup>9</sup>So you shall remove the guilt of innocent blood from among you, when you do what is right in the sight of the LORD.

<sup>10</sup>"When you go out to war against your foe and the LORD your God puts them into your power and you take them captive, <sup>11</sup>and you notice among the captives a beautiful woman who wins your heart and you would take her to be your wife <sup>12</sup>and bring her to your home, then she must shave her head, trim her nails, <sup>13</sup>and lay aside her captive's dress. After she has bewailed her father and mother a month in your house, you may go in and marry her and make her your wife. <sup>14</sup>However, if you no longer find delight in her, you shall send her away to go where she pleases; under no circumstances may you sell her for money or enslave her, for you have humbled her.

<sup>15</sup>"If a man has two wives, of whom he dislikes one and loves the other, each of them has borne him a son, and the first-born son is by the one he dislikes, <sup>16</sup>he shall have no power to bequeath the rights of the first-born to the son of the wife he loves in preference to his first-born, the son of the wife he does not love. <sup>17</sup>He must acknowledge the son of the despised wife as his first-born, assigning to him a double share of all he possesses; for he is the first fruit of his powers; the birthright belongs to him.<sup>o</sup>

<sup>18</sup>"If a man's son is stubborn and rebellious against the voice of his father and of his mother, refusing to listen to and to obey them when they discipline him, <sup>19</sup>then his father and mother must lay hold of him and bring him to the gate of his city, to the elders of his town, and <sup>20</sup>they shall say to the elders of his city, "This our son is stubborn and rebellious; he refuses to listen to us; he is a spendthrift and a drunkard." <sup>21</sup>Then all the men of his

city shall stone him to death. Thus you shall exterminate the evil from among you; all Israel shall hear of it and be afraid.<sup>p</sup>

<sup>22</sup>"When a man, who has committed a crime deserving of death, is executed and you hang him on a tree, <sup>23</sup>his body must not be permitted to remain on the tree over night; you must bury him the same day; for one hanged is under the curse of God, and you must not defile the land which the LORD your God gives you as your heritage.<sup>q</sup>

22 "YOU SHALL NOT SEE THE OX OR sheep of your brother straying away and do nothing about it; you shall certainly bring it back to your brother. <sup>2</sup>If your brother does not live in your immediate neighborhood, or if you do not know him, then you must take the ox or sheep to your own place and keep it with you until your brother looks for it; then you must restore it to him. <sup>3</sup>So also you must do with his donkey or his garment or, indeed, with anything belonging to your brother, that may be lost and you find it; you must not disregard it. <sup>4</sup>You shall not see your brother's donkey or his ox fallen by the roadside and be unconcerned about it; you will certainly help him lift it up.*

<sup>5</sup>"A woman shall not wear men's clothing nor shall a man put on a woman's dress; for anyone doing such things is abhorrent to the LORD your God.<sup>r</sup>

<sup>6</sup>"If, on the road you come upon a bird's nest in any tree or on the ground, with young birds or eggs and the mother bird sitting on her brood or on the eggs, you shall not carry off the mother with her young; <sup>7</sup>you must let her go, although you may keep the young for yourself. So you may prosper and enjoy long life.

<sup>8</sup>"When you build a new house, you

<sup>n</sup>) For another case of the treatment when innocent blood must be expiated, see note on 19:3. The manner here cited is found in Deuteronomy only; it probably reflects a very ancient custom.

<sup>o</sup>) From very early times the first-born had special rights in Israel. Jacob gained the rights of Esau, but it cost him dearly.

<sup>p</sup>) In Israel juvenile delinquency or disregard of the fifth commandment could not be tolerated; but the penalty was not always death; see Prov. 30:17.

<sup>q</sup>) The usual method of execution was stoning, in order that each citizen might share in the responsibility. Hanging was performed after his death; it represented an added curse of God.

*Injunction to be a good neighbor; we are our brothers' keepers.

<sup>r</sup>) This prohibition had religious significance, since pagan practices involved such exchanges.

must put a parapet around the roof, lest if someone falls to the ground, you bring bloodguilt upon your house.<sup>s</sup>

<sup>9</sup>"Do not sow in your vineyard two kinds of seed, lest the whole of the produce, the seed you sow and the fruit of the vineyards, be confiscated to the sanctuary.

<sup>10</sup>"Do not plow with an ox and a donkey yoked together; <sup>11</sup>nor wear garments woven of mixed threads, wool and linen combined.<sup>t</sup>

<sup>12</sup>"Make tassels of twisted threads and attach them to the four corners of the cloak you use to cover yourself.<sup>u</sup>

<sup>13</sup>"If a man takes a wife and, after cohabitation, tiring of her, <sup>14</sup>brings damaging charges against her, giving her a bad name, saying, 'I took this woman and when I approached her, I did not find in her the evidences of virginity,' <sup>15</sup>then the girl's father and mother shall bring out the proofs of her virginity and lay them before the elders at the gate of the city, <sup>16</sup>and the father of the girl shall declare before the elders, 'I gave my daughter to this man to be his wife, and he has turned against her <sup>17</sup>and now brings a shameful name upon her, saying that he found my daughter to be no virgin; but these are the evidences of her virginity.' The father and the mother shall then spread the garment before the elders of the city <sup>18</sup>and the elders of the city are to take the man and chastise him; <sup>19</sup>and, in addition, they shall fine him a hundred silver dollars, which they are to give to the girl's father, because the man has brought an evil name upon a virgin of Israel; moreover, the girl shall remain his wife; he may not divorce her as long as he lives. <sup>20</sup>But if his charges prove to be correct and no evidence of chastity has been found in the girl, <sup>21</sup>then they shall bring her out to the door of her father's house, and the men of her city shall stone her to death; she has committed a flagrant crime in Israel, playing the harlot in her own home, and you must purge such evil from among you.

<sup>22</sup>"When a man is surprised abed with a married woman, they shall both die, the man who lay with the woman and the woman too; you shall wipe out the evil from Israel.

<sup>23</sup>"When a man comes upon a girl in the city, who is a virgin betrothed to another, and he lies with her, <sup>24</sup>you shall bring them both to the gate of the city and stone them to death, the girl because she did not cry out, although the city was all about her, and the man because he violated his neighbor's wife. You shall purge such evil from among you. <sup>25</sup>But if the man comes upon the betrothed girl in the open field and seizes her to lie with her, then the man alone shall die. <sup>26</sup>You must do nothing to the girl, for there is no sin in her to deserve death; for it is as when a man attacks his neighbor and murders him; <sup>27</sup>the man found her in the open country; the betrothed girl cried out for help, but there was no one to hear her. <sup>28</sup>If, however, a man comes upon a girl who is a virgin and not betrothed and lays hold upon her and lies with her and they are discovered, <sup>29</sup>then the man must pay her father fifty silver dollars, and she shall become his wife, because he has dishonored her, and he shall not divorce her all his days.

<sup>30</sup>"A man shall not marry his father's wife<sup>v</sup> nor lie with her; she belongs to his father.

23 "NO ONE WHOSE TESTICLES HAVE been crushed or his male organ severed shall enter the LORD's congregation; <sup>2</sup>neither may a bastard enter the LORD's congregation to his tenth generation.<sup>w</sup> <sup>3</sup>No Ammonite or Moabite<sup>x</sup> shall enter the congregation of the LORD down to the tenth generation; <sup>4</sup>because they did not meet you with bread and water on your way from

s) The flat roof was a preferred part of the house. In the summer the people lived and slept on the roof; a parapet was needed for protection. t) Man should use them as God made them. Isa. 28:25,26. u) Tassels served to remind them that they were the people of God and must keep His commandments, Num. 15:38,39. v) Not his mother.

w) Israel's religious attitudes and observances were never part-religious and part-secular. Such mutilations were probably associated with pagan practices; bodily mutilations self-induced, were abhorrent to the LORD, 14:1.

x) Throughout history there was hostility between these two nations and Israel.

Egypt, and because they hired Balaam the son of Beor from Pethor in Mesopotamia, to curse you. <sup>5</sup>However, the LORD your God did not listen to Balaam,<sup>y</sup> and the LORD your God turned the curse into a blessing, because the LORD your God loved you. <sup>6</sup>Never in all your days may you seek their peace or prosperity. <sup>7</sup>The Edomite you must not detest; for he is your brother;<sup>z</sup> nor should you abhor the Egyptian, for you were once an immigrant in his country. <sup>8</sup>Their children of the third generation may enter the assembly of the LORD.

<sup>9</sup>"When you are in camp in time of war, you must guard against every evil thing. <sup>10</sup>If anyone becomes unclean through an emission in the night, let him go outside the camp and not come back all day, <sup>11</sup>but let him wash and return to camp at sundown.

<sup>12</sup>"You shall set off a place outside the camp <sup>13</sup>and, when you go out to use it, you must carry a spade among your gear and dig a hole, have easement, and turn to cover the excrement. <sup>14</sup>For the LORD your God walks among you to deliver you, to give you the victory, and your entire camp must be dedicated, so that He may see nothing indecent anywhere, so as to withdraw from you.

<sup>15</sup>"When a slave escapes from his master and takes refuge with you,<sup>a</sup> you must not hand him back to his master. <sup>16</sup>Let him remain among you anywhere he may choose, and you must not mistreat him.

<sup>17</sup>"No daughter in Israel, nor any son, may become a temple prostitute;<sup>b</sup> <sup>18</sup>nor may you bring into the house of the LORD your God the hire of a harlot or the earnings of a dog,<sup>c</sup> for the payment of any vow; for both are abhorrent to the LORD your God.

<sup>19</sup>"You must charge no interest on a loan made to your brother, no interest on money, food, or anything on which interest might be charged. <sup>20</sup>On a loan to a foreigner, you may charge interest, but not from your brother. Charge no interest, so that the LORD your God may bless you in all your enterprises in the land of which you are taking possession.

<sup>21</sup>"When you make a vow to the LORD, you shall pay it without delay; for the LORD your God will require it, and to be slow in paying it would be your sin. <sup>22</sup>However, if you refrain from making a vow, that is no sin. <sup>23</sup>Perform any solemn word your lips have spoken; keep the promise you have made to the LORD your God of your own free will and which you have personally expressed.

<sup>24</sup>"When you enter the vineyard of your neighbor, you may eat all the grapes you want, but you must not put any in your vessel. <sup>25</sup>As you walk through your neighbor's grainfield, you may pluck the heads of grain in your hand, but you must not thrust a sickle into the standing grain of your neighbor.

24 "WHEN A MAN HAS MARRIED A wife and comes to dislike her, having found something improper in her, and he writes her a bill of divorce and, putting it in her hand, <sup>2</sup>sends her from his house, and she goes off and becomes the wife of another, <sup>3</sup>and her second husband, likewise comes to hate her and also gives her a bill of divorce and sends her away, or if the second husband dies, <sup>4</sup>in such case, the man who first divorced her, may not take her again to be his wife, for she has been defiled;<sup>d</sup> such practice is abhorrent to the LORD, and you must not bring such guilt upon the land which the LORD your God is giving you for your heritage.

<sup>5</sup>"When a man has just taken a wife, he shall not go out with the army to war, nor shall any active service be required of him; he shall be free at home one year to enjoy happiness with the wife he has chosen.

<sup>6</sup>"No person shall take a hand mill,

y) For the story of Balaam see Num. 22,23,24. z) Edom's ancestor was Esau.

a) In this case the slave of a foreigner.

b) This immorality was common at pagan shrines; nor was Israel always guiltless, Amos 2:7,8.

c) The term "dog" was used of the male prostitute or catamite.

d) This is not a law of divorce; it simply defines a specific situation. Divorce was very common in Israel, as in the rest of the Semitic world. A man could divorce his wife on the slightest grounds; but a woman could not divorce her husband. Deuteronomy law seeks to limit divorce and prevent its abuse.

or the upper millstone in pledge for a debt, for it involves taking life itself in pledge.

<sup>7</sup>"If anyone is caught kidnapping a brother in Israel and lording it over him or selling him, that thief shall die; you shall remove such evil from among you.

<sup>8</sup>"In an attack of leprosy, be exceedingly concerned to do exactly as the Levitical priests instruct you to do, following the orders I have given them. <sup>9</sup>Remember what the LORD your God did to Miriam on your way out from Egypt.<sup>9</sup>

<sup>10</sup>"When you make a loan of any kind to your neighbor, do not enter his house to carry off his pledge;<sup>11</sup> you shall stand outdoors until the man to whom you made the loan can bring his pledge to you. <sup>12</sup>If he is a poor man, do not sleep in what he gives you for security; <sup>13</sup>you must return it to him by sundown so that he may sleep in his own coat. He will bless you, and it will be righteousness to you before the LORD your God.

<sup>14</sup>"Do not deal harshly with your hired man who is needy and poor, whether one of your brothers, or one of the immigrants in your community; <sup>15</sup>pay him his daily wages before sundown, for he is in need, and his heart is set on it; lest he cry out to the LORD against you, and it become sin in you.

<sup>16</sup>"Fathers shall not be put to death for their sons, nor sons for their fathers; each shall be executed for his own crime.<sup>16</sup>

<sup>17</sup>"Do not violate the rights of the immigrant or of the orphan, nor take a widow's dress in pledge. <sup>18</sup>Remember that you were a slave in Egypt and that the LORD your God redeemed you; wherefore, I am laying this command upon you.

<sup>19</sup>"When you bring in your harvest and forget a sheaf in the field, do not go back for it; leave it for the immigrant, the orphan, and the widow, that the LORD your God may bless you in all your activities. <sup>20</sup>When you beat your olive trees, do not go over the branches a second time; leave what is still on the trees for the immigrant, the orphan, and the widow. <sup>21</sup>When you pick grapes from your vineyard, do not get the gleanings later, for they go to the immigrant, the fatherless, and the widow. <sup>22</sup>Remember that you were slaves in Egypt; wherefore I am laying the command upon you to do this.

25 "WHEN A DISPUTE ARISES BETWEEN men and they take their case to court to obtain judicial decision, the judge may acquit the innocent and condemn the guilty. <sup>2</sup>If the judge finds the guilty one deserving of stripes, he shall order him to lie down in his presence to receive the number of stripes he deserves. <sup>3</sup>The number may be as high as 40, but no more, lest too many stripes are administered and a brother suffers gross public humiliation.<sup>b</sup>

<sup>4</sup>"You shall not muzzle the ox when he treads out the grain.<sup>1</sup>

<sup>5</sup>"When brothers are living together and one of them dies without leaving a son, his widow must not go outside the family and marry a stranger; her husband's brother shall go in to her and shall take her to be his wife and perform the duties of a husband's brother to her. <sup>6</sup>The first son born of this union shall carry the deceased brother's name, so that his line may not be blotted out from Israel.<sup>1</sup> <sup>7</sup>But if the man declines to take his brother's wife, then she shall carry her case to the elders in the gate and testify, 'My husband's brother refuses to perpetuate his

e) Num. 12:1-16.

f) The pledge was something given as surety for a loan, a garment, a utensil, anything the creditor would accept. The poor could offer little choice. sometimes all a man had was the mantle or robe he slept in.

g) In earlier times the moral unit was the community or family. Many children died for the crimes of their fathers. In Israel the idea of individual responsibility for crime was taught, see also Jer. 31:29,30 and Ezek. 18:3,4.

h) This law is peculiar to Deuteronomy and reflects the general attitude of the book — the punishment to come only after trial, and in accord with sentence pronounced. Later, stripes were limited to forty less one to eliminate abuse.

i) The unmuzzled ox will go slower while feeding, but he is earning his living.

j) This law is found in Deuteronomy only, but the practice was widespread in ancient times, see Gen. 38. So that his family may not die out, and a man shall perform this duty to his deceased brother, come what may of his own rights.

brother's name in Israel and to perform the duty of a husband's brother.' <sup>8</sup>The elders of his city shall then summon him and counsel with him, and if he persists in declining to marry his sister-in-law, saying, 'It is not my desire to take her,'<sup>k</sup> <sup>9</sup>then in the presence of the elders, his brother's wife shall go up to him, loosen his sandal from his foot, spit in his face, and give answer to him in these words, 'So shall it be done to the man who refuses to build up his brother's house.' <sup>10</sup>And his name shall be known in Israel as 'the family of the unshod.'

<sup>11</sup>"When two men are fighting and the wife of one of them rushes in to save her husband from the one who is beating him and she reaches out and seizes his assailant by the private parts, <sup>12</sup>then you shall cut off her hand without compassion for her.

<sup>13</sup>"Do not carry about weights of different sizes, one large and one small; <sup>14</sup>nor may you keep about the house two different measures, a large bushel and a small bushel. <sup>15</sup>A full and just weight and a full and just measure they must be, so that you may enjoy long life in the land which the LORD your God gives you. <sup>16</sup>For every one practicing unfairness is abominable to the LORD your God.

<sup>17</sup>"Remember what Amalek did to you when you came on your way out of Egypt, <sup>18</sup>how without awe for God, he came against you on your journey, when you were weary and exhausted, and he cut off all who lagged behind. <sup>19</sup>Therefore it shall be when the LORD your God has granted you rest from all your enemies in the land He gives you as your heritage, you shall blot out the memory of Amalek from under heaven; you must not forget.

26 "WHEN YOU ENTER THE LAND which the LORD your God is giving you to inherit, and you take possession of it, making it your home, <sup>2</sup>then select some of the first of all the fruits of the soil, what you harvest from the land which the LORD your God gives you; put them in a basket, and carry them up to the place the LORD your God will be selecting as the dwelling place of His name. <sup>3</sup>When you reach the priest, who shall be serving at the time, you shall say: 'I here declare to the LORD my God that I have now entered the land which the LORD swore to our fathers to give us.' <sup>4</sup>The priest shall take the basket from your hand and set it before the altar of the LORD.<sup>1</sup>

<sup>5</sup>"When he has done so, you shall bear witness before the LORD your God, giving this testimony, 'A wandering Aramean<sup>m</sup> was my father. He went down into Egypt, few in number, and there he resided as an immigrant, but he became there a great, a powerful and populous nation. <sup>6</sup>When the Egyptians treated us harshly, oppressing us and subjecting us to heavy bondage, <sup>7</sup>we cried out to the LORD the God of our fathers, and the LORD heard our cry, saw our affliction, our toil and our oppression; <sup>8</sup>so the LORD brought us out from Egypt with a mighty hand, an outstretched arm, an awe-inspiring terror with signs and wonders. <sup>9</sup>He conducted us to this place and gave us this land flowing with milk and honey. <sup>10</sup>Now behold, I have brought the first of the fruits of the ground which Thou LORD hast bestowed upon me.' Set the basket down before the LORD your God, <sup>11</sup>bow in worship before the LORD your God, and rejoice because of all the goodness which the LORD your God has heaped upon you and your house, together with the Levite and the alien among you.

<sup>12</sup>"When you have finished setting apart all the tithes of your harvest in the third year, the year of tithing, and have distributed them to the Levite, the immigrant, the orphan, and the widow among you, and they have partaken of them in your towns and have enough, <sup>13</sup>then you shall say before the LORD

k) Ruth 4 shows this rule practiced.

l) This chapter's three sections provide a fitting climax to the great Lawbook of Deut. 5-26. Vss. 5-11 are words of adoration and acts of thanksgiving; vss. 12-15 mean heartfelt benevolence with prayer for divine benediction; vss. 16-19 affirm the worshiper's covenant with God.

m) Or Syrian, Syria and Aram being the same country.

your God,<sup>n</sup> 'I have removed from my house the consecrated portion and have given it to the Levite, the immigrant, the orphan, and the widow, as Thou didst command me. I have transgressed none of the orders Thou hast laid upon me, nor have I forgotten them.<sup>o</sup> <sup>14</sup>I have not eaten of it while in mourning; I have not removed any of it while unclean, nor have I offered any for the dead; I have listened to the voice of the LORD my God; I have behaved according to all that Thou hast enjoined upon me.<sup>p</sup> <sup>15</sup>Look down, O LORD, from Thy holy habitation, from heaven, and bless Thy people Israel and the ground Thou hast given us, a land flowing with milk and honey which Thou didst promise on oath to our fathers.'

<sup>16</sup>'This day the LORD your God commands you to observe His statutes and ordinances; so observe them with all your heart and with all your soul. <sup>17</sup>Today you have openly accepted the word of the LORD, that He is your God and that you will walk in His ways, heed His statutes, His commandments, His ordinances, and listen to His voice. <sup>18</sup>Today the LORD's agreement with you is that you will be His own people, as He promised and, that you shall keep all His commandments, <sup>19</sup>then He will place you in praise, in renown, in honor, high above all the nations He has created, a people holy to the LORD your God, as He has spoken.'<sup>q</sup>

27 MOSES, WITH THE ELDERS<sup>r</sup> OF Israel, laid this charge upon the people, "Keep all the commandments which I am today enjoining upon you. <sup>2</sup>On the day you cross the Jordan into the land which the LORD your God is giving you, erect for you large stones, plaster them with plaster, <sup>3</sup>and inscribe on them all the words of this Law after your crossing over, so you may enter the land which the LORD your God is giving you, a land flowing with milk and honey, as the LORD the God of your fathers promised you. <sup>4</sup>When you have crossed the Jordan, you shall set up these stones as I order you to do, on Mount Ebal, and coat them with plaster. <sup>5</sup>Moreover, you shall build there an altar<sup>s</sup> to the LORD your God, an altar of stones which no iron has touched. <sup>6</sup>You must build the altar of the LORD your God of undressed stones, and on it you shall offer burnt offerings to the LORD your God; <sup>7</sup>you shall sacrifice peace offerings and there you shall eat and rejoice in the presence of the LORD your God. <sup>8</sup>You shall write very distinctly on the stones all the words of this Law."

<sup>9</sup>Then Moses with the Levitical priests spoke to all Israel, "Be still, Israel, and listen! This day you have become the people of the LORD your God. <sup>10</sup>You shall obey the voice of the LORD your God and observe His commandments and His statutes which I am now enjoining upon you."

<sup>11</sup>Moreover, Moses laid this charge upon the people that same day, <sup>12</sup>"When you have crossed the Jordan, these (tribes) shall stand on Mount Gerizim to bless the people, Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, Joseph, and Benjamin. <sup>13</sup>And these shall stand upon Mount Ebal for the curse, Reuben, Gad, Asher, Zebulun, Dan, and Naphtali.<sup>t</sup> <sup>14</sup>And the Levites shall make this proclamation to all the men of Israel in a loud voice:

<sup>15</sup>"<sup>u</sup>'Cursed' be the man who makes a carved or a molten image, an abhor-

n) The recital to take place at the central sanctuary.

o) For two years the annual tithe was to be taken to the central sanctuary, there in the presence of the LORD to be enjoyed by the family, and the Levite of their community. In the third year the tithe was stored for distribution to the poor.

p) When the tithe for the poor is set apart, it becomes holy and must not be used for common purposes. q) The Law has now been given in its completeness; Israel's responsibility of keeping it is her covenant with God.

r) Upon 70 of them the Spirit had come, so they might share with Moses the guidance of the people.

s) All pagan altars, which included all Canaanite altars, must be destroyed. This altar seems to have been used for this occasion only; but it stood for a historic event, the taking of the land, as workers together with God.

t) Four sons of Leah and Rachel's two sons are represented on the mount of blessing. The four sons of the two concubines stand on the mount of cursing with Reuben, who had forfeited the blessings, and for some reason, Zebulun.

u) Very appropriately the curses are spoken first as warnings; then the blessings for the true worshippers of God.

rence to the LORD, the handiwork of a craftsman, and sets it up in secret! And all the people shall respond, 'Amen!'

16" 'Cursed be he who despises his father or his mother!' And all the people shall say, 'Amen!'

17" 'Cursed be he who removes his neighbor's landmark!' And all the people shall say, 'Amen!'

18" 'Cursed be he who misleads a blind man on the road!' And all the people shall say, 'Amen!'

19" 'Cursed be he who perverts the justice due an alien, an orphan, or a widow!' And all the people shall say, 'Amen!'

20" 'Cursed be he who lies with his father's wife, because he uncovers her who belongs to his father!' And all the people shall say, 'Amen!'

21" 'Cursed be he who lies with any kind of animal!' And all the people shall say, 'Amen!'

22" 'Cursed be he who lies with his sister, the daughter of his father or the daughter of his mother!' And all the people shall say, 'Amen!'

23" 'Cursed be he who lies with his mother-in-law!' And all the people shall say, 'Amen!'

24" 'Cursed be he who secretly slays his neighbor!' And all the people shall say, 'Amen!'

25" 'Cursed be he who accepts a bribe to murder an innocent person!' And all the people shall say, 'Amen!'

26" 'Cursed be he who does not confirm the words of this Law by doing them!' And all the people shall say, 'Amen!'

28 "IT SHALL BE, IF YOU WILL LISTEN carefully to the voice of the LORD your God and seek fully to carry out all His commandments which I enjoin upon you today, then the LORD your God will set you high above all the nations of the earth. <sup>2</sup>All these blessings will overtake you and rest upon you — if you obey the voice of the LORD your God:<sup>w</sup>

<sup>3</sup>"Blessed shall you be in the city, and blessed shall you be in the field.

<sup>4</sup>"Blessed shall be the fruit of your body and the fruit of your soil, the fruit also of your livestock, the increase of your herds, and the young of your flocks.

<sup>5</sup>"Blessed shall be your baskets and your kneading trough.

<sup>6</sup>"Blessed shall you be when you come in, and blessed shall you be when you go out.

<sup>7</sup>"The LORD will surrender your enemies who rise up against you to be smitten before you; one way they shall come out against you, and seven ways they shall flee before you. <sup>8</sup>The LORD will command His benediction upon you in your barns, and in every activity of your hands; thus He will bless you in the land which the LORD your God is giving you. <sup>9</sup>The LORD will establish you as a people dedicated to Himself, as He swore to you, if you keep the commandments of the LORD your God and walk in His ways. <sup>10</sup>Then all the nations of the earth will see that you are called by the LORD's name, that you are His people, and they will stand in awe of you. <sup>11</sup>The LORD will grant you an abundance of good things, in the fruit of your body, in the increase of your cattle, and in the produce of your soil, in the land which He has sworn to give you. <sup>12</sup>The LORD will open for you His rich treasury, the heavens to give rain upon your soil in its season, blessings to rest on all your enterprises. You shall lend to many nations while you yourselves borrow from none. <sup>13</sup>The LORD will make you the head and not the tail; you shall be moving ever higher up and never lower down when you obey the commandments of the LORD your God, which I am enjoining upon you this day, carefully performing them, <sup>14</sup>never turning to the right or to the left, and

v) These 12 curses apply to personal conduct, rather than to national sins. The warnings are all-inclusive. Every listener is vitally concerned.

w) This chapter concludes the great Law Book, the plea to the nation to be true to God, who has redeemed her, giving her a great land where she may become a nation such as history had not known. Her future will bring showers of blessing, if she is loyal to God. If she is not, all will conspire to defeat her.

DEUTERONOMY 28

never following after other gods to worship them.<sup>x</sup>

<sup>15</sup>“However, if you do not listen to the voice of the LORD your God, not observing and obeying all His commandments and His statutes with which I am now charging you, then all these curses shall follow you and overtake you: <sup>16</sup>Cursed shall you be in the city, and cursed shall you be in the field. <sup>17</sup>Cursed shall be your basket and your kneading trough. <sup>18</sup>Cursed shall be the fruit of your body, the produce of your soil, the offspring of your cattle and the young of your flock. <sup>19</sup>Cursed shall you be when you come in, and cursed shall you be when you go out.

<sup>20</sup>“The LORD will send curses upon you, confusion and failure in every enterprise to which you put your hand, until you are destroyed and perish quickly, because of your evil-doing in which you are forsaking Me.<sup>y</sup> <sup>21</sup>The LORD will make the pestilence cleave to you until He obliterates you from the land, which you are entering to possess it. <sup>22</sup>The LORD will smite you with tuberculosis, with fever, with inflammation, with fiery heat, with drought, with blight and with mildew, and they shall pursue you until you perish. <sup>23</sup>The heavens above your head will be brass and the earth beneath you will be iron. <sup>24</sup>For rain the LORD will give your land powder and dust; from heaven above they will descend upon you until you perish.

<sup>25</sup>“The LORD will cause your defeat before your enemies; you shall go out one way against them and flee seven ways before them, and you shall be a horrible spectacle to all the kingdoms of the earth. <sup>26</sup>Your corpses shall become food for the birds of the air and the beasts of the earth, and there shall be none to frighten them away.

<sup>27</sup>“The LORD will smite you with the boils of Egypt, with tumors, with scurvy and with incurable itch. <sup>28</sup>The LORD will strike you with madness, with blindness, and with confusion.

Disobedience Brings Famine, Disease

<sup>29</sup>You shall be groping at noonday, as a blind man gropes in the dark, and you shall not prosper in your ways. You shall be oppressed and robbed continually with no one to rescue you.

<sup>30</sup>You shall betroth a wife and another man shall lie with her; you shall build a house and not live in it; you shall plant a vineyard and not use its fruits; <sup>31</sup>your ox shall be slain before your eyes, but you shall not eat of it; your donkey shall be seized in your presence and taken from you and not be returned; your sheep shall be given to your foes, and no one will help you.

<sup>32</sup>Moreover, your sons and your daughters shall be handed over to another people, while you look on, and you will pine after them all the day long, powerless to do anything. <sup>33</sup>The produce of your soil and all that you have worked for shall be consumed by a people you do not know, and you shall be continually oppressed and trampled on. <sup>34</sup>You shall be driven mad by the sight of all you observe. <sup>35</sup>The LORD will smite you on your knees and on your legs, from the sole of your foot to the crown of your head with malignant, incurable sores. <sup>36</sup>The LORD will bring you and your king, whom you will set over you, to a nation which neither you nor your fathers have known, and there you shall serve other gods, wood and stone, <sup>37</sup>and you shall become an object of horror, a proverb, and a byword, among all the peoples into whose midst the LORD will lead you.

<sup>38</sup>“You shall carry much seed into the field but gather in little; for locusts will devour it. <sup>39</sup>You shall plant vineyards and cultivate them, but you shall neither drink the wine nor preserve it; for worms will devour the grapes. <sup>40</sup>You shall have olive trees everywhere, but you shall not anoint yourselves with the oil; for your olives will drop from your trees. <sup>41</sup>Sons and daughters shall be born to you, but you will not retain them; for they shall go into captivity. <sup>42</sup>All your trees and your crops will be taken over by locusts. <sup>43</sup>The alien in your midst shall mount above you higher and higher while you go down lower and lower. <sup>44</sup>He shall lend to you, but you shall not lend to him; he will be the head, and you shall be the tail. <sup>45</sup>All these curses shall come upon you; they shall pursue you and overtake you, and you shall be destroyed, because you refused to listen to the voice of the LORD your God; you declined to keep His commandments and His statutes which He ordered you. <sup>46</sup>They shall be upon you and upon your descendants for a sign and a wonder forever.

<sup>x</sup>) The blessings and the curses were first announced in ch. 11:26-28, later to be declared in a ritual service, on Mount Gerizim for the blessings, and on Mount Ebal for the curses.

<sup>y</sup>) Take note of the “Me” here; the words of Moses passing almost unobserved into those of God, as often in the Prophets; see ch. 11:14, 15; 17:3; 29:5.

<sup>47</sup>"Because you have not served the LORD your God with joy and a glad heart for all your rich abundance, <sup>48</sup>you shall, in hunger and thirst, in nakedness and in want of everything, serve your enemies whom the LORD will send against you, and He will put a yoke of iron upon your neck until He has destroyed you. <sup>49</sup>The LORD will bring against you a nation from afar, from the ends of the earth, swooping down upon you like a vulture, a nation whose speech you do not understand, <sup>50a</sup>a nation of fierce appearance, which shows neither personal regard for the old nor mercy to the young, <sup>51</sup>which shall eat up the offspring of your cattle and the produce of your soil, and you shall perish; it will leave you nothing, neither grain, nor wine, nor oil, nor the increase of your herd, nor the young of your flock, until it has destroyed you.

<sup>52</sup>"They will lay siege to all your cities until your high, fortified walls, in which you put your trust, come down all over the land; they will besiege you in every community throughout the land which the LORD your God has given you, <sup>53</sup>so that in the siege and distress with which your enemies will plague you, you will be eating the fruit of your own bosom, the flesh of your sons and daughters, whom the LORD your God has given you. <sup>54</sup>The most refined man among you, the one with the most kindly nature, will turn grudgingly toward his brother, toward the wife of his bosom and toward his remaining children who may be left to him, <sup>55</sup>so that he will give them nothing of the flesh of his children, which he will be eating; since the enemy has left him nothing at all in the siege, nothing but dire adversity with which your enemy shall plague you in every city. <sup>56</sup>The woman, too, who is the most tender among you, who is of such delicate nature that she would not venture to set the sole of her foot on the ground because she is so dainty and delicate, such a one will show a grudging attitude toward the husband of her bosom, toward her son and her daughter, <sup>57</sup>sharing nothing with them, not even the afterbirth from her womb and her own children whom she may bear; these she will eat secretly because of her hunger, having nothing else in the time of siege and distress, wherewith your enemies will oppress you in your communities.

<sup>58</sup>"Indeed, if you are not careful to observe all the requirements of this Law, written in this book, to revere the glorious and awesome name of the LORD your God, <sup>59</sup>then the LORD will bring on you and on your descendants extraordinary plagues, severe and lasting, and diseases, trying and prolonged. <sup>60</sup>He will bring back upon you all the diseases of Egypt, so dreaded by you, and they will cling to you. <sup>61</sup>Every sickness, too, and every pestilence not mentioned in this book of the Law, the LORD will put upon you until you are destroyed. <sup>62</sup>You shall remain few in number, you who were as the stars of heaven for multitude, because you did not obey the voice of the LORD your God. <sup>63</sup>As it was agreeable to the LORD to make you prosper and multiply, so it will be agreeable to the LORD to make you perish, and He will glory in your destruction. You shall be torn away from the land which you are entering to possess. <sup>64</sup>The LORD will scatter you among all the peoples, from one end of the earth to the other; and there you shall serve other gods, wood and stone, whom neither you nor your fathers have known.<sup>2</sup> <sup>65</sup>Among those nations you shall have no ease, nor shall you find a resting place for the sole of your foot. There the LORD will give you a trembling heart, homesick eyes, and a languishing spirit; <sup>66</sup>you will sense danger night and day, your life in suspense, having no life security whatever. <sup>67</sup>In the morning you shall say, 'O that it were evening!' and in the evening you shall say, 'O that it were morning!' because of the dread weariness of soul which you will experience, and the spectacle before your eyes. <sup>68</sup>The LORD will bring you back in ships to Egypt, by the way I said you would never see again, and there you shall allow yourselves to be sold to your enemies as slaves, male and female, but there will be no buyer."

<sup>2</sup>) For nearly two hundred years the later Prophets kept warning Israel of doom, if she did not turn and follow God's demands for righteousness, and worship Him alone. Doom caught up with the northern kingdom in 722 B.C., and Judah knew from 605 on what it meant to be a conquered people.

29<sup>a</sup> SUCH ARE THE TERMS OF THE covenant which the LORD commanded Moses to make with the Israelites in the land of Moab, besides the covenant He had made with them in Horeb. <sup>2</sup>So Moses summoned all Israel and said to them, "You have seen everything the LORD did before your eyes in the land of Egypt, to Pharaoh and all his court and to his whole kingdom; <sup>3</sup>the great tests which your own eyes beheld, the signs and those great wonders; <sup>4</sup>yet to this day the LORD has not given you a mind to understand, nor eyes to see, nor ears to hear.<sup>b</sup> <sup>5</sup>Through forty years I have led you in the wilderness; your clothes have not worn out upon you, nor have your sandals worn away from your feet.<sup>c</sup> <sup>6</sup>Bread you have not eaten, wine or strong drink you have not drunk, that you may know that I am the LORD your God. <sup>7</sup>When you came to this place, Sihon, king of Heshbon, and Og, king of Bashan, came out against us to battle, and we defeated them; <sup>8</sup>we seized their land and gave it as their heritage to the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half tribe of Manasseh. <sup>9</sup>Take care, then, to observe the terms of this covenant to do them, that you may prosper in all you undertake.

<sup>10</sup>"You stand today, all of you, before the LORD your God; your tribal heads, your elders, and your officers, all the men of Israel, <sup>11</sup>your children, your wives, the aliens in your camp, from your woodcutter to your water drawer, <sup>12</sup>so that you may enter into the oath-sealed covenant of the LORD your God, which He is making with you now <sup>13</sup>in order that He may establish you today as His people, and that He may be your God, as He promised and as He swore to your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob. <sup>14</sup>And not with you alone, He affirms, am I making this oath-sealed covenant, <sup>15</sup>but with those also who are not with us here today,<sup>d</sup> as well as with those who stand with us today in the presence of the LORD our God.

<sup>16</sup>"For you know how we lived in the land of Egypt; you recall the nations through whose territory you passed on your way here; <sup>17</sup>you saw their detestable things, their idols, wood and stone, silver and gold, that were among them. <sup>18</sup>Let there not be among you a man or a woman, a family or a tribe, whose heart is even now turning from the LORD our God to go and serve the gods of those peoples. Let there not be among you any root which could produce such poison and wormwood: <sup>19</sup>as when a man, upon hearing the terms of this sworn covenant, congratulates himself in his heart, thinking, 'I am safe, even though I persist in my stubborn way.'<sup>e</sup> This would mean destruction of the watered (land) and the dry. <sup>20</sup>The LORD will not agree to forgive him, but His anger and His jealousy will burn against that man, and every curse written in this book will cleave to him; the LORD will blot

a) Ch. 29,30 belong together and constitute the fourth discourse, a supplementary appeal to the nation not to fail now in her significant undertaking to build for herself a new world and a new life under God.

b) This verse breaks into the narrative to say that Israel lacks the spiritual insight to discern the significance of all that the LORD is doing for her.

c) Those completing the desert journey were fully as well clad and as well shod as those who started it 40 years before. What had been worn out had been liberally replaced. d) Future Israelites.

e) The covenant is not magic. Such an idolatrous course, even after entering the covenant, can only bring destruction to land and people. This is Moses' way of showing Israel how impossible it will always be for her to worship any but the LORD God.

out his name from under heaven. <sup>21</sup>He will set him apart from all the tribes of Israel for evil, according to all the curses of the covenant written in this book of the law. <sup>22</sup>Then the next generation, your children who rise up after you, and the foreigner who comes from a distant land, shall say, when they see the plagues of this country and the diseases which the LORD has inflicted upon it — <sup>23</sup>the whole land brimstone and salt, a burning waste, not sown, producing nothing, no vegetation coming up in it, like the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah, Admah and Zeboim, which the LORD overturned in His anger and indignation — <sup>24</sup>indeed, all the nations will wonder and say, 'Why has the LORD done so to this land? Why this great, hot anger?' <sup>25</sup>And the answer will be, 'Because they forsook the covenant of the LORD, the God of their fathers, which He made with them when He brought them out from the land of Egypt; <sup>26</sup>they went and served other gods and bowed down to them, gods whom they had not known and whom He had not given them. <sup>27</sup>The anger of the LORD blazed out against that land, bringing upon it every curse written in the book of the law; <sup>28</sup>the LORD plucked them up from off their land in anger, in fury, and in great wrath, and flung them into another land as you see them today.'

<sup>29</sup>The secret things belong to the LORD our God; but the things revealed belong to us and to our children forever, that we may practice all the words of this law.<sup>f</sup>

30 "IT SHALL BE WHEN YOU HAVE experienced all these things, the blessings and the curses which I have laid before you, and you recall them to mind among all the nations where the LORD your God shall have driven you, <sup>2</sup>and you return to the LORD your God and listen to His voice, according to all that I command you, both you and your children, with your whole heart and your whole soul, <sup>3</sup>then the LORD your God will restore your fortune and have compassion on you, gathering you out from among the peoples where the LORD your God shall have scattered you. <sup>4</sup>Yes, even if you are scattered to the ends of the heavens, the LORD your God will gather you and fetch you from there; <sup>5</sup>and the LORD your God will bring you back to the land of your fathers so that you shall possess it,<sup>h</sup> He will grant you prosperity and make you more numerous than your fathers were. <sup>6</sup>The LORD your God will circumcise your heart<sup>i</sup> and the heart of your offspring, and you will love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul, so that you will live. <sup>7</sup>The LORD your God will put all these curses on your enemies and on those who hated and persecuted you. <sup>8</sup>But you must again obey the voice of the LORD and practice all His commandments which I now lay upon you. <sup>9</sup>The LORD your God will prosper you abundantly in the work of your hands, in the fruit of your body, in the fruit of your livestock, and in the produce of your soil; for the LORD will again delight in your prosperity, as He took delight in your fathers; <sup>10</sup>if, indeed, you listen to the voice of the LORD your God to keep His commandments and His statutes which are written in this book of the law, when you turn to the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul.

<sup>11</sup>"For this command which I am enjoining upon you today is not too difficult for you; neither is it far-off. <sup>12</sup>It is not in heaven, that you should say, 'Who will go up for us to heaven and bring it down to make us hear it, so

f) Keep in mind that these warnings are given as the people face the Jordan to enter the promised land.
g) They and we must live by what He has taught. In this chapter, Moses adds his own appeal to what had been written in the book of the law. The experiences in Egypt and in the desert are abiding proofs of God's solicitude for His people. Each man's apostasy will bring ruin, not merely on himself, but also on the nation.

h) Israel had her choice, blessings or curses. When she chose the latter she suffered the penalty, which was exile. In the goodness of God, she will be given a second chance.

i) In Hebrew psychology the seat of thought, the intellect, was the heart. A circumcised heart was an open mind, receptive to the Spirit; it would be moved by the touch of God upon it to love Him, Ch. 10:16; Jer. 4:4; Rom. 2:29.

we may do it?' <sup>13</sup>Nor is it beyond the sea, that you should say, 'Who will cross the seas for us and bring it to us to make us hear it, so we may do it?' <sup>14</sup>No, the word is very near you, on your lips and in your heart in order that you may do it.<sup>1</sup>

<sup>15</sup>"See, I have set before you today life and good, death and evil, <sup>16</sup>in that I command you today to love the LORD your God, to walk in His ways, to keep His commandments, His statutes, and His judgments, so that you may live and multiply, and that the LORD your God may bless you in the land which you are about to possess. <sup>17</sup>But if your heart turns away and you do not obey, but are drawn away and worship other gods and serve them, <sup>18</sup>I announce to you now that you shall certainly perish; you shall live only briefly in the land, which after crossing the Jordan, you will make your own. <sup>19</sup>I call heaven and earth to witness against you that I have set before you life and death, the blessing and the curse: Therefore choose life, so that you may live, you and your children, <sup>20</sup>to love the LORD your God, to obey His voice, and to cling to Him; for that is your life and your length of days, that you may dwell upon the land which the LORD swore to give to your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob."

March, 1406 B.C.

31 THEN MOSES WENT AND SPOKE these words to all Israel. <sup>2</sup>He said to them, "I am now 120 years old and am no longer able to go out and come in, and the LORD has told me, You are not to cross the Jordan. <sup>3</sup>The LORD your God will Himself cross over before you; He will destroy the nations from before you, and you shall dispossess them; Joshua, too, will be crossing before you, as the LORD promised. <sup>4</sup>The LORD will do to them as He did to Sihon and to Og, the kings of the Amorites, and to their country, when He destroyed them. <sup>5</sup>The LORD will hand them over to you, and you must dispose of them in agreement with the whole commandment which I have ordered you. <sup>6</sup>Be strong and courageous; have no fear, nor be at all in dread on their account; for it is the LORD your God who is going with you; He will neither fail you nor forsake you."

<sup>7</sup>Moses then called Joshua and said to him in the presence of all Israel, "Be strong and courageous, for you will go with this people into the land which the LORD swore to their fathers to give them; and you shall make them inherit it. <sup>8</sup>The LORD is the One who goes before you, and He will be with you; He will not fail you or forsake you; be not afraid or dismayed."

<sup>9</sup>When Moses had written this law, he gave it to the priests, the sons of Levi, who carried the Ark of the Covenant of the LORD, and to all the elders of Israel. <sup>10</sup>He also gave them the command, "At the end of every seven years, in the year of release, at the feast of booths,<sup>k</sup> <sup>11</sup>when all Israel comes to appear before the LORD your God at the sacred place which He shall choose, you must read this law in the hearing of all Israel. <sup>12</sup>Call the people together, men, women, children, and the foreigner who lives in your community, that they may hear and may learn to revere the LORD your God, and be careful to practice all the words of this law; <sup>13</sup>likewise that their children, who have not known it, may hear it and learn to revere the LORD your God, as long as you live in the land you will be crossing the Jordan to make your own."

<sup>14</sup>The LORD then said to Moses, Behold, the time for your death is approaching; call Joshua, and present yourselves at the tent of meeting, so that I may commission him. So Moses and Joshua went and presented themselves at the tent of meeting. <sup>15</sup>In the tent the LORD appeared in a pillar of cloud; and the pillar of cloud remained by the door of the tent. <sup>16</sup>The LORD said to Moses, Soon you will be sleeping with your fathers, and this people

j) The way of salvation is the law of God, given for Israel's redemption. It is the simple revelation of God's way for her; now she knows it and must respond to it.

k) The 15th day of the 7th month, Sept.-Oct., a thanksgiving for every harvest, including grapes and olives.

will play the harlot, following the gods of the strangers of the land among whom they are about to come; they will forsake Me, breaking the covenant I made with them. <sup>17</sup>My anger will then blaze out against them; I will turn from them and abandon them; they will be devastated; many calamities and troubles will come upon them. In that day they will cry out and say, "Have not these afflictions come upon us because our God is no longer among us?" <sup>18</sup>But at that time I will withdraw My face from them because of the sins they have committed in turning to other gods. <sup>19</sup>Now, therefore, write this song, and teach it to the Israelites; put it on their lips, that the song may be a witness for Me against the Israelites. <sup>20</sup>I shall bring them into the land that flows with milk and honey, which I swore to their fathers to give them; and they will eat, and be filled and grow fat. They will turn to other gods, serve them, despise Me and abandon My covenant. <sup>21</sup>Then, when all calamities and afflictions have come down on them, this song, a living reminder to their children, shall be a witness for Me against them; for I know the thoughts they are forming, even now before I bring them into the land which I promised on oath. <sup>22</sup>So Moses wrote this song at that time and taught it to the Israelites.

<sup>23</sup>And He charged Joshua the son of Nun, saying, Be strong and of great courage; for you shall bring the people of Israel into the land which I swore to give them, and I will personally be with you.

<sup>24</sup>When Moses had completed the writing of the words of this law in a book to its finish, <sup>25</sup>he gave this order to the Levites, the bearers of the ark of the covenant of the LORD <sup>26</sup>"Take this book of the law and place it beside the ark of the covenant of the LORD your God, that it may be there for a witness against you. <sup>27</sup>For I know how rebellious and stiff-necked you are; indeed, while I am still alive with you, you are defiant toward the LORD, and how much worse it will be after my death! <sup>28</sup>Assemble before me all the elders of your tribes, and your officers, that I may speak these words in their hearing and call heaven and earth to bear witness against them. <sup>29</sup>For I know that after my death you will deal very corruptly and abandon the way I have enjoined upon you; adversity will befall you in the days to come, when you will do wrong in the sight of the LORD, vexing Him with your handiwork."

<sup>30</sup>Then Moses spoke the words of this song in the hearing of all the assembly of Israel until they were ended.

32 <sup>1</sup>"GIVE EAR, YE HEAVENS, AND I will speak;

let the earth listen to the words of my lips.

<sup>2</sup>May my instruction drop as the rain, my speech distill as the dew, as dew upon the young grass and showers upon the green herbs.

<sup>3</sup>For the name of the LORD I will proclaim.

Praise our God for His greatness!

<sup>4</sup>The Rock,<sup>m</sup> how perfect are His works, for all His ways are just! A God, faithful and true, fair and righteous is He!

<sup>5</sup>His unregenerate offspring have dealt corruptly toward Him, a twisted and crooked race.

<sup>6</sup>Is this your repayment to the LORD, you foolish and wisdom-lacking folk? Is He not your Father, who formed you, who created and established you?

<sup>7</sup>Think back on the days of old; reckon the years, generation after generation.

Ask your father that he may show you, your elders that they may tell you.

<sup>8</sup>When the Most High gave the nations their heritage, when He separated the sons of men, He set the boundaries of the peoples in accord with the number of the sons of Israel.

1) The entire chapter reflects Israel's genius for exalted expression in poetry.

m) The word Rock is a frequent title for God; see II Sam. 23:3, Is. 17:10, Ps. 31:3.

<sup>9</sup>For the portion of the LORD is His people, Jacob His allotted heritage.

<sup>10</sup>He found them in a desert land,
in a howling waste of wilderness;
He encircled them and tended them with care,

He guarded them as the apple of His eye.

<sup>11</sup>As an eagle stirs up its nest, hovering over its young,
spreading its wings to catch them and bearing them on its pinions,<sup>n</sup>

<sup>12</sup>so the LORD alone was guide to them, and no strange god was with Him.

<sup>13</sup>He made them ride upon the earth's high places

and they ate the fruits of the fields.
He let them suck honey from the crags and oil from flinty rocks;

<sup>14</sup>curds from the herd and milk from the flock,
rams of Bashan, too, and he-goats,
with the finest of the wheat, and you drank the foaming blood of grapes.

<sup>15</sup>Then Jeshurun grew fat and kicked,<sup>o</sup>
— yes, you grew fat, became plump and sleek!

Then he rejected God who made him and treated with scorn the Rock of his salvation.

<sup>16</sup>They provoked Him to jealousy with strange gods;
they angered Him with abominations.

<sup>17</sup>They sacrificed to demons, the no-Gods, gods who were altogether strange to
them,
new comers, lately arrived were they,
before whom your fathers had never stood in awe.

<sup>18</sup>You were unmindful of the Rock who begot you, and you forgot the God who gave you being.

<sup>19</sup>When the LORD saw it, He spurned
them,
provoked by His sons and daughters.

<sup>20</sup>I will hide My face from them,
He said,

and see what their end will be;
for a perverse generation are they,
children who know nothing of loyalty.

<sup>21</sup>They have provoked Me to jealousy with their false gods, vexed Me with their worthlessnesses.
So I, I will stir them to jealousy with a worthless people<sup>p</sup> and provoke them with a foolish nation.

<sup>22</sup>For by My wrath a fire is kindled, and it blazes to the depths of the underworld;

it consumes the earth and its produce, scorching the bases of the hills.

<sup>23</sup>I will heap calamities upon them and shoot all My arrows against them.

<sup>24</sup>Wasted by famine, they shall be devoured
by burning fever and deadly pestilence.

The teeth of wild beasts I will set free against them, with the venom of creatures that crawl in the dust.

<sup>25</sup>Outdoors, the sword shall bereave
them,
indoors it will be terror
for both the young man and the maid, for the babe at the breast and for the graybeard.

<sup>26</sup>I might have said, I will blow them away;
I will make the memory of them to cease among mortals,

<sup>27</sup>had I not suspected the taunt of the foe,
if their adversaries misconstrue it, declaring, "It was our hand that triumphed, and not the LORD who has done
all this."

<sup>28</sup>For they are a nation of unsound mind,
and insight has passed them by.

<sup>29</sup>If they had wisdom, they would understand this and see to discern their end.<sup>q</sup>

<sup>30</sup>How could one chase a thousand
and two put ten thousand to flight

n) Moses as shepherd had watched the training of eaglets, thrust out of their nest, hurled from the sheer rock; then the mother swooping down as they struggled, bearing them up, letting them go again, to catch them; so repeatedly. So God trained Israel — and still trains us.

o) Jeshurun is a name used for Israel, with the root meaning upright — so, the upright one — but here used sarcastically.

p) A people that worships false gods.

q) Wisdom in the O.T. is spiritual insight, a man of unsound mind is a man who lacks such wisdom.

were it not that their Rock had sold them, and the LORD had delivered them up?<sup>r</sup>

<sup>31</sup>For their rock is not our Rock,
our foes themselves so concluding.

<sup>32</sup>For their vine comes from the vine of Sodom<sup>s</sup>
it derives from the vineyards of Gomorrah;

their grapes are grapes of poison,
their clusters, too, are bitter.

<sup>33</sup>The venom of serpents is their wine,
the pitiless poison of cobras.

<sup>34</sup>Is it not laid up in store with Me, sealed off in My storehouse?

<sup>35</sup>Mine is the vengeance and the retribution against the time when their foot shall slip.

For the day of their disaster is at hand, and their hour of doom hastens on apace.

<sup>36</sup>For the LORD will vindicate His people and for His servants He will show compassion,

when He sees that their strength is gone and that both bond and free are no more.

<sup>37</sup>Then He will say, Where now are their gods,
the rock in which they sought refuge,

<sup>38</sup>who ate the fat of their sacrifices and drank the wine of their drink offerings?

Let them arise to your help,
and let them be a shelter over you.

<sup>39</sup>See now that it is I; I am He, and there is no God beside Me;

I put to death, and I bring to life,
I crush, and I heal, and from My hand there is none to deliver.

<sup>40</sup>For I lift up My hand to heaven, and swear that, as I live forever,

<sup>41</sup>I will whet My flaming sword;
My hand shall lay hold on judgment;
I will wreak vengeance on My foes and repay those who hate Me.

<sup>42</sup>I will make My arrows drunk with blood, and My sword shall devour flesh with the blood of the slain and the captives,

from the long-haired heads of the foe.

<sup>43</sup>Praise His people, O ye nations;
for the blood of His servants He will avenge, inflicting retribution on His adversaries and granting mercy to His land,
His people."

<sup>44</sup>Then Moses came and recited all the words of this song in the hearing of the people, he and Joshua the son of Nun. <sup>45</sup>And when Moses had finished reciting all these words to all Israel, <sup>46</sup>he said to them, "You must take to heart all these words wherewith
I admonish you today, so that you may enjoin upon your children carefully to live up to all the words of this law.
<sup>47</sup>For this is not a meaningless word for you; it is your life, and by this word you shall lengthen your days in the land which upon crossing the Jordan you will take in possession."

<sup>48</sup>The LORD also said to Moses that day, <sup>49</sup>Ascend now this mountain of the Abarim,<sup>t</sup> Mount Nebo, in the land of Moab, opposite Jericho, and look out over the land of Canaan, the land I am giving the children of Israel for their possession. <sup>50</sup>You are to die on the mountain which you ascend and be gathered to your people, as Aaron your brother died on Mount Hor and was gathered to his people; <sup>51</sup>because you broke faith with Me among the Israelites at the waters of Meribah-Kadesh, in the wilderness of Zin; for you did not revere Me among the people of Israel. <sup>52</sup>You may see the land lying before you, but you shall not enter it, the land I am giving to the people of Israel.

33 THIS THE BLESSING<sup>u</sup> WHICH Moses, the man of God, pro-

r) So it was not the foe, but Israel's own God, who defeated them. The LORD is storing up all the evils for use against Israel.

s) The pleasures which the foes enjoy are like those of Sodom and Gomorrah.

t) The mountain range east of the Jordan of which Mount Nebo is a peak.

u) This is one of three examples of Hebrew poetry that provide a remarkable picture of the tribes of Israel in times of vast historic and religious significance. The others are: the Song of Deborah, Judges 5, and the blessing of Jacob, Gen. 49.

nounced upon the people of Israel before his death. <sup>2</sup>He said: "The LORD came from Sinai and dawned upon us from Seir; He shone forth out of Mount Paran from the midst of ten thousands of saints, with flames of fire at His right hand."<sup>v</sup> <sup>3</sup>Yes, He loves His people, and all His saints are in Thy hand. They followed in Thy steps; they accepted Thy word.

<sup>4</sup>"Moses commanded a law for us, a possession for the congregation of Jacob. <sup>5</sup>The LORD became King in Jeshurun when the heads of the people were assembled, the tribes of Israel together.

<sup>6</sup>"Let Reuben live and not die out; but let his men be countable. <sup>7</sup>And this regarding Judah: "Hear, LORD, the voice of Judah, and bring him to his people; let his hands suffice him: give him help against his foes."

<sup>8</sup>Then he said of Levi, "Grant Thy Thummim and Thy Urim<sup>w</sup> to the godly one, to Levi, whom Thou didst test at Massah, contending with him at the waters of Meribah; <sup>9</sup>who said of his father and his mother 'I do not regard them'; his brothers, too, he disavowed and ignored, as well as his children. For he observes Thy word and keeps Thy covenant.<sup>x</sup> <sup>10</sup>He teaches Thy judgments to Jacob and Thy laws to Israel. He brings the savor of sacrifice to Thy nostrils and whole burnt offerings to Thy altar. <sup>11</sup>Bless, O LORD, his might, and accept the work of his hands. Smite the loins of those that rise against him and of those who hate him, that they appear no more."

<sup>12</sup>Of Benjamin he said, "He is the beloved of the LORD<sup>y</sup> and dwells beside Him securely. The LORD encircles him perpetually and makes His dwelling place between his shoulders."<sup>z</sup>

<sup>13</sup>Of Joseph he said, "Blessed of the LORD be his land with the choicest gifts of heaven and from the deep that couches beneath; <sup>14</sup>with the lavish fruits of the sun and the rich yield of the moon. <sup>15</sup>Choice produce let there be on the ancient mountains and abundance on the everlasting hills, <sup>16</sup>with all the gifts of the earth and its fullness, and the favor of Him who dwelt in the bush.<sup>a</sup> Let this come on the head of Joseph, upon the crown of this prince among his brothers. <sup>17</sup>May his firstling bullock show splendor, with horns that match those of the wild ox; with them let him thrust the peoples to the ends of the earth. Such are the myriads of Ephraim; such, too, are the thousands of Manasseh."<sup>b</sup>

<sup>18</sup>Of Zebulun he said, "Rejoice, Zebulun, when you go abroad,<sup>c</sup> and you, Issachar, in your tents at home. <sup>19</sup>They invite peoples to their mountain, and there they offer sacrifices of righteousness; for they draw abundance from the seas and hidden treasures from the sands."<sup>d</sup>

<sup>20</sup>Of Gad he said, "Blessed be He who enlarges Gad!" Like a lion he lurks and tears an arm as well as the skull. <sup>21</sup>He provided the best for himself, for that was the commander's portion; he went with the chiefs of the nation and did the righteous will of the LORD; he executed His judgments for Israel."

<sup>22</sup>Of Dan he said, "Dan is a lion's whelp that makes his leap from Bashan." <sup>23</sup>And of Naphtali he said, "Naphtali, abounding in favor and filled with the blessing of the LORD, possess the lake and the South!"

<sup>24</sup>And this regarding Asher, "Blessed among the sons be Asher; may he be the favored of his brothers and be dip-

v) Verses 1-5 present the view of the Song of Deborah, that Israel learned to know God at Sinai.

w) In the high priest's possession, used in finding God's will. The Levites were highly regarded as the ministers of the LORD, serving Him in every way prescribed for them. To them goes the superlative blessing.

x) Meaning the Levite. y) Here Benjamin receives encouraging mention.

z) In the land of Benjamin, the temple was located. a) See Ex. 3:2-4.

b) Ephraim and Manasseh were the chief tribes of the northern kingdom, and Joshua was an Ephraimite.

c) Zebulun growing wealthy through trade with peoples on the Mediterranean, see Gen. 49:13, and Issachar may have shared some of it.

d) Treasures from the sand may refer to sand used in making glass.

e) Gad was strong in war and gave great help to the other tribes in the conquest of Canaan, receiving God's blessing in return.

ping his foot in oil.<sup>f</sup> <sup>25</sup>May your bolts be iron and bronze, and your strength be equal to your days.<sup>g</sup>

<sup>26</sup>"There is none like the God of Jeshurun,<sup>h</sup> who rides along the heavens to your help in His majesty upon the clouds.<sup>i</sup> <sup>27</sup>The eternal God is your dwelling place, and underneath are the everlasting arms. It was He who drove out the enemy from before you, as He said to you, Destroy! <sup>28</sup>So Israel dwelt securely, the fountain of Jacob secluded, in a land of grain and wine, while his heaven drops dew. <sup>29</sup>Blessing is yours, O Israel! Who is like you, a people redeemed by the LORD, the shield of your help, the sword of your exaltation! Cringing, your enemies shall come to you, and you shall trample on their high places."

34 AND MOSES WENT UP FROM THE plains of Moab to Mount Nebo, to the top of Pisgah, which is opposite Jericho, and the LORD showed him the whole country, Gilead as far as Dan, <sup>2</sup>all Naphtali, the land of Ephraim and Manasseh, the whole area of Judah as far as the Western Sea, <sup>3</sup>including the Negeb,<sup>j</sup> the circuit of the Jordan with the plain of Jericho the city of palm trees, as far as Zoar.<sup>k</sup> <sup>4</sup>Then the LORD said to him, This is the land of which I swore to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, saying, I will give it to your descendants. I have given you this view of it, but you shall not go over there.

<sup>5</sup>Then Moses, the servant of the LORD, died there in the land of Moab in agreement with the LORD's word. <sup>6</sup>And He buried him in a valley in the land of Moab opposite Beth-peor, and to this day no man knows the location of his grave. <sup>7</sup>When he died, Moses was 120 years old; his eye was not dimmed, nor had his vigor abated. <sup>8</sup>The children of Israel wept for Moses in the plains of Moab thirty days, which completed the period of weeping in the mourning for Moses.

<sup>9</sup>Now Joshua, the son of Nun, was filled with the spirit of wisdom; for Moses had laid his hands on him. Therefore the people listened to him and did as the LORD had commanded Moses. <sup>10</sup>Not again has a prophet arisen in Israel equal to Moses, whom the LORD knew face to face.<sup>l</sup> <sup>11</sup>None equaled him for all the signs and wonders which the LORD sent him to perform in the land of Egypt against Pharaoh, his whole court, and all his land, <sup>12</sup>and for the mighty power and the great terror which Moses worked in the sight of all Israel.

f) Asher would have abundance of olive oil in Galilee, where olives were plentiful.

g) These blessings and those of Jacob, Gen. 49:3-27, were considered in the distribution of the land among the tribes.

h) Jeshurun — Righteous one. It is an endearing term applied to Israel as a people; but used sarcastically, ch. 32:15.

i) Striking poetic expressions picturing a period of peace, prosperity and bliss in Israel, because Israel's God is great, and her faith in Him has made her great.

j) Negeb is the common Hebrew term for the south, around Beer-sheba; the name is still in use today.

k) Mt. Nebo afforded a magnificent view of the land which was the object of Moses' ministries. And he did have a visit in the Promised Land with Christ at His transfiguration.

l) Moses the great, unique at birth, unique in religious history, unique in the law, unique in death, trained Joshua to take his place, so that Moses might become dispensable. So did Jesus train His disciples against His ascension. So should all useful persons train others to take their place. Success without a successor is failure.

THE BOOK OF # JOSHUA

1406 B. C.

1 NOW AFTER THE DEATH OF MOSES the servant of the LORD, the LORD said to Joshua<sup>a</sup> son of Nun, the assistant of Moses: <sup>2</sup>Moses My servant has died;<sup>b</sup> so now arise, pass over this Jordan,<sup>c</sup> you and this whole nation of Israel, to the land which I give them. <sup>3</sup>Every place on which the sole of your foot shall tread I have given you, as I said to Moscs.<sup>d</sup> <sup>4</sup>Your territory will be from the desert<sup>e</sup> and yonder Lebanon<sup>f</sup> as far as the great river, the river Euphrates,<sup>g</sup> including all the land of the Hittites<sup>h</sup> even to the great western sea.<sup>i</sup> <sup>5</sup>None will hold out before you all the days of your life. As I was with Moses, I shall be with you. I will never fail you, and I will not forsake you. <sup>6</sup>Be resolute and strong; for you will enable this people to inherit the land which I vowed<sup>j</sup> to their fathers to give them. <sup>7</sup>Only be very resolute and strong,<sup>k</sup> to keep practicing the whole Law which Moses My servant commanded you; do not depart from it to the right or to the left, so that you may prosper everywhere you go. <sup>8</sup>This book of the Law must never depart from your mouth; you must meditate on it day and night, so that you may keep living in accord with all that is written in it; for then you will make your way successful, and then you will prosper. <sup>9</sup>Have I not commanded you? Be resolute and strong! Be not afraid, and be not dismayed; for the LORD your God is with you everywhere you go.

<sup>10</sup>Then Joshua ordered the officers of the people, <sup>11</sup>"Pass through the midst of the camp, and thus command the people, 'Prepare provisions for yourselves, because within three<sup>l</sup> days you will be crossing this Jordan to enter and possess the land which the LORD your God is giving you for your own.'"

<sup>12</sup>To the Reubenites, the Gadites, and half the tribe of Manasseh Joshua said, <sup>13</sup>"Remember the proposal<sup>m</sup> with which Moses the servant of the LORD charged you, 'The LORD your God is settling you here. He is giving you this land.' <sup>14</sup>Your women folk, your children, and your possessions may stay in the land, which Moses has given you on the other side of the Jordan;<sup>n</sup> but you must go over before your kinsmen, armed, with all your valiant men; and you must help them <sup>15</sup>until

a) Joshua means the same as Jesus — Jehovah is salvation. b) The priesthood was hereditary, but the leadership of Israel was an earned office [Num. 27:15-23].

c) Descender—a swift river running from the slopes of Mt. Hermon through Lake Galilee to the Dead Sea, 1300 feet below sea level. d) They must work together with God (Deut. 11:24).

e) The Desert of Sin at the southeastern end of Canaan.

f) A mountain range forming the northern boundary of Canaan.

g) Israel's dominion did not extend to the Euphrates until the reign of David and Solomon.

h) One of the seven peoples who occupied Canaan. i) The Mediterranean. j) Gen. 15:17, 18.

k) The LORD had promised to give them this land, but they must show courage to face hardship and war and must steadfastly obey His Law. l) When the spies returned to camp after three days' hiding, the Israelites moved from Acacia to the Jordan, where they remained for three days.

m) Num. 32:20-27.

n) On the other side of the Jordan from the later viewpoint of Palestine, therefore Transjordan. There those unable to fight would enjoy safety and the produce of conquered lands.

the LORD gives them rest such as you have and they also have possession of the land which the LORD your God gives to them. Then you may return to the land which you possess, and you may occupy what Moses the servant of the LORD gave you on the other side of the Jordan eastward."

<sup>16</sup>They replied to Joshua, "All that you have commanded us we shall do, and everywhere you send us we shall go. <sup>17</sup>As we have obeyed Moses in all things, so we will obey you. Only may the LORD your God be with you, as He was with Moses. <sup>18</sup>Everyone who rebels against your authority and does not obey your decrees in all that you command him will be put to death. Only be strong and courageous."

1406 B. C.

2 THEN JOSHUA THE SON OF NUN sent two men from Acacia<sup>o</sup> secretly to spy. "Go," he said, "survey the land, and Jericho<sup>p</sup> in particular." So they went, and coming to the house of the harlot whose name was Rahab, they stayed there. <sup>2</sup>But it was reported to the king<sup>r</sup> of Jericho, "Men have come here this night from the Israelites to spy out the land." <sup>3</sup>Then the king of Jericho sent word to Rahab, "Bring out the men who came to you into your house, because they have come to spy out the whole land." <sup>4</sup>Now the woman had taken the two men to hide them. "Yes, the men did come to me," she replied, "but I did not know where they came from. <sup>5</sup>However, at dusk, when the gate was to be closed, they went away. I do not know where the men went. Pursue them quickly, so you may catch up with them." <sup>6</sup>She had taken them<sup>s</sup> up to the roof and had hidden them in the flax stalks,<sup>t</sup> which she had laid out there. <sup>7</sup>Meanwhile the men pursued them along the Jordan road as far as the fords; and they closed the gate as soon as the pursuers went out after them.

<sup>8</sup>Before they fell asleep, she went up to them on the roof<sup>9</sup> and said to them, "I know that the LORD has given you this country, that the fear of you has come upon us, and that all the inhabitants of the land melt with terror because of you. <sup>10</sup>For we have heard how the LORD dried up the water of the Red Sea" when you came out of Egypt and also what you did to the two kings of the Amorites on the other side of the Jordan, to Sihon and Og, whom you destroyed.<sup>v</sup> <sup>11</sup>We heard it, and our courage melted away; no one is confident against you any longer, because the LORD your God is God in the heavens above and on the earth beneath. <sup>12</sup>So now, please swear to me by the LORD that, as I have treated you kindly, you too will show kindness to my father's house. Besides, give me a pledge of your good faith that <sup>13</sup>you will spare my father and mother, my brothers and sisters, and all that belong to them and save us from death."

<sup>14</sup>Then the men said to her, "If you do not expose our mission, we shall treat you kindly and faithfully when the LORD gives the land to us; or may we die in your place."

<sup>15</sup>She then let them down through the window with a rope; for her house was on the side of the wall, so that she actually lived on the wall. <sup>16</sup>She said to them, "Go into the mountains, or your pursuers will apprehend you. Remain there for three days until your pursuers return; then you may go your way."

<sup>17</sup>The men said to her, "We may be released from this oath that you made us swear <sup>18</sup>unless, when we come into the land, you tie this piece of scarlet cord in the window by which you let us down and assemble your mother, father, brothers, and all your relatives at your house.<sup>w</sup> <sup>19</sup>Should anyone go out through the doors of your house into the street, his blood is on his own

o) Acacia trees. p) City of the moon, or fragrant place; Jericho was situated in a fertile plain.

r) The numerous kings mentioned in the Book of Joshua were local chiefs, each a vassal of one of the larger rulers. s) The spies. t) Three- or four-foot lengths of uncared flax.

u) This had occurred forty years earlier, but the report of it had been widely circulated and had left a deep impression. v) Numbers 21:21-35.

w) The blood-red cord meant life for all believers; none who joined Rahab perished in the destruction of Jericho. To some of us this is a symbol of the redemptive blood of our Saviour.

head, and we are innocent; but with regard to anyone who is with you in the house, his blood is on our head if a hand is raised against him. <sup>20</sup>But if you expose this mission of ours, we shall be released from the oath which you made us swear."

<sup>21</sup>"Let it be according to your terms," she replied. After she dismissed them, they left; and she fastened the scarlet cord in the window.

<sup>22</sup>They went out and came to the mountains where they stayed for three days until their pursuers returned. Their pursuers had hunted them all along the road, but they did not discover them; so the two men started back. <sup>23</sup>They<sup>x</sup> came down from the mountains and, after they crossed over, they came to Joshua son of Nun and reported all their findings to him. <sup>24</sup>They announced to Joshua, "The LORD has put the whole land in our hands, and all its inhabitants are faint-hearted before us."

1406 B. C.

3 EARLY IN THE MORNING JOSHUA got up, he and all the Israelites, and marched from Acacia to the Jordan, where they encamped before they made the crossing. <sup>2</sup>After three days the officers passed through the camp <sup>3</sup>and ordered the people, "When you see the ark of the covenant of the LORD your God with the Levite priests bearing it, leave your places and follow it; <sup>4</sup>so that you may know the way to go, because you have never walked this path before. But keep a distance of three thousand feet between it and yourselves; do not get nearer to it."<sup>y</sup>

<sup>5</sup>Then Joshua said to the people, "Consecrate yourselves," because tomorrow the LORD will do marvelous things in your presence." <sup>6</sup>To the priests Joshua said, "Take up the ark of the covenant, and go on ahead of the people." So they took up the ark of the covenant and went on ahead of the people.

<sup>7</sup>The LORD said to Joshua: Today I shall begin to exalt you in the eyes of all Israel, so that they may know that, as I was with Moses, I shall be with you.<sup>a</sup> <sup>8</sup>Give orders to the priests who take up the ark of the covenant, "When you come to the water at the edge of the Jordan, stand still there!"

<sup>9</sup>So Joshua said to the Israelites, "Come near and hear the words of the LORD your God." <sup>10</sup>Joshua further said, "By this you shall know that the living God is among you and that He will assuredly expel for you the Canaanite, the Hittite, the Iivite, the Perizzite, the Girgashite, the Amorite, and the Jebusite. <sup>11</sup>Behold! The ark of the covenant of the LORD of the whole earth is going before you into the Jordan. <sup>12</sup>Choose twelve men from the tribes of Israel, one man from each tribe.<sup>b</sup> <sup>13</sup>When the feet of the priests who bear the ark of the LORD, who is LORD of the whole earth, come to rest in the water of the Jordan, the water of the Jordan will be cut off, and the water upstream will stand as a wall."

<sup>14</sup>As the people set forth from their camps to cross the Jordan, the priests who bore the ark of the covenant formed the van. <sup>15</sup>As soon as those who bore the ark came to the Jordan and the feet of the priests who bore the ark dipped into the water at the edge<sup>c</sup> — for the Jordan overflows its banks during the harvest season<sup>d</sup> — <sup>16</sup>the water flowing down from above stood still; it rose as a wall for a great distance as far as Adam,<sup>e</sup> the city beside Zarethan; and the part flowing down to the sea of the Arabah,<sup>f</sup> the Salt Sea, was completely cut off; so the people crossed opposite Jericho. <sup>17</sup>The priests who bore the ark of the covenant of the LORD stood firmly on dry ground in the middle of the Jordan, and all Israel

x) The two spies.

y) The sanctity of the ark was thus maintained, while the people were led to realize that the LORD Himself was guiding them and overcoming the insurmountable obstacles which stood in their way. z) Ex. 19:10. a) Moses had been similarly exalted at the crossing of the Red Sea.

b) See ch. 4:2-10. c) Not until their feet were above the water, ready to step down, was the water cut off. The faith of the priests was severely tested.

d) In April, when the barley harvest begins, the Jordan is at its height; none can then wade across it. The Jordan there — now Damieh — is narrowest, July, 1927, an earthquake dammed the river for 21 hours; in 1267 a fallen bank held it 16 hours.

e) Adam was about 20 miles north of the Jericho ford. f) Sea of the Plain.

passed over on dry ground, until the whole nation had completed the crossing of the Jordan.<sup>g</sup>

1406 B. C.

4 WHEN THE WHOLE NATION HAD finished crossing the Jordan, the LORD said to Joshua: <sup>2</sup>Choose twelve men from the people, one man from each tribe, <sup>3</sup>and give them this order: 'Take up twelve stones here in the midst of the Jordan where the priests' feet were standing; bring them with you, and place them in the camp where you spend the night.' <sup>4</sup>So Joshua called together the twelve men whom he had appointed from the Israelites, one man from each tribe, <sup>5</sup>and said to them, "Go into the middle of the Jordan in front of the ark of the LORD your God, and each of you lift a stone on his shoulder, according to the number of the Israelite tribes, <sup>6</sup>so that this may be a symbol to you. Later, when your children ask you, 'What do these stones mean to you?'<sup>h</sup> you will tell them, 'The waters of the Jordan were cut off before the ark of the covenant of the LORD; when it entered the Jordan, the waters of the Jordan were cut off, and these stones will always serve the Israelites as a memorial.'"

<sup>8</sup>The Israelites did as Joshua ordered; they lifted from the center of the Jordan twelve stones for the number of the Israelite tribes, as the LORD had told Joshua, and bringing them to the camp, they deposited them there. <sup>9</sup>Then Joshua piled up twelve stones in the midst of the Jordan where the feet of the priests who bore the ark of the covenant had stood; and they are there to this day.<sup>i</sup>

<sup>10</sup>The priests who bore the ark stood in the middle of the Jordan until everything had been accomplished which the LORD had ordered Joshua to say to the people, in accordance with all that Moses had ordered Joshua;<sup>j</sup> then the people promptly crossed over. <sup>11</sup>When all the people had completed the crossing, the ark of the LORD and the priests passed over in the sight of the people.<sup>k</sup> <sup>12</sup>The Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half tribe of Manasseh crossed over armed before the Israelites, as Moses had charged them. <sup>13</sup>About 40,000 armed troops crossed over before the LORD for the battle on the plains of Jericho. <sup>14</sup>On that day the LORD exalted Joshua in the eyes of all Israel, and they revered him through all his life as they had revered Moses.

<sup>15</sup>The LORD said to Joshua: <sup>16</sup>Order the priests who bear the ark of the testimony<sup>l</sup> to ascend from the Jordan. <sup>17</sup>So Joshua ordered the priests, "Climb up from the Jordan."<sup>18</sup>When the priests, who bore the ark of the covenant of the LORD, climbed up from the middle of the Jordan and their feet stepped on dry ground, the water of the Jordan returned to its place, overflowing its banks as before.

<sup>19</sup>The people moved up from the Jordan on the tenth day of the first month, and they encamped at Gilgal on the eastern edge of Jericho.<sup>m</sup> <sup>20</sup>At Gilgal Joshua set up the twelve stones, which they had taken from the Jordan. <sup>21</sup>Then he said to the Israelites, "In the future when your children ask their fathers, 'What do these stones mean?' <sup>22</sup>inform them by saying, 'Israel crossed this Jordan on dry ground.' <sup>23</sup>For the LORD your God had dried up the water of the Jordan before you until you crossed, just as He did to the Red Sea, which He dried up before us until we had crossed. <sup>24</sup>Consequently, all the nations of the earth will know that

g) As God sent a great east wind to open a wide path in the Red Sea for Israel (Ex. 14:21,22), so He could cause a great upheaval or a tremendous landslide to dam the Jordan waters. His physical miracles witness to His directing of natural forces for His definite purpose.

h) God has made children on the question plan; it is ours to answer them with God in mind. He also wants memorials provided, to remind all His children of His wondrous ways.

i) When the Book of Joshua was written, the two pillars of stones were still standing: 12 stones in Gilgal and 12 in the Jordan. The 12 stones placed in the center of the Jordan might be visible during the 10 months when the Jordan does not overflow its banks.

j) Deut. 31:7,8. k) Included were the children, the aged and infirm, even their herds and flocks, all of which was not a matter of minutes but of many hours.

l) Tables of the Law inside the ark which set forth the conditions by which the LORD pledged Himself to prosper Israel. m) The district of Jericho.

JOSHUA 5, 6

the hand of the LORD is mighty, and you will revere the LORD your God always."

1406 B. C.

5 WHEN ALL THE AMORITE KINGS west of the Jordan and all the Canaanite kings by the sea<sup>n</sup> heard that the LORD had dried up the water of the Jordan before the Israelites until they had crossed, their courage melted away, and they no longer had confidence against the Israelites. <sup>2</sup>At this time the LORD said to Joshua: Make stone knives and circumcise the Israelites for the second time. <sup>3</sup>So Joshua made stone knives and circumcised<sup>o</sup> the Israelites at the Hill of Foreskins.

<sup>4</sup>Now this is the reason why Joshua circumcised all the people: the males who had come out of Egypt, all the soldiers, had died in the wilderness along the way during the migration from Egypt. <sup>5</sup>Although all the people who had come out were circumcised, those born in the desert along the way during the migration from Egypt had not been circumcised.<sup>p</sup> <sup>6</sup>The Israelites traveled in the wilderness for forty years until death came to the whole nation, to the soldiers, who had come out of Egypt and had not obeyed the voice of the LORD, to whom the LORD vowed that they should not see the land which He had vowed to their fathers to give us, a land flowing with milk and honey.

<sup>7</sup>So He appointed their children in their place, and these Joshua circumcised because they were uncircumcised, since they did not circumcise them along the way.<sup>q</sup>

<sup>8</sup>When the whole nation had been circumcised, they stayed in their places in the camp until they were healed. <sup>9</sup>And the LORD said to Joshua: Today I have rolled away the reproach of Egypt<sup>r</sup> from you. So the name of this place is called Gilgal<sup>a</sup> even to this day.

The Lord's Appearance to Joshua

March, April, 1406 B. C.

<sup>10</sup>The Israelites camped at Gilgal, and on the evening of the fourteenth day of the month, they observed the Passover<sup>t</sup> on the plains of Jericho. <sup>11</sup>On the very next day after the Passover, they ate what was raised on the land, unleavened bread and parched grain. <sup>12</sup>The manna ceased the day after they ate what was raised on the land; there was no more manna for the Israelites, but they subsisted on the crops of the land of Canaan that year.

<sup>13</sup>When Joshua was by Jericho, he looked up and saw a Man standing opposite him with a drawn sword in His hand. Joshua went up to Him and said, "Are You with us or with our enemies?"

<sup>14</sup>No, He replied, It is I; as Captain of the LORD's host<sup>u</sup> I now have come. Then Joshua, falling prone upon the ground, prostrated himself, and said to Him, "What has my LORD to say to His servant?"

<sup>15</sup>The Captain of the LORD's host said to Joshua: Remove your shoes from your feet, because the place upon which you are standing is holy.<sup>v</sup> And Joshua did so.

1406 B. C.

6 NOW JERICHO WAS CLOSED IN AND secured because of the Israelites; no one went out, and no one came in. <sup>2</sup>Then the LORD<sup>w</sup> said to Joshua: Behold, I have delivered Jericho, her king and her soldiers, into your hand. <sup>3</sup>March around the city with all the men of war, encircling it once. Do this for six days. <sup>4</sup>Seven priests shall each carry a ram's-horn trumpet before the ark. On the seventh day, go around the city seven times, while the priests blow their horns. <sup>5</sup>When you hear the blare of the trumpets in a long blast on the rams' horns, let all the people

n) Mediterranean Sea. o) See Gen. 17:9-14. p) The LORD's judgment against the Israelites affected their children, too; circumcision, the symbol of the covenant relationship with the LORD, had been withheld from them.

q) See footnote (p) on vs. 5. r) The taunt of the Egyptians that the LORD was leading the Israelites into the desert to destroy them (Ex. 32:12).

s) Suggested by the Hebrew verb, to roll away. t) Forty years after the first Passover.

u) Of the angels, ready to support the Hebrew army; see II Kings 6:16,17.

v) This place was hallowed by the presence of a divine Messenger. As in Ex. 3:2-6 and in Judges 6:11, 16, the Angel proves to be the LORD Himself, so here God manifested Himself, the Son of God, we have every reason to believe.

w) In the person of His Messenger of ch. 5: 14, 15.

give a mighty shout of joy; then the wall of the city will collapse<sup>x</sup> so that the people may attack, each one moving straight ahead.

<sup>6</sup>So Joshua the son of Nun summoned the priests and said to them, "Take up the ark of the covenant, and let seven priests each carry a ram's-horn trumpet before the ark of the LORD."

<sup>7</sup>And to the people he said, "Advance, and march around the city; let armed men advance ahead of the ark of the LORD." <sup>8</sup>When Joshua had spoken to the people, the seven priests who carried the seven rams' horns before the LORD<sup>y</sup> advanced and kept blowing their horns, while the ark of the covenant of the LORD followed them.

<sup>9</sup>The armed men were marching ahead of the priests, who were blowing the horns, and the rear guard followed the ark; they were marching and blowing their horns. <sup>10</sup>But in commanding the people, Joshua said, "Do not shout, nor let your voices be heard, nor let a word leave your mouth, until the day in which I say to you, 'Shout!' Then shout!"

<sup>11</sup>The ark of the LORD moved around the city, encircling it once; then they returned to the camp and stayed there. <sup>12</sup>In the morning Joshua got up early, and the priests took up the ark of the LORD. <sup>13</sup>The seven priests who carried the seven rams' horns before the ark of the LORD went forward, blowing on the horns. The armed men went ahead of them, and the rear guard followed the ark of the LORD. They marched and blew their horns. <sup>14</sup>They encircled the city once on the second day and returned to the camp.<sup>z</sup> They did this for six days. <sup>15</sup>Then on the seventh day they got up early at dawn and went around the city seven times, according to procedure; only on that day they marched around the city seven times. <sup>16</sup>The seventh time around, when the priests blew their horns, Joshua said to the people, "Shout, because the LORD has given you the city!" <sup>17</sup>The city and all that is in it are a devoted portion<sup>a</sup> to the LORD. Only Rahab the innkeeper and all who are with her in the house will be spared, because she hid the messengers whom we sent. <sup>18</sup>But keep yourselves from the devoted portion, lest in devoting it, you might take some part of it<sup>b</sup> and so place the camp of Israel in the devoted portion and bring affliction upon it. <sup>19</sup>All the silver and gold, and all the bronze and iron, are set apart for the LORD. They shall go into the treasury of the LORD."

<sup>20</sup>The people shouted as the horns were blown. When the people heard the blare of the trumpets, they shouted with a loud acclaim; the walls collapsed.<sup>c</sup> The people attacked the city, each moving in straight ahead, and they captured the city. <sup>21</sup>Then with the sword they destroyed everything in the city as a devoted portion, both men and women, young and old, and oxen, sheep, and donkeys.<sup>d</sup> <sup>22</sup>Joshua said to the two men who had explored the land, "Enter the innkeeper's house, and conduct her from there with all who are with her, just as you pledged to her." <sup>23</sup>So the young spies went in and conducted Rahab away with her father, mother, brothers, and all who were with her, her whole family, and they gave them refuge outside the camp of Israel.<sup>e</sup>

<sup>24</sup>They burned the city and everything in it; but they deposited the sil-

x) Excavations indicate that the walls of Jericho collapsed as though destroyed by earthquake.

y) The ark symbolized His presence.

z) The men and boys of Jericho would doubtless shout mocking remarks from the walls at the marching men, apparently taking such useless daily exercise.

a) Retractions were imposed on all the loot of Jericho as Canaan's first fruits, not applied elsewhere (Deut. 20:10-18). What could or should not be destroyed was to be devoted to the use of the LORD. This was in keeping with the rule that the first fruits belong to the LORD (Ex. 23:19).

b) A suggested alternative reading: else you might covet and take some part of it.

c) The part of the wall in which Rahab lived must have stood firm.

d) To prevent alien elements from affecting Israel, radical measures were taken. These measures were justified on religious grounds in that the natives had proved their incorrigibility before God (Romans 1:18-32), and that they were classified according to the concept of the devoted portion — Cherem, which was that part of the increase of Israel which belonged to God, either for His exclusive use, or for complete destruction.

e) Rahab's family, being included in the forfeiture, could not at once be in contact with the Israelite camp.

ver and gold and the things of bronze and iron into the treasury of the house of the LORD.<sup>f</sup> <sup>25</sup>Joshua spared Rahab the innkeeper, her father's household, and all who belonged to her, and she has dwelt in Israel to this day,<sup>g</sup> because she hid the messengers whom Joshua had sent to explore Jericho.

<sup>26</sup>"Accursed before the LORD is the man who rebuilds this city of Jericho,"<sup>h</sup> declared Joshua at that time. "He will found it at the price of his first-born, and he will set up its gates at the cost of his young son."<sup>i</sup>

<sup>27</sup>The LORD was with Joshua, and his fame spread throughout the land.

1406 B. C.

7 THE ISRAELITES, HOWEVER, SECRETLY violated the devoted portion when Achan the son of Carmi, the son of Zabdi, the son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, took something from it;<sup>j</sup> so the LORD's anger was kindled against Israel.

<sup>2</sup>Joshua sent men from Jericho to Ai, which is near Beth-aven east of Bethel, after saying to them, "Go up and explore the land." The men went up and explored Ai. <sup>3</sup>When they returned to Joshua, they said to him, "Do not send all the people; let two or three thousand men go up and strike at Ai; do not employ the whole people up there because the people of Ai are few."<sup>k</sup> <sup>4</sup>So about 3,000 of the people went up there; but they fled from the men of Ai, <sup>5</sup>who killed about 36 of them and, pursuing them from their gates to the quarries, killed more on the way down; so that the hearts of the people of Israel melted and became like water.

<sup>6</sup>Joshua tore his clothes, fell on his face before the ark of the LORD, and remained there until evening with the elders of Israel. They put dust on their heads. <sup>7</sup>Then Joshua said, "Alas, O

LORD God, why didst Thou have this people cross the Jordan and put us into the hands of the Amorites to destroy us? Oh, that we had been content to dwell on the other side of the Jordan! <sup>8</sup>O LORD, what shall I say, after Israel has retreated from her enemies? <sup>9</sup>The Canaanites and all the inhabitants of the land will hear of it; they will surround us and cut off our name from the land. Then what wilt Thou do for Thy great Name?"

<sup>10</sup>Rise up, the LORD said to Joshua, why have you fallen on your face? <sup>11</sup>Israel has sinned and has transgressed My covenant which I commanded them. They have even taken something from the devoted portion and stolen it. They have been deceitful and have put it with their own belongings. <sup>12</sup>The Israelites will not be able to prevail against their enemies; they will retreat from them, because they have come under the law of the sacred portion. I shall not be with you any more, unless you get rid of that devoted thing, which is among you. <sup>13</sup>Rise up, consecrate the people. Say to them, 'Consecrate yourselves for tomorrow, because the LORD God of Israel has said: A devoted thing is among you, Israel; you will not be able to prevail against your enemies, until you remove that devoted thing which is in your midst. <sup>14</sup>In the morning you will come near by tribes. The tribe which the LORD indicates by lot will come near by clans. The clan which the LORD indicates by lot will come near by households. The household which the LORD indicates by lot will come near by its individual male members.' <sup>15</sup>He who is indicated by lot as having the devoted thing, shall be burned with it and with all that belongs to him, for he has violated the covenant of the LORD and has done a disgraceful thing in Israel.'

f) Jericho, the first city taken in Canaan, came under the law of the first fruits; it must be dedicated to God.

g) When the Book of Joshua was written, Rahab's descendants had been admitted into the nation. She became an ancestress of Jesus (Matthew 1:5).

h) The refortification of Jericho was forbidden, but its resettlement took place in accordance with Joshua's allotment to Benjamin (ch. 18:21).

i) See I Kings 16:34 for a fulfilment of this curse.

j) All Israel becomes guilty because of Achan's sin. This illustrates the concept of collective relationship, which is basic to Paul's understanding of the atonement.

k) This was a fatal underestimate; see ch. 10:2.

l) Thus locating individuals by family relationships, as we do by state, town, street, and house number.

<sup>16</sup>Joshua arose early in the morning and had Israel come near by tribes. The tribe of Judah was indicated by lot. <sup>17</sup>Then he convened the clans of Judah, and by lot He indicated the Zerahite clan. Next he convened the Zerahite clan by its male members, and Zabdi was indicated by lot. <sup>18</sup>Finally, he convened his household by its individual male members, and the lot fell upon Achan the son of Carmi, the son of Zabdi, the son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah. <sup>19</sup>Joshua said to Achan, "My son, ascribe glory to the LORD God of Israel, and offer praise to Him. Then tell me what you have done; do not conceal anything from me."

<sup>20</sup>"Truly I have sinned against the LORD God of Israel," Achan answered Joshua, "and this is what I have done. <sup>21</sup>When I saw a beautiful robe from Shinar<sup>m</sup> among the spoils, together with 200 silver dollars and a bar of gold worth 500 dollars, I coveted them and took them. They are buried in the ground in my tent with the money underneath."

<sup>22</sup>Joshua dispatched couriers, who ran to Achan's tent. The robe was there, buried in his tent with the money beneath it. <sup>23</sup>They took them from the tent and brought them to Joshua and to all the Israelites, and they set them down before the LORD. <sup>24</sup>Joshua then took Achan the son of Zerah with the silver, the robe, the bar of gold, his sons, daughters, cattle, donkeys and sheep, his tent, and all that belonged to him, and, together with all Israel, he brought them to the valley of Achor.

<sup>25</sup>"Why did you bring calamity upon us?" said Joshua. "May the LORD bring calamity upon you today." Then all Israel stoned them and cremated them.<sup>n</sup>

<sup>26</sup>They piled a large heap of stones<sup>o</sup> upon them, which is there to this day; and the LORD ceased being angry. Consequently the name of this place is called the Valley of Achor<sup>p</sup> to this day.

<sup>m</sup>) Hebrew name for Babylonia.

<sup>n</sup>) Since Deut. 24:16 prohibits the execution of children for their father's sin, Achan's children must have been with him in, or agreeable to, his wrongdoing.

<sup>o</sup>) Such memorials still mark the graves of criminals in the east. <sup>p</sup>) Valley of trouble.

<sup>q</sup>) Bethel was about a three hours' journey west of Ai.

<sup>r</sup>) Joshua led his main force into the valley within sight of the city, and there they spent the night.

1406 B. C.

8 THE LORD SAID TO JOSHUA: Neither fear nor be distressed! Take all the soldiers with you. Arise, and attack Ai. See how I have put into your hands the king of Ai, his people, his city, and his territory. <sup>2</sup>You will do to Ai and her king as you did to Jericho and her king. However, you may take her loot and her cattle for yourselves. Now put an ambush behind the city.

<sup>3</sup>Joshua and all the soldiers arose to attack Ai. Joshua selected 30,000 valiant fighters, whom he sent forth at night. <sup>4</sup>In giving them orders, he said, "You are going to ambush the city from behind. Be not too far from the city, and all of you be ready. <sup>5</sup>I and all the people with me will approach the city, and when the Ai-ites come out to engage us as before, we shall flee from them. <sup>6</sup>They will come after us until we have drawn them away from the city; for they will say, 'They are fleeing from us as before.' When we flee from them, <sup>7</sup>you in the ambush will rise up and take the city; the LORD your God has put it in your hands. <sup>8</sup>When you have taken the city, set it on fire. Do what the LORD says; observe that I have given you the orders."

<sup>9</sup>When Joshua sent them away, they went to the place of ambush, waiting west of Ai between Bethel and Ai.<sup>q</sup>

Joshua spent that night with the troops, and <sup>10</sup>he got up early in the morning. When he had mustered the troops, he and the elders of Israel led them toward Ai. <sup>11</sup>When all the soldiers who went with him drew near the city, they came within sight of it, but camped north of it where a valley lay between them and Ai. <sup>12</sup>Now Joshua had taken 5,000 men and had appointed them to wait in ambush between Bethel and Ai, west of the city. <sup>13</sup>So the people were in this position, the main camp lying north of the city while the ambush lay west of it. But that night Joshua passed through the center of the valley.<sup>r</sup>

<sup>14</sup>When the king of Ai saw this, he quickly aroused the men of the city, and he and all the people went out to meet Israel in battle at an indicated place near the plain; but he did not know that there was an ambush behind the city. <sup>15</sup>When Joshua and all Israel were attacked by them, they fled toward the desert, <sup>16</sup>and all the forces of Ai joined in pursuit of them; but as they pursued Joshua, they were being drawn away from the city. <sup>17</sup>Therefore, no troops remained in Ai or in Bethel<sup>s</sup> who did not go after Israel; they left the city open and they pursued her.

<sup>18</sup>Then the LORD said to Joshua: Hold out the spear in your hand toward Ai; for I have put it in your hands. So Joshua held out the spear in his hand<sup>t</sup> toward the city. <sup>19</sup>Those lying in ambush arose quickly from their place and ran when he stretched out his hand; and when they came to Ai, they captured it and quickly set it on fire. <sup>20</sup>When the men of Ai looked back, the smoke from the city was going up into the sky, and there was no place for them to scatter for refuge when those, who had been fleeing, turned against their pursuers. <sup>21</sup>When Joshua and all Israel saw that the ambush had captured the city and that smoke went up from it, they turned and attacked the men of Ai. <sup>22</sup>Meanwhile the others came out of the city to engage them, so they were trapped in the middle of Israel between the troops on one side and those on the other side; and they fought until none were left, and none had escaped. <sup>23</sup>However, they captured the king of Ai alive and brought him to Joshua.

<sup>24</sup>When Israel had slain all the inhabitants of Ai on the field in the desert where they had pursued them, all Israel returned to Ai and wielded the sword against it. <sup>25</sup>All who fell in battle that day numbered 12,000 men and women, the whole population of Ai. <sup>26</sup>Joshua did not lower his hand with which he held out his spear, until they had destroyed all the inhabitants of Ai. <sup>27</sup>But the cattle and spoils of this city Israel took for herself, according to the order of the LORD, which He had issued to Joshua. <sup>28</sup>So Joshua burned Ai and made it an everlasting heap of destruction, as it is to this day; <sup>29</sup>and he hanged the king of Ai on a tree until evening.<sup>u</sup> At sunset,<sup>v</sup> Joshua gave the order, and they took his corpse from the tree, threw it down by the gate of the city, and raised a large pile of stones over it, which remains until this day.

<sup>30</sup>Then Joshua built an altar for the LORD God of Israel at Mount Ebal,<sup>w</sup> <sup>31</sup>as Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded the Israelites, as it is written in the book of the Law of Moses, an altar of uncut stones, which no iron tool had touched.<sup>x</sup> They made an offering to the LORD upon it and performed the sacrifice of thanksgiving. <sup>32</sup>There he wrote on stones<sup>y</sup> before the Israelites a copy of the Law of Moses which he had written. <sup>33</sup>All Israel with its elders, officers, and judges were standing on either side of the ark in front of the Levitical priests who carry the ark of the covenant of the LORD, immigrants<sup>z</sup> as well as the native-born, half of them in front of Mount Gerizim and half in front of Mount Ebal,<sup>a</sup> as Moses the servant of the LORD had previously commanded that the people of Israel should be blessed.

<sup>34</sup>Afterwards he read all the words of the Law, both the blessings and the curses, according to all that was written in the book of the Law. <sup>35</sup>There was nothing of all that Moses had commanded<sup>b</sup> which Joshua did not read before the whole assembly of Israel, including the women, the children, and the foreigners who went with them.

1406-1405 B. C.

9 WHEN ALL THE KINGS WEST OF the Jordan learned of this, those in

s) Probably by treaty Bethel was an ally of Ai and stood by in the event of another attack by Israel. It was conquered with Ai.

t) A prearranged signal relayed to the men waiting in ambush.

u) After he had been killed (ch. 10:26). v) Deut. 21:22, 23.

w) See Deut. 27:12 ff. x) Ex. 20:25; Deut. 27:5. y) On stones prescribed in Deut. 27:2-8.

z) An evangelic note in the Old Testament, non-Israelites included in the covenant privileges. They could merge completely with the Israelites, if they would accept the God of Israel as their God. a) The Israelites could travel from Ai to this place in two days.

b) Deut. 27:11-28:10. Israel was a people of closely knit families, their households sharing their instructions and interests.

the mountains, on the sea plain, and all along the coast of the Mediterranean Sea as far as Lebanon, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Perizites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites, <sup>2</sup>were united to fight against Joshua and the Israelites for their common cause. <sup>3</sup>The inhabitants of Gibeon<sup>d</sup> also heard what Joshua did to Jericho and Ai, <sup>4</sup>and they too proceeded with a stratagem. Certain ones went forth as delegates; they loaded old sacks on their donkeys and old wineskins, tattered and mended. <sup>5</sup>The sandals on their feet were worn and patched; the garments they had on were threadbare, and their food was dry and crumbled. <sup>6</sup>They came to Joshua at the camp at Gilgal and said to him and to the Israelites, "We have come from a distant land; now therefore make a treaty with us."<sup>e</sup>

<sup>7</sup>The Israelites replied to the Hivites, "Perhaps you live nearby, so how can we make a treaty with you?"<sup>f</sup>

<sup>8</sup>"We are your servants,"<sup>g</sup> they said to Joshua.

Then Joshua asked them, "Who are you, and where did you come from?"

<sup>9</sup>"Your servants have come from a very distant land on account of the fame of the LORD your God," they replied to him, "for we have learned of His record and of all that He did in Egypt <sup>10</sup>and of all that He did to the two kings of the Amorites east of the Jordan, to Sihon king of Heshbon and to Og king of Bashan, who lived in Ashtaroth. <sup>11</sup>So our elders and all the inhabitants of our land said to us, 'Take provisions for the journey with you; go to meet them, and say to them, "We are your servants; now therefore make a treaty with us."'"

<sup>12</sup>"This is our bread. It was warm when we provided ourselves with it at our homes on the day we set out to come to you; but now, see how dry and crumbly it is! <sup>13</sup>These wineskins were new when we filled them; see how they are torn! Our clothes and sandals are worn out because our journey has been so very far."

<sup>14</sup>The men handled some of their provisions; but they did not consult the LORD.<sup>h</sup> <sup>15</sup>So Joshua made peace with them; he made a treaty to spare them,<sup>i</sup> and the chiefs of the congregation swore an oath to them. <sup>16</sup>Three days after they had made the treaty with them, they learned that they were their neighbors, who lived in their vicinity. <sup>17</sup>Then the Israelites broke camp and came to their cities on the third day. Their cities were Gibeon, Chephirah, Beeroth, and Kiriath-jearim. <sup>18</sup>However, the Israelites did not attack them, for the chiefs of the congregation had sworn an oath to them in the name of the LORD God of Israel.<sup>j</sup> But the whole congregation murmured against the leaders. <sup>19</sup>Then all the chiefs said to the whole gathering, "We have sworn an oath to them by the LORD God of Israel; so now we may not touch them. <sup>20</sup>This is what we shall do to them. We shall spare them, lest wrath be upon us on account of the oath which we swore to them." <sup>21</sup>So the officers said to them, "Let them live." They became woodcutters and water carriers for the whole community, as the officers had told them.

<sup>22</sup>Joshua summoned them and said to them, "Why did you deceive us, saying, 'We live very far away from you,' though you dwell in our neighborhood? <sup>23</sup>Henceforth you will be accursed because you will never be released from servitude; you will be woodcutters and water carriers for the house of my God."<sup>k</sup>

<sup>24</sup>They replied to Joshua, "It has been made perfectly clear to your servants that the LORD your God ordered Moses His servant to give you the whole land and that you should destroy all the inhabitants of the land before you. We

c) For their mutual defense. d) One of the major cities of central Palestine, inhabited by Hivites.

e) Israel was permitted to make treaties with nations located outside of Canaan (Deut. 20:10-18).

f) To safeguard them from idolatry, the Israelites were not permitted to affiliate with the other nations in Canaan (Deut. 7:1-5). g) Oriental fashion, to ingratiate themselves with the Israelites.

h) By using the Urim and Thummim (Ex. 28:30; Num. 27:21).

i) The alliance between Israel and Gibeon agreed that Israel would not attack Gibeon but would defend it (cf. ch. 10:6,7).

j) Although the Gibeonites obtained this oath by deception, the leaders of Israel would not trifle with an oath made in His Name.

k) To protect themselves from their idolatrous influences, Joshua made the Gibeonites serve in the worship of God. Thus Israel was never adversely affected by the Gibeonites.

were terrified for our lives on account of you, so we did this thing. <sup>25</sup>Now see, we are in your hands. Do whatever seems good and just in your sight to do to us."

<sup>26</sup>He treated them accordingly and saved them from the hands of the Israelites, so that they did not kill them.

<sup>27</sup>So on that day Joshua made them woodcutters and water carriers for the community and for the altar of the Lord to this day at whatever place He might choose.<sup>1</sup>

1406-1405 B. C.

10 WHEN ADONIZEDEK,<sup>m</sup> THE KING of Jerusalem,<sup>n</sup> heard that Joshua had captured Ai and had destroyed it, that he had done to Ai and her king as he had done to Jericho and her king and that the inhabitants of Gibeon had made an agreement with Israel and were already with them, <sup>2</sup>he was very fearful because Gibeon was a city as one of the royal cities,<sup>o</sup> larger than Ai, and all its men were valiant fighters. <sup>3</sup>Therefore, Adonizedek, the king of Jerusalem, sent word to Hoham king of Hebron, to Piram king of Jarmuth, to Japhia king of Lachish, and to Debir king of Eglon, <sup>4</sup>"Come over and help me; let us attack Gibeon because she has made an agreement with Joshua and the Israelites." <sup>5</sup>So the five kings of the Amorites, the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, and the king of Eglon, together with all of their troops, joined forces and moved up, making camp at Gibeon. Then they fought against it.

<sup>6</sup>The men of Gibeon sent to Joshua at the camp in Gilgal. "Do not forsake your servants," they said. "Come to us quickly, and save us, and help us; for all the kings of the Amorites who inhabit the mountains have united against us."<sup>q</sup> <sup>7</sup>So Joshua went up from Gilgal,<sup>s</sup> <sup>10</sup>and the Lord threw them into panic before Israel and thus administered a sound defeat to them at Gibeon; then pursuing them down the slope of Beth-horon<sup>t</sup> they engaged them at Azekah and at Makkedah. <sup>11</sup>As they fled from Israel down the slope of Beth-horon to Azekah, the Lord cast large stones upon them from the sky, and they died. More died from the hailstones than the Israelites killed with the sword.

<sup>12</sup>Now Joshua spoke to the Lord on the day that He delivered up the Amorites to the Israelites; and he said before the eyes of Israel,

"O sun, wait in Gibeon!

Wait in the valley of Ajalon, O moon!"<sup>u</sup>

<sup>13</sup>The sun waited and the moon stood still, while a nation took vengeance on its enemies. Is it not written in the book of Jasher,<sup>v</sup>

"The sun stood still in the midst of the sky

And did not hasten to set for a whole day?"<sup>w</sup>

<sup>14</sup>There was not another day like that before or after it, when the Lord responded to a man's voice, because the Lord was fighting for Israel.

<sup>15</sup>Joshua and all Israel with him returned to the camp at Gilgal; <sup>16</sup>but these five kings fled, hiding themselves in the cave at Makkedah. <sup>17</sup>However, the information came to Joshua, "The

1) The Lord indicated to Israel where they were to erect altars for His worship. The Gibeonites helped rebuild the walls of Jerusalem after the exile (Neh. 7:25). At Gibeon David erected a tabernacle (1 Chron. 21:29). Solomon received a message from God in a dream at Gibeon (1 Kings 3: 5-15; 9:2).

m) "Lord of righteousness." n) "City of peace." o) No king was in residence there (ch. 9:11).

q) See note on ch. 9:15.

r) This was the most formidable alliance that Israel had yet encountered in Canaan.

s) The distance was more than twenty miles and uphill all the way.

t) Upper and lower Beth-horon were separated by a slope of more than two miles, descending 700 feet. u) From Joshua's position, west of Gibeon in the early morning, the sun would have been in the east over Gibeon and the moon in the west over the valley of Ajalon.

v) A compilation in poetic form of the heroic deeds of Israel's notable leaders.

w) There is no question about the omnipotence and authority of God at whose command the earth, rotating at a speed of 1000 miles per hour, would immediately stand still; but there is a question about the significance of having this quoted from The Book of Jasher, a book of poetry in which marvelous achievements were sung with oriental exultation.

five kings who hid themselves in the cave at Makkedah have been found."

<sup>18</sup>"Roll large boulders to the mouth of the cave," said Joshua, "and station men by it to guard them. <sup>19</sup>Do not stand there yourselves; pursue your enemies; cut off their rear; do not let them enter their cities; for the LORD your God has delivered them into your hand." <sup>20</sup>When Joshua and the Israelites had finished slaughtering them in a huge battle in which they wiped them out — only those who fled had escaped from them by entering the fortified cities — <sup>21</sup>all the people returned peacefully to Joshua at the camp in Makkedah; and no one dared to say a word against any of the Israelites.

<sup>22</sup>Then Joshua said, "Open the mouth of the cave, and bring me these five kings out of it." <sup>23</sup>They did so, bringing to him these five kings from the cave: the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, and the king of Eglon. <sup>24</sup>When these kings had been brought to Joshua, he summoned all the men of Israel and said to the officers of the armed forces who had accompanied him, "Come up, and put your feet on the necks of these kings." They went up and put their feet upon their necks.* <sup>25</sup>Then Joshua said to them, "Be not afraid or dismayed! Be resolute and strong, for so the LORD will treat all your enemies with whom you go to war." <sup>26</sup>Afterward, Joshua struck the captives and slew them, then hung their bodies on five trees, where they were suspended until evening. <sup>27</sup>At sundown, Joshua issued the order, so they took their bodies down from the trees and threw them in the cave where they had hidden themselves. Over the mouth of the cave they put large boulders, which remain there until this day.

<sup>28</sup>That same day Joshua captured Makkedah, and, ravaging it and the king with the sword, he destroyed both of them together with all the inhabitants, none of whom were spared. He treated the king of Makkedah as he had treated the king of Jericho.

<sup>29</sup>Then together with all Israel, Joshua passed from Makkedah to Libnah, which he attacked. <sup>30</sup>The LORD also delivered it and its king into the hand of Israel. Joshua ravaged it and all its inhabitants with the sword; none of them were spared. He treated the king as he had treated the king of Jericho. <sup>31</sup>Then together with all Israel, Joshua passed from Libnah to Lachish. After making camp there, he attacked it, <sup>32</sup>and the LORD delivered Lachish into the hand of Israel. Joshua captured it on the second day<sup>y</sup> and wielded the sword against it and all its inhabitants just as he did to Libnah. <sup>33</sup>Then Hiram king of Gezer<sup>z</sup> came to help Lachish; but Joshua fought against him and his troops until he had not a man left. <sup>34</sup>Joshua together with all Israel moved from Lachish to Eglon. After making camp there, he attacked it. <sup>35</sup>On that same day, he captured it and wielded the sword against it. He destroyed all the inhabitants that day, as he had done with Lachish. <sup>36</sup>Joshua together with all Israel moved from Eglon to Hebron and attacked it. <sup>37</sup>When they captured it, they ravaged it with the sword, its king, its suburbs and all their inhabitants, sparing no one, as they had done to Eglon. They destroyed it and all its inhabitants.

1405-1404 B. C.(a)

<sup>38</sup>Then Joshua, together with all Israel, turned back to Debir and attacked it. <sup>39</sup>When they had captured the city, its king, and all its suburbs, they wielded the sword against them, destroying all its inhabitants; they spared no one. They treated Debir and its king as they had Hebron and Libnah and their kings.

<sup>40</sup>Joshua conquered the whole country, the mountains, the southland,<sup>b</sup> the sea plain, the foothills, and all their kings. He spared no one but destroyed every breathing creature, as the LORD God of Israel had ordered.<sup>c</sup> <sup>41</sup>From

x) An eastern custom, demonstrating complete dominance.

y) Lachish was the best fortified city in the Amorite league.

z) Apparently Joshua never conquered Gezer; for it remained a Canaanite stronghold long after his time (ch. 16:10; Judg. 1:29).

a) The datings between 1406 and 1400 are approximate; but definitely in that period.

b) The Negev. c) When man works harmoniously with God, there is no limit to his achievements.

Kadesh-barnea to Gaza, Joshua overcame them and from the entire territory of Goshen<sup>d</sup> to Gibeon. <sup>42</sup>He captured all these kings and their lands in one campaign, for the LORD God of Israel fought for Israel. <sup>43</sup>Then Joshua together with all Israel returned to their camp at Gilgal.

1404-1403 B. C.

11 WHEN JABIN KING OF HAZOR heard these things, he sent to Jobab king of Madon, to the king of Shimron, to the king of Achshaph, <sup>2</sup>and to the kings in the mountains to the north, in the desert south of Chinneroth, on the sea plain, and in the uplands of Dor to the west — <sup>3</sup>the Canaanites in the east and in the west, the Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites, and Jebusites in the mountains, and the Hivites at the base of Hermon in the land of Mizpeh. <sup>4</sup>They came forth in mass with all their troops, as numerous as the sand on the seashore, with an immense number of horses and chariots.<sup>e</sup> <sup>5</sup>When all these kings had made an agreement, they came and camped together by the waters of Merom to fight against Israel.

<sup>6</sup>Be not afraid of them,<sup>f</sup> the LORD said to Joshua. For tomorrow at this time I shall deliver them all, slain, to Israel; you must hamstring their horses<sup>g</sup> and burn their chariots. <sup>7</sup>Then Joshua with all the soldiers came upon them by surprise at the waters of Merom and attacked them. <sup>8</sup>When the LORD delivered them into the hand of Israel, they defeated them and pursued them as far as the greater Sidon,<sup>h</sup> Misrephoth-maim,<sup>i</sup> and the valley of Mizpeh eastward; and they kept on killing them until none were left. <sup>9</sup>Joshua treated them as the LORD had said; he

hamstrung their horses and burned their chariots.

<sup>10</sup>Then Joshua turned back, captured Hazor,<sup>j</sup> and slew its king with the sword; for Hazor had been the head of all these kingdoms. <sup>11</sup>He destroyed every living being in it with the sword, no breathing creature survived, and he burned Hazor. <sup>12</sup>When Joshua had captured all the cities of these kings and the kings themselves, he ravaged them with the sword as Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded. <sup>13</sup>However, Israel did not burn any city which stood upon a hill,<sup>k</sup> except Hazor, which alone Joshua burned. <sup>14</sup>The Israelites took all the spoils of these cities together with the livestock, but they massacred every person with the sword until they had annihilated them; they did not spare a soul. <sup>15</sup>What the LORD had commanded Moses His servant, Moses commanded Joshua; and Joshua carried it out without deviating in any respect from all that the LORD had commanded Moses. <sup>16</sup>Joshua took this whole land:<sup>l</sup> the mountains, all the southland, the whole land of Goshen, the sea plain, the desert, the mountains of Israel and its plains <sup>17</sup>from Mount Halak,<sup>m</sup> which stands opposite Seir, as far as Baalgad<sup>n</sup> in the valley of Lebanon at the base of Mount Hermon. He captured all their kings and put them to death.

<sup>18</sup>Joshua made war against these kings for a long time.<sup>o</sup> <sup>19</sup>There was not a city which made a peace treaty with the Israelites, except the Hivites living in Gibeon. They took them all in war, <sup>20</sup>because their determination to wage war with Israel came from the LORD, in order that Israel might destroy them without showing mercy; then they

d) A city in the hill country of Judah.

e) Josephus' figures may be exaggerated, but he tells of 300,000 infantry, 10,000 cavalry, and 20,000 war chariots (Antiquities V 1:12). The Israelites had only infantry.

f) This army was larger than that of the five Amorite kings, which Israel had conquered in the south.

g) By cutting their leg tendons, the horses would no longer be fit for military service. Israel must not develop cavalry (Deut. 17:16; II Samuel 8:4), lest they should trust in horses for their help, rather than in God (Isa. 31: 1, 3).

h) Sidon on the coast north of Tyre, a metropolis of Phoenicia.

i) Literally, "Burnings by the sea"; probably the site of smelting pits or salt basins.

j) Hazor was later recaptured by the Canaanites (Judg. 4:1-3).

k) Cities built on mounds formed by the ruins of earlier cities could be securely fortified because of their elevation. Joshua did not destroy them, because they were excellent sites for Israelite settlement. l) See ch. 10:41.

m) "Bare mountain." n) The site of a shrine for Gad, the god of fortune.

o) Altogether seven years.

might be annihilated, just as the LORD commanded Moscs.

<sup>21</sup>At that time, Joshua went forth and annihilated the Anakim<sup>p</sup> throughout the mountain regions, including Hebron, Debir, Anab, and all the mountain country of Judah and Israel.<sup>q</sup> He destroyed them along with their cities. <sup>22</sup>There were no Anakim left in the land of the Israelites, except those who remained in Gaza, Gath, and Ashdod.

<sup>23</sup>Joshua took over the whole land, in accordance with all the LORD had said to Moscs. Then Joshua granted it for a permanent possession to Israel, to each tribe its share;<sup>r</sup> and the land had rest from war.<sup>s</sup>

1406 B. C.

12 THESE ARE THE KINGS OF THE land on the east side of the Jordan<sup>t</sup> whom the Israelites had defeated and whose land they acquired from the Arnon valley to Mount Hermon, including all the desert to the east: <sup>2</sup>Sihon king of the Amorites, who lived in Heshbon, whose dominion extended from Aroer on the edge of the Arnon valley and the middle of the valley over the half of Gilead which reaches to the Jabbok valley, the border of the Ammonites, <sup>3</sup>including the desert to the Sea of Chinneroth eastward and to the Arabah or Salt Sea eastward toward Beth-jeshimoth and southward to the slopes of Pisgah; <sup>4</sup>the territory of Og king of Bashan, one of the surviving Rephaim,<sup>u</sup> who inhabited Ashtaroth and Edrei, <sup>5</sup>whose dominion extended from Mount Hermon, Salecah, and all Bashan to the Geshurite and Maacathite border and over the half of Gilead, which reaches to the border of Sihon king of Heshbon. <sup>6</sup>When Moscs, the servant of the LORD, and the Israelites had defeated them, Moscs, the servant of the LORD,<sup>v</sup> granted this territory to the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half tribe of Manasseh.

<sup>7</sup>These are the kings of the land on the west side of the Jordan, whom Joshua and the Israelites defeated, from Baal-gad in the valley of Lebanon to Mount Halak, which stands opposite Seir.<sup>w</sup> (To the tribes of Israel, to each according to its share, Joshua granted this land, <sup>8</sup>the mountains, the maritime plain, the desert, the foothills, the wilderness, and the southland, all of which had been inhabited by the Hittites, the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites): <sup>9</sup>the king of Jericho, the king of Ai which is near Bethel, <sup>10</sup>the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, <sup>11</sup>the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, <sup>12</sup>the king of Eglon, the king of Gezer, <sup>13</sup>the king of Debir, the king of Geder, <sup>14</sup>the king of Hormah, the king of Arad, <sup>15</sup>the king of Libnah, the king of Adullam, <sup>16</sup>the king of Makkedah, the king of Bethel, <sup>17</sup>the king of Tappuah, the king of Hopher, <sup>18</sup>the king of Aphek, the king of Lasharon, <sup>19</sup>the king of Madon, the king of Hazor, <sup>20</sup>the king of Shimron-meron, the king of Achshaph, <sup>21</sup>the king of Taanach, the king of Megiddo, <sup>22</sup>the king of Kedesh, the king of Jokneam in Carmel, <sup>23</sup>the king of Dor in the uplands of Dor, the king of Goyim in Gilgal,<sup>x</sup> <sup>24</sup>the king of Tirzah: thirty-one kings in all.

1399 B. C.

13 WHEN JOSHUA HAD BECOME OLD with the passing of years, the LORD said to him: You have grown old with the passing of years, and still

p) These were the giants feared by Moses' spies (Num. 13:33).

q) Later Hebron and Debir were recaptured by the Anakim. Caleb finally conquered them (Ch. 15:14).

r) As determined by lot (Num. 34:13).

s) Although large scale conflict ended, local resistance continued for a long time. However, Joshua accomplished what the LORD had commanded; the domination of the nations in Palestine was ended and that of the Israelites had begun. It remained for each tribe individually to exterminate the remaining elements of resistance (Ex. 23:28-33).

t) Transjordan. u) Men of unusually large stature, who were an aboriginal race of Palestine and of the country east of Jordan. Despite their formidable size, they were often victims of conquest (Gen. 14:5; Deut. 2:10-12, 20-23).

v) A phrase often repeated, for only as God's servant could Moscs lead to victory.

w) From north to south.

x) This Gilgal is not to be identified with either the Gilgal near Jericho or the one near Bethel. It was probably located south of Carmel, 42 miles north of Jerusalem.

much land remains to be taken. <sup>2</sup>The land remaining is the whole territory of the Philistines and all that the Geshurites,<sup>y</sup> <sup>3</sup>which is considered Canaanite,<sup>z</sup> from Shihor<sup>a</sup> next to Egypt north to the region of Ekron. There are five Philistine principalities,<sup>b</sup> the Gazite, the Ashdodite, the Ashkelonite, the Gittite, and the Ekronite, besides the Avvim<sup>c</sup> <sup>4</sup>to the south. Then there is all the land of the Canaanites from Mearah, which belongs to the Sidonians, as far as Aphek near the border of the Amorites,<sup>d</sup> <sup>5</sup>and the land of the Gebalites,<sup>e</sup> and all Lebanon eastward from Baalgad at the base of Mount Hermon to the entrance of Hamath.<sup>f</sup> <sup>6</sup>All those who live in the mountains from Lebanon to Misrephoth-maim, that is, all the Sidonians, I will drive out for the sake of the Israelites; allot it to Israel now, as I have commanded you. <sup>7</sup>Distribute<sup>g</sup> this land for a permanent possession to the nine tribes and to the half tribe of Manassah.

<sup>8</sup>With the other half tribe of Manassah the Reubenites and Gadites had received their portion which Moses granted them on the eastern side of the Jordan, because Moses the servant of the LORD had already granted it to them. <sup>9</sup>It extended from Aroer, on the edge of the Arnon valley, and the city near the center of the valley, across the whole plain between Medeba and Dibon, <sup>10</sup>including all the cities of Sihon king of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon, to the border of the Ammonites, <sup>11</sup>and Gilead and the territory of the Geshurites and Maacathites and all Mount Hermon, all Bashan to Salcah; <sup>12</sup>all the kingdom of Og in Bashan, who reigned in Ashtaroth and in Edrei and was one of the surviving Rephaim.

Moses had defeated and driven out these peoples, <sup>13</sup>but the Israelites did not drive out the Geshurites nor the Maacathites; so Geshur and Maacath live in the midst of Israel to this day.

<sup>14</sup>Only to the tribe of Levi he did not grant a heritage; the sacrifices to the LORD God of Israel were their portion, as He had told them.<sup>h</sup>

<sup>15</sup>Moses had made a grant to the tribe of the Reubenites by families.

<sup>16</sup>To them went the territory from Aroer on the edge of the Arnon valley, and the city in the center of the valley, across the whole plain beyond Medeba <sup>17</sup>to Heshbon, with all the cities on the plain: Dibon, Bamoth-baal, Beth-baal-meon, <sup>18</sup>Jahaz, Kedemoth, Mepha-ath, <sup>19</sup>Kiriathaim, Sibmah, Zereth-shahar on the hill which is in the valley, <sup>20</sup>Beth-peor, the slopes of Pisgah, and Beth-jesimoth — <sup>21</sup>all the cities of the plateau, and the whole kingdom of Sihon<sup>i</sup> king of the Amorites, who ruled in Heshbon, whom Moses defeated together with the commanders of Midian, Evi, Rekem, Zur, Hur, and Reba, the vassals of Sihon, who lived in the land. <sup>22</sup>The Israelites also slew with the sword Balaam the diviner, son of Beor, among those who were killed by them.<sup>j</sup> <sup>23</sup>The boundary of the Reubenites was the Jordan. All this was the heritage of the Reubenites for their families, including both the cities and their suburbs.

<sup>24</sup>Moses had made an assignment to the tribe of Gad, to the Gadites for their families. <sup>25</sup>Their territory included Jazer, all the cities of Gilead, and half the land of the Ammonites, to Aroer, which is opposite Rabbah, <sup>26</sup>from Heshbon to Ramath-mizpeh and Betonim, and from Mahanaim to the

y) A small tribe in the desert near the Egyptian border.

z) Although this area was currently held by the Philistines, it was originally Canaanite territory and thus part of Israel's domain.

a) Shihor usually refers to the Nile, but here it applies to the brook of Egypt.

b) Philistia was a confederacy of five city-states.

c) The Avvim were a pre-Canaanite people who had survived the Philistine conquest of western Palestine. d) Apparently some Amorite people had settled north of Palestine, while their nation dwelt east of the Jordan. e) Gebal is the ancient Byblus.

f) The northern domain of the Canaanites extended north of Sidon to Aphek on the coastal plain and to the entrance of Hamath, located on the river Orontes in the Lebanon valley. The gorge between Lebanon and Hermon is believed to be the entrance of Hamath.

g) Although the conquest of Canaan was not yet complete, the distribution of the land gave the Israelites a sense of success which might spur them on as tribes to finish their task.

h) Num. 18. i) That is, the whole southern portion of the kingdom of Sihon. See vs. 27.

j) Num. 31:8.

boundary of Debir; <sup>27</sup>and in the valley<sup>k</sup> Beth-haram, Beth-nimrah, Succoth, and Zaphon, the rest of the kingdom of Sihon king of Heshbon, the Jordan and its area up to the end of the Sea of Chinnereth<sup>l</sup> on the eastern side of the Jordan. <sup>28</sup>This became the heritage of the Gadites for their families, both the cities and their suburbs.

<sup>29</sup>Moses had also made an assignment to the half tribe of Manasseh for its own families.<sup>m</sup> <sup>30</sup>Their territory extended from Mahanaim over all Bashan, the whole kingdom of Og king of Bashan, and included all the tent dwellings of Jair which are in Bashan, being sixty settlements. <sup>31</sup>Half of Gilead, Ashtaroth and Edrei, cities in the kingdom of Og in Bashan, went to the descendants of Machir the son of Manasseh, to half of the Machirites for their families. <sup>32</sup>These were the allocations that Moses made on the plains of Moab across the Jordan, east of Jericho. <sup>33</sup>But Moses did not grant a heritage to the tribe of Levi, because, as he told them, the LORD God of Israel is their heritage.

1399 B. C.

14 THESE ARE THE HERITAGES which the Israelites received in the land of Canaan, which Eleazar the priest, Joshua the son of Nun, and the paternal heads of the tribes of Israel<sup>n</sup> allotted to them <sup>2</sup>by the lot of heritage, as the LORD had ordered by the ministry of Moses for the nine and a half tribes. <sup>3</sup>For Moses had granted the heritage of the two and a half tribes east of the Jordan; but he had not granted to the Levites a heritage among them <sup>4</sup>because the descendants of Joseph, Manasseh and Ephraim, accounted for two tribes.<sup>o</sup> Therefore they did not grant an allotment in the land to the Levites, except cities to live in and their pasture lands for their herds and flocks. <sup>5</sup>The Israelites did as the LORD had commanded Moses, when they distributed the land.

<sup>6</sup>Certain ones from Judah came to Joshua at Gilgal; and Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite<sup>p</sup> said to him, "You know what the LORD said to Moses, the man of God, concerning you and me, at Kadesh-barnea.<sup>q</sup> <sup>7</sup>I was forty years of age when Moses the servant of the LORD sent me from Kadesh-barnea to spy out the land, and I brought back a report to him according to my convictions. <sup>8</sup>My kinsmen who went up with me disheartened the people, but I followed the LORD my God wholeheartedly. <sup>9</sup>On that day Moses said under oath, 'The land on which your feet have walked will be a heritage for you and for your descendants forever, because you have followed the LORD my God wholeheartedly.'<sup>r</sup> <sup>10</sup>Now the LORD has sustained me, as He said, these forty-five years,<sup>s</sup> since the LORD spoke this word to Moses, when Israel was traveling in the desert. Today I am eighty-five years old. <sup>11</sup>Yet I am still as strong as I was the day when Moses sent me out; I am as strong now as I was then, for war, and for going and coming.<sup>t</sup> <sup>12</sup>So, give me this mountain region, as the LORD said that day. Although you heard that day that the Anakim were there and their cities were fortified with stone, we hope that the LORD will be with me, and I shall oust them, as the LORD said."

<sup>13</sup>Joshua then blessed Caleb the son of Jephunneh and gave him Hebron for a heritage. <sup>14</sup>So it came about that Hebron has been the heritage of Caleb son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite until this day; it was because he followed the LORD God of Israel wholeheartedly. <sup>15</sup>Hebron was formerly the city of

k) The Jordan valley. l) Lake of Galilee.

m) Lots were cast by tribes at Moses' direction (Num. 26:55, 56).

n) Num. 34:16-29. o) Compare ch. 18:1-7.

p) Kenaz is an Edomite tribe. Caleb is associated with Judah [Num. 13:6; 34:19] because the Kenizzite and Judahite strains were blended by marriage. But cf. I Chron. 2:4, 5, 18, 19; 4:13-15.

q) Num. 13 and 14; Deut. 1:34-38.

r) As a spy, Caleb had in 1444 B.C. visited the Anakim (Deut. 1:28). Then Moses promised him the region he had visited (Deut. 1:36).

s) 45 years after 1444 B.C. brings this date to 1399 B.C.

t) We have here no "Thus says the LORD," but expression of strong and healthy feeling. God had marvelously preserved Caleb.

Arba, named after one who had been great among the Anakim. Then the land had rest from war.

1399 B. C.

15 THE PORTION THAT WENT TO the tribe of Judah for their families extended to the border of Edom in the wilderness of Zin in the Negeb on the southern end. <sup>2</sup>Their southern boundary<sup>u</sup> ran from the edge of the Salt Sea at the south bay <sup>3</sup>southward to the slopes of Scorpion Pass, then through Zin south of Kadesh-barnea, curving back to Karka through Hezron and Addar, <sup>4</sup>then past Azmon, and along the brook of Egypt out to the sea. This will be your southern border. <sup>5</sup>Their eastern border was the Salt Sea to the mouth of the Jordan. Their boundary on the north runs from the bay of the sea at the mouth of the Jordan <sup>6</sup>up to Beth-hoglah, then north of Beth-arabah up to the stone of Bohan<sup>v</sup> son of Reuben, <sup>7</sup>on to Debir in the valley of Achor, then turning north to Gilgal<sup>w</sup> opposite the slopes of Adummim which are on the south side of the valley. Further the border passes along to the waters of En-shemesh and ends at En-rogel. <sup>8</sup>Then the border runs up the valley of the son of Hinnom to the south side of the Jebusites, which is Jerusalem, up to the top of the mountain which faces the valley of Hinnom,<sup>x</sup> on the west, at the edge of the valley of Rephaim to the north. <sup>9</sup>Then the border curves around from the top of the mountain to the spring of the waters of Nephtoah, then on to the cities of Mount Ephron where it curves around Baalah, which is Kiriath-jearim. <sup>10</sup>Then the border turns westward from Baalah to Mount Seir,<sup>y</sup> running past the north side of Mount Jearim, which is Chesalon, and on down to Beth-shemesh, then through Timnah <sup>11</sup>to the north side of Ekron around Shikkeron past Mount Baalah on to Jabneel and out to the sea. <sup>12</sup>The western border is the shore line of the Great Sea. This is the border of the tribe of Judah surrounding the territory belonging to their families.

<sup>13</sup>According to the LORD's instruction to Joshua, he gave Caleb son of Jephunneh an allotment among the Judahites, namely the City of Arba, the father of Anak, which is now Hebron. <sup>14</sup>So Caleb<sup>z</sup> ousted from there the three sons of Anak, Sheshai, Ahiman, and Talmai, the offspring of Anak. <sup>15</sup>From there he went to the inhabitants of Debir. The name of Debir was formerly Kiriath-sepher.

<sup>16</sup>"To whoever attacks Kiriath-sepher and captures it," announced Caleb, "I will give Achsah my daughter for a wife." <sup>17</sup>Othniel, a Kenizzite and relative<sup>a</sup> of Caleb, captured it; so he gave him Achsah his daughter for a wife. <sup>18</sup>Upon her arrival, she persuaded him to ask for a field from her father. And when she dismounted from her donkey, Caleb said to her, "What is your desire?"

<sup>19</sup>"Give me a blessing," she said, "and since you have given me dry southland, give me water springs, too." So he gave her the upper and lower springs.

<sup>20</sup>This is the heritage of the tribe of Judah<sup>b</sup> for their families. <sup>21</sup>The cities of the Judah tribe from the frontier on the border of Edom on the south were Kabzeel, Eder, Jagur, <sup>22</sup>Kinah, Dimonah, Adadah, <sup>23</sup>Kedesh, Hazor, Ithnan, <sup>24</sup>Ziph, Telem, Bealoth, <sup>25</sup>Hazor-hadattah, Keriath-hezron, which is Hazor, <sup>26</sup>Amam, Shema, Moladah, <sup>27</sup>Hazargaddah, Heshmon, Beth-pelet, <sup>28</sup>Hazarshual, Beersheba, Biziothiah, <sup>29</sup>Baalath, Iim, Ezem, <sup>30</sup>Eltolad, Chesil, Hormah, <sup>31</sup>Ziklag, Madmannah, Sansannah,

u) The southern border of Judah was identical with the southern border of Canaan (Num. 34:1-5). v) An unidentified site which commemorated a hero from the tribe of Reuben.

w) Not the Gilgal which was the site of Israel's first camp in Canaan (ch. 4:19). It is the Gelliloth of ch. 18:17.

x) Later, human sacrifice was practiced in this valley in the worship of Moloch (II Kings 23:10; II Chron. 28:3; 33:6; Jer. 7:31). The Hebrew "Ge-Hinnom" became the Greek "Gehenna," the place of eternal torment (Matthew 5:29, 30). y) Not the Mount Seir in Edom.

z) Joshua had previously exterminated the Anakim and destroyed their cities (ch. 11:21-23).

a) According to Judges 1:13, Othniel was a son of Caleb's younger half brother.

b) Judah's territory included four distinct regions: the Negeb in the south, the maritime plain in the west, the mountainous central area, and the desert in the east.

<sup>32</sup>Lebaoth, Shilhim, Ain, and Rimmon. In all there were twenty-nine<sup>c</sup> cities with their suburbs.

<sup>33</sup>On the sea plain, Eshtaol, Zorah, Ashnah, <sup>34</sup>Zanoah, Engannim, Tappuah, Enam, <sup>35</sup>Jarmuth, Adullam, Socoh, Azekah, <sup>36</sup>Sharaim, Adithaim, Gederah, and Gederothaim: fourteen cities and their suburbs.

<sup>37</sup>Zenan, Hadashah, Migdal-gad, <sup>38</sup>Dilean, Mizpeh, Joktheel, <sup>39</sup>Lachish, Bozkath, Eglon, <sup>40</sup>Cabbon, Lahmam, Chitlish, <sup>41</sup>Gederoth, Beth-dagon, Naamah, and Makkedah — sixteen cities and their suburbs.

<sup>42</sup>Libnah, Ether, Ashan, <sup>43</sup>Iphtah, Ashnah, Nezib, <sup>44</sup>Keilah, Achzib, and Mareshah — nine cities and their suburbs.

<sup>45</sup>Ekron with its villages and suburbs; <sup>46</sup>all the towns between Ekron and the sea, all that were by the side of Ashdod with their suburbs.

<sup>47</sup>Ashdod with its villages and suburbs, Gaza with its hamlets and suburbs, as far as the brook of Egypt and the coast of the Great Sea.

<sup>48</sup>In the mountains, Shamir, Jattir, Socoh, <sup>49</sup>Dannah, Kiriath-sannah, which is Debir, <sup>50</sup>Anab, Eshtemoah, Anim, <sup>51</sup>Goshen, Holon, and Giloh — eleven cities and their suburbs.

<sup>52</sup>Arab, Dumah, Eshan, <sup>53</sup>Janum, Beth-tappuah, Aphekah, <sup>54</sup>Iimtah, Kiriath-arba, which is Hebron, and Zior — nine cities and their suburbs.

<sup>55</sup>Maon, Carmel, Ziph, Juttah, <sup>56</sup>Jezreel, Jokdeam, Zanoah, <sup>57</sup>Kain, Gibeah, and Timmah — ten cities and their suburbs.

<sup>58</sup>Halhul, Beth-zur, Gedor, <sup>59</sup>Maarath, Beth-anoth, and Eltekon — six cities with their suburbs.

<sup>60</sup>Kiriath-baal, which is Kiriath-jear-

im, and Rabbah<sup>d</sup> — two cities and their suburbs.

<sup>61</sup>In the desert, Beth-arabah, Mid-din, Secacah, <sup>62</sup>Nibshan, the City of Salt, and Engedi — six cities and their suburbs.

<sup>63</sup>However, Judah was not able to expel the Jebusites who inhabit Jerusalem, so they live with Judah in Jerusalem to this day.<sup>e</sup>

1399-1398 B. C.

16 THEN THE LOT OF THE DESCENDANTS of Joseph came up. (Its border runs) from the Jordan opposite Jericho<sup>f</sup> to the waters of Jericho in the east and through the desert<sup>g</sup> from Jericho to Beth-el in the mountains. <sup>2</sup>From Beth-el (Luz)<sup>h</sup> it runs on to the territory of the Archites at Ataroth <sup>3</sup>and westward down to the territory of the Japhletites, on to the territory of lower Beth-horon, to Gezer, and it ends at the sea.<sup>i</sup>

<sup>4</sup>Manasseh and Ephraim, the descendants of Joseph, received a heritage. <sup>5</sup>This is the territory of the Ephraimites, which belongs to their families. The border of their heritage runs from Ataroth-addar on the east to Upper Beth-horon<sup>j</sup> <sup>6</sup>and on out to the sea. Michmethath is on the north. Then on the east the border curves round to Taanathshiloh, and eastward to Janoah, <sup>7</sup>then down from Janoah past Ataroth<sup>k</sup> to Naarah, and after touching at Jericho,<sup>l</sup> it goes out to the Jordan.

<sup>8</sup>The border runs from Tappuah west along the river Kanah and out to the sea. This is the heritage of the tribe of the Ephraimites for their families.

<sup>9</sup>There are also the separate cities located within the heritage of the Manassites, which belong to the Ephraimites, all these cities and their suburbs.

c) In the following passage, the differences between the number of cities listed and the totals cited are due to inclusion or exclusion of suburbs or hamlets.

d) The location of Rabbah is unknown, but it is not to be identified with the Rabbah of ch. 13:25.

e) Although Jerusalem was located in the territory of Benjamin (ch. 18:28), Judah conquered and burned it after Joshua's death (Judg. 1:8). But apparently the Jebusites rebuilt it, because later the Benjamites were unable to oust them (Judg. 1:21). Jerusalem was not finally conquered by the Israelites until the time of David (II Samuel 5:6-10). f) Jericho itself was not included.

g) The desert of Beth-aven east of Beth-el.

h) The name of Beth-el was formerly Luz (Gen. 28:19; Josh. 18:13; Judg. 1:23).

i) The Mediterranean.

j) In describing the southern border of the tribes of Joseph, upper Beth-horon is mentioned in vs. 5 and lower Beth-horon in vs. 3. These places were closely situated.

k) Not the Ataroth mentioned in vs. 2, 5. l) Specifically, at the waters of Jericho. See vs. 1.

<sup>10</sup>However they did not expel the Canaanites living in Gezer;<sup>m</sup> so to this day the Canaanites live in the midst of Ephraim; but they have become bond servants.

1399-1398 B. C.

17 THEN THERE WAS THE LOT FOR the tribe of Manasseh, because he was the first-born of Joseph. To Machir, the first-born of Manasseh, the father of Gilcad, because he was a man of war, Gilcad and Bashan had been allotted; <sup>2</sup>also for the families of the rest of the Manassites, namely, the Abiezrites,<sup>n</sup> Helekites, Asrielites, Shechemites, Iipherites, and Shemidaites — these were the families of the male descendants of Manasseh the son of Joseph.

<sup>3</sup>Zelophehad the son of Iipher, the son of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh,<sup>o</sup> had no sons but only daughters. These were the names of his daughters: Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah. <sup>4</sup>They met with Eleazar the priest, Joshua the son of Nun, and the officers, and said, "The LORD commanded Moses to give us an inheritance among our kinsmen."<sup>p</sup> So they gave them an inheritance among their father's kinsmen as the LORD said. <sup>5</sup>Thus there turned out to be ten portions of Manasseh, besides the territory of Gilead and Bashan on the other side of the Jordan, <sup>6</sup>because the daughters of Manasseh received an inheritance among his sons. The land of Gilead belonged to the other Manassites.

<sup>7</sup>The border of Manasseh runs from Asher to Michmethath, which lies east of Shechem; then it goes southward to the inhabitants of En-Tappuah. <sup>8</sup>The territory of Tappuah belongs to Manasseh, but Tappuah on the border of Manasseh belongs to the Ephraimites. <sup>9</sup>The border runs down the river

Kanah and to the south of it. The cities here, among the cities of Manasseh, belong to Ephraim. Then the border runs along the north side of the river and ends at the sea. <sup>10</sup>The south side belongs to Ephraim, the north side to Manasseh, and the sea is their border. They extend to Asher in the north and to Issachar in the east. <sup>11</sup>In Issachar and Asher, Manasseh owns Beth-shean with its villages, Ibleam with its villages, the inhabitants of Dor<sup>q</sup> with its villages, the inhabitants of En-dor with its villages, the inhabitants of Taanach with its villages, and the inhabitants of Megiddo with its villages — the third city is Naphath. <sup>12</sup>The Manassites could not take possession of these cities because the Canaanites were determined to live in this territory. <sup>13</sup>Although the Israelites were strong enough to make the Canaanites servants, they could not expel them completely.

<sup>14</sup>The Josephites said to Joshua, "Why did you give us an inheritance consisting of one lot — one portion — seeing that we have such a large population because the LORD has thus far blessed us?"

<sup>15</sup>"If you have such a large population," replied Joshua, "go up to the forest and clear a place for yourselves in the region of the Perizzites and Rephaim, since the mountains of Ephraim are not sufficient for you."

<sup>16</sup>"The mountains are not sufficient for us," said the Josephites, "but all the Canaanites who live in the lowlands, both in Beth-shean and its villages and in the valley of Jezreel, have iron chariots."<sup>s</sup>

<sup>17</sup>Then Joshua said to the house of Joseph, to Ephraim and Manasseh, "You have a large population and great strength. You shall not have only one portion."<sup>t</sup> <sup>18</sup>The mountain country will be yours. Although it is forest, you

m) Gezer was conquered by the king of Egypt, who gave it to Solomon as a dowry (I Kings 9:16).

n) Gilead's clan (Judg. 6:11, 24).

o) Joshua's conquest of Palestine occurred around 1400 B.C. About 350 years must have elapsed between the lifetimes of Manasseh and Zelophehad's daughters. It is therefore notable that Zelophehad's genealogy is in accord with the estimated chronology of current archeologists.

p) Num. 27:1-11; 36:5-13.

q) Dor is specifically identified as Naphath-dor, near the west coast, 9 miles north of later Caesarea.

r) Again the datings are approximate; but we know that further conquests and distributions took place between 1400 and 1395 B.C., and much effort was involved.

s) The chariots were wooden and plated with iron.

t) Joshua encourages them to make full use of what they were given; he does not give them an additional allotment.

will clear it, and it will be yours in its entirety, because you will expel the Canaanites, even though they have iron chariots and are strong."

1398-1397 B. C.

18 THE WHOLE ISRAELITE CONgregation assembled at Shiloh<sup>u</sup> where they set up the tabernacle;<sup>v</sup> for the region that lay about them had been conquered. <sup>2</sup>There remained seven tribes among the Israelites to whom their inheritance had not been distributed. <sup>3</sup>So Joshua said to the Israelites, "How long will you fail to go out and take possession of the land, which the LORD God of your fathers has given you? <sup>4</sup>Select three men from each tribe,<sup>w</sup> and I shall commission them to go throughout the land to make a description of it<sup>x</sup> to determine their inheritance. Then they will return to me. <sup>5</sup>They will divide it into seven portions. Judah's boundaries remain in the south and the territory of the house of Joseph in the north.<sup>y</sup> <sup>6</sup>Make a description of the land in seven portions, and bring it to me. I shall cast lots for you here, in accordance with the decree of the LORD your God. <sup>7</sup>There is no portion for the Levites among you because the priesthood of the LORD is their inheritance.<sup>z</sup> Gad, Reuben, and the half tribe of Manassah have received their inheritance which Moses, the servant of the LORD, granted them on the east side of the Jordan."

<sup>8</sup>When the men stepped forward to go, Joshua charged them to make a description of the land. "Go throughout the land, and make a description of it. Then return to me here, and I shall cast lots for you before the LORD in Shiloh." <sup>9</sup>The men departed and traveled throughout the land, recording a description of it with regard to its cities and the seven portions. Afterward they returned to Joshua at the camp in Shiloh. <sup>10</sup>When Joshua cast lots for them at Shiloh before the LORD, he distributed the land to the Israelites, according to their divisions.

<sup>11</sup>The lot for the families of the Benjamin tribe came up. Their allotted territory lies between the Judahites and the Josephites. <sup>12</sup>On the north side, their border runs up from the Jordan to the northern slope of Jericho, then westward into the mountains, and it ends at the desert of Bethaven. <sup>13</sup>From there it runs toward Luz, which is Beth-el, to its southern slope, where it descends past Ataroth-adar to the mountain which is south of Lower Beth-horon. <sup>14</sup>Then the border veers and curves westward south of the mountain, which faces Beth-horon on the south. It ends at Kiriath-baal, which is Kiriath-jearim, a Judahite city. This is the western side. <sup>15</sup>The southern side runs from the edge of Kiriathjearim where the border goes westward to the spring of the Waters of Nepht-toah. <sup>16</sup>Then it descends to the base of the mountain by the valley of Ben-Hinnom,<sup>a</sup> which is north of the valley of Rephaim. It continues down the valley of Hinnom to the southern slope of the Jebusites, and on down to Enrogel. <sup>17</sup>Then veering northward, it goes to En-shemesh and to Geliloth opposite the rise of Adummim, then down to the stone of Bohan the son of Reuben, <sup>18</sup>where it passes on to the slope facing the Arabah on the north. It then descends to the Arabah, <sup>19</sup>where it passes on to the northern slope of Beth-hoglah and ends at the north bay of the Salt Sea, at the southern end of the Jordan. This is the southern border, <sup>20</sup>and the Jordan forms its border on the eastern side. This is the inheritance of the Benjamites with its borders enclosing their families.

u) The tabernacle had been standing at Gilgal. Shiloh was a strategic site in the hill country for defensibility, and central for all the tribes.

v) Israel was more than a nation; it was a religious congregation. Its national shrine was the tent where the people met with God (Ex. 29:42-46). w) From the seven remaining tribes.

x) Arability, water, timber, and terrain were the features noted in the description; so that equitable distribution of the land might be made.

y) Allocations made to Judah and the house of Joseph in the south and north respectively were not to be altered.

z) The Levites were thus scattered throughout Israel to minister to the religious life of all the people.

a) A place near Jerusalem where in idolatrous times children were offered to Moloch (II Chron. 28:3; 33:6). Josiah destroyed it (II Kings 23:10).

<sup>21</sup>The cities which belong to the Benjamites for their families are Jericho, Beth-hoglah, Emek-keziz, <sup>22</sup>Beth-arabah, Zemaraim, Beth-el,<sup>b</sup> <sup>23</sup>Avvim, Parah, Ophrah, <sup>24</sup>Chephar-ammoni, Ophni, and Geba — twelve cities with their suburbs. <sup>25</sup>Gibeon, Ramah, Beer-oth, <sup>26</sup>Mizpeh, Chephirah, Mozah, <sup>27</sup>Rekem, Irpeel, Taralah, <sup>28</sup>Zela, Haeleph, the Jebusite (which is Jerusalem), Gibeah, and Kiriath-jearim<sup>b</sup>—fourteen cities and their suburbs. This is the inheritance of the Benjamites according to their families.

1397-1396 B. C.

19 THE SECOND LOT CAME UP FOR Simeon, for the tribe of the Simeonites, for their families. Their inheritance lay inside the heritage of the Judahites.<sup>c</sup> <sup>2</sup>Included in their heritage are Beër-sheba, Sheba, Moladah, <sup>3</sup>Hazar-shual, Balah, Ezem, <sup>4</sup>Eltolad, Beth-ul, Hormah, <sup>5</sup>Ziklag, Beth-marcaboth, Hazar-susah, <sup>6</sup>Beth-lebaoth, and Sharuhén — fourteen cities with their suburbs. <sup>7</sup>Ain Rimmon, Ether, and Ashan — four cities with their suburbs; <sup>8</sup>and also all the villages around these cities as far as Baalath-beer, Ramah of the southland. This is the heritage of the tribe of Simeon for its families.

<sup>9</sup>The heritage of the Simeonites was part of the Judahite portion. Since the allotment of the Judahites was too large for them, the Simeonites received their inheritance inside the heritage of Judah.

<sup>10</sup>The third lot came up for the Zebulunites, for their families. The territory of their heritage goes as far as Sarid.<sup>d</sup>

<sup>11</sup>Their border goes up westward to Marcal and touches at both Dabbeseth and the river which is by Jokneam. <sup>12</sup>From Sarid it turns eastward toward the sunrise to the region of Chisloth-tabor <sup>13</sup>where it goes on to Daberath, then up to Japhia. It moves on from there eastward toward the sunrise to Gath-hepher and Eth-kazin, then on to Rimmon where it veers to Neah. <sup>14</sup>The border then turns northward to Hannathon and ends at the valley of Iphtahel. <sup>15</sup>Included are Kattath, Nahalal, Shimron, Idalah, and Bethlehem<sup>e</sup> — twelve cities with their suburbs. <sup>16</sup>This is the inheritance of the Zebulunites for their families — these cities with their suburbs.

<sup>17</sup>The fourth lot came up for Issachar, for the Issacharites for their families. <sup>18</sup>Their territory included Jezreel, Chesulloth, Shunem, <sup>19</sup>Iapharaim, Shion, Anaharath, <sup>20</sup>Rabbith, Kishion, Ebez, <sup>21</sup>Remeth, Engannim, Enhadadah, and Beth-pazzez. <sup>22</sup>Their border also touches at Tabor, Shahazumah, and Beth-shemesh and ends at the Jordan — sixteen cities with their suburbs. <sup>23</sup>This is the inheritance of the tribe of the Issacharites for their families — the cities with their suburbs.

<sup>24</sup>The fifth lot came up for the Asherite tribe for their families. <sup>25</sup>Their territory included Helkath, Iali, Beten, Achshaph, <sup>26</sup>Alammelech, Amad, and Mishal. In the west it takes in Carmel and Shihor-libnath. <sup>27</sup>It turns eastward to Beth-dagon and reaches to Zebulun along the valley of Iphtah-el northward to Beth-emek and Neiel. Then it goes further north to Kabul, <sup>28</sup>Ebron, Rehob, Hammon, Kanah, and as far as Greater Sidon, <sup>29</sup>where it turns to Ramah and on to the fortified city of Tyre,<sup>f</sup> then it turns to Ilosah and ends at the sea. Included are Mahalab, Achzib, <sup>30</sup>Ummah, Aphek, and Rehob — twenty-two cities with their suburbs. <sup>31</sup>This is the inheritance of the Asherite tribe for its families—these cities with their suburbs.

<sup>32</sup>The sixth lot came up for the Naphtalites for their families. <sup>33</sup>Their border runs from Heleph, from the oak in Za-anannim, through Adami-nekeb and Jabneel, as far as Lakkum, ending at the Jordan. <sup>34</sup>Then the border turns

b) Comp. Josh. 15:6, 61, where Beth-arabah is given to Judah; Josh. 18:13, where Beth-el is given to Benjamin; and Josh. 15:60; 18:14, where Kiriath-jearim is given to Judah, each a town on a boundary line that made them partly located in one tribe and partly in another tribe.

c) Simeon lost its identity when Israel divided into two kingdoms. The southern kingdom included Benjamin mostly and Judah, into which Simeon had been merged, and most of Levi. Compare Gen. 49:7.

d) Although not included in the territory of Zebulun, Sarid, whose exact location is not yet known, was a central point on Zebulun's southern border. The course of the border westward and eastward from Sarid is described in vs. 11 and 12, respectively.

e) Modern Beit-Lahm, 7 miles northwest of Nazareth. f) Not the famous Phoenician Tyre.

westward to Aznoth-tabor, going from there to Hukkok. It touches Zebulun on the south, Asher on the west, and Judah<sup>g</sup> at the Jordan in the east. <sup>35</sup>The fortified cities are Ziddim, Zer, Hammath, Rakkath, Chinnereth, <sup>36</sup>Adamah, Ramah, Hazor, <sup>37</sup>Kedesh, Edrei, Enhazor, <sup>38</sup>Yiron, Migdal-el, Horecm, Beth-anath, and Beth-shemesh<sup>h</sup> — nineteen cities with their suburbs. <sup>39</sup>This is the inheritance of the Naphtalite tribe for their families — the cities with their suburbs.

<sup>40</sup>The seventh lot came up for the Danite tribe for their families. <sup>41</sup>The territory<sup>i</sup> of their inheritance included Zorah, Eshta-ol, Ir-shemesh, <sup>42</sup>Sha-alabbin, Aijalon, Ithlah, <sup>43</sup>Elon, Timnah, Ekron, <sup>44</sup>Eltekeh, Gibbethon, Baalath, <sup>45</sup>Jehud, Benc-berak, Gath-rimmon, <sup>46</sup>and Mc-jarkon and Rakkon, with the territory by Joppa. <sup>47</sup>When the territory of the Danites was lost to them, they went up and fought against Leshem. They captured it and ravaged it with the sword; they took possession of it and lived in it, calling Leshem, Dan, after the name of Dan, their ancestor. <sup>48</sup>This is the inheritance of the tribe of the Danites for their families—these cities with their suburbs.

<sup>49</sup>When they had determined the inheritance of the land by territories, the Israelites granted to Joshua the son of Nun an inheritance amongst theirs. <sup>50</sup>In accordance with the command of the LORD, they granted him the city he requested, namely, Timnath-serah in the mountains of Ephraim. He built up the city and lived in it.

<sup>51</sup>These are the inheritances which Eleazar the priest, Joshua the son of Nun, and the ruling elders granted by lot to the tribes of the Israelites in Shiloh before the LORD, at the entrance of the meeting tent. Thus they completed the allocation of the land.

1396 B. C.

20 THE LORD SAID TO JOSHUA: <sup>2</sup>Say to the Israelites, "Establish the cities of refuge, concerning which I spoke to you through Moses,<sup>j</sup> <sup>3</sup>so that the manslayer who has killed a person accidentally, without premeditation, may resort there. These will be your refuge from the blood avenger. <sup>4</sup>Should one resort to one of these cities and, standing at the gate of the city, declare his case at a hearing of the elders of the city, they shall receive him into the city among themselves to give him refuge, and he will live with them. <sup>5</sup>Even though the blood avenger comes after him, they shall not deliver the manslayer over to him; because he killed his neighbor without premeditation and without hating him beforehand. <sup>6</sup>He may live in this city until they both appear before the assembly for the trial and until the death of the one who is high priest at the time. Then the manslayer may return to his own city and his own home, even to the city from which he fled."

<sup>7</sup>They set apart Kedesh<sup>k</sup> in Galilee in the mountains of Naphtali, Shechem in the mountains of Ephraim, and Kiriat-arba (which is Hebron) in the mountains of Judah. <sup>8</sup>Across the Jordan east of Jericho, they provided Bezer on the desert plateau from the tribe of Reuben, Ramoth in Gilead from the tribe of Gad, and Golan in Bashan from the tribe of Manasseh.<sup>l</sup> <sup>9</sup>These were the appointed cities for every Israelite and for the alien staying

g) Judah here does not refer to the tribe of Judah but probably to Havvoth-jair, 60 cities in Gilead east of the Jordan. These cities were possessed by Jair, a Manassite on his grandmother's side—hence his inheritance with Manasseh—but a Judahite on his grandfather's side, and lineage normally followed the male line. For this reason Havvoth-jair may have been also known as Judah (Deut. 3:14; I Kings 4:13; I Chron. 2:3-5, 21, 22).

h) Not the Beth-shemesh in Issachar (vs. 22), from which the Canaanites were not expelled (Judg. 1:33).

i) Some of the northern cities of Judah and the southern cities of Ephraim were ceded to Dan. Even so it was inadequate for their number, so that half of them migrated northeastward, forming the Dan territory (Judg. 18).

j) Num. 35:9-34; Deut. 19:1-13. Justice was thus assured to the accidental homicide, and the community was protected from the wanton murderer. This procedure replaced the custom, according to which the manslayer resorted to an altar of the LORD (Ex. 21:12-14; I Kings 1:50-53; 2:28-34). The most primitive method of dealing with a criminal was unrelenting revenge (Gen. 4:14, 15). k) Judge Barak's home town (Judg. 4:6).

l) One city in each of the north, central, and south zones on both sides of the Jordan was selected (Deut. 4:41-43).

among them; so that anyone who had killed a person accidentally might flee there and not be put to death by the hand of the blood avenger until he had appeared before the assembly.

1396 B. C.

21 THE CHIEF ELDERS OF THE LEVITES appeared before Eleazar the priest, Joshua the son of Nun, and the chief elders of the tribes of Israel. <sup>2</sup>This was in Shiloh in the land of Canaan.

"The LORD gave a command<sup>m</sup> through Moses," they said to them, "to grant us cities to live in and their pastures for our herds."<sup>n</sup> <sup>3</sup>So, in accordance with the instruction of the LORD, the Israelites granted these cities and their pastures to the Levites out of their own inheritances.

<sup>4</sup>The lot for the Kohathite families<sup>o</sup> came up. It comprised thirteen cities from the tribes of Judah, Simeon, and Benjamin, for the Levites who were descendants of Aaron the priest. <sup>5</sup>Ten cities from the tribes of Ephraim, Dan, and the half tribe of Manasseh went up by lot to the rest of the Kohathite families. <sup>6</sup>Thirteen cities from the tribes of Issachar, Asher, Naphtali, and the half tribe of Manasseh in Bashan, went by lot to the Gershonite families. <sup>7</sup>To the Merarite families went twelve cities from the tribes of Reuben, Gad, and Zebulun. <sup>8</sup>The Israelites granted to the Levites these cities and their pastures by lot, as the LORD had commanded through Moses.

<sup>9</sup>From the tribes of the Judahites and Simonites, they granted these cities specified by name. <sup>10</sup>They were for the Aaronites from the Kohathite branch of the Levites, because the first lot was theirs. <sup>11</sup>They granted them Kiriath-arba — (Arba was) the father of Anak — with its surrounding pastures. It is now called Hebron<sup>p</sup> and is in the mountains of Judah. <sup>12</sup>However, they had granted the fields of the city and its suburbs to Caleb the son of Je-

phunneh for his property. <sup>13</sup>To the descendants of Aaron the priest, they granted the city of refuge for the manslayer, Hebron with its pastures, Libnah with its pastures, <sup>14</sup>Jattir with its pastures, Eshtemoa with its pastures, <sup>15</sup>Holon with its pastures, Debir with its pastures, <sup>16</sup>Ain with its pastures, Juttah with its pastures, and Bethshemesh with its pastures — nine cities from these two tribes. <sup>17</sup>From the tribe of Benjamin, Gibeon with its pastures, Geba with its pastures, <sup>18</sup>Anathoth<sup>q</sup> with its pastures, and Almon with its pastures — four cities. <sup>19</sup>The total number of cities with their pastures for the descendants of Aaron the priest was thirteen.

<sup>20</sup>Then cities from the tribe of Ephraim were allotted to the Kohathite branch of the Levites for the remaining Kohathites. <sup>21</sup>They granted to them the city of refuge for the manslayer, Shechem with its pastures in the mountains of Ephraim, Gezer with its pastures, <sup>22</sup>Kibzaim with its pastures, and Beth-horon with its pastures — four cities.

<sup>23</sup>From the tribe of Dan, Eltekeh with its pastures, Gibbethon with its pastures, <sup>24</sup>Aijalon with its pastures, and Gath-rimmon with its pastures — four cities. <sup>25</sup>From the half tribe of Manasseh, Taanach with its pastures, and Gath-rimmon<sup>r</sup> with its pastures — two cities. <sup>26</sup>There was a total of ten cities with their pastures for the other Kohathite families.

<sup>27</sup>To the Gershonite branch of the Levites went the city of refuge for the manslayer, Golan with its pastures in Bashan and Be-eshterah with its pastures, from the half tribe of Manasseh — two cities. <sup>28</sup>From the tribe of Issachar, Kishion with its pastures, Daberrath with its pastures, <sup>29</sup>Jarmuth with its pastures, and Engannim with its pastures — four cities. <sup>30</sup>From the tribe of Asher, Mishal with its pastures, Abdon with its pastures, <sup>31</sup>Helkath with its

m) Num. 35:1-8.

n) The Levites did not occupy these cities exclusively, but only such living quarters as they required. o) For the genealogy of Levi, see Ex. 6:16-25.

p) "Union" — probably because four villages were consolidated. Mamre was one of them. They were about 20 miles south of Jerusalem. q) Famous as Jeremiah's birthplace.

r) Gath-rimmon was a city in Dan (vs. 24). Ibleam may have stood here originally. See Bileam (1 Chron. 6:70).

pastures, and Rehob with its pastures — four cities. <sup>32</sup>From the tribe of Naphtali, the city of refuge for the manslayer, Kedesh in Galilee with its pastures, Hammoth-dor with its pastures, and Kartan with its pastures — three cities. <sup>33</sup>The total cities of the Gershonites for their families were thirteen and included their pastures.

<sup>34</sup>To the remaining Levites, the Merarite branch, they granted from the tribe of Zebulun, Jokneam with its pastures, Kartah with its pastures, <sup>35</sup>Dimnah with its pastures and Nahalal with its pastures — four cities. <sup>36</sup>From the tribe of Reuben, Bezer with its pastures, Jahazah with its pastures, <sup>37</sup>Kedemoth with its pastures, and Mephathah with its pastures — four cities.<sup>a</sup> <sup>38</sup>From the tribe of Gad, the city of refuge for the manslayer, Ramoth in Gilead with its pastures, Mahanaim with its pastures, <sup>39</sup>Heshbon with its pastures, and Jazer with its pastures — four cities in all. <sup>40</sup>All these cities were for the Merarites, the remaining branch of the Levites, by their families. Their allotment was comprised of twelve cities.

<sup>41</sup>All the Levite cities were within the holdings of the Israelites and numbered forty-eight cities with their pastures. <sup>42</sup>These are the cities, each city with its surrounding pastures. So it was with all these cities.

<sup>43</sup>The Lord gave Israel the whole land which He promised their fathers to give them. They took possession of it and lived in it. <sup>44</sup>The Lord gave them peace on every side, according to all that He had promised their ancestors. None of their enemies could withstand them, because the Lord delivered all their enemies into their hands. <sup>45</sup>Of all the good promises which the Lord had made to the house of Israel, not one failed; they were all fulfilled.<sup>t</sup>

1399 B. C.

22 JOSHUA SUMMONED THE REUBENITES, THE GADITES, AND THE

half tribe of Manasseh, <sup>2</sup>and said to them, "You have observed all that Moses the servant of the Lord commanded you, and you have obeyed me in all that I have ordered you. <sup>3</sup>You have not forsaken your kinsmen, though it has been a long time, even to this day, and you have obediently kept the commandment of the Lord your God. <sup>4</sup>Now the Lord your God has given peace to your kinsmen, as He had promised them; so depart now, and go to your own tents" in the land that you possess, which Moses the servant of the Lord granted you on the other side of the Jordan. <sup>5</sup>Only be very careful to obey the commandment and the law which Moses the servant of the Lord commanded you. Love the Lord your God; walk in all His ways; observe His commandments; cling to Him and be steadfast with your whole heart and soul." <sup>6</sup>After blessing them, Joshua discharged them, and they went to their tents.<sup>u</sup>

<sup>7</sup>Moses had made a grant to half the tribe of Manasseh in Bashan; so Joshua made a grant to the other half among their kinsmen on the west side of the Jordan. Joshua also sent them<sup>v</sup> to their tents when he had blessed them.

<sup>8</sup>"When you return to your tents," he said to them, "with your great wealth and very many cattle, with silver and gold, bronze and iron, and countless garments, share the spoils of your enemies with your kinsmen."

<sup>9</sup>The Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half tribe of Manasseh departed from the Israelites in Shiloh in the land of Canaan, to go to the land of Gilead, the land which belonged to them; for they had taken possession of it, according to the Lord's command through Moses. <sup>10</sup>When they came to the district of the Jordan which is in the land of Canaan, the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half tribe of Manasseh built an altar there near the Jordan, a large altar to draw attention.

s) Vss. 36, 37 are similar to I Chronicles 6:63, 64.

t) Although Canaanites still remained in the land, their strength was so diminished that they would have been powerless to defend themselves against complete extermination, had this been Israel's concerted purpose. u) Their permanent homes east of the Jordan.

v) The Manassites of Bashan.

<sup>11</sup>The Israelites were told, "The Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half tribe of Manasseh have built an altar in the land of Canaan in the district of the Jordan on the side of the Israelites."

<sup>12</sup>When the Israelites heard this, their whole congregation assembled at Shiloh, to march against them in war.

<sup>13</sup>Then the Israelites sent Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest into the land of Gilead to the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half tribe of Manasseh.

<sup>14</sup>Ten men accompanied him, one from each ruling house in every tribe in Israel,<sup>w</sup> and each was the chief of his house, ruling over the tribes of Israel.

<sup>15</sup>When they came to the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half tribe of Manasseh in the land of Gilead, they said to them, <sup>16</sup>"The whole congregation of the LORD inquires, 'Why have you committed this transgression against the God of Israel, turning away from the LORD now, by building an altar<sup>x</sup> in rebellion against Him?' <sup>17</sup>Have we not had enough of the sin of Peor, from which we have not yet rid ourselves and because of which a plague fell upon the congregation of the LORD?' <sup>18</sup>that today you have turned away from the LORD? Since you have rebelled against the LORD today, tomorrow He will be angry with the whole congregation of Israel.<sup>z</sup> <sup>19</sup>Now if the land of your possession is unclean,<sup>a</sup> cross over to the land which the LORD possesses, where His tabernacle stands, and take possession among us. But neither rebel against the LORD nor against us, by building any altar for yourselves, besides the altar of the LORD our God. <sup>20</sup>Did not Achan<sup>b</sup> the son of Zerah commit a transgression against the devoted portion, so that anger fell upon the whole congregation of Israel? That man did not die alone because of his wickedness."

<sup>21</sup>In reply, the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh

said to the tribal leaders of Israel, <sup>22</sup>"The Mighty One, God the LORD, the Mighty One, God the LORD, Himself understands, and may Israel itself understand. Do not spare us today, if in rebellion or transgression against the LORD <sup>23</sup>we built the altar to turn away from the LORD. If it was to put burnt offerings and food offerings upon it and to perform the sacrifices of thanksgiving upon it, may the LORD Himself bring retribution. <sup>24</sup>It was because of concern that we did this. 'Hereafter,' we said, 'your descendants may say to ours, "What have you to do with the LORD God of Israel?' <sup>25</sup>The LORD made the Jordan a boundary between you, the Reubenites and the Gadites, and ourselves. You have no portion with the LORD.'" Thus your descendants might make our descendants cease revering the LORD. <sup>26</sup>So we said, "Let us build ourselves an altar, not for burnt offering nor for sacrifice, <sup>27</sup>but for a testimony between you and us, and between our descendants after us, for the perpetual performance of the service of the LORD in His presence with our burnt offerings, sacrifices, and thank offerings; so your descendants will not say to ours hereafter, 'You have no portion in the LORD.'" <sup>28</sup>So we said, "If it ever occurs, that they say this to us or to our descendants hereafter, then we shall reply, 'See the design of the altar of the LORD which our fathers made, though neither for burnt offering nor sacrifice. It is a testimony between ourselves and you.'" <sup>29</sup>Far be it from us that we should rebel against the LORD and turn away from Him this day by building an altar for burnt offerings, food offerings, and sacrifices, besides the altar of the LORD our God, which is in front of His tabernacle."<sup>e</sup>

<sup>30</sup>Phinehas the priest, the leaders of the congregation and the chiefs of the tribes of Israel which were with him, heard the words which the Reubenites,

w) Each of the nine and a half western tribes was represented by a delegate.

x) The building of this second altar would have violated the law of Deut. 12:1-14, had it been for sacrifices. It should have been called a monument.

y) Num. 25:1-9. The moral and spiritual effects of that incident still infected Israel and were the cause of chronic defection throughout its history.

z) The concept of collective responsibility for individual failure greatly influenced the religious thought of Israel and of the New Testament church.

a) All lands not sanctified by the manifest Presence of God were considered unclean. b) Ch. 7.

c) At this time the official altar stood at Shiloh (ch. 18:1).

the Gadites, and the Manassites spoke, and they seemed reasonable to them.

<sup>31</sup>So Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest said to the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the Manassites, "Today we know that the LORD is among us, because you have not committed this transgression against the LORD. Consequently, you have spared the Israelites from the hand of the LORD."

<sup>32</sup>Then Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest and the leaders returned from the Reubenites and the Gadites in the land of Gilead to the Israelites in the land of Canaan; and they gave them a report on the matter. <sup>33</sup>It seemed reasonable to the Israelites; so they praised God and did not order the troops to march against them to destroy the land, in which the Reubenites and the Gadites lived.

<sup>34</sup>The Reubenites and the Gadites named the altar: "A witness between us that the LORD is God."<sup>d</sup>

1395 B. C.

23 AFTER A LONG TIME, THE LORD gave Israel peace with all their enemies in the surrounding area. Joshua was old and ripe with age, <sup>2</sup>so he summoned<sup>e</sup> all Israel, its elders, chiefs, judges, and officers,<sup>f</sup> and said to them, "I am old and ripe with age. <sup>3</sup>You have seen all that the LORD your God has done to these nations in your behalf, for the LORD your God is the One who has fought for you. <sup>4</sup>Besides all the nations which I have cut down from the Jordan to the Great Sea in the west, I have allotted to you those nations remaining within the inheritances which belong to your tribes.<sup>g</sup> <sup>5</sup>The LORD your God Himself will push them back and expel them for you, and you may take possession of their land, as the LORD your God promised you. <sup>6</sup>Be very resolute in observing and practicing every precept in the book of the Law of Moses. Do not turn from it to the right or left.

<sup>7</sup>"Do not associate with those nations which are still among you; neither take thought of the names of their gods, nor swear by them, and do not serve them or pay homage to them, <sup>8</sup>but cling to the LORD your God as you have until this day.<sup>h</sup> <sup>9</sup>The LORD has thrust great and powerful nations out of your way, and to this day none withstands you. <sup>10</sup>One of you put a thousand to flight because the LORD your God Himself fought for you, as He has promised. <sup>11</sup>Be very careful to love the LORD your God, <sup>12</sup>for if you turn away and join with the rest of these nations which are still among you, intermarrying with them and associating together, <sup>13</sup>be very sure that the LORD your God will not continue to drive back these nations in your behalf. They will become a trap and a snare to you, a whip in your sides and thorns in your eyes, until you perish from this good country which the LORD your God gave you.

<sup>14</sup>"Today I am going the way of all the earth; and you know with all your hearts and souls that not one of all the good promises which the LORD your God made to you has failed. They all came to pass for you; not one of them has failed. <sup>15</sup>But just as every good promise which the LORD your God made to you has come to pass for you, so He will carry out every warning upon you until He has destroyed you from this good land which He has given you. <sup>16</sup>Should you break the covenant of the LORD your God which He made with you, to follow and serve other gods and to pay homage to them, the LORD will burn with anger against you, and you will quickly perish from the good land which He gave you."<sup>i</sup>

1394 B. C.

24 JOSHUA CALLED TOGETHER ALL the tribes of Israel at Shechem.<sup>j</sup> When he had summoned the elders of

d) This altar of testimony is not mentioned elsewhere in the Bible. It had been built west of the Jordan and near it; see vs. 11.

e) Joshua summoned the officials either to Timnath-serah, where he resided (ch. 19:50), or to Shiloh, where the tabernacle stood.

f) All those summoned were elders; some were tribal leaders, some were judges, and some were civil officials. g) Ch. 13:2-6. h) National faithfulness is specially in view.

i) Lev. 26:14-26; Deut. 28:15-68; 29:16-28.

j) Shechem was a historic site. Here the LORD first promised Canaan to Abram (Gen. 12:6, 7); here Jacob destroyed the idols which his retinue brought from Mesopotamia (Gen. 35:2-5); here the Law of Moses was officially put in force in the land of Canaan (ch. 8:30-35).

Israel, the chiefs, the judges, and the officers, they stood before God, <sup>2</sup>and Joshua addressed the people: "This is what the LORD God of Israel says: Long ago your ancestors lived beyond the river.<sup>k</sup> Terah was the father of Abraham and Nahor;<sup>l</sup> but they served other gods. <sup>3</sup>So I took your ancestor Abraham from beyond the river and led him through the whole land of Canaan,<sup>m</sup> and I multiplied his offspring by giving him Isaac.<sup>n</sup> <sup>4</sup>Then to Isaac I gave Jacob and Esau.<sup>o</sup> I gave Esau the mountains of Seir to possess,<sup>p</sup> but Jacob and his sons went down to Egypt.<sup>q</sup> <sup>5</sup>Then I sent Moses and Aaron and brought a plague upon Egypt, with what I did among them;<sup>r</sup> afterwards I brought you out. <sup>6</sup>When I brought your ancestors out of Egypt, you came to the sea,<sup>s</sup> and the Egyptians chased your fathers in chariots and on horseback to the Red Sea.<sup>t</sup> <sup>7</sup>You cried out to the LORD, and He put darkness between you and the Egyptians. Then He caused the sea to cover them and drown them.<sup>u</sup> Your own eyes saw what I did to Egypt. Thereafter you lived in the desert for a long time, <sup>8</sup>until I brought you to the land of the Amorites, living across the Jordan. When they fought against you, I delivered them up to you, and you took possession of their land, as I destroyed them for you.<sup>v</sup>

<sup>9</sup>"When Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab, rose up and fought<sup>w</sup> against Israel, he sent for Balaam son of Beor to put you under a curse. <sup>10</sup>But when I would not listen to Balaam, he blessed you, and I delivered you from his hand.<sup>x</sup> <sup>11</sup>Then you crossed the Jordan, and when you came to Jericho, the inhabitants of Jericho, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Girgashites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites fought against you.

But I delivered them into your hands. <sup>12</sup>I sent the wasp ahead of you, and it drove out before you the two kings of the Amorites without your sword or bow.<sup>y</sup> <sup>13</sup>I gave you a land for which you have not labored; you have settled in cities which you have not built; and you eat of orchards and olive trees which you have not planted.

<sup>14</sup>"Now then, revere the LORD, and serve Him in sincerity and truth. Reject the gods which your ancestors served beyond the river and in Egypt,<sup>z</sup> and serve the LORD. <sup>15</sup>However, if it seems wrong in your eyes to serve the LORD, choose today whom you will serve — whether the gods whom your fathers served beyond the river or the gods of the Amorites in whose land you live. Nevertheless, I and my house, we shall serve the LORD."<sup>a</sup>

<sup>16</sup>The people replied, "May it never be that we shall forsake the LORD to serve other gods; <sup>17</sup>because it was the LORD our God Himself who brought us and our ancestors from the land of Egypt, the place of bondage, and because He performed these great miracles before our eyes, protecting us throughout our whole journey, from all the peoples through whom we passed. <sup>18</sup>Furthermore, the LORD drove out before us the Amorites and all the peoples, the men of the land. We, too, shall serve the LORD, for He is our God."

<sup>19</sup>Then Joshua said to the people, "You will not be able to serve the LORD, for God is holy;<sup>b</sup> He is an ardent God<sup>c</sup> and will indulge neither your rebellions nor your sins. <sup>20</sup>If you forsake the LORD and serve other gods, He will turn away and punish you and destroy you, despite the fact that He has been good to you." <sup>21</sup>"Not so," the people replied to Joshua, "for we will serve the LORD."

k) The Euphrates.

l) Terah had three sons (Gen. 11:27), but only Abraham and Nahor are mentioned here because they were the ancestors of Israel — Nahor as grandfather of Rebekah (Gen. 22:20-23), and great-grandfather of Rachel and Leah, the matriarchs of Israel (Gen. 29:10, 16). m) Gen. 13:17. n) Gen. 21:1-3. o) Gen. 25:21-26. p) Gen. 36:6-8. q) Gen. 46. r) Ex. 7:14-12:36.

s) Ex. 14:1. t) Literally 'sea of sedge,' because of its profuseness of seaweeds. u) Ex. 14:5-31.

v) Num. 21:21-35. w) Num. 22:6, 11. Compare Deut. 2:9; Judg. 11:25. x) Num. 22-24.

y) The wasp was the dreadful power of God that defeated Sihon and Og (Compare Ex. 23:27-30).

z) Lev. 17:7; Ezek. 20:7; 23:3, 8.

a) Worship begins at home. There Joshua himself was priest at the family altar.

b) By this Joshua implies that the requirements for serving the LORD are definite and inflexible.

c) Ex. 20:5.

<sup>22</sup>"You yourselves are witnesses that you have chosen to serve the LORD," said Joshua to the people. "We are witnesses," they replied.

<sup>23</sup>"Now then, turn away from the other gods, which are around you,<sup>a</sup> and give your hearts to the LORD God of Israel." <sup>24</sup>So the people said to Joshua, "We will serve the LORD our God and obey His voice."

<sup>25</sup>On that day Joshua made a covenant with the people, and he laid down statutes and decrees for them in Shechem. <sup>26</sup>He wrote these precepts in the book of the Law of God, and, taking a large stone, he set it up there beneath the oak tree which was sacred to the LORD.<sup>c</sup> <sup>27</sup>Then Joshua said to all the people, "This stone shall be with us for a testimony; for it has heard all the messages of the LORD, which He has spoken to us. It will be with you for a testimony, lest you deny your God." <sup>28</sup>Then Joshua dismissed the people, each to his own heritage.

<sup>29</sup>After these events, Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of the LORD, died. He was a hundred and ten years of age.<sup>f</sup> <sup>30</sup>They buried him in the grounds of his inheritance, in Timnath-serah, which is in the mountains of Ephraim, north of Mount Gaash.

<sup>31</sup>Israel served the LORD all the days of Joshua and of the elders who lived after him and who knew everything that the LORD had done for Israel.<sup>g</sup>

<sup>32</sup>They buried the bones of Joseph,<sup>h</sup> which the Israelites brought from Egypt, at Shechem, in a portion of the field which Jacob had bought for about 200 dollars from the descendants of Hamor, who was the father of Shechem.<sup>i</sup> Now it was the inheritance for the descendants of Joseph.

<sup>33</sup>Eleazar the son of Aaron died; and they buried him on the hill that was given to his son Phinehas in the mountains of Ephraim.

d) The gods of the heathen natives still living in Canaan. Ch. 24:31 implies that they were not practicing idolatry during the administration of Joshua. e) See note on vs. 1.

f) As no date of his birth is given, nor is there any indication of his age on any previous occasion of which we have a date, we do not know in what year he died, as we know it of Caleb. His blessing Caleb suggests that he was older than Caleb (ch. 14:13).

g) Moses, to render himself dispensable, had trained Joshua to be his successor; but Joshua and the elders were so busy conquering the Canaanites, they failed to raise a generation to take their place as worshipers and servants of God. h) Gen. 50:24, 25; Ex. 13:19. i) Gen. 33:19.

THE BOOK OF

JUDGES

1394-1390 B.C.

1 AFTER THE DEATH OF JOSHUA, IT came about that the Israelites inquired of the LORD, "Who of us shall march first to fight the Canaanites?" <sup>2</sup>The LORD said: Judah shall go up. See, I have delivered the land into his hand.<sup>a</sup> <sup>3</sup>Then Judah said to Simeon, his brother, "Come up with me into my allotment, so that we may fight the Canaanites together; then I will march with you into your allotment." So Simeon went with him. <sup>4</sup>Then Judah went up, and the LORD delivered the Canaanites and the Perizzites into their hand. At Bezek they defeated the enemy, who suffered ten thousand casualties; <sup>5</sup>for they met Adoni-bezek at Bezek,<sup>b</sup> fought him, and defeated the Canaanites and the Perizzites. <sup>6</sup>Adoni-bezek tried to escape, but after pursuit they caught him and severed his thumbs and his big toes. <sup>7</sup>Adoni-bezek said, "Seventy kings with their thumbs and their big toes cut off gleaned leftovers under my table; as I have done, so God has requited me." They brought him to Jerusalem, and he died there.

<sup>8</sup>The men of Judah also attacked Jerusalem, and upon capturing the city, they destroyed it with the sword and burned it. <sup>9</sup>Afterward the Judahites went down and fought the Canaanites living in the hill country, in the south, and in the lowland. <sup>10</sup>Then Judah marched against the Canaanites at Hebron. (Prior to this time Hebron was called Kiriath-arba).<sup>c</sup> In the ensuing battle they defeated Sheshai, Ahiman, and Talmi.<sup>d</sup> <sup>11</sup>Then they marched against Debir, which had been called Kiriath-sepher.<sup>e</sup> <sup>12</sup>Caleb said, "Whoever attacks and captures Kiriath-sepher, him I will give my daughter Achsah in marriage." <sup>13</sup>Now Othniel, the son of Caleb's younger brother Kenaz, took it; so he gave him his daughter Achsah in marriage. <sup>14</sup>When she came to him, she persuaded him to ask her father for a field.<sup>f</sup> As she alighted from her donkey, Caleb said to her, "What do you want?" <sup>15</sup>She said to him, "Give me a wedding present. You have given me the dry land of the south; give me with it also water springs." Then Caleb gave her the upper and lower springs.

<sup>16</sup>The descendants of the Kenite, Moses' father-in-law, left the city of palm trees,<sup>g</sup> joined the children of Judah in the wilderness of Judah, south of Arad, and lived among the people there.<sup>h</sup> <sup>17</sup>Judah went with Simeon, his brother, and they defeated and utterly destroyed all the Canaanites who inhabited Zephath. They therefore named the place Hormah.<sup>i</sup> <sup>18</sup>Judah also took Gaza, Ashkelon, Ekron, and the communities surrounding these towns.

<sup>19</sup>The LORD was with Judah; so he took possession of the hill country, but he was unable to expel the inhabitants

a) They would consult by means of the Urim and Thummim [Num. 27:21, etc.].

b) Located in Ephraim's territory. c) City of Arba, the father of Anak. d) Sons of the giant Anak.

e) City of the book; a library may have been there. f) Or, the field, indicating a choice field.

g) Jericho. h) Among the Amalekites [I Sam. 15:6]. i) Destruction.

of the valley because they had iron chariots. <sup>20</sup>Hebron they gave to Caleb, as Moses had said, and he drove out the three sons of Anak.

<sup>21</sup>Benjamin failed to drive out the Jebusite dwellers in Jerusalem; so that the Jebusites live with the Benjamites in Jerusalem to this day.<sup>j</sup> <sup>22</sup>The family of Joseph went up against Bethel, and the Lord was with them. <sup>23</sup>When the house of Joseph sent men to spy on Bethel, which before this was called Luz, <sup>24</sup>the spies saw a man come out of the city, and they said to him, "Show us, please, the entrance to the city, and we will deal kindly with you." <sup>25</sup>When he showed them the entrance to the city, they destroyed the city with the sword; <sup>26</sup>but the man and all his family were permitted to move into the land of the Hittites, where he built the city of Luz, so called to this day.

<sup>27</sup>Manasseh did not expel the people of Beth-shean and its suburbs, nor of Taanach and its suburbs, nor the people of Dor and its suburbs, nor those of Ibleam and its suburbs, nor those of Megiddo and its suburbs; for the Canaanites were determined to live in that land. <sup>28</sup>After Israel became strong and established, the Canaanites were permitted to stay in the land, but they were compelled to pay tribute.<sup>k</sup>

<sup>29</sup>Ephraim, too, failed to expel the Canaanites but permitted them to live among his people in Gezer. <sup>30</sup>Neither did Zebulun expel the people of Kitron and the people of Nahalol; these Canaanites were allowed to live among them in the land as tribute-paying subjects. <sup>31</sup>Asher did not expel the Acco people, either, or the people of Sidon, of Ahlab, of Achzib, of Helbah, of Aphik, or of Rehob. <sup>32</sup>The Canaanites were allowed to stay in the land, and the Asherites lived among them.<sup>l</sup>

<sup>33</sup>Neither did Naphtali expel the natives of Beth-shemesh nor of Beth-anath; he lived among the native Canaanites. However, the natives of Beth-

shemesh and of Beth-anath became their tribute-paying subjects. <sup>34</sup>The Danites, too, were unable to possess the valley and were driven into the hills by the Amorites. <sup>35</sup>Even though the Amorites were determined to dwell in Har-heres,<sup>m</sup> in Aijalon, and in Shalbim, the Joseph tribe suppressed them, so that finally the Amorites were forced to pay tribute. <sup>36</sup>The border of the Amorites ran from the ascent of Scorpion Pass, from Sela<sup>n</sup> on and upward.

2 THE ANGEL<sup>o</sup> OF THE LORD CAME up from Gilgal to Bochim and said: I moved you up out of Egypt, and I have brought you into the land which I promised your fathers by oath, and I said: I will not break My covenant with you through eternity. <sup>2</sup>But you shall make no covenant with the inhabitants of the land; their altars you are to break down. But you have not listened to My voice. What is this you have done? <sup>3</sup>Wherefore I also say to you: I will not drive them out before you; but they shall be your adversaries, and their gods shall be a snare to you. <sup>4</sup>When the Angel of the Lord had spoken these words to all the Israelites, the people lifted up their voices and wept. <sup>5</sup>So they named that place Bochim; and there they sacrificed to the Lord.

<sup>6</sup>When Joshua had dismissed the Israelites, every one went away, each to possess his inheritance. <sup>7</sup>The people served the Lord all the days of Joshua and all the days of the elders who outlived Joshua, who had seen all the great work of the Lord, which He had done for Israel. <sup>8</sup>Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of the Lord, died when he was 110 years old. <sup>9</sup>They buried him within the borders of his inheritance in Timnath-heres, which lies in the hill country of Ephraim, north of Mount Gaash.

<sup>10</sup>When that generation were gathered to their fathers,<sup>p</sup> there arose an-

j) David expelled them [II Sam. 5:7ff]. k) Or were made to serve.

l) To let Canaanites live among them, continuing their pagan ways, was contrary to divine orders; "lived among them" suggests a pagan majority; it proved ruinous.

m) Mount Heres. n) The rock; possibly the cliff city of Petra in Edom.

o) He speaks as God, or in His Name. We like to think of Ilim as the Son of God.

p) Or, joined their fathers in death.

other generation which neither knew the LORD, nor the work which He had done for Israel. <sup>11</sup>The Israelites did what was evil in the sight of the LORD; they served the Baals.<sup>q</sup> <sup>12</sup>Having forsaken the LORD, the God of their fathers, who brought them out of the land of Egypt, they ran after other gods, the gods of the surrounding peoples, and worshiped them; thus they angered the LORD. <sup>13</sup>When they turned their face away from the LORD, to serve the Baals and the Ashtaroth,<sup>r</sup> <sup>14</sup>the anger of the LORD was kindled against the Israelites, and He handed them over to plunderers, who plundered them; He surrendered them to their enemies around them, so that they could no longer defend themselves. <sup>15</sup>Wherever they went, the LORD's hand was against them for punishment, as the LORD had spoken and as the LORD had sworn to them. They were in great distress.

<sup>16</sup>Nevertheless the LORD raised up judges, who saved them from those who plundered them. <sup>17</sup>However, they did not listen to their judges but went astray in seeking and worshiping other gods; they turned from the way of their fathers, who had walked after the LORD and obeyed His commands, but they failed to do so. <sup>18</sup>Each time when the LORD gave them a judge, the LORD was with the judge and saved them from the power of their enemies throughout the judge's life. The LORD showed compassion for the people because of their groaning over the oppression that crushed them. <sup>19</sup>But at the judge's death, they would turn back<sup>s</sup> and behave worse than did their fathers, in serving and worshiping other gods. They would forego none of their habitual practices or their stubborn ways.

<sup>20</sup>When the LORD's indignation was kindled against Israel, He said: Because this nation has violated the covenant into which I entered with their fathers and they have not heeded My voice, <sup>21</sup>I also will no longer expel from their presence the nations which Joshua left when he died, <sup>22</sup>to test Israel through them and to see whether or not they would hold to the LORD's way and walk in it as their fathers did. <sup>23</sup>So the LORD permitted those nations to remain; He did not destroy them at once nor deliver them into the power of Joshua.

3 THESE ARE THE NATIONS WHICH the LORD left, to test by them the Israelites who had not known<sup>t</sup> any of the wars in Canaan; <sup>2</sup>so that the generations of the Israelites who had experienced no wars might become versed in the arts of war: <sup>3</sup>the five princes of the Philistines, all the Canaanites, Sidonians, and Hivites who occupied Mount Lebanon, from Mount Baal-hermon to the entrance of Hamath. <sup>4</sup>These nations were left to test Israel to see if they would obey the commands which the LORD had commanded their fathers through the ministry of Moses. <sup>5</sup>So the Israelites lived among the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites; <sup>6</sup>they took their daughters to themselves for wives, and they gave their own daughters to their sons and served their gods. <sup>7</sup>The Israelites did what was evil in the LORD's sight and forgot the LORD their God; they served the Baals and the Ashtaroth. <sup>8</sup>Then the LORD's indignation was kindled against Israel, and He gave them over into the power of Cushan-rishathaim king of Mesopotamia, whom the Israelites served for eight years.

<sup>9</sup>When the Israelites cried to the LORD, the LORD raised up a savior<sup>u</sup> for the Israelites, who delivered them, Othniel the son of Kenaz, Caleb's younger brother. <sup>10</sup>The Spirit of the LORD came upon him; he judged Israel and went out to battle. The LORD handed Cushan-rishathaim king of Aram<sup>v</sup> over to

q) The nature gods of the Canaanites. Baal means master, owner, lord.

r) Ashtaroth is plural of Ashtoreth, the Phoenician goddess Astarte, "the abomination of the Sidonians" [1 Kings 11:5, 33].

s) Even under a righteous judge, the nation practiced heathen worship; at the death of a judge, they became more intensely idolatrous. Even outward appearance of Jehovah worship was then abandoned. t) Those who had not engaged in the wars. u) Deliverer. v) Mesopotamia.

him. <sup>11</sup>The land enjoyed peace for forty years; then Othniel the son of Kenaz died.

1341-1323 B.C.

<sup>12</sup>Again the Israelites did what was evil in the sight of the LORD. So the LORD strengthened Eglon king of Moab against Israel because of their apostasy in the sight of the LORD. <sup>13</sup>He confederated with the Ammonites and the Amalekites, advanced, defeated Israel and captured the palm city.<sup>w</sup> <sup>14</sup>For eighteen years the Israelites served Eglon king of Moab.

1323-1243 B.C.

<sup>15</sup>But when the Israelites cried to the LORD, the LORD raised up a deliverer, Ehud the son of Gera, a left-handed Benjamite, by whom the Israelites usually sent their taxes to Eglon king of Moab. <sup>16</sup>Ehud made for himself a two-edged sword, a foot and a half long, girded it under his clothes upon his right thigh. <sup>17</sup>He then presented the taxes to Eglon king of Moab, a very fat man. <sup>18</sup>When he had presented the taxes, he dismissed the people who had carried them. <sup>19</sup>But at the Gilgal quarries he himself turned back and said, "I have a secret message, O king." He ordered, "Silence." All his attendants then withdrew, <sup>20</sup>and Ehud approached King Eglon, who was sitting alone in the cool upper room, which he had made for himself. Ehud said, "I have a message from God for you." As the king arose from his seat, <sup>21</sup>Ehud reached out his left hand, drew his sword from his right thigh, and thrust it into the king's belly, <sup>22</sup>so that the hilt followed the blade, and the fat closed upon the hilt; he did not withdraw the sword from the belly, and the contents burst out. <sup>23</sup>Then Ehud went out the back way, shut the doors of the upper room, and locked them.

<sup>24</sup>After he had left,<sup>x</sup> the king's attendants came and noticed that the doors of the upper room were locked; so they said, "Surely he is relaxing in the cool room." <sup>25</sup>They waited until they were embarrassed, and still the doors of the upper room did not open; therefore they took the key, opened them, and found their master lying dead on the floor. <sup>26</sup>While the attendants were hesitating, Ehud escaped to Seirah by way of the quarries. <sup>27</sup>Going through the hill country of Ephraim, he blew his trumpet, and the Israelites joined him down from the highlands with him as their leader. <sup>28</sup>He said to them, "Follow me, for the LORD has delivered your enemies, the Moabites, into your hands." They followed him and seized the fords of the Jordan, opposite the Moabites, and permitted no one to pass over. <sup>29</sup>At that time they killed 10,000 Moabites, all healthy and vigorous men; not a man escaped. <sup>30</sup>Thus was Moab subdued that day by the forces of Israel, and the land had peace eighty years.

<sup>31</sup>After him came Shamgar<sup>y</sup> the son of Anath, who killed 600 Philistines with an oxgoad; he also saved Israel.

4 AFTER EHUD DIED, THE ISRAELITES again did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, <sup>2</sup>and the LORD handed them over to Jabin<sup>z</sup> king of Canaan, who reigned in Hazor. The captain of his army was Sisera, who lived in Harosheth-goiim.<sup>a</sup> <sup>3</sup>The Israelites cried to the LORD; for he had 900 iron chariots, and he oppressed the Israelites mightily for twenty years.

<sup>4</sup>Now Deborah, a prophetess, the wife of Lappidoth, judged Israel at that time. <sup>5</sup>She would sit under the palm tree of Deborah between Ramah and Bethel in the hill country of Ephraim, where the Israelites came to her for judgment. <sup>6</sup>She sent for Barak the son of Abinoam from Kedesh-Naphtali, and said to him, "I has not the LORD God of Israel commanded: Go to Mount Tabor, and take with you 10,000 men of Naphtali and of the Zebulun tribe? <sup>7</sup>I will direct Sisera, the captain of Jabin's army, with his chariots and his multitude to the brook

w) Jericho. x) Probably through a little used passageway.

y) Shamgar seems to have followed Ehud during the latter part of the 80 years' period, so that his period is to be reckoned within those 80 years.

z) In Joshua 11:1 and Judges 4:23, 24, Jabin is named king of the Canaanites; like "Pharaoh," it seems to be a title rather than a name.

a) "Haroshieth"—carving; "goiim"—Gentiles; a place noted for carving.

Kishon; and I will deliver him into your hand.”<sup>b</sup>

<sup>8</sup>Barak said to her, “If you will go with me, then I will go; but if you refuse to go with me, I will not go.”

<sup>9</sup>She said, “I will certainly go with you; but the journey on which you are going will not be to your honor, for the LORD will deliver Sisera into the hand of a woman.” Then Deborah arose and went back with Barak to Kedesh, <sup>10</sup>and Barak ordered Zebulun and Naphtali to Kedesh, where 10,000 men followed him; and Deborah went with him.

<sup>11</sup>Now Heber the Kenite had separated himself from the Kenites, the descendants of Hobab, the father-in-law of Moses, and he had pitched his tent as far as the oak of Zaanan, which is near Kedesh. <sup>12</sup>They informed Sisera that Barak the son of Abinoam had gone up to Mount Tabor; <sup>13</sup>so Sisera gathered his 900 iron chariots and all his allies from Harosheth-goiim to the brook Kishon.

<sup>14</sup>Deborah said to Barak, “Up! For this is the day in which the LORD has delivered Sisera into your hand. Has not the LORD gone out before you?” So Barak went down from Mount Tabor with his ten thousand men. <sup>15</sup>The LORD<sup>c</sup> confused Sisera and all his chariots and all his soldiers before Barak with the edge of the sword, and Sisera alighted from his chariot and fled on foot. <sup>16</sup>But Barak pursued the chariots and the army to Harosheth-goiim, and all the troops of Sisera were slain by the edge of the sword, so that not one was left. <sup>17</sup>Sisera fled on foot to the tent of Jael, the wife of Heber the Kenite; for there was peace between Jabin king of Hazor and the house of Heber the Kenite.

<sup>18</sup>Jael went out to meet Sisera and said to him, “Come in, my master, turn in with me; have no fear.” He entered her tent, and she covered him with a blanket. <sup>19</sup>He said to her, “Please give me a little water to drink; for I am thirsty!” So she opened a bottle<sup>d</sup> of milk and gave him a drink, then covered him again. <sup>20</sup>He said to her, “Stand in the door of the tent, and if any one comes making inquiry of you and says, ‘Is there any man here?’ you shall say, ‘No!’” <sup>21</sup>But Jael, Heber’s wife, took a tent peg and a hammer in her hands, approached him softly, and drove the peg into his temple, so that it pierced through into the ground, and he died without awakening from his deep sleep. <sup>22</sup>And look, as Barak pursued Sisera, Jael came out to meet him and said to him, “Come, and I will show you the man you are seeking.”<sup>e</sup> He entered into her tent and saw Sisera dead with the tent peg through his temple. <sup>23</sup>Thus God subdued on that day Jabin the king of Canaan before the Israelites, <sup>24</sup>and the hand of the Israelites pressed ever heavier on Jabin king of Canaan, until they destroyed Jabin king of Canaan.<sup>f</sup>

1223-1183 B.C.

5 THAT DAY DEBORAH AND BARAK the son of Abinoam sang this song: <sup>2</sup>“For the leaders taking the lead in Israel, for the people offering themselves willingly, praise the LORD! <sup>3</sup>I hear, O kings; give ear, O princes.<sup>g</sup> I will sing to the LORD; I will sing praise to the LORD, the God of Israel.

<sup>4</sup>“LORD, when Thou didst go forth out of Seir, when Thou didst march out of the field of Edom, the earth trembled, the heavens also dropped; yes, the clouds dropped water. <sup>5</sup>The mountains quaked at the presence of the LORD, even yonder Sinai, at the presence of the LORD, the God of Israel.

<sup>6</sup>“In the days of Shamgar son of Anath, in the days of Jael, the highways were deserted; travelers walked the byways. <sup>7</sup>The rulers ceased in Israel, they ceased until I, Deborah, arose, arose a mother in Israel.<sup>h</sup> <sup>8</sup>They chose new gods, and war was in the gates. Was there seen a shield or a spear among 40,000 in Israel?

<sup>9</sup>“My heart is toward the governors

b) God is ever in control of the godly and of the ungodly.

c) The LORD, not Barak or Deborah, did the confounding, in spite of iron chariots.

d) The skin of a goat. e) Jael obeyed Israel’s God rather than custom.

f) A far northern part of Canaan. g) She addresses all rulers of the earth.

h) Her sons and daughters were the godly of Israel, whom she spiritually and politically nurtured.

of Israel; you who offered yourselves willingly among the people. Praise the LORD! <sup>10</sup>You who ride on white donkeys, you who sit on rich carpets, and you who walk by the way, tell of it. <sup>11</sup>To the measures of musicians in the places of drawing water, they shall rehearse the righteous acts of the LORD, even the righteous acts of His rulers in Israel. Then the people of the LORD went down to the gates.

<sup>12</sup>"Awake, awake, Deborah! Awake, awake, utter a song! Arise, Barak, and lead away your captives, you son of Abinoam! <sup>13</sup>Then He set the remnant to rule the nobles; He made the LORD's people rule for me as heroes. <sup>14</sup>Those of Ephraim moved into the valley; after you, Benjamin, among your people. Out of Machir came down governors and out of Zebulun they who carry the marshal's staff. <sup>15</sup>The princes of Issachar were with Deborah; as was Issachar, so was Barak. Into the valley they rushed forth at his heels.

"Among the divisions of Reuben there were great deliberations. <sup>16</sup>Why did you stay among the sheepfolds, listening to pipings for the flocks? Among the divisions of Reuben there were great deliberations of heart. <sup>17</sup>Gilead remained beyond the Jordan. And Dan, why did he remain by the ships? Asher dwelt at the seashore, and by its bays he remained. <sup>18</sup>Zebulun is a people that risked their lives unto death; so also Naphtali upon the high places of the field.

<sup>19</sup>"The kings came, they fought; the kings of Canaan fought in Taanach, by the waters of Megiddo; money they did not obtain. <sup>20</sup>From heaven the stars fought; in their courses they fought against Sisera. <sup>21</sup>The brook Kishon swept them away, that ancient brook, the brook Kishon. March on, my soul, with strength! <sup>22</sup>Then the horses' hoofs stamped by reason of the prancings, the prancings of their mighty ones.

<sup>23</sup>"Curse Meroz, says the Angel of the LORD, curse bitterly its inhabitants; because they came not to the help of the LORD, to the help of the LORD as heroes. <sup>24</sup>Blessed above women shall Jael be, the wife of Heber the Kenite; above women in the tent shall she be blessed! <sup>25</sup>Water he asked; milk she gave him. In a lordly bowl she brought him cream. <sup>26</sup>Her hand she put to the tent peg and her right hand to the workman's hammer; she hammered Sisera; she smashed his head; yes, she pierced and struck through his temple. <sup>27</sup>At her feet he sank, he fell, he lay; at her feet he sank, he fell. Where he sank, there he fell down dead.

<sup>28</sup>"Through the window she looked out; she peered, the mother of Sisera. Through her lattice she called, 'Why is his chariot so long in coming? Why tarry the wheels of his chariots?'" <sup>29</sup>The wisest of her ladies answered her; in fact, she returned answer to herself, <sup>30</sup>"Are they not finding, are they not dividing booty? A girl or two for every man; some loot of dyed garments for Sisera, of dyed garments embroidered, two dyed garments embroidered for the neck of the spoiler?" <sup>31</sup>So, LORD, let all Thy enemies perish. But they who love Him are as the sun rising in his strength." And the land had peace forty years.

1183-1176 B.C.

6 THE ISRAELITES DID WHAT WAS evil in the sight of the LORD, and the LORD delivered them into the hand of Midian<sup>i</sup> for seven years. <sup>2</sup>The rule of the Midianites was so oppressive that the Israelites made living quarters in mountain caves and forts because of the Midianites.

<sup>3</sup>When the Israelites had sown their fields, the Midianites, the Amalekites, and the natives of the East would come up and attack them. <sup>4</sup>They<sup>j</sup> encamped in the land and ruined the produce of the soil as far as Gaza, so that nothing edible, no sheep, no ox, or donkey remained for the Israelites. <sup>5</sup>They came in crowds thick as grasshoppers, with their cattle, their camels, and their tents to destroy the land; <sup>6</sup>so that the Israelites were impoverished because of the Midianites, and the children of Israel cried unto the LORD. <sup>7</sup>And so it

i) Israel's persistent enemy, although descended from Abraham by Keturah.

j) These people were habitual marauders.

was, when the Israelites cried to the LORD because of the Midianites, <sup>8</sup>the LORD sent them a prophet<sup>k</sup> with this message, "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: I brought you up from Egypt, and I brought you forth out of the house of bondage; <sup>9</sup>I delivered you from the power of the Egyptians and out of the hand of all who oppressed you; I drove them out from before you, and I gave you their land. <sup>10</sup>I said to you, I am the LORD your God; you shall not fear the gods of the Amorites, in whose land you dwell. But you have not listened to My voice."

<sup>11</sup>Then the Angel of the LORD came and sat under the oak in Ophra,<sup>l</sup> which belonged to Joash the Abiezrite, where his son Gideon was beating out wheat in the wine press<sup>m</sup> to hide it from the Midianites. <sup>12</sup>When the Angel of the LORD appeared to him, He said to him: The LORD is with you, you mighty hero!

<sup>13</sup>Gideon said to Him, "My master, if the LORD is with us, why then has all this happened to us? And where are all His wondrous works, which our fathers recounted to us, saying, 'Did not the LORD bring us up out of Egypt?' But now the LORD has rejected us; He has delivered us into the hand of the Midianites." <sup>14</sup>Then the LORD<sup>n</sup> turned toward him and said: Go in this your strength and save Israel from the hand of the Midianites; have not I sent you? <sup>15</sup>He said to Him, "O LORD, with what shall I save Israel, considering that my family ranks lowest in Manasseh and I am the youngest in my father's house?" <sup>16</sup>The LORD answered him: I am with you, and you shall destroy the Midianites one and all.<sup>o</sup> <sup>17</sup>Then he said to Him, "If I have found favor in Thy sight, then show me a sign that it is Thou who talkest with me. <sup>18</sup>Do not leave here, please, till I come back, bring out my gift, and lay it before Thee." And He said: I will stay until you come back.

<sup>19</sup>Then Gideon went in and prepared a kid and unleavened cakes from a bushel of meal; the meat he put in a basket, the broth he put in a pot, and he brought it out to Him under the oak and placed it before Him. <sup>20</sup>But the Angel of the LORD said to him: Take the meat and the unleavened cakes, lay them upon this rock, and pour out the broth. This he did. <sup>21</sup>Then the Angel of the LORD held out the end of the staff in His hand, touched the meat and the unleavened cakes, and fire went up out of the rock that consumed the meat and the unleavened cakes. Then the Angel of the LORD vanished from his sight.

<sup>22</sup>When Gideon realized that He was the Angel of the LORD, Gideon said, "Alas, O LORD God! For I have seen the Angel of the LORD face to face."<sup>p</sup> <sup>23</sup>But the LORD said to him: Peace to you! Have no fear; you shall not die. <sup>24</sup>Then Gideon built an altar there to the LORD, and he called it Adonai-shalom,<sup>q</sup> and to this day it stands in Ophrah of the Abiezrites.

<sup>25</sup>That night the LORD said to him: Take your father's bullock, the second bullock, the seven year old; tear down the altar of Baal that your father has, cut down the shame images<sup>r</sup> beside it; <sup>26</sup>build an altar to the LORD your God upon the top of this stronghold; arrange it properly; take the chosen bullock, and offer it as a burnt sacrifice with the wood of the shame images which you shall cut down. <sup>27</sup>Then Gideon took ten of his men servants and did as the LORD had instructed him; but as he feared his father's household and the men of the city, he did not do it during the day; he did it at night.

<sup>28</sup>When the townsmen got up early next morning, the altar of Baal was broken down, the shame images beside

k) Probably Phinehas, the high priest. l) A village in the half tribe of Manasseh, west of Jordan. m) The wine press was dug to a level lower than the surrounding ground.

n) As at the burning bush near Sinai, the Angel of the LORD is identical with the LORD. We believe He is the Son of God. o) A figure of speech signifying total destruction.

p) Gideon's distress of mind, here indicated, is due to imperfect information concerning God.

q) The LORD is peace. r) A stump on each side of the Baal altar, one with the secret parts of a woman and the other of a man carved on it; by it the Baal worshippers committed lewdness in the name of religion. Temple prostitution was a sacred part of Baal ritual.

it cut down, and the second bullock had been offered upon the newly built altar. <sup>29</sup>They said one to another, "Who has committed this deed?" Upon inquiring and questioning, they were told, "Gideon son of Joash has committed this deed." <sup>30</sup>The townsmen then said to Joash, "Bring your son out-doors that he may die; because he has broken down Baal's altar and has cut down the shame images beside it."

<sup>31</sup>Joash said to all who stood facing him, "Will you strive for Baal? Will you champion his cause? Whoever takes up for him shall be put to death this morning; if he is a god, let him strive for himself because someone has broken down his altar." <sup>32</sup>So they named him Jerubbaal<sup>3</sup> that day, saying, "Let Baal strive against him," because he had broken down his altar.

<sup>33</sup>Now all the Midianites, the Amalekites, and the natives of the East drew together; they passed over and camped in the Valley of Jezreel. <sup>34</sup>Then the Spirit of the Lord came upon Gideon; <sup>4</sup>he blew the trumpet, and the Abiezrites were called up to follow him. <sup>35</sup>He sent messengers throughout Manassah too, and they joined him. He also sent messengers to Asher, to Zebulun, and to Naphtali, and they came up to join them.

<sup>36</sup>Gideon then said to God, "If Thou wilt save Israel by my hand, as Thou hast said, <sup>37</sup>look, I will put a fleece of wool on the threshing floor; and if there is dew on the fleece only and the surrounding ground is dry, then I will know that Thou wilt save Israel by my hand, even as Thou hast spoken."

<sup>38</sup>And it was so. When he got up early next morning, he pressed the fleece together and wrung a bowlful of water out of it. <sup>39</sup>Then Gideon said to God, "Let not Thine anger be kindled against me, and I will speak but this once; let me make another test, I pray Thee, once more with the fleece; let it alone be dry, and let there be dew upon all the ground around it." <sup>40</sup>And God did so that night; for the fleece was dry, and all the surrounding ground was wet with dew.<sup>41</sup>

7 THEN JERUBBAAL,<sup>v</sup> THAT IS GIDEON, and all the people with him arose early and camped near Enharod.<sup>w</sup> The camp of Midian was in the valley, north of Gibeath-moreh. <sup>2</sup>And the LORD said to Gideon: There are too many people with you for Me to surrender the Midianites into their hand, lest Israel should become boastful and say: "Our own hand has saved us." <sup>3</sup>Now therefore announce in the hearing of the people, "Whoever is afraid and trembling may leave Mount Gilead at once." Then 22,000 men went back, while 10,000 remained. <sup>4</sup>The LORD said to Gideon: There are still too many people; bring them down to the water's edge, and there I will test them for you. It shall be that he of whom I say: This one shall go with you, shall go with you, and he of whom I say: This one shall not go with you, shall not go. <sup>5</sup>So he brought the people down to the water's edge; and the LORD said to Gideon: Separate every one who laps* water with his tongue, as a dog laps, from every one who bends down upon his knees to drink. <sup>6</sup>There were 300 men who lapped, putting their hand to their mouth, but all the rest of the people bent down upon their knees to drink water. <sup>7</sup>The LORD said to Gideon: By the 300 men that lapped I will save you; I will deliver the Midianites into your hand. Let all the other people go, each to his tent. <sup>8</sup>He took provisions and trumpets from the people and sent the rest of the men of Israel away each to his tent, retaining only the 300 men.

Now the camp of Midian was below him in the valley, <sup>9</sup>and that night the LORD said to him: Get up, invade the camp; for I have delivered it into your hand. <sup>10</sup>But if you are afraid to invade it, go down to the camp with your servant Purah. <sup>11</sup>There you will hear what they are saying, and after that you will have the courage to go wisdom.

they dipped water to their mouths with cupped hands, they could scan the horizon for enemies.

down against the camp. Then he went down with his servant Purah to the very edge of the camp where the sentries were standing.

<sup>12</sup>Now the Midianites, the Amalekites, and all the natives of the East were camping along the valley, thick as grasshoppers, and their camels were as numerous as the sand on the seashore. <sup>13</sup>Just as Gideon came near, a guard was telling his comrade a dream: "See! I dreamed that a loaf of barley bread came tumbling into the camp of Midian and bounced so hard against the tent that it collapsed." <sup>14</sup>His comrade responded, "That is nothing other than the sword of Gideon son of Joash, a man of Israel; God has delivered Midian and the whole camp into his hand." <sup>15</sup>When Gideon heard the telling of the dream and its interpretation, he bowed in worship and returned to the camp of Israel. He said, "Up! for the LORD has delivered the camp of Midian into your hand." <sup>16</sup>He divided the 300 men<sup>y</sup> into three companies and gave trumpets and empty pitchers, with torches inside, to each of them. <sup>17</sup>He told them, "Watch me, and do as I do. When I reach the edge of the camp and blow my trumpet, see that you do as I do; <sup>18</sup>when I and all my men blow our trumpets, you, too, must blow your trumpets all around the camp and shout, 'For the LORD and for Gideon.'"

<sup>19</sup>When Gideon and the 100 men with him came to the edge of the camp, the middle watch had just been posted. They blew the trumpets and smashed the pitchers that were in their hands. <sup>20</sup>The three companies blew the trumpets, smashed the pitchers, held the torches in their left hands and in their right hand trumpets to be blown, and they shouted, "The sword of the LORD and of Gideon." <sup>21</sup>Then every man stood in his place around the camp, and all the men in camp ran, crying out as they fled.

<sup>22</sup>When the 300 trumpets were blown, the LORD set every man fighting

the man next to him throughout the camp,<sup>a</sup> and the army fled as far as Beth-shittah<sup>b</sup> near Zererah and as far as the border of Abel-meholah<sup>c</sup> near Tabbath. <sup>23</sup>The men of Israel were then called up out of Naphtali, out of Asher, and out of all Manasseh, to pursue the Midianites. <sup>24</sup>Gideon also sent messengers throughout the hill country of Ephraim, announcing, "Come down against the Midianites, and seize the waters fronting them as far as Beth-barah<sup>d</sup> and the Jordan." Then all the men of Ephraim were called out, and they seized the waters as far as Beth-barah and also the Jordan. <sup>25</sup>They captured the two princes of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb. They killed Oreb at the rock Oreb, and Zeeb was killed in the wine press of Zeeb. They pursued the Midianites and brought the heads of Oreb and Zeeb to Gideon beyond the Jordan.

8 THEN THE MEN OF EPHRAIM SAID to him, "What kind of treatment is this — not calling us when you went to fight against Midian?" They accused him severely, <sup>2</sup>but he answered them, "What have I done in comparison with you? Are not the leftover grapes of Ephraim better than the entire crop of Abiezer? <sup>3</sup>God has delivered the princes of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb, into your hand; so what was I able to do as compared to you?"<sup>e</sup> And their anger was abated when he had said that.

<sup>4</sup>When Gideon came to the Jordan, he and his 300 men passed over, weary but continuing their pursuit. <sup>5</sup>He said to the men of Succoth, "Give, I beg of you, loaves of bread to the people that follow me, for they are exhausted. I am pursuing Zebah and Zalmunna, the kings of Midian." <sup>6</sup>But the princes of Succoth said, "Are the persons of Zebah and Zalmunna already in your hands, that we should give you men bread?" <sup>7</sup>Gideon answered, "When the LORD delivers Zebah and Zalmunna into my hand, then I will thrash you

y) Both the dream and interpretation were inspired by God to increase the confidence of Gideon.

z) Even in working miracles God uses natural means.

a) Complete confusion prevailed in the darkness. At night all swords, of enemy and of friend, look alike. b) The house of the acacia tree. c) The meadow of dancing.

d) House of the ford, probably the Beth-abarah where John baptized.

e) A soft answer turns away wrath [Prov. 15:1].

naked bodies with the thorns and briars of the wilderness." <sup>8</sup>From there he went up to Penuel and spoke to them in like manner; and the men of Penuel answered him as had the men of Succoth. <sup>9</sup>He said to the men of Penuel, "When I return safe and sound, I will break down this tower."

<sup>10</sup>Now Zebah and Zalmunna were in Karkor with their army of about 15,000 men, all that were left of the natives of the East; for the slain numbered 120,000 swordsmen. <sup>11</sup>So Gideon went up by the Bedouins' route to the east of Nobah and Jogbehah, and he smote the army while they were resting. <sup>12</sup>Zebah and Zalmunna fled, but he pursued and captured the two kings of Midian, Zebah and Zalmunna, and routed the entire army. <sup>13</sup>Then Gideon son of Joash returned from the battle by the Ileres Pass. <sup>14</sup>He captured one of the young men of Succoth, whom he interviewed and who jotted down for him the names of the princes and the elders of Succoth, 77 men. <sup>15</sup>He then went to the dwellers of Succoth and said, "Take a look at Zebah and Zalmunna, about whom you taunted me, saying, 'Are the persons of Zebah and Zalmunna already in your hands, that we should give bread to your tired men?'" <sup>16</sup>Then he took the elders of the city and with the thorns and briars of the wilderness he taught the men of Succoth a lesson. <sup>17</sup>He also broke down the tower of Penuel and killed the men of the city.

<sup>18</sup>To Zebah and Zalmunna he said, "Who were the men whom you killed at Tabor?" They replied, "As you are, so were they. They were like you, each as the son of a king in stature." <sup>19</sup>He said, "They were my brothers, the sons of my mother. As surely as the LORD lives, if you had spared their lives, I would not kill you." <sup>20</sup>He then said to Jether, his first-born, "Stand up and kill them." But the youth did not draw his sword; he was afraid, for he was still only a lad. <sup>21</sup>Zebah and Zalmunna said, "You stand up and fell us; for as the man, so is his power." Gideon arose, killed Zebah and Zalmunna, and took the crescents<sup>a</sup> which were on the necks of their camels.

<sup>22</sup>The men of Israel said to Gideon, "Rule over us, you and then your son and then your son's son; for you have saved us from the rule of Midian."

<sup>23</sup>But Gideon said to them, "I will not rule over you, neither shall my son rule over you; the LORD shall rule over you; <sup>24</sup>but rather I will request that every man give me the earrings of the captives." (They had golden earrings because the men had been Ishmaelites). <sup>25</sup>They answered, "We will gladly give them," and when they spread a garment, every man cast the earrings from their captives into it. <sup>26</sup>The weight of the golden earrings he had requested was equal to about 17,000 dollars in gold, besides the crescents, the pendants, and the purple clothing that was on the kings of Midian; also the chains that were around the necks of the camels. <sup>27</sup>Then Gideon made an ephod of it and put it in the city of Ophrah; and all Israel venerated it, so that it became a snare to Gideon and his family.<sup>b</sup> <sup>28</sup>Thus was Midian subdued at the hands of Israel, and they never raised their heads again. The land had peace for forty years, during the lifetime of Gideon.

1136 B.C.

<sup>29</sup>Then Jerubbaal the son of Joash went and lived in his own house.

<sup>30</sup>Gideon had seventy sons, who were his own offspring through his many wives. <sup>31</sup>His concubine in Shechem also bore him a son, and he named him Abimelech. <sup>32</sup>Then Gideon the son of Joash died at a ripe old age, and he was buried in the tomb of his father Joash in Ophrah of the Abiezrites.

<sup>33</sup>As soon as Gideon was dead, the Israelites again turned to the Baals, and they made Baal-berith<sup>c</sup> their god.

<sup>34</sup>The Israelites had no regard for the LORD their God, who had delivered

f) Or, while they were making camp.

g) Moon images or pictures are still Arabian emblems in the Moslem faith.

h) The Urim and Thummim, attached to the breastplate of the high priest, was consulted to learn the will of God. This ephod, handled by lesser men, became an object of worship.

i) Heb.: LORD of a covenant. Sometimes spoken of as El-berith, the god of a covenant, thus prostituting the sacred covenant relationship between God and Israel.

them from the hands of their enemies; <sup>35</sup>neither did they show kindness to the family of Jerubbaal in return for all the good he had rendered in behalf of Israel.

1136-1133 B.C.

9 ABIMELECH THE SON OF JERUBBAAL went to Shechem to his mother's relatives and said to the household of his mother's father,<sup>1</sup> <sup>2</sup>"Speak to the men of Shechem, and say to them, Which is better for you, to have seventy sons of Jerubbaal rule over you or to have one man rule over you?" Also remember that I am your own bone and flesh."<sup>3</sup> So his mother's brothers<sup>k</sup> spoke these words to the men of Shechem in his behalf, and they were inclined to favor Abimelech; for they said, "He is our kinsman."<sup>4</sup> Then they gave him seventy pieces of silver from the house of Baal-berith, and with them Abimelech hired lightheaded and foolhardy men who followed him.<sup>5</sup> He went to his father's house at Ophrah and slew his brothers, the seventy sons of Jerubbaal, upon one stone;<sup>6</sup> but Jotham, the youngest, escaped by hiding himself.<sup>7</sup> Then all the men of Shechem and of Beth-millo got together by the oak at the Shechem monument and proclaimed Abimelech king.

<sup>7</sup>When it was told Jotham, he climbed to the top of Mount Gerizim. There he raised his voice and shouted to them, "Listen to me, you men of Shechem, so that God may listen to you."<sup>8</sup> Once the trees went out to anoint a king over them, and they said to the olive tree, 'Reign over us!' <sup>9</sup>But the olive tree said to them, 'Shall I give up my rich oil, with which God and men are honored, to solicit the trees for my promotion?' <sup>10</sup>Then the trees said to the fig tree, 'Come and reign over us!' <sup>11</sup>But the fig tree said to them, 'Should I give up my good sweet fruit, to solicit the trees for my promotion?' <sup>12</sup>The trees then said to the vine, 'Come, reign over us!' <sup>13</sup>But the vine said to them, 'Should I give up my wine, which cheers God and men, to solicit the trees for my promotion?' <sup>14</sup>Then all the trees said to the bramble,<sup>n</sup> 'Come and reign over us!' <sup>15</sup>And the bramble said to the trees, 'If you in sincerity anoint me king over you, then come and take refuge in my shadow; but if not, then let fire come out of the brambles, and let it destroy the cedars of Lebanon.'

<sup>16</sup>"So now, if you have acted in all sincerity and truth in making Abimelech king, and if you have behaved with fairness toward Jerubbaal and his household in accordance with his merit — <sup>17</sup>seeing that my father fought for you and risked his life and delivered you from the power of Midian, <sup>18</sup>while you have rebelled this day against my father's house; you have killed seventy of my father's sons upon one stone, and you have made Abimelech, the son of his maidservant, king over the men of Shechem, because he is your brother — <sup>19</sup>if you have acted in good faith with Jerubbaal and his family this day, then you may rejoice in Abimelech, and let him also rejoice with you. <sup>20</sup>But if not, then may fire burst forth from Abimelech, and let it destroy the men of Shechem and of Beth-millo, and may fire burst forth from the men of Shechem and of Beth-millo, and let it destroy Abimelech."<sup>21</sup> Jotham escaped and fled to Beer; there he lived because he feared Abimelech his brother. <sup>22</sup>And Abimelech ruled over Israel three years.

<sup>23</sup>Then God sent an evil spirit to divide Abimelech from the men of Shechem, and the men of Shechem dealt treacherously with Abimelech; <sup>24</sup>so that retributive justice might come upon Abimelech for murdering the seventy sons of Jerubbaal and upon the men of Shechem<sup>o</sup> who had supported Abimelech in murdering his brothers. <sup>25</sup>The men of Shechem set up ambushes against him<sup>p</sup> on the mountain-top roads, robbing all who passed that way, and it was reported to Abimelech.

<sup>26</sup>Meanwhile Gaal son of Ebed came

j) There were other mothers in it, with children of the same father. k) Mostly half brothers.

l) A demagogue incited mass murder. m) One of the few Old Testament parables.

n) Abimelech was that bramble, the worst of Gideon's sons.

o) They were ingrates and got what they deserved. p) The men of Shechem intended to harm Abimelech.

with his kinsmen to reside in Shechem, and the men of Shechem put their trust in him. <sup>27</sup>They went out to the field, gathered grapes, trod them out,<sup>q</sup> and feasted in the house of their god where they ate and drank and cursed Abimelech. <sup>28</sup>Gaal the son of Ebed said, "Who is Abimelech, and who are we of Shechem, that we should serve him? Is he not the son of Jerubbaal, and is not Zebul his lieutenant? Serve the men of Hamor, the father of Shechem; but why should we serve him?" <sup>29</sup>Oh, that this people were under my rule! Then I would remove Abimelech." And he said to Abimelech, "Increase your army, and come out."<sup>r</sup>

<sup>30</sup>When Zebul, the ruler of the city, heard the words of Gaal the son of Ebed, he became very angry. <sup>31</sup>He sent messengers to Abimelech in Tormah,<sup>s</sup> saying, "Observe, Gaal the son of Ebed and his kinsmen have come to Shechem, and they are turning the city against you. <sup>32</sup>Now therefore, get up, you and the people with you, and lie concealed in the field. <sup>33</sup>Rise early in the morning, and as soon as the sun is up, make a sudden attack against the city. When he and his people come out against you, do with them as you shall have opportunity." <sup>34</sup>So Abimelech and all the people with him arose during the night and ambushed Shechem in four companies. <sup>35</sup>When Gaal the son of Ebed came out and stood in the entrance of the city gate, Abimelech and the people with him arose from their hiding place. <sup>36</sup>And when Gaal saw the people, he said to Zebul, "Look, people are coming down from the tops of the mountain." Zebul answered him, "It is the shadow of the mountains that looks to you like men."<sup>t</sup>

<sup>37</sup>When Gaal said again, "See, people are coming down the middle of the mountain, and one company is coming from the direction of the fortune-tellers' oak," <sup>38</sup>Zebul said to him, "Where is now your boast, you who said, 'Who is Abimelech, that we should serve him?' Are these not the people you despised? Go out now, and fight them." <sup>39</sup>So Gaal went out before the men of Shechem and fought Abimelech. <sup>40</sup>But Abimelech chased him, so that he fled, leaving many wounded, up to the entrance of the gate.

<sup>41</sup>Abimelech stayed at Arumah, but Zebul drove Gaal and his kinsmen away, so that they could not live in Shechem. <sup>42</sup>The next day the people went out into the field, and when it was told Abimelech, <sup>43</sup>he divided his men into three companies and laid an ambush in the field. When he noticed that the people were coming out of the city, he rose up against them and shattered them. <sup>44</sup>Then Abimelech and the company with him rushed forward and occupied the entrance of the city gate, while the other two companies attacked all those in the field and slew them. <sup>45</sup>Abimelech fought against the city all that day, and when he had captured it, he killed the people in it and destroyed the city; after which he sowed it with salt.<sup>u</sup>

<sup>46</sup>Hearing of it, all the men in the tower of Shechem entered the vault of the El-berith temple, <sup>47</sup>and word came to Abimelech that all the men of the tower of Shechem were gathered there. <sup>48</sup>So Abimelech and all the people with him climbed Mount Zalmon, where Abimelech took hold of an axe, cut down a bough from a tree and, laying it on his shoulders, said to his men, "Hurry up; do what you have seen me do!" <sup>49</sup>All the people likewise cut down each his bough and, following Abimelech, placed them around the tower and set them on fire, so that all those in the tower, about a thousand men and women, perished. <sup>50</sup>Then Abimelech went to Thebez and captured it; <sup>51</sup>but there was a strong tower in the center of the city, and to it the men and women fled, shut themselves up, and climbed to the tower's top.

q) In the wine press. r) Gaal tried to bluff and was not ready to back it up.

s) A height near Shechem; Abimelech once lived there.

t) Gaal knew too little about warfare to fight successfully; he overreached, which meant death or wounds for many.

u) Made the land sterile and unfit for use; symbolic of utter ruin when strewn on the surface of a conquered and wrecked city.

<sup>52</sup>Abimelech reached the tower and attacked it. As he pressed on toward the door to set it on fire, <sup>53a</sup>a woman dropped an upper millstone on his head and broke his skull. <sup>54</sup>Instantly he called to his armor-bearer and told him, "Draw your sword and kill me, so they may not say of me, 'A woman slew him.'" And his armor-bearer stabbed him, so that he died. <sup>55</sup>When the men of Israel saw that Abimelech was dead, they left each for his home. <sup>56</sup>Thus God repaid the wickedness of Abimelech, which he committed toward his father in murdering his seventy brothers. <sup>57</sup>All the wickedness of the men of Shechem, God turned back upon their heads, so that the curse of Jotham the son of Jerubbaal was fulfilled upon them.<sup>v</sup>

1133-1110 B.C.

10 AFTER ABIMELECH, TOLA THE son of Puah, the son of Dodo, a man of Issachar, who lived in the hill country of Ephraim near Shamir,<sup>w</sup> stood up to defend Israel, <sup>2</sup>and he judged Israel 23 years. Then he died and was buried in Shamir.

1110-1088 B.C.

<sup>3</sup>After the death of Tola, Jair<sup>x</sup> the Gileadite judged Israel 22 years. <sup>4</sup>He had thirty sons who rode on thirty donkey colts, and they possessed thirty cities, called to this day Havvoth-jair,<sup>y</sup> in the land of Gilead. <sup>5</sup>When Jair died, he was buried in Kamon.

1088-1070 B.C.

<sup>6</sup>Then the Israelites again did what was evil in the sight of the LORD by serving the Baalim<sup>z</sup> and the Ashtaroth,<sup>a</sup> the gods of Aram, the gods of Sidon, the gods of Moab, the gods of the Ammonites, and the gods of the Philistines. They deserted the LORD and did not serve Him. <sup>7</sup>The LORD's indignation was kindled against Israel, and

He gave them over into the hand of the Philistines and into the hand of the Ammonites;<sup>b</sup> <sup>8</sup>and at their hands Israel was oppressed and trampled upon that year.<sup>c</sup> For eighteen years the Israelites beyond Jordan in the land of the Amorites in Gilcad were oppressed. <sup>9</sup>Then the Ammonites crossed the Jordan to fight against Judah, against Benjamin, and against the house of Ephraim; so that Israel was sorely distressed.

<sup>10</sup>The Israelites then cried to the LORD, "We have sinned against Thee, in that we have forsaken our God and have served the Baalim." <sup>11</sup>The LORD answered the Israelites: Did I not save you from the Egyptians, from the Amorites, from the Ammonites, and from the Philistines? <sup>12</sup>The Sidonians too, and the Amalekites and the Maonites did oppress you; you cried to Me, and I saved you from their power; <sup>13</sup>yet you have forsaken Me and have served other gods; wherefore I will save you no more.<sup>d</sup> <sup>14</sup>Go and cry to the gods which you have chosen; let them save you in the time of your distress.

<sup>15</sup>The Israelites said to the LORD, "We have sinned; do Thou to us whatever seems good in Thine eyes; only deliver us, we pray Thee this day." <sup>16</sup>They put away the strange gods from among them, and they served the LORD, and His soul was grieved for the misery of Israel.

<sup>17</sup>The Ammonites mustered their forces and encamped in Gilead<sup>e</sup> while the Israelites assembled and encamped in Mizpeh.<sup>f</sup> <sup>18</sup>Then the people and all the princes of Gilead said one to another, "Who will begin to fight against the Ammonites? He shall be head over all the inhabitants of Gilead."<sup>g</sup>

11 NOW JEPHTHAH THE GILEADITE was a brave hero, but he was

v) The Ruler of mankind is fair; He pays offenders back in their own coin.

w) A more central part of the country; a more convenient place for a judge to reside.

x) The first judge to come from east of Jordan. y) Meaning, Jair's villages. Ten communities within the city limits of Jair. z) The plural of Baal.

a) Used in connection with the plural of Baal, a general designation for the female divinities of the Canaanites. b) The Philistines to the west; the Ammonites to the east.

c) The year Jair died. He judged rather than fought.

d) There would be no deliverance without repentance. e) Gilead was located east of Jordan.

f) Heb. — a high place or watch tower, located in Gilead, east of the Jordan, possibly Ramoth-gilead. Jephthah settled there after his victory over the Ammonites.

g) It is not accurate to think of each judge as following another judge who is mentioned earlier; rarely if ever did any judge rule over the whole nation. Eli died 1070 B.C., after 40-years' judgeship during which Jair ruled 22 years, Jephthah 6, Izban 7, Elon 10, Abdon 8, and Samson 20, obviously much of it simultaneously.

the son of a paramour,<sup>h</sup> and Gilead had fathered Jephthah. <sup>2</sup>Gilead's wife gave birth to sons, who, when they grew up, expelled Jephthah, saying to him, "You shall not share in the inheritance of our father's estate, for you are the son of another woman." <sup>3</sup>So Jephthah fled from his brothers and lived in the land of Tob,<sup>i</sup> where renegades lined up with him, who joined him in banditry.

<sup>4</sup>In time the Ammonites made war against Israel, <sup>5</sup>and when the Ammonites moved up against Israel, the elders of Gilead went to get Jephthah from the land of Tob. <sup>6</sup>They said to Jephthah, "Come and be our commander, so we may fight against the Ammonites."<sup>j</sup> <sup>7</sup>But Jephthah said to the elders of Gilead, "Did you not hate me and drive me out of my father's house? Why do you now come to me, when you are in distress?" <sup>8</sup>Then the elders of Gilead said to Jephthah, "That is the reason we have turned to you, so accompany us; fight against the Ammonites, and be chief over us and over all the inhabitants of Gilead." <sup>9</sup>Jephthah replied to the elders of Gilead, "If you take me back with you to fight the Ammonites and the LORD delivers them into my hand, shall I really be your chief?" <sup>10</sup>The elders of Gilead answered Jephthah, "The LORD be witness between us<sup>k</sup> that we will do as you say."

<sup>11</sup>Then Jephthah went with the elders of Gilead; the people made him chief and commander over them, and Jephthah repeated all his words before the LORD in Mizpeh. <sup>12</sup>Jephthah then sent messengers to the king of the Ammonites to ask, "What do you have against me, that you are making war against my country?" <sup>13</sup>The king of the Ammonites answered the messengers of Jephthah, "Israel took away my land when he came up out of Egypt, from the Arnon even to the Jabbok and to the Jordan; so I request of you to restore the places peaceably."<sup>l</sup>

<sup>14</sup>Jephthah again sent the king of the Ammonites messengers, <sup>15</sup>who told him, "Thus says Jephthah, 'Israel took away neither the land of Moab nor the land of the Ammonites; <sup>16</sup>but they came up from Egypt, and Israel went through the desert to the Red Sea and arrived at Kadesh. <sup>17</sup>Then Israel sent messengers to the king of Edom, saying, "Let me pass, I beg of you, through your land"; but the king of Edom refused. To the king of Moab, too, he sent request, but he would not consent; so the Israelites remained in Kadesh. <sup>18</sup>Later they journeyed through the desert, going around the land of Edom and the land of Moab, until they came to the east side of the land of Moab, and when they arrived on the other side of the Arnon they pitched their camp, being careful not to cross into Moab, for the Arnon was the border of Moab. <sup>19</sup>Then Israel sent messengers to Sihon king of the Amorites, the king of Heshbon, and said, "Let us, please, pass through your land to our destination"; but <sup>20</sup>Sihon did not trust Israel, nor did he permit Israel to pass through his country. Instead Sihon mustered his people, encamped at Jahaz and fought against Israel.

<sup>21</sup>"Then the LORD God of Israel delivered Sihon and all his people into the hands of Israel, so that they were defeated, and Israel possessed all the land of the Amorites and its inhabitants. <sup>22</sup>They possessed all the land of the Amorites from the Arnon to the Jabbok, and from the wilderness to the Jordan. <sup>23</sup>Now that the LORD God of Israel has driven out the Amorites from before His people Israel, are you to occupy the territory? <sup>24</sup>Truly, that which Chemosh your god gives you to possess, that you may occupy; but we will possess whatever the LORD our God clears out from before us. <sup>25</sup>Are you any better than Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab? Did he ever strive against Israel, or did he ever fight against them? <sup>26</sup>While Israel dwelled in Heshbon and its towns, in Aroer and its towns, and in all the cities on either side of the Arnon for 300 years, why did you not recover them within that time? <sup>27</sup>I therefore have committed no wrong against you, but you are doing me wrong by making war on me. May the LORD, the Judge, decide this day between the Israelites and the Ammonites.'"

<sup>h</sup>) The Hebrew word "zonah" could be translated: "keeper of an inn"; thus it is understood by the Targum of Jonathan. She certainly was not the prostitute type we usually think of; else the son would not have been brought up by his father. <sup>i</sup>) A town near Syria.

<sup>j</sup>) In their desperate poverty of reliable leaders they sought Jephthah.

<sup>k</sup>) Indicates the seriousness of their promise, as we might take an oath by placing a hand on a Bible. <sup>l</sup>) See Num. 21:21-35.

<sup>28</sup>But the king of the Ammonites did not listen to the entreaty of Jephthah. <sup>29</sup>Then the Spirit of the LORD<sup>m</sup> came upon Jephthah, so that he marched through Gilead and Manasseh; through Mizpeh in Gilead he marched on to the Ammonites.

1092-1086 B.C.

<sup>30</sup>Jephthah made a vow to the LORD. He said, "If Thou wilt deliver the Ammonites into my hand, <sup>31</sup>then whatever<sup>n</sup> comes out of the door of my house to meet me when I return in victory from the Ammonites, shall be the LORD's, and I will offer it up for a burnt offering."<sup>o</sup> <sup>32</sup>Jephthah then marched into the land of the Ammonites to engage them in war, and the LORD delivered them into his hand. <sup>33</sup>He routed them with heavy casualties from Aroer<sup>p</sup> as far as the vicinity of Minnith, through twenty cities, and as far as Abel-cheramim.<sup>q</sup> Thus were the Ammonites subdued by Israel.

<sup>34</sup>Then Jephthah came to Mizpeh to his house. And, see, his daughter came out to meet him with timbrels and dances. She was his only child; beside her he had neither son nor daughter. <sup>35</sup>As soon as he saw her, he tore his clothes and said, "Alas, my daughter! You are bending me low; you are plunging me into calamity; for I have made a vow to the LORD, and I cannot repudiate it." <sup>36</sup>She answered him, "My father, you have made a vow to the LORD; do to me according to that which you have vowed to the LORD, for as much as the LORD brought retribution for you upon your enemies, the Ammonites. <sup>37</sup>But let me have the privilege of going to the mountains for two months that I may bewail my virginity, I and my companions." <sup>38</sup>He said, "Go," and he let her go for two months. She left with her companions to bewail her virginity upon the mountains. <sup>39</sup>So at the end of two months she returned to her father, and he did with her according to the vow<sup>r</sup> which he had made; she has not mated with a man. Thus it became a custom in Israel <sup>40</sup>for the maidens to go annually to lament<sup>s</sup> the daughter of Jephthah the Gileadite four days in a year.

1092-1086 B.C.

12 THE MEN OF EPHRAIM MOBILIZED, marched to Zaphon, and said to Jephthah, "Why did you cross over to fight against the Ammonites and did not summon us to go with you? We will burn down your house over your head." <sup>2</sup>Jephthah answered them, "I and my people had serious conflict with the Ammonites; and when I called to you for help, you refused to come and deliver us out of their hand. <sup>3</sup>When I saw that you refused to help us, I took my life in my hands,<sup>t</sup> marched against the Ammonites, and the LORD delivered them into my hand. Why then have you marched to fight against me?"

<sup>4</sup>Jephthah then called up all the men of Gilead and fought Ephraim. The Gileadites defeated the Ephraimites, because they had said, "You are

m) Jephthah was thus equipped with wisdom, courage, and needful direction to conduct a successful war.

n) The Hebrew word asher may be rendered either "whoever" or "whatever." "Whatever" seems more in keeping with the spirit of the text.

o) It is assumed that if an object suitable for burnt offering appeared, it would be so offered; if not, it could be dedicated to, and used of, God some other way. Had an unclean animal appeared, it would not have been offered as a burnt sacrifice. Human sacrifices were contrary to the law of God; those were pagan practices. p) A village near the Arnon river. q) Meadow vineyard.

r) He consecrated and devoted her to God in a way consistent with his promise.

s) She remained a virgin, whose life was dedicated to God and she bewailed her virginity. Her girl friends went annually to her retreat, probably going along with her. Nowhere does it say that Jephthah's daughter was committed to the flames.

t) He assumed the responsibility and danger of going to war. cf. I Sam. 19:5.

Ephraimite fugitives," you Gileadites in between Ephraim and Manasseh."

<sup>5</sup>The Gileadites then seized the fords of the Jordan that faced Ephraim, and when an Ephraimite escapee said, "Let me cross over," the Gileadites would say to him, "Are you an Ephraimite?" If he said, "No," <sup>6</sup>they would say to him, "Then say Shibboleth." If he could not pronounce it right and said "Sibboleth" instead, they would arrest him and execute him at the fords of the Jordan. Thus there fell at that time 42,000 Ephraimites. <sup>7</sup>Jephthah the Gileadite judged Israel six years; then he died and was buried in one of the Gilead cities.

1086-1079 B.C.

<sup>8</sup>After Jephthah, Ibzan of Bethlehem<sup>v</sup> judged Israel. <sup>9</sup>He had thirty sons and thirty daughters, whom he gave in marriage outside his clan, and he brought in thirty daughters from outside for his sons. Ibzan judged Israel seven years; <sup>10</sup>then he died and was buried in Bethlehem.

<sup>11</sup>After him Elon the Zebulunite judged Israel ten years. <sup>12</sup>Then Elon the Zebulunite died and was buried at Aijalon in the land of Zebulun.

1078-1070 B.C.

<sup>13</sup>After him Abdon the son of Hillel the Pirathonite<sup>w</sup> judged Israel. <sup>14</sup>He had forty sons and thirty grandsons, who rode on seventy saddled donkeys. He judged Israel eight years. <sup>15</sup>And Abdon the son of Hillel the Pirathonite died and was buried at Pirathon in the land of Ephraim, in the hill country of the Amalekites.<sup>x</sup>

1110-1070 B.C.

13 ONCE MORE THE ISRAELITES DID evil in the sight of the LORD; and the LORD delivered them into the hands of the Philistines forty years.<sup>y</sup>

<sup>2</sup>Now a certain man by the name of Manoah, of the tribe of Dan, lived in Zorah.<sup>z</sup> His wife was barren and childless, <sup>3</sup>but the Angel of the LORD<sup>a</sup> appeared to her, and said: See, you have been barren and childless, but you will conceive and bear a son. <sup>4</sup>See that you do not partake of wine or strong drink or any unclean food, <sup>5</sup>for you shall conceive and bear a son. No razor shall touch his head, for he shall be a Nazarite<sup>b</sup> to God from conception. He will begin to rescue<sup>c</sup> Israel out of the hands of the Philistines.

<sup>6</sup>The woman went and told her husband, "A Man of God appeared to me, who had the appearance of the Angel of God, very awe-inspiring. I did not ask Him where He came from, and He did not tell me His name. <sup>7</sup>He said to me: 'See, you have been barren and childless, but now you will conceive and bear a son. You must not partake of wine or strong drink or any unclean food, for he shall be a Nazarite from the time of conception until his death.'"

<sup>8</sup>Then Manoah petitioned the LORD. He said, "Hear me, O LORD! Send the Man of God again to us, that He may instruct us and tell us what we shall do for the child that is to be born." <sup>9</sup>God answered the prayer of Manoah, so that the Angel of God came again to the woman, while she was sitting in the field, her husband not being with her. <sup>10</sup>So the woman ran hurriedly to her husband and said, "Look, the Man who appeared to me the other day has returned." <sup>11</sup>So Manoah got up, followed his wife, and on reaching the Man, inquired, "Are You the Man who spoke to this woman?" The Man said: I am! <sup>12</sup>Then Manoah said, "When what You said comes true, what shall be the lad's way of life and his activities?" <sup>13</sup>The Angel of the LORD said to Manoah: The woman must carry out all my instructions. <sup>14</sup>She must not eat anything made

u) The Gileadites belonged to the tribe of Manasseh. The Ephraimites reproached them as a remnant who fled from their own people and were not fit to be called the brothers of Ephraim and Manasseh, but draft dodgers or military deserters.

v) Not of Bethlehem in Judah, but near Mount Carmel.

w) Abdon was a native of Pirathon, a town in the Mount of the Amalekites, within the Ephraim territory.

x) Either some Amalekites lived there or a memorial was erected there related to Amalek.

y) After Shamgar [ch. 3:31], the Philistines observed peace for a season, but now God commissions them to punish wayward Israel.

z) A town in Judah later given to Dan.

a) This is evidently the One who appeared to Moses, Joshua, Gideon, etc., and none other than the Son of God.

b) The Nazarite demanded a strict, separated life.

c) Samson began the deliverance from the Philistines; it was completed in the days of David.

from grapes, nor any unclean thing, nor shall she drink wine or strong drink; all this she must observe. <sup>15</sup>Then Manoah said to the Angel of the LORD, "Please, stay with us; we will kill a kid for You." <sup>16</sup>But the Angel of the LORD said to Manoah: Even though I stay with you, I will not eat of your bread. If you want to, you may offer a burnt offering to the LORD. Manoah did not know that the Man was the Angel of the LORD.

<sup>17</sup>Then Manoah asked the Angel of the LORD, "What is Your name<sup>d</sup> so that we may pay homage to You when Your message comes true?" <sup>18</sup>The Angel of the LORD said: Why do you ask My name, seeing it is Wonderful?<sup>e</sup> <sup>19</sup>Then Manoah offered a kid with a meal offering upon the rock to the LORD, and the Angel did wondrously;<sup>f</sup> Manoah and his wife looked on as the offering was consumed. <sup>20</sup>When the flame went up from the altar toward heaven, the Angel of the LORD ascended in the altar flame. When Manoah and his wife saw this, they threw themselves prone on the ground. <sup>21</sup>But the Angel of the LORD appeared no more to Manoah and his wife. Then Manoah understood that He was the Angel of the LORD.

<sup>22</sup>Manoah said to his wife, "We shall surely die because we have looked upon God."<sup>g</sup> <sup>23</sup>But his wife said, "If the LORD intended to kill us, He would not have accepted a burnt offering and a meal offering from our hands; neither would He have permitted us to see all this or to hear such things as these."

<sup>24</sup>The woman bore a son and called his name Samson.<sup>h</sup> The child grew up, and the LORD blessed him. <sup>25</sup>The Spirit of the LORD began to move him in Mahaneh-dan,<sup>i</sup> between Zorah and Eshtaol.

1095 B.C.?

14 SAMSON WENT DOWN TO TIMNAH<sup>j</sup> and noticed a woman at Timnah, one of the daughters of the Philistines. <sup>2</sup>When he returned home, he said to his father and mother, "I saw a woman in Timnah, one of the daughters of the Philistines. Now get me her for a wife." <sup>3</sup>But his father and mother replied to him, "Is there no woman at all among the girls of our own people or kinsmen, that you must seek a wife among the uncircumcised Philistines?"<sup>k</sup> Samson answered his father, "Get her for me; for she pleases me well." <sup>4</sup>His father and mother did not know that this was the LORD's leading, that He intended an occasion for a quarrel with the Philistines; for at that time the Philistines dominated Israel.

<sup>5</sup>Samson went down with his father and mother to Timnah, and when he came to the vineyards of Timnah, a young lion came roaring against him. <sup>6</sup>Then the Spirit of the LORD came upon him, and he tore him apart as one might tear apart a kid of the goats, although he had nothing in his hand.<sup>l</sup> But he told neither his father nor his mother what he had done. <sup>7</sup>Then he went down and talked with the woman, and she pleased Samson well.<sup>m</sup> <sup>8</sup>When he went back later on his way to marry her,<sup>n</sup> he turned aside to look at the carcass of the lion, and there was a swarm of bees inside the lion's body; it was filled with honey. <sup>9</sup>He dipped some of it out with his hands

d) Jacob asked [Gen. 32:29ff.].

e) This word comes from the Hebrew word veli meaning, it is "Wonderful." It is of interest to note that the Messianic prophecy in Isa. 9:6 uses the same word veli to designate Christ the Messiah. It suggests that the Angel is our LORD Christ.

f) The Angel stayed in character; He being Wonderful, performed wondrous things.

g) It was believed that if any man saw God or His Angel, death would ensue. So Gideon thought [ch. 6:22ff.; see also Exod. 33:20 and Deut. 5:26].

h) This name comes from the Hebrew word Shimshon, which is derived from the root-word Shamash, meaning "to serve." Samson was God's man, prepared from infancy for a great mission. He had his faults and his limited ability, but God used him. i) Camp of Dan.

j) A town near the Israel-Philistine frontier; first assigned to Judah, later given to Dan. See Josh. 19:43.

k) Mixed marriages were forbidden. See Exod. 34:16, Deut. 7:3. This marriage, however, was a link in the circumstance of Israel's liberation.

l) Samson's might was divinely imparted, in agreement with his being a Nazarite.

m) Samson proposed to the girl, and they became engaged.

n) About one year later Samson went to marry the girl; sufficient time had elapsed for nature and the bees to do their work.

and ate it as he went along. Then he joined his father and mother and gave them to eat of what was left; but he did not tell them that he had dipped the honey out of the lion's carcass.

<sup>10</sup>His father went down to the woman, and Samson made a feast there, as was the custom among the young men. <sup>11</sup>When they met him, they provided thirty companions<sup>o</sup> to be with him, <sup>12</sup>to whom Samson said, "Let me propound a riddle to you;<sup>p</sup> if you can solve it before the end of the seven-days' feast and find it out, I will give you thirty linen tunics<sup>q</sup> and thirty festal garments. <sup>13</sup>But if you cannot answer me, then you must give me thirty linen tunics and thirty festal garments." They said to him, "Propound your riddle, so we may hear it." <sup>14</sup>Then he told them, "Out of the eater came something to eat, and out of the strong came something sweet." But for three days they could not solve the riddle.

<sup>15</sup>On the seventh day they said to Samson's wife, "Persuade your husband to solve the riddle for us, or we will burn up you and your father's house. Did you call us here to impoverish us?" <sup>16</sup>So Samson's wife wept on his shoulder<sup>r</sup> and said, "You evidently hate me; you do not love me; for you have not confided to me the answer of the riddle you propounded to my people." He said to her, "I have not told my father or mother, so should I tell you?" <sup>17</sup>She wept on his shoulder through the days of the feast; and on the seventh day he told her, because she kept pressing him. Then she told the answer to her people; <sup>18</sup>and on the seventh day before the sun went down, the men of the city said to him, "What is sweeter than honey, and what is stronger than a lion?" He said to them, "If you had not plowed with my heifer, you would not have solved my riddle."

<sup>19</sup>Then the Spirit of the LORD came upon him mightily. He went down to Ashkelon<sup>s</sup> and killed thirty men, took their tunics and their robes, and gave them to the men who had solved the riddle. Then, very angry, he went up to his father's house. <sup>20</sup>And Samson's wife was given to his companion, who had been his best man.<sup>t</sup>

1095-1075 B.C.

15 SHORTLY THEREAFTER, DURING the wheat harvest, Samson went to visit his wife, taking along a kid.<sup>u</sup> He said, "I will go to my wife in her bridal room." But her father refused to let him go in, <sup>2</sup>saying, "I thought you hated your wife; so I gave her to your rival. Is not her younger sister better looking than she? Let her be your wife instead." <sup>3</sup>Then Samson said to them, "This time I shall be blameless when I harm the Philistines." <sup>4</sup>So Samson went and caught three hundred foxes,<sup>v</sup> tied them together tail to tail, took torches, and put a torch between each pair of tails. <sup>5</sup>Then he set fire to the torches and turned the foxes loose in the grainfields of the Philistines, so that the shocks, the standing grain, and the olive groves were burned.

<sup>6</sup>When the Philistines said, "Who did this?" they replied, "Samson, the son-in-law of the Timnite, because he took his wife and gave her to his rival." The Philistines came up and burned her and her father with fire.<sup>w</sup> <sup>7</sup>Samson then told them, "When such is your behavior, I certainly will be avenged of you, and after that I will quit." <sup>8</sup>So he struck them, hip and thigh, slaughtering many. After that he went to live in the cleft of the Etam rock.<sup>x</sup>

<sup>9</sup>The Philistines then went up, pitched their tents, and spread themselves in Judah near Lehi. <sup>10</sup>And the men of Judah said, "Why are you about to attack us?" They answered,

o) Children of the bride chamber and friends of the bridegroom [Matt. 9:15].

p) A form of amusement at a wedding feast.

q) This tunic was under the robe; tunic and robe formed a complete suit.

r) She had no real love for Samson; hers were "crocodile tears."

s) A city on the coast, north of Gaza.

t) The true character of Samson's wife is here revealed. Being unequally yoked together is indeed dangerous [II Cor. 6:14, 15].

u) A token of reconciliation.

v) Samson may also have employed others and have taken days in catching such a large number.

w) Probably to appease Samson and to soften his anger. x) A fortified stronghold.

1095-1075 B.C.

"We are come up to bind Samson and to treat him as he treated us." <sup>11</sup>Then three thousand men of Judah<sup>y</sup> went down to the cleft of the rock near Etam and said to Samson, "Do you not know that the Philistines have dominion over us? What is this that you have done to us?" He answered them, "I am doing to them as they did to me." <sup>12</sup>They told him, "We have come to bind you and to deliver you into the hands of the Philistines." Samson said to them, "Swear to me that you yourselves will not set upon me." <sup>13</sup>They assured him, "No, we will not kill you, but we will bind you securely and deliver you into their hands." Then they bound him with two new ropes and brought him away from the rock.

<sup>14</sup>When he came to Lehi<sup>a</sup> and the Philistines shouted against him, the Spirit of the LORD came rushing upon him, and the ropes around his arms became as flax that had been burned with fire; they dropped from his hands. <sup>15</sup>Samson found a fresh<sup>b</sup> jawbone of a donkey, and taking it in hand, he killed a thousand men. <sup>16</sup>Then Samson said, "With the jawbone of a donkey, piles upon piles, with the jawbone of a donkey, I have killed a thousand men."<sup>c</sup>

<sup>17</sup>When he was through speaking, he threw the jawbone out of his hand and called the place Ramath-lehi.<sup>d</sup> <sup>18</sup>Then, growing very thirsty, he called out to the LORD, "Thou hast given this great deliverance by the hand of Thy servant, and now must I die of thirst, or be captured by the uncircumcised?" <sup>19</sup>Then God caused a fissure in a hollow place in Lehi; water came out of it: he drank and his spirit revived, wherefore he called the place En-hakkore,<sup>e</sup> and so it is in Lehi to this day.

<sup>20</sup>Samson judged Israel twenty years during the Philistine period.

16 AS SAMSON WENT TO GAZA AND noticed a prostitute, he went in to her. <sup>2</sup>When the Gazites were told that Samson had come to town, they surrounded him and lay in wait for him all night at the gate of the city. They kept quiet all night, saying to themselves, "As soon as daylight comes, we will kill him." <sup>3</sup>Samson slept until midnight, then got up, took hold of the doors of the city gate, and the two doorposts, tore them away with the bolt, laid them on his shoulders, and carried them to the top of the hill opposite Hebron.

<sup>4</sup>Later he fell in love with a woman by the name of Delilah,<sup>f</sup> who lived in the valley of Sorek.<sup>g</sup> <sup>5</sup>The Philistine princes came to her and said, "Induce him to tell you what the secret of his great strength is and in what way we may overpower him and tie him; then we will each give you 1,100 pieces of silver."<sup>h</sup> <sup>6</sup>So Delilah said to Samson, "Tell me, please, wherein lies the secret of your great strength, and how you can be bound to render you helpless." <sup>7</sup>Samson replied, "If they bind me with seven fresh, wood fiber cords not yet dried, then I shall become weak and be like any other man." <sup>8</sup>The princes then brought her seven fiber cords which had not been dried, and she bound him with them. <sup>9</sup>Having men hidden in her room, she said to him, "The Philistines are upon you, Samson!" But he snapped the cords as a strand of rope snaps when it is exposed to fire. So they did not discover the secret of his strength.

<sup>10</sup>Delilah said to Samson, "You have deceived me; you have lied to me; but tell me now, please, with what you can be bound." <sup>11</sup>He said to her, "If they bind me tightly with new ropes that have never been used, then I shall be-

y) Even his own kinsmen feared Samson, taking 3,000 men to win over one fellow Hebrew.

z) Samson did not desire to kill his own countrymen. a) Probably the Philistine "Alcatraz."

b) A jawbone subjected to the elements becomes brittle and fragile. This one was fresh and strong, still reinforced by the cohesive sinews and cartilage.

c) A triumphal song popular with the Hebrews. See Exod. 15:1-21.

d) Heb. — The high place of the jawbone, located a few miles northwest of Bethlehem.

e) Heb. — Fountain of him who called upon God in prayer.

f) Whether Delilah became Samson's mistress or just a girl friend, she did not love him.

g) A city on the border between Dan and the Philistines.

h) About $1,000.00 from each of five Philistine princes. Samson was their "public enemy, No. 1."

come weak and be as any other man."<sup>12</sup> So Delilah took new ropes, bound him with them, and said, "The Philistines are upon you, Samson!" Men were waiting in an inside room. But he snapped the ropes from his arms like a thread.

<sup>13</sup> Then Delilah said to Samson, "Up to now you have fooled me and told me lies; do tell me wherewith you can be bound." He said to her, "If you weave the seven locks of my head with the web."<sup>14</sup> So she fastened it with a pin and said to him, "The Philistines are upon you, Samson!" He awakened out of his sleep and tore away the pin of the loom with the web. <sup>15</sup> Then she told him, "How can you say, 'I love you,' when you do not confide in me? These three times you have deceived me and have not told me wherein the secret of your strength lies." <sup>16</sup> So it came about after she nagged him daily and kept urging him without stopping until his soul was wearied to death, <sup>17</sup> that he opened to her his whole heart.<sup>1</sup> He said to her, "No razor has touched my head, for I have been a Nazarite of God from my mother's womb; if I were shaved, I would lose my strength and become weak and be like other men."<sup>18</sup> When Delilah saw that he had opened his heart to her, she summoned the Philistine princes, saying, "Come up at once, for this time he has opened his heart to me." Then the Philistine princes came up to her with the money in their hand. <sup>19</sup> She let him sleep upon her knees and called a man to shave off the seven locks of his head. So she began to control him, for his strength left him. <sup>20</sup> Then she exclaimed, "The Philistines are upon you, Samson!" He awoke out of his sleep and said, "I will go out as at other times and shake myself free." He did not know that the LORD had departed from him.

<sup>21</sup> The Philistines seized him, gouged out his eyes,<sup>1</sup> took him down to Gaza, bound him in bronze chains, and put him to grinding in the prison. <sup>22</sup> However, the hair of his head began to grow again from the time when it was shaved off.<sup>m</sup>

1073 B.C.

<sup>23</sup> The princes of the Philistines got together to offer a special sacrifice to Dagon, their god, and to celebrate. They said, "Our god has delivered Samson, our enemy, into our hand." <sup>24</sup> When the people saw him, they praised their god and said, "Our god has delivered our enemy into our hand. He was a destroyer of our country and the murderer of many of us." <sup>25</sup> It came about when they were in high spirits, that they said, "Call Samson to amuse us." Samson was brought from the prison, and he amused them. When they stationed him between the pillars, <sup>26</sup> Samson said to the lad who held him by the hand, "Let me free, so I can feel the pillars on which the house is supported and lean against them."

<sup>27</sup> Now the house was full of men and women; all the Philistine princes were there, and there were about 3,000 men and women on the roof, looking down while Samson made sport. <sup>28</sup> Then Samson called out to the LORD and said, "O LORD God, remember me, I pray Thee; do strengthen me only this once, O God,<sup>n</sup> that I may at once wreak vengeance upon the Philistines for both my eyes." <sup>29</sup> Samson took hold of the two central columns on which the building rested, one with his right hand and the other with his left; <sup>30</sup> and he said, "Let me die with the Philistines." Then with all his might he bent himself, and the building caved in upon the princes and upon all the people that were in it; so these he killed in dying numbered more than those he killed while he lived.

i) The "web" was the cloth in the loom which Delilah was weaving. The "pin" was the object with which the braided locks were fastened to the "web." She probably wove his hair into the cloth.

j) Samson becomes a traitor to himself and to his God.

k) The secret of his strength lay in his Nazarite vow and not in his long hair, as such. By destroying the symbol, his hair, he abrogated his vow to God, and God in turn abandoned him. See Num. 6:5; Judg. 13:5. l) Blinding was a permanent preventive against visible temptations.

m) Samson probably repented of his folly and renewed his Nazarite vow; consequently his physical strength was restored.

n) Notwithstanding his foolishness and poor judgment, Samson demonstrated his faith in God. He is numbered among the heroes of faith in Hebrews 11:32.

<sup>31</sup>His brothers and all his relatives came down, took him away with them, and buried him between Zorah and Eshtaol<sup>p</sup> in his father Manoah's tomb. He had judged Israel for twenty years.

About 1350 B.C.

17 A MAN NAMED MICAH, WHO lived in the highlands of Ephraim, <sup>2</sup>said to his mother, "The 1,100 pieces of silver that were taken from you, about which you uttered a curse in my hearing, that money is in my possession; I took it." His mother said, "Blessed of the LORD shall my son be." <sup>3</sup>When he restored the 1,100 pieces of silver to his mother, she said, "I truly dedicate the silver from my hand to the LORD in behalf of my son, so that he may make a molten and an engraved image; so, I return it to you."

<sup>4</sup>After he had restored the money to his mother, she took 200 pieces of silver and gave them to the silversmith, who made them into a molten and an engraved image<sup>q</sup> for Micah's house.

<sup>5</sup>This man Micah had a shrine for Deity.<sup>r</sup> He made an ephod<sup>s</sup> and teraphim<sup>t</sup> and consecrated one of his sons to be his priest. <sup>6</sup>In those days there was no king in Israel; every man did what, to his view, seemed right.

<sup>7</sup>A young man, a Levite<sup>u</sup> of the tribe of Judah, from Bethlehem in Judah, lived there. <sup>8</sup>The man had left Bethlehem in Judah to find a position,<sup>v</sup> and when in his travels he came to the highlands of Ephraim, to the house of Micah, he settled down. <sup>9</sup>Micah said to him, "Where do you come from?" To this he replied, "I am a Levite of Bethlehem in Judah; I have come to live where I may secure a position."

<sup>10</sup>Micah said to him, "Stay with me! Be to me a father and a priest, and I will annually pay you ten pieces of silver and give you a suit of clothes and your room and board." <sup>11</sup>To this proposal the Levite agreed; he lived with the man, and the young man was as one of his sons. <sup>12</sup>Micah then consecrated the Levite,<sup>w</sup> and he lived in Micah's house. <sup>13</sup>Then Micah said, "Now I know that the LORD will bless me, since I have a Levite as my priest."

About 1350 B.C.

18 IN THOSE DAYS THERE WAS NO king in Israel, and at that time the Danites looked for an inheritance in which to settle, since until then their inheritance had not been allotted to them among the tribes of Israel.<sup>x</sup> <sup>2</sup>So the Danites sent five courageous men from their tribe at Zorah and Eshtaol to spy out the land and to explore it. They said to them, "Go and explore the land." They arrived at the highlands of Ephraim, where they lodged in the house of Micah. <sup>3</sup>When they neared the house of Micah, they recognized the voice of the young Levite,<sup>y</sup> and turning to him they said, "Who brought you here? What are you doing in this place, and what have you here?" <sup>4</sup>He answered them, "Thus and so has Micah done for me; he has hired me, and I have become his priest." <sup>5</sup>Then they said to him, "Inquire of God,<sup>z</sup> we beg of you, so that we may know whether the mission on which we are going will be a success." The priest said to them, <sup>6</sup>"Go in peace, the journey you are making is pleasing to the LORD."<sup>a</sup> <sup>7</sup>Then the five men left, came to Laish, and observed how the natives lived, quiet and secure<sup>b</sup> after the manner of the Sidonians.<sup>c</sup> There was no ruler in the land who might in any wise embarrass them. They lived

p) There [ch. 13:25] the Spirit had first empowered him while still young.

q) Used as aids in local worship.

r) Heb. — Elohim, an intensive plural noun emphasizing the richness of God's Majesty.

s) Part of the equipment of the sanctuary, possibly an instrument of divination.

t) Images of household gods.

u) Probably of the tribe of Judah by his mother and of the tribe of Levi by his father.

v) Where he might be employed in his Levitical office.

w) This Levite was inaugurated in an office to which only a high priest could ordain a priest.

x) Dan was among the seven tribes not included in the first allotment [Josh. 18:2].

y) His voice was not that of a native Ephraimite. Cf. ch. 12:6.

z) Since the name Elohim is used for God, they meant the true God and not a heathen deity.

a) The use of the name Jehovah [translated LORD] aimed to suggest that Micah and the Levite worshiped the true God. This designation is never applied but to Him.

b) The Sidonians lived in fortified cities and enjoyed relative peace and security.

c) Probably the people in Laish were colonists from Sidon.

a great distance from the Sidonians,<sup>d</sup> and they had no dealings with anyone.

<sup>8</sup>When the spies returned to their tribe at Zorah and Eshtaol, their brothers said to them, "What is your report?" <sup>9</sup>They answered, "Arise, and let us possess the land; for we have seen it, and it is very good. Will you sit still? Do not delay. Enter the land, and possess it at once. <sup>10</sup>When you go, you will come upon a people whose land offers room in all directions and who are living complacently secure; but God has given it to you, and it will be a place where you shall have no want for anything on earth."

<sup>11</sup>Six hundred men of the Danite clans from Zorah and Eshtaol then armed themselves with weapons of war and went out. <sup>12</sup>They pitched their camp in Judah near Kiriath-jearim;<sup>e</sup> so this place is called Mahaneh-dan<sup>f</sup> until this day; it is behind Kiriath-jearim. <sup>13</sup>From there they traveled to the highlands of Ephraim until they came to Micah's house. <sup>14</sup>Then the five men, who had gone to spy out and search the country of Laish, said to their fellow tribesmen, "Do you know that there are in these houses an ephod, teraphim,<sup>g</sup> and an engraved and a molten image? So decide what you are to do."

<sup>15</sup>They then turned aside and went to the house of Micah, where the young Levite lived and inquired after his health. <sup>16</sup>The 600 Danites, who were armed with weapons of war, stood near the entrance of the gate <sup>17</sup>while the spies went inside and took the engraved image, the ephod, the teraphim, and the molten image.

The priest was standing by the entrance of the gate with the 600 men that were armed with weapons of war, <sup>18</sup>while these went into Micah's house and took the engraved image, ephod, the teraphim, and the molten image. The priest said to them, "What are you doing?" <sup>19</sup>They answered, "Be still; put your hand over your mouth. Go with us, and be to us a father and a priest; is it better for you to be priest in the house of one man, or to be priest to a tribe and a family in Israel?" <sup>20</sup>Then the priest felt gladhearted.<sup>h</sup> He took the ephod, the teraphim, and the engraved image, and went among the people. <sup>21</sup>Putting the children, the cattle, and the goods in front of them,<sup>i</sup> they turned and moved on.

<sup>22</sup>When they had gone some distance from Micah's house, the neighbors of Micah assembled in a group and overtook the Danites. <sup>23</sup>They called to the Danites, who turned their faces and said to Micah, "What ails you, that you follow us with such a large crowd?" <sup>24</sup>He replied, "You have taken my god,<sup>j</sup> which I made; also the priest, and have gone on your way; now what have I left? How can you say to me, 'What ails you?'" <sup>25</sup>The Danites told him, "Do not let your voice be heard among us, lest some of the embittered men in our midst knock you down and kill you and your household."<sup>k</sup> <sup>26</sup>The Danites then went their way; and when Micah saw that he was outnumbered, he went back home. <sup>27</sup>Thus they took what Micah had made and the priest who had served him.

When they reached the quiet and secure people of Laish,<sup>l</sup> they attacked them with their weapons of war and burned the city. <sup>28</sup>No one delivered them, for they lived to themselves in the valley near Beth-rehob,<sup>m</sup> and Sidon was a great distance away. They rebuilt the city, lived in it, <sup>29</sup>and named the new city Dan<sup>n</sup> after their ancestor Dan, who had been born to Israel. But

d) Laish was located near the foot of the Lebanon range near the source of the Jordan River.

e) Heb. — Cities of woods. f) Heb. — Camp of Dan. Ch. 13:25 suggests that this camp was in existence during the days of Samson; so the events in chaps. 17 to 21 occurred prior to Samson's judgeship. g) See ch. 17:5.

h) The priest was glad to get a call to a larger parish; but neither they nor he had a right to those articles.

i) Sent ahead so that the rear could be protected against attack.

j) A paraphrase might read, "You have taken the symbols which I made of my god."

k) The attitude here is far from divine teaching.

l) Living in a fortified city in an isolated place, they felt no need for posting guard.

m) Heb. — House of a street, a town in northern Palestine inhabited by Syrians.

n) Located at the northern extremity of Israel's possession, "From Dan to Beersheba" means "from the northern to the southern extremity."

previously the city's name was Laish.

<sup>30</sup>The Danites set up the engraved image<sup>o</sup> in their midst, and Jonathan<sup>p</sup> the son of Gershom, the son of Moses,<sup>q</sup> and his two sons were priests to the tribe of the Danites until the captivity of the land. <sup>31</sup>They used the engraved image, which Micah had made, as long as God's house was located in Shiloh.

1360 B.C.

19 IN THOSE DAYS WHEN THERE was no king in Israel, a certain Levite, living as an outsider in the highlands of Ephraim, took a concubine from Bethlehem in Judah. <sup>2</sup>His concubine played him false<sup>r</sup> and moved back to her father's house in Bethlehem of Judah for four months. <sup>3</sup>Then her husband arose, and, taking his servant and a pair of donkeys, he went to the concubine's house to speak endearing words to her, so as to win her back. When she introduced him to her father, he was overjoyed to meet him.<sup>s</sup> <sup>4</sup>His father-in-law, the damsel's father, detained him; so he remained with him three days. They ate and drank and spent the nights there.

<sup>5</sup>On the fourth day they got up early in the morning to leave; but the damsel's father said to his son-in-law, "Refresh yourself with a bite of bread, and afterward you may go." <sup>6</sup>So they sat down and ate and drank together. Then the girl's father said to the man, "Be content to stay all night, I beg of you, and let your heart be merry."<sup>t</sup> <sup>7</sup>When the man rose to go, his father-in-law urged him so strongly that he stayed another night. <sup>8</sup>On the morning of the fifth day he arose early to leave, but the damsel's father said, "Refresh yourself, I beg of you, and stay until evening," so they ate another meal together. <sup>9</sup>When the man got up to leave with his concubine and servant, the damsel's father said, "Look, the day is drawing to a close; please stay all night. Rest here tonight, so that you may be refreshed, and in the morning you can rise early for your journey home."

<sup>10</sup>But the man would not stay that night; he got up and went on his way toward Jebus<sup>t</sup> (which is Jerusalem) with his two saddled donkeys and his concubine.

<sup>11</sup>When they arrived at Jebus about sunset, the servant said to his master, "Please, let us turn aside here and lodge in the city of the Jebusites."

<sup>12</sup>His master replied, "We will not turn aside into this city of foreigners, for they do not belong to Israel; but we will move on to Gibeah."<sup>u</sup> <sup>13</sup>He further said to his servant, "Come, let us draw near one of the places ahead and spend the night, either in Gibeah or in Ramah."<sup>v</sup> <sup>14</sup>As they continued their journey, the sun went down at Gibeah, a town of Benjamin.

<sup>15</sup>They turned aside into Gibeah to lodge and sat down in the town square; but nobody took them along home with him for the night. <sup>16</sup>Then at eventide, see, an old man, also from the highlands of Ephraim, but then living in Gibeah, came from his work in the field. The natives of the place were Benjamites. <sup>17</sup>Looking up, he saw the traveler in the town square, and the old man said, "Where are you going, and from where have you come?" <sup>18</sup>He answered him, "We are traveling from Bethlehem in Judah to the highlands of Ephraim, which is my home. I am returning from a visit to Bethlehem in Judah and am now on my way to the house of the LORD,<sup>w</sup> but no one has offered to take us in for the night. <sup>19</sup>We have ample straw and fodder for our donkeys and plenty of bread and wine for me, for your handmaid, and for the young man who accompanies your servant; there is no shortage of anything." <sup>20</sup>Then the old man said, "Peace to you! Let me take care of all your wants,<sup>x</sup> but do not stay in the street." <sup>21</sup>So he took him into his

o) They erected a formal place of worship where the priest could officiate.

p) Jonathan was the young Levite, descendant of Gershom, son of Moses.

q) The name Manasseh, correctly translated here in the KJV, is a modification of the name Moses.

r) Deserting her bed and board was sometimes reason for the designation "harlot," as the Hebrew here intimates.

s) The girl's father was anxious to bring about a reconciliation.

t) A town of the Jebusites, first known as Salem [Gen. 14:18], later as Jerusalem.

u) A town north of Jebus near Mount Ephraim.

v) A town near Gibeah.

w) At Shiloh.

x) Oriental hospitality; the guest may keep his provisions for the rest of the journey.

house, gave fodder to the donkeys, and, after washing their feet, they ate and drank.

<sup>22</sup>While they were enjoying themselves, certain perverted men of the city surrounded the house and, pounding on the door, called out to the old man, the master of the house, "Bring out the man who entered your house, that we may rape him."

<sup>23</sup>Then the master of the house went out to them and said, "No, my brothers, do not commit such a wicked act, I beg of you. Now that this man is my guest, do not commit this shameful crime. <sup>24</sup>I will bring out my virgin daughter and his concubine; ravish them, and do as you please with them, but commit no such wanton crime on this man."<sup>y</sup> <sup>25</sup>The men, however, would not listen to him; so the man seized his concubine and brought her out to them.<sup>z</sup> They raped her and abused her all night until morning, and at daybreak they let her go. <sup>26</sup>When morning dawned, she fell down at the entrance of the house<sup>a</sup> where her master lodged and lay there until daylight. <sup>27</sup>When her master got up in the morning, opened the doors of the house, and stepped out to go on his way, he found his concubine at the entrance of the house with her hands upon the threshold. <sup>28</sup>He said to her, "Arise, let us be on our way"; but there was no answer. He then placed her on the donkey and started on his way home. <sup>29</sup>When he arrived home, he drew his knife, and, taking hold of his concubine, he cut her up, limb by limb, into twelve pieces and distributed her throughout the borders of Israel.<sup>b</sup> <sup>30</sup>Then every one who saw it said, "Nothing like this has ever happened or been seen since the day when the Israelites came up out of the land of Egypt. Think it over, take counsel, and speak up."<sup>c</sup>

1360 B.C.<sup>7</sup>

20 THEN ALL THE ISRAELITES from Dan to Beersheba, with the land of Gilead, mustered, and the congregation was assembled as one man before the LORD at Mizpah.<sup>d</sup> <sup>2</sup>There the leaders of the whole nation, all the tribes of Israel, 400,000 infantrymen with swords, presented themselves in the congregation of God's people. <sup>3</sup>The Benjamites heard that the Israelites were on their way to Mizpah. The Israelites said, "Tell us how this wickedness came about."<sup>e</sup> <sup>4</sup>Then the Levite, the husband of the murdered woman, answered, "I came with my concubine to Gibeah, a town of Benjamin, to lodge; <sup>5</sup>but during the night the men of Gibeah, with evil intentions toward me, surrounded the house, planning to kill me; but they raped my concubine, so that she died. <sup>6</sup>I then took hold of my concubine, cut her in pieces, and sent her throughout all the tribes of Israel; for they committed a lewd and wanton deed in Israel. <sup>7</sup>Sons of Israel, now that you are all here, express your mind and counsel!"

<sup>8</sup>Then all the people stood up as one man<sup>f</sup> and said, "None of us will go to his tent, none of us will return home. <sup>9</sup>This we will do to Gibeah: we will march against it by lot. <sup>10</sup>We will take ten men of every hundred from all the tribes of Israel, a hundred of every thousand and a thousand out of every ten thousand to supply food for the army, so that when they reach there, they may suitably deal with Gibeah in Benjamin for all the lewdness they have committed in Israel." <sup>11</sup>So all the men of Israel united against the city as one man.

<sup>12</sup>The tribes of Israel sent men throughout the entire tribe of Benjamin, announcing, "What wickedness is this that has occurred among you?" <sup>13</sup>Now deliver into our hands the per-

y) Though surprising to us, to the host this seemed the lesser of two evils; see Gen. 19:8, Lot's daughters. z) The man forced his concubine to go out, thereby saving his own body.

a) Indicates the extensive abuse heaped upon her.

b) The crime was so abominable that the people would not believe it, had they not seen evidence.

c) A dramatic way of arousing the people to action. d) Or, Ramoth-Gilead.

e) They wanted the details.

f) Unanimity of purpose was evidenced.

verted fellows in Gibeah, so that we may put them to death and thus remove this crime from Israel." But the Benjamites would not listen to the demands of their fellow Israelites.<sup>14</sup> Instead, the Benjamites gathered from the other cities to Gibeah to march in battle against the Israelites.<sup>15</sup> On that day the Benjamites of the other cities were counted, 26,000 swordsmen besides 700 chosen men of Gibeah.<sup>16</sup> Among all these there were 700 left-handed sharpshooters who could sling a stone at a hair without missing.

<sup>17</sup>The men of Israel were also counted, 400,000 swordsmen besides the Benjamites, mighty men of war,<sup>18</sup> who marched to Bethel<sup>h</sup> to inquire of God, "Who shall first engage the Benjamites in battle?" The LORD answered: Judah shall go first.<sup>19</sup> So the Israelites arose early in the morning to arrange their battle lines against Gibeah,<sup>20</sup> upon which the men of Israel marched out to fight Benjamin, arraying themselves in battle against those of Gibeah.

<sup>21</sup>Then the Benjamites marched out of Gibeah and made 22,000 Israelites to die on that day.<sup>22</sup> But the Israelites closed ranks and arrayed themselves for battle in the same place where they fought the first day.<sup>23</sup> The Israelites also wept before the LORD until evening, inquiring of the LORD, "Shall we again engage our kinsmen, the Benjamites in battle?"<sup>j</sup> The LORD answered: Attack them!

<sup>24</sup>So the Israelites advanced against the Benjamites on the second day,<sup>25</sup> and the Benjamites marched out of Gibeah the second day and made 18,000 of Israel's swordsmen to die.<sup>26</sup> Then all the Israelites, the entire army, went to Bethel and wept. They sat there before the LORD, fasted until evening, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings to the LORD.<sup>k</sup> <sup>27</sup>The Israelites then inquired of the LORD (for the ark of the covenant of God was there at that time<sup>28</sup> and Phinehas<sup>l</sup> the son of Eleazar the son of Aaron, stood before it in those days), saying, "Shall we again engage our kinsmen, the Benjamites, in battle, or shall we cease?" The LORD said: Attack them; for tomorrow I will deliver them into your hand.

<sup>29</sup>So on the third day the Israelites set men in ambush<sup>m</sup> all around Gibeah; <sup>30</sup>and the Israelites engaged the Benjamites and arranged themselves in battle formation against Gibeah, as at previous times.<sup>31</sup> The Benjamites marched out to meet the army, and they were drawn away from the city. They began to do battle by killing about thirty Israelites along the highways, one of which led to Bethel and the other across the field to Gibeah.<sup>32</sup> The Benjamites said, "They are being killed as on the first day." But the Israelites said, "Let us draw them away from the city into the highways by running away."<sup>n</sup> <sup>33</sup>Then the main army of the Israelites arose and arrayed themselves for battle at Baal-tamar,<sup>o</sup> while the Israelites in ambush rushed out of their places in Maareh-geba.<sup>p</sup>

<sup>34</sup>When the 10,000 chosen men of Israel neared Gibeah, the battle raged furiously; but those of Benjamin were not aware of the impending danger.<sup>35</sup> The LORD routed the Benjamites before Israel, so that the Israelites killed 25,100 Benjamite swordsmen that day.

<sup>36</sup>The Benjamites realized that they were beaten. While the Israelites yielded ground to the Benjamites, because they had confidence in the men whom they had placed in ambush near Gibeah,<sup>37</sup> the men in ambush rushed upon Gibeah and put the whole city to the sword.<sup>38</sup> Now the Israelites had agreed

g) Indicates the extent of their depravity.

h) Heb. — House of God. i) But God did not promise immediate victory.

j) Apparently the Israelites trusted in their army and the goodness of their cause, and did not make God a part of the venture. All Israel stood in need of chastisement. God used their enemy for this purpose.

k) Real humility is now evidenced. God responds by giving them victory.

l) If this is the same Phinehas as in Numbers 25, then these events occurred hardly a century after the death of Joshua.

m) They now use prudent caution and military strategy.

n) The men in ambush were to enter the city following the exit of Benjamin's main army.

o) Heb. — Baal of the palm tree. p) Treeless desert near Gaba.

upon a signal with the men in ambush, that when they made a great cloud of smoke rise into the air, <sup>39</sup>the Israelites should make an about-face in the battle. After the Benjamites attacked and killed about thirty Israelites, they had thought, "They are completely routed as in the first battle." <sup>40</sup>But then the signal started to rise in a column of smoke. The Benjamites looked back and saw that the whole city was going up in flames. <sup>41</sup>Then the Israelites turned around, and the Benjamites were overcome with fear. When they saw that disaster had overtaken them, <sup>42</sup>they turned their backs upon the Israelites and fled into the desert; but the battle hemmed them in; those coming from the city cut them down between them. <sup>43</sup>They surrounded Benjamin, chased him without stopping and trampled on him opposite Gibeah toward the east, <sup>44</sup>so that 18,000 men, all warriors, fell. <sup>45</sup>Some turned and fled toward the desert near the Rimmon rock, <sup>46</sup>5,000 were gleaned on the high-ways, and they followed close after them as far as Gidom, killing 2,000 of them. <sup>47</sup>Altogether 25,000 swordsmen from the ranks of the Benjamites were killed that day, all of them men of valor. <sup>48</sup>But 600 men escaped into the desert near the rock of Rimmon, and there they lived for four months. <sup>49</sup>The men of Israel turned back against the Benjamites and exterminated all the people and the cattle they encountered; and they set on fire all the cities they entered.

1358 B.C.

21 NOW THE MEN OF ISRAEL HAD sworn at Mizpah, "None of us shall marry his daughter to a Benjamite." <sup>2</sup>But as the people went to Bethel and remained there in the presence of God until evening, they raised their voices and wept aloud, <sup>3</sup>exclaiming, "Why, O LORD, God of Israel, has this happened in Israel, that one of the tribes of Israel is now missing?" <sup>4</sup>Early next morning the people arose, built an altar, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings. <sup>5</sup>The Israelites said, "Who among all the tribes of Israel did not come out to the assembly?" For an oath had been taken concerning those who did not come out to the congregation at Mizpah, saying, "He shall be put to death."

<sup>6</sup>The Israelites felt grieved about the Benjamites. They said, "Today one of our tribes is eliminated from Israel. <sup>7</sup>How shall we provide wives for those who are left, seeing we have sworn by the LORD not to give them our daughters for wives?" <sup>8</sup>Then they said, "Which one of the tribes of Israel did not come to the congregation before the LORD in Mizpah?" And it showed that none had come to the assembly from Jabesh-gilead; <sup>9</sup>for when they checked up on the people that were mustered, not a man from Jabesh-gilead had been present.

<sup>10</sup>Then the congregation sent warriors there with orders, "Go and execute the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead, including the women and children. <sup>11</sup>This is what you are to do: kill all the men, also the women who have lain with men."<sup>12</sup>They found 400 young virgins among the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead, who had not lain with a man; these they brought into the camp at Shiloh, located in the land of Canaan. <sup>13</sup>Then the whole congregation sent word to the Benjamites living at the Rimmon rock, proclaiming amnesty to them. <sup>14</sup>The Benjamites returned, and they gave them the women that had been saved alive in Jabesh-gilead; but even so there were not enough for them. <sup>15</sup>The people felt grieved concerning the Benjamites, because the LORD had made a gap among the tribes of Israel.

<sup>16</sup>Then the elders of the congregation said, "What shall we do for those who are left without wives, since all the Benjamite women were killed?" <sup>17</sup>They added, "There must be an inheritance for the survivors of Benjamin, so that no tribe shall be blotted out from Israel; <sup>18</sup>but we cannot give

q) A fortified, rocky stronghold.

r) Their hasty action resulted in repentance. s) Indicating their contrition.

t) Or, dry Gilead, probably located in an arid spot.

u) The vow in vs. 5 is carried out. The town revived, and King Saul of Benjamin delivered it from overwhelming Ammonites [1 Sam. 11:1-11]. v) A change of heart calls for restitution.

JUDGES 21

them our daughters for wives." For the Israelites had sworn, "Cursed be he who gives a wife to Benjamin." <sup>19</sup>So they said, "A feast of the LORD is held annually in Shiloh, north of Bethel, on the east side of the highway that runs from Bethel to Shechem, and south of Lebonah."

<sup>20</sup>They instructed the Benjamites, "Go, hide in the vineyards, <sup>21</sup>and wait; when the daughters of Shiloh come to take part in the dances, you may come out of the vineyards; each of you catch his wife from among the daughters of Shiloh, and you go to the land of Benjamin. <sup>22</sup>If their fathers or brothers come out and complain, we will say to them, 'Forgive them graciously, because we did not provide all of them with a wife in battle, nor did you give them any, because you would have been doing wrong.'"

Benjamites Obtain Wives

<sup>23</sup>Then the Benjamites did as had been suggested; they took wives according to their own number from the dancers, whom they carried away. When they returned to their own inheritance, they built the cities and settled down.

<sup>24</sup>Then the Israelites departed, every man as related to his own tribe and family to occupy his inheritance. <sup>25</sup>In those days there was no king in Israel; every person did what seemed right in his own eyes.<sup>w</sup>

w) See Prov. 14:12. Without a leader the nation became involved in apostasy and social injustices.

THE BOOK OF RUTH

Around 1100 B.C.

1 IN THE DAYS WHEN THE JUDGES governed<sup>a</sup> there was a famine in the land, and a man migrated with his wife and his two sons from Bethlehem in Judah to live for a while in the land of Moab.<sup>b</sup> <sup>2</sup>The man's name was Elimelech, his wife's name Naomi, and the names of his two sons Mahlon and Chilion,<sup>c</sup> Ephrathites from Bethlehem in Judah. They went into the land of Moab and remained there. <sup>3</sup>But Elimelech, Naomi's husband, died; so she was left with her two sons, <sup>4</sup>who married Moabite women, the one named Orpah and the other Ruth. For about ten years they had lived there <sup>5</sup>when both Mahlon and Chilion died so that the woman was bereft of her two sons and of her husband. <sup>6</sup>Then, when she learned in the land of Moab that the LORD had visited His people in giving them food, she got ready to return with her two daughters-in-law from Moab.

<sup>7</sup>With her two daughters-in-law she left the place where she had lived, but on the way to the land of Judah,<sup>d</sup> <sup>8</sup>Naomi said to her two daughters-in-law, "You go back, each of you to her mother's home! May the LORD treat you as kindly as you have treated me and those who have died. <sup>9</sup>The LORD grant that you may find rest, each in her husband's home." She then kissed them, but they raised their voices and wept. <sup>10</sup>They told her, "We are certainly going back with you to your people."<sup>11</sup> But Naomi said, "Go back, my daughters! Why should you go with me? Do I have any more sons within me, who could become your husbands? <sup>12</sup>Go back, my daughters; go your way; I am too old to marry again. And even if I thought there was hope, if I were with a husband tonight, if I should bear sons, <sup>13</sup>would you wait until they are grown up, while you are kept from having a husband? No, my daughters, it is harder for me than for you that the LORD's hand is stretched out against me." <sup>14</sup>Then they renewed their audible weeping, and Orpah kissed her mother-in-law; but Ruth clung closely to her.

<sup>15</sup>Naomi said, "Look, your sister-in-law has gone back to her people and to her gods; you return after her." <sup>16</sup>But Ruth replied, "Do not urge me to desert you by turning away from you; because wherever you go, there I will go; wherever you lodge I will lodge. Your people are my people, and your God is my God;<sup>e</sup> <sup>17</sup>Wherever you die I will die, and there I shall be

a) Jesse, Obed and Boaz were David's ancestors [ch. 4:19], so these events dated around 1100 B.C.
b) Moab and Ammon were sons of Lot; the language of their descendants was similar to that of the Hebrews.

c) Elimelech - my God is King; Naomi - pleasant; Mahlon - sickly; Chilion - wasting away; Ruth - good-looking; Orpah - neck or mane; Ephrathah - fruitful; Bethlehem - bread-house.

d) Probably on the south bank of the Arnon River, the boundary between Moab and Reuben.

e) Ruth could extend her trust in and love for Naomi to trust in and love for God.

buried. Thus<sup>f</sup> may God do to me and worse if anything but death separates you and me."

<sup>18</sup>When Naomi saw her determination to accompany her, she said no more. <sup>19</sup>They both walked on until they came to Bethlehem. But on their arrival, the whole town was stirred because of them. The women said, "Is this Naomi?" <sup>20</sup>But she answered, "Do not call me Naomi; call me Mara,<sup>g</sup> for the Almighty has dealt bitterly with me. <sup>21</sup>Amply supplied<sup>h</sup> I left this place; but destitute the LORD has made me return. Why then call me Naomi, since the LORD has witnessed against me and the Almighty has afflicted me?"

<sup>22</sup>Naomi and Ruth, the Moabitess, her daughter-in-law, who had come with her from the land of Moab, arrived in Bethlehem at the beginning of barley harvest.

2 THERE WAS A CLOSE RELATIVE OF Naomi's husband, a prominent and wealthy man of Elimelech's family, whose name was Boaz.<sup>i</sup> <sup>2</sup>Now Ruth, the Moabitess, said to Naomi, "Please, let me go into the field and glean heads of grain behind someone who is kind to me." She said to her, "Yes, go, my daughter." <sup>3</sup>So she reached the field and gleaned behind the harvesters; and she happened to get into a field that belonged to Boaz, the near relative of Elimelech. <sup>4</sup>Then, look! There came Boaz from Bethlehem and greeted the harvesters with, "The LORD be with you!" to which they responded, "The LORD bless you!"<sup>j</sup> <sup>5</sup>Boaz then asked his foreman of the harvesters, "Who is that young woman?" <sup>6</sup>The foreman replied, "That is the young woman from Moab who came back with Naomi. <sup>7</sup>She said, 'Please, let me glean and gather among the sheaves behind the harvesters.' So she came and has been busy from early morning until now, except for a little rest in the booth."

<sup>8</sup>Boaz then said to Ruth, "Listen, my daughter!<sup>k</sup> Do not glean in any other field; do not leave here at all; keep near my women workers. <sup>9</sup>Keep track of the field in which they are harvesting, and follow them up. Have I not given the young men strict orders not to annoy you? And when you feel thirsty, go to the water jars and drink from what the workmen have drawn."

<sup>10</sup>She fell on her face, bowed deeply to the ground, and said to him, "Why do you show me the favor of noticing me,<sup>l</sup> an outsider?" <sup>11</sup>Boaz replied to her, "It has been fully told me how much you have done for your mother-in-law after the death of her husband; also how you have left your father and mother and the land of your birth to identify yourself with a people you did not know before. <sup>12</sup>May the LORD reward your kindness; may a full reward be yours from the LORD God of Israel under whose wings you have come to shelter." <sup>13</sup>Upon which she said, "Even though I am not equal to any one of your maid servants, you have spoken so kindly to me, sir, that you have given me courage. What you say touches your servant girl's heart."<sup>m</sup>

<sup>14</sup>When it was time to eat, Boaz said to her, "Come this way; eat from the bread and dip your bit in the vinegar." So she sat among the harvestmen, and he served her roasted heads of grain. She ate all she wanted and had some leftovers.<sup>n</sup> <sup>15</sup>When she got up to glean, Boaz ordered his young men, "Let her glean right among the sheaves; be not hard on her; <sup>16</sup>rather drop some heads for her on purpose, and let them lie there so that she can gather them; do not reprimand her."

<sup>17</sup>Until evening she gleaned in the field; then beat out what she had gathered—about a bushel of barley,<sup>18</sup> which she took up and went into the city. When her mother-in-law saw how much she had gleaned and when she

f) A motion of the hand indicated the possibly fatal results.

g) Mara—bitter; Miriam, Maria, Mary, myrrh, all have the same stem.

h) Husband, sons, sheep and cattle when leaving; none of these on returning.

i) Boaz probably means strength, cf. I Kings 7:21 and II Chron. 3:17.

j) Friendly feelings when both employer and employee relate life to God.

k) Boaz must have been older than Ruth. l) Literally—eyeing me.

m) Heart was answering to heart.

n) Which she saved to share that evening with Naomi whom she had learned to love and who had led her to God.

showed the leftovers after she had eaten enough, <sup>19</sup>her mother-in-law asked her, "Where did you glean today? Where did you work? Blessed is the man who took notice of you." She then told her mother-in-law, "The name of the man for whom I worked today is Boaz." <sup>20</sup>Naomi then told her daughter-in-law, "Blessed be he of the LORD, who has not withdrawn His kindness from the living or the dead." Naomi further said to her, "The man is a near relative of ours, one of our redeemers."<sup>o</sup>

<sup>21</sup>Ruth, the Moabitess, said, "Besides, he told me, 'Join my harvestmen until they are through with my entire crop.'" <sup>22</sup>Naomi assured Ruth, her daughter-in-law, "It is good, my daughter, for you to go out with his maidservants, so you will not be molested in another field." <sup>23</sup>Ruth therefore joined the women workers of Boaz to glean until the barley and the wheat harvests were in, and she lived with her mother-in-law.

3 NAOMI, HER MOTHER-IN-LAW, then said to her, "My daughter, should I not look for a resting place for you so that you may prosper? <sup>2</sup>Is not Boaz, with whose women you worked, our relative? See here! Tonight he winnows the barley on the threshing floor; <sup>3</sup>so, you take a bath, anoint yourself, get dressed up and go down to the threshing floor; but let him not see you until he is through eating and drinking. <sup>4</sup>When he lies down, watch carefully the exact spot where he lies down; then you slip in, raise the foot covering and lie down. He will let you know what to do next."

<sup>5</sup>She replied to her, "Everything you suggest to me I will do."

<sup>6</sup>So she went down to the threshing floor and did everything exactly as her mother-in-law had instructed her. <sup>7</sup>When Boaz had eaten and drunk and felt happy of heart, he went to lie down at the edge of the grain pile.

Quietly she moved near, turned up his foot covering and lay down. <sup>8</sup>At midnight this happened: The man awoke startled, turned around and, look, there was a woman lying at his feet. <sup>9</sup>He asked, "Who are you?" She answered, "I am Ruth, your servant girl. Spread your covering<sup>p</sup> over your servant girl, for you are a near kinsman." <sup>10</sup>He said, "May you be blessed of the LORD, my daughter. This your later kindness is lovelier than any previous one; for you have gone after no young men, whether poor or rich. <sup>11</sup>Now then, my daughter, feel at ease; everything you suggest I will do for you, for everybody in town knows that you are a virtuous woman. <sup>12</sup>It is true, I am a near kinsman; but there is one nearer kin than I. <sup>13</sup>Remain here overnight and tomorrow morning, if he wants to redeem you, well and good, let him redeem you; but if he is not inclined to redeem you, as truly as the LORD lives, I will redeem you. You lie down until morning."

<sup>14</sup>So until morning she lay at his feet, then got up before people could recognize each other; for he said, "Let it not be known that a woman came to the threshing floor."<sup>q</sup> <sup>15</sup>He further said, "Hand me the shawl you wore and open it up." She opened it up, and he measured out six pecks of barley with which he loaded her, and she went into town.

<sup>16</sup>On her return, Naomi asked her, "How did you make out, my daughter?" She told everything the man had done, <sup>17</sup>adding, "These six pecks of barley he gave me because, he said, 'Do not go to your mother-in-law empty-handed.'" <sup>18</sup>"Wait quietly, my daughter," she rejoined, "until you learn how the affair turns out; for that man will not stop without completing the matter today."

4 BOAZ MEANWHILE HAD GONE UP to the gate and had taken a seat, when, look, the redeemer whom Boaz

o) By Mosaic law [Lev. 25:25], a near kinsman should buy what had been sold because of poverty, so as to keep it in the family.

p) The first meaning of the word is — wing or protective covering.

q) Boaz wisely protected his reputation; he avoided gossip.

had mentioned came by! So he said, "Hello, you there! Come over here and sit down." He came and sat down.<sup>2</sup>He then took ten men of the city's elders and said, "Take a seat here," and they sat down.<sup>3</sup>He then said to the closest relative, "Naomi, who has come back from the land of Moab, is selling the tract of land that belonged to our brother Elimelech;<sup>4</sup>so I thought I should let you know about it with the suggestion that you buy it in the presence of those who sit here and of the elders of my people. If you want to redeem it, redeem it; but if not, so declare to me so that I am assured, for there is nobody to redeem it except you, with myself next." He said, "I will redeem it."<sup>5</sup>But Boaz added, "On the day on which you purchase the field from Naomi, you are also acquiring Ruth, the Moabitess, the widow of the one who died, to perpetuate the name of the dead in his inheritance."<sup>6</sup>The next in kin then said, "I cannot redeem it for myself; for that would ruin my own inheritance; you redeem my right for yourself, for I cannot redeem it."

<sup>7</sup>In times past it was customary in Israel in order to validate redemptive and exchange transactions, that one dealer pulled off his sandal and gave it to the other; it was a way of confirming the deal.<sup>8</sup>The next of kin, therefore, took off his sandal and said to Boaz, "You buy it for yourself."<sup>9</sup>Boaz then addressed the elders and all the people, "You are witnesses that I today have bought from Naomi all that belonged to Elimelech, to Chilion and to Mahlon;<sup>10</sup>and besides, I acquire as my wife Ruth, the Moabitess, the widow of Mahlon, so as to revive the name of the dead for his estate; then the name of the dead shall not be lost from among his brothers and from the gate of his home town. You are witnesses today."<sup>11</sup>All the people in the gate and the elders said, "We are witnesses." May the LORD make the woman who has come into your house like Rachel and like Leah, who jointly built up the house of Israel. Build well in Ephrathah and earn fame in Bethlehem.<sup>12</sup>May your house be like the house of Pharez, whom Tamar bore to Judah, through the offspring which the LORD will grant from this woman."

<sup>13</sup>Boaz then took Ruth, and she became his wife. When he cohabited with her, the LORD granted her conception, and she gave birth to a son.<sup>14</sup>The women said to Naomi, "Praised be the LORD, who did not leave you this time without a family; may his name grow famous in Israel."<sup>15</sup>He will rejuvenate you and support you in your old age, because your daughter-in-law, who loves you, has given him birth; she who means more to you than seven sons."

<sup>16</sup>Naomi took the baby, laid it in her lap, and took care of it.<sup>17</sup>The neighbor women named it. They said, "A son is born to Naomi," and called him Obed.<sup>18</sup> He is the father of Jesse, David's father.

<sup>18</sup>This is the Pharez genealogy:<sup>19</sup>Pharez got Hezron;<sup>19</sup>Hezron got Ram; Ram got Amminadab;<sup>20</sup>Amminadab got Nahshon; Nahshon got Salmon;<sup>21</sup>Salmon got Boaz; Boaz got Obed; Obed got Jesse, and Jesse got David.

r) Still nothing put down in writing. s) Worshiper.

t) One reason why the book of Ruth was written is to show King David's lineage and background. The atmosphere suggests a sense of divine Presence in life's daily affairs, such as is but rarely shown in the book of Judges, of which this forms an appendix. Although the events are not dated, they must have occurred about 90 years before David's birth. Because it pictures a harvest scene, the book was read sometimes at Pentecost, the harvest festival.

THE FIRST BOOK OF SAMUEL

About 1100 B.C.

1 AT RAMAH OF THE ZOPHITES<sup>a</sup> IN the Ephraim hill country, there lived a certain man by the name of Elkanah the son of Jeroham, the son of Elihu, the son of Tohu, the son of Zuph, an Ephraimite. <sup>2</sup>He had two wives, one called Hannah and the other Peninnah. Peninnah had children, but Hannah had no children. <sup>3</sup>Annually this man went up from his town to Shiloh to worship the LORD of hosts and to bring Him offerings. The priests of the LORD there were Hophni and Phinehas, the two sons of Eli.

<sup>4</sup>On his offering-day Elkanah gave his wife Peninnah and all her sons and daughters a portion each; <sup>5</sup>but to Hannah he gave a double portion; for he loved Hannah although the LORD had closed her womb. <sup>6</sup>Her rival, however, provoked her mercilessly to make her irritable, because the LORD had closed her womb.<sup>b</sup> <sup>7</sup>This happened year after year. Every time they went up to the house of the LORD, she annoyed her so that she cried and did not eat. <sup>8</sup>But Elkanah, her husband, said to her, "Hannah, why cry and why not eat; why so downhearted? Do I not mean more to you than ten sons?"

<sup>9</sup>Eventually, after their eating and drinking at Shiloh, Hannah arose. Eli the priest was seated on a bench near the doorpost of the LORD's temple.

<sup>10</sup>Out of a sorrowful soul she prayed to the LORD and cried bitterly. <sup>11</sup>She then made a vow. She said, "O LORD of hosts, if Thou wilt actually look at Thy handmaid's trouble, wilt think of me and not forget Thy handmaid, and wilt grant Thy handmaid a son, then I will give him to the LORD all his life, and no razor shall come upon his head."

<sup>12</sup>As she continued praying before the LORD, Eli noticed her mouth; for <sup>13</sup>Hannah was speaking in her heart; her lips moved, but no voice could be heard, so that Eli thought that she was drunk. <sup>14</sup>So Eli said to her, "How long will you behave as one intoxicated? Get rid of your wine." <sup>15</sup>But Hannah replied, "No, my master, I am a deeply grieved woman. I have drunk no wine or liquor, but I have poured out my soul before the LORD. <sup>16</sup>Do not consider your maid a good-for-nothing; for I have spoken all the while under stress of provocation and distress."

<sup>17</sup>Eli then responded, "Go in peace, and the God of Israel will grant you what you have prayed of Him." <sup>18</sup>She said, "May your maid find favor with you." So the woman went her way; she ate and her face showed no more sadness.

<sup>19</sup>Next morning they got up early, worshiped before the LORD, and went back to their Ramah home. Elkanah went in to his wife Hannah; the LORD remembered her <sup>20</sup>and in due time, a) The Zophites were Levites through Zuph. This Ramah is probably the one between Bethel and Bethlehem, near which Rachel died [Gen. 35:16-19].

b) Biblical evidence shows no peace and happiness in bigamy or polygamy.

after conception, Hannah gave birth to a son whom she named Samuel, because "I have asked him of the LORD."<sup>c</sup>

<sup>21</sup>Elkanah, the husband, went up with his whole household to offer the annual sacrifice to the LORD and also his pledge. <sup>22</sup>But Hannah did not go up because, she told her husband, "When the boy is weaned, then I will take him and he will appear before the LORD and stay there for always."

<sup>23</sup>Elkanah, her husband, said to her, "Do whatever seems best to you. Stay home until you have weaned him, and may the LORD confirm His word." So his wife remained at home and nursed the boy until she weaned him.

<sup>24</sup>When she had weaned him, she took him — still very young — with her; also a three-year-old bullock, a bushel of flour, and a skin of wine, and brought him to the LORD's house at Shiloh. <sup>25</sup>After the bullock had been slain, she took the lad to Eli <sup>26</sup>and said, "Please, sir, as you live, sir, I am the woman who stood near you here in prayer before the LORD. <sup>27</sup>For this lad I prayed, and the LORD has granted me what I prayed Him for; <sup>28</sup>I have therefore handed him back to the LORD; as long as he lives he is returned to the LORD." And there he<sup>d</sup> worshipped before the LORD.

2 HANNAH PRAYED AND SAID, "IN the LORD my heart is joyful; in the LORD my strength is heightened. Against my enemies my mouth is freely opened because of my enjoyment of Thy deliverance. <sup>2</sup>None is holy as the LORD; for none exists without Thee; no rock<sup>e</sup> is equal to our God.

<sup>3</sup>"Quit talking so boastfully; no more taunts from your mouth; for the LORD is a knowing God; by Him actions are estimated.<sup>f</sup> <sup>4</sup>The bows of the mighty are broken; but the tottering are girded with strength. <sup>5</sup>Those once full, hired out for food; while those who suffered hunger are now at ease. The barren gives birth to seven, while the mother of many children is losing out.

<sup>6</sup>"The LORD kills, and He causes life; He brings down to the grave, and He makes alive. <sup>7</sup>The LORD impoverishes, and He makes rich; He demotes, and He promotes. <sup>8</sup>He lifts the poor out of the dust and raises the beggar from the dump to have him seated with the leaders, to have him obtain a seat of honor; for the earth's pillars are the LORD's; He set the world upon them. <sup>9</sup>He guards the footsteps of His worshipers; but the godless perish in darkness because no human power renders one mighty. <sup>10</sup>Those who oppose the LORD shall be broken; from heaven He thunders upon them. The LORD judges the earth from end to end; He supplies the king with power; He enhances the might of His anointed."

<sup>11</sup>Elkanah then went home to Ramah, but the lad was in the LORD's service under direction of Eli the priest.

<sup>12</sup>However, the sons of Eli were sons of Belial;<sup>g</sup> they showed no regard for the LORD, <sup>13</sup>nor for the proper dues of the priests from the people. Every time a person offered a sacrifice, while the meat was boiling, the priest's boy came with a three-pronged fork in his hand, <sup>14</sup>which he thrust into the pot or kettle or basin and all that the hook brought up the priest took for himself, and thus they treated at Shiloh all the Israelites who came there. <sup>15</sup>Even before they burned the fat as incense, the priest's boy would come and tell the person who brought the offering, "Give the priest roast beef; he will accept no boiled meat from you, only raw." <sup>16</sup>If the man replied, "Have the fat burned first as incense, then take for yourself as much as you want," he would retort, "No, you give it to me now, or I will take it by force." <sup>17</sup>So monstrous was the sin of the young men in the presence of the LORD that the people came to scorn the LORD's sacrifices.

c) Samuel means — name of God. d) The boy, a Levite, stayed there to help the priests, as Levites were commissioned to render service. Though quite young, he was no babe and had learned personally to worship. e) No foundation on which to stand securely.

f) A universal principle of which Peninnah's taunts had made Hannah personally aware.

g) Belial stands for worthlessness. In II Cor. 2:15 the contrast is to the worthiness of Christ.

<sup>18</sup>Meanwhile the lad Samuel, clad in a linen vestment, was ministering before the LORD. <sup>19</sup>Regularly his mother used to make for him his little suit, which from year to year she brought as she went with her husband to bring the annual offering. <sup>20</sup>Eli would then bless Elkanah and his wife, saying, "The LORD give you by this woman offspring in the place of the one you have returned to the LORD." They would then go back home. <sup>21</sup>And the LORD visited Hannah; she conceived and bore three sons and two daughters; while the lad Samuel grew up in the LORD's presence.

<sup>22</sup>Now Eli was very old, and when he heard everything his sons were doing to all Israel and how they cohabited with the women who served at the entrance of the meeting tent, <sup>23</sup>he said to them, "Why do you behave this way? I hear all the people talk about your misconduct. <sup>24</sup>This will not do, my sons; for what I hear is not a good report. You lead the LORD's people to transgress. <sup>25</sup>When one person sins against another, the judges<sup>h</sup> will do him justice; but when a person sins against the LORD, who will intercede for him?" But they would not listen to their father's warning; so the LORD was inclined to slay them. <sup>26</sup>And all the while young Samuel increased in stature and in favor with the LORD and with men.<sup>i</sup>

<sup>27</sup>A man of God<sup>j</sup> came to Eli and said to him, "This is the LORD's message: How clearly I revealed Myself to your father's house when in Egypt they were subject to the house of Pharaoh! <sup>28</sup>And him<sup>k</sup> I selected out of all the tribes of Israel to be My priest, to go up to My altar, to burn incense, to wear the ephod in My presence, and to your father's house I have donated all the burnt offerings of the Israelites. <sup>29</sup>Why do you trample on My sacrifices and My offerings which I have prescribed, and honor your sons above Me, fattening yourselves on the best of My people Israel's meat offerings? <sup>30</sup>Therefore hear the word of the LORD God of Israel: I have definitely said that your family and the family of your fathers should walk before Me forever; but now the LORD says:<sup>l</sup> Be it far from Me; for they who honor Me I will honor; but they who despise Me shall be lightly esteemed. <sup>31</sup>Take note! The days are impending when I shall break down your dominance and that of your father's house until not an old man remains in your whole family. <sup>32</sup>In My house you will witness shortage among all the blessings I will give to Israel; not an old man shall live in your household forever. <sup>33</sup>But the single person, whom I shall not cut off from My altar, is to ruin your sight and to wear out your life; all those who grow up in your family shall die at maturity. <sup>34</sup>Let what is to befall your two sons, Hophni and Phinehas, be a sign to you; they shall both die on the same day, <sup>35</sup>and I will appoint Me a faithful priest, who acts in accord with My mind and My Spirit. For him I will build a lasting house, and he shall walk before My anointed<sup>m</sup> forever. <sup>36</sup>Whoever of your family still remains shall bow down to him for a mite of money and a piece of bread and shall say, 'Do, I beg of you, appoint me to some priestly service so I may have a bite to eat.'

3 YOUNG SAMUEL WAS IN THE LORD's ministry under Eli's direction. In those days a word from the LORD was rare, and a vision was infrequent. <sup>2</sup>But one day it happened. Eli was lying down in his accustomed place. His eyesight was getting dim, so he could not see clearly any more. <sup>3</sup>The lamp of God was still burning, <sup>h</sup>) Elohim, literally, gods — but usually "God"; also may mean "judge" or "judges" in the O.T. and is so quoted by our LORD [John 10:35]. As Elohim has not occurred in this book, but Yahweh (Jehovah) for the Supreme Being, "the judges" seems the best translation here.

<sup>i</sup>) Luke, in writing his ch. 2:52, seems to have this lingering in his memory.

<sup>j</sup>) An unnamed, unfamed prophet. Many of his kind must have witnessed for God among His people, besides those whose messages have come to us.

<sup>k</sup>) Levi, under judgment of being scattered among Israel; but the judgment changed to blessing upon evidence of obedience [Ex. 32:25-29].

<sup>l</sup>) One of the many "ifs" of God. The fatalist will find no confirmation from sacred history.

<sup>m</sup>) Usually the king.

and Samuel had retired in the tent of the LORD where God's ark was. <sup>4</sup>Then the LORD called Samuel, who said, "Here I am," <sup>5</sup>and ran to Eli. He said, "Here I am, for you called me." But he said, "I did not call; lie down again." So he went and lay down. <sup>6</sup>Once more the LORD called: Samuel! And Samuel arose and ran to Eli, saying, "Here I am, for you certainly called me." But he said, "No, I did not call you, my son; lie down again."

<sup>7</sup>Now Samuel did not yet know the LORD; never yet had a word from the LORD been revealed to him. <sup>8</sup>So when for the third time the LORD called Samuel, he got up, went to Eli, and said, "Here I am; unquestionably you called me." Then it dawned on Eli that the LORD was calling the lad. <sup>9</sup>So Eli said to Samuel, "Go, lie down again, and when He calls you, say, 'Speak, LORD, for Thy servant is listening.'" Samuel went and lay down in his usual place. <sup>10</sup>Then the LORD came, took His stand, and called as at previous times: Samuel! Samuel! Samuel said, "Speak, for Thy servant is listening." <sup>11</sup>The LORD said to Samuel: Take note! I am about to do something in Israel that will tingle both ears of all who hear it. <sup>12</sup>In that day I will carry out from start to finish against Eli everything I have said about his family. <sup>13</sup>You tell him that I will execute justice over his family forever, because he knew that his sons were bringing a curse upon themselves, and he failed to discipline them. <sup>14</sup>I have therefore sworn to the Eli family that the iniquity of Eli's household shall never be paid for, either by sacrifice or by offering.

<sup>15</sup>Until morning Samuel kept to his couch; then he opened the doors of the LORD's house, afraid to tell the vision to Eli. <sup>16</sup>But Eli called Samuel and said, "Samuel, my son!" He said, "Here am I." <sup>17</sup>Eli then asked, "What is the message He spoke to you? Do not hide it from me. God do so to you and worse<sup>p</sup> if you hide from me one syllable of all the words He told you." <sup>18</sup>Then Samuel told him everything; he kept nothing from him. And he said, "He is the LORD; may He do what seems good in His sight."

<sup>19</sup>Thus Samuel matured, and the LORD was with him; He let not one of His words fall to the ground. <sup>20</sup>And all Israel from Dan to Beersheba came to understand that Samuel was commissioned as the LORD's prophet. <sup>21</sup>Once more at Shiloh the LORD appeared again, for there He revealed Himself to Samuel through the divine message.

1090 B.C.

4 SAMUEL'S MESSAGE REACHED ALL Israel. <sup>1</sup>Israel went out to fight the Philistines and camped at Eben-ezer while the Philistines camped at Aphek. <sup>2</sup>The Philistines drew up in battle line against Israel, and when the fight became general, Israel was beaten as they faced the Philistines, who killed in the open field about four thousand men.

<sup>3</sup>As the troops went back to camp, the elders of Israel said, "Why has the LORD allowed us to be defeated by the Philistines today? Let us fetch the ark of the covenant of the LORD from Shiloh, so that He will come among us and will deliver us from the power of our enemies."<sup>r</sup> <sup>4</sup>So the people sent word to Shiloh, and they brought from there the ark of the covenant of the LORD of hosts, throned above the cherubim,<sup>s</sup> and accompanying the ark of God's covenant were both sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinchas. <sup>5</sup>As soon as the ark of the LORD's covenant reached the camp, all Israel raised so mighty a shout that the earth resounded.

<sup>6</sup>When the Philistines heard the

n) Much of God's previous revelation, as we have it, had been conveyed to young Samuel, but none as direct as was then about to be given.

o) Eli had spoken to his sons about their wickedness but had not disciplined them. We Christian parents must deal lovingly and firmly with our children when their behavior is contrary to Christ's will and teaching.

p) Some hand motion seems to have been made, intimating harm to neck or head.

q) This sentence belongs to the previous chapter. Of course, the sacred writers were not responsible for divisions into chapters and verses.

r) They tried to force God into their service, a popular practice of modern cults, whose gods are the forces of the universe.

s) Cherubim is the Hebrew plural of cherub, of whom two were imaged above the mercy seat, facing one another.

shouting, they said, "What is the meaning of such loud shouting in the Hebrew camp?" And when they learned that the ark of the LORD had arrived there, <sup>7</sup>the Philistines were afraid. They said, "The gods have come into the camp. Alas for us! Such a thing has never happened before. <sup>8</sup>Woe to us! Who will deliver us from the power of these mighty gods? These are the gods who smote Egypt with every plague and devastation. <sup>9</sup>Philistines, take courage and be men, so you will not be slaves to the Hebrews, as they have been to you. Act the men you are and fight." <sup>10</sup>Then the Philistines did fight, and Israel was defeated;<sup>t</sup> they fled each for himself to his tent. The carnage was terrible; of Israel's infantry thirty thousand fell; <sup>11</sup>the ark of the LORD was captured, too; and Eli's two sons, Hophni and Phinehas, were slain.

<sup>12</sup>A Benjamite broke ranks and ran to Shiloh that same day, his clothes torn and earth upon his head. <sup>13</sup>When he arrived, Eli was sitting<sup>u</sup> by the road in expectation, for he was deeply moved about the ark of God. As the man entered town and told the news, there was an outcry all over town. <sup>14</sup>Eli heard the din of the lamentation and asked, "What sort of tumult is this?" The man hurried to Eli and told him. <sup>15</sup>Eli was ninety-eight years old; his eyes stood fixed so that he could not see. <sup>16</sup>The man told Eli, "I come from the battle; today I fled from the army." He asked, "What happened, my son?" <sup>17</sup>The messenger answered, "Israel was routed when fronting the Philistines; the people have suffered a disastrous defeat; both your sons, Hophni and Phinehas, are slain, and the ark of God is captured."<sup>v</sup>

<sup>18</sup>When he mentioned the ark of God, Eli fell back from his seat by the gate, broke his neck and died; for he was an aged man and heavy. For forty years he had judged Israel.

<sup>19</sup>When his daughter-in-law, the wife of Phinehas, who was pregnant and about to become a mother, heard the report that the ark of God had been captured, that her father-in-law and her husband had died, she collapsed and gave birth, for the birthpains came upon her. <sup>20</sup>While she lay dying, the woman who attended her said, "Have no fear; for you gave birth to a son." But she did not reply and paid no attention <sup>21</sup>but named the child Ichabod,<sup>w</sup> saying, "Gone is the glory from Israel." Because the ark of God was taken and because of her father-in-law and her husband, <sup>22</sup>she said, "Gone is the glory from Israel, because the ark of God is taken."

5 <sup>1</sup>THE PHILISTINES HAD CAPTURED the ark of God and had moved it from Eben-ezer to Ashdod, <sup>2</sup>where the Philistines brought the ark of God into the temple of Dagon and placed it near Dagon. <sup>3</sup>Early next morning when the Ashdodites got up, look! Dagon had fallen face down to the floor in front of the ark of the LORD; so they took hold of Dagon and set him back in his place. <sup>4</sup>But when they got up the following morning, not only was Dagon lying face down on the floor before the ark of the LORD, but Dagon's head and both his hands lay severed on the threshold; only Dagon's trunk was left him.<sup>x</sup> <sup>5</sup>For this reason to this day the priests of Dagon and all who enter the Dagon temple keep from stepping on Dagon's threshold at Ashdod.

<sup>6</sup>THE LORD's hand lay heavy on the Ashdodites. He punished them with hemorrhoids,<sup>y</sup> both at Ashdod and in its suburbs, <sup>7</sup>so that when the men of

t) No commander is mentioned. Eli was too old, his sons too unreliable. Had an outstanding leader come to the fore, his name would have been given.

u) Eli is never mentioned except as occupying a seat or lying down. No activities of his are recorded, only that he was priest, judge, and father.

v) God will not be coerced. As God He is LORD of all and only voluntarily does He serve all.

w) Departed glory. x) The form of the Dagon image was a human head with shoulders, arms and the whole upper part as of man, but the lower portions from the hips down may have been the form of a fish, a merman, in honor of the sea.

y) "Swellings" is the Hebrew word, which may mean boils, tumors, or piles. Consulted surgeons consider hemorrhoids or piles most likely.

Ashdod realized the situation, they said, "The ark of Israel's God must not remain among us, because His hand is severe against us and against our god Dagon." <sup>8</sup>So they called all the Philistine princes and said, "What are we to do with the ark of the God of Israel?" The answer was, "Let the ark of the God of Israel be moved around to Gath." So they conveyed the ark of Israel's God around there; <sup>9</sup>but after they had taken it there the LORD's hand was against the city, with resultant panic. He touched the citizens, young and old, so that hemorrhoids broke out among them. <sup>10</sup>They sent the ark of God to Ekron, but as soon as the ark of God reached there the Ekronites cried out, "They have brought us the ark of the God of Israel to kill us and our people!" <sup>11</sup>They, therefore, called all the Philistine princes together and said, "Send the ark of Israel's God away; let it go back to its place and not kill us and our people," for a fatal fear had gripped the whole city; God's hand lay heavy there. <sup>12</sup>Those who did not die were plagued with hemorrhoids, so that the city's lamentation went up to heaven.<sup>z</sup>

6 AFTER THE ARK OF THE LORD HAD remained in the Philistines' territory for seven months, <sup>2</sup>the Philistines summoned the priests and the diviners and asked, "What should we do with the LORD's ark? Inform us in what way we should send it back where it belongs." <sup>3</sup>They answered, "When you return the ark of Israel's God, do not send it empty; but forward an atoning offering. You will then be healed and will find out why His hand does not turn from you."

<sup>4</sup>They asked, "What satisfaction should we offer Him?" To this they replied, "According to the number of Philistine town princes, five gold hemorrhoids and five gold mice, because the same plague struck everyone, including your town princes. <sup>5</sup>Make, therefore, images of your swellings and images of the mice<sup>a</sup> that are ruining the land, and give glory to the God of Israel; possibly He will remove the pressure of His heavy hand from you, from your gods, and from your land. <sup>6</sup>Why harden your hearts as the Egyptians<sup>b</sup> and Pharaoh hardened their hearts? Did they not let them go when He had made them feel His power, and they went out? <sup>7</sup>Now then, take hold and construct a new cart, and get two fresh cows that have never been yoked; hitch those cows to the cart but keep their calves home from them.<sup>c</sup> <sup>8</sup>Then take the ark of the LORD, place it on the cart, put the gold articles for atonement in a box next to the ark; then send it on its way. <sup>9</sup>Watch carefully! If it goes up the road to its own territory, toward Bethshemesh,<sup>d</sup> then it is He who brought this serious catastrophe upon us; but if not, then it was not His hand that struck us; it happened by chance."

<sup>10</sup>The men did so. They took two fresh cows, hitched them to a cart, and kept their calves at home. <sup>11</sup>They placed the ark of the LORD on the cart; also the box containing the gold mice and the images of their swellings. <sup>12</sup>The cows went straight up the highway to Bethshemesh, lowing as they went, but going right on and turning neither right nor left, with the Philistine princes following them as far as the Bethshemesh boundary line.

<sup>13</sup>The Bethshemesh people were busy harvesting their wheat in the valley and, as they looked up, they saw the ark. How glad they were to see it! <sup>14</sup>The cart came as far as the field of Joshua, the Bethshemite, and there it stopped. An immense stone was lying there; so they split the wood <sup>z</sup>) When in the cry there is some thought of the LORD of heaven and earth, there is assurance of divine response.

<sup>a</sup>) Mice have thus far not been mentioned, but shortly we learn they were plaguing the people.

<sup>b</sup>) The plagues of Egypt were four centuries in the past, but those acts of God were still remembered among neighboring nations.

<sup>c</sup>) It would be difficult to drive the best-trained cows straight on a road when their calves have just been taken from them. So, when these animals, though lowing for their calves, moved steadily eastward, the princes felt convinced of divine supervision.

<sup>d</sup>) Bethshemesh means sun-house. Before the Hebrews took possession, the Canaanites had maintained a temple for the sun in that place.

of the cart and offered the cows as a burnt offering to the LORD. <sup>15</sup>The Levites had unloaded the ark of the LORD and the box next to it that contained the golden jewels and had deposited them upon the great stone. That day the men of Bethshemesh offered to the LORD burnt offerings and other sacrifices.

<sup>16</sup>When the five princes of the Philistines had taken notice, they returned to Ekron that same day. <sup>17</sup>And these are the five golden swellings which the Philistine princes presented to the LORD for atoning — one each for Ashdod, Gaza, Ashkelon, Gath, and Ekron; <sup>18</sup>also the golden mice, according to the number of all Philistine towns that belonged to the five town princes, both walled cities and open villages. The great stone in the field of Joshua, the Bethshemite, on which they rested the ark of the LORD, bears witness till our day.

<sup>19</sup>But of the Bethshemite men He slew some because they had looked into the ark of the LORD. He slew seventy of the people, fifty to the thousand, and the people mourned because the LORD had slain so many of them. <sup>20</sup>The men of Bethshemesh said, "Who can exist in the presence of the LORD, this holy God? To whom shall He go from here?" <sup>21</sup>So they sent messengers to the Kiriath-jearim residents to say, "The Philistines have brought the ark of the LORD back. Come down and move it up to you!"

1070 B.C.

7 THE MEN OF KIRIATH-JEARIM came, carried with them the ark of the LORD, and brought it to Abinadab's home on the hill; his son Eleazar<sup>e</sup> they set apart to care for the ark of the LORD. <sup>2</sup>During the twenty-year period while the ark remained in Kiriath-jearim, the whole house of Israel was seriously seeking the LORD.<sup>f</sup> <sup>3</sup>Then Samuel told the whole house of Israel, "If you wholeheartedly turn to the LORD, then remove the strange gods from you, including the Ashtaroth, and center your worship on the LORD; serve Him alone. Then He will deliver you from the Philistines' power."

<sup>4</sup>The children of Israel then got rid of the Baals and Astarte and served the LORD exclusively. <sup>5</sup>So Samuel announced, "Assemble all Israel at Mizpah,<sup>g</sup> and I will pray the LORD on your behalf." <sup>6</sup>Gathered at Mizpah, they drew water and poured it out before the LORD;<sup>h</sup> they also observed a day of fasting. Then and there they confessed, "We have sinned against the LORD." And at Mizpah Samuel judged the people.

<sup>7</sup>When the Philistines learned that Israel was gathered at Mizpah, the Philistine princes marched against Israel; and the Israelites, hearing of it, were in fear of the Philistines. <sup>8</sup>They said to Samuel, "Do not cease calling on the LORD our God for us, so He may deliver us from the Philistines' dominance." <sup>9</sup>Then Samuel took a suckling lamb and offered it whole as a burnt offering to the LORD; and when Samuel called on the LORD for Israel, the LORD answered him.

<sup>10</sup>While Samuel was occupied with offering the burnt offering and the Philistines were closing in to attack Israel, just then the LORD thundered mightily against the Philistines and confused them, so that they suffered defeat before Israel. <sup>11</sup>The troops of Israel marched out of Mizpah, pursued the Philistines, and beat them down, as far as below Bathcar. <sup>12</sup>Samuel then took a stone, which he set up between Mizpah and Shen, and named it Ebenezer;<sup>i</sup> he said, "Thus far the LORD has helped us."

<sup>13</sup>The Philistines were thus humbled, and they no longer crossed Israel's boundaries; throughout the period of Samuel the LORD's hand was against the Philistines. <sup>14</sup>The cities which the Philistines had taken from Israel were returned to Israel from Ekron to Gath, and their bordering terri-

e) Apparently not a descendant of Aaron. f) The ark remained much more than twenty years; but Samuel seems to have begun his judgeship of Israel that twentieth year, probably at the age of thirty, like Jesus and John the Baptist.

g) Not the Mizpah in Gilead where Jacob and Laban met, but in Benjamin, not far from Ramah, Samuel's home town. h) In line with their fasting, they did not drink it. i) Stone of help.

tories Israel rescued from Philistine control.<sup>j</sup> There was peace also between Israel and the Amorites.

<sup>15</sup>Samuel served as Israel's circuit judge all his life. <sup>16</sup>He made the rounds annually to include Bethel, Gilgal, and Mizpah, holding court at these centers for Israel; <sup>17</sup>then he returned to his Ramah home, where he served as Israel's judge and where he built an altar to the LORD.<sup>k</sup>

8 WHEN SAMUEL WAS AGING, HE APPOINTED his sons as judges over Israel, <sup>2</sup>the older named Joel and the second Abiah; they judged at Beersheba. <sup>3</sup>But his sons' conduct was not like his; they turned aside for money; they accepted presents; they twisted justice.<sup>l</sup> <sup>4</sup>All the elders of Israel, therefore, got together and called on Samuel at Ramah. <sup>5</sup>They told him, "Look here, you are aging and your sons do not behave as you did. Appoint a king over us to be our judge like all the nations."

<sup>6</sup>Their saying, "Give us a king to judge us," was disgusting to Samuel, and he prayed to the LORD. <sup>7</sup>The LORD said to Samuel: Whatever they tell you, listen to the people; for they have not rejected you, but Me they have rejected to be King over them.<sup>m</sup> <sup>8</sup>From the day when I brought them out of Egypt till now they have acted this way, forsaking Me and serving other gods; they are now behaving similarly against you. <sup>9</sup>Now then, you listen to them; but solemnly warn them and point out to them the ways of the king who shall reign over them.

<sup>10</sup>Samuel told the whole message of the LORD to the people who had asked him for a king. <sup>11</sup>He said, "This will be the procedure of the king who shall reign over you: he will take your sons and employ them for his chariots and as his horsemen; they shall run in front of his chariots. <sup>12</sup>He will appoint some for himself in command of thousands and of hundreds; others to cultivate his acres and to harvest his crops; also to construct his weapons and his chariot equipment. <sup>13</sup>Your daughters he will require for perfumers, for cooks, and for bakers. <sup>14</sup>Besides he will take your choicest fields, your vineyards, and your olive yards and give them to his attendants. <sup>15</sup>He will, besides, take a tenth of your grain crop and of your vineyards and give it to his officers and to his servants. <sup>16</sup>Your male and female servants he will take from you and your choicest young men; also your donkeys and employ them for his business. <sup>17</sup>He will appropriate a tenth of your flocks, too, and you yourselves will become his servants. <sup>18</sup>By that time you will cry out about the king you chose; but that day the LORD will not answer you."

<sup>19</sup>The people, however, declined to listen to Samuel. They said, "No, there must be a king over us, <sup>20</sup>so we may be like all the other nations; our king will give us justice; he will lead us on and conduct our wars." <sup>21</sup>Samuel heard all the people's words and rehearsed them in the LORD's presence. <sup>22</sup>The LORD told Samuel: Listen to their voice; place a king over them. So Samuel said to the men of Israel, "Every man go to his own city!"

9 THERE WAS A MAN OF BENJAMIN whose name was Kish son of Abiel, son of Zeror, son of Becorath, son of Aphiah, a Benjamite, a man of influence. <sup>2</sup>He had a son named Saul, young and well built, none more handsome among the Israelites, his head and shoulders higher than all the people.<sup>n</sup>

<sup>3</sup>Now some donkeys of Kish, Saul's father, had strayed. So Kish said to his son Saul, "Take along one of the servants and go in search of the don-

j) Philistia was only about fifty miles long and fifteen miles wide. There was no reason why the Hebrews should ever be subject to it, except for degrading practices on the part of Israel in Baal worship, and personal bravery on the part of the Philistines.

k) Obviously, northern Israel received but occasional service from Samuel, if at all. Until David's reign north and south had little sense of unity.

l) It was not wholesome for Samuel's sons that the father was often absent from home; so busy helping others to go straight, his own offspring was neglected.

m) The people had reason to ask for a new judge as upright as was Samuel; but instead they asked for a king "like all the nations," as if God were not their King.

n) Exactly what the people were looking for — physical strength and attractive appearance.

keys." <sup>4</sup>Then they passed through the Ephraim highlands and the Shalisha district but did not find them; the Shaalim country too but they were not there; the Benjamites' territory and found nothing. <sup>5</sup>On reaching the Zuph district, <sup>6</sup>Saul said to his servant companion, "Come on, let us go back, lest my father quit thinking of the donkeys and worry about us."

<sup>6</sup>He replied, "See here! There is a man of God in this town, a highly respected man; everything he says always comes true. Let us go there at once; perhaps he can inform us in the errand we are on." <sup>7</sup>Saul said to his servant, "But if we go, what can we give the man? The bread in our bag is used up, and we have no present to offer the man of God. What have we?" <sup>8</sup>Once more the servant furnished Saul with an answer. He said, "Look! I have a silver quarter with me;<sup>p</sup> you give it to the man of God, so he may rightly direct us on our errand." <sup>9</sup>In Israel, when people went to inquire from God, they used to say, "Come, let us go to the seer"; for the prophet of today used to be called a seer. <sup>10</sup>So Saul said to his servant, "A good idea; come on, let us go," and they entered the town where the man of God lived.

<sup>11</sup>As they were climbing the steep road into town, they met girls going out to draw water and asked them, "Is the seer here?" <sup>12</sup>They replied to them, "Yes, there he is ahead of you, just come into town, for today the people are having a sacrificial meal on the high place. <sup>13</sup>You will find<sup>q</sup> him as soon as you get into town, before he goes up for the meal, for the people will not eat until he is there because he pronounces the blessing on the sacrifice, after which those invited will eat.<sup>r</sup> Now then, go up, for you will meet him in a moment." <sup>14</sup>So they went up to town and as they came to the gate house,<sup>s</sup> Samuel was coming out toward them to go up the hill.

<sup>15</sup>Now on the day before Saul arrived, the LORD had revealed to Samuel: <sup>16</sup>Tomorrow about this time I will send you a man from the land of Benjamin. Anoint him to be prince over My people Israel. He will deliver My people from the power of the Philistines; for I have paid attention to My people as their cry has come through to Me. <sup>17</sup>So when Samuel looked at Saul, the LORD assured him: This is the man I mentioned to you, the one who is to rule over My people.

<sup>18</sup>Saul stepped up to Samuel in the center of the gate house and said, "Tell me, please, where the seer's house is!" <sup>19</sup>Samuel answered Saul, "I am the seer. Go ahead of me up the hill; you will be my dinner guest today, and early in the morning I will let you go. I will clear up for you everything you are concerned about;<sup>t</sup> <sup>20</sup>as for your donkeys that were lost three days ago, do not worry about them; they are found. But to whom belongs everything desirable in Israel? Is it not to you and to your father's house?"

<sup>21</sup>Saul, however, responded, "Am I not a Benjamite, of one of the smallest tribes in Israel?<sup>u</sup> And is not my family of least importance among Benjamin's families? Why do you speak this way to me?" <sup>22</sup>But Samuel took along Saul and his servant, brought them into the dining hall and seated them in the chief place among the guests, about thirty men. <sup>23</sup>Samuel told the cook, "Serve the portion I gave you, which I told you to reserve." <sup>24</sup>So the cook brought out the shank and what pertains to it and placed it before Saul. Samuel said, "See, you are being served what was set aside for you! Eat; even before I invited the people, it was reserved for

o) Just south of the Benjamite boundaries, with Ramah as its main town.

p) Obviously not a slave; the silver on him must have been earned and saved.

q) That is, meet him personally; they seem to have caught sight of him.

r) Those supplying the animals for sacrifice reserved the right to invite participants at the semi-public meal.

s) There was more to the entrance to the city than the gate. The elders could meet there, so there would be seats provided, thus gaining some features of a house.

t) The Spirit could inform him then and there; often a dream pictured the facts to God's messenger.

u) The tribe of Benjamin had deservedly been punished, so as to leave but 600 men alive, during the latter half of the period of the Judges [Judg. 20,21].

you until the appointed time." Thus did Saul eat that day with Samuel. <sup>25</sup>Then they came down from the high place, and he conversed with Saul on the roof.<sup>v</sup> <sup>26</sup>They arose at early dawn. Samuel called to Saul on the roof, "Up, and I will start you on your way." So Saul got up and together they went out, he and Samuel. <sup>27</sup>As they reached the city limits, Samuel said to Saul, "Tell the servant to go on ahead of us," and he went on, "but you stand still here, and I will acquaint you with God's message."

10 THEN SAMUEL TOOK A FLASK of oil, poured it upon his head and kissed him. He said, "Has not the LORD anointed you to be prince over His possessions? <sup>2</sup>When today you have left me, you will meet two men near Rachel's tomb on the Benjamin boundary at Zelzah. They will tell you, 'The donkeys you searched for are found; your father has ceased thinking about the matter of donkeys; his concern is about you. He says, "What shall I do about my son?"' <sup>3</sup>As you go on and get near the Tabor Oak, three men will meet you on their way to God at Bethel, one carrying three kids, another three loaves of bread, and a third a bottle of wine. <sup>4</sup>They will greet you as friends and give you two loaves of bread, which you will accept from them. <sup>5</sup>After that you will come to the hill of God, where the Philistine garrison is stationed. On entering the town you will meet a group of prophets coming down the hill, before them lyre, tambourine, flute, and harp, and prophesying with ecstasy. <sup>6</sup>Then the Spirit of the LORD will grip you, and you will share their ecstatic prophesying; you will become a different person. <sup>7</sup>As you experience these signs, do as the occasion requires, for God is with you. <sup>8</sup>Go in advance of me to Gilgal and, take note, I will come down to offer burnt offerings and to sacrifice peace offerings! Wait for me seven days until I join you and let you know what you are to do."

<sup>9</sup>This then happened: As he turned around to leave Samuel, God changed his heart.<sup>w</sup> All the signs mentioned came true that day. <sup>10</sup>As they reached the hill, see, a group of prophets met him; the Spirit of God took hold of him, and he prophesied along with them.<sup>x</sup> <sup>11</sup>All his old acquaintances, who saw him prophesying along with the prophets, remarked to one another, "What has come over the son of Kish? Is Saul, too, among the prophets?" <sup>12</sup>A man from the neighborhood responded, "But who is their father?"<sup>y</sup> So it became a saying, "Saul among the prophets."

<sup>13</sup>When he had finished prophesying, he went to Gibeah. <sup>14</sup>Saul's uncle asked him and his servant, "Where did you go?" He replied, "In search of the donkeys, and when we realized they were lost, we went to Samuel." <sup>15</sup>Saul's uncle then said, "Do tell me what Samuel said to you." <sup>16</sup>Saul told his uncle, "He informed us at once that the donkeys had been found"; but that Samuel had mentioned the kingdom, he did not tell him.

1050 B.C.

<sup>17</sup>Samuel called together all Israel to the LORD at Mizpah, and <sup>18</sup>he told the Israelites, "Thus speaks the LORD God of Israel: I have led Israel up from Egypt; I delivered you from the power of the Egyptians and from the control of all the kingdoms that oppressed you, <sup>19</sup>and yet today you reject your God who personally saved you from all your calamities and your miseries; and you say, 'No, but appoint a king over us.' Now then, take your stand before the LORD by your tribes and clans."

<sup>20</sup>Samuel then had all the tribes of Israel come forward,<sup>z</sup> and the tribe of

v) The Septuagint adds here, "They spread for Saul the couch on the roof and he fell asleep," a custom so obvious it needed no recounting in the original; but likely a mat was used, not a couch or bed.

w) Our word "mind" we owe to the Greeks; the Hebrew word for "heart" comes nearest to it as the thinking power.

x) To "prophesy" is to "speak" or "sing for." These young men, led by music, sang to God's praise, and Saul joined in their singing.

y) This was so unusual a behavior for worldly Saul that "Saul among the prophets" equalled a worldling getting religion.

z) To take one lot each out of twelve; then one lot for a Benjamin family.

Benjamin was taken. <sup>21</sup>He then had the tribe of Benjamin draw near by its families, and the Matri family was taken. Finally Saul the son of Kish was taken; but when they looked for him, he could not be found. <sup>22</sup>So they inquired further of the LORD, "Has the man come here?" The LORD answered: He is hiding himself among the baggage. <sup>23</sup>So they ran and brought him out from there, and as he stood among the people, it showed that he was head and shoulders taller than any of the people. <sup>24</sup>Samuel said to the whole nation, "Do you see whom the LORD has chosen? There is none his equal among all the people." Then all the people gave a mighty shout, "Long live the king!"

<sup>25</sup>Samuel also described to the people the ways of the kingdom and wrote it in a book, which he deposited before the LORD.<sup>a</sup> Then Samuel dismissed the people, each to his own home. <sup>26</sup>Saul, too, went home to Gibeah, and the brave men whose hearts God had touched went with him. <sup>27</sup>But some sons of Belial said, "How is this man going to save us?" They despised him and brought him no presents. But he kept still.

1050 B.C.

11 NAHASH THE AMMONITE<sup>b</sup> CAME up and laid siege to Jabesh-gilead; and all the men of Jabesh-gilead told Nahash, "Make a treaty with us, and we will submit to you." <sup>2</sup>But Nahash the Ammonite replied to them, "I will make a treaty with you on this condition, that I gouge out the right eye of each of you, thereby bringing disgrace on all Israel." <sup>3</sup>The Jabesh elders replied, "Allow us seven days, and we will send messengers throughout all Israel's territory; then, if none comes to our aid, we shall come out to you."

<sup>4</sup>When the messengers reached Gib-

eah,<sup>c</sup> Saul's town, and reported their tidings, so that all the people could hear, the people all wept audibly. <sup>5</sup>Saul, coming out of the field behind the oxen, said, "What is amiss with the people, that they are weeping?" They told him what the Jabesh men had said, and <sup>6</sup>when Saul heard the tidings, the Spirit of God took hold of him. His anger was deeply roused. <sup>7</sup>He took a yoke of oxen, cut them up into pieces, and sent them by messengers over the whole stretch of Israel with the warning, "Whoever does not march behind Saul and behind Samuel, this will happen to his oxen."

A terror from the LORD fell upon all the people; they rallied as one man. <sup>8</sup>At Bezek he mustered them; there were 300,000 Israelites and 30,000 of Judah.<sup>d</sup> <sup>9</sup>They instructed the messengers who had come, "Assure the men of Jabesh-gilead, 'Tomorrow when the sun grows hot there will be deliverance for you.'"<sup>e</sup> The messengers went and informed the Jabesh men, who felt cheered. <sup>10</sup>The men of Jabesh said to Nahash, "Tomorrow we surrender to you, and you can do what you like with us."<sup>e</sup>

<sup>11</sup>Next morning Saul arranged the troops into three divisions. At break of day they burst into the camp and struck down the Ammonites until the day was hot; the survivors they scattered till no two remained together. <sup>12</sup>Then the people said to Samuel, "Who said, 'Shall Saul reign over us?' Bring those men, so we may execute them." <sup>13</sup>But Saul remarked, "On this day none shall be punished; for the LORD has worked salvation in Israel."

<sup>14</sup>Samuel said to the people, "Come, let us go to Gilgal and there confirm the kingship." <sup>15</sup>So all the people went to Gilgal, and there at Gilgal they declared Saul king in the presence of the LORD. They sacrificed peace offerings

a) Within or near the Holy of Holies where the ark of the covenant had stood.

b) Ammon was Lot's younger son. The Ammonites had settled east of Jordan between the Arnon and Jabkok rivers before Israel, still led by Moses, dispossessed them.

c) The Hebrew word for hill or height is gibeah. In the foregoing story of Saul, it is difficult to distinguish between gibeah as any hill and Gibeah, Saul's native town.

d) Too clear a distinction was constantly drawn between Israel south of Jerusalem and the northern tribes. Their greatest unity came when, under Davidic leadership, all the tribes worshiped in Jerusalem. e) War and deceit have always been twin brothers.

I SAMUEL 11, 12

there before the LORD, and there Saul and the men of Israel enjoyed themselves immensely.

12 SAMUEL SAID TO ALL ISRAEL, "Take note! I have listened to your voice in everything you mentioned to me, and I have placed a king over you. <sup>2</sup>Now then, note the king walking before you, while I am old and gray, and see, my sons are with you.<sup>f</sup> From childhood I have led a public life till this very day. <sup>3</sup>Here I am; witness against me in the presence of the LORD and of His anointed. Whose cattle have I taken? Whose donkey have I seized? Whom have I abused? Whom have I wronged? From whom have I accepted a present to blind my eyes? I will restore it to you."

<sup>4</sup>They said, "You have not mistreated us; you have not wronged us, and you have received no present from anyone." <sup>5</sup>He said, "The LORD is witness among you today, and His anointed is witness that you have found nothing in my possession."<sup>g</sup> They confirmed, "He is witness."

<sup>6</sup>Samuel then said to the people, "It is the LORD who appointed Moses and Aaron and who led your fathers out of the land of Egypt. <sup>7</sup>Now then, stand at attention, so that as judge I may set before you in the LORD's presence all the righteous acts which the LORD has done for you and your fathers. <sup>8</sup>When Jacob had gone to Egypt and your fathers cried out to the LORD, then the LORD sent Moses and Aaron, who brought your fathers out of Egypt and located them in this place. <sup>9</sup>But they forgot the LORD their God, and He sold them into the hand of Sisera, the Hazor commander, and into the hand of the Philistines and of the Moabite king, who fought against them. <sup>10</sup>Then they cried to the LORD. They said, 'We have sinned, for we have deserted the LORD and have served the Baals and the Astartes. But save us now from the power of our enemies and we will serve Thee!' <sup>11</sup>Then the LORD sent Jerubbaal,<sup>h</sup> Barak, Jephthah, and Samuel, and delivered you from the power of the enemies all around, so that you lived in safety. <sup>12</sup>However, when you saw that Nahash, the Ammonite king, came up against you, you told me, 'No, a king must reign over us,' although the LORD your God was your King. <sup>13</sup>Now then, look at the king you have chosen, whom you wanted. See, the LORD has set a king over you. <sup>14</sup>If you serve the LORD, heed His voice, and rebel not against the LORD, then you as well as the king who shall rule over you shall follow the LORD, your God; <sup>15</sup>but in case you do not listen to the LORD's voice but rebel against the LORD, then the LORD's hand will be against you as it was against your fathers.

Samuel Rebukes and Admonishes Israel

<sup>16</sup>"Now then, stand at attention, and see this great wonder, which the LORD will do before your eyes! <sup>17</sup>Is not this the wheat harvest season? I shall call upon the LORD, and He will produce thunder and rain.<sup>i</sup> Understand, therefore, and see how great an evil you have committed in the LORD's sight by asking for a king."

<sup>18</sup>So Samuel called on the LORD, and the LORD produced thunder and rain that day; and all the people were in awe of the LORD and of Samuel. <sup>19</sup>They all said to Samuel, "Pray to the LORD your God for your servants, so we may not die, because in addition to all our sins, we have wickedly asked for a king." <sup>20</sup>Samuel assured all the people, "Be not in terror! You have indeed committed all this evil, but do not turn away from the LORD any longer. Worship the LORD with your whole heart; <sup>21</sup>go not astray after useless idols who can neither benefit nor save you but are mere nothings. <sup>22</sup>For the LORD will not push away His people in consideration of His great name because the LORD is minded to make you His own peculiar people. <sup>23</sup>As for me, far be it from me that I should sin against the LORD by ceasing to pray for you; but I will instruct you in the good and upright way. <sup>24</sup>Be sure to revere the LORD and to serve Him faithfully with your whole heart; for consider what marvels He has wrought among you. <sup>25</sup>But if you persist in doing evil, then both you and your king will be set aside."

<sup>f</sup>) The father still esteemed his sons more highly than did the people.

<sup>g</sup>) Of course, nothing that he had not honestly earned. <sup>h</sup>) Gideon, whom his father renamed Jerub-baal — against Baal.

<sup>i</sup>) As in many far western states, no rain or thunder is expected in harvest time. As in all physical miracles, God directed natural forces for a particular purpose.

13 BY THIS TIME SAUL HAD reigned for one year.<sup>1</sup> When Saul had been king over Israel two years, <sup>2</sup>he selected three thousand men of Israel, of which two thousand were with Saul at Michmash and at the Bethel heights, while one thousand were with Jonathan at Gibeah in Benjamin. But the rest of the people he dismissed, each to his home.

<sup>3</sup>Now Jonathan overpowered the Philistine garrison at Geba.<sup>k</sup> And the Philistine people got the report of it. Then Saul had the trumpet blown throughout the entire country; for he said, "The Hebrews must learn what has happened." <sup>4</sup>And all Israel heard the tidings, "Saul has beaten the Philistine garrison, and Israel has become odious to the Philistines." The people were then summoned to join Saul at Gilgal.

<sup>5</sup>The Philistines, too, were drafted to fight Israel, thirty thousand chariots, six thousand cavalry, and infantry as numerous as the sand on the seashore. They moved up and camped at Michmash, east of Bethaven. <sup>6</sup>When the men of Israel saw that they were being hedged in (for the troops were threatened),<sup>1</sup> the people hid themselves in caves, in thickets, among rocks, in caverns, and in pits, <sup>7</sup>while some Hebrews crossed the Jordan into the land of Gad and Gilead. Saul, however, was still at Gilgal, and all the people followed him, trembling.

<sup>8</sup>For seven days, the time set by Samuel, he waited; but when Samuel did not come to Gilgal and the troops were deserting him, <sup>9</sup>Saul said, "Bring me the burnt sacrifice and the peace offerings." Then he offered the burnt offering, and <sup>10</sup>scarcely was he through sacrificing the burnt offering when Samuel arrived. Saul went out to meet and greet him, <sup>11</sup>but Samuel asked, "What have you done?" Saul replied, "When I saw that the people were deserting me and you did not come at the agreed time, while the Philistines were camping at Michmash, <sup>12</sup>I thought, Now the Philistines will swoop down on me at Gilgal, and I have not prayed for the LORD's favor; so I forced myself to offer a burnt sacrifice."

<sup>13</sup>Samuel told Saul, "You have acted foolishly; you have not observed the instruction of the LORD your God, which He charged you; else the LORD would have established your kingship over Israel for ever. <sup>14</sup>Now, however, your kingship will not last. The LORD has sought out for Himself a man in harmony with Him, whom the LORD has appointed to be His people's prince because you have not obeyed what the LORD commanded you." <sup>15</sup>Samuel then arose and went up from Gilgal to Gibeah of Benjamin; but Saul mustered the troops still with him, about six hundred.

<sup>16</sup>Saul, his son Jonathan, and the troops with them camped at Geba in Benjamin, and the Philistines camped at Michmash. <sup>17</sup>From the Philistine camp raiders went out in three details; one detail took the road to Ophrah in the Shual district;<sup>m</sup> <sup>18</sup>another detail turned the way to Beth-horon;<sup>n</sup> and the third took the hill road that overlooks the Zeboim valley toward the desert.<sup>o</sup>

j) The Heb. has here: "Saul was . . . years old when he began to reign, and he reigned . . . and two years over Israel!"

k) Not to be confused with Gibeah, although located in Benjamin very close to the borders of Judah. It is distinguished as a priest town [Josh. 18:24]. A village by the name still exists six miles n.e. of Jerusalem, two miles s.w. of Michmash.

l) In numbers the Philistines could not match the Hebrews, but they were less peacefully inclined, were greatly superior in equipment, and were united.

m) Northwest from Michmash. n) Still more north and westward, close to the Benjamin-Ephraim boundaries, where a mountain pass gave occasion for numerous battles.

o) East of Michmash where hills overlook the Jordan valley.

<sup>19</sup>No blacksmith was to be found in all the land of Israel; for the Philistines had said, "Else the Hebrews might fashion swords or spears for themselves."<sup>p</sup> <sup>20</sup>So all the Israelites had to go down to the Philistines each one to sharpen his plow point, his coulter, his ax, or his sickle. <sup>21</sup>The charge for plow point or coulter was a quarter; for ax or sickle or sharpening goads, about a dime. <sup>22</sup>On the day of battle, therefore, there was neither sword nor spear among all the troops captained by Saul and Jonathan; only Saul and Jonathan were armed. <sup>23</sup>And a Philistine army post had occupied the Michmash mountain pass.

14 ONE DAY JONATHAN SAUL'S SON said to his young armorbearer, "Come on, let us cross over to the Philistine garrison on yonder side." But he did not tell his father. <sup>2</sup>Saul was sitting under the pomegranate tree by the threshing floor on the outskirts of Gibeah and about six hundred men were with him, <sup>3</sup>also Ahijah son of Ahitub, Ichabod's brother, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eli, priest of the LORD at Shiloh, who wore the ephod. The people, too, were unaware of Jonathan's leaving.

<sup>4</sup>Now between the passes by which Jonathan tried to cross over to the Philistine post, there was on either side a sharp crag, the one called Bozez and the other Seneh.<sup>q</sup> <sup>5</sup>The one stood out northward in front of Michmash, the other southward in front of Geba. <sup>6</sup>Jonathan said to his young armorbearer, "Come on, let us cross over to the army post of these uncircumcised; perhaps the LORD will work through us; for the LORD is never held back to work either through many or through few."<sup>r</sup> <sup>7</sup>His armor-bearer told him, "Do whatever you have in mind; go ahead; I am with you heart and soul."

<sup>8</sup>Then Jonathan said, "Look! We will cross over to those men and show ourselves to them. <sup>9</sup>If they say to us, 'Stay there until we reach you,' then we will stay where we are and not climb up to them. <sup>10</sup>But if they say, 'Come up to us,' then we will climb up; for then the LORD has put them in our power. This shall be our sign."<sup>s</sup>

<sup>11</sup>When they both showed themselves to the Philistine post, the Philistines said, "Look, the Hebrews have come out of the holes in which they have been hiding." <sup>12</sup>And to Jonathan and his armor-bearer, the men of the post called out, "You climb up to us and we will teach you something." Then Jonathan said to his armor-bearer, "You climb behind me; for the LORD has handed them over to Israel." <sup>13</sup>Jonathan then climbed up hand and foot with his armor-bearer behind him. The Philistines were felled by Jonathan, and his armor-bearer killed them after him.<sup>t</sup> <sup>14</sup>This first slaughter, which Jonathan and his armor-bearer wrought, numbered about twenty men, covering about a yoke of oxen's half acre.<sup>u</sup> <sup>15</sup>Then panic struck the army post in the field and among the men; the garrison and the raiders grew panicky; the earth also quaked so that it became a terror from God.

<sup>16</sup>When Saul's outposts at Gibeah of Benjamin noticed it — the many moving back and forth — <sup>17</sup>Saul told the people with him, "Inspect and find out who of ours has gone." They made inspection and discovered that Jonathan and his armor-bearer were missing. <sup>18</sup>Then Saul told Ahijah, "Bring the ark of God here";<sup>v</sup> for the ark of God

p) Disarming their neighbors, the Philistines could readily control them and, through their garrisons, they could continually demand and secure tribute. Occupied and satellite countries in Europe had and have similar humiliations.

q) Between these two rocks, General Allenby sent a few valiant men who thus surprised and defeated the Turkish garrison in World War I. r) This last clause should be every Christian's motto; it is such a union of faith and practice.

s) Jonathan showed uncommonly good judgment; the Philistines showed lack of watchfulness, so the two could surprise the post.

t) In this battle all Hebrew fighters had to arm themselves with the weapons of fallen Philistines and so they did, beginning with Jonathan's armor-bearer.

u) As much land as might be plowed with a yoke of oxen in a day.

v) Saul was particularly anxious for divine counsel which might be furnished with aid of the priest's ephod.

was at that time among the Israelites. <sup>19</sup>However, while Saul was talking to the priest, the commotion in the Philistine camp grew worse and worse. So Saul said to the priest, "Withdraw your hand."

<sup>20</sup>Then Saul and all the men with him rallied for battle and on reaching the battle line, look, the enemy were putting each other to the sword! The confusion was terrible. <sup>21</sup>Besides, the Hebrews, who had been drafted by the Philistines and had come up with their troops, now joined the Israelites around Saul and Jonathan. <sup>22</sup>Also, as soon as the men of Israel who had been hiding in the Ephraim highlands learned that the Philistines were being put to flight, they, too, pursued them hotly in battle.<sup>w</sup> <sup>23</sup>Thus did the LORD deliver Israel that day, and the battle lengthened out to beyond Beth-aven.

<sup>24</sup>In the crisis of Israel's troops that day, Saul had put the people on oath, saying, "Cursed is the man who eats food until evening before I am avenged on my enemies." Therefore none of the people tasted food. <sup>25</sup>When the troops entered a forest with honey on the ground, <sup>26</sup>although the combs were dripping, nobody put his hand to his mouth because they feared the oath. <sup>27</sup>But Jonathan had not heard his father putting the troops under oath, so he stuck out the stick he had in his hand and dipped the end in the honey. Then when he put his hand to his mouth, his eyes brightened. <sup>28</sup>But one of the men remarked, "Your father definitely put the troops under oath, saying, 'Cursed is the man who takes food today.'" However the people felt exhausted.

<sup>29</sup>Jonathan responded, "My father has disturbed the country. Just see how refreshed I am because of this little bit of honey. <sup>30</sup>How much greater would the slaughter of the Philistines have been if the troops had freely eaten today of the enemies' supplies!" <sup>31</sup>But although the troops were lacking energy, they beat the Philistines that day from Michmash to Aijalon.<sup>x</sup> <sup>32</sup>Then the men threw themselves on the loot. They seized sheep, cattle, and calves, butchered them on the ground and ate them, blood and all.<sup>y</sup>

<sup>33</sup>Then Saul was told, "Take note! The people are sinning against the LORD by eating with the blood." He said, "You are sinning. Turn at once a great stone my way."<sup>z</sup> <sup>34</sup>Saul added, "Disperse among the troops and tell them, 'Everyone must bring me his cattle or sheep and butcher and eat it here; but do not sin against the LORD by eating with the blood.'" So that night every man of the troops brought the animal he had on hand and slaughtered it there. <sup>35</sup>And Saul built an altar to the LORD — the first altar he built to the LORD.

<sup>36</sup>Then Saul proposed, "Let us keep on pursuing the Philistines tonight, plunder them until dawn, and not leave a man of them alive." They responded, "Do as you think best." But the priest said, "Let us at this point draw near to God." <sup>37</sup>Saul, therefore, inquired of God, "Shall I pursue the Philistines? Wilt Thou deliver them in Israel's hand?" But God did not answer him that day.<sup>a</sup> <sup>38</sup>Then Saul said, "Come near, all you chiefs of the people; investigate and discover whose is the guilt on this occasion. <sup>39</sup>For, as the LORD lives who delivered Israel, even if the guilt rests with my son Jonathan, he must die." But not one of all the people answered him.

<sup>40</sup>Saul then told all Israel, "You stand on one side and I and my son Jonathan on the other side," to which the people replied, "Do as you think best." <sup>41</sup>Saul prayed unto the LORD, "O LORD God of Israel, give a perfect

w) Like star dust swirling around a nucleus, thus forming a new star or a constellation, so people will gather around one person with initiative and a promising plan.

x) Remembered [Josh. 10:12], as quoted from Hebrew poetry. It was located about 13 mi. n.w. of Jerusalem. y) God's command to Noah, with His reason for it [Gen. 9:4-6], applied to the Hebrews and was reiterated by the Church [Acts 15:20,29].

z) May mean that Saul, representing the troops, accepted the sin as his own; or that the butchering would be on the stone. a) Impulsive Saul had rashly laid an oath of fasting on the people. Ignorantly Jonathan failed to live up to it. The oath made this a matter immediately related to God; hence divine silence when His counsel is desired.

lot!" Then Saul and Jonathan were indicted, and the people were freed. <sup>42</sup>Saul said, "Cast the lot between me and my son Jonathan," and Jonathan was taken. <sup>43</sup>Saul then said to Jonathan, "Tell me, what have you done?" And Jonathan told him, "I tasted a drop of honey from the tip of the staff I had in my hand. Here I am, ready to die."

<sup>44</sup>Saul announced, "God do so to me and more, Jonathan, but you certainly must die." <sup>45</sup>The troops, however, said to Saul, "Jonathan die, who won this great victory for Israel? Far from it! As the LORD lives, not a hair of his head shall fall to the earth, for with God's help he has achieved this today." Thus the people delivered Jonathan so that he did not die. <sup>46</sup>Saul then returned from pursuing the Philistines, and the Philistines went where they belonged.

<sup>47</sup>When Saul had gained the kingship over Israel, he fought enemies in every direction: Moab, the Ammonites, Edom, the kings of Zobah, and the Philistines; and wherever he turned he conquered. <sup>48</sup>He worked mighty deeds; he defeated the Amalekites, and he saved Israel from the control of their plunderers.

<sup>49</sup>The sons of Saul were Jonathan, Ishui, and Malchishua,<sup>b</sup> and of his two daughters the older was named Merab and the younger Michal. <sup>50</sup>The name of Saul's wife was Ahinoam, daughter of Ahimaaz. His general's name was Abner son of Ner, Saul's uncle. <sup>51</sup>Kish, the father of Saul, and Ner, the father of Abner, were the sons of Abiel. <sup>52</sup>Throughout Saul's life there was heavy fighting against the Philistines; so whenever Saul noticed any brave and athletic man, he personally drafted him.<sup>c</sup>

15 SAMUEL SAID TO SAUL, "THE LORD sent me to anoint you

king over His people Israel; listen therefore to the LORD's message. <sup>2</sup>The LORD of hosts says: I have in mind what Amalek did to Israel; how he waylaid him when he came up from Egypt. <sup>3</sup>Now then, you go and strike down Amalek; destroy all he has; spare none. Slay man and woman, child and infant, cattle and sheep, camel and donkey."

<sup>4</sup>So Saul called up the people and mustered them at Telaim,<sup>d</sup> two hundred thousand infantry, with ten thousand men from Judah. <sup>5</sup>When Saul approached the Amalek capital he made an ambush in the valley <sup>6</sup>and sent word to the Kenites,<sup>e</sup> "Move out; separate yourselves from the Amalekites, so I may not destroy you together with them; for you treated all Israel kindly when they came out of Egypt." So the Kenites moved away from among the Amalekites.

<sup>7</sup>Saul struck down Amalek from Havilah to the Shur approach east of Egypt. <sup>8</sup>He captured Agag, the Amalek king, alive; but he doomed all the people to complete destruction with the sword. <sup>9</sup>However, Saul and the people spared Agag; also the choicest sheep and cattle and the fattest lambs — everything of high value they did not doom to destruction; only the lesser quality cattle and the worthless they utterly destroyed.

<sup>10</sup>Then came the LORD's message to Samuel: <sup>11</sup>I am grieved ever to have made Saul king; for he has quit following Me and has not carried out My orders. Samuel was so deeply moved,<sup>f</sup> he cried to the LORD all night; <sup>12</sup>and early in the morning he went to meet Saul. It was told Samuel, "Saul came to Carmel where he erected for himself a monument; then he turned and left; he went down to Gilgal."

<sup>13</sup>Samuel came to Saul, and Saul said to him, "The LORD bless you. I have carried out the LORD's command."

b) A younger son was Ishbosheth, whom Abner made king after Saul and these three sons had fallen in battle. c) Much like the Prussian kings, especially "Old Fritz," with their seven-foot grenadiers. d) Little lambs — likely a pasture valley. Again Judah, including the Simeon tribe, mentioned separately.

e) Hobab, a Kenite, had helped Moses in his leadership from Sinai to Canaan. He was a brother-in-law of Moses (Num. 10:29).

f) Few disappointments hurt as deeply as a life which was once headed in the right direction but finally goes wrong.

<sup>14</sup>But Samuel said, "What then is this bleating of sheep and lowing of cattle that I hear?" <sup>15</sup>Saul replied, "They have brought them along from the Amalekites; the people have spared the best of sheep and cattle to bring an offering to the LORD your God,<sup>g</sup> but the rest we have destroyed."

<sup>16</sup>Samuel then said to Saul, "Wait, and I will relate to you what the LORD told me last night." He said to him, "Say it!" <sup>17</sup>Samuel went on, "When you were little in your own sight, did you not become a prince of Israel's tribes, and has not the LORD anointed you to be king over Israel? <sup>18</sup>The LORD sent you out under orders. He said: Go and destroy the evildoers, the Amalekites; fight them until you have exterminated them. <sup>19</sup>Why then, did you not listen to the LORD's voice, but flung yourself on the loot and did evil in the LORD's sight?"

<sup>20</sup>Saul answered Samuel, "I did listen to the LORD's voice and went the way the LORD sent me. I brought along Agag, the Amalekite king, and I have doomed the Amalekites to destruction; <sup>21</sup>but the people took of the choicest sheep and cattle, the best that was doomed, to bring sacrifices to the LORD your God<sup>g</sup> at Gilgal."

<sup>22</sup>Samuel then said, "Does the LORD delight as much in burnt offerings and in sacrifices as in obeying the LORD's voice? See! Obedience is better than sacrifice and to listen than the fat of rams.<sup>h</sup> <sup>23</sup>For rebellion is as the sin of fortunetelling and stubbornness as wickedness and idol worship. Because you have rejected the LORD's word, He has rejected you from being king."

<sup>24</sup>Saul replied to Samuel, "I have sinned; I have transgressed the LORD's command and your order because I was afraid of the people and listened to them. <sup>25</sup>Now then, pardon my sin; go back with me, and I will worship the LORD." <sup>26</sup>But Samuel told Saul, "I will not return with you; because you have rejected the LORD's word, therefore the LORD has rejected you from being king over Israel."

<sup>27</sup>As Samuel turned around to leave, Saul seized the border of his robe, which tore off. <sup>28</sup>So Samuel said to him, "Today the LORD has torn the kingship of Israel away from you and has given it to a neighbor of yours who is better than you, <sup>29</sup>and the Everlasting of Israel does not lie or repent; for He is not a man to change His mind." <sup>30</sup>"I have sinned," he said, "but please do me the honors before the elders of my people and before Israel; then will I worship the LORD your God." <sup>31</sup>So Samuel did return behind Saul, and Saul worshiped the LORD.

<sup>32</sup>Samuel said, "Present me here Agag, the Amalekite king. And cheerfully Agag approached him, remarking, "Surely, the bitterness of death is past." <sup>33</sup>"As your sword has made women childless," said Samuel, "so shall your mother be childless among the women." Then Samuel hewed Agag to pieces before the LORD in Gilgal. <sup>34</sup>Samuel then went to Ramah, and Saul went home to Gibeah of Saul. <sup>35</sup>Samuel did not see Saul again before he died; but he grieved over Saul. It was grief to God that he had appointed Saul king over Israel.<sup>i</sup>

16 THE LORD SAID TO SAMUEL: How long will you grieve over Saul since I have renounced him as king over Israel? Fill your horn with oil and go; I am sending you to Jesse, the Bethlehemite, for I have selected a king among his sons. <sup>2</sup>Samuel answered, "But how can I go? If Saul hears of it, he will kill me." The LORD said: Take with you a heifer and say, "I have come to sacrifice to the LORD." <sup>3</sup>Then invite Jesse to the sacrifice; I will suggest to you what next to do; you will anoint for Me whom I point out to you.

<sup>4</sup>Samuel did what the LORD had said. But when he came to Bethlehem,

g) Not "my God," for he knew he had grown disloyal to Jehovah.

h) Our LORD heard these words quoted to Him [Mark 12:33], by a scribe.

i) There are "ifs" with God in His dealings with man, because He made man in His likeness, with the possibility of going against Him: but God made no mistake. First the people and then Saul made the mistake.

the town's elders met him, trembling from fear, and asked, "Does your coming mean peace?" <sup>5</sup>He answered, "Peace! I have come to sacrifice to the LORD. Consecrate yourselves, so you may share this sacrifice with me." He also consecrated Jesse and his sons and invited them to the sacrifice. <sup>6</sup>As they came in, he looked at Eliab and thought, "Surely, the LORD's anointed is before Him." <sup>7</sup>But the LORD said to Samuel: Pay no attention to his looks or to his splendid height, for I have passed him by. It is not what man sees; for man looks on the outward appearance, but the LORD looks on the heart.<sup>1</sup>

<sup>8</sup>Jesse then called Abinadab and had him pass by Samuel; but he said, "Neither has the LORD chosen this one." <sup>9</sup>Jesse next had Shammah walk by him, but he said, "This one, too, the LORD has not chosen." <sup>10</sup>Eventually Jesse had seven of his sons walk before Samuel, but Samuel told Jesse, "The LORD has not chosen them."

<sup>11</sup>When Samuel asked Jesse, "Are these all your sons?" he replied, "There is still the youngest; you see, he is tending the sheep." Samuel said to Jesse, "Send and get him; for we shall not sit down until he is here."

<sup>12</sup>So he sent and got him. He had a ruddy complexion, sparkling eyes, and a handsome appearance. The LORD said: Stand up and anoint him, for this is he. <sup>13</sup>So Samuel took the horn of oil and anointed him among his brothers. The Spirit of the LORD took hold of David from then on. Samuel then got up and went to Ramah.

<sup>14</sup>But the LORD's Spirit departed from Saul, and an evil spirit from the LORD terrified him.<sup>k</sup> <sup>15</sup>Saul's servants then told Saul, "You know that an evil spirit from God is frightening you. <sup>16</sup>Tell your personal attendants to look for someone who is skillful in playing the harp; then when the evil spirit from God takes hold of you, he will play the instrument, and it shall be well with you."

<sup>17</sup>Saul said to his attendants, "Be on the lookout for a good musician, and bring him to me." <sup>18</sup>One of the attendants spoke up, "I saw a son of Jesse the Bethlehemite, who plays excellently; he is a good fighter, of sound judgment, well built, and the LORD is with him."<sup>1</sup> <sup>19</sup>Saul then sent messengers to Jesse with this request,<sup>m</sup> "Send me your son David, who is with the sheep." <sup>20</sup>Jesse loaded a donkey with ten loaves of bread, a skin of wine, and a kid, and sent them to Saul by his son David. <sup>21</sup>Thus David came to Saul and became his valet. Saul appreciated him greatly, and he became his armor-bearer. <sup>22</sup>Saul therefore sent word to Jesse, "Let David stay in my service; he has won my favor." <sup>23</sup>And whenever the evil spirit from God came on Saul, David would take his harp and play; it eased Saul; he felt better, and the evil spirit would leave him.<sup>n</sup>

17 THE PHILISTINES MUSTERED their forces for war and came together at Socoh, which belongs to Judah; they camped at Ephes-dammim between Socoh and Azekah. <sup>2</sup>Saul and Israel's troops mustered and camped in the Elah<sup>o</sup> valley and drew up in battle formation against the Philistines. <sup>3</sup>The Philistines occupied one mountainside and Israel the other, with the valley between them.

<sup>4</sup>A champion named Goliath, of Gath, came forward from the Philistine army, over nine feet tall, <sup>5</sup>wearing a bronze helmet and armed with a bronze coat of mail that weighed two hundred pounds, <sup>6</sup>bronze leggings on both legs, and carrying a bronze javelin on his shoulder. <sup>7</sup>His spear shaft was the size of a weaver's beam, and the head of his iron spear weighed twenty-five pounds. His armor-bearer went ahead of him.

<sup>8</sup>He stood and shouted to Israel's

j) God had provided David with royal possibilities, and he under adverse circumstances had applied them.

k) Evil spirits, disobedient as they are to God, remain subject to God, unable to molest without divine permission. Saul, by forsaking God, had opened the door for Satan and his demons.

l) Obviously no longer a boy, as so often pictured.

m) Which, coming from a king, was an order, as Samuel had foretold.

n) Read Robert Browning's "Saul" and, if at all possible, see Rembrandt's "David before Saul" at the Mauritius Art Gallery in The Hague. o) Oakdale, in our language.

battle lines, "Why draw up in battle formation? Am I not a Philistine and you Saul's slaves? Choose a man to represent you, and let him challenge me. <sup>9</sup>If he is able to fight and kill me, then we shall be your slaves; but if I beat and kill him, then you will be our slaves and serve us. <sup>10</sup>I defy the ranks of Israel today," so the Philistine went on, "to furnish me a man, so we can fight each other." <sup>11</sup>And as Saul and all Israel heard the Philistine's challenge, they were alarmed and in great fear.<sup>p</sup>

<sup>12</sup>Now David was the son of the Ephrathite of Bethlehem in Judah, whose name was Jesse and he had eight sons, and in Saul's time he was up in years. <sup>13</sup>His eldest sons had followed Saul to war; those three sons were Eliab the first-born, Abinadab next and Shammah third. <sup>14</sup>David was the youngest, and the three eldest were behind Saul. <sup>15</sup>David went back and forth from Saul to Bethlehem to tend his father's sheep.

<sup>16</sup>For forty days, morning and evening, the Philistine champion came forward and took his position. <sup>17</sup>Now Jesse told his son David, "Take your brothers a bushel of roasted grain and these ten loaves of bread, and take them quickly to your brothers at the camp; <sup>18</sup>also hand these ten cheeses to their colonel.<sup>q</sup> See how your brothers are faring, and bring back some reminder from them. <sup>19</sup>Saul, they, and all of Israel's troops are in Elah valley in conflict with the Philistines."

<sup>20</sup>Early in the morning David got up, left the sheep with a herdsman, packed as Jesse had instructed him, and was off. He reached the encampment as the army was moving up for military formation and the battle cry was sounded. <sup>21</sup>Israel and the Philistines were drawing up their battle lines, army against army. <sup>22</sup>David left his pack behind in care of the commissary and hurried toward the ranks. Once there, he asked his brothers about their welfare.

<sup>23</sup>While he was talking with them the champion Goliath, the Philistine of Gath, came out from the ranks of the Philistine troops and repeated the daily challenge, which David heard. <sup>24</sup>As the men of Israel saw him, they all ran from the man in terror. <sup>25</sup>They said, "Did you see this man who is coming this way? He comes forward to defy Israel. The king will richly reward the one who slays him; he will give him his daughter and exempt<sup>r</sup> his father's family in Israel."

<sup>26</sup>David asked the men who were standing near him, "What shall be done to the man who kills that Philistine and removes the shame from Israel? For who is this uncircumcised Philistine, to defy the armies of the living God?" <sup>27</sup>The people repeated to him the same statement, "Thus they will treat the man who kills him."

<sup>28</sup>When Eliab, his oldest brother, heard him conversing with the men, his anger grew hot against David<sup>s</sup> and he said, "Why really did you come here? With whom did you leave those few sheep in the desert? I am aware of your impudence and your ugly heart. You came to watch the fighting."

<sup>29</sup>David responded, "What have I done wrong by asking a question?" <sup>30</sup>He then turned from him to another, put the same question, and the people gave the same answer as those before.

<sup>31</sup>David's words were noted and were repeated to Saul, who sent for him. <sup>32</sup>David said to Saul, "Let no one lose courage on his account; your servant will go and fight with this Philistine." <sup>33</sup>Saul told David, "You will not be able to tackle this Philistine for combat, for you are still young, and he is a warrior from his youth up."

<sup>34</sup>David, however, answered Saul, "Your servant has been tending sheep for his father; and when a lion came or a bear to seize a sheep from the

p) Saul knew and Israel knew that the nearest match to put against Goliath was their tallest, strongest man, the king.

q) Teachers of history might well study these martial records of 3,000 years ago, near in time to Homer's facts and fancies. r) Exemption from such burdens as taxes and involuntary services which the common man must meet. It amounted to being raised to nobility.

s) It had not been easy for David's older brothers to see him chosen in preference to themselves; for Eliab, the oldest, this seemed especially humiliating.

flock, <sup>35</sup>I got after him, struck him, and rescued the sheep from his jaws. In case he turned on me, I caught him by his chin whiskers, wounded, and killed him.<sup>t</sup> <sup>36</sup>Your servant has slain the lion as well as the bear, and this uncircumcised Philistine will go their way, since he has defied the drawn up army of the living God." <sup>37</sup>Then David added, "The LORD, who rescued me from the paws of lion and bear, He will rescue me from the hand of this Philistine."<sup>u</sup>

Saul told David, "You go, and the LORD be with you." <sup>38</sup>Then Saul dressed David in his own suit; he put a bronze helmet on his head and armed him in a coat of mail. <sup>39</sup>Over the coat David girded on his sword, and thus he tried walking, for he had never tested them. David then told Saul, "I cannot freely move in these, for I have never tried them." So David got rid of them <sup>40</sup>and with staff in hand selected five smooth stones from the brook, put them in the bag he had with him, the shepherd's food bag, held the sling in his hand, and thus went out to meet the Philistine.<sup>v</sup>

<sup>41</sup>The Philistine moved toward David, gradually nearer, his armor-bearer ahead of him. <sup>42</sup>When the Philistine laid eyes on David, he took a good look at him and disdained him because he was young, ruddy, and handsome. <sup>43</sup>"Am I a dog," the Philistine said to David, "that you come at me with sticks?" And he cursed him by his gods. <sup>44</sup>The Philistine further said to David, "If you come at me, I will feed your body to the birds of the air and to the beasts of the field."

<sup>45</sup>David answered the Philistine, "You are meeting me with sword and spear and javelin, but I meet you in the name of the LORD of hosts, the God of the armies of Israel, whom you have defied. <sup>46</sup>Today the LORD will hand you over to me, and I will slay you and cut off your head. Today I will feed the corpses of the Philistine army to the birds of heaven and to the beasts of the field, so that the whole earth may know there is a God in Israel. <sup>47</sup>This whole gathering, too, shall know that the LORD does not save through sword and spear; for the battle is the LORD's, and He will hand you over to us."

<sup>48</sup>As the Philistine readied himself to attack and kept coming closer to meet David, David hurried and ran toward the line to meet the Philistine. <sup>49</sup>He put his hand in the bag, took out a stone, slung it, and hit the Philistine's forehead, so that the stone drilled into his forehead, and he fell face down to the ground. <sup>50</sup>Thus did David conquer the Philistine with sling and stone; he struck the Philistine and killed him without a sword in his hand. <sup>51</sup>But David ran, stood over the Philistine, drew his sword from its sheath and dispatched him, cutting off his head with it.<sup>w</sup> And when the Philistines saw that their champion was dead they took to flight.

<sup>52</sup>The troops of Israel and Judah sprang up with a war cry and chased the Philistines as far as Gath and to the gates of Ekron, with the wounded of the Philistines lying along the Shaaraim road all the way to Gath and Ekron. <sup>53</sup>The Israelites then turned from pursuing the Philistines and plundered their camp. <sup>54</sup>But David took the Philistine's head and brought it to Jerusalem,<sup>x</sup> and his armor he laid in his tent.

<sup>55</sup>When Saul watched David going out to fight against the Philistine, he said to Abner, the army commander, "Abner, whose son is this youth?"<sup>y</sup> Abner replied, "As you live, O king, I do not know." <sup>56</sup>The king said, "Find out whose son the young man is."

t) David seems to have followed Samson's example [Judges 14:6], tearing the animal's jaws apart.

u) It is well that David acknowledged God's help, which alone could see him through against Goliath. v) David knew how to sling a smooth stone; he did not yet know how to fight in armor. We, too, may be capable along certain lines and utterly useless for other activities.

w) Probably the smooth gravelstone, piercing Goliath's skull, knocked him unconscious; but David dispatched him before the giant came to.

x) David could deposit it in Jerusalem, held by Benjamin, except the Zion which was held by the Jebusites. y) David as his musician and armor-bearer had interested Saul, but as his prospective son-in-law the king grew anxious to know more about his family — how well a scion of it might fit into the court life.

<sup>57</sup>So when David came back from slaying the Philistine, Abner engaged David and took him to Saul with the Philistine's head in his hand. <sup>58</sup>Saul asked him, "Young man, whose son are you?" To this David replied, "I am a son of Jesse of Bethlehem."

18 BY THE TIME DAVID WAS through talking with Saul, Jonathan's soul was in unison with David's soul; Jonathan loved him as himself. <sup>2</sup>On that same day Saul retained him and did not let him return to his father's home. <sup>3</sup>Because he loved him, Jonathan made a covenant with David; <sup>4</sup>he stripped himself of the robe he had on and gave it to David; also his armor with sword, bow, and belt. <sup>5</sup>David went out wherever Saul sent him and enjoyed success, so that Saul put him in charge of troops; he was in favor with the people and with Saul's servants.

<sup>6</sup>Something happened, however, on their return trip from David's slaying of the Philistine. The women came out from all the Israelite towns to meet King Saul, singing and dancing to tambourines, and making joy with cymbals. <sup>7</sup>As they danced, the women sang responsively, "Saul has slain his thousands and David his ten thousands."<sup>a</sup> <sup>8</sup>This made Saul very angry. The refrain disgusted him; he said to himself, "They ascribe to David ten thousands and to me only thousands; what more for him but the kingdom!" <sup>9</sup>From that day on Saul kept an envious eye on David.

<sup>10</sup>Next day an evil spirit from God took hold of Saul so that he raved inside his house, while David as usual played the harp. In his hand Saul had a spear <sup>11</sup>which he threw, intending to pin David to the wall; but twice David escaped from his presence. <sup>12</sup>Saul was afraid of David because the LORD was with him and had departed from Saul. <sup>13</sup>Saul therefore removed him from his presence and made him colonel of a regiment; so that his going in and out became public, <sup>14</sup>and he behaved wisely in all his enterprises. The LORD was with him.

<sup>15</sup>When Saul noticed how capable he was, he dreaded him, <sup>16</sup>while all Israel and Judah prized David highly because as a leader he went in and out before them. <sup>17</sup>Saul said to David, "Here is Merab, my older daughter, whom I will give you for a wife;<sup>b</sup> only, serve me bravely and fight the LORD's battles." For Saul thought, "Let not my hand, but the Philistines', be against him." <sup>18</sup>But David said to Saul, "Who am I and what is my family in Israel that I should be the king's son-in-law?" <sup>19</sup>Yet, when the time arrived for Merab, Saul's daughter, to be given to David, she married Adriel the Meholahite.

<sup>20</sup>But Saul's daughter Michal fell in love with David and when Saul was told of it, he was pleased; <sup>21</sup>for he thought, "I will give her to him and let her be his undoing; let the Philistines put him down." But to David he said, "You can now be my son-in-law with the second one." <sup>22</sup>At the same time Saul instructed his attendants, "Have a private chat with David and tell him, 'The king favors you and all his attendants love you; why not be the king's son-in-law?'" <sup>23</sup>Saul's attendants conveyed Saul's suggestions to David, but he said, "Do you consider it trifling to become the king's son-in-law, poor and insignificant as I am?"

<sup>24</sup>Saul's attendants reported to him what David had said, <sup>25</sup>to which Saul replied, "You tell David, 'The king wants no dowry except a hundred foreskins of the Philistines, to take vengeance on the king's enemies.'" Saul intended to have David fall by the hand of the Philistines. <sup>26</sup>His attendants repeated the statement to David, who then agreed to become the king's son-in-law. Before the fixed time <sup>27</sup>David got up and went out with his men, slew two hundred Philistines,<sup>c</sup>

<sup>z</sup>) He furnished the promising recruit with the choicest military equipment.

<sup>a</sup>) The singers displayed more zeal than judgment; it required a better man than Saul to take that without retaliating. <sup>b</sup>) Saul had promised her to Goliath's slayer, whoever he might be.

<sup>c</sup>) This was multiplied murder, definitely contrary to divine law, unless it was part of the Hebrew war of liberation from the Philistines.

brought back their foreskins, and presented the whole number to the king, so as to become his son-in-law; upon which Saul gave him his daughter Michal to be his wife.<sup>d</sup>

<sup>28</sup>When Saul fully realized that the LORD was with David and that Michal, Saul's daughter loved him, <sup>29</sup>Saul feared David more than ever, and he remained David's enemy for life. <sup>30</sup>But each time the Philistines went on the warpath and made sallies, David achieved more success than all Saul's captains, so that his name grew famous.

19 SAUL SUGGESTED TO HIS SON Jonathan and to all his attendants to bring about David's death. But Saul's son Jonathan prized David highly, <sup>2</sup>so he warned David, "Saul, my father, is intending your death; be on guard tomorrow morning; go in hiding in some secret spot. <sup>3</sup>I will go out in the field where you are, stand beside my father, talk about you, and let you know how matters stand." <sup>4</sup>Jonathan then spoke well of David to his father. He said, "Let not the king wrong his servant David, for he has not wronged you; on the contrary, he has behaved admirably toward you. <sup>5</sup>He risked his life to slay the Philistine, and the LORD worked out a great deliverance for Israel, which you were glad to see. Why then be guilty of innocent blood by killing David without due cause?"

<sup>6</sup>Saul listened to what Jonathan said and made oath, "As the LORD lives, he shall not be put to death."<sup>e</sup> <sup>7</sup>Then Jonathan called to David and repeated to him the whole conversation; he took David back to Saul, and David served him as before. <sup>8</sup>When war broke out afresh, David went out and fought the Philistines, defeating them with such heavy losses that they fled before him.<sup>f</sup> <sup>9</sup>Then an evil spirit from the LORD came upon Saul while he sat in his house with a spear in his hand. As David was playing the strings with his hand, <sup>10</sup>Saul tried to pin him to the wall; but David dodged away from Saul so that he hit the wall with the spear, and that night David escaped.

<sup>11</sup>Saul sent messengers to David's house to guard it and to kill him in the morning; but Michal, his wife, informed him, "Unless you save your life tonight, you will be killed tomorrow." <sup>12</sup>So Michal lowered David from the window; then he fled away and escaped. <sup>13</sup>Michal took an image,<sup>g</sup> laid it on the bed, adjusted a goats' hair pillow at the head and covered it with a garment. <sup>14</sup>Saul sent messengers to take David, but she said, "He is sick." <sup>15</sup>Saul sent the messengers back to call on David, with orders, "Bring him to me on his bed, so I may dispatch him." <sup>16</sup>But when the messengers went in, there in bed was the image, with the goats' hair pillow at the head. <sup>17</sup>Saul said to Michal, "Why did you deceive me so and let my enemy go, so that he has escaped?" Michal replied to Saul, "He threatened me, 'Let me go! Why should I kill you?'"<sup>h</sup>

<sup>18</sup>After David had escaped by flight, he called on Samuel at Ramah and told him everything; then he left there with Samuel, and they settled at Naioth. <sup>19</sup>Saul, upon getting a message, "Take note! David lives at Naioth in Ramah," <sup>20</sup>sent police to arrest David; but when they saw a group of prophets, moved by the Spirit and led by Samuel, the Spirit of God came upon Saul's officers until they prophesied.<sup>i</sup> <sup>21</sup>Hearing of it, Saul sent a second detachment; but they, too, became inspired. Once more Saul sent officers and they prophesied. <sup>22</sup>Then he himself went to Ramah and, arriving at the great well of Sechu, he inquired, "Where are Samuel and David?" They said, "At Naioth near Ramah." <sup>23</sup>So he took the road to Naioth by Ramah, and of him also the Spirit of God took hold. He prophesied as he went until he reached Naioth by Ramah; <sup>24</sup>he stripped off his

d) David had no right to marry more than this one wife while she lived, and his later lawbreaking brought him much trouble, personally and as a family man.

e) Saul meant what he said when he was at his best, but failed to hold to his noblest impulses.

f) Jealousy and envy were Saul's worst traits; he could not endure David's successes.

g) A man-sized image with a manlike face, the image suggests an idol. h) Which was certainly untrue. i) Once more music and inspiring singing proved catching and helped hearts to turn to God and to yield to His holy influences.

clothes too and kept prophesying in Samuel's presence, like the rest.<sup>j</sup> All day and all that night he lay there stripped. For this reason they say, "Is Saul also among the prophets?"

20 DAVID THEN HURRIED AWAY from Naioth by Ramah, came to Jonathan and said, "What have I done? What is my misdemeanor? How have I wronged your father, that he is out for my life?"<sup>2</sup> He answered him, "Not at all; you shall not die. You see, my father does nothing great or small without confiding it to me; why should he hide this affair from me? It is not so!"<sup>3</sup> David, however, asserted with an oath, "Your father knows perfectly well that you favor me; so he says, 'Jonathan had better not know this; it would distress him'; but as the LORD lives and you live, there is but one step between me and death."<sup>k</sup>

<sup>4</sup>Jonathan asked David, "What do you want? I will do it for you."<sup>5</sup> To which David replied, "See here! It's new moon tomorrow, and I should not fail to sit at the king's table. If you will excuse me, I will remain hidden in the field till the day after at evening.<sup>6</sup> In case your father misses me, tell him, 'David urged me strongly for leave to go at once to his Bethlehem town because there the whole family observes its annual sacrifice.'<sup>7</sup> If he says, 'Very well,' then your servant is safe; but if he grows very angry, then be sure he has definitely decided on evil.<sup>8</sup> Now then, treat your servant kindly, for you have entered into a covenant of the LORD with your servant; but if there is guilt on my part, you yourself dispatch me. Why hand me over to your father?"

<sup>9</sup>Jonathan replied, "By no means. If I knew for certain that my father had definitely decided to treat you evilly, would I not let you know?"<sup>10</sup> Upon which David asked Jonathan, "Who will inform me in case your father answers you roughly?"<sup>11</sup> Jonathan responded, "Come on, let us go out in the field." And they went out together into the field.<sup>12</sup> Then Jonathan told David, "The LORD God of Israel be witness! I shall sound my father about this time tomorrow or the third day, and if the situation looks promising and he feels cordial toward you, shall I not send word to inform you?"<sup>13</sup> So may the LORD repay Jonathan and worse, if my father has set his mind to harm you, if I do not let you know so that you can leave in peace; and may the LORD be with you as He has been with my father."<sup>14</sup> Not merely during my life will you show me the LORD's graciousness, but also if I die.<sup>15</sup> Never withdraw your kindness from my family, not even when the LORD wipes every one of David's adversaries from the face of the earth."

<sup>16</sup>Jonathan made this covenant with the house of David: The LORD shall require it from David's adversaries.<sup>17</sup> Jonathan also took oath afresh from David, because of his love for him, for he loved him as himself.<sup>18</sup> Jonathan then told him, "New moon tomorrow; you will be missed, for your place will remain vacant;<sup>19</sup> but on the third day be sure to come down and return to the spot where you hid on that eventful day; sit down by the stone pile.<sup>20</sup> I will shoot three arrows alongside it as if aiming at a mark.<sup>21</sup> Then I will charge the lad, 'Go and find the arrows.' If I say expressly to the lad, 'Look! The arrows are this way; get them,' then come, for all is safe for you; as the LORD lives, there is no trouble.<sup>22</sup> But if I say to the youth, 'Look! The arrows are beyond you,' then be on your way, for the LORD is letting you go.<sup>23</sup> And as to our mutual pledge, mind you, the LORD is our Mediator forever."

<sup>24</sup>David did hide in the field. At the new moon the king sat at the table to eat food.<sup>25</sup> He sat at the king's ac-

j) Stripped probably means minus his robe but still in his tunic. Thus he enjoyed the leadership of Samuel, but did not personally converse with him.

k) The Psalms of David are rich in relating life to a wise and gracious God, who is also righteous, because his life was so rich in experience. l) A made-up story to test Saul.

m) Jonathan had accepted the anointing of David.

customed place near the wall, with Jonathan standing and Abner sitting beside the king; but David's place was vacant. <sup>26</sup>That day Saul never said a word, for he thought, "Something happened to him; he is not purified; no, he is not purified." <sup>27</sup>But when on the day after the new moon David's place was still vacant, Saul asked his son Jonathan, "Why has not the son of Jesse come to dinner either yesterday or today?" <sup>28</sup>Jonathan replied, "David begged of me for leave to go to Bethlehem. <sup>29</sup>He said, 'Please let me go, for our family is observing a sacrifice in town and my brother charged me to be there; be so kind as to let me go and visit my brothers.' This is the reason he did not come to the royal table."

<sup>30</sup>Then Saul's anger burned hotly against Jonathan. He said to him, "You son of a rebellious, undisciplined woman,<sup>a</sup> do I not know that you made choice of Jesse's son to your own dishonor and to the shame of your mother's exposure? <sup>31</sup>It is certain that so long as the son of Jesse walks the earth, neither you nor your kingship will be secure. You therefore send for him and have him brought to me, for he is doomed to die." <sup>32</sup>Jonathan answered Saul his father, "Why should he be put to death? What has he done?" <sup>33</sup>Then Saul threw his spear at him to kill him. From this Jonathan knew that his father had fully determined to kill David. <sup>34</sup>In hot anger, therefore, Jonathan left the table and ate nothing the second day of the new moon; for he grieved on account of his father's shameful behavior toward David.

<sup>35</sup>Next morning Jonathan went into the field at the time prearranged with David, and a small boy came along. <sup>36</sup>He told the boy, "Run; find the arrows I shoot," and as the lad began to run, he shot an arrow over him. <sup>37</sup>When the boy reached the spot where Jonathan had shot the arrow, Jonathan called after him, "Is not the arrow beyond you?" <sup>38</sup>He then shouted after the lad, "Be quick! Hurry! Don't delay!" So Jonathan's boy picked up the arrows and came to his master, <sup>39</sup>without sensing what it was all about; only Jonathan and David knew. <sup>40</sup>Jonathan handed his equipment to his boy and told him, "Go and take them to town."

<sup>41</sup>As soon as the lad was gone, David came from beside the stone pile and threw himself prone on the ground before Jonathan, bowing down three times.<sup>o</sup> They kissed each other and wept together until David got control of himself. <sup>42</sup>Then Jonathan said to David, "Go in peace! Since we have sworn to each other in the LORD's name, the LORD will be Mediator between me and you; also between my descendants and yours forever." David then arose and left, while Jonathan entered the town.

21 DAVID WENT TO NOB TO Ahimelech the priest. Frightened,<sup>p</sup> Ahimelech met David and asked him, "Why are you alone and nobody with you?" <sup>2</sup>David told Ahimelech the priest, "The king has commissioned me with a task about which he said, 'Nobody must know about the affair on which I am sending you and which I have committed to you. I have sent the young men to a definite meeting place.' <sup>3</sup>Now then, what have you on hand? Let me have five loaves, or as much as you have."

<sup>4</sup>The priest answered David, "I have no ordinary bread on hand, but there is consecrated bread, if only the young men have kept away from women." <sup>5</sup>David told the priest, "Rest assured, women have been kept from us as usual when I am on the march; the young men's kits have been consecrated. Although this is a secular mission, the kits will render it set apart." <sup>6</sup>The priest then gave him the consecrated bread; for there was only the

<sup>a</sup>approval. It is also possible and had tried to persuade

<sup>o</sup>whole community.

<sup>p</sup>proved to Ahimelech, and to the showbread, which was regularly removed from the LORD's presence so as to be replaced by fresh bread on the same day.<sup>4</sup>

<sup>7</sup>That same day one of Saul's servants was there, detained before the LORD. His name was Doeg, an Edomite, chief of Saul's herdsmen.

<sup>8</sup>David asked Ahimelech, "Do you not have a spear or sword available? For I had no chance to take along my sword or any other weapon because the king's business required haste." <sup>9</sup>The priest said, "The sword of Goliath the Philistine is here, whom you slew in the Elah valley; it lies wrapped behind the ephod. If you care to take it, go ahead; there is nothing else here." David said, "There's nothing like it; let me have it."

<sup>10</sup>That day David, in fear of Saul, took flight and went to Achish the king of Gath. <sup>11</sup>But the attendants of Achish told him, "Is not this David the king of the land? Did they not in dance measures sing the responses, 'Saul has killed his thousands and David his ten thousands?'" <sup>12</sup>David took these remarks to heart and grew dreadfully afraid of Achish the king of Gath, <sup>13</sup>so that he pretended in their presence to be demented, needing control like a madman. He scribbled on the gate doors and let his saliva run down his beard.<sup>r</sup> <sup>14</sup>Achish told his attendants, "Take a look at the man, how demented he is! Why do you bring him to me?" <sup>15</sup>Am I short of madmen, that you brought me this one to rave around me? Should such a fellow be my guest?"

22 DAVID GOT AWAY FROM THERE and escaped to the cave of Adullam, and when his brothers and all his father's family heard of it, they joined him there. <sup>2</sup>Besides, there gathered around him all those in difficulties, those in debt, those with grievances; and he became their leader.<sup>s</sup> About four hundred men joined him.

<sup>3</sup>From there David went to Mizpeh in Moab and said to the Moabite king, "Please allow my father and mother to come and live among you until I know what God will do for me."<sup>t</sup> <sup>4</sup>He then brought them under the care of Moab's king with whom they stayed during the entire period of David's remaining in the stronghold.<sup>u</sup> <sup>5</sup>However, the prophet Gad told David, "Do not remain in Mizpeh; move out to the Judah country." So David moved to the Hereth woods.

<sup>6</sup>Saul heard of it, for David and his band had been detected. Saul was sitting, spear in hand, under the Gibeah oak tree on the high place, with all his attendants standing around him; <sup>7</sup>and Saul said to them, "Listen, you Benjamites!<sup>v</sup> Do you imagine that the son of Jesse will give every one of you fields and vineyards? Will he appoint all of you chiefs of thousands and of hundreds, <sup>8</sup>so that all of you have conspired against me and none informed me when my son made a covenant with Jesse's son? Nobody has enough sympathy with me to let me know how my son has incited my servant against me to lie in ambush, as is the case today."

<sup>9</sup>Doeg the Edomite, who stood with Saul's attendants, answered, "I saw Jesse's son come to Nob to Ahimelech the son of Ahitub, <sup>10</sup>who consulted the LORD for him and supplied him with provisions, even gave him the sword of Goliath the Philistine." <sup>11</sup>Upon this the king sent Ahimelech son of Ahitub a summons, including his whole family and the priests at Nob, all of whom came to the king. <sup>12</sup>Saul said, "Attention, you son of Ahitub!" He replied, "Present, your majesty!" <sup>13</sup>Then Saul asked him, "Why have you conspired with Jesse's son against me by giving him food and a sword and by consult-

q) This showbread, or "bread of the Presence," twelve loaves placed on the table in the holy place, was changed each Sabbath to be eaten by the priests in the holy place [Ex. 25:30; Lev. 24:5-9]. r) David's faith could hardly be at lower ebb.

s) Most of David's heroes came from these misfits, awakened by a true leader.

t) As descendants of Ruth the Moabitess, they were cordially received.

u) Stronghold and Mizpeh can be identical. v) Saul had greatly favored his own tribe in distributing desirable offices: the party-spoils policy is not of recent origin.

ing God for him, so that he has rebelled against me and is now waylaying me?"<sup>w</sup> <sup>14</sup>Ahimelech answered the king, "And who among all your servants is as loyal as David, the king's son-in-law, captain of your bodyguard and honored in your house?" <sup>15</sup>Was this the first time I consulted God for him? Not at all. Let not the king accuse his servant and my whole family of anything; for your servant knew nothing whatever of all this, not the least."

<sup>16</sup>But the king said, "Ahimelech, you must certainly die, you and your whole family." <sup>17</sup>The king then ordered the guards who stood by him, "About face! Execute the LORD's priests because they too side with David, and although they knew he was a fugitive, they never informed me." But the king's men would not lift their hands to dispatch the priests of the LORD. <sup>18</sup>The king then ordered Doeg, "About face! Dispatch the priests!" Doeg the Edomite turned around and dispatched the priests; he slew eighty-five men who wore the linen ephod.<sup>x</sup> <sup>19</sup>He also put Nob, the town of the priests, to the sword, massacring men, women, children, and babes on the breast; cattle, donkeys, and sheep.

<sup>20</sup>Abiathar, one of Ahimelech's sons, grandson of Ahitub, escaped and fled to David. <sup>21</sup>When Abiathar related to David how Saul had slain the LORD's priests, <sup>22</sup>David said to Abiathar, "I knew very well that day, since Doeg the Edomite was there that he would unquestionably report it to Saul. I am the occasion of death for your entire family. <sup>23</sup>You stay with me; have no fear, for whoever is after your life is after mine. With me you are perfectly safe."

23 THEY TOLD DAVID, "TAKE note! The Philistines are fighting against Keilah and are robbing their threshing floors."<sup>y</sup> <sup>2</sup>So David asked the LORD, "Shall I march and defeat these Philistines?" The LORD answered David: March out, defeat the Philistines, and save Keilah. <sup>3</sup>But David's men argued, "See here! We live in fear here in Judah; how much worse, then, if we move to Keilah and face the Philistines." <sup>4</sup>David, therefore, inquired of the LORD once more and the LORD answered: March out; move down to Keilah, for I will put the Philistines in your power. <sup>5</sup>Then David and his men marched to Keilah and fought the Philistines; they brought away their cattle and inflicted heavy losses on them. In this way David delivered the dwellers of Keilah.

<sup>6</sup>When Abiathar the son of Ahimelech fled to David at Keilah, he brought the ephod with him. <sup>7</sup>And when it was told Saul that David had moved inside Keilah, he said, "God has handed him over to me, for he has shut himself in by entering a town with gates and bars." <sup>8</sup>So Saul summoned all the people for war, to march on Keilah and to besiege David and his men.

<sup>9</sup>David found out that Saul was planning evil against him and ordered Abiathar the priest, "Bring the ephod here." <sup>10</sup>David then prayed, "LORD God of Israel, Thy servant has heard with certainty that Saul plans to march to Keilah to destroy the town on my account. <sup>11</sup>Will the men of Keilah surrender me to him? Will Saul come down, as Thy servant has heard? LORD God of Israel, I plead with Thee, let Thy servant know." The LORD said: He will come down. <sup>12</sup>David then asked, "Will the men of Keilah hand me and my men over to Saul?" The LORD said: They will hand you over.<sup>z</sup> <sup>13</sup>David and his men, about six hundred, then left Keilah and roamed wherever they could go. And when Saul was told that David had escaped

w) David never rose against Saul; he fled from him for his own life.

x) Ephod means "covering" and here applies to the linen garment each priest wore when in service. The high priest's ephod was more like a vest on which precious stones, inlaid in a square of cloth, were worn and which could be used for consulting with the LORD.

y) They looted the harvest and the granaries. z) From a human standpoint they acted prudently; for a siege by the Hebrews would likely be worse than that of the Philistines from whom they had been delivered by David. And God would have allowed Saul to enter the city. Here is another of God's "ifs." David remained free only by leaving there.

from Keilah, he abandoned the trip.<sup>a</sup>

<sup>14</sup>David stayed in desert strongholds and remained in the mountainous parts of the Ziph desert. Day in and day out Saul kept hunting for him, but God did not hand him over into his power. <sup>15</sup>David learned how Saul was on the march to take his life; David was then in the Ziph<sup>b</sup> desert at Horesh.

<sup>16</sup>Jonathan, Saul's son, went to David in the woods and strengthened his trust in God. <sup>17</sup>He told him, "Have no fear, for the hand of Saul my father will not reach you. You will be Israel's king, and I will be next to you. My father Saul knows this too well." <sup>18</sup>The two then made a covenant in the LORD's presence. David remained in the Horesh woods, and Jonathan went back home.

<sup>19</sup>However, some Ziphites went to Saul at Gibcah and told him, "Is not David hiding among us in the Horesh mountain strongholds on the Hachilah hill in the south part of the desert?" <sup>20</sup>Now, if you care to come down, O king, we will undertake to hand him over to your majesty." <sup>21</sup>Saul replied, "The LORD bless you for having sympathy with me. <sup>22</sup>You go ahead and find out for sure where his haunt is located and who has seen him there; for I am told he behaves very shrewdly. <sup>23</sup>Try to find all his hiding places; then come back to me with trustworthy information, and I will go with you. If he is anywhere in the land, I will trace him among all the thousands of Judah." <sup>c</sup> <sup>24</sup>So they started for Ziph ahead of Saul; while David and his men were in the Maon plain in the southern part of the desert.

<sup>25</sup>When Saul and his men went hunting David, he learned of it, so he moved down to the rock in the Maon plain and stayed there. Saul heard of it and followed David in the Maon plain, <sup>26</sup>Saul moving on one side of the ridge and David with his men on the other side. David did his level best to get away from Saul, but Saul and his men were at the point of encircling and capturing David and his men, <sup>27</sup>when a messenger brought Saul the news, "Hurry back, for the Philistines have invaded the country." <sup>28</sup>Saul then gave up pursuing David and marched against the Philistines. That place therefore is named Escape Rock.<sup>d</sup> <sup>29</sup>David moved out from there and housed in the Engedi strongholds.

24 WHEN SAUL HAD RETURNED from pursuing the Philistines, he was told, "Observe! David is in the Engedi desert." <sup>2</sup>Saul then mustered three thousand choice men from all Israel and went in search of David at the Wild-Goats' Rocks. <sup>3</sup>On the way he came to the sheepfolds, where Saul entered a cave to cover his feet,<sup>e</sup> but David and his men were sitting in the cave's recesses. <sup>4</sup>David's men remarked to him, "This is the day in which the LORD said to you, 'Now I put your enemy in your power; do to him what you wish.'"

Unobserved, David got up and cut off the tail end of Saul's robe, <sup>5</sup>after which his heart smote him for having cut off a piece of Saul's robe. <sup>6</sup>He said to his men, "May the LORD keep me from doing such a thing to my master, the anointed of the LORD, to raise my hand against him who is the LORD's anointed." <sup>7</sup>And with these words David restrained his men; he would not let them rise against Saul.

Meanwhile Saul had arisen and had left the cave and gone on his way. <sup>8</sup>David then moved out of the cave and called after Saul, "Your majesty the king!" Saul looked around, and David bowed deeply, his face touching the ground. <sup>9</sup>David said to Saul, "Why do you listen to people's words,<sup>f</sup> who say 'David schemes evil against you?'" <sup>10</sup>Just look! This very day your eyes see how in the cave the LORD put you in my power. They talked about kill-

a) Not all pursuit, but that particular trip. b) There is today a Zif four miles s.e. of Hebron, very hilly and thickly wooded. Horesh means dense wood or thickets.

c) An expression used again by Micah in his Messianic prophecy [ch. 5:2].

d) Selaham-Mahlekoth. e) Answer the call of nature. f) It has always been difficult for a king to get at the truth, because no one is supposed to point out his mistakes; presumably he makes none.

ing you, but I spared you. I said, 'I will not lift my hand against my master for he is the LORD's anointed.' <sup>11</sup>Take a look, my father, and see your coat-tail in my hand. I cut off the tail end of your robe without killing you; so you know that I have no evil or rebellion in mind; that I have done nothing against you, while you intend to take my life. <sup>12</sup>May the LORD judge between me and you, and may the LORD grant justice regarding you; but my hand shall not be against you. <sup>13</sup>As the old-time proverb has it, 'From the wicked comes forth wickedness,' but my hand shall not be against you. <sup>14</sup>After whom, really, is the king of Israel? Whom are you pursuing? A dead dog? A lone flea? <sup>15</sup>May the LORD, therefore, be judge and decide between me and you; may He take notice, be my Advocate, do me justice, and rightfully acquit me from your hand."

<sup>16</sup>When David had finished speaking to Saul, Saul asked, "Is this your voice, my son David?" Saul then raised his voice and wept. <sup>17</sup>He told David, "You are fairer than I am; for you treated me well, and I have treated you meanly. <sup>18</sup>Today you have shown your benevolent spirit toward me, not killing me when the LORD committed me into your hand. <sup>19</sup>When one surprises his enemy, will he let him go unharmed? May the LORD be good to you for your dealings with me today. <sup>20</sup>Now then, I know for certain that you will be king and that the kingship over Israel will be enduring under your direction. <sup>21</sup>So, make oath to me by the LORD that you will not destroy my descendants nor wipe out my name from my father's family." <sup>22</sup>David swore this to Saul, and Saul went home; but David and his men went up to the stronghold.

25 SAMUEL DIED, AND ALL ISRAEL gathered to lament over him. They buried him at his Ramah home; but David got out and moved to the Paran desert.

<sup>2</sup>There lived a man at Maon whose business was at Carmel,<sup>5</sup> a very rich man, who owned three thousand sheep and one thousand goats. He was at Carmel attending to the sheepshearing. <sup>3</sup>The man's name was Nabal and his wife's name Abigail. The woman was intelligent and good-looking, but the man's behavior was rough and uncouth. He was a Calebite.<sup>4</sup>

<sup>4</sup>When David in the desert heard that Nabal was shearing his sheep, <sup>5</sup>he sent ten young men, whom David commissioned, "Go to Carmel and call on Nabal. Inquire in my name after his welfare, <sup>6</sup>and tell him, 'Greeting! Peace to you! Peace to your home! Peace to all you possess! <sup>7</sup>I hear that you are having shearers. Now, your shepherds were with us and we never molested them, neither have they missed anything all the time they were at Carmel. <sup>8</sup>Ask your men, and they will confirm it. Will you therefore favor these young men, as we have come on a feast day? Give your servants and your servant David anything you have on hand.'"

<sup>9</sup>When David's young men arrived, they repeated to Nabal in David's name this entire message, and waited. <sup>10</sup>But Nabal inveighed against David's servants, "Who is David, and who is Jesse's son? There are many servants nowadays running away from their master. <sup>11</sup>Shall I then take my food, my wine and the meat I have butchered for my own shearers, and give it to persons from I do not know where?"

<sup>12</sup>David's men faced about, went back, and told him everything that had occurred; <sup>13</sup>upon which David ordered his troop: "Every man gird on his sword!" So they all girded on their sword, David himself included; then about four hundred men marched behind David while two hundred remained with the supplies. <sup>14</sup>But one of the young men had told Abigail, Nabal's wife, "You should know that David sent messengers from the desert to greet our master, but he scoffed at them. <sup>15</sup>Yet those men were most kind to us; they did not molest us, and we

g) This was not the Carmel ridge noted for Elijah's daring faith; but a village in Judah about seven miles s.e. of Hebron. Its ruins are still called Kurmul.

h) A descendant of Caleb, the companion of Joshua.

never missed a thing all the time we were in the fields and had contact with them. <sup>16</sup>They formed a wall around us night and day as long as we pastured the sheep in their neighborhood.<sup>1</sup>

<sup>17</sup>Now then, consider well what you are to do, because disaster has been decided on for our master and for his entire household; and he is such a son of Belial that nobody can talk to him."

<sup>18</sup>Abigail then hurriedly took 200 loaves of bread, two skins of wine, five roasted sheep, two bushels of roasted grain, 100 raisin cakes and 200 fig-cakes, packed them on donkeys, <sup>19</sup>and ordered her servants, "You move on ahead of me; I will follow." But she did not inform Nabal, her husband.

<sup>20</sup>Seated on her donkey she was coming down a mountain pass when David and his men came down, too, meeting her; so she faced them. <sup>21</sup>Now David had said, "So, our protecting this fellow's belongings in the desert so that he missed nothing, proved all useless; he is returning evil for good. <sup>22</sup>May God do so to David's enemies and worse if, of all he has, I leave a single male alive by morning." <sup>23</sup>But when Abigail saw David, she quickly dismounted from her donkey, fell on her face before David, bowed to the ground, <sup>24</sup>fell at his feet, and said, "On me, sir, falls the blame! Allow your maid, please, to address you, and listen to your servant girl's words. <sup>25</sup>Let my master pay no attention, I beg of you, to this worthless man Nabal,<sup>1</sup> for as his name, so is the man. He is named Nabal; he is a fool. But I, your maid, did not see the men my master sent. <sup>26</sup>So then, sir, as the LORD lives and as you live, when the LORD has restrained you from bloodshed and from taking the law in your own hands, may your enemies and all who plan against my master fare like Nabal.

<sup>27</sup>"This present which your hand-maid brings her master, may it be given the young men who are enlisted with my master. <sup>28</sup>Please, pardon your maid's conduct,* for the LORD shall certainly set up for my master a lasting dynasty, because my master is fighting the LORD's battles, and no evil is found in you all your life. <sup>29</sup>Should anyone undertake to persecute you and to seek your life, then my master's soul will be wrapped in the bundle of life with the LORD your God; but the soul of your enemy He shall fling out as from the hollow of a sling. <sup>30</sup>And when the LORD has fulfilled all His good promises to my master and has appointed you prince over Israel, <sup>31</sup>then your heart will suffer from no self-accusation for my master's shedding blood without cause and for taking the law in his own hand. And when the LORD has prospered my master, then remember your servant girl."

<sup>32</sup>David responded to Abigail, "Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, <sup>33</sup>who sent you today to meet me. Blessed be your good judgment, and blessed be you for restraining me today from the guilt of bloodshed and from taking the law in my own hands. <sup>34</sup>For as surely as the LORD God of Israel lives, who kept me from hurting you, if you had not hurriedly met me, not a male around Nabal would have been left alive by break of day." <sup>35</sup>David then accepted from her what she had brought and told her, "Go back home in peace. Observe! I have listened to your voice, and personally I like you."

<sup>36</sup>But when Abigail reached Nabal, he was banqueting in his house like a king. Nabal was in a happy mood and very drunk; so she did not tell him any particulars until morning. <sup>37</sup>Next morning, however, when Nabal's spree was over, his wife told him everything, and his heart gave out within him; he became like stone. <sup>38</sup>In about ten days the LORD brought on a stroke, and he died.

<sup>39</sup>When David learned that Nabal was dead, he said, "Blessed be the LORD, who has executed justice for

i) Men who form a band and live in caves need nourishment, which must be earned, asked, or plundered.

j) Nabal means foolish, or wicked.

k) Coming forward without her husband and speaking against him was hardly accepted etiquette, and she was a woman of uncommon ability and judgment.

Nabal's insult to me and who has kept His servant from wrongdoing. The LORD has caused Nabal's wickedness to come down on his own head." Then David sent messengers to converse with Abigail about taking her to be his wife. <sup>40</sup>As David's servants came to Abigail at Carmel, they informed her, "David has sent us to you in order to take you for his wife." <sup>41</sup>She stood up, bowed her face toward the earth, and said, "Yes, your maid will be a servant girl to wash the feet of my master's servants." <sup>42</sup>Then Abigail quickly arose, mounted a donkey and, accompanied by five maids, was on her way. She followed David's messengers and became his wife.

<sup>43</sup>David had also taken Ahinoam of Jezreel; so both became his wives.<sup>m</sup>

<sup>44</sup>But Saul had given his daughter Michal, David's wife, to Palti the son of Laish, of Gallim.

26 THE ZIPHITES WENT TO SAUL at Gibeah and said to him, "Do you know that David is hiding in the Hachilah hill facing the desert?" <sup>2</sup>Then Saul took the road down to the Ziph desert and with him three thousand shock troops of Israel to hunt David in the Ziph desert. <sup>3</sup>Saul camped on the Hachilah hill, facing the desert near the road, while David stayed in the desert. When David saw that Saul was following him into the desert, <sup>4</sup>he sent out spies and learned that Saul was indeed coming on. <sup>5</sup>David then moved up and approached Saul's encampment. He observed the location where Saul lodged with his general, Abner son of Ner — Saul lying inside the wagon barricade and the troops camped around him.

<sup>6</sup>David turned to Ahimelech the Hittite and to Abishai, Joab's brother and son of Zeruiah<sup>n</sup> and asked, "Who will go down with me to Saul's camp?" Abishai said, "I will go with you." <sup>7</sup>So David and Abishai invaded the camp by night; and there inside the barricade lay Saul asleep, his spear stuck in the ground by his head, with Abner and the soldiery lying around him. <sup>8</sup>Abishai said to David, "Today God has put your enemy in your hand; now please, let me nail him to the ground with his spear; just one stab, no need of a second one for him." <sup>9</sup>But David told Abishai, "Do not murder him; for who can with innocence assault the LORD's anointed?" <sup>10</sup>He added, "As the LORD lives, unquestionably the LORD will smite him; he will die either as his time comes, or he will go to battle and be wiped out. <sup>11</sup>May the LORD keep me from lifting my hand against the LORD's anointed. Now then, take the spear at his head and the water jug, and let us get away." <sup>12</sup>So David took the spear and the jug from near Saul's head, and they were off. No one noticed or knew a thing; they were all asleep, for a sound sleep from the LORD had overpowered them.

<sup>13</sup>As soon as David had crossed over, he took his stand on top of the hill at a good distance with plenty of space between them; <sup>14</sup>and David called out to the troops and to Abner son of Ner, "Abner, will you not respond?" Abner replied, "Who are you, calling to the king?" <sup>15</sup>David then twitted Abner, "What a hero you are! Who in Israel is your equal? Why then have you not guarded your master, the king? For one of the people came to murder the king, your master. <sup>16</sup>What you did is not commendable. As the LORD lives, you are children of death,<sup>o</sup> because you have not guarded your master, the LORD's anointed. Take a look, where the king's spear and the water jug are, that stood by the king's head!"

<sup>17</sup>Saul recognized David's voice and called, "Is that your voice, my son David?" David replied, "Yes, my master, the king." <sup>18</sup>He said further, "Why does my master pursue me? What have <sup>m</sup>) Saul's second daughter, Michal, had been given David for his slaying Goliath; but Saul, when pursuing David, gave her to another man. Later, David demanded her back [II Sam. 3:14]; but she had lost her affection for him [II Sam. 6:16], and died childless [vs. 23].

<sup>n</sup>) Zeruiah was David's sister, but not Jesse's daughter; David's mother had been the widow of Nahash [II Sam. 17:25]; Zeruiah was the mother of Joab, nephew of David, but about the same age. <sup>o</sup>) You deserve death.

I done? Of what crime am I guilty? <sup>19</sup>Will my master, the king, please listen to your servant's plea: If the LORD has set you against me, then an offering might be acceptable; but if children of men are doing so, then they are cursed before the LORD, because this very day they are exiling me from fellowship with the LORD's heritage. They say, 'Get out; serve other gods.' <sup>20</sup>Now, therefore, let not my blood fall to the earth far from the presence of the LORD. The king is on the move to find a lone flea, as they hunt a partridge on the mountains."

<sup>21</sup>Saul answered, "I have sinned; come back, my son David. I will not harm you; for today you held my life precious. I have acted the fool; I have gravely erred."<sup>v</sup> <sup>22</sup>David responded, "Here is the spear, O king; let one of the young men come over and get it. <sup>23</sup>The LORD will reward each person's fairness and loyalty; for the LORD handed you over to me today, and I would not lift my hand against the LORD's anointed. <sup>24</sup>Take note! As your life today was held precious by me, so may my life be precious in the LORD's sight, and may He save me out of every difficulty."

<sup>25</sup>Saul said to David, "Blessed are you, my son David; you will succeed in whatever you undertake." David then went his way, and Saul went back home.

27 DAVID SAID TO HIMSELF, "ANY day now I may fall into Saul's hands. I had better seek refuge in the Philistine country; then Saul will give up hunting for me everywhere in all Israel, and I shall escape from his grip." <sup>2</sup>Then David and the six hundred men with him moved out to Achish son of Maach, king of Gath;<sup>a</sup> <sup>3</sup>David and his men lived with Achish at Gath, each with his household, David with his two wives, Ahinoam, the Jezreelitess and Abigail the widow of Nabal the Carmelite. <sup>4</sup>And when Saul was told that David had fled to Gath, he did not hunt for him any more.

<sup>5</sup>David said to Achish, "If you feel friendly toward me, allow me space in one of your country towns for residence; why should your servant dwell with you in the royal city?" <sup>6</sup>So Achish assigned him Ziklag; for which reason Ziklag belongs to the kings of Judah to this day. <sup>7</sup>The duration of David's stay in the Philistine country was a year and four months.

<sup>8</sup>David would march out with his troop and raid the Geshurites,<sup>r</sup> the Girzites, and the Amalekites; for those were from of old the inhabitants of the land toward Shur and on to the Egypt country. <sup>9</sup>Every time David conquered a region, he left not a man or woman alive; he took the sheep, the cattle, the camels, the donkeys, and went back to Achish.<sup>s</sup> <sup>10</sup>When Achish inquired, "Where have you raided this time?" David would reply, "Against the southern portion of Judah," or "Against the southern part of the Jerahmeelites," or "Against the southland of the Kenites."<sup>11</sup>David let neither man nor woman live to be brought to Gath, because he reasoned, "They may betray us and say, 'David behaved this way.'" As long as he remained on Philistine territory this was his custom. <sup>12</sup>Achish, however, trusted David, reasoning, "He has doubtless brought himself into bad repute with his people, with Israel; he will remain permanently in my service."

28 ABOUT THAT TIME THE PHILISTINES mustered their armies to engage in a campaign against Israel. Achish told David, "You and your men, mind you, are to march with me in the army."<sup>t</sup> <sup>2</sup>David answered Achish, "Splendid! You will discover what <sup>p</sup>) Saul at the moment meant every word he spoke; but David wisely did not place himself under his power; Saul was too fickle.

<sup>q</sup>) The same Achish of his previous flight. He survived David by at least three years [I Kings 2:39]. In the title to Ps. 34 he is called Abimelech, a title designating royalty, like that of Egypt's Pharaohs. <sup>r</sup>) Geshur means bridge. These were probably a colony from Geshur, between the Iffernon and Bashan mountains.

<sup>s</sup>) Bringing tribute from the loot. But he lied and covered up with murder. <sup>t</sup>) David could never have done that. Instead, his contingent was the kind that could have turned the battle into an Israelite victory.

your servant is able to do." To this Achish responded, "Then I will appoint you my lifelong bodyguard."

<sup>3</sup>At Samuel's death all Israel had made lamentation over him and had buried him in his Ramah home town. And Saul had driven the mediums and the fortunetellers out of the country.

<sup>4</sup>The Philistines mustered and made camp at Shunem;<sup>u</sup> while Saul mustered all Israel and made camp at Gilboa. <sup>5</sup>At the sight of the Philistine encampment Saul felt afraid; his mind was shaken. <sup>6</sup>He inquired of the LORD, but the LORD did not answer him either by dreams or through Urim<sup>v</sup> or through prophets. <sup>7</sup>Then Saul told his attendants, "Find me a woman who contacts spirits, so I may go and consult her." His courtiers replied, "There is a medium at Endor."<sup>8</sup> Saul then disguised himself, changed his clothes, and with two men went to the woman by night. When they arrived, he said, "Will you inquire for me as a medium and bring up the one I shall mention to you?" <sup>9</sup>But the woman answered him, "You know what Saul has done, how he has eliminated mediums and fortunetellers from the land. Why then are you setting a snare for my life, to cause my death?" <sup>10</sup>Saul then swore to her by the LORD, "As the LORD lives, this affair will bring no guilt on you."<sup>11</sup> So the woman asked, "Whom shall I bring up for you?" He said, "Bring me up Samuel."

<sup>12</sup>When the woman saw Samuel, she screamed and said to Saul, "Why did you deceive me? You yourself are Saul!" <sup>13</sup>But the king spoke to her, "Have no fear. What do you see?" The woman answered Saul, "I see a god-like form rising from the earth."<sup>w</sup> <sup>14</sup>He then asked her, "Of what appearance is he?" She said, "An old man wrapped in a robe." Saul then understood that it was Samuel. He knelt with his face turned to the earth and bowed down.

<sup>15</sup>Samuel then spoke to Saul, "Why have you disturbed me to bring me up?" Saul said, "I am in great distress. The Philistines are fighting me, and God has left me; He does not answer me any more, either through prophets or by dreams. I have therefore called you to let me know what I should do."

<sup>16</sup>Samuel said, "Why consult me when the LORD has departed from you and has become your adversary?"<sup>x</sup> <sup>17</sup>The LORD has done what He announced through me; the LORD has torn the kingship from you and has given it to your neighbor, to David. <sup>18</sup>Because you did not listen to the LORD's voice and failed to execute His burning indignation upon Amalek, therefore the LORD has thus treated you today, <sup>19</sup>and along with you the LORD will also hand Israel over to the Philistines. Tomorrow you and your sons shall be with me, and the LORD shall deliver the army of Israel into the Philistines' power."

<sup>20</sup>Then and there Saul fell full length to the ground, terrified by Samuel's message. One reason why his strength had left him was that for a day and a night he had eaten nothing. <sup>21</sup>So when the woman stepped up to Saul and saw that he was in distress, she said to him, "Your maid has obeyed your orders, and I have endangered my life to do what you told me. <sup>22</sup>Now, please, do as your maid suggests; I will serve you a bite of bread so you may eat and have strength to travel." <sup>23</sup>He refused, however, and said, "I will not eat." But when his attendants, as well as the woman, kept urging him, he yielded to them; he got up from the floor and sat on the couch. <sup>24</sup>Hurriedly the woman butchered the fattened calf she had in the house, took flour, which she kneaded and baked to make unleavened cakes. <sup>25</sup>This she served Saul and his men and they ate; then that same night they got up and left.

u) Made familiar through "the Shunamite" who entertained Elisha [II Kings 4:25].

v) Urim and Thummim - lights and perfection - were placed in the high priest's breastplate, belonging to the ephod, and worn over the heart as he went before the LORD. On twelve precious stones the names of the twelve tribes were engraved. The godly wearer obtained divine guidance for affairs of state.

w) The fact that necromancy was forbidden suggests that it had been practiced. In Israel it meant departure from God [Lev. 19:31]. The Endor medium was probably a Canaanite.

x) Septuagint [Greek] translation - "and is with your adversary." Saul had become God's adversary.

29 <sup>1</sup>THE PHILISTINES CONSOLIDATED all their forces at Aphek, while the Israelites camped at the Jezreel fountain.<sup>y</sup> <sup>2</sup>When the Philistine city princes were marching along by companies and regiments, and David and his men formed the rear with Achish, <sup>3</sup>the Philistine commanders remarked, "What about these Hebrews?" Achish answered the Philistine commanders, "That, you should know, is David, a subject of Saul the king of Israel, who has been with me now for over a year, and to date I have found nothing wrong with him from the time he came over."

<sup>4</sup>But the Philistine commanders were angry at Achish and told him, "You dismiss this man; let him go back to the place you have assigned him. Let him not join us in the battle, lest in the fighting he turn against us. How could he more readily gain favor with his master than with the heads of our soldiers?" <sup>5</sup>Is not this the same David of whom they sang in their responsive dances, 'Saul has slain his thousands and David his ten thousands?' <sup>6</sup>Achish then called David and told him, "As the LORD lives, you are an honest man; and it would please me to have you in the army marching out and coming back with me, for since you came to me until now I have found no wrong in you. But the trouble is, the town princes have no use for you." <sup>7</sup>So you better withdraw peacefully without antagonizing the Philistine princes."

<sup>8</sup>David argued with Achish, saying, "What have I done? What fault can you find with your servant from the day I came into your service until now, so that I may not go along to battle against the enemies of my lord the king?" <sup>9</sup>Achish answered David, "I know it; you are as pleasing to me as an angel of God; but the Philistine commanders have said, 'He must not march to war along with us!'" <sup>10</sup>Now then, get up early in the morning with your master's servants<sup>z</sup> who have come with you, and with break of day as soon as it is light take your leave."<sup>11</sup>So David and his men got up early in the morning to leave to go back to the Philistine country while the Philistines moved toward Jezreel.

30 <sup>1</sup>WHEN ON THE THIRD DAY David and his men arrived at Ziklag, the Amalekites had invaded the southland including Ziklag which they had burned; <sup>2</sup>and they had captured the women and all who were in it without killing any, and had moved on with them. <sup>3</sup>So when David came to the town with his men, they found it burned and their wives, their sons and their daughters taken captive. <sup>4</sup>Then David and the people with him raised their voices and wept until they could weep no more. <sup>5</sup>Both wives of David, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess and Abigail the widow of the Carmelite Nabal, had been captured too.

<sup>6</sup>David was in a serious predicament; some men talked of stoning him;<sup>a</sup> for all the people were in an ugly mood, each on account of his sons and daughters. But David laid hold on the LORD his God. <sup>7</sup>He said to the priest Abiathar, "Please bring me the ephod." And Abiathar brought David the ephod. <sup>8</sup>Then David inquired of the LORD, "Shall I pursue these bandits? Shall I overtake them?" He answered him: Go after them, and you will surely overtake and free the captives. <sup>9</sup>So David and the six hundred men with him marched till they reached the Besor brook; <sup>10</sup>there two hundred men, too exhausted to cross the brook, remained, while four hundred continued the pursuit with David.

<sup>11</sup>They found an Egyptian in the field and brought him to David. They gave him bread, which he ate; they let him drink water; <sup>12</sup>they gave him a cake of figs and two clusters of raisins. When he had eaten, he revived; for he had eaten or drunk nothing for three days and three nights. <sup>13</sup>Then

y) That fountain is still active. The Jezreel valley, later known as the plain of Esdraelon, has been the battlefield for many nations. Gideon had there routed the Amalekites and the Midianites.

z) A broad hint that they really belonged with Saul and his army.

a) As had been Moses' experience [Ex. 17:4]; so human to center the blame on someone within reach.

David asked him, "Who are your people, and where do you come from?" He replied, "I am an Egyptian, the slave of an Amalekite. My master left me behind because I got sick three days ago. <sup>14</sup>We raided the south section of the Cherethites,<sup>b</sup> the Judah country, and the south land of Caleb; we also set fire to Ziklag."

<sup>15</sup>David asked him, "Could you lead us to those bandits?" He said, "Swear to me before God that you will neither kill me nor hand me over to my master, and I will lead you to the band."

<sup>16</sup>He led them there and, sec, they were lying spread out all over the place, eating, drinking, and celebrating over the enormous plunder they had taken from the countries of Philistia and Judah! <sup>17</sup>From twilight until next day's evening David slaughtered them, and none of them escaped, except four hundred young men who mounted camels and sped away. <sup>18</sup>David recovered all that the Amalekites had captured, freeing also his two wives.

<sup>19</sup>They lost practically nothing, small or great, sons or daughters, or booty — nothing of what the band had plundered; David brought it all back. <sup>20</sup>Besides, David captured all the sheep and cattle, which the men drove ahead of the caravan, saying, "This is David's prize."

<sup>21</sup>When David came near the two hundred men, who had been too exhausted to follow him, so that he left them behind at the Besor brook, they came out to meet him and all those with him; and when David reached them, he inquired after their welfare. <sup>22</sup>Then the evil and worthless characters<sup>c</sup> among those who had accompanied David started to argue, "Because they did not go with us, we shall give them nothing of the plunder we recovered, except each one's wife and children. Let them take these and be gone."

<sup>23</sup>David, however, said, "My brothers, this is not the way to handle what the LORD gave us; He preserved us and delivered the invaders to us. <sup>24</sup>Who should listen to you on this score? The share of him who stays with the baggage shall be equal to the share of him who marches to battle." <sup>25</sup>And so it has been ever since that day. He made it a rule and a statute for Israel to the present.<sup>d</sup>

<sup>26</sup>After David got back to Ziklag, he sent a share of the loot to the elders of Judah with the message, "Here is a present for you of the prize from the LORD's enemies," — <sup>27</sup>to those at Bethuel, to those in Ramoth in the south-land, to those at Jattir, <sup>28</sup>to those at Aroer, to those in Siphmoth, to those at Eshtemoa, <sup>29</sup>to those in Rachal, to those of the Jerahmeelite and Kenite towns, <sup>30</sup>to those in Hormah, to those in Borashan, to those in Ether, <sup>31</sup>to those in Hebron and to all the places where David and his men used to gather.<sup>e</sup>

31 MEANWHILE, THE PHILISTINES were fighting Israel, and the men of Israel fled before the Philistines; the slain fell on Mount Gilboa. <sup>2</sup>The Philistines pursued Saul and his sons; they slew Jonathan, Abinadab, and Malchishua, Saul's sons.<sup>f</sup> <sup>3</sup>Against Saul himself the battle went heavily; the bowmen made him their target, so that he was badly wounded by the archers.

<sup>4</sup>Saul said to his armor-bearer, "Draw your sword, and run me through, so that these uncircumcised may not come to run me through and have their sport with me." But his armor-bearer refused, repelled by the horror of it. Saul then took his sword and threw himself upon it. <sup>5</sup>And when his armor-bearer saw that Saul was dead, he too, fell on his sword and died with him. <sup>6</sup>So then, Saul, his three sons, his armor-bearer, and all his men died together on the same day.

<sup>7</sup>When the men of Israel at the other end of the valley and the people

b) Mentioned among David's bodyguard [II Sam, 8:18].

c) Sons of Belial. d) It was a fair ruling and therefore won the day, with fair characters in the majority. e) A "thank-you" for past favors and a suggestion for future action; David rightly aimed for kingship. f) Philistine officers must have so ordered their archers.

on the other side of Jordan observed that the Israelite troops had fled and that Saul and his sons were dead, they abandoned their towns and fled. Then the Philistines came and occupied them.

<sup>8</sup>Next day, when the Philistines came to strip the fallen, they found Saul and his three sons fallen on Mount Gilboa. <sup>9</sup>They severed his head, stripped off his armor, and sent messengers to broadcast the news all over Philistia in the temples of their idols and among the people. <sup>10</sup>His armor they deposited in the Astarte temple, and his body they fastened to the Bethshan wall.

<sup>11</sup>But when the dwellers of Jabesh-gilcad learned what the Philistines had done to Saul, <sup>12</sup>all the warriors got up, walked all night, and took the bodies of Saul and his sons from the Bethshan wall<sup>h</sup> and, on reaching Jabesh, they cremated them. <sup>13</sup>But their bones they took and buried under the Jabesh oak. They then fasted seven days.

h) The men of Jabesh matched the heroism of Saul, who had delivered them from the Ammonites [ch. 11].

THE SECOND BOOK OF # SAMUEL

1 AFTER THE DEATH OF SAUL, WHEN David had returned from slaughtering the Amalekites, he stayed in Ziklag two days. <sup>2</sup>Then on the third day, a man arrived who had been with Saul in the army; his clothes were torn, and he had dust on his head.<sup>b</sup> When he came to David, he bowed to the ground and prostrated himself before him. <sup>3</sup>David said to him, "From where have you come?"

"I have escaped from Saul's army," he replied. <sup>4</sup>David then asked him, "How have things gone there? Please, tell me." His reply was, "The men gave up the battle and fled; not only have many fallen but Saul, too, is dead, with Jonathan his son."

<sup>5</sup>Then David asked the young man who was bringing this information, "How do you know that Saul and his son Jonathan have died?" <sup>6</sup>"I happened to be on Mt. Gilboa," the young informer went on, "and there was Saul, leaning on his spear. The enemy's chariots and cavalry were moving in on him. <sup>7</sup>Just then he looked around, saw me, and called out to me. I said, 'Here I am.' <sup>8</sup>He asked me, 'Who are you?' I told him, 'An Amalekite.' <sup>9</sup>Then he said, 'Come over here, stand and kill me; because even though I am still alive, weakness has seized me.' <sup>10</sup>So I stood by him and killed him, because I knew, since he had fallen, that his life was over. Then I took the crown which was on his head and a bracelet which he had on his arm, and I have brought them here to my ruler."<sup>c</sup>

<sup>11</sup>But David took hold of his clothes and tore them, as did all the men who were with him. <sup>12</sup>Further, they mourned, wept, and fasted until evening over Saul and his son Jonathan and the LORD's people, the community of Israel, because they had fallen by the sword.

<sup>13</sup>Then David asked the young man who had brought the report, "Where are you from?" He said, "I am the son of a resident alien, an Amalekite." <sup>14</sup>David then replied, "How is it you felt no compunction against raising your hand to destroy the anointed of the LORD?" <sup>15</sup>And with that, David gave orders to one of his young men, "Approach! Strike him down!" He struck him so that he died, <sup>16</sup>even as David pronounced on him the sentence, "Your blood is on your own head, because your mouth has condemned you by saying, 'I killed the anointed of the LORD!'"<sup>d</sup>

<sup>17</sup>Then David lamented over Saul and his son Jonathan with the following elegy, <sup>18</sup>and he gave orders that this "Song of the Bow"<sup>d</sup> be taught to

a) II Samuel is by the same prophetic author as I Samuel, the two originally forming one book.

b) These were signs of deep mourning. See vs. 11.

c) The Amalekite's story differs from the scriptural record of Saul's death, I Samuel 31:3-5. He seems simply to have discovered and plundered Saul's body and then told his tale to David, hoping for reward.

d) The name comes from vs. 22. In Hebrew the dirge is not in the strict lamentation meter of three beats followed by two, but the second lines of the verses do generally fall one beat short of the first, thus expressing incompleteness and grief.

the people of Judah. Note! It is written in the Book of the Upright.<sup>e</sup>

<sup>19</sup>Thy honor, O Israel, is dead upon thy high places;

How are the mighty fallen!

<sup>20</sup>Tell it not in Gath, publish it not in the streets of Ashkelon;

lest the daughters of the Philistines rejoice,

lest the daughters of the uncircumcised glory.

<sup>21</sup>Ye mountains of Gilboa, let there be no dew nor rain upon you, neither fields of offerings:

For there the shield of the mighty was defiled,

the shield of Saul, the anointed no more.

<sup>22</sup>From the blood of the slain, from the fat of the mighty,

the bow of Jonathan turned not back, nor did the sword of Saul return unsated.

<sup>23</sup>Saul and Jonathan, beloved and lovely, in life and death they were not divided;

they were swifter than eagles,

they were stronger than lions.

<sup>24</sup>Ye daughters of Israel, weep over

Saul,

who clothed you in scarlet and with delights,

who put ornaments of gold upon your apparel.

<sup>25</sup>How are the mighty fallen in the midst of the battle!

Jonathan was slain in thy high places.

<sup>26</sup>I am grieving for thee, my brother

Jonathan:

very pleasant hast thou been unto me:

thy love to me was wonderful, passing the love of women.<sup>f</sup>

<sup>27</sup>How are the mighty fallen, and the weapons of war destroyed!

1010 B.C.

2 AFTER THIS, DAVID ASKED THE LORD, "Should I go up to one of the cities of Judah?" The LORD's answer was, Go! David then inquired, "To which should I go up?" To Hebron, was the response. <sup>2</sup>So David went up there with his two wives, Ahinoam from Jezreel, and Abigail, widow of Nabal of Carmel. <sup>3</sup>His men who were with him David brought up, too, each with his family, and they settled in the towns around Hebron. <sup>4</sup>Then the men of Judah<sup>g</sup> came and anointed David there as king over the house of Judah.

Further, when David was told, "The men of Jabesh Gilead have buried Saul," <sup>5</sup>the king sent messengers to the men of that city with the wish, "May you be blessed by the LORD because of this act of faithfulness toward your leader Saul, giving him decent burial!" <sup>6</sup>Now may the LORD deal faithfully and truly with you! So I will deal with you because of what you have done. <sup>7</sup>Moreover, keep heart, and prove worthy citizens; because, though your ruler Saul is dead, the house of Judah has anointed me king over them."

<sup>8</sup>But Abner son of Ner, the general of Saul's army, took Ish-bosheth,<sup>h</sup> Saul's son, and brought him over to Mahanaim, <sup>9</sup>where they made him king<sup>i</sup> over Gilead, the people of Ashur, Jezreel, Ephraim, Benjamin, and all Israel. <sup>10</sup>Ish-bosheth the son of Saul became king over Israel at the age of forty and reigned two years. The house of Judah, however, followed David. <sup>11</sup>The time David was king in Hebron over the house of Judah amounted to seven years and six months.

<sup>12</sup>Now Abner son of Ner, with the troops of Ish-bosheth, Saul's son, advanced from Mahanaim toward Gib-

e) Hebrew: The Book of the Jashar. A lost collection of hero songs that grew over a long period of Israel's history. Joshua 10:12-13 is an earlier quotation from it.

f) Jonathan stands among the noblest Bible characters, unselfish and loyal, apparently in line for the throne, but willing to take second place for David. g) This included the tribe of Simeon.

h) Hebrew: man of shame. His original name was Esh-baal [I Chron. 8:33; 9:39], "man of Baal." Saul probably did not have the idol Baal in mind when naming his son, but the Hebrew word baal: master, the name then meaning "man of the Master," referring to God, or to the king.

i) As a close relative of Saul [I Sam. 14:50], Abner had no desire to see the kingship leave his family.

II SAMUEL 2, 3

eon; <sup>13</sup>but Joab son of Zeruiah,<sup>1</sup> with David's followers, went out and encountered them by the reservoir of Gibeon. Coming together, they halted by the reservoir, one force on one side and the other on the other side of the reservoir. <sup>14</sup>Abner then made the proposition to Joab, "If this seems satisfactory, have the young men get up for a contest before us."<sup>k</sup> Joab agreed, "Let them stand up."

<sup>15</sup>So a number that were selected got up and went across: twelve for Benjamin, for Ish-bosheth the son of Saul, and twelve of David's men. <sup>16</sup>Each man caught hold of his opponent's head, stabbing his sword into his side, consequently all of them fell; so the place was called, "Field of the Sword-Edges," in Gibeon. <sup>17</sup>That day there followed a most severe battle, in which Abner and the men of Israel went down in defeat before the soldiers of David.

<sup>18</sup>Now the three sons of Zeruiah were there: Joab, Abishai, and Asahel; and Asahel was a fast runner, like a deer in the field. <sup>19</sup>Asahel pursued straight after Abner, swerving neither to the right nor to the left. <sup>20</sup>Abner looked back and questioned, "Is that you, Asahel?" "It is," came the reply. <sup>21</sup>"Then turn off to your right or left," said Abner. "Get your captive from one of the young men; strip him for your plunder!" But Asahel would not turn back. <sup>22</sup>Again Abner spoke to him, "Get away from me! Why should I strike you to the ground? How could I hold up my face to your brother Joab?" <sup>23</sup>But Asahel would not be diverted, and Abner gave him a back-thrust in the abdomen<sup>1</sup> with the butt end of his spear.<sup>m</sup> The spear came out at his back and he fell there, dying in his tracks. Thus everyone who came to the place where Asahel had fallen dead, stood still.

<sup>24</sup>Joab, too, and Abishai pursued after Abner, and by sunset they had reached the hill of Ammah, which is in front of Giah on the road to the desert of Gibeon. <sup>25</sup>Meanwhile, the men of Benjamin had rallied behind Abner, re-formed, and taken up a position on top of a hill. <sup>26</sup>Abner called out to Joab, "Is the sword going to keep on consuming us forever? Do you not know that in the long run this will only produce bitterness? How long will it be before you tell the people to stop chasing their own brothers?"

War Between Houses of Saul and David

<sup>27</sup>"As God lives," came Joab's reply, "Had you but spoken sooner, the people would have withdrawn, every man from his brother, this morning!" <sup>28</sup>So Joab sounded the trumpet and the people halted, gave up the pursuit of Israel, and no longer continued the battle. <sup>29</sup>Abner and his men marched all that night through the Jordan Valley, crossed the Jordan, went on through all of Bithron, and arrived at Mahanaim. <sup>30</sup>Joab, after turning back from Abner, mustered all the people. Of David's troops there were only nineteen missing, and Asahel; <sup>31</sup>but the men of David had so struck Benjamin and the forces of Abner that three hundred and sixty of them had died. <sup>32</sup>So they lifted up Asahel and buried him in his father's grave in Bethlehem; and Joab and his command, by marching all that night, reached Hebron as day was breaking.

1003 B.C.

3 THE WAR BETWEEN THE HOUSES of Saul and of David was long drawn out; but David became progressively stronger and Saul's house weaker and weaker. <sup>2</sup>In Hebron David had these sons: his oldest was Amnon, by Ahinoam of Jezreel; <sup>3</sup>second came Chil-eab, by Abigail the widow of Nabal of Carmel; third, Absalom the son of Maacah the daughter of Talmai king of Geshur; <sup>4</sup>fourth, Adonijah the son of Haggith; fifth Shephatiah the son of Abital; <sup>5</sup>and sixth, Ithream, by Eglah, David's wife. These were born to David in Hebron.

<sup>6</sup>During the war between the houses of Saul and of David, Abner was

j) Zeruiah was David's half sister [I Chron. 2:16], apparently by the marriage of his mother to one Nahash [II Sam. 17:25], prior to her having become the wife of Jesse, David's father. Joab was thus David's half nephew.

k) Abner looked for a decision from single combat by champions, thus avoiding much bloodshed. Cf. Goliath's offer [I Sam. 17:8-9]. l) Heb.: under the fifth rib.

m) Probably pointed, somewhat similar to a bayonet, so as to be stuck in the ground, as was Saul's spear [I Sam. 26:7].

strengthening his own position within Saul's group. <sup>7</sup>Now Saul had a concubine named Rizpah, daughter of Aiah; and Ish-bosheth accused Abner, "Why have you gone in to my father's concubine?" <sup>8</sup>Abner became infuriated at the charge of Ish-bosheth and exclaimed, "Am I a dog's head, to lick the palm of Judah? Here I work faithfully for the house of Saul your father, for his brothers, and for his friends; I have not allowed you to fall into David's hands, and today you have brought up a misstep with a woman against me! <sup>9</sup>May God get even with Abner and worse, if I do not do for David what the LORD swore to him, <sup>10</sup>to transfer the kingdom from the house of Saul and set up David's throne over Israel and Judah from Dan to Beersheba!"

<sup>11</sup>Ish-bosheth could not answer him a word because he was afraid of him. <sup>12</sup>Then Abner sent messengers to David to represent him and to say, "Whose is the land?" and, "Come, make your agreement with me, and my hand will be with you to turn all Israel over to you."<sup>p</sup>

<sup>13</sup>The reply came, "Good; I will make an agreement with you. But there is one matter on which I insist; you are not to see my face without first bringing me Saul's daughter Michal, when you appear for a meeting." <sup>14</sup>David then sent messengers to Ish-bosheth the son of Saul, demanding, "Give me my wife, Michal, to whom I became engaged at the price of a hundred Philistines' foreskins."

<sup>15</sup>So Ish-bosheth sent and had her taken from her husband, Paltiel<sup>q</sup> the son of Laish. <sup>16</sup>But her husband accompanied her as far as Bahurim, weeping as he went along behind.

Then came Abner's order, "Go back!" And back he went.

<sup>17</sup>Now Abner had consulted with the elders of Israel, "In times past you were looking for David to be king over you; <sup>18</sup>now carry it through. For the LORD has said about David, 'By the hand of David My servant I will rescue My people Israel out of the power of the Philistines and from the power of all their enemies.'" <sup>19</sup>Abner himself had also addressed the people of Benjamin. Then Abner came to tell David personally at Hebron all that Israel and the house of Benjamin wanted to do.

<sup>20</sup>When Abner met David at Hebron, he had twenty men with him, and David prepared a dinner for Abner and the men with him. <sup>21</sup>Abner declared to David, "I will get up and go and bring all Israel here to my master the king." Then they can make the contract with you, so you can reign over all that your heart desires." David dismissed Abner, and he went in peace.

<sup>22</sup>At that point the troops of David, under Joab, came in from a raid, bringing with them a huge amount of plunder. Abner was no longer with David at Hebron, since the king had sent him away, and he had left peaceably. <sup>23</sup>But when Joab and his whole command arrived, the news reached Joab, "Abner the son of Ner has been to the king who sent him away; and he has gone in peace."

<sup>24</sup>Joab called on the king and exclaimed, "What have you done? See! Abner has called on you. Why have you sent him off and let him get away? <sup>25</sup>You know Abner the son of Ner. He came to deceive you, to learn your comings and goings, to know everything you are doing!"

<sup>26</sup>When Joab left David's presence,

n) A concubine was more than a mere mistress; for she was a member of the household, had the rights of a married woman, took her position by an official ceremony of appointment, and could even be called a "wife," though in a secondary sense [Exod. 21:8-10; Deut. 21:11-13]. Concubines were generally gotten by purchase or as captives and, unlike a true wife, could be "divorced" at will, but then only to be released, not sold as a slave [Gen. 16:2-3; 21:10; Exod. 21:7,8,11; Deut. 21:10-14; Mal. 2:14-16].

o) Possession of the court women indicated royal power. Cf. Absalom with David's concubines [ch. 16:21-22]; Adonijah with Abishag [I Kings 2:21-22]; and David's insistence on the return of Michal [vs. 13].

p) Abner here demonstrates an unprincipled willingness to support whatever party best advanced his own interests. See also 2:8-9; 3:6. David's prompt cooperation was to be expected, since he had been divinely anointed for the throne. q) In I Sam. 25:44 his name has the shorter form, Palti. r) Benjamin, as the tribe of Saul's family, was particularly concerned.

s) Almost certainly, Abner would have become commander of all the forces.

he sent messengers after Abner, who brought him back from the pit of Sirah; but David was unaware of what he did. <sup>27</sup>When Abner had come back to Hebron, Joab took him aside into the middle of the gate, as if to talk privately to him; but there, in revenge for the blood of his brother Asahel, he stabbed him fatally in the abdomen.

<sup>28</sup>After it had happened, when David heard of it, the king exclaimed, "I and my kingdom are innocent before the LORD forever of the blood of Abner the son of Ner. <sup>29</sup>Let it act as a boomerang on the head of Joab and on all his father's house. May the house of Joab always have someone with running sores, a leper, a man with a crutch, a victim of the sword, or someone starving!"<sup>t</sup>

<sup>30</sup>So Joab, along with his brother Abishai, murdered Abner because he had killed Asahel, their brother, in the battle at Gibeon. <sup>31</sup>But David ordered Joab and all the people with him, "Tear your clothes and put on sackcloth! Mourn before Abner!" King David himself walked behind the bier. <sup>32</sup>Thus they buried Abner in Hebron; and at the grave the king wept aloud, as did all the people. <sup>33</sup>Then the king lamented over Abner:

"Must Abner die as a fool dies?

<sup>34</sup>Your hands never had to be bound,
Your feet were never held in fetters.
As one does fall before the wicked so you have fallen."

Again, all Israel wept over him. <sup>35</sup>Moreover, when all the people urged David to eat food while it was still day, David swore with an oath, "God do so to me" if I taste food or anything else before the sun goes down!" <sup>36</sup>All the people took note and approved, even as everything the king did met with popular approval. <sup>37</sup>Thus in that day all the people, and indeed all Israel, recognized that the death of Abner the son of Ner had not been of the king's doing.

<sup>38</sup>The king also told his attendants, "Do you not know that a prince, a great man, has fallen this day in Israel?" <sup>39</sup>As for me, I stand powerless today, even though anointed king. These men, the sons of Zeruiah, are too harsh for me; may the LORD repay in kind the man who does wrong."

1003 B.C.

4 WHEN SAUL'S SON, ISH-BOSHETH, heard that Abner had died in Hebron, he lost heart, and all Israel fell into confusion. <sup>2</sup>Now there were two military commanders of his, one named Baanah and the other Rechab, the sons of Rimmon of Beeroth who was a Benjamite. For Beeroth is counted as a part of Benjamin, <sup>3</sup>but its people withdrew to Gittaim and live there as foreign residents up to the present. <sup>4</sup>It might also be noted that Saul's son, Jonathan, had a son with crippled feet. He was five years old when the report came from Jezreel about Saul and Jonathan,<sup>v</sup> at which time his nurse snatched him up and fled. But in her hurry to get away he fell and became lame. His name was Mephibosheth.<sup>w</sup>

<sup>5</sup>So the sons of Rimmon of Beeroth, Rechab and Baanah, came and approached Ish-bosheth's house in the hot part of the day, while he was lying down for his noonday rest. <sup>6</sup>Here they came to the center of the house, apparently to take out wheat; but they struck him in the abdomen. Then Rechab and his brother Baanah escaped. <sup>7</sup>They had entered the house while he was lying on his couch in the room where he rested and they had both stabbed and killed him and then cut off his head. They took the head and traveled by the way of the Jordan Valley all night. <sup>8</sup>Thus they brought the head of Ish-bosheth to David at Hebron, saying to the king, "See the head of Ish-bosheth the son of Saul, that man who was your enemy and who tried to get your life! But this day the LORD has given our sovereign the king vengeance on Saul and on his descendants!"

<sup>t</sup>) David pronounced a curse on his general and on Joab's immediate family; for Joab's brother had been slain in battle and had been warned by Abner. Obviously Joab wanted Abner out of his way. <sup>u</sup>) Probably making a motion toward his throat or head.

<sup>v</sup>) Their death at the battle of Mt. Gilboa.

<sup>w</sup>) Hebrew: one who scatters shame. His original name seems to have been Merib-baal [I Chron. 8:34; 9:40], "hero of Baal," or, "a warrior is Baal."

<sup>9</sup>But David's answer to Rechab and his brother Baanah, the sons of Rimmon of Beeroth, was, "As the LORD lives, who has saved me out of every trouble, <sup>10</sup>when that informer told me, 'Look, Saul is dead!' and thought he was bringing me good news, he was seized and executed by me in Ziklag, that fellow who hoped I would give him a reward for his news. <sup>11</sup>What do you think is going to happen when criminals murder a good man lying on his couch in his own house? Would I not here and now require his blood at your hands and eliminate you from the earth?" <sup>12</sup>With that, David gave the word to his attendants, who killed them and cut off their hands and feet. These they hung up beside the Hebron reservoir; but the head of Ish-bosheth they took and buried in Abner's grave at Hebron.

1003 B.C.

5 THEN ALL THE TRIBES OF ISRAEL came to David at Hebron with the statement, "Here we are, your bone and your flesh. <sup>2</sup>Besides, in times past when Saul was king over us, you were the one who led Israel out and brought her in. The LORD also told you: You are the man who is to be the shepherd for My people, for Israel, and you shall be sovereign over Israel."

<sup>3</sup>So when all the elders, who led Israel, had come to Hebron to the king, and when King David in the presence of the LORD had made a compact with them at Hebron, they anointed David king over Israel. <sup>4</sup>David was thirty years old at the commencement of his reign, and he was king a total of forty years. <sup>5</sup>In Hebron he had reigned over Judah seven years and six months and in Jerusalem he reigned thirty-three years over all Israel and Judah.

<sup>6</sup>The king and his troops then marched on Jerusalem against the people of Jebus, the natives of the territory. They, however, announced to David, "You shall not get in here; the blind and the lame can turn you back!" assuming, "David cannot gain access here."<sup>x</sup> <sup>7</sup>But David did capture the fortress of Zion, which now is the City of David. <sup>8</sup>On that day David had given orders, "Whoever would strike down the men of Jebus, let him reach them by way of the water tunnel,<sup>y</sup> even these 'lame' and 'blind' whom the soul of David hates!" From this comes the saying, "The blind and the lame cannot get into the house."

<sup>9</sup>So David occupied the fortress and called it, "The City of David." He also did construction work around it from Millo<sup>z</sup> and in the interior. <sup>10</sup>David's power kept increasing; the LORD, the God of armies, was with him. <sup>11</sup>Hiram king of Tyre sent David messengers and then logs of cedar, with men skilled in carpentry and in stonemasonry for walls, who built David a palace.<sup>a</sup> <sup>12</sup>Thus David recognized that the LORD had established him as king over Israel and exalted his kingdom for the sake of Israel, His own people.

<sup>13</sup>From Jerusalem, however, after his move from Hebron, David took more concubines and wives;<sup>b</sup> and more sons and daughters were born to David. <sup>14</sup>These are the names<sup>c</sup> of the sons born to him in Jerusalem: Shammua, Shobab, Nathan, Solomon, <sup>15</sup>Ibhar, Elishua, Nepheg, Japhia, <sup>16</sup>Elishama, Eliada, and Eliphelet.

<sup>17</sup>When the Philistines heard that David had been anointed king over Israel, they advanced in full force to attack him; but David was informed and went down into his stronghold.<sup>d</sup> <sup>18</sup>The Philistines came and spread out in the valley of Rephaim. <sup>19</sup>Then David asked

x) The mountain position of the fortress on Zion made it almost impregnable. This fact and its strategic, central location between northern Israel and southern Judah — also its neutral nature — made it an ideal site for David's proposed capital.

y) A concealed passageway cut down through the rock under the city. z) One of the fortifications.

a) In all fairness the world should render much service to the church.

b) Prohibited by law [Deut. 17:17].

c) This list of names appears with two additions and with minor variants in I Chron. 3:5-8 and 14:4-7.

d) The Cave of Adullam [23:13,14], for one goes "up" into Jerusalem. This attack must have come shortly after his anointment as king of all Israel, even before the capture of Zion.

the LORD, "Should I go up against the Philistines? Wilt Thou give them over into my hands?"

The LORD replied to David, "Go up, for I will certainly deliver the Philistines into your hands." <sup>20</sup>So David entered Baalperazim, and as he struck them down there, he exclaimed, "The LORD has broken through my enemies before me like a breakthrough of water!" Therefore he named that place Baal-perazim.<sup>e</sup> <sup>21</sup>There they<sup>f</sup> even abandoned their idols, and David and his troops carried them off.<sup>g</sup>

<sup>22</sup>But the Philistines resumed the offensive and spread out in the valley of Rephaim. <sup>23</sup>When David made inquiry of the LORD, He said: Do not go up; circle them to the rear, and come in on them by the front of the balsam trees. <sup>24</sup>It shall be that when you hear a sound of marching in the tops of the balsam trees, at that instant you shall take the decisive action; for then the LORD will have gone out before you to overwhelm the Philistine army. <sup>25</sup>David did as the LORD had ordered him; and he struck down the Philistines from Geba<sup>h</sup> to where one enters Gezer.

6 AGAIN DAVID ASSEMBLED ALL THE chosen men of Israel, 30,000. <sup>2</sup>And David and all the people who were with him took up the march to Baale of Judah<sup>i</sup> to bring up from there the ark of God, over which is pronounced the name, the very name of the LORD of hosts, who is enthroned between the cherubim. <sup>3</sup>They transported it on a new cart, moving it from the house of Abinadab, which was on the hill. Moreover, Uzzah and Ahio, the sons of Abinadab, were driving the cart with the ark of God, <sup>4</sup>moving it from the house of Abinadab, which was on the hill; and Ahio was walking in front of the ark. <sup>5</sup>Meanwhile, David and all the house of Israel were dancing before the LORD with all kinds of instruments made of cypress wood and with lyres, harps, tambourines, castanets, and cymbals. <sup>6</sup>But when they came to the threshing floor of Nacon, Uzzah reached out toward God's ark and caught hold of it, because the oxen had slipped. <sup>7</sup>Then the LORD's anger burned against Uzzah, and God struck him on the spot for his sacrilege; so he died there beside the ark of God.<sup>j</sup>

<sup>8</sup>David was deeply moved at the LORD's outbreak against Uzzah; he called that place Perez-uzzah,<sup>k</sup> a name kept to the present day. <sup>9</sup>In his fear at that time toward the LORD, he exclaimed, "How can the ark of the LORD ever come to me?" <sup>10</sup>So David was unwilling to move the LORD's ark into the city of David to be with him, but redirected it to the house of Obed-edom, who had come from Gath. <sup>11</sup>The ark of the LORD stayed in the house of Obed-edom of Gath for three months, and the LORD prospered Obed-edom<sup>l</sup> along with all his household.

<sup>12</sup>When the report was brought to King David, "The LORD has prospered the household of Obed-edom and all he has because of the ark of God," David again took action and with rejoicing brought God's ark from the house of Obed-edom up to the city of David.<sup>m</sup> <sup>13</sup>As soon as those who were carrying the ark had advanced six steps, he sacrificed an ox and an offering

e) Master of the breakthroughs. f) The Philistines.

g) And burned them [I Chron. 14:12], as required by the law [Deut. 7:5,25].

h) Gibeon [I Chron. 14:16; Isa. 28:21].

i) Known also as Baalah and Kiriath-jearim [I Chron. 13:6], where the ark had stayed in the house of Abinadab [though see I Sam. 14:18] for almost a century, following its capture by the Philistines at the first battle of Eben-ezer and its subsequent return [I Sam. 7:1].

j) Such severity served the purpose of emphasizing for all future generations the necessity of reverence and conforming obedience toward God's sacred objects. Two transgressions combined to produce the situation: (1) The ark should never have been mounted on a cart but carried by hand [Num. 4:15]; (2) The ark itself, to be carried on staves, should not be touched even by its authorized carriers, the priests — on pain of death [Num. 4:15]. Uzzah's intentions were good and his eternal salvation was not involved. k) "The outbreak of Uzzah."

l) A Levite of the family of Korah in the clan of Kohath [I Chron. 26:1,4], and so meeting the requirement for a caretaker of the ark.

m) For this occasion Psalm 24 seems to have been written and set to music. It illustrates Christ's triumphal entry into Jerusalem and His being welcomed in our hearts.

of a fatling <sup>14</sup>and continued dancing before the LORD with all his might. He was wearing a white linen ephod.<sup>n</sup> <sup>15</sup>David and the whole nation of Israel were bringing up the LORD's ark with shouting and the sound of rams' horns. <sup>16</sup>But as the ark of the LORD made its entrance into the city of David, Michal, Saul's daughter, looking down through a window, saw King David leaping and dancing before the LORD, and she despised him in her heart.

<sup>17</sup>So they brought in the ark of the LORD, and when they had put it in its place inside the tent which David had pitched for it, the king offered burnt offerings and peace offerings in the presence of the LORD. <sup>18</sup>And when David had finished the sacrifice of burnt offerings and peace offerings, he blessed the people in the name of the LORD of hosts. <sup>19</sup>Furthermore, he made an allotment to all the people, to the whole population of Israel, both men and women: a ring-shaped loaf of bread, a package of dates, and a cake of raisins to each person. After this the people returned to their respective homes, <sup>20</sup>and David went back to bless his household.

But Saul's daughter Michal came out to meet David with the remark, "How glorious the king of Israel looked today, uncovering himself this day to be ogled by the female servants of his followers, as some worthless fellow would strip himself!" <sup>21</sup>David replied to Michal, "It was before the LORD, who chose me in preference to your father and in preference to his whole house; He confirmed me as leader over Israel, the people of the LORD, and I intend to show my joy before the LORD. <sup>22</sup>I will even be more dishonored than this; I am willing to be humbled in my own eyes; though with those servant girls about whom you talk, with them I will still be held in honor." <sup>23</sup>Michal the daughter of Saul had no child to the day of her death.<sup>o</sup>

7 AFTER THE KING HAD COME TO live in his palace and the LORD had given him rest on every side from his enemies,<sup>p</sup> <sup>2</sup>he said to Nathan the prophet, "See here! I am living in a cedar palace while the ark of God resides within tent curtains." <sup>3</sup>Nathan replied to the king, "Go ahead with whatever you have in mind and do it, because the LORD is with you."<sup>q</sup> <sup>4</sup>But that night the word of the LORD came to Nathan: <sup>5</sup>Go, tell My servant David, The LORD has spoken thus: Are you the one who is to build Me a temple for My residence?<sup>r</sup> <sup>6</sup>From the time I brought the nation of Israel out of Egypt up to the present, I have lived in no house; I have been traveling about in a tent for a dwelling. <sup>7</sup>Yet at any point in My journeying with the whole nation of Israel, did I ever say a word to any one of the tribes of Israel, to whom I committed the leadership of My people Israel, to the effect, Why have you not built Me a cedar temple?<sup>s</sup> <sup>8</sup>But now this is what you are to say to My servant David, The LORD of hosts has thus spoken:

I personally took you from the pasture, from following the flock, to be leader over My people, over Israel. <sup>9</sup>I have been with you in all that you have undertaken; I have eliminated all your enemies from before you; also I will make for you a great name equal in reputation to that of the great men on earth. <sup>10</sup>I will moreover establish a place for My people Israel and plant them so that they shall inhabit their own land with no more disturbance and no more continued oppression by the unrighteous as at the first,<sup>s</sup> <sup>11</sup>from the time when I appointed judges over My people Israel. And I will give you rest from all your enemies. Now the LORD informs you that He is building a house for you.<sup>t</sup> <sup>12</sup>When your days are over and you rest with your fathers, I will raise up your posterity after you, produced from your own body; and I

n) Hebrew ephod. Possibly such a cape as the boy Samuel wore [I Sam. 2:18].

o) To the oriental woman, the severest possible punishment.

p) This chapter should chronologically come after ch. 8. The two are closely paralleled by I Chron. 17-18.

q) This statement was based on Nathan's personal judgment, not on divine revelation.

r) David had been disqualified because of his warfare [I Chron. 22:8; 28:3]. s) In Egypt.

t) A dynasty, culminating in the birth of the Messiah.

will confirm his sovereignty. <sup>13</sup>He, then, will build a house for My name,<sup>u</sup> and I will establish the throne of his kingdom forever; <sup>14</sup>so I will be for him a Father, and he shall be to Me a son.<sup>v</sup> But when your son does what is wrong, I will correct him with a rod as men must be corrected and with the strokes that come on the sons of Adam, <sup>15</sup>though My mercy shall not leave him as it left Saul, whom I removed before you. <sup>16</sup>Thus your house and your kingdom shall stand firm before Me forever. Your throne is eternally established. <sup>17</sup>In accordance with all these words and all this vision, Nathan delivered the message to David.

<sup>18</sup>Then King David, after he had come in,<sup>w</sup> remained in the LORD's presence and prayed, "Who am I, LORD God, and what is my house, that Thou hast brought me to this point? <sup>19</sup>Then, as though this were still a little thing in Thine eyes, O LORD God, Thou hast spoken also of the house of Thy servant in the far distant future. Is such treatment the standard for men, O LORD God? <sup>20</sup>What can David say further in speaking with Thee, since Thou knowest what Thy servant is like, O LORD God! <sup>21</sup>It is for the sake of Thy promises and in accordance with Thy decree that Thou hast wrought all these astounding things in informing Thy servant. <sup>22</sup>Surely, Thou art great, O LORD God; for there is none like Thee; nor is there any God apart from Thyself, according to all that has come to our ears.

<sup>23</sup>"Who, moreover, is like Thy people, like Israel, a nation unique upon the earth, whom God went to redeem to be a people for Himself and so enhanced His own name, doing for them great things and terrible, for Thy land before Thy people whom Thou didst redeem for Thyself from Egypt, and from nations and their gods? <sup>24</sup>Yes, Thou hast established for Thyself Thy people Israel to be Thine own people forever, and Thou, O LORD, Thou hast become their God.<sup>x</sup> <sup>25</sup>Now, O LORD God, confirm for eternity what Thou hast spoken about Thy servant and his house. Do according to Thy pledge <sup>26</sup>that Thy name may be forever great, as they say, 'The LORD of Hosts, He is God over Israel'; when the house of Thy servant David shall be established before Thee. <sup>27</sup>For Thou, LORD of hosts, God of Israel, Thou hast revealed to Thy servant, 'A house<sup>y</sup> I will build for you'; accordingly, Thy servant has found courage to pray to Thee this prayer. <sup>28</sup>Surely, O LORD God, Thou art God; Thy words are truth, and Thou hast promised this good thing to Thy servant. <sup>29</sup>Now may it please Thee to bless the house of Thy servant, that it may continue forever before Thee; because Thou, O LORD God, hast spoken, and because of Thy blessing the house of Thy servant shall indeed be eternally blessed."

1002 to 995 B.C.

8 IN PROCESS OF TIME DAVID OVERCAME the Philistines and humbled them, seizing the bridle of their mother city<sup>z</sup> from Philistine control. <sup>2</sup>He struck down Moab; he made them lie on the ground and measured them with a line, designating two parts for death, but one other full part to be spared alive.<sup>a</sup> So Moab became David's, as a subject people paying tribute. <sup>3</sup>David also defeated Hadadezer, the son of Rehob, king of Zobah, when the latter attempted to restore his power at the Euphrates River.<sup>b</sup> <sup>4</sup>David took captive 1,000 of his chariots, 700 cavalry and

u) Done by Solomon [I Kings 5:5].

v) Referring finally to Jesus Christ, the promised Descendant of David [Luke 1:32,33], who as God's Son occupies the eternal throne [Ileb. 1:5]; see also Ps. 2:7; Acts 13:33; and Heb. 5:5. I Chron. 22:10, which seems to apply these words to Solomon, appears to be simply quoting the entire passage as context, since II Sam. 7:13 and the last part of vs. 14 do in fact refer to Solomon and could not apply to Christ. w) To the tent sanctuary he had erected [6:17].

x) These last words are the central promise of the Testaments [Gen. 17:7; Exod. 6:7; and Rev. 21:3]. y) Not a building, like the "house" David wished to build for God, but a dynasty. z) Gath, I Chron. 18:1, then chief among their five main cities.

a) In this way their fighting men were divided mathematically into three parts, two of the groups being then ruthlessly butchered. Such behavior was the main reason why David must not build the temple; he was "a man of blood."

b) See 10:16-18, the second defeat of the Syrians; the verses of this chapter summarize the full account in 10:6-19. Aram reached further east than Syria; but what we know as Syria was Aram's western territory.

20,000 infantry, and he hamstringed all his chariot horses, reserving only enough for 100 chariots. <sup>5</sup>Then when Syrian Damascus came to the aid of Hadadezer, king of Zobah, David struck down 22,000 of the men of Syria and went on to station garrisons in the city. <sup>6</sup>So Syria became David's as a subject people paying tribute. The LORD gave David the victory everywhere he went. <sup>7</sup>David, moreover, took the golden shields which had been carried by Hadadezer's officers and brought them to Jerusalem <sup>8</sup>and from Bethah and Berothai, cities of Hadadezer, King David exacted an immense amount of bronze.<sup>c</sup>

<sup>9</sup>When Toi king of Hamath heard that David had overcome all the forces of Hadadezer, <sup>10</sup>he sent his son Joram to King David to greet him and to extend congratulations over the battle in which he had beaten Hadadezer, because Hadadezer had repeatedly been at war with Toi. With him were sent articles of silver, gold, and bronze, <sup>11</sup>which King David proceeded to devote to the LORD, along with the silver and gold which he had consecrated from all the countries he had subdued, <sup>12</sup>from Edom, Moab, the people of Ammon, the Philistines, Amalek, and from the booty of Hadadezer the son of Hchob king of Zobah.

<sup>13</sup>David, moreover, earned a name for himself at his return from striking down eighteen thousand<sup>d</sup> troops of Edom in the Valley of Salt. <sup>14</sup>He then posted garrisons in Edom, stationing them throughout the country, so that all the Edomites became subject to David. Surely the LORD gave David the victory wherever he went. <sup>15</sup>So David reigned over all Israel, executing justice and maintaining the right for all his people. <sup>16</sup>Joab the son of Zeruiah was over the armed forces; Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud was recorder;

<sup>17</sup>Zadok the son of Ahitub and Ahimelech the son of Abiathar were priests; Seraiah was secretary; <sup>18</sup>Benaiah son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites and the Pelethites; and the sons of David were assisting chiefs.<sup>e</sup>

9 DAVID MADE INQUIRY, "Is there still anyone left of the house of Saul to whom I may show kindness for Jonathan's sake?" <sup>2</sup>Now Saul's family had a steward named Ziba, whom they summoned to David. The king addressed him, "Are you Ziba?" "At your service," was his reply. <sup>3</sup>The king went on, "Is there not yet some member of Saul's house to whom I may show God's kindness?"<sup>f</sup> Ziba told the king, "There is still a son of Jonathan, with lame feet."<sup>g</sup> <sup>4</sup>"Where is he?" asked the king. To this Ziba replied, "You will find him at the house of Machir the son of Ammiel in Lo-debar." <sup>5</sup>So King David sent to bring him from Lo-debar out of the house of Machir son of Ammiel.

<sup>6</sup>When Mephibosheth, the son of Saul's son Jonathan, came to David, he prostrated himself, falling on his face; but David said to him, "Mephibosheth!" He answered, "Here is your servant." <sup>7</sup>David told him, "Have no fear, for I will show you sincere kindness for the sake of your father Jonathan. Moreover, I am restoring to you all the land of your grandfather Saul; and you on your part may regularly eat food at my table." <sup>8</sup>Again he prostrated himself, exclaiming, "What is your servant that you have regarded such a dead dog as myself?" <sup>9</sup>Then the king called Saul's steward, Ziba, with the orders, "All that belonged to Saul and his family I have given to your master's grandson; <sup>10</sup>work the land for him, you and your sons and servants, and bring in the produce, so that the heir of your master may have food

c) This was used by Solomon in building the temple [I Chron. 18:8]. Note other accumulations of David for the temple [I Chron. 22:2-5, 14, 15].

d) The title to Ps. 60, which mentions Joab, the brother and superior of Abishai as the general, says 12,000 were slain. Compare I Chron. 18:12.

e) Parallel passage [I Chron. 18:17] "and the sons of David were chiefs at the side of the king," which means, helping him.

f) David had sworn to Jonathan before God to care for his family [I Sam. 20:14-17]; see also 23:18; but Mephibosheth did not know that and feared revenge. g) See 4:4 and note.

to eat. But Mephibosheth, your master's grandson, shall eat food regularly at my table." Ziba had fifteen sons, along with twenty servants; <sup>11</sup>and he responded to the king, "Your servant will do all that my master the king commands his servant." So Mephibosheth ate at David's table as one of the king's sons. <sup>12</sup>Mephibosheth, by this time, had a little son named Mica. Thus all those that made up the household of Ziba became servants of Mephibosheth; <sup>13</sup>Mephibosheth himself, however, lived in Jerusalem because he was dining regularly at the king's table.<sup>a</sup> He was lame in both feet.

About 995 B.C.

10 IN THE COURSE OF EVENTS THE king of the Ammonites died,<sup>1</sup> and his son Hanun succeeded him on the throne. <sup>2</sup>David announced, "I will show friendship to Hanun the son of Nahash, as his father did to me."<sup>3</sup> David therefore sent by his attendants to console him about his father. But when David's embassy arrived in the land of the Ammonites, <sup>3</sup>that nation's officials advised their ruler Hanun, "Do you think it is to honor your father that he has sent you comforters? Is it not rather to get the lay of the city and to spy in it, so he can overthrow it, that David has sent his servants to you?" <sup>4</sup>So Hanun took David's attendants, shaved off half their beards, cut off their robes halfway, just below the belt, and dismissed them. <sup>5</sup>When it was told David, he sent to meet them, because the men were greatly humiliated. The king directed them, "Stay in Jericho until your beards grow out; then you can come back."

<sup>6</sup>When the Ammonites realized how seriously they had antagonized David against themselves, they sent and enlisted as mercenary troops twenty thousand Syrian infantry of Beth-rehob and of Zobah, also a thousand under the king of Maacah, and twelve thousand from the men of Tob. <sup>7</sup>David heard about it and dispatched Joab with the entire army, the mighty men. <sup>8</sup>The people of Ammon came out and drew up ranks for the conflict at the entrance of the gate,<sup>k</sup> while Syrians of Zobah and Rehob, together with the men of Tob and Maacah, were posted separately in the field. <sup>9</sup>But Joab, upon his discovery that the battle front was against him both in front and in the rear, picked a force out of all the men selected in Israel and spread them out to engage the Syrians; <sup>10</sup>the rest of the troops he assigned to the command of his brother Abishai to form for battle against the Ammonites. <sup>11</sup>"If the Syrians prove too strong for me," he said, "you are to be my support; but if the Ammonites prove too strong for you, then I will come to your defense. <sup>12</sup>Keep up your courage, and let us show strength for the sake of our people and for the cities of our God! Then let the LORD do what is good in His sight!"<sup>13</sup> So Joab and his forces took up the attack against the Syrians and routed them. <sup>14</sup>The Ammonites, too, when they saw the Syrians in flight, ran before Abishai and took refuge in the city. Then Joab broke off the campaign against the Ammonites and returned to Jerusalem.<sup>m</sup>

<sup>15</sup>But when the Syrians sensed their defeat at the hands of Israel they drew together, <sup>16</sup>and Hadadezer sent and summoned the Arameans that were beyond the river<sup>n</sup> to assemble at Helam. Shobach, general of Hadadezer's army, was made commander. <sup>17</sup>David, on being informed, mustered all Israel, crossed the Jordan and advanced on Helam. The Syrians drew up in array to engage David and joined battle against him. <sup>18</sup>Again Syria was routed before Israel, and David destroyed of Syria seven hundred chariots and forty thousand cavalry.<sup>o</sup> He struck down

h) To have a no-kin cripple daily at a royal palace was something unheard of.

i) Chs. 10-12, except for David's crime with Bathsheba, are paralleled by I Chron. 19-20:3.

j) This could hardly be the same Nahash with whom Saul had fought fifty-five years before

[I Sam. 11], but may have been a son, who probably helped David against Saul.

k) Of their capital city Rabbah; comp. 11:1. l) Combination of faith and works.

m) Too late in the year to undertake a siege; see 11:1.

n) East of the Euphrates, beyond the regular bounds of Syria.

o) Perhaps read better with I Chron. 19:18, "7,000 chariotry and 40,000 infantry."

Shobach, the commander of their forces, so that he died there. <sup>19</sup>As a result, all the kings under Hadadezer, when they saw that they were overwhelmed before Israel, made peace with Israel and became subject to them. Syria feared to send further aid to the people of Ammon.

11 THE FOLLOWING YEAR, AT THE time when kings march forth,<sup>p</sup> David sent out his officers under Joab with all Israel to devastate the Ammonites. They proceeded to lay siege to Rabbah, but David stayed in Jerusalem.<sup>q</sup> <sup>2</sup>Then one evening David got up from his couch and walked about on the roof of the royal palace. From the roof he saw a woman bathing, and she was exceptionally beautiful. <sup>3</sup>David sent to make inquiry about the woman and received the reply, "Is not this Bath-sheba, the daughter of Eliam and wife of Uriah the Hittite?"<sup>r</sup> <sup>4</sup>David ordered messengers to get her, and when she had come to him, he lay with her — she had purified herself from her uncleanness.<sup>s</sup> Then she went back to her house.

<sup>5</sup>The woman conceived and informed David, sending the message, "I am with child." <sup>6</sup>David's move was to communicate with Joab, "Send me Uriah the Hittite." Joab accordingly sent Uriah to David. <sup>7</sup>When Uriah reached him, David asked about the success of Joab, the troops, and the fighting, <sup>8</sup>after which he said, "Go down to your house, and wash your feet."<sup>t</sup> Uriah indeed went out of the royal palace, with a present from the king following him; <sup>9</sup>but he lay down at the entrance to the king's house with all his commander's officers and would not go down to his own home. <sup>10</sup>When David was informed, "Uriah did not go down to his house," he asked him,

"Have you not come in from a journey? Why did you not go down to your home?" <sup>11</sup>But Uriah replied to David, "The ark<sup>u</sup> and Israel and Judah are staying in makeshift shelters, and my superior, Joab, and his officers are camping in the open field. Should I, then, go to my house to eat and drink and be with my wife? I swear by your life, by the life of your soul, I shall do no such thing!" <sup>12</sup>David answered Uriah, "Stay here today too, and tomorrow I will send you off." So Uriah remained in Jerusalem that day and the next. <sup>13</sup>David called him to eat and drink in his presence and got him drunk; but in the evening he still went out to lie on his couch with his commander's officers and refrained from going down to his house. <sup>14</sup>So it came about that David next morning wrote a message to Joab, sending it by the hand of Uriah. <sup>15</sup>The message he had written was, "Put Uriah in the front line of the heaviest fighting; then withdraw from behind him so that he will be struck down and killed."

<sup>16</sup>The result was that Joab, as he was besieging the city, stationed Uriah in the position where he knew the enemy was in force. <sup>17</sup>Then when the men of the city attacked and joined battle with Joab, there fell some of the troops of David's followers; and among the dead was Uriah the Hittite.<sup>v</sup> <sup>18</sup>Joab subsequently sent and reported to David on the full events of the fighting. <sup>19</sup>He instructed the messenger, "When you finish telling the king all about the matters of the war, <sup>20</sup>if the king gets angry and asks you, 'Why did you draw so near the city to fight? Didn't you know how they would shoot from the wall?' <sup>21</sup>Who was it struck down Abimelech the son of Jerubbesheth?"<sup>w</sup> Was it not a woman who threw an upper millstone on him

p) Spring, after the rainy season. q) Premature retirement; he belonged with his warriors.

r) In 23:39, one of the "Thirty," David's distinguished soldiers.

s) Of menstruation [Lev. 15:19]. Polygamy, prohibited also to kings [Deut. 17:17], seems to have deadened David's moral sense. His crime is inexcusable and was at first punishable with death [Lev. 20:10], though God later relaxed the penalty because of the hardness of men's hearts [Matt. 19:8]. t) That is, rest, and spend the night with his wife, to cover up David's crime.

u) Apparently carried in battle; note 15:24-25 and I Sam. 4:3.

v) Joab thus joined David in his treachery, and David lost his true leadership.

w) Abimelech's father, Gideon [Judg. 9:50-54]. He was given the name Jerubbaal [Judg. 6:32]. But here a form of the Hebrew word for shame, bosheth, is substituted for the name of the shameful idol, Baal; see 2:8, footnote.

II SAMUEL 11, 12

from the wall, so that he died at Thebez? Why did you go so near the wall?'—then tell him, 'Your servant, Uriah the Hittite, he too is dead.'

<sup>22</sup>The messenger made the trip, came in and informed David about all for which Joab had sent him. <sup>23</sup>The messenger explained to David, "The men indeed got the advantage over us; they attacked us in the field, and when we had them backed right up to the entrance of the gate, <sup>24</sup>then the archers shot from the wall at your servants. Some of the king's soldiers died; and your servant, Uriah the Hittite, he too is dead." <sup>25</sup>David told the messenger, "Tell Joab, 'Do not let this affair worry you; the sword consumes now this way, now that; press your attack against the city more strongly and overthrow it.' And so encourage him."

<sup>26</sup>When Uriah's wife heard that her husband Uriah had died, she made lamentation over her master. <sup>27</sup>But after the mourning was over, David sent and brought her to his own house, where she became his wife and bore him a son. But what David had done was wrong in the sight of the LORD.<sup>x</sup>

About 993 B.C.

12 <sup>1</sup>TO DAVID THEN THE LORD SENT Nathan, who came and told him this story: "There were two men in a certain city, one of whom was rich and the other poor. <sup>2</sup>The rich man had flocks and herds in great numbers; <sup>3</sup>but the poor man had nothing at all except one little ewe lamb which he had bought and nurtured, so that it grew up with him, along with his children. It ate its part of his little food, drank out of his cup, and lay down in his arms; it was like a daughter to him. <sup>4</sup>Then a traveler came to the rich man who, unwilling to take an animal out of his own flock or herd for the use of his traveling guest, took the poor man's lamb to prepare for his visitor." <sup>5</sup>David's anger was greatly aroused

Nathan Accuses David; David Confesses

against the man. He said to Nathan, "As the LORD lives, the man who has done this deserves to die! <sup>6</sup>He must also make that ewe lamb good four times over,<sup>y</sup> because of this thing he has done and because he has shown no pity!"

<sup>7</sup>Nathan then said to David, "You are the man!<sup>z</sup> Here is what the LORD God of Israel has pronounced: I Myself anointed you as king over Israel. It was I who rescued you out of the hand of Saul <sup>8</sup>and turned over your master's household to you, even delivering the wives of your former sovereign into your power. I transferred to you the nation of Israel and of Judah, and if that were not enough, I would advance you in many more ways. <sup>9</sup>Why have you despised the LORD's commandment by doing what is wrong in His sight? Uriah the Hittite you have struck down with the sword, and his wife you have taken to be your wife; you murdered him by the sword of the Ammonites. <sup>10</sup>So now, because you despised Me and stole the wife of Uriah the Hittite to be yours, the sword shall not turn away from your household. <sup>11</sup>Specifically, the LORD has declared: Observe now, I am raising up trouble against you from within your own family; I am going to take your wives from before your eyes and give them to your associate, who will use your wives as concubines with this sun shining on it. <sup>12</sup>As for you, you have acted in secret; but I will have this done with all Israel looking on, in broad daylight." <sup>13</sup>David confessed before Nathan, "I have sinned against the LORD."<sup>a</sup> Accordingly Nathan assured David, "The LORD on His part has taken away your sin; you will not die."<sup>b</sup> <sup>14</sup>Nevertheless, because you have provided by this action such an opportunity for the enemies of the LORD to ridicule, the son born to you must surely die."<sup>c</sup>

<sup>x</sup>) David had invited temptation. With much to eat and to drink and no great task, he experienced "the destruction that wastes at noonday." <sup>y</sup>) So the law in Exod. 22:1.

<sup>z</sup>) Usually what we object to most in others is our own chief weakness; it is a mirror of our lives; therefore we notice it so readily in others.

<sup>a</sup>) Compare Ps. 51, David's great confession to God at this time, and Ps. 32, in which he describes his feelings of guilt before confession and his joy at pardon.

<sup>b</sup>) God is a forgiving Father, in the O.T. as well as in the New.

<sup>c</sup>) Although forgiven, the sinner has to suffer discipline.

<sup>15</sup>After Nathan had returned to his house, the LORD struck with sickness the boy whom Uriah's wife had borne to David. <sup>16</sup>David appealed to God for the child; moreover, David began to fast; he went in and lay all night on the ground.<sup>d</sup> <sup>17</sup>The older men of his household tried to raise him up from the ground; but he would not, nor would he eat any food with them. <sup>18</sup>Finally, on the seventh day the boy died; but David's attendants were afraid to tell him the child was dead, because they reasoned, "See here! If we spoke to him while the child was alive and he paid no attention to what we said, how may he harm himself if we tell him the child has met death?" <sup>19</sup>But David caught sight of his attendants whispering together, realized that the boy had died, and asked them point-blank, "Is the child dead?" They replied, "He is dead."

<sup>20</sup>Then David got up from the ground, washed, anointed himself, changed his clothes, went into the LORD's house and bowed in worship. Re-entering his palace, he made it known that they should serve him food, which he proceeded to eat. <sup>21</sup>His attendants inquired of him, "What does this mean that you have done? For the living child you fasted and wept, but once the child was dead, you arose and took food!" <sup>22</sup>His reply was, "As long as the child was living, I did fast and weep, because I said, 'Who knows but the LORD may grant me mercy and let the child live?' <sup>23</sup>But now he is dead, and what would be the point of my fasting? Could I bring him back again? No, I shall go to him; but he will not come back to me."<sup>e</sup> <sup>24</sup>David, moreover, consoled his wife, Bathsheba, and went in to her. Thus she bore him a son whom he named Solomon.<sup>f</sup> The LORD loved him <sup>25</sup>and sent word by the prophet Nathan, who named him Jedidiah,<sup>g</sup> for the LORD's sake.

<sup>26</sup>Meanwhile, Joab had fought against Rabbah of the Ammonites and had taken possession of the capital city. <sup>27</sup>At the same time Joab had dispatched messengers to David with the report, "I have fought against Rabbah and taken the part of the city by the water. <sup>28</sup>But now muster the rest of the troops and deploy against the city to complete its capture, so that I personally may not receive its surrender and have it called by my name." <sup>29</sup>David accordingly mustered all the forces, marched to Rabbah, fought against it, and completed its capture. <sup>30</sup>From the head of Malcam he took away the crown, the weight of which was ninety-two pounds<sup>h</sup> in gold, plus a precious stone, and it was placed on David's own head. He also carried off the plunder of the city in great quantity; <sup>31</sup>and the people that were in it he brought out and put to labor with saws and iron picks and axes, forcing them to keep working at the brick-molds. This he did to all the cities of the Ammonites, after which David and his whole army returned to Jerusalem.

About 990 B.C.

13 AFTER THIS, IT DEVELOPED that David's son Amnon fell in love with a beautiful sister of David's son Absalom, whose name was Tamar.<sup>1</sup> <sup>2</sup>Amnon felt so frustrated about his sister Tamar that it made him ill, because she was a virgin, and it seemed to Amnon impossible to get in touch with her. <sup>3</sup>But Amnon had a friend named Jonadab, the son of David's brother Shimeah, and Jonadab was a shrewd person. <sup>4</sup>He observed to him, "Why this wasting away morning after morning, you king's son; would you

d) There seems to have been no floor.

e) A comforting truth for all believing parents who have lost children, revealing such faith in O.T. times.

f) I Chron. 3:5 shows that Solomon was the fourth son of David and Bathsheba; two sons and at least three years must have separated the birth of the child that died from that of Solomon.

g) Beloved of Jehovah.

h) Troy weight; Hebrew: one talent, or about 75 lb. avoirdupois. The crown could not have been worn by a man, Malcam being the leading Ammonite idol [Zeph. 1:5]. The name was also spelled Milcom [I Kings 11:5,33].

i) This depraved passion of David's oldest son for his half sister follows in the wake of David's own immorality. Jonadab's "you king's son" [vs. 4], suggested that Amnon might take liberties similar to his father's.

not tell me?" Amnon confessed to him, "It is Tamar, sister of my brother Absalom; I am in love with her!" <sup>5</sup>Jonadab went on to suggest to him, "Lie down on your couch, and make out that you are sick. Your father will come to see you; then say to him, 'Oh please, let my sister Tamar come and give me something to eat. Have her fix the meal before my eyes, so that I may be able to see what I eat from her hand!'"

<sup>6</sup>Amnon, accordingly, lay down and pretended illness. When the king came to see him, Amnon repeated to him, "Oh please, let my sister Tamar come and make a couple of cakes before my eyes; then I may be able to eat from her hand!" <sup>7</sup>David sent to the palace to Tamar,<sup>1</sup> with the instructions, "Go now to your brother Amnon's house and prepare food for him." <sup>8</sup>So Tamar came to the house of her brother Amnon, where he was lying, took the dough, kneaded it, made cakes before his eyes, and baked them. <sup>9</sup>But when she took the pan and served them up before him, he refused to eat. Instead, Amnon demanded, "Every man out of my presence!" So they all withdrew.

<sup>10</sup>Then Amnon said to Tamar, "Bring the food into the bedroom so I may eat from your hand." Tamar accordingly took the cakes she had made and brought them into the bedroom to her brother Amnon. <sup>11</sup>But when she offered them to him to eat, he took hold of her and ordered her, "Come in, my sister, lie with me!" <sup>12</sup>She pleaded with him, "Oh no, my brother, do not force me; for this sort of thing must not be done in Israel! Not this disgraceful act! <sup>13</sup>As for me, where could I get rid of my shame? And you, on your part, would you become like one of that immoral pack in Israel? Just speak to the king now, because he would not refuse my becoming yours." <sup>14</sup>But he would not listen to her words; he was stronger than she and forced her, lying with her.

<sup>15</sup>Then at once Amnon's feelings turned to bitterest hatred; indeed, the hatred with which he hated her surpassed the love with which he had loved her.<sup>k</sup> Amnon dismissed her, "Get up, and get out!" <sup>16</sup>She cried to him, "Surely you would not be the cause of such a wrong, more terrible even than the other you have done to me, to drive me away!" But he would not listen to her <sup>17</sup>and called the attendant who waited on him, "Come, get this woman outside, out of my sight; and lock the door behind her!"

<sup>18</sup>Now she had on a long-sleeved dress that reached to the feet, because that was the sort of robe the virgin daughters of the king were accustomed to wear. And his attendant drove her outside, bolting the door after her. <sup>19</sup>Tamar sprinkled ashes on her head, tore the seams of the full-length dress she was wearing, placed her hand on her head,<sup>1</sup> and went wailing on her way.

<sup>20</sup>Her brother Absalom talked with her, "Was it your brother Amnon who was with you? Now, my sister, calm yourself; he is your brother; do not take this deed so much to heart!" But Tamar remained a desolate woman in her brother Absalom's house. <sup>21</sup>When King David heard of all these things, he was furious; <sup>22</sup>but Absalom exchanged not a word with Amnon, either bad or good; for Absalom lived in hatred of Amnon because of the way he had forced his sister Tamar.

<sup>23</sup>Two full years later, when Absalom had sheepshearers<sup>m</sup> at Baal-hazor near Ephraim, it came about that Absalom issued an invitation to all the king's sons. <sup>24</sup>He came in before the king with the request, "See now! Your servant has some men shearing sheep; may the king and his attendants be pleased to come with your servant." <sup>25</sup>David replied to Absalom, "I am sorry, my son; but if we all came it would be too great a burden on you." Even when he pressed him, the king

j) David of all men should have seen through the scheme, but his sin had deadened his discernment.

k) There had been no love, but only animal desire; hence the repulsive feeling when that desire had been satisfied. <sup>1</sup>) Signs of deep mourning [Esther 4:1; Jer. 2:37].

m) A time for keeping festivals [1 Sam. 25:2,8].

would not go, though he did wish him well. <sup>26</sup>So Absalom went on to suggest, "If you cannot, at least let my brother Amnon come with us." The king questioned him, "And why should he go with you?" <sup>27</sup>But when Absalom insisted, he sent Amnon with him, together with all the king's sons.

<sup>28</sup>Absalom proceeded to issue instructions to his servants, "Keep watch now as Amnon's heart gets merry with wine and when I tell you, 'Strike down Amnon,' then kill him. Be not afraid; am I not the one who gives you the orders? Have courage; be brave!" <sup>29</sup>Absalom's servants did to him as Absalom had ordered, at which all the king's sons got up, mounted their mules, and fled.<sup>n</sup>

<sup>30</sup>While they were still on the way, the report reached David, "Absalom has struck down all the sons of the king; not one is left!" <sup>31</sup>The king arose, tore his clothes, and fell prostrate to the ground, with all his attendants standing around with their garments similarly rent. <sup>32</sup>Then Jonadab, the son of David's brother Shimeah, spoke up, "Let not my sovereign suppose that they have killed all the young men, the king's sons; because it is Amnon alone who is dead. Judging from Absalom's looks, this has been planned from the day he forced his sister Tamar. <sup>33</sup>Now let there not weigh upon the heart of my master the king any such thought as, 'All the sons of the king have perished'; because it is really Amnon alone who is dead."

<sup>34</sup>Then, as Absalom was getting away, the young man who was on watch looked up and saw a large company approaching from the way of the mountain side behind him. <sup>35</sup>Jonadab explained to the king, "See, the king's sons have arrived; it was as your servant said." <sup>36</sup>He had barely finished his speaking when the king's sons arrived. They raised their voices in weeping; the king too, with all his attendants, wept most loudly. <sup>37</sup>Absalom, meanwhile, made good his escape and came to Talmai son of Ammihur, the king of Geshur.<sup>o</sup> David kept mourning over his son day after day; <sup>38</sup>but Absalom, having fled and having reached Geshur, stayed there for three years. <sup>39</sup>Then King David's heart longed for Absalom, for in time he had reconciled himself to the death of Amnon.

14 JOAB THE SON OF ZERUIAH knew that the king's heart went out toward Absalom. <sup>2</sup>So Joab sent to Tekoa and from that place he summoned a certain wise woman. He requested of her, "Come, play the part of a mourner; dress yourself now in mourning clothes; do not anoint yourself with oil, but be like a woman who has been many days in mourning over someone dead. <sup>3</sup>Then appear before the king and address him as follows," and Joab put the words into her mouth. <sup>4</sup>So the Tekoa woman came in before the king. After she had bowed with her face to the ground and prostrated herself, she presented her message, "Save me, O king!" <sup>5</sup>The king asked her, "What is your trouble?" "Alas, I am a widow," she said. "My husband is dead <sup>6</sup>and your maidservant had two sons. But the two fought each other in the field; there was nobody to separate them, and one of them struck the other down and killed him. <sup>7</sup>Now the whole family has risen up against your maidservant, demanding, 'Hand over the man who struck down his own brother, so we can execute him for the life of the brother he murdered'; — and at the same time destroy the heir. They would even put out my one burning coal that is left, so as to leave my husband neither name nor heir on the face of the earth!"

<sup>8</sup>The king assured the woman, "Go back to your house, and I will give orders on your behalf." <sup>9</sup>But the Tekoa woman persisted with the king, "On me be the guilt and on my father's house, my master and king, while the king and his throne stand innocent.”<sup>p</sup>

<sup>n</sup>) Incest, then murder. As David had ruined a home, so was his home ruined — the law of retribution. <sup>o</sup>) His maternal grandfather [3:3].

<sup>10</sup>The king replied, “Whoever raises a question with you, bring him to me, and he will not give you any more trouble!” <sup>11</sup>Still she continued, “Oh, let the king invoke the LORD your God so that the avenger of blood<sup>q</sup> may not add to the slaughter and so they will not destroy my son.” “As the LORD lives,” he then said, “not a hair of your son shall fall to the ground.”

<sup>12</sup>Upon this, the woman said, “I pray you then, allow your maidservant to mention a matter to my master the king.” “Talk on,” he agreed. <sup>13</sup>“Why is it,” asked the woman, “that you have considered such a thing as you have against the people of God? In the king’s pronouncing this judgment just now, he becomes one who condemns himself, because the king does not bring back his own who has been driven away. <sup>14</sup>For we all must die and are then like water spilled on the earth which cannot be recovered. God, however, does not sweep away life, but rather takes measures so as not to keep the banished away from Himself.”<sup>r</sup>
<sup>15</sup>So now, my coming to present this case to the king my master was because the people made me afraid; and your maidservant resolved, ‘I am going to speak to the king. Perhaps the king will perform his servant’s request.’
<sup>16</sup>Surely the king will agree to rescue his servant from the hand of the man who would destroy both myself and my son from God’s inheritance.”<sup>s</sup> <sup>17</sup>So your maidservant has requested, ‘Please, may the decision of my master the king be one that sets the situation at ease; because as the Angel of God,<sup>t</sup> so is my master the king, to discern right and wrong.’ The LORD your God be with you.”

<sup>18</sup>Then the king answered the woman, “Please do not hide from me what I am going to ask you.” The woman replied, “Oh, let my master the king speak!” <sup>19</sup>The king went on, “Is the hand of Joab behind you in all this?”<sup>u</sup>
 The woman therefore confessed, “As sure as your life, O my master and king, one cannot turn to either the right or the left from exactly what my master the king has said! For it was your servant Joab who gave me the orders; he is the one who put all these words in the mouth of your maidservant. <sup>20</sup>It was to place the matter in a different light that your servant Joab did this thing, but my master has perception like the wisdom of the Angel of God, so as to know everything on the earth!”

<sup>21</sup>David told Joab, “Look here! I have decided for this thing. So go and bring the young man Absalom back!”

<sup>22</sup>Joab fell on his face to the ground, prostrated himself, and was profuse in his gratitude toward the king. “Today,” Joab said, “your servant knows that I have found favor in your eyes, O my master and king, because the king has granted his servant’s request.” <sup>23</sup>Then Joab arose, went to Geshur, and brought back Absalom to Jerusalem. <sup>24</sup>Still, the king directed, “Let him turn aside into his house; he is not to see my face.”<sup>v</sup>

Absalom, accordingly, lived at his own house and did not come into the king’s presence. <sup>25</sup>Throughout Israel there was not a man so much to be praised for his looks as was Absalom; from the sole of his foot to the crown of his head there was not a defect in him. <sup>26</sup>When he cut his hair, which he did at the end of every year because it became too heavy for him

p) A pardon from David for an unpremeditated crime would not have been sufficient to urge the king as reason why he should forgive Absalom. She therefore induced David to grant a pardon against a more serious guilt and to confirm it by invoking God in an oath. She thus left him no valid excuse for not similarly receiving Absalom back.

q) A close relative, who might take the punishing into his own hands [Num. 35:16-21].

r) That is, “If you do not seek Absalom soon, you may never be able to. Compare how God seeks wandering men.” The woman then reverts to her original story. s) Israel; see I Sam. 26:19.

t) Israel’s infallible guide [Exod. 23:20-21]. The Angel of God is more than an ordinary angel. Though distinct from God the Father, He is yet possessed of the attributes of deity and is identified with God, Christ pre-incarnate. Compare Gen. 16:7-13; Exod. 3:2-5.

u) It would therefore appear that Joab had made other efforts on Absalom’s behalf; though why, we are not told.

v) Halfway forgiveness is worse than no forgiveness [vs. 32]. This must have contributed to Absalom’s later rebellion.

and he had to cut it, the hair of his head weighed over three pounds<sup>w</sup> according to the royal standard. <sup>27</sup>There were born to Absalom three sons<sup>x</sup> and one daughter, named Tamar, who became a woman of beautiful appearance.

<sup>28</sup>After he had lived in Jerusalem two full years without seeing the king's face, <sup>29</sup>Absalom summoned Joab to send him to the king; but Joab would not come to him. He sent a second time, but still the general would not come. <sup>30</sup>Therefore Absalom ordered his servants, "Look at Joab's field that adjoins mine, the one there with his barley; go and set fire to it!" So Absalom's servants set the field on fire. <sup>31</sup>Joab leaped to his feet, and when he had come to Absalom at his house, he protested to him, "Why have your servants set fire to my field?" <sup>32</sup>Absalom answered Joab, "Now look! I sent to you with the message, 'Come here; so I can send you to the king to ask, "Why have I come from Geshur? It would be better for me if I were still there!"' Now therefore, let me go into the presence of the king, and if there is something wrong with me, let him put me to death!" <sup>33</sup>Then Joab went in and told the king, who summoned Absalom. Absalom came to the king and prostrated himself in his presence on his face to the ground before the king; and the king kissed Absalom.

983-979 B.C.

15 AFTER THIS ABSALOM APPOINTED for himself a chariot and horses and fifty men to run before him.<sup>y</sup> <sup>2</sup>Moreover, Absalom would get up early and stand by the entrance to the gate,<sup>z</sup> and whenever a man had a suit to come before the king for judgment, Absalom would call out to him, "From what city are you?" He would answer, "Your servant is from such and such of the tribes of Israel." <sup>3</sup>Absalom would tell him, "See, your claims are good and right; but you have nobody from the king to hear you." <sup>4</sup>Absalom would go on to say, "Oh, if only I were set up as judge in the land! Then any man with a case or a judgment could come to me, and I would see that he got justice!" <sup>5</sup>Furthermore, whenever a man approached to prostrate himself before him, he would extend his hand, lift him up, and kiss him. <sup>6</sup>Absalom acted like this for all the Israelites who were coming to the king for judgment, and so he stole away the loyalty of the men of Israel.

<sup>7</sup>And so it was at the end of four years that Absalom said to the king, "Let me go, I beg of you, to perform my vow which I promised the LORD in Hebron. <sup>8</sup>For your servant made a vow while I was living at Geshur in Syria, 'If the LORD will restore, will surely restore me to Jerusalem, then I will serve the LORD.'"<sup>a</sup> <sup>9</sup>The king gave him permission, "Go in peace." So he left and went to Hebron.

<sup>10</sup>Absalom proceeded to place agitators throughout the tribes of Israel, bearing the message, "When you hear the sound of the trumpet, then say, 'Absalom has become king in Hebron!'" <sup>11</sup>With Absalom, however, there went two hundred men from Jerusalem who had been invited and accompanied him innocently, knowing nothing of the plot. <sup>12</sup>At the time of his offering the sacrifices, Absalom also summoned Ahithophel of Giloh, David's counselor,<sup>b</sup> from Giloh, his city. Thus the conspiracy spread and the people with Absalom kept increasing.

<sup>13</sup>When a messenger brought David word, saying, "The allegiance of the men of Israel has been transferred to Absalom," <sup>14</sup>David ordered all his followers who were in Jerusalem with him, "Get up! We must flee or none of us shall escape from Absalom! Hurry and leave, lest he make speed and

w) Hebrew: 200 shekels.

x) The sons are not named, for they died before reaching maturity [18:18].

y) Signs of assuming royal power [I Sam. 8:11]. Weakness on the part of David is indicated by his failure to check his son. z) Where judicial cases were decided [Deut. 21:19; 22:15].

a) A hypocritical lie.

b) Both Ahithophel and his opponent, Hushai, had been members of David's "cabinet" [I Chron. 2:33]. Possibly Ahithophel's turning against David was because he was Bathsheba's grandfather; see 11:3 and 23:34.

overtake us, force disaster upon us, and cut down the city with the edge of the sword!" <sup>15</sup>The king's servants then responded to their ruler, "Whatever my master the king decides, we are at your service." <sup>16</sup>So the king departed, with all his household following him, though he left behind ten concubines to keep the palace.

<sup>17</sup>But as the king and all the people that were at his heels left, they paused at the last house. <sup>18</sup>While all his attendants were passing along beside him, and all the Cherethites, all the Pelethites,<sup>c</sup> and all the six hundred Gittites who had followed him from Gath<sup>d</sup> were marching in advance of the king, <sup>19</sup>the king asked Ittai of Gath, "What are you doing, coming with us? Go back, and be with the king because you are a foreigner; indeed, you are an exile from your own land. <sup>20</sup>Your coming was but as yesterday and should I today force you to wander with us, when I am moving, who knows where? Return and take back your fellow countrymen. Kindness and faithfulness be with you!" <sup>21</sup>But Ittai answered the king, "As the LORD lives and as surely as my master the king lives, wherever my master the king is, whether for death or for life, there shall your servant be!" <sup>22</sup>So David replied to Ittai, "Go, then; pass on!" Thus Ittai of Gath marched along with all his men, together with the children who were with him. <sup>23</sup>While all the people were passing by, the entire countryside was loudly weeping; and when the king crossed over the brook Kidron, all the people crossed too, in the direction of the desert.<sup>e</sup>

<sup>24</sup>Then see! Zadok and all the Levites with him, carrying the ark of God's covenant. They had set down the ark and Abiathar had come up, until the people had all finished crossing over from the city. <sup>25</sup>But the king instructed Zadok, "Return God's ark to the city. If I find favor in the LORD's eyes, He will restore me and have me see both it and its shrine; <sup>26</sup>if, on the other hand, He says this: I have no pleasure in you, then here I am, and He can do with me whatever seems best to Him." <sup>27</sup>The king continued to Zadok, "Do you understand? Go back in peace to the city; but let your son Ahimaaz and Abiathar's son Jonathan be with you, these two sons of you two. <sup>28</sup>See! I am going to be waiting at the desert fords<sup>f</sup> until word comes from you bringing me information." <sup>29</sup>So Zadok and Abiathar took the ark of God back to Jerusalem and stayed there. <sup>30</sup>David, meanwhile, was climbing the Mount of Olives, making the ascent weeping, with his head covered and walking barefoot.<sup>g</sup> Each man of all the people with him likewise covered his head and went up weeping as he climbed.

<sup>31</sup>Then someone brought David the announcement, "Ahithophel is among the conspirators with Absalom." And David petitioned, "LORD, I pray Thee, turn Ahithophel's advice into foolishness." <sup>32</sup>Besides, when David reached the summit, where God was worshiped, there came to meet him Hushai the Archite, with his coat torn and earth on his head.<sup>h</sup> <sup>33</sup>David said to him, "If you keep on with me, you will become a burden to me." <sup>34</sup>But if you return to the city and say to Absalom, 'I am willing to become your servant, O king; once I was your father's servant, now I am yours,' then you may be able to frustrate the advice of Ahithophel for me. <sup>35</sup>Will not the priests Zadok and Abiathar be there with you? In this way, anything you hear from the royal

c) See 8:18, note.

d) Originally, the 600 men that had made up David's outlaw band and fled with him to the Philistine city of Gath to escape Saul (I Sam. 27:2), and then continued with him in Ziklag, Hebron, and Jerusalem (I Sam. 30:1; II Sam. 2:3; 5:6). Now, 30 years later, there must have been changes in personnel; but "the 600 Gittites" maintained itself as a specially honored unit of faithful veterans.

e) From the high command assigned him in 18:2, he seems to have been an experienced Philistine general.

f) The road eastward from Jerusalem toward Jericho, through the northern end of the wilderness of Judah; see Luke 10:30. g) Of the Jordan; see 17:16.

h) All signs of mourning (Esther 6:12; Ezek. 24:17]. i) Compare 1:2.

j) Perhaps because he was too old.

palace you can tell Zadok and Abiathar the priests. <sup>36</sup>You see, they have their two sons there with them, Ahimaaz of Zadok and Jonathan of Abiathar, and by their hands you can send me any word you hear." <sup>37</sup>So Hushai, David's confidant,<sup>k</sup> came into the city at about the time Absalom was entering Jerusalem.

16 WHEN DAVID HAD GONE A SHORT distance beyond the summit, there to meet him was Mephibosheth's steward, Ziba, with a pair of saddled donkeys, loaded with two hundred loaves of bread, a hundred bunches of raisins, a hundred pieces of summer fruit, and a skin of wine. <sup>2</sup>"What do you plan with these?" the king asked Ziba. Ziba replied, "The donkeys are for the king's household to ride on, the bread and fruit for the attendants to eat, and the wine to serve as drink for those who faint in the desert." <sup>3</sup>"But where," asked the king, "is the son of your master?"<sup>l</sup> Ziba answered the king, "Ha, he is staying in Jerusalem, because he said, 'Today the people of Israel will restore to me the royal power of my father.'" <sup>4</sup>The king, in return, told Ziba, "Well then, all that Mephibosheth had is now yours."<sup>m</sup> "I prostrate myself before you, O my master and king," said Ziba. "Let me find favor in your eyes!"

<sup>5</sup>When King David came to Bahurim, there was a man named Shimei the son of Gera, who belonged to the family of Saul's house, coming out of that place, shouting curses as he came. <sup>6</sup>He also pelted David and all the king's servants with stones though all the people, including all the heroes, were at the king's right hand and his left. <sup>7</sup>In his cursing, Shimei said, "Get out, get out, you bloody criminal, you worthless scoundrel! <sup>8</sup>The LORD has brought back on your head all the blood of the house of Saul, whose place as king you took. The LORD has given the kingship over into the hands of your son Absalom. Look at you now in your calamity! For you are a man guilty of blood!"<sup>n</sup> <sup>9</sup>Zeruiah's son Abishai said to the king, "Why is this dead dog cursing my master the king? Let me go over and cut off his head!" <sup>10</sup>But the king replied, "What do you and I have in common, oh, you sons of Zeruiah? If he curses, and it is the LORD who has told him, Curse David, who can question, 'Why have you done this?'" <sup>11</sup>David went on to tell his servants, including Abishai, "See, if my son, who came from my own body, tries to take my life, how much more this man of Benjamin?"<sup>o</sup> Let him alone to shout his curses, because the LORD has told him to! <sup>12</sup>Perhaps the LORD will consider my misery and render me good instead of the curse that falls on me this day." <sup>13</sup>So David and his men went down the road, while Shimei was moving along the hillside opposite him, cursing as he went, casting stones at him, and throwing dirt. <sup>14</sup>The king, with all the people that accompanied him, arrived<sup>p</sup> exhausted, and got refreshment there.

<sup>15</sup>Meanwhile Absalom entered Jerusalem with all the people, the men of Israel. And Ahithophel was with him. <sup>16</sup>As soon as Hushai the Archite, David's confidant, reached Absalom, he called out to him, "Long live the king! Long live the king!" <sup>17</sup>"Is this the loyalty you have toward your friend?" Absalom asked Hushai, "Why haven't you gone along with your confidant?" <sup>18</sup>Hushai replied to Absalom, "Oh, no! Because it is the man chosen by the LORD, by this people and by all the men of Israel, whom I prefer; I will stay with him! <sup>19</sup>Furthermore, whom should I serve? Should it not be before his son's face? As I performed service

k) This had been his cabinet post with David [I Chron. 27:33].

l) Mephibosheth, the grandson of Ziba's former master, Saul, through Jonathan.

m) Too hasty a decision, for it later appears that Ziba was lying and that Mephibosheth's loyalty to David never wavered [19:24-28].

n) Referring to the seven descendants of Saul whom David had allowed to be killed by the Gibeonites at the time of the famine [21:1-9]. o) The tribe of Saul, whom David had replaced.

p) At the fords of the Jordan [15:28]. This flight through the wilderness of Judah is the setting of Psalms 3 and 63 by David.

before your father, so I will be in your presence!"

<sup>20</sup>Then Absalom turned to Ahithophel, "All of you, give your counsel. What are we to do?" <sup>21</sup>Ahithophel answered Absalom, "Go in to your father's concubines whom he left to keep the palace. Then all Israel will hear that you have made yourself detestable to your father and the hands of all those on your side will be strengthened." <sup>22</sup>So they pitched a tent for Absalom on the roof, and there in the sight of all Israel, Absalom went in to his father's concubines.<sup>q</sup> <sup>23</sup>Ahithophel's judgment, which he gave as counsel in those days, was as if a man inquired of the word of God; so it was with every recommendation of Ahithophel, both with David and with Absalom.

About 979 B.C.

17 <sup>1</sup>AHITHOPHEL NEXT RECOMMENDED to Absalom, "Let me now select twelve thousand troops that I may set out and pursue David this very night. <sup>2</sup>In this way I can overtake him while he is exhausted and still without resources and throw him into a panic, so that all the men with him will run. Then I can strike down the king as he is left alone <sup>3</sup>and restore the entire nation to you.<sup>r</sup> The one man you are after means the return of all; thus the whole nation will be at peace."<sup>s</sup> <sup>4</sup>The plan seemed good to Absalom, as well as to all the elders of Israel. <sup>5</sup>But Absalom said, "Call, if you will, Hushai the Archite, too. Let us also hear what he has to say." <sup>6</sup>When Hushai appeared before Absalom, Absalom told him, "Ahithophel has advised this way. Now, shall we do what he said? If not, you speak up, too!" <sup>7</sup>Hushai replied to Absalom, "This time the plan recommended by Ahithophel is not wise." <sup>8</sup>Hushai went on, "You know your father and his troops; they are fine soldiers, besides being embittered in their minds like a bear that has been robbed of her cubs in the open. Furthermore, your father is an experienced fighter; he is not going to stop with the people for the night. <sup>9</sup>See! Even now he has taken refuge in some hole or in one of the various places; and it will happen when some of our men fall in the first attack, that whoever hears the report will say, 'There has been a slaughter among the forces that follow Absalom.' <sup>10</sup>Then even the powerful man with a lion's heart will completely melt away; for all Israel knows that your father is a great soldier and that those with him are men of power. <sup>11</sup>So I recommend that you muster all Israel from Dan to Be'er-sheba around you,<sup>t</sup> troops as numerous as the sand by the sea, and you lead the march into battle in person. <sup>12</sup>Then if we come upon him in one of the places where he may be found, we will spread over him like the dew falling on the ground; and there will be left of him and of all the men with him not a one! <sup>13</sup>If, on the other hand, he withdraws into a city, all Israel will bring up cables to that city; and we will drag it down into the valley until there will not be found even a pebble there!"

<sup>14</sup>Absalom and all the men of Israel decided, "The advice of Hushai the Archite is better than that of Ahithophel."<sup>u</sup> For the LORD had decreed the overthrow of Ahithophel's good counsel, so that the LORD might bring ruin to Absalom.

<sup>15</sup>Hushai informed Zadok and Abiathar the priests, "Ahithophel counseled Absalom and the elders of Israel in such and such a way, and then I gave my recommendation of so and so. <sup>16</sup>Now therefore, send quickly and give David the warning, 'Do not spend this night at the desert fords, but be sure to cross over, or it may mean the destruction of the king and all the people with him.'" <sup>17</sup>Now Jonathan and Ahi-

q) The punishment Nathan had predicted for David [12:11-12]. It demonstrated the assumption by Absalom of the royal power [see note on 3:7], made reconciliation with David impossible, and so forced the people to take sides; it also was divinely forbidden.

r) The Septuagint adds "as a bride returns to her husband."

s) Had this plan been carried out, David's cause would have been utterly lost; but God works in human minds to work out His program.

t) The northern and southern limits of Palestine respectively.

u) David's prayer [15:31] was answered.

maaz were waiting at En-rogel; for a servant girl would go out and give them the messages with which they were to go and inform King David, because they must not be seen entering the city.<sup>18</sup> But a boy observed them and reported it to Absalom; so they both traveled rapidly and got to the house of a man in Bahurim who had a well in his courtyard; and down into it they went.<sup>19</sup> His wife took a covering and spread it over the well's mouth, then spread grain on it, which prevented discovery.<sup>20</sup> Absalom's officers came to the woman at the house and demanded, "Where are Ahimaaz and Jonathan?" She told them, "They crossed the water brook." They went to look, but when they found nothing, they had to return to Jerusalem.

<sup>21</sup>After they had gone, the two came up from the well, traveled on, and brought the information to King David.<sup>w</sup> They told David, "Get up, cross the water quickly, because Ahithophel has advised in such and such a way against you!"<sup>22</sup> So David and all the people with him arose and crossed the Jordan, until by daybreak there was not one who had failed to get across the Jordan.

<sup>23</sup>When Ahithophel saw that his recommendation had not been followed, he saddled his donkey, got up and went to his house in his own city, made arrangements for his household, and strangled himself.<sup>x</sup> So he died, and they buried him in his father's tomb.

<sup>24</sup>Now David reached Mahanaim, and Absalom crossed the Jordan with all the men of Israel accompanying him.<sup>25</sup> Absalom had appointed Amasa in Joab's place over the army. Amasa was the son of a man named Ithra the Ishmaelite,<sup>y</sup> who had gone in to Abigail the daughter of Nahash, who was the sister of Joab's mother Zeruiah.<sup>26</sup> So Israel and Absalom made camp in the land of Gilead.

<sup>27</sup>As David, meanwhile, entered Mahanaim, Shobi the son of Nahash, from Rabbah of the Ammonites, Machir the son of Ammiel from Lo-debar,<sup>z</sup> and Barzillai of Gilead from Rogelim,<sup>28</sup> brought bedding, basins, pottery, wheat, barley, flour, roasted grain, beans, parched lentils,<sup>29</sup> honey, curdled milk, flocks, and calves of the herd, for David and the people with him to eat. They had concluded, "The people will have gotten hungry, tired, and thirsty in the desert."<sup>a</sup>

18 DAVID PROCEEDED TO ORGANIZE the forces that were with him and appointed over them commanders of units of a thousand and a hundred.<sup>2</sup> He had the army advance, one third under the command of Joab, another third under Joab's brother Abishai son of Zeruiah, and the final third under the command of Ittai of Gath. But when the king informed his men, "I am surely going out with you myself,"<sup>3</sup> the people insisted, "You shall not go out! For if we are put to flight, they will not be concerned about us; even if half of us die, our fate will not matter. But you are worth ten thousand of us. So now, it will be better for you to be in position to send us support from the city."<sup>4</sup> The king said to them, "Whatever seems best to you I will do." Then the king took his post beside the gate while all the troops marched out by hundreds and by thousands.<sup>b</sup> <sup>5</sup>But the king ordered Joab, Abishai, and Ittai, "Deal gently for my sake with the young man, with Absalom." All the people heard it too, when the king gave his order about Absalom to all the officers.

<sup>6</sup>The troops took to the field to en-

w) The detail of this incident has led to the suggestion that Ahimaaz may be the author of I Samuel and II Samuel.

x) He realized that the delay, which enabled David to consolidate his forces, would prove fatal for Absalom's cause.

y) As in I Chron. 2:17, "Jether the Ishmaelite." Amasa was thus Joab's cousin; their mothers were half sisters of David. z) The early protector of Mephibosheth [9:4].

a) Psalms 61 and 62 may have this period of David's flight into Transjordan as their setting.

b) Absalom's delay must have given David opportunity to summon many of his loyal troops from frontier and other duty.

gaged Israel, and the battle was joined in the woods of Ephraim. <sup>7</sup>At that place the forces of Israel were overthrown before the servants of David and the slaughter there that day was heavy, amounting to twenty thousand men. <sup>8</sup>The battle, moreover, spread over the face of the whole country there, and the wooded terrain that day caused more destruction among the people than did the sword.

<sup>9</sup>Now Absalom was confronted unexpectedly by the servants of David. He had been riding his mule; but the mule had passed under a network of branches of a large tree, so that his head was caught in the tree and he was suspended between heaven and earth, while the mule on which he had been mounted trotted on. <sup>10</sup>A certain man saw it and informed Joab, saying, "Look here! I have seen Absalom hanging on a tree!" <sup>11</sup>Joab replied to his informant, "You have really seen him? Then why did you not strike him down to the ground on the spot? It would have been up to me to reward you with ten pieces of silver and a belt!" <sup>12</sup>"But if I were to hold in my palms a thousand pieces of silver," the man answered Joab, "I could not lift my hand against the son of the king; because in our hearing the king commanded you, Abishai, and Ittai to the effect, 'For my sake be sure to protect the young man Absalom.' <sup>13</sup>Or again, could I have acted treacherously against his life, when there is nothing that lies hidden from the king? And you yourself would have left me to my fate." <sup>14</sup>"I must not waste time with you this way," said Joab and, taking three darts in his hand, he drove them into the heart of Absalom while he was still alive in the center of the tree. <sup>15</sup>Then ten young aides, who carried Joab's armor, gathered around and struck Absalom to death.

<sup>16</sup>Joab then sounded the trumpet and the troops, thus held in check by Joab, turned back from pursuing Israel. <sup>17</sup>They took Absalom and threw him into the big pit that was in the woods, on which they heaped a very large pile of stones,<sup>d</sup> while all Israel ran, each man for his own tent. <sup>18</sup>Now Absalom during his lifetime had already taken and set up for himself the pillar in the king's valley; for he had said, "I have no son to preserve my name." So he called the pillar after his own name, and to this day it is known as Absalom's monument.

<sup>19</sup>Ahimaaz the son of Zadok pleaded, "Let me run and bring the king the good news, that the LORD has executed judgment for him from the hands of his enemies!" <sup>20</sup>But Joab told him, "You are not the man for the news this day. You can bear the news some other time but not today, because the king's son is dead." <sup>21</sup>Then Joab turned to a man from Cush, "Go, tell the king what you have seen!" The Cushite prostrated himself before Joab and ran off. <sup>22</sup>But Ahimaaz the son of Zadok kept pleading with Joab and asked again, "Come what may, please let me run, too, after the Cushite!" Joab asked, "Why do you want to run, my son? There is no news to bring you reward." <sup>23</sup>"Whatever be the case, only let me run!" "Run then," agreed Joab; and away ran Ahimaaz by the Jordan Valley road and passed the man from Cush.

<sup>24</sup>Now David was sitting between the two gates,<sup>e</sup> while the sentinel had gone up to the roof of the gateway by the wall. The latter lifted up his eyes, looked, and saw a runner coming alone. <sup>25</sup>The sentinel called out to inform the king and the king said, "If he is by himself, he must have news to tell!" He kept getting closer. <sup>26</sup>But then the sentinel saw another runner coming and he called out to the gatekeeper, "Look, here too, comes a single runner!" "He also must be bringing news," the king said. <sup>27</sup>The sentinel announced, "Now I can see the way the first man runs; it is like the running of Ahimaaz the son of Zadok." "A good man, he," said the king. "He is coming with a good report." <sup>28</sup>Ahimaaz called out, greeting the king,

c) His luxurious locks were caught in its branches, or his head caught in a fork of the tree.
d) This was the inglorious end of the man who put his own lust for power ahead of the law of God; comp. Achan [Josh. 7:26]. e) The inner and outer gates of Mahanaim in Transjordan.

"All is well!" and prostrated himself to the king with his face to the ground. "Blessed be the LORD your God," he went on, "who has delivered up the men that lifted their hands against my master the king!" <sup>29</sup>David queried, "But is there safety for the young man, for Absalom?" To this Ahimaaz replied, "When Joab, the king's servant, dispatched me, your servant, I saw a great tumult but I did not know what it was about." <sup>30</sup>"Turn aside then and take your post here," the king indicated. So he faced about and stood still.

<sup>31</sup>Just then, in came the man of Cush, with the message, "Hear the good news, O my master the king! For the LORD has executed judgment for you today from the hands of all those that rose up against you." <sup>32</sup>"But," asked the king of the Cushite, "is there safety for the young man, for Absalom?" The man of Cush replied, "May the enemies of my master the king, and all that rise up in revolt to harm you, be like that young man!" <sup>33</sup>The king was deeply moved. He went up to the open room on the roof of the gateway and wept, lamenting as he went, "O my son Absalom! My son, my son Absalom! If only I myself had died instead of you! O Absalom! My son, my son!"<sup>g</sup>

About 979 B.C.

19 THE INFORMATION WAS BROUGHT to Joab, "See, the king is weeping and lamenting over Absalom." <sup>2</sup>For all the people, too, the day's victory was turned to sorrow because they heard it said that day, "The king is in grief over his son." <sup>3</sup>The troops re-entered the city furtively that day, like people stealing away, who have been shamed by being routed in battle. <sup>4</sup>The king meanwhile wrapped up his face and cried aloud, "O my son Absalom! O Absalom! My son, my son!" <sup>5</sup>But Joab broke in on the king in the house, exclaiming, "You have today covered with shame the faces of all your men who have just now saved your life, the lives of your sons and your daughters, your wives, and your concubines, <sup>6</sup>by cherishing those who hate you and hating those who love you! You have made it clear this day that officers and men mean nothing to you, because now I know that, if Absalom were alive and all of us today were dead, it would be acceptable in your eyes! <sup>7</sup>Come on, therefore, get up and go out; speak heartily to your men! For I swear by the LORD, if you do not go out, tonight there will not be a man left with you! This will turn out to be more disastrous for you than all the troubles you have experienced from your youth till now!"

<sup>8</sup>So the king got up and took his seat in the gate, and when they told all the troops, "Look, the king is sitting in the gate!" they all came before the king.

Now Israel had run, every man for his tent. <sup>9</sup>And all the people were blaming each other throughout the tribes of Israel, saying, "The king saved us from the power of our enemies. He rescued us from the hand of the Philistines. But now he has fled the country on account of Absalom. <sup>10</sup>Yet Absalom, whom we anointed over us, is dead in battle. Now why do you hesitate about bringing the king back?" <sup>11</sup>David, accordingly, sent to Zadok and Abiathar, the priests, suggesting, "Ask the elders of Judah, 'Why are you so backward about restoring the king to his palace, when the invitations of all Israel have come to the king at his house?' <sup>12</sup>You are my brothers, my very bone and flesh, so why should you be the last to bring back the king?"<sup>h</sup> <sup>13</sup>Then assure Amasa, 'Are you not my bone and my flesh? So do God to me and more, if you do not become army commander in my presence instead of Joab from now on!'" <sup>14</sup>So he swayed the hearts of all the members of Judah as if they had been one man; and they sent word to the king, "Come back, both you and all

<sup>f</sup>) Not an acceptable messenger.

<sup>g</sup>) David knew that his sin had started this train of calamities.

<sup>h</sup>) The reason was that they had taken a leading part in Absalom's revolt in their chief city, Hebron.

<sup>i</sup>) Compromise to win over Absalom's followers; also retaliation against Joab for having opposed David's weakness toward Absalom.

II SAMUEL 19

David Makes Adjustments

your servants!"

<sup>15</sup>So the king moved homeward. When he had gotten as far as the Jordan, Judah turned out to Gilgal to go and meet the monarch and escort him across the Jordan. <sup>16</sup>Then Shimei son of Gera of Benjamin, who was from Bahurim, hurried to come with the men of Judah to meet King David, <sup>17</sup>accompanied by a thousand men of Benjamin and by Ziba, Saul's family steward, with his fifteen sons and his twenty servants.<sup>1</sup> They rushed into the Jordan before the king, <sup>18</sup>and they kept crossing the ford to bring over the king's household and to do whatever he thought good.

Shimei the son of Gera fell before the king as he was about to make the Jordan crossing, <sup>19</sup> imploring him, "O my master, do not hold me guilty! Do not retain in your memory the perverse way your servant acted the time my master the king left Jerusalem, that the king should keep it in mind! <sup>20</sup>For your servant acknowledges how I have sinned. See, I have come today as the first of all the house of Joseph<sup>k</sup> to come down to greet my master the king!"

<sup>21</sup>Abishai son of Zeruiah interjected, "Is not Shimei to be put to death for this, because he cursed the LORD's anointed?" <sup>22</sup>But David replied, "What do you and I have in common, you sons of Zeruiah? Truly you are today playing the opponent to me! Should anyone be put to death today in Israel? Do I not recognize that I am this day king over Israel?" <sup>23</sup>Then to Shimei the king declared, "You shall not die!" And the king confirmed it with an oath.<sup>1</sup>

<sup>24</sup>Next to come down and meet the king was Mephibosheth, the grandson of Saul. He had neither cared for his feet, nor trimmed his beard, nor washed his clothes<sup>m</sup> from the time of the king's departure up to the day of his safe return. <sup>25</sup>But as at Jerusalem he came to meet the monarch, the king asked him, "Why did you not go with me, Mephibosheth?" <sup>26</sup>"O my master and king," he replied, "my steward deceived me! You see, your servant said, 'I will surely have a donkey saddled for me to ride and go with the king,' because your servant is lame. <sup>27</sup>But he<sup>n</sup> has slandered your servant to my master the king. Still, my master the king is like an angel of God,<sup>o</sup> so do what seems good in your eyes. <sup>28</sup>For the whole house of my father were nothing but men condemnable to death before my master the king, yet you set your servant among those who eat at your table. Now what further right do I have, or how could I appeal for anything more to the king?" <sup>29</sup>The king remarked to him, "Why talk any longer? I have decided, 'You and Ziba are to divide the land!'" <sup>30</sup>Then Mephibosheth answered the king, "Let him take it all, so long as my master the king has come in safety to his palace!"

<sup>31</sup>Now Barzillai of Gilead had come down from Rogelim and had accompanied the king to the Jordan to escort him over the Jordan, <sup>32</sup>though Barzillai was quite old, being eighty. He was also the one who had sent the king provisions during his stay in Mahanaim, because he was very well-to-do. <sup>33</sup>The king made Barzillai the offer, "You accompany me across, and let me maintain you with me in Jerusalem." <sup>34</sup>But Barzillai replied to the king, "How many days are left to the years of my life that I should go up with the king to Jerusalem? <sup>35</sup>I am now eighty years old; could I distinguish good from bad, or could your servant appreciate what I might eat and drink, or could I enjoy listening any more to singing men and women? Why then should your servant be an added burden to my master the king? <sup>36</sup>Your servant will simply cross the Jordan with the king. Why should the king compensate me with such a reward?"

j) See 9:10.

k) He counts his tribe of Benjamin as part of northern Israel [comp. vs. 11], under the leadership of the Joseph tribes Ephraim and Manasseh, differing from Judah in the south.

l) David had not really forgiven Shimei [comp. I Kings 2:8-9]; and Shimei's "repentance" seems to have been a matter of expediency.

m) Signs of mourning [Ezek. 24:17]. n) The retainer, Ziba [16:1-4].

o) To see the truth. Comp. 14:17 and the accompanying footnote.

p) David thus partly retracted his award of the property to Ziba in 16:4; but he did not fully restore the original arrangement of 9:9.

<sup>37</sup>I beg of you, let your servant return to die in my own city near the grave of my father and my mother. But here is your servant Chimham,<sup>a</sup> if he may go over with my master the king; and for him do whatever you think best."

<sup>38</sup>"Chimham shall indeed go over with me," promised the king, "and I will do the things for him which you think best. Everything you choose for me to do for you, I will do."

<sup>39</sup>After all the people had crossed the Jordan and the king had passed over, the king kissed Barzillai and blessed him, and he returned home.

<sup>40</sup>The king moved on to Gilgal, accompanied by Chimham; while all the people of Judah, as well as half the people of Israel, conducted the king across.

<sup>41</sup>But soon all the men of Israel were coming to the king with the complaint, "Why is it that our brothers, the men of Judah, have monopolized you, bringing the king and his household across the Jordan, and all David's men with him?" <sup>42</sup>"Because the king is related to us," was the retort of all the men of Judah to the men of Israel. "Why should you be put out about this? Have we gotten fat at the king's expense, or has there been any favoritism toward us?"<sup>r</sup> <sup>43</sup>Then the men of Israel argued back against those of Judah, "We have ten shares in the king,<sup>s</sup> so we have a greater part in David than you have! Why now have you despised us? Was not our business first to bring us back our king?" What the men of Judah said, however, was more violent than the charges of the men of Israel.

About 979 B.C.

20 NOW THERE HAPPENED TO BE there a worthless fellow named Sheba the son of Bichri, of Benjamin, who blew the trumpet, saying, "In David we'll have no more part; in Jesse's last son, not a share! Depart, Israel's men, to your tents!"<sup>t</sup> <sup>2</sup>As a result all the men of Israel withdrew from David to follow Sheba the son of Bichri; but the men of Judah kept following their king, from the Jordan all the way to Jerusalem. <sup>3</sup>When David entered his Jerusalem palace, the king took the ten concubines whom he had left behind to keep the palace and placed them in a house of confinement. He maintained them but did not go in to them; they were kept separated until the day of their death as in life-long widowhood.

<sup>4</sup>The king then ordered Amasa, "Summon me the men of Judah within three days and report here in person."

<sup>5</sup>Amasa went to assemble Judah, but he delayed beyond the time specified to him."<sup>u</sup> <sup>6</sup>David therefore told Abishai, "Sheba, son of Bichri is becoming more dangerous to us now than was Absalom. You take your master's men and pursue the man before he will have occupied fortified cities and eludes our observation!" <sup>7</sup>So out with him marched the troops of Joab, the Cherethites and the Pelethites, and all the mighty men, advancing from Jerusalem in pursuit of Sheba the son of Bichri. <sup>8</sup>When they had arrived at the big stone that is in Gibeon, Amasa caught up and met them. Now Joab was dressed in his military coat with a belt over it, to which a sword in its sheath was fastened at his waist. But as he approached, the sword fell out. <sup>9</sup>Joab addressed Amasa, "Is all well with you, my brother?" And Joab took hold of Amasa's beard with his right hand as if to kiss him. <sup>10</sup>Amasa, however, did not notice the sword in Joab's hand, with which he struck him under the fifth rib, so that his intestines poured out on the ground. There was no second blow; he died.<sup>v</sup>

Joab and his brother Abishai re-

q) One of the sons of Barzillai [I Kings 2:7].

r) David had not shown partiality toward his own tribe of Judah as Saul had shown to Benjamin [I Sam. 22:7].

s) That is, ten of the twelve tribes were counted in northern Israel. Disunity and jealousy had marked the tribal relations before [Judg. 12:1-6], and later split the kingdom [I Kings 12:16-17].

t) Meaning, each man independent in his own home.

u) Judah may have hesitated to respond to this former officer of Absalom, with whom David was trying to replace Joab.

v) This was the second rival commander whom Joab eliminated by treachery [I Kings 2:5]; comp. Abner's death [II Sam. 3:27].

sumed the pursuit of Sheba the son of Bichri. <sup>11</sup>But one of Joab's attendants was posted over the body to call out, "Whoever favors Joab, whoever is for David, follow Joab!" <sup>12</sup>Amasa, meanwhile, lay wallowing in his blood in the center of the highway. The man saw that the people were standing still, so he pulled Amasa off the highway into the field and threw a garment over him, having noticed how everyone coming up to him was standing still. <sup>13</sup>Once he was moved off the highway, all the troops marched on after Joab to chase Sheba the son of Bichri. <sup>14</sup>He had marched toward Abel of Beth-maacah, passing through all the tribes of Israel along with all the Berites,<sup>x</sup> who had gathered and had joined him. <sup>15</sup>But they<sup>y</sup> came and besieged him in Abel of Beth-maacah, raising up a mound against the city until it stood even with the fortifications while all the troops under Joab were battering to break down the wall. <sup>16</sup>But then a wise<sup>z</sup> woman shouted from the city, "Listen! Listen! Tell Joab now, 'Come here, so I can speak with you!'" <sup>17</sup>When Joab got near her, the woman called, "Are you Joab?" "I am," came the reply. She said to him, "Listen to the words of your maidservant!" "I am listening," he assured her. <sup>18</sup>So she addressed him, "In times past they used to say, 'Let them be sure to ask at Abel!'<sup>a</sup> And so a matter was settled. <sup>19</sup>Now here am I, of a peaceful and a loyal people in Israel; but you, on your part, are trying to destroy a city that is a mother in Israel. Why will you swallow up the LORD's inheritance?" <sup>20</sup>Joab answered, "Far be it from me, far be it, to swallow up and to destroy.

<sup>21</sup>Such is not the case! But there is a man from the hill country of Ephraim,<sup>b</sup> Sheba son of Bichri by name, who has lifted his hand against the king, against David. Give him up, only this one man, and I will withdraw from the city!" The woman answered Joab, "Look! His head will be thrown to you over the wall." <sup>22</sup>The woman then, in her wise way, went to all the citizens, who proceeded to cut off the head of Sheba the son of Bichri and to throw it out to Joab. He then sounded the trumpet, so that the troops dispersed from the city, each man to his own tent, and Joab returned to Jerusalem to the king. <sup>23</sup>Joab, it should be noted, was over all Israel's armed forces; Benaiiah son of Jehoiada commanded the Cherethites and the Pelchites; <sup>24</sup>Adoram was in charge of the labor gangs; Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud, was recorder; <sup>25</sup>Sheva was secretary; Zadok and Abiathar were priests; <sup>26</sup>Ira, too, from Jair, was chief assistant to David.<sup>c</sup>

About 990 B.C.

21 IN THE DAYS OF DAVID THERE was a famine, year after year for three years.<sup>d</sup> When David sought the LORD's presence, the LORD told him: It is because of Saul and his bloody house, for having put the people of Gibeon to death. <sup>2</sup>So the king called in the people of Gibeon to speak with them. Now the Gibeonites were not a part of the nation of Israel, but of the survivors of the Amorites with whom the nation of Israel had pledged with an oath; but Saul, in his zeal for the people of Israel and Judah, had tried to destroy them.<sup>e</sup> <sup>3</sup>David said to the men of Gibeon, "What am I to do in your behalf? By what means can I

w) To the troops brought up by Amasa.

x) A branch of the tribe of Asher [Num. 26:44], in the far north of Palestine.

y) Those with Joab.

z) "The wise" were a special group in Israel. Jeremiah 18:18 lists the three classes by which God guided His people: the wise man, with his "counsel"; the priest, who had "the law"; and the prophet, with "the word."

a) This itself appears to have been an early proverb, of the type with which the wise gave counsel. b) This area extended into Sheba's tribe of Benjamin [I Sam. 1:1].

c) The title cohen, usually given to priests, is also applied to David's sons [ch. 8:18]. See I Chron. 27:25-34 for further listings of David's ministers.

d) The exact date is not given; but it must have been after the coming of Mephibosheth to be with David in 995 a.c. [vs. 7]. Moreover, the deaths of vs. 8-9 seem to have been the subject of Shimei's cursing of David in 16:7-8, which would put the famine before Absalom's revolt.

e) This event is not elsewhere described in Scripture but it violated the treaty of peace made by Joshua with the Hivites [the more general name of "Amorites" is here used, comp. Gen. 15:16] of Gibeon almost 400 years before [Josh 9]. Famines and other natural calamities may be caused by sin [Deut. 11:17].

atone for this, so you will invoke prosperity for the LORD's inheritance?"

<sup>4</sup>"We are not concerned with silver or gold in the matter of Saul and his family," the Gibeonites answered him, "nor do we have the right to put a man to death in Israel." "What do you say I should do for you?" he asked. <sup>5</sup>They said to the king, "As for the man who destroyed us, who planned to exterminate us from having a place in all the territory of Israel, <sup>6</sup>let seven of his sons be handed over to us, to expose their broken corpses to the LORD in Gibeah of Saul, this chosen one of the LORD!"<sup>1</sup> "I will hand them over," agreed the king. <sup>7</sup>Then, although the king spared Mephibosheth, the son of Saul's son Jonathan, because of the LORD's oath between them, between David and Saul's son Jonathan,<sup>8</sup> the king did take Armoni and Mephibosheth, the two sons of Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, whom she had borne to Saul, and the five sons of Saul's daughter Merab, whom she had borne to Adriel the son of Barzillai from Meholah,<sup>9</sup> and gave them up into the hands of the men of Gibeon, who exposed their broken corpses on the hill in the presence of the LORD. The seven fell at one time, being put to death in the first days of reaping, at the beginning of the barley harvest.

<sup>10</sup>Rizpah the daughter of Aiah then took sackcloth and spread it out for herself on the rock, from the beginning of harvest until rain came pouring down from heaven on the bodies;<sup>1</sup> by day she let no bird of the air alight on them and by night no animal of the field. <sup>11</sup>When David was informed of what Rizpah, daughter of Aiah and concubine of Saul, had done, <sup>12</sup>he went and got the bones of Saul and the bones of his son Jonathan from the citizens of Jabesh-gilead, who had stolen them from the plaza of Beth-shan where the Philistines had fastened them up at the time they overcame Saul on Gilboa.<sup>1</sup> <sup>13</sup>David brought up from there the bones of Saul and those of his son Jonathan, and they gathered up the bones of the men who had been exposed; <sup>14</sup>then they buried the bones of Saul and his son Jonathan in Zela in the land of Benjamin, in the grave of Kish his father. When they had done all that the king commanded, God afterward answered the prayers for the land.

1005 to 995 B.C.

<sup>15</sup>At a time when the Philistines again made war against Israel,<sup>k</sup> David together with his men went down and engaged the Philistines; but David became exhausted. <sup>16</sup>Ishbi-benob, who was among the descendants of Raphah<sup>1</sup> and whose spear weighed over twelve pounds,<sup>m</sup> was there too with new armor belted on, and he threatened to destroy David. <sup>17</sup>But Abishai son of Zeruiah came to his rescue; he attacked the Philistine and killed him. It was then that David's men adjured him, "You must no longer go out with us to battle, that you may not put out the lamp of Israel!" <sup>18</sup>Later on there was war again with the Philistines at Gob; then it was that Sibbecai,<sup>n</sup> from Hushah, struck down Saph, who also was among the descendants of Raphah. <sup>19</sup>Another battle took place with the Philistines in Gob; and Elhanan the

f) A punishment sometimes prescribed for the worst criminals [Num. 25:4]. Sons of Saul were executed for their father's sin; but see Num. 35:33; Deut. 24:16. g) I Sam. 20:12-17.

h) For Rizpah, see 3:7; for Merab, which is the reading of the more correct manuscripts, see I Sam. 18:19.

i) Deut. 21:22-23 notes that bodies were not to remain hanging overnight; but in this case they were left until the rains ended the famine.

j) From the wall, beside which the public assembly place was located [I Sam. 31:8-13]. Comp. II Chron. 32:6.

k) These events therefore follow the first Philistine wars, described in 5:17-25, but precede the God-given rest from foreign armies granted David by about 995 B.C. [7:1]. They may be associated with the campaigns noted in 8:1, which ended with David's capturing Gath.

l) The Rephaim were an ancient people [Gen. 14:5], noted for their size but, except for Og's kingdom in Bashan, they had died out by the time of Moses [Deut. 3:11].

m) Hebrew: 300 shekels or a little under ½ oz. each; the metal weight probably refers to the head of the spear only.

n) One of the "thirty" heroes [I Chron. 11:29] and commander of the eighth corps of David's army [I Chron. 27:11].

II SAMUEL 21, 22

son of Jaare-oregim the Bethlehemite overcame Beth-Hal-Lahmi with Goliath<sup>o</sup> of Gath, whose spear had a staff like a weaver's bar.<sup>p</sup> <sup>20</sup>Once more there was war in Gath, this time involving a huge man with six fingers on each hand and six toes on each foot, twenty-four in all; he too was born of Raphah. <sup>21</sup>But when he taunted Israel, Jonathan the son of David's brother Shimei struck him down. <sup>22</sup>These four were born to Raphah in Gath, but they fell at the hands of David and his men.

22 DAVID SPOKE THE WORDS OF this song to the LORD at the time when the LORD delivered him out of the power of all his enemies,<sup>a</sup> including the power of Saul. <sup>2</sup>He said: The LORD is my Rock, and my Fortress,

insuring deliverance for me, <sup>3</sup>the God of my rock, whom I trust, my Shield, saving Horn,<sup>r</sup> and my Fort;

my Refuge, and Savior from harm.
<sup>4</sup>I call on my praiseworthy LORD, and I shall be saved from my foes!

<sup>5</sup>When breakers have swept me toward death and floods of the wicked dismayed, <sup>6</sup>when cords of the grave closed me in and snares holding death blocked my way,

<sup>7</sup>in anguish I cried to the LORD, and unto my God I appealed.
My voice from His temple<sup>a</sup> He heard;
my shouts carried into His ears.

<sup>8</sup>The earth then did tremble and quake, and heaven's foundations did shake;
they reeled back and forth at His wrath.

<sup>9</sup>The smoke from His nostrils arose, and fire from His mouth did consume;

David's Victory Song — Glory to God

live coals issued from Him in flame!

<sup>10</sup>He bent down the heavens to descend;
thick darkness was under His feet.

<sup>11</sup>He rode on a cherub<sup>t</sup> and flew, appearing on wings of the wind.

<sup>12</sup>The dark He placed round Him as tents, with masses of water and clouds.

<sup>13</sup>Yet brightness before Him so seared that burning coals burst into flame.

<sup>14</sup>From heaven the LORD thundered forth;
the Most High did utter His voice.

<sup>15</sup>His arrow-shots scattered the foe, with lightning He put them to flight.

<sup>16</sup>The sea channels came into view, the world's deep foundations lay bare,
because of rebuke by the LORD,
by blasts from the breath of His nostrils.

<sup>17</sup>He reached; from on high I was grasped;

He drew me from waters that swelled.

<sup>18</sup>He saved from an enemy strong,
from haters more mighty than I,

<sup>19</sup>who blocked me when I was distressed;
yet I found the LORD my support.

<sup>20</sup>He brought me out into the clear;
He saved, for His favor is mine!

<sup>21</sup>The LORD deals with me as I'm righteous, rewarding, as my hands stay pure;

<sup>22</sup>because I have kept the LORD's pathway, not straying in sin from my God.

<sup>23</sup>His judgments were looming before me;

His statutes — I left not their path.

<sup>24</sup>Integrity marks me before Him;

<sup>o</sup>) This phrase seems originally to have read. "Lahmi the brother of Goliath," [I Chron. 20:5].

<sup>p</sup>) Heavy to hold the threads taut. See I Sam. 17:7.

<sup>q</sup>) This song therefore goes with ch. 7; see vs. 1, written shortly after Nathan's Messianic promise to David; comp. vs. 51 with 7:16. The king subsequently made slight changes in it, so it would be better adapted to public use and included it as Ps. 18 of the Psalter.

<sup>r</sup>) The source of strength and defense, as in horned animals, comp. I Sam. 2:1.

<sup>s</sup>) As in Ps. 11:4, meaning "heaven," for note the description of His descent from it like a storm in vs. 8-17. Such a manifestation of God took place in a storm at Mt. Sinai [Exod. 19:16-20] and was taken up in the later poetry; comp. Deut. 33:2, Judg. 5:2-5, etc., though here it is symbolical for God's deliverance of David by less spectacular means.

<sup>t</sup>) Cherubim are angelic beings, appearing in human form but also having wings [Ezek. 1:5; comp. 10:1]. God's "riding upon" one may have been taken from the fact of His glory appearing between the cherubim on the ark. [See 6:2; Exod. 25:20-21].

I have guarded my doings from guilt.<sup>u</sup> <sup>25</sup>The LORD thus rewarded my rightness
as pureness was mine in His eyes.
<sup>26</sup>With merciful men Thou art gracious with upright men endlessly so.
<sup>27</sup>With pure men, Thou showest Thy purity;
the twisted are twisted to Thee!
<sup>28</sup>So Thou the afflicted dost save, marking down, yes, demoting the proud.
<sup>29</sup>For Thou now, O LORD, art my Lamp;
the LORD turns my darkness to light.
<sup>30</sup>By Thee, I can charge through a troop, vault over a wall by my God.
<sup>31</sup>This God, how complete is His way;
the word of the LORD, tried and true!
He is a shield to all them that trust in Him.
<sup>32</sup>For who is a God, save the LORD, and who is a rock, save our God?
<sup>33</sup>This God is my Tower and Strength;
He levels for me His good way.
<sup>34</sup>He places my feet like the deer and stands me erect on the hills.
<sup>35</sup>He teaches my hands to make war, my arms to draw bows made of bronze.
<sup>36</sup>Thou grantest me Thy saving shield;
Thy gentleness has made me great.
<sup>37</sup>Thou stretchest my stride on the ground
on ankles that never grow weak.
<sup>38</sup>My foes I pursue and destroy;
I turn not till they are consumed!
<sup>39</sup>I waste them and crush them until they rise not, but fall 'neath my feet!
<sup>40</sup>Thou bindest on me strength for war, dost under me challengers bend;
<sup>41</sup>To me Thou dost make foes turn tail;
my haters I bring to an end!
<sup>42</sup>Their look and there is none to save.
The LORD? But He answers them not!

<sup>43</sup>I sift them like dust of the earth, like street mud I trample them down!
<sup>44</sup>While saved from domestic complaints, of nations Thou keepest me chief,
and people unknown do my tasks.
<sup>45</sup>Those foreign come cringing to me, at hearsay obeying my will.
<sup>46</sup>The foreigners shrink in despair and, trembling, surrender their forts.
<sup>47</sup>The LORD lives, and blessed be my Rock!
Exalt God, my sure Rock of
salvation,
<sup>48</sup>the God who avenges my cause and under me nations subdues, <sup>49</sup>conducting me free from my foes!
From rivals Thou liftest me up,
from ruthless men rescuest me.
<sup>50</sup>I therefore will praise Thee, O LORD,
'twixt nations, and sing to Thy name.
<sup>51</sup>God heightens success for His king and with His anointed keeps faith, with David and offspring for aye.

970 B.C.

23 THESE, THEN, ARE THE LAST words of David:<sup>v</sup>
The statement of Jesse's son David, the word of the man who was raised on high,
anointed of the God of Jacob,
and noted as Israel's sweet psalmist:
<sup>2</sup>The Spirit of the LORD spoke this through me,
and His word was on my tongue.
<sup>3</sup>He said — it was Israel's God did the speaking,
it was Israel's Rock who revealed it to me:
A ruler who is righteous shall rise over men, who holds His dominion through reverence for God.
<sup>4</sup>He will be like the morning light at sunrise, of a morning that breaks without clouds,
when grass springs from earth by sunshine after rain.

<sup>u</sup>) David did not claim to be perfect, or beyond sin; but he consistently sought God's will in His life, a fact not true of his enemies [I Sam. 26:23-24], but confirmed for David by God Himself [I Kings 14:8].

<sup>v</sup>) More than just a farewell, this song, like the final blessing of Jacob [Gen. 49], is an inspired prophecy of the Messiah to come and of the saving covenant of which He would be the Mediator. In form, David's song seems patterned on the similarly prophetic last message of Balaam [Num. 24:15-24].

II SAMUEL 23

<sup>5</sup>For is not my house so established with God?

Eternal the covenant He settled with me;
in every respect it is ordered and sealed.<sup>w</sup>

It is all my salvation, though all His decreeing, for will He not cause it<sup>x</sup> to send forth a Branch?<sup>y</sup>

<sup>6</sup>The worthless shall all be like castaway thorn trees, for one is not able to take them in hand.

<sup>7</sup>Whenever a man attempts even to touch them
He is furnished with iron or the shaft of a spear.

They shall with a fire be consumed where they dwell.<sup>z</sup>

1003 B.C.

<sup>8</sup>These are the names of David's mighty men:<sup>a</sup> Josheb-basshebeth, a man of Tachemon,<sup>b</sup> known also as Adino of Ezen, chief of the military leaders. He stood up against eight hundred, whom he laid low at one time.

<sup>9</sup>After him, Eleazar the son of Dodai, a descendant of Ahoah, next among the three heroes, the men who were with David when they defied the Philistines. The enemy had mustered there for battle, and the Israelites had retreated upward; <sup>10</sup>but he himself advanced and struck down the Philistines until his hand was exhausted and stuck to his sword. So on that day the LORD won a great victory, and the people rallied behind him only to take booty. <sup>11</sup>After him was Shammah the son of Agee of Harar. The Philistines had mustered into a combat group at a particular part of the field that was full of lentils; the people had broken and run before the Philistines, <sup>12</sup>but he took up a position in the middle of that section, recovered it, and struck down the Philistines; so again the LORD won a great victory.

David's Farewell Blessing, His Heroes

<sup>13</sup>Now three of the thirty<sup>c</sup> leaders had gone down at harvest time to join David in the cave of Adullam, during the camping of Philistines in the valley of Rephaim. <sup>14</sup>At that time David was in the stronghold, but an outpost of the Philistines occupied Bethlehem. <sup>15</sup>Then David felt a longing and said, "If only someone could get me a drink of water from the well of Bethlehem there by the gate." <sup>16</sup>So the three heroes broke into the Philistine camp, drew water out of the well by the gate of Bethlehem, took it, and carried it to David. But he would not drink any; he poured it out as an offering to the LORD <sup>17</sup>with the exclamation, "Be it far from me, LORD, to do such a thing! Could I drink the blood of the men who went at the risk of their lives?" He would not, accordingly, drink any. This was what the three heroes did.<sup>d</sup>

<sup>18</sup>Then there was Abishai, Joab's brother and son of Zeruiah, chief of the thirty, who wielded his spear to lay low three hundred men, and he gained a reputation along with the three; <sup>19</sup>in fact, he was honored over the three by being made their superior<sup>e</sup> though he was not actually considered with them. <sup>20</sup>Also Benaiah<sup>f</sup> son of Jehoiada, who was the son of a worthy man of great accomplishments from Kabzeel. He was the one who struck down the two ariels<sup>g</sup> of Moab. He also went down and killed a lion in the

w) The contingency of faithlessness in David's descendants had been provided for by God, without invalidating the general covenantal promise of salvation in the final Messianic seed of David [7:12-16]. x) David's family of descendants.

y) A term which became a standard designation for the Messiah; comp. Isa. 11:1; Jer. 23:5; and Zech. 3:8. z) In this same way, Christ describes the final punishment of the wicked [Matt. 13:30].

a) This list belongs to the time of David's accession over all Israel; see I Chron. 11:10-47, where it appears with variants in spelling, etc., and with sixteen additions at the end.

b) More correctly, "Jashobeam, son of a man of Hachmon" [I Chron. 11:11]; see also I Chron. 27:2 and 32, in which chapter the names of twelve of the heroes, including his, appear in the list of the commanders of the twelve corps of David's armed forces.

c) The initial number in this "legion of honor"? Actually 37, including the outstanding three and the two commanders, are here listed [vs. 39], perhaps because of subsequent additions to the original group. d) Which three heroes is not specified.

e) He had commanded with Joab against Abner [2:24] and later led divisions in the wars against the Ammonites [10:10], against Absalom [18:2], and against Sheba [20:6]. His heroism with David in Saul's camp is recorded in I Sam. 26:6. f) Commander of the professional Cherethites and Pelethites, that made up David's guard [8:18; 20:23], and Solomon's leading general [I Kings 4:4]. g) "Lions of God," probably a general term for heroes.

middle of the pit on a snowy day, <sup>21</sup>and he destroyed an Egyptian of towering build, who had a spear in his hand; but he went at him with a club, snatched the spear from the Egyptian's hand, and killed him with his own spear. <sup>22</sup>These were things done by Benaiah son of Jehoiada. He too gained a reputation along with the three heroes; <sup>23</sup>but, though he was more honored than the thirty, he did not come up to the three. David appointed him over his guard.

<sup>24</sup>Then came Asahel,<sup>h</sup> Joab's brother and a member of the thirty; Elhanan son of Dodo, of Bethlehem; <sup>25</sup>Shammah and Elikah, both from Harod; <sup>26</sup>Helez from Beth-pelet; Ira son of Ikesh, from Tekoa; <sup>27</sup>Abiezer from Anathoth; Mebunai from Ithshah; <sup>28</sup>Zalmon, a descendant of Ahoah; Maharai, <sup>29</sup>and Heleb son of Baanah, both from Netophah; Ittai son of Ribai, from Gibeath of the people of Benjamin; <sup>30</sup>Benaiah; Hiddai from the valleys of Gaash; <sup>31</sup>Abi-albon the Arbathite; Azmaveth from Bahurim; <sup>32</sup>Eliabha from Shaalbon; Bene-jashen; Jonathan son of <sup>33</sup>Shammah and Ahiam son of Sharar, both from Harar; <sup>34</sup>Eliphclel son of Ahasbai, the son of the man from Maacah; Eliam son of Ahithophel<sup>i</sup> of Giloh; <sup>35</sup>Hesro from Carmel; Paarai from Arab; <sup>36</sup>Igal son of Nathan, from Zobah; Bani from Gad; <sup>37</sup>Zelek from Ammon; Naharai from Beeroth, who was armor-bearer to Joab the son of Zeruiah; <sup>38</sup>Ira and Gareb, both descendants of Jether; <sup>39</sup>and Uriah the Hittite,<sup>j</sup> making a total of thirty-seven.

About 975 B.C.

24 BUT THE LORD'S ANGER WAS again inflamed against Israel,<sup>k</sup> and one aroused David against them, saying, Go, number Israel and Judah. <sup>2</sup>The king proceeded to give orders to Joab, the commander of the army, who was present with him, "Make a survey now among all the tribes of Israel from Dan to Beer-sheba and register the people, so that I may know the population figure." <sup>3</sup>Joab tried to reason with the king, "May the LORD your God multiply the people a hundred times over what they are now, for the eyes of my master the king to see; but why should my master the king be pleased to do this thing?"<sup>l</sup> <sup>4</sup>The king's word, however, prevailed against Joab and the officers of the army; so Joab and the army officers went out from the presence of the king to register the people Israel.

<sup>5</sup>Having crossed the Jordan, they set up camp at Aroer, south of the city that is in the middle of the valley of Gad, and then moved on to Jazer. <sup>6</sup>Next they came to Gilead and the land of Tahtim-hodshi, then to Dan-jaan and so around to Sidon. <sup>7</sup>They proceeded to the fortress of Tyre and to all the cities of the Hivites and Canaanites, coming out finally in the south of Judah at Beer-sheba. <sup>8</sup>Thus when they had surveyed the whole land, they came back to Jerusalem at the end of nine months and twenty days. <sup>9</sup>Joab then turned over to the king the figures for the census of the people: Israel numbered eight hundred thousand able-bodied men who drew the sword; and the men of Judah were five hundred thousand.<sup>m</sup>

<sup>10</sup>But after he had taken the census of the people, David's conscience accused him, and David confessed to the LORD, "I have sinned greatly in what I have done. Now, LORD, I pray Thee, take away the wrong of Thy servant, for I have indeed played the fool." <sup>11</sup>When David got up in the morning, the word of the LORD came to the prophet Gad, David's seer: <sup>12</sup>Go, tell David, This is what the LORD has decreed: I offer you three things;

h) Killed when pursuing Abner in David's war against Ish-bosheth [2:18-23].

i) David's counselor, who deserted to Absalom [15:12f.]. j) The husband of Bathsheba.

k) The former instance was the famine described in ch. 21, about 990 B.C. Israel's sin in this case seems to be their participation in the successive revolts of Absalom and Sheba against David, the LORD's anointed. The parallel record in I Chron. 21 adds that Satan was used by God to accomplish His purpose. Comp. Job 1:6-12 and I Kings 22:20-22.

l) There was nothing inherently wrong in a census, but in this case David was looking to the armed strength of his people [note vs. 9] rather than maintaining his faith in the promises of God. Compare I Chron. 27:23.

m) I Chron. 21:5 notes that the total for Israel of men who drew the sword was 1,100,000 and that the figure for Judah was 470,000.

II SAMUEL 24

Retribution and Repentance

choose one of them for Me to do to you. <sup>13</sup>So Gad came to David with the information and presented him with this, "Shall there come seven<sup>a</sup> years of famine to you on your land, or three months of fleeing before your enemies with them pursuing you, or three days of a fatal malady in your land? Now consider, and decide what answer I am to return to Him who sent me."

<sup>14</sup>David replied to Gad, "I am in deep distress; let us fall, I pray, into the hands of the LORD, because His mercies are great; but into the hands of man may I not fall." <sup>15</sup>So the LORD sent a fatal malady upon Israel from the morning until assembly time;<sup>b</sup> and from Dan to Beer-sheba there died seventy thousand men of the people. <sup>16</sup>But when the angel stretched out his hand toward Jerusalem to destroy it, the LORD felt grief regarding the calamity and gave orders to the angel who was bringing the destruction among the people: Enough! Relax your hand now! This was when the LORD's angel was by the threshing floor of Araunah<sup>c</sup> the Jebusite.

<sup>17</sup>When David saw the angel striking the people down, he appealed to the LORD, "See, I am the one who has sinned; it is I who have acted wrongly. But these, the flock,<sup>d</sup> what have they done? Let Thy hand, I pray, be against me and my father's house!" <sup>18</sup>On that day, Gad came to David and told him, "Go up, and erect an altar to the LORD on the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite." <sup>19</sup>So David, following Gad's word, went up as the LORD had commanded.

<sup>20</sup>When Araunah looked down and saw the king and his servants crossing over to him, he went out and prostrated himself with his face to the ground before the king. <sup>21</sup>Araunah then inquired, "For what reason has my master the king come to his servant?" "To purchase the threshing floor from you," David replied; "so I can build an altar to the LORD, that the fatal malady may be restrained from continuing on the people." <sup>22</sup>"Oh, but let my master the king," Araunah remonstrated with David, "take and offer up whatever seems good in his eyes! See the cattle<sup>e</sup> for the burnt offering and the threshing sledges and cattle equipment for the wood." <sup>23</sup>All this, O king, Araunah is giving to the king." Araunah then added to the king, "May the LORD your God accept you favorably."

<sup>24</sup>"No," the king answered Araunah; "I will certainly buy it from you at a price; I will not offer the LORD my God burnt offerings that cost me nothing!"<sup>f</sup> So David bought the threshing floor and the cattle for about fifty silver dollars.<sup>g</sup> <sup>25</sup>Then David built an altar there to the LORD and offered up burnt offerings and offerings of peace. So the LORD answered the prayers for the land, and the fatal malady was removed from Israel.

n) Certain Greek texts here have "three years," which seems to be the original and correct reading, not simply because of the "three years" in I Chron. 21:12, but also because of the parallel threats of "three months" and "three days."

o) Probably that of the regular evening sacrifice [Exod. 29:39]. p) In Chron., Ornan.

q) Scripture frequently compares leader and people to shepherd and sheep; see 5:2 and Ps. 23.

r) Used to pull the wooden threshing sledges over the grain.

s) So God expects the Christian to yield Him at a cost the best in his life, not just what involves no sacrifice. t) 1¼ lb. in silver, troy weight; Hebrew: 50 shekels. I Chron. 21:25 mentions a greater amount, paid for the whole area.

THE FIRST BOOK OF KINGS

1 WHEN KING DAVID WAS OLD AND advanced in years, he could not keep warm, although they wrapped him in covers. <sup>2</sup>So his servants said to him, "Let them seek for my master the king a young virgin who shall wait upon the king and be his nurse. When she lies in your bosom, my master the king will get warm." <sup>3</sup>Therefore they searched all the territory of Israel for a beautiful young woman. Finally they found Abishag the Shunammite, whom they brought to the king. <sup>4</sup>The girl was very beautiful and she became the king's nurse and served him; however, the king did not cohabit with her. 970 B.C.

<sup>5</sup>About that time, Adonijah the son of Haggith exalted himself, saying, "I will be king." He provided for himself a chariot and horsemen, with fifty men running before him.<sup>a</sup> <sup>6</sup>His father had never repressed him by asking, "Why do you do so and so?" Moreover, he also had a very fine physique and was born next after Absalom. <sup>7</sup>So he consulted with Joab the son of Zeruah and with Abiathar the priest, for they were supporters of Adonijah. <sup>8</sup>But Zadok the priest, Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, Nathan the prophet, Shimei, Rei, and David's mighty men were not on Adonijah's side.

<sup>9</sup>When Adonijah sacrificed sheep, oxen, and well-fed cattle near the Slippery Stone at En-rogel, he invited all his brothers, the sons of the king, and all the Judean officers of the king. <sup>10</sup>But Nathan the prophet, Benaiah, the magnates, and Solomon he did not invite.

<sup>11</sup>Then Nathan spoke to Bathsheba the mother of Solomon, saying, "Have you not heard that Adonijah the son of Haggith has become king and David our lord does not know it? <sup>12</sup>Now, then, let me give you advice, that you may preserve your life and the life of your son Solomon. <sup>13</sup>Go at once to King David and say to him, 'Did you not, my master O king, swear to your maidservant, saying, "Solomon your son shall be king after me and shall occupy my throne?"' Why then has Adonijah become king?' <sup>14</sup>Then while you are still there speaking with the king, I will follow you in and support your words."<sup>b</sup>

<sup>15</sup>Then Bathsheba went in to the king, into his own apartment, for the king was very old, and Abishag the Shunammite was caring for him. <sup>16</sup>When Bathsheba fell upon her knees and paid homage to the king, the king asked, "What do you wish?" <sup>17</sup>She replied, "My master, you swore to your maidservant by the LORD your God, 'Solomon your son shall be king after me, and he shall occupy my throne.' <sup>18</sup>And see, now Adonijah has become king, and you, my master, O king, do not know about it. <sup>19</sup>He has sacrificed oxen, well-fed cattle, and sheep in

a) As Absalom had done. Adonijah was David's fourth son. With Amnon and Absalom dead, and Chileab not ambitious, his chances looked promising.

b) Ideally Israel remained a theocracy, in which the leading prophet and the high priest could, and should, exercise much authority.

abundance, and he has invited all the sons of the king, Abiathar the priest, and Joab the general of the army; but your servant Solomon he did not invite. <sup>20</sup>Now my master, O king, all Israel is looking to you to inform them as to who is to occupy the throne of my master the king after him. <sup>21</sup>As it is, when my master the king lies with his fathers, I and my son Solomon will be considered as criminals."

<sup>22</sup>While she was still talking with the king, Nathan the prophet came in. <sup>23</sup>They informed the king, "Here is Nathan the prophet!" When he came before the king, he bowed to the king with his face to the ground, <sup>24</sup>and said, "My master, O king, did you say, 'Adonijah shall be king after me and shall occupy my throne?' <sup>25</sup>For he went down today and sacrificed oxen, well-fed cattle, and sheep in abundance, and invited all the sons of the king, the commanders of the army, and Abiathar the priest. Even now they are eating and drinking before him and shouting, 'Long live King Adonijah!' <sup>26</sup>But me, your servant, Zadok the priest, Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and Solomon your servant, he did not invite. <sup>27</sup>Has this thing been done by my master the king and you have not informed your servants as to who shall occupy the throne of my master the king after him?"

<sup>28</sup>Then King David responded, "Call Bathsheba for me." When she came and stood before the king, <sup>29</sup>the king swore and affirmed, "By the life of the LORD who has redeemed me from all adversity, <sup>30</sup>since I have sworn to you by the LORD, the God of Israel, 'Solomon your son shall be king after me, and he shall occupy my throne in my place'; I will perform it this very day." <sup>31</sup>Then Bathsheba fell upon her knees with her face to the ground and paid homage to the king, saying, "May my master King David live forever!"<sup>c</sup>

<sup>32</sup>King David said further, "Call for me Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jeho-

iada." When they came into the presence of the king, <sup>33</sup>the king said to them, "Take with you the servants of your master, and see to it that Solomon my son rides upon my own mule, and bring him down to Gihon."<sup>d</sup> <sup>34</sup>There let Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet anoint him king over Israel; then sound the trumpet and shout, 'Long live King Solomon!' <sup>35</sup>Then come up again after him, so that he may enter and occupy my throne; he shall be king in my place, for I have appointed him ruler over Israel and Judah."

<sup>36</sup>Benaiah the son of Jehoiada replied, "So be it! May the LORD, the God of my master the king, so decree! <sup>37</sup>As the LORD was with my master the king, so may He be with Solomon and make his throne greater than the throne of my master King David." <sup>38</sup>Accordingly, Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, the Cherethites and the Pelethites, went out and made Solomon ride upon King David's mule and brought him to Gihon, <sup>39</sup>where Zadok the priest took the horn of oil from the tent and anointed Solomon. Then they sounded the trumpet and all the people shouted, "Long live King Solomon!" <sup>40</sup>And all the people followed him, playing flutes and rejoicing so much that the earth was split<sup>e</sup> by their noise.

<sup>41</sup>Adonijah and all his guests heard it just as they had finished eating. When Joab heard the sound of the trumpet, he said, "Why the sound of the city in tumult?" <sup>42</sup>While he was yet speaking, Jonathan the son of Abiathar the priest came in. Adonijah said, "Come in, for you are a man of standing and surely bring good news." <sup>43</sup>But Jonathan replied to Adonijah, "No, for our master King David has made Solomon king, <sup>44</sup>and the king has sent with him Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and the Cherethites and Pelethites, and they made him ride upon the king's mule. <sup>45</sup>And Zadok

c) David and Bathsheba seem to have drifted away from each other.

d) A spring less than ½ mile from Jerusalem, that supplied water for the city.

e) An earth-splitting noise.

the priest and Nathan the prophet have anointed him king at Gihon; they have come up from there rejoicing so that the city is in tumult. That was the noise you heard. <sup>46</sup>Besides, Solomon has occupied the throne of the kingdom <sup>47</sup>and the servants of the king have already gone to compliment our master King David, saying, 'May God make Solomon more renowned than you and magnify his throne above yours.' Then the king did homage upon his bed<sup>f</sup> and exclaimed, <sup>48</sup>'Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, who has provided an occupant for my throne while I can still see it with my own eyes.'"

<sup>49</sup>All Adonijah's guests were afraid, arose, and went each one his way, <sup>50</sup>while Adonijah himself was so fearful of Solomon that he too arose and went and took hold of the horns of the altar.<sup>g</sup> <sup>51</sup>Solomon then received this report: "Look, Adonijah is so fearful of King Solomon that he has taken hold of the horns of the altar, saying, 'Let King Solomon swear now that he will not kill his servant with the sword.'"

<sup>52</sup>Solomon replied, "If he proves worthy, not one of his hairs shall fall to the ground; but if evil be found in him, he shall die." <sup>53</sup>So King Solomon sent and brought him down from the altar. When he came, he did homage to King Solomon. King Solomon said to him, "Go home."

970 B.C.

2 WHEN THE TIME OF DAVID'S death came near, he advised his son Solomon: <sup>2</sup>"I am about to die. You must be strong and behave as a man. <sup>3</sup>You must observe the charge of the LORD your God, by walking in His ways, by observing His statutes, commands, judgments, and testimonies, as it is written in the Law of Moses, so that you may succeed in everything you do and in everything to which you may turn; <sup>4</sup>and that the LORD may confirm the word which He spoke to me: If your sons watch their steps, so as to walk before Me devotedly, with their whole heart and soul, there shall never be wanting for you a man upon the throne of Israel.

<sup>5</sup>"You also know how Joab the son of Zeruiah<sup>h</sup> treated me and how he struck the two captains of the Israelite army, Abner the son of Ner and Amasa the son of Jether, and murdered them, thus shedding the blood of war in time of peace and putting the blood of war on the girdle about his loins and in the shoes on his feet. <sup>6</sup>Now you must act wisely and not permit his gray head to go down to the grave peacefully. <sup>7</sup>But to the sons of Barzilai the Gileadite you must be kind and let them be with those who eat at your table, for so they assisted me when I had to flee from Absalom your brother. <sup>8</sup>Shimei the son of Gera, the Benjamite from Bahurim, is also with you. He cursed me violently at the time I came to Mahanaim. When he came down to meet me at the Jordan, I swore to him by the LORD, 'I will not kill you with the sword.' <sup>9</sup>So do not hold him innocent, for you are a wise man and know how to handle him; you must bring down his gray head in blood to the grave."

<sup>10</sup>Then David slept with his fathers and was buried in the city of David. <sup>11</sup>David was king of Israel for forty years; in Hebron he was king for seven years, and in Jerusalem he was king for thirty-three years. <sup>12</sup>Solomon then occupied the throne of his father David and his kingdom was firmly established.

<sup>13</sup>When Adonijah the son of Haggith came to Bathsheba the mother of Solomon, she said, "Is your coming peaceful?" He replied, "Peaceful," <sup>14</sup>and continued, "May I have a word with you?" "Speak," she responded. <sup>15</sup>He said, "You know that the kingdom was mine and that all Israel expected me to be king.<sup>i</sup> But now the

<sup>f</sup>) His death must have been near.

<sup>g</sup>) For law of asylum, see Ex. 21:13f.; and places of refuge Deut. 19:1-13. The horns were the most sacred part of the altar.

<sup>h</sup>) Retribution was in order for those who had misbehaved, and a purge was needed of those who were not loyal to Solomon.

<sup>i</sup>) A statement not in agreement with fact and Bathsheba must have known that, but she never displayed much moral stamina.

kingdom has gone to my brother because the LORD gave it to him. <sup>16</sup>Accordingly I have but one request of you; do not refuse me." She said to him, "Go on." He went on, <sup>17</sup>"Intercede please with King Solomon for he will not refuse you — that he give me Abishag, the Shunammite, as a wife." <sup>18</sup>Bathsheba answered, "Very well, I will speak to the king on your behalf." <sup>19</sup>So Bathsheba went to King Solomon to speak to him in behalf of Adonijah.

The king rose to meet her and bowed to her. Then he sat down on his throne while another throne was provided for the mother of the king who sat at his right. <sup>20</sup>She said, "I have one small request to make of you; do not refuse me." "Ask me, for I will not refuse you," replied the king. <sup>21</sup>She went on, "Permit Abishag the Shunammite to become the wife of Adonijah your brother." <sup>22</sup>King Solomon responded to his mother, "Why do you ask for Abishag the Shunammite for Adonijah? Ask also the kingdom for him! For my brother is older than I and Abiathar the priest and Joab the son of Zeruiah are for him." <sup>23</sup>Then King Solomon swore by the LORD, "So may God do to me and even more, if Adonijah has not spoken this word against himself. <sup>24</sup>Now, then, as the LORD lives, who has confirmed me and made me to sit upon the throne of David my father and who has made me a house, as He promised, Adonijah shall be put to death today." <sup>25</sup>Thus King Solomon sent Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, who struck him so that he died. <sup>26</sup>To Abiathar the priest the king said, "Go to your property at Anathoth. You deserve to die, but I will not now put you to death because you bore the ark of the LORD God before my father David and because you endured all the afflictions my father suffered." <sup>27</sup>Solomon also removed Abiathar from the priesthood of the LORD, to confirm the word of the LORD spoken concerning the house of Eli at Shiloh.

<sup>28</sup>When the report reached Joab — for Joab had supported Adonijah, though he had not supported Absalom — Joab fled to the tabernacle<sup>k</sup> of the LORD and took hold of the horns of the altar. <sup>29</sup>When King Solomon was informed that Joab had fled to the tabernacle of the LORD and was there at the altar, Solomon sent Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, saying, "Go, strike him down." <sup>30</sup>So Benaiah went to the tent of the LORD and said to him, "Thus has the king said, 'Come forth.'" He replied, "No; here I shall die." Then Benaiah brought word to the king, "Thus Joab spoke and thus he replied to me." <sup>31</sup>The king responded, "Do as he said. Strike him down and bury him, so that you may remove from me and from the house of my father the blood which Joab shed without cause. <sup>32</sup>The LORD will cause his bloody deeds to return upon his own head because he struck down two men more righteous and noble than he and murdered them without my father David knowing about it: Abner the son of Ner, the captain of the army of Israel and Amasa the son of Jether, the captain of the army of Judah." <sup>33</sup>Now may their blood return upon the head of Joab and upon the head of his descendants forever, and may the peace of the LORD be forever on David, his descendants, his house, and his throne." <sup>34</sup>So Benaiah the son of Jehoiada went up and struck him down and slew him. And he was buried in his own house in the desert. <sup>35</sup>Then the king put Benaiah the son of Jehoiada in charge of the army in his place; and Zadok the priest he appointed to take the place of Abiathar.

<sup>36</sup>Next the king summoned Shimei and said to him, "Build for yourself a house in Jerusalem and live there, but you must not go away anywhere; <sup>37</sup>for the day you go out and cross the brook Kidron, be assured that you shall certainly die; your blood shall be on your own head." <sup>38</sup>Shimei replied to the king, "The offer is good. Your

j) Because of Abishag's relation to David, she could now be married only to a king.

k) The temple not yet being built.

l) Joab had murdered both men to keep the generalship for himself. Contrary to David's explicit orders, he had also slain Absalom.

servant will do as my master the king has ordered." So Shimei lived in Jerusalem many days.

<sup>39</sup>It happened three years later that two of Shimei's servants ran away to Achish son of Maacah, king of Gath. When Shimei was informed, "Your servants are in Gath," <sup>40</sup>he arose, saddled his ass, and went to Gath to Achish to look for his servants. So Shimei went and brought his servants from Gath. <sup>41</sup>When Solomon was informed that Shimei had gone from Jerusalem to Gath and returned, <sup>42</sup>the king summoned Shimei and said to him, "Did I not make you swear by the LORD and warn you thus, 'Be assured that on the day you depart or go anywhere, you shall certainly die'? And you said to me, 'The offer is good; I have heard it.' <sup>43</sup>Now why did you not keep the oath of the LORD and the command which I laid upon you?" <sup>44</sup>The king said further to Shimei, "You are aware of all the evil which you knowingly did to David my father; may the LORD return your wickedness upon your own head; <sup>45</sup>but may King Solomon be blessed and the throne of David established before the LORD forever." <sup>46</sup>Then the king gave orders to Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, who went out and struck him down so that he died.<sup>m</sup> So the kingdom was firmly established by the hand of Solomon.

3 SOLOMON ENTERED INTO A MARRIAGE alliance with Pharaoh king of Egypt, took the daughter of Pharaoh, and brought her to David's city until he could finish the construction of his house, the house of the LORD, and the wall around Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup>But the people sacrificed on the high places because no house had yet been built for the name of the LORD. <sup>3</sup>Solomon loved the LORD, walking in the statutes of David his father; only he continued sacrificing and burning incense on the high places. <sup>4</sup>The king went to Gibeon to sacrifice there — for it was a great high place; a thousand burnt offerings Solomon offered upon that altar. <sup>5</sup>At Gibeon the LORD appeared to Solomon in a dream at night. God said: Ask what I shall give you.

<sup>6</sup>Solomon replied, "Thou wert very kind to Thy servant David my father, when he walked before Thee in truth, in righteousness, and in uprightness of heart with Thee. Thou hast kept for him this great kindness by providing for him a son to occupy his throne this day. <sup>7</sup>Now, O LORD my God, Thou hast made Thy servant king in place of David my father though I am a mere lad<sup>n</sup> and do not know how to go out or come in. <sup>8</sup>Thy servant is in the midst of Thy people whom Thou hast chosen, a great people which cannot be numbered or counted for multitude. <sup>9</sup>So give Thy servant an observant mind to judge Thy people rightly and to distinguish between good and evil. For who is able to judge this great people of Thine?"

<sup>10</sup>The request which Solomon made was pleasing in the sight of the LORD. <sup>11</sup>God said to him: Because you have made this request and have not requested for yourself long life, or riches, or the life of your enemies, but have requested for yourself understanding to recognize justice, <sup>12</sup>I have done according to your word; I have given you a wise and perceptive mind, so that there has been no one before like you nor shall one like you arise after you. <sup>13</sup>Moreover, that which you did not request I have given you, both riches and honor, so that throughout your days there shall be no king like you.<sup>o</sup> <sup>14</sup>If you walk in my ways, keeping my statutes and my commands, as David your father did, I will extend your days.

<sup>15</sup>When Solomon awoke, see, it was a dream! Then he came to Jerusalem, stood before the ark of the covenant of the LORD and offered burnt offerings, <sup>m</sup>) Benaiah—The LORD has built—a Levite, was among David's famous heroes. He killed a lion single-handed and with only a staff took a spear away from an Egyptian giant and killed him. He had captained David's bodyguard, at whose head he had escorted Solomon to his throne and now he was made commander-in-chief. <sup>n</sup>) I.e., in comparison with David.

<sup>o</sup>) Possessed of God-given wisdom, he should be able to handle wealth to God's glory.

made peace offerings, and made a feast for all his servants.

<sup>16</sup>Then two women of ill repute<sup>p</sup> came to the king and stood before him. <sup>17</sup>The one woman said, "Oh, my master, I and this woman live in the same house, and I had a child while with her in the house. <sup>18</sup>The third day after I had my child, this woman also had a child. We were together, and no one else was with us in the house; it was just we two in the house. <sup>19</sup>The son of this woman died at night because she lay on it; <sup>20</sup>so she got up in the middle of the night, took my son from my side and, while your maid-servant was sleeping, laid him in her bosom and placed her dead son in my bosom. <sup>21</sup>In the morning when I arose to nurse my son, look, he was dead! But when I could look at him closely in the morning, see, he was not my son whom I had borne."

<sup>22</sup>The other woman retorted, "Not so; my son is the living one and yours is the dead one." But the first woman affirmed, "Untrue; your son is the dead one and mine the living one." So they argued before the king. <sup>23</sup>The king remarked, "This woman asserts, 'This living one is my son; your son is dead'; and that one replies, 'Not so; yours is the dead son and mine the living son.'" <sup>24</sup>Then he ordered, "Get me a sword." When they brought the sword before the king, <sup>25</sup>the king said, "Cut the living child in two and give half to the one and half to the other." <sup>26</sup>Then the woman whose was the living son said to the king — for her motherly compassion went out to her son — "Oh, my master, give her the living child; only do not kill him." But the other woman retorted, "He shall be neither mine nor yours! Cut him in two!" <sup>27</sup>The king replied, "Give the first woman the living child — you must not kill him — for she is his mother."<sup>q</sup> <sup>28</sup>When all Israel heard about the decision the king had rendered, they respected the king because they saw that the wisdom of God was in him to administer justice.

4 KING SOLOMON WAS KING OVER all Israel. <sup>2</sup>These were his leading men: Azariah the son of Zadok was the priest;<sup>r</sup> <sup>3</sup>Elihoreph and Abijah the sons of Shisha were scribes; Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was the recorder; <sup>4</sup>Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was in charge of the army; Zadok and Abiathar were priests; <sup>5</sup>Azariah the son of Nathan was in charge of the officials; Zabud the son of Nathan was a priest and a friend of the king; <sup>6</sup>Ahishar was in charge of the house; and Adoniram the son of Abda was in charge of conscript labor.

<sup>7</sup>Solomon also had twelve overseers in charge of all Israel,<sup>s</sup> who supplied food for the king and his household, each one supplying food for one month in the year. <sup>8</sup>These are their names: the son of Hur, in Mount Ephraim; <sup>9</sup>the son of Deker, in Makaz, in Shaalbim, in Bethshemesh, and in Elonbeth-hanan; <sup>10</sup>the son of Heseid, in Arubboth (he had Socoh and all the territory of Hepher); <sup>11</sup>the son of Abinadab, in all the highlands of Dor (Taphath, Solomon's daughter, was his wife);<sup>t</sup> <sup>12</sup>Baana the son of Ahilud in Taanach, Megiddo, and in all Bethshean beside Zarethan below Jezreel, from Bethshean to Abel-Meholah, as far as the other side of Jokmeam; <sup>13</sup>the son of Geber, in Ramoth-Gilead (he had the tent villages of Jair the son of Manasseh, which are in Gilead and the territory of Argob which is in Bashan, sixty great cities with walls and bronze bars); <sup>14</sup>Ahinadab the son of Iddo, in Mahanaim; <sup>15</sup>Ahimaaz, in Naphtali and he married Basemath, Solomon's daughter. <sup>16</sup>Baana the son of Hushai, in Asher and Bealoth; <sup>17</sup>Jehoshaphat the son of Paruah, in Issachar; <sup>18</sup>Shimei the son of Ela, in Benjamin; <sup>19</sup>Geber the son of Uri, in the land of Gilead, the land of Sihon king of the

p) We would consider them "promiscuous." Rarely do modern prostitutes bear children.

q) Such a judgment indicates more than knowledge; it reveals feeling, intelligence and insight into a mother's heart. r) The high priest. s) Obviously one for each tribe.

t) Solomon was hardly past 20 when he took the throne. This statement probably names Abinadab's son as Taphath's future husband. She is mentioned only here.

Amorites and of Og king of Bashan; and one overseer was in the land.<sup>u</sup>

<sup>20</sup>Judah and Israel were as numerous as the sand by the sea; they ate, drank and enjoyed life.<sup>v</sup>

<sup>21</sup>Solomon was ruler over all the kingdoms from the River<sup>w</sup> to the land of the Philistines, to the border of Egypt. They paid tribute and served Solomon as long as he lived. <sup>22</sup>Solomon's food supply for one day consisted of 195 bushels of fine flour, 390 bushels of meal, <sup>23</sup>10 fat cattle, 20 pasture-fed cattle, 100 sheep, besides deer, gazelles, roebucks, and fattened fowls. <sup>24</sup>For he had dominion over everything on this side of the River, from Tiphseh to Gaza, and over all the kings this side of the River; and he was at peace on all sides, <sup>25</sup>so that Judah and Israel lived in security — each under his own vine and under his own fig tree — from Dan to Beer-sheba, so long as Solomon lived.

<sup>26</sup>Solomon also had 40,000 stalls of horses for his chariots and 12,000 horsemen.<sup>x</sup> <sup>27</sup>Those overseers, each in his month, supplied food for King Solomon and all who came to the table of King Solomon; they did not overlook a thing. <sup>28</sup>They brought barley and straw to the appointed place for the horses and the camels, each according to his allotment.

<sup>29</sup>God gave Solomon wisdom, very deep understanding, and range of mind as broad as the sand on the seashore, <sup>30</sup>so that the wisdom of Solomon was superior to the wisdom of the Easterners and to all the wisdom of Egypt. <sup>31</sup>He was wiser than all other men, than Ethan the Ezrahite, Heman, Chalcol, and Darda sons of Mahol;<sup>y</sup> and his fame spread to all the surrounding nations. <sup>32</sup>He also was the originator of 3,000 proverbs and the author of 1,005 songs. <sup>33</sup>He discoursed on trees, from the cedar of Lebanon to the hyssop which grows out of the city wall, and he talked on beasts, birds, reptiles, and fish.<sup>z</sup> <sup>34</sup>People from every nation, whose kings had heard about his wisdom, came to listen to the wisdom of Solomon.

5 WHEN HIRAM KING OF TYRE heard that they had anointed Solomon king in place of his father, he sent his servants to Solomon, because he had always been friendly with David. <sup>2</sup>Then Solomon sent this message to Hiram, <sup>3</sup>"You know that David my father was unable to build a house for the name of the LORD his God because of the wars which occupied him until the LORD put them<sup>a</sup> under the soles of his feet. <sup>4</sup>But now the LORD my God has given me rest all around; there is neither adversary nor opposition. <sup>5</sup>So I intend to build a house for the name of the LORD my God, as the LORD revealed to David my father, saying: Your son, whom I am putting on the throne after you, he shall build the house for My name. <sup>6</sup>Now then, give the order that cedars from Lebanon be cut for me; my servants shall work with your servants, and I will pay your servants whatever wages you ask, for you know that there is not a single person among us who can cut timber like the Sidonians."

<sup>7</sup>When Hiram received the message of Solomon, he was greatly delighted and said, "Blessed be the LORD today who has given to David a wise son to have charge of this great people." <sup>8</sup>Hiram then sent this message to Solomon, "I have received your communication to me. I am ready to comply with your request for cedar and cypress lumber. <sup>9</sup>My servants will bring them down from Lebanon to the sea, where I shall have them made into floats to be conveyed by sea to the place you designate where I will have them taken apart so that you can take them up.

u) In charge of all the officials.

v) Not intimating that the people thought of nothing else, but that, enjoying divine blessing, they were happy and content. w) So II Chr. 9:26, the Euphrates.

x) A dangerous accumulation [Deut. 17:16].

y) Ethan composed Ps. 89; Heman composed Ps. 88. They, with Chalcol and Darda, also Zimri, are mentioned in I Chron. 2:6, as five famous brothers of the tribe of Judah.

z) His writings required much thought and experience, and his discourses became possible as he grew intimate with people and with nature. Solomon heartily applied God's endowments.

a) His enemies.

You may pay me by supplying food for my household." <sup>10</sup>So Hiram gave Solomon all the cedar and cypress wood he wanted. <sup>11</sup>And Solomon gave Hiram 20,000 sacks of wheat for food for his household and 20,000 barrels<sup>a</sup> of pure oil. This was what Solomon gave to Hiram annually. <sup>12</sup>The LORD gave Solomon wisdom as He had promised him, and there was peace between Hiram and Solomon, for both of them had agreed to a treaty.

<sup>13</sup>Then King Solomon raised a battalion of conscript laborers from all Israel. It consisted of 30,000 men: <sup>14</sup>10,000 a month he sent by turns to Lebanon; one month they worked in Lebanon and two months at home. Adoniram had charge of the conscript laborers. <sup>15</sup>Solomon also had 70,000 transporters and 80,000 stonecutters in the mountains. <sup>16</sup>Besides Solomon's chief overseers, who had charge of the work, there were 3,300 foremen directing the people who did the work. <sup>17</sup>The king gave orders that large, costly stones be quarried to lay the foundation of the house with squared stone. <sup>18</sup>Thus the builders of Solomon, the builders of Hiram, and the Gebalites<sup>b</sup> quarried the stone and prepared both timber and stone for the construction of the house.

April-May 966 B.C.

6 IN THE 480TH YEAR AFTER THE children of Israel left the land of Egypt, in the fourth year of Solomon's reign over Israel, in the month of Ziv<sup>c</sup> (which is the second month), he built the house of the LORD. <sup>2</sup>The house which King Solomon built for the LORD was 90 feet long, 30 feet wide, and 45 feet high. <sup>3</sup>The porch in front of the temple itself was 30 feet long, as was the width of the house, and its width was 15 feet in front of the house. <sup>4</sup>He made windows with narrowed frameworks for the house. <sup>5</sup>Against the wall of the house he built side rooms all around — all around the walls both of the temple and the inner room<sup>d</sup> and he made cells all around. <sup>6</sup>The lowest side rooms were 7½ feet wide, the middle 9 feet wide, and the third 10½ feet wide, for he made recesses all around the outside of the house so that (the girders) should not be laid in the walls of the house.

<sup>7</sup>The house was built of stones dressed at the quarry; there was no sound of hammer, chisel, or any other iron tool while the house was being built. <sup>8</sup>The door of the lowest side rooms was on the right side of the house and by winding steps one could go up to the middle side chambers and from the middle to the third. <sup>9</sup>So he built the house and completed it; he paneled the house, beams, and pillars, with cedar. <sup>10</sup>He made the side rooms of the house 7½ feet high, and they were fastened to the house with cedar lumber.

<sup>11</sup>The word of the LORD came to Solomon, saying: <sup>12</sup>About this house which you are building, if you walk in My statutes, carry out My judgments, and observe all My commandments, I will fulfill My promise concerning you which I made to David your father. <sup>13</sup>And I will abide with the children of Israel and will never leave My people Israel.

<sup>14</sup>So Solomon brought the house to completion. <sup>15</sup>The inside walls of the house he covered with cedar boards from the floor to the rafters of the ceiling — he overlaid the inside with wood and covered the floor of the house with cypress boards. <sup>16</sup>At the back of the house he enclosed a space of about 30 feet with cedar boards from the floor to the rafters and made for himself inside the house an inner room, a sanctuary. <sup>17</sup>The house, the part of the temple before it,<sup>e</sup> was 60 feet long. <sup>18</sup>The cedar covering the inside of the house was decorated with designs of rosebuds and open flowers; only the cedar, and no stone, was visible. <sup>19</sup>He then prepared a sanctuary in the innermost part of the house for the

a) Following the Septuagint.

b) From Gebal, 13 miles north of Beirut, on the coast, the present Byblos.

c) Corresponding approximately to May, when he began to build.

d) The Holy of Holies, second room of the sanctuary.

e) The first room of the sanctuary, usually called "the holy place."

ark of the covenant of the LORD. <sup>20</sup>In front of the sanctuary, which was 30 feet long, 30 feet wide, and 30 feet high and which he overlaid with solid gold, he made<sup>f</sup> an altar of cedar. <sup>21</sup>So Solomon overlaid the inside of the house with solid gold and put golden chains across in front of the sanctuary which he also overlaid with gold. <sup>22</sup>He completely overlaid the whole house with gold, as well as the entire altar of the sanctuary.

<sup>23</sup>For the sanctuary<sup>g</sup> he made two cherubim of olivewood, 15 feet high; <sup>24</sup>each wing of the one cherub was 7½ feet long, so that the distance from the tip of one wing to the tip of the other wing was 15 feet. <sup>25</sup>The other cherub also was 15 feet — both cherubim were of the same size and shape. <sup>26</sup>The height of one cherub was 15 feet, as was that of the other. <sup>27</sup>He put the cherubim in the inner room of the house, the wings of the cherubim being spread out so that the wing of one touched one wall and the wing of the other touched the other wall, while their wings touched each other in the center of the house. <sup>28</sup>The cherubim he also overlaid with gold.

<sup>29</sup>The inside and outside walls of the house he decorated with engraved figures of cherubim, palm trees, and open flowers, <sup>30</sup>and the floor of the house he overlaid with gold, inside and outside. <sup>31</sup>For the entrance of the holy place he made double doors of olivewood, the lintel and the doorposts forming five sides and angles. <sup>32</sup>Both doors of olivewood he decorated with cherubic figures, palm trees, and open flowers, and overlaid them with gold; the cherubim and palm trees he overlaid with beaten gold. <sup>33</sup>Then he made square doorposts of olivewood for the entrance to the temple, <sup>34</sup>and two doors of cypress wood, the two leaves of the one door folded, as did those of the other door. <sup>35</sup>He decorated them with

cherubim, palm trees, and open flowers and overlaid them with gold, evenly spread over the engraved work. <sup>36</sup>The inner court he constructed with three courses of dressed stones and one course of cedar beams. <sup>37</sup>The foundation of the house of the LORD was laid in the fourth year,<sup>h</sup> in the month of Ziv, <sup>38</sup>and in the eleventh year, in Bul, the eighth month, the house was completed in every detail according to plan.<sup>i</sup> So he built it in seven years.

7 BUT IT TOOK SOLOMON 13 YEARS to complete the building of his own house.<sup>j</sup> <sup>2</sup>His house, constructed of Lebanese lumber, was 150 feet long, 75 feet wide, and 45 feet high, and rested upon four rows of cedar pillars with cedar rafters upon the pillars. <sup>3</sup>It was covered with cedar above the rafters upon the 45 pillars, 15 to a row. <sup>4</sup>There were three rows of window frames, with window facing window for the three rows; <sup>5</sup>and all the doors and windows had square frames, window over against window for the three rows. <sup>6</sup>He made a vestibule of pillars, 75 feet long and 45 feet wide with a porch in front of them and pillars and cornice in front. <sup>7</sup>He constructed a throne porch, a porch of judgment, where he might pronounce decisions,<sup>k</sup> and it was panelled with cedar from floor to roof. <sup>8</sup>The house in which he was to live was in a court other than that of the porch of judgment but of the same workmanship; he also made a house like this porch for Pharaoh's daughter whom Solomon had married.

<sup>9</sup>All these buildings were constructed, from the foundation to the coping and from the outside to the great court, of expensive stones, cut according to measure and sawed on both sides. <sup>10</sup>Even the foundation was made of expensive stones, large stones, stones of 15 feet and stones of 12 feet. <sup>11</sup>Above them lay expensive stones, cut

f) The altar for incense, outside the veil of the Holy of Holies and thus standing in the holy place, but belonging to the Holy of Holies.

g) The Holy of Holies; the cherubim above the mercy seat of the ark of the covenant.

h) Of Solomon's reign.

i) A reproduction but not a replica of the tabernacle. Essentially similar form and furniture but the framework of larger dimensions. j) Fewer workers or more elaborate construction.

k) The king was final judge, the "Supreme Court."

according to measure, in addition to cedar. <sup>12</sup>The great court had three courses of dressed stone and a series of cedar rafters just as the inner court of the house of the LORD and the porch of the house.

<sup>13</sup>Then King Solomon had Hiram brought from Tyre.<sup>1</sup> <sup>14</sup>He was the son of a widow of the tribe of Naphtali; his father had been a Tyrian bronze worker. He was intelligent, talented, and skilled in all types of bronze work. He came to King Solomon and did all his work. <sup>15</sup>He cast two bronze pillars; the one was 27 feet high with a circumference of 18 feet and the other like it. <sup>16</sup>Then he made two capitals of molten bronze for the top of the pillars, each 7½ feet high; <sup>17</sup>also trelliswork designs — festoons and chainwork — for the capitals on top of the pillars, seven for each capital. <sup>18</sup>Besides, he made the pomegranates,<sup>m</sup> two rows around the one trelliswork to cover the capitals on top of the pillars; he made the same for the other capital. <sup>19</sup>The capitals on top of the pillars in the porch were of lily design, six feet. <sup>20</sup>Moreover, the capitals on the two pillars above the adjacent circular projection on the trelliswork side had 200 pomegranates in rows around both capitals. <sup>21</sup>Then he set up the pillars at the porch of the temple; when he set up the right pillar he called it Jachin,<sup>n</sup> and when he had set up the left pillar he called it Boaz.<sup>o</sup> <sup>22</sup>On top of the pillars was a lily design. And so work on the pillars was finished.

<sup>23</sup>Next he made the molten sea, which was 15 feet from brim to brim, perfectly round, 7½ feet high and 45 feet in circumference. <sup>24</sup>Rosebud decorations under the brim surrounding it extended around it, ten in a cubit,<sup>p</sup> two rows of the rosebud decorations having been cast in the metal. <sup>25</sup>It rested on twelve oxen, three facing northward, three facing westward, three facing southward, and three facing eastward; the sea was mounted upon them, their back parts being turned inward. <sup>26</sup>It was four inches thick; its brim was made like that of a goblet, like a lily blossom, and its capacity was 18,000 gallons. <sup>27</sup>Then he made ten bronze bases; each base was six feet long, six feet wide, and four and a half feet high.

<sup>28</sup>This is the way the bases were constructed; they had borders; there were borders between the frames <sup>29</sup>and on the borders between the bases were lions, oxen, and cherubim, and on the frames the same; above and below the lions and oxen were punchwork rosettes. <sup>30</sup>Each base had four bronze wheels and bronze axles and the four corners had supports; the supports under the eaves were of cast metal with rosettes on the side of each. <sup>31</sup>Its mouth inside the supports and up was a foot and a half; it was round like the work of a pedestal for two and a half feet. Also upon its mouth were engravings and its borders were square, not round. <sup>32</sup>The four wheels were under the borders, while the stays of the wheels were on the base. The height of a wheel was about two feet. <sup>33</sup>The wheels were made like chariot wheels; their stays, their rims, their spokes, and their hubs were all cast. <sup>34</sup>There were four supports running to the far corners of each base, the support being part of the base. <sup>35</sup>At the top of the base was a round object nine inches high and on the top of the base its stays, the borders being part of the base. <sup>36</sup>On the plain spaces of the stays and upon the borders, he engraved cherubim, lions, and palm trees and around the space still left rosettes. <sup>37</sup>He made the ten bases in the same way; they were all identical in cast, size, and shape. <sup>38</sup>He made ten bronze lavers, each with a capacity of 360 gallons and each measuring six feet; one laver was placed on each of the ten bases. <sup>39</sup>He then placed five of the bases on the right side of the house and five on the left side, and the sea he placed on the right side of the house to the east, facing the south.

1) Not to be confused with King Hiram. His mother was a Hebrew.

m) Imitations in stone as those on the high priest's robe were of cloth.

n) "He establishes." o) "In Him is strength." p) A foot and a half.

<sup>40</sup>Hiram also made the lavers, the shovels, and the bowls. So Hiram finished all the work which he did for King Solomon for the house of the LORD: <sup>41</sup>the two pillars, the two bowl-like capitals on top of both pillars, the two trellisworks covering the two bowl-like capitals on top of the pillars, <sup>42</sup>the 400 pomegranates for the two trellisworks, two rows of pomegranates for each trelliswork, to cover both bowl-like capitals on top of the pillars, <sup>43</sup>the ten bases, and the ten lavers upon the bases, <sup>44</sup>and the one sea and the twelve oxen under the sea. <sup>45</sup>The pots, the shovels, and the basins, and all these articles which Hiram made for King Solomon for the house of the LORD were made of polished bronze. <sup>46</sup>He cast them in the clay molds in the Jordan district between Succoth and Zarethan.

<sup>47</sup>Solomon left (unweighed) all the articles; the weight of the bronze could not be ascertained because it was past counting. <sup>48</sup>So Solomon made all the articles for the LORD's house; the altar was made of gold and so was the table of showbread.

<sup>49</sup>The lampstands,<sup>q</sup> five to the right and five to the left of the sanctuary, were made of solid gold; the blossoms, the lights, and the tongs also were made of gold. <sup>50</sup>The goblets, the snuffers, the bowls, the pans, the censers were made of pure gold; the hinges of the doors of the inside house, the Holy of Holies, and those of the doors of the house, the temple, were also made of gold. <sup>51</sup>When all the work which King Solomon did on the house of the LORD was finished, he brought the dedicated things of David his father — the gold, the silver, and other articles — and deposited them in the treasuries of the LORD's house.

359 B.C.

8 THEN SOLOMON BROUGHT TOGETHER the elders of Israel — all the heads of the tribes, all the princes of the clans of the children of Israel — to King Solomon at Jerusalem, to transfer the ark of the covenant of the LORD from the city of David, which is Zion. <sup>2</sup>All the men of Israel came together to King Solomon for the feast in the month of Ethanim which is the seventh month.<sup>r</sup> <sup>3</sup>All the elders of Israel came and the priests took up the ark. <sup>4</sup>So they brought up the ark of the LORD, the tent of meeting and all the sacred articles in the tent; the priests and the Levites brought them up. <sup>5</sup>King Solomon and the whole congregation of Israel, assembled to him for the occasion, were with him in front of the ark, sacrificing sheep and oxen, so many they could not be numbered or counted. <sup>6</sup>The priests brought the ark of the covenant of the LORD to its place in the sanctuary of the house, in the Holy of Holies, under the wings of the cherubim; <sup>7</sup>for the cherubim spread out their wings over the place of the ark and formed a canopy over the ark with its carrying poles. <sup>8</sup>The carrying poles were so long that their ends could be seen from the holy place in front of the sanctuary, though they could not be seen from the outside.<sup>s</sup> They are there to this day. <sup>9</sup>Nothing was in the ark except the two tablets of stone which Moses put there at Horeb, where the LORD made a covenant with the children of Israel when they came out of the land of Egypt.

<sup>10</sup>When the priests emerged from the holy place, the cloud filled the house of the LORD, <sup>11</sup>so that the priests were unable to keep on ministering to the LORD because of the cloud; for the glory of the LORD filled the LORD's house.

<sup>12</sup>Solomon said, "The LORD said: He dwells in a heavy cloud. <sup>13</sup>I have indeed built a lofty abode for Thee; a house for Thee to dwell in forever."<sup>t</sup> <sup>14</sup>Then Solomon turned around and blessed the whole congregation of Israel, while the whole congregation of Israel stood. <sup>15</sup>He said, "Blessed be the

q) Mention of candlesticks in a Bible translation is unfortunate; there were no candles in Bible times and had there been, they would have been useless for God's house because oil in a bowl supplied the fuel for illumination, conveyed from the central bowl with wicks through golden pipes. r) Corresponding to October, in the rainy season.

s) They came through from the Holy of Holies, under the veil.

LORD God of Israel, who with His own mouth spoke to my father David and with His own hand has fulfilled it, saying: <sup>16</sup>At the time I brought My people Israel out of Egypt, I did not choose a city in any of the tribes of Israel where a house for My name should be built, but I chose David to have charge of My people Israel.<sup>17</sup> When David my father was minded to build a house for the name of the LORD God of Israel, <sup>18</sup>the LORD said to David my father: Although you were minded to build a house for My name — and you did well to be so minded — <sup>19</sup>indeed you shall not build the house; but your son who comes from your loins shall build the house for My name. <sup>20</sup>Now the LORD has fulfilled the promise which He made; I have been elevated in the place of David my father and occupy the throne of Israel, as the LORD said. So I have built the house for the name of the LORD God of Israel, <sup>21</sup>and I have made here a place for the ark wherein is the covenant of the LORD which He made with our fathers when He brought them up out of the land of Egypt.<sup>22</sup>

<sup>22</sup>Solomon stood in front of the altar of the LORD before the whole congregation of Israel and, spreading out his hands toward heaven, <sup>23</sup>said, "O LORD, God of Israel, there is no God like Thee in heaven above or in the earth beneath, who loyally observes the covenant with Thy servants when they walk before Thee with perfect devotion. <sup>24</sup>Thou hast kept Thy promise to David my father; with Thy mouth Thou hast spoken, and with Thy hand Thou hast fulfilled as it appears today. <sup>25</sup>Now, O LORD, God of Israel, fulfill for Thy servant David my father what Thou didst promise him saying: You shall never lack before Me an occupant for the throne of Israel, provided, indeed, that your sons pay attention to their ways so as to walk before Me as you did. <sup>26</sup>Now, therefore, O God of Israel, confirm Thy word which Thou gavest to Thy servant David my father.

<sup>27</sup>"But can God really dwell upon the earth? Behold, the heavens cannot contain Thee, how much less this house which I have constructed."

<sup>28</sup>Listen now, to the prayer and supplication of Thy servant, O LORD God, so that Thou mayest be responsive to the cry and prayer which Thy servant is uttering today in Thy presence; <sup>29</sup>that Thine eyes may be open night and day toward this house concerning which Thou hast said: My name shall be there, to hear the prayer Thy servant is offering toward this house.

<sup>30</sup>Give ear, therefore, to the supplication of Thy servant and of Thy people Israel, which they are making toward this place, and when Thou hearest it in Thy dwelling place in heaven, give ear and forgive.

<sup>31</sup>"When a man wrongs his neighbor, is made to swear an oath, and comes and swears before Thine altar in this house, <sup>32</sup>then hear Thou in heaven and act to judge Thy servants; sentencing the wrongdoer so as to punish him for his wrong and acquitting the righteous because of his innocence.

<sup>33</sup>"When Thy people Israel are routed before the enemy because they have sinned against Thee and they return to Thee, confess Thy name, pray, and implore Thy favor in this house, <sup>34</sup>then hear Thou in heaven, forgive the sin of Thy people Israel, and allow them to return to the land which Thou gavest to their fathers.

<sup>35</sup>"When heaven is sealed up so that it does not rain because they have sinned against Thee, and they pray toward this place, confess Thy name, and turn from their sin when Thou dost discipline them, <sup>36</sup>then hear Thou in heaven, forgive the sin of Thy servants, Thy people Israel — for Thou art instructing them in the good way which they are to go — and send rain upon the land which Thou gavest Thy people as an inheritance.

t) God prefers that we voluntarily honor Him.

u) The thought of God's omnipresence, of His infinity is not new. That He does make His presence felt where His people gather remains a never-ending wonder. Also that He so willingly dwells with a worshipping household.

<sup>37</sup>"When there is a famine in the land, when there is pestilence, when there is blight, mildew, locust, or grasshopper; when their enemy besieges them in any of their cities; when there is any plague or disease, <sup>38</sup>and any prayer or supplication is made by any one of all Thy people Israel who recognizes what his trouble is and stretches out his hands toward this place, <sup>39</sup>then hear Thou in heaven, Thy dwelling place, forgive, and act to reward each one, whose mind Thou knowest, in accordance with his conduct — for Thou alone knowest the mind of all men — <sup>40</sup>in order that they may revere Thee all the days that they live in the land which Thou gavest our fathers."

<sup>41</sup>"The foreigner" too, who is not one of Thy people Israel, but comes from a faraway land for Thy name's sake — <sup>42</sup>for they will hear of Thy great name, Thy mighty hand, and Thine outstretched arm — when he shall come to pray at this house, <sup>43</sup>hear Thou in heaven Thy dwelling place and do everything the foreigner requests of Thee, so that all the peoples of the earth may know Thy name, revere Thee as Thy people Israel do, and know that Thou hast accepted this house which I have built.

<sup>44</sup>"Whenever Thy people go out to fight their enemy, wherever Thou mayest send them, and they pray to the LORD toward the city Thou hast chosen and the house I built to Thy name, <sup>45</sup>then hear Thou in heaven their prayer and supplication and support their cause. <sup>46</sup>When they sin against Thee — for there is no one who does not sin — and in Thy wrath Thou dost abandon them to the enemy, so that their captors take them away as prisoners into a foreign land, near or far, <sup>47</sup>and then they think it over in the land where they have been taken as prisoners, repent, and implore Thy favor in the land of their captors, saying, 'We have sinned, done wrong, and transgressed,' <sup>48</sup>repenting with all their heart and soul in the land of their captors, where they took them, and pray to Thee toward their land which Thou gavest their fathers, the city Thou hast chosen and the house which I have built to Thy name, <sup>49</sup>then hear Thou their prayer and supplication in heaven, Thy dwelling place, support their cause, <sup>50</sup>forgive all the transgressions of Thy people who have sinned and transgressed against Thee, and grant them compassion before their captors so that they may show mercy toward them — <sup>51</sup>for they are Thy people, Thy heritage, whom Thou hast brought out of Egypt, out of the iron furnace.

<sup>52</sup>"May Thine eyes<sup>x</sup> be open to the supplication of Thy servant and to the supplication of Thy people Israel so as to listen to them whenever they call to Thee. <sup>53</sup>For Thou didst set them apart from all the peoples of the earth as Thy heritage, as Thou didst say through Moses Thy servant when Thou didst bring our fathers from Egypt, O LORD GOD."

<sup>54</sup>When Solomon had finished all this prayer and supplication, he arose from before the altar of the LORD, where he had been kneeling with his hands spread out toward heaven, <sup>55</sup>and, standing, he blessed the whole congregation of Israel with a loud voice, saying, <sup>56</sup>"Blessed be the LORD who has given rest to His people Israel in accordance with His word; not a single detail of His good words spoken through Moses His servant has failed. <sup>57</sup>May the LORD our God be with us as He was with our fathers; may He neither forsake us nor abandon us, <sup>58</sup>but turn our hearts toward Himself, that we may walk in His ways and observe His commandments, His statutes, and judgments which He prescribed for our fathers. <sup>59</sup>May these words of mine with which I have prayed before the LORD be near to the LORD our God, night and day, to maintain the cause of His servant and of His people Israel in accordance with

v) Solomon is a true leader in prayer for he expresses the hopes and the needs of his people. As a nation is worshiping with him, this is a national prayer.

w) Not only the stranger living in the land, but also the one coming from afar to worship. A considerate prayer has to become missionary; it includes outsiders.

x) Gk. ears.

I KINGS 8, 9

daily needs, <sup>60</sup>so that all the peoples of the earth may know that the LORD is God, for there is no other.<sup>y</sup> <sup>61</sup>May you too be of one mind with the LORD our God so as to walk in His statutes and keep His commandments as today.”

<sup>62</sup>Then the king together with all Israel offered sacrifices to the LORD.

<sup>63</sup>Solomon offered in peace offerings to the LORD 22,000 cattle<sup>z</sup> and 120,000 of the flocks, when the king and all the children of Israel dedicated the house of the LORD. <sup>64</sup>At that time the king had set apart the center of the court before the house of the LORD where he offered the burnt offering, the meal offering, and the fat of the peace offering, because the bronze altar before the LORD was too small to hold the burnt offering, the meal offering and the fat of the peace offering.

<sup>65</sup>So Solomon together with all Israel (a great congregation assembled from the Hamath pass to the Brook of Egypt) held a feast before the LORD our God<sup>a</sup> for seven days and seven more days. <sup>66</sup>On the eighth day,<sup>b</sup> when he dismissed them, they blessed the king. Then they went to their tents<sup>c</sup> rejoicing and happy over all the goodness of the LORD to David His servant and Israel His people.

9 WHEN SOLOMON HAD COMPLETED the building of the house of the LORD and the palace of the king, and all the other things Solomon had wanted to construct, <sup>2</sup>the LORD appeared to Solomon again as He had appeared to him at Gibeon. <sup>3</sup>The LORD said to him: I have heard your prayer and your supplication, which you have made before Me; I have consecrated this house which you have built by placing My name there forever; My eyes and My heart shall be there con-

Offerings, Feasting, Divine Response

tinually. <sup>4</sup>As for you, if you will walk before Me as David your father walked, with absolute integrity of heart, doing everything I command you, and keeping My statutes and judgments, <sup>5</sup>then I will make secure the throne of your kingdom over Israel forever, as I promised David your father, saying: There shall never fail you an occupant for the throne of Israel.

<sup>6</sup>If, however, you or your sons turn away from Me and do not keep My commandments and My statutes which I have placed before you, but go and serve other gods and worship them, <sup>7</sup>then I will cut off Israel from the land I gave them, and the house I consecrated to My name I will put out of My sight; Israel will become a proverb and a byword among all the peoples. <sup>8</sup>This house shall become a ruin,<sup>d</sup> and every one passing by shall whistle in astonishment and exclaim, “Why has the LORD so treated this land and this house?” <sup>9</sup>And they will reply, “Because they forsook the LORD their God who brought their fathers from the land of Egypt; they embraced other gods and worshiped and served them; that is why the LORD brought all this misfortune upon them.”<sup>e</sup>

950 B.C.

<sup>10</sup>At the end of twenty years, during which time Solomon had built the two houses, the house of the LORD and the house of the king, <sup>11</sup>since Hiram king of Tyre had supplied Solomon with cedar and cypress timber, and with as much gold as he wanted, King Solomon transferred twenty cities in Galilee to Hiram.<sup>f</sup> <sup>12</sup>When Hiram came from Tyre to see the cities Solomon had transferred to him, he was displeased with them <sup>13</sup>and complained, “What kind of towns are these which you have given me, my brother?” So

y) Beginning with the call of Abraham [Gen. 12:3], invariably God makes clear that He purposes those whom He blesses to be a blessing.

z) Oxen as we think of them are mutilated animals; therefore not acceptable for sacrifice.

a) Solomon succeeded in sharing with his people a sense of godly fellowship, so they were of one mind toward God and toward one another. They could think and speak of “our God.”

b) The day after the second week.

c) Then, to their homes. And they returned there a different, a better people, for whom worshiping God had grown more natural and satisfying. No wonder they “blessed the king.”

d) See Mic. 3:12 and Jer. 26:18.

e) God never ceases instruction, because we never learn more than we need. The Bible is a textbook that requires continued, repeated reading and rethinking.

f) Illegally, delivering Hebrews to pagans, contrary to God’s program.

they call them the territory of Cabul<sup>g</sup> to this day. <sup>14</sup>Hiram had paid the king 3,500,000 dollars in gold for them.<sup>h</sup>

<sup>15</sup>Now this is the way King Solomon conscripted the labor corps to build the house of the LORD, his house, the Millo, the wall of Jerusalem, Hazor, Megiddo, and Gezer — <sup>16</sup>Pharaoh king of Egypt had come up and captured Gezer, burned it down, and killed the Canaanite population of the city; then he gave it as a dowry to his daughter, the wife of Solomon. <sup>17</sup>So Solomon built Gezer, Lower Beth-horon, <sup>18</sup>Baalath, Tamar in the desert land, <sup>19</sup>all of Solomon's store-cities, the chariot-cities, the house-cities and whatever other structures he desired in Jerusalem, in Lebanon, and in all the land under his dominion. <sup>20</sup>Solomon conscripted his labor corps, as they do now, from all the people who survived from the Amorites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites who were not Israelites — <sup>21</sup>they were the descendants of those whom the Israelites were unable to exterminate. <sup>22</sup>But Solomon never made slaves of Israelites; they were his warriors, his courtiers, his officers, his captains, his chariot officers, and his cavalry officers. <sup>23</sup>These were the chief officials who supervised Solomon's work — 550 of them — who directed the people who did the work.

<sup>24</sup>As soon as Pharaoh's daughter had come up from David's city to her house, which he had built for her, he built the Millo.<sup>j</sup>

<sup>25</sup>Three times annually Solomon used to offer burnt offerings and peace offerings upon the altar he had made for the LORD; he also used to burn incense with it before the LORD. So he finished the house.

<sup>26</sup>King Solomon also built a fleet at Ezion-geber near Eloth<sup>k</sup> on the shore of the Red Sea in the land of Edom. <sup>27</sup>Hiram sent his servants, skilled sailors who knew the sea, to man the fleet with the servants of Solomon. <sup>28</sup>They went to Ophir where they procured 12,350,000 dollars worth of gold and brought it to King Solomon.

10 WHEN THE QUEEN OF SHEBA heard about the fame of Solomon in relation to the name of the LORD, she came to test him with perplexing questions. <sup>2</sup>She came to Jerusalem with an immense train of camels bearing spices, piles of gold and precious stones. As soon as she came to Solomon, she disclosed to him everything that was on her mind. <sup>3</sup>Solomon, in turn, answered all her questions. Nothing was obscure to the king which he could not explain to her.

<sup>4</sup>When the queen of Sheba<sup>l</sup> grew fully aware of all the wisdom of Solomon, the house he had built, <sup>5</sup>the food of his table, the seating of his courtiers, the attendance of his servants, their clothing, his cupbearers, and the burnt offerings he used to offer in the house of the LORD, she was breathless. <sup>6</sup>She said to the king, "The report about your understanding and wisdom that I heard in my land was true; <sup>7</sup>I did not believe it until I came and my own eyes saw it. Truly the half has not been told me; your wisdom and wealth exceed the report I heard. <sup>8</sup>Fortunate are your men; fortunate these courtiers of yours who are continually present with you, hearing your wisdom. <sup>9</sup>Blessed be the LORD your God who was pleased to give you the throne of Israel. Because the LORD loved Israel eternally, He made you king to rule justly and righteously." <sup>10</sup>Then she presented to the king 3,500,000 dollars in gold, a huge quantity of spices and precious stones — never again did such an amount of spices come in as that which the queen of Sheba presented to King Solomon.

<sup>11</sup>The ships of Hiram that transported gold from Ophir also brought a very great quantity of almug wood<sup>m</sup>

g) Unproductive land.

h) What he had contributed toward Solomon's buildings. i) Uninhabited country.

j) A fortress connected with Jerusalem, probably to control the remaining Jebusites; also to protect the city against outside enemies. k) Meaning terebinth; now Aqabah.

l) A southwestern Arabian people, possibly descended from Abraham through Jokshan, by Keturah [Gen. 25:1-3].

m) Called algum wood [II Chron. 9:10]; resembling fig tree wood but whiter and more shiny; also fragrant enough for incense.

and precious stones. <sup>12</sup>The king used the almuġ wood to make pillars for the house of the LORD and the house of the king, and lyres and harps for the singers—such almuġ wood has not come in nor been seen to this day. <sup>13</sup>In return, King Solomon gave the queen of Sheba everything she wanted or asked for, aside from what he gave her from the royal bounty.<sup>a</sup> Then she, together with her courtiers, returned to her country.

<sup>14</sup>Solomon received about 20,000,000 dollars in gold annually <sup>15</sup>besides what came in from mercantile taxes and the profits from trade with the Arabian kings and the governors of the land.

<sup>16</sup>Solomon also made 200 bucklers of hammered gold, each buckler containing 6000 dollars worth of gold, <sup>17</sup>and 300 shields of hammered gold, each shield containing 1800 dollars worth of gold. The king put them into the house of the forest of Lebanon.

<sup>18</sup>The king made a large ivory throne which he overlaid with pure gold.

<sup>19</sup>The throne had six steps, and on the top rear of the throne was a rounded head; on each side of the seat were arms and beside them stood two lions.

<sup>20</sup>Twelve lions stood there, one on either end of each of the six steps. Nothing like it was made in any other kingdom. <sup>21</sup>All of King Solomon's drinking utensils were made of gold, and all the utensils of the house of the forest of Lebanon were made of solid gold; none were made of silver because silver was not considered of value in the days of Solomon. <sup>22</sup>For the king's Tarshish fleet was in partnership with Hiram's fleet; once every three years the Tarshish fleet brought gold, silver, ivory, apes, and baboons.

<sup>23</sup>So King Solomon surpassed all the kings of the earth in wealth and wisdom. <sup>24</sup>The whole world consulted Solomon to benefit from the wisdom with which God had endowed him.

<sup>25</sup>They brought, each one, his tribute—utensils of silver, vessels of gold, robes, spices, horses, and mules—a fixed amount each year.<sup>o</sup> <sup>26</sup>Solomon also acquired chariots and horses so that he had 1,400 chariots and 12,000 horses quartered in chariot-cities or in Jerusalem with the king.<sup>p</sup> <sup>27</sup>The king made silver as common as stones in Jerusalem and cedar as plentiful as sycamore trees in the Shephelah.<sup>q</sup> <sup>28</sup>Solomon's horses came from Egypt and Cilicia;<sup>r</sup> the royal merchants brought [them] from Cilicia at the prevailing price—<sup>29</sup>an Egyptian chariot for 400 dollars in silver and a horse for 100 dollars—and so they delivered them by their hand<sup>t</sup> to all the Hittite and Syrian kings.

11 KING SOLOMON LOVED, IN ADDITION to the daughter of Pharaoh, many foreign women, Moabite, Ammonite, Edomite, Sidonian, and Hittite women, <sup>2</sup>from the nations concerning which the LORD had warned the Israelites: You must not cohabit with them, nor they with you, for they will certainly turn your hearts to their gods. Solomon held fast to them in love. <sup>3</sup>He had 700 official wives and 300 concubines who perverted his mind. <sup>4</sup>When Solomon became old, his wives turned his heart to other gods, so that his heart was no longer true to the LORD his God, as the heart of David his father had been. <sup>5</sup>Solomon was submissive to Ashtoreth, the goddess of the Sidonians, and to Milcom, the abomination of the Ammonites. <sup>6</sup>So Solomon did evil in the sight of the LORD and was not true to the LORD as David his father had been.<sup>r</sup> <sup>7</sup>Then Solomon built a high place for Chemosh, the abomination of Moab, and for Milcom,<sup>s</sup> the abomination of the Ammonites, on the mountain in front of Jerusalem. <sup>8</sup>Thus Solomon provided for all his foreign wives, who burned incense and offered sacrifices to their gods. <sup>9</sup>The LORD was angry with Solomon, because his mind turned against the LORD God of Israel who had ap-

n) Oriental fashion, the recipient of gifts should do somewhat better in return.

o) These tributes came from peoples whom David had conquered.

p) Which was divinely forbidden [Deut. 17:16]. q) The foothills of Judah, westward.

r) Solomon's backsliding evidences the difference between intelligence and devotion. His head and his heart did not fully harmonize. s) See II Kings 23:13.

t) The Hebrew has "from Egypt and Keveh," the latter being interpreted as Cilicia.

†) i.e., by their agency.

peared to him twice, <sup>10</sup>and had instructed him specifically about this thing, that he must not submit to other gods. But he did not observe the LORD's instruction. <sup>11</sup>The LORD said to Solomon: Because you did this and have not observed My covenant and My statutes which I commanded you, I will surely tear the kingdom away from you and give it to your servant. <sup>12</sup>However, I will not do it as long as you live for your father David's sake; I will tear it away from the hand of your son. <sup>13</sup>Moreover, I will not tear away the whole kingdom; I will give one tribe to your son for my servant David's sake and for the sake of Jerusalem which I have chosen.<sup>t</sup>

<sup>14</sup>Then the LORD confronted Solomon with an opponent, Hadad the Edomite, who was a member of the royal family of Edom. <sup>15</sup>It happened when David was busy with Edom, and Joab the captain of the army had gone to bury the dead and cut down every male in Edom — <sup>16</sup>for Joab and all Israel stayed there for six months, until he had cut off every male in Edom — <sup>17</sup>that Hadad, who was just a small boy, together with some Edomite servants of his father's, fled to Egypt. <sup>18</sup>They went from Midian to Paran and, taking with them some men from Paran, they came to Egypt to the Pharaoh of Egypt, who gave him a house, ordered provisions for him, and gave him land. <sup>19</sup>Hadad became a favorite with the Pharaoh, so that he gave him his sister-in-law, the sister of Tahpenes the queen, as wife. <sup>20</sup>The sister of Tahpenes bore Genubath, his son, whom Tahpenes weaned in Pharaoh's house. Genubath remained in the house of Pharaoh with Pharaoh's sons. <sup>21</sup>When Hadad heard in Egypt that David had been laid to rest with his fathers and that Joab, the captain of the army, was dead, he said to Pharaoh, "Let me go to my country." <sup>22</sup>Pharaoh replied, "What are you in need of that you want to leave and go to your country?" "Nothing," he affirmed, "just let me go."

<sup>23</sup>God confronted him with another opponent,<sup>u</sup> Rezon the son of Eliada, who had fled from his master, Hadadezer, king of Zobah. <sup>24</sup>He then associated to himself some men, so that he became the leader of a group of raiders who, when David would kill them, went to Damascus. He remained there and became king in Damascus. <sup>25</sup>He was Israel's opponent throughout the lifetime of Solomon — doing harm as Hadad did — and he loathed Israel when he was king in Edom.

<sup>26</sup>Then there was Jeroboam the son of Nebat, an Ephrathite from Zeredah (whose mother's name was Zeruah, a widow), a servant of Solomon who rebelled against the king. <sup>27</sup>This is how he rebelled against the king. Solomon built the Millo and closed the breaks in the city of David his father. <sup>28</sup>Jeroboam was a very able man, and when Solomon saw how energetic the young man was, he made him overseer of all the conscript labor of the house of Joseph. <sup>29</sup>One time as Jeroboam was going out of Jerusalem, the prophet Ahijah the Shilonite met him and turned him aside. He had on a new robe, and when the two of them were in the field alone, <sup>30</sup>Ahijah took the new robe he had on, tore it into twelve pieces, <sup>31</sup>and said to Jeroboam, "Take ten pieces yourself, for thus says the LORD God of Israel: I am tearing the kingdom out of the hands of Solomon, and I will give you the ten tribes (<sup>32</sup>but he shall retain one tribe<sup>v</sup> for my servant David's sake and for the sake of Jerusalem, the city I selected from all the tribes of Israel), <sup>33</sup>because he has forsaken Me, worshiped Ashtoreth the goddess of the Sidonians, Chemosh the god of Moab, and Milcom the god of the Ammonites, and has not followed My instructions to do what is right in My sight and to keep My statutes and My judgments as David his father did.

t) Children of a godly home start and continue life at a great advantage, their training and the remembrance of them before the throne of grace by their parents, which is infinitely enhanced where they cooperate.

u) Although even the appointed man had no idea that God's hand was in it, nevertheless Rezon was His agent and so was Jeroboam. v) Always including most of the Simeon tribe with Judah.

<sup>34</sup>Yet I will not take the whole kingdom from him; I will make him prince throughout his lifetime for My servant David's sake, whom I chose and who observed My commandments and My statutes. <sup>35</sup>But I will take the kingdom from his son's hand and give it to you, that is, ten tribes of it. <sup>36</sup>To his son I will give one tribe in order that there may be a Davidic light before Me continually in Jerusalem, the city where I Myself chose to put My name. <sup>37</sup>And I will make you king over all that you desire—you shall be king over Israel. <sup>38</sup>If you obey what I command you, follow My instructions, and do what is right in My sight, observing My statutes and My commandments as David My servant did, I will be with you and establish your dynasty firmly as I did David's. I will give you Israel. <sup>39</sup>Because of this I will humble David's descendants, though not permanently."

<sup>40</sup>When Solomon attempted to kill Jeroboam,* he escaped to Egypt, to Shishak king of Egypt, where he remained until the death of Solomon. <sup>41</sup>The rest of the acts of Solomon, everything he did and his wisdom, are they not recorded in the book of the acts of Solomon? <sup>42</sup>Solomon was king in Jerusalem, over all Israel, for a period of forty years. <sup>43</sup>So Solomon slept with his fathers and was buried in the city of David his father, and Rehoboam his son became king in his place.

930 B.C.

12 REHOBAM WENT TO SHECHEM where all Israel came to make him king.<sup>x</sup> <sup>2</sup>Now Jeroboam the son of Nebat heard about it (for he was still in Egypt where he had fled from King Solomon), <sup>3</sup>and they sent for him. When Jeroboam and the whole assembly of Israel arrived, they addressed Rehoboam, saying, <sup>4</sup>"Your father made our yoke unbearable. Now lighten the unbearable service of your father and the heavy yoke he laid upon us, and we will serve you." <sup>5</sup>He responded,

"Give me three more days; then return to me."

When the people left, <sup>6</sup>Rehoboam conferred with the elders who had stood by Solomon when he was still alive, saying, "How would you advise me to reply to the people?" <sup>7</sup>They advised him, "If you will be a servant to this people now and serve them and reply to them with kind words, they will always be your servants." <sup>8</sup>But he rejected the advice which the elders gave him. Then he conferred with the young men who grew up with him and who stood by him. <sup>9</sup>"What do you advise us to say to this people who petitioned me, 'Make lighter the yoke your father laid upon us'?" <sup>10</sup>The young men who grew up with him replied, "Thus you must say to this people who petitioned you, 'Your father made heavy our yoke; do make it lighter for us'; you must say to them, 'My little finger is thicker than my father's loins.'" <sup>11</sup>Now my father has laid upon you a heavy yoke; I will add to your yoke. My father flogged you with whips; I will flog you with scorpions."

<sup>12</sup>Jeroboam and all the people came back on the third day to Rehoboam as the king had directed, saying, "Return to me on the third day." <sup>13</sup>The king spoke harshly to the people, disregarding the advice given him by the elders. <sup>14</sup>He spoke to them as the young men had advised, "My father made heavy your yoke; I will add to your yoke. My father flogged you with whips; I will flog you with scorpions." <sup>15</sup>So the king paid no attention to the people; for this turn of events was from the LORD so that His word spoken by Ahijah the Shilonite concerning Jeroboam the son of Nebat might be established.<sup>z</sup> <sup>16</sup>When all Israel saw that the king paid no attention to them, the people sent back this message to the king: "What share have we in David? We have no heritage in Jesse's son. To your tents, O Israel! Look now after

w) There is no evidence that Jeroboam had rebelled against Solomon when he fled to Egypt. Obviously, Solomon learned of God's choice and tried to prevent its execution. His loyalty to God had dwindled.

x) The odds seemed in favor of his being crowned, but he managed to turn them against himself.

y) There is untold value in experience, especially because normally it softens personal attitudes.

z) Ahijah had spoken because such was God's program.

your own house, O David!" So Israel went to their tents.

<sup>17</sup>Rehoboam continued to be king over the Israelites who lived in the cities of Judah.<sup>a</sup> <sup>18</sup>When King Rehoboam sent Adoram, who was in charge of conscript labor, all Israel stoned him to death. King Rehoboam managed to escape in his chariot to Jerusalem. <sup>19</sup>So Israel has been in rebellion against the house of David to this day. <sup>20</sup>When all Israel heard that Jeroboam had come back, they requested him to come to the assembly where they made him king over all Israel. Only one tribe, that of Judah, continued with the house of David.

<sup>21</sup>As soon as Rehoboam arrived at Jerusalem, he assembled the whole house of Judah and the tribe of Benjamin with 180,000 picked soldiers to force the house of Israel to return the kingdom to Rehoboam the son of Solomon. <sup>22</sup>Then the word of God came to Shemaiah, a man of God, saying: <sup>23</sup>Say to Rehoboam the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and to the whole house of Judah, Benjamin, and the rest of the people, <sup>24</sup>Thus says the LORD: You must not go up to fight against your brothers, the Israelites. Let each one of you go home, for I am causing this affair. Then they listened to the word of the LORD and went back home according to the word of the LORD.

<sup>25</sup>Jeroboam fortified Shechem in Mount Ephraim where he lived. In addition he fortified Penuel. <sup>26</sup>Jeroboam said to himself, "Now the kingdom will revert to the house of David; <sup>27</sup>if this people go to offer sacrifices in the house of the LORD at Jerusalem, their hearts will be turned to their master Rehoboam king of Judah, so that they will kill me and return to Rehoboam king of Judah."<sup>b</sup> <sup>28</sup>After counseling over it, the king made two golden calves and said to the people, "It is too much for you to go up to Jerusalem; here are your gods, O Israel, who have brought you out of Egypt."<sup>c</sup>

<sup>29</sup>So he set up the one at Bethel and the other at Dan. <sup>30</sup>This matter occasioned sin; for the people went before the one as far as Dan. <sup>31</sup>He also constructed shrines at high places and ordained priests from the rank and file of the people who were not Levites. <sup>32</sup>Jeroboam set a festival for the fifteenth day of the eighth month like the one celebrated in Judah, at which time he offered sacrifices upon the altar to the calves he had made at Bethel. Moreover, he installed the priests of the high places at Bethel. <sup>33</sup>He offered sacrifices upon the altar he had made at Bethel on the fifteenth day of the eighth month—a date set by himself.<sup>d</sup> He made it a festival for the Israelites and offered sacrifices upon the altar and burned incense.

13 WHILE JEROBOAM WAS STANDING by the altar burning incense, a man of God came from Judah to Bethel at the LORD's direction. <sup>2</sup>At the LORD's direction he spoke against the altar, saying, "O altar, altar, thus says the LORD: A child by the name of Josiah born to the house of David shall sacrifice upon you the priests of the high places who burn incense upon you, and human bones they shall burn upon you." <sup>3</sup>Then he offered a sign, saying, "This is the sign which the LORD has given: The altar shall be split and the ashes upon it poured out."<sup>e</sup>

<sup>4</sup>When the king heard the message, which the man of God delivered against the altar at Bethel, Jeroboam stretched out his hand from the altar, saying, "Arrest him!" But the hand he stretched out against him became paralyzed,<sup>f</sup> so that he was unable to pull it back. <sup>5</sup>Also the altar was split and the ashes on the altar poured out, in accordance with the sign which the man of God had offered at the LORD's direction.

a) Much of the tribe of Simeon was included; also more than half of Benjamin and most of the priests and Levites.

b) Their worship at the temple had served to make Israel a united nation. Jeroboam was clever, but not wise. Idolatry is essentially selfish and not social-minded. The ten tribes lost their solidarity.

c) The very words used near Mt. Sinai, when in the absence of Moses the people worshiped the golden calf [Ex. 32:4], a dishonoring of God which was plainly forbidden and severely punished.

d) A counterfeit religion from start to finish.

e) Our infinitely patient God is willing to prove His veracity with a sign. f) Heb., "withered."

<sup>6</sup>The king begged the man of God, "Plead with the LORD your God and pray on my behalf, that my hand may be restored." So the man of God interceded with the LORD, and the hand of the king was restored to its former condition.<sup>7</sup> The king then said to the man of God, "Come to my house with me, take some refreshment, and I will reward you." <sup>8</sup>But the man of God said to the king, "Though you gave me half of your house, I would not go with you, nor eat bread or drink water in this place. <sup>9</sup>For I was directed by the word of the LORD: You must neither eat bread nor drink water nor return the way you came!" <sup>10</sup>So he went by another way and did not return on the road by which he came to Bethel.

<sup>11</sup>Now an old prophet was living at Bethel, whose sons came and recounted to him all the man of God did that day in Bethel; everything he said to the king they related to their father. <sup>12</sup>Their father said to them, "Which way did he go?" And his sons had seen the way the man of God who had come from Judah went. <sup>13</sup>Then he said to his sons, "Saddle the donkey for me!" When they had saddled the donkey for him, he rode away on it, <sup>14</sup>following the man of God, whom he found sitting under the oak. He said, "Are you the man of God who came from Judah?" He replied, "I am." <sup>15</sup>"Come with me to my house," said he, "and eat bread." <sup>16</sup>But he replied, "I cannot return and go with you, nor can I eat bread or drink water with you in this place, <sup>17</sup>for the LORD's direction to me was: You must not eat bread nor drink water there, nor return by going the way you came."

<sup>18</sup>He said to him, "I too am a prophet like you. An angel said to me at the LORD's direction, 'Bring him back with you to your house that he may eat bread and drink water.'" He lied to him.<sup>h</sup> <sup>19</sup>So he went back with him and ate bread at his house and drank water. <sup>20</sup>While they were sitting at the table, the word of the LORD came to the prophet who brought him back, <sup>21</sup>and he called out to the man of God, who came from Judah, "Thus says the LORD: Because you rebelled against the word of the LORD and did not observe the commandment which the LORD your God gave you, <sup>22</sup>but went back, ate bread, and drank water in the place where I told you not to eat bread or drink water, your corpse will never come to the grave of your fathers."<sup>i</sup>

<sup>23</sup>After he ate bread and drank, he saddled the donkey for the prophet he had brought back. <sup>24</sup>Then he left, but a lion met him on the road and killed him—his corpse was lying on the road, the donkey and the lion standing beside it.<sup>j</sup> <sup>25</sup>Travellers saw the corpse lying on the road and the lion standing beside the corpse; they came and reported it in the city where the old prophet lived.

<sup>26</sup>When the prophet, who had caused him to turn from the way, heard it, he said, "That is the man of God who rebelled against the word of the LORD; so the LORD gave him to the lion, who has torn and killed him in accordance with the word of the LORD which He spoke to him." <sup>27</sup>He said to his sons, "Saddle the donkey for me," and they saddled it. <sup>28</sup>He then went and found his corpse lying along the road with the donkey and the lion standing beside the corpse. The lion had not devoured the corpse nor torn the donkey. <sup>29</sup>The prophet took up the corpse of the man of God, laid it upon the donkey, and brought it back to the city of the old prophet for proper burial. <sup>30</sup>He laid his corpse to rest in his own grave and they mourned over him, saying, "Alas, my brother." <sup>31</sup>After he had buried him, he said to his sons, "When I am dead, bury me in the grave occupied by the man of God; lay my remains to rest beside his;<sup>k</sup> <sup>32</sup>For the message which the man of God delivered at the LORD's direction

g) Even where punishment is deserved and administered, God is ready to heal.

h) God never contradicts Himself, though we may misunderstand Him.

i) Our own personal conviction, not another's, must control our actions.

j) All God's creatures are His servants and at His command.

k) This prophet resembles those lying spirits of ch. 22:22-28—also under God's control.

against the altar at Bethel and all the houses of the high places in the cities of Samaria will surely be fulfilled."

<sup>33</sup>Jeroboam did not turn from his evil way after this experience but continued to select priests for the high places from the rank and file of the people, ordaining whomever he wished to be priests of the high places. <sup>34</sup>Persistence in this became sin to the house of Jeroboam, leading to its annihilation and destruction from the earth.<sup>1</sup>

14 AT THAT TIME ABIJAH, JEROBOAM'S son, fell ill. <sup>2</sup>Jeroboam said to his wife, "Arise now, disguise yourself, so that no one may know you are Jeroboam's wife,<sup>m</sup> and go to Shiloh where Ahijah the prophet lives—the one who announced that I would be king over this people. <sup>3</sup>Take with you ten loaves of bread, some cakes, and a jar of honey and go to him; he will tell you how the lad will fare."

<sup>4</sup>The wife of Jeroboam did so; she arose, went to Shiloh, and arrived at the house of Ahijah. Since Ahijah could not see—his eyes were dimmed by age—<sup>5</sup>the LORD informed Ahijah: The wife of Jeroboam is coming to seek an oracle from you because of the condition of her son, who is ill. Thus and so you must say to her, for when she comes she will pretend to be another woman.

<sup>6</sup>When Ahijah heard the sound of her footsteps as she was coming in the door, he said, "Come in, O wife of Jeroboam! Why do you pretend to be another woman? I have been sent to give you bad news. <sup>7</sup>Go! Tell Jeroboam, Thus says the LORD God of Israel: Because I exalted you from the midst of this people, made you a leader of My people Israel, <sup>8</sup>tore away the kingdom from the house of David and gave it to you, and you were not like My servant David, who observed My commandments, who followed Me with his whole heart, doing only what was right in My sight, <sup>9</sup>but you did worse than all those before you, went after and made for yourself other gods, molten images, to irritate Me, and turned your back on Me; <sup>10</sup>therefore I will bring calamity on the house of Jeroboam; I will divest Jeroboam of male children, both bond and free in Israel, and I will sweep away the house of Jeroboam as refuse is swept away completely. <sup>11</sup>Jeroboam's dead in the city the dogs shall eat; the dead in the fields the birds of heaven shall devour. So the LORD has spoken. <sup>12</sup>Now get up and go home! While your feet are approaching the city, the child will die. <sup>13</sup>All Israel shall bewail him and bury him, because he will be the only one of Jeroboam's house to have a grave; for some good is found in him alone of Jeroboam's house toward the LORD God of Israel.<sup>n</sup> <sup>14</sup>The LORD will raise up for himself a king over Israel who shall cut off the house of Jeroboam. <sup>15</sup>Today and from now on the LORD will beat Israel like a reed whipped by the waters; He will uproot Israel from this good land which He gave to their fathers and disperse them to the other side of the River,<sup>o</sup> because they angered the LORD by making their Asherim. <sup>16</sup>He will give up Israel because of the sins committed by Jeroboam, by which he led Israel to sin."

<sup>17</sup>Then Jeroboam's wife rose and departed for Tirzah; and when she arrived at the threshold of the house, the child died. <sup>18</sup>When they buried him, all Israel mourned for him in accordance with the word of the LORD spoken by His servant Ahijah the prophet. <sup>19</sup>The rest of the acts of Jeroboam, his wars and his reign, are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel. <sup>20</sup>Jeroboam was king for a period of twenty-two years, after which he slept with his fathers and Nadab his son was king in his place.

<sup>21</sup>Meanwhile Rehoboam, Solomon's son, was king over Judah. Rehoboam was forty-one years old when he became king and he was king for seven-

1) As man's spirit is the most vital factor in his make-up, so the education of man's inner self is his most vital training. The spiritual leaders of northern Israel did not represent God and could not contribute to spiritual growth.

m) He was a goddess hypocrite; he did not want his people to know that in trouble he needed God. n) For those of us who mourn the loss of a child, this incident is worth remembering. God may be saving the loved one from a troublous life and therefore called him, or her, home early.

o) The Euphrates.

teen years over Jerusalem, the city which the LORD selected from all the tribes of Israel as a place for His name. His mother's name was Naamah the Ammonitess.

<sup>22</sup>Judah, too, did evil in the sight of the LORD, exciting His ardent anger far more than their fathers did by the sins they committed. <sup>23</sup>They also made for themselves high places, pillars, and Asherim, symbols on every high hill and under every luxuriant tree, <sup>24</sup>and male prostitutes were found in the land; they followed all the abominations of the peoples which the LORD dispossessed for the Israelites.

<sup>25</sup>During the fifth year of Rehoboam's reign, Shishak king of Egypt made an attack on Jerusalem, <sup>26</sup>taking the treasures of the house of the LORD and of the house of the king; he took everything. He also took away the golden shields that Solomon had made.<sup>p</sup> <sup>27</sup>King Rehoboam made substitute shields of bronze and delivered them to the captains of the guard who watched the entrance to the king's house. <sup>28</sup>As often as the king entered the house of the LORD, the guards took them up; afterwards they returned them to the guard chamber.

<sup>29</sup>The rest of the acts of Rehoboam, and all he did, are they not recorded in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? <sup>30</sup>There was continuous war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam. <sup>31</sup>So Rehoboam slept with his fathers with whom he was buried in David's city. His mother's name was Naamah the Ammonitess and his son Abijam became king in his place.

913 B.C.

15 IN THE EIGHTEENTH YEAR OF the reign of Jeroboam son of Nebat, Abijam was king over Judah. <sup>2</sup>He was king in Jerusalem for three years. His mother's name was Maacah the daughter of Abishalom. <sup>3</sup>He, too, was guilty of all the sins committed by his father before him; his mind was not at one with the LORD his God as the mind of David his father had been. <sup>4</sup>Yet for David's sake, the LORD his God gave him a lamp<sup>t</sup> in Jerusalem, to elevate his son after him and to preserve Jerusalem. <sup>5</sup>For David did what was right in the sight of the LORD, not turning away from anything He commanded all the days of his life, except in the affair with Uriah the Hittite. <sup>6</sup>There was continuous war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam. <sup>7</sup>The rest of the acts of Abijam and all he did, are they not recorded in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? There was war between Abijam and Jeroboam. <sup>8</sup>So Abijam slept with his fathers; and they buried him in David's city and Asa his son was king in his place.

910 B.C.

<sup>9</sup>Asa began to reign as king of Judah in the twentieth year of Jeroboam king of Israel. <sup>10</sup>He was king in Jerusalem for forty-one years; his mother's name was Maacah the daughter of Abishalom.<sup>q</sup> <sup>11</sup>Asa did what was right in the sight of the LORD as David his father had done. <sup>12</sup>He drove out the male prostitutes from the land and removed all the idols which his fathers had made. <sup>13</sup>He also removed Maacah his mother from her position as queen mother, because she had made a detestable image to Asherah; Asa cut down her lewd image and burned it in the Kidron valley. <sup>14</sup>Though the high places were not removed, yet his heart was at one with the LORD as long as he lived. <sup>15</sup>He brought to the house of the LORD the dedicated objects of his father and those which he himself dedicated—silver, gold, and utensils.

<sup>16</sup>There was lifelong war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel. <sup>17</sup>Baasha king of Israel proceeded against Judah by strengthening Ramah so that no one could go out to, or come in from, Asa king of Judah. <sup>18</sup>So Asa took all the silver and gold remaining in the treasures of the LORD's house and in the treasuries of the king's house and put it into the hands of his servants. Then King Asa sent them to Ben-hadad son of Tabrimmon, son of Hezion, king of Syria, who resided at Damascus, with

p) God is the supreme disciplinarian. His children need correction and in loving-kindness He applies it. How do we respond? t) Represents a light or a witness.
q) That is, Absalom, whose mother too was named Maacah [II Sam. 3:3], Asa's grandmother; he must have had a better mother.

this request: <sup>19</sup>"There is a treaty between me and you, as there was between my father and your father; now I have sent you a gift of silver and gold. So go, cancel your treaty with Baasha king of Israel, so that he may go away from me." <sup>20</sup>Ben-hadad responded favorably to King Asa's request. He sent the captains of his armies against the cities of Israel and captured Ijon, Dan, Abel-beth-Maacah, all of Chinneroth and all the territory of Naphtali.<sup>r</sup>

<sup>21</sup>When Baasha heard about it, he left off building Ramah and went back to Tirzah. <sup>22</sup>Then King Asa conscripted all Judah—no one was exempt—to remove the stones and timber with which Baasha had strengthened Ramah. King Asa strengthened Geba of Benjamin and Mizpah with them. <sup>23</sup>The rest of the acts of Asa, all the great things he did and the cities he built, are they not told in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? Yet, in his old age he was diseased in his feet. <sup>24</sup>Asa slept with his fathers and was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father, and Jehoshaphat his son became king in his place.

910 B.C.

<sup>25</sup>Nadab the son of Jeroboam became king over Israel in the second year of Asa's reign in Judah and was king for two years. <sup>26</sup>He did evil in the sight of the LORD, going the way of his father, in the sin into which he had led Israel. <sup>27</sup>Baasha son of Ahijah, of the house of Issachar, conspired against him, and Baasha killed him at Gibbethon among the Philistines, while Nadab and all Israel were laying siege to Gibbethon. <sup>28</sup>Baasha killed him in the third year of Asa's reign in Judah and became king in his place. <sup>29</sup>When he became king, he killed the whole house of Jeroboam; not one soul belonging to Jeroboam did he spare or fail to destroy, in accordance with the word of the LORD proclaimed by his servant Ahijah the Shilonite.<sup>s</sup> <sup>30</sup>because of the sin which Jeroboam committed and in which he led Israel to sin and because of his provocation of the LORD God of Israel.

900 B.C.

<sup>31</sup>The rest of the acts of Nadab together with all he did, are they not recorded in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? <sup>32</sup>There was continual war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel. <sup>33</sup>In the third year of Asa's reign in Judah, Baasha the son of Ahijah began his twenty-four years' reign over all Israel at Tirzah. <sup>34</sup>He did evil in the sight of the LORD, going the way of Jeroboam in the sin into which he had led Israel.

16 THEN THE WORD OF THE LORD concerning Baasha was revealed to Jehu the son of Hanani: <sup>2</sup>Despite the fact that I raised you<sup>u</sup> out of the dust and made you a leader of My people Israel, you walked in the way of Jeroboam and made My people Israel sin, angering Me by their sins. <sup>3</sup>I will completely destroy Baasha and his house; I will make your house like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat. <sup>4</sup>The dogs shall consume those of Baasha's house who die in the city, and the birds of heaven shall devour those who die in the field. <sup>5</sup>The rest of the acts of Baasha, his works and achievements, are they not told in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? <sup>6</sup>Then Baasha slept with his fathers and was buried at Tirzah, and his son Elah became king in his place. <sup>7</sup>So the word of the LORD delivered to Baasha and his house by Jehu son of Hanani was fulfilled because of all the evil he did in the sight of the LORD, angering Him by the work of his hands and doing just as the house of Jeroboam had done, despite the fact that he<sup>v</sup> overthrew it.<sup>v</sup>

886 B.C.

<sup>8</sup>In the twenty-sixth year of Asa's reign in Judah, Elah the son of Baasha began his two-year reign over Israel at

r) Which strengthened Syria against north and south Israel and rendered the two kingdoms of Israel weaker. It was a crippling move.

s) Revolutions and assassinations galore; and why not, when God is left out of the picture? Yet even in their wickedness, those godless leaders were led to carry out God's national program.

u) Baasha. v) The house of Jeroboam. Used of God to punish it for its sin; then walking the same road to destruction.

Tirzah. <sup>9</sup>His servant Zimri, the captain of half of his chariotry, conspired against him while he was intoxicated at the house of Arza, overseer of the palace at Tirzah. <sup>10</sup>Zimri came, struck him down and killed him in the twenty-seventh year of Asa's reign in Judah, and became king in his place. <sup>11</sup>When he became king and occupied the throne, he struck down the entire house of Baasha, leaving him no male, either of his family or of his friends. <sup>12</sup>So Zimri destroyed the entire house of Baasha in accordance with the word of the LORD delivered to Baasha by Jehu the prophet, <sup>13</sup>because of all the sins which Baasha and Elah his son had committed and by which they led Israel to sin, angering the LORD God of Israel with their vain idols. <sup>14</sup>The rest of the acts of Elah and all his deeds, are they not told in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? 885 B.C.

<sup>15</sup>In the twenty-seventh year of Asa's reign in Judah, Zimri was king for seven days in Tirzah. Meanwhile the people were engaged in a campaign against Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines. <sup>16</sup>When the people engaged in the campaign heard that Zimri had conspired and had struck down the king, all Israel made Omri, captain of the army, king over Israel that very day there in the camp.<sup>x</sup> <sup>17</sup>Then Omri together with all Israel returned from Gibbethon and laid siege to Tirzah. <sup>18</sup>When Zimri saw that the city was captured, he went to the citadel of the king's palace, set fire to the king's palace around him and so died, <sup>19</sup>because of the sins which he committed, doing evil in the sight of the LORD by walking in the way of Jeroboam and in the sin whereby he led Israel to sin. <sup>20</sup>The rest of the acts of Zimri and his conspiracy, are they not told in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? <sup>21</sup>Then the Israelite nation was divided; half of the people followed Tibni son of Ginath and made him king; the other half followed Omri.

<sup>22</sup>But the people who followed Omri prevailed over those who followed Tibni son of Ginath. So Tibni died, and Omri became king. <sup>23</sup>In the thirty-first year of Asa's reign in Judah, Omri began his twelve-year reign over Israel, reigning from Tirzah for six years. <sup>24</sup>He purchased the hill of Samaria from Shemer for 4,250 dollars in silver and built on the hill; he named the city he built Samaria, after Shemer the owner of the hill. <sup>25</sup>Omri did evil in the sight of the LORD, behaving worse than all who had been before him. <sup>26</sup>He walked in all the ways of Jeroboam son of Nebat and in the sin by which he had led Israel to sin, angering the LORD God of Israel by their vain idols. <sup>27</sup>The rest of the acts of Omri, his works and achievements, are they not recorded in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? <sup>28</sup>Then Omri slept with his fathers and was buried in Samaria, and his son Ahab became king in his place. 874 B.C.

<sup>29</sup>Ahab the son of Omri became king over Israel in the thirty-eighth year of Asa's reign in Judah, and Ahab son of Omri was king over Israel at Samaria for twenty-two years. <sup>30</sup>Now Ahab son of Omri did evil in the sight of the LORD, more so than all who were before him. <sup>31</sup>As if his following in the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat had seemed trifling, he married Jezebel the daughter of Ethbaal king of the Sidonians and then went on to serve and worship Baal. <sup>32</sup>He erected an altar to Baal in the temple for Baal which he built at Samaria. <sup>33</sup>Ahab also made an Asherah<sup>y</sup> and so continued to anger the LORD God of Israel more than all the kings of Israel before him had done.

<sup>34</sup>In his time Hiel the Bethelite rebuilt Jericho; he laid its foundation at the cost of Abiram, his first-born son, and set its gates at the cost of Segub, his youngest son, in accordance with the word of the LORD spoken through Joshua the son of Nun.<sup>z</sup>

<sup>x</sup>) Not the elders, as had been divinely arranged, but the soldiery undertook to represent the people. <sup>y</sup>) A shame image, such as Gideon destroyed at God's command—a tree stump on one side of the altar, carved to portray the secret parts of a woman, and a tree stump on the other side of the altar portraying a man's secret parts. <sup>z</sup>) Josh. 6:26.

17 THEN ELIJAH THE TISHBITE, from Tishbe in Gilead, said to Ahab,<sup>a</sup> "As sure as the LORD God of Israel lives, before whom I stand, there will be neither dew nor rain in these years except by my word."<sup>b</sup> The word of the LORD came to Elijah: <sup>3</sup>Go away from here, turn eastward and hide yourself by the brook Cherith, east of the Jordan. <sup>4</sup>You may drink from the brook, and I have commanded the ravens to supply you with food there. <sup>5</sup>So he went and did according to the word of the LORD; he went and stayed by the brook Cherith, east of the Jordan, <sup>6</sup>where the ravens brought him bread and meat in the morning and bread and meat in the evening and where he drank from the brook.

<sup>7</sup>After a time, however, the brook dried up because there was no rain in the land. <sup>8</sup>Then the word of the LORD came to him: <sup>9</sup>Rise, go to Zarephath in Sidon and stay there, for I have commanded a widow there to supply you with food. <sup>10</sup>So he rose and went to Zarephath.

When he arrived at the city gate, there was a widow gathering sticks. He called and said to her, "Get me a little water in the jar to drink."<sup>c</sup> <sup>11</sup>When she went to get it, he called to her again and said, "Bring along for me a little bread, too."<sup>d</sup> <sup>12</sup>She replied, "As sure as the LORD your God lives, I have nothing<sup>e</sup> except a handful of flour in the jar and a little oil in the jug, and I was just gathering a few sticks to prepare it for me and my son to eat—then we must die."

<sup>13</sup>Elijah said to her, "Have no fear! Go, and do as you have said. But make me first a little loaf from it, and bring it to me, then make one for yourself and your son." <sup>14</sup>For thus has the LORD God of Israel said: The jar of flour shall not be empty nor shall the jug of oil give out until the day when the LORD provides rain for the land."

<sup>15</sup>Then she went and did as Elijah told her. So she, he, and her household ate for a long time.<sup>c</sup> <sup>16</sup>The jar of flour was never empty nor did the jug of oil give out, in accordance with the word of the LORD spoken through Elijah.

<sup>17</sup>Afterwards the son of the woman who was mistress of the house became ill; his illness was so severe that no breath was left in him. <sup>18</sup>So she said to Elijah, "O man of God, what is there between me and you?"<sup>d</sup> Have you come to recall to me my sin and to kill my son?" <sup>19</sup>Elijah answered, "Give me your son." Then he took him from her lap, carried him to the upper room, where he stayed, and laid him on his bed. <sup>20</sup>He prayed to the LORD and said, "O LORD my God, hast Thou brought misfortune also upon the widow with whom I am staying, by slaying her son?" <sup>21</sup>Stretching himself over the child three times,<sup>e</sup> he prayed to the LORD and said, "O LORD my God, let now the life of this child return to him."

<sup>22</sup>The LORD heard the prayer of Elijah; the life of the child returned to him, and he lived again. <sup>23</sup>Then Elijah took up the child and brought him down from the upper room into the house. When he gave him to his mother, Elijah said, "Look! your son is alive."<sup>f</sup> <sup>24</sup>The woman said to Elijah, "Now by this I know that you are a man of God and that the word of the LORD coming from your lips is true."

18 MANY DAYS LATER, IN THE third year, the word of the LORD came to Elijah: Go, show yourself to Ahab, and I will send rain upon the land.<sup>g</sup> <sup>2</sup>So Elijah went to show himself to Ahab. Now the famine was so severe in Samaria <sup>3</sup>that Ahab called Obadiah the steward of his house—Obadiah revered the LORD <sup>4</sup>so much that when Jezebel cut down the prophets of the LORD, Obadiah took a hundred prophets and hid them by fifties in a cave and provided them with bread and water<sup>g</sup>—<sup>5</sup>and Ahab said to

a) At least as unexpected to Ahab as to one who reads this for the first time.

b) Not to be fed at a wealthy home, but where starvation threatened.

c) Like Rahab of Jericho she had faith in God and acted on it [Josh. 2:11].

d) The very words which Jesus spoke to His mother at Cana of Galilee [John 2:4].

e) God's life-giving power and Elijah's personal contact were needed.

f) Upon Elijah's prayer [Jas. 5:17, 18].

g) Obadiah was one of the 7,000 faithful with whom Elijah failed to reckon [ch. 19:18].

Obadiah, "Come, let us go about the land and look for all the springs and all the brooks; perhaps we may find pasture to keep alive horses and mules and not be deprived of the cattle." <sup>6</sup>So they divided the land between them, to go about in it; Ahab went one way by himself while Obadiah went another way by himself.

<sup>7</sup>As Obadiah was going his way, Elijah met him; and when he recognized him, he fell on his face and said, "Is that you, my master Elijah?"

<sup>8</sup>He answered him, "It is I. Go, tell your master, 'Elijah is here.'" <sup>9</sup>He said, "Wherein have I sinned that you want to give your servant into Ahab's hands to kill me? <sup>10</sup>As sure as the LORD your God lives, there is not a nation or kingdom where my master has not sent, searching for you. When they said, 'He is not here,' he made the kingdom or nation swear that it found no trace of you. <sup>11</sup>And now you say, 'Go, tell your master, Elijah is here.'

<sup>12</sup>As soon as I leave you, the Spirit of the LORD will bear you away to a place unknown to me, so that when I inform Ahab and he then fails to find a trace of you, he will kill me — though I, your servant, have revered the LORD from my youth. <sup>13</sup>Have you not been informed about what I did when Jezebel killed the prophets of the LORD, how I hid the prophets of the LORD, a hundred in number, by fifties in a cave and provided bread and water for them?<sup>h</sup> <sup>14</sup>And now you say, 'Go, tell your master, Elijah is here'; he will kill me." <sup>15</sup>Elijah said, "As sure as the LORD of hosts lives, before whom I stand, today I will show myself to him." <sup>16</sup>Then Obadiah went to inform Ahab, and Ahab came to meet Elijah.

<sup>17</sup>When Ahab caught sight of Elijah, Ahab said to him. "Is it you, O troubler of Israel?" <sup>18</sup>He retorted, "I have not troubled Israel, but you and your father's house, by forsaking the commandments of the LORD and going after the Baals. <sup>19</sup>Now send for and assemble to me all Israel at Mount Carmel together with the 450 prophets of Baal and the 400 prophets of Asherah, who eat at Jezebel's table."<sup>i</sup>

Ahab Meets Elijah; Test of Baal Priests

<sup>20</sup>Ahab then sent to all Israel and assembled the prophets at Mount Carmel.

<sup>21</sup>Elijah came near to all the people and said, "How long will you lean to both sides? If the LORD is God, follow Him; but if it is Baal, follow him." The people said nothing to him. <sup>22</sup>So Elijah said to the people, "I alone remain as a prophet of the LORD, while the prophets of Baal number 450 men. <sup>23</sup>Let them provide two bullocks for us; then let them select one of the bullocks, cut it up, lay it on the wood, but set no fire to it. I, too, will prepare one of the bullocks, put it on the wood, but set no fire to it. <sup>24</sup>You must call upon the name of your god, and I will call upon the name of the LORD. The God who responds with fire is the true God." All the people answered, "The plan is excellent."

<sup>25</sup>Elijah said to the prophets of Baal, "Select one of the bullocks for yourselves and prepare it first—for you are many—and then call upon the name of your god; but you must set no fire to it." <sup>26</sup>So they took the bullock he gave them, prepared it, and called upon the name of Baal from morning until noon, saying, "O Baal, hear us!"; but there was no sound or response. They hopped about the altar they had made. <sup>27</sup>About noon Elijah began to taunt them, "Shout louder, for he is a god; he is in conversation or he has gone out; he is on a trip; or perhaps he is asleep and must be awakened." <sup>28</sup>So they shouted more loudly and cut themselves with swords and lances, as they were accustomed to do, until the blood ran out over them. <sup>29</sup>After noon they continued to rave until the time for the evening sacrifice; but there was no sound, no answer, no recognition.

<sup>30</sup>Then Elijah said to all the people, "Come here to me." When the people drew near, he repaired the LORD's ruined altar.<sup>j</sup> <sup>31</sup>Elijah took twelve stones, corresponding to the number of the tribes of the children of Jacob to whom the word of the LORD came, saying: Your name shall be Israel. <sup>32</sup>He erected an altar with the stones to the name of the LORD. He dug a trench around the altar big enough to hold two bushels of seed.<sup>k</sup> <sup>33</sup>Next he arranged the wood, cut up the bullock, and laid it on the wood. <sup>34</sup>Then he said, "Fill four jars with water and pour it over the sacrifice and over the wood." He said, "Do it again," and they did it again. He said, "Do it a third time," and they did it a third time; <sup>35</sup>so that the water ran all around the altar and the trench was full of water, too.

<sup>h</sup>) Obadiah had risked his life to save the lives of his fellow worshippers.

<sup>i</sup>) God's representative could give orders to the king, who felt he had to obey because God was in it.

<sup>j</sup>) Ruined by Jezebel or by the people's neglect.

<sup>36</sup>At the time for the evening sacrifice, Elijah the prophet came up and said, "O LORD, God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, today let it be known that Thou art God in Israel, that I am Thy servant, and that I have done all this in accordance with Thy word. <sup>37</sup>Hear me, O LORD, hear me, that this people may see that Thou, O LORD, art God and that Thou hast turned their hearts back again."<sup>l</sup> <sup>38</sup>Then fire from the LORD came down and burned up the sacrifice, the wood, the stones, and the dust; it even licked up the water in the trench.

<sup>39</sup>When all the people saw it, they fell on their faces and shouted, "The LORD, He is God! the LORD, He is God!" <sup>40</sup>Elijah said to them, "Seize the prophets of Baal; do not permit one of them to escape." So they seized them, and Elijah brought them down to the brook Kishon where he slaughtered them.<sup>m</sup>

<sup>41</sup>Elijah said to Ahab, "Get up! Eat and drink, for there is the sound of a downpour of rain." <sup>42</sup>So Ahab got up to eat and to drink, while Elijah climbed to the top of Carmel, bent over toward the earth, put his hands between his knees, <sup>43</sup>and said to his servant, "Get up now; look toward the sea." He got up, looked, and said, "There is nothing at all." He said seven times.<sup>n</sup> "Go back." <sup>44</sup>The seventh

time he said, "There is a small cloud, the size of a man's hand, coming up out of the sea." He said, "Be gone. Tell Ahab, 'Hitch up and go down so that the rain does not detain you.'" <sup>45</sup>Before long the heavens darkened with clouds and wind, and a heavy rain fell, while Ahab drove toward Jezreel. <sup>46</sup>The hand of the LORD was with Elijah so that, with loins girded, he outran Ahab to the entrance of Jezreel.

19 WHEN AHAB REPORTED TO JEZEBEL everything Elijah had done and about his killing all the prophets with the sword, <sup>2</sup>Jezabel sent a messenger to Elijah, saying, "As certainly as you are Elijah and I am Jezebel—may the gods do so to me and even more—by this time tomorrow I will make your life as the life of one of them." <sup>3</sup>And he was afraid, and he arose and ran for his life, coming to Beer-sheba in Judah where he left his servant.<sup>o</sup> <sup>4</sup>He went on into the desert a day's journey. There he sat down under a broom bush and prayed that he might die,<sup>p</sup> saying, "Enough now, LORD; take away my life, for I am no better than my fathers."

<sup>5</sup>When he lay down, he fell asleep under a broom bush; and see, an angel touched him and said, "Arise and eat." <sup>6</sup>When he looked, there was a cake baked on hot stones and a jug of water at his head. He ate and drank and lay down again. <sup>7</sup>The angel of the LORD came again and touched him, saying, "Arise and eat, or the journey will be too much for you." <sup>8</sup>So he arose, ate and drank, and on the strength of that meal he traveled forty days and forty nights, as far as Horeb, the mountain of God. <sup>9</sup>When he arrived there, he lodged in a cave.

Presently the word of the LORD came to him: What are you doing here, Elijah? <sup>10</sup>He replied, "I have been most zealous for the LORD God of hosts; the Israelites have forsaken Thy covenant, Thy altars they have wrecked.

k) Cannot mean two bushels altogether; probably means the width of the trench all around the altar, an ample yard or so. l) No claim to personal power; it all rested with God.

m) Not the N. T. way; but those false prophets deserved it; they had killed many a servant of God and had led the people away from God.

n) An example of persistent prayer, such as our Lord teaches [Luke 11: 5-10; 18:1-8].

o) It would have been foolish to let Jezebel kill him. p) This prayer too was heard.

Thy prophets they have slain with the sword, until I alone am left, and they are attempting to take my life."<sup>q</sup>

<sup>11</sup>He said: Go out and stand on the mountain before the LORD. The LORD passed by. A strong, powerful wind tore off portions of the mountain and dashed rocks in pieces before the LORD, but the LORD was not in the wind. An earthquake followed the wind, but the LORD was not in the earthquake. <sup>12</sup>Following the earthquake there was fire, but the LORD was not in the fire. After the fire came the sound of a light whisper. <sup>13</sup>When Elijah heard it, he covered his face with his coat, went out, and stood at the entrance of the cave. Then a voice came to him: What are you doing here, Elijah? <sup>14</sup>He replied, "I have been most zealous for the LORD God of hosts; the Israelites have forsaken Thy covenant; Thy altars they have wrecked; Thy prophets they have slain with the sword, until I alone am left, and they are trying to take my life."

<sup>15</sup>The LORD said to him: Go back by the desert road to Damascus and, when you arrive, anoint Hazael to be king over Syria; <sup>16</sup>anoint Jehu son of Nimshi to be king over Israel;<sup>r</sup> also anoint Elisha son of Shaphat from Abelmeholah to be prophet in your place. <sup>17</sup>Whoever escapes the sword of Hazael, Jehu will kill; and whoever escapes the sword of Jehu, Elisha will kill. <sup>18</sup>However, I will spare 7,000 in Israel, none of whose knees have bowed to Baal and none of whose lips have kissed him.<sup>s</sup>

<sup>19</sup>So he went away and came upon Elisha, son of Shaphat, who was plowing with twelve teams ahead of him—he was with the twelfth. Elijah went over to him and threw his mantle upon him. <sup>20</sup>Then he left the oxen and ran after Elijah, saying, "Let me first kiss my father and mother; then I will follow you." He replied, "Go back; what have I done to you?"<sup>t</sup> <sup>21</sup>When he returned, he took the team of oxen and sacrificed them, using the yokes of the oxen to boil their flesh, and gave to the people to eat. Afterwards he arose, followed Elijah, and became his servant.

857-6 B.C.

20 BENHADAD KING OF SYRIA MUSTERED his army—thirty-two kings were allied with him—and his cavalry and chariots; then he moved against Samaria, besieging and fighting against it. <sup>2</sup>He also sent messengers into the city to Ahab, king of Israel, and said to him, "Benhadad says, <sup>3</sup>Your silver and your gold belong to me; your choicest wives and children, too, are mine."<sup>u</sup> <sup>4</sup>The king of Israel responded, "As you say, my master, O king, yours am I and all I have."<sup>v</sup> <sup>5</sup>When the messengers returned, they said, "Benhadad says, 'I sent to you requesting your silver and your gold, your wives and your children, <sup>6</sup>but about this time tomorrow I will send my servants to you; they will plunder your home and the houses of your servants, laying hold of everything dear to you and taking it.'"

<sup>7</sup>The king of Israel summoned all the elders of the land and said, "Just observe and see how this fellow is trying to make trouble! When he demanded my wives, my children, my silver, and my gold, I did not refuse him." <sup>8</sup>All the elders and all the people replied, "Pay no attention to him, do not give in." <sup>9</sup>He answered the messengers of Benhadad, "Tell my master, the king, that I will agree fully to the first request; but this thing I cannot do." So the messengers brought back to him the report. <sup>10</sup>Benhadad sent him word, "So may the gods do to me and even more, if there is sufficient dust in Samaria to provide each of my followers with a handful." <sup>11</sup>The king of Israel answered, "Tell him; Let not the man who girds on his armor boast like the man who lays it down."<sup>w</sup>

<sup>12</sup>When Benhadad heard this, he

q) Elijah's great failure was not to secure a helper for this great task; Elisha, the less vigorous man, accomplished more by co-operation.

r) God's sovereignty not over Israel alone, for He is King of kings.

s) We err when we compute the number of believers, as Jesus tells us [Matt 8:11; Luke 13:29].

t) A bit puzzling for the great prophet to anoint a successor from behind the plow.

u) A cowardly and unwarranted submission, unfair to family and subjects.

v) Though from the lips of a godless man, this sentence deserves memorizing, for starting and accomplishing are two different matters.

and the kings were drinking in their tents. He said to his servants, "Attack!" and they attacked the city. <sup>13</sup>Then a prophet came to Ahab king of Israel and said, "The LORD says: Do you see this vast army? I am giving it into your hand today that you may know that I am the LORD." <sup>14</sup>"By whom?" asked Ahab. He replied, "The LORD says: By the young men of the provincial chiefs."<sup>w</sup> He said, "Who shall attack?" He replied, "You." <sup>15</sup>So he assembled young men of the provincial chiefs who numbered 232; behind them he assembled all the people—all the Israelites—to the number of 7,000.<sup>x</sup> <sup>16</sup>They went out at noon while Benhadad and the kings—32 kings were allied with him—were drinking themselves drunk in their tents. <sup>17</sup>The young men of the provincial chiefs went out first and when they informed Benhadad, saying, "Men are coming out of Samaria," <sup>18</sup>he replied, "If they have come out for peace, take them alive and if they have come out for war, take them alive." <sup>19</sup>These came out from the city, the young men of the provincial chiefs and the army behind them. <sup>20</sup>Each one killed his man until the Syrians fled with Israel pursuing them. Benhadad king of Syria escaped on his horse; so did the cavalry; <sup>21</sup>but the king of Israel went out and destroyed the horses and chariots and inflicted great slaughter upon the Syrians.

<sup>22</sup>The prophet came up to the king of Israel, saying, "Go, prepare yourself; consider what you are going to do; for this time next year the king of Syria will come up against you." <sup>23</sup>And the servants of the king of Syria said to him, "Their gods are mountain gods, and hence they have had the upper hand against us; so let us fight them on the plain, where we shall certainly have the upper hand against them." <sup>24</sup>Do this too: Remove each king from his command and in their place put captains, <sup>25</sup>and assemble an army the same size as the one lost, horse for horse and chariot for chariot. Then we shall fight them on the plains where we will certainly have the upper hand against them." He listened to their plan and followed it.

<sup>26</sup>At the same time the following year, Benhadad mustered the Syrians and went up to Aphek to fight Israel. <sup>27</sup>The Israelites also mustered, gathered provisions, and went to meet them. The Israelites encamped in front of them like two little flocks of goats, while the Syrians filled the country. <sup>28</sup>Again the man of God came to the king of Israel, saying, "Thus speaks the LORD: Because the Syrians say that the LORD is a mountain god and that he is not a valley god, I am giving this vast army into your hand, that you may know that I am God." <sup>29</sup>They remained encamped opposite each other for seven days; but on the seventh day battle was joined, and the Israelites killed 100,000 Syrian foot soldiers in a single day. <sup>30</sup>The rest fled to the city of Aphek where the wall fell on 27,000 of those who remained. Benhadad also fled to the city where he concealed himself in an inner room. <sup>31</sup>His servants said to him, "We have heard that the kings of Israel are merciful kings; let us put sackcloth on our loins and ropes about our heads and go out to the king of Israel; perhaps he will spare your life." <sup>32</sup>So they put sackcloth on their loins and ropes on their heads and came to the king of Israel, saying, "Your servant Benhadad pleads, 'Spare my life.'" He said, "Is he still alive? He is my brother." <sup>33</sup>The men considered this an omen and, quickly catching his word, said, "Benhadad is your brother." He said, "Go, bring him." When Benhadad came out to him, he took him up into his chariot, <sup>34</sup>and he<sup>y</sup> said, "The cities my father captured from your father I will return, and you may establish trading posts for yourself in Damascus as my father did in Samaria." "With this agreement I will let you go," said he.<sup>z</sup> So he made an agreement with him and let him go.

<sup>35</sup>Then one of the members of the prophetic guild said to another, at the LORD's request, "Strike me now." But when the man refused to strike him, <sup>36</sup>he said to him, "Because you did not listen to the command of the LORD, when you leave me a lion will kill you."<sup>a</sup> When he left him, the lion met him and killed him. <sup>37</sup>Meeting another man, he said, "Strike me now." So the man struck him so hard that he wounded him. <sup>38</sup>The prophet then disguised himself with a headband over his eyes and went to await the king at the roadside. <sup>39</sup>When the king passed by, he called to the king, "When your servant went out into the heaviest part of the battle, suddenly a man turned and brought another man to me, saying, 'Guard this fellow; if he should happen to get away, your life shall be for his or you will be fined 2,000 dollars in silver.' <sup>40</sup>But while your servant was attending to things here and there, he disappeared." The king of Israel answered him, "That is your sentence; you have given it yourself."<sup>b</sup> <sup>41</sup>Then he quickly removed the bandage from over his eyes, and the king of Israel recognized him as one of the prophets. <sup>42</sup>The prophet said to him, "The LORD says: Because you permitted the man I destined for destruction to get away, your life shall be for his life and your people for his people."<sup>c</sup> <sup>43</sup>The king of Israel went home to Samaria embittered and angry.<sup>c</sup>

<sup>w</sup>) For aggressive action, youth can have greatest success. <sup>x</sup>) The 7,000 whom God had mentioned? <sup>y</sup>) Benhadad. <sup>z</sup>) Ahab.

21 AFTER THESE THINGS THIS HAPPENED: Naboth the Jezreelite had a vineyard at Jezreel adjoining the palace of Ahab, king at Samaria.<sup>d</sup> <sup>2</sup>Ahab said to Naboth, "Give me your vineyard so I may make for myself a vegetable garden, for it adjoins my house. I will give you a better vineyard for it, or, if you like, I will reimburse you for it with cash."<sup>e</sup> <sup>3</sup>Naboth responded, "The LORD forbid that I should ever give you my patrimonial inheritance."<sup>e</sup> <sup>4</sup>Ahab came home embittered and angry because of the answer Naboth the Jezreelite gave him, saying, "I will not give you my patrimonial inheritance."<sup>f</sup>

He went to bed, turned away his face and refused to eat. <sup>5</sup>When Jezebel his wife entered and said to him, "How is it that you are so embittered and refuse to eat bread?" <sup>6</sup>he answered her, "When I said to Naboth the Jezreelite, 'Sell me your vineyard, or, if you like, I will give you another vineyard for it,' he replied, 'I will not give you my vineyard.'"

<sup>7</sup>Jezebel his wife said to him, "Do you not exercise the kingship over Israel? Rise, eat, and be of good cheer; I will give you the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite."<sup>8</sup> Then she wrote a letter in Ahab's name, stamped it with his seal, and sent the letter to the elders and nobles who lived in Naboth's city. <sup>9</sup>In the letter she wrote, "Proclaim a fast, and seat Naboth at the head of the people; <sup>10</sup>scat two men, unprincipled men, near him, and have them testify, 'You cursed God and the king,' and then take him out and stone him to death."

<sup>11</sup>The men of his city, the elders and nobles who lived there, did as Jezebel requested them, as written in the letter she sent them.<sup>8</sup> <sup>12</sup>They proclaimed a fast and seated Naboth at the head of the people. <sup>13</sup>The two scoundrels came and sat near him. The rascals testified against Naboth before the people, "Naboth cursed God and the king." So they took him out of the city and stoned him till he died. <sup>14</sup>Then they sent word to Jezebel, "Naboth has been stoned to death."

<sup>15</sup>When Jezebel heard that Naboth had been stoned to death, she said to Ahab, "Rise, take over the vineyard, for Naboth the Jezreelite, who refused to sell it to you for cash, is no longer alive; he is dead."<sup>16</sup> As soon as Ahab heard that Naboth was dead, he arose, went down to the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, and claimed it.

<sup>17</sup>Then the word of the LORD came to Elijah the Tishbite: <sup>18</sup>Rise, go down to meet Ahab king of Israel in Samaria; he is in Naboth's vineyard

a) It must have been reasonably clear to him that such was God's instruction.

b) Are we ever so busy with this and that that His interests become secondary?

c) But not repentant and submissive to God. d) At times living in his Jezreel palace.

e) Inherited property was the Israelite's last token of free citizenship.

f) Self-centeredness and happiness do not go hand in hand.

g) The people's leaders as cowardly and morally corrupt as their king and queen.

whither he has gone to claim it. <sup>19</sup>Tell him, the LORD says: Have you murdered and claimed? Tell him, The LORD says: In the place where the dogs licked up the blood of Naboth shall the dogs lick up your own blood.<sup>h</sup> <sup>20</sup>"Have you found me, O my enemy?" retorted Ahab to Elijah. He said, "I have found you; because you have committed yourself to do evil in the sight of the LORD, <sup>21</sup>I will bring calamity upon you; I will sweep you away altogether, and I will cut off from Ahab all male children without exception in Israel.<sup>i</sup> <sup>22</sup>I will make your house like the house of Jeroboam, son of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha, son of Ahijah, because you irritated Me and made Israel sin. <sup>23</sup>Also concerning Jezebel the LORD said: The dogs shall devour Jezebel in the valley of Jezreel. <sup>24</sup>The dogs shall devour Ahab's dead in the city, and the birds of heaven shall consume those in the field."

<sup>25</sup>Truly there never was a man like Ahab who committed himself to evil in the sight of the LORD, seduced by Jezebel his wife. <sup>26</sup>He acted most wickedly when he went after idols, doing everything the Amorites, whom the LORD dispossessed before the Israelites, did.

<sup>27</sup>When Ahab heard those words he tore his garments, put on sackcloth, fasted, slept in sackcloth, and went about sadly.<sup>j</sup> <sup>28</sup>Then the word of the LORD came to Elijah: <sup>29</sup>Do you see how Ahab has humbled himself before Me? Because he has humbled himself before Me, I will not bring on the calamity in his lifetime; in the lifetime of his son, I will bring the calamity upon his house.

22 FOR THREE YEARS THERE WAS no war between Syria and Israel. <sup>2</sup>However, in the third year,<sup>k</sup> Jehoshaphat king of Judah went down to the king of Israel. <sup>3</sup>At that time the king of Israel said to his servants, "Do you know that Ramoth-gilead belongs to us? Yet we are putting forth no effort to take it from the grasp of the Syrian king." <sup>4</sup>So he said to Jehoshaphat, "Will you join me in attacking Ramoth-gilead?" "I am with you; my men are as your men, my horses as your horses," replied Jehoshaphat to the king of Israel.

<sup>5</sup>Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, "Inquire first what is the LORD's will." <sup>6</sup>The king of Israel then assembled the prophets, about 400 in number, and inquired of them, "Shall I go and attack Ramoth-gilead, or shall I let it alone?" They replied, "Go, for the LORD will hand it over to the king." <sup>7</sup>But Jehoshaphat said, "Is there not some other prophet of the LORD around here, that we may inquire of him?" <sup>8</sup>The king of Israel replied to Jehoshaphat, "There is one other fellow through whom we may seek advice from the LORD, but I hate him, because he never prophesies good to me, but trouble;<sup>m</sup> he is Micaiah son of Imlah." "Speak not so, O king!" replied Jehoshaphat. <sup>9</sup>Then the king of Israel summoned a eunuch and requested him to bring Micaiah son of Imlah at once. <sup>10</sup>While the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat, king of Judah, officially robed, were sitting each on his throne at the threshing floor by the entrance of the gate of Samaria with all the prophets prophesying before them, <sup>11</sup>Zedekiah son of Chenaanah made iron horns for himself and said, "The LORD says: With these you shall gore the Syrians until they are annihilated." <sup>12</sup>So all the prophets prophesied this way: "Go against Ramoth-gilead and prosper; for the LORD will hand it over to the king."

<sup>13</sup>The messenger who went to summon Micaiah said to him, "Look now, the words of the prophets are unanimously favorable to the king; let your word agree with theirs; speak favorably." <sup>14</sup>Micaiah replied, "As surely as the LORD lives, I will say whatever the LORD tells me to say." <sup>15</sup>When he came to the king, the king said to him, <sup>h</sup>) God is the Judge and Ruler yet. <sup>i</sup>) Elijah speaks as God's mouthpiece.

<sup>j</sup>) With a merciful God there is forgiveness for the worst of sinners, glory be to Him.

<sup>k</sup>) The third year of peace. <sup>l</sup>) This seems an afterthought when his promise had been made.

<sup>m</sup>) Because repeatedly Ahab deserved divine chastisement.

"Micaiah, shall we attack Ramoth-gilead or shall we let it alone?" He replied, "Go and prosper, for the LORD will hand it over to the king." <sup>16</sup>Then the king said to him, "How many times must I adjure you to speak nothing but the truth to me in the name of the LORD?" <sup>17</sup>He answered, "I saw all Israel scattered over the mountains, as sheep without a shepherd;" and the LORD said: These have no masters; let each one return in peace. <sup>18</sup>Then the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "Did I not tell you he never prophesies good for me, but trouble?"

<sup>19</sup>"Therefore," he<sup>o</sup> said, "Listen to the word of the LORD. I saw the LORD seated upon His throne with all the host of heaven standing beside Him on His right and on His left. <sup>20</sup>The LORD said: Who will trick Ahab to go up and suffer defeat at Ramoth-gilead? One said this while another said that. <sup>21</sup>Finally one spirit came out and, standing before the LORD, said, 'I will trick him.' <sup>22</sup>The LORD said to him: How? He said, 'I will be a spirit of deception speaking through all his prophets,' and He replied: You will successfully trick him; go out and do so.<sup>p</sup> <sup>23</sup>Now truly the LORD has permitted a spirit of deception to speak through all these prophets of yours; the LORD has planned calamity for you."

<sup>24</sup>Then Zedekiah son of Chenaanah came up and struck Micaiah on the cheek, saying, "How did the Spirit of the LORD pass from me to speak with you?" <sup>25</sup>Micaiah replied, "You will see on the day you seek refuge in an inner room." <sup>26</sup>The king of Israel said, "Take Micaiah back to Amon, the mayor of the city, and to Joash, the king's son, <sup>27</sup>and tell them, 'The king gives command, "Put this fellow into prison and feed him short prison rations until I return in peace."'" <sup>28</sup>"If you do return in peace," said Micaiah, "the LORD has not spoken through me." He went on, "Listen, all you peoples."

<sup>29</sup>Nevertheless the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat king of Judah attacked Ramoth-gilead. <sup>30</sup>The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "I will go to battle disguised; but you put on your robes." So the king of Israel went to battle disguised. <sup>31</sup>Now the king of Syria had given orders to his 32 chariot captains, "Do not bother to attack anyone, old or young, except the king of Israel." <sup>32</sup>When the chariot captains caught sight of Jehoshaphat, they said, "Surely he is the king of Israel." Just as they turned to attack him, Jehoshaphat shouted. <sup>33</sup>When the chariot captains saw he was not the king of Israel, they ceased pursuing him.

853 B.C.

<sup>34</sup>A soldier drew his bow without specific aim<sup>q</sup> and struck the king of Israel between the scale armor and the breastplate. He called to his charioteer, "Turn around and take me out of the battle for I am critically wounded."

<sup>35</sup>But as the battle raged on that day the king, propped up in his chariot, continued to confront the Syrians. At evening when he died, the blood from his wound ran out onto the floor of the chariot. <sup>36</sup>At sunset a cry was passed along through the camp, "Every man to his city; every man to his country!" <sup>37</sup>The king is dead."

Then they came to Samaria and buried the king in Samaria.<sup>r</sup> <sup>38</sup>They washed the chariot by the pool of Samaria where the prostitutes washed themselves, while the dogs licked his blood, in accordance with the word of the LORD. <sup>39</sup>The rest of the acts of Ahab, his works, the ivory house he constructed, all the cities he built, are they not told in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? <sup>40</sup>So Ahab slept with his fathers, and Ahaziah his son became king in his place.

852 B.C.

<sup>41</sup>Jehoshaphat son of Asa became king over Judah in the fourth year of Ahab's reign in Israel. <sup>42</sup>Jehoshaphat was thirty-five years old when he became king, and he was king in Jerusalem

n) Something in Micaiah's voice or motions, also the unexpected nature of the message, made Ahab suspect that it was not from the LORD. o) Micaiah.

p) A rare Biblical lifting of the heaven's veil and rather different from our usual thinking. See also Job 1:6-12; 2:1-7.

q) But not without divine purpose.

r) Although it is not mentioned here, the battle was lost, according to vs. 17.

for twenty-five years. His mother's name was Azubah, daughter of Shilhi. <sup>43</sup>He walked in all the ways of Asa his father, not swerving from it, in doing what was right in the sight of the LORD. Only he failed to remove the high places; the people still offered sacrifices and burned incense at the high places.<sup>s</sup> <sup>44</sup>Jehoshaphat also made peace with the king of Israel.<sup>t</sup>

<sup>45</sup>The rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, his heroic achievements and his wars, are they not told in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

<sup>46</sup>The rest of the male prostitutes, remaining from the days of his father, he cleaned out of the land. <sup>47</sup>There was no king in Edom, so a deputy of King <sup>48</sup>Jehoshaphat constructed a Tarshish<sup>u</sup> fleet to carry gold from Ophir. However, it never set sail because the ships were wrecked at Ezion-geber.

<sup>49</sup>At that time Ahaziah son of Ahab said to Jehoshaphat, "Let my servants sail with your servants." But Jehoshaphat would not consent. <sup>50</sup>Jehoshaphat slept with his fathers and was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father, and his son Jehoram became king in his place.

853 B.C.

<sup>51</sup>Ahaziah son of Ahab became king over Israel at Samaria in the seventeenth year of Jehoshaphat's reign in Judah and was king over Israel two years. <sup>52</sup>He did evil in the sight of the LORD and walked in the way of his father, in the way of his mother, and in the way of Jeroboam son of Nebat, who led Israel to sin. <sup>53</sup>He served and worshiped Baal and thus angered the LORD God of Israel, just as his father had done.

s) This always meant less interest in temple worship and often yielding to pagan Canaanitish customs. t) And married his son and successor to Athaliah, the wicked daughter of Ahab and Jezebel. u) Seaworthy ships.

THE SECOND BOOK OF KINGS

852 B.C.

1 AND MOAB REBELLED AGAINST Israel after the death of Ahab.

<sup>2</sup>Now Ahaziah had fallen through the lattice of his upper room at Samaria and became ill. So he sent messengers, requesting them to go and inquire of Baal-zebub<sup>a</sup> of Ekron, whether he would recover from his injury.

<sup>3</sup>Meanwhile an angel of the LORD spoke to Elijah the Tishbite, "Arise and go to meet the messengers of the king of Samaria. Say to them, Is there no God in Israel that you must go and consult Baal-zebub of Ekron? <sup>4</sup>Therefore, thus says the LORD: You will never leave the bed upon which you lie. You will certainly die!" Then Elijah went.

<sup>5</sup>When the messengers returned to him, he said to them, "Why have you come back?" <sup>6</sup>They replied, "A man came up to meet us, saying, 'Go back to the king who sent you and tell him, Thus says the LORD: Is there no God in Israel that you must send and consult Baal-zebub, god of Ekron? Therefore you will never leave the bed upon which you lie. You will certainly die!'"

<sup>7</sup>Then he inquired of them, "What was the man like who came up to meet you and told you these things?"

<sup>8</sup>They replied, "He was a hairy man with a leather girdle bound around his loins." "That was Elijah the Tishbite," he said.

<sup>9</sup>Thereupon he sent a captain with his company of fifty to him.<sup>b</sup> When he came up to him—for he was sitting on the top of a hill—he shouted, "Man of God, the king has commanded, 'Come down.'" <sup>10</sup>In response Elijah said to the captain of the fifty, "If I am a man of God, let fire descend from heaven and burn up you and your fifty" And fire descended from heaven and burned up him and his fifty.

<sup>11</sup>Then the king sent another captain with his company of fifty to him. He too shouted, "Man of God, thus has the king commanded, 'Come down at once.'" <sup>12</sup>In response Elijah said to them, "If I am a man of God, let fire descend from heaven and burn up you and your fifty." And the fire of God descended from heaven and burned up him and his fifty.

<sup>13</sup>So he sent a third captain with a company of fifty. When the third captain and the fifty arrived, he fell on his knees before Elijah and begged for mercy. "Man of God," he said, "respect my life and that of these fifty servants of yours." <sup>14</sup>See, fire came down from heaven and burned up the two former captains of fifty together with their fifty. Respect now my life."

<sup>15</sup>The angel of the LORD said to Elijah, "Go down with him. Be not afraid of him." Then he arose and went down with him to the king. <sup>16</sup>He said to him, "Thus says the LORD: Be-

a) The name meaning, "lord of flies," and such a god should be able to bring health. The name is identical with Beelzebub in the N.T. and equivalent to "Satan," prince of demons [Matt. 10:25; 12:24].

b) Not to plead for mercy, for there was no repentance; but to arrest and punish God's prophet.

cause you sent messengers to consult Baal-zebub, god of Ekron—was it because there is no God in Israel to consult as to His word?—you shall never arise from the bed upon which you are lying. You shall certainly die.”

<sup>17</sup>So he died in accordance with the word of the LORD spoken by Elijah, and Jehoram became king in his place in the second year of Jehoram son of Jehoshaphat, king of Judah, because he had no son.<sup>c</sup> <sup>18</sup>The rest of the acts of Ahaziah and what he did, are they not recorded in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

2 WHEN THE LORD WAS ABOUT TO take up Elijah into heaven in a whirlwind, Elijah and Elisha left Gilgal. <sup>2</sup>Elijah appealed to Elisha, “Stay on here, for the LORD has sent me to Bethel.” But Elisha said, “As sure as the LORD lives and you live, I will not leave you.” So they went on to Bethel.<sup>d</sup> <sup>3</sup>The band of prophets at Bethel came out to Elisha, saying, “Are you aware that today the LORD is going to take away your master who goes before you?” “I know it,” he said, “be still.”

<sup>4</sup>Again Elijah said to him, “Elisha, stay on here, for the LORD has sent me to Jericho.” “As sure as the LORD lives and you live, I will not leave you,” he replied as they continued to Jericho. <sup>5</sup>The group of prophets at Jericho approached Elisha, saying, “Are you aware that today the LORD is going to take your master who goes before you?” “I know it,” he said, “be still.”<sup>e</sup>

<sup>6</sup>Once more Elijah said to him, “Stay on here, for the LORD has sent me to the Jordan.” “As sure as the LORD lives and you live, I will not leave you,” he said, as they both went on. <sup>7</sup>Fifty men of the group of prophets came and stood some distance from them while both of them stood by the Jordan. <sup>8</sup>Then Elijah took his coat, folded it and struck the water, which parted, so that both of them crossed on dry ground.

<sup>9</sup>When they crossed over, Elijah said to Elisha, “Ask what I am to do for you before I am taken away from you.” Elisha replied, “Let a double share of your spirit be upon me.”<sup>f</sup> <sup>10</sup>He said, “You have made a difficult request, but if you see me taken from you, it shall be granted to you; if not, it will not be so.”

<sup>11</sup>As they were walking along and talking, look! A chariot and horses of fire separated the two of them and Elijah ascended to heaven in a whirlwind. <sup>12</sup>When Elisha saw it, he cried, “My father, my father, the chariots and horsemen of Israel!”<sup>g</sup> When he could no longer see him, he took hold of his clothes and tore them in two. <sup>13</sup>Then he took up Elijah’s coat which had fallen off and, returning, stood on the bank of the Jordan. <sup>14</sup>He took Elijah’s coat which had fallen off and struck the water, saying, “Where is the LORD, the God of Elijah?” As he struck the water again, it parted and Elisha crossed over.

<sup>15</sup>When the group of prophets saw him from the other side, they said, “The spirit of Elijah remains with Elisha.” So they came to meet him and bowed themselves to the ground before him. <sup>16</sup>They said to him, “With your servants are fifty strong men; let them go and look for your master. Perhaps the Spirit of the LORD has taken him up and cast him on some mountain or in some valley.” But he replied, “You must not send them.” <sup>17</sup>However they pressed him until he relented and permitted them to send them. So they sent fifty men, who looked three days for him but could not find him.<sup>h</sup> <sup>18</sup>They returned while he waited at Jericho. He said to them, “Did I not tell you, ‘Do not go?’”

<sup>19</sup>The men of the city said to Elisha, “The location of the city is excellent, as my master can see, but the water is bad and it makes the land sterile.” <sup>20</sup>He said, “Get me a new pan and put salt in it.” So they brought it

c) Ahaziah dying without a male heir, his brother Jehoram, another son of Ahab, succeeded him.

d) Elisha knew his time had come to stand on his own feet, yet not to leave his master alone.

e) The Holy Spirit was working in those young men and showed them truth hidden from others.

f) A humble and effective prayer. Elisha felt the need of power for his prophetic task.

g) Men of Elijah’s type are the defensive and offensive forces of their people.

h) Many lessons they must learn for themselves. And Elisha could yield when no moral question was involved.

to him. <sup>21</sup>Then he went out to the spring and threw the salt in it, saying, "Thus has the LORD said: I have purified this water so that death and miscarriage shall no longer come from it."<sup>22</sup>And the water has remained pure to this day, in accordance with the word spoken by Elisha.

<sup>23</sup>When he left there for Bethel, and was on the way, some youths came out of the city and poked fun at him, saying, "Go up, baldy; go up, baldy!" <sup>24</sup>As he turned around and saw them, he cursed them in the name of the LORD. Then two female bears came out of the forest and tore up forty-two of the boys.<sup>25</sup> From there he went to Mount Carmel and later returned to Samaria.

852 B.C.

3 JEHORAM BECAME KING OVER Israel at Samaria in the eighteenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, and he was king for twelve years. <sup>2</sup>He too did evil in the sight of the LORD, though not like his father and mother; for he removed the pillar of Baal which his father had erected. <sup>3</sup>Only he clung to the sin of Jeroboam son of Nebat, who led Israel to sin, and he did not turn away from it.<sup>k</sup>

<sup>4</sup>Now Mesha king of Moab was a sheep raiser who was required to deliver regularly to the king of Israel 100,000 lambs and the wool of 100,000 rams. <sup>5</sup>After the death of Ahab, the king of Moab rebelled against the king of Israel. <sup>6</sup>At that time King Jehoram left Samaria to mobilize all Israel. <sup>7</sup>Moreover, he directed this message to Jehoshaphat king of Judah, "The king of Moab has rebelled against me. Will you join me in war against Moab?" He replied, "I will go; I am as you, my people as your people, my horses as your horses."<sup>8</sup> "Which way shall we go?" he inquired. "The way of the Edom desert," he answered.

<sup>9</sup>So the king of Israel set out with the king of Judah and the king of Edom. After a roundabout march of seven days, there was no water for the army or for the pack animals following them. <sup>10</sup>"Alas!" exclaimed the king of Israel, "the LORD has called together these three kings to give them into the hand of the king of Moab."<sup>11</sup> Jehoshaphat said, "Is there no prophet here through whom we may inquire from the LORD?" One of the king of Israel's servants answered, "Elisha the son of Shaphat, who poured water on the hands of Elijah, is here."<sup>12</sup> Jehoshaphat said, "He has the word of the LORD." So the king of Israel, Jehoshaphat, and the king of Edom went down to him.<sup>13</sup>

<sup>13</sup>Elisha said to the king of Israel, "Why do you come to me? Go to the prophets of your father and mother." The king of Israel replied, "No! The LORD has called together these three kings to give them into the hand of the king of Moab."<sup>14</sup> Elisha said, "By the life of the LORD of hosts, whom I serve, if it were not for my regard for Jehoshaphat king of Judah,<sup>a</sup> I would neither look at you nor take notice of you. <sup>15</sup>Bring me a minstrel." While the minstrel played, the hand of the LORD came upon him,<sup>o</sup> <sup>16</sup>so that he called out, "Thus says the LORD: Dig ditches in this dry valley; <sup>17</sup>for thus says the LORD: Though you will see neither wind nor rain, that valley shall be full of water so that you, your cattle, and your animals may drink. <sup>18</sup>And this is not enough in the sight of the LORD, for He will also give Moab into your hand."<sup>19</sup> You shall capture every fortified city and every choice city, every fruit tree you shall cut down, all springs of water you shall stop up, and every good piece of land you shall ruin with stones."<sup>20</sup> And at the time of sacrifice the next morning, water came flowing from the di-

i) He who created the elements is able to eliminate those hurtful and to bring in those wholesome.

j) This is not the N.T. spirit. Christ did not come to destroy. However these youngsters were mocking God when they mocked Elijah's ascension; their lives would not have been constructive.

k) No king of northern Israel dared let his people worship at the Jerusalem temple; yet they thought of no substitute except idols.

l) He had no idea of the relationship between God and His worshipers.

m) The three kings had to eat humble pie to learn God's will with them.

n) Through the ages the true worshipers of God have been what Jesus called, "the salt of the earth."

o) Sweet, spiritual music to begin a church service may prepare the heart to meet with God.

p) God's mercies are not sparse; they are bountiful.

rejection of Edom until the land was filled with water.

<sup>21</sup>When all Moab heard that the kings had come up to fight against them, all who were old enough to gird themselves, or older, were called to arms and stationed at the frontier. <sup>22</sup>Rising early in the morning, when the sun shone upon the water, the Moabites saw the water before them red as blood. <sup>23</sup>So they said, "This is blood. The kings have attacked and slain one another. Now, to the spoil, O Moab!"

<sup>24</sup>When they came to the camp of Israel, Israel arose and struck down the Moabites until they fled before them; they pursued the Moabites and struck them down. <sup>25</sup>They destroyed their cities; each one threw a stone on every piece of good land until it was filled; all the springs of water they stopped up, every fruit tree they cut down, until only the stones of Kirharseth were left, and the slingers even surrounded and attacked it. <sup>26</sup>When the king of Moab saw that he was losing the battle, he, with seven hundred swordsmen, tried to break through to the king of Edom, but they failed. <sup>27</sup>Then he took his first-born son, who would have been king in his place, and offered him up as a sacrifice on the wall. Great indignation came upon Israel, so that they withdrew from him and returned to their land.<sup>q</sup>

4 THE WIFE OF ONE OF THE SONS OF the prophets appealed to Elisha, "Your servant, my husband, is dead; and you know that your servant revered the LORD; but now the creditor has come to take my two sons to be his slaves." <sup>2</sup>"What can I do for you? Tell me," said Elisha, "what do you have in the house?" She replied, "Your maidservant has nothing in the house, except a small jar of oil." <sup>3</sup>He said, "Go, borrow vessels at large from all your neighbors, empty vessels, and get not a few. <sup>4</sup>Then enter, shut the door behind yourself and your sons, and pour into all these vessels, putting aside each one that has been filled." <sup>5</sup>She left him and shut the door behind herself and her two sons; they brought the vessels to her as she poured. <sup>6</sup>When the vessels were filled, she said to her son, "Bring me another vessel." He replied, "There is none left." Then the oil ceased flowing.<sup>r</sup> <sup>7</sup>So she went and informed the man of God, who said, "Go, sell the oil, and pay your debts; you and your sons can live on the remainder."

<sup>8</sup>One day Elisha went over to Shunem where lived a prominent woman, who persuaded him to stay for lunch. After that, as often as he passed that way, he would turn in there to eat a bit. <sup>9</sup>She said to her husband, "Truly the man who so frequently passes this way is a holy man of God. <sup>10</sup>Let us make an upstairs guest chamber, put in a bed for him, a table, a chair, and a lamp, so that whenever he comes to us, he may rest there."

<sup>11</sup>One day as he came by, he stopped to rest in the roof room. While lying there, <sup>12</sup>he said to Gehazi his servant, "Call this Shunammite." When he had called her and she stood before him, <sup>13</sup>he said to him, "Tell her now, 'Look, since you have exercised all this painstaking care for us, what can be done for you? Shall some request for you be made to the king or to the captain of the army?'" She replied, "I live among my own people."<sup>s</sup> <sup>14</sup>But he said, "What then can be done for her?" Gehazi answered, "Indeed, she has no son, and her husband is an old man."<sup>t</sup> <sup>15</sup>He said, "Call her." So he called her, and she stood at the door. <sup>16</sup>He said, "Next season about this time you shall embrace a son." "No, my master, O man of God, do not delude your maidservant," she exclaimed. <sup>17</sup>But the woman conceived and gave birth to a son the next season about the time Elisha had told her.

<sup>18</sup>One day when the child had grown, he went out with his father to the harvesters. <sup>19</sup>He complained to

q) A horrible deed; but are we perfectly willing to see our children decide for full time Christian service, even abroad? r) God is more ready to supply than we are to receive from Him.

s) I.e. My people will take care of me, should I need anything.

t) She was not present when Elisha and Gehazi further conversed.

his father, "My head! My head!"<sup>u</sup> He said to the servant, "Carry him to his mother." <sup>20</sup>So he took him up and brought him to his mother. He sat on her lap until noon and then died.

<sup>21</sup>She went up and laid him on the bed of the man of God, shut the door behind her, and went out. <sup>22</sup>Then she called her husband and said, "Send me now one of the servants and one of the donkeys; for I want to hasten to the man of God and return." <sup>23</sup>He said, "Why do you want to go to him today? It is neither the new moon nor the Sabbath!" She replied, "It shall be well."

<sup>24</sup>So she saddled the donkey and gave orders to her servant, "Go on quickly, and do not slow down until I tell you." <sup>25</sup>She went on until she came to the man of God at Mount Carmel. As soon as the man of God saw her approaching, he said to Gehazi his servant, "Look, there is the Shunammite! <sup>26</sup>Run now to meet her and ask her, 'Are you well? Is your husband well? Is the child well?'" She answered, "It is well."<sup>v</sup>

<sup>27</sup>When she came to the man of God at the mountain, she embraced his feet. Gehazi came up to push her away; but the man of God said, "Let her alone, for she is in deep anxiety which the LORD has concealed from me; He has not told me." <sup>28</sup>"Did I ask my master for a son?" she sobbed. "Did I not say, 'Do not give me false hope?'" <sup>29</sup>Then he said to Gehazi, "Gird your loins; take my staff in your hand, and go—if you meet anyone, do not greet him and if anyone greets you, do not respond—and place my staff on the face of the child."<sup>w</sup> <sup>30</sup>The child's mother said, "As sure as the LORD lives and you live, I will not return without you." So he arose and went with her.

<sup>31</sup>Gehazi had preceded them and had placed the staff upon the face of the child. When there was neither sound nor movement, he returned to meet him and told him, "The child has not awakened." <sup>32</sup>When Elisha came to the house, see, the child was dead, lying on his couch. <sup>33</sup>So he entered and, when he had shut the door against both of them, he prayed to the LORD. <sup>34</sup>Then he went up and lay upon the child with his mouth upon the child's mouth, his eyes upon the child's eyes, and his hands upon the child's hands. When he had so stretched himself out upon him, the child's body grew warm. <sup>35</sup>Getting up, he walked back and forth in the house. When he stretched himself upon him again, the child sneezed seven times and then opened his eyes. <sup>36</sup>Summoning Gehazi, he said, "Call this Shunammite." So he called her. When she arrived, he said, "Take up your son." <sup>37</sup>So she came in, fell down at his feet, and prostrated herself on the ground. Then she took up her son and went out.<sup>x</sup>

<sup>38</sup>When Elisha returned to Gilgal, there was a famine in the land. As the sons of the prophets were sitting before him, he said to his servant, "Put on the big kettle, and boil stew for the sons of the prophets." <sup>39</sup>So one of them went out to the field to gather herbs. He found a wild vine from which he gathered his lap full of wild gourds. He cut up the herbs into the kettle, not knowing what they were. <sup>40</sup>Then he poured it out for the men to eat. But when they ate of the herbs, they cried out, "There is death in the kettle, O man of God!"; for they could not eat it. <sup>41</sup>He said, "Bring here some flour," and when he had thrown it into the kettle, he said, "Pour it out for the people, that they may eat." And there was nothing harmful in the kettle.<sup>y</sup>

<sup>42</sup>There came a man from Baal-shalisha, bringing food of the first fruits to the man of God, twenty barley loaves and fresh fruit in his bread

u) He must have suffered a sunstroke.

v) This is all she cared to say to Gehazi; for Elisha she reserved much more.

w) She knew and Elisha knew that no staff could suffice; it required the warmth of the personal touch, as new life in Christ still requires.

x) A guest room to which Christian workers are welcomed can still be a source of blessing to the family and especially to the growing children.

y) Elisha. z) Christian elements must counteract unholy things and may turn the hurtful into helpful things.

bag. He said, "Give it to the people that they may eat." <sup>43</sup>His servant replied, "How can I set this before 100 men?" But he insisted, "Give it to the people that they may eat; for the LORD has said: They shall eat and have leftovers." <sup>44</sup>So he set it before them. When they had eaten, some was left over as the LORD had said.<sup>a</sup>

5 NAAMAN THE CAPTAIN OF THE army of the king of Syria was an important official in the sight of his master and was highly esteemed because the LORD had brought victory to Syria through him. He was an outstanding man, but he was a leper. <sup>2</sup>Now the Syrians on one of their raiding expeditions had taken captive from the land of Israel a little girl who served Naaman's wife. <sup>3</sup>She said to her mistress, "If only my master were with the prophet who is in Samaria! He would drive out<sup>b</sup> his leprosy." <sup>4</sup>So he<sup>c</sup> went to his master and told him, "Thus and so has the girl from the land of Israel spoken."<sup>d</sup>

<sup>5</sup>The king of Syria replied, "Then go; and I will send a letter to the king of Israel." So he went, taking along with him 20,000 dollars in silver, 60,000 dollars in gold, and ten suits of clothes. <sup>6</sup>He handed this letter to the king of Israel, "With this letter I have sent Naaman my servant to you, that you may drive out his leprosy." <sup>7</sup>After the king of Israel had read the letter, he tore his clothes, saying, "Am I God who can kill or restore to life, that this fellow has sent a man to me to drive out his leprosy? Just consider, and see how he is trying to stir up trouble with me!"<sup>e</sup>

<sup>8</sup>When Elisha, the man of God, heard that the king of Israel had torn his garments, he sent to the king of Israel, saying, "Why have you torn your garments? Let him come to me, and know that there is a prophet in Israel." <sup>9</sup>Naaman came with his horses and with his chariot and stood at the door of Elisha's house. <sup>10</sup>And Elisha sent a messenger to him with these instructions, "Go, wash seven times in the Jordan, and your body shall be well and clean again." <sup>11</sup>But Naaman went away angry, saying, "I thought he would come out, stand and call upon the name of the LORD his God and, waving his hand over the place, drive out the leprosy. <sup>12</sup>Are not the Abana and Pharpar, the rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? Could I not have washed in them and been made clean?" So he turned away in anger. <sup>13</sup>Then his servants approached him and said, "My father, if the prophet had instructed you to do something spectacular, would you not have done it? But he simply said, 'Wash and be clean.'" <sup>14</sup>So he went down and dipped himself into the Jordan seven times, in accordance with the word of the man of God. His body was made well like that of a little child, and he was clean.<sup>f</sup>

<sup>15</sup>Then he and all his company returned to the man of God. When he arrived and stood before him, he said, "Now I know there is no God in all the earth except in Israel. Accept now a gift from your servant." <sup>16</sup>"As sure as the LORD lives before whom I stand, I will not accept it," he replied. Even though he pressed him to accept it, he refused.<sup>g</sup> <sup>17</sup>Then Naaman said, "If not, may your servant be given a mule-team load of earth; for your servant will never again offer burnt offering or sacrifice to other gods except the LORD.<sup>h</sup> <sup>18</sup>May the LORD forgive your servant in this matter: when my master enters the house of Rimmon to worship there, supported by my hand, and I have to bow myself down in the house of Rimmon; when I have to bow myself down thus in the house of Rimmon, may the LORD forgive your servant in this matter." <sup>19</sup>He said to him, "Go in peace."

a) Prophetic of Christ's feeding the 5000; symbolic of the overflowing riches of divine grace.

b) Probably from an Akkadian root meaning 'to exorcise.' c) Naaman went to the Syrian king.

d) If a captive little girl can thus effectively testify, what cannot we witness?

e) It never occurred to the king to send Naaman to God's servant.

f) His heart became childlike before his body was thus renewed.

g) Christian workers need apply sound judgment regarding proffered gifts from other than Christian givers. h) Soil to build on it an altar to Jehovah God.

When he had travelled some distance, <sup>20</sup>Gehazi, the servant of Elisha the man of God, said to himself, "Look! My master has not taken anything which this Syrian, Naaman, brought with him. As sure as the LORD lives, I will run after him and accept something from him." <sup>21</sup>So Gehazi pursued Naaman. When Naaman saw him running after him, he came down out of his chariot to meet him, saying, "Is all well?" <sup>22</sup>"All is well," he replied. "My master sent me with this message, 'Two young men from Mount Ephraim, sons of the prophets, have just come to me. Let me have 2,000 dollars in silver and two suits of clothes for them.'"<sup>i</sup> <sup>23</sup>Naaman said, "Please accept 4,000." He pressed him and tied up 4,000 dollars in silver in two bags, and two suits of clothes, which he gave to two of his servants who carried them before him.<sup>j</sup> <sup>24</sup>When he came to the hill, he took them from their hand and deposited them in his house. Then he sent the men away and they left.

<sup>25</sup>When he entered to wait on his master, Elisha said to him, "Where have you been, Gehazi?" "Your servant has been nowhere," he replied. <sup>26</sup>He said to him, "Did I not in thought go with you when the man turned from his chariot to meet you? Was it a time to accept money and to take suits, olive groves, vineyards, flocks, herds, male and female servants? <sup>27</sup>Therefore the leprosy of Naaman will fasten upon you and your descendants forever." Then he left his presence, a leper, white as snow.

850 B.C.

6 AT THAT TIME THE SONS OF THE prophets said to Elisha,<sup>k</sup> "The place we are living in here with you is too small for us. <sup>2</sup>Let us go to the Jordan and each of us take from there a log and construct for ourselves there a place to live." He said, "Go ahead." <sup>3</sup>Then one of them said, "Please go with your servants." "I will go along," he replied. <sup>4</sup>So he went with them, and when they came to the Jordan they cut down trees. <sup>5</sup>While one of them was felling a tree, his axhead fell into the water. "Alas, my master, it was borrowed!" he exclaimed. <sup>6</sup>"Where did it fall?" inquired the man of God. When he pointed out the place to him, he cut off a twig, cast it in there, and made the axhead float. <sup>7</sup>He said, "Take it up." So he reached out his hand and took it.

<sup>8</sup>When the king of Syria was at war with Israel, he counseled with his servants, "At such and such a place shall be my camp." <sup>9</sup>The man of God, however, informed the king of Israel, "See that you do not pass this place, for the Syrians are coming down there." <sup>10</sup>Then the king of Israel sent to the place about which the man of God had informed him. So he<sup>m</sup> warned him, and he kept clear more than once or twice.

<sup>11</sup>The mind of the king of Syria was quite disturbed about it. He called his servants and inquired of them, "Can you tell me who among us informs the king of Israel?" <sup>12</sup>One of his servants replied, "There is none, my master, O king. It is Elisha the prophet; for he tells the king of Israel what you say in your bedroom." <sup>13</sup>He commanded, "Go, find out where he is, so I may send and arrest him." He was told, "See, he is in Dothan."<sup>n</sup> <sup>14</sup>Then he sent there horses, chariots, and a powerful army. They arrived by night and surrounded the city.

<sup>15</sup>When the servant of the man of God got up early in the morning and went out, look, the army, together with horses and chariots, were all around the city. His servant said to him, "Alas, my master! What shall we

i) Both Elisha and his servant seem to have depended on gifts for a living. This chance for a liberal contribution proved too alluring for Gehazi; but to get it he must go contrary to his master's principles, and he must lie. j) Before Gehazi.

k) Elisha worked with young worshipers, as Elijah does not seem to have worked. Samuel's School of the Prophets is the first mention of such a group.

m) Elisha warned the king of Israel.

n) About ten miles north of Samaria city. There Joseph had found his ten brothers, was cast in a pit, and sold down to Egypt.

do?"<sup>16</sup> "Be not afraid, for those who are with us are more than those who are with them," he replied. <sup>17</sup>Then Elisha prayed, "O LORD, open his eyes that he may see!"<sup>18</sup> The LORD opened the eyes of his servant and when he looked, behold, the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire around Elisha.

<sup>19</sup>As the Syrians came against him, Elisha prayed to the LORD, "Inflict this people with sudden blindness." So He inflicted them with sudden blindness in accordance with the word of Elisha. <sup>20</sup>Then Elisha said to them, "This is neither the way nor the city. Come with me, and I will take you to the man you seek." So he brought them to Samaria.<sup>21</sup> When they arrived at Samaria, Elisha said, "O LORD, open the eyes of these men, that they may see." The LORD opened their eyes and when they looked, see, they were in the center of Samaria!

<sup>22</sup>When he saw them, the king of Israel said to Elisha, "Shall I cut them down, shall I cut them down, my father?" <sup>23</sup>"You must not cut them down," he replied. "Would you cut down those whom you have not taken captive with your sword or your bow? Set before them food and water, so they may eat and drink and then return to their master." <sup>24</sup>He then made a great feast for them. They ate and drank and afterward he sent them away and they went to their master.<sup>25</sup> The raiding bands of Syrians never again returned to the land of Israel.

<sup>26</sup>Later, however, Ben-hadad the king of Syria mustered all his army, went up, and besieged Samaria. <sup>27</sup>Such a severe famine resulted from their siege that a donkey's head brought fifty dollars in silver and a pint of dove's leavings brought three dollars in silver. <sup>28</sup>As the king of Israel was passing by on the wall, a woman called out to him, "Help, my master, O king."

<sup>29</sup>He replied, "If the LORD will not help you, how can I help you? Can I help you from the threshing floor or from the wine press?" <sup>30</sup>The king said to her, "What is the matter with you?" "This woman," she replied, "said to me, 'Give your son that we may eat him today and we shall eat my son tomorrow.' <sup>31</sup>So we boiled my son and ate him; and when I said to her the next day, 'Give your son that we may eat him,' she hid her son." <sup>32</sup>When the king heard the words of the woman, he tore his clothes—for he was passing by on the wall—and the people saw the sackcloth next to his body. <sup>33</sup>He said, "May God do so to me and even more, if the head of Elisha the son of Shaphat remains standing on his shoulders today."

<sup>34</sup>While Elisha and the elders were sitting together in his home, he<sup>35</sup> sent a man from his presence. But before the messenger arrived, he<sup>36</sup> said to the elders, "Do you see how this son of a murderer has sent to take off my head?"<sup>37</sup> See here, when the messenger arrives, shut the door and keep him back with the door; for is not the sound of his master's footsteps behind him?" <sup>38</sup>While he was still talking with them, the messenger came down to him and he<sup>39</sup> said, "This evil is from the LORD. Why should I wait any longer for the LORD?"

7 "LISTEN TO THE WORD OF THE LORD," replied Elisha. "Thus says the LORD: About this time tomorrow a peck of fine meal may be purchased at the gate of Samaria for a dollar and two pecks of barley for a dollar." <sup>2</sup>The royal official<sup>3</sup> who supported the king, replied to the man of God, "If the LORD should open windows in heaven, could this happen?" "You shall indeed see it with your own eyes, but you shall not eat of it," said he.<sup>4</sup>

<sup>5</sup>Now there were four lepers at the

o) Not seldom we have similar fears, because the visible naturally impresses us to the exclusion of the invisible.

p) He did not pray for heavenly hosts to come; they were there, but the servant had not been aware of them. Jesus [Matt. 18:10] and Paul [I Cor. 11:10] suggest their abiding presence.

q) Where he lived and where they were well treated. r) This was the Jesus way and it worked.

s) He had gone on, but turned when she continued crying.

t) No repentance, but vengeance in his heart. u) The king. v) Elisha.

w) There was constant communication between Elisha and God.

x) The messenger was not admitted; the king arrived and expressed his disgust.

y) Not the messenger but the high official on whom the king leaned. z) Elisha.

entrance of the gate of Samaria. They said one to another. "Why are we sitting here until we die? <sup>4</sup>If we say, 'Let us go into the city,' famine is there, and if we remain here we shall die. Now come, let us desert to the Syrian camp; if they spare us, we shall live; if they kill us, we shall just die." <sup>5</sup>So at twilight they got up to advance to the Syrian camp. When they arrived at the Syrian camp, look, not a man was there! <sup>6</sup>For the LORD had caused the Syrian camp to hear the sound of chariots and of horses and of a great army,<sup>a</sup> so that they said one to another, "The king of Israel has hired against us the kings of the Hittites and the kings of the Egyptians to come against us." <sup>7</sup>So they arose and fled at twilight, leaving behind their tents, their horses, their donkeys, and the camp, just as it was; they fled for their lives.

<sup>8</sup>When the lepers came to the edge of the camp, they went into a tent and ate and drank and took from there some silver, gold, and garments, and went and hid them. Afterward they returned and went into another tent and took some things from there and went and hid them. <sup>9</sup>Finally they said one to another, "We are not doing right. This day is a day of good news;<sup>b</sup> if we keep quiet and wait until morning light, punishment will befall us. Come, let us go and inform the household of the king." <sup>10</sup>They came and called to the gatekeepers of the city, informing them, "We went to the Syrian camp, but not a man was there nor the sound of anyone; only horses and donkeys were tied there and their tents just as they were." <sup>11</sup>Then the gatekeepers shouted and told it to the king's household inside. <sup>12</sup>The king arose in the night and said to his servants, "Let me tell you what the Syrians have done for us; they know that we are hungry, so they have left the camp and hidden themselves in the field thinking, 'When they go out of the city, we will seize them alive and enter the city.'<sup>c</sup>" <sup>13</sup>One of his servants suggested, "Let some men take five of the horses that are left here; if they survive, they will be like the whole multitude of Israel left here; but if they fall into a trap, they will be like the whole multitude of Israel which has perished. So let us send and see."<sup>d</sup> <sup>14</sup>They then took two chariots with horses and the king sent them after the Syrian army with instructions to go and see. <sup>15</sup>They followed them as far as the Jordan and look, all along the way were scattered clothes and supplies which the Syrians had thrown away in their hurried flight! When the messengers returned, they told the king.

<sup>16</sup>Then the people went out and plundered the Syrian camp. So in accordance with the word of the LORD, a peck of fine meal was offered for a dollar and two pecks of barley for a dollar. <sup>17</sup>Now the king had put the officer, who had supported the king, in charge of the gate; but the people trampled him at the gate so that he died as the man of God had said to the king when he came down to him. <sup>18</sup>Thus the statement of the man of God to the king, about two pecks of barley for a dollar and a peck of fine meal for a dollar this time tomorrow at the gate of Samaria, was fulfilled. <sup>19</sup>Also to the royal official who had replied to the man of God, "If the LORD should open windows in heaven, could it be so?" and to whom he said, "Look! You shall see it with your eyes but shall not eat of it," <sup>20</sup>it happened so; for the people trampled him at the gate, so that he died.

8 AT THAT TIME ELISHA SAID TO THE woman whose son he had restored to life, "You and your household leave and stay where you can; for the LORD has called for a famine, and it will last for seven years."<sup>e</sup> <sup>2</sup>So the woman arose and did as the man of God advised; she and her household went and stayed in the land of the Philistines for seven years. <sup>3</sup>At the end

a) Sounds at the Creator's bidding, causing a panic.

b) Repeatedly our situation; we must be material and spiritual sharers.

c) The king had heard Elisha's promise but did not believe it.

d) A smart suggestion, worthy of a courtier; but not born from faith.

e) Elisha was a polite guest; he kept in touch with his hosts.

of seven years, when the woman returned from the land of the Philistines, she went to lay claim before the king to her house and her field. <sup>4</sup>The king was talking to Gehazi, the servant of the man of God, at the time. <sup>5</sup>"Tell me," said he, "all the great things Elisha has done." <sup>6</sup>While he was telling the king how he restored the dead to life, the woman whose son he had restored to life was coming to appeal to the king for her house and her field. Then Gehazi said, "My master, O king! this is the woman and this is her son whom Elisha restored to life." <sup>7</sup>When the king inquired of the woman, she told him about it. Then the king provided an official for her, saying, "Return all her property together with all its produce from the time she left the land until now."

<sup>8</sup>Afterward Elisha went to Damascus. Ben-hadad king of Syria was ill and when he was informed, "The man of God has come here," <sup>9</sup>the king said to Hazeal, "Take in your hand a gift, go to meet the man of God, and inquire of the LORD through him whether I shall recover from this illness." <sup>10</sup>So Hazeal went to meet him with a gift in hand—all sorts of valuable things from Damascus, forty camel loads—and when he entered and stood before him, he said, "Your son Ben-hadad king of Syria has sent me to you with this message, 'Shall I recover from this illness?'" <sup>11</sup>Elisha said to him, "Go, tell him, 'You will surely recover.'" However the LORD has shown me that he shall surely die. <sup>12</sup>And he looked at him fixedly until he was ashamed. <sup>13</sup>Then the man of God wept. <sup>14</sup>Hazeal said to him, "Why do you weep, my master?" He answered, "Because I know the calamity you will bring upon Israel; their fortresses you will burn with fire, their young men you will kill with the sword; their little children you will dash in pieces, and their pregnant women you will rip open." <sup>15</sup>"What! Is your servant a dog that he should do this terrible thing?" remarked Hazeal. "The LORD has shown me that you are to be king of Syria," said Elisha. <sup>16</sup>Then he left Elisha and returned to his master, who asked him, "What did Elisha tell you?" "He told me you will assuredly recover," he said. <sup>17</sup>The next day he took a coverlet, dipped it in water and spread it over his face so that he died. Then Hazeal became king in his place. 848 B.C.

<sup>18</sup>In the fifth year of Joram son of Ahab king of Israel, Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat king of Judah became king. <sup>19</sup>He was thirty-two years old when he became king, and he was king in Jerusalem for eight years. <sup>20</sup>He walked in the way of the kings of Israel as the house of Ahab had done, for he had married a daughter of Ahab; he did evil in the sight of the LORD. <sup>21</sup>However, the LORD was not willing to destroy Judah, for the sake of David His servant, because He had promised to make him and his sons a perpetual light.

<sup>22</sup>In his time Edom rebelled against the authority of Judah and provided a king for themselves. <sup>23</sup>Joram<sup>k</sup> with all his chariots then crossed over to Zair where he arose at night and destroyed the Edomites around him together with their chariot officers. But the people fled to their tents. <sup>24</sup>Edom has, however, continued in rebellion against the authority of Judah to this day. Libnah also rebelled at that time.

<sup>25</sup>The rest of the acts of Joram and all that he did, are they not told in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? <sup>26</sup>So Joram slept with his fathers and was buried with his fathers in the city of David, and his son Ahaziah became king in his place.

<sup>27</sup>In the twelfth year of Joram son of Ahab king of Israel, Ahaziah son of Jehoram became king of Judah. <sup>28</sup>Ahaziah was twenty-two years old when he

f) Gehazi is called the prophet's servant; so, this almost certainly happened before his leprosy.

g) Some non-Hebrews were more anxious to hear God's messages than were the Hebrews.

h) Spoken ironically, as did Micaiah [I Kings 22:15].

i) Hazeal grew ashamed. Elisha knew what crime Hazeal would commit to gain the throne and how he would then behave.

j) Jehoshaphat's affiliation with Ahab had many evil consequences and his daughter-in-law Athaliah was among the worst.

k) Jehoram—"Jehovah is high"—which the name Joram also means. The two names are interchanged, vss. 21-24 relating to the king of Judah.

II KINGS 8, 9

became king, and he remained king for one year in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Athaliah, daughter of Omri king of Israel.<sup>1</sup> <sup>2</sup>He walked in the way of the house of Ahab and did evil in the sight of the LORD, just as the house of Ahab had done; for he was a son-in-law of the house of Ahab. <sup>28</sup>He accompanied Joram son of Ahab to war against Hazael king of Syria at Ramoth-gilead, where the Syrians wounded Joram. <sup>29</sup>So Joram the king returned to Jezreel to recover from the wounds which the Syrians had inflicted upon him at Ramah where he warred with Hazael king of Syria. At that time Ahaziah son of Jehoram king of Judah went down to see Joram son of Ahab at Jezreel where he lay sick.

841 B.C.

9 ELISHA SUMMONED ONE OF THE sons of the prophets and said to him, "Gird your loins, take this vial of oil in your hand and proceed to Ramoth-gilead. <sup>2</sup>When you arrive there, look for Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat the son of Nimshi;<sup>m</sup> as you enter, tell him to get up from among his brothers, and bring him to an inner room. <sup>3</sup>Then take the vial of oil and pour it upon his head and say to him, 'Thus says the LORD: I have anointed you king over Israel.' Then open the door and leave at once; do not dally."

<sup>4</sup>The young man, the servant of the prophet, went to Ramoth-gilead. <sup>5</sup>When he arrived, the officers of the army were in conference. He said, "Captain, I have a message for you!" "For which of us all?" said Jehu. "For you, captain," he replied. <sup>6</sup>So he arose and went into the house, where he<sup>n</sup> poured the oil upon his head and said to him, "Thus has the LORD God of Israel spoken: I have anointed you king over the people of the LORD<sup>o</sup> over Israel. <sup>7</sup>You are to overthrow the house of Ahab your master, that I may avenge the blood of My servants the prophets and the blood of all the servants of the LORD shed by Jezebel. <sup>8</sup>The whole house of Ahab shall be destroyed; I will cut off from Ahab every male, bond and free, in Israel, <sup>9</sup>and I will make the house of Ahab like the house of Jeroboam son of Nebat and like the house of Baasha son of Ahijah.<sup>p</sup> <sup>10</sup>The dogs shall devour Jezebel in the district of Jezreel, and none shall bury her." Then he opened the door and fled.

Jehu Divinely Anointed Israel's King

<sup>11</sup>When Jehu came out to the servants of his master, one of them said to him, "Is all well? Why did this madman come to you?" "You know the man and his talk," he answered. <sup>12</sup>"Lies, but tell us," they retorted. He said, "Thus and so he told me, saying, 'Thus has the LORD said: I have anointed you king over Israel.'"<sup>q</sup> <sup>13</sup>They then took each one quickly his garment and spread it under him on the bare steps, so<sup>r</sup>nded the trumpet, and shouted, "Jehu is king."<sup>q</sup>

<sup>14</sup>Jehu son of Jehoshaphat son of Nimshi conspired against Joram. Joram and all Israel had garrisoned Ramoth-gilead against Hazael king of Syria. <sup>15</sup>But Jehoram the king<sup>r</sup> had returned to recuperate at Jezreel from the wound which the Syrians inflicted upon him when he warred against Hazael king of Syria. "If that is your mind," said Jehu, "let no one slip away from the city to bring news of it to Jezreel." <sup>16</sup>Then Jehu mounted a chariot and drove toward Jezreel, where Joram was lying and whither Ahaziah king of Judah had come to see Joram.

<sup>17</sup>When the watchman, standing on the tower at Jezreel, caught sight of Jehu's company approaching, he said, "I see a company." Jehoram said, "Get a horseman, and send him out to meet them with the greeting, 'Is all well?'" <sup>18</sup>So the horseman went out to meet him and said, "Thus has the king said, 'Is all well?'" "What have you to do with well-being?" replied Jehu. "Swing around behind me." The watchman re-

l) We would call Omri her grandfather and Ahab her father. She was too exactly like her mother Jezebel. m) To distinguish him from Jehoshaphat the son of king Asa.

n) The young prophet.

o) God still owned them as His people and offered them a good chance to change their ways.

p) The Omri dynasty had been adequately warned.

q) An odd combination of neglect of and deference toward God's message.

r) That is, Joram the king of Israel.

ported, "The messenger has reached them, but he has not turned back."

<sup>19</sup>He sent a second horseman who came up to them and said, "Thus has the king said, 'Is all well?'" "What have you to do with well-being?" replied Jehu. "Swing around behind me."

<sup>20</sup>The watchman again reported, "He reached them, but he has not turned back. And the driving is like the driving of Jehu, for he always drives like a madman."<sup>s</sup>

<sup>21</sup>Jehoram said, "Get ready," and they hitched up his chariot. Then Jehoram the king of Israel drove off with Ahaziah king of Judah, each in his own chariot and went out to meet Jehu. They met him at the property of Naboth the Jezreelite. <sup>22</sup>When Jehoram caught sight of Jehu, he said, "Is all well, Jehu?" "How can there be well-being when the harlotries and seductions of Jezebel your mother are so numerous," he replied. <sup>23</sup>Jehoram turned around and fled, calling to Ahaziah, "Treason, Ahaziah!" <sup>24</sup>Then Jehu drew his bow and shot Jehoram between the shoulders. The arrow went through his heart, and he slumped in his chariot.<sup>t</sup> <sup>25</sup>Jehu said to Bidkar his lieutenant, "Take him up, and cast him on the property of Naboth the Jezreelite; for recall how, when I and you were riding together behind his father Ahab, the LORD uttered this oracle against him: <sup>26</sup>As certainly as I saw yesterday the blood of Naboth and his sons, I will repay you on this property, says the LORD. Take him up now, and throw him on the property, according to the word of the LORD."

<sup>27</sup>When Ahaziah the king of Judah saw that, he fled by the way of Beth-haggan. Jehu followed him and said, "Shoot him, too."<sup>u</sup> So they shot him in his chariot at the upward slope of Gur near Ibleam. He fled to Megiddo where he died. <sup>28</sup>His servants took him in a chariot to Jerusalem and buried him in his grave with his fathers in the city of David.

<sup>29</sup>Ahaziah became king of Judah in the eleventh year of Joram the son of Ahab.

<sup>30</sup>When Jezebel heard Jehu entering Jezreel, she painted her eyes,<sup>v</sup> adorned her head, and looked out of the window.<sup>w</sup> <sup>31</sup>When Jehu arrived at the gate, she said, "Is all well, O Zimri, murderer of your master?"<sup>x</sup> <sup>32</sup>Lifting up his face toward the window, he said, "Who is with me? Who?" Two or three eunuchs looked out at him. <sup>33</sup>He said, "Push her out," and they pushed her out. Some of her blood bespattered the wall and the horses as they trampled her down.

<sup>34</sup>After they had entered, they ate and drank. Then he said, "Attend now to this accursed woman and bury her, for she is a king's daughter." <sup>35</sup>When they went to bury her, they found nothing of her except her skull, her feet, and the palms of her hands. <sup>36</sup>So they returned and told him. He said, "This is the word of the LORD spoken by his servant Elijah the Tishbite: In the district of Jezreel shall the dogs devour Jezebel's flesh, <sup>37</sup>and Jezebel's corpse shall be as dung upon the field in the district of Jezreel, so that they cannot say, This is Jezebel."

10 AHAB HAD SEVENTY SONS IN Samaria. So Jehu wrote letters which he sent to Samaria to the officials of Jezreel, the elders and the custodians of Ahab's children, as follows: <sup>2</sup>"Now when you receive this letter, since you have charge of your master's sons, his chariots, his horses, his fortified cities and equipment, <sup>3</sup>select the best and most capable of your master's sons and place him on the throne of his father, that they may contend for the house of your master." <sup>4</sup>But trembling in great fear, they<sup>y</sup> said, "Two kings could not stand before him, and <sup>s</sup>) Which shows him up as impulsive, aggressive, and merciless.

<sup>t</sup>) Jehu proved himself an excellent marksman, to hit when his chariot was moving.

<sup>u</sup>) This was going beyond divine orders.

<sup>v</sup>) A common practice. <sup>w</sup>) Determined to die as she had lived, proudly and in high style—a plan Jehu did not allow her to carry through.

<sup>x</sup>) Zimri had assassinated Elah king of Israel [I Kings 16: 8-20], had reigned for one week, and had then been murdered.

<sup>y</sup>) Those were the cowardly elders—with some change of personnel—who had, at Jezebel's bidding, falsely accused and stoned Naboth to death.

how then could we stand?"<sup>5</sup> So the manager of the palace and the city manager, together with the elders and custodians, sent to Jehu, saying, "We are your servants, and we will obey all your orders to us; we will not make anyone king. Do whatever seems right to you!"<sup>6</sup> Then he wrote them a second letter, saying, "If you are for me and ready to listen to me, take the heads of your master's sons and appear before me at Jezreel tomorrow at this time."<sup>7</sup> The sons of the king to the number of seventy persons were with the magnates of the city who were responsible for their upbringing.<sup>8</sup> When the letter reached them, they took the sons of the king and killed the seventy of them. They put their heads in baskets and sent them to him at Jezreel.<sup>9</sup> When the messenger came and told him, "They have brought the heads of the sons of the king," he said, "Put them in two piles at the entrance of the gate until morning."<sup>10</sup> In the morning, he went out, stood up, and said to all the people, "You are blameless. I conspired against my master and killed him; but who killed all these?"<sup>11</sup> Know then, that not a syllable of the word of the LORD which He spoke against the house of Ahab shall remain unfulfilled; the LORD has done what He announced through Elijah His servant."<sup>12</sup> So Jehu killed all those who remained of the house of Ahab at Jezreel—all his prominent men, his acquaintances, and his priests until there was not a single survivor.

<sup>12</sup>Next he started out for Samaria. On the way, at Beth-eked of the Shepherds, <sup>13</sup>he met the relatives of Ahaziah king of Judah. "Who are you?" he asked. "We are the relatives of Ahaziah," they replied. "We have come down to visit the sons of the king and the sons of the queen mother."<sup>14</sup> "Take them alive," said he. So they took them alive and killed them at the pit of Beth-eked; he spared not one of them.<sup>15</sup>

<sup>15</sup>Leaving there, he fell in with Jehonadab son of Rechab, who was coming to meet him. He saluted him and said to him, "Is your heart as loyal to mine as my heart is to yours?" "It is," said Jehonadab. "If it is, give me your hand," [said Jehu]. He gave him his hand and [Jehu] took him up to him in his chariot. <sup>16</sup>He said further, "Come with me, and see my zeal for the LORD."<sup>17</sup> Then he made him ride in his chariot. <sup>18</sup>When he arrived at Samaria, he killed all the survivors of Ahab in Samaria—he exterminated them<sup>19</sup> completely, in accordance with the word of the LORD spoken through Elijah.

<sup>18</sup>Then Jehu summoned all the people and said to them, "Ahab served Baal a little; Jehu will serve him much."<sup>19</sup> Now call to me all the prophets of Baal, all his servants, and all his priests; let not one be missing, for I am preparing a great sacrifice for Baal. Every one who is missing shall forfeit his life." Jehu did this deceptively in order to destroy the servants of Baal. <sup>20</sup>Jehu said, "Sanctify a solemn assembly for Baal." So they called it. <sup>21</sup>Jehu notified all Israel, and all the servants of Baal came—not a single one failed to come. They assembled at the house of Baal until the house of Baal was filled from one end to the other. <sup>22</sup>He said to the man in charge of the wardrobe, "Bring out the vestments for the servants of Baal." So he brought out the vestments for them.

<sup>23</sup>When Jehu and Jehonadab son of Rechab entered the house of Baal, he said, "Investigate and see that there are no servants of the LORD here with you but only the servants of Baal."<sup>24</sup> So they came to offer sacrifices and burnt offerings. In the meantime Jehu had stationed eighty of his men on the outside, to whom he said, "The one who permits any of the men whom I give into your hands to escape shall pay for it with his life."

<sup>25</sup>When he had finished offering the burnt offering, Jehu said to the bodyguard and officers, "Enter and kill them, z) Jehu knew the grade of character he was dealing with—putty in his hands.

a) So that all Israel might know the Omri dynasty was ended.

b) Killing was his familiar occupation; this time he could do it "to the glory of God."

c) Again he went beyond divine orders, which had confined him to northern Israel and Ahab's house. d) Jehonadab was a steadier and truer servant of God—a temperate man.

e) The house of Ahab. f) A trick too frequently applied in Europe during Inquisition days.

g) Jehonadab knew the true worshipers better than did Jehu. h) The Baal priests.

let not one of them get away." They killed them with the sword. The bodyguard and the officers threw them out and went into the inner part of the house of Baal. <sup>26</sup>They also brought out the pillar<sup>i</sup> of the house of Baal and burned it. <sup>27</sup>They broke down the pillar of Baal and wrecked the house of Baal and made it a latrine until this day.

<sup>28</sup>Though Jehu thus eradicated Baal from Israel, <sup>29</sup>he did not remove the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin, the golden calves at Bethel and at Dan. <sup>30</sup>The LORD said to Jehu: Inasmuch as you did well to put into practice what is right in My sight and carried out everything I planned against the house of Ahab, four generations of your sons shall sit upon the throne of Israel.<sup>j</sup> <sup>31</sup>But Jehu was not careful to observe the Law of the LORD God of Israel with his whole heart, because he did not turn away from the sins of Jeroboam who led Israel to sin.<sup>k</sup>

<sup>32</sup>At that time the LORD began to trim off Israel. Hazael defeated them throughout all the territory of Israel <sup>33</sup>from the Jordan eastward, throughout all the land of Gilead, the Gadites, the Reubenites, and the Manassites, from Aroer which is in the valley of the Arnon, throughout all Gilead and Bashan.<sup>l</sup>

814 B.C.

<sup>34</sup>The rest of the acts of Jehu and everything he did and his mighty power, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? <sup>35</sup>So Jehu slept with his fathers, and they buried him at Samaria. Jehoahaz his son became king in his place. <sup>36</sup>Jehu was king over Israel at Samaria for twenty-eight years.

841 B.C.

11 WHEN ATHALIAH MOTHER OF Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she arose and destroyed all the royal offspring; <sup>2</sup>but Jehoshеba, the daughter of King Joram and sister of Ahaziah,<sup>m</sup> took Joash son of Ahaziah and abducted him from among the sons of the king about to be killed, placing him and his nurse in a storeroom where they concealed him from Athaliah so that he was not killed. <sup>3</sup>He remained with her in hiding for six years, while Athaliah was ruler over the land.

<sup>4</sup>In the seventh year Jehoiada had the centurions of the bodyguard and escort brought to him in the house of the LORD, made an agreement with them, to which he bound them by oath in the house of the LORD, and then showed them the son of the king.<sup>n</sup> <sup>5</sup>He gave them these orders, "This is what you are to do: A third of you who come on duty on the Sabbath shall guard the king's house; <sup>6</sup>another third at the gate Sur and the final third at the gate behind the bodyguard; you shall guard the temple alternately. <sup>7</sup>Two detachments of all of you, who go off duty on the Sabbath shall guard the house of the LORD for the king; <sup>8</sup>you shall surround the king solidly, each with his weapons in his hand — any one intruding into the ranks shall be killed — and be with the king at all times."

<sup>9</sup>The centurions carried out the orders of Jehoiada the priest; each one took his men who came on duty on the Sabbath with those who went off duty on the Sabbath and came to Jehoiada the priest, <sup>10</sup>who presented to the centurions the spears and shields that had belonged to King David, which were in the LORD's house. <sup>11</sup>The bodyguard stood, each with his weapons in his hand, from the right side of the house to the left side of the house, about the altar and the house, around the king.<sup>o</sup> <sup>12</sup>Then he brought in the king's son, placed upon him the crown, and handed him the testimony.<sup>p</sup> So they made him king and anointed him. They clapped their hands and shouted, "Long live the king!"

<sup>13</sup>When Athaliah heard the noise of the bodyguard and the people, she came to the people in the house of the LORD. <sup>14</sup>She glanced around, and look, there was the king standing by the pillar ac-

i) For Baal worship the Canaanites had pillars, which the Israelites were to overthrow, and were forbidden to erect for their own worship [Deut. 16:22].

j) God goes as far with His grace to us as we allow Him.

k) The worship of the golden calves and absence from the temple.

l) One reason for Hazael's anointment.

m) But not a daughter of Athaliah. n) No loyalty to dictatorial, pagan Athaliah.

o) A well-studied plan perfectly executed.

p) The Mt. Sinai Law, to be again the law of the land.

cording to custom—the officers and trumpeters being with the king—and the people of the land were rejoicing and sounding the trumpets. Athaliah tore her clothes and cried, “Conspiracy! Conspiracy!” <sup>15</sup>Then Jehoiada the priest ordered the centurions, the officers of the army, “Bring her out<sup>a</sup> between the ranks and whoever comes out with her, you kill with the sword.” For the priest said, “Do not kill her in the house of the LORD.” <sup>16</sup>So they took hold of her, and she came out by the horses’ entrance to the house of the king, where they killed her.

<sup>17</sup>Jehoiada made a covenant between the LORD, the king, and the people that they should be the LORD’s people, and also between the king and the people. <sup>18</sup>All the people of the land went to the house of Baal and broke it down; its altars and its images they wrecked completely, and they killed Mattan the priest of Baal before its altars. The priest<sup>r</sup> set overseers over the house of the LORD. <sup>19</sup>He also took the centurions of the bodyguard and of all the people, and they brought down the king from the house of the LORD, passing through the gate of the Royal Guards to the house of the king, where he ascended the throne of the kings. <sup>20</sup>All the people of the land rejoiced, and the city was peaceful after they had killed Athaliah with the sword in the house of the king. <sup>21</sup>Joash was seven years old when he became king.

835 B.C.

12 JEHOASH<sup>s</sup> BECAME KING IN Jehu’s seventh year, and he was king for forty years in Jerusalem. His mother’s name was Zibiah from Beersheba. <sup>2</sup>Throughout his life Jehoash did what was right in the sight of the LORD, because Jehoiada the priest continued to instruct him. <sup>3</sup>Only he did not remove the high places; the people continued to offer sacrifices and to burn incense at the high places.

<sup>4</sup>Jehoash said to the priests, “All the money of the sacred offerings which is brought into the house of the LORD, both the money levied according to each man’s valuation and the money from the voluntary offerings which may be brought to the LORD’s house,<sup>t</sup> <sup>5</sup>let the priests receive for themselves, each from his constituency; and let them repair the damage of the house wherever there is damage.”<sup>u</sup> <sup>6</sup>But up to the twenty-third year of King Jehoash, the priests had not made any repair of the damage of the house.<sup>v</sup> <sup>7</sup>So King Jehoash summoned Jehoiada the priest and the other priests and said to them, “Why have you not repaired the damage of the house? Now do not take any more money from your supporters, for you must give it to repair the damage of the house.”<sup>w</sup> <sup>8</sup>The priests agreed not to take any more money from the people nor to repair the damage of the house.

<sup>9</sup>Then Jehoiada the priest took a chest, bored a hole through its lid, and placed it beside the altar, on the right side as one enters the house of the LORD. The priests who served as doorkeepers put in it all the money brought to the house of the LORD. <sup>10</sup>When they found sufficient money in the chest, the royal secretary and the high priest would come up, make it into ingots and evaluate the money found in the house of the LORD. <sup>11</sup>Then they placed the money that had been weighed out into the hands of the workmen who had charge of the house of the LORD, who paid it to the carpenters and builders working on the house of the LORD <sup>12</sup>and to the masons and stonecutters; in addition, they paid for timber and dressed stone to repair the damage of the house of the LORD and everything else spent to restore the house. <sup>13</sup>But silver goblets, snuffers, bowls, trumpets, any articles of silver, were not made with the money brought to the house of the LORD,<sup>x</sup> <sup>14</sup>because they gave it to the

q) Heb., “from within.”

r) The high priest Jehoiada, who initiated this renewed covenant between the king, the people and Jehovah. s) Joash and Jehoash are the same person.

t) There were two types of monetary offering, assessed and voluntary.

u) God’s house must be kept in repair and beautiful.

v) Giving orders is not enough. King and priest should have seen to the executions of those orders.

w) It looks as if donations for repairs had been used for their own living expenses—sorely needed when so many worshiped idols.

x) What had been donated for repairs must be used for nothing else.

workmen who restored the house of the LORD with it. <sup>15</sup>They required no accounting from the men into whose hands they had placed money for the workmen because they dealt honestly. <sup>16</sup>The money from the guilt offerings and the sin offerings was not brought to the house of the LORD; it belonged to the priests.

<sup>17</sup>At that time Hazael king of Syria went up and made war against Gath and captured it. And when Hazael turned his face to go up against Jerusalem, <sup>18</sup>Jehoash king of Judah took all the sacred treasures which Jehoshaphat, Jehoram, and Ahaziah his fathers, kings of Judah had dedicated, together with his own sacred treasures and all the gold deposited in the treasuries of the house of the LORD and in the house of the king and sent them to Hazael king of Syria, so that he might leave Jerusalem.<sup>y</sup>

<sup>19</sup>The rest of the acts of Joash and all that he did, are they not told in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? <sup>20</sup>His servants arose, contrived a plot, and killed Joash in Beth Millo on the road leading down to Silla.<sup>z</sup> <sup>21</sup>Jozakar son of Shimeath and Jehozabad son of Shomer, his servants, killed him. So he died, and they buried him with his fathers in the city of David, while Amaziah his son became king in his place.

814 B.C.

13 IN THE TWENTY-THIRD YEAR OF Joash son of Ahaziah king of Judah, Jehoahaz son of Jehu became king over Israel at Samaria; he was king for seventeen years. <sup>2</sup>He did evil in the sight of the LORD and continued in the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, who led Israel to sin; he did not turn away from them. <sup>3</sup>The anger of the LORD was stirred against Israel so that He incessantly delivered them into the hand of Hazael king of Syria and into the hand of Ben-hadad son of Hazael. <sup>4</sup>But Jehoahaz prayed for the LORD's favor, and the LORD listened to him because he saw how the king of Syria kept oppressing Israel.<sup>a</sup> <sup>5</sup>So the LORD delivered Israel and freed them from the hand of Syria. Then the Israelites lived in their homes as before. <sup>6</sup>Only they did not turn away from the sin of the house of Jeroboam, who led Israel to sin; they continued in it, while the shame-images, too, remained standing in Samaria. <sup>7</sup>There remained to Jehoahaz a force of only fifty horsemen, ten chariots, and 10,000 foot soldiers; for the king of Syria had reduced them and made them like dust at threshing. <sup>8</sup>The rest of the acts of Jehoahaz and all that he did, together with his might, are they not told in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? <sup>9</sup>So Jehoahaz slept with his fathers, and they buried him at Samaria; and his son Joash<sup>b</sup> became king in his place.

798 B.C.

<sup>10</sup>In the thirty-seventh year of Joash king of Judah, Jehoash son of Jehoahaz became king over Israel at Samaria, and he was king for sixteen years. <sup>11</sup>He did evil in the sight of the LORD, and he did not turn away from the sin of Jeroboam son of Nebat, who led Israel to sin; he continued in it. <sup>12</sup>The rest of the acts of Joash<sup>c</sup> and all that he did, together with his might and how he warred against Amaziah king of Judah, are they not recorded in the chronicles of the kings of Israel? <sup>13</sup>So Joash slept with his fathers, and Jeroboam<sup>d</sup> occupied his throne. Joash was buried at Samaria with the kings of Israel.

<sup>14</sup>Elisha was confined at the time with the illness of which he was to die. Joash king of Israel went down to see him and wept in his presence, sobbing, "My father, my father! the chariots and the horsemen of Israel."<sup>e</sup> <sup>15</sup>Elisha said to him, "Take a bow and arrows"; so he took a bow and arrows. <sup>16</sup>Then he said to the king of Israel, "Take hold of the bow." He took hold of the bow, and Elisha put his hands on the hands of the king, <sup>17</sup>saying, "Open the window toward the east." When he had opened it, Elisha said, "Shoot!" and he shot. He exclaimed, "The arrow of victory! The arrow of victory over Syria! You shall utterly defeat Syria at Aphek."

y) No mention of counselors to the king; Jehoiaada seems to have retained much control.

z) Because he had paid the blackmail money? Or because no part in the government was accorded them? a) For once God's aim in chastising, to turn hearts toward Him, met some response.

b) Also called Jehoash. c) The same person as Jehoash. d) Jeroboam II.

e) What Elisha had cried out to Elijah and true of both; true of God's servants. They are THE strength of the nation.

II KINGS 13, 14

<sup>18</sup>Then he said, "Take the arrows"; and he took them. "Strike the ground with them," he said to the king of Israel. So he struck it three times and then stopped.<sup>f</sup> <sup>19</sup>The man of God, displeased with him, said, "You should have struck it five or six times, for then you would have kept on striking down Syria to its utter destruction. But you shall strike down Syria only three times."

<sup>20</sup>When Elisha died, they buried him. Bands of Moabites used to come into the land every spring. <sup>21</sup>Once when they were burying a man, they saw such a band and hastily threw the man into Elisha's grave. As soon as the man touched the bones of Elisha, he revived and rose to his feet.

<sup>22</sup>Hazael king of Syria oppressed Israel all the days of Jehoahaz. <sup>23</sup>But the LORD was gracious to them, had mercy upon them, and turned to them for the sake of His covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; He did not want to destroy them, nor had He cast them from His presence until now.

<sup>24</sup>When Hazael king of Syria died, Ben-hadad his son became king in his place. <sup>25</sup>Then Jehoash son of Jehoahaz retook the cities from Ben-hadad son of Hazael, which the latter had taken in the war with Jehoahaz his father; three times Joash defeated him and recovered the cities of Israel.

796 B.C.

14 IN THE SECOND YEAR OF JOASH son of Joahaz king of Israel, Amaziah son of Joash became king of Judah. <sup>2</sup>He was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for twenty-nine years; his mother's name was Jehoaddin of Jerusalem. <sup>3</sup>He did what was right in the sight of the LORD, but not so well as David his father; he did as Joash his father had done. <sup>4</sup>The high places were not removed, and the people continued to offer sacrifices and burn incense at the high places.<sup>h</sup>

Israel Defeats Judah; Temple Is Looted

<sup>6</sup>As soon as he had a firm hold on the kingdom, he put to death those of his servants who had killed the king, his father.<sup>i</sup> <sup>6</sup>However, he did not put to death the children of the murderers, because it stands written in the book of the Law of Moses, which the LORD commanded: "Fathers shall not be put to death for children nor shall children be put to death for fathers; each person shall be put to death for his own sins."<sup>j</sup>

<sup>7</sup>In the Valley of Salt he killed 10,000 Edomites and took Sela in battle. He renamed it Joktheel,<sup>k</sup> its name to this day. <sup>8</sup>At that time Amaziah sent messengers to Jehoash son of Jehoahaz, son of Jehu, king of Israel, with this message, "Come on, let us encounter one another."<sup>l</sup> <sup>9</sup>Jehoash king of Israel sent this reply to Amaziah king of Judah: "A thistle in Lebanon sent to the cedar in Lebanon this request: 'Give your daughter as a wife for my son'; but a wild animal of Lebanon passed by and trampled down the bramble. <sup>10</sup>Because you have utterly defeated Edom, your heart has made you proud. Enjoy your glory! Go home! Why should you stir up trouble, so that you and Judah fall together?" <sup>11</sup>But Amaziah refused to listen. So Jehoash king of Israel went up, and they encountered one another in battle, he and Amaziah king of Judah, at Bethshemesh, which belonged to Judah. <sup>12</sup>Judah was defeated by Israel, and they fled each one to his home.<sup>m</sup>

<sup>13</sup>After Jehoash king of Israel had captured Amaziah king of Judah, son of Jehoash, son of Ahaziah, at Bethshemesh, he went to Jerusalem and broke down the wall of Jerusalem from the Ephraim gate to the corner, a distance of 600 feet.<sup>n</sup> <sup>14</sup>When he had taken all the gold, all the silver, and all the vessels found in the house of the LORD

f) Elisha had given him orders which he had accepted, so he should not have stopped until so told by Elisha.

h) One wonders to whom they sacrificed; however, even if to God, His revealed will demanded priestly sacrifice at His one sanctuary.

i) His father's slaying seems to have been undeserved; the perpetrators were punished fairly.

j) Cf. Deut. 24:16; Jer. 31:30; Ezek. 18:4,20.

k) Best known as Petra; its Bible name seems to mean, "Subjection to God."

l) No reason is given for Amaziah's challenge to battle; it was a costly mistake.

m) With his army dispersed, Amaziah and his people were at the mercy of Jehoash.

n) A rather useless procedure, except to teach Judah to behave itself.

and in the treasuries of the king's house, together with the hostages,<sup>o</sup> he returned to Samaria.

<sup>15</sup>The rest of the acts of Jehoash which he did, his might and how he warred with Amaziah king of Judah, are they not told in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? <sup>16</sup>So Jehoash slept with his fathers and was buried at Samaria with the kings of Israel; then his son Jeroboam became king in his place.

<sup>17</sup>Amaziah son of Joash, king of Judah, lived for fifteen years after the death of Jehoash son of Jehoahaz, king of Israel. <sup>18</sup>The rest of the acts of Amaziah, are they not told in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? <sup>19</sup>When they conspired against him at Jerusalem, he fled to Lachish; but they sent after him to Lachish where they killed him.<sup>p</sup> <sup>20</sup>They brought him on horses, and he was buried at Jerusalem with his fathers in the city of David. <sup>21</sup>Then all the people of Judah took Azariah, who was sixteen years old, and made him king in place of his father Amaziah. <sup>22</sup>He built Elath and restored it to Judah after the king slept with his fathers.

791 B.C.

<sup>23</sup>In the fifteenth year of Amaziah son of Joash, king of Judah, Jeroboam son of Joash, king of Israel, became king at Samaria; he reigned for forty-one years. <sup>24</sup>He did evil in the sight of the LORD; he did not turn away from all the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who led Israel to sin. <sup>25</sup>He restored the territory of Israel from the entrance at Hamath to the Sea of the Arabah,<sup>q</sup> in accordance with the word of the LORD God of Israel, spoken through his servant Jonah<sup>r</sup> son of Amittai, the prophet, from Gath-hepher. <sup>26</sup>The LORD saw that the affliction of Israel was very bitter; none remained, either bond or free; there was no helper for Israel. <sup>27</sup>But the LORD did not say that He would blot out the name of Israel from under the heaven; indeed He delivered them through the hand of Jeroboam son of Joash.

<sup>28</sup>The rest of the acts of Jeroboam, all that he did, his might, how he made war, and how he restored Damascus and Hamath, which had belonged to Judah, to Israel, are they not told in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? <sup>29</sup>So Jeroboam slept with his fathers, with the kings of Israel, and his son Zechariah became king in his place.

790 B.C.

15 IN THE TWENTY-SEVENTH YEAR of Jeroboam king of Israel, Azariah<sup>s</sup> son of Amaziah, king of Judah, became king. <sup>2</sup>He was sixteen years old when he became king, and he remained king in Jerusalem for fifty-two years. His mother's name was Jecoliah of Jerusalem. <sup>3</sup>He did what was right in the sight of the LORD, in accordance with everything that Amaziah his father did. <sup>4</sup>Only the high places were not removed, and the people continued to offer sacrifices and to burn incense at the high places.

<sup>5</sup>The LORD struck the king so that he was a leper until the day of his death.<sup>t</sup> He lived in a separate house while Jotham the king's son was over the house, judging<sup>u</sup> the people of the land. <sup>6</sup>The rest of the acts of Azariah and all that he did, are they not told in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? <sup>7</sup>So Azariah slept with his fathers and they buried him with his fathers in the city of David; then his son Jotham became king in his place.

753 B.C.

<sup>8</sup>In the thirty-eighth year of Azariah king of Judah, Zechariah son of Jeroboam was king over Israel at Samaria for six months. <sup>9</sup>He did evil in the sight of the LORD as his fathers had done; he did not turn away from the

<sup>o</sup>) This is the only mention in the Bible of the term "hostages," repeated in II Chron. 25:24.

<sup>p</sup>) The repeated example of the Northern kingdom seems to have influenced Judah.

<sup>q</sup>) While Assyria was beginning invasions into Syria, northern Israel enjoyed peace and prosperity; but this also meant that it would be next to feel Assyria's heavy hand.

<sup>r</sup>) The prophet of the book named for him.

<sup>s</sup>) Usually called Uziah. For 12 years Jeroboam II must have hindered his free reign over Judah, for his father Amaziah survived Joash of Israel 15 years [ch. 14:17].

<sup>t</sup>) The reason is given in II Chron. 26:16-20. <sup>u</sup>) Term probably indicates regency.

sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, who led Israel to sin.<sup>v</sup> <sup>10</sup>Shallum son of Jabesh conspired against him, cut him down at Ibleam, killed him, and became king in his place. <sup>11</sup>The rest of the acts of Zechariah, see, they are told in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel. <sup>12</sup>That was in accordance with the word of the LORD spoken to Jehu: Four generations of your sons shall occupy the throne of Israel.<sup>w</sup> And it was so.

<sup>13</sup>Shallum son of Jabesh became king in the thirty-ninth year of Uzziah king of Judah; he was king at Samaria for a month. <sup>14</sup>At that time Menahem son of Gadi<sup>x</sup> came up from Tirzah to Samaria, where he cut down Shallum son of Jabesh, killed him, and became king in his place. <sup>15</sup>The rest of the acts of Shallum and the conspiracy which he raised, see, they are told in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.<sup>y</sup>

752 B.C.

<sup>16</sup>Then Menahem destroyed Tiphseh,<sup>z</sup> all who were in it, and all the surrounding territory from Tirzah on; if a city refused to open, he razed it and ripped open all its pregnant women. <sup>17</sup>In the thirty-ninth year of Azariah king of Judah, Menahem son of Gadi became king over Israel; and he reigned for ten years. <sup>18</sup>He did evil in the sight of the LORD; he did not throughout his reign turn away from the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, who led Israel to sin. <sup>19</sup>When Pul king of Assyria came into the land, Menahem gave Pul 2,000,000 dollars in silver to gain his support for himself in holding the kingdom. <sup>20</sup>Menahem exacted the money from Israel, from all the powerful men of wealth to pay the king of Assyria, assessing each man fifty shekels of silver. So the king of Assyria returned and did not remain there in the land.

<sup>21</sup>The rest of the acts of Menahem and all that he did, are they not told in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? <sup>22</sup>So Menahem slept with his fathers and Pekahiah his son became king in his place.

742 B.C.

<sup>23</sup>Pekahiah son of Menahem became king over Israel in the fiftieth year of Azariah king of Judah; and he reigned for two years. <sup>24</sup>He too did evil in the sight of the LORD; he did not turn away from the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, who led Israel to sin. <sup>25</sup>Pekah son of Remaliah, his official, with fifty men of the Gileadites, conspired against him, cut him down at Samaria in the citadel of the king's house with Argob and Arieah—killed him, and became king in his place. <sup>26</sup>The rest of the acts of Pekahiah and all that he did, see, they are recorded in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

752 B.C.

<sup>27</sup>In the fifty-second year of Azariah king of Judah, Pekah son of Remaliah became king over Israel at Samaria, and he reigned for twenty years.<sup>a</sup> <sup>28</sup>He did evil in the sight of the LORD; he did not turn away from the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, who led Israel to sin. <sup>29</sup>In the time of Pekah king of Israel, Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria<sup>b</sup> came and took Ijon, Abel-beth-maacah, Janoah, Kedesh, Hazor, Gilead, and Galilee, all the land of Naphtali, and carried off their inhabitants to Assyria.

732 B.C.

<sup>30</sup>Then Hoshea son of Elah raised a conspiracy against Pekah son of Remaliah, cut him down, killed him, and became king in his place in the twentieth year of Jotham son of Uzziah. <sup>31</sup>The rest of the acts of Pekah and all that he did, see, they are recorded in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

751 B.C.

<sup>32</sup>In the second year of Pekah son of Remaliah, king of Israel, Jotham son of Uzziah, king of Judah, became king.

<sup>33</sup>He was twenty-five years old when he became king and continued as king

v) Without exception those kings considered political control more important than obedience to and worship of God, a mistake the Communists are making in our time.

w) Ch. 10:30. x) Of the tribe of Gad.

y) No anointing is mentioned in the case of these ephemeral kings.

z) In the extreme north of Ephraim.

a) Beginning his reign in Gilead, it seems, in 752 B.C.

b) The books of Chronicles have much more to tell about the kings of Judah than do the books of Kings.

in Jerusalem for sixteen years. His mother's name was Jerusha daughter of Zadok.<sup>c</sup> <sup>34</sup>He did what was right in the sight of the LORD, in accordance with all that Uzziah his father had done. <sup>35</sup>However, they did not remove the high places; the people still offered sacrifices and burnt incense at the high places. He constructed the upper gate of the LORD's house. <sup>36</sup>The rest of the acts of Jotham, what he did, are they not told in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?<sup>d</sup> <sup>37</sup>In those days the LORD began to send Rezin king of Syria and Pekah son of Remaliah against Judah.<sup>e</sup> <sup>38</sup>So Jotham slept with his fathers and was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father, and Ahaz his son reigned in his place.

743 B.C.

16 IN THE SEVENTEENTH YEAR OF Pekah son of Remaliah, Ahaz son of Jotham, king of Judah, became king. <sup>2</sup>Ahaz was twenty years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for sixteen years. He did not do what was right in the sight of the LORD his God as David his father had done. <sup>3</sup>He walked in the way of the kings of Israel, even making his son pass through fire, in accordance with the abominations of the nations whom the LORD dispossessed from before the children of Israel. <sup>4</sup>He sacrificed and burned incense at the high places, on the hills, and under every green tree. <sup>5</sup>Then Rezin king of Syria and Pekah son of Remaliah, king of Israel, came up to war against Jerusalem. They besieged Ahaz but could not subdue him. <sup>6</sup>At that time Rezin king of Syria regained Elath for Edom, clearing the Jews completely out of Elath. So the Edomites came back to Elath and live there to this day.

<sup>7</sup>Ahaz sent messengers to Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria, saying, "I am your servant and your son. Come up, and save me from the hand of the king of Syria and from the hand of the king of Israel who are marching against me." <sup>8</sup>Ahaz took the silver and gold deposited in the house of the LORD and in the treasuries of the king's house and sent it as a gift to the king of Assyria.<sup>f</sup> <sup>9</sup>The king of Assyria listened to him. The king of Assyria went up to Damascus, seized it, exiled its inhabitants to Kir, and killed Rezin.

<sup>10</sup>Then King Ahaz went to meet Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria at Damascus where he saw the altar that was at Damascus. King Ahaz sent to Urijah the priest a model of the altar together with detailed plans for its construction. <sup>11</sup>So Urijah the priest built the altar. In accordance with the plans which King Ahaz sent from Damascus, Urijah the priest made the altar before King Ahaz's return from Damascus. <sup>12</sup>When the king returned from Damascus, he inspected the altar. The king then approached and went up to the altar,<sup>g</sup> <sup>13</sup>where he offered his burnt offering and his meal offering. He also poured out his drink offering and sprinkled the blood of his peace offerings against the altar.<sup>h</sup> <sup>14</sup>The bronze altar before the LORD he removed from the front of the house, from between the altar and the house of the LORD, and put it on the north side of the altar.<sup>i</sup> <sup>15</sup>King Ahaz gave these instructions to Urijah the priest: "Upon the great altar<sup>j</sup> you must offer the morning burnt offering, the evening meal offering, the king's burnt offering and meal offering, and the burnt offering of all the people of the land, together with their meal offering and their drink offering, and sprinkle against it the blood of the burnt offering and all the blood of the sacrifice. The bronze altar, however, must be reserved for me to inquire by." <sup>16</sup>And Urijah the priest did as King Ahaz had ordered.

<sup>17</sup>King Ahaz cut off the rims of the

c) The three Zadoks whose ministries are described were priests; this Zadok very likely was one of them. His daughter Jerusha gave the grandson a good start.

d) In numerous instances kings of Judah served first as assistants to their predecessors, as acting kings, to be crowned after the aging king's death.

e) Neither king was consciously carrying out the will of God.

f) Ahaz failed to see that the weakening of Syria would bring Assyria that much sooner upon Judah; for with Israel it served as a buttress against Assyria.

g) His new altar. For an exceptional occasion [I Kings 8:62], Solomon offered on the temple altar, but when Uzziah did so, he was punished. Ahaz made the priests use the newly made altar, but expected supernatural information by means of the divinely dedicated altar.

bases and removed the laver from off them; he also took down the sea from the bronze oxen which supported it and put it on a base made of stones. <sup>18</sup>The Sabbath covering,<sup>h</sup> which they had constructed in the temple house, and the king's entrance from the outside, he turned around in the house of the LORD because of the king of Assyria. <sup>19</sup>The rest of the acts of Ahaz, what he did, are they not told in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? <sup>20</sup>So Ahaz slept with his fathers and was buried with his fathers in the city of David, and his son Hezekiah became king in his place.

17 IN THE TWELFTH YEAR OF AHAZ king of Judah, Hoshea son of Elah became king in Samaria and reigned over Israel for nine years. <sup>2</sup>He did evil in the sight of the LORD, only not like the kings of Israel before him.

<sup>3</sup>When Shalmaneser king of Assyria came up against him, Hoshea became his servant and paid tribute to him; <sup>4</sup>but when the king of Assyria found that Hoshea was plotting rebellion against him — for he sent messengers to So king of Egypt and no longer paid tribute regularly to the king of Assyria — the king of Assyria arrested and imprisoned him. <sup>5</sup>The king of Assyria then marched through the whole land, came against Samaria, and laid it under siege for three years. <sup>6</sup>The king of Assyria captured Samaria in the ninth year of Hoshea and exiled Israel to Assyria, where he settled them in Halah, in Habor, on the river Gozan, and in the Median cities.<sup>j</sup>

722 B.C.

<sup>7</sup>This came about because the children of Israel sinned against the LORD their God, who had brought them up from the land of Egypt, from under the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt. They worshiped other gods<sup>k</sup> and observed the customs of the nations whom the LORD dispossessed before the children of Israel, and the customs of the kings of Israel whom they had appointed. <sup>9</sup>The children of Israel also did things secretly, which were not right, against the LORD their God. They erected high places for themselves in all their cities from watchman's tower to fortified city. <sup>10</sup>They set up for themselves pillars and shame images on every high hill and under every green tree. <sup>11</sup>They burnt incense there at the high places as the nations did whom the LORD had removed before them; they did evil things to provoke the LORD, <sup>12</sup>and they worshiped idols concerning which the LORD had warned: You must not do this thing.

<sup>13</sup>Yet the LORD warned Israel and Judah through every prophet and every seer: Turn from your evil ways and observe My commands and My statutes in accordance with the whole law which I commanded your fathers and which I delivered to you through My servants the prophets. <sup>14</sup>But they refused to listen; they were as stubborn as their fathers had been, who did not remain faithful to the LORD their God. <sup>15</sup>They rejected His statutes, His covenant which He made with their fathers, and the testimonies He gave them. They went after emptiness and became empty, and followed the nations surrounding them about whom the LORD commanded them not to do as they did. <sup>16</sup>They forsook all the commandments of the LORD their God, made for themselves molten images — two calves — and a shame image, and worshiped all the host of heaven and served Baal. <sup>17</sup>They made their sons and their daughters pass through the fire;<sup>k</sup> they practiced fortune-telling and enchantment, and they sold themselves to do evil in the sight of the LORD to provoke Him. <sup>18</sup>So the LORD became deeply angered and put them out of His sight; the tribe of Judah alone remained.

<sup>19</sup>Neither did Judah observe the commandments of the LORD their God; they followed the practices which Israel had adopted. <sup>20</sup>The LORD, therefore, rejected all the children of Israel, <sup>h</sup>) A passage providing protection for those attending services, it seems.

<sup>i</sup>) In spite of prophetic warning, the Hebrews would turn to Egypt for help against the empires to the east. <sup>j</sup>) This marks the end of northern Israel as a nation.

<sup>k</sup>) A fanatical and God-dishonoring dedication of their children to the heathen idol Molech.

afflicted them, and handed them over to plunderers until He could put them out of His sight.

<sup>21</sup>For Israel split off from the house of David and made Jeroboam son of Nebat king; Jeroboam lured Israel away from following the LORD and made them to commit a great sin. <sup>22</sup>The children of Israel walked in all the sins which Jeroboam committed; they did not turn away from them <sup>23</sup>until the LORD removed Israel out of His sight, as He said He would do through all His servants the prophets. So Israel was exiled from their land to Assyria where they remain to this day.

<sup>24</sup>The king of Assyria brought people from Babylon, from Cuthah, from Avva, from Hamath, and from Sepharvaim, and settled them in the cities of Samaria in place of Israel; they took possession of Samaria and lived in its cities. <sup>25</sup>When they first came to live there, they did not revere the LORD, but the LORD sent lions among them which killed some of them. <sup>26</sup>They informed the king of Assyria, "The nations which you have exiled and made to dwell in the cities of Samaria do not know the law of the god of the land who sent lions among them and killed some of them, because they do not know the law of the god of the land." <sup>27</sup>Then the king of Assyria gave this order: "Take back there one of the priests whom you exiled from there, that he may go and live there and teach them the law of the god of the land." <sup>28</sup>So one of the priests, exiled from Samaria, came to live at Bethel, and he taught them how to worship the LORD. <sup>29</sup>But each nation continued to make its own gods and set them up in the sanctuary of the high places which the people of Samaria had built, each nation in the cities where they lived. <sup>30</sup>The men of Babylon made<sup>l</sup> Succoth-benoth, the men of Cuth made Nergal, the men of Hamath made Ashima, <sup>31</sup>the Avvites made Nibhaz and Tartak their god; the Sepharvites burned their children in the fire to Adramme-lech and Anammelech, the gods of Sepharvaim. <sup>32</sup>They also worshiped the LORD and appointed for themselves from their own people high-place priests to sacrifice for them in the sanctuaries of the high places.<sup>m</sup> <sup>33</sup>So they worshiped the LORD and at the same time served their gods, according to the custom of the nations from among whom they had been exiled.

<sup>34</sup>To this very day they follow their former practices. They do not worship the LORD, nor do they follow the statutes and judgments in accordance with the law and commandment which the LORD gave to the children of Jacob, whose name He changed to Israel, <sup>35</sup>with whom the LORD had made a covenant and whom He gave command: You must not revere other gods nor worship them nor serve them nor offer sacrifices to them; <sup>36</sup>but you must revere the LORD, who brought you up from the land of Egypt with mighty power and with an outstretched arm; you must worship Him and offer sacrifices to Him, <sup>37</sup>and throughout life observe carefully the statutes, the judgments, the instruction, and the commandment, which He wrote down for you. You must never revere other gods. <sup>38</sup>You must never forget the covenant I made with you; you must never revere other gods, <sup>39</sup>but you must revere the LORD your God, for He it was who delivered you from the hand of all your enemies.<sup>n</sup> <sup>40</sup>Nevertheless they would not listen but followed their former practices. <sup>41</sup>These nations revered the LORD but also served their graven images. To this day their children and grandchildren continue to do as their fathers did.<sup>o</sup>

725 B.C.

18 IN THE THIRD YEAR OF HOSHEA son of Elah, king of Israel, Hezekiah son of Ahaz, king of Judah, began to reign. <sup>2</sup>He was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for twenty-nine years; his mother's name was Abi daughter of Zechariah.

<sup>3</sup>He did what was right in the sight

l) They made images, each of the gods he worshiped.

m) Instead of choosing between God and idols, they thought it safer to pay some attention to both, thereby dishonoring God. n) Throughout the Bible, repetitions serve to emphasize great truths.

o) To these religious hybrids the name Samaritans was given by the Jews, for their capital Samaria.

of the LORD as David his father had done. <sup>4</sup>He removed the high places, broke down the pillars, cut off the shame images, and crushed the bronze serpent which Moses had made; for up to this time the children of Israel continued to burn incense to it; it was called Nehushtan.<sup>p</sup> <sup>5</sup>He trusted in the LORD God of Israel — there was no one like him among all the kings of Judah, after or before his time. <sup>6</sup>He clung to the LORD and did not turn away from Him; he observed the commandments which the LORD gave Moses. <sup>7</sup>The LORD was with him and made him succeed in every venture. He rebelled against the king of Assyria and did not serve him. <sup>8</sup>He defeated the Philistines as far as Gaza and its suburbs, from watchman's tower to fortified city.

<sup>9</sup>In the fourth year of King Hezekiah — that was the seventh year of Hoshea son of Elah, king of Israel — Shalmaneser king of Assyria came up against Samaria and laid it under siege, <sup>10</sup>capturing it at the end of three years. In the sixth year of Hezekiah — that was the ninth year of Hoshea king of Israel — Samaria was captured. <sup>11</sup>The king of Assyria exiled Israel to Assyria; he placed them in Halah, in Habor, the river Gozan, and in the Median cities.<sup>q</sup> <sup>12</sup>It was because they refused to listen to the voice of the LORD their God and transgressed His covenant — everything that Moses the servant of the LORD commanded. They neither listened to it nor practiced it.

<sup>13</sup>In the fourteenth year of King Hezekiah, Sennacherib came up against all the fortified cities of Judah and captured them. <sup>14</sup>Hezekiah king of Judah sent word to the king of Assyria at Lachish, "I have done wrong." Withdraw from me; I will bear whatever you prescribe for me." Then the king of Assyria demanded of Hezekiah king of Judah 600,000 dollars in silver and 900,000 dollars in gold. <sup>15</sup>Hezekiah gave him all the money deposited in the house of the LORD and in the treasuries of the king's house. <sup>16</sup>At that time Hezekiah cut up the doors of the sanctuary of the LORD and the doorposts which Hezekiah king of Judah had overlaid and gave them to the king of Assyria. <sup>17</sup>The king of Assyria sent the field marshal, the chief treasurer, and the chief of staff, with a large force from Lachish to King Hezekiah at Jerusalem. So they went up and arrived at Jerusalem; they stood at the aqueduct of the upper pool, which is on the road to the fuller's field. <sup>18</sup>When they called to the king, Eliakim son of Hilkiah, overseer of the house, Shebna the scribe, and Joah son of Asaph, the recorder, went out to him.

<sup>19</sup>The chief of staff said to them, "Tell Hezekiah, 'Thus says the great king, the king of Assyria:<sup>s</sup> What confidence is this in which you trust? <sup>20</sup>You think mere lip service is advice and strength enough for war! Now in whom do you have confidence, that you have rebelled against me? <sup>21</sup>Now indeed, you are placing your trust in the support of this broken reed, in Egypt; if anyone were to brace himself against it, it would run into his palm and pierce it. So is Pharaoh, king of Egypt, to all who trust in him. <sup>22</sup>If you should say to me, 'We trust in the LORD our God,' was it not Hezekiah who removed His high places and His altars and gave orders to Judah and Jerusalem, 'Before this altar at Jerusalem you must worship'? <sup>23</sup>Now take a wager with my master, the king of Assyria: I will indeed give you 2,000 horses if you are able to furnish riders for them. <sup>24</sup>How then can you drive away one of the least of my master's servants, when you depend on Egypt for chariots and horsemen? <sup>25</sup>Have I now come up against this place to destroy it without the LORD's consent? The LORD said to me: Go up against this land and destroy it.'"

<sup>26</sup>Eliakim, son of Hilkiah, Shebna, and Joah requested of the chief of staff, "Speak now to your servants in Aramaic, for we understand it; do not speak to us in the Judean tongue with-

p) "Only a piece of brass," they said when they destroyed it.

q) This was the second, more complete exile of northern Israel.

r) To have expected help from Egypt.

s) No title included for Judah's king, but hyperbolic titles for the emperor.

t) The orator was wrong there. To God's honor, Hezekiah had destroyed the Canaanite high places and altars, used by idolatrous Jews. Such defamation was the Assyrians' undoing.

in hearing distance of the people on the wall."

<sup>27</sup>The chief of staff replied to them, "Has my master sent me to say these things to your master and to you and not to the men sitting on the wall, destined along with you to eat their own excrement and to drink their own urine?" <sup>28</sup>Then the chief of staff stood up and called with a loud voice in the Judean language. He said, "Listen to the word of the great king, the king of Assyria. <sup>29</sup>Thus says the king: 'Do not allow Hezekiah to deceive you, for he will not be able to deliver you from my hand. <sup>30</sup>Do not permit Hezekiah to make you have confidence in the LORD with the promise, "Surely the LORD will deliver us, and this city will not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria." <sup>31</sup>Do not listen to Hezekiah, for thus has the king of Assyria said, 'Make peace with me, come out to me, for then each one may eat of his own vine and his own fig-tree and drink water from his own well, <sup>32</sup>until I come and take you to a land like yours, a land of grain and wine, a land of food and vineyards, a land of olive oil and honey where you may live and not die. Do not listen to Hezekiah when he wants to seduce you with his, "The LORD will deliver us." <sup>33</sup>Has indeed anyone of the gods of the nations delivered his land from the hand of the king of Assyria?' <sup>34</sup>Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivvah? Did they deliver Samaria from my hand? <sup>35</sup>Who of all the gods of the lands have delivered their land from my hand that the LORD should deliver Jerusalem from my hand?"

<sup>36</sup>The people remained silent and spoke not a word in reply to him; for the king had given orders, "Do not reply to him." <sup>37</sup>Then Eliakim son of Hilkiah, the overseer of the house, Shebna the scribe, and Joah son of Asaph, the recorder, came in to Hezekiah, tearing their garments; they told him the words of the chief of staff.

19 WHEN KING HEZEKIAH HEARD it, he tore his clothes, put on sackcloth, and went to the LORD's house. <sup>2</sup>Moreover, he sent Eliakim the manager of the house, Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests, who had also put on sackcloth, to Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz. <sup>3</sup>They said to him, "Thus has Hezekiah said:

A day of distress and reproach,
And of dishonor is today,

For children have come to birth
But there is not strength to give birth.

<sup>4</sup>Perhaps the LORD your God* will listen to all the words of the chief of staff, whom the king of Assyria, his master, sent to ridicule the living God, and have a reply for the words which the LORD your God has heard. Pray then, for the remnant that is left."

<sup>5</sup>So the servants of King Hezekiah came to Isaiah, and <sup>6</sup>Isaiah said to them, "Tell your master, 'Thus has the LORD said: Be not troubled because of the words you have heard, whereby the servants of the king of Assyria have taunted Me. <sup>7</sup>Behold, I will put a spirit in him, so that when he hears a rumor, he will return to his land; I will overthrow him with the sword in his own land.'"

<sup>8</sup>When the chief of staff returned, he found the king of Assyria fighting against Libnah, for he had heard that he had left Lachish. <sup>9</sup>After hearing the news about Tirhakah king of Ethiopia — "He has come out to fight with you" — he sent the messengers back to Hezekiah with this message: <sup>10</sup>"Tell Hezekiah king of Judah, 'Do not let your God in whom you have confidence deceive you with the promise: Jerusalem shall not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria. <sup>11</sup>You have indeed heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all the lands, completely destroying them; and are you going to be spared? <sup>12</sup>Have the gods of the nations, which my fathers destroyed, delivered them — Gozan, Haran, Rezeph, the citizens of Eden in Tel-assar?

u) This blasphemy God avenged in His own time.

v) The answer is, "None," but the questioner did not know God.

w) They should have contacted God's prophet much earlier.

x) Why "your God"? Why not "our God"? Were they not on intimate terms with God?

II KINGS 19

Hezekiah's Prayer; Isaiah's Prophecy

<sup>13</sup>Where is the king of Hamath, the king of Arpad, the king of the city of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivvah?"

<sup>14</sup>Hezekiah received the letter from the messengers, and when he had read it, he brought it up to the house of the LORD. There Hezekiah spread it out before the LORD. <sup>15</sup>Then Hezekiah prayed before the LORD: "O LORD God of Israel, seated over the cherubim,<sup>y</sup> Thou alone art God of all the kingdoms of the earth; Thou hast made the heavens and the earth. <sup>16</sup>Incline Thine ear, O LORD, and listen; open Thine eyes and look; and listen to the words of Sennacherib who has sent to insult the living God. <sup>17</sup>Truly, O LORD, the kings of Assyria have devastated the nations and their lands <sup>18</sup>and have cast their gods into the fire; yet they were not gods but merely the product of human hands, wood and stone — and they destroyed them. <sup>19</sup>Now, O LORD our God, deliver us from his hand, that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that Thou, LORD, alone art God."

<sup>20</sup>Then Isaiah son of Amoz sent this message to Hezekiah, "Thus has the LORD God of Israel said: I have heard your prayer to Me concerning Sennacherib king of Assyria. <sup>21</sup>This is what the LORD has spoken concerning him: The virgin daughter of Zion has despised you and scorned you. The daughter of Jerusalem has shaken her head over you. <sup>22</sup>Whom have you reproached and taunted, against whom raised your voice and scornfully lifted up your eyes? against the Holy One of Israel? <sup>23</sup>By your messengers you reproached the LORD and said, 'With the multitudes of my chariots I scaled the highest mountains, the remotest parts of Lebanon; I cut down its tallest cedars, its choicest fir trees, I came to its remotest lodge, its cultivated forest. <sup>24</sup>I dug a well and drank strange waters, I wiped dry with the soles of My feet all the canals of the Nile.' <sup>25</sup>Have you not heard long ago that I did it? From days of yore I formed it; now I bring it to pass, — that you turn to rubbish heaps fortified cities, <sup>26</sup>with their citizens impotent, terrified and confounded. They were as field plants, as shoots of green grass, like roof growth scorched before it comes up. <sup>27</sup>Your abode, your goings and comings I know . . . and your raging against Me. <sup>28</sup>Because you raged against Me and your insolence has come to My ears, I will put My hook in your nose, My bridle on your lips, and I will send you back the way by which you came.

<sup>29</sup>"This shall be the sign for you: the first year you shall eat aftergrowth, the second year re-growth, but the third year sow and reap, plant vineyards, and eat their fruit.<sup>z</sup> <sup>30</sup>The survivors of the house of Judah who are left shall again take root downwards and bear fruit upwards;<sup>a</sup> <sup>31</sup>for from Jerusalem shall go forth a remnant and from Mount Zion survivors. The zeal of the LORD of hosts shall do this.<sup>b</sup>

<sup>32</sup>"Therefore, thus has the LORD spoken concerning the king of Assyria: He shall not come up to this city, nor shoot an arrow there, nor appear before it with a shield, nor throw up a mound against it. <sup>33</sup>He shall return the same way he came; he shall not come up against this city, says the LORD. <sup>34</sup>For I will defend this city to spare it for My sake and that of David my servant."

<sup>35</sup>That night the messenger of the LORD went forth and killed 185,000 in the Assyrian camp. When men arose early in the morning, look, those were all dead bodies!<sup>c</sup> <sup>36</sup>So Sennacherib king of Assyria departed, returned, and dwelt at Nineveh. <sup>37</sup>And as he was worshiping in the house of Nisroch his god, Adrammelech and Sharezer his sons cut him down with the sword; they escaped to the land of Ararat. And his son Esar-haddon became king in his place.

y) Referring to God's special presence above the mercy seat, between the two cherubim above the ark of the covenant.

z) No harvest that year, for the Assyrians took it; nor a chance to put in next year's crop. But next year's autumn, they will be able to put in the crop for the third year.

a) They shall enjoy natural growth and productiveness as God's children.

b) God zealous for His lukewarm people.

c) By what calamity we are not told, for we need not know. We know that God does not forget or neglect His own.

713 B.C.

20 AT THAT TIME HEZEKIAH BECAME mortally ill. Isaiah son of Amoz, the prophet, came to him and said to him, "Thus says the LORD: Set your house in order, for you will die; you will not recover." <sup>2</sup>Then he turned his face to the wall and prayed to the LORD: <sup>4</sup><sup>3</sup>"Remember now, I pray Thee, O LORD, how I walked before Thee faithfully and wholeheartedly and did what was pleasing in Thy sight." Hezekiah wept very bitterly.

<sup>4</sup>Before Isaiah had left the courtyard, the word of the LORD came to him: <sup>5</sup>Return and tell Hezekiah, the leader of My people, Thus has the LORD God of David your father said: I have heard your prayer and have seen your tears; look, I am going to heal you. On the third day you will go up to the house of the LORD. <sup>6</sup>I will have fifteen years added to your life, and I will deliver you and this city from the hand of the king of Assyria; I will defend this city for My sake and for that of David My servant. <sup>7</sup>Isaiah said, "Take a fig cake." So they took it and applied it to the boil, and he recovered.

<sup>8</sup>Hezekiah had asked Isaiah, "What shall be the sign that the LORD will heal me and that I shall go up to the house of the LORD on the third day?" <sup>9</sup>And Isaiah replied, "This shall be the LORD's sign for you, that the LORD will do what He said: Shall the shadow go forward ten steps or recede ten steps?" <sup>10</sup>Hezekiah said, "It is easy for the shadow to extend ten steps; no, let the shadow recede ten steps." <sup>11</sup>Then Isaiah the prophet called upon the LORD who made the shadow recede ten steps by which it had gone down on the steps of Ahaz.

<sup>12</sup>At that time Merodach-baladan son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent a letter and a present to Hezekiah, for he had heard that Hezekiah was ill. <sup>13</sup>Hezekiah received them<sup>f</sup> and showed them all his treasure house, the silver, the gold, the spices, the aromatic oil, his armory, and everything deposited in his treasures; there was not a thing in the house or in all his kingdom which Hezekiah did not show them.<sup>g</sup> <sup>14</sup>When Isaiah the prophet came to King Hezekiah, he inquired of him, "What did these men say and from where have they come to you?" "They came from a distant land, from Babylon," replied Hezekiah. <sup>15</sup>"What did they see in your house?" he continued. Hezekiah answered, "They saw everything in my house. There is not a thing in my treasures that I did not show them."

<sup>16</sup>"Listen to the word of the LORD," said Isaiah to Hezekiah: <sup>17</sup>The time is coming when everything in your house, and all that your fathers have stored up until this day, shall be carried away to Babylon; not a thing shall be left, says the LORD. <sup>18</sup>Some of your own sons, your very offspring, shall be taken away to become eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.

<sup>19</sup>Hezekiah replied to Isaiah, "Good is the word of the LORD which you have declared."<sup>h</sup> For he thought, "Is it not so, if there is peace and security in my time?"

<sup>20</sup>The rest of the acts of Hezekiah, all his might and how he made the pool and aqueduct to bring water into the city, are they not told in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? <sup>21</sup>So Hezekiah slept with his fathers, and his son Manasseh became king in his place.

696 B.C.

21 MANASSEH WAS TWELVE YEARS old when he became king,<sup>1</sup> and he continued to reign at Jerusalem for fifty-five years. His mother's name was Hephzibah. <sup>2</sup>He did evil in the sight of the LORD, in accordance with the abominations of the nations which the LORD dispossessed before the children of Israel. <sup>3</sup>He restored again the high places which Hezekiah his father had destroyed; he built altars for Baal; he made a shame image, as Ahab king of

d) A very different way from Ahab, when refused the vineyard he wanted [I Kings 21:4].

e) What infinite patience, dealing with a doubting believer! Facing such an attitude, what would we say or do? f) Those who brought the letter and present.

g) Apparently not humbly; not with a word of gratitude toward God.

h) He took the rebuke as a trusting and loyal child.

i) Too young for his task without a reliable leader. The high priest or another godly officer should have been assigned for his tutor. Had Hezekiah been too busy with the affairs of state to prepare his son?

II KINGS 21, 22

Israel had done, and he worshiped and served all the host of heaven. <sup>4</sup>He built altars in the house of the LORD when the LORD had said, In Jerusalem I will put My name. <sup>5</sup>He also built altars for all the host of heaven in both courts of the house of the LORD. <sup>6</sup>He made his son to pass through the fire; he practiced soothsaying and fortune-telling, and he provided necromancers and wizards. He did even worse in the sight of the LORD, provoking Him to anger.

<sup>7</sup>He put the graven image of the shame goddess he had made into the very house about which the LORD had said to David and Solomon his son: In this house and in Jerusalem, which I have selected out of all the tribes of Israel, I will put my name forever. <sup>8</sup>Never again will I make the feet of Israel wander from the land I gave to their fathers, if only they will observe to do in accordance with all I commanded them and in accordance with the law that Moses My servant commanded them. <sup>9</sup>But they would not listen; Manasseh misled them to do more evil than the nations which the LORD destroyed before the children of Israel.<sup>j</sup>

<sup>10</sup>So the LORD spoke through His servants the prophets: <sup>11</sup>Because Manasseh has done these detestable things, has done more wickedly than all the Amorites did before him, and has made Judah to sin with his disgusting idols, <sup>12</sup>therefore thus has the LORD God of Israel said: Behold, I will bring such evil upon Jerusalem and Judah that both ears of those who hear it will ring. <sup>13</sup>I will stretch out over Jerusalem the line of Samaria and the plummet of Ahab's house; I will wipe Jerusalem as one wipes a dish — he wipes it as he turns it upside down. <sup>14</sup>I will abandon the remnant of My inheritance, handing them over to their enemies; they shall be plunder and prey for their enemies, <sup>15</sup>because they did evil in My sight and angered Me from the time their fathers came out of Egypt until

Manasseh's God-dishonoring Reign

<sup>16</sup>Manasseh also spilled very much innocent blood until he had filled Jerusalem from end to end, in addition to the sin whereby he led Judah to sin, to do evil in the sight of the LORD.

<sup>17</sup>The rest of the acts of Manasseh, all that he did and the sin he committed, are they not told in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?<sup>k</sup> <sup>18</sup>So Manasseh slept with his fathers and was buried in the garden of his house, in the garden of Uzza; and his son Amon became king in his place.

641 B.C.

<sup>19</sup>Amon was twenty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned for two years in Jerusalem; his mother's name was Meshullemeth daughter of Haruz of Jotbah. <sup>20</sup>He did evil in the sight of the LORD as Manasseh his father had done. <sup>21</sup>He walked in every way his father walked, served the disgusting idols his father served, and worshiped them.<sup>l</sup> <sup>22</sup>He deserted the LORD, the God of his fathers, and did not walk in the way of the LORD. <sup>23</sup>Amon's servants conspired against him and killed the king in his house. <sup>24</sup>Then the people of the land cut down all those who conspired against King Amon; the people of the land also made his son Josiah king in his place.

<sup>25</sup>The rest of the acts of Amon and what he did, are they not told in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? <sup>26</sup>So they buried him in his grave in the garden of Uzza; and his son Josiah became king in his place.

639 B.C.

22 JOSIAH WAS EIGHT YEARS OLD when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem for thirty-one years; his mother's name was Jedidah daughter of Adaiah from Bozkath. <sup>2</sup>He did what was right in the sight of the LORD, walking in all the way of David his father, turning neither to the right nor to the left.<sup>m</sup>

<sup>3</sup>In the eighteenth year of King Josiah, the king sent Shaphan son of Azaliah, son of Meshullam, the scribe, to

j) Manasseh burdened himself and his people with sins unmeasured and unmentionable. Neither he nor his people had to commit those sins; they remained free to choose between good and evil.

k) II Chron. 33:10-13 tells of his imprisonment and conversion.

l) Manasseh's repentance must have been known to Amon at 22; but he preferred the wicked way and got what he deserved sooner than he expected.

m) Why these splendid sons of wicked fathers and these wicked sons of splendid fathers, unless there was a vast difference between their mothers!

the house of the LORD, saying, "Go up to Hilkiah the high priest, and let him melt down the silver that has come to the house of the LORD and that the doorkeepers have collected from the people; <sup>5</sup>put it in the hands of the workmen who are in charge of the house of the LORD, and let them pay it over to the workmen in the house of the LORD to repair the damage of the house, <sup>6</sup>to the carpenters, builders and masons, and for the purchase of timber and cut stone to restore the house."<sup>n</sup> <sup>7</sup>Only they must not be required to give an account of the money placed in their hands, because they deal honestly."

<sup>8</sup>Then Hilkiah the high priest informed Shaphan the scribe, "I have found the Book of the Law in the house of the LORD." Hilkiah gave the book to Shaphan who read it. <sup>9</sup>So Shaphan the scribe went to the king and reported on the matter to the king as follows, "Your servants have paid out the money deposited in the house and put it into the hands of the workmen who are in charge of the house of the LORD." <sup>10</sup>Then Shaphan the scribe told the king, "Hilkiah the priest gave me a book," and Shaphan read the book before the king.

<sup>11</sup>When the king heard the words of the Book of the Law, he tore his clothes.<sup>o</sup> <sup>12</sup>The king gave Hilkiah the priest, Ahikam son of Shaphan, Achbor son of Micaiah, Shaphan the scribe, and Asaiah the king's servant, these orders: <sup>13</sup>"Go, inquire of the LORD for me, for the people, for all Judah about the words of this book that has been discovered; for great is the LORD's indignation stirred up against us because our fathers did not listen to the words of this book, to carry out everything written therein concerning us."

<sup>14</sup>So Hilkiah the priest, Ahikam, Achbor, Shaphan, and Asaiah went to Huldah the prophetess,<sup>p</sup> the wife of Shallum son of Tikvah, son of Harhas, keeper of the wardrobe (she lived in the second quarter of Jerusalem) and conferred with her. <sup>15</sup>She said to them, "Thus has the LORD God of Israel said: Tell the man who sent you to Me, <sup>16</sup>Thus has the LORD said, Behold, I will bring evil against this place and its inhabitants in accordance with all the words of the book which the king of Judah has read. <sup>17</sup>Because they have deserted Me and have burned incense to other gods to provoke Me with all the works of their hands, My indignation has been stirred up against this place and shall not subside.

<sup>18</sup>"And to the king of Judah, who sent you to inquire of the LORD, say, Thus has the LORD God of Israel said: About the words which you have heard, <sup>19</sup>because your heart was penitent and you have humbled yourself before the LORD when you heard what I said concerning this place and its inhabitants, that they shall become a curse, and have torn your clothes and wept before Me, I too have heard you, says the LORD. <sup>20</sup>Therefore observe! I will gather you to your fathers, and you shall be gathered to your grave in peace;<sup>q</sup> your eyes shall not look upon all the evil I will bring upon this place." Then they reported back to the king.

23 THE KING SUMMONED TO HIMSELF all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup>Then the king went up to the LORD's house; with him went all the men of Judah, all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the priests, the prophets, and all the people, young and old; and he read in their hearing all the words of the book of the covenant discovered in the house of the LORD. <sup>3</sup>The king standing beside the pillar made the covenant before the LORD to follow the LORD, to keep His commandments, His testimonies, and His statutes with his whole heart and soul, and to uphold the words of this covenant written in this book; and all the people agreed to the covenant.<sup>r</sup>

<sup>4</sup>The king gave orders to Hilkiah the high priest, the priests of second rank,<sup>s</sup> and the doorkeepers, to remove from the

n) Reverence and love for God will normally extend to His house of worship.

o) Failure to keep priest and people versed in God's revelation of Himself and of His will had resulted in the fearful degradation of Israel, north and south.

p) Only here this great woman is mentioned, like Deborah, a mother in Israel. Be assured, she stood not alone in her sublime faith.

q) An assurance which God is ever ready to give to the repentant sinner.

r) What had reached him, must be broadcast for everyone. s) Next to the high priest.

temple of the LORD all the vessels made for Baal, for the shame images, and for all the host of heaven; he burned them outside Jerusalem in the Kidron terraces, and their ashes he transported to Bethel.<sup>1</sup> <sup>5</sup>He deposed the priests whom the kings of Judah had appointed to burn incense at the high places in the cities of Judah and around Jerusalem, and those who burned incense to Baal, to the sun, to the moon, to the signs of Zodiac, and to all the host of heaven. <sup>6</sup>He removed the shame image from the house of the LORD outside Jerusalem to the valley of the Kidron, where he burned it, ground it to dust, and cast its dust upon the graves of the common people. <sup>7</sup>He tore down the houses of the male prostitutes in the area of the house of the LORD where the women wore robes for the shame image. <sup>8</sup>He brought out all the priests from the cities of Judah, defiled<sup>2</sup> the high places where the priests burned incense, from Geba<sup>3</sup> to Beersheba; and he tore down the high places of the gates at the entrance to the gate of Joshua the governor of the city, which were on the left side as one enters the city gate. <sup>9</sup>Now the priests of the high places did not go up to the altar of the LORD at Jerusalem, but they ate the unleavened bread among their brothers.<sup>4</sup> <sup>10</sup>He also defiled the Topheth in the valley of the sons of Hinnom, so that no one could again make his son or daughter pass through the fire for Molech. <sup>11</sup>He removed the horses which the kings of Judah had presented to the sun at the entrance of the LORD's house by the cell of Nathan-melech the eunuch, which was in the precincts; the sun chariots he burned with fire. <sup>12</sup>The king also tore down the altars on the roof of the upper chamber of Ahaz, made by the kings of Judah, and the altars constructed by Manasseh in the two courtyards of the LORD's house. He broke them up there and scattered their dust about the valley of the Kidron. <sup>13</sup>Besides, the king defiled the high places in front of Jerusalem to the right of the mount of destruction, which Solomon king of Israel built for Ashtarte the abomination of the Sidonians, for Chemosh the abomination of Moab, and for Milcom the abomination of the Ammonites. <sup>14</sup>He broke down the pillars, cut off the shame images, and filled their place with men's bones.

<sup>15</sup>He also tore down the altar at Bethel, the high place, which Jeroboam son of Nebat, who led Israel to sin, had erected — that altar and the high place — crushing its stones, stamping it to dust, and burning the shame images. <sup>16</sup>When Josiah turned, he caught sight of the graves there on the mountain; he sent and took the bones from the graves and burned them upon the altar which he then defiled, according to the word of the LORD which the man of God proclaimed who had announced these things.<sup>5</sup> <sup>17</sup>He said, "What is that monument I see?" The men of the city replied, "It is the grave of the man of God who came from Judah and announced these things you have done to the altar at Bethel."<sup>6</sup> <sup>18</sup>He said, "Let him be; let no one disturb his bones." So they left his bones alone with the bones of the prophet who came from Samaria.

<sup>19</sup>He also removed the houses of the high places in the cities of Samaria, which the kings of Israel had made to anger the LORD; he did to them what he had done to everything at Bethel. <sup>20</sup>He sacrificed all the priests of the high places there upon the altars, burned human bones upon them, and then returned to Jerusalem.

<sup>21</sup>The king issued these orders to all the people, "Celebrate a Passover to the LORD your God as prescribed in the book of this covenant."<sup>7</sup> <sup>22</sup>There was no Passover like this one since the

t) Reformation starts usually with destruction of the wrong.

u) The method of defiling is not stated here, but we know there was desecration so as to eliminate further use. v) The northernmost point in Benjamin.

w) Aaronic priests, it seems, allowed to associate with those employed at the temple, but not to serve there.

x) Given in I Kings 13:1,2, and much of the whole chapter. Burning bones was considered improper by accepted standards.

y) Bethel lay in Benjamin, with Ephraim just beyond its boundaries. Josiah went farther north with reformatory methods.

z) Wisely and mercifully God ordained memorial festivals to make it easier for His people to practice worship and service all through life.

time of the judges who judged Israel or in all the time of the kings of Judah. <sup>23</sup>This Passover to the LORD was celebrated at Jerusalem in the eighteenth year of King Josiah.

<sup>24</sup>Josiah also exterminated the necromancers, the wizards, the teraphim,<sup>a</sup> the disgusting idols, and all the abominations that appeared in the land of Judah and in Jerusalem, to carry out the words of the Law, written in the book which Hilkiah the priest had found in the house of the LORD. <sup>25</sup>There was no king before him who so turned to the LORD with all his heart, all his soul, and all his strength<sup>b</sup> in accordance with the whole law of Moses; and none like him arose afterward.

<sup>26</sup>However, the LORD did not turn from his great anger which had been aroused against Judah for all the provocations whereby Manasseh had angered Him. <sup>27</sup>The LORD said: I will remove Judah from My sight as I removed Israel, and I will reject this My chosen city, even Jerusalem and the house concerning which I said, My name shall be there.

<sup>28</sup>The rest of the acts of Josiah and all that he did, are they not recorded in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

<sup>29</sup>In his time Pharaoh Necho, king of Egypt, went up against the king of Assyria at the Euphrates river and when King Josiah came out to meet him, Necho killed him<sup>c</sup> at Meggido when he saw him. <sup>30</sup>Dead in a chariot his servants carried him from Megiddo, brought him to Jerusalem, and buried him in his grave. The people of the land then took Jehoahaz son of Josiah, anointed him, and made him king in place of his father.

608 B.C.

<sup>31</sup>Jehoahaz was twenty-three years old when he became king, and he reigned for three months. His mother's name was Hamutal daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah. <sup>32</sup>He did evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all his fathers had done. <sup>33</sup>Pharaoh Necho imprisoned him at Riblah<sup>d</sup> in the land of Hamath, that he might no longer be king at Jerusalem and laid a fine on the land of 200,000 dollars in silver and 30,000 dollars in gold. <sup>34</sup>Then Pharaoh Necho made Eliakim son of Josiah king in place of his father,<sup>e</sup> but changed his name to Jehoiakim. Jehoahaz he took with him to Egypt, where he died. <sup>35</sup>Jehoiakim paid the silver and gold to Pharaoh. He assessed the land to pay the money in accordance with the demand of Pharaoh; from each one according to his assessment, he exacted the silver and gold of the people of the land to pay Pharaoh Necho.

<sup>36</sup>Jehoiakim was twenty-five years old, when he became king, and he was king for eleven years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Zebidah daughter of Pedaiah of Rumah. <sup>37</sup>He did evil in the sight of the LORD as all his fathers had done.

24 IN HIS TIME NEBUCHADREZZAR king of Babylon<sup>f</sup> came up, and he became his servant for three years, after which he turned and rebelled against him. <sup>2</sup>The LORD also sent against him bands of Chaldeans, bands of Syrians, bands of Moabites, and bands of Ammonites; He sent them against Judah to destroy it, in accordance with the word of the LORD spoken by His servants the prophets. <sup>3</sup>That was indeed the command of the LORD against Judah to remove it from His sight because of the sin of Manasseh, according to everything he did. <sup>4</sup>Also because of the innocent blood which he shed; he filled Jerusalem with innocent blood, and the LORD was unwilling to pardon him.<sup>g</sup>

597 B.C.

<sup>5</sup>The rest of the acts of Jehoiakim and all that he did, are they not told in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? <sup>6</sup>So Jehoiakim slept

a) Household gods, as shown in Rachel's behavior [Gen. 31:30-34].

b) The very words given in the family worship suggestions of Deut. 6:4-9, with following verses.

c) Josiah risked his life so uselessly after so splendid a reign.

d) Far north on the Orontes river. e) Egypt was in control.

f) Babylonia had conquered Assyria and had taken over its empire. Nebuchadnezzar is correct.

g) Manasseh had personally repented and had found mercy [II Chron. 33:12,13]; but that did not remove the evil he had done.

II KINGS 24, 25

with his fathers, and his son Jehoiachin became king in his place.

<sup>7</sup>The king of Egypt did not again leave his country; for the king of Babylon had taken everything that belonged to the king of Egypt from the brook of Egypt to the Euphrates river.<sup>h</sup>

597 B.C.

<sup>8</sup>Jehoiachin was eighteen years old when he became king, and he continued as king in Jerusalem for three months. His mother's name was Ne-hushta daughter of Elnathan of Jerusalem. <sup>9</sup>He did evil in the sight of the LORD as his father had done.<sup>i</sup>

<sup>10</sup>At that time the servants of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon came up to Jerusalem,<sup>j</sup> and the city underwent a siege. <sup>11</sup>Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon came against the city, and while his servants were besieging it, <sup>12</sup>Jehoiachin king of Judah surrendered to the king of Babylon, himself, his mother, his officers, and eunuchs. The king of Babylon took him prisoner in the eighth year of his reign. <sup>13</sup>He took out thence all the treasures of the house of the LORD and all the treasures of the king's house and stripped off the gold from all the vessels which Solomon king of Israel had made in the temple of the LORD, as the LORD had foretold: <sup>14</sup>He carried away all Jerusalem, with all its officials and its men of standing, to the number of 10,000 exiles, and all the craftsmen and smiths, so that none except the poorest of the people of the land were left.<sup>k</sup>

<sup>15</sup>He took Jehoiachin to Babylon as an exile; he also took away into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon the king's mother, the king's wives, his eunuchs, and the leading men of the land. <sup>16</sup>The king of Babylon also brought to Babylon into exile all the men of valor to the number of 7,000 and 1,000 craftsmen and smiths, all mighty men trained to fight.

Nebuchadrezzar Besieges Jerusalem

<sup>17</sup>The king of Babylon made Mat-taniah, his uncle,<sup>l</sup> king in his place, but changed his name to Zedekiah.

597 B.C.

<sup>18</sup>Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he became king, and he was king in Jerusalem for eleven years. His mother's name was Hamutal daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah. <sup>19</sup>He did evil in the sight of the LORD as Jehoiakim had done. <sup>20</sup>The LORD's anger against Jerusalem and Judah was aroused to the point where He cast them out of His presence. Then Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

586 B.C.

25 IN THE NINTH YEAR OF HIS reign, in the tenth month, on the tenth day of the month, Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon came up to Jerusalem with his whole army; he encamped against it and constructed a siege-wall around it. <sup>2</sup>The city continued under siege into the eleventh year of King Zedekiah.<sup>m</sup> <sup>3</sup>On the ninth day of the fourth month<sup>n</sup> when the famine had become so severe that no more food remained for the people of the land, <sup>4</sup>a break-through was made in the city. The king and all the soldiers fled<sup>o</sup> by night by way of the gate between the double wall near the king's garden, though the Chaldeans still surrounded the city; he took the road toward the Arabah.<sup>p</sup> <sup>5</sup>The Chaldean army pursued the king and overtook him in the steppes of Jericho while his own army was scattered from him. <sup>6</sup>They captured the king and brought him up to the king of Babylon at Riblah, who pronounced sentence upon him. <sup>7</sup>He killed Zedekiah's sons before his eyes; then blinded Zedekiah's eyes, bound him with chains, and brought him to Babylon.<sup>q</sup>

<sup>8</sup>On the seventh day of the fifth month in the nineteenth year of King Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon,

h) Egypt's power went down as Babylonia grew mightier.

i) These kings were poor historians; the past taught them nothing constructively.

j) Although he was unaware of it, he came in God's service.

k) Daniel, still a lad, was among those first exiles.

l) Uncle to Jehoiachin and a son of Josiah.

m) With God's temple among them, the Jews could not conceive of the city's fall.

n) Cf. Jer. 39:2 and 52:6.

o) Parallels in Jer. 39:4 and 52:7. Read Jer. 39 and 40 relative to these critical events.

p) The depression of Jordan and Dead Sea, the Arabah.

q) A cruelty that went beyond the physical, leaving the victim with that final view to last through life.

Nebuzaradan, the chief officer and servant of the king, arrived at Jerusalem. <sup>9</sup>He burned the house of the LORD and the house of the king together with all the houses of Jerusalem — every important building he burned with fire. <sup>10</sup>The whole Chaldean army under the chief officer razed the wall around Jerusalem, <sup>11</sup>and Nebuzaradan the chief officer carried away into exile the rest of the people who remained in the city, the deserters who had deserted to the king of Babylon and the rest of the multitude. <sup>12</sup>But the chief officer permitted the poorest of the land to remain as vine-dressers and farmers.<sup>r</sup>

<sup>13</sup>The Chaldeans broke up the bronze pillars in the house of the LORD, the bases, and the bronze sea in the house of the LORD and transported their bronze to Babylon. <sup>14</sup>They took away the pots, the shovels, the snuffers, the bowls, and all the bronze vessels used in the service. <sup>15</sup>The chief officer also took along the censers and basins, those of gold as gold and those of silver as silver.<sup>s</sup> <sup>16</sup>As for the two pillars, the one sea, and the bases, which Solomon had made for the house of the LORD — the weight of bronze of all these articles was incalculable. <sup>17</sup>The height of one pillar was twenty-seven feet; its capital was bronze and four and a half feet high with a network of pomegranates around it, all of bronze; the second pillar was like it and had a similar network.

<sup>18</sup>The chief officer took Seraiah the chief priest, Zephaniah the second in rank, and the three doorkeepers.<sup>t</sup>

<sup>19</sup>From the city he took an official, the one who was in command of the soldiers, five men of the daily companions of the king who were in the city, the registrar of the captain of the army who mustered the people of the land, and sixty men of the people of the land who were in the city. <sup>20</sup>Nebuzaradan the chief officer took them and brought them to the king of Babylon at Riblah. <sup>21</sup>The king of Babylon cut them down and killed them at Riblah in the land of Hamath. So he exiled Judah from its land.

582 B.C.

<sup>22</sup>As for the people who remained in the land of Judah, those left by Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, he appointed Gedaliah son of Ahikam, son of Shaphan,<sup>u</sup> governor over them.

<sup>23</sup>When the officers of the army and their men heard that the king of Babylon had appointed Gedaliah governor, they came to Gedaliah at Mizpah: Ishmael son of Nethaniah, Johanan son of Kareah, Seraiah son of Tanhumeth the Netophathite, Jaazaniah son of the Maachathite, and their men. <sup>24</sup>Gedaliah swore to them and their men, "Do not fear the Chaldean officials; live in the land and serve the king of Babylon, and it will be well with you."

<sup>25</sup>In the seventh month, Ishmael son of Nethaniah, son of Elishama, of royal offspring, came with ten of his men and killed Gedaliah and the Jews and Chaldeans who were with him at Mizpah.<sup>v</sup> <sup>26</sup>Then all the people, old and young, and the officers of the army arose and went to Egypt because they feared the Chaldeans.

<sup>27</sup>In the thirty-seventh year, on the twenty-seventh day of the twelfth month of the exile of Jehoiachin king of Judah, Evil-merodach king of Babylon liberated Jehoiachin king of Judah from prison. <sup>28</sup>He spoke kindly to him and placed his seat above those of the kings who were with him in Babylon. <sup>29</sup>He<sup>w</sup> exchanged his prison clothes and ate with him regularly as long as he lived,<sup>x</sup> <sup>30</sup>and a continual allowance was granted him by the king, a portion for each day, so long as he lived.

r) No pagans were brought into southern Palestine to colonize it. Jews retained the farms and villages. s) Smelted down.

t) These five men were taken from the temple, all priests.

u) Shaphan had been King Josiah's secretary. To him the Law Book had been handed when found in the temple and after reading it, he had taken it to King Josiah [Ch. 22:8-13].

v) As a member of the royal family he considered his rights stronger than those of Gedaliah, forgetting that no rights were left him. w) I.e., Jehoiachin.

x) Evil-merodach reigned only two years; he was assassinated by his brother-in-law in 560 B.C.

FIRST BOOK OF CHRONICLES<sup>1</sup>

1 ADAM, SETH, ENOSH, <sup>2</sup>KENAN, Mahalalel, Jared, <sup>3</sup>Enoch, Methuselah, Lamech, <sup>4</sup>Noah, Shem, Ham, and Japheth.

<sup>5</sup>Japheth had these sons:<sup>b</sup> Gomer, Magog, Madai, Javan, Tubal, Meshech, and Tiras. <sup>6</sup>Gomer was father of Ashkenaz, Riphath, and Togarmah; <sup>7</sup>while Javan had Elishah, Tarshish, Kittim, and Dodanim.

<sup>8</sup>Ham had these sons: <sup>9</sup>Cush, Mizraim, Put, and Canaan. Cush had Seba, Havilah, Sabta, Raama, and Sabteca. The sons of Raamah: Sheba and Dedan. <sup>10</sup>Cush was the father of Nimrod, who began to be a powerful man on the earth. <sup>11</sup>Mizraim was the father of Ludim, Anamin, Lehabim, Naphtuhim, <sup>12</sup>Pathrusim, Casluhim (from whom came the Philistines), and the Caphtorites. <sup>13</sup>Canaan was father of Sidon, his first-born, and Heth, <sup>14</sup>and the Jebusite, Amorite, Girgashite, <sup>15</sup>Hivite, Arkite, Sinite, <sup>16</sup>Arvadite, Zemarite, and Elamathite.

<sup>17</sup>Shem had these sons: Elam, Asshur, Arphachshad, Lud, Aram, Uz, Hul, Gether, and Meshech. <sup>18</sup>Arphachshad had Shelah, who had Eber, <sup>19</sup>who had two sons: one called Peleg,<sup>c</sup> because it was during his days that the earth was divided; and his brother's name was Joktan. <sup>20</sup>Joktan had Almodad, Sheleph, Hazarmaveth, Jerah, <sup>21</sup>Hadoram, Uzal, Diklah, <sup>22</sup>Ebal, Abimael, Sheba, <sup>23</sup>Ophir, Havilah, and Jobab. All these were the sons of Joktan.

<sup>24</sup>Shem, Arphachshad, Shelah, <sup>25</sup>Eber, Peleg, Reu, <sup>26</sup>Serug, Nahor, Terah, <sup>27</sup>and Abram, who is Abraham.<sup>d</sup>

Abraham Born 2166 B.C.

<sup>28</sup>Abraham had these sons: Isaac and Ishmael. <sup>29</sup>These are their genealogical registers: Ishmael's first-born was Nebaioth, then Kedar, Adbeel, Mibsam, <sup>30</sup>Mishma, Dumah, Massa, Hadad, Tema, <sup>31</sup>Jetur, Naphish and Kedemah, who are the sons of Ishmael. <sup>32</sup>Abraham's later wife, Keturah, gave birth to Zimran, Jokshan, Medan, Midian, Ishbak, and Shuah; the sons of Jokshan being Sheba and Dedan, <sup>33</sup>and those of Midian: Ephah, Ephraim, Hanoth, Abida, and Eldaah. All these were the sons of Keturah. <sup>34</sup>As for Isaac, whose father was Abraham, his sons were Esau and Israel.

<sup>35</sup>Esau had these sons:<sup>e</sup> Eliphaz, Reuel, Jeush, Jalam, and Korah. <sup>36</sup>Eliphaz was father of Teman, Omar, Zephi, Gatam, and Kenaz, Timna,<sup>f</sup> and Amalek. <sup>37</sup>Reuel had Nahath, Zerah,

a) Hebrew, The Words [Affairs] of the Days. I Chronicles are not to be confused with the lost chronicles of Israel mentioned in I and II Kings. Chronicles were written after Kings, being compiled after the return of the Jews from the Babylonian exile, II Chron. 36:21-23 in the priestly and legal spirit of Ezra.

b) Vss. 5-23 reproduce the table of Gen. 10, with but minor differences of spelling.

c) "Division," probably referring to the confusion of languages at Babel [Gen. 11:1-9].

d) The change of his name is described in Gen. 17:5.

e) Vss. 35-54 summarize the table of Gen. 36, with minor differences of spelling.

f) Timna was not a son of Eliphaz, but his mistress and a daughter of Seir [vs. 39]. She bore Amalek [Gen. 36:12]; and her name was attached to a district in Edom [vs. 51].

Shammah, and Mizzah.<sup>38</sup> Seir had these sons:<sup>g</sup> Lotan, Shobal, Zibeon, Anah, Dishon, Ezer, and Dishan.<sup>39</sup> Lotan, whose sister was Timna, got Hori and Homam;<sup>40</sup> while from Shobal came Alian, Manahath, Ebal, Shephi, and Onam; from Zibeon: Aiah and Anah;<sup>41</sup> from Anah: Dishon; from Dishon: Hamran, Eshban, Ithran, and Cheran;<sup>42</sup> from Ezer: Bilhan, Zaazan, and Jaakan; and from Dishon: Uz and Aran.

To 1406 B.C.

<sup>43</sup>The kings who ruled in the land of Edom, before Israel had a reigning king, are: Bela the son of Beor, whose city was called Dinhabah.<sup>44</sup> After Bela's death, there succeeded to the throne Jobab the son of Zerah from Bozrah;<sup>45</sup> after Jobab's death, Husham from the land of the people of Teman reigned in his stead. After Husham's death, Hadad [II]<sup>46</sup> son of Bedad, who defeated Midian in the open territory of Moab, reigned in his stead; his city was called Avith.<sup>47</sup> After Hadad's death, Salmah from Masrekah reigned in his stead.<sup>48</sup> When Salmah died, Shaul from Rehoboth by the River<sup>h</sup> reigned in his stead.<sup>49</sup> When Shaul died, Baal-hanan the son of Achbor<sup>50</sup> reigned in his stead. After Baal-hanan's death, Hadad [II] succeeded him, whose city was called Pai, and the name of whose wife was Mehetabel the daughter of Matred, who was the daughter of Mezahab;<sup>51</sup> Hadad also died.<sup>52</sup> The chiefs of Edom were: the chief of Timna, of Aliah, of Jetheth,<sup>53</sup> of Oholibamah, of Elah, of Pinon,<sup>54</sup> of Kenaz, of Teman, of Mibzar,<sup>55</sup> of Magdiel, and of Iram. These were the chiefs of Edom.

Israel (Jacob) Born 2006 B.C.

2 THESE ARE THE SONS OF ISRAEL: Reuben, Simeon, Levi, Judah, Is-sachar, Zebulun,<sup>2</sup> Dan, Joseph, Benjamin, Naphtali, Gad, and Asher.

<sup>3</sup>Judah had these sons: Er, Onan, and Shelah, the three who were born by Shua's daughter, the Canaanite woman. Now Er, Judah's first-born, was an evil man before the LORD, who put him to death.<sup>4</sup> But Tamar, Judah's daughter-in-law, bore to Judah Perez and Zerah; so all the sons of Judah totaled five.<sup>5</sup> Perez had Hezron and Hamul;<sup>6</sup> while from Zerah came Zimri, Ethan, Heman, Calcol, and Dara, a total of five.<sup>7</sup> Carmi was father of Achan, the man who incriminated Israel by violating the consecrated things;<sup>1</sup> and from Ethan came Azariah.

<sup>9</sup>Hezron had these sons: Jerahmeel, Ram, and Chelubai.<sup>10</sup> Then the line of descendants went: Ram, Amminadab, Nashon (the leader of the tribe of Judah),<sup>11</sup> Salma, Boaz, Obed, and Jesse.<sup>13</sup> Jesse's sons were, in order: Eliab, Abinadab, Shimea, Nethanel, Raddai,<sup>15</sup> Ozem,<sup>16</sup> and David.<sup>17</sup> Their sisters<sup>18</sup> were Zeruiah and Abigail; the three sons of Zeruiah being Abishai, Joab, and Asahel;<sup>17</sup> the son of Abigail, Amasa.<sup>19</sup> His father was Jether of Ishmael.

<sup>18</sup>Caleb also, the son of Hezron, had children by Azubah his wife of Jerioth, and these were her sons — Jeshar, Shobab, and Ardon.<sup>19</sup> But Azubah died, and Caleb married Ephrath, who bore him Hur.<sup>20</sup> Hur was the father of Uri, and Uri the father of Bezaleel.<sup>21</sup>

<sup>21</sup>Hezron, later in life, in fact at sixty, went in to the daughter of Machir the father of Gilead, whom he had married, and she gave birth to Segub.<sup>22</sup> Segub was the father of Jair, to whom belonged twenty-three cities in the land of Gilead.<sup>23</sup> But Geshur and

g) Seir was of the Horites [Gen. 36:20], rock-dwellers, an important ancient people, some of whom had settled in Edom before the arrival of Esau [Deut. 2:12,22]. h) Euphrates.

i) His death is not mentioned in the corresponding section of the Pentateuch [Gen. 36:39], probably because he was a contemporary of Moses.

j) See Gen. 38 for details on Judah and Tamar.

k) These five later descendants are mentioned because of their importance: Zimri, who produced the Carmi of the next verse is called Zabdi in Josh. 7:1; the other four "Ezrahites" [Zerah] were famous for wisdom [I Kings 4:31] and composed Ps. 88-89, but are not to be confused with Ethan and Heman, musicians of David, who were from Levi [I Chron. 15:17].

l) At Jericho [Josh. 7], where the name is Achan.

m) Caleb in vss. 18 and 42, not to be confused with Caleb the faithful spy [4:15], who came 300 years later. n) At the time of the Exodus [Num. 1:7; 2:3; 7:12].

o) A seventh son [I Sam. 16:10; 17:12], is not named. David was the 8th son.

p) Half-sisters, apparently, by a different father [II Sam. 17:25].

q) These sons were all famous soldiers under David. See II Sam. 3:10,20. Abigail was Amasa's mother. r) The chief craftsman in building the tabernacle [Ex. 31:1-2].

Aram captured the towns of Jair from them, with Kenath and its surrounding districts, a total of sixty cities.<sup>8</sup> All these were the descendants of Machir the father of Gilead.<sup>24</sup> After the death of Hezron in Caleb-Ephrathah, Hezron's widow Abijah bore Caleb Ashur the father of Tekoa.

<sup>25</sup>Jerahmeel, the oldest son of Hezron, had these sons: Ram his first-born, Bunah, Oren, and Ozem, by Ahijah.<sup>26</sup> Jerahmeel had another wife, named Atarah; she was the mother of Onam.<sup>27</sup> Ram, the oldest son of Jerahmeel, had Maaz, Jamin, and Eker; <sup>28</sup>while from Onan came Shammai and Jada. Shammai produced Nadab and Abishur.<sup>29</sup> The wife of Abishur was named Abihail, who bore him Ahban and Molid; <sup>30</sup>and the sons of Nadab were Seled and Appaim. Seled left no offspring; <sup>31</sup>but Appaim's sons were Ishi the father of Sheshan, the father of Ahlai.<sup>32</sup> Shammai's brother, Jada, had Jether and Jonathan; and, while Jether died without children, <sup>33</sup>Jonathan's sons were Peleth and Zaza. These were the descendants of Jerahmeel.<sup>34</sup> Sheshan had no sons, only daughters; but he did have an Egyptian slave Jarha, <sup>35</sup>to whom he gave his daughter as a wife; <sup>1</sup>she bore him Attai.<sup>36</sup> So the line of descendants went: Attai, Nathan, Zabab, <sup>37</sup>Ephlal, Obad, <sup>38</sup>Jehu, <sup>39</sup>Azariah, Helez, <sup>40</sup>Eleasah, Sismai, Shallum, <sup>41</sup>Jekamiah, and Elishama.

<sup>42</sup>Caleb, the brother of Jerahmeel, had these sons: Meshah, his first-born, was the father of Ziph; and Mareshah<sup>u</sup> also was father of Hebron.<sup>43</sup> Hebron had Korah, Tappuah, Rekem, and Shema.<sup>44</sup> Shema had Raham, the father of Jorkeam; while from Rekem came Shammai, <sup>45</sup>the father of Maon, who was the father of Beth-zur.<sup>46</sup> Furthermore, Caleb's concubine<sup>v</sup> Ephah, gave birth to Haran, Moza, and Gazez—Haran

fathered Gazez.<sup>47</sup> Jahdai<sup>w</sup> was the father of Regem, Jothan, Geshan, Pelet, Ephah, and Shaaph.<sup>48</sup> Caleb's concubine Maacah gave birth to Sheber and Tirhanah, <sup>49</sup>Shaaph the father of Madmannah, and Sheva the father of Machbenah and Gibea. The daughter of Caleb was Achsah<sup>x</sup>.<sup>50</sup> More descendants of Caleb are these sons of Hur, the first-born of Ephrathah:<sup>y</sup> Shobal the father of Kiriath-jearim, <sup>51</sup>Salma the father of Beth-lehem, and Hareph the father of Beth-gader.<sup>52</sup> Shobal the father of Kiriath-jearim also had descendants:<sup>z</sup> Haroch, half of the Menuhoth, <sup>53</sup>and the families of Kiriath-jearim, which consisted of the people of Jether, Puah, Shuman, and Mishra, from which went out the people of Zorah and Eshtaol.<sup>54</sup> Salma was the father of Beth-lehem, the people of Netophah, Ataroth-beth-jab, the other half of Manahath, and Zor; <sup>55</sup>and the families of the scribes that lived at Jabez, who consisted of the people of Tira, Shimea, and Sucah, and who were Kenites descended from Hammath the father of the house of Rechab.<sup>a</sup>

David's Reign, 1010-970 B.C.

3 DAVID HAD THESE SONS BORN IN Hebron: the first-born was Amnon, by Ahinoam of Jezreel; second, Daniel,<sup>b</sup> by Abigail of Carmel; <sup>2</sup>third, Absalom, the son of Maacah daughter of Talmai, king of Geshur; fourth, Adonijah, the son of Haggith; <sup>3</sup>fifth, Shephatiah, by Abital; and sixth, Ithream, by his wife Eglah. <sup>4</sup>Six were born to him in Hebron, where David reigned seven years and six months. He also reigned thirty-three years in Jerusalem, <sup>5</sup>where these were born: Shimea, Shobab, Nathan, and Solomon, four sons by Bath-shua,<sup>c</sup> the daughter of Ammiel; <sup>6</sup>and Ithar, Elishama, Eliphelet, <sup>7</sup>Nogah, Nepheg, Japhia, <sup>8</sup>Elishama, Eliada, and Eliphe-

s) See Num. 32:41-42; Deut. 3:14. t) Probably Ahlai of vs. 31. u) A variant from Meshah? v) See note on II Sam. 3:7. w) Jahdai's exact relationship to the preceding has been lost. x) Actually a distant descendant of this Caleb, son of Hezron, and immediate daughter of Caleb, the faithful spy, son of Jephunneh. She is famous as the bride of Othniel, given him because of his conquest of Debir [Josh. 15:15-19; Judg. 1:11-15]. y) Vs. 19. z) Apparently Reaiah in 4:2. The title "father" seems here to be given to founders of towns and cities.

a) Kenites of the family of Hobab, the brother-in-law of Moses, became incorporated by marriage or adoption into the tribe of Judah [Judg. 1:16]. [Jeh]onadab, a later descendant of Rechab, was noted as a reformer, who kept his family from alcohol and in a primitive life to prevent corruption [II Kings 10:15-28; Jer. 35]. b) In II Sam. 3:3 called Chileab.

c) Elsewhere called Bath-sheba. This list of names appears with minor variants in ch. 14:4-7 and II Sam. 5:14-16.

let, nine others. <sup>9</sup>This is the list of David's sons, not counting sons of concubines. And Tamar was their sister.<sup>d</sup>

Solomon to Ezra, 970-558 B.C.

<sup>10</sup>The line of succession then went from father to son as follows: Solomon, Rehoboam, Abijah, Asa, Jehoshaphat, <sup>11</sup>Joram, Ahaziah, Joash, <sup>12</sup>Amaziah, Azariah, Jotham, <sup>13</sup>Ahaz, Hezekiah, Manasseh, <sup>14</sup>Amon, and Josiah. <sup>15</sup>Josiah's sons were Johanan, the first-born; second, Jehoiaquim; third, Zedekiah; and fourth, Shallum.<sup>e</sup> <sup>16</sup>Jehoiaquim's son was Jeconiah,<sup>f</sup> whose son was Zedekiah. <sup>17</sup>The sons of Jeconiah as a prisoner were: Shealtiel,<sup>g</sup> <sup>18</sup>Malchiram, Pedaiiah, Shenazzar, Jekamiah, Hoshama, and Nedabiah; <sup>19</sup>Pedaiiah became father of Zerubbabel<sup>h</sup> and Shimei. Zerubbabel had Meshullam, Hananiah, their sister Shelomith, and five others. <sup>20</sup>Hashubah, Ohel, Berechiah, Hasadiah, and Jushabhesd. <sup>21</sup>The sons of Hananiah: Pelatiah and Jeshaiah, whose son was Rephaiah; his son Arnan; his son, Obadiah, and his son Shecaniah,<sup>i</sup> <sup>22</sup>Shecaniah's son being Shemaiah. Shemaiah had six sons, including Hattush, Igal, Bariah, Neariah, and Shaphat. <sup>23</sup>Neariah had three sons: Elioenai, Hizkiah, and Azrikam. <sup>24</sup>Elioenai had seven sons: Hodaviah, Elias-hib, Pelaiah, Akkub, Johanan, Delaiah, and Anani.

4 JUDAH HAD THESE SONS: PEREZ, Hezron, Carmi, Hur, and Shobal.

<sup>2</sup>Shobal's son Reaiah was the father of Jahath, from whom came Ahumai and Lahad. These were the families of Zorah.<sup>j</sup> <sup>3</sup>These were the sons of Etam: Jezreel, Ishma, Idbash, their sister whose name was Hazzeleponi, <sup>4</sup>Penuel, who was an ancestor of Gedor,<sup>k</sup>

and Ezer, ancestor of Hushah. These were descendants of Hur, the first-born son of Ephrathah and father of Bethlehem. <sup>5</sup>Ashhur, the father of Tekoa, had two wives, Helah and Naarah. <sup>6</sup>Naarah bore him Ahuzzam, Hephher, Temeni, and Haahashtari, the sons of Naarah; <sup>7</sup>while the sons of Helah were Zereth, Izhar, and Ethnan.

<sup>8</sup>Koz<sup>l</sup> was the ancestor of Anub, Zobeab, and the families of Aharhel the son of Harum. <sup>9</sup>Now Jabez was more distinguished than his brothers; his mother had called his name Jabez with the statement, "I gave birth to him in pain."<sup>m</sup> <sup>10</sup>Jabez appealed to the God of Israel, saying, "Wilt Thou grant me a true blessing and extend my boundaries; let Thy hand be with me, and keep calamity from me so that no pain assails me," and God brought about what he had requested.

<sup>11</sup>Chelub, the brother of Shuhah, was father of Mehir, who had Eshton. <sup>12</sup>Eshton was the father of Bethrapha, Paseah, and Tehinnah, the ancestor of the city of Nahash. These are the men of Recah. <sup>13</sup>Kenaz had as descendants Othniel<sup>n</sup> and Seraiah. The sons of Othniel were Hathath and Meonothai <sup>14</sup>and Meonothai had Ophrah; while Seraiah had Joab, the ancestor of those in the Valley of Engravers, for they did engraving. <sup>15</sup>Caleb, too,<sup>o</sup> the son of Jephunneh, had sons: Iru, Elah, and Naam; the sons of Elah including Kenaz. <sup>16</sup>Jehallelel's sons were Ziph, Ziphah, Tiria, and Asarel; <sup>17</sup>and Ezerah's sons were Jether, Mered, Ephher, and Jalon. Then Bithiah, a Pharaoh's daughter whom Mered had married, gave birth to Miriam, Shammai, and Ishbah, an ancestor of Eshtemoa, <sup>18</sup>and his Jewish wife bore Jered, Heber, and

d) Raped by Amnon and avenged by Absalom [II Sam. 13].

e) Also called Jehoahaz [II Kings 23; II Chron. 36; compare Jer. 22:11]. He was in fact older than Zedekiah [II Kings 24:18], but had an inferior length of reign.

f) Also called Coniah [Jer. 22:24, 28; 37:1], and Jehoiachin [II Kings 24:8, 12; II Chron. 36:9].

g) Perhaps simply a legal son, for Luke 3:27 notes him to have been the son of Neri.

h) Zerubbabel is reckoned as a son of Pedaiiah's brother Shealtiel [Ezra 3:2; Hag. 1:1,12; Matt. 1:12; Luke 3:27], perhaps by the marriage ruling of Deut. 25:5-10. He was a leader in the return of the Jews to Palestine after the exile, 538 B.C. [Ezra 2:2; 3:2], and heir to David's throne.

i) The exact connection of these four with Jeconiah does not appear; if brothers, the fifth generation would exact bring the line to the time of Ezra and the compilation of Chronicles.

j) Vs. 2 is thus a supplement to 2:52-53; as are vss. 3-4 to 2:51 and vss. 5-7 to 2:24.

k) As was also Jered in vs. 18.

l) The exact connections of Koz, Jabez [vs. 9], Chelub [vs. 11], Kenaz [vs. 13], Meonothai [vs. 14], Jehallelel [vs. 16], Ezerah [vs. 17], Hodiah, [vs. 19], and Shimon and Ishi [vs. 20], with the family of Hezron, are not given. m) Hebrew, "ozeb."

n) The first of the judges, 1381 B.C. [Judg. 3:9, 10]. o) The faithful spy [Num. 13, 14].

Jekuthiel, ancestors respectively of Gedor, Socoh, and Zanoah, all from Mered.

<sup>19</sup>Hodiah's wife was the sister of Naham; and her sons, one from Gerem and the other from Maacah, were ancestors respectively of Keilah the Garmite and of Eshtemoa the Maacathite. <sup>20</sup>Shimon's sons were Amnon, Rinnah, Ben-hanan, and Tilon; and Ishi's sons were Zoheth and Ben-zoheth.

<sup>21</sup>Judah's son Shelah had the following: Er, the ancestor of Lecah; Laadah, the ancestor of Mareshah and the families of the house of Ashbea, who worked in fine linen; <sup>22</sup>Jokim, with the men of Cozeba, Joash, and Saraph, who were leaders in Moab; and Jashubi-lehem. These are old records. <sup>23</sup>The men were makers of pottery and inhabitants of Netaim and Gederah, where they lived in the king's presence for his work.<sup>p</sup>

<sup>24</sup>Simeon had these sons:<sup>q</sup> Nemuel, Jamin, Jarib, Zerach, and Shaul. <sup>25</sup>His line of descendants ran: Shallum, Mibsam, Mishma, <sup>26</sup>Hammuel, Zaccur, and Shimei. <sup>27</sup>Shimei had sixteen sons and six daughters, but his brothers did not have many children. In all their multiplying the families, they did not come up to the people of Judah.<sup>r</sup> <sup>28</sup>They lived at Beer-sheba, Moladah, Hazar-shual, <sup>29</sup>Bilhah, Ezem, Tolad, <sup>30</sup>Bethuel, Hormah, Ziklag, <sup>31</sup>Beth-marcaboth, Hazar-susim, Beth-biri, and Shaaraim. These were their cities and villages till the reign of David.<sup>s</sup> <sup>32</sup>There were also Etam, Ain, Rimmon, Tochen, and Ashan, five others, <sup>33</sup>besides all the villages which surrounded these cities as far as Baal. These constituted their settlements, and they kept their genealogy registration.

<sup>34</sup>Now Meshobab, Jamlech, Joshah the son of Amaziah, <sup>35</sup>Joel, Jehu, whose line of ancestry went back to Joshibiah, Scraiah, Asiel, <sup>36</sup>Elioenai, Jaakobah, Jeshohaiah, Asaiah, Adiel, Jesimiel, Benaiah, <sup>37</sup>Ziza, whose line of ancestry went back to Shiphi, Allon, Jedaiiah, Shimri, and Shemaiah — <sup>38</sup>these princes, as mentioned by name with their families, headed houses that had greatly outgrown their limits. <sup>39</sup>So they migrated to the entrance of Gedor, as far as the east side of the valley, looking for pasture lands for their flocks. <sup>40</sup>There they found rich, good pasture; the land was spread out, undisturbed, and quiet, because the people formerly living in it were Hamitic. <sup>41</sup>These registered by name, came during the reign of Hezekiah king of Judah and struck down the tents of the inhabitants and the Meunim that were found there. They annihilated them to this very day and settled in their places, because there was pasture for their flocks. <sup>42</sup>Also from the people of Simeon there were 500 men under the leadership of Pelatiah, Neariah, Rephaiah, and Uzziel, the sons of Ishi, who went against Mount Seir. <sup>43</sup>They struck down what was left of the escaped remnant of Amalek<sup>t</sup> and have remained there up to the present.

5 AS FOR THE SONS OF REUBEN, THE first-born of Israel; for he was the oldest son, but when he violated his father's couch,<sup>u</sup> his inheritance rights as first-born were transferred to the sons of Joseph<sup>v</sup> the son of Israel, though they were not registered for that position. <sup>2</sup>Although Judah got the power among his brothers, so that the ruler should come from him, yet the inheritance rights as first-born did go to Joseph. <sup>3</sup>Reuben, the first-born son of Israel, had these sons:<sup>w</sup> Hanoch, Pallu, Hezron, and Carmi. <sup>4</sup>Then the line of descent went: Joel,<sup>x</sup> Shemaiah, Gog, Shimei, <sup>5</sup>Micah, Reaiah, Baal, <sup>6</sup>and Beerah, a tribal chief of Reuben

p) They are thus brought down to the time of the kingdom[s], 1050-586 B.C.

q) This section enlarges on the family of Simeon [as noted in Gen. 46:10; Ex. 6:15; and Num. 26:12-14].

r) Simeon, who with Levi was scattered among the tribes because of the massacre of Shechem [Gen. 34:25-30; 49:5-7], was made to inherit the southwestern corner of Palestine [Josh. 19:1-9]. Simeon virtually merged with Judah, though after the division of the kingdom, elements of the tribe having moved north, it was counted with the ten northern tribes [II Chron. 15:9; 34:6].

s) 1010-970 B.C.

t) Both Saul and David had won victories over these old enemies [I Sam. 14:48; 15:7; and II Sam. 8:12]. u) With Bilhah [Gen. 35:22; 49:4].

v) As the first son of Rachel, the wife whom alone Jacob loved.

w) This section enlarges on the family of Reuben [as noted in Gen. 46:9; Ex. 6:14; and Num. 26:5-7]. x) Of which of the four Joel was the son is not stated.

whom Tiglath-pileser<sup>7</sup> king of Assyria took away into captivity. <sup>7</sup>Beerah's fellow rulers, according to their families in the registering by genealogical descent, were: Jeiel, the leader; Zechariah, <sup>8</sup>Bela, who descended from Joel through Shema; and then Azaz, who lived in Aroer, even as far as Nebo and Baal-meon. <sup>9</sup>He also settled eastward to the edge of the desert that stretches from the Euphrates River, because they had great herds of cattle in the land of Gilead. <sup>10</sup>In the days of Saul<sup>2</sup> they had made war with the people of Hagar, who had fallen before them; so they settled down in what had been their tents throughout the area east of Gilead.

Gad Born about 1918 B.C.

<sup>11</sup>Across from them lived the people of Gad in the land of Bashan as far as Salecah. <sup>12</sup>In Bashan itself they consisted of Joel the chief; Shapham the second; and Janai and Shaphat. <sup>13</sup>Their fellow rulers according to their clans were Michael, Meshullam, Sheba, Jorai, Jacan, Zia, and Eber, a total of seven, <sup>14</sup>who traced their ancestry from their father Abihail back through Huri, Jaroah, Gilead, Michael, Jeshishai, and Jahdo, to Buz. <sup>15</sup>Ahi the son of Abdiel, the son of Guni, was chief according to their clans. <sup>16</sup>These latter lived in Gilead in a part assigned to Bashan with its dependencies, and in all the pastures of Sharon as far as they extended. <sup>17</sup>All of Gad were registered by genealogy in the days of Jotham king of Judah and of Jeroboam II king of Israel.<sup>a</sup>

Before 733 B.C.

<sup>18</sup>Concerning the people of Reuben, Gad, and the half-tribe of Manasseh, they had valiant men who could carry shield and sword and bend a bow and were trained for warfare, totaling 44,760 on active duty. <sup>19</sup>These made war against the men of Hagar, Jetur, Naphish, and Nodab.<sup>b</sup> <sup>20</sup>They were given help against them. The men of Hagar together with all those that were allied with them were turned over into Israel's power, because in the battle they<sup>c</sup> appealed to God and He answered their prayer, for they trusted in Him. <sup>21</sup>So they took away their herds: camels 50,000; sheep 250,000; donkeys 2,000, and 100,000 human captives. <sup>22</sup>The number that fell mortally wounded was great, because the battle was God's. Thus they settled in their enemies' former territory until the exile.<sup>d</sup>

<sup>23</sup>The members of the half tribe of Manasseh settled in the land, a dense population from Bashan to Baal-hermon, Senir, and Mount Hermon. <sup>24</sup>The leaders of their clans were Ephraim, Ishi, Eliel, Azriel, Jeremiah, Hodaviah, and Jahdiel, brave warriors, famous and chiefs according to their family groups. <sup>25</sup>But they broke faith with the God of their fathers and turned adulterously to the gods of the native peoples whom God had destroyed before them. <sup>26</sup>So the God of Israel stirred up the spirit of Pul king of Assyria, the spirit, that is, of Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria, who carried them into captivity, these people of Reuben, Gad, and the half tribe of Manasseh, and brought them to Halah, Habor, Hara, and the River Gozan, where they are up to the present.<sup>e</sup>

6 LEVI HAD THESE SONS:<sup>f</sup> GERSHON, Kohath, and Merari; <sup>2</sup>the sons of Kohath being Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel. <sup>3</sup>Descendants of Amram were Aaron, Moses, and Miriam, Aaron's sons being Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar. <sup>4</sup>The line of descendants from Eleazar<sup>g</sup> ran:<sup>h</sup> Phine-

y) Elsewhere spelled Tiglath-pileser. This was probably in the preliminary captivity of the 3½ Trans-Jordan tribes, 733 B.C. [vs. 26; see II Kings 15:29], and not the final fall of Samaria, 722.

z) 1050-1010 B.C. a) 751-736 B.C. and 793-753 B.C., respectively.

b) Arab and Ishmaelite desert tribes [see Gen. 25:15]. c) The Hebrews.

d) Of 733 B.C., see vs. 26 and note on vs. 6.

e) About half the tribe, named for Machir, conquered the Gilead country before the death of Moses. f) This section enlarges on the family of Levi [as noted in Gen. 46:11; Ex. 6:16-19; Num. 3:17-20; and 26:57-62].

g) The older sons, Nadab and Abihu, killed in the wilderness for irreverent behavior, left no children [Lev. 10:1, 2; Num. 3:4].

h) The list of high priests that follows for the 860 years between the exodus and the fall of Jerusalem does not include the descendants of Ithamar who held the office under the last judges and the early kingdom: Eli, Phinehas [II], Ahitub [II], Ahimelech [I] [Ahizah], Abiathar, and Ahimelech [II], [I Sam. 14:3; 22:20; II Sam. 8:17]; nor certain other high priests who are mentioned elsewhere—Amariah [II] [II Chron. 19:11], Jehoiada [II Kings 11:9], Zechariah [II Chron. 16:5], [II Chron. 24:20], Urijah [II Kings 16:10], Azariah [III] [II Chron. 31:10], and Meraioth [I Chron. 9:11].

has, <sup>5</sup>Abishua, Bukki, <sup>6</sup>Uzzi, Zerachiah, <sup>7</sup>Meraioth, Amariah, <sup>8</sup>Ahitub [II], Zadok,<sup>1</sup> <sup>9</sup>Ahimaaz, Azariah, <sup>10</sup>Johanan, Azariah [II] (who held the priesthood in the temple built by Solomon in Jerusalem),<sup>11</sup> <sup>11</sup>Amariah [III], <sup>12</sup>Ahitub [III], Zadok [II], <sup>13</sup>Shallum, Hilkiyah,<sup>k</sup> <sup>14</sup>Azariah [IV], Seraiah, <sup>15</sup>and Jehozadak, who was deported when the LORD, through Nebuchadnezzar, took Judah and Jerusalem into exile.<sup>1</sup>

<sup>16</sup>As for the sons of Levi, Gershom,<sup>m</sup> Kohath, and Merari, <sup>17</sup>the names of Gershom's sons were Libni and Shimei; <sup>18</sup>Kohath's were Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel; <sup>19</sup>and Merari's, Mahli and Mushi. These make up the Levitical families according to their founding fathers. <sup>20</sup>The line of descent from Gershom went: Libni, Jahath, Zimmah, <sup>21</sup>Joah, Iddo, Zerah, and Jeatherai. <sup>22</sup>That of Kohath ran: Amminadab,<sup>n</sup> Korah,<sup>o</sup> and his sons Assir, <sup>23</sup>Elkanah, and Ebiasaph. Then from Ebiasaph the line continued: Assir, <sup>24</sup>Tahath, Uriel, Uzziel, and Shaul. <sup>25</sup>Now the line of descendants of Elkanah<sup>p</sup> [II] went: Amasai, Ahimoth,<sup>q</sup> <sup>26</sup>and Elkanah [III]; and after this last-mentioned Elkanah, his successor Zophai, Nahath, <sup>27</sup>Eliab,<sup>r</sup> Jeroham, and Elkanah [IV].<sup>s</sup> <sup>28</sup>Then the sons of Samuel were Joel,<sup>t</sup> the oldest, and Abijah, second. <sup>29</sup>Lastly the line of descent from Merari went: Mahli, Libni, Shimei, Uzzah, <sup>30</sup>Shimea, Haggiah, and Asaiah.

<sup>31</sup>These are the men whom David appointed to superintend the singing in the house of the LORD after the ark had been established there. <sup>32</sup>They were rendering service in song before the tent of meeting,<sup>u</sup> which was the place of divine presence until the construction by Solomon of the LORD's

Jerusalem temple, and they officiated over their assigned task as it was prescribed for them. <sup>33</sup>These appointees, together with their sons, were: Heman the singer, of the clan of Kohath, who traced his ancestry back through Joel, Samuel, <sup>34</sup>Elkanah [IV], Jeroham, Eliel, Toah, <sup>35</sup>Zuph, Elkanah [III], Mahath, Amasai, <sup>36</sup>Elkanah [II], Joel, Azariah, Zephaniah, <sup>37</sup>Tahath, Assir, Ebiasaph, Korah, <sup>38</sup>Izhar, Kohath, and Levi to Israel; <sup>39</sup>Asaph, his colleague, who stood at his right hand and who traced back his ancestry through Berechiah, Shimea, <sup>40</sup>Michael, Baaseiah, Malchijah, <sup>41</sup>Ethni, Zerah, Adaiah, <sup>42</sup>Ethan, Zimmah, Shimei, <sup>43</sup>Jahath, Gershom, and Levi. <sup>44</sup>Their colleagues, the men of Merari, on the left, under Ethan, whose ancestry went back through Kishi,<sup>v</sup> Abdi, Malluch, <sup>45</sup>Hashabiah, Amaziah, Hilkiyah, <sup>46</sup>Amzi, Bani, Shemer, <sup>47</sup>Mahli, Mushi, Merari, and Levi. <sup>48</sup>Moreover, their fellow tribesmen, the Levites, were dedicated to all the work of the tabernacle of the house of God, <sup>49</sup>while Aaron and his sons made the sacrifices on the altar of burnt offering and on the altar of incense; who conducted the entire work of the most holy place and who made atonement for Israel, exactly as God's servant Moses had given commandment.

1400 B.C.

<sup>50</sup>The descendants of Aaron went in the following line of succession: Eleazar, Phinehas, Abishua, <sup>51</sup>Bukki, Uzzi, Zerachiah, <sup>52</sup>Meraioth, Amariah, Ahitub [II], <sup>53</sup>Zadok, and Ahimaaz. <sup>54</sup>These, made up of Aaron's descendants, members of the clan of Kohath, held the following districts within their boundaries as the places where they lived,

i) High priest during David and Solomon, 970 B.C.

j) This may refer to his resisting Uzziel's attempt to take over priestly functions, 751 B.C. [II Chron. 26:17].

k) The high priest who discovered the book of the law given by Moses, causing Josiah's reformation of 621 B.C. [II Chron. 34:14]. l) In 586 B.C.

m) Gershom in vs. 1 and in the other historical books.

n) Apparently another name for Izhar [vs. 38].

o) Swallowed by the earth for rebelling against Moses [Num. 16].

p) The names that follow indicate that this must be Elkanah the great-great-great grandson of Ebiasaph [vss. 36, 37], not the brother of Ebiasaph, just mentioned in vs. 23.

q) In vs. 35, Mahath. r) In vss. 35 and 34, Zuph, Toah, and Eliel.

s) Husband of Hannah and father of Samuel [I Sam. 1:1].

t) The name is left blank in Hebrew but may be supplied from vs. 33 and I Sam. 8:2.

u) Where supremely God met the people, and secondarily the people met each other.

v) They are also called Jeduthun [25:1], and Kushaiah [15:17].

because the [first] lot had fallen to them:<sup>w</sup> <sup>55</sup>in the territory of Judah they were assigned Hebron with its surrounding open lands, <sup>56</sup>though the city's fields and villages were reserved for Caleb the son of Jephunneh.<sup>x</sup> <sup>57</sup>Thus Aaron's descendants received of the cities of refuge,<sup>y</sup> Hebron; also Libnah with its surrounding open lands, Jattir, Eshtemoa, <sup>58</sup>Hilen, Debir, <sup>59</sup>Ashan, and Beth-shemesh, each with its surrounding open lands. <sup>60</sup>Then from the tribe of Benjamin they were assigned Geba, Alemeth, and Anathoth, each with its surrounding open lands. The total of the cities distributed among their families came to thirteen.<sup>z</sup>

<sup>61</sup>The rest of the descendants of Kohath were granted ten cities by lot from the family of the tribe [of Ephraim and of Dan<sup>a</sup> and], from a half tribe, the half of Manasseh; <sup>62</sup>the descendants of Gershom, according to their families, thirteen cities, from the tribes of Issachar, Asher, Naphtali, and Manasseh in Bashan; <sup>63</sup>and the descendants of Merari, according to their families, twelve cities by lot from the tribes of Reuben, Gad, and Zebulun. <sup>64</sup>The people of Israel granted cities with their surrounding open lands to the Levites; <sup>65</sup>they assigned by lot, however, the cities from the tribes of the people of Judah, Simeon, and Benjamin, which are above listed by name.

<sup>66</sup>For some of the families of the sons of Kohath, the allotted territory included cities from the tribe of Ephraim. <sup>67</sup>They received of the cities of refuge: Shechem with its surrounding open lands in the hill country of Ephraim; also Gezer, <sup>68</sup>Jokmeam, Beth-horon, <sup>69</sup>Aijalon, and Gath-rimmon, each with its surrounding open lands. <sup>70</sup>Then from the half tribe of Manasseh came Aner and Bileam, with their surrounding open lands. These were for the families of the rest of the descendants of Kohath.

<sup>71</sup>To the descendants of Gershom there were granted from the family of the half tribe of Manasseh: Golan in Bashan and Ashteroth; <sup>72</sup>from the tribe of Issachar: Kedesh, Daberath, <sup>73</sup>Ramoth, and Anem; <sup>74</sup>from the tribe of Asher: Mashal, Abdon, <sup>75</sup>Hukok, and Rehob; <sup>76</sup>and from the tribe of Naphtali: Kedesh in Galilee, Hammon, and Kiriathaim, each with its surrounding lands.

<sup>77</sup>Last remaining, the descendants of Merari were allotted from the tribe of Zebulun: Rimmono and Tabor, <sup>78</sup>and from Trans-Jordan at Jericho, to the east of the Jordan, from the tribe of Reuben: Bezer in the desert, Jahzah, <sup>79</sup>Kedemoth, and Mephaath; <sup>80</sup>and from the tribe of Gad: Ramoth in Gilead, Mahanaim, <sup>81</sup>Heshbon, and Jazer, each with its surrounding open lands.

7 AS FOR THE SONS OF ISSACHAR, they were these four:<sup>b</sup> Tola, Puah, Jashub, and Shimron. <sup>2</sup>Tola had Uzzi, Rephaiah, Jeriel, Jahmai, Ibsam, and Shmuel, powerful heroes and leaders of their clans, descendants of Tola, who came in the time of David to number 22,600 by their genealogies. <sup>3</sup>Then from Uzzi was born Izrahiah, whose sons were Michael, Obadiah, Joel, and Ishiah, a total of five, all of them leaders; <sup>4</sup>and from whom, according to their clan genealogies, came military fighting units totaling 36,000, because they had many wives and sons. <sup>5</sup>Their fellow tribesmen of all the families of Issachar were powerful heroes. The grand total by genealogical enrollment amounted to 87,000.

<sup>6</sup>The three sons of Benjamin: Bela, Becher, and Jediael.<sup>c</sup> <sup>7</sup>The sons of Bela: Ezbon, Uzzi, Uzziel, Jerimoth, and Iri, five leaders of clans and mighty warriors. Their genealogical enrollment came to 22,034. <sup>8</sup>The sons of Becher: Zemirah, Joash, Eliezer, Elioenai, Om-

w) The Aaronic group had won the first lot in the distribution of the land [Josh. 21:10]; the following verses on Levitical cities compare with Josh. 21:3-40.

x) As promised by Moses and Joshua [Josh. 14:6-15].

y) See Num. 35; Deut. 19:1-10; and Josh. 20 on these six cities.

z) Only eleven have been named in this passage; the others are recorded in Joshua 21.

a) Here we are supplying from Joshua 21:5 "of Ephraim, and of Dan, and," as mentioned presently in vs. 66.

b) This section enlarges on the family of Issachar as shown in Gen. 46:13 and Num. 26:23-25.

c) There were others [see 8:1-10]. These sections in I Chron. compare with Gen. 46:21 and Num. 26:38-40, supplementing and providing slight variants.

ri, Jeremoth, Abijah, Anathoth, and Alemeth. All these were sons of Becher. <sup>9</sup>Their enrollment based on genealogical descent through these mighty warriors, who were clan heads, amounted to 20,200. <sup>10</sup>The sons of Jediel: Bilhan, whose sons were Jeush, Benjamin, Ehud, Chenaanah, Zethan, Tarshish, and Ahishahar. <sup>11</sup>All these were descendants of Jediel, powerful heroes and heads of clans, totaling 17,200 on active duty for war. <sup>12</sup>Shupim and Huppim were sons of Ir,<sup>d</sup> and the Hushim, of Aher.<sup>e</sup>

<sup>13</sup>Naphtali had these sons:<sup>f</sup> Jahziel, Guni, Jezer, and Shallum, who were thus grandsons of Bilhan.

<sup>14</sup>The sons of Manasseh: Asriel,<sup>g</sup> born through Manasseh's Aramaean concubine, who had given birth to Machir the father of Gilead. <sup>15</sup>Machir had chosen a wife of the Huppim and Shuppim family, and his sister was called Maacah. A second descendant was Zelophehad, and Zelophehad had [only]<sup>h</sup> daughters. <sup>16</sup>But Maacah the wife of Machir gave birth to a son and named him Peresh; his brother was named Sheres, whose sons were Ulam and Rakem; <sup>17</sup>Ulam's son was Bedan. These are counted with the descendants of Gilead the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh. <sup>18</sup>Also Hammolecheth, Machir's sister, gave birth to Ishhod, Abiezer, and Mahlah; <sup>19</sup>while the sons of Shemida<sup>i</sup> were Ahian, Shechem, Likhi, and Aniam.

<sup>20</sup>Ephraim had these sons:<sup>j</sup> Shuthelah, whose line of descent went: Bered, Tahath, Eleadah, Tahath, <sup>21</sup>Zabad, Shuthelah, Ezer, and Elead. But the latter two were killed by the men of Gath who had been born in the land<sup>k</sup> when they came down<sup>l</sup> to rustle their cattle. <sup>22</sup>So for many days their father Ephraim was in mourning until his brothers came to comfort him; <sup>23</sup>but then he went in to his wife, who conceived and gave birth to a son. He named him Beriah because this happened when his family was "in trouble."<sup>m</sup> <sup>24</sup>His daughter was Sheerah, who built both lower and upper Beth-horon, as well as Uzzen-sheerah. <sup>25</sup>Additional sons of his were Rephah and Resheph, from the latter of whom the line of descent went: Telah, Tahan, <sup>26</sup>Ladan, Ammihud, Elishama, <sup>27</sup>Non,<sup>n</sup> and Joshua. <sup>28</sup>Ephraim's territory in which they settled was bounded by Bethel and its dependencies, by Naaran on the east, by Gezer and its dependencies on the west, and by Shechem with its dependent towns as far as Ayyah and its dependencies. <sup>29</sup>The people of Manasseh held possession of Bethshean, Taanach, Megiddo, and Dor, each with its dependent towns. In these places the descendants of Joseph the son of Israel settled.

<sup>30</sup>Asher had these sons:<sup>o</sup> Imnah, Ishvah, Ishvi, Beriah, and their sister Serah. <sup>31</sup>The sons of Beriah were Heber and Malchiel, who was the father of Birzaith; <sup>32</sup>but Heber was the father of Japhlet, Shomer, Hotham, and their sister Shua. <sup>33</sup>The sons of Japhlet: Pasach, Bimhal, and Ashvath, his sons; <sup>34</sup>while from his brother Shemer<sup>p</sup> came Ahi, Rohgah, Jehubbah, and Aram; <sup>35</sup>and from his brother Ielem,<sup>q</sup> Zophah, Imna, Shelesh, and Amal. <sup>36</sup>Zophah's sons: Suah, Harnepher, Shual, Beri, Imrah, <sup>37</sup>Bezer, Hod, Shamma, Shilshah, Ithran, and Beera; <sup>38</sup>while from Jether<sup>r</sup> came Jephunneh, Pispah, and Ara. <sup>39</sup>The sons of Ulla: Arah,<sup>s</sup> Hanniel, and Riziah. All <sup>40</sup>these were descendants of Asher, heads of clans, chosen men, mighty warriors, and chief officers. As registered by genealogy for wartime service, they totaled 26,000 men.

8 BENJAMIN'S SONS CAME AS FOLLOWS:<sup>t</sup> first, Bela; second, Ashbel;

d) Iri [vs. 7]. e) Perhaps Ahiram of Num. 26:38.

f) These equal Gen. 46:24 and Num. 26:48-50 with minor differences of spelling.

g) A great-grandson of Manasseh through Machir and Gilead. For the more complete records of western Manasseh see Num. 26:28-34 and Josh. 17:2-6. h) Num. 26:33; 27:1; and 36:2.

i) Another great-grandson of Manasseh through Machir and Gilead.

j) This section enlarges on the family of Ephraim as noted in Num. 26:35-37. k) Canaan. l) The Gittites came to Goshen, on the border of Egypt toward Palestine, where the Israelites had settled under Joseph, to rustle Israel's cattle. m) Hebrew, "Beraah." n) Elsewhere, Nun (Ex. 33:11; Josh. 1:1). o) This section enlarges on the family of Asher as noted in Gen. 46:17, and Num. 26:44-47. p) Shomer, vs. 32. q) Hotham [?], vs. 32. r) Ithram in the preceding verse.

s) Ara [?], in the preceding verse. t) This chapter constitutes a major supplement to ch. 7:6-12, as well as to Gen. 46:21 and Num. 26:38-41.

third, Aharah; <sup>2</sup>fourth, Nohah; and fifth, Rapha. <sup>3</sup>Bela's sons were: Addar, Gera, Abihud, <sup>4</sup>Abishua, Naaman, Ahoah, <sup>5</sup>Gera, Shephuphan, and Huram. <sup>6</sup>Ehud<sup>u</sup> had these sons, who were clan leaders for the inhabitants of Geba, the group taken away to Manahath <sup>7</sup>by Naaman, Ahijah, and particularly by Gera; <sup>8</sup>Ehud's sons then were Uzza and Ahihud. <sup>9</sup>Shaharaim, too, in the country of Moab, after he had divorced his wives Hushim and Baara,<sup>v</sup> had children; <sup>9</sup>through his wife Hodesh he had Jobab, Zibia, Mesha, Malcam, <sup>10</sup>Jeuz, Shachia, and Mirmah. These were his sons, leaders of clans. <sup>11</sup>By Hushim he had begotten Abitub and Elpaal; <sup>12</sup>Elpaal's sons: Eber, Misham, Shemed (who built Ono and Lod with its dependencies), <sup>13</sup>Beriah, and Shema, too, who were clan leaders for the inhabitants of Aijalon, and they drove out the dwellers of Gath. <sup>14</sup>Ahio, Shashak, Jeremoth, <sup>15</sup>Zebadiah, Arad, Eder, <sup>16</sup>Michael, Ishpah, and Joha were the sons of Beriah. <sup>17</sup>Zebadiah, Meshullam, Hizki, Heber, <sup>18</sup>Ishmerai,<sup>w</sup> Izliah, and Jobab were sons of Elpaal. <sup>19</sup>Jakim, Zichri, Zabdi, <sup>20</sup>Eli-enai, Zillethai, Eliel, <sup>21</sup>Adaiah, Beraiah, and Shimrath were sons of Shimei.<sup>x</sup> <sup>22</sup>Ishpan, Eber, Eliel, <sup>23</sup>Abdon, Zichri, Hanan, <sup>24</sup>Hananiah, Elam, Anthothijah, <sup>25</sup>Iphdeiah, and Penuel were the sons of Shashak. <sup>26</sup>Shamsherai, Shehariah, Athaliah, <sup>27</sup>Jareshiah, Elijah, and Zichri were the sons of Jeroham.<sup>y</sup> <sup>28</sup>These were leaders of clans, leaders indeed, by their genealogical registers, who lived in Jerusalem.

Saul's Reign, 1050-1010 B.C.

<sup>29</sup>Now there lived in Gibeon the patriarchal head<sup>z</sup> of the city, the name of whose wife was Maacah. <sup>30</sup>His sons included Abdon, the oldest, Zur, Kish, Baal, Nadab, <sup>31</sup>Gedor, Ahio, and Zecher. <sup>32</sup>Then Mikloth<sup>a</sup> became father of Shimeah, and they lived in near-by Jerusalem, separate from their brothers, but still with fellow tribesmen. <sup>33</sup>And Ner,<sup>b</sup> was the father of Kish, the father of Saul, whose sons were Jonathan, Malchishua, Abinadab,<sup>c</sup> and Esh-baal.<sup>d</sup> <sup>34</sup>Jonathan's son was Merib-baal,<sup>e</sup> who was the father of Micah, <sup>35</sup>whose sons were Pithon, Melech, Tarea, and Ahaz. <sup>36</sup>Ahaz had Jehoaddah, whose sons were Alemeth, Azmaveth, and Zimri. From Zimri the line of descent went: Moza, <sup>37</sup>Binea, Raphah, Eleasah, and Azel. <sup>38</sup>Azel had six sons, named Azrikam, Bocheru, Ishmael, Sheariah, Obadiah, and Hanan; all these were sons of Azel. <sup>39</sup>The sons of his brother Eshek were Ulam his first-born, second Jeush, and third Eliphelet. <sup>40</sup>The sons of Ulam were powerful heroes, who could bend the bow and who also had many sons and grandsons, to the number of 150. All these were descendants of Benjamin.

Before the Fall of Jerusalem in 586 B.C.

9 SO ALL OF ISRAEL WERE REGISTERED by genealogy, and they may be observed recorded in the book of the kings of Israel. Judah, however, because of the people's unfaithfulness, was taken captive to Babylon. <sup>2</sup>Previous to this event, the men who lived on their holdings in their cities were the lay-Israelites, the priests, the Levites, and the temple servants.<sup>f</sup> <sup>3</sup>In Jerusalem there lived members of the tribes of Judah, of Benjamin, of Ephraim, and of Manasseh: <sup>4</sup>Uthai, who traced his ancestry back through Ammihud, Omri, Imri, and Bani, among the descendants of Perez to Judah. <sup>5</sup>Of the descendants of Shiloh:<sup>g</sup> Asaiah, who was the first-born, with his sons. <sup>6</sup>Of the descendants of Zerah: Jeuel and 690 of their fellow clansmen. <sup>7</sup>Then of the descendants of Benjamin: Sallu, whose ancestry went back through Meshullam and

u) Neither Ehud's ancestry in Benjamin, nor that of Shaharaim [vs. 8], is given.

v) Evidence of moral deterioration.

w) Meshullam and Ishmerai may be variants for Misham and Shemed in vs. 12.

x) Shema [vs. 13]. y) Perhaps Jeremoth [vs. 14]. z) Jeiel [9:35].

a) The youngest son [9:37, 38].

b) Another son [9:36], whose grandson, Saul, was first king of Israel, 1050-1010 B.C.

c) Ishui [in I Sam. 14:49]. d) Ish-bosheth [see note on II Sam. 2:8].

e) Mephibosheth [see note on II Sam. 4:4].

f) Literally, "given ones"; temple servants, as the men of Midian [Num. 31:47], and of Gibeon [Josh. 9:23], organized into a distinct group by David [Ezra 8:20].

g) Read, "Shelah"; with Perez and Zerah one of the leading families of Judah [Num. 26:20].

Hodaviah to Hassenuah; <sup>8</sup>Ibneiah son of Jeroham; Elah, descendant through Uzzi of Michri; Meshullam, whose ancestry went back through Shephatiah and Reuel to Ibnijah; <sup>9</sup>and 956 of their fellow tribesmen according to their genealogical registers. All the above were family leaders in their respective clans.

<sup>10</sup>Of the priests there were Jedaiah, Jehoiarib, and Jachin;<sup>h</sup> <sup>11</sup>with Azariah [IV], the ruler of the house of God,<sup>i</sup> who traced back his ancestry through Hilkiah, Meshullam, Zadok [II], Meraioth, and Ahitub [III]; <sup>12</sup>Adaiah, whose line went back through Jeroham and Pashhur to Malchijah;<sup>j</sup> Massai, going back through Adiel, Jahzerah, Meshullam, and Meshillemith to Immer;<sup>k</sup> <sup>13</sup>and 1760 of their fellow tribesmen, leaders of clans and distinguished for their efficiency, carrying on the service of the house of God.

<sup>14</sup>Of the Levites there were: Shemaiah, who traced his ancestry back through Hasshub, Azrikam, and Hashabiah to be a descendant of Merari;<sup>l</sup> <sup>15</sup>Bakbakkar, Heresh, Galal, Mattaniah, whose line, back through Mica and Zichri, made him a descendant of Asaph;<sup>m</sup> <sup>16</sup>Obadiah, going back through Shemaiah and Galal, a descendant of Jeduthun;<sup>n</sup> Berechiah the son of Asa, who was the son of Elkanah, who lived in the villages of the Netophathites.

<sup>17</sup>There were the gatekeepers: Shalum, Akkub, Talmon, Ahiman, and their colleagues (Shallum being the leader), <sup>18</sup>to date at the king's gate to the east; and they were the gatekeepers for the stations of the men of Levi. <sup>19</sup>Shallum, whose ancestry went back through Kore and Ebiasaph to Korah,<sup>n</sup> and his fellows of the clan of Korah were responsible for the administration of the service, watching the doorways to the "tent,"<sup>o</sup> even as their fathers had supervised the encampment of the

LORD, guarding the entrance. <sup>20</sup>Their director in that earlier day had been Phinehas son of Eleazar<sup>p</sup> — the LORD was with him! <sup>21</sup>Then Zechariah son of Meshelemiah had been a gatekeeper of the entrance way for the tent of meeting.<sup>q</sup> <sup>22</sup>The total of those chosen for gatekeepers at the doorways came to 212; they were registered by genealogy in their own villages, these men whom David and Samuel the seer had appointed to such positions of trust. <sup>23</sup>So they and their sons were in charge of the gates of the house of the LORD, the house of the "tent," <sup>24</sup>posted as guards, and acting as gatekeepers toward the four winds, to the east, west, north, and south. <sup>25</sup>Their colleagues in their villages, moreover, were to come in periodically, every seven days, to be with them; <sup>26</sup>because these Levites, the four distinguished gatekeepers, were indeed in positions of responsibility, being charged with the rooms and the treasuries of the house of God.<sup>r</sup>

<sup>27</sup>They would spend the night around the house of God because the watch was committed to them, and in the morning they were in charge of the key. <sup>28</sup>Some of them were over the utensils of the service, because by number they both brought it in and took it out. <sup>29</sup>Others were designated for the objects in general, all the holy instruments, the fine flour, the wine, the oil, the incense, and the spiced perfume. <sup>30</sup>These who mixed the ointment for the spiced perfume were taken from the priestly families; <sup>31</sup>though of the Levites, Mattithiah, who was the oldest son of Shallum of the descendants of Korah, was appointed in trust over the making of the flat cakes;<sup>s</sup> <sup>32</sup>while some of their fellows of the descendants of Kohath, were responsible for the bread which was set in rows,<sup>t</sup> to make it ready Sabbath by Sabbath. <sup>33</sup>These

h) These appear to be names of the 2nd, 1st, and 21st of the 24 priestly courses which David had established [I Chron. 24:7-18], rather than of individuals.

i) About 600 B.C., shortly before the captivity [see 6:13]. j) David's 5th course [24:9].

k) David's 16th [24:14]. l) One of the three sons of Levi.

m) These were two of David's chief musicians, 1000 B.C.

n) Though Korah himself was destroyed, his clan continued as an important part of the Kohath division of Levi [see 6:22-28 and notes].

o) The form of God's house, the tabernacle, prior to the construction of the permanent temple.

p) Son of Aaron and his successor as high priest in the wilderness.

q) Under David [I Chron. 26:2]. r) Functions of gatekeepers correspond to those of our custodians.

s) For meal offerings [Lev. 2:4-7]. t) The "showbread" [Lev. 24:5, 6].

then were the singers, clan leaders of the Levites, having exemption in their rooms from other service, because day and night they were charged with the work; <sup>34</sup>and these were the Levitical clan leaders in general, leaders indeed by their genealogical registers, who lived in Jerusalem.

<sup>35</sup>There lived in Gibeon, Jeiel,<sup>u</sup> the patriarchal head of the city, whose wife's name was Maacah, <sup>36</sup>and whose sons were Abdon, the oldest, Zur, Kish, Baal, Ner, Nadab, <sup>37</sup>Cedor, Ahio, Zechariah, and Mikloth. <sup>38</sup>Mikloth became father of Shimeam; and they lived in near-by Jerusalem, separate from their brothers, but still with fellow tribesmen. <sup>39</sup>Ner was the father of Kish, the father of Saul, whose sons were Jonathan, Malchi-shua, Abinadab, and Esh-baal. <sup>40</sup>Jonathan's son was Merib-baal, who was father of Micah, <sup>41</sup>whose sons were Pithon, Melech, Tahrea (and Ahaz). <sup>42</sup>Ahaz had Jarah, whose sons were: Alemeth, Azmaveth, and Zimri. From Zimri the line of descent went: Moza, <sup>43</sup>Binca, Rephah, Eleasah, and Azel. <sup>44</sup>Azel had six sons, named Azrikam, Bocheru, Ishmael, Sheariah, Obadiah, and Hanan; these were the sons of Azel.

1010 B.C.

10 WHEN THE PHILISTINES MADE war against Israel,<sup>v</sup> the men of Israel fled before them, and the mortally wounded fell on Mount Gilboa. <sup>2</sup>But the Philistines pressed closely after Saul and his sons, and they struck down Jonathan, Abinadab,<sup>w</sup> and Malchi-shua, sons of Saul. <sup>3</sup>Saul himself was fiercely attacked in the battle; against him the bowmen found their mark, causing him to writhe in anguish. <sup>4</sup>Thus Saul gave his armor-bearer the word, "Draw your sword, and run me through with it, so these uncircumcised may not come and practice their ruthless sport on me!"

But the armor-bearer did not have the heart; he was terribly afraid. Saul, therefore, took the sword and fell on it; <sup>5</sup>and when his armor-bearer saw that Saul was dead, he too fell on the sword and died. <sup>6</sup>So Saul met his death; his three sons too; indeed his entire house died together. <sup>7</sup>When all the men of Israel who were in the valley became aware of the rout and of the death of Saul and his sons, they gave up their cities and fled, so that the Philistines came and settled among them.

<sup>8</sup>So it was that when on the next day, the Philistines came to plunder the bodies, they found Saul and his sons as they had fallen on Mount Gilboa. <sup>9</sup>They stripped him and took away his head and his armor, which they sent around through the Philistine territories, so as to spread the good news to their idols and to the people. <sup>10</sup>Then they placed his armor in the house of their gods and fastened up his head in Dagon's temple. <sup>11</sup>But when all Jabesh-Gilead<sup>x</sup> heard in full what the Philistines had done to Saul, <sup>12</sup>the whole company of fighting men took action. They removed the body of Saul and the bodies of his sons, brought them to Jabesh, and buried their bones under the prominent tree in Jabesh, after which they kept a fast for seven days.

<sup>13</sup>So Saul died because of his unfaithfulness in which he acted disloyally against the LORD, because he had not kept the LORD's word and had even tried a medium's seance. <sup>14</sup>He did not look to the LORD, who therefore caused his death and the transference of the kingdom to David the son of Jesse.

1003 B.C.

11 THUS ALL ISRAEL CAME TOGETHER to David at Hebron<sup>y</sup> and said, "Here is the situation: We are your bone and your flesh. <sup>2</sup>Moreover, in times past, even when Saul was king, you were the one who led Israel

u) Perhaps the Abiel of I Sam. 9:1 and 14:51. The rest of this chapter is practically identical with ch. 8:29-38 except for minor matters such as the spelling of names. It serves to introduce the record of the end of Saul's reign.

v) The climax of their third and last great oppression. This chapter is, in general, identical with I Sam. 31, though there is some difference in the choice of details. w) Ishui, in I Sam. 14:49.

x) Still loyal to Saul, after his great deliverance for them nearly forty years earlier [I Sam. 11:1-11].

y) The 7½ yrs. of David's rule at Hebron over Judah only, 1010 to 1003 B.C. [II Sam. 2-4], are here passed by; vss. 1-9 are parallel to II Sam. 5:1-10.

out and brought it in; the LORD your God also told you: You are the man who is to be the shepherd for My people, for Israel, and it is you who shall be sovereign over My people Israel."

<sup>3</sup>So when all the elders who led Israel had come to Hebron to the king and when David in the presence of the LORD had made a compact with them at Hebron, they anointed David king over Israel, as the LORD had given word through Samuel.<sup>2</sup>

<sup>4</sup>Then David with all Israel marched on Jerusalem, known as Jebus, in which were the Jebusites, the natives of the territory. <sup>5</sup>They told David, "You shall not get in here!"<sup>a</sup> But David did capture the fortress of Zion, which now is the city of David. <sup>6</sup>David had also issued a proclamation, "Whoever is the first to strike down a man of Jebus shall be generalissimo", and Joab the son of Zeruiah went up first, so he became chief commander. <sup>7</sup>David occupied the fortress, for which reason it was called, "The City of David." <sup>8</sup>Furthermore, he did construction work around it from Millo<sup>b</sup> even to the surrounding area, while Joab restored the rest of the city. <sup>9</sup>Thus David's power kept increasing for the LORD of hosts was with him.

<sup>10</sup>These are the leaders of David's heroes, men who were strong advocates of his rule and who, along with all the rest of Israel, were committed to making him king, in accordance with the LORD's statement for Israel. <sup>11</sup>The list then of the heroes David had consists of these:<sup>c</sup> Jashobeam, son of a man of Hachmon, the leader of the Thirty,<sup>d</sup> who so thrust with his spear that 300 were laid low at one time. <sup>12</sup>After him, Eleazar the son of Dodo, a descendant of Ahoah, next among the three outstanding heroes; <sup>13</sup>he was with David at Pas-dammim where the Philistines had mustered for battle. At a section of the field that was full of barley, the people had broken and fled before the Philistines; <sup>14</sup>but they<sup>e</sup> took up a position in the middle of that section, recovered it, and struck down the Philistines; so the LORD saved them with a great victory.<sup>f</sup>

<sup>15</sup>Three of the thirty leaders had gone down to the rocky cliff to join David in the cave of Adullam, during the camping of the Philistine army in the valley of Rephaim. <sup>16</sup>At that time David was in the stronghold, but an outpost of the Philistines occupied Bethlehem. <sup>17</sup>Then David felt a longing and said, "If only somebody could get me a drink of water from the well of Bethlehem there by the gate!" <sup>18</sup>So the three heroes broke into the Philistine camp, drew water out of the well by the gate of Bethlehem, took it, and carried it to David. But David would not drink any; he poured it out as an offering to the LORD <sup>19</sup>with the exclamation, "Be it far from me, because of my God, to do such a thing! Could I drink the blood of these men, their very souls? For they have brought it at the risk of their lives!" He would not, accordingly, drink any. This was what the three heroes did.

<sup>20</sup>Then there was Abishai, Joab's brother and commander over the Three,<sup>g</sup> who also thrust with his spear to lay low 300 men and he gained a reputation along with the Three; <sup>21</sup>in fact, he was doubly honored over the Three by being made their superior, though he did not stand as high as the [first] three. <sup>22</sup>And Benaiah<sup>h</sup> son of Jehoiada, who was the son of a valiant man of great accomplishments from

<sup>2</sup> I Sam. 15:28; 16:1-13.

<sup>a</sup> The mountain position of the fortress of Zion made it almost impregnable. This, plus its strategic location between northern Israel and southern Judah and its foreign [neutral] nature, made it an ideal site for David's proposed capital. <sup>b</sup> One of the fortifications.

<sup>c</sup> Twelve of the heroes are commanders of the twelve corps of David's armed forces [Ch. 27].

<sup>d</sup> Perhaps the initial number in this "legion of honor." II Samuel 23:39 lists 37, including the outstanding Three and the two commanders, while this chapter [vss. 41b-47] notes 16 additions to the original group.

<sup>e</sup> Either the Three, or Eleazar alone.

<sup>f</sup> After him, "Shammah the son of Agee of Harar" [II Sam. 23:11]. So, the most distinguished "Three" are Jashobeam, Eleazar, and Shammah.

<sup>g</sup> He had commanded with Joab against Abner [II Sam. 2:24], and later led divisions in the wars against the Ammonites [II Sam. 10:10], against Absalom [18:2], and Sheba [20:6]. His heroism with David in Saul's camp is recorded in I Sam. 26:6f.

<sup>h</sup> Commander of the professional Cretan and Philistine troops that made up David's guard [I Chron. 18:17], and Solomon's leading general [I Kings 4:4].

Kabzeel. He was the one who struck down the two ariels<sup>1</sup> of Moab. He also went down into a pit and killed a lion on a snowy day<sup>23</sup> and he too destroyed the huge Egyptian, seven and a half feet tall, who had in his hand a spear the size of a weaver's bar;<sup>1</sup> but he went at him with a club, snatched the spear from the Egyptian's hand, and killed him with his own spear.<sup>24</sup> These were things done by Benaiah son of Jehoiada. He, too, gained a reputation along with the three heroes;<sup>25</sup> but, though he was indeed more honored than the Thirty, he did not come up to the Three. David appointed him over his guard.

<sup>26</sup>Then came these mighty warriors: Asahel,<sup>k</sup> Joab's brother; Elhanan son of Dodo from Bethlehem; <sup>27</sup>Shammoth from Haror; a certain Helez; <sup>28</sup>Ira son of Ikkeah from Tekoa; Abiezer from Anathoth; <sup>29</sup>Sibbecai from Hushah; Ilai, a descendant of Ahoah; <sup>30</sup>Maharai and Heled son of Baanah, both from Netophah; <sup>31</sup>Ithai son of Ribai, from Gibeah of the people of Benjamin; Benaiah from Pirathon; <sup>32</sup>Hurai from the valleys of Gaash; Abiel from the Jordan Valley; <sup>33</sup>Azmaveth from Baharum; Eliahba from Shaalbom; <sup>34</sup>Bene-hashem from Gizon; Jonathan son of Shagee <sup>35</sup>and Ahiam son of Sacar, both from Hara; Eliphaz son of Ur; <sup>36</sup>Hepher from Mecherah; a certain Ahijah;<sup>1</sup> <sup>37</sup>Hezro from Carmel; Naarai son of Ezbai; <sup>38</sup>Joel brother of Nathan; Mibhar son of Hagri; <sup>39</sup>Zelek from Ammon; Naharai from Beeroth, who was armor-bearer to Joab the son of Zeruiah; <sup>40</sup>Ira and Gareb, both descendants of Jether; <sup>41</sup>Uriah the Hittite;<sup>m</sup> Zabad son of Ahlai; <sup>42</sup>Adina son of Shiza the Reubenite, who was a leader of Reuben and with whom were thirty men; <sup>43</sup>Hanan son of Maacah; Josphat the Mithnite; <sup>44</sup>Uzzia from Ashteroth; Shama and Jeiel sons of Hotham from Aroer; <sup>45</sup>Jediael son of Shimri and his brother Joha from Tiz; <sup>46</sup>Eliel from Mahavim; Jeribai and Joshaviah sons of Elnaam; Ithmah from Moab; <sup>47</sup>and Eliel, Obed, and Jaasiel from Zobah.

1011 B.C.

12 THE FOLLOWING ARE THE MEN who came to David at Ziklag<sup>n</sup> while he was still restricted in his movements because of Saul the son of Kish; they were part of the heroes who maintained his military power, <sup>2</sup>were equipped with the bow, and could sling stones and shoot arrows from their bows either right-handed or left-handed; they came from Benjamin, from among the fellow tribesmen of Saul: <sup>3</sup>Ahicer, the leader, and Joash, both of them being sons of Shemaah of Gibeah; Jeziel and Pelet, the sons of Azmaveth; Beracah, Jehu from Anathoth, <sup>4</sup>Ishmaiah from Gibeon, a hero rated along with the Thirty and even over the Thirty; Jeremiah, Jahaziel, Johanan, Jozabad from Gederah, <sup>5</sup>Eluzai, Jerimoth, Bealiah, Shemariah, Shephatiah, a descendant of Haruph, <sup>6</sup>Elkanah, Isshiah, Azarel, Joezer, and Jashobeam, all descendants of Korah;<sup>o</sup> <sup>7</sup>and Joelah and Zebadiah, the sons of Jeroham from Gedor.

<sup>8</sup>From the people of Gad there came over to David at his desert stronghold<sup>p</sup> these powerful heroes, fighting men of war who could handle the shield and spear, who had faces like lions and who were fast as deer in the hills: <sup>9</sup>Ezer, the leader; Obadiah, the second; Eliab, the third; <sup>10</sup>and Mishmannah, Jeremiah, <sup>11</sup>Attai, Eliel, <sup>12</sup>Johanan, Elzabad, <sup>13</sup>and Jeremiah, in that order, down to Machbannai, the eleventh. <sup>14</sup>They were all descendants of Gad and leaders in the army, the least of whom was equal to a hundred, and the greatest,

i) "Lions of God," probably a general term for heroes rather than their personal name.

j) The heavy shaft that held the threads taut.

k) Killed when pursuing Abner in David's war against Ish-bosheth [II Sam. 2:18-23].

l) "Pelonite," in most translations, refers to no place; it equals "a certain."

m) The husband of Bath-sheba, murdered by order of David in the king's attempt to cover up adultery with his wife [II Sam. 11].

n) The town on the Judean border, over which David had been appointed vassal ruler by Achish, the Philistine king of Gath, [I Sam. 27:5-7].

o) The Kohathite who rebelled against Moses; see notes on 6:22 and 9:19. These five would therefore be from the tribe of Levi rather than of Benjamin, as the rest in this list, though probably residents of Benjamite territory.

p) Perhaps still the Cave of Adullam; compare 11:15 and I Sam. 22:1.

to a thousand! <sup>15</sup>These were the men that crossed the Jordan in the first month<sup>a</sup> when it was overflowing all its banks, and they put to rout the valley opposition both eastward and westward.

<sup>16</sup>Then too, there were men from Benjamin and Judah, who came to the stronghold to be with David. <sup>17</sup>When David went out to meet them, he addressed them, "If you have come to me peaceably to help me, then you can count on my heart being united with yours; but if it is to betray me to my enemies when there is no stain of violence on my hands, let the God of our fathers observe it and be the judge!" <sup>18</sup>Then the Spirit took hold of Amasai, leader of the Thirty, (to reply),<sup>r</sup>

"We belong to you, O David;

We are with you, son of Jesse!

Peace, yes, perfect peace go with you;

Peace bless him who fights for you,

Because your God does lend you aid!"

So David received them and placed them among the officers of his force.

1010 B.C.

<sup>19</sup>From Manasseh there were certain men who shifted allegiance to David when he marched to battle, allied with the Philistines against Saul.<sup>s</sup> David's men, however, did not actually fight on their side because the Philistine rulers, after consultation, dismissed him with the statement, "With our heads as his pledge, he might desert to his old master Saul." <sup>20</sup>So on David's return to Ziklag, there joined him from Manasseh: Adnah, Jozabad, Jediael, Michael, Jozabad, Elihu, and Zillethai; each of these a commander of a thousand men in Manasseh. <sup>21</sup>They proved of assistance to David against the band of raiders;<sup>t</sup> for they were all powerful heroes and became high officers in the army. <sup>22</sup>In fact, men would come daily to enlist under David until he had a formidable force, like the army of God.<sup>u</sup>

1003 B.C.

<sup>23</sup>These are the totals of the divisions equipped for war, that joined David at Hebron, whose aim, as the LORD had directed, was to turn Saul's kingdom over to him: <sup>24</sup>Of Judah, those who could carry the shield and spear, 6,800 equipped for war; <sup>25</sup>of Simeon, powerful military heroes, 7,100; <sup>26</sup>of Levi, 4,600, <sup>27</sup>plus Jehoiada, the chief ruler of the Aaronic group, with whom were 3,700 <sup>28</sup>and Zadok,<sup>v</sup> a powerful hero even in his youth, and his clan with its 22 chiefs; <sup>29</sup>of Benjamin, the relatives of Saul, 3,000; though up to this point the majority of them were maintaining loyalty to the house of Saul; <sup>30</sup>of Ephraim, 20,800 powerful heroes, men of reputation in their clans; <sup>31</sup>of the half tribe of Manasseh,<sup>w</sup> 18,000, who were designated by name to come to make David king; <sup>32</sup>of Issachar, 200 of their leaders who had understanding of the times and knew what Israel should do, and under whose command were all their fellow tribesmen; <sup>33</sup>of Zebulun, men subject to muster, who drew up rank with all types of weapons of war, 50,000, demonstrating single-hearted solidarity; <sup>34</sup>of Naphtali, 1,000 chiefs, and with them, 37,000 with shield and spear; <sup>35</sup>of Dan, 28,600 men drawing up rank; <sup>36</sup>of Asher, men subject to muster to maintain the line, 40,000; <sup>37</sup>and from Trans-Jordan, of Reuben, Gad and the half tribe of Manasseh, with all the weapons of combat, 120,000.

<sup>38</sup>All these fighting men who could draw up rank, came to Hebron with hearts determined to make David king over the whole of Israel; indeed, all the rest of Israel was of one mind to make David king. <sup>39</sup>For three days they were present with David, eating and drinking, because their fellow countrymen had made preparations for them. <sup>40</sup>Then, too, those who were near by, and as far as Issachar, Zebulun, and Naphtali, were bringing pro-

q) March-April, the time of the spring flood [see Josh. 3:15; 4:19].

r) Literally, "clothed Himself with Amasai," as in Judg. 6:34 and II Chron. 24:20.

s) See I Sam. 29 for the description.

t) Those from Amalek who had plundered David's city of Ziklag while he was away [I Sam. 30].

u) That is, very great; note the same phrase for the cedars in Ps. 80:10.

v) Perhaps the Zadok who was the colleague and successor of Abiathar as high priest.

w) The western half; see vs. 37.

visions on donkeys, camels, mules, and oxen: flour, cakes, pressed fig cakes, bunches of raisins, wine, oil, herds, and flocks, all in great quantities, because gladness reigned in Israel.

1003-1002 B.C.

13 DAVID HAVING CONSULTED<sup>x</sup> with the commanders of the units of 1000 and of 100, namely with every leader, <sup>2</sup>addressed the whole assembly of Israel: "If this seems desirable to you and if the project is indeed from the LORD our God, let us act with determination and summon our fellow citizens who are remaining throughout the territories of Israel, together with the priests and the Levites in their cities with the surrounding open lands, that they may meet with us. <sup>3</sup>Then we can bring back to us the ark of our God, for in the days of Saul we have had no concern for it."<sup>y</sup> <sup>4</sup>The entire assembly agreed that this should be done—the thing was right in all the people's judgment — <sup>5</sup>and David accordingly assembled all Israel, from Shihor of Egypt<sup>z</sup> to the approaches of Hamath, to bring in the ark of God from Kiriath-jearim.

<sup>6</sup>Then David with all Israel went up to Baalah, which is Kiriath-jearim<sup>a</sup> and belongs to Judah, to bring up from there God's ark, with which is associated His name: The LORD who thrones between the cherubim. <sup>7</sup>They transported it on a new cart from the house of Abinadab, with Uzza and Ahio<sup>b</sup> driving the cart. <sup>8</sup>David, meanwhile, and all Israel were dancing before God with all their strength, with songs and with lyres, harps, tambourines, cymbals, and trumpets. <sup>9</sup>But when they came to the threshing floor of Chidon, Uzza reached out his hand to catch hold of the ark, because the oxen had slipped. <sup>10</sup>The LORD's anger rose against Uzza, and God struck him for having laid hands on the ark; so he died there in God's presence.<sup>c</sup> <sup>11</sup>David was deeply moved at the LORD's outbreak against Uzza; he called that place Perez-uzza,<sup>d</sup> a name kept to the present day. <sup>12</sup>In his fear at that time toward God, he exclaimed, "How can I ever bring in the ark of God to be with me?" <sup>13</sup>So David did not have the ark moved into the city of David to be with him but redirected it to the house of Obed-edom, who had come from Gath. <sup>14</sup>The ark of God stayed with the family of Obed-edom in his house for three months; and the LORD prospered the household of Obed-edom<sup>e</sup> along with all that he had.

1003 B.C. and following

14 NOW HIRAM KING OF TYRE sent David messengers<sup>f</sup> and then logs of cedar, with men skilled in erecting walls and in carpentry, to build him a palace.<sup>g</sup> <sup>2</sup>Thus David recognized that the LORD had established him as king over Israel; for his kingdom had been highly exalted for the sake of Israel, God's own people. <sup>3</sup>David, however, took more wives<sup>h</sup> at Jerusalem and became father of more sons and daughters. <sup>4</sup>The following are the names of sons that were born in Jerusalem:<sup>i</sup> Shammua, Shobab, Nathan, Solomon, <sup>5</sup>Ibhar, Elishua, Elpelet, <sup>6</sup>Nogah, Nepheg, Japhia, <sup>7</sup>Elishama, Beeliada, and Eliphelet.

<sup>8</sup>When the Philistines heard that David had been anointed king over all Israel, they advanced in full force to get hold of him; but David was informed and went out to face them.<sup>j</sup> <sup>9</sup>The Philistines came and raided in the valley of Rephaim. <sup>10</sup>Then David

x) II Sam. 6:1-11 gives a briefer report with minor variants.

y) The one exception is noted in I Samuel 14:18, and even there the ark might not actually have been used, only requested.

z) The stream bed that marked the southeastern border of Palestine, [see Josh. 13:3].

a) Where the ark had stayed in the house of Abinadab for almost a century, following its capture by the Philistines at the first battle of Eben-ezer and its subsequent return [I Sam. 7:1].

b) Sons of Abinadab, [II Sam. 6:3].

c) Emphasizing for all future generations the necessity for reverence and conforming obedience toward God's sacred objects. The ark should never have been mounted on a cart; it should never have been touched; there were poles to carry it [Ex. 25:14]. d) "The outbreak of Uzza."

e) A Levite of the family of Korah in the clan of Kohath [26:1,4], and so meeting the requirement for a caretaker of the ark. f) This chapter parallels II Sam. 5:11-25.

g) It is well that the world renders service to the church.

h) Prohibited by the law [Deut. 17:17]. i) This same list appears, with minor variants, in 3:5-8.

j) This attack must have come shortly after his national anointing, even before the capture of Jerusalem [see II Sam. 5:17].

I CHRONICLES 14, 15 The Philistines Beaten; David Builds New Tabernacle

inquired of God, "Shall I go up against the Philistines? Wilt Thou give them over into my hands?" The LORD replied to him: Go up, and I will deliver them into your hands. <sup>11</sup>So they went up against Baal-perazim; and, as David struck them down there, he exclaimed, "God has broken through my enemies by means of my hand, like a breakthrough of water!" Therefore they named that place Baal-perazim.<sup>k</sup> <sup>12</sup>There his opponents even abandoned their gods, and at David's command, they burned them with fire.<sup>l</sup>

<sup>13</sup>When the Philistines again undertook a raid in the valley, <sup>14</sup>David once more made inquiry of God. God said to him: Do not go up after them; circle them and come in on them by the front of the balsam trees. <sup>15</sup>It shall be when you hear the sound of marching in the tops of the balsam trees, at that instant you shall launch the attack, for God will have gone out before you to overwhelm the Philistine army. <sup>16</sup>David did as God had ordered him, and they struck down the army of the Philistines from Gibeon as far as to Gezer. <sup>17</sup>Thus the fame of David spread throughout all lands, and the LORD laid the dread of him on all the nations.

1002 B.C.

15 THE KING<sup>m</sup> ERECTED BUILDINGS for himself in the city of David, but he also prepared a place for the ark of God and set up a tent for it. <sup>2</sup>Then, after he had cautioned, "No one is to carry God's ark except the Levites, since they are the ones whom the LORD has chosen to bear His ark and serve Him forever," <sup>3</sup>David assembled all Israel to Jerusalem to bring up the ark of the LORD into the place he had made ready for it. <sup>4</sup>He gathered the descendants of Aaron and of Levi; <sup>5</sup>of Kohath, Uriel the leader with 120 of his clan; <sup>6</sup>of Merari, Asaiah the leader with 220 of his; <sup>7</sup>of Gershon,<sup>n</sup> Joel with 130; <sup>8</sup>of Elizaphan,<sup>o</sup> Shemaiah with 200; <sup>9</sup>of Hebron, Eliel with 80; <sup>10</sup>and of Uzziel, Amminadab the leader, with 112 of his clan. <sup>11</sup>Then David called for the priests, Zadok and Abiathar, and for the Levites Uriel, Asaiah, Joel, Shemaiah, Eliel, and Amminadab, <sup>12</sup>and said to them, "You are the clan leaders of Levi; consecrate yourselves, you and your fellow tribesmen, so you can bring the ark of the LORD, the God of Israel, up to the place I have prepared for it; <sup>13</sup>for it is because you did not carry it the previous time, that the LORD our God made an outbreak against us, as we failed to seek Him in the proper way." <sup>14</sup>So the priests and the Levites consecrated themselves to bring up the ark of the LORD God of Israel.

<sup>15</sup>When the descendants of Levi had lifted up God's ark in the way Moses had prescribed by the word of the LORD, that is, by poles on their shoulders,<sup>p</sup> <sup>16</sup>David ordered the leaders of Levi to have their tribesmen who were singers to take stations with musical instruments—harps, lyres, and pacesetting cymbals<sup>q</sup>—lifting up the sound for joy. <sup>17</sup>The Levites accordingly appointed Heman son of Joel; one of his colleagues named Asaph son of Berechiah; and out of their fellows from Merari, Ethan son of Kushaiah.

<sup>18</sup>Along with these were their associates of a second class: Zechariah, Ben, Jaaziel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattithiah, Eliphelehu, Mikneiah and the gatekeepers Obed-edom and Jeiel.<sup>r</sup>

<sup>19</sup>The singers, Heman, Asaph, and Ethan were assigned to the bronze cymbals for setting the pace;<sup>q</sup> <sup>20</sup>Zechariah, Aziel,<sup>s</sup> Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Maaseiah, and Benaiah, to the soprano lyres; <sup>21</sup>and Mattithiah, Eliphelehu, Mikneiah, Obed-edom, Jeiel, and Azaziah, to the harps for leading off. <sup>22</sup>Moreover, Chenaniah, the leader of the men of Levi, was charged with the striking up of

k) "Master of the breakthroughs." l) As required by the law [Deut. 7:5, 25].

m) II Sam. 6:12-19 gives an abbreviation of the material of this and of the following chapter, with minor variants. n) Elsewhere, "Gershon" [6:1]; though compare 6:16f.

o) This and the following two are family subdivisions within the first-named Levitical clan of Kohath [Ex. 6:18,22].

p) It requires persons, rather than animals and carts, to render Him acceptable service.

q) Literally, "hearing-causers," — cymbals that marked the time by sounding clearly and loudly.

r) To this list could probably be added the Azaziah of vs. 21. s) Shortened from Jaaziel in vs. 18.

song—he carried on the instruction in singing because of his skill; <sup>23</sup>Berechiah and Elkanah, with being gatekeepers for the ark; <sup>24</sup>and the priests Shebaniah, Joshaphat, Nethanel, Amasai, Zechariah, Benaiah, and Eliezer, with the blowing of the trumpets before God's ark. Obed-edom and Jehiah were also gatekeepers for the ark. <sup>25</sup>So David and the chiefs of Israel and the commanders of the units of 1000 took up the march with rejoicing to bring the ark of the covenant of the LORD up from the house of Obed-edom.<sup>t</sup>

<sup>26</sup>Now when God was evidently helping the Levites who were carrying the ark of the LORD's covenant, they sacrificed seven each of steers and of rams. <sup>27</sup>David also dressed in a robe of fine linen, as were all those of Levi who were carrying the ark, together with the singers and the leader Chenaniah, who struck up the song for them. David was wearing a white linen cape,<sup>u</sup> too. <sup>28</sup>All Israel was bringing up the ark of the LORD's covenant with shouting, the sound of rams' horns, trumpets, pace-setting cymbals, lyres, and harps. <sup>29</sup>But as the ark of the covenant of the LORD made its entrance into the city of David, Michal, Saul's daughter, was looking down through a window and when she saw King David rejoicing there with dancing, she despised him in her heart.

1002 B.C.

16 SO THEY BROUGHT IN THE ARK of God, and when they had placed it inside the tent which David had pitched for it, they presented in the presence of God burnt offerings and peace offerings. <sup>2</sup>When David had finished the sacrifice of burnt offerings and of peace offerings, he blessed the people in the name of the LORD. <sup>3</sup>Furthermore, he made an allotment to each Israelite, including men and women, a round loaf of bread, a package of dates, and a cake of raisins to each. <sup>4</sup>Next he appointed as directors of services before the LORD's ark certain Levites, who would maintain the commemoration, the thanksgiving and the praise for the LORD God of Israel: <sup>5</sup>Asaph, the chief; and subordinate to him Zechariah, Jeiel,<sup>v</sup> Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Mattithiah, Eliab, <sup>6</sup>Benaiah, Obed-edom, and Jeiel, who were assigned to the harps and lyres as instruments; Asaph himself had the pace-setting cymbals; and, with the trumpets which were blown regularly before the ark of God's covenant, the priests Benaiah and Jahaziel.

<sup>7</sup>On that day David for the first time committed to the hands of Asaph<sup>w</sup> and his associates the giving of thanks to the LORD:<sup>x</sup>

<sup>8</sup>Oh, give thanks to the LORD, sound

His name,<sup>y</sup>

and proclaim to the nations His acts.

<sup>9</sup>Sing to Him, yea, to Him sing psalms; all His miracles ponder and speak.

<sup>10</sup>Have your boast in His sanctified name, and rejoice, hearts that look for the LORD.

<sup>11</sup>Make resort to the LORD and His might,

and His presence perpetually seek.

<sup>12</sup>Oh, remember His miracles wrought, with His marvels and judgments of mouth,

<sup>13</sup>Ye descendants of Israel, His servant, elect, who from Jacob have sprung, <sup>14</sup>It is He who is LORD and our God, with His judgments throughout the whole earth.

<sup>15</sup>To His covenant always attend, for a thousand generations imposed, <sup>16</sup>Unto Abraham surely confirmed, and to Isaac laid down with an oath.

<sup>17</sup>He defined it for Jacob as statute, for a covenant, Israel's to stand:

<sup>18</sup>I am giving thee Canaan, the land, your inheritance bounded by line,

t) For this occasion Ps. 24 seems to have been written and set to music. It was prophetic of Christ's triumphal entry into Jerusalem and symbolic of His being welcomed in our hearts.

u) Hebrew, "ephod." He seems to have removed his outer garment; note Michal's reaction [vs. 29 and II Sam. 6:20]. v) In 15:18, Jaaziel.

w) Twelve psalms were written by Asaph and his descendants, Ps. 50, and from 73 through 83. x) This marked the beginning of regular Levitical choirs, that soon became so important a part of Hebrew public worship.

y) The model songs, with which David then provided them, consist with slight modifications, of Ps. 105:1-15, Ps. 96, and Ps. 106:1, 47, 48. These three psalms are listed anonymously in the Psalter but, on the basis of his use of them here, it would appear that David is their author.

I CHRONICLES 16, 17 David Writes a Psalm; Guides Worship Arrangement

<sup>19</sup>Though you are insignificant now very few and mere pilgrims therein.

<sup>20</sup>True, they wandered from nation to
nation,
from kingdom to people most strange.

<sup>21</sup>But He granted not one to oppress
them,
rebuking for them even kings:

<sup>22</sup>Those anointed by Me, do not touch!
'Gainst My prophets, attempt nothing wrong!<sup>22</sup>

<sup>23</sup>So now sing to the LORD, all the earth,

His salvation, yes, daily proclaim.

<sup>24</sup>Oh, repeat to the nations His glory, to all of the peoples His deeds.

<sup>25</sup>For the LORD is great, much to be praised,
and revered above all so-called gods.

<sup>26</sup>For all gods of the pagans are vain, but the LORD even the heavens hath made.

<sup>27</sup>There is splendor and honor before Him,
and power and joy where He dwells.

<sup>28</sup>Give the LORD, O ye families of men, give the LORD highest glory and might.

<sup>29</sup>Give the LORD all the fame due His name;
bring an offering and come before Him.

Serve the LORD in your holy array, <sup>30</sup>be in awe before Him, all the earth;
thus the world will immovably stand.

<sup>31</sup>Let the heavens be glad, and earth sing;
let them tell among men, "The LORD reigns!"

<sup>32</sup>Let the sea in its fulness resound;
let the field with its products rejoice.

<sup>33</sup>Then shall trees of the woods sing aloud
at the face of the LORD, for He comes to accomplish His judgment on earth.

<sup>34</sup>Oh, give thanks to the LORD, who is good for His covenant love does hold true; <sup>35</sup>and cry, "Save us, O God, our Salvation,

and gather us, snatched from the world, to give thanks to Thy most holy name

and to glory ourselves in Thy praise.

<sup>36</sup>Let the LORD God of Israel be blest from eternity, world without end."

The response of all the people was,
"Amen!"<sup>a</sup> praising the LORD.

1002 B.C.

<sup>37</sup>So he left Asaph and his associates there in charge of the ark of the LORD's covenant, to maintain a constant service before the ark as each day required, <sup>38</sup>along with Obed-edom (who was the son of Jeduthun),<sup>b</sup> Hosah, and sixty-eight of their colleagues, as gatekeepers.
<sup>39</sup>But at the same time [he retained]
Zadok the priest and his priestly associates before the dwelling of the LORD<sup>c</sup>
at the high place that was in Gibeon, <sup>40</sup>to sacrifice burnt offerings continually, morning and evening, to the LORD on the altar of burnt offering, in accordance with everything written in the law of the LORD, which He had prescribed for Israel. <sup>41</sup>With them were Heman, Jeduthun, and the rest of those selected, who had been designated by name to give thanks to the LORD, "for His loving-kindness holds ever true." <sup>42</sup>Heman and Jeduthun had the trumpets, the cymbals for those who set the pace, and the sacred musical instruments. The sons of Jeduthun were assigned to the gate. <sup>43</sup>Then all the people returned to their respective homes, and David went back to bless his household.

17 AFTER DAVID HAD COME TO LIVE in his palace,<sup>d</sup> he said to Nathan the prophet, "See here, I am living in a cedar palace while the ark of the LORD's covenant is under tent curtains." <sup>2</sup>Nathan replied to David, "Do whatever you have in mind, because God is with you."<sup>e</sup> <sup>3</sup>But that night the

z) Abraham was designated a prophet in God's protecting him against Abimelech king of Gerar [Gen. 20:7]. a) Meaning, "True indeed!"

b) Not to be confused with Jeduthun, the chief singer of the clan of Merari, for Obed-edom's family was of Kohath. c) The tent of meeting [II Chron. 1:13], first erected by Moses.

d) Chapters 17 and 18 are close parallels to II Sam. 7-8.

e) This statement was based on Nathan's personal judgment; not on divine revelation.

word of God came to Nathan: <sup>4</sup>Go, tell My servant David, The LORD has spoken: It is not for you to build Me the temple for My residence.<sup>f</sup> <sup>5</sup>From the time I brought out Israel until now, I have lived in no house; I have been moving from tent to tabernacle for a dwelling. <sup>6</sup>Yet at any point in My journeying with all Israel, did I ever say a word to any one of the judges of Israel to whom I committed the leadership of My people to the effect, Why have you not built Me a cedar temple?

<sup>7</sup>But now this is what you are to say to My servant David, The LORD of hosts has thus spoken: I took you from the pasture, from following the flock, to be leader over My people, over Israel. <sup>8</sup>I have been with you in all that you have undertaken; I have eliminated all your enemies from before you and so have given you a name equal in reputation to that of the greatest men on earth. <sup>9</sup>I have, moreover, established a place for My people Israel and planted them, so that they inhabit their own land with no more shifting about and no more continued wasting by the unrighteous as at the first,<sup>g</sup> <sup>10</sup>or from the time I appointed judges over my people Israel. I have subdued all your enemies.<sup>h</sup> Now I inform you that the LORD is building a house for you.<sup>i</sup>

<sup>11</sup>When your days are over and you go to be with your fathers, I will raise up your posterity after you, one of your own sons; and I will confirm his sovereignty. <sup>12</sup>He will build Me a house;<sup>j</sup> and I will establish his throne forever; <sup>13</sup>so I will be that one's Father, and He shall be My son.<sup>k</sup> I will not have My loving-kindness leave your son, as I had it leave the one who was before you;<sup>l</sup> <sup>14</sup>I will uphold him in My house and in My kingdom forever: his throne shall be eternally established.<sup>m</sup> <sup>15</sup>In accordance with all these words and all this vision, Nathan delivered the message to David.

<sup>16</sup>Then King David, after he had come in, remained in the LORD's presence and prayed, "Who am I, O LORD God, and what is my house, that Thou hast brought me to this point?" <sup>17</sup>Then, as though this were a little thing in Thine eyes, O God, Thou hast spoken of the house of Thy servant into the far distant future. Hast Thou regarded me according to the standard for exalted men, O LORD God? <sup>18</sup>What can David further say to Thee about the honor to Thy servant, since Thou knowest what Thy servant is like, <sup>19</sup>O LORD! It is for the sake of Thy servant and in accordance with Thy decree that Thou hast done all these astounding things in making such greatness known. <sup>20</sup>O LORD, there is none like Thee, nor is there any God apart from Thyself, according to all that has come to our ears. <sup>21</sup>Who, moreover, is like Thy people Israel, a nation unique upon the earth, whom God went to redeem for Himself as a people, and so didst enhance Thine own name by deeds great and terrible, driving out nations before Thy people, whom Thou didst redeem from Egypt. <sup>22</sup>Yes, Thou hast established Thy people Israel to be Thine own people forever; and Thou, LORD, Thou hast become their God.<sup>n</sup>

<sup>23</sup>"Now, O LORD, let what Thou hast spoken about Thy servant and his household stand for eternity. <sup>24</sup>Do according to Thy promise, that Thy name may forever be seen as reliable and great, so men shall say, 'The LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, He is God over Israel'; when the family of Thy servant David shall be established before Thee. <sup>25</sup>For Thou, O my God, Thou hast revealed to Thy servant that Thou art building him a house;<sup>o</sup> acf) David was disqualified because of his warfare [22:8;28:3].

g) In Egypt; by Amalekites, Ammonites, Midianites, and Philistines.

h) So this chapter chronologically comes after ch. 18.

i) Before we can build for God, He has built for us, and indeed has built us.

j) Done by Solomon [I Kings 5:5]

k) Fully realized in Jesus Christ, the promised Descendant of David [Luke 1:32, 33], who as God's Son occupies the eternal throne [Heb. 1:5; see also Ps. 2:7; Acts 13:33; and Heb. 5:5]. As Christ Jesus, Son of Man and Son of God, is in His human nature the perfect Man, He fulfils (fills out) all human qualities. In this spirit, the kingship and throne of Solomon are prophetic of the kingship and throne of the promised Messiah.

l) King Saul. m) To the tent sanctuary he had erected [ch. 16:1].

n) These last words are the central promise of the covenant [Gen. 17:7; Ex. 6:7; and Rev. 21:3].

o) Not a building, like the "house" David wished to build for God, but a dynasty.

cordingly, Thy servant has found courage to make this prayer before Thee. <sup>26</sup>Surely, LORD, Thou art God and hast promised this good thing to Thy servant. <sup>27</sup>Now Thou hast been pleased to bless the house of Thy servant that it may continue forever before Thee; and, because Thou, LORD, hast uttered the blessing, it shall indeed be eternally blessed."

1002 to 995 B.C.

18 IN PROCESS OF TIME, DAVID overcame the Philistines and humbled them, taking Gath and its surrounding towns from Philistine control. <sup>2</sup>He struck down Moab, so that Moabites became subject to David, paying tribute. <sup>3</sup>David also defeated Hadadezer king of Zobah as far as to Hamath, when the latter attempted to confirm his power at the Euphrates river.<sup>p</sup> <sup>4</sup>David took captive 1000 of his chariots, 7000 cavalry, and 20,000 infantry, and he hamstrung all his chariot horses, reserving only enough for 100 chariots. <sup>5</sup>Then, when the Syrians of Damascus came to the aid of Hadadezer king of Zobah, David struck down 22,000 of the men of Syria <sup>6</sup>and went on to station garrisons in Syria of Damascus. So the Syrians became subject to David, paying tribute. The LORD gave David the victory everywhere he went. <sup>7</sup>David, moreover, took the golden shields which had been carried by Hadadezer's officers, and brought them to Jerusalem; <sup>8</sup>and from Tibhath and Cun,<sup>q</sup> cities of Hadadezer, David exacted a very large amount of bronze, with which Solomon made the brazen sea, the pillars, and the bronze furnishings.<sup>r</sup>

<sup>9</sup>When Tou king of Hamath heard that David had overcome all the forces of Hadadezer king of Zobah, <sup>10</sup>he sent his son Hadoram to King David to greet him and to extend congratulations over the battle in which he had beaten Hadadezer; because Hadadezer had repeatedly been at war with Tou. He had with him all sorts of articles of silver, gold, and bronze, <sup>11</sup>which King David dedicated to the LORD, along with the silver and gold which he had removed from all the countries, from Edom, Moab, the Ammonites, the Philistines, and Amalek.

<sup>12</sup>Moreover Abishai the son of Zeruiah struck down 18,000<sup>s</sup> troops of Edom in the Valley of Salt. <sup>13</sup>He then posted garrisons in Edom, so that the whole nation became subject to David. Surely the LORD gave David the victory wherever he went. <sup>14</sup>So David reigned over all Israel, executing justice and maintaining the right for all his people. <sup>15</sup>Joab the son of Zeruiah was over the armed forces; Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud was recorder; <sup>16</sup>Zadok the son of Ahitub and Ahimelech the son of Abiathar were priests; Shavsha was secretary; <sup>17</sup>Benaiah son of Jehoiada was over the Cretan and Philistine guard;<sup>t</sup> and the sons of David were chiefs at the side of the king.

About 955 B.C.

19 IN THE COURSE OF EVENTS NAhash the king of the Ammonites died,<sup>u</sup> and his son succeeded him on the throne. <sup>2</sup>David announced, "I will show Hanun friendship, because his father showed kindness to me."<sup>v</sup> David therefore sent envoys to console him about his father. But when David's embassy arrived in the land of the Ammonites and came to Hanun to comfort him, <sup>3</sup>that nation's officials advised Hanun, "Do you think it is to honor your father that he has sent you comforters? Is it not rather to investigate and to overthrow the land by

p) See 19:16-18, the second defeat of the Syrians; the verses of this chapter summarize the full account in 19:6-19.

q) These, and some of the names that follow, have variant forms in the corresponding verses [II Sam. 8:8-18].

r) For the temple. Note David's accumulations for Solomon's temple in 22:2-5, 14-15.

s) The title to Ps. 60 mentions Joab as David's leading general slaying 12,000 Edomites; II Sam. 8:13 notes David slaying 18,000.

t) The Philistines were Europeans; they had come originally from Caphtor [Crete] [Amos 9:7] and were greatly reinforced by refugees from Crete when the island fell to Greek invaders about 1200 B.C. [Jer. 47:4]. At the time of the rise of Saul, 1048 B.C., the Philistines were dominating Israel and using Hebrews as mercenary troops [I Sam. 14:21]; but David's victories in 1003 reversed the situation, Philistines are now in his employ.

u) Chs. 19-20:3, except for their omission of David's crime with Bath-sheba, are parallel to II Sam. 10-12.

v) This would hardly be the same Nahash against whom Saul had fought fifty-five years before [I Sam. 11], but may have been a son, who helped David against Saul.

acting as spies, that his servants have come to you?" <sup>4</sup>So Hanun seized David's envoys, shaved them, cut off their robes half way, just below the belt, and sent them away. <sup>5</sup>When word came to David about the men, he sent to meet them, because the men were greatly humiliated. And the king directed them, "Stay in Jericho until your beards grow out; then come back."

<sup>6</sup>When the Ammonites realized how seriously they had antagonized David, they sent 2,000,000 dollars in silver<sup>w</sup> to enlist mercenary troops in their cause from Aram of Mesopotamia and of Maacah and from Zobah, including chariots and cavalry. <sup>7</sup>They hired for themselves 32,000 war chariots, together with the king of Maacah and his people, all of whom came and encamped before Medeba. The people of Ammon likewise gathered from their cities and came to battle. <sup>8</sup>David heard about it and dispatched Joab with the entire army of brave men. <sup>9</sup>The Ammonites came out and drew up ranks for the conflict at the gate of the city,<sup>x</sup> while the kings who had come were posted separately in the field. <sup>10</sup>But Joab, upon his discovery that the battle front was against him both front and rear, picked a force out of all the men selected in Israel and deployed them to engage the Syrians. <sup>11</sup>The rest of the troops he assigned to the command of his brother Abishai to form for battle against the Ammonites. <sup>12</sup>"If Syria proves too strong for me," he said, "you are to be my support; but if the Ammonites prove too strong for you, then I will come to your defense. <sup>13</sup>Keep up your courage, and let us show strength for the sake of our people and for the cities of our God! Then let the LORD do what is good in his sight!"<sup>y</sup> <sup>14</sup>So Joab and his forces took up the attack against the Syrians, and they fled before him. <sup>15</sup>The people of Ammon, too, when they saw Aram<sup>z</sup> in flight, ran before his brother Abishai in the same way and took refuge in the city. Then Joab returned to Jerusalem.<sup>a</sup>

<sup>16</sup>But when the Syrians sensed their defeat at the hands of Israel, they dispatched messengers and summoned the Arameans which were beyond the river,<sup>b</sup> Shophach general of Hadadezer's army being made commander. <sup>17</sup>David, on being informed, mustered all Israel, crossed the Jordan, advanced, and formed his ranks against them. So David drew up the array to engage Syria in conflict, and they joined battle with him. <sup>18</sup>Again Syria fled before Israel, and David destroyed of Syria 7,000 chariot [men] and 40,000 infantry; he also killed Shophach the commander of the forces. <sup>19</sup>As a result, when those who were under Hadadezer saw that they were overwhelmed before Israel, they made peace with David and became subject to him. There was no desire on Syria's part to send further aid to the Ammonites.

About 994 B.C.

20 WITH NEXT YEAR'S SEASON, AT the time when kings march forth,<sup>c</sup> Joab led out the strength of the army to devastate the land of the Ammonites. He came and laid siege to Rabbah, while David was staying in Jerusalem. At last Joab overcame Rabbah and tore it down. <sup>2</sup>From the head of Malcam David took the crown, the weight of which he found to be seventy-five pounds<sup>d</sup> in gold, plus a precious stone that was in it, and it was placed on David's own head. He also carried off the plunder of the city in great quantity; <sup>3</sup>and the people in it he brought out and forced to become laborers, cutting with saws, iron picks, and axes. This was what David did to all the cities of the Ammonites, after which David and his whole army returned to Jerusalem.

<sup>4</sup>War resumed against the Philistines

w) Hebrew, 1000 talents, each weighing about 75 lbs. avoirdupois, or 92 lbs. troy [the 12-ounce lb.] worth a total of about $2,000,000. x) Their capital, Rabbah [cf. 20:1].

y) A combination of faith and works.

z) Syria was the western portion of Aramea and went much by that name.

a) It seems to have been too late in the year to undertake a siege [see 20:1].

b) East of the Euphrates. c) Spring, after the rainy season.

d) Hebrew, one talent, or about 92 lb. troy weight, equivalent to nearly $30,000. The crown could not be worn by a man, Malcam being the leading Ammonite idol [Zeph 1:5]. The name was also spelled Milcom [I Kings 11:5,33].

after an interval, at Gezer;<sup>e</sup> then it was that Sibbecai<sup>f</sup> from Hushah struck down Sippai, one of the descendants of the Rephaim,<sup>g</sup> so that they were subdued. <sup>5</sup>Another time war took place against the Philistines and Elhanan the son of Jair overcame Lahmi the brother of Goliath of Gath, whose spear had a shaft like that of a weaver's bar.<sup>h</sup> <sup>6</sup>Once more there was war, at Gath, this time involving a huge man who had his fingers and toes in sixes, twenty-four in all; he too was born of Raphah. <sup>7</sup>But when he taunted Israel, Jonathan the son of David's brother Shimea, struck him down. <sup>8</sup>These were born to Raphah in Gath, but they fell at the hands of David and his men.

About 995 B.C.

21 SATAN, HOWEVER, STOOD UP against Israel and aroused David to take a census of Israel.<sup>1</sup> <sup>2</sup>David ordered Joab and the leaders of the people, "Go, count Israel from Beer-sheba to Dan, and bring me a report, so that I may know their number."<sup>3</sup> Joab tried to reason, "May the LORD multiply His people a hundred times over what they are now; but, my master and king, does not my master have them all as servants? Why should my master want to do this? Why should he become a cause for guilt against Israel?"<sup>4</sup> The king's word, however, prevailed against Joab; so Joab went out, and when he had traveled all over Israel, he came back to Jerusalem. <sup>5</sup>Joab then turned over to David the figures for the census of the people. All Israel consisted of 1,100,000 men who used the sword; and Judah, of 470,000 men, likewise using the sword.<sup>k</sup> <sup>6</sup>But Levi and Benjamin he did not register along with the rest, because the king's command was abhorrent to Joab.

<sup>7</sup>There was displeasure, moreover, in God's eyes concerning this matter, so that he struck Israel down. <sup>8</sup>David, it is true, confessed to God, "I have sinned greatly in doing this; and now, I pray Thee, take away the wrong of Thy servant, for I have indeed played the fool."<sup>9</sup> But the LORD spoke to Gad, David's seer: <sup>10</sup>Go, tell David, this is what the LORD has decreed: I offer you three things; choose one of them for Me to do to you. <sup>11</sup>So Gad came to David and informed him, "This is what the LORD has decreed, Choose for yourself: <sup>12</sup>three years of famine; or three months of being swept away before your adversaries, with the sword of your enemies overtaking you; or three days of the sword of the LORD, that is of epidemic in the land, the angel of the LORD working destruction all over the territory of Israel. Now therefore decide what answer I am to return to Him who sent me."

<sup>13</sup>David replied to Gad, "I am in deep distress; let me fall, I pray, into the hands of the LORD, because His mercies are so great; but into the hands of man may I not fall."<sup>14</sup> So the LORD sent an epidemic upon Israel, and there fell 70,000 men out of Israel.<sup>1</sup> <sup>15</sup>God also sent an angel toward Jerusalem to destroy it; but when he was at the point of destroying it, the LORD observed, felt compassion regarding the calamity, and gave orders to the destroying angel, Enough! Relax your hand now! This was when the LORD's angel was standing by the threshing floor of Ornan<sup>m</sup> the Jebusite.

<sup>16</sup>When David raised his eyes and

e) These events therefore follow the first Philistine wars, described in 14:8-16, but precede the God-given rest from foreign enemies granted David by about 995 B.C. [II Sam. 7:1]. They are also recorded, with minor variants, in II Sam. 21:15-22 and may be associated with the campaigns noted in I Chron. 18:1.

f) One of the "thirty" heroes [11:29] and commander of the 8th corps of David's army [27:11]. g) The Rephaim were an ancient people [Gen. 14:5], noted for their size, but, except for Og's kingdom in Bashan, had died out by the time of Moses [Deut. 3:11].

h) Heavy, to hold the threads taut. See I Sam. 17:7.

i) The parallel record in II Sam. 24 goes behind this and shows that Satan was the instrument of God, being used to execute punishment on Israel for their sins. Compare Job 1:6-12 and I Kings 22:20-22.

j) There was nothing inherently wrong in a census; but in this case David seems to have been looking to the armed strength of his people [note vs. 5], rather than maintaining his faith in the promises of God [cf. 27:23].

k) II Sam. 24:9 gives the round figure for Judah of 500,000 and notes that in Israel only 800,000 could be classified as physically fit.

l) Appropriate punishment, since the sin seems to have been the reliance upon numerical military strength. m) In II Sam. 24:18, "Araunah."

saw the angel of the LORD standing between earth and heaven and in his hand a drawn sword stretched out over Jerusalem, David and the chiefs, wrapped in sackcloth, fell on their faces. <sup>17</sup>David appealed to God, "Was it not I who ordered the census of the people? I am the one who has sinned and acted so wrongly. But these sheep,<sup>n</sup> what have they done? O LORD my God, let Thy hand, I pray, be against me and my father's household, but not against Thy people to be stricken by a plague!" <sup>18</sup>The LORD's angel, accordingly, ordered Gad to tell David that David should go up and erect an altar to the LORD on the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite. <sup>19</sup>So David went up at Gad's word, which he had spoken in the name of the LORD.

<sup>20</sup>Ornan, meanwhile, was threshing wheat when he turned and saw the angel, and his four sons that were with him went into hiding. <sup>21</sup>Then David approached Ornan, and when Ornan looked and saw David, he went out from the threshing floor and prostrated himself with his face to the ground before David. <sup>22</sup>"Let me have the area of the threshing floor," David addressed Ornan, "so I can build an altar on it to the LORD. Give it to me at full price, that the plague may be restrained from continuing on the people." <sup>23</sup>"Take it for your own," Ornan remonstrated with David, "and let my master the king do whatever seems good in his eyes. See, I am giving the cattle" for the burnt offerings and the threshing sledges for the wood and the wheat for the offering of meal! I am giving it all." <sup>24</sup>"No," King David answered Ornan, "I will certainly buy it at full price; I will not take for the LORD what belongs to you, or offer a burnt offering that costs me nothing!"<sup>p</sup> <sup>25</sup>So David paid Ornan for the area 6,000 dollars' worth of gold by weight.<sup>q</sup> <sup>26</sup>Then

David built an altar there to the LORD and offered up burnt offerings and peace offerings. Besides, he called out to the LORD, who answered him with fire from heaven upon the altar of burnt offering. <sup>27</sup>The LORD also gave orders to the angel, who returned his sword to its sheath.

<sup>28</sup>It was at that time, when David saw that the LORD had answered him at the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite,<sup>r</sup> that he made sacrifice there. <sup>29</sup>Now the tabernacle of the LORD that Moses had made in the desert and the altar of burnt offering were during that period at the high place in Gibeon; <sup>30</sup>but David could not go before it to seek God, because he was so terrified by the sword of the LORD's angel.

22 DAVID THEN SAID, "THIS PLACE is the temple of the LORD God; and this is the altar of burnt offering for Israel."

<sup>2</sup>So David proceeded to assemble the resident aliens that were in the land of Israel and assigned stonecutters to prepare squared stones for building God's temple. <sup>3</sup>David next made ready great quantities of iron to make nails for the doors of the gates and for binding plates; also bronze in an amount too great to be weighed <sup>4</sup>and countless cedar logs, because the people of Tyre and Sidon brought David cedar logs in great quantity. <sup>5</sup>David explained, "My son Solomon is still a youth and inexperienced;<sup>s</sup> but the temple to be built for the LORD is to be made most magnificent, of fame and glory through all lands. I am therefore making preparations for it." So David made ample provision before his death.

<sup>6</sup>David also called in his son Solomon and charged him with building a temple for the LORD, the God of Israel. <sup>7</sup>David addressed Solomon, "My son, I had in mind personally to build a n) Scripture frequently compares leader and people to shepherd and flock [see 11:2 and Ps. 23].

o) Used to pull the wooden threshing sledges over the grain.

p) So God expects us Christians to yield Him the best in our lives, not merely what involves no sacrifice.

q) Hebrew, 600 shekels. II Sam. 24:24 notes a small amount [50 shekels] in silver paid for the threshing floor itself.

r) Ornan's threshing floor on Mt. Moriah, on which Abraham offered Isaac to God. The temple was soon built by Solomon [II Chron. 3:1]. It seems therefore that Ps. 30, by David, "at the dedication of the temple," dates here; vs. 5, 6 well describe David's situation at this point.

s) See note on II Sam. 12:24. Born in 990 B.C., Solomon would be twenty at his accession.

temple to the name of the LORD my God, <sup>8</sup>but the LORD's word came to me saying: You have shed too much blood and carried on great wars; you are not to build a temple to My name,<sup>1</sup> because you have spilled so much blood on the ground before Me. <sup>9</sup>But see, a son shall be born to you, who shall be a man of peace; for I will give him relief from all his enemies on every side. Indeed, Solomon<sup>10</sup> shall be his name; and peace and security will I ordain over Israel in his days. <sup>10</sup>He then will build a house for My name — so that one shall be my son, and I will be His Father — and I will establish the throne of his kingdom over Israel forever.<sup>11</sup> <sup>11</sup>Now, my son, the LORD be with you, so that you may prosper and build the temple of the LORD your God, even as He has spoken in reference to you. <sup>12</sup>Only the LORD grant you insight and understanding, so that when He gives you charge over Israel, you may keep the Law of the LORD your God. <sup>13</sup>Then you will prosper, if you take care to execute the statutes and judgments which the LORD commanded Moses concerning Israel. Be strong and courageous! Do not fear; be not downcast! <sup>14</sup>See, by my hard labor I have amassed for the LORD's temple 13,100,000 pounds of gold, 116,400,000 pounds of silver,<sup>15</sup> and bronze and iron that cannot be weighed because of their abundance. I have prepared timbers and stores as well, to which you will want to make additions. <sup>16</sup>You have also with you a great number of workers, cutters and carvers in stone and timber, and all kinds of skilled workers for every task, <sup>16</sup>for gold, silver, bronze, and iron, a countless amount. Get up and do it, and the LORD be with you!"

<sup>17</sup>David also gave orders to all the leaders of Israel to provide assistance for his son Solomon, <sup>18</sup>"Is not the LORD your God with you? Has he not granted you peace on every side? For He has surrendered the inhabitants of the land into my power, so that the land lies subdued before the LORD and His people. <sup>19</sup>Now set your minds and hearts to seek the LORD God so as to bring the ark of the LORD's covenant and the holy equipment of God into the temple that is to be built to the LORD's name."

971-970 B.C.

23 WHEN DAVID BECAME OLD AND advanced in years, he made his son Solomon king over Israel.<sup>x</sup> <sup>21</sup>He also assembled all the leaders of Israel and the priests and the Levites. <sup>3</sup>After a census had been taken of the men of Levi aged thirty and above, the total of their heads, man for man, was 38,000. <sup>4</sup>"Of these," said David, "24,000 are to supervise the work of the LORD's temple, 6,000 to act as officers and judges, <sup>5</sup>4,000 to be gatekeepers, and 4,000 to offer praise to the LORD on the instruments I have made for singing praise."

<sup>6</sup>David then organized them into divisions according to the sons of Levi: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.<sup>y</sup> <sup>7</sup>The descendants of Gershon were divided among Ladan and Shimei. <sup>8</sup>The sons of Ladan were three; Jehiel, the leader, Zetham, and Joel: <sup>9</sup>also the sons of Shimei,<sup>z</sup> three: Shelomoth, Hazeiel, and Haran. The total of these constituted the clan leaders for Ladan. <sup>10</sup>The sons of Shimei were: Jahath, Zina, Jeush, and Beriah, the total for Shimei's sons being four, <sup>11</sup>with Jahath as leader and Zizah second; but since Jeush and Beriah did not have many sons, they became, as a result, a clan with a single reckoning.

<sup>12</sup>The sons of Kohath were four: Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel,

t) This was the word brought David by Nathan before Solomon's birth [17:4]. War may at times be required by God Himself [cf. 14:10 and 19:13]; but David had been guilty of needless bloodshed [see II Sam. 8:2]. u) Hebrew, "peaceful."

v) A direct quotation from II Sam. 7:13, 14, the prediction of Solomon's building the temple, though the clause about being God's son refers supremely to Christ.

w) Troy weight; Hebrew, 100,000 and 1,000,000 talents respectively. The value, even by modern standards, would be $5,000,000,000; and its purchasing power in ancient days was much greater. x) The disputed succession and the details of his taking power are given in I Kings 1,2.

y) Compare the list in 6:16-30 and the references cited in the note to 6:1.

z) This Shimei could hardly be the Shimei, son of Gershon, listed in vs. 7 and 10. It is likely that he and Ladan were sons of Libni, the older son of Gershon and brother of Shimei [see 6:17]. Thus the clans of Gershon totaled 9; 6 for Ladan and 3 for Shimei, on the basis of the combination of Jeush and Beriah in vs. 11.

<sup>13</sup>the sons of Amram being Aaron and Moses. But Aaron was set apart to be sanctified as most sacred, that he and his sons forever should offer sacrifice before the LORD, serve Him, and pronounce blessings in His name at all times. <sup>14</sup>As for Moses, the man of God,<sup>a</sup> his sons were reckoned in with the tribe of Levi. <sup>15</sup>Moses' sons were Gershom and Eliezer, <sup>16</sup>Gershom's sons having Shebuel as leader <sup>17</sup>and Eliezer's having Rehabiah as chief. Eliezer had no other sons, but Rehabiah's offspring came to be very numerous. <sup>18</sup>Izhar's sons had Shelomith as leader. <sup>19</sup>Hebron's sons consisted of Jeriah as leader, Amariah second, Jahaziel third, and Jekameam fourth. <sup>20</sup>Uzziel's sons were Micah as leader and Isshiah second.

<sup>21</sup>Finally, the sons of Merari were Mahli and Mushi, the sons of Mahli being Eleazar and Kish. <sup>22</sup>Eleazar died leaving no sons, but only daughters; so their cousins, the sons of Kish, took them in marriage.<sup>b</sup> <sup>23</sup>Mushi's sons were three: Mahli, Eder, and Jeremoth.

<sup>24</sup>These were the descendants of Levi by their clan heads and leaders as they were registered according to the number of their individual names. They were to do the work of the ministry of the LORD's temple from the age of twenty upwards;<sup>c</sup> <sup>25</sup>because David had explained, "The LORD, the God of Israel, has granted peace to His people and has taken up His perpetual dwelling at Jerusalem, <sup>26</sup>so the Levites need no longer carry the tent-dwelling and all the equipment for its service." <sup>27</sup>For by David's last orders, the number of the Levites included those aged twenty and above. <sup>28</sup>Their function was to assist the sons of Aaron to serve the LORD's temple in reference to the courts, the rooms, and the purifying of all that was holy, and for the work of the service of God's temple: <sup>29</sup>for the bread which was set in rows;<sup>d</sup> for the fine flour for the offerings of meal, including the cakes that were not raised with yeast, those from the baking pans, and the well-mixed ones; for every measure of capacity and size; <sup>30</sup>and for standing morning by morning to sing thanks and praise to the LORD, and the same at evening;<sup>e</sup> <sup>31</sup>and at every presentation of burnt offerings to the LORD on the Sabbaths, new moons, and feast days,<sup>f</sup> in such number as was prescribed for them, continually before the LORD. <sup>32</sup>They were to keep charge of the tent of meeting and sanctuary and to carry out the requirements of their fellow tribesmen, the descendants of Aaron, for the service of the LORD's temple.

24 AS FOR THE DESCENDANTS OF Aaron, their divisions were these: the sons of Aaron had been Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar;<sup>g</sup> <sup>2</sup>but when Nadab and Abihu died before their father and left no children, Eleazar and Ithamar ministered as priests. <sup>3</sup>So with the help of Zadok, who was of the descendants of Eleazar, and Ahimelech,<sup>h</sup> who was of Ithamar's sons, David organized them according to their classes for service. <sup>4</sup>Moreover, the descendants of Eleazar were found to be more numerous in respect to leaders than were the descendants of Ithamar; so they organized them under sixteen clan leaders of Eleazar's descendants and eight of Ithamar's.<sup>i</sup> <sup>5</sup>Their assignments were determined by lot, the one group along with the other: for high

a) For this distinctive title, see also Deut. 33:1 and Ps. 90's title.

b) According to the Mosaic Law for the preservation of family property [Num. 36]. This gave the clan of Merari 4 divisions [1 for Mahli and 3 for Mushi], making then, with the 9 each of Gershon and Kohath, 22 Levitical divisions, plus the Aaronic priests.

c) Compare vs. 3. Moses had likewise taken the census of Levites aged thirty and above [Num. 4:3], but later included in the work those of twenty-five and upwards [8:23-26]. The explanation for David's further lowering of the age limit appears in vs. 26.

d) Compare 9:32, the showbread; literally, "bread of His presence."

e) The times of the two regular daily sacrifices [Ex. 29:38, 39].

f) There were the three great annual feasts of Passover, Pentecost, and Tabernacles [Ex. 23:14-17, Deut. 16:16]. g) For the priestly family [compare 6:3-15], and the accompanying notes.

h) The son of Abiathar [vs. 6], and grandson of Ahimelech, who had been high priests in the earlier days of David.

i) The 24 priestly classes continued as the basis for rotating the priestly duties into New Testament times. Although some of these classes died out or had to be consolidated with others, new ones were formed to take their places. In the return from exile, 538 B.C., four registered classes were represented, David's 2nd, 3rd, and 16th, and a new class, Pashhur [Ezra 2:36-39]; and by 520 B.C. 22 were again in operation [Neh. 12:1-7]. Compare vs. 12-21 and 10:2-8.

officers of the sanctuary, God's high officers, had come from the descendants both of Eleazar and of Ithamar; <sup>6</sup>and the secretary from Levi, She-maiah, son of Nethanel, wrote them down in the presence of the king, the princes, Zadok the priest, Ahimelech the son of Abiathar, and the clan leaders of the priests and of the Levites. One clan was drawn for Eleazar and one for Ithamar.

<sup>7</sup>The first lot, then, came out for Jehoiarib; the second for Jedaiah; <sup>8</sup>the third for Harim; fourth, Seorim; <sup>9</sup>fifth, Malchijah; sixth, Mijamin; <sup>10</sup>seventh, Hakkoz; eighth, Abijah; <sup>11</sup>ninth, Jeshua; tenth, Shecaniah; <sup>12</sup>eleventh, Eliashib; twelfth, Jakim; <sup>13</sup>thirteenth, Hupah; fourteenth, Jeshebeab; <sup>14</sup>fifteenth, Bilgah; sixteenth, Immer; <sup>15</sup>seventeenth, Hezir; eighteenth, Iappizzzez; <sup>16</sup>nineteenth, Pethahiah; twentieth, Jehezkel; <sup>17</sup>twenty-first, Jachin; twenty-second, Gamul; <sup>18</sup>twenty-third, Delaiah; and the twenty-fourth, for Maaziah. <sup>19</sup>These made up their classes for service for going into the LORD's temple as prescribed for them through their ancestor Aaron, as the LORD God of Israel had commanded him.

<sup>20</sup>As for remaining descendants of Levi: included among the descendants of Amram were Shubael, <sup>k</sup>among whose sons were Jehdeiah <sup>21</sup>and Rehabiah, the leader of whose sons was Isshiah. <sup>22</sup>For the people of Izhar there was Shelomoth, <sup>1</sup>among whose sons was Jahath. <sup>23</sup>The sons [of Hebron<sup>m</sup> were: first] Jeriah, Amariah second, Jahaziel third, and Jekameam fourth; <sup>24</sup>while the sons of Uzziel were Micah, among whose sons was Shamir <sup>25</sup>and Micah's brother Isshiah, among whose sons was Zechariah. <sup>26</sup>The sons of Merari<sup>n</sup> were Mahli and Mushi; and among the sons of Jaaziah<sup>o</sup> was Beno; <sup>27</sup>in fact, Merari's descendants through Jaaziah were Beno, Shoham, Zaccur, and Ibri. <sup>28</sup>Of Mahli there were Eleazar, who had no sons, <sup>29</sup>and Kish, among whose sons was Jerahmeel; <sup>30</sup>while the sons of Mushi were Mahli, Eder, and Jerimoth. These were the sons of the Levites by their clans. <sup>31</sup>And they also,<sup>p</sup> to correspond with their fellow tribesmen, the descendants of Aaron, cast lots in the presence of King David, Zadok, Ahimelech, and the clan leaders of the priests and the Levites, the head of a clan being treated in the same way as his younger brother.

971-970 B.C.

25 DAVID AND THE HIGH ARMY OFFICERS next set apart for the service certain of the sons of Asaph, Heman, and Jeduthun, who should prophesy with lyres, harps, and cymbals. In reference to men who could carry out their service, <sup>2</sup>their number for Asaph's sons consisted of Zaccur, Joseph, Nethaniah, and Ashareliah, sons of Asaph and under his direction, Asaph prophesying<sup>q</sup> under the direction of the king. <sup>3</sup>As for Jeduthun, Jeduthun's sons were: Gedaliah, Zeri, Jeshaiiah, Shimei, Hashabiah, and Mattithiah, a total of six, who were under the direction of their father, Jeduthun, who with the lyre prophesied in thanksgivings and praises to the LORD. <sup>4</sup>As for Heman, Heman's sons were: Bukkiah, Mattaniah, Uzziel, Shebuel, Jerimoth, Hananiah,<sup>r</sup> Hanani, Eliathah, Giddalti, Romamti-ezer, Joshbekashah, Mallothi, Hothir, and Mahazioth. <sup>5</sup>All these were sons of Heman, the king's seer in the words of God; for God exalted his power by giving He-

j) To this class Zacharias, father of John the Baptist, belonged [Luke 1:5].

k) In 23:16, "Shebuel." l) In 23:18, "Shelomith."

m) "Hebron"; for vss. 20-24 amplify 23:12-20 on the four sons of Levi's son Kohath: Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel.

n) With Kohath and Gershon, one of the three sons of Levi; vss. 26-30 amplify 23:21-23.

o) A descendant of Merari whose precise relationship is not given.

p) The above mentioned list of non-Aaronic Levites. The list includes men from the clans of Kohath and Merari only, the special activities of Gershon being other than assisting in the temple worship.

q) Many of the O.T. prophecies are in poetic form; and much of the poetry is of prophetic nature, God's messages for His people. Compare the faith shown by the poem that Heman used to name his last nine sons [note to vs. 4], and such Psalms as 50 and 73-83 by Asaph and his descendants.

r) Starting with the sixth son, Hananiah, the names, when translated from Hebrew, form the following prayer of Heman about his work as a singer: [6] Be gracious, O LORD; [7] Be Thou gracious to me! [8] My God, Thee; [9] I have praised; [10] And exalted for helping; [11] Though sitting forlorn; [12] I have proclaimed; [13] Highest; [14] Visions.

man fourteen sons and three daughters. <sup>6</sup>They were all under the direction of their father to sing in the temple of the LORD,<sup>a</sup> for the service of God's temple with cymbals, harps, and lyres. Asaph, Jeduthun, and Heman were under the direction of the king. <sup>7</sup>The number of them along with their fellow tribesmen who were trained in singing to the LORD was 288, each one a master musician.

<sup>8</sup>The singers cast lots for their assignments, the younger in the same way as the older, the master as well as the student.<sup>t</sup> <sup>9</sup>The first lot came out for Asaph to Joseph; the second for Gedaliah, he and his fellow tribesmen and sons making a total of twelve. <sup>10</sup>the third for Zaccur, with his sons and fellow tribesmen, twelve; <sup>11</sup>the fourth for Izri,<sup>u</sup> with his sons and fellow tribesmen, twelve; made up in the same way, <sup>12</sup>fifth, Nethaniah; <sup>13</sup>sixth, Bukkiah; <sup>14</sup>seventh, Jesharelah; <sup>15</sup>eighth, Jeshaiiah; <sup>16</sup>ninth, Mattaniah; <sup>17</sup>tenth, Shimei; <sup>18</sup>eleventh, Azarel; <sup>19</sup>twelfth, Hashabiah; <sup>20</sup>thirteenth, Shubael; <sup>21</sup>fourteenth, Mattithiah; <sup>22</sup>fifteenth, Jeremoth; <sup>23</sup>sixteenth, Hananiah; <sup>24</sup>seventeenth, Josbekashah; <sup>25</sup>eighteenth, Hanani; <sup>26</sup>nineteenth, Mallothi; <sup>27</sup>twentieth, Eliathah; <sup>28</sup>twenty-first, Hothir; <sup>29</sup>twenty-second, Giddalti; <sup>30</sup>twenty-third, Mahazioth; <sup>31</sup>and the twenty-fourth, for Romamti-ezer, with his sons and fellow tribesmen, twelve.

971-970 B.C.

26 AS FOR THE CLASSES OF THE gatekeepers: belonging to the descendants of Korah<sup>v</sup> was Meshelemiah the son of Kore, of the sons of Asaph. <sup>2</sup>Meshelemiah had sons: Zechariah the first-born, second Jediael, third Zebadiah, fourth Jathniel, <sup>3</sup>fifth Elam, sixth Jehohanan, and seventh Eliehoenai. <sup>4</sup>Obed-edom<sup>w</sup> also had sons: Shemaiah the first-born, second Jehozabad, third Joah, fourth Sacar, fifth Nethanel, <sup>5</sup>sixth Ammiel, seventh Issachar, and eighth Peullethai; because God had blessed him. <sup>6</sup>To his son Shemaiah were born sons, who became ruler over their clans because they were mighty heroes. <sup>7</sup>Shemaiah's sons, then, were Othni, Rephael, Obed, and Elzabad, and his able brothers, Elihu and Semachiah. <sup>8</sup>All these, they and their sons and brothers, were among the descendants of Obed-edom, mighty men with capacity for the service, the total for Obed-edom being sixty-two. <sup>9</sup>Meshelemiah likewise had sons and brothers who were men of ability, totalling eighteen. <sup>10</sup>Then there was Hosah,<sup>x</sup> of the descendants of Merari, who had sons: Shimri, the leader (for though he was not the first-born, still his father had made him chief); <sup>11</sup>second Hilkiah, third Tebaliah, and fourth Zechariah. All the sons and brothers of Hosah numbered thirteen.

<sup>12</sup>To these classes of the gatekeepers, that is, to the leaders of the men along with their relatives, were assigned various watches for them to serve in the LORD's temple. <sup>13</sup>They cast lots according to their clans, the younger in the same way as the older, gate by gate. <sup>14</sup>The lot to the east fell to Shelemiah;<sup>y</sup> after which they cast lots for his son Zechariah, a counselor who had insight, and his lot came out northward. <sup>15</sup>For Obed-edom it was to the south; for his sons, at the storehouse; <sup>16</sup>and for Shuppim<sup>z</sup> and Hosah, to the west, by the gate of Shellecheth on the highway that goes up,<sup>a</sup> watch following

s) Including the daughters, it would seem.

t) Because the division by lot into classes seems to have included all 4,000 of the singers [23:5], not just the 288 master musicians.

u) In vs. 3, "Zeri"; compare similar spelling variants for the leaders of the 7th, 11th, 13th, and 15th classes.

v) The notorious Levite who rebelled against Moses; see 6:22 and 9:19 with the accompanying notes. From 9:19 it appears that the full spelling of Kore's father's name was Ebiasaph. "Asaph" could not be the famous musician of that name who belonged to the clan of Gershon, because Korah, and his descendants who were to guard the temple gates, belonged to the clan of Kohath.

w) The Levite who had received God's blessing when he kept the ark after the death of Uzza [13:13, 14]. For his appointment, see 15:24, 25 and 16:38.

x) Appointed at the same time as Obed-edom [see 16:38]. The number there mentioned, 68, had increased to 93 men (18 plus 62 plus 13), who constituted the leaders for the total group of the 4,000 gatekeepers [23:5]. y) In vs. 1 and elsewhere, "Meshelemiah."

z) Not otherwise known, but probably, like Hosah, a gatekeeper from the clan of Merari.

a) From the lower city, through the Tyropeon Valley, to the higher elevation of the western side of the temple.

upon watch. <sup>17</sup>To the east were posted six Levites, to the north four each day, to the south four daily, at the storehouse two posts of two each, <sup>18</sup>and at the annex<sup>b</sup> to the west four at the highway and two at the annex itself. <sup>19</sup>These made up the classes of the gatekeepers, who belonged to the descendants of Korah and of Merari.

<sup>20</sup>Among the men of Levi, Ahijah was in charge of the treasures, both those of God's temple and those of the dedicated gifts. <sup>21</sup>Then the sons of Ladan, that is, the sons of Ladan's branch of the family of Gershon, and who specifically were the group of Jehieli;<sup>c</sup> <sup>22</sup>these members of the group of Jehieli, Zetham and his brother Joel, were in charge of the treasures of the Lord's temple. <sup>23</sup>Similarly, for the members of Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel,<sup>d</sup> <sup>24</sup>Shebuel the son of Gershon and grandson of Moses had been the chief treasure-officer; <sup>25</sup>but the line of descent from Eliezer<sup>e</sup> went through Rehabiah, Jeshaiiah, Joram, and Zichri, down to Shelomoth. <sup>26</sup>This Shelomoth and his brothers were in charge of all the treasures of the dedicated gifts which King David, the clan leaders, the commanders of the units of 1000 and 100, and the high army officers had consecrated;<sup>f</sup> <sup>27</sup>for out of the wars and their plunder they had made dedications for the maintenance of the Lord's temple. <sup>28</sup>Shelomith<sup>g</sup> and his brothers, moreover, were in charge of everything that had been consecrated by Samuel the seer, by Saul the son of Kish, by Abner the son of Ner, and by Joab the son of Zeruiah, by every man who had made dedications.

<sup>29</sup>Among the members of Izhar, Chenaniah and his sons were appointed to the outside work over Israel, to act as officers and judges. <sup>30</sup>Then from the members of Hebron, Hashabiah and his relatives, who numbered 1,700 able men, had the oversight of that part of Israel that lay west of the Jordan, both for all the Lord's work and for the service of the king. <sup>31</sup>Also from the members of Hebron was the leader Jerijah, because in the fortieth year of the reign of David, men of Hebron were picked out by their clan genealogies, when mighty warriors among them were found at Jazer in Gilead. <sup>32</sup>His relatives numbered 2,700 men of power, clan leaders whom King David appointed over the men of Reuben, Gad, and the half-tribe of Manasseh<sup>h</sup> for every affair of God and the king.

971-970 B.C.

27 THE PEOPLE OF ISRAEL BY their number, the clan leaders, the commanders of units of 1,000 and 100 and their officers who served the king in all the affairs of the military units were organized into army corps that were called to active duty and then released month by month throughout all the months of the year, each corps of which consisted of 24,000 men. <sup>2</sup>Over the first corps, active in the first month, was Jashobeam<sup>i</sup> the son of Zabdiel, his unit consisting of 24,000. <sup>3</sup>He was of the descendants of Perez<sup>j</sup> and was commander of all the officers of the corps for the first month. <sup>4</sup>Over the corps for the second month was Dodai, the descendant of Ahoah, in whose unit, which also consisted of 24,000, was Mikloth as the executive officer. <sup>5</sup>The commander of the third corps for the third month was Benaiah the son of Jehoiada the priest, one of the high officers, his unit likewise consisting of 24,000. <sup>6</sup>He was that Benaiah<sup>k</sup> who was a hero among the thirty, and indeed over the thirty.

b) The form is uncertain, perhaps a colonnade or court.

c) Jehiel, Zetham, and Joel were sons of Ladan; but Jehiel was the accepted leader among the brothers [23:7]. d) The divisions of the clan of Kohath.

e) The brother of Shebuel's father Gershon [23:15-17].

f) See 18:11 and II Chron. 5:1 for David's devotion in this regard.

g) A variant spelling for Shelomoth; comp. vs. 25 and 26.

h) The tribes of Israel east of the Jordan being dedicated to God's law, the Levites could be entrusted with important public offices.

i) These "lieutenant generals" who commanded the twelve corps were distinguished military figures and are elsewhere described, with occasional variant spellings of their names.

j) One of the two chief divisions of the tribe of Judah [2:4].

k) See 11:22-25 and the note to 11:11.

His son Ammizabad was in his own contingent. <sup>7</sup>The fourth, for the fourth month, was Asahel the brother of Joab, whose place was taken by his son Zebadiah after him, his unit consisting of 24,000 men. <sup>8</sup>The fifth commander for the fifth month was Shammuth of the clan of Izrah,<sup>1</sup> his unit consisting of 24,000 men; <sup>9</sup>and, in the same way, sixth, Ira son of Ikkeish, from Tekoa; <sup>10</sup>seventh, Helez from Beth-pelet, of the descendants of Ephraim; <sup>11</sup>eighth, Sibbecai from Hushai, of the clan of Zerah; <sup>12</sup>ninth, Abiezer from Anathoth, of the men of Benjamin; <sup>13</sup>tenth, Maharai from Netophah, of the clan of Zerah; <sup>14</sup>eleventh, Benaiah from Pirathon, of the descendants of Ephraim; <sup>15</sup>and the twelfth, for the twelfth month, was Heldai from Netophah, of the family of Othniel,<sup>m</sup> his unit like the others consisting of 24,000 men.

<sup>16</sup>Then there were those over the tribes of Israel: for the men of Reuben, the tribal prince Eliezer the son of Zichri; for the men of Simeon, Shephatiah the son of Maacah; <sup>17</sup>for Levi, Hashabiah the son of Kemuel, with Zadok over Aaron's section; <sup>18</sup>for Judah, Elihu,<sup>n</sup> one of David's brothers; for Issachar, Omri the son of Michael; <sup>19</sup>for Zebulun, Ishmaiah the son of Obadiah; for Naphtali, Jeremoth the son of Azriel; <sup>20</sup>for the descendants of Ephraim, Hoshea the son of Azariah; <sup>21</sup>for the half-tribe of Manasseh, Joel the son of Pedaiiah; and for the Gilead half of Manasseh, Iddo the son of Zechariah; for Benjamin, Jaasiel the son of Abner;<sup>o</sup> <sup>22</sup>and for Dan, Azarel the son of Jeroham. These were the princes of the tribes of Israel. <sup>23</sup>David, however, did not take the number of those who were twenty years old and under, because the LORD had promised to multiply Israel like the stars of heaven.<sup>p</sup> <sup>24</sup>Joab the son of Zeruiah did begin a census, but he never completed it. Moreover, because of it there was anger against Israel, and the total was not entered in the figures of King David's chronicle.

<sup>25</sup>The man in charge of the king's treasures was Azmaveth the son of Adiel; while over the stores of supplies in the field, the cities, the villages, and the fortified points, was Jonathan the son of Uziah. <sup>26</sup>Over those who did the field work for tilling the soil was Ezri the son of Chelub; <sup>27</sup>over the vineyards, Shimei of Ramah; over the produce of the vineyards for the wine cellars, Zabdi from Shiphmoth; <sup>28</sup>over the olive and mulberry trees in the lowland<sup>q</sup> arca, Baal-hanan from Geder; over the stores of oil, Joash; <sup>29</sup>over the herds that grazed in Sharon, Shitrai who was himself of Sharon, and over those in the valleys, Shaphat the son of Adlai; <sup>30</sup>over the camels, Obil of Ishmael; over the donkeys, Jehdeiah from Meronoth; <sup>31</sup>and over the flocks, Jaziz the Hagrite. All these were the overseers of the property that belonged to King David.<sup>r</sup> <sup>32</sup>David's uncle Jonathan, being a man of understanding and literary ability, was a counselor; Jehiel the son of a man of Hachmon tutored the king's sons; <sup>33</sup>Ahithophel was counselor to the king, though Hushai of Erech was the king's confidant; <sup>34</sup>and after Ahithophel,<sup>s</sup> the post was filled by Jehoiada the son of Benaiah and by Abiathar. The commander of the king's armed forces was Joab.

970 B.C.

28 DAVID ASSEMBLED AT JERUSALEM all the leaders of Israel, including the tribal princes, the officers of the army corps that served the king, the commanders of the units of 1000 and 100, and the overseers of all the property and livestock that belonged

1) The other chief division of Judah [2:4].

m) The first of the Hebrew judges [Judg. 1:13; 3:9-11]. n) Elsewhere called Eliab [2:13].

o) The famous general and uncle of King Saul from Benjamin, [26:28 and I Sam. 14:50; compare with I Chron. 8:33; 9:39].

p) The promise given over 1,000 years before to Abraham [Gen. 22:17]. David, therefore, did not order a total numbering of the people, which would have left the impression of questioning the prophecy. He had, however, through lack of faith in the power of God to protect his kingdom, taken a sinful census of the men of fighting age [21:1-8].

q) Hebrew "Shephelah," between the Philistine coastal plain and the inland Judean hills.

r) This list of high officials supplements the earlier "cabinet" presented in 18:15-17 and II Sam. 20:23-26.

s) Ahithophel had deserted David for Absalom [II Sam. 15:12,31 and 16:20-23], but when thwarted by Hushai [15:32,37 and 17:1-16] had committed suicide [17:23].

to the king and his sons, together with the officials, the mighty men, and every powerful hero. <sup>2</sup>Then King David rose to his feet and said, "Hear me, my brothers and my people. I myself had in mind to build a temple as a resting place for the ark of the LORD's covenant and for the footstool of our God,<sup>t</sup> even making preparations for building. <sup>3</sup>But God told me: You are not to build a temple to My name, because you are a man of wars and bloodshed;<sup>u</sup> <sup>4</sup>even though the LORD, the God of Israel, had chosen me from all my father's house to be king over Israel forever.<sup>v</sup> For He did indeed choose Judah to be ruler and within the tribe of Judah my father's house and among my father's sons He chose me to be made king over the whole of Israel."<sup>w</sup>

<sup>5</sup>"Then out of all my sons, because the LORD has given me many children, He chose my son Solomon to sit on the throne of the LORD's dominion over Israel. <sup>6</sup>He told me, moreover: Your son Solomon, he will build My house and My courts — for I have chosen that one to be My son, and I will be his Father <sup>7</sup>and I will establish his kingdom forever, if he loyally carries out my commands and judgments as is done at present. <sup>8</sup>Now therefore, in the sight of all Israel, which is the assembly of the LORD, and in the hearing of our God, be careful to follow all the commands of the LORD your God, so that you may retain possession of this good land and transmit it as an inheritance to your children after you for ever.

<sup>9</sup>"As for you, my son Solomon, acknowledge your father's God and serve Him wholeheartedly with a willing mind, for the LORD searches all hearts and understands every development of the thoughts; if you seek Him, He will be found by you, but if you leave Him,

He will reject you for ever. <sup>10</sup>Take note now, for the LORD has chosen you to build a house for the sanctuary. Be strong and do it!"

<sup>11</sup>Then David handed his son Solomon the plans for the porch and the temple structures, its treasuries, upper rooms, inner rooms, and the place for the mercy seat.<sup>x</sup> <sup>12</sup>The plans, moreover, included all that came by the Spirit, who was with him:<sup>y</sup> the courts of the house of the LORD; all the surrounding rooms for the treasuries of God's temple and the treasuries of the dedicated gifts; <sup>13</sup>for the divisions of the priests and of the Levites, for any work of the service of the LORD's temple; and for all the equipment used in this service, <sup>14</sup> requisite weight in gold for all the articles of every kind of service; all the silver objects by weight for all the articles of every kind of service; <sup>15a</sup> a weight in gold for the golden lampstands and their lamps according to the weight of each lampstand and its lamps; and the silver lampstands in agreement with the weight of each lampstand, and its lamps corresponding to the service of each lampstand; <sup>16</sup> also the weight in gold for the tables of the bread which was set in rows,<sup>z</sup> table by table, and the silver for the silver tables; <sup>17</sup> the forks, the basins, and the jars made of pure gold, and the golden bowls by weight for each bowl and the silver bowls by weight for each bowl; <sup>18</sup> the incense altar made with refined gold by weight; and the plans for the chariot,<sup>a</sup> the golden cherubim that spread out and made a covering over the ark of the LORD's covenant. <sup>19</sup>"The LORD has given instructions in writing from His hand, which," (said David,) "came upon me, about all this, all the working out of the plans."

<sup>20</sup>So David told his son Solomon, "Be strong and courageous, and do it!

t) The "mercy seat," that covered the ark and above which the cloud of God's glorious presence appeared [cf. II Sam. 22:11 and the footnote].

u) Compare 22:7-16 and the notes. David had spoken of these matters with Solomon privately.

v) His dynasty, culminating in Christ, would be eternal [17:11].

w) For this progressively narrowing choice, see Gen. 49:8-10, I Sam. 16:1-13, and I Chron. 22:9-10. x) See the note on vs. 2.

y) Comp. vs. 19; the plans for the temple were divinely inspired, as had been those of Moses' tabernacle [Ex. 25:9, 40; 27:8]. Objects and their arrangement were typical of the way salvation was to be accomplished by Christ [Heb. 8-9, especially 8:5]. z) Comp. 9:32.

a) Cherubim are angelic beings, appearing in human form but also having wings [Ezek. 1:5; comp. Ezek. 10:1]. God's "riding upon" them [II Sam. 22:11], seems to be associated with His glorious presence between the cherubim on the ark [see I Chron. 13:6; Ex. 25:20-21].

Do not fear; be not downhearted, for the LORD God, my God, is with you. He will not abandon you; He will not leave you until all the work of attending to the LORD's temple is completed. <sup>21</sup>Look at the divisions of the priests and of the Levites for all the service of God's temple! Furthermore, for each task you will have with you all kinds of volunteers with skill for any task, along with the leaders as well as the whole people for all your orders."

970 B.C.

29 KING DAVID THEN WENT ON TO address the whole assembly, "My son Solomon, the one whom alone God has chosen, is still a youth and inexperienced;<sup>b</sup> the work, however, is great, because the edifice is not to be for man but for the LORD God. <sup>2</sup>For this temple of my God, therefore, I have, to the best of my ability, prepared gold, silver, bronze, iron, and timbers, each for its appropriate use, carnelian stones and jewels for settings, stones for hard mortar and mosaics, all kinds of precious stones, and large quantities of alabaster. <sup>3</sup>Furthermore, because of my deep interest in my God's temple, I have, over and beyond all I have provided for the sacred temple, a private treasure of gold and silver, which I have designated for the temple of my God: 393,000 pounds of gold of the kind that comes from Ophir<sup>c</sup> and 815,000 pounds of refined silver<sup>d</sup> for overlaying the walls of the buildings; <sup>5</sup>gold for the gold articles and silver for the silver things, and for any assignment at the hands of the engravers. So now, who will make a voluntary offering this day, consecrating himself to the LORD?"

<sup>6</sup>At that, the clan leaders, Israel's tribal princes, the commanders of the units of 1000 and 100, and the supervisors of the king's business responded with a voluntary offering <sup>7</sup>and gave for the service of God's temple 655,000<sup>e</sup> pounds plus 50,000 dollars worth<sup>f</sup> of gold, 1,164,000 pounds of silver, 1,656,000 pounds of bronze, and 9,200,000 pounds of iron.<sup>g</sup> <sup>8</sup>Also, whoever found precious stones in his possession delivered them over to the treasury of the LORD's temple under the direction of Jehiel,<sup>h</sup> descended from Gershon. <sup>9</sup>The people, moreover, rejoiced over their freewill offering, because they offered to the LORD voluntarily and wholeheartedly.<sup>i</sup> King David too felt deeply happy.

<sup>10</sup>In the presence then of the whole assembly, David expressed his adoration to the LORD. David declared, "Blessed be Thou, LORD God of our father Israel,<sup>j</sup> from eternity to eternity. <sup>11</sup>Thine, O LORD, is the greatness, the power, the glory, the pre-eminence, and the majesty;<sup>k</sup> for everything in heaven and earth is Thine. Thine, O LORD, is the dominion and the exalting of Thyself as head over all. <sup>12</sup>Wealth and honor come from Thy presence; Thou art the ruler over all. In Thy hand are power and might; it lies in Thy hand to make anything great or strong. <sup>13</sup>So now, our God, we are offering thanks to Thee and are praising Thy glorious name; — <sup>14</sup>Yet who am I, or who are my people, that we should have the ability to make such a voluntary offering? For everything comes from Thee, and it is from Thine own hand that we have given back to Thee.<sup>l</sup> <sup>15</sup>We are mere tenants before Thee, temporary residents, as all our ancestors have been; our days on the earth are like a shadow,

b) This section contains thoughts similar to those expressed at the time David commenced his preparations for the temple [see 22:5,14].

c) High quality [see II Chron. 8:18; 9:10].

d) Troy weight; Hebrew, 3000 gold and 7000 silver talents, or about $90,000,000, and $14,000,000, respectively [cf. 22:14]. In ancient days, however, its purchasing power was much greater. e) Troy weight; Hebrew, 5000 gold talents, or about $150,000,000.

f) 10,000 darics, Persian gold coin worth about $5. It circulated when Chronicles was written in the days after the exile, so the author [Ezra?] used it to describe this offering in 970 B.C., when coining had still been unknown.

g) Troy weight; Hebrew 10,000, 18,000, and 100,000 talents respectively. The silver would be worth about $20,000,000. h) The official family of temple treasures [26:21-22].

i) As all offerings to God should be [II Cor. 9:7]. j) Jacob [Gen. 32:28].

k) From these praises come the words at the close of our Lord's prayer [Matt. 6:13].

l) This is the basis of stewardship. Everything we have and are is from God, being held in trust by us, and it should therefore be used for Him.

I CHRONICLES 29

and we are without permanence. <sup>16</sup>O LORD our God, all this abundance that we have provided to build Thee a house for Thy holy name comes from Thy hand; all of it is Thine!

<sup>17</sup>"But O my God, I know that Thou dost test the heart and dost take pleasure in what is right; so I, in the honesty of my heart, willingly offered all these things. Now then, with what gladness have I seen Thy people, who are present here, make a voluntary offering to Thee! <sup>18</sup>O LORD, the God of our fathers Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, preserve this for ever as the attitude of the thoughts of Thy people's hearts; and direct their hearts toward Thyself. <sup>19</sup>And grant my son Solomon a heart of integrity to carry out Thy commands, Thy solemn charges, and Thy statutes to do everything and to erect the edifice, for which I have made the preparations."

<sup>20</sup>Then David directed all the assembly, "Now bless the LORD your God!" So the whole assembly expressed their adoration of the LORD God of their fathers, bowing down and prostrating themselves to the LORD and to the king. <sup>21</sup>The following day they made sacrifices to the LORD and offered to the LORD burnt offerings: 1,000 each of bullocks, rams, and lambs, with their corresponding drink offerings, also a large number of sacrifices for all

King and People Unite in Thanksgiving

Israel.<sup>m</sup> <sup>22</sup>Thus they ate and drank that day with great joy in the presence of the LORD. Then for a second time they made David's son Solomon king and anointed him as ruler for the LORD,<sup>n</sup> with Zadok as priest. <sup>23</sup>So Solomon took his seat on the LORD's throne as king in the place of his father David; he prospered, and all Israel became obedient to him, <sup>24</sup>all the officers and men of power, as well as the whole number of King David's sons,<sup>o</sup> rendering their submission to Solomon the king. <sup>25</sup>The LORD, moreover, highly magnified Solomon in the eyes of all Israel, bestowing upon him royal majesty such as no king over Israel before him had enjoyed.

970 B.C.

<sup>26</sup>David the son of Jesse was king of all Israel. <sup>27</sup>The time he reigned over Israel was forty years, ruling seven years in Hebron and thirty-three years in Jerusalem. <sup>28</sup>Then at a good old age he died, advanced in years, wealthy and honored, and with his own son Solomon taking up the rule after him. <sup>29</sup>Now the affairs of King David, from first to last, are recorded in the works of Samuel the seer, Nathan the prophet, and Gad the receiver of visions, <sup>30</sup>together with all his reign and power and the times that transpired for him, for Israel, and for all the kingdoms of the lands.

m) Probably "offerings of peace," which were eaten by the people in a feast, as the LORD's guests.
n) He had already been proclaimed king, but probably there was but one anointing [23:1 and see I Kings 1]. Confirmatory rites were of value, particularly where there had been a disputed succession. Cf. I Sam. 10:24 and 11:15, on Saul.

o) Particularly Adonijah, his older brother, who had attempted to take the throne [I Kings 1:53].

THE SECOND BOOK OF

CHRONICLES<sup>a</sup>

970 B.C.

1 SOLOMON, THE SON OF DAVID, WAS established in his kingdom, for the LORD his God was with him and magnified him greatly. <sup>2</sup>Then Solomon, when he had given the word to all Israel, to the leaders of thousands and of hundreds, to the judges, and to every prince of Israel and all the heads of clans, <sup>3</sup>went with the whole congregation to the high place in Gibeon, because at that place was God's meeting-tent—the one which Moses, the LORD's servant, had made in the wilderness. <sup>4</sup>For, though David had brought the ark of God from Kiriath-jearim to a prepared place in Jerusalem where he had pitched a tent for it,<sup>b</sup> <sup>5</sup>the bronze altar, made by Bezaleel son of Uri, son of Hur, still stood in front of the LORD's tabernacle, and Solomon and the assembly resorted to that place. <sup>6</sup>There Solomon sacrificed before the LORD on the bronze altar of the meeting-tent, presenting on it 1000 burnt offerings.

<sup>7</sup>That night God appeared to Solomon and said to him: What shall I give you? Ask Me! <sup>8</sup>Solomon answered God, "Thou didst treat David my father with much loving-kindness and hast made me king in his place. <sup>9</sup>Now, O LORD God, confirm Thy promise to David my father,<sup>c</sup> since Thou hast made me king over a people as numerous as the dust of the earth. <sup>10</sup>Give me wisdom and knowledge that I may properly conduct myself before this people, for who is able to govern this great people of Thine?"

<sup>11</sup>Then God replied to Solomon: Because you had this in mind and did not ask for wealth, riches, and honor, or the death of your adversaries, or even for long life, but rather asked for yourself wisdom and knowledge so as to govern wisely My people over whom I have made you king, <sup>12</sup>therefore, wisdom and knowledge are granted you, and I will add to these wealth, riches, and honor such as none of your royal predecessors have had, nor will any successor compare with you. <sup>13</sup>So Solomon returned to Jerusalem from the high place of Gibeon, from before the congregation's meeting-tent; and he reigned over Israel.

<sup>14</sup>Solomon amassed chariots and cavalry<sup>d</sup> so that he had 1400 chariots and 12,000 cavalry, which he stationed in the chariot cities and with the king at Jerusalem. <sup>15</sup>The king also made silver and gold as common in Jerusalem as stones, and cedars as plentiful as are sycamore trees in the lowland. <sup>16</sup>Solomon's horses were imported from Egypt, a caravan of the king's traders purchasing each drove for a set price. <sup>17</sup>They brought a chariot out of Egypt for 400 dollars in silver, and a horse for 100,<sup>e</sup> for in this way they were export agents<sup>f</sup> also for all the kings of the Hittites and of Syria.

a) II Chronicles continues I Chronicles as part of one originally unified book.

b) The old tabernacle and bronze altar were at Gibeon, though David had prepared a place in Jerusalem for the ark as described in I Chron. 15. c) Recorded in I Chron. 22:9,10.

d) An early mistake of Solomon; accumulation of horses was divinely disapproved by God [Deut. 17:16]. e) Heb., 600 shekels, and 150 shekels. f) The Israelites had aptitude as middlemen.

II CHRONICLES 2, 3

970 B.C.

2 SOLOMON DETERMINED TO BUILD a temple in honor of the name of the LORD, and a palace for himself; <sup>2</sup>and for this work he enrolled 70,000 burden bearers, 80,000 woodcutters in the mountains, and 3600 foremen over them.

<sup>3</sup>Solomon also sent to Hiram<sup>g</sup> king of Tyre, saying, "You were a great help to David my father in sending him cedars to build himself a house in which to live. <sup>4</sup>Now you will observe that I am about to construct a temple in honor of the name of the LORD my God, to dedicate it to Him so as to offer before Him fragrant incense offerings morning and evening, on Sabbaths and new moons, and at the set occasions of the LORD our God, this being ordained for Israel eternally.

<sup>5</sup>"The temple I am about to build must be great, because our God is greater than all other gods. <sup>6</sup>Yet, who is capable of building Him a temple, since heaven—yes, even the highest heaven—cannot contain Him? Who, indeed, am I that I should build Him a temple, though only to offer incense before Him? <sup>7</sup>So now, send me a skilled craftsman for working in gold, silver, bronze, and iron, and with purple, crimson, and blue, and proficient in carving engravings, along with the experts who are with me in Judah and Jerusalem, whom David my father provided. <sup>8</sup>Also send me cedar, cypress, and red sandalwood from Lebanon,<sup>h</sup> for I realize that your servants are experienced in felling the trees of Lebanon. And I assure you that my servants will work with your servants, <sup>9</sup>to prepare me a large amount of lumber, since the temple I am about to build will be great and marvelous. <sup>10</sup>In addition, I will give to your servants, the woodcutters, 20,000 sacks<sup>i</sup> of threshed wheat, 20,000 sacks of barley, 20,000 barrels<sup>j</sup> of wine, and 20,000 barrels of oil."

Preparations for the Temple

<sup>11</sup>Then Hiram king of Tyre replied in a letter which he sent to Solomon, "Because the LORD loved His people, He has made you king over them. <sup>12</sup>Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, who made the heaven and the earth," continued Hiram, "who has given David the king a wise son possessing understanding and ability to build a temple to the LORD and a palace for himself. <sup>13</sup>So now I will send a master craftsman, my famed Hiram, skilled in understanding—<sup>14</sup>the son of a woman from the people of Dan,<sup>k</sup> whose father was a man of Tyre—expert at working in gold, silver, copper, iron, and stone; in wood, blue, and purple; in fine linen and scarlet, and at carving all kinds of engravings, and at inventing any device assigned him—to work along with your experts and those of my master David your father. <sup>15</sup>Regarding the wheat, barley, oil, and wine which my master mentioned, let him ship it to his servants,<sup>l</sup> <sup>16</sup>and we will cut as much timber of Lebanon as you need and bring it by sea in floats to Joppa, that you may convey it up to Jerusalem."

<sup>17</sup>Then Solomon registered all the aliens in the land of Israel after the census which David his father took of them, and they were found to be 153,600, <sup>18</sup>of whom he made 70,000 burden bearers, 80,000 woodcutters in the mountains, and 3600 foremen to keep the people at work.

966 B.C.

3 SOLOMON BEGAN TO BUILD THE temple of the LORD in Jerusalem on Mount Moriah,<sup>m</sup> where the LORD had appeared to David his father, making preparation at the site chosen by David, on the threshing floor of Ornan<sup>n</sup> the Jebusite. <sup>2</sup>He started building on the second day of the second

g) Heb., "Hiram," called Hiram throughout I and II Kings, but to be distinguished from Hiram, the master craftsman, who is sometimes referred to as "Hiram" in Kings.

h) These are not commands but trade orders. Solomon would pay for deliveries.

i) Heb., "cors." A cor—10 bushels.

j) Heb., "baths." A bath—9 gallons.

k) Probably of Dan by birth, though a widow of a man of Naphtali [I Kings 7:14]. Solomon's choice of a man half-Hebrew undoubtedly was pleasing to his people.

l) King Hiram's workmen, for their daily food.

m) Of redemptive significance because of David's sacrifice there [I Chron. 21:18-30] and as the probable site of Abraham's offering of Isaac [Gen. 22:2 ff., Heb. 11:17].

n) Spelled "Araunah," in II Sam. 24:16.

month<sup>o</sup> during the fourth year of his reign.

<sup>3</sup>This is the foundation which Solomon laid for building the house of God: it was 90 feet long and 30 feet wide. <sup>4</sup>The porch at the front end of the house reached across the 30-foot width of the house and was 180 feet high, covered on the inside with pure gold. <sup>5</sup>He veneered the large room with cypress, overlaid with fine gold on which he designed palms and chain work. <sup>6</sup>The house was decorated with precious stones for beauty; its gold was Parvaim gold,<sup>p</sup> <sup>7</sup>and the structure was overlaid with gold. This included its beams, its sills, its doors, and its walls on which cherubim were carved.

<sup>8</sup>He also constructed the room of the Holy of Holies, measuring 30 by 30 feet—the width of the temple—and overlaid it with 18,000,000 dollars<sup>q</sup> worth of fine gold. <sup>9</sup>The weight of the nails was 26 ounces<sup>r</sup> of gold. The upper rooms also were overlaid with gold.

<sup>10</sup>For the room of the Holy of Holies he made two cherubim of sculptured work, overlaid with gold. <sup>11</sup>Their wingspread totalled 30 feet, since each had one wing 7½ feet long touching the wall of the building and the other wing 7½ feet long, grazing the wing of the other cherub. <sup>12</sup>The two cherubim thus spread across the 30 feet. <sup>13</sup>They stood on their feet, facing the house. <sup>14</sup>The veil<sup>s</sup> was made of violet, purple, crimson, and fine linen and adorned with cherubim.

<sup>15</sup>Finally, in front of the house he set up two pillars, 52 feet high, each crowned with a 7½-foot capital. <sup>16</sup>He made chains in the inner room to put on top of the pillars, fashioning also 100 pomegranates,<sup>t</sup> which he attached to the chains. <sup>17</sup>Thus he erected the pillars in front of the temple, one at the right and one at the left, naming the former Jachin<sup>u</sup> and the latter Boaz.<sup>v</sup>

966 B.C.

4 FURTHERMORE, HE CONSTRUCTED a bronze altar 30 feet long, 30 feet wide, and 15 feet high. <sup>2</sup>He made the cast reservoir<sup>w</sup> circular, 15 feet in diameter and 7½ feet high; a 45-foot tape would reach around it. <sup>3</sup>Figures like oxen stood around within the 15-foot diameter underneath the reservoir and surrounded it; these were cast in two rows, simultaneously with its casting. <sup>4</sup>The reservoir rested on top of 12 oxen, three of them facing north, three west, three south, and three east, and all having their rear sections inward. <sup>5</sup>It was a handbreadth thick with a brim made like a cup's brim, like a lily blossom; when full, it held 3,000 barrels.<sup>x</sup> <sup>6</sup>He fashioned ten basins for washing, placing five at the right side and five at the left, in which they rinsed what was to become the burnt offering; but the reservoir was for the priests to wash in.

<sup>7</sup>He molded ten golden lampstands according to pattern and set them in the temple, five on the right hand and five on the left. <sup>8</sup>He also built ten tables and placed them in the temple, five to the right and five to the left, and he made a hundred golden bowls. <sup>9</sup>Further, he constructed the priests' court and the great court, with its doors, and he overlaid their doors with bronze. <sup>10</sup>He put the reservoir on the right side of the temple, facing southeast. <sup>11</sup>Huram<sup>y</sup> made the pots, shovels, and basins.

So Hiram finished doing the work which he was to do for King Solomon for the house of God: <sup>12</sup>two pillars, the bowls, and the capitals on top of the two pillars, the two pieces of network to cover these two bowls of the capitals surmounting the pillars, <sup>13</sup>four hundred pomegranates for the two pieces of network, two rows of pomegranates for each piece of network to cover the two bowls of the capitals on the pillars. <sup>14</sup>It was he who made the

o) The month Ziv [I Kings 6:1] which began in mid-April.

p) Probably named for the region where it was mined, as Ophir in S.E. Arabia mentioned in ch. 9:10, Job 28:16. q) Heb., "600 talents." A talent—92 lb. Troy.

r) Heb., "50 shekels," or 400 dollars. A shekel—.512 oz.

s) Which hung in front of the Holy of Holies.

t) A common Palestinian fruit, looking somewhat similar to an apple. u) "He shall establish." v) "Strength," or "In it is strength." w) Heb., "the sea," so called because of its great size; it was a huge basin used by the priests for washing.

x) See ch. 2:10. y) Of Tyre, under orders of King Solomon.

stands and the basins on the stands, <sup>16</sup>the reservoir, and the twelve oxen under it.

<sup>16</sup>Now Hiram, his honored craftsman, had used polished bronze to make for King Solomon the pots, shovels, pronged meat-forks, and all their equipment for the house of the LORD. <sup>17</sup>The king did his casting in the Jordan plain in the clay ground between Succoth and Zeredah. <sup>18</sup>Solomon made so large a number of all these articles that the weight of the bronze was not calculated.

<sup>19</sup>Solomon made out of fine gold all the things which were for the temple of God, including the golden altar, the tables which held the showbread, <sup>20</sup>the lampstands and their lamps which, by commandment, were to burn in front of the inner room; <sup>21</sup>even the flowers, lamps, and tongs were of gold—perfect gold! <sup>22</sup>The snuffers, basins, spoons, and fire pans, too, were of fine gold. Even the doorway of the house, the inner doors to the Holy of Holies, and the doors of the house—that is, the temple—were of gold.

960 B.C.

5 AT VARIOUS TIMES, WHILE THE work which Solomon did for the house of the LORD was being finished, he brought the things which David his father had dedicated,<sup>a</sup> both the silver and the gold, and all the items, to store them in the treasuries of the house of God.

<sup>2</sup>Then Solomon assembled in Jerusalem the elders of Israel and all the tribal heads, princes of the clans of the people of Israel, to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD from the city of David, which is Zion. <sup>3</sup>So, when all the men of Israel were gathered to the king at the feast—the feast of the seventh month<sup>a</sup>—<sup>4</sup>then all the elders of Israel presented themselves, <sup>5</sup>and the Levites lifted up the ark.<sup>b</sup> The priests and Levites brought up the ark, the meeting-tent, and all the sacred articles which were in the tent. <sup>6</sup>Then King Solomon and all the congregation of Israel, which was assembled with him in front of the ark, sacrificed so many sheep and oxen that they could neither be numbered nor calculated. <sup>7</sup>So the priests brought the ark of the covenant of the LORD into its place under the wings of the cherubim in the Holy of Holies, in the inner chamber of the temple. <sup>8</sup>For the cherubim stretched out their wings over the place for the ark, so that these formed a covering over the whole ark and its carrying poles. <sup>9</sup>These poles, however, were so long that their ends beyond the ark were visible at the front of the inner room but did not show outside, and it remains there up to the present. <sup>10</sup>Nothing was in the ark except the two tablets which Moses had put there at Horeb,<sup>c</sup> where the LORD had made a covenant with the people of Israel, when they came out of Egypt.

<sup>11</sup>Then the priests went out of the holy place; for all the priests who were present had dedicated themselves, not observing the priestly rotation.<sup>d</sup> <sup>12</sup>All the singing Levites, too, Asaph, Heman, Jeduthun, and their sons and brothers, dressed in fine linen, were standing at the east of the altar with cymbals, lyres, and harps, along with 120 priests who sounded the trumpets. <sup>13</sup>Then the trumpeters and singers united to lead out as one voice to praise and give thanks to the LORD. They also burst out with the sound of trumpets, cymbals, and instruments of music in praise to the LORD, "Because He is good, because His loving-kindness is everlasting." It was then that the house, the LORD's temple, was filled with a cloud, <sup>14</sup>so that the priests were not able to stand to minister because of the cloud, for the glory of the LORD filled the house of God.

960 B.C.

6 SOLOMON SAID, "THE LORD HAS declared that He would dwell in

z) David desired to build the house himself [I Chron. 17], but being forbidden to do so, he made all possible preparations. These treasures had mostly been obtained through his successful warfare.

a) Probably as part of the completion of the temple, the month prior to the completion month mentioned in I Kings 6:38.

b) Only Levites were allowed to do this work [Num. 4:15]—a lesson deeply illustrated by the death of Uzzah [I Chron. 13:1-10] and henceforth strictly observed by David and Solomon [I Chron. 15:2]. c) Commanded in Ex. 25:16; accomplished in Ex. 40:20.

d) On such an important occasion the usual division of ministries was abandoned, all the priests taking part in the ceremony, regardless of their turn to serve.

the heavy cloud.<sup>a</sup> <sup>2</sup>I now have built a residence for Thee, yes, a place for Thy continual presence." <sup>3</sup>Then the king turned around and blessed all the congregation of Israel while the whole Israelite assembly stood.

<sup>4</sup>He said, "Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, who by His hands has brought to pass that which He spoke by His mouth to David my father, saying: <sup>5</sup>From the day that I brought My people out of the land of Egypt I have not chosen any city out of all the tribes of Israel in which to build a house where My name should be, neither have I selected a man to be ruler over My people Israel. <sup>6</sup>But now I have chosen Jerusalem, that My name might be there, and I have chosen David to be over My people Israel." <sup>7</sup>When David my father planned on building a temple to the name of the LORD God of Israel, <sup>8</sup>the LORD said to David my father: You have done well that you had in mind to build a temple to My name; <sup>9</sup>nevertheless, you yourself shall not build the house, but your son, who shall come forth out of your loins, is the one who will build the temple to My name.<sup>e</sup> <sup>10</sup>And the LORD kept His word which He spoke, for I have arisen in the place of David my father and sit on the throne of Israel as the LORD promised; <sup>11</sup>I have now built this temple to the name of the LORD God of Israel, and there I have placed the ark in which is the covenant of the LORD which He made with the children of Israel."

<sup>12</sup>He stood before the altar of the LORD in front of the congregation of Israel and spread forth his hands, <sup>13</sup>for Solomon had made a bronze platform, seven and a half feet square and four and a half feet high, which he had put in the center of the outer court; and he stood upon it, knelt down on his knees before all the congregation of Israel, spread out his hands toward heaven, <sup>14</sup>and said,<sup>h</sup> "O LORD, the God of Israel, there is no God like Thee in heaven or on earth, who dost observe the covenant and faithful love with Thy servants who walk before Thee with all their hearts. <sup>15</sup>Thou hast done for David my father what Thou didst promise him, for Thou hast spoken with Thy mouth and hast performed it with Thy hand just as it is now. <sup>16</sup>So then, O LORD, the God of Israel, keep with thy servant David my father what Thou hast spoken to him, saying: You shall not lack a man in My sight to sit on the throne of Israel, if only<sup>i</sup> your sons will take heed to their way to walk in My Law as you have walked before Me. <sup>17</sup>Now then, O LORD, the God of Israel, make Thy word come true which Thou hast spoken to Thy servant David.

<sup>18</sup>"But will God actually dwell with men upon earth? For see, even heaven, yes, the highest heaven, cannot contain Thee; how much less this house which I have built! <sup>19</sup>Yet, have regard to the prayer and supplication of Thy servant, O LORD my God, to listen to the appeal and the prayer which Thy servant is praying before Thee. <sup>20</sup>Let Thine eyes be open toward this house day and night, even toward this place where Thou didst promise to put Thy name, and listen to the prayer which Thy servant makes toward this place. <sup>21</sup>Be Thou attentive to the supplications of Thy servant and of Thy people Israel when they pray toward this place, and hear Thou from heaven, Thy dwelling place; and when Thou hearest, forgive.

<sup>22</sup>"If a man sins against his neighbor, who then puts him under oath, forcing him to swear, and he comes in to swear the oath before Thine altar in this house, <sup>23</sup>then hear Thou from heaven, take action, and judge between Thy servants, requiting the wicked by bringing his conduct upon his own head and vindicating the righteous by giving to him according to his righteousness.

<sup>24</sup>"Should Thy people Israel be defeated by an enemy because they have sinned against Thee, but they turn

e) Mentioned in Ex. 19:9; Lev. 16:2. f) Note I Chron. 17:4-14. g) Recorded in II Sam. 7:13.

h) Solomon's prayer, one of the most beautiful of Scripture, shows much familiarity with, and reverence for, God's warnings given to all Israel through Moses in Lev. 26, and Deut. 28.

i) Solomon seemed conscious of the condition required for blessing [see I Kings 2:4; 6:12,13]. Note also the frequent reminders to God of His promises — a practice in prayer much used in O.T. [as in Ex. 32:13; Num. 14:18; Neh. 1:8,9; Dan. 9:13].

again to Thee, confess Thy name, pray, and make supplication in this house, <sup>25</sup>then hear Thou from heaven, forgive the sin of Thy people Israel, and bring them back to the land which Thou gavest them and their fathers.<sup>j</sup>

<sup>26</sup>If heaven is shut up so that there is no rain because they have sinned against Thee, but they pray toward this place and confess Thy name, turning also from their sin because Thou hast afflicted them,<sup>k</sup> <sup>27</sup>then hear Thou in heaven, forgive the sin of Thy servants and of Thy people Israel — when Thou shalt instruct them about the good way in which they should walk — and give rain on Thy land which Thou hast given Thy people for an inheritance.

<sup>28</sup>When there is famine in the land, or pestilence, blight or mildew, locust or grasshopper, or when their enemies besiege them in the city areas, or when there is any other plague or disease, <sup>29</sup>then if prayer or supplication be made by any man or by all Thy people Israel — who knows each his own plague and pain, so that he spreads out his hands toward this house — <sup>30</sup>then hear Thou from heaven, Thy dwelling place, and forgive, rendering to each man, whose heart Thou knowest according to all his ways — for only Thou dost know the hearts of the children of men — <sup>31</sup>so that they may revere Thee and walk in Thy ways as long as they live in the land which Thou didst give to our fathers.

<sup>32</sup>Also when a foreigner who is not of Thy people Israel but comes from a distant country<sup>l</sup> because of Thy great name and Thy strong hand and Thine outstretched arm,<sup>m</sup> who shall come and pray toward this house, <sup>33</sup>hear Thou from heaven, Thy dwelling place, and do Thou according to all which the stranger shall request of Thee, so that all people of the earth may know Thy name and revere Thee, as do Thy people Israel, and that they may realize that this house which I have built is called by Thy name.

<sup>34</sup>Should Thy people go to war against their enemies by Thy commission and pray to Thee toward this city which Thou hast chosen and this house which I have built for Thy name, <sup>35</sup>then listen Thou from heaven to their prayer and their supplication and defend their cause. <sup>36</sup>If they sin against Thee — for there is none who does not sin — and Thou be angry with them and dost deliver them to their enemy, so that the victors take them captive to a country either far away or near by, <sup>37</sup>even then, if they take it to heart — while in the country to which they were taken captive — and repent, making supplication to Thee in the country of their captivity, confessing, 'We have sinned; we have acted perversely, we have done wickedly,'<sup>n</sup> <sup>38</sup>and so return to Thee with all their heart and with all their soul in the country of their captivity to which they were taken prisoner, praying toward their own country which Thou gavest to their fathers, and toward this city which Thou hast chosen, toward this house which I have built for Thy name, <sup>39</sup>then hear Thou from heaven, Thy dwelling place, their prayer and their supplication; maintain their right, and forgive Thy people, who have sinned against Thee.

<sup>40</sup>Now, my God, let Thine eyes be open and Thine ears attentive to prayer from this place. <sup>41</sup>Arise now, O LORD God, unto Thy rest, Thou and the ark of Thy strength. Let Thy priests, O LORD God, be robed with salvation, and let Thy saints rejoice in prosperity. <sup>42</sup>O LORD God, do not turn away the face of Thine anointed one.<sup>o</sup> Remember Thy acts of loving-kindness to David Thy servant."

7 WHEN SOLOMON HAD FINISHED praying, fire came down from heaven and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices, and the glory of the LORD filled the temple, <sup>2</sup>so that the priests could not enter the LORD's

j) As every one who leads audibly in public worship should aim to represent before God the needs and aspirations of the group, so Solomon is broad in remembering the situations that will occur among Jehovah's worshippers.

k) "Sorrow works repentance," (II Cor. 7:10; comp. Ps. 119:67,71). l) Missionary interest.

m) Comp. Isa. 52:10, and our "roll up the sleeves," an expression of power and action.

n) Giving vent to deep contrition, as in Ps. 106:6; Dan. 9:5.

o) Formula used when the ark was moved during the wilderness journey and preserved in Ps. 132:8-10; see also Num. 10:35,36.

house because the glory of the LORD had filled His temple.<sup>p</sup> <sup>3</sup>All the people of Israel were looking on, when both the fire and the glory of the LORD came down on the temple — then they bowed down upon the pavement with their faces to the ground and worshiped and gave thanks to the LORD, "Because He is good; because His loving-kindness is everlasting."

<sup>4</sup>Then the king and all the people offered sacrifices before the LORD. <sup>5</sup>King Solomon himself offered a sacrifice of 22,000 oxen and 120,000 sheep; in this manner the king and all the people dedicated the house of God. <sup>6</sup>The priests were standing at their posts, the Levites also with instruments of music for the LORD which David the king had made for giving thanks to the LORD, "Because His loving-kindness is everlasting," when David gave praise through their service. As the priests blew the trumpets before them, all Israel stood. <sup>7</sup>Solomon consecrated the inside of the court which was in front of the LORD's house, where he offered up the burnt offerings and the fat of the peace offerings, for the bronze altar which Solomon had made was not able to hold the burnt offerings and the meal offerings and the fat.

<sup>8</sup>So Solomon at that time held the feast seven days and all Israel with him, a very large gathering from the entrance of Hamath to the brook of Egypt. <sup>9</sup>On the eighth day they held a solemn meeting, for they kept the dedication of the altar seven days and the feast seven days. <sup>10</sup>Finally, on the twenty-third day of the seventh month, he dismissed the people to their tents, joyful and glad-hearted over the good which the LORD had done for David and Solomon and Israel, His people. <sup>11</sup>So Solomon finished the house of the LORD and the king's palace, and he succeeded in all that entered his mind to do in the house of the LORD and in his own palace.

<sup>12</sup>The LORD appeared to Solomon by night and said to him: I have heard your prayer and have selected this place for Myself as a house of sacrifice.<sup>q</sup> <sup>13</sup>If I shut up heaven so there is no rain, or if I command the grasshopper to devour the land, or if I send epidemic among My people, <sup>14</sup>and My people, who are called by My name, humble themselves and pray and seek My face and turn from their evil ways, then I will hear from heaven and forgive their sin and heal their land. <sup>15</sup>My eyes shall be open and My ears attentive to prayer from this place, <sup>16</sup>for I have now chosen and sanctified this house, that My name may be there forever, and My eyes and My heart shall be there always. <sup>17</sup>As for you, if you will walk before Me as David your father walked, obeying all that I have commanded you and observing My laws and judgments, <sup>18</sup>then I will make your kingdom's throne secure just as I covenanted with David your father saying: You shall not lack a man to rule over Israel.

<sup>19</sup>But if you on your part turn away and forsake My laws and My commandments, which I have set before you, and go and serve other gods and worship them, <sup>20</sup>then I will pluck them out of My land, which I gave them, and will cast away from My presence this house which I have sanctified for My own name, making it a byword and a taunt among all peoples. <sup>21</sup>To every passerby there shall be such astonishment over this house, which was exalted, that he will exclaim, "Why has the LORD done so to this land and to this house?" <sup>22</sup>And they will reply, "It is because they forsook the LORD, the God of their fathers, who brought them out from the land of Egypt, and they seized upon other gods and worshiped and served them; therefore He has brought all this calamity against them."

946 B.C.

8 AT THE END OF THE TWENTY years* during which Solomon had built the LORD's house and his own palace, <sup>2</sup>Solomon built up the cities which Hiram had given him* and

p) Probably similar to the occurrence at the dedication of the tabernacle [Ex. 40:34,35].

q) Notice the central place sacrifice held in worship [as in Lev. 17:11; Heb. 9:22].

r) Seven years on the temple [I Kings 6:38]; 13 years on his palace [I Kings 7:1].

s) Probably in the land given to King Hiram [I Kings 9:11-13] but returned by him as unsatisfactory.

made Israelites settle there. <sup>3</sup>Also Solomon went to Hamath-zobah and conquered it. <sup>4</sup>Moreover, he built Tadmor in the wilderness and all the cities that were supply centers in Hamath. <sup>5</sup>He fortified the store-cities Upper Beth-horon and Lower Beth-horon with walls, gates, and bars; <sup>6</sup>also Baalath, and all the cities that were supply centers which Solomon had, and all the chariot cities and the cities for the cavalry. Indeed, Solomon built everything he wanted to construct in Jerusalem, in Lebanon, and in all the land of his dominion.

<sup>7</sup>Now regarding all the people that remained of the Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites, who were not of Israel, <sup>8</sup>from among their descendants who were left after them in the land, whom the children of Israel had not wiped out, Solomon conscripted slave labor, as it is up to the present time. <sup>9</sup>But those who were of the sons of Israel, Solomon did not make into slaves for his work, because they were soldiers and his captains and commanders over his chariotry and cavalry. <sup>10</sup>These were the chiefs of the leaders King Solomon had: 250 men in charge of the people. <sup>11</sup>Solomon also brought up the daughter of Pharaoh<sup>t</sup> from the city of David to the palace he had built for her, because he said, "My wife shall not reside in the house of David king of Israel, inasmuch as those places into which the ark of the Lord has entered are holy."

<sup>12</sup>Solomon then<sup>u</sup> offered burnt offerings to the Lord on the Lord's altar, which he had built in front of the porch, <sup>13</sup>in the daily routine of offering according to Moses' commandment<sup>v</sup> — on the Sabbaths, and new moons, and set feasts, which are three times annually: at the feast of unleavened bread, at the feast of weeks, and at the feast of tabernacles. <sup>14</sup>According to the ordinance of David his father,<sup>w</sup> he appointed the divisions of the priests to their service, and the Levites to their duties of praising and ministering before the priests in the daily routine, and the gatekeepers by their divisions at every gate, for this had been the command of David, the man of God. <sup>15</sup>Indeed, they did not deviate from the king's command to the priests and Levites in any respect, including the treasures. <sup>16</sup>So all the work of Solomon was established from the day of the founding of the house of the Lord, and until its completion when the house of the Lord was finished.

<sup>17</sup>Then Solomon went to Ezion-geber and Elath on the seacoast in the land of Edom; <sup>18</sup>and Hiram by his servants sent him ships and servants who knew the sea, who went with Solomon's servants to Ophir and took from there 13,000,000 dollars<sup>x</sup> in gold and brought it to King Solomon.

946 B.C.

9 WHEN THE QUEEN OF SHEBA<sup>y</sup> heard of Solomon's fame, she came to Jerusalem to test out Solomon with hard questions. She had a large retinue, including camels carrying spices, much gold, and precious stones. During her visit with Solomon, she talked over with him all that she had in mind, <sup>2</sup>and Solomon answered all her questions; indeed, there was not a thing concealed from Solomon which he could not explain to her. <sup>3</sup>Finally, when the queen of Sheba had observed Solomon's wisdom, also the house that he had built, <sup>4</sup>the food for his table, the assembly of his retainers, the attendance of those who waited on him in full dress, his cupbearers, their clothes, and the upright position of his body-guards, it took her breath away. <sup>5</sup>Then she remarked to the king, "The report which I heard in my own country about your affairs and your wisdom was true!" <sup>6</sup>But I did not take their words seriously until I came and saw with my own eyes. Truly, half the greatness of your wisdom was not told me! You excel the report that I heard. <sup>7</sup>Happy are your men, and happy are these your servants, who stand continually before you and hear your wisdom.

<sup>t</sup>) Although Pharaoh's daughter is not included in the "foreign wives" who caused Solomon to sin (1 Kings 11:1), yet she could hardly have joined him in the worship of God.

<sup>u</sup>) With the temple completed, worship was conducted there, not at Gibeon as in ch. 1:3.

<sup>v</sup>) In Lev. 23:37. <sup>w</sup>) Given in 1 Chron. 24.

<sup>x</sup>) Heb., "450 talents." A talent of gold—$30,000. <sup>y</sup>) Kingdom in S. W. Arabia, Aden.

<sup>8</sup>Blessed be the LORD your God who took delight in you, to set you on His throne as king to the LORD your God!<sup>12</sup> It was because your God loved Israel to establish it forever, that He set you as king over them to administer equity and justice."

<sup>9</sup>She also presented to the king $1,680,000<sup>a</sup> in gold and a great quantity of spices and precious stones. There had never been any such spices as that which the queen of Sheba gave to King Solomon, <sup>10</sup>though the servants of both Hiram and Solomon who carried gold from Ophir imported sandalwood and precious stones. <sup>11</sup>With the sandalwood the king made raised walks for the house of the LORD and for the king's palace, as well as lyres and harps for the singers. Previously such as these had never been seen in the land of Judah. <sup>12</sup>Then King Solomon gave to the queen of Sheba everything she wanted and requested, besides what she had brought the king.<sup>b</sup> After this she and her servants turned and departed for their own country.

<sup>13</sup>Now the weight of gold which came to Solomon in one year was $19,980,000<sup>c</sup> in gold, <sup>14</sup>which was in addition to what the merchants and traders brought in; all the kings of Arabia, together with the governors of the land, brought gold and silver to Solomon. <sup>15</sup>Out of beaten gold Solomon made 200 large shields, using $280,000<sup>d</sup> of gold per shield, <sup>16</sup>and 300 smaller shields, using $140,000<sup>d</sup> of gold per shield; these the king assigned to the palace of the forest of Lebanon. <sup>17</sup>The king also fashioned a large throne out of ivory, overlaying it with pure gold. <sup>18</sup>This throne had six steps and a footstool of gold fastened to the throne, with arms on each side by the place of the seat, and two lions standing beside these arms. <sup>19</sup>Twelve lions stood on the six steps, arranged on both sides — never before had such been made for any kingdom. <sup>20</sup>All of King Solomon's drinking service, too, was of gold and the utensils of the palace of the forest of Lebanon were of costly gold — silver was not considered precious during the days of Solomon. <sup>21</sup>For the king had ships that went to Tarshish with Hiram's<sup>e</sup> servants; every three years these ships of Tarshish arrived laden with gold and silver, ivory, apes, and peacocks.

<sup>22</sup>So King Solomon became greater than all the kings of the earth in riches and wisdom. <sup>23</sup>In fact, all the kings of the earth were accustomed to seek audience with Solomon, to hear the wisdom which God had put in his heart. <sup>24</sup>And each used to bring his own gift — silver and gold articles, robes, armor, spices, horses, and mules — a yearly amount. <sup>25</sup>In addition, Solomon had 4000 stalls for horses and chariots, and 12,000 horsemen; these he stationed in the chariot cities and with the king at Jerusalem. <sup>26</sup>He ruled over all the kings from the river<sup>f</sup> to the land of the Philistines and to the border of Egypt. <sup>27</sup>The king made silver as common in Jerusalem as cobblestones, and he made cedars as plentiful as the sycamores which abound in the lowlands. <sup>28</sup>Horses for Solomon were imported from Egypt and from all regions.

<sup>29</sup>As regards the rest of Solomon's affairs, both first and last, are they not recorded in the words of Nathan the prophet, in the prophecy of Ahijah of Shiloh, and in the visions of Iddo the seer about Jeroboam Nebat's son? <sup>30</sup>For forty years Solomon reigned as king in Jerusalem over all Israel. <sup>31</sup>So Solomon slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of his father David; and Rehoboam<sup>g</sup> his son reigned in his place.

930 B.C.

10 REHOBAM WENT TO SHECHEM<sup>a</sup> because all Israel had come to Shechem to make him king. <sup>2</sup>Now Jeroboam, Nebat's son, had been in Egypt, where he had fled for fear of King Solomon,<sup>i</sup> but when he heard of this, he returned from Egypt. <sup>3</sup>They

z) As the Hebrew priest was priest to the LORD, so the king was king to the LORD.

a) Heb., "120 talents."

b) i.e. His exchange gifts corresponded to those presented by her.

c) Heb., "666 talents."

d) Heb., "600 (shekels) of gold," [vs. 15]; "300 (shekels) of gold," [vs. 16]; one shekel— .512 oz.

e) Heb., "Hiram," see note on Ch. 2:3. f) Euphrates. g) "The nation is enlarged."

h) Forewarning of a rebellious attitude — Jerusalem was the proper place. i) I Kings 11:40.

sent and called for him; and so Jeroboam came with all Israel and told Rehoboam, "Your father made our yoke severe; now then, ease up on the burdensome servitude of your father and the heavy yoke that he imposed on us, and we will serve you."<sup>6</sup> He answered them, "Wait for three days and then come to me again." So the people left.

<sup>6</sup>King Rehoboam consulted with the elderly men, who had stood before Solomon his father while he was still alive. "How would you advise me to answer this people?" he asked. <sup>7</sup>They replied to him, "If you will be kind to this people and please them and speak favorable words to them, then they will become your subjects for all time."

<sup>8</sup>But he turned a deaf ear to the advice which these elders recommended and conferred with the young men who had grown up with him and were standing in his presence. <sup>9</sup>To them he also put the question: "What do you advise that we answer this people who have spoken to me, saying, 'Ease up on the yoke which your father put on us?'" <sup>10</sup>The young men who had grown up with him suggested, "In this way you should answer the people who said to you, 'Your father made our yoke severe, but as for you, ease up on our yoke!' This is the way you should reply to them, 'My little finger will be thicker than my father's thighs. <sup>11</sup>Though my father imposed a heavy yoke on you, yet now I will add to that yoke; my father disciplined you with whips, but I [will discipline you] with scorpions.'"<sup>j</sup>

<sup>12</sup>On the third day Jeroboam and all the people returned to Rehoboam as the king had appointed them, saying, "Come to me again on the third day." <sup>13</sup>But the king answered them sharply; for king Rehoboam had disregarded the advice of the old men <sup>14</sup>and instead spoke to them according to the counsel of the young men: "My father made your yoke heavy, but I will increase it; my father disciplined you with whips, but I will do so with scorpions."<sup>k</sup> <sup>15</sup>The king would not listen to the people, because the turn of events was of God, that the LORD might carry out His word which He had spoken through Ahijah of Shiloh to Jeroboam, Nebat's son.<sup>l</sup>

<sup>16</sup>As for all Israel, when the king would not listen to them, the people replied to the king, "What part do we have in David? No inheritance at all in Jesse's son! Each man to your tents, O Israel!" Now, see to your own house, David!" So all Israel left for their tents; <sup>17</sup>but as for the children of Israel who resided in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam remained king over them. <sup>18</sup>King Rehoboam sent off Hadoram,<sup>m</sup> who had charge of the labor gangs, but the people of Israel stoned him to death; so King Rehoboam hurriedly mounted his chariot to flee to Jerusalem. <sup>19</sup>In this way Israel revolted against the house of David even to this day.

930 B.C.

